All the work will be under the direct supervision of the faculty staff of the Institute Graduate School. The first resident session will be held at Rutgers University in New Jersey during the last two weeks of June, 1935. Courses will be offered in trust administration, investments, bank management and economics. Prominent bank officials and university professors will be associated in the teaching program. Banking law will be taught by government officials.

The Public Education Commission of the American Bankers Association under the chairmanship of Mr. John H. Puelicher has been investigating ways and means of carrying out this program since 1932. Resident sessions of the school will be established later on university campuses in other sections of the country.

See next week's paper for prices at Annual Shell Sale at Rockett's.

PROGRAMS

WADESONIAN

CLANTON, ALABAMA

THURSDAY, OCT. 3
Ian Hunter - Kay Johnson in "JALNA"
COMEDY—"You Gotta Be A Fotball Hero"

FRIDAY, OCT. 4
Bert Wheeler - Robert Woolsey in
"NIT WITS"
COMEDY—"Usualities"
SERIAL—Buck Jones in "Roaring West"
This Picture Will Be Shown Saturday Night at 10:00

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT, Oct 5
Tom Tyler in "SILENT VALLEY"
COMEDY—"Usualities"
SERIAL—Buck Jones in "Roaring West"
Matinee 2:00; First Show 7:00; Second Show at 8:30

MONDAY - TUESDAY, OCT. 7 and 8
Janet Gaynor in
"FARMER TAKES A WIFE"
COMEDY—"Jack's Shack"

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 9
James Cagney - Pat O'Brien in
"THE IRISH IS IN US"
COMEDY—"Oh, Evaline"

LIST OF BIRTHDAY PASSES

Clanton—H. W. Wilder, Jr., Oct. 8; Frank Calloway, Rte. 1; Oct. 9; Gertie Fiquete, Oct. 7; Elbert Mims, Oct. 5; Gertrude Blalock, Oct. 6; Mrs. Chester Mims, Oct. 3; J. S. Robinson, Oct. 6; Lillian Petty, Oct. 7; Mrs. Joe Higgins, Oct. 4; Howard Maddox, Oct. 8; Mrs. Ruth Holcombe, Oct. 6; Mae Frances Bruce, Rte. 5, Oct. 3; John C. Jones, Oct. 5; Margie Nell Jones, Oct. 8; Mae Wren Welch, Oct. 4; Jennie Edna Welch, Oct. 7; Gertie Mae Brand, Oct. 5; Mrs. M. D. Clack, Rte. 7, Oct. 5; Geraldine Payton, Rte. 7, Oct. 5; William Honeycutt, Rte. 5, Oct. 8; Mrs. E. B. Melton, Oct. 3; Mrs. Bertha Wilson, Oct. 8; Harman Donaldson, Oct. 7; J. R. Knight, Rte. 3, Oct. 9; Emmitt Parrish, Oct. 5; Bess Hayes, Oct. 9; Mabel Solomon, Oct. 6; K. A. Hardy, Oct. 4; Mrs. Edna Gore, Oct. 4; Frances Bean, Oct. 4; Jessie Mae Pierce, Oct. 4; Marvin Ellison, Oct. 5; Thorsby—Naydine Martin, Oct. 3; A. E. Reagan, Oct. 6; Mitchell Dam—Mrs. J. S. Ogletree: Verbena—Chester Mason, Oct. 4; Laura Spain, Oct. 3; Maplesville—Leila Mae Walker, Rte. 2, Oct. 9; Billingsley—Louise Comer, Oct. 6: Coopers—Bertie Lou Boswell, Oct. 8.

ADMISSION 10c and 25c

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

One statement which may be of more than passing interest to Americans was that made recently by Adolph Hitler, the German autocratic ruler, in a speech at Nurnburg, to the effect that democracy is domed. "If other states have not yet decayed," Der Fuehrer is quoted as saying, "the fact that they rest on democracy does not prove our authority and principle wrong, but rather that history processes take time."

It may seem at first thought that there is some weight in what the German ruler was saying. Less than twenty years ago we fought a good fight on the assumption that we were helping to save the world for democracy. Yet in this year of 1935, autocracy seems more firmly entrenched in the saddle than it was before the war. Most of the world's headlines are being grabbed by men like Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin and their kind. In fact the first mentioned autocrat, as this is being written, seems to be threatening to push Europe off balance into what might turn out to be general warfare. Even in America there are fears that we may be getting ready to substitute something like centralized bureaucratic government at Washington for our traditional representative democracy.

Yet the statement of Hitler deserves more than cursory examination. Perhaps the plight of democracy is not quite so bad as it seems. While autocracy is looming big in Europe at this time, it is to be remembered that in at least two prominent instances, Germany and Italy, the fate of the autocratic government seems to rest pretty largely on the life and fortune of one man. If Hitler and Mussolini were to fall there is no telling what might happen. In Russia, autocracy depends on the will of one man and a well organized party which is very much in the minority. Then, too, there is apt to be an upset which might entirely change the type of government. On the other hand, some of the democracies left in Europe, especially the smaller ones which, figuratively speaking, remain at home and mind their own business, seem to be getting along fairly well without any pomp or streamer headlines Switzerland is an excellent example. Even in Great Britian—and John Bull is usually referred to as a typical example of democracy in Europe—there has been economic improvement, despite the fact that the war clouds have now settled thickly. And in the United States, too, there is no reason to be without hope. It is true that bureaucracy has flourished at Washington and that we have launched some experiments which seem somewhat to resemble many of the things which have been tried out in Europe by nondemocratic governments. But let us remember that never has there been more interest and more discussion of democracy than at present. Our democracy rests on our national Constitution with its checks and balances and never was Constitution Day more generally remembered than it was this year. The instance of prominent men of both great political parties on the same platform preaching representative government and a balanced power, is one which is not without significance. It may be that democracy has been slipping some from its moorings in America. But at the same time it is to be remembered that the people every day are becoming more "democracy conscious" and certainly this does not bear out Hitler's statement concerning the end of democratic government.

Democratic government is based on a distinct ideal—the ideal that it is better to have individual freedom and government by the people, even when some other form of control might seem for the time, more efficient. It recognizes the fact that water never rises higher than its source and that after all, a government can be no better than the people which form it. On the other hand autocracy too often rests on the power, the magnetism and the determination of one man. The people have little to say about it and when the leader disappears from the field of action there is apt to be something like chaos. It is true that the democracies of Greece and the republic of Rome have disappeared. But the autocracies of Alexander, of August Ceaser and of Napoleon have likewise vanished. Perhaps after all it is as much a question of the kind of people as of the form of government. And in recognizing the rights of people, the theory of democracy seems to be fundamentally correct.

There was quite a bit of guffawing from the bystanders on a downtown corner the other day when a prominent supporter of the New Deal asked an old fashioned man what he would do now if he had authority to run the government. The old fashioned man reported that he would enforce the Democratic platform of 1932.

So many prominent men have been killed in automobile accidents recently that some people believe that auto mechanism is being deranged from a distance by a mysterious death ray. We don't know much about the chauffeurs of these "prominent people," but the drivers around town don't need any help from a death ray to jam things up.

Park Commissioner Robert Moses of New York objected to the number and kind of relief workers that were being sent to him by General Johnson's organization. He said they were killing all the grass in the park by sitting on it so long.

Now that they are preparing to sell beer to the consumer in sealed tin containers we presume the motto of the brewers will be "I can."

THE RARE PIG

In view of the talk we are hearing about Uncle Sam's making tariff treaties with foreign countries for the purpose of increasing our exports abroad, especially the exports of our farmers, it is interesting, if not satisfactory to note that the supply of livestock now on the farms of America is the scantiest in years and that the receipt of hogs at the various major livestock markets of the country is perhaps the lightest in modern records. All of which, of course, brings the question of how our farmers are going to manage to export anything if they have nothing to export, have not enough, in fact, for domestic consumption. Perhaps the tariff treaty makers are looking far ahead—into the future when there will be no AAA to cut down the supply of farm products to the point where there can be no exports. But even that look must be full of misgivings to some—for there are many legal authorities who predict that the departmental tariff making powers are unconstitutional and will be found null and void before the livestock supply gets normal again.

Be that as it may there can be no question as to the scarcity of supplies at this time. Receipts of hogs at the major markets of the country are only about half what they were at the same time in 1934. In August the receipts were said to have been the smallest in 47 years. As a result there isn't much to do and the livestock market and packing plant employment has fallen off considerably thus adding to the problems of Mr. Hopkins.

Of course, leaders of the AAA tell us that the scanty supply is not due to the AAA program, but to the drouth last year. Which makes it rather mean of the Drovers Journal to recall the fact that just two years ago 6,000,000 pigs were being slaughtered by the government to reduce the supply, and that more than 350,000 sows lost their lives in the same federal program.

It is true of course that the price paid for hogs is much higher than it was a year ago. The trouble is that the farmers do not have many pigs to sell, while the price of grain and hay has gone down and farmers don't know what will become of all the corn, and timothy and clover this fall.

Well, you have to hand it to the AAA for one thing, anyhow. It has surely increased the price of pork chops. And it doesn't have to depend on scarcity alone to do this, either. There is the good old processing tax to count on, too.

All of which brings us back to the question of tariffs and foreign trade again. Even if the AAA scarcity program hasn't helped our farmers by providing more meat for export, it has certainly aided the alien livestock raisers. Import of farm products, including lard and meats, is said to be heavier than it has been in years. After all maybe it isn't necessary for Secretary of State Hull to figure out tariff reductions to encourage imports to the United States. The AAA has solved this import "difficulty" by helping to raise prices in the United States to where the foreign producer can scale our tariff and deliver us plenty of agricultural commodities to take the place of what the American farmer ought to be raising for the home market.

FOR NOT RAISING THINGS

The story of the man who wouldn't raise five hundred pigs and who sought financial counsel about borrowing money to engage more largely in a program of not raising pigs is by now something of a classic.

The profit of the man who didn't raise cotton has been in evidence sufficiently that more men have not raised more cotton.

And so on.

But the man who has gone into not raising things in the biggest and most profitable way seems to have been Gov. Davey of Ohio.

He went down to Washington the other day with plans for not raising a special congressional election this summer, and he came away with twenty million dollars of award for his state from the President's four billion eight hundred million fund.

This seems to set a record.

Of course, it could be explained as a coincidence, but it is an interesting coincidence at that.

Rhode Island has just had a special congressional election and its results were rather sensational. Also disquieting to Washington, Ohio has a congressional vacancy just as Rhode Island had, with the difference, however, that Ohio's vacancy applies to congressmen-at-large and the election would take in the whole State of Ohio. An election at this time would, therefore, be a referendum on what's been happening at Washington. The governor has to call the election if it is called.

That's one side of the matter. The other side is that the distribution of the new public works fund by the President, through the department of Secretary Ickes, has been rather slow. But when Gov. Davey got down there the other day they met him at the door—or at any rate so the Enquirer and New Washington reviewer says—and notified him of an allotment of 20 millions. This classified Gov. Davey as one of the best bacon bringers home in the history of Ohio.

And now it is decided—in fact it was decided almost at that moment—that Ohio shall not have an election to fill her congressional vacancy until the time of the regular national election in 1936.—Battle Creek, Mich., Enquirer and News.

$18,000,000 FOR INVESTIGATION

No doubt it will bring surging joy to the hearts of taxayers to learn that the all-wise and beneficient powers in Washington are going to spend the modest sum of $18,000,000 in making a large series of investigations and surveys. To those who hold nothing, however sacred, in respect, the term "snooping" has been made to apply to this activity. This appropriation, so dear to the heart of the professional investigator and survey maker, will be extracted from the $4,000,000,000. When the surveys are completed Washington will need more buildings to store the voluminous reports and statistics which will have been garnered throughout the nation.—Columbus State Journal.

AN INADEQUATE ANSWER

The first spear that is hurled by the fervent supporters of the New Deal at anyone who has the temerity to criticize the administration is, what would you do if you were sitting in the seat of power? This interrogation is usually put in a heated tone which implies that the critic is guilty of disloyalty to his country and a lack of sympathy for the condition which the policies are meant to correct.

The fact is that the New Dealers have received not only criticism, but plenty of constructive criticism. It has proved, however, too unpalatable and been consigned to the wastebasket and pigeonhole.

What would you do? The question, as an answer to criticism, is inadequate. It implies no one should point out dangers unless he knows a way to circumvent them; it implies also that no intelligent alternative plans have been offered to these anxious architects of the "new order."—Columbus, O., Dispatch.

MAN IN THE MOON

"LITTLE BOY BLUE"

Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn,
There's a government agent counting my corn;

Another one is lecturing my old red sow,
On the number of pigs she can raise—and how.

Pa's gone to town to see jus twhat
He can do with the old meadow lot;
Aunt Mame's in Washington dragging down pay
From the PDQ or the AAA.
My hired man quit when his work didn't please,
And got a job trimming government trees.
They'll be telling me soon, if I don't take care,
Just where I can live, and what I can wear,
How much to pay for my pants and shoes,
So this is no time for me to snooze.

Little Boy Blue must be fast asleep,
While alack and alas, I'm buried deep!

(Contributed by John Payton, Clanton, Ala., R. 2.)

THE FARMERS UNION

Efforts are being made to organize a farmers union in Chilton County. Such a union could be a very profitable one to the farmers of the county if managed and used properly. However, there are a number of pitfalls along the way which members of the union would do well to sideste.

Members of the Farmers Union might use their organization for their own good in a number of ways. They might use it in buying their fertilizers, in obtaining loans for crop production purposes, in selling farm products cooperatively, and in a number of ways. "In union there is strength," but this union strength should not be abused as it has been by other unions. Union organization for the purpose of force, to wrest from another his legitimate property is abuse of the union idea, and has become synonomous with the term "union."

The Union-Banner is in the center of a vast farm belt. We like to see farmers prosper. We like to know their desires and needs, and we like to champion their fight for right in economic circles. In this sense we are behind the farmers union 100 per cent. So long as the farmers union is a federation of farmers ,looking toward the welfare of farmers, and seeing that farmers get their just dues, we are with them to the limit.

However, knowing the age-old history of unions, especially certain labor unions, we know that there is apt to creep in a sinister motive of radicalism. The farmers union should guard against that. Union for good is an excellent idea, but if radical agitators are allowed to dictate the principles of the new union, or even later have their own radical ideas written into it, then such a union COULD become a potential menace. If affairs should come to this state, the farmers would be the ones who would suffer ultimately.

So, to make ourselves clear, we wish to go on record as backing the farmers union as long as it is a "Farmers Union," but at such time as radical ideas creep into the organization, if they do, and when radical principles are applied by it, right there is the parting of the ways for us.

A BREATHING SPELL

Just in case you are a bit tired of worrying over your troubles, and want a respite, or "breathing spell," here is a figure pun that has been sent in by Jack Nix, to provide a laugh. It has been said that "figures don't lie." Maybe they don't, but we imagine one has put them down right to get the right answer. Anyway, here's the pun, and you can form your own opinion as to whether it is right or not.

Population of the United States	124,000,000
Eligible for the Townsend plan, or other old age pension plan	50,000,000
Number of people prohibited from working under child labor laws, and those on the government pay roll	60,000,000
Unemployed	13,999,998
Total		123,999,998
Number left to produce the nation's goods		2

Jack thinks we two are the two left to produce those goods, and he was born tired, relapsed, and has never shown any sign of recovering from the malady. And I don't believe I'll ever be able to swing the job alone.

AUTO FUEL FROM FARMS

It has been the general opinion of most people that the raw supply of petroleum in the United States in inexhaustable. Perhaps one reason for this is the extensive advertising campaigns that have been and are being waged by the several oil concerns.

Recent figures given out by an oil statistics burau tells us that really the reserve supply of crude oil is only about ten billion barrels, and we use around a billion barrels every year. So, if the supply in mother earth should suddenly dry up, we should have less than 12 years' supply on hand.

Most countries of the world do not have the enormous supply that we have, and have already enacted strict measures along the line of substitution in motor fuels, looking forward to the possibility of some day having to "grow" their fuels. They have encouraged scientific research to see just what can be done toward making motor fuels from farm-grown products, and much has been accomplished. Our country has not kept step in this work, probably because of our seemingly inexhaustable supply.

Now science has proved to us, however, that a newly discovered method of alcohol mixing in motor fuel production results in a new fuel that is as quick-firing and powerful as pure gasoline, and has far less carbon deposits. There are numbers of farm products that alcohol could be made from, and it is highly probable that this mixing process may come into vogue. If it should, if there were no other good results, it would at least increase the demand for farm products that alcohol can be made from, and at the same time would lower the present prohibitive price of fuel.

Some farm organization should take a page from the book of big business, convince some concern of the possibilities of the alcohol mixture fuel, put on an extensive advertising campaign to educate the motoring public in regard to the new product, which would be far lower in price than the present fuel price, and thus open up an outlet for certain farm products. It is an idea worth investigating.—Man in the Moon.

Last year stamp taxes were paid on 125,000,000,000 cigarettes. The question now is, how many potatoes will stamp taxes be paid on next year?

TWO STATESMEN SPEAK

Constitution Day in September, 1935, seemed to have special significance to the people of the United States. From one end of the country to the other meetings were held by patriotic and thoughtful citizens to observe this momentous date in American History. At each assemblage speakers emphasized the fact that our constitution must be preserved if we are to maintain traditional democratic government in America.

The added significance was given no doubt by recent attacks on the Constitution, often coupled with criticisms of the United States Supreme Court for its constructive interpretation of our basic law. Defense of the Constitution has by no means been a partisian issue. Everywhere thoughtful men, Republicans and Democrats alike, have lifted their voices in defense of fundamental American law.

Perhaps no more significant exemplification of this fact is to be found than in the meeting at the Union League Club in Chicago where the addresses were made by two ex-governors of the United States, both men of national reputation, one of them a Republican in politics and the other a Democrat. The speakers referred to are former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, and former Governor Joseph B. Ely, of Massachusetts. Each speaker criticized so-called New Deal tendencies to move from constitutional government toward autocracy, by strengthenin conerol of the nation in Washington at the expense of the state and local governments.

Governor Ely declared that the plan for control at Washington is a "scheme which makes the federal government master of our souls. It is a complete reversal of the Jeffersonian theory of government. It creates a government engaged in bringing us all to the will of the one man who decides just how many yards of cloth shall be manufactured, how much cotton and wheat shall be raised, how many hours we shall work, what we shall be paid and how we shall spend our money." The present tendency, he predicted would develop a dictatorship with an army of snoopers, and spies, under the name of investigators, to enforce the new bureaucratic regulations.

Governor Lowden pointed out the danger of a proposed constitutional amendment to permit Washington to regulate hours and wages, industry, trade and commerce. Such an amendment, he said, would invalidate the Bill of Rights and principles of free government which have been a thousand years in developing. Continuing he said: "Under our system we have reached a higher standard of living than we have ever seen. Are we to discard the American form of government for imported philosophies old at the time and discarded as unworthy by the framers of the Constitution?"

The warning on the anti-constitutional tendencies of the times, coming from two men of opposite political faith, is in itself significant. But similar warning arose on Constitution Day from a thousand sources. Let us heed the warning before it is too late.

A DISCIPLE OF POOR RICHARD

A Benjamin Franklin Democrat is a rarity in Washington nowadays. William N. McNair, young mayor of Pittsburgh, told the Senate Finance Committee he was that sort of Democrat. The New Deal senators laughed. If the mayor from the city of steel and smoke and thrifty one-time millionaires had come clad in knee breeches, lace-cuffed coat and buckled shoes, he could scarcely have seemed funnier to them.

And Mr. McNair's expressed views sounded as quaint to the senators as his clothes would have looked had he dressed in the style of Ben Franklin's time. He believes that government can spend too much money. He believes it can make its citizens poorer by squandering. He believes it can tax business and industry to death. He believes in the freedom of private initiative and enterprise, and the distribution of wealth by the multiplying of jobs. Redistribution of wealth by government intervention he considers communism, and the New Deal method of accomplishing it looks to him like a fantastic illusion. In all of this the young Pittsburgher can discover no familiar landmarks of his party democracy. The figures of both Franklin and Jefferson are lost in the fog. What the party needs for the coming campaign, he told the guffawing New Dealers, is a Democrat on the ticket.

And while they indulged their merriment Rhode Island voted down a proposition to borrow from the federal treasury millions for public work relief. "He who goes borrowing goes sorrowing," Rhode Islanders quoted from Poor Richard. Maybe there are more Franklin Democrats in the country than the Washington New Dealers think.—Chicago Daily News.

"OLD POTATO"

First, the Boston Tea Party; then Concord Bridge.

The revolt against the outrageous potato-control bill was given in New Jersey, when Dean Carl Ackerman and some sturdy American farmer friends announced their intention of raising potatoes in the manner in which they have always been accustomed to raising them—as you please.

Now Senator James W. Wadsworth takes his stand on Concord Bridge and announces to the unconstitutionalists in control of the government:

"I intend to raise more than five bushels of potatoes next year, and I shall sell them where I please. I will not have the government tell me how to run my farm."

This has the ring of the Constitution in it!

It was Al Smith who once affectionately called Franklin D. Roosevelt "Old Potato."

Clairvoyance that is almost uncanny!—New York American.

NO LICENSE, NO LIBERTY

When you step up to the postoffice window on and after December 1, you will have to tell the accomodating clerk whether you want the sort of stamps that go on letters or parcels or whether you want stamps for Irish potatoes.

All postoffices, says the United States News, will sell the potato stamps to be attached to the tubers when they are offered for sale. If you, Mrs. Housewife, are in possession of potatoes to which no stamps have been affixed, you will be liable to a $1,000 fine and a prison sentence. You are living in a free country, you say and you may think, but are you?

This additional chore to the postmaster is another of the signs that you are being stripped of the liberty htat the New Deal says with emphasis that you are assured. Liberty seems to be licensed nowadays—no license, no liberty.—Charleston News and Courier.

When Premier Laval of France ran out on Mussolini at Geneve the other day it indicated that in the international poker game being played there it was from now on Duce's wild.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of September 29, 1910

The man killed at Mt. Creek has been identified as A. F. McEwen of Birmingham. No Clue as to the guilty party has been found.

The county fair comes off October 4 to 8, at Clanton.

Misses Minnie and Knowlton Marcus from Jumbo are visiting in Clanton this week.

Mr. Dock Teel and brother, Rich, of Weogufka, were called to the death-bed of their sister, Mrs. May Ayers, who died Friday.

Judge Reynolds has returned from French Lick Srings, Indiana.

Jonathan Rice was elected Mayor of Thorsby last week, getting one vote more than J. R. Parnell.

Cotton is selling today in Clanton at 13⅛ cents a pound.

Rev. E. W. Butler of Thorsby was in Clanton on business Saturday.

Mr. Harry Gordon is back home in Clanton after a visit in Mobile and Meridian.

THEY VOTED POTATO CONTROL

Here they are home again, our congressmen, the luxory seven: Harry P. Beam, Edward A. Kelley, Leo Kociakowski, James McAndrews, Raymond S. McKeough, Thomas J. O'Brien, Adolph J. Sabath. These statesmen love the poor. They love the poor so well that they would spare them the humiliation of buying cheap food. They voted for snoop and snitch in the back yards and truck gardens of the nation. They voted to ennoble the lowly spud, give it a guard of honor from the Department of Agriculture, adorn it with green bond stamps and jack it up to a skyscraper price level. Let the echo of their names go ringing down the corriders of time in every clank of the cash register in a cash-and-carry. Their brave attempt to lift the plebian potato into the peerage of luxury may yet be commemorated in every Chicago grocery bill.—Chicago Daily News.

UNQUESTIONABLY

After waiting ten years for a husband who stepped out for beer, a Chicago wife asks divorce. One who can't find beer in Chicago in ten years is, of course, legally dead. —Detroit News.

The Soviet government can send to Siberia a man who dares lift his voice against communism or get him executed. But, strange to say, it is powerless to stop in Moscow the activities of any man, Russian or alien, who openly plots the overthrow of the United States government. Where do they get that kind of baloney?

When you think it might be a fine thing for the government to operate the railroads and other utilities, don't forget that the politicians operate the government and it has yet to be proved that politicians, as a class, are more efficient or more honest operators than business men as a class.

Eddie Cantor used to sing a song about "Potatoes are cheaper, now's the time to fall in love." Those contemplating the commission of matrimony ought to be warned that now IS the time. After December, when the new government regulations go into effect, potatoes will no longer be cheaper.

PERIL AHEAD

We must learn to be more careful with our money. The government is trying to make the silver dollar bill more attractive, and that means more people will try to get it away from us.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A typical American is a man who works this month to earn the money he spent two months ago.—Hartford Times.

We are in favor of an AAA restrictive regimentation which will reduce the number of pet goldfish by one-third.

The cranberry crop is said to be below what it was in 1934. But it is to be strictly understood that the AAA had nothing to do with it.

We certainly think a lot more of Haile Selassie since he made his radio speech. He didn't even mention soap or face powder.

We can expect booms and panics in the future so long as we regularly produce a crop of suckers to buy stock and real estate on hair-line margin.

OUR FEDERAL PAYROLL

With the addition of more than twelve thousand new civilian employees to the federal payroll in July, monthly disbursments above $111,000,000. The increase in civil servants resulted in an additional expense of more than twenty-one million dollars, figured on an annual basis.

Bringing the total to 729,769 civilian employes alone, the July additions must be regarded as further conformation of a fact that hardly needs corroborative evidence, namely, that Mr. Roosevelt's 1932 campaign promise to curb federal bureaucracy and one means of achieving his pledged economy has been consigned to the political scrap heap. —Providence Journal.

The day of benches on the sidewalk in front of business places is gone. But it has not been as bad for the loafers as you might think. The fender of a parked car is an excellent substitute, except that it doesn't whittle quite as good as the pine bench did.—Stafford, Kansas, Courier.

It is said that in Albania, at a wedding, the bride is carried to the altar by her father or closest male relative. They don't do that in the United States but lots of times some of the party have to be carried away from the wedding.

We are told that it took the rulers of Egypt many centuries to have the pyramids constructed. No wonder! It was a federal job.

When Secretary of State Hull complained to Stalin that Russia wasn't keeping the promises it made about ceasing propoganda against America, Mr. Stalin gave him that popular but apparently effective answer: "So what?"

It won't be long now until nearly all American children will be born in hospitals. And this will just about eliminate the log cabin candidate.

POOR O

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF ORGANIZED AGRICULTURE

1923—Organized farmers asked for equal privilege legislation to control surpluses and make the tariff effective on Amerian farm products consumed at home. Bitter opposition developed. Cities feared higher priced food. Many said, "This legislation can never be passed."

1924—First McNaury-Haugen bill to control farm supplies is introduced in congress. Defeated.

1926—Second McNaury-Haugen bill introduced. Secured strong support but was lost.

1927—McNaury-Haugen bill passed by Congress. Vetoed by President.

1928—McNaury-Haugen bill passed by Congress the second time. Vetoed by President.

1929 — Surplus problem remained. Became national issue. Organized farmers contended that unless farm prices were raised, all industry and national prosperity in America would be udermined.

1930—Beginning of deflation and depression.

1932—Surplus problem still unsolved. Every industry in America suffering from destroying farm buying power due to national neglect of the agricultural problem. Farmers continue fight for surplus legislation and opportunityto own, coutrol, and direct farm credit machinery. Demanded commodity dollar.

1933—Agricultural Adjustment Act passed by Congress authorizing: (1) Parity prices for farm products; (2) Extenson of credit machinery and $2,000,0000,000 to refinance farm mortgages on long-time basis at a low rate of interest; (3) Far-reaching monetary powers given President to inflate credit and currency and establish commodity dollar. The program of organized agriculture all in one act.

1934—Amendments of farmers greatly ncreased ass r utlfoon rrgpmeetaet ly increased as result of the program. The first figure is for 1932, the second is for 1933 and the third is for 1934. Chilton County Farm Income $490,157.99, $959,19473, $1,094,642.68; Alabama farm income $37,402,000.00, $71,037,898.90, $84,672,685.00; United States Farm Income $483,887,000.00, $893,898,289.96, 881,238,272.67.

1935—Amendments to Agricultural Adjustment Act passed. These amendments strengthen, clarify and improve farmers law.

In brief, above is the story of the fight waged by the Farm Bureau and other farm organizations for equality for agriulture. The fight is not over. The big task—that of preserving a great program is ahead. There are other things to be done. Join the Farm Bureau and help.

PEACH TREE DISEASE CONTROL

The Alabama State Department of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture are cooperating in the project of helping control peach tree diseases.

The farmers who have old diseased peach trees and would like to have them taken up and destroyed should make application for this work either to the County Agent or Mr. A. J. Lecroy, Maplesville, Ala., Rte. 1.

Disease has become so prevalent in this area that it is very difficult to produce good fruit. We believe that if all the old diseased trees were destroyed that we would have much less trouble with peach diseases and insects.

This work is being paid for by the State and National Department of Agriculture. It will be free to the farmers.

FARMERS MAY SECURE HELP TO PREVENT SOIL EROSION

Last December the county purchased a tractor terracer outfit. We terraced about 500 acres of land during the spring months. It was impossible to get to all of you.

During the summer we were successful in getting a soil erosion camp in the county with 200 boys for the purpose of helping with the terracing program.

A farmer may secure help from these boys on gully control, terrace outlet building, planting kudzu, and other forms of soil erosion control work. The labor of these boys will be free to the farmer.

It will be necesary for the farmer to build the terraces either with his mule or with the power equipment, then the boys complete the job. The farmer wil also be asked to furnish, without cost, any materials, such as rock, sand and poles that are on his farm that will be needed in the work.

It will be impossible to give you a complete job of terracing for less cost per acre than we built th terrace banks last year. The average cost in the county last year was less than $1.50 per acre where the power terracer was used.

NOTICE

Dr. T. T. Taylor of Birmingham, Ala., at Langston Drug Co., Jemison, Ala., Thursday, October 24th, Examining eyes and fitting glasses. At Maplesville Drug Co., Maplesville, Ala., Friday, October 25. Satisfaction guaranteed.

666 checks MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day

Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops TONIC and LAXATIVE

Help Kidneys

- If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (Sis-tex) —Must fix you up or money back. Only 75¢ at druggists.

Cystex

POLK'S Bargain List

1935—DeLuxe Plymouth 2-Door Demonstrator. Low Mileage. New Car Warranty. Liberal Discount

1933—Chevrolet Master Sedan. Low Mileage. New Paint. Clean as a pin and runs Like new $425

1930—Chevrolet Sedan. Had Exceptional Good care. Special Bargain for $225

1928—Studebaker Coupe. Good tires. A good, clean, Good running Car and worth twice The price of ..... $ 75

1929—Chrysler Six Cutdown A Dandy ..... $ 65

Dodge Truck with Cab Good Tires $115

One—2-Horse Wagon Special Price ..... $ 10

One—Avery Reversable Disk Plow ..... $ 15

One Servel Refrigerator. Seven-Foot box New paint. 12 months warranty, only $ 85

Four—Used Electric Radios, priced ..... $8.00 to $17.50

We want to buy your cotton. We will give highest market price and allow full credit for better grades and Staple Lengths.

Just received carload WEBER WAGONS, which are priced very reasonable. There is none better than the WEBER WAGON.

POLK BROS. MOTOR CO. Inc.

CHRYSLER — PLYMOUTH — INTERNATIONAL

Clanton, Alabama

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 6

ISAIAH PORTRAYING THE SUFFERING SERVANT

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 53:1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT—But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. Isaiah 53:5.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Best Promise.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Isaiah Foretells Jesus' Coming.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Our Salvation Cost.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Suffering Savior.

The prophecy of Isaiah is the grand center of the Old Testament. It pictures the Servant of Jehovah with great wisdom gloriously executing the divine purpose of redemption at the cost of great suffering.

I. The Servant's Triumph (Is. 52:13-15). The Servant here means the coming Messiah (42:1).

1. His wisdom (v. 13). He will deal prudently, for his name is Counsellor (9:6). He was filled with the spirit of wisdom and understanding (11:2).

2. He shall be exalted and extolled (v. 13). Being the mighty God, even Immanuel, Jehovah has highly exalted him (Phil. 2:9).

3. The appearance of the Servant (v. 14). Because of his marred visage, the Jews, who looked for outward signs of royalty and worldly splendor, were not attracted to him.

4. The issue of his ministry (v. 15). In his sprinkling of many nations he is revealed as the great High Priest, sprinkling the nations with his blood and cleansing them from their sins.

II. The Servant Despised and Rejected (53:1-3).

1. The unbelief of the Jews (v. 1). They despised the words of the prophet and failed to recognize the hand of the Lord in the miracles he wrought.

2. The origin of the Servant (v. 2). He sprang out of a stump of Judiasm The sad condition of the people at that time is expressed by "dry corn." He came among his own and they apprehended him not.

3. A man of sorrows (v. 3). As the Sin-bearer of the world he suffered untold sorrows. The primary cause of his grief was their contemptuous rejection of him.

III. The Vicarious Suffering of the Servant (53:4-6).

1. His griefs and sorrows were ours. Though innocent, he was loaded down with disease and pain; not his, but ours. This awful suffering was looked upon by the world as occasioned by sin.

2. He was beaten for us (v. 5). That which was our due was meted out to him. Notice the four significant words; "wounded," "bruised," "despised," "stripes." The word "our" shows that his sufferings were vicarious. The full meaning of the cross is comprehended in these words.

3. The reason (v. 6). All humanity, Jews and Gentiles, had gone astray. God had laid on him the iniquity of us all.

IV. The Death of the Servant (53:7-9).

1. His strange silence (v. 7). He went as a lamb to the slaughter. How unlike men who, when wrongfully condemned, make a great ado.

2. Unconcern of contemporaries (v. 8). Though dying instead of the wicked people, they failed to discern that his suffering was in their stead.

3. Buried with the wicked and the rich. This was fulfilled in the crucifixion between two thieves, and burial in Joseph's tomb.

V. The Servant's Ultimate Victory (vv. 10-12).

1. His suffering expressed the divine will (v. 10). The Lord himself laid this burden upon Christ. He was delivered according to the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God.

2. A spiritual progeny resulted from his death (v. 10). Christ declared, "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone." The fundamental law of the universe, which is life out of death, found supreme expression in Christ's death on the cross.

3. Through death shall come the realization of his fondest hope (v. 11). "He shall see the travail of his soul and shall be satisfied."

4. The divine reward (v. 12). The divine Conqueror shall share the spoils of victory which by a strong arm were secured. Though he took the place of a sinner, it was for the purpose of bearing the sins of many and making intercession for the transgressor.

VI. The Servant's Suffering Historically Fulfilled (John 19:17-37).

When Jesus of Nazareth went forth bearing his cross to Golgotha, where they crucified him, the prediction of Isaiah was historically realized.

Thought

In the end, thought rules the world There are times when impulses and passions are more powerful, but they soon expend themselves; while mind, acting constantly, is ever ready to drive them back and work when their energy is exhausted.

Influence

The ministry of personal influence is something very wonderful. Without being conscious of it, we are always impressing others by this strange power that goes out from us.—Huck Miller.

Mr. Firman Gore, of Ashland, Ala. spent the week end here with relatives and friends.

South Clanton Specials

R. L. LOWE invites you to do your trading at South Clanton, where he is "Prepared to furnish you with High Grade Merchandise at All Times. You can always find what you want, and the prices are MOST REASONABLE. We are your friends to the last."

You Can't Go Wrong on These Bargains

CORN FLAKES, 3 pkgs 25c

2 CANS FOR — DIME BRAND MILK .. 25c

1-LB BOX — A-1 CRACKERS 10c

TALL CANS — CHUM SALMON, each 10c

MACKEREL STYLE — SALMON, 3 tall cans 25c

2 TALL CANS — PINK SALMON, for 25c

WHITE FISH, 6-lb Kit .. 90c

We have all kinds of RIFLES, SHOT GUNS, SHELLS and CARTRIDGES. See us before you buy and SAVE MONEY.

Now Is the Time to Plant Vetch and Peas

MIXED VETCH, Pound 9c

AUSTRIAN PEAS, Pound 5¾c

ABRUZZI RYE, Peck 50c

Flour and Feed Bargains

24 LBS PLAIN — GOLD FLAKE $1.00

24-lbs Self-Rising $1.05

SHORTS, White Tulip $2.00

24 PER CENT — DAIRY FEED, Jazz ... $2.15

16 PER CENT — WHITE CLOVER $1.60

PURITY — SCRATCH FEED $2.25

HIGH LIFE — LAYING MASH $2.75

We Are Prepared to Serve You With All Feeds

R. W. LOWE

SOUTH CLANTON

"MISS BLUE BONNETT" TO BE PRESENTED AT JEMISON

The P.-T. A. has chosen for their benefit entertainment this season a very popular local talent, three-act musical comedy, "Miss Blue Bonnet." It will be presented on Friday evening, October 4th, at the high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Miss Helen Alexander of the Sewell staff of directors of Atlanta, Ga., is here this week coaching the play.

All those who enjoy such entertainment will be delighted to know about this roduction. "Miss Blue Bonnet" has everything it takes to make a good show, including snappy costumes and witty lines and popular and prominent people in a very intriguing plot.

The entire cast includes over fifty local people. Small chidiren will play in the opening chorus as little patients and doctors. Others as froggies which cause roars of laughter. High school girls will dance and sing.

The Cast

Ma Evans, the doctor's wife, Mrs. T. S. Ward; Pa Evans, country doctor, R. B. Johnson; Magnolia, old maid daughter, Nelle Traywick; Burton Hills, hero of the play, Cecil Ellison; Hickory Stout, a country codger, Bob Reynolds; Blue Bonnett, leading lady, Mrs. R. B. Johnson; Minerva, who is hard of hearing, Mary Clemments; Johnie Bell, Magnolia's married sister, Florene Ellison; Una Bell, Johnie Bell's daughter, very silly, Juanita Allen; Kate Bell, an old maid, Ruth Reynolds; Susie, another old maid, Frances Glasscock; Sally, a friend of Magnolia, Imogene Edwards; Wes Evans, younger brother of Magnolia, Lewis Kellum; Thad Perry, friend of Wes, Morgan Adams

Chorus Girls

"Just Believe in Me."—Mary Lane Cobb, Jewell Smith, Sarah Gibson, Mary Nell Smith, Agnes Bean, Antionette Traywick, Margaret Robinson, Murle Killingsworth.

"Rainy Days.—Juanita Allen, Frances Glasscock, Margaret Robinson, Jadie Belle Lowery, Lucile Traywick, Marion Adams, Margie Reynolds, Myrtle Lou Crim.

"Blue Bonnett."—Juanita Maddox, Juanita Allen, Jadie Bell Lowery, Elizabeth Bald, Frankie Earl Langston, Mildred Little, Doris Guy, Emogene Edwards.

"Red Bird."—Frances Glasscock, Ruth Stockdale, Lucile Traywick, Marion Adams, Margaret Smith, Sue Littleton, Marie Benson, Myrtle Lou Crim.

"Frog Chorus."—Ruth Glasscock, Wilma Sundberg, Lucile Beasley, Voncile Carroll, Virginia Robinson, Vernelle Glass, Ethel Reliford, Alma McGraw.

"Doctor Chorus."—John Rogers, Winfred Vinzant, Greer Sims, Clyde, Jr. Mathew, S. H. McNeill, George Daniel, Shirley Rogers, James Sorrell.

Better plan to attend "Miss Blue Bonnett" and spend an evening of real entertainment on Friday evening, October 4th. School Auditorium, at 8:00 p.m. Admission: adults, 25c, children 15c.

FARMERS ARE RECEIVING BETTER PLANTING SEED

Monegomery, Ala.—Farmers throughghout Alabama are receiving a more superior grade of planting seed this year than ever before, says R. J. Goode, Commissioner of Agriculture, in reporting that the state seed testing labratory is finding fewer obnoxious weed seed than at any time during the history of seed testing work.

Commissioner Goode also states that in most cases the analysis tag on the seed carries the correct information about purity and germination. Shippers formerly had an idea that seed must test 98 per cent purity and 90 per cent germination to be sold, he said. "In many cases these figures were placed on the tags without regard for their correctness. It is now an exception to the former rule to find mislabeled seed on the market."

THREE REASONS FOR PAINTING FARM HOME

Auburn, Ala.,—Three reasons why farmers should paint their farm buildings are: (1) They last much longer; (2) look better, and (3) are more sanitary.

In addition a painted farm structure indicates pride, progress, and thrift on the part of the owner, says A. Carnes, assistant Professor of Agricultural engineering at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, in advocating that farmers paint their farm buildings as soon as farm labor is not needed in the fields.

"To get a good job," he says, "the surface must be clean and dry. If the painting is to be done on new lumber no cleaning will be necessary except a slight brushing to remove adhering particles of grit or if surface is old and weather beaten all loose particles should be removed with a scraper or wire brush down to the firm wood.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes, Mrs. Julius Burnette and Mr. Omar Reynolds motored to Montgomery Thursday to see Mrs. James Wade, who is all at St. Margaret's Hospital.

Get a Free cup of Dixie Club Coffee at Matt's Cafe from 7 to 11 and from 2 to 5, Friday, October 4th.

COTTON FOR HOUSEHOLD USE EXEMPT FROM TAX

Auburn, Ala.—Cotton producers may have 110 pounds of lint cotton ginned for domestic use in their households without payment of the cotton ginning tax. This 110 pounds of cotton is to be used only in the producer's household and is in addition to the producer's allotment of cotton under the Bankhead Act, says the Agricultural Adjustment administration.

Producers who desire to avail themselves of this exemption should hold back from the gin enough seed cotton to produce the lint which they desire to use in their household and secure from the County Agent an application form for exemption before taking such seed cotton to the gin.

COTTON CROP VALUE MORE THAN DOUBLED

Auburn, Ala.,—Alabama cotton farmers received two and one-third times as much for their 1934 cotton crop as they did for the crop in 1932, the year before the AAA program started.

Statistics released by Dr. L. N. Duncan, director of the State Extension Service, reveal that the total farm value of lint and seed produced in Alabama in 1932 was only $37-402,000 compared with a total value of $84,672,686 in 1934.

While the Alabama crop was more than doubling, the value of the cotton crop in the South increased from $483,887,000 in 1932 to $881,238,272.67 in 1934.

HIGHLAND NEWS

Our Sunday school is still progressing nicely. We had a good lesson last Sunday and still have one for next Sunday. Everyone has new literature and let's all strive to study our lessons more and cooperate with our teachers and try to make the next six months the best we have eve had. It takes cooperation with the teachers and pupils to have a good Sunday school, and lets everyone do our best.

Everyone come back to Sunday schol next Sunday and bring some one with you. If you are not in a Sunday school at some place come to Highland. You are more than welcome.

Miss Ruth Pardue, Miss Nellie Fuller and Mr. Howard Mahalfee attended the Auburn-Southern football game Friday night in Montgomery.

See next week's paper for prices at Annual Shell Sale at Rockett's.

RIGINAL

SALE ON
MEN'S HATS
Men's Snappy Wool FELT HATS $1.50
All Sizes and Colors

Men's Newest Styles and Shape Hats. In beautiful Fall colors of Tokoy, Brown, Snowflake Brown, Snowflake Gray, Snowflake Black and Aluminum Gray.
$1.98
Men's Genuine Fur Felt Hats Wide brims in Brown and Black and Tan $2.25
The DOLLAR STORE
CLANTON

WANTED
Blackgum & Oak Ties
We can take care of 1,000 per Month until further notice. Size 7 x 9 - 8½ feet long and 7 x 8 - 8½ feet long.
Moore & Teel
Clanton, Ala.

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.
Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

WANTED—2 rooms, downstairs, with board, in residence district, close in, private bath preferred.—Call Union-Banner office. 1tch.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Allred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

STALLION FOR SERVICE—All-purpose horse; weight 1,250 pounds; dark bay color; works to any farm machinery; fair under saddle. Fee $10. See me for special appointments for community groups; regular service at my place 1 mile east of Clanton.—W. L. Parrish, Clanton, Ala. 9-12-4tpd.

WANTED PEANUTS—The Union-Banner will trade a subscription or two for some good, clean peanuts. The market price, or better, will be allowed.

FOR SALE—One new motor boat suitable for automobile motor. Is 20 feet long. Will sell for $25 cash—W. U. Headley, Clanton, Ala., Rte. 5, Mims Ferry. 9-26-3tpd.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—One or all of my 35 herd milch cows.—Sam Wilson, Clanton Route 4. 9-26-3tp

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT BILLINGSLEY SCHOOL

There will be a Fiddlers Convention at Billingsley High School Saturday night, October 5th at 7:30 p.m.

All fiddlers and guitar players are invited to come. Liberal prizes for the winners. Admission 10 cents and 15 cents.

COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION HERE FIRST SUNDAY OCTOBER

Prof. O. L. DeVaughn, chairman of the Chilton County Singing Convention, announces that the fall session of the convention will meet at the courthouse the first Sunday in October and Saturday night before. The night session will begin at 7:30 o'clock and the Sunday session will begin at 10:00 o'clock. The help and co-operation of all the singers of the county is solicited.

A number of prominent out-of-the-county singers and quartets have been invited, and it is expected that this will be one of the best singings ever held in this part of the State. The night session this spring was exceptionally good, and it is hoped that the same will be the case this time. Everybody remember the date and don't arrange to go any other place.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Four prominent citizens of Madison County, whose ages ranged from 72 to 85, died in one day recently.

Daylight saving time will not be adopted at the State Capitol, although Montgomery now is operating under this time.

Mrs Bernard Harwood, 68, member of a widely-known Tuscaloosa family, died at her home after an illness of two months.

A small chicken bone that lodged in the throat of Arthur Powers, 50, lumberman, of Selma, caused his death 12 days later.

Ray Allen, Birmingham, was named state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, at their annual encampment in Tuscaloosa.

Flora Irby, Negro, is dead at the reputed age of 117. She died at her home near Orrville, Dallas County following a week's illness.

A second dividend of 33 1-3 per cent is now available to the depositors who have proved their claims in the insolvent First National Bank in Bessemer.

Mrs. James Fitts Hill, Montgomery, was elected president of the Alabama Parents-Teachers Association at the state congress held in Montgomery recently.

Eighteen alumnae groups of Alabama College have formally endorsed Dean T. H. Napier to succeed Dr. O. C Carmichael as president of Alabama College.

Rabid dogs are appearing at such a rate in Alabama as to demand serious consideration by the Legislature, Dr. J. N. Baker, state health officer, said.

A new $40,000 dormitory to relieve congested conditions at the Alabama Boys Industrial School is under construction on the school's grounds at Roebuck Springs.

R. F. Hudson, for many years a minority stockholder in The Montgomery Advertiser, the capital's morning newspaper, is now in complete control of the paper.

The demand of the times for college-trained social workers has prompted the University of Alabama to offer full courses in social work in the Summer session, beginning June 10.

Mason Martin, North Birmingham merchant and charter member of the North Birmingham Merchants and Business Men's Association, has been elected president of that organization.

Probate Judge A. L. Hasty of Marengo County has withdrawn from the run-off race for Congressman from the First Alabama District, leaving a clear field for Frank Boykin of Mobile.

Winfred Barton, who lives six miles east of Jasper, has been chosen one of the two boys who will represent Alabama 4-H Clubs at the National 4-H Club meet at Washington, June 13-19.

Within 15 hours after he was caught for alleged breaking into the Evans grocery, Anniston, Carl Porter, Birmingham, was indicted by the Calhoun County Grand Jury on a charge of burglary.

Approximately 200 employes of the pressure pipe plant of the Central Foundry Company at Holt walked out on strike after a reported disagreement over the condition of sand used in the moulds.

The task of raising $7,000 to maintain the Tennessee Valley Council of Boy Scouts during the next year is under way in Florence, Tuscumbia the TVA reservations, Huntsville, Decatur and Athens.

Jefferson County's delegation in the House deferred a vote on the Connor city manager bill and other measures affecting the City of Birmingham until officials of the city could be given a hearing.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines office Birmingham, was preparing for increased activities with the announcement in Washington that its national appropriation had been increased $600,000 for the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

The State Textbook Purchasing Board has under "serious consideration" a proposal to eliminate commercial textbook depositories and place the distribution of the books in the hands of a State Board of Administration.

Telling a Montgomery County Grand Jury he was reasonably certain that "liquor is being sold openly in the city," Judge Eugene W. Carter charged the jurors in Circuit Court "to particularly direct your attention to gaming and violation of the prohibition laws."

FARM FOR SALE—58 acres, 2 good dwellings, good barns, plenty water, good pasture, 40 acres in cultivation. Four miles south of Clanton on Wilson-Askins Road.—J. S. Davis, Clanton Rte. 2. 10-3-3tp

RADIO FOR SALE—Cabinet, 9-tube electric, Jesse French, will sell cheap.—Apply to Mrs. D. H. Arant, Clanton, Ala. 1tp.

FOR SALE—One grey horse, weight 1,100 pounds, age 14 years. Price $75.—O. A. Jones, Route 1, On Joe Wesson Place. 1tp.

LOST PUPPY—Small white Spitz 3 months old, last seen Tuesday on north Sixth Street. Finder please return to Mrs. Curry D. Thomas and get reward. 1tp.

FARM FOR SALE—80-acre farm on the Lay Dam Road 4½ miles. Apply at The Union-Banner office. 1tpd.

FARM FOR SALE—30 acres, 20 in cultivation, fairly good house, one-fourth mile off cement road, four miles south of Clanton. Priced $1,100.—Lawton McDowell, Clanton, Route 2. 1tpd.

SEPTEMBER MARRIAGES

The office of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County issued 23 marriage licenses during the month of September; 18 of them were for white people, and five for colored. Following are the names of people for which licenses were issued:

Woodrow Earle Duke and Miss Victoria Durham.

Simpson Faulkner and Miss Polly Glover.

Herbert E. Nichols and Miss Ula Inez Patrick.

Enoch Edward Plier and Miss Ruth Rhodes.

Elijah Houston Robinson and Miss Mildred Erline Jones.

Stacey Lowery and Miss Irene Ray.

A. W. Brackin and Miss Beatrice Kimbrell.

Benson Grainger and Miss Lillian Turner.

Jerry Herbert Green and Miss Cordelia Easteburn.

William E. DeLay and Miss Louise Irby.

Fonza Hathcock and Miss Louise Hicks.

Ollie Edward Blalock and Miss Martha Johnson.

Winfred Cleckler and Miss Agnes Scarbrough.

Thomas J. Brackin and Miss Flossie Burnette.

T. K. Singleton and Miss Mary Simpson.

Carlton Cleckler and Miss Myrtle Cleckler.

Charles Edgar Sawyer and Miss Ouida Key.

John W. Daniel and Miss Lucile Driver.

Colored

John Lee Jackson and Gertrude Dooley.

Russell Vinson and Enola Tinsley.

U. B. Beckett and Dettie Clayton.

Richard Taylor and Genie Kinnebrew.

Jesse Anderson and Lucile Shephard.

FOR TRADE—A Model A Ford in first class shape. Will trade for a good mule.—J. H. Anderson, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 2. 1tp.

FOR SALE—1929 Hudson Super-Six 4-door Sedan in A-1 condition for sale or will trade for mule or horse.—A. L. Wampem, Thorsby, Alabama. 10-1-3tpd.

NOTICE!

To whom it may concern: I will not be responsible for any account charged to me by any one.
1tp. —J. M. POPWELL.

M. A. CAUDLE HAS BROKEN LEG

Mr. M. A. Caudle of Clanton Route 5 is suffering from a broken leg. Mr. Caudle suffered his injury about two weeks ago when a team of mules backed his wagon off a fill, overturning the wagon and spilling Mr. Caudle down a steep bank. He is improving slowly.

FOR SALE—Farm for sale, 45 acres. 4-room house and good well of water and barn. One mile north of Collins Chapel church. Price $1,200.—J. W. Caton, Jemison Rte. 2 10-3-2p

CHRYSLER DEALERS DELIVERIES FOR 1935 TOTAL 144,923 UNITS

In the 36 weeks of the current year, including September 7, Chrysler dealers delivered at retail a total of 112,938 Plymouths and 31,985 Chryslers, a grand total of 144,923 units, according to figures released by J. W. Frazer, vice president of the Chrysler Sales Division of the Chrysler Corporation.

These figures are far ahead of those for the three preceding years. Plymouth deliveries exceed by 26.4 per cent the 89,374 units delivered in the corresponding 36 weeks of 1934, by 78.4 per cent the 63,289 units in the same period of 1932.

Chrysler gains 72.2 per cent over the 18,578 units delivered in the corresponding period of 1934, 58.5 per cent over the 20,182 units delivered in the corresponding period of 1933 and 59.9 per cent over the 19,997 delivered in the first 36 weeks of 1932.

The overall picture shows gains for the combined lines of 34.2 per cent over the 107,952 units delivered in the first 36 weeks of 1934, of 83.6 per cent over the 83,471 units delivered in the same period of 1933 and 179.1 per cent over the 51,823 units delivered in the same period of 1932.

In the week ending September 7, retail deliveries reported by Chrysler dealers were 1,950 Plymouths and 541 Chryslers, or a grand total of 2,491 units.

THE FARM BUREAU STANDS FOR

1.—The Agricultural Adjustment Act, the processing tax as a tariff for agriculture, and the Bankhead cotton Control Act.

2.—Equal and adequate educational opportunities for farm boys and girls.

3.—Ample support for experimental work in agriculture, for the work of county and home demonstration agents, and the teaching of vocational agriculture in high schools.

4.—The Tennessee Valley Authority, rural electrification with rates in reach of farm people, and the production of fertilizer at Muscle Shoals.

5.—Cotinuance and expansion of soil erosion, land planning, and conservation.

6.—An honest currency system.

7.—An adequate cooperative credit system desiged to serve agriculture.

8.—Improvement of the quality of cotton.

9.—A fair and equitable system of taxation, based on the ability to pay.

10.—The development of cooperative business services by and for farmers.

Matt's Cafe is serving Dixie Club Coffee Free on Friday, October 4th, from 7 to 11 and from 2 to 5.

SHELL SERVICE STATION UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Last Tuesday morning the Shell Service Station opened under new management. Mr. Will G. Culp, former Tax Collector, is the new manager.

Mr. Culp has hundreds of warm friends all over Chilton County, and he invites them to visit him in his new enterprise. Mr. Culp says he intends to teach his customers a new meaning for the word "service".

Mr. Culp will have with him Mr. Herschel Gore and Mr. Jack Armstrong, formerly with Dief's Service Station, two of the best trained filling station operators in Clanton. Mr. Gore has been in the business over six years, and Mr. Armstrong over two years. Both of these men know the filling station business from A to Z.

We are informed that extensive improvements are to be made in the station at an early date, to provide adequate facilities to care for all the motorist's needs.

The station is now equipped to give expert service in washing, polishing, greasing, crank case service, and the sale of Super-Shell gasoline and the full line of Shell oils and greases. One of the best grease gun sets in the city has been installed here, also.

Mr. Culp expects to put in a full line of one of the best known and most dependable brands of tires and tubes on the market, this addition to be made within the next few days.

Mr. Culp says: "Trade with me and I will teach you a new meaning of the word 'service'. All we want is for you to come to see us—give us a trial—let us fill your tank or crank case, or grease your car or wash it. We'll get along well together after that one first trial. Stop with us—it will do both of us good".

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OCTOBER 4 & 5
Clanton CASH Store
WE DELIVER BLUE FRONT STORES PHONE 154
Peoples CASH Store
THORSBY Cash STORE

FOOD NEWS!

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE
BEEF ROAST, Lb 12½c
PORK ROAST, Lb 22c
PURE — PORK SAUSAGE lb 25c
Full Cream — CHEESE, Lb 20c
MEADOW GROWN — CHEESE, Lb 22c
MIXED — SAUSAGE, Lb 18c
KIT FISH, 6-Lb Pail 90c
SALT — MACKEREL, 2 for 15c

FLOUR SPECIALS
(Plain or S. R.)
24Lb SACK, 1 GLASS FREE Postel Elegant $1.20
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose $1.05
24-LB SACK—POLLY RICH or LITE RIZE $1.05
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL 95c
24-Lb SACK — Postel PILLAR $1
48-LB SACK — White Water Rose $2.05
24-LB SACK — MILADY 90c
48-LB SACK — MILADY $1.75
12-LB SACK — MILADY 50c
Ask for Glasses FREE with Elegant Flour

SUGAR
10 Lbs 55c

SHORTENING LARD
1-LB CARTON — SCOCO 15c
4-LB CARTON — SCOCO 55c
8-LB CARTON — SCOCO $1.08

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 17c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

TOMATO JUICE CAMPBELLS
14-oz CAN, 2 for 15c
10-oz CAN, 5 for 25c
STOKELY'S — 23-oz CAN 10c

SPECIAL SALE
32-OZ — SALAD SAUCE 20c
32-OZ — SALAD RELISH 20c

SODA
SALT
SOAP
MATCHES
4c

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING
24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 85c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS $1.65
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 45c
BARREL LOTS — GOOD NEWS $6.50

JELL-O STRAWBERRY FLAVOR 2-14c
ASSORTED FLAVORS

GRAPE NUTS 18c

MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE
1-Lb Can 28c
3-Lb Can 80c

SCHOOL SUPPLIES
TABLETS, 2 for 5c
ALL — 5c NUMBERS, 3 for 10c
Pencils, Crayon, Ink, Paste, Note Book Binders

TEA
WONDER TEA
1¼-oz RED BOX 5c
2½-oz WONDER 10c
4-oz WONDER 15c
8-oz WONDER 25c
4-oz TETLEY 20c

PRODUCE SPECIALS
POTATOES, 10 Lbs 19c
ONIONS, White, Lb 4c
RUTABAGAS, Lb 3c
CABBAGE, Lb 2½c
GRAPES, 3 Lbs 25c
BANANAS, Lb 5c
ORANGES, Doz 25c
LEMONS, Doz. 20c
LETTUCE, 3 heads 25c

POOR O

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TWELVE PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1935 NUMBER 25

Farmers Call Mass Meeting At Courthouse October 23

Gathering At Jackson Chapel Saturday Night Passed Resolution Regarding Cotton Control And Ask For County-Wide Mass Meeting

A gathering of farmers was held at Jackson Chapel schoolhouse last Saturday night, October 5th, and resolutions were passed relative to the Agricultural Adjustment Act and the cotton allotment plan. The gathering also moved and ordered that a county-wide mass meeting be called at the county courthouse in Clanton on Wednesday, October 23rd, at 10:00 o'clock, a.m.

With W. L. Sanders acting as chairman and G. C. Donovan as secretary, the Jackson Chapel gathering moved and carried that the county-wide meeting be called, as stated above, and also that both county papers be asked to carry the announcement. It is the desire of those calling the meeting that all farmers and other interested citizens of the county attend.

Resolutions Passed

The following resolutions were passed by the Jackson Chapel meeting without a dissenting vote, and the signatures attached as below:

We, the undersigned citizens of Jackson Chapel community do agree that the Agricultural Adjustment Act in its present form is unjust, and that it is lowering the standard of living among most small farmers. To prove this, the following is submitted.

1. That the allotment plan based on the five year average is unjust, because:

(a). False reports given and accepted as to the base average in order to secure a larger allotment.

(b). That farmers who have already cut to a reasonable acreage were asked to reduce the same percentage as those with large crops.

(c). That a man's financial ability to use large amounts of fertilizer during the five year period, entitled him to a higher yield per acre.

2. That the passage of any law discriminating between two adjoining farms is unjust.

3. That the collection of taxes to the amount of fifty per cent of the farmer's income from cotton above a small allotment is unjust, compared with the taxes paid by profiteers and wage earners.

4. That under the reduction programsixty per cent of the farmers of Alabama are allowed to sell less than three bales of cotton tax free, and that this amount is insufficient to secure a decent living.

5. That the adjustment act has reduced the farmer's purchasing power by reducing and limiting his marketable commodities and by the rise in the cost of living caused from such reductions.

6. That the collection of taxes to support an agency to increase production, and at the same time such agency use its influence and authority to prihibit the sale of such roduction is inconsistant.

7. That all taxes assessed and collected from the farmer's income is a direct income tax.

8. That the reduction program has greatly hampered our foreign trade, and caused an increase in the importation of foreign goods to take the place of that taken out of production in this country.

The above reasons are our honest convictions, and we feel that the program does not deserve our continued support. Therefore we, this the 5th day of October, 1935, in mass meeting at Jackson Chapel do pledge our support for the repeal of this act through petition or referendum, and we solicit the suport of every "Liberty Loving Citizen" irrespective of political parties, to join us in a campaign in behalf of the little farmers.

W. L. SANDERS, Chairman,
G. C. DONOVAN, Secretary.

Signatures—D. M. Crowson, A. C. Bussie, Ervin Baker, J. C. Rich, Emerson Thomas, Cornelius Caton, D. M. Oates, D. S. Smith, F. E. Ellison, H. L. Bruce, Lee Ellison, Joe W. Traywick, E. A. Shirley, Percy McKinnon, D. F. Bryant, James Baker, J. H. Jackson, G. W. Willis, W. S. Willis, Ernest Jones, G. C. Jones, Marion Ellison, Hubert Smith, Floyd Little, C. O. Bell, Curtis Parrish.

The above resolutions will be offered for adoption at the county-wide meeting, subject to amendments of that gathering.

CORRECTION IN LETTER FROM HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

On September 26th The Union-Banner printed a letter from a young man in military service in Hawaiian Islands, in which we misprinted the name of the sender. We printed it "Harold G. Smith" when it should have been "Harold G. Mims." We are indeed sorry of the error and offer our apologies.

The sender of the letter, Harold Grady Mims, is the son of Mr. Cleve Mims of Isabella community. The letter was a very interesting one and The Banner thanks the young man very much for sending it to us. We hope he finds time and opportunity to write us another letter soon.

Mrs. McDonald has gone home from the Central Alabama Hospital where she has been for two weeks.

WILDCAT VETERANS PLAN REUNION AT BIRMINGHAM

The national reunion of the 81st or Wildcat Division will be held at Birmingham, Nov. 10, 11 and 12, with Maj. Gen. Charles J. Bailey, of New York City, commander, presiding. Between 7,000 and 8,000 veterans who served in the division during the World War, are expected to attend the conclave.

Birmingham, according to reports here yesterday, is making great preparations for the convention. Officers look for a much larger attendance than the 5,500 or 6,000 veterans who went to North Carolina last year for the meeting.

The convention will be in the municipal auditorium. A large delegation from Montgomery and adjoining counties will attend. The Wildcat Division trained at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., and went overseas in the Summer of 1918, arriving in time to particiate in several battles before the Armistice ended hostilities the following November 11.

JACK HAYES IS BACK HOME

Minter Carney Hayes, better known to his hundreds of friends as Jack, is back home again, after the closing of the 1935 baseball season. Jack is second baseman for the Chicago White Sox, of the American League. He arrived Thursday, October 3, driving through in his car (a Chevrolet of course) bringng with him Tommie Sewell, who had been visiting in the windy city.

Jack started in the 1935 season in a manner that made his supporters believe he would have one of his best years, but his old injury jinx caught up with him again early in June. Hitting well over the .300 mark, and going strong afield, he was injured in practice before a game in New York. After some time he went back into the game, but soon after suffered another hand injury while playing in Cleveland.

Manager Jimmy Dykes decided to give him time for complete recovery this time, and the White Sox club bought Tony Piet from Cincinnati to fill in his place. By the time Jack was able to go again, the club was on a winning spree and he was unable to break back into the line-up right away. Ball players are a superstitious lot, and they will not break up a winning combination, no matter who they have on tap to put in. After some time, however, Jack was put back in at his regular second base post, but his lack of practice had dimmed the old batting eye, and he never regained his batting stride. He finished the season with a season batting average of .268, going to bat something over 300 times. Among his hits were 14 doubles and 4 home runs.

During the winter Jack will help take care of the Chevrolet business which he owns jointly with his brother, Dick. He will be at Clanton a part of the time, and at Montevallo part time, as Hayes Chevrolet Company keeps sales and service establishments at both places.

Jack and Dick have made a success of their Chevrolet venture. Both are popular young men. And when they get a fellow in a Chevrolet and talk its fine points to him for a while, all the time making the Chevrolet back up their sales talk with performance, that prospect is pretty nearly sold.

Here's luck to the boys—Jack and Dick!

Dan Lockhart Given Five-Year Sentence

Bolton - Littlefield Case Being Tried In Circuit Court Wednesday

The circuit court of Chilton county rendered its decision in the case of Dan Lockhart, charged with second degree murder in the killing of C. A. Johnson, late Tuesday night. The verdict was guilty of first degree manslaughter and the defendant was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Lavert Burnett, charged with assault and battery was found guilty and fined $200.

William Tucker was found guilty of manslaughter, first degree and sentenced to three years.

The case of George Bolton, charged with the murder, first degree, of Barney Littlefield, was set to come up Wednesday, and so was the case of Berman Cadle, charged with robbery.

A few prohibition cases of minor importance were disposed of earlier in the week. A number of cases of this nature were set for Thursday and Friday.

VOCATIONAL BUILDING AT CHILTON HIGH SCHOOL

Chilton County High School is to have a new Vocational Building. Construction has been started already, and Supt. Luther Little hopes that the new building will be ready to ocupy by November 1st.

This will be a frame building of four rooms, and will be built on the high school campus, just north of the main building. Construction foreman is F. M. Chambers, who was foreman of construction of the Vermont building, and the Cooper school during the latter stages of construction. The building will cost $3,800.00, and will be built with State funds.

When completed, this building will house the department of Vocational Agriculture, under the direction of Earle Thomas, the Home Economics department, under direction of Miss Virginia Cook.

Present equipment in these departments will be moved into the new building, and no purchase of new equipment is contemplated at this time.

SCHOOLS BIDS TO BE ASKED

Supt. Luther E. Little reports that advertisements will be made for contractors for construction of the proposed Isabella and Collins Chapel school building just as soon as approved by H. S. Geismer, State PWA Engineer. These will be tendered to Mr. Geismer some time this week, and approval is expected soon thereafter. Mr. Little states that work will begin immediately after acceptance of contractor's bid.

Further information will be published as soon as it is available.

Hoover Will Not Run Next Year

Makes Statement as He Boards Train For New York Monday

Herbert Hoover, former Republican President, will not run for the presidency in 1936.

For some time political forecasters have tried to draw the former president out on this question, and, inasmuch as he has evaded the direct question so far, many believed he would attempt a "vindication" comeback.

However, on last Monday morning, as Mr. Hoover was boarding a train at San Diego, bound for New York, reporters put the oft-repeated question to him again, straight from the shoulder: "Will you be a presidential candidate next year," Mr. Hoover answered in the same straight-from-the-shoulder manner: "I will not run again". Political observers took this to mean that he not only would not be in the presidential picture as a candidate in the forthcoming campaign, but that future campaigns would find him "rooting from the sidelines" also.

No doubt Mr. Hoover will have a big hand in the campaign next year, and will be counted on heavily to carry the far west for the big elephant, but his activities will be limited to speaking tours and writing for publication. He has had several articles published in outstanding magazines of late, and has spoken several times, offering sharp criticism of the New Deal, especially the NRA and AAA divisions.

On this trip, Mr. Hoover told reporters he would confer with Republican leaders on the Atlantic seaboard concerning Republican policies in the coming campaign.

Miss Roberta Traywick has as her guest this week Miss Lola Traywick of Wetumpka, Alabama.

VERBENA DEFEATS MARBURY 16-0

Verbena High school foot ball team broke an old record by defeating the hard Marbury eleven. Marbury almost scored in the first quarter when Robert Williams failed to punt out on fourth down.

Verbena scored in the second quarter by a beautiful lateral pass from M. Dennis to R. Williams. Davis made the extra point. V. Jones scored again by intercepting one of Marbury's passes and running 55 yards The extra point made by a pass from M. Williams to L. Jenkins. The two points were made by a safety when Marshall Williams and Melton Hughes tackled Tatum behind his own goal line.

This was a hard fought game and of much interest. Stars for Verbena were Irving Hudman, Dovard Huett, Melton Hughes, Mit Dennis, Marshall Williams, Robert Williams, Leonard Jenkins, Veston Jones. Marbury's stars were Norton Dennis and James Tatum.

MOVING TO NEW POSTOFFICE

Postmaster Hosea F. Downs advises us that the post office department will move to the new federal building within the next few days. Mr. Downs was not certain just what day the removal would be made, but it is expected about next Sunday, October 13th.

Postmaster Downs was in a jolly mood Tuesday morning when approached on the subject, and had the following to say:

"I am not sure just what day we will move, but it won't be long now. I suppose our folks will just have to keep an eagle eye on us for the next few days, and see for themselves when we move. Then they will know when to come to the new place for their mail. They'll have to catch us on the fly, as it were."

The new post office is a beautiful building, and one that citizens of Clanton and surrounding territory may well feel proud of.

MRS. J. F. BONE DIED

Mrs. Carrie Mullins Bone, age 50, wife of J. F. Bone, died at the family home in New Cedron community last Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

The funeral was held at Mullins cemetery at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. J. J. DuBose and Rev. W. S. Cox. Martin was in charge of burial.

Mrs. Bone was a daughter of Mr. Hugh F. Mullins, who died 10 or 12 years ago. She was born March 8, 1885, in the Jumbo or Mullins Academy community where she spent most of her life.

She had been ill for some time with cancer, bearing her seemingly unbearable pain with patience. She was widely known over Chilton County, being a member of one of Chilton county's first families.

Survivors in the immediate family are: husband, J. F. Bone, of Clanton Route 3; mother, Mrs. Ella Mullins, Cullman; one brother, James Arfeltz Mullins, Cullman; four sisters, Misses Louise and Sue Mullins of Cullman, Mrs. Mary Spear of Florida, and Mrs. J. J. DuBose of Clanton Route 5.

Pallbearers were: J. T. Cox, W. Z. Hodges, J. E. Edwards, R. J. Mahan, Ocie Williams, and Ernest Smith.

KLINNER FURNITURE COMPANY MOVED TO NEW LOCATION

Mr. Herbert Klinner, proprietor of the Klinner Furniture Company, announces the removal of his place of business back on the east side of the railroad. He is now located in the building formerly occuied by Spigener Funeral Home, next to the Sartor Building.

Klinner Furniture Company is replenishing his already large stock of all kinds of furnishings for the home. He invites his friends to call to see him. Read his adv. elsewhere in this paper.

COBB BROTHERS BUY OUT SIMS & CONWAY, JEMISON

Three Cobb brothers, Lonnie, J. T., and J. O., all sons of Joseph E. Cobb, former county commissioner, have recently bought out the business in Jemison formerly operated by Sims and Conway. They will conduct the business in the future under the firm name of Cobb Brothers Mercantile Company. They will handle general merchandise and groceries.

THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT

(Editorial in Saturday Evening Post)

"Whatever else may be thought of the colossal effort to control agricultural production by means of the AAA, it is proving one of the most complicated, bewildering and contradictory economic adventures undertaken by man. True, there are considerable and imediate financial benefits which accrue to appreciable elements of the population. But from the very nature of the case, the adventure itself is getting into deeper complications all the time. Unless it eventuates into complete Socialism and regimentation, it is almost certain to be discredited, like other overambitious schemes for regulating the affairs of men. . . . . .

". . . . . these measures of control cannot be piled up one upon the other indefinitely without the whole structure toppling over, or, as Mr. Frank R. Kent has said, without it 'bogging down through sheer bewildering unworkability.'

"Senator King, one of the few members of the upper House to criticize the measure, ridiculed the suggestion that its essential idea was new and had been 'conceived for the first time by master minds, by men whose knowledge is so comprensive and profund as to command universal acceptance without consideration.'

"Certainly there has been more than one essentially similar example of folly in the past, and they have led not so much to complete Socialism as to the same result which may be observed when a child's toy balloon becomes overinflated. It not only bursts; it makes the object ridiculous."

BANNER 1 YEAR $1

For a limited time The Union-Banner will be sold one whole year for $1. This exceptional offer will not last long; and when it closes, the paper will go back to the regular price. If you want the paper for one dollar, better take advantage of it now. We will appreciate your business.

THE UNION-BANNER.

CLANTON HAS NEW FISH MARKET

Clanton now has a new kind of business, and one which lots of people will be glad to learn about. It is a market for the dispensing of fish, oysters and all kinds of sea foods.

This new place will be located in Mr. J. Q. Wade's building next to Yellow Front Store, and will be open for business Friday morning of this week, October 11th.

The owners are: Messrs. R. C. Watkins and E. W. Pratt, both young men of Montgomery. Mr. Watkins will be in active charge of the place and will remove his family, wife and three small children, to Clanton. Mr. Pratt will be on the coast part of the time and at the market part time. The latter will not move to Clanton at the present.

The Union-Banner extends a welcome to these two gentlemen as well as their business concern. We predict that the people of Clanton will soon learn to like them and be glad that they brought this new business into our midst.

Turn to their advertisement elsewhere in this paper and read the announcement of their opening as well as their message to the people of Clanton and Chilton County.

Supplying Jobs Or Dole Is Up To Dems

Roosevelt Has 22 Days to put 3,500,000 to Work As Per Promise

Washington, Oct. 5.—The New Deal's $4,000,000,000 work relief program today reached its crisis—the necessity of making jobs for more than 2,250,000 needy in 22 days if the Government expects to end the dole November 1st.

A total of 1,126,234 persons now are working. The Administration must employ 3,500,000 in all if direct relief is to cease on the date President Roosevelt promised. In Alabama 25,556 have relief employment.

Daily employment must average about 85,500 between now and the mid-autumn deadline. Congress made the money available last April 8, and the drive still is short of the one-third mark.

Aids of Administrator Harry L. Hopkins insisted that "the program will be at least 90 per cent successful on November 1st when all the returns are in."

They prepared, despite confident statements, however to provide for able-bodied still jobless after that time. Outright relief grants will be made to states in which the program falls short.

Of the 1,126,234 new jobs listed, the Administration could count only 826,234 needy transferred from the dole to federal payrolls.

The Civilian Conservation Corps had 300,000 members when the work relief started. Program officials included them in their work tabulation.

CCC continued as the best employment agency with 559,640 youths. Hopkins' Works Progress Administration, the organization set up to spend about $2,000,000,000 and employ a total of 2,500,000 persons, listed 452,739 at work.

All other government agencies, including $325,000,000 for public works heavy construction, rural rehabilitaernment departments, added 113,855.

MRS. BOWDOIN BURIED HERE

The body of Mrs. Mary Susan Bowdoin, age 64, arrived by train in Clanton Wednesday morning and was taken in charge by Martin and Sons. Mrs. Bowdoin died in Birmingham on Tuesday morning.

The funeral services were held at the Clanton Methodist church Wednesday morning, Rev. Middlebrooks, conducting.

Mrs. Bowdoin was a native of Coosa county but lived at West End, Clanton a number of years ago. Her husband, I. B. Bowdoin, was buried here in 1929. Surviving are three sons, A. C. and E. B. Bowdoin of Birmingham, and W. C. Bowdoin of Columbus, Ga. There are six daughters: Mrs. J. M. Hyde of Knoxville, Tenn., Mrs. U. J. Allen and Miss Minnie Bowdoin of Birmingham, Mrs. W. M. Hassett of Columbus, Ga., Mrs. E. C. Morris of Shreveport, La., and Mrs. J. R. Parker of Odenville, Ala.

B. O. GLOVER HERE

The Union-Banner was pleased to have as our visitor last Friday Mr. B. O. Glover of Maplesville. Mr. Glover is a farmer out there, and came over to Clanton on the Selma-Clanton bus to do some trading. In the course of an interesting conversation Mr. Glover touched on the cotton situation. He said that up until here of late he thought he worked solely for B. O., but finds now that he is just working on halves. B. O. gets half and the government gets the other half.

Prominent Verbena Citizen Succumbed To Extended Illness

F. A. Gulledge Passed Away Sunday Morning Following Declining Health

F. A. Guuledge, Verbena's oldest resident and one of the most revered men in Chilton County, died Sunday morning at 7:10 o'clock at his home in Verbena, where he has lived for the past 59 years. Mr. Gulledge had reached the venerable age of 86, having celebrated his birthday September 25th.

Although his health had been declining for several years and for the past three years he had been rather feeble, the illness that proved fatal lasted only a few weeks. He was stricken with a chill last Wednesday and remained in a semi-conscious condition until his death Sunday morning. From the time he was stricken he was unable to speak loud enough to be understood.

Though his family realized that the end was near, his death came as a surprise. Late Saturday night he seemed to be slightly stronger and it was hoped that his condition would improve due to the exceptional vitality that he possessed.

Funeral services for Mr. Guledge were held Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, from the Verbena Methodist church, of which he was a member, Rev. J. E. Harmic officiating. Burial with the Rev. Cecil Ellisor and the was in the Verbena cemetery with Martin & Sons in charge.

Throngs of friends, most of whom had been his customers for the many years that he operated a retail mercantile business in Verbena, stood with bowed heads as his body was lowered to its final resting place. Few men in this section of the country were more widely known than was Mr. Gulledge.

Born in Coosa county, September 25, 1849, Mr. Gulledge had reached the age of 86. He lived in his native county of Coosa, where he was engaged in farming, until the fall of 1876, when he removed with his family to Chilton county, settling at Verbena and starting in a modest way the retail mercantile establishment that one day was to be the largest business of its kind in the county.

This business he operated until 1903. Retiring then and turning the store over to his sons, he became interested in various banking and real estate enterprises, not only in Chilton County but throughout the State, especially in Birmingham, where he once owned large holdings.

At the age of 19 he was married to Miss Cordelia Ann Collier, also of Coosa county. Both were of prominent families, though the Civil War had robbed them of all affluence. Mrs. Gulledge died two years ago.

Though Mr. Gulledge was too young to serve long during the conflict between the states, he was always interested in the activities of the Confederate veterans, attending and participating in many of their conventions in various sections of the country. His brother, Gen. J. W. E. Gulledge, is one of the few veterans of the Confederacy living in Chilton County today.

Politically, Mr. Gulledge was a lifelong Democrat, but his interest in politics consisted in fighting to elect men who he believed stood for principles. He never held any political office, but few men prominent in state affairs were more widely known than was Mr. Gulledge. He was especially interested in good roads, and through the efforts of a program which he and other leading citizens helped to promote, Chilton county reached a place of recognition as a leader of most other rural counties in Alabama in good roads.

He was a member of the Verbena Methodist church and of the Verbena Masonic Lodge.

Surviving him are three sons, J. H., W. A., and Charles E. Gulledge; two daughters, Mrs. H. B. Oliver, and Mrs. Samuel Scott, and one brother, J. W. E. Gulledge, all of Verbena.

The following friends served as pallbearers: P. F. Mitchell, D. I. Deramus, Hugh Champion, Guy Caffey, Brent Champion, Berry Rutland, Bill Strock and N. L. Gardner.

MONTGOMERIAN DIES WHILE OUT FISHING

Montgomery, Oct. 5.—Robert C. Braden, local distributor of the Gulf Refining Co., was drowned yesterday when he fell from a boat while fishing with a party of friends at Lock 18, on hte Coosa River, near here.

The body had not been recovered last night, though searching parties began dragging the lake soon after his friends gave the alarm.

Mr. Braden, who was 31, was attempting to start the motor when the spinning cord broke and he fell overboard.

TUNE WRANGLERS WILL BE AT COURTHOUSE SATURDAY NIGHT

Hear the Tune Wranglers at the courthouse Saturday night, October 12 at 7:30 o'clock.

The Tune Wranglers, a band of musicians of radio fame will give a musical program. Hear them once and you will want to hear them again. To miss this treat will be your loss.

This musical program is being put on for the benefit of Concord school. Admission 10 cents and 25 cents.

RIGINAL

PLEASANT HILL

We are very glad to say that we are still getting along fine with our Sunday school, prayer meeting and B. T. U. We had a large crowd out Sunday morning and each one seemed to be interested in our Sunday school. Although we had some absentees, and we surely did miss them, we hope they can be back with us next Sunday. We want to say those who missed prayer meeting and B. T. U. Sunday night missed a good service, for the Lord is still hearing and answering prayer around old Pleasant Hill.

We were glad to see Rev. Cannie Lowery and Mr. Earl Littleton join our B. T. U. Sunday night. By this we are made to believe we are getting munity was indeedo:CsorryDpetahh better in our church work.

This community was indeed shocked with a bit of sad news last week which called Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Twilley to Dallas, Ga., for the funeral of their nephew, Mr. Lance Twilley. The young man was known and had lots of friends around Pleasant Hill.

Misses Jesse and Datha Cleckler spent Saturday night with Miss Hazel and Alta Blow.

Don't forget to come to Sunday school next Sunday.—Reporter.

Dr. J. O. Colley of Troy, Ala., was in Clanton Saturday. His daughter, Sara Colley, and Mrs. Ed Glasscock, and little daughter, Ann, went to Troy with him Saturday afternoon.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Sunday, October 6th, the children and other relatives of Mr. W. F. Littlejohn gave him a pleasant surprise, this being his 76th birthday. They came with well-filled baskets. At noon a bountiful dinner was spread. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Littlejohn and daughter, Lena; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Littlejohn; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Collins and children, Helen and Hollis; Mr. and Mrs C. B. Lenoir, Willie Mae, Jack, C. B., and Hattie Sue; Mrs. Royce Smith and Bettie Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Will Burke and Kimball; Mr. and Mrs. Jno. E. Littlejohn; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baker and Earle; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Avery and Delbert; Mr. and Mrs. Mc D. Messer and Louise, Maxine and Don; Mrs. J. D. Cleckler, and Emily and Jeff; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cleckler and Douglas; Mrs. Leona Littlejohn, Harold and Mack; Mrs. F. M. Price; J. L. Littlejohn; Willie Merle Littlejohn and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Littlejohn and C. D.

All expressed themselves as having a very enjoyable day and wish for him many more happy birthdays.

OLD TIME SINGING

Don't forget it, next Sunday is our annual old time singing at Alpine church, four miles west of Pletcher, Ala. Bring your old books and let's praise God in song Sunday. Come praying for the spirit of God to be with us. Yours for a great day—J. N. Scott.

A&P FOOD STORES

Eight O'clock Coffee lb 15c

TUNE IN Kate Smith

WBRC — 6:30 P.M. — COFFEE TIME
TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

RED CIRCLE lb 19c
BOKAR lb 23c
CHASE & SANBORNS lb 25c

IONA - RED RIPE
TOMATOES 4 no 2 cans 25c

IONA CORN
IONA STRING BEANS
IONA PEAS
Stokely's HOMINY
Your Choice 3 no 2 cans 25c

PURE VEGETABLE SHORTENING
JEWEL bulk lb 13c 4-lb ctn 55c

— 1c SALE —
3 Packages ROYAL GELATIN 21c
1 Package CHOCOLATE PUDDING 1c
Total 22c

WALDORF —
TISSUE 6 rolls 25c
SCOTT TISSUE 3 rolls 25c

3 pkgs SPARKLE GELATIN
1 pkg Chocolate Pudding
ALL FOR 19c

IONA COCOA, 1-lb can ....10c; 2-lb can 19c
OK SOAP, Four 10½-ounce Bars 15c
SUPERSUDS, Two Packages 17c
OCTAGON CLEANSER, Three cans 13c
P & G SOAP, Three Cakes 13c
KIDDIES—ENTER THE P & G PIRATE CONTEST

SUNNYFIELD — Plain or Self Rising —
FLOUR 24-lb Bag 99c 48-lb Bag $1.95
REICHERT'S 24-lb Bag 85c 48-lb Bag $1.75

CALUMET —
BAKING POWDER 1-lb Can 21c
POST TOASTIES 2 pkgs 15c

Baker's Premium — CHOCOLATE ½ lb ..17c
Instant — POSTUM, 4-oz can 27c
Posts Bran — FLAKES, pkg 10c
Assorted Flavors — JELLO, 2 pkgs 13c

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

JEMISON F. H. A. HEAR THE COUNTY WORKERS

The Jemison Chaper of the F. H. A. met on Wednesday, October . The club was honored to have as its guests Miss Nolan Meroney, county social worker, and Miss Irene Smitherman, county health nurse. Miss Meroney gave an excellent talk about her work, explaining it and arousing great interest in social work. Miss Sm therman made an inspirational talk on nursing, pointing out the duties and responsibilities of this career. These talks were greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

A most interesting social hour followed these delightful talks. Miss Annie Louise Spencer directed the social hour.

ALABAMA GETS $425,218 IN AAA PEANUT PAYMENT

Auburn, Ala.—Benefit payments to Alabama peanut growers this year are expected to total $425,218, according to information from the agricultural Adjustment Administration in Washington.

Since the peanut adjustment program was initiated the farm value of the peanut crop in the 12 peanut producing states increased to $20,913,000 in 1933 and to $29,671,000 an 1934, says the report. In 1932, prior to the initiation of the AAA peanut program, the farm value of the crop was only $12,947,000.

The current average farm price for peanuts is 3.25 cents a pound while the fair exchange value is 6 cents a pound.

STALK DESTRUCTION KILLS BOLL WEEVILS

Auburn, Ala.—To prevent a heavy infestation in next crop year, Alabama cotton growers are being urged to wage a stiff battle against boll weevils this fall.

As soon as the cotton has been picked the growers should cut down all the stalks and plow them under, says Prof. J. M. Robinson, head of the entomology department of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Cutting the stalks deprives the weevils of their food and plowing them under will kill weevils which might otherwise survive the winter.

If the stalks are left to grow until frost, the weevils will approach winter in a healthy, vigorous condition, Robinson added, and they will be able to withstand the cold weather.

COTTON HEARING WILL BE HELD OCTOBER 11th

Auburn, Ala.—A public hearing on a future adjustment program for cotton will be held at Memphis, Tenn., on October 11 at 10 a.m., announces stration.

One of the questions to be studied is "whether the current average farm price for cotton is less than the fair exchange value thereof." Cotton producers, consumers, processors and manufacturers have been invited to attend.

POULTRY POINTERS FOR OCTOBER GIVEN

Auburn, Ala.—Through proper feeding and management of chickens, farmers can produce eggs of high quality when eggs are at the highest prices in October and November, says John Ivey, extension poultry specialist, who gives five poultry pointers for October:

(1) Put the pullets in a dry, comfortable laying-house if they are not already there; (2) feed plenty of mash to start egg production; (3) separate the pullets and hens, if possible; (4) Start the lights in the laying-house and (5) keep records.

SILAGE MAKES GOOD PASTURE SUBSTITUTE

Auburn, Ala.—Silage is the best available substitute for pasture during the winter months, says F. W. Burns, extension livestock specialist. "Be sure to fill your trench silo with corn or sorghum this fall," he advises Alabama farmers.

FARMERS GET LARGER INCOME THAN IN 1934

Auburn, Ala.—Farmers in 34 states had larger receipts from sales of principal farm products plus rental and benefit payments in the first seven months this year than in the same period in 1934, reports the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

PUBLICATION FOR NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court in Equity.

Lucile Esters, complainant, vs. Cecil Esters, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks requiring him, the said Cecil Esters to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 4th, day of November, 1935; or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, this 2nd day of October, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.

10-3-4teh.

NOTICE OF PARDON

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Will Darby, who plead guilty in the Circuit Court of Chilton County on March 1, 1935, for distilling and was sentenced to a term of two years to four years, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for pardon or parole.—(Signed) Will Darby. 10-3-2tc

FARM BUREAU RECORDS MANY THINGS DONE IN 14 YEARS OF PROGRESS

A brief statement of accompuishments of the Farm Bureau, county, state and national, since its organization in Alabama fourteen years ago, reveals the great value of the organiation to farmers and shows definitely why all farmers who are interested in the improvement of agriculture should join with their neighbors in this great movement.

The statement follows:

I. National Legislation

1. The farm bureau secured passage of the Capper-Volstead Act, which makes cooperative marketing legal and possible.

2. The farm bureau has secured improvement in the rural mail delivery service.

3. The farm bureau has constantly supported good roads legislation.

4. In 1931 the farm bureau prevented passage by Congress of legislation that would have closed vocational agricultural schools and seriously crippled the work of county farm and home demonstration agents. A similar service was rendered in 1933.

5. After a 12-year struggle the Farm Bureau in cooperation with other forces secured passage by Congress in 1933 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act which authorizes (a) crop control and efforts to bring about parity income from farm crops; (b) extension of credit machinery and and $2,000,000,000 to refinance farm mortgages on long time basis at lower rates of interest; and (c) far reaching monetary powers given president to inflate credit and currency and establish commodity dollar.

Under the adjustment program made possible by this legislation the value of the Alabama cotton crop, lint and seed, was increased from $34,651,751 in 1932 to $85,153,424 in 1934. The value of the 1935 crop will be about the same as the value of the 1934 crop.

6. The farm bureau sponsored legislation which resulted in "The Farm Credit Act of 1933" and "The Farm Credit Act of 1935". These laws provide a complete credit system with low interest rates for agriculture. They improved and revitalized the Federal Land Bank and set up the Banks for Cooperatives and the Production Credit Associations.

7. The farm bureau has represented farmers in hundrdes of other legislative battles. It has consistently fought for taxation on the basis of ability to pay and in cooperation with other agencies has won many victories on taxation questions.

II. Freight Rates

1. In 1920 the farm bureau defeated a proposed 55½ per cent increase in freight rates that would have added an additional annual freight bill to agriculture of $300,000,000, an average of about $50.00 per farm.

2. In 1921 the farm bureau secured the first case on record of a voluntary reduction in freight rates—a 10 per cent cut in rates for basic farm commodities, saving agriculture $120,000,000 annually, or an average of about $20.000 per farm.

3. In addition to other freight rate agencies, the farm bureau in 1931 helped prevent a flat increase in freight rates of 15 per cent, saving agriculture annually about $130,000,000, or an average of about $25.00 per farm.

III. State Legislation

1. The farm bureau prepared and secured passage in 1923 of an agricultural code, the first the state ever had. Through this code, farmers of Alabama have been saved thousands upon thousands of dollars, as it prevents the sale of impure, mixed, or inferior seed and improperly branded inoculations, fertilizers, feeds and other products.

2. The farm bureau prepared and secured passage of legislation in 1927 establishing five sub-agricultural experiment stations on the five major soil types of the State.

3. The farm bureau assisted in 1823 and 1927 in expanding the severance taxes on coal, iron and water power, which secured for the state revenue from profits of mining and power corporations.

4. Throughout its career the farm bureau has fought for a system of taxation based on the principle of ability to pay. The organiation prepared and had introduced into the 1931 legislature an amendment to the Constitution to permit the levying of an income tax. This question became a "burning issue" after 10,000 farmers met a legislative committee in Cramton Bowl on May 14, 1931, and passed a resolution favoring an income tax.

The income tax was finally enacted into law.

5. During the past session of the legislature the farm bureau sponsored several bills yhich were enacted into law. A description of some of this legislation follows:

(a). Creation of a milk control board which has power to help regulate the milk industry in Alabama.

(b). The cooperative statutes of the state have been so revised and amended as to bring them up to late and allow us to take advantage of all national legislation in this connection up to the 1935 Congress.

(c). A law liberalizing and providing additional credit service for farmer cooperatives. Loans from the bank for cooperatives formerly available only for the purpose of cooperative marketing may also be obtained for cooperative purchasing, furnishing farm supplies and farm business services.

(d). A law was passed making it possible for cooperatives in Alabama to own stock in the Bank for Cooperatives and the Production Credit Association. The owning of this stock makes it possible for borrowers to have a voice in the election of a director of the Farm Credit Bank at New Orleans.

(e). Under our old regulations no method was provided for the dissolution of a cooperative organization which had ceased to operate. The time required for such dissolution was five to seven years. A bill was passed recently making it possible to dissolve such an organization within 30 to 60 days.

Another recent law of interest to us is the one which makes it possible for ten per cent of the voters of a given county to petition the Board of Revenue to hold an election to appropriate money to maintain farm and home agents in the county.

(g). A law making county agents' salaries a "preferred claim" along with other county officials was passed.

(h). Measures were enacted into law providing reasonable appropriations for public elementary and high schools, higher institutions of learning, county farm and home demonstrations work in agriculture, and the teaching of vocational agriculture in high schools.

IV. Purchasing and Marketing

1. In 1922 the farm bureau organized the Alabama Cotton Cooperative Association, which has brought about the practice of giving a premium for cotton of superior grade and staple, lowered cotton insurance and warehouse rates, and has in general improved the system of marketing cotton.

2. Early in its history, the farm bureau organized a statewide purchasing and marketing cooperative which acts as a service association for county exchanges. This cooperative over a fourteen-year period has returned to county associations in patronage dividends more than $1,000,000.

V. Soil Building

1. Cooperating with the experiment station and extension service of Auburn, the farm bureau introduced into Alabama the great twin soil builders—hairy vetch and Austrian winter peas.

The organization has lowered the general price level of seed of these legumes to a point where it is profitable for farmers to plant them.

VI. Education

1. The farm bureau has in every way possible supported, strengthened and made more complete the work of county farm and home demonstration agents and teachers of vocational agriculture.

2. In addition, it has continuously worked toward development of the system of rural education in Alabama.

Miss Elizabeth Austin, who teaches in Thorsby, was in Clanton Saturday.

SPECIAL
TWO WEEKS ONLY

Regular $4.50 Permanent Waves $3.00

Using the new Biana French Permanent Wave Oil. This New Oil gives the hair a Beautiful lustre and sheen, also that softness and silk-like appearance that mi-lady so desires.

ANDRE' OIL WAVES $2.50
DUART WAVES $2.75
SHAMPOO, Set and Dry 40c

With any above Permanent I will give Two Dandruff Treatments FREE

All Work Done by Licensed Operators

LOU BETH'S BEAUTY SHOPPE
Clanton, Alabama

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

(Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks, Pastor)

This church will begin Sunday the observance of childhood and youth week with a message by the pastor at eleven o'clock appropriate for the occasion. The theme for the observance is "What is the Community Doing to Our Children"? The Children's Division with Mrs. L. J. Stewart, the superintendent, will have a program at the church Monday night for all the workers, parents and children of the division. Tuesday night at the church the young people's division, with Prof. J. T. Searcy, the superintendent, will have a program for all the workers, parents and young people. The adult division with Mr. V. J. Elmore, the superintendent, will have a program Friday night for all the adults of the church. Mr. L. J. Stewart is general chairman of the various committees. On Sunday night closing the observance, a play will be given by the newly organized dramatic club and directed by Miss Alice Polk. Throughout the week all teachers in the children's division and in the intermediate department will be visiting in the home of their pupils.

Sunday vesper service which has been held since June, at 5 o'clock, will be held at 7 o'clock beginning Sunday evening.

The Forward Steps Committee composed of Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. Dan Waite and Mrs. Barney Roberts will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Jones, chairman.

The board of stewards will meet at the church Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock. All members are urged to be present. The conference year is nearing the end and plans will be made to complete the work of the board.

Make Sunday a "GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY". The attendance in all departments has had a marked increase. Join your fellow members Sunday and be in church school and in the other services of the day. The newly reorganized Epworth League will meet Sunday at 6:00 for the social period, followed by a program at 6:15. All young people be present. Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer is counselor.

REFUGE NEWS

Our Sunday school is moving along nicely but always room for improvements .

Mrs. E. N. Miner and Mrs. Nancy Mims are still on the sick list.

The reunion at Mrs. Nancy Mims' was enjoyed by a large crowd and several useful gifts were given her in honor of her 76th girthday. She seemed to enjoy the day even is she was sick.

Mr. Elijah Mims and family visited in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Aunt Sarah and Angeline Mims of Sylacauga spent Saturday night with their sister, Mrs. Nancy Mims.

Mrs. Etta Baker and children were visitors in the community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Robert Easterling and family and Mrs. Bates spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. A. N. Mims and family.

Don't forget the special conference next Sunday. All the members are requested to be present with each one's part of the pastor's salary and so on, and finishing our church letter.

Our school started last Tuesday with a good attendance to start with. Mr. Bean and Mrs. Henley are our teachers.

Everybody come back to Sunday school.

CHICKEN SUPPER

There will be a chicken supper at Pleasant Hill church next Saturday night, October 12. There will be plenty of fried chicken, chicken sandwiches, cold drinks, parched peanuts, pretty girl and ugly man cake, and a nice time for every one. Come, bring your nickels and dimes and help us out. Proceeds will go to our piano fund.

Don't forget the date—next Saturday night, October 12. Come and bring some one with you.

Pud Walker went to Montgomery and attended the famous football game between Auburn and Birmingham-Southern last Friday night. Pud says that he had the time of his life witnessing the game.

Quick Relief for Chills and Fever and Other Effects of Malaria!

Don't put up with the suffering of Malaria—the teeth-chattering chills and the burning fever. Get rid of Malaria by getting the infection out of your system. That's what Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic does—destroys and drives out the infection. At the same time, it builds up your system against further attack.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic contains tasteless quinine which kills the infection in the blood. It also contains iron which builds up the blood and helps it overcome the effects of Malaria as well as fortify against re-infection. These are the effects you want for COMPLETE relief. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take and absolutely safe, even for children. No bitter taste of quinine. Get a bottle today and be forearmed against Malaria. For sale at all drug stores. Now two sizes —50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money.

PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity.

Pearl Yarbrough, complainant, vs. J. E. Yarbrough, defendant.

In this cause it is made to apper to the to the Register by the affidavit of Pearl Yarbrough, that the defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newsaper published in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said, J. E. Yarbrough to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 6th day of November, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.

10-3-4tc

RHEUMATISM
RELIEVE PAIN IN 9 MINUTES
To relieve the torturing pain of Rheumatism, Neuritis, Neuralgia or Lumbago, in 9 minutes, get the Doctor's Prescription NURITO. Absolutely safe. No opiates, no narcotics. Does the work quickly—and must relieve your pain in nine minutes or money back at Druggists. Don't suffer. Use NURITO today.

POOR O

Peoples Bank To Have Opening Day

The new home of the Peoples Savings Bank is completed, and Thursday, October 10th, has been set aside as "Visitors Day". On this day visitors will be shown through this thoroughly new and modern building, permitted to look over its convenient arrangement, its ample protective capacity; and so on.

The Peoples Savings Bank was and is the pioneer financial institution of Chilton County. Its doors opened for business first on December 7th, 1901, with W. E. Holloway as president. In 1904 Mr. W. T. Callen became president, bringing to the institution a wealth of good business sense and experience. The bank worked under this head until 1922, when Mr. Frank J. Callen, son of W. T. Callen, took up and carried on his father's sound principles in supervision of the bank's affairs as its new head.

In 1926, Mr. H. G. Boyd, a banker of much exerience, became president, and the well-grounded manking principles, which had become synonomous with The Peoples Savings Bank, continued under the new head.

Again in 1930 the presidency was given to Frank J. Callen, who has held it ever since; and he has continued to carry out the same sound program which has always characterized the dealings of the Peoples Savings Bank.

Early this year officials of the bank decided their facilities were inadequate for present day needs, and set out to make necessary amends. The needed additions have now been provided. Officials feel that they are equipped to give their patrons that high degree of service and safety which has always been the policy of this bank.

Clanton and Chilton County are proud of The Peoples Savings Bank, and fully awake to the important part it has played in the development of the county. "Safe Since 1901" is the slogan of this bank, and no one has ever had a just right to doubt it.

And now the bank's officials want you to be their guest on Thursday, October 10th, and see what they have provided for your financial safety and well-being. They will be expecting you.

BUSINESS MEN AND WOMEN KNOW

The importance of your relationship with other people is more than skin deep. Your clothes must be neat . . . fastidious . . . fresh-smelling, and free of perspiration or body odors, not to offend. Let us dry clean them.

Clanton Laundry & Cleaning Co.

Phone 119 - - - - Clanton

OVER THREE BILLION TONS OF SOIL LOST

By DAN H. OTIS

Agricultural Director, American Bankers Association

Soil conservation problems have always been with us, but they have been little realized. Much of America's agricultural development has been due not to efficiency in production, but to exploitation of our soil resources. We have been mining the fertility of our land and when this was exhausted we moved to another farm. In addition an astounding toll has been exacted by soil erosion.

D. H. OTIS

It is estimated that soil erosion removes not less than 126 billion pounds of plant food material from the fields and pastures of the United States every year. This is more than 21 times the amount removed by crops. This statement is supported by the following facts as reported by the Soil Erosion Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

The Destruction of Lands

Three billion tons of soil—enough to fill a train of freight cars girding the earth 37 times at the equator—are washed and blown from the fields of this country every year.

More than 300 million tons of the richest soil on earth—soil stripped from the fertile fields of the Mississippi Valley—are dumped each year into the Gulf of Mexico by the mighty Father of Waters.

Four hundred million dollars is the annual toll of erosion in terms of money value.

Thirty-five million acres of once fertile farm land—an area almost equal to the combined extent of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Connecticut—has been completely destroyed and abandoned.

One hundred and twenty-five million acres more have been seriously impoverished by loss of productive top soil.

Two hundred thousand acres are being abandoned every year because erosion has rendered them barren and unfit for productive cultivation.

Bankers Help Conservation Plans

Soil conservation is such an important subject that the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association has voted to make it a national project in its activities for 1936. Conditions are ripe for an aggressive campaign. This furnishes another opportunity for bankers to team with other agencies on a project that means much for the future and permanent development of our country.

CLANTON CHAPTER O. E. S. TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

The Clanton Chapter O. E. S. will hold its regular meeting on next Thursday at 7:30. All members are urged to be present and bring something for the Masonic Home in Montgomery. The Home is in need of supplies such as soap, tooth paste, talcum powder, table cloths, napkins, etc.—Mrs. Gladys W. Roberts.

ACTIVITIES IN MAYOR'S OFFICE

Mayor C. Fenn Jones did not have a lot of news to relaase this week, but there are a few things that will likely interest the dear public.

Four cases came up in court Monday morning. Two were for public drunkenness, and fines were impose in both cases. One fine was placed against a person charged with disorderly conduct. One person, charged with driving while intoxicated, appeared before the court, but the case was continued until Monday, Oct. 14.

On Tuesday the first coupon on the city's refunding bonds was paid.. The amount of the coupon was $30 and was paid to Jack Hayes. $10,000 of these bonds were paid on January 1, 1935, leaving balance of $20,000 refunded.

Mayor Jones has correspondence from Washington to the effect that a general government cnsus will not be taken any time soon, as was hoped. $Threfore, Mr. Jones will proceed to get, in the near future, a census taken of Clanton, so as to show up the increase in our population since the extension of our city limits. The cost to the city will be about $200. This report will be authentic and will bear the approval of the census bureau at Washington, although it cannot be made to appear on the cesus returns that have already been issued by the government.

No new developments have been recorded in regard to the residential street paving and the extension of the water mains into the city's new territory. Mayor Jones hopes to get some good news about these projects soon, however.

Mrs. Hugh Foshee was the guest last week of Mrs. Lenoir, near Maplesville.

CHOOSE CHICK STARTER WISELY, URGES EXPERT

After the bag is empty what will you have?

"If all folks who raise chicks this year will consider that question carefully before choosing their starting feed, many will be very surprised and gratified to discover how much more they have to show for their investment when the chicks reach six weeks of age," says C. S. Johnson, national authority on poultry feeding and management and head of the poultry department for Purina Mills.

"Most chick feeds look alike at time of purchase," Johnson says. "Many contain the same ingredients. Some even analyze alike. There'll be just as many pounds of feed in one bag as in another. But what a vast difference is seen in the the quantity and quality of six weeks' old chicks fed on various rations! In view of such known variations in feeding results it is only fair to one's self, looking out for one's own best interests, to measure the worth of any chick starting feed on the basis of what will be in evidence in number, size, and development of chicks after the bag is empty—after the feed has all been used.

Fifty in the Bag

"This question, 'What will you have after the bag is empty?' may well invoke a counter query: 'How much can I expect? How much should a starting feed accomplish?' The answer to this is that today any poultry raiser should be able to count on 50 birds averaging a pound apiece or better from every hundred-pound bag of chick starter, provided he selects a feed with proven ability to produce like that. Records from all parts of the country on a million chicks fed our Startena, show that at 6 weeks the light breeds averaged 17.4 ounces in weight and the heavy breeds 19.2 ounces.

"Yes, one can expect results like that and get them by wisely choosing a starter which is built to do that kind of a job. It is easy to understand why this is possible when one is reminded that Startena is so well balanced and blended for building chick frame, blood, flesh, and feathers, that only 2 pounds of it is required to raise a chick to 6 weeks of age. Ample feeding results there are to verify these figures and to say to anyone who raises chicks: 'Don't be satisfied with any feed which cannot deliver as good results as this.'

"Any way you look at it, differences in the prices of starting feeds are negligible factors compared to results, because a chick eats such a small amount of feed the first six weeks. The slightest difference in results more than offsets any variations in price. For example, if chicks averaged just 2 extra ounces apiece at 6 weeks on one feed as compared with another, that would mean 400 ounces or 25 additional pounds on 200 chicks. This extra weight at 12c a pound for broiler meat would be worth $3.00. Since it takes 400 pounds of feed at 2 pounds per chick to grow 200 chicks to 6 weeks of age, it will be found by dividing 4 into $3.00 that the feed which puts on those extra 25 pounds is worth 75c more per hundred than the other feed. This is on a meat basis alone and does not take into consideration the valuable advantage gained of giving the pullet chicks a better start.

"With only two pounds of feed required to get a chick started right," Johnson says, "the starter that does the best job proves the cheapest!"

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hogan motored to Speigner Sunday afternoon.

REPORT OF CONDITION OF

THE BANK OF MAPLESVILLE

OF MAPLESVILLE
IN THE STATE OF ALABAMA
AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS ON SEPTEMBER 30, 1935

RESOURCES

1. Loans and Discounts		$35,636.19
6. Banking house, $900.00, Furniture and fixtures, $1,277.75		2,177.75
8. Cash and due from banks		42,021.04
12. Other assets: F. D. I. Corporation		110.58
Total		$79,945.56

LIABILITIES

13. Capital account:
(c) Common stock	$10,000.00
(d) Surplus	3,500.00
(e) Undivided profits (net)	2,542.41
		16,042.41
16. Due to banks, including certified and cashiers' checks outstanding		1,194.83
17. Demand deposits		36,846.15
18. Time deposits		25,862.17
Total		$79,945.56

State of Alabama, County of Chilton, ss:

I, John Maples, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowldge and belief.—JOHN MAPLES, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of October, 1935.—ESTELLE DAVIS, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: H. M. NIX, C. C. COBERN, J. P. PAYNE, Directors.

DEPOSITS INSURED BY

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

WASHINGTON, D. C.

$5000 MAXIMUM INSURANCE FOR EACH DEPOSITOR $5000

Announcing a

New Location

We are pleased to announce to our friends that we are now located in the building next door to the old W.H. Sartor location on the corner. Our stock of goods has been enlarged, and we want you to come in and visit us. If you want real value in furniture to please, we are ready to serve you.

U. S. Atlantic Ranges

We are now handling the U.S. Atlantic Ranges which are well known for Fuel Economy, Dual-Use Flue, Special Ferrite Firebox and many other features, which add to its beauty and usefulness.

EXTRA SPECIAL CASH and CARRY ITEMS

6x9 CONGOLEUM FLOOR COVERINGS, at $2.25

FOLDING COIL SPRING $2.50

The Klinner Furniture Co.

The Only Furniture Store on Main St. — Clanton

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins of Deatsville were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hogan.

Miss Nellie Fuller of Ashland was in Clanton on business Friday.

Miss Irene Jones, who teaches in the Bessemer school, spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. Andy Jones.

East View News

Next Saturday is time to elect a pastor and officers of the church for the coming year. All members of the church are asked to be present.

Miss Sara Colley spent the week end in Troy with her parents.

Annual Shell Sale

ONE DAY ONLY

Saturday, October 12, 1935

Defiance,	12, 16 & 20 Gauge	49c
Climax,	12, 16 & 20 Gauge	64c
22	Short Cartridges	13c
22	Long Cartridges	17c
22	Long Rifle Cartridges	21c

Clanton Building Supply Co.

J. T. Rockett :-: :-: J. D. Rockett

CLANTON, ALABAMA

ORIGINAL

Bring The Family and Attend Mazer's

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, This Week

Rich Fur Trimmings and Gorgeous New . .

Fall Coats

WILL MAKE COLD WEATHER A PLEASURE

COATS for those who Appreciate Style and Quality.

THEY are Distinguished by Inspired Designing, Beautiful Materials and Furs.

COLORS: Black Brown, Rust and Green

Priced From

$5.95 to $49.50

A SPECIAL EVENT ON

BLANKETS

100 SINGLE BLANKETS

In Blue, Brown, Gray

79c

Fine Part Wool Double BLANKETS

66 by 88 and 70 by 88

Priced From

$1.98 up

VISIT MAZER'S FOR VALUES IN

Men's Apparel

Men's Suits . . .

Another Good Purchase and Another Special Price on $12.95 Suits For $8.95

Sweaters -- Jackets

Good Looking SWEATERS

Made in Zipper, Sport Backs and Pullover Styles.

You Will Be Amazed at These NEW BACKS

All Sizes and Prices From

39c up

Pants - Pants - Pants

Woolens — Cottons — Serges — Corduroy

ANYTHING YOU WANT

From 98c Up

MEN!

SEE THE NEW

MURRY TOWN and KING LOUIS TIES

DOVE DOWN

Perfect Quality Silk

Chiffon HOSE

Choose from Sheer 3-Thread Dressy Wear to 4-Thread for Business Wear

79c to $1.00

MAZER'S

"The Friendly Store"

I. S. Levine, Mgr. Clanton, Ala.

School OXFORDS

In Black and Brown, in Low and Medium Heels. Sizes 2½ to 8

$1.79 pair

J. H. JACKSON WRITES

Editor Union-Banner:

I am coming to you for a little more space to discuss the Cotton Production Control Act.

First we will take Mr. A and his 40 acres, from which he is allowed nine bales tax free. New we will consider another tenant that I know of, who has charge of 40 acres and is allowed two bales tax free. We will name him Mr. B. Suppose that Mr. A is compelled to move over on the 40 acres that Mr. B now has charge of and Mr. B takes Mr. A's 40 acres, then Mr. A. would have to put up with two bales instead of nine, but Mr. A goes ahead and produces nine bales just like he has heretofore, then Mr. A would have to pay an income tax on seven bales of cotton, which would amount to $175.

What would happen then? We would hear Mr. A howling like a wolf. He would denounce it from the pulpit, from the streets, from the highways and byways. Naturally we would ask, what is the matter, Mr. A? He would answer, "I only steped into my neighbors shoes and he stepped into mine and they don't fit. Now, Mr. A, if this happens you will still be unjust and praise your unjust law, for if it has become unjust because you stepped into your neighbors's place, surely it was unjust before then. Just remain still and raise your unjust law right on.

Well, enough said about A and B. I see some of our farm brethern are criticizing onr editor for opposing the AAA. I admire his courage. May God send us more editors like him. He is only contending for a square deal. He is against the heavy hands that are oppressing and taking the very life blood from the forgotten man.

This is not a party issue, but it is a question of whether we shall support a law that allows class preferance, or repeal it. So, let's everybody that loves humanity and justice, rally to the support of our editor and help him to stamp out this ungodly act.

Now to our good old brother who accuses us folks of being mad because we failed to raise all of the cotton that we could like he did. He admits that he raised all that he could, and we people who cooperated with our leaders are denied the privileges that our brother, who raised all that he could , now has. He would have the constitution amended so as to give him and his class special privileges. If we people who cut our acreage in order to maintain a living price, why should we be denied at this dark hour. We demand an equal chance with our neighbor, and if we wo down in defeat, our spirit will go down accordingly.

I don't see how people who read the word of God can support such a law. We find in God's word where he says, Behold all souls are mine. He says, the soul that sinneth shall die. He also says that if we have executed true judgment between man and man, have not oppressed any, have given His bread to the hungry, and clothed the naked with a garment, He says this class shall live.

Now, brother farmers, can you say with a clear conscinece that this Cotton Control Act is true judgement betwen man and man? Are we going to exchange our souls for a few bales of cotton which justly belongs to our neighbor? Can you afford to do that? Think this over when you go to sign to continue this unjust Cotton Control Act.—Respectfully, J. H. Jackson.

CONGRATULATIONS!

A card just received from Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Cleckler, of Athens, Ala., announce that they are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Monday, October 7th.

D. E., Dovard, or "Shux", any one of which names Mr. Cleckler will answer to, is a former Union-Banner employee, and a son of Mr. J. W. Cleckler, of Route 1, Clanton. At present he is connected with a newspaper at Athens.

Congratulations to "Shux" and Mrs. Cleckler, from the entire Union-Banner force, as well as his many friends in Chilton County.

STATE GAME AND FISH NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 8.—September having opened the hunting season on doves in Alabama, October will bring more nimrods into the field as the hunting bans are lifted on squirrels and fur-bearing animals.

Last year the hunters in a majority of the counties of the state hunted squirrels during the months of October, November and December, while those in 26 south-central counties hunted in November, December and January. This year, however, the State Conservation Board has prescribed a uniform open season on squirrels for the entire state and it will open October 15 and close on January 15.

This month also opened the season on bears, foxes, o'possums and raccoons hunted as game, this sport being permitted from October 1st through February 28th. The taking of fur-bearers for their furs, pelts and hides will not be permitted before November 20.

Gathering momentum steadily, the fall hunting season will reach full bloom next month when the open seasons on quail, deer and ducks arrive.

Mr. and Mrs. Horsley White and daughters, Miss Ruth Martin and C. W. Rasberry motored to Birmingham Sunday afternoon for the air races.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 13

THE STORY OF JEREMIAH

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 1:6-10; 26:8-15.

GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt go to all that I send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. Jeremiah 1:7.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of Jeremiah.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Story of Jeremiah.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Taking a Stand for God.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Attacking Entrenched Evils.

I. Jeremiah's Call (1:1-10).

1. It was pre-natal (vv. 4, 5). Before Jeremiah was born God ordained him a prophet to the nations.

2. His diffidence (v. 6). This seems to have grown out of his youth and inexperience.

3. His hesitancy overcome (vv. 7, 8). God graciously appeared to him and made clear that he should go where sent, speak as commanded, and to be not afraid of the faces of his enemies. This was accompanied by the assurance of the divine presence. It matters little as to the strength of the foe if the presence of God is with the messenger.

4. The divine message given (v 9). The very words were put into the prophet's mouth, not merely the thoughts but the proper words to express the thoughts.

5. The nature of his ministry (v. 10). It was to be wider than that of prophesying. Six words were given as descriptive thereof. The first four are destructive in their implication; "root out," "pull down," "destroy," and "throw down." The last two are constructive; "build" and "plant." The destructive precedes the constructive.

II. Jeremiah's Grief (9:1).

The unbelief of the people made him feel that his efforts were fruitless. Seeing so clearly the awful doom which awaited this people, he wept sorely. The true prophet of God takes to heart the seriousness of his ministry and sorely grieves over the wicked unbelief of the people.

III. Jeremiah's Prophecy in the Temple Court (26:1-24).

1. Jeremiah's solemn warning to Judah (vv. 1-7). The Lord commanded him to stand in a conspicuous place in the Temple and proclaim the judgment which was about to fall upon them. The object was to provoke them to repentance. If they did not repent, God would make the Temple as Shiloh. Shiloh was once the dwelling place of God; now it had fallen into decay. So will it be with the Temple. Jeremiah was sent to speak the words which his Lord had told him and not to diminish a word.

2. Jeremiah on trial (vv. 9-11).

a. Cause of arrest. He was arrested for speaking all that the Lord had commanded.

b. The charge (vv. 8, 9). They charged him with a capital crime, which involved pretending to speak for God and speaking against the Temple and the city. This would make him to be guilty of blasphemy and sacrilege, both of which were to be punished by death (Deut. 18:20; Lev. 24:16).

c. The princes sit in judgment (vv. 10, 11). We thus see that matters of state were not entirely in the hands of priests, but in part were controlled by members of the royal family.

3. Jeremiah's defense (vv. 12-15) Threats of death did not deter him from preaching, but only inspired him to repeat his message with clearness and tenderness.

a. Reiterated the divine commission.

b. He urged them to amend their ways and to obey God and thus avert the divine judgment (v. 13).

c. He gave himself up (v. 14). He did not resist the powers of government. Knowing that God had sent him, he was content to trust God for deliverance.

d. Warns of fatal consequences. He frankly told them that God had sent him and if they killed him they would be guilty of defying God.

4. Jeremiah saved (vv. 16-24).

a. The princes pronounce him not guilty (v. 16). They were convinced that Jeremiah was speaking the truth.

b. The elders plead for Jeremiah (vv. 17-23). They cited two cases; Micah (vv. 18, 19) and Urijah (vv. 20-23). They argued that killing God's prophets did not turn aside his judgment but intensified it. The only way to avert the judgment is to turn from their sins.

c. Jeremiah rescued by Ahikam (v. 24). He was a man of such influence that he was able to interfere at such a critical time.

Daily Living

He is wise who can instruct us and assist us in the business of daily virtuous living; he who trains us to see old truth under academic formularies may be wise or not as it chances; but we love to see Wisdom in unpretending form, to recognize her royal features under week-day vesture.

Blessings

Reflect upon your present blessings of which every man has many; not on your past misfortunes, of which all men have some.

HEAD OF ALA. POWER CO. TAKES ISSUE WITH STATE R. E. A. HEAD

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 7.—Thomas W. Martin, President of Alabama Power Company, today commented as follows upon a statement given to the press of Alabama by Gordon Persons, Chairman of the Rural Electrification Authority of the State and widely published by the newspapers during the past week.

"I was surprised and amazed," he said, "when I read in the papers the statement of Mr. Persons, who purported to speak for the State Rural Electrification Authority, and the advice he gave and appeal he made to farmers and farm communities desiring the extension or building of electric lines so that they might enjoy the advantages of electricity in the home and on the farm."

Mr. Persons is quoted as having said, among other things, "Rural residents who wish to ever obtain the benefits of the Government electrification program should be sure not to sign any agreement or contract for electricity with any private power company before first taking up the matter with your State Authority in Montgomery."

For 14 years Alabama Power Company has made intensive studies, conducted many experiments and pioneered in the field of rural electrification. It has built lines which are now serving 38,000 customers classed as rural according to the Federal census and has exended several million dollars to extend its rural lines. Its program for this year authorizes the construction of some $800,000 of rural line projects to be constructed with its own money.

In so doing we have been encouraged by the R. E. A. at Washington and supposed of course, the State Authority was in accord with the national board.

The farmers of Alabama know that Alabama Power Company has been for many years building rural lines, through the depression period as well as before, that it is still building them and will continue to do so whenever and wherever proposed projects are reasonable and when the cost and economic conditions render them sound and feasible. This is its duty under the law and is consistent with its long time record of doing all in its power to advance the agricultural and industrial interests of the State and the Company's policy will be continued.

Confident that business initiative, good judgment and a sense of fair play prevail among the rural residents of the State, our Company will continue to make surveys, consult with farmers, and, when desired, offer them contracts and agreements which it is content for them to judge upon their fairness and business soundness.

RULING LOOMS ON COTTON ACT

Supreme Court Expected To Decide On Validity Within Few Weeks

Washington, Oct. 8.—The American farmer soon will learn whether compulsory limitation of crop production is constitutional.

The Supreme Court, which began its fall term Monday, already has promised to pass on the validity of the Bankhead cotton control act and a decision probably will be announced within a few weeks.

Other legislation which will be affected by the court's ruling in this case are the Kerr-Smith tobacco control act and the section of the AAA amendments passed last session to tax potato production in excess of a definite quota. All these laws have been passed since President Roosevelt took office.

The Bankhead act imposed a tax of 50 per cent of the market price of all cotton ginned above a fixed quota. To show compliance with the act, a grower must attach a certificate to the cotton saying it either is exempt or the tax has been paid.

Planter Asks Ruling

Lee Moore, a Clint, Texas, cotton planter, in asking the Supreme Court to pass on the dismissal of his suit by lower courts, asserted:

"It is imperative that an authoritative decision be now given by this court showing just how far congress may carry regimentation of agriculture and business.

"The continuance of this legislation is increasing, with enormous rapidity, the raising of cotton in foreign countries, and threatening the very existence of the principal southern industry."

Among other things, Moore contended the act violated the constitutional provision that no person should be deprived of property without due process of law.

He originally brought suit against the Texas and New Orleans railroad to compell it to ship some of his cotton which had no tags.

Billingsley News

Mr. Paul Vinson, of the University spent the past week end here with his mother, Mrs. J. C. Vinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King had as their week end guest, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King, of Holtville.

Mrs. J. W. Patillo and son, William H., made a business trip to Prattville Saturday.

Mrs. J. N. Caarter has returned after spending a few days in Montgomery with her son, Ralph.

Mrs. Marvin Carter, of Clanton spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. B. F. Numey.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson and son, Henry, and Mrs. Wimberly visited friends in Montgomery Saturday.

Mr. M. D. McQueen, of Jones was shaking hands with old friends in our town Monday.

Rev. J. Peacock preached two very interesting and inspiring sermons at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Bertha Dennis spent Sunday afternoon with her brother, Aaron, of Clanton

Quite a number of young people of our town attended the ball game at Clanton last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Plyer of Sheffield visited relatives here during the week end.

POOR O

SOCIETY

Cooking School Here October 16th and 17th

Members of Circle No. 6 are sponsoring a cooking school in the basement of the Baptist church October 16 and 17. Everybody is cordially invited. Miss Margaret Hill, who conducted the school last year, will be here again. Do you remember the wonderful prizes that were given away? Who won that Armour's Ham?

Be sure and have your name in the box this time. You may be the lucky person. Numerous prizes will be given. Remember the date, Wednesday and Thursday, October 16th and 17th.

Mrs. Grady Heflin Hostess To Sewing Club

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Grady Heflin was hostess to members of her sewing club. The home was decorated in a profusion of fall flowers. Sewing was enjoyed during the afternoon. A delicious salad plate was served to the following members and guests:

Mrs. Billy Smith, Mrs. Dewey Rockett, Mrs. Loren Smith, Mrs. John Mullins, Mrs. George McCain, Mrs. Earl Parrish, Mrs. Milton Smith, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. Spurgeon Calloway, Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. Hester.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Birmingham spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Heflin.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes Entertains Thursday Contract Club

Mrs. J. W. Hayes was hostess to members of the Thursday Contract Club on last Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The living and dining rooms were decorated in a profusion of dahlias, gardenias, lilacs and roses. Two tables were arranged for bridge.

After a series of games Mrs. J. Hance Alred was presented a pretty sugar and cream set for club high score. Mrs. Oscar Jones received a dainty handkerchief for the guest prize.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Margaret Floyd. The club members present were Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. J. Hance Alred, Mrs. Grady Reynolds. The guests present were Mrs. Dubb Huddleston and Mrs. Oscar W. Jones.

Wednesday Card Club Eentertained By Mrs. Frank Callen

Members of the Wednesday Card Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Frank Callen when she entertained them last Wednesday afternoon. Baskets of specimen dahlias were used to decorate the spacious living room in which three tables were arranged for bridge.

Miss Julius Burnett held high score and was awarded the prize. Delicious refreshments were served the guests who were as follows:

Mrs. H. M. Simpson, Mrs. J. Hance Alred, Mrs. Julius Burnett, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. John Deramus, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. John D. Mullins, Mrs. Dick Hayes Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. John Browder, Mrs. J. C. Page.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Broadhead and son, Hal, of Montgomery, were the week end guests of friends and relatives here.

Clanton Study Club

The Clanton Study Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. John D. Mullins at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. The lovely new home was effectively decorated in baskets of dahlias and roses. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Macy F. Jones, club president. The club collect was read in unison. Reports were given from the civic committee. Dues were paid by each member. Roll call was answered by current events after which a most interesting program on "The Family" was given. Mrs. J. P. Hayes gave a most interesting paper on "Tynes of Families" Mrs. P. D. Wilson discussed "Family Regulations of the Primitive Family."

Mrs. Mullins served tea and waffles to her guests who were Mrs. Bert Inzer, Mrs. J. E. Gowan, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. J. W. Hayes, Mrs. Dan Hagon, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. Mason Jones, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. Renfro Mullins, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Norman Roberts, Mrs. Barney Roberts, Mrs. L. C. Ross, Mrs. J. M. VanDerveer, Mrs. L. C. Warr, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. M. L. White, Mrs. P. D. Wilson.

The club will meet next month with Mrs. J. R. Mullins.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Plier were in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. Mack Wyatt from Tuskegee, Alabama, spent Sunday in Clanton with his homefolks. Mr. Wyatt is manager of A & P Tea Co., in Tuskegee.

Mr. Hoytt Reynolds of Tuskegee spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds.

Mrs. Murphy, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Durwood Mullins, has returned to her home in Aliceville, Alabama.

Mr. C. A. Zeigler of Birmingham spent Thursday and Friday in Clanton on business. Mr. eZigler is auditor for Hayes Chevrolet Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duncan and children spent Sunday in Birmingham with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Warrene Farrior, who is district supervisor of relief in Montgomery, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Speigner.

Mrs. Morris Nunn spent the week end here with her husband. Mrs. Nunn works in Montgomery at Nachman and Mertiff in the ready-to-wear department.

Mr. Ralph Jones of Birmingham spent the week end here with his mother, Mrs. Willie Jones.

Mr. P. A. Redmond of Birmingham was a visitor in Clanton Sunday. Mr. Redmond is president of the Alabama Mills. His son, Paul, Jr., has been in Clanton several weeks working at the mill for experience in mill work. He is a student at Emory College.

Mr. H. T. Pipes and Mr. J. R. Mullins headed the Clanton delegation at the Shriners inauguration held in Montgomery Tuesday night.

Mr. L. E. Duncan of Birmingham spent the week here with his family.

Mr. Joe Sewell stoped over in Clanton Friday afternoon for a little visit with friends. He was enroute from Tuscaloosa to visit his parents in Titus, Ala. Mr. Sewell is coach for the New York Yankees during base ball season.

Miss Ruth Pardue spent Saturday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Warr and children were visitors in Montgomery Saturday.

Miss Lamar, a C. C. H. S. teacher, spent the week end with relatives and friends in Montgomery.

Mr. Florice Harris of Ashland spent last week end in Clanton with his homefolks.

Miss Kittye Clyde Austin spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayes, enroute to Montevallo, where she spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. P. Heath.

Little Virginia Duncan spent last week in Birmingham with Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon.

Are you interested in the Clanton Grammar school? Be sure and be at the P.-T. A. meeting Friday at 2:45. A most interesting program is promised you.

Miss Arra Jones, of Chilton County, entered the State 4-H clothing contest finals held Friday morning at Huntingdon College. Miss Jones wore a cotton school dress made by herself under the direction of her home demonstration agent, Miss Ruth Pardue.

P.-T. A. TO MEET AT CLANTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL OCTOBER 11

All parents interested in the Clanton Grammar School are cordially invited to attend the meeting to be held at the school Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock p.m.

A most interesting program will be given. Several imortant business matters will be voted upon. Definite plans for the Hallowe'en Party will be made. Refreshments will be served. At the first meeting over fifty mothers and fathers were present. Mrs. Dick Hayes, president of the P.-T. A. urges that this number be doubled at this meeting.

HARMONY BAPTIST CHURCH

This is to certify that Rev. J. N. Green from Jemison, Ala., has been with us conducting a revival meeting. The meeting began on September 29, and continued through October 2nd. He has brought a spiritual blessing to our church such as we have not had in a long time.—Rev. J. R. Duncan, W. L. Rickles, deacon, Mrs. J. W. Caldwell, pastor's wife, A. D. Davis, deacon.

Don't forget the Parent-Teachers meeting at the grammar school at 2:45 Friday afternoon. All mothers and fathers are urged to be present.

JUST RECEIVED

A shipment of Fine WESTERN MARES. Ages from 2 to 6 years old. For SALE or TRADE. Come and see them.

R. W. LOWE

South Clanton, Ala.

NO UPSETS

The proper treatment for a bilious child

A cleansing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow, less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage. Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use a liquid laxative. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

Outstanding

"OMAHA"—Winner, one after the other, of the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, and the Belmont

Omaha is an outstanding horse today.

And in the cigarette world Chesterfield is outstanding.

Both won their place strictly on merit.

Apply any test you like—Chesterfields stand for the best there is in cigarettes.

They are milder . . . yet they let you know you're smoking. They taste better—give you real pleasure.

Outstanding

.. for mildness

.. for better taste

© 1935, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

W. L. Sanders Attacks AAA

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space in one of your columns to discuss the "Agricultural Adjustment Act." I notice The Union-Banner, with a great number of others, are opposing this act. but once in a while I hear someone praising it.

There are always some people for or against an issue because of some friendshi, political or financial obligation, and in this case the merit of an issue is completely eliminated. Before I take a stand on any issue I try to weigh it in the balances of common sense and justice and then it is up to my opponents to convince me that I am wrong.

The Adjustment Act, as I see it, is one of the most unjust laws that has ever been put down on any statute book in America. It, to an extent, took the freedom of man and destroyed the blessings of God. Destroyed food and clothing while millions have gone undernourished and without clothing to keep them warm.

Who can deny this fact? Look about you, and observe the pale faced children in tatters and rags. I know these accusations will be turned down by the proud, who reap the blessings of those who labor, but I am speaking to those who realize the conditions as it actually exists. There could be thousands of women and children made happy and comfortable with the amount of money that is being paid to the Federal Government in taxes caused from the triple A. But no, they must yield the substance of their labor to a group of officials who set back and dictate to them.

Let us take a glance at the foundation on which the triple A rests: "The allotment plan" based on the five year average. Now just what kind of principle is involved in this plan?

The principle is simply this: "As you prospered during the five-year period, continue to prosper, and as you suffered during the five-year period, continue to suffer." That is, if you happened to be financially able to use a large amount of fertilizers and lived in a community whose seasons were favorable during the five-year period, you are allowed a large allotment. But if you happened to have sickness and some other financial disaster and failed to make a large crop you are just out of luck and must continue to make small crops or pay a heavy tax.

I would like for some one to show me some justice in a law based upon this plan.

Any law that discriminates between two individuals or the property of two is unjust and should not be permitted to exist. It seems to me that the triple A is made up of discriminations and the sooner it is discontinued the better off we will be.

The advocators of the Adjustment Act are often presenting figures showing the incr ise in the farmers' income. But somehow they fail to mention the rise in price of the things the farmer has to buy and the extra taxes he has to pay. Looks a little one-sided to state just half the facts but often this is done in order to stay on the payroll.

There seems to be considerable talk about the extra two cents per pound to be paid for cotton where the farmer signs up to cooperate next year in the reduction program. To this I want to say; this offer to a "Liberty Loving Citizen" is a grand insult.

If the program deserved my support it could get it free of charge, but when the sponsors of this program think they can get my support for two cents extra on my cotton they are sadly mistaken, for I AM NOT THAT CHEAP.

Fellow citizens when a program offers a premium for support, that program will bear watching.

W. L. SANDERS.

VERMONT SCHOOL

The P.-T. A. will meet at Vermont Thursday night, October 10, at 7:30 o'clock. This meeting is very important and all parents of the school are urged to be present in order to settle the wood question as the wood is needed. So come ahead everybody and lets make this a good school year the best we have ever had at this lace.

We have a fine faculty to help us this year, a group everybody is well pleased with. Lets all visit the school this year, as it takes all to make the year a success.

Remember the rule "Team Work", and lets all work together as one.

Don't forget the meeting, the date, time and place. Come on out—meet your childrens' teachers, join the P.-T. A., and don't forget the more we get together the happier we'll be.

Mrs. Bob Williams of Guinn, Ala., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Orr.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT VERBENA OCTOBER 18th

There will be a fiddlers convention in the Verbena high school auditorium Friday night, October 18th, beginning at 8 o'clock. First prize will be $5, and there will be several other prizes. Any fiddler who plans to attend should drop a card to Prof. Hollis Hiten, Verbena, Ala.

CHESTNUT GROVE

The health is very good here at present. That is something to be thankful for.

Mr. T. R. Hall and his wife were in town Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Nabors and their daughter, Margaret, spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Anderson and reported having a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sample and their children visited Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Anderson Sunday.

Brother Horace Nabors will fill his appointment here next Sunday at 2 p.m. Everybody is invited to come and hear a good sermon.

Quite a number of our locals will attend the county meeting at Union Grove next Saturday. Let's all go down and do good and we are sure to get good.

Miss Margaret Floyd spent the week end in Clayton, Ala., with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Floyd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayes and Mr. Floyd Smith motored to Montgomery Friday evening.

Jack Hayes returned from Chicago Thursday to spend the winter in Clanton. Jack plays second base with the Chicago White Sox.

C C H S WINS FROM BILLINGSLEY

The Chilton County Tigers won a close decision from Billingsley High school in a heated contest. After going scoreless for the first half the Tigers came through with the only score of the game when the pass from Ermon Johnson to Ernest Parrish was good in the third quarter.

The local boys were in striking distance several times and most of the game was played in Billingsley's territory. Although their offense failed to function perfectly the boys should be commended for their showing on defense.

The outstanding play of Charles Wilson, Emmett Parrish, Ted Reynolds and Captain Frank Hogan was exceptionally good on defense. On offense the wide-awake Williamson and Marlar showed they could use good judgment in the time of need.

The line-up for C C H S was first, Captain Frank Hogan, center; Morgan Reynolds, RG; Ted Reynolds, RT; alternate captain, Jack Gillespie, RE; J. D. Jones, LG; Charles Wilson, LT; Emmett Parrish, LE; Durwood Williamson, QB; Marshal Lee Ware, RH; John Thomas Marler, LH; Vernon Robinson, FB. Substitutes for CCHS were Morris Mims and Ermon Johnson. Billingsley's outstanding players were left end and left tackle.

One of the best attended and most enthusiastic football games of the season is expected here next Friday afternoon, when Wetumpka High school invades CCHS Tigers. It will be remembered that our boys defeatde Wetumpka there last year. They are expecting to retaliate for that game. A huge crowd will be there. Come yourself and "root" for the boys.

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF

City Fish Market

Clanton now has a real up-to-date Fish Market, where Salt-Water Fish and All Kinds of Sea-Food will be carried. The line will include Fresh Oysters, Shrimp, Crab Meat, and Various Kinds of Fish.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 11th

The location is in the Wade Building Next Door the Yellow Front Store. The Public is Invited to Visit this New Place of Business

CITY FISH MARKET

R. C. WATKINS and E. W. PRATT, Proprietors

RIGINAL

STATE JURY TRIAL DOCKET

Thursday, October 10

F. D. Ward, grand larceny and embezzlement.

J. Curtis Ingram, violating prohibition law.

John W. McEathern, violating prohibition law.

T. W. Bryan, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer.

Lorenza D. Mims, violating prohibition law.

Pat Lucas, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

Leonard P. Easterling, violating prohibition law.

Joe Ben McDowell, driving a vehicle while intoxicated.

Albert Thomas, violating prohibition law.

Edgar Williams, violating prohibition law.

Harvie Price, violating prohibition law.

Jesse Adams, violating prohibition law.

Alton P. Barefield, bastardy.

Horace Busby, et als, defaulting bond.

George Cleckler, violating prohibition law.

John Lee Jackson, violating prohibition law.

Belcher Foshee, abusive, indecent, obsecene language.

Jim Driver, assault and battery.

Dewey Anderson, abusive, indecent obscene language.

Guy B. Green, violating prohibition law.

Dennis Campbell, abusive, obscene, language.

Esler Johnson, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Henry C. Cummings, violating prohibition law.

Julius Culp, violating prohibition law.

Elbert Porter, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Otis Cummings, violating prohibition law.

O. T. Cobb, driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Winston Taylor, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Mrs. Reuben Bearden, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

Mrs. Virgil Byers, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Luther Jones, violating prohibition law.

Harmon Stroud, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

Jim Arthur Mims, violating prohition law.

Glenn Chandler, violating prohibition law.

Grady Adams, assault and battery.

Calvin Sammons, trespass after warning.

Oliver Sammons, trespass after warning.

John Pate, assault and battery.

Ada Giles, alias, Ada Maddox, abusive, indecent, obsecent language.

T. J. Parrish, alias, Tera Parrish, violating prohibition law.

Raymond Hayes, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

Perry Thomas, trespass by cutting timber.

Obie Baker, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

H. C. Chappell, practicing medicine without license.

H. H. Conway, reckless driving.

George Franklin, shooting a firearm into a church.

Friday, October 11

Burl Pierce, abusive, obscene, indecent, obscene language.

John Rhodes, assault and battery.

Joe Moore, unlawfully presenting firearms.

John L. Motley, bastardy.

Jesse J. Hayes, carrying concealed pistol and abusive language.

Plea of Guilty Cases

Gattis Deloach, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Ben Roberts, violating prohibition law.

Vestes Brenton Champion, violating prohibition law.

Abram Mims, violating prohibition law.

Judge Barber, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

Jesse Jackson, violating prohibition law.

Levy King, driving automobile recklessly.

Lee Simpson, violating prohibition law.

Jim Fisher, violating prohibition law.

John Mims, violating prohibition law.

Emmett A. Thomas, violating prohibition law.

James Elijah Easterling, violating prohibition law.

W. H. McGrady, violating prohibition law.

Ernest Baker, abusive, indecent, obscene language.

Arch Payton, violating prohibition law.

Charlie Edwards, violating prohibition law.

Polly Love, assault and battery.

Eugene Thomas, violating prohibition law.

Jinks Pearson, violating prohibition law.

Joe Ray, Violating prohibition law.

Geed C. Ray, Violating prohibition law.

Arch Cherry violating prohibition law.

Daniel Matthews Wyatt, violating prohibition law.

William S. Foster, violating prohibition law.

Clay Moatts, burglary and grand larceny.

Dooley Price, abusive, obscene, indecent lauguage.

Tom Thomas, violating prohibition law.

John Mims, carrying concealed pistol.

Norman L. Roberts, public drunkenness.

Horace Mims, violating prohibition law.

Robert Cleckler, violating prohibition law.

Perry Dowell DeJarnette, violating prohibition law.

Monroe Scott, violating prohibition law.

Gip W. Melton, violating prohibition law.

William Baker, violating prohibition law.

Neva Price, violating prohibition law.

Dewey Price, driving while intoxicated.

Henry McCray, violating prohibition law.

Taft Spence, D. Lawrence Spence, Will burns and Mathew Wilson, burglary and grand larceny.

Lewis Webb, drunkenness.

Dolphus Lavert Bates, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Atkins Kimbrel, violating prohibition law.

Andrew Lankford, violating prohibition law.

Truth Ray, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Charlie Heard, violating prohibition law.

Taft Lewis, violating prohibition law.

Tim Donovan, violating prohibition law.

Marcelle Collins, driving while intoxicated.

BUY YOUR NEW AND USED CARS FROM

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman

Clanton, Ala.

Phones 120 and 206-J

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Phone 10, 9 and 2

Funeral Supplies — Ambulance Service

Flowers for all Occasions

Clanton :—: :—: Alabama

All New Thrills With Huge Circus

Mighty Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Combined Organizations Offer Among Vast Hosts of New Features Col. Tim McCoy, Screen's Greatest Western Star, His Indian Village and Mary, the Tarzan Rhinoceros

With one hundred double length silver hued railroad cars, bearing 1600 people, seven herds of elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses, the Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus will arrive in Montgomery, Tuesday, Oct. 15, for afternoon and night exhibits.

The big top, seating 16,000 persons, covers seven rings and stages, a huge hippodrome track and encirculing grandstands, and is one of the great tents, among them the menagerie, sheltering the world's largest traveling zoo. In its center this season will be seen Col. Tim McCoy's Indian Village, with Sioux, Crow, Shawnee and AraPhoe warriors encamped. Col. Tim McCoy, the screen's most outstanding western star, will himself lead his congress of rough riders of the world in the main performances and in the wild west.

The gratest show on earth offers scores of foreign features new to America this year, including a Saharan racing caravan of acrobatic liberty camels and touregs; a morocan sixty-horse liberty act; the largest aerial ballet ever produced, headed by the Annetta and Niletta troupes of revolving fliers, the jennies and the Lydas. Fresh from Europe are the Walkmrs, the Anteleks, the Boumerangs, the Romeos, the Maschinos, the Demenatis, the Willos, the Torrence-Dolores, Lauries, the Polis, the Rooneys, aerial novelty sensations. The Loyal Repenskis, the Sieffenachs, the Walters, famous bareback riding troupes; the two Guice aerial comedy troupes of the lofty bars; the two renouned Wallenda troupes of high wire thrillers, the Otaris, who fly in mass somersault from an aerial cross; the flying Concellas, with Antionette, only girl to acomplish a two-and-one-half mid-anr somersault to a hand-to-hand catch; the flying Comets; the great Con Colleano, only artist ever to achieve a forward somersault on the tight wire; Dorothy Herbert, mad cap rider of reinless jumping horses over fire hurdles, and Hugo and Mario, human projectiles, who are fired at the same instant from the mouth of a gant across the upper reaches of the big top—these are some of the most prominent features of the superb 1935 Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey program, to say nothing of Mary, the famed rhinoceros of the Tarzan motion picture, which is a newcomer to the rhino colony in the vast menagerie.

Prof. Homer Dye, of Birmingham, was among the singers at the courthouse in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. Ruffin of Wetumpka was in attendance at the singing convention in Clanton Sunday.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

WEST END Specials

For This Week-End At

J. H. BROADHEAD'S

Phone 191-W - - - - We Deliver

FOR CASH ONLY

6-LB PAIL — Snowdrift $1.05

3-LB PAIL — Snowdrift 55c

Fresh EGGS 30c
Good — FRYERS, lb 20c

TOMATOES .. 10-oz Can Only 5c

Makerel Salmon Large Can 3 for 2c

WANTED TO BUY VELVET BEANS

Get A Beautiful Cup and Saucer FREE

With Each 48-Pound Sack of Wonderful Marvel Flour For

$2.05

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR ALL COUNTRY PRODUCE

Miss Helen Roberts, who attends school at Huntingdon College, spent last week end with her mother, Mrs. Barney Roberts. She had as her guest Miss Margaret Davis of Greenville, Ala., who is also a student at Huntingdon College.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SUNSETS

Sunset pictures add interest to your snapshot album.

DID you ever stop to realize how considerate Mother Nature is of the amateur photographer? Month after month she changes the appearance of landscapes, trees, shrubs and even the skies, giving us something new to snap almost every day.

She is now slowly shifting her scenery and preparing for her autumn display of new flowers, colorful foliage and last but not least—beautiful clouded skies to serve us with fascinating backgrounds for landscapes and sunset snapshots.

Don't overlook the opportunity to capture a few of these beautiful sunsets for your snapshot album. They add interest to your picture collections and usually bring that highly prized remark from your friends—"There's a beautiful picture. How did you take it?"

An artistic sunset picture possibility is not waiting for you every night in the week so don't rush out the door after reading this and expect to get one. Maybe you will but it is doubtful. A good sunset picture is just one of those things you watch and wait for.

You will find that a foreground of water or a background of hills will add much to the interest and artistic appearance of your sunset. By all means wait until there are clouds, for you will find that the clouds "make the picture."

No set rule can be made on the exposure time for sunset pictures but generally you will get a properly exposed negative if you set the diaphragm at f.16 and the shutter speed at 1/100 of a second. This setting of the diaphragm and shutter depends much on the brightness of your setting sun.

Believe it or not, attractive "moonlight" scenes can be made by sunlight. This is best done during the sunset hour and when there are masses of clouds floating in the western sky which create lighting conditions favorable for picturing "moonlight" scenes. The sun can be wholly or partially obscured and if the light is red, yellow or orange a snapshot exposure with a medium stop opening can be given.

To secure a night effect from a negative exposed in this manner, it must be printed long enough so that all but the highlights will be dark. If you don't do your own printing explain what effect you want to your finisher.

You will get a lot of pleasure taking these pictures and the result will be well worth your time and effort.

JOHN VAN GUILDER.

The Newest Fall Things for Ladies and Men

WE have a very beautiful line of New Fall Dresses for Ladies—in Silk Crepes and Worsteds. The prices are amazingly low, when the quality and appearance are considered.

If you prefer to make your own Dress, we have just the FABRICS you want. We have the prettiest patterns in Woolens, Silks and Cottons.

WOOLVERINE WORK SHOES
FOR MEN

THIS is positively the best line of Work Shoes to be had. And they don't harden from wear and wet weather. Just what you need for the long, slushy, cold winter months. Get Our Prices First.

Join our Rollins Hosiery club plan and get a beautiful pair of Hosiery FREE.

Don't fail to call for your tickets on FREE Chinaware.

FLOUR and FEED SPECIALS

WHITE TULIP FLOUR — For the Finest Baking 24 Pounds $1.10

MO-BISCUIT FLOUR — Every Sack Guaranteed 24 Pounds $1.00

COFFEE — Good Grade Green — 7 Pounds for $1.00

WHITE TULIP SHORTS — The Best You Can Buy Per Sack $1.90

"100 Bushel" SEED OATS Per Sack $3.75

J. R. Mullins & Sons

The Farmers' Friend - - - - - - - - - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

POOR O

J. N. DENNIS

—x—

I take this opportunity of thanking my customers for their loyal cooperation and patronage. To this date I have ginned more than 25 per cent of last years' ginnings.

To merit your patronage, I realize that I must render you such service as will make you money. This I have tried to do by giving you a better sample, enabling you to sell for more money than the average.

At the same time giving you the best service possible in the handling of your seed and getting you the best cotton seed meal on the market in exchange for your seed. At considerable cost I am prepared to grade your planting seed. I again thank my old customers and invite all interested to give me a trial. Let me serve you.

—x—

J. N. DENNIS

Clanton, Alabama

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.

CLANTON, ALA.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

WANTED

Blackgum & Oak Ties

We can take care of 1,000 per Month until further notice. Size 7 x 9 - 8½ feet long and 7 x 8 - 8½ feet long.

Moore & Teel

Clanton, Ala.

COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION HAS ELECTED NEW OFFICERS

At the regular fall session of the Chilton county singing convention in session at the courthouse last Saturday night, new officers were elected for the coming year. For chairman Prof. W. M. Devaughn was named. Ralph D. Grant was elected vice-chairman, and T. E. Wyatt was elected secretary and treasurer.

One of the best singings ever held in the county was held Saturday night and Sunday. There were singers present from far and near and the auditorium was packed to capacity at both sessions. Among the prominent singers from a distance were: Prof. W. Lee Higgins of Boaz, Lenn Porch of Guntersville, Prof. P. B. Shaw of Brookside, Prof. J. E. Marsh of Birmingham, Prof. J. B. Hammond of Wetumpka, Edward Jones of Prattville, and others. The Lackey Quartet and the Marsh sisters quartet, both of Birmingham, were present and sung several times. There were other good quartets, trios and solos.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.

Office Over
MAZAR'S STORE

A PROCLOMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

Whereas, the social and economic progress of the nation is dependent to a large degree upon the development of transportation and communication facilities; and

Whereas, the development of safe and rapid commercial air transportation has made notable progress during the last decade; and

Whereas, a vital factor contributing to the outstanding accomplishments of the United States of America in the field has been, and still is, the establishment and operation of a federal airways system reaching into all sections of continental United States; and

Whereas, the National Aeronautics Association has determined upon recognition of the progress made in aviation, and has set aside the period between September 23 and November 1, 1935, in recognition thereof;

Now, therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate and proclaim the week beginning October 14, 1935, as air navigation week, and I particularly urge State and municipal officials, civic and commrcial organiztions, school authorities, and the press to call attention to the aerial-transportation achievements already accomplished, to set forth the advantages which may accrue as the result of continued development in this field, and to encourage the study of ways and means by which aerial transportation can contribute more effectively to the social and economic progress of the human race.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this twenty-sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-five, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixtieth.
—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Game and Fish News

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 9.—The U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey has ordered a split dove season for Mobile, Baldwin and Washington counties.

The order was contained in a communication to Conservation Commissioner I. T. Quinn.

The first half of the season started Sept. 21 and closed Sept. 30. The second half will open Nov. 1 and close Jan. 31.

Elsewhere in the state the season remains Sept. 21 to Jan. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Eiland and children of Montgomery were in Clanton Sunday attending the singing.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA
9-6-35

YOU'LL never hear this exclamation again—after you have installed an automatic ELECTRIC WATER HEATER. When someone in your family wants hot water, all he'll have to do is turn the faucet. Instantly, crystal-clear hot water will come gushing forth. No fuss — no bother — no delay. And such little cost!

Now is the time to rid your home of the "no hot water" complaint once and for all. As little as $2.50 down will introduce the comforts and conveniences of automatic electric hot water service to your home. You can pay the balance in 28 months.

Electrify your Home*—NOW!

With our Economy Purchase Plan and new, cheap electric rates, you can own and operate an Electric Water Heater, Electric Range and Electric Refrigerator at such a small monthly cost it will amaze you.

See Your Electric Dealer, or

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electricity is CHEAP in Alabama

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF THE

McKEE BROS. SUPER SERVICE

STATION ON THE B'HAM. - MONT'G. HIGHWAY

:-: FORMERLY DEIF'S SERVICE STATION :-:

:-: SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12th :-:

We Cordially Invite You

To Visit This Modern Station And Inspect Our Latest Equipment For Proper Lubrication Using The Genuine

— SINCLAIR PRODUCTS —

FULL 24 Hour Service Call us Any HOUR OF DAY OR NIGHT for Gas or Tire Service, Anywhere

John W. McKee, Mgr. Service anywhere -- anytime Thos. D. McKee

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER
Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)
PHONE 63

SOME SUGGESTIONS

Business has been promised a breathing spell by the Chief Executive of the nation. Some people think this is not enough. A breathing spell, they say, connotes that there may be further throttling of business in the future. One of those who would go farther in an effort to restore confidence is Congressman Treadway, of Massachusetts.

One of the most frequent comebacks which the New Deal supporters make when their policies are criticized, is the query, "What would you do about it in our place?" The obvious answer, of course, is to advise a return to the Democratic platform of 1932 which contains some sound suggestions which have been completely overlooked by those who ran on it. Mr. Treadway includes this good advice in his program for 1936 but he includes some more. Here is his list:

"First, execution of the pledges of the 1932 Democratic platform with respect to the cost of government, the elimination of extravagance, balancing the budget, the suppression of monoply, and the elimination of government competition with business.

"Second, repeal of the reciprocal tariff law.

"Third, repeal of the processing taxes.

"Fourth, abolition of tax exempt securities.

"Fifth, leave reform measures for future consideration and concentrate on recovery efforts.

"Sixth, leave business alone."

Of course, if present New Deal policies are wrong, the first thing is to stop their application rather than to find a substitute. When one is caught in an avalanche he seeks first to get out of the snow before he thinks of acquiring another means of transportation. With this thought in mind Mr. Treadway's suggestions furnish interesting speculation for the future.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

News comes from Nebraska that the Supreme Court of that state has invalidated the commonwealth's old age pension and relief program. In the decision rendered by the Court, which is certainly of more than passing interest to people outside of Nebraska, too, the decision of the United States Supreme Court on the NRA was cited as authority for a portion of the foundation on which the decision of the State Supreme Court rests. In short, the State Supreme Court held the pension and relief act invalid because the legislature delegated certain of its powers to executive officers of the state and to Congress. It will be remembered that the delegation of some of its power to the executive authority by Congress had already been declared illegal by the Federal Supreme Court.

The Nebraska law, it is said, was enacted so that the state might cooperate with the Federal government in pensions and relief. It is said to have provided that the sum of $4,000,000 of the state's money was to be spent during two years and it delegated to a state committee designed to aid the national officers, broad discretionary powers in the execution of the act.

To some people who have not studied the matter carefully it might occur that too much stress is being paid to this question of Congress and its action of delegating its power to the executive authority of the government.

But it is not to be forgotten that the question is one which strikes at the very foundation of American government. Our Constitution provided for a government of three departments, each with its particular duties to perform. It was believed that the system of checks and balances would obviate the danger of autocracy on the one hand and unbridled democracy on the other.

If Congress, the legislative branch of the government, may delegate its powers to the executive department, then it can in effect abdicate, thereby surrendering its authority to an ambitious dictator, should one arise to coerce or befuddle Congress into such action. In short, legislative power in the government would pass from Congress where it rightfully belongs, into the hands of the Chief Executive and finally to such bureaucracies as may be created to apply it. It would then be very easy for a bureaucracy with its departments and divisions to issue orders which had the same force as legislation, without Congress or the public knowing what had been done until the ruling was in effect. And it would be comaratively easy for an ambitious dictator to do his own legislating under such circumstances, once the rule had been established that Congress could abdicate legally and confer its power on the executive branch of the government.

It makes no difference what one thinks of the New Deal and the men who are running it, no difference whether one may be for or against the administration now in authority. It becomes apparent, with a little thought, that any right on the part of Congress to surrender its powers to the executive or any other department, creates a dangerous precedent, and one which might be fatal to American democracy were a ruthless dictator to come into power as some political party's presidential candidate. What is true of Congress is true in degree so far as popular government is concerned, with the rights and duties of a state legislature.

In Germany and Italy and Russia the legislative arm of government has been absorbed by the executive department and we have dictatorship which has destroyed not only representative government but free speech and freedom of the press, to say nothing of other rights which we regard as inalienable. In pointing out the unconstitutionality of action of the Congress of the United States in surrendering its legislative powers to the executive department the Supreme Court has performed a sound, a wise and a patriotic duty.

PENNSYLVANIA SPEAKS

Those reformers who would like to do a little Constitution tinkering, some of whom have suggested that a new amendment to permit the extension of bureaucracy ought to be made an issue in the 1936 campaign, have not been so vociferous since the Pennsylvania primary. Those hardy Keystoners do not seem to have much of a penchant for taking on new Constitutions. A proposal for a new one in Pennsylvania backed by Governor Earle who is quoted as saying that a new document was needed to bring the New Deal to Pennsylvania, was decisively defeated by a majority of something like a quarter of a million. The present state constitution was called a "horse and buggy" document in the campaign but this did not seem to frighten the voters. Perhaps some of them came to the conclusion that horse power is to be preferred to gas in some instances.

Before the primary some of the newspapers who favor constitutional tinkering said that the Pennsylvania result would be a straw to show how the New Deal wind was blowing. Evidently somebody had told them that Governor Earle's proposal would win. At any rate they have been painfully silent analyzing the situation since the proposed Constitution tinkering was so decisively turned down.

Attention has been called to the fact that the proposal for a new Constitution ran stronger in cities like Philadelphia and Pittsburgh than in the rural districts. This was to be expected. It is in the country districts where the people are thinking along fundamental lines. Of course there were no decisive majorities for Constitution tinkering even in the cities. But the significant point is that in the smaller communities there was a decisive vote against such monkey business. Evidently a lot of folks are beginning to realize that government operation and ownership of great utilities and other business enterprises, could easily and logically be followed by public control and ownership of small business and farms. The best way to avoid this, of course, is less tinkering with the fundamental law.

OUR UNEMPLOYED

Unemployment figures which give us an idea of what is going on in the country, do not entirely assure us that the New Deal is working in its efforts to give everybody a job, despite the huge outlays of money in various sorts of Federal activity. For example, the Alexander Hamilton Institute pointed out recently:

"The ranks of the unemployed in the United States were increased by 223,000 persons in July. This raised the total unemployment figure to 13,019,000 from 12,796,000 in June. There were more persons unemployed in July than in October, 1933, when the figure was 12,810,000. The July figure thus revealed that progress toward the solution of the unemployment problem since the brief spurt in employment after the bank panic is still lacking."

This seems to furnish one answer to the question of whether the nation is better off than it was three years ago. Every unemployed person is a charge against the resources of the nation. And the unemployment figures are all the more significant due to the fact that there has undoubtedly been an increase in those working for the government since March, 1933. As a matter of record, Uncle Sam's payroll has "gained" about 170,000 persons and the end is not yet. In Washington the government is taking over not only business buildings, but residences and apartments to house the additional New Deal bureaucracies. In addition to the 170,000 there are more than 100,000 "farmers" on the payroll helping to administer phases of the AAA program. The payroll does not stop, of course, with those regularly employed by government work. Relief checks have gone out to many millions more.

Still the employment figures in private business are disappointing. Perhaps having a little less government in business might help, by aiding in balancing the national budget and reducing taxes.

A LESSON IN OIL

One New York statistician estimates that while the average earning per share of the oil companies last year was $1.02 the taxes average earning per share, more than five times as much. The innocent people in the United States who still believe in Santa Claus and still hug the delusion that the rich can be compelled to pay the taxes, ought to find an eloquent illustration of the folly of their ideas in the oil busines.

There is perhaps no other industry in America as heavily taxed as the one producing, refining and selling oil. Yet the Rockefellers do not pay this tariff. The fellow who drives an automobile pays.

There is now so much oil in the United States, still underground, that the government has had to step in and help the states and producers cut down the flow so that the market would not be flooded with the viscuous fluid at something like ten cents a barrel. Yet despite this tremendous oversupply, and new fields are constantly being brought in and pinched down to a non-productive basis, the price of the finished product remains high to the motorist who has to drive up to the side of the road occasionally and have the old tank filled. What is the reason? There is only one answer—taxes. Perhaps we couldn't get along without these taxes, but the nation would benefit if they could be lowered.

Yet the fact remains that the oil barons do not pay the taxes. We drivers of the flivver pay them when we buy the finished product. What is true of the oil business is true in a degree of other industries. The way to lower the tax burden on the poor man is not to try to push it off on somebody else, because that is impossible. The correct method is to cut out public extravagance so that fewer taxes will have to be collected.

POLITICALLY, ALSO, HE RACES

Sir Malco'm Campbell, interviewed by the New York press when he arrived to try for the new speed record on salt beds of Utah, said that a European war, with the Ethiopian affair as tinder, seems inevitable—and that inevitably, too, the United States will be drawn in. We should stand beside England, he vowed, as the sole means of preventing war.

"A union of the English-speaking people now would stop it. It should be done because the United States will be drawn into a war anyway."

Clearly another instance of the wish being father to the thought. Isn't there a lingering recollection, in this country, that once we undertook to save civilization, and after the victory were vilified for our sacrifices? Sir Malcolm is a great automobile driver; no doubt of it.—Portland Oregonian.

Secretary Hull has invoked the Kellogg pact but most European nations who signed it seem to have forgotten what it was all about.

MAN IN THE MOON

FORD FOR PRESIDENT

Have you ever noticed the difference in the methods of management of two like enterprises? I'm sure you have. Both start out about even. One prospers, the other fails. These widely different results are caused by difference in management. One has the care of a careful manager, one who watches all the corners, keeps all employees satisfied and loyal to the company they work for. The result is a smooth-working unit that gets results—results that build a great concern. The other is managed in a slack manner, little odds and ends are overlooked, dissatisfaction over working conditions among employees is ignored. The result is a disorganized force, open rebellion breaks out, and the result is ultimate failure.

The management of the government is along the same lines as a business enterprise, only on a bigger scale. It is one of the weaknesses of a system of government such as ours that politicians gain the reins of government, rather than good business officials. The average politician is not looking out for the common good—he seeks to build a powerful machine in order to rule, and looks forward to keeping that machine well oiled and in perfect working condition for future political safety for himself.

The present administration is a fair sample of a political set-up, although, in fairness to Mr. Roosevelt, I might add that there is not so much more dissension among the ranks of the Roosevelt political house than is the usual rule. The fact remains, however, that where there should be close union, there is dissension. Two of Mr. Roosevelt's lieutenants, Mr. Ickes and Mr. Hopkins, who should work in perfect unison, are forever at each other's political throats, and these are only two of the many like them.

In Mr. Ford's organization at Detroit one may see the nearest approach to the perfect business machine that is possible to imagine. There is no dissension—the machine is as well oiled as any in the giant Ford factory. One cause for this is competent management, and another is the confidence that Mr. Ford inspires among his employees, high and low. They all have implicit confidence in his business ability. They KNOW that he has never failed them, and they have just reason to believe that he never will. If he can manage his factory, one of the biggest in the whole industrial world, so efficiently, why should he not be able to apply his business principles to the management of the nation? We believe he could. And, further, we believe those principles of sound business management would work wonders in the administration of the national government.

Briefly, Mr. Ford's system is one of economy, inspiration of loyalty and confidence among his followers, and a policy of fairness toward all of them. This same system will work in government administration as well as in business. Mr. Ford is a master in his line. We believe he would do as well in governmental affairs if given the presidency. What do you think?

THE AAA TRAP

Do you remember the example this column presented about a year ago to show how the AAA was gaining control of farmers? It was the story of the snake and the frog.

A snake caught a frog—just by the toe. The frog kicked a little, but not so much, seeing no immediate danger, and willing to let the little snake have his fun. Pretty soon the snake, whose head was far smaller than the frog, twisted and squirmed, and managed to swallow the frog's foot a little deeper. More twists and squirms followed, each time putting the frog deeper in the snake's mouth. Finally the frog became alarmed and began to put up a real fight, but the snake had a real hold by that time and he wouldn't let go. It seemed impossible that a small snake head could swallow t fehorg's body, when one leg was down, but the other leg kind of doubled up, and pretty soon the little old froggie slipped in.

That is exactly what has happened to farmers. First the AAA had only a toe hold, and the farmers merely sat still and watched. That was when they were asked to plow up cotton. Next the farmers were ASKED to sign crop reduction pledges. They did. Once signed, they came to find that they had signed a paper giving the AAA the right to regulate their whole business for them. Now they are not ASKING that farmers sign, but are DEMANDING that they sign, or they will be discriminated against. And the extra 2-cent cotton loan is held as a club over farmers' heads as an attempt to FORCE them. The frog has been swallowed, finally and completely. It remains to be seen whether he will swell up and burst Mr. Snake's belly or not. That is his only hope to live.

Governor Talmadge recently likened the situation to a trap. He says:

"The Federal government, through the AAA, got the farmer in a trap and then sprang the trigger on him. And now the AAA is telling the farmers to sign up for another year, with the 2-cent bonus on cotton as a kind of club to force measures. My advice to farmers is to sign nothing. I am advising this, not because I believe in setting farmers against their government, but because of the bitter experience of the last few years which prove that with the government interfering in business gets a bunch of office holders a job runing around over the country telling people what they CAN do—not what they SHOULD do—and the farmer has come out on the little end of the horn. There is no processing tax on silk and rayon and practically none on jute and paper, and these articles are daily competitors of cotton".

From different parts of the country come reports that many farmers, stock raisers, etc., feel about the same way about it all. Gov. Talmadge just happens to be one of those fellows who has the courage to stand up and speak right out in meeting and tell the big-wigs where to head in.

If the government is so set on getting something signed, we would like to suggest. Why not let the government sign an agreement to draw in its slimy AAA claws and give the farmers a chance to attend to their own business for a change. Business has been given a "breathing spell", why not give the farmer one, too?

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

From time to time we have the AAA's smart fellows compare the condition of farmers now with that of a few years ago. They always point to the fact that cotton is 10 cents a pound now, where it was five or six, and they stop right there, because there is nothing else that can be said for the program. The next time one tells you that, get him to take his pencil in hand and figure the whole problem out. Let's take a problem and work it for ourselves, and if there is a slip in our system or our figures, step right up and tell us.

Suppose you are a 1-horse farmer who usually raised six bales of cotton, before the reign of the AAA, got 5 cents a pound for it, and just broke even with the world every year with the $150.00 you received for it. If you have received the normal reduction, you are now allowed about three bales, at 10 cents, which still brings about $150.00. Add to this the approximate $25.00 rental check you received from the government, making $175.00 as your income. We might stretch a point and allow that you receive $50.00 for rental, bringing your income to $200.00. This gives you a present income of $200.00 a year against $150.00 before the AAA program set in.

Now, statistics published by the Federal government are that living costs are up 118 per cent—in other words, it will take $2.18 now to buy the same goods that you could buy before for $1.00. At that rate, you could buy the same goods for $91.74 when cotton was five cents a pound as you can buy now for your $200.00. If you were just breaking even at five cents a pound for your cotton, your living costs are now approximately $327.00, which puts you in the whole $127.00 a year.

We are not advocating low prices, but are trying to prove that prices are more out of joint now than they were before the government took charge of everything. You can easily figure your own problem. If you are an average farmer, your income is now substantially the same as it was two years ago, while your living costs have a little over doubled. Try that out on your dulcimer, and see how the tune sounds.

NEW FARM PRODUCTS

According to Francis P. Garvan, president of the American Chemical Foundation, American farmers are on the threshold of good fortune if they are only wise enough to stretch out their hands and help finish the job that research chemists have begun for them.

The prevailing idea is that the most important function of farming is to feed the nation, and, in some degree clothe it. However, with the help of the chemists, ways are being found whereby farms and farm products can enter into other fields of endeavor rather than feeding and clothing people. It has been said that "the farms of America can feed and clothe the nation with one hand", meaning that the farms can raise twice enough foodstuffs and raw materials for clothing as the nation would require. The logical thing to do, then, would be to do everything possible to put agriculture into these new fields.

America has an army of 20,000 trained chemists and chemical laboratories worth $300,000,000 which chemical interests are eager to throw into cooperation with agriculture. One of the leaders of this movement to use many agricultural products is Henry Ford. He has specialized on the use of soy beans, from which he secures oils for paints and lacquers and plastic materials for window trim panels, etc., in the production of his cars. The Ford Company has prepared a booklet showing in detail the quantities of the many different farm products it uses in the ionstrurtion of one of its units.

Motor fuels can be made of farm products and mixed with gasoline giving a much improved fuel at far less cost, and this industry is expected to open up in the near future. For instance, science tells us that the lowest price gasoline may be taken, mixed with a 20 per cent mixture of alcohol, and the result is a motor fuel of the finest grade, such as is used in airplanes, racing cars, etc. Some of the ferm products which yield a high percentage of alcohol are corn, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, sugar beets, sugar cane, and other Southern grown products. This new industry should open new farm markets and help solve the farm problem.—Man in the Moon.

COMMENT

The Democratic Baltimore Sun sees in the Pennsylvania constitutional revision issue a clear drawing of lines between "the New Dealers and the opponents of their plans for promoting 'the more abundant life'. Pennsylvania voted emphatically in the negative."

The Sun remarks that prior to the election "dispatches to the outside press that the outcome was awaited by national Democratic leaders with greatest interest."

The result doubtless is not so interesting to the Raw Dealers.

The New York Herald-Tribune says that the Pennsylvania constitutional revision vote "on top of the slap to the New Deal administered in Rhode Island six weeks ago cannot be dismissed as insignificant. On the contrary, it seems to be one more clear indication that, for the industrial East, at least, the 'more abundant life'—for the New Deal politicians—has very definitely lost its charm."—Uniontown, Pa., Herald.

AN ENDLESS CHAIN

The government has gone from one pitfall to another in its effort to whip agriculture into line, but it does seem as if the potato control law will strain endurance to the limit.

Coercion and restraint would seem to have reached their masterpiece in this law, yet it is only a logical restriction attempted in the right to raise other crops, the more the farmers have turned to potatoes, and the more they are curbed in potatoes the more they will turn to something else.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

They call it slum removal and slum clearance in Washington and under these titles they sell it to the American people as something socially desirable. But what it all comes to is the removal of bum real estate from the hands of owners who didn't know what to do with it and ought to be glad to be rid of it at almost any price.—Chicago Tribune.

The three R's have been changed to radios, radicalism and relief.—Augusta, Kansas, Gazette.

Here is a police court item you can expect after December 1: "John Jones of 111 Hill Street was arraigned before Police Judge Smith this morning on a charge of potato bootlegging. He will demand a jury trial. It is said Jones' defense will be that he was not carrying potatoes in his pocket to sell but only to guard against rheumatism."

Even if the Republican Party is secretely collecting a war chest it is nothing to get excited about, so far as practical results are concerned. Remember that five billion dollars relief fund provided by the last Congress? Counting it in terms of American voters somebody has figured out that it amounts to $125 a head.

One hears speeches from South Carolinians defending the New Deal, but the fact that the national debt has passed the highest point in the peactime history of the country, that it is twenty-nine thousand millions of dollars and increasing about four thousand millions a year, is not mentioned.—Charleston, S. C., News and Courier.

SALUTE TO DUKE SPUD

The Democratic administration is about to confer the highest order of commodity nobility upon our most democratic vegetable. After next December 1 the Irish potato will be promoted to a rank once reserved exclusively for John Barleycorn. More than fifty years ago Uncle Sam conferred the order of the green stamp upon bonded whiskey and prescribed that it should be transported and sold only in official packages. Now the potato is to be awarded similar honors, and the taxation that goes with such privileges and decorations. Only Irish potatoes are ennobled, however. The Southern yam is to remain plebian and untaxed. The yam will remain a yap.

The good old Murphy will be a sight to see when he dons official regalia. Everybody will want to see him, and see him first. What a bunch for a pageant! We suggest that the first official taxed spud be brought to Chicago by special airplane and be paraded through the streets of the city. Mayor Kelly should meet the distinguished visitor at the municipal airport and present the keys of the city. Then, mounted upon a gilded Brink's money truck and surrounded by mounted police and field artillery, the ennobled spud should move toward the loop at the head of a procession of United States senators, Illinois congressmen and other statesmen.

After appropriate addresses of a non-controversial nature in Soldiers Field, the blue-blooded, green-stamped tuber should be placed in a vault in the city treasury—or, perhaps in some safer place, such as the municipal library. As the agricultural capital of the United States, Chicago cannot afford to let the historic ennoblement of the spud pass without appropriate pageantry. Later there will be a Roman holiday at the polls, after the price of patrician potatoes has pinched the plebes.—Chicago Daily News.

The fact that Sir Malcolm, the British speed fiend, drove an automobile at the rate of 300 miles an hour is a good suggestion for one of those Rube Goldberg cartoons that we used to see so much: "It's all right but it doesn't mean anything."

Tons of dead fish were discovered floating on the Gulf of Mexico following the passing of a gas cloud. Maybe they ran into a Congressional junketing party on its way to the Canal Zone or some place.

It is said American automobile interests are much disappointed in their failure to sell a lot of cars in Russia. How would they expect the Reds to run 'em anyhow, without highways?

Several New Yorkers have already put in advance orders for bootleg potatoes. Well, if bootleg potatoes get as popular as bootleg liquor was, maybe the spud surplus will be cleaned up over night.

Mussolini says the League of Nations tried to pacify him by offering him a couple of deserts. Well, if he could put them around our town they would make fine parking places.

General Johnson is going to take the stump in support of the Blue Eagle, it is reported. He might also try to do something for Babe Ruth, the New York Giants, and Maxie Baer.

Secretary Morgenthau has gone to Spain. We think this is unnecessary. There is just as much good bull tossing around Washington, and you don't have to look for it.

An Atchison man who makes a great speech on international peace never has been able to get along with the folks living next door.—Athcison Globe.

After another six months' period, we note that there hasn't been a death in Kent County from starvation because doles haven't been handed out.—State Sentinel, Dover, Del.

The Cooks County Record's Office cut insists that eating bacon will not make your hair curl. No, but paying for it will.—Burr Oak, Kansas, Herald.

It is said that the Brain Trusters have lost five or six resettlement projects and can't find a trace of them. Maybe the prairie dust storms covered 'em up.

Life is just one thing after another. Just as soon as a child actor or actress grows up they spring another star juvenile performer on us.

Here's one advantage. You won't have to hire a chemist to find out whether or not bootleg potatoes are good. One whiff will be enough.

Up in Pennsylvania the people endorsed a "horse and buggy" constitution by a quarter of a million majority. Maybe they are tired of the odor of gas.

It is said that the Democratic National Committee is in debt more than $400,000. But compared with the federal deficit that is mere chicken feed.

It is reported that Sally Rand is going to be starred in the drama "Rain." We suppose she will use an umbrella instead of a fan.

It is said that a new plant in Moscow will print 40,000,000 copies of music a year. And we know what the vocal score will be about.

Our office boy says he knows a blond siren who is so dumb she thinks the Island of Malta is where the milkshakes come from.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of October 6, 1910

Miss Naomi Denty won the prize at the county fair last Wednesday, for being the neatest and most handsome girl present, her garments being of her own make.

H. Greeley Williams won as being the handsomest young man.

In a letter to The Banner W. A. Barnett says: "Republicans, if there are any dissatisfied among you, think well, act slowly, calculate the cost before you vote for Democrats to manage this county's aggairs; think of the past, look at the future, if they should be elected."

Senator Max Hamburger died at Mobile last Sunday.

Rev. M. J. Parrish visited in Birmingham last week.

Married this week—G. C. Harris and Miss Bessie Durbin. N. W. Askins and Miss Beatrice Culver. Sylvester Hynes and Miss Lela Thacker.

POOR O

Mims Service Station

The New Gulf Filling Station, next to the Bus Station is now owed by Joe P. Mims and Melvin Mims, both young men of Chilton County. They extend a cordial invitation to the people of this and surrounding communities to visit their Station.

A COMPLETE

ONE - STOP STATION

WITH MODERN EQUIPMENT TO GIVE CERTIFIED GREASING SERVICE, WASHING AND POLISHING

Road Service

Punctures Fixed

COURTESY

THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE SATISFACTION

They have special Lubricating charts, showing the places and kinds of grease and oils to be used in different places on all different makes of cars. The ARO Lubricating System is used.

MIMS SERVICE STATION

MELVIN MIMS JOE P. MIMS

Clanton, Alabama

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

John Oliver Carnley, father of Judge J. A. Carnley of Elba Coffee County, died after a long illness.

For the first time in 12 years, DeKalb County has a county government entirely composed of Democrats.

Alabama's 1934-35 fiscal year ended with gasoline tax collections showing a $1,160,631 increase over 1933-34.

Postmaster Smith Robbins announced that air mail for Selma has been authorized, to start at once.

Lelia Cantwell Seton Hall, the old state bank building at Decatur has been opened as a museum and civic center.

John H. Peach, Jr., has been appointed superintendent of tariffs under the Alabama Public Service Commission.

Birmingham friends learned recently of the death of Miss Lucille Sinclair Douglass, artist and former Alabamian in Andover, Mass.

All three state convicts who kidnaped a guard, shot a deputy warden and escaped from Atmore Prison a week ago are back in prison.

Leon W. Friedman was elected president of the Life Membership Club of Birmingham Elks Lodge No. 79 at the annual business meeting recently.

Ed Lee Summerville, Pickens County Negro, sentenced to die in the electric chair on Oct. 11, has received a four week's reprieve from Gov. Bibb Graves.

Montgomery, Sylacauga, Demopolis and Talladega Rotary Clubs will hold an inter-city meeting in Selma, Oct. 25, to hear Raymond J. Knoeppel, of New York.

Circuit Judge John Miller has called upon the Dallas County sheriff's office to stop sale of beer, although he said he personally thought it one of the finest beverages.

The month of October has been taken from the open dove season in Mobile, Baldwin and Washington Counties through orders of the U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey.

Early Lewis, 20, was shot accidentally with a pistol at his father's home on Lookout Mountain. The bullet shattered his left arm and it was necessary to amputate the arm.

Appointment of R. I. Ingalls, Birmingham; R. E. Steiner and Frederick I. Thompson as members of the new State Docks Cimmission has been announced by Gov. Bibb Graves.

John D. Petree, state NRA director for the past 21 months, announced his resignation from that office to devote full time to his duties as state director of the National Emergency Council.

The afternoon, evening and Saturday department of Birmingham-Southern College is offerig this year a practical course in industrial chemistry under direction of Prof. George J. Fertig.

A Negro choir of 1,000 voices will sing spirituals in a "Harvest Song Festival" in October at Sloss Field in Birmingham, to launch Autumn activities for a Negro community center at Acipco.

After 18 years of service in which he hasn't seen a single ghost, E. M. Strong, superintendent of Mample Hill Cemetery at Huntsville turned over the keys of his office to Jim Fisk, his successor.

Carpenters, brick masons and the building supply trades are enjoying a mild construction boom under way in Greenville with numerous residential and commercial buildings being rushed to completion.

Charles N. Miller, assistant national director, division of operations, Boy Scouts of America, will discuss "Programing and Council Administration" at a conference with leaders from six councils in Birmingham, Oct. 23.

Birmingham twins narrowly missed having separate birthdays. The twins, a girl and a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. William R. Porter, Birmingham, arrived 21 hours apart. The girl was born at 2 a. m., the boy at 11 p. m.

A rural electrification project calling for approximately 145 miles of lines in Crenshaw, Covington and Coffee Coutles, has been submitted to Washington authorities by the state Rural Electrification Administration Board.

Gordon Persons, chairman of the Alabama Rural Electrification Authority, said in a prepared statement that "to avoid any possible misunderstanding" rural residents should communicate with the REA before signing any contracts or agreements with private power compaines.

Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Mrs. John Mullins and Elizabeth Andrews motored to Montgomery Saturday.

HEARST AVERS F.D.R. CAN LOSE

"Genuine Jeffersonian Democrat" Declared Need of Party By Publisher

New York, Oct. 1.—In an article copyrighted by Paul Mallon and the North American Newspaper Alliance, William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, declares "I think that Mr. Roosevelt can be defeated . . . and I am confident that Govenor Landon, of Kansas, could be elected on the Republican ticket."

Hearst's statement in part follows:

"How can he be defeated?

"It is not difficult.

"He can be defeated either by a Republican with a convincing record of actual achievement or by a genuine Jeffersonian Democrat, known to and trusted by the people . . .

Hoover Not Favored

"I do not think the people are going to vote for Mr. Hoover, for instance, who made as many promises as Mr. Roosevelt, and broke them as completely, as carelessly and as cavalierly . . .

"I am confident that Governor Landon of Kansas, could be elected on the Republican ticket in spite of the four billion eight hundred million dollar Democratic campaign rund, and in spite of Mr. Farley's plans to Tammanyize the nation.

"Another way to beat Mr. Roosevelt and to oust his socialist satellites would be to nominate a notable regular Democrat on a constitutional Democratic ticket. . .

"Could a third party win in this coming campaign?

"Nominate Franklin D. Roosevelt on a socialist platform, Herbert Hoover on a meddle-in-foreign affairs Republican platform; nominate a genuine Jeffersonian Democrat of ability and notability on a third ticket, and the third party would be sure to win.

"Smith could do the trick; Ritchie could do it; Ely, Talmadge, Tydings could do it. But will they?

No, I guess we will have to depend on the Republican party to rescue the country from experimental socialism and restore it to sound and stable Americanism."

Miss Lorena Guy spent the week end in Montgomery with her parents, Miss Guy is a popular teacher in the Chilton County High School.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVAL AT ALABAMA MILLS SCHOOL

Cats, witches, ghosts whew! Meet them at Alabama Mills school, on Halloween night for the time of your life!

There will also be a variety of appropriate games and stunts for all. Come and share the fun with us.

SANITATION WORK BEING PUSHED OVER THE COUNTY

Mr. Floyd Smith, director of the couty's drainage and sanitation work, announces that his workers, with and througt the county health unit, are building sanitary privies over the county. The work is furnished free, where the owners will furnish the material.

Anyone wishing work of this kind done should get all information either from Mr. Smith or from the county health office in Clanton.

Dr. and Mrs. V. J. Gragg motored to Birmingham Saturday to attend the air races.

The Man Who Knows

Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism Pains is SAFE is Your Doctor. Ask Him

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it — in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

Bayer Aspirin

FARM BUREAU NEWS

The farmers of the New Cedron community met on Tuesday night, September 24, with Mr. J. W. Fant and organized a local Farm Bureau and elected officers for same. Mr. Fant gave a talk about the Farm Bureau.

The president called the next meeting for October 1. The officers elected were: Marvin Durbin, president; E. E. Edwards, vice-president; O. H. Lawrence, secretary and treasurer; Woodrow Durbin, reporter. Agter the business was disposed of, Senator Thomas gave a talk on the advantages of organization. After this some good music was rendered by Winston and Alton Culp.

The people of this community have already received some benefit from the one-variety Cotton Club. The local representative of the Alabama Cotton Cooperative Association is paying this club 50 points or more for their better staple cotton than they are for seven-eighths inch staple. This club is using Dixie Triumph, a wilt resistant cotton, which produces a fifteen-sixteenths inch staple or longer.

There will be a meeting at the Popwell school house next Tuesday night, October 8th. Everybody is invited to come out. The program committee is planning to have a licensed cotton grader out to show us and tell us about the different grades and staples of cotton. There will also be other interesting features on this program.—Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Higgins have announced the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home Saturday, October 5th, whom they have named Sadie Ann, for her grandmothers.

FOR HAIR AND SCALP
JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
The Antiseptic Scalp Medicine—Different from ordinary Hair Tonics—50c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists
Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

NOTICE

Dr. T. T. Taylor of Birmingham, Ala., at Langston Drug Co., Jemison, Ala., Thursday, October 24th, Examining eyes and fitting glasses. At Maplesville Drug Co., Maplesville, Ala., Friday, October 25. Satisfaction guaranteed.

666 checks MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day
Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops TONIC and LAXATIVE

MT. SPRINGS NEWS

We are planning a fine program for the third Sunday in this month which is our homecoming day.

Everything is going along nicely and we hope to publish the program next week. We are expecting a big crowd of folks for that day, so come along and enjoy yourself.

Mr. Johnnie Plier is directing the play for that day for us. We think it is good. Won't you come and tell us what you think?

Mrs. Rucker of Elmore is visiting Mrs. Joe Higgins.

TO PREACH AT SHADY GROVE

Rev. Herschel Lynch, a returned Missionary from China, will preach at Shady Grove M.P. Church on the third Sunday night in this month, October 20, at 6 o'clock. Everyone has a cordial invitation to come and we especially invite the Verbena and Chilton Circuits to come and be with us.

Mrs. Ben Sims is visiting in Tuscaloosa this week.

Mrs. W. C. Mauck and daughters, of Birmingham, were here Sunday for the funeral of Mrs. Bone.

New Farm Tire for Cars, Trucks, Tractors

Firestone Develops Ground Grip Tread That Gives Farmers Extra Traction

Any farmer who has ever been stalled in deep mud, snow or soft dirt with his car, truck or tractor, and has had to get out to put on chains, or be towed, will appreciate the importance of a new tire known as the "Ground Grip." It does away with the expense and bother of chains. Yet it rides smoothly and is satisfactory for highway travel.

Firestone engineers consider this tire one of the major developments of the industry, along with the first balloon tire introduced by Firestone in 1923 and the first practical low pressure tractor tire also introduced by Firestone a few years ago. The new tire is made in three types—for passenger cars, trucks and tractors, but the new tread development is used in each.

The unique tread of this new tire cleans itself and will not clog with mud or clay, whereas in some tires the tread clogs up just when traction is most needed. The tread design also does away with bumping—always an objection in other so-called traction tires—because in the new tire the tread projections are so placed that they are always in contact with the road. This is the first time a tire with maximum traction has been built for passenger cars, because traction always had to be sacrificed to obtain smooth riding.

The new tread, with its powerful grip, requires a tire body of extra strength, and this is provided by the use of the patented process of Gum-Dipping the cords. Underneath the tread are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords to give a stronger bond between the cord body and tread.

Since Firestone introduced the low pressure tractor tire a few years ago, thousands of tractors have been changed over as farmers realized the economy of time and fuel, the increased comfort and greater utility these tires provide. Tractor manufacturers have redesigned their tractors in many ways to make use of the increased speed now possible with rubber tire equipment. The new "Ground Grip" tire with its greater traction and other advantages, will gain favor even more rapidly in all kinds of tractor operation, and for truck and passenger car service. Farmers, road builders, rural mail carriers, and others who have tried the new tire say that it gives a new experience in extra traction and smooth operation.

PROGRAMS

WADESONIAN

CLANTON, ALABAMA

THURSDAY, OCT. 10
James Cagney - Pat O'Brien in
"THE IRISH IS IN US"
COMEDY—"Oh, Evaline"

FRIDAY, OCT. 11
Chas. Buddy Rogers in
"OLD MAN RYTHM"
COMEDY—"Raised and Called"
SERIAL—Buck Jones in "Roaring West"
This Picture Will Be Shown Saturday Night at 10:00

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT, Oct. 12
Jack Perrin in "TEXAS JACK"
COMEDY—"Raised and Called"
SERIAL—Buck Jones in "Roaring West"
Matinee 2:00; First Show 7:00; Second Show at 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, OCT. 14 and 15
Bing Crosby - Joan Bennett in
"TWO FOR TONIGHT"
COMEDY—" Sirens of Syncopation"

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 16
Joan Blondell - Glenda Farrell in
"WE'RE IN THE MONEY"
ALSO COMEDY

LIST OF BIRTHDAY PASSES

Clanton—Sarah Smith, Oct. 12; Eva Lee McDowell, Oct. 11; Otis Martin, Oct. 11; Wilton Massey, Oct. 15; Windell Massey, Oct. 15; Calvin Williams, Oct. 13; Clyde Littlejohn, Oct. 16; Mrs. W. M. Brown, Oct. 14; Mrs. Hubert Devaughn, Rte. 4, Oct. 11; Ted Hammett, Oct. 10; Robert Alred, Oct. 14; Zora Guy, Oct. 14; Helen Roberts, Oct. 14; A. K. Taylor, Oct. 12; Emmy Sue Mullins, Oct. 16; L. C. Reynolds, Oct. 11; Mattie Arant, Oct. 11; Alma Allen, Oct. 14; Earle Cox, Oct. 14; Chloe Nivens, Oct. 11; Marvin Scarbrough, Oct. 15; Mrs. G. C. Powell, Oct. 14; Mrs. Clara Tippett, Oct. 10; Flora Mae Mims, Oct. 10; Stanton—Mrs. L. O. Dyer, Oct. 10; Coopers—Richard Adams, Oct. 14; J. B. Morgan, Oct. 15; Maplseville—Ruth Mize, Oct. 16; Mattie M. Garner, Rte. 1, Oct. 13; Crayton Deramus, Oct. 13; Thorsby—Jennie Wyatt, Oct 13.

ADMISSION 10c and 25c

ORIGINAL

SPECIAL FRIDAY & SATURDAY OCT. 11th & 12th SALE

YELLOW FRONT STORE

TOMATOES No. 2 Cans 2 For 15c

Peanut Butter 1-Lb. Jar 15c

Strikalite MATCHES 6 Boxes 23c

SUGAR 10 Lbs. 55c

MILLER'S CORN FLAKES 2 boxes 15c

MACKEREL SALMON 3 cans 25c

PURE—WONDER BRAND—FRESH 2 COFFEE POUNDS 25c

FLOUR

— BIG TALKER —

12 Lbs. 45c 24 Lbs. 79c 48 Lbs. $1.55

— DELICIOUS —

12 Lbs. 50c 24 Lbs. 95c 48 Lbs. $1.85

GOLD MEDAL Hard to Beat 24 Lbs. $1.05

ORIENT None Better 24 Lbs. $1.15

It takes only two pounds of Lard to make up a 24-Lb. Sack of either ORIENT or GOLD MEDAL Flour into biscuits.

OUR MOTHERS COCOA 1-Lb. Can 10c

REX Soda Crackers 1-LB. BOX 10c

VANILLA WAFERS 1-Lb. Box 15c

Flakewhite LARD 4-lb. Carton 55c

WASH BOARDS 25c

10-oz. TOMATOES 5 CANS 25c

DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT

New Shipment, Ladies' Full Fashioned HOSE All Sizes, All New Shades 59c pr.

Ladies Cotton Jersey Bloomers 15c Pair

Children's Cotton Jersey Bloomers 10c Pair

Ladies Heavy Outing Gowns Excellent Quality $1.00

Men's Blue Denim WORK PANTS $1.00 Pair

HEAVY 36-IN. In Several Colors SHIRTING 25c QUALITY 15c yd

Men's Water-Proof Duck or CORDUROY HUNTING CAPS 50c

SHOES SHOFS SHOES FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

We have the finest Line of Ladies Oxfords and Dress Shoes, Men's Work Shoes and Children's Shoes we have ever assembled and our prices are right.

See Our Line BEFORE YOU BUY

Ladies Silk Dresses and Coats and Suits. We get in a new assortment every week. No two alike. Priced from $1.98 up.

Mr. Roy and Coy Kendrick of Birmingham spent some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick, last week.

New 1936 Chevrolet Truck

See Me for Advance Information on this Truck.

L. E. FOSHEE
CHEVROLET SALESMAN
Clanton, Ala.

Thorsby Institute News

The first meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society was held last Saturday night. As this October commemorates the 408th anniversary of the translation of the Bible into English, it was fitting that members of the Bible classes taught by Miss Klingelhoefer, should take part in the program which had the Bible for its theme—centering especially around the Aposte Paul. Aside from a talk by Dora Holt on the missionary journeys of Paul, a dramatic reading "Paul Before Festus" was given by the following students: U. L. Mims, Thomas Hayes, Gladys Martin, Lance Franklin, Norwood Johnson, as characters; Mary Maud Knight as reader. This was followed by a piece entitled "The Writing of an Epistle." The closing feature of the evening was a short play, "The Test." The following students took part: Frederick Dunlap, Inez Jackson, Bernard Adams, Bernice Robinson, Edward Roy. The banner for attendance went to the Pushmataha Club.

A week from Saturday night, at 7:30 in Thorsby Institute Auditorium, those who enjoy music will have an opportunity to hear Miss Katheryn Foss, music teacher at Thorsby Institute, who will give her graduating recital in voice. This recital was given at Piedmont College last spring. Miss Foss will be accompanied by Miss Jane Roberts of Clanton. No admission will be charged.

On the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth of October the first term examinations will take place.

On November second the second open meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society will be held. Every one is invited.

November twenty-third will be the date for the annual stunt night at Thorsby Institute. This is always one of the best programs of the year. It is hoped that many will be interested in attending.

USED CARS FOR BUSINESS

Why not have a USED CAR for a second car for business? Don't deny your family the pleasure of the family car, but see our low-priced USED CARS today.

1929—Ford Pick-Up	$185	1930—Chevrolet Sedan	$240
1929—Ford Cut-Down	$ 45	1932—Chevrolet Sedan	$350
1928—Chevrolet Cut-Down	$ 35	1929—Ford Coupe	$ 85
1933—Ford V-8 Coach	$385	1928—Chevrolet Sedan	$ 85
1934—Chevrolet Sedan	$495	1928—Chevrolet Coach	$125

Is it good sense to let your car run down until it breaks down when you need it the most?

HAYES Chevrolet Co.
Dick Hayes Jack Hayes
Clanton, Ala.

Predicts Modified Capitalism

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — Economic developments in the United States in the next decade will include "a continuation of the capitalistic or private profits system with many modifications," was the opinion expressed here by W. M. Kiplinger, business writer of Washington, D. C., in an address before the Graduate School of Banking, conducted jointly by the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University as an advanced course of study for bank officers.

"Capitalism, communism, or fascism?" Mr. Kiplinger said. "I think we may look for a continuation of the capitalistic or private profits system, with many modifications. The modifications relate mainly to government control, government supervision, government direction of the broad policies of private industry. Profits are bound to be limited in one way or another by governmental action. Not eliminated, but limited, partly by more and more government regulation, partly by heavy taxation."

For over a half century the colleges of agriculture, the agricultural experiment stations and the United States Department of Agriculture have been blazing the trail for agricultural advancement and improvement. Notwithstanding these efforts, the damage from soil erosion has very largely, if not entirely, off-set the benefits from this research. The time is ripe for additional effort, declares a farm authority.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Parrish and Billie Ann visited in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Townsend of Birmingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Manning.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

Regular services at the Congregational church next Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Regular worship service at 11:00 a.m. Communion service will follow.

Choir practice under the direction of Miss Katheryn Foss will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 oclock. The subject will be "Religion to the World."

The Busy Bee Sunday school class of the Congregational church will meet at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

The Boy Scouts will meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the church. The boys will bring necesary equipment for an overnight camp.

Regular services will be held both morning and eveningt next Sunday at the Baptist church.

The Baptist social will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid social will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Nelson on Thursday of next week, October 17.

The Grammar School opened last Tuesday with a short program. During which the Rev. J. W. Jones gave a short talk. The teachers for the year are as follows: Mr. Hayes, of Boaz, principal; Miss Elizabeth Austin, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Leon Mims, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Dera Gentry.

The Eastern Star Sewing club met with Mrs. J. H. Goddard on Friday for an all day meeting and sewed for the Masonic Home at Montgomery.

Mrs. Burt Higgins, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Goddard, Mrs. N. Laurel, Mrs. J. N. McCain, Mrs. J. L. Mixson, and Mrs. R. R. Franklin spent Tuesday in Montgomery visiting the Masonic Orphons' Home.

Mrs. N. Johnson had as her guests for the week Mr. S. J. Wyrosdick of Andalusia.

Mr. M. M. Wyrosdick of Birmingham spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. N. Johnson.

Miss Ruth Foss of Thorsby Institute had as her guest on Saturday Mrs. Carence Stauffer of Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Alton Sumners and daughter of Elkton, Tennessee, spent the week end with Mrs. Malcolm Manning.

Miss Martha Wililams and Mr. Jack Higgins, who are students at Southern Union College, at Wadley, spent the week end at home.

Mrs. G. W. Garrick of Georgia is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Miss Edna Raybon spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson.

Mrs. S. Raybon of Montevallo, Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Edwards of Wilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Raybon of Wilton spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Raybon.

Mr. Phares Raybon spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno Villadsen of Aldrich visited in Thorsby last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Soberg of Birmingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Soberg.

Mrs. Anna Villadsen has gone to Aldrich to spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt have as their guest Miss Zada Taylor of Jasper.

Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt and Linnie Belle spent Thursday and Friday in Callacis visiting Mrs. Leonard Perry.

Miss Jean Swanson of Union Springs is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mixson.

Mrs. J. E. Each has returned from Birmingham where she spent about 10 days visiting her sons, Cecil and William.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moody and little son, Allan, of Birmingham, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merchant were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kemp Kemp on Sunday.

Circle No. 2 of the W. M. S. will meet on Tuesday of next week, October 15th, at the home of Mrs. Tom Robinson.

Mrs. Clarence Agee and Mr. Farmer Seales of Selma spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. S. S. Seales.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Taylor of Talladega visited their mother, Mrs. S. S. Seales Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. Law is on a visit with her sister in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Sharpe and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder spent Saturday in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Piper and Miss Mae Woods spent Thursday in Clanton.

Circle No. 1 of the W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. John Childress on Tuesday of this week.

The P.-T. A. will give a reception on Friday night, October 11, at 7:30, at the Grammar school for the teachers of the school. Everyone is invited.

Miss Elizabeth Austin visited her friends in Montevallo Sunday.

Mr. Hayes, principal of the public school, visited in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blood spent Sunday in Birmingham.

Mr. S. M. Pate, Mr. Earl Marcus, Mr. Fred Howard, Mr. J. D. Cleckler and Mr. Cecil Cleckler spent a few days last week fishing at Orange Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Burnett had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Odis Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Villadsen of Birmingham spent last week in Thorsby.

Mr. Erschel Martin of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his father, Mr. J. R. Martin.

Miss Marguerite Davison spent last week in Thorsby and will leave Wednesday for Kentucky to attend the State Conference.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton of Birmingham is visiting Mrs. N. Laurell.

Mrs. N. Laurell spent Sunday with Mrs. W. B. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Soberg are enjoying a visit from their son, Mr. Carl Soberg, and his wife from Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

Mr. Lewis Johnson of Fort Benning, Ga., is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Johnson, for a few days.

Game and Fish News

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 9.—Reports having reached the state conservation department of some confusion among hunters as a result of new legislation reducing the cost of the fur-catcher's license, Commissioner I. T. Quinn said today that no change has been made in the cost of hunting licenses for the coming year.

"Any person who hunts outside of the county in which he maintains his permanent residence must procure a state hunting license and pay therefor a fee of $3," said the commissioner, "and any person who hunts within the county in which he maintains his permanent residence may hunt in said county by procuring a county license and paying therefor a fee of $1.00.

"All persons who take or catch fur-bearing animals for the purpose of selling the furs, skins or pelts therefrom must first procure a fur-catcher's license for which a fee of $2.50 is required. This license replaces the old $15 trapper's license. In addition to the fur-catcher's license, every fur sold or offered for sale or shipped within or without the state must bear a tag which may be procured at the office of the judge of probate."

Hunting licenses went on sale in this state October 1.

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

MAKE SURE

Come in Tuesday for a free and complete optical examination. You really owe it to yourself to see that your eyesight is perfect. Don't let eye trouble ruin your health.

Eyeglasses reasonably Priced!

DR. M. GOLDNER
of Birmingham, Ala.
Here in Clanton On Tuesday, October 15th, and Every Two Weeks Thereafter.
Office with Dr. J. P. Hayes
Clanton, Ala.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

WIN COLLEGE EDUCATIONS—Four young men were each awarded $5,000 university scholarships at the convention which closed this year's Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild competition. Photo shows (left to right) one senior winner, Ralph H. Munson, 20, of St. Paul, Minn., W. A. Fisher, president of the Guild and vice-president of General Motors, and R. H. Grant, vice-president of General Motors.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS—Speaker of the House Joseph W. Byrns (left) and Senator Joseph T. Robinson gratefully scan the resolution of adjournment passed by both houses of Congress.

PRESIDENTIAL INTERPRETER—George Creel, who 20 years ago was official spokesman for President Wilson, has just stepped into the Washington limelight with an authoritative statement of President Roosevelt's policies and plans for the future. Publication of his statement in Collier's is regarded as clearing the political atmosphere for the fall elections.

FRINGE TRIMMING—Jade green chiffon with fringe trimming was chosen by Virginia Bruce to be worn in "Dangerous Corner." A cowled neck is suggested by the deep matching fringe treatment.

TWO CHAMPIONS—Jack Dempsey, the Manassa Mauler, and Harry E. Wilken, Sr., who has distilled 330,000,000 gallons of whiskey, more than any othe living man.

IN THE "WAR ZONE"—Machine gunners of the 27th Division National Guard prepare for action in the war manoeuvres at Pine Camp, N. Y. Many states took part in this summer's war games.

POOR O

INCREASE IN DIRECT TAX COLLECTIONS

An increase of well over two million dollars in direct tax collections by the State Tax Commission for the fiscal year which ended September 30, 1935, showed the effect of the effect of the more vigorous tax enforcement policy of the Graves regime. When he was a candidate for a second term, Governor Graves told audiences all over Alabama that he would employ enough men in the Tax Department to secure a full and impartial enforcement of the State's revenue laws. Since he took office, the State Tax Commission, under the leadership of Henry S. Long, who is serving his second term as Chairman, has been getting results and bringing in more money by rounding up the tax dodgers. The field force of the Tax Commission has been strengthened and its work is rounding up escapes is a big factor in the boost in revenue.

Total tax collections for the fiscal year 1934-1936 were $15,598,840.03, as compared with $13,231,423.06 for the year 1933-1934, an increase of $2,367,416.97. The fiscal year 1934-1935 which ended September 30, 1935, embraced the last three and one-half months of the Miller regime and the first eight and one-half months of the Graves administration, while 1933-1934 was the last complete year of Governor Miller's term. The increase achieved by the Graves forces came largely through the more thorough enforcement of the existing revenue laws, as the general revenue act of 1935 did not take effect until October 1st. The above figures do not, of course, include ad valorem and privilege license taxes, and automobile tags, which are collected by the Tax Collectors and Probate Judges of the various counties and not direct by the State Tax Commission.

The biggset single item of increase was in gasoline tax, which advanced from $8,859,517.88 in 1933-1934 to $9,994,793.16 in 1934-35, an increase of $1,135,277.28. Several other classes of taxes showed a greater per cent of increase, however. For example, income tax collections more than doubled—from $373,169, to $867,548. Another notable item of increase, due to more effective enforcement was in the store license tax, which brought in $66,259 in 1933-1934 and $104,802 in 1934-1935. The tobacco tax showed a substantial gain, amounting to more than $400,000 from $1,636,109 in 1933-1934, to $2,049,054 in 1934-1935. One of the most significant features of the alties levied on violators of the tobacco tax penalties, which amounted to $4,499 in 1933-1934, and $37,692 in 1934-1935, an increase of close to 900 per cent. This big advance in penalties levied on violators of the Tobacco tax law has gone far to break up the bootlegging of cigarettes and helped bring about the heavy increase in tobacco tax collections.

Clanton Junior Dept. Store

"Quality Merchandise Where Low Prices Predominate"

Customers' Benefit Sale!

CONTINUED THROUGH the 2nd DAY of NOVEMBER

We wish to thank each and everyone of our customers and friends for their wonderful response to this Sale. Our appreciation is more than words can express.

We shall continue until November 2nd, for those who did not have an opportunity to reap the benefits of this Sale. The steady cooperation of our patrons has enabled us to offer BIGGER and BETTER values during the extension period of this Sale. Come and get an "eyeful" as well as your "armsfull" of bargains.

Mr. A. T. Deavers was the winner of the eight dollars in trade Saturday, October 5th, whose address is Route 3, Clanton, Alabama. Mr. Deavers said "I least expected to be the winner, but the fates must have been with me."

Another EIGHT DOLLARS IN TRADE will be given away Saturday, November 2nd. With your every purchase ask for a ticket.

Location—Red Front Store in the Heart of Clanton, Next Door to The Clanton Cash Store

Plain Cotton Talk for Cotton Farmers

BY ONE OF THEIR LARGEST CUSTOMERS

To an engineer, a tire is a machine for leveling out the bumps and unevenness of roads and highways. To a farmer, though, a tire is largely the product of the soil. Cotton and rubber, two principal materials of which tires are made, are grown by Nature.

Firestone buys the finest quality cotton and in the Firestone Factories, the most efficient in the world, they produce the highest quality tires at the lowest prices, so that you may use these tires to operate your farm more profitably. To the fine quality Southern-grown cotton, Firestone adds an extra process that makes the cotton cords stronger, more flexible, and gives tires greater blowout protection and longer life.

This process is Gum-Dipping and is patented. In this process the cotton cords are soaked in liquid rubber. Eight extra pounds of rubber are absorbed by every hundred pounds of cotton cord. This extra rubber binds the tiny fibres together, gives the cords a tacky base to insure more perfect union of cords to rubber, prevents friction and heat by giving each fibre a protective heat-resisting rubber jacket.

All of this adds extra cost to making a tire, but not to you. In fact, it makes your tires cost you less "per mile."

MAKE THESE TESTS YOUR SELF

Rubber will not stick to ordinary Cords, regardless of pressure applied.

Rubber sticks to the tacky base of Cords that are Gum-Dipped.

Note how bundle of ordinary cords fray out when rubbed in palm of hand.

Gum-Dipped cords operate as a unit eliminating friction and heat.

You can get a better tire for your needs at no higher price when you buy a Firestone Tire with the Firestone name and guarantee!

LIBERAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE FROM THESE LOW PRICES.

High Speed Type

Gum-Dipped

Made with the highest grade of rubber and cotton. Accurately balanced and rigidly inspected and we know it is as perfect as human ingenuity can make it.

4.75-19	$8.20	5.50-17 HD	$12.75
5.00-19	8.80	6.00-17 HD	14.30
5.25-18	9.75	6.50-19 HD	17.45
5.50-17	10.70	FOR TRUCKS
6.00-16	11.95	6.00-20	$16.95
5.25-18 HD	12.20	30x5	21.30

Century Progress Type — Gum-Dipped — Equal or superior to any so-called First Grade, Super or DeLuxe line regardless of name, brand or manufacturer.

4.40-21	$6.65
4.50-21	7.30
4.75-19	7.75
5.25-18	9.20
5.50-18	10.40

Oldfield Type — Gum-Dipped — Equal or superior to any special brand tire made for mass distributors, advertised without manufacturer's name.

4.40-21	$6.05
4.50-21	6.65
5.25-18	8.40
5.50-17	9.20
FOR TRUCKS
600-20	$14.85
30x5	18.65

Sentinel Type — Carries the Firestone name and guarantee. Equal or superior to any tire in this price class.

4.40-21	$5.25
4.50-21	5.75
4.75-19	6.10
5.50-18	8.15
FOR TRUCKS
600-20	$13.40
30x5	16.80

Courier Type — For car owners who need new tire safety at a very low price.

30x3½	$4.05
4.40-21	4.75
4.50-21	5.25
4.75-19	5.55

The Greatest Improvement in Years for Farming Cotton and Other Southern Crops.

Farmers who have been stalled in deep mud, soft sand or loamy soil with their car, truck or tractor, will appreciate the importance of Firestone's new Ground Grip Tire. Does away with expense and bother of chains. Made in three types—for passenger cars, trucks, and tractors and farm implements.

CARS		TRUCKS		TRACTORS
4.50-21	$7.85	32x6	$20.25	5.50-16	$11.05
4.75-19	8.50	6.00-20	16.95	6.00-16	12.40

BATTERIES

As Low As $5.55 exchange

SEALTYTE LEAKPROOF TUBES

Sealed against air leakage to give greater mileage.

4.40-21
4.50-21
4.75-21

$2.45

SPARK PLUGS

Quick spark—withstand heat—longer life.

58¢ Each in Sets

Firestone

Billingsley Service Station

Day Phone 235 ROAD SERVICE Night Phone 50-W

The devil told Eve in the garden of Eden to be her own god. You don't need anybody to tell you what to do. Live your own life. That is the substance of what he said when he was tempting the first woman. Adam and Eve decided to be free, but instead of finding freedom, they found slavery and they enslaved the race. The godless, superficial, worldly crowd who imagine they are free are the biggest slaves on earth. They are slaves to appetite and passion. They wear the devil's chains. The freest people on earth are Christian people. Every real Christian lives as he pleases to serve God.

As everyone connected with an educational institution knows, during the first few days of school there are a few students who go back home. You can not gather several hundred young people from all sections of the United States and from across the seas in an educational institution and have all of them strong enough to face life away from home. As I am dictating this article I see a young man leaving. He is the second student who has left. One student left because he said he could not give up cigarettes and we do not allow our students to use tobacco in any form. The one who is now leaving came to my office for a conference. He asked for my advice. I gave it to him, but he did not want advice—he wanted me to endorse his decision to go home. I tell young people everywhere "Get your advice from people who know". If I wish to learn about "'possum hunting", I would not go to Broadway, New York and ask someone who had never been out of the city to give me advice. I would find some good old country man who had a cur dog and had been "'possum hunting". If you wish to know how to preach, ask some man who has preached to great crowds—not musty, cold, dead seminary preacher, who has never preached to a large audience in his life. If you wish Christian advice, do not ask some worldly, godless person. Find some man or woman, deeply spiritual and orthodox and sensible, and ask for advice. You young people who have life's road mation from some Christian man or ahead of you better get some inforwoman who has travelled the road. The writer has made many mistakes, but he always did have enough sense in every crisis to get advice from someone who knew what to tell him. If I had not sought advice from the proper party a few times in my life, my life would have been wrecked for time and possibly for eternity.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Oct. 9.—The question "Resolved: That each state shall apply addequate medical service to all of its people at public expense" has been adopted by the National Debating League for high school debates this year, it was announced by Dr. W. C. Blasingame of the Extension Division of the University of Alabama, in charge of the high school debates in Alabama.

Debates for the state championship will be held at the University of Alabama the first week in March, he added. As before, there will be two divisions, one of high schools in cities of more than 5,000 population, and the other of rural high schools in other towns.

The need for a woman member on the board of trustees of a progressive coeducational university was pointed out by Mrs. J. D. Grigsby, international president of Delta Delta Delta fraternity for women, visiting at the University of Alabama.

"Many matters regarding women students should rightfully be treated from the woman's point of view, which a woman understands best," Mrs. Grigsby said. She mentioned such matters as administration of girl's dormitories, sororities, and others.

Dr. John H. Musser of the Tulane School of Medicine spoke here in commemoration of the eighty-first birthday anniversary of Dr. W. C. Gorgas. Dr. Musser pointed out the efforts of Sir William Osler in securing for General Gorgas his opportunity to work in Panama.

About three hundred and fifty pledges to fraternities on the campus were announced this week. Many of the fraternities have pledged additional men not yet announced.

Richard Mansfield Jones, Tuscaloosa, was elected President of the freshman Y. M. C. A. cabinet. Vice-president and secretary-treasurer were Jimmy Webb, Hangerstown, Mr., and Charles O'Neil, Butte, Mont. The entire freshman cabinet was announced.

The Crimson Tide will meet another formidable foe in Mississippi State this week end on the campus. Coach Thomas is still worrynig about several of the injured regulars.

Thirty-seven new members were initiated into Blackfriars, dramatic organization at the University of Alabama.

At the first woman's convocation last week, Elizabeth Jolley, Downs, introduced the presidnets of the women's extra-curricular organizations at the University of Alabama.

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK HELPS THE FORESTRY

Mnotgomery. — That National Fire Prevention Week, from October 6 to October 12, is designed to aid in reducing the number of forest fires as well as structure fires is pointed out by the Alabama Commission of Forestry. Uncontrolled fires often destroy values of more than one kind. While originally sponsored by agencies concerned with structural insurance matters, Fire Prevention Week, by the very nature of the sentiment and action that it is designed to arouse, may be observed with reference to all values that can be injured by burning.

Fire Prevention Week, as proclaimed by the President, falls at a particularly appropriate time for Alabama. October, on the average, is the driest month of the year in this state. Surface vegetation begins to wither during this month and affords a ready medium for the spread of fire over the fields and through the woods. There are also likely to be brisk winds during October which add very materially to the fire hazard. Alertness on the part of landowners, their tenants and employees is the chief insurance against severe losses during this time of the year.

FALLING THIN BRITTLE

HAIR

BALD PATCHES SPLITTING ENDS DANDRUFF

Hair troubles are usually scalp troubles and scalp troubles are frequently due to a parasite of some kind or other that eats into the scalp and causes infection with consequent irritation, itch, crusty sores, scales and thin and falling hair.

There is one treatment for the scalp that not only destroys the parasites but also helps heal the irritated scalp. It is Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. Not a fancy preparation, but an effective one—and that's what you want, results. The use of Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil will purify your scalp and promote the growth of healthy, vigorous and lustrous hair. Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and is sold by all druggists at 30c and 60c with guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER

EXPERT

Watch Repairing

Diamond Rings and Watches

CLANTON, ALA.

Located on the Highway

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express through your splendid paper my deep appreciation and sincere thanks to every one throughout Chilton and other counties of Alabama for their generous aid and kind, thoughtful expressions of sympathy during the recent illness and death of my loving companion and wife. I also desire to thank God more for the way He blessed us during this time. I feel sure God's will was accomplished, even though the loneliness I feel is beyond expression.

May God's richest blessings abide with every one of you.—Joseph F. Bone.

Miss Ada Holcombe had as her guest Monday her sister, Miss Zemma Holcombe, of Calera.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Venable and children left Wednesday to make their home at Fitzpatrick, near Wetumpka. Mr. Venable is connected with the cotton buying department of the Farm Bureau.

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, OCT. 14TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON

OPTOMETRIST

CHILTON B. T. U. CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT BETHSALEM

The Chilton County B. T. U. Convention will be held at Bethsalem church Sunday, October 13th, at 2 p.m. All Baptist Churches of this association are urged to send representatives to this meeting. The program is as follows:

2:00—Song. Prayer.
2:10—Devotional, Mrs. C. L. Wilkins.
2:30—Roll Call.
2:45—The Responsibility of Christian Leadership, Jim Parrish, Associational Leader in adult work.
3:10—The Place of the B. A. U. in our church program.
3:40—General Discussion.
4:00—Song. Dismissal.

J. Lee Yates, Pres. Chilton County B. T. U. Association; Chester A. Maddox, Secty.

RIGINAL

SALE ON
MEN'S HATS
Men's Snappy Wool FELT HATS $1.50
All Sizes and Colors

Men's Newest Styles and Shape Hats. In beautiful Fall colors of Tokoy, Brown, Snowflake Brown, Snowflake Gray, Snowflake Black and Aluminum Gray.
$1.98
Men's Genuine Fur Felt Hats Wide brims in Brown Black and Tan $2.25
The DOLLAR STORE
CLANTON

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.

Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FOR SALE—1935 Chevrolet Pick-Up, slightly used, first class condition. See Mack Culver, at Clanton Cash Store. 10-10-3tc.

FOR SALE—Entire Stock of used auto parts for sale at a bargain. Located first door north of Clanton Motors.—See R. V. Watson, or call 2404. 10-10-2t.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Alred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

FOR SALE—One dining table for 4 to 12 people; 6 side chairs and 2 end chairs; all quarter-sawed oak. For particulars apply at The Union-Banner. 1tch.

STALLION FOR SERVICE—All-purpose horse; weight 1,250 pounds; dark bay color; works to any farm machinery; fair under saddle. Fee $10. See me for special appointments for community groups; regular service at my place 1 mile east of Clanton.—W. L. Parrish, Clanton, Ala. 9-12-4tpd.

WANTED PEANUTS—The Union-Banner will trade a subscription or two for some good, clean peanuts. The market price, or better, will be allowed.

FOR SALE—One new motor boat, suitable for automobile motor. Is 20 feet long. Will sell for $25 cash. —W. U. Headley, Clanton, Ala., Rte. 5, Mims Ferry. 9-26-3tpd.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—One or all of my 35 herd milch cows.—Sam Wilson, Clanton Route 4. 9-26-3tp

FARM FOR SALE—58 acres, 2 good dwellings, good barns, plenty water, good pasture, 40 acres in cultivation. Four miles south of Clanton on Wilson-Askins Road.—J. S. Davis, Clanton Rte. 2. 10-3-3tp

FOR SALE—1929 Hudson Super-Six 4-door Sedan in A-1 condition for sale or will trade for mule or horse. —A. L. Wampem, Thorsby, Alabama. 10-1-3tpd.

FOR SALE—Farm for sale, 45 acres. 4-room house and good well of water and barn. One mile north of Collins Chapel church. Price $1,200.—J. W. Caton, Jemison Rte. 2 10-3-2p

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

MULE FOR SALE—age 10, weight 1,050. Will sacrifice for $100 cash. —Lonnie L. Cobb, Jemison, Ala. -tp

FOR SALE—One 2-horse wagon, shop tools, and one cotton fowler. Will sell very reasonable.—Mrs. J. W. Lowery, Clanton Rte. 4. 1tp.

FOR SALE—1930 Model Chevrolet Coach. Motor jam-up. New tires and battery. Priced to sell.—Jack Nix, Clanton, Ala. 1tp.

CANE FOR SALE—Blue cane, suitablefor market, 5½ and 6½ feet long.—J. C. Wilson, Clanton Route Two. 1tp

WANTED—Model A Ford Truck. Will pay cash for truck or pick-up. Must be a bargain. No dealers. See or write Lee A. Popwell, Clanton Route One. 1tp.

MELVIN AND JOE MIMS TAKE OVER GULF STATION

The new Gulf Station on the highway, formerly operated by Mr. Venable, has been purchased by Melvin Mims and Joe Mims, both prominent young business men of Clanton. It will be under the direct charge of Melvin Mims in the future.

Assisting Mr. Mims will be Mr. Chester Miller. The place will be known as Mims Service Station, and they will conduct a business consisting of everything usually connected with a first-class filling station. Turn to their big adv. in this paper and find out what all they have that will interest you.

TWO ALABAMA STUDENTS ARE PLEDGED TO COLLEGE CLUBS

Blue Mountain, Miss Oct. 7.—Miss Martha Elizabeth Browning of Bridgeport, Ala., and Miss Dorothy Waite of Clanton, Ala., were pledged to the social clubs of Blue Mountain College last week. Miss Browning and Miss Waite were taken into the Modenians. Like Vassar, Smith Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke and Wellesly Colleges, Blue Mountain never has had sororities. Instead, the Modenians, Eunomians, and Euzelians, mutually exclusive groups, are the mediums of extra-curricular expression at Blue Mountain.

Miss Browning is a junior at Blue Mountain College and is working toward her Bachelor of Arts Degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Browning, and graduated from the Central High School in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and attended the University of Chattanooga for two years. Miss Waite, a member of the freshman class, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Waite, and graduated from the Chilton County High school in Clanton in 1935.

LEADERSHIP MEETING IS HELD IN CHILTON COUNTY

Miss Nell Pickens, Home Management Specialist of the Alabama Extension Service, Auburn, was in Chilton County on Thursday, October 3, to conduct a leadership meeting for the leaders of home demonstration clubs of the county. The meeting was held at the Clanton City Hall with 50 leaders present. These leaders came from 14 different communities in the county.

The program was centered upon "The Comfortable Kitchen" and "What To Buy For the Kitchen." Miss Pickens, assisted by the home agent, gave demonstrations on these subjects.

Prior to the beginning of the leadership meeting, a short business session of the leaders was held. The following officers were elected: Mrs. W. A. Adams, Chairman; Miss Lena Downs, Secretary; Mrs. Mattie L Crew, Song Leader.

21 GALLONS OF COFFEE SERVED AT MATT'S CAFE

Mrs. Mat Ware, of Matt's Cafe, reports that the free coffee deal put on last Friday, wherein Dixie Club coffee was given away, the amount of twenty-one gallons was served to the public.

The cafe was well pleased with the way the people responded to their invitation to have a free drink on them.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PERMANENT PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Oscar Mims, who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Chilton County on May 7th, 1934, for manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still, and sentenced to a term of three years to four years, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for permanent parole.—(Signed) Oscar Mims. 10-2p

CHILTON COUNTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT LIBERTY HILL CHURCH

The Chilton County Baptist Association will meet with Liberty Hill church, four miles west of Clanton, on October 16 and 17.

Following is the chairmen of the committees for this session: Temperance, W. W. Allen, Cooper, Ala; Orphanage, C. C. Conway, Jemison, Ala.; Sunday school, H. D. Durbin, Clanton, Ala; Periodicals, Paul Oden, Lawley, Ala; Christian and Ministerial Education, G. H. Carroll, Clanton, Ala.; State Missions, G. F. Harper, Thorsby, Ala; Home Missions, M. Lockhart, Clanton, Ala; Foreign Missions, W. P. Lowery, Thorsby, Ala; W. M. U., Lera Grant, Route 2, Verbena, Ala; B. Y. P. U., Mollie Miner, Cooper, Ala; Relief and Annuity, W. H. Cook, Stanton, Ala.

Rev. W. E. Robinson was nominated to preach the introductory sermon, alternate, Rev. E. A. Norris.

Rev. Jones urges that all these people on the program be prepared to take their part on the program, or, if for any reason they can not be present, he urges that they please notify either him or Mr. Webb immediately.—J. W. Jones, Moderator, S. J. M. Webb, Clerk.

1935 C C H S FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Prospects are brighter this year for a winning football team at C. C. H. S. than was expected. Twenty-five to thirty boys are out for training every afternoon. J. B. Varnell, director of high school athletics, and varsity coah, states that more determined effort on the part of the boys is manifested each day. A splendid spirit is shown and a feeling of pride is registered on the faces of each one as he dons his uniform for the day's practice. When the whistle blows for the beginning of the game this season, you will find that same old Chilton spirit "rearing to go."

Below will be found the schedule:

Wetumpka High at Clanton, October 11th.

C. C. H. S. at Tallassee, October 18.

C. C. H. S. at Marbury high, October 25.

Prattville high at Clanton, November 1st.

Montevallo high at Clanton, November 8th.

C. C. H. S. at Holtville high, November 15.

Isabella High at Clanton, November 22.

Come out and support your school and team; it is yours whether it wins or loses.

Prizes To Be Given In Cooking School

The date for the cooking school at the Baptist church has been set for Wednesday and Thursday, October 16 and 17. The first day will be at 2:30 in the afternoon; the second day will be at 2:30 in the afternoon and 7:30 at night.

Following is an incomplete list of the prizes to be given away together with the name of the donors:

Clanton Laundry and Cleaning Co., one suit or dress cleaned and pressed.

J. R. Mullins and Sons, two platters.

Clanton Cash Store, groceries and one barrel of Postel Elegant Flour.

Hill Grocery Company, will serve Fit-For-A-King Coffee, and will give other groceries.

Betsie Ross Broad Company, bread.

Merita Bread Company, bread.

Clanton Mattress Factory, one pillow.

Louis Prince Jewelry Store, one bracelet.

Goodman's Beauty Shoppe, 3 shampoos and sets.

The Leader, one pair silk hose.

Alred Drug Company, one 50c jar Amolin cream, one 50c tube Ungentine, one pint Z. L. antiseptic, 60c value.

Upchurch Drug Company, pint Mi 31 antiseptic, 49c box cleasing tissue, box Dasira Talc $1 value.

Nell's Eat Shop 3 meals.

Mazer's, one pair beautiful Dove Down hose, 1 dress print, one pair gloves.

Clanton Building Supply Company, dripolator.

Wingard's, pair ladies silk hose.

Clanton Shoe Shop, pair soles and pair heel taps and one pair shoes dyed any color.

Peoples Cash Store, groceries.

Murray-Bell Hardware Company, frigidaire food saver.

Klinner Furniture Store, 6 by 9 Linoleum square.

Watts Hat Shoppe, one pair ladies hose.

Little Fruit Store, basket of fruit.

Service Barber Shop, one hair cut.

J. R. Kemp, groceries.

Big Four Hardware Store, set of glass cups and saucers, hanging baskets.

Chilton County News, 3 one-year subscriptions.

Ward Bread Company, bread.

DeMabel's, shampoo and set, bottle of permanent wave oil, jar cleansing cream.

E. L. Klinner Furniture Company, table lamp.

V. J. Elmore 5c and 10c Store, glass pitcher, covered sauce pan, cake platter.

Taylor Dry Goods Company, $1.00 in trade.

Sanitary Barber Shop, hair cut any day except Friday and Saturday.

Tiffin Furniture Store, cutlery set.

A & P Tea Company, 25 lbs Eight O'Clock Coffee, 50 loaves bread, other groceries.

Nehi Bottling Co., drinks.

Louise Higgins Beauty Shop, one shampoo set and dry, one manicure.

Lou Beth's Beauty Shop, beauty treatment.

Swift & Co., one ham.

Harmel's, one ham through Clanton Cash Store.

Taylor's Market, groceries.

Clanton Wholesale Grocery Co., 25 pounds sugar, through Bean and Taylor.

Yellow Front Store, groceries.

The Union-Banner, three 1-year subscriptions.

Coca Cola Bottling Co., drinks.

The ladies sponsoring this school, the Baptist Missionary Society, ask the cooperation of the people of Clanton and Chilton county in this school. There are other business concerns giving prizes, whose names are not listed here; but the list was made as complete as possible. The ladies hope that no one will feel slighted if they happen to be omitted.

CLANTON CASH STORE WILL SERVE HOT BISCUITS

Clanton Cash Store announces that a representative of the Colonial Milling Company will be at their place Saturday, October 12th, to demonstrate Lite-Rize, Whiet King, Polly Rich and White Owl Flour.

Everybody is invited to attend this demonstration and get a hot biscuit free. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12th.

NEGRO TEACHERS INSTITUTE

A Chilton County Institute for colored teachers will be held at the Chilton County Training School next Monday, October 14th.

There are 20 colored schools in the county, employing 33 teachers, all of whom are expected to attend. E. G. McGehee, State Supervisor of Negro Education, will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. Clara B. Curry is seriously ill with pneumonia at her home in Clanton.

NEW BUS LINE
CLANTON TO SELMA
EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1st
TWO ROUND TRIPS DAILY

LEAVES CLANTON 8:00 A. M. ARRIVES

Maplesville	8:32 A.M.
Stanton	8:42 A.M.
Plantersville	8:56 A.M.
Vine Hill	9:06 A.M.
Jones	9:14 A.M.
Fremont	9:22 A.M.
Burnsville	9:34 A.M.
Selma	9:55 A.M.

LEAVES CLANTON 5:00 P. M. ARRIVES

Maplesville	5:32 P.M.
Stanton	5:42 P.M.
Plantersville	5:56 P.M.
Vine Hill	6:06 P.M.
Jones	6:14 P.M.
Fremont	6:22 P.M.
Burnsville	6:34 P.M.
Selma	7:00 P.M.

LEAVES SELMA 6:00 A. M. ARRIVES

Burnsville	6:18 A.M.
Fremont	6:30 A.M.
Jones	6:38 A.M.
Vine Hill	6:46 A.M.
Plantersville	6:56 A.M.
Stanton	7:10 A.M.
Maplesville	7:20 A.M.
Clanton	7:55 A.M.

LEAVES SELMA 3:00 P. M. ARRIVES

Burnsville	3:18 P.M.
Fremont	3:30 P.M.
Jones	3:38 P.M.
Vine Hill	3:46 P.M.
Plantersville	3:56 P.M.
Stanton	4:10 P.M.
Maplesville	4:20 P.M.
Clanton	4:55 P.M.

THE SILVER STREAK BUS
UNION BUS TERMINAL PHONE 64

FOOD NEWS!

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OCTOBER 11 & 12
Clanton CASH Store
WE DELIVER BLUE FRONT STORES PHONE 154
Peoples CASH Store
Thorsby CASH Store

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE

FRESH PIG — PORK CHOPS, Lb	25c
PICKLE PIG FEET	5c
BEEF STEW, 3 Lbs	25c
MACKEREL, 2 for	15c
FULL CREAM — CHEESE, Lb	20c
MEADOW GROWN — CHEESE, Lb	22c
SMOKED — BACON Bellies, Lb	27c
SAUSAGE, Mixed, Lb	18c

Colonial Milling Co., Representative at Clanton Cash Store, Saturday, October 12. FREE BISCUITS

PRODUCE SPECIALS

POTATOES, 10 Lbs	19c
ONIONS, Lb	4c
RUTABAGAS, Lb	3c
CABBAGE, Lb	2½c
ORANGES, Doz	25c
LEMONS, Doz.	20c
BANANAS, Lb	5c
LETTUCE, head	8c
FRESH PEAS, BEANS and TURNIP GREENS
DELICIOUS — APPLES, Doz.	20c

LARD
SHORTENING

1-LB CARTON — SCOCO	15c
4-LB CARTON — SCOCO	55c
8-LB CARTON — SCOCO	$1.08

SUGAR

10-Lb Paper Bag	55c
10-Lb Cloth Bag	57c
25-Lb Cloth Bag	$1.40

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 17c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

Pork and Beans
31-Oz CAN
10c

OCTAGON SOAP CHIPS
1 Package 10c
1 Package Extra 1c
20c Value for 11c

2 For 15c

POST BRAN FLAKES
Pkg 10c

21-Oz Jar Dill PICKLES 15c
1-Lb Box CRACKERS 10c
16-Oz Jar Peanut Butter 15c
24-Oz Jar Peanut Butter 23c
8-Oz Jar Peanut Butter 10c
Thedford Black Draught 15c
CLABBER GIRL — Baking Powder, 32-oz 20c

CATSUP
FIRST AMERICAN — 14-Oz Bottle 10c

ICE CREAM POWDERS

3 For 25c

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING

24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	85c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	$1.65
24-Lb SACK — Postel Elegant	$1.20
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose	$1.10
48-Lb White Water Rose	$2.15
PLAIN or SELF-RISING 24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	95c
24-LB SACK — Postel PILLAR	$1.00
24-LB SACK — WINNER	$1.00
24-LB SACK — MILADY	90c
48-LB SACK — MILADY	$1.75

POOR O

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TWELVE PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1935 NUMBER 26

Alabama Power Co. Aids Schools

Power Company Pays Over $300,000 Into School Fund of Alabama

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 11.—Thomas W. Martin, President, Alabama Power Company, today delivered to H. S. Long, President, State Tax Commission, check of Alabama Power Company for $330,514.65, to cover the hydro-electric kilowat hour taxes assessed for the special educational trust fund of the State, these taxes being approximately $40,000 more than in 1934. Upon delivery of this check, President Martin stated that the company was very glad indeed to know that these taxes would be used for education, especially at this time when the schools are in need of all available funds for current expenses.

The entire amount of this check will be devoted to educational purposes. From previous years, distributions of the Education Trust Fund, it appears that from this payment of the Power Company today, counties will receive for elementary and high schools, $200,000, and State institutions, $130,000. Among the larger beneficiaries appear: Alabama College at Montevallo, $16,000; Alabama Polytechnic Institute, $38,000; University of Alabama, $30; the seven Teachers' Colleges, $23; Jefferson County, $14,000; Mobile County, $4,200; Walker County, $7,600; Cullman County, $7,200; Marshall County, $6,000; Lauderdale County, $5,000; Crenshaw County, $5,700.

Mr. Martin further stated that the Company's total taxes for 1935 would approximate $2,250,000, the largest amount in its history and that the company continued to be the State's largest taxpayer.

BOOKS NEEDED AT CCC CAMP

Textbooks in various subjects are needed at the CCC camp. Especially needed are texts in English, spelling, arithmetic and citizenship. Texts in almost any subject can be used.

Since the school texts for the state have been changed, the books used last year by the children no longer have any commercial value. Since this is the case, the camp authorities wish to ask the people of Clanton to give these books for the use of the CCC classes.

Books may be brought to the school by the children and turned over to the principals, and the company truck will be sent to pick up the books. Or if anyone with books to give will call 132, the company truck will be sent direct to the house to get the books.

All who give books for this purpose may be assured of the very great appreciation of the CCC boys, practically none of whom are able to buy books for the courses that they wish to study.

GROCERY STORES OF CITY ADOPT STRICT WORK HOURS

The grocery stores and markets of Clanton have entered an agreement regarding a uniform opening and closing time during week days and Saturdays. It appears that this is a worthy move and merits the strict observance of all the stores of this kind in the city.

Below we publish the agreement and the signatures which have been attached to it:

"Clanton, Ala., Oct. 15, 1935.

"We, the undersigned managers and owners of meat markets and grocery stores in the City of Clanton, Alabama, do hereby agree to open our stores for business each week day at 6:30 a.m., and close our stores each week day, except Saturdays, at 6:30, p.m. On Saturdays we agree to open at 6:30 a.m., and close at 9:00 p.m. This agreement to be strictly adhered to and to begin on October 21st, 1935.

Bean & Taylor, Alonza Askins.
Taylor Grocery & Market, W. F. Irvin.
Peoples Cash Store.
Hill Grocery Co., L. Stewart, Mgr.
A & P Tea Co., G. C. Armstrong.
Clanton Cash Store, O. D. Deloach.
Sumter Farm & Stock Co.
Mrs. H. E. Culver.
C. R. Glenn."

MOTHER SEES SON SLAY HIS BROTHER

Maplesville, Ala., Oct. 13.—Mrs. Laura Moates looked on today while her son, Claude, 44, shot his brother John Wesley Moates, 35, to death at the front door of her home, she told Coroner J. Mell Martin, of Chilton County.

Coroner Martin quoted Mrs. Moates as saying that she was seated on the porch of the home she shares with her son, Claude, when her son approached with a man named Lum Roseberry.

John and Claude began quarreling over an old family disagreement, their mother told the coroner. Presently John was said to have pulled back his coat and said to Claude, "Go ahead and shoot me." Thereupon Claude shot him once with a .22 rifle, Coroner Martin said the mother told him.

Then, Mr. Moates was quoted as saying, Roseberry shot at Claude Moates with a shotgun but missed. The latter who had reloaded the rifle, Mrs. Moates told the coroner, shot Roseberry through the right arm.

Claud Moates came to Maplesville and surrendered to Deputy Charles Smith and swore out a warrant for Roseberry, who was arrested.

RED CROSS MEETING HELD AT CITY HALL OCTOBER 10

The Chilton County chapter of the National Red Cross held its annual meeting at the Clanton city hall last Thursday morning, October 10th. National representative, J. L. McGirt, was present at the meeting.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: General county chairman, Dr. C. O. Lawrence; secretary, Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks; treasurer, John C. Page; roll call chairman, J. Mell Martin; co-chairman, Dr. S. J. Ezelle; home and farm accident chairman, Dr. J. M. Kimmey.

An executive committee was named, consisting of all the above named officers, together with Mr. Sid Gibson, Dr. H. M. Nix, Messrs. C. C. Conway and Donald Merchant. Named as publicity committee were Billy Smith and T. E. Wyatt.

The home and farm accident prevention program, in the charge of Dr. J. M. Kimmey, is a new part of the Red Cross. A period for the observance of this program has been set from October 28th to November 2nd, and fuller explanation of it will be made by Dr. Kimmey at an early date.

FINE CORN FROM T. J. POWELL'S FARM

Uncle Tom Powell of Clanton Route 1 has on display at The Union-Banner office six ears of fine corn. Uncle Tom says that he is proud of his corn crop this year. He is one of the most successful farmers of eastern Beat 4.

Jim Mitchell Has Fine Corn

Mr. Jim Mitchell of Maple Springs community brought in a stalk of corn which grew thirteen ears. There are eleven ears on the stalk now, which Mr. Mitchell left at The Union-Banner office. He says that the stalk left here is no exception but that he has numbers of stalks in his field as good as the sample.

Baptist Convent'n For Constitution

Montgomery Baptist Body Is On Record Against New Deal

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 12.—Baptists of the Montgomery Association, at the closing session of their annual meeting Friday at Prattville, adopted a resolution challenging the right of anybody, high or low, to change or set aside the U. S. Constitution, except as it may be interpreted by the Supreme Court, or amended and modified by the sovereign will of the people themselves.

In the resolution the churchmen said: "We believe it to be obligatory on the President and all other officers according to their sacred oath, to observe and support the Constitution, and to exert themselves to the utmost to see that others do the same."

The Baptists looked "with apprehension on the enormous and ever-increasing public debt of the country, and the failure of the administration to balance the budget." The resolution also condemned the proposed Federal child labor amendment which the Legislature of Alabama spurned at its summer session. While standing uncompromisingly for the proper protection and conservation of child life, through laws regulating the age and hours of child labor, the Baptists, on the other hand, said they "deplore and will resist every socialistic tendency which either seeks or makes possible the taking of children from under the direction, supervision and control of their homes and parents, such as is couched in the proposed child labor amendment to the Federal Constitution.

The Bapists pointed out that "our forefathers fought and won the revolutionary war for the right of self-government and the right to hold and administer private property, and against the laying of taxes on the people contrary to their own will."

"FAITHFUL WORKERS" SPONSOR FIELDS PICTURE

The program at the Wadesonian Theatre calls for the showing of the super-comedy "Flying Trapeze", with W. C. Fields, famous comedian, playing the stellar role. This picture will be shown Thursday night, October 17 (tonight). The showing is being sponsored by the Faithful Workers Sunday School class, who urge everyone to be present for a good show.

TO PREACH AT ALABAMA MILLS

Rev. J. S. Holland will preach at Alabama Mills church next Sunday, October 20th, at 11 o'clock a.m., and at 7:00 Sunday night. All are invited to attend. Rev. Holland is pastor at Liberty Hill church and Mulberry. He recently moved to Clanton from East Tallassee.

Mrs. Loren Smith was a visitor in Montgomery Tuesday.

BANNER 1 YEAR $1

For a limited time The Union-Banner will be sold one whole year for $1. This exceptional offer will not last long; and when it closes, the paper will go back to the regular price. If you want the paper for one dollar, better take advantage of it now. We will appreciate your business.

THE UNION-BANNER.

Yea Brother!

A CHALLENGE—PUT UP OR SHUT UP!

The Union-Banner will name a representative to accompany a like representative of The Chilton County News, these two to canvass the farmers of CHILTON COUNTY (not Bullock County), going to their homes, one by one, big farmers and little ones alike, asking them these two simple questions:

(1) Are you satisfied with the present system of cotton control, including allotments, and all things pertaining to your own personal farming problem? ..(2) Are you in favor of a continuance of the present cotton program?

No explanations, no discussions, but these two plain, easily understood questions, with the answer to be "yes" or "no". When the county canvass is finished, if more farmers favor the cotton plan than are against it, The Union-Banner will then believe that the farmers, themselves, are in favor of the cotton program, and will help The News in pulling for its continuance, with no politics entering the question.

On the other hand, if results prove that the majority of farmers are against the cotton program, The News will promise to help us in our fight against the AAA and the cotton program.

That's a fair proposition, open and above-board. Let's not try to cite Bullock County. Let's see the truth about CHILTON COUNTY—That's the one we are interested in. Let's turn the light on this question, once and for all, and find out who is right, and then all pull together to get the farmers that which they want.

WE CHALLENGE THE CHILTON COUNTY NEWS —PUT UP OR SHUT UP!

YEA, BROTHER — WE SHALL!

(By The Man in the Moon)

Last week The Chilton County News carried a front page editorial, which we suppose purported to be a scathing denouncement of The Union-Banner. The title of this harrangue was: "Shall We Destroy The AAA?" ..To which we answer: "Yea, Brother—We Shall".

We will take this editorial and read right down it from head to foot. To begin with, The News says The Union-Banner believes that if there had never been any AAA program, cotton would be selling for 15 cents a pound, and farmers could raise all they please. We agree! We firmly believe this, and offer the following well-known fact for evidence: On the very day that the Bankhead Act went into force, cotton was selling in Clanton for nearly 14 cents a pound and going up every day, but on that very day on which the price was pegged at 12 cents the price began to slip back until it reached the 12-cent level and STAYED THERE, until the recent new peg of 10 cents, when it slipped again to the 10-cent level and THERE IT REMAINS TODAY. If you don't believe it, try to sell a bale, please.

The News says that if we have some plan in mind by which this high price could be brought about, we are unpatriotic not to give the farmers the benefit of the idea. All right, Mr. News Editor, we DO have a plan, and here it is:

In the past, in the wheat and corn belt of the mid-west, statistics have always been kept by which could be known the "normal" crop of each and every individual farmer. Besides this, there is kept an all-time price level, the average all-time price of these commodities. If, for some reason, the crop was short, each farmer received a subsidy from the government to make up for that shortage; if the current price was below the all-time average, a like subsidy was granted to pull the price up to this level. Why not use this plan with cotton? Here it is:

Give every farmer a "normal crop rating" on cotton—this amount to be the average amount raised before the AAA tampering—if a farmer raised a few pounds above or under his normal crop, no one would be hurt much. Likewise let the all-time cotton price level of 10 cents remain—men acquainted with the cotton business tell us that 10 cents is the all-time average price of cotton. Then if a farmer raised a bale of cotton more than his normal crop, no one would be hurt. If he raised a bale less than his normal crop, and the prevailing price should be, say, 8 cents, then let the government subsidize that man for another 2 cents a pound on that bale, thus providing a normal crop and a normal price for EVERY FARMER, not just a favored few who happened to be on the inside of the racket. And the present system is a racket—nothing more nor less. With some farmers still making as much cotton as they ever did, and being allowed to sell it tax-free, while others have their quota cut all out of proportion—there is something queer about this, to say the least.

And as for the slur about sharing information with Mr. Hoover, we would like for The News editor to tell us what good it would have done, with a bone-head Democratic congress up there blocking every move that Mr. Hoover made. He tried plenty plans to stall off the depression, as The News editor very well knows, but there was no getting them by the Democratic congress.

The News editor says "The Union-Banner would have its readers 'BELIEVE' strong opposition is developing against the AAA". We would be glad to believe The News editor is innocent enough to believe that no one is against it, but we cannot believe that. In walking on the streets of Clanton, one hears condemnation for the set-up on every hand, this coming from the farmers, themselves. And that is here in Chilton County, too, and not in Bullock County.

The News editor names as another objector "certain New England manufacturers who object to payment of the processing tax". Why wouldn't they object? Through the processing tax they see their market slipping away from them. Without a market they cannot sell their goods, and unless they can sell their goods, they would have no use for our Southern cotton. Another thing, the present cotton plan is encouraging to foreign cotton raisers, and thus the Southern cotton farmer is FOREVER losing his foreign market, his mainstay in the commercial world.

Third, The News editor names W. C. Irby as an objector. We know nothing of Mr. Irby's reasons for being against the AAA, and The News editor knows very well that The Union-Banner and Mr. Irby hold nothing in common. His ideas are far too radical for The Union-Banner. Why is it that The News cannot come out in the open?

The News charges The Union-Banner with driving the wedge of discontent, offering no help to the farmer, but condemning the plan that has brought thousands of dollars to Chilton County. In answer to that—The Union-Banner needs not to

(Continued on Back Page)

SPECIAL MEETING OF ALL EX-SERVICE MEN

To all Ex-Service Men: Notice is hereby given that a special meting of the Chilton County Post No. 6, will be held at the courthouse in Clanton on Friday night, October 18, 1935. This is the beginning of a new year and much business is to be considered. There are many new rulings pertining to the status of ex-service men which will be discussed.

Respectfully yours,
PERCY M. PITTS, Commander;
V. C. McKee, Adjutant;
Chilton County Post No. 6.

CHERRY BLOOMS

Mr. Horsley White comes out with another freak of the seasons. He has a cherry tree in his yard with blooms and little cherries. The tree has already made one crop his year.

Maybe this freak cherry business has something to do with the fact that Mr. White is the distributor for Chero, the new Nehi Drink. But he has them —that is an evident fact.

JOE GORE ATTACKED AND BEATEN SUNDAY NIGHT

Joe Gore, who lives out a mile from town on Lay Dam Road, was attacked and severely beaten last Sunday night, on Second Avenue, between the courthouse and the cemetery.

It appears that a pistol was used to frail Mr. Gore. He sustained several ugly bruises on the head and one arm was said to have been broken. It is reported that three men attacked him because Mr. Gore would not turn his truck over to them. Two were arrested and placed in jail; the other has not been apprehended yet.

Late reports say that Mr. Gore is in a very critical condition at his home. Fear is held for his condition, it is said.

Peoples Savings Bank's Holiday

Hundreds of Visitors Inspect Clanton's New Bank Building

Last Thursday was visiting day at the Peoples Savings Bank, in honor of the beautiful new building into which they have just moved.

Mr. Frank Callen, in speaking of the visiting day stated: "We had a wonderful time, and were indeed glad to have so many of our friends call around to go through our bank."

The place was all diked up with flowers and trimmings of all kinds, presenting a most beautiful appearance. In viewing the place as a whole one was impressed with the arrangement of furntiture, fixtures, etc. Everything is situated in the handiest place possible, and not a bit of the space is wasted. The lay-out is indeed along the lines of the best possibility of utilization of the floor space.

Mr. Callen estimated the number of visitors during the day and night at about two thousand. Six hundred drinks were given away. There were some tourists, two from Tennessee and two from Kentucky, who happened to be attracted by the appearance of the building as they stopped in Clanton. They visited the bank and were very favorably impressed with it. One of the visitors happened to be a lady who works in a bank in Kentucky. She was especially interested.

The Peoples Savings Bank justly has every right to feel proud of its new home. It is one of the greatest assets to our city and we are proud of it.

ACTIVITIES OF SHERIFF'S FORCE

The Sheriff and his force of deputies have been in court most of the time during the past week, however, quite a few arrests have been made. Two were arrested and placed in jail, charged with assault with intent to murder; 2 for abusive language; 1 for murder; 1 for attempt to murder; and 1 for driving while intoxicated.

A total of eighteen were turned over to the Sheriff to be held in jail from the Circuit Court's sentences last week.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes and Miss Margaret Floyd were called to Clayton Friday on account of the illness of their father, Dr. Floyd.

REGISTER DURING NOVEMBER-DECEMBER

The Board of Registrars of Chilton county will meet at different Places over the county during November and December for the purpose of registering young voters and those having recently moved into the county. They will be at the courthouse part of the time, when anyone in the county can register, who is subject, otherwise registering will have to be done at the time the Board is in a voter's particular Beat.

Republicans of Chilton county, let us look after the registering of our young voters. There will be important elections in the not far distant future, and we want to be prepared. The complete schedule of rounds is published elsewhere in The Union-Banner. Look it up and have those about you who are subject to register attend to this important matter at the proper time.

Court Cases Tried During Last Week

Circuit Court Has Disposed of 38 Cases During Last Term

Emmett Thomas, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty; fined $50.00. Sentenced to hard labor for county 90 days and three months additional punishment.

Emmett Thomas, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty; fined $50.00; sentenced to hard labor for county 90 days and 3 months additional punishment.

Albert Thomas, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50.00; sentenced 90 days hard labor for county, and 3 months addtional punishment.

Albert Thomas, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50.00, and sentenced to hard labor for county 81 days and 3 months additional punishment.

Arch Cherry, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50, sentenced to hard labor for county 98 days, and 50 days additional punishment.

Daniel Matthew Wyatt, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50, sentenced to hard labor 95 days, and 30 days additional punishment.

Wm. S. Foster, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50, and sentenced to hard labor for county 80 days, and 50 days additional punishment.

Dudley Price, abusive, indecent, obscene language. Plead guilty, fined $1, sentenced to hard labor for county 54 days, and 70 days additional punishment.

Obie Baker, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50, sentenced to hard labor for county 81 days, and 75 days additional punishment.

Obie Baker, abusive, indecent, obscene laguage, plead guilty, fined $10 and sentenced to hard labor 48 days and 72 days additional punishment.

Amos Motley, violating Alabama Highway law. Plead guilty, fined $10, sentenced to hard labor 38 days, and 75 days additional punishment.

Perry Dowell DeJarnett, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50, sentenced to hard labor for county 82 days, and 40 days additional punishment.

Lavert Burnett, assault to murder. Jury and verdict of guilty, fined $200, sentenced to hard labor for county for 188 days and 6 months additional punishment.

William Tucker, manslaughter first degree. Jury and verdict guilty, sentenced to penitentiary 3 years.

Hugh Wilson, manufacturing whiskey and possession of still. Plead guilty, sentenced to penitentiary two to four years.

Thomas McDade, burglary and grand larceny. Plead guilty, sentenced to penitentiary 2½ years to 3½ years.

George Bolton, murder first degree. Jury and verdict of guilty of murder second degree, sentenced to penitentiary 20 years.

Arthur Lee Goldsmith, grand larceny. Plead guilty, sentenced to penitentiary 20 months to 30 months.

Panama McCoy, burglary and grand larceny. Plead guilty, sentenced to penitentiary for 2½ years to 3½ years.

Vestes Bruton Champion, violating prohibition law. Plead guilty, fined $50.

Jno. W. McEathern, violating prohibition law. Nol prossed.

Joe Ray, violating prohibition law. Fined $50.

Clay Moates, burglary and grand larceny, plead guilty to petit larceny, fined $25.

Norman L. Roberts, public drunkenness. Plead guilty, fined $50 and cost.

John Lee Jackson, violating prohibition law. Nol prossed.

Lewis Webb, drunkennes. Plead guilty, fined $5.

Henry C. Cummings, volating prohibition law. Nol prossed.

Odis Cummings, violating prohibition law. Nol prossed.

Winston Taylor, driving while intoxicated. Nol prossed.

Mrs. Ruben Bearden, abusive indecent, obsecen lnnguage. Nol prossed.

Mrs. Virgil Byers, driving while intoxicated. Nol prossed.

Grady Adams, assult and battery. Nol prossed.

Galvin Sammons, trespass after warning. Nol prosed.

Oliver Sammons, trespass after warning. Nol prossed.

Thomas Sims, assault and battery. Nol prossed.

Thomas Sims, resisting an officer. Nol prossed.

Burl Price, abusive, indecent, obscene language. Plead guilty, fined $10.

H. H. Conway, reckless driving. Nol prossed.

ARRANGING FOR $13,000 CONTEST

S. G. Culpepper, salesman for Colgate Palmolive Peet Company, is in Chilton County this week to make arrangements for entrants in the Octagon Soap $13,000.00 contest.

The company is giving four $250.00 checks each week for thirteen weeks for letters about Octagon Soap, and the contest is creating widespread interest.

Mr. Culpepper will explain the details of the contest to all dealers in the county this week, and complete details will be announced in a large advertisement in next week's Union-Banner.

RIGINAL TORN PAGE

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

'How do I feel.... Swell!—why do you ask?'

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength ...you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. © S.S.S. Co.

Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 39-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

JUNIOR B.Y.P.U. ENTERTAINMENT

The Junior B. Y. P. U. of Oak Grove was entertained by their leader, Mary Lane Cobb, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lassie Northcutt Saturday afternoon, October 12.

Ile Jean Northcutt, Ruby Lee Cobb, Nellie Hucks, Louise Cobb, Lorene Guine, Ruby Glass, Lucile Cobb, Willie Jean Northcutt, Ruby Lee Cobb, Tommie Joe and Doris Virginia Northcutt, Master Bill Cobb, Curtis Saterwhite, Frank Rogers, G. A. Hucks, Douglas Martin, Doskie Scott, Paul Northcutt, Walton Hucks, Alton Sammons.

After a few hours of playing games such as "gathering tomatoes," "the gardner in the dell," "the gardner is coming," "a gardener's love letter," etc, the refreshments were served and every one said goodby to the host and went home.—Reporter.

ZED MIMS DIED SEPTEMBER 18th

Mr. Zed Mims, age 62 years, died at his home near Poplar Springs, on September 18. The remains were buried at Maple Springs on September 19th. Rev. E. J. Orange conducted the funeral, assisted by Rev. Paul Mixon and Rev. M. Lockhart.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah Mims, and six children, four daughters and two sons; there are 30 grand children and 2 great grand children.

JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
FOR HAIR AND SCALP
Different from Ordinary Hair Tonics
IT'S A SCALP MEDICINE!
60c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists
Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

Get your Permanents at The Modern Beauty School. $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

ISABELLA NEWS

The F. H. A. has met and elected officers as follows: President, Frances Sexton; vice president, Maxine Oden; secretary, Mary Carr Mims; treasurer, Frances Mims; reporter, Mary Jo Chandler; social committe, chairman, Gladys Turner; program committee, chairman, Maxine Oden.

During our last meeting a good program was rendered as follows:

Devotional—Sarah Calfee.

The Membership of F. H. A.—Mary Charles Jones.

The Objects of the F. H. A.—Maxine Oden.

The Qualifications for First Degree—Mary Carr Mims.

Degree—Frances Mims.

We decided that the dues for each member this year would be 25 cents. We have planned to have a year book, and the president appointed a committee of four to work on this.

On Wednesday, October 9, the F. F. A. chapter met and had an interesting program. One of a series of talks, written by William E. Dougles, was read by Williard Davenport. A talk on legumes was given by Clyde Headley and an activity committee was elected as follows: James Calfee, chairman; Andrew Jones and A. D. Headley; and Williard Davenport is club reporter.

The chapter has high ambitions and has started with a renewed determination to reach a high standard of work. It is time for club dues, which is 75 cents each. One new member joined the club at the last meeting.

The Jeffersonian Literary Society has held its first meeting. On October 9, a very interesting program was given on society work. A program committee and a secretary were elected. Several new members were added to the club. We hope to have another splendid society this year.

The Cosmopolitan society met on Wednesday for a general business meeting. The society voted to limit the subject for study to the following:

"Various Interests in Alabama."

"Modern Poetry."

"Parlimentary Procedure."

Plans were made to prepare twelve programs in advance; to elect officers; and to unite the by-laws of the society.

The Jr. III Class elected class officers as follows: President, Odis LeCroy; vice president, Ethel Lee Griffin; secretary and treasurer; Robert Bryant; reporter, Clifton Davenport.

Last Friday afternoon the Plantersville and Isabella teams played a hard clean game of football. Many excellent plays were made by both sides. Isabella fought until the last minute of the fourth quarter, and during the game they carried the ball over the goal line three times and kicked the goal once.

Next Friday, October 18, Isabella will play Verbena on Verbena's field. Every body make a special effort to come out to support your home team.

ANNUAL HOME-COMING DAY AT MT. SPRINGS SUNDAY

The annual home-coming day at Mt. Springs will be observed all day next Sunday, October 20th. The program has been arranged as follows:

9:45. Devotional.
9:55. Sunday school.
10:30. Welcome Address by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Nelson.
10:40. Song.
10:50. Play.
11:30. Quartet.
11:35. Sermon by Dr. Ensminger of Birmingham.
12:15. Dinner.
1:30. One hour of singing.
2:30. Address by Rev. J. L. Stanley of Thorsby.
3:00. Singing.
3:45. Dismission.

PLEASANT VALLEY

The singing society met at this place Sunday afternoon, October 13, at 2 o'clock, with a large crowd present. Everyone seemed to have the singing spirit as this was one of the best singings of the season. The singing was opened by the chairman, Mr. Clarence Billingsley, singing one song and then prayer by Rev. Tommie Billingsley. Then the following sung from one to two songs each:

Messrs. Aubrey Devaughn, Forrest Huett, J. W. Devaughn, Arthur Williams, Marshall Burkhalter, J. E. Varner. The Pleasant Valley and Bethany societies will meet at Enterprise school house on the first Sunday afternoon in Nov., 3. All the singers and lovers of music are invited to come.

HOT DOG SUPPER

There will be a hot dog supper Saturday night at home of O. O. Jones. Remember the date, Saturday night, October 19. Proceeds go to M. E. church.

DOES HE ADMIRE YOU TOO?

Are your evening frocks as dainty, as fresh and colorful as a show girl's? Keep them so with our dry cleaning.

Clanton Laundry & Cleaning Co.
Phone 119

NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Ford V-8 cars for 1936 were shown for the first time Tuesday to Ford dealers at group meetings in the 34 Ford branch cities in the United States and seven in Canada. The new cars will be publicly shown for the first time next Saturday by dealers.

Body lines which strike a new note in conservative streamlining, a new treatment of the interior and three important refinements in chassis engineering summarize the principal improvements. There are no radical changes. The 85-horse-power V-8 engine, of which more than 2,000,000 are now in operation, is unaltered.

Of the three principal chassis improvements, one—improved steering—is aimed at greater ease and safety of operation. Two others tend to greater comfort. One is the use of new steel wheels which lessen the unsprung weight and thus provide greater riding comfort. The other is an improved transmission using quiet helical gears—formerly used only in second and high speeds—in all forward speeds and reverses.

A new front-end treatment gives added distinction to the body lines The hood is longer, extending gracefully over the attractive new radiator grille. With its vertical slots and more accentuated "Vee", as well as its smoothly rounded lower edge which blends with the streamlined curve of the inner portion of the fenders, the grille contributes a new note of smartness.

Fenders are streamlined, a wide inward flare giving them an imposing appearance. Louvres are of new design. Horns are now recessed in the fender aprons back of small round grilles beneath the streamlined headlamps.

NEW CEDRON 5—CCC 3

The baseball team from Company 3481, CCC, played the New Cedron team Saturday afternoon at New Cedron, the CCC boys lost 5 to 3.

"Happy" Viera, pitching for CCC, led the hitting of both teams with a single and a double. One double play was engineered by the CCC team, Sawyer to Dixon to Hernandez.

Batteries: CCC—Viera and Mizzell; New Cedron—Burnett and Culver for first five innings, after which it was Culver and Burnett. Viera struck out 12 men, Burnett 6, and Culver 1.

	R	H	E
C C C	3	6	5
New Cedron	5	4	1

Score by innings:

C C C	000	000	3—3
New Cedron	200	003	x—5

QUARTERLY MEETING FOR CHILTON W. M. U. ASS'N

The quarterly meeting for the W. M. U. of Chilton Association will be held at New Cedron on Thursday, October 24. The superintendent is urging all ladies of this Association to be present. We have a splendid program for the day.

Theme: "Caring for our own."

Bro. Paul Oden has the devotional for the 10 o'clock opening hour.

Caring for our scholarship beneficiaries by Ora Devaughn.

Caring for the aged ministers and widows, Rev. A. E. Trice.

Caring for our foreign missionaries by Mrs. J. W. Jones.

Eleven o'clock hour, by Rev. J. W. Jones.

Special Song, "For You, We are Praying," by Rev. Paul Oden.

The afternoon will be the young people. One of our workers, Miss Enaberry, is to be with us, so every body be sure and be at New Cedron on October 24, 1936.—Louanna Jones, secretary-treasurer.

Concord - Billingsley

(Too Late for Last Week)

Several from here attended the fiddlers convention at the high school Saturday night and reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knowles and family of Calera spent the week end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Popwell of Thorsby were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Emma Williams, last Sunday.

Miss Alta Dickinson, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Mildred Foshee.

Mr. J. P. Williams and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Letbetter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Devaughn and baby of Billingsley spent the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Brown, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Deramus of Stanton were recent guests of their sister, Mrs. J. P. Williams.

Misses Bessie and Jettie Williams spent Saturday in Clanton shopping.

Mrs. J. P. Williams was the spend the day guest of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Ledbetter, last Thursday.

Mr. Donald Colee and Mr. Irlen Ousley of near Jones visited in this community Sunday afternoon.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 20

THE MESSAGE OF JEREMIAH

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 7:1-26.
GOLDEN TEXT—Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people. Jeremiah 1:23.
PRIMARY TOPIC—What Jeremiah Said.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jeremiah's Stirring Message.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Doing What God Commands.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Will of God for Our Times.

The prophet stood in the gate of the temple in order that the multitudes might hear him. The occasion was the coming together of the people from all over the country to attend a feast. From this place of prominence Jeremiah called the people to obedience.

I. What God Requires (vv. 1-7).

1. Amend your ways (v. 3). This means that their course of living should be reformed by exchanging bad deeds for good ones. On the basis of this change God would permit them to remain in their city and country. Failure to comply with this demand would eventuate in their expulsion.

2. Personal experience (v. 4). The people regarded the temple as a charm against evil, irrespective of the condition of their hearts. Without a heart experience, the most sacred institution and ordinances are valueless. Trusting in religious forms while lacking a vital experience is the height of folly.

3. Social justice (v. 5). The proof of their having reformed was the execution of justice between man and his neighbor. The evidence of one's being in touch with God is his fair dealing with his fellow men.

4. Not to oppress the helpless (v. 6). The stranger would likely be ignorant of the laws of the land. The widows and orphans would usually be imposed upon. Protection and defense of the weak is a sure sign of godliness.

5. Not walk after other gods (v. 6). The worship of idols and conformity to heathen customs go hand in hand. True morality is determined by the individual's attitude toward God.

II. Some Solemn Warnings (vv. 8-15).

1. The teachings of false prophets (vv. 8-11). These false prophets taught the people that attention to ceremony and observance of religious form exempted them from strict attention to morals. Those who heeded the words of the lying prophets did not hesitate to steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, and practice idolatry. They would even come into the Lord's house and claim freedom to practice such abominations. The sacred temple itself, filled with such worshippers, would be a den of robbers.

2. By the destruction of Shiloh (vv. 12-15). God caused his tabernacle to be set up in Shiloh, but in Eli's time he gave it into the hands of the Philistines because of the idolatry of the people (Ps. 78:56-60). The prophet declared that God would do even so with the temple, the city and the whole country. This he had already done with Israel and the northern kingdom.

III. The Hopeless Condition of the People (vv. 16-20).

Their propensity to do evil was so strong that all efforts at reclamation were futile.

1. Pray not for them (v. 16). There is such a thing as sinning unto death, in which case prayer is useless (v. 16; cf. I John 5:16).

2. Entire families devoted their energies to that which provoked God's anger (vv. 17-19). This was done by young and old, men and women. They did it with the definite purpose to provoke God's anger. The prophet assured them that the outcome of such conduct would be their utter confusion.

IV. Judgment Sure to Fall (v. 20).

Because the people poured out their offerings to idols, the furious anger and wrath of God would be poured out upon men, beasts, trees and the fruit of the ground. How this has been fulfilled the history of the Jews makes clear.

V. Obedience to God Better than Sacrifice (vv. 21-26).

The prophet appealed to history to show that God requires heart service rather than the observance of religious forms. Blessings came to Israel through obedience, while cursings followed disobedience. On condition of obedience to his requirements God promised to own them as his people and to bless them.

The Seventh Wave

The man who waits for some seventh wave to toss him on dry land, will find that the seventh wave is a long time coming. You can commit no greater folly than to sit by the road side until someone comes along and invites you to ride with him to wealth or influence.—J. B. Gough.

Conciliation

The essence of all fine breeding is in the gift of conciliation. A man who possesses every other title to our respect, except that of courtesy, is in danger of forfeiting them all. A rude manner renders its owner always liable to affront. He is never without dignity who avoids wounding the dignity of others.—Lytton.

Duty

He who in questions of right, virtue or duty sets himself above all ridicule is truly great.—Lavater.

Mrs. W. W. Fox is visiting in Birmingham.

BEAUTY REMINDERS From Modern Beauty Shoppe

Realistic Permanent Waves that make straight hair look naturally curly for .....

$7.50

Other Waves $2.50 up

Hair Cut or Bob in styles most becoming to your type . . charming

35c

Shampoo, Finger Wave and special Facial that will add much to your loveliness . . . all for ....

$1.50

Your hands rendered attractive with a skillful Manicure for .....

50c

FOR APPOINTMENT
PHONE 168
Clanton

THE BIRMINGHAM POST CONTINUES RAPID GROWTH

The Birmingham Post continues in the establishment of a most enviable record among southern newspapers. The Post is a Scripps-Howard newspaper, established fourteen years ago, yet it now enjoys the second largest circulation in the State of Alabama, is steadily growing, and is known as "The most thouroughly read daily newspaper in the field.

Many newspapers, much older than The POST, envy this youngster's record which can be said to be due to . . . the oustanding clarity of its presentation of the news . . . the quality and national prominence of its features, and last but far from least . . the vigor fearlessness and independence of its editorial policies.

Many of the thousands of Post readers are not always in unanimous agreement with the paper's editorial policy . . . but, all aplaud the independent thought, and action, that constitute the keystone of The Post's editorial policies.

There are no outside influences . . . The Post is financially independent. It has no axes to grind, no special interests to serve, today, or in the future. Its editorial independence is the foundation of The Post's remarkable success, and rapid growth.

With the addition, during the year, of many strong features, presented exclusively by The Post, and greatly expanded Woman's Section, it is now a greater newspaper than ever before.

Mrs. Tom Rockett, Nell and Lois Rockett spent the week end in Sylacauga.

Shampoo, set and dried, 25c. Manicure, 25c. Modern Beauty School.

WHO FORGOT?

Woe unto the person who forgets to turn off the heater in homes where water is still heated the old-fashioned, non-automatic way.

"The water's SCALDING!" Mother says.

"You're wasting money!" Father replies.

"You're GETTING ON MY NERVES!" pipes some other member of the family.

And all so useless with Electricity so CHEAP and Electric Water Heaters so easy to buy on the Economy Purchase Plan!

Hotpoint Electric Water Heater

• ASK an Electric Water Heater Dealer or at our Store for information about the convenience and economy of "Hot Water by Wire."

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electrify Now—Electricity is CHEAP in Alabama

POOR O

A. & P. Specials For This Week End

COFFEE

EIGHT o'clock 1 lb 15c
EIGHT o'clock 3 lb 45c
Red Circle lb 19c
Bokar lb 23c

A&P FOOD STORES

PINK SALMON

No. 1 Tall Can 10c Doz cans $1.15
Tomatoes No. 2 cans 4 for 25c
1 Dozen Cans, 73c
cut string Beans 4 Cans 25c
1 Dozen Cans, 73c

Flour Plain or Selfrising

24-LB SACK — SUNNYFIELD 95c
24-LB SACK — REICHERT'S BIRD 85c
48-LB SACK — SUNNYFIELD $1.85
48-LB SACK — REICHERT'S BIRD .. $1.65

Grandmother's Bread Full 16-Ox Loaf 7c

MATCHES

16 CUBIC INCH BOXES — Swan's MATCHES, 3 for 10c
20 CUBIC INCH BOXES — A & P MATCHES, 6 for 25c

Canned Goods

IONA — Salad DRESSING, Qt 25c
ONE POUND CAN — IONA COCOA 10c
No. 2½ CANS — Iona PEACHES, 2 for 29c
TWO POUND CAN — IONA COCOA 19c

Whitehouse Milk

3 TALL CANS 17c
6 SMALL CANS 17c
Dozen TALL CANS 65c
Dozen SMALL CANS 33c

Produce Specials

Juick ORANGES, "344" each 1c
York APPLES, 3 lbs 10c
Green Head CABBAGE, lb 1½c
Tokoy GRAPES, lb 6c

Irish Potatoes Brown Beauty 10 lbs 15c

Iirsh Potatoes, 100-lb Sack $1.45
Yellow ONIONS, 3 lbs 10c

Special Prices on Cheese, Meat, Lard, Sugar And Many Other Items

New Store On Corner Next To Bank

Thorsby Institute News

Next Saturday night at 7:45, Miss Katheryn Foss will give the Voice Recital, which she gave in May as her graduating voice recital at Piedmont College. She will be assisted by Mrs. Milton White of Phoenix City, Ala., as accompanist. Mrs. White was Miss Mildred Free before her recent marriage, and was Miss Foss's college room-mate her senior year at Piedmont. Everyone is invited to the recital.

In the recent ball game between the boys of the Pushmataha club and the Philomathic club, the Pushmataha club won.

A week from Thursday the first term examinations will take place—lasting through Friday.

Two weeks from Saturday night at 7:30 the second open meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society will take place. Every one is invited. Two short plays will be given. The girl's glee club will sing two songs. The Simkin's Family Album of interseting characters will be shown. Admission will be ten cents for all not members of the school.

The second Damrosch program will be heard over the radio by the Thorsby Institute pupils and teachers on Friday of this week at 10:00 o'clock. These programs are listened to every two weeks.

Miss Margaret Golson, chairman of the Lookout Committee, with Miss Bernard Adams, assistants.

Mr. Richard Peterson, president, Miss Ruth Higgins, vice president; Miss Mary Maude Knight, secretary-treasurer; Miss Ruth Primm, corresponding secretary; Miss Juanita Each, organist; and Miss Elizabeth Glasson, sponsor of the society.

One of the buildings of the town was moved Tuesday. The tool house which has stood across the track from the railroad for the past year was lifted onto a train and taken to Lomax to be used as a station.

Miss Sarah Greene, chairman of the missionary committee, Miss Lessie Rascoe and Miss Callie Nations as assistants.

Miss Sarah Nell Collins, chairman of the music committee, with Miss Juanita Each and Miss Mary Frances Duke, assistants.

The reception given by the P.-T. A. to the public last Friday in honor of the public school teachers was a very pleasant occasion. The meeting was in the large hall of the school building, with the seats moved to the side. Short speeches were heard from Mr. C. R. Foss, Rev. Lawrence Stanley, Miss Helen C. Jenkins and the new principal, Mr. Hayes. Miss Mary Louise Reinhardt gave an interesting recitation. Miss Katheryn Foss, a piano solo. Mrs. Nat Bentley closed with a speech telling of some of the accomplishments of the Thorsby P.-T. A. A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served to all present.

Miss Lois Rister, chairman of the prayer meeting commitee, with Miss Blanche Morgan and Miss Ruth Higgins, assistants.

Miss Ruth Cosby chariman of the whatsoever committee, with Mr. Hillard Baggett and Miss Mary Christ, as assistants.

The Christian Endeavor had a very interesting program Sunday night, led by Miss Lois Rister. The subject for the evening was "Pages of Power."

Mr. LeRoy Peterson, chairman of the social committee, with Miss Mary Nell Pate and Mr. Robert Weems as assistants.

Mr. Fred Blankenship, chairman of the press committee, with Miss Mae Annice Polk and Miss Ruth Cosby as assistants.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to sincerely thank our friends, relatives and neighbors for the many lovely expressions of sympathy and love, and the gracious services rendered during the illness and death of our beloved husband, father and grand father.—Mrs. D. O. Manning, children and grand children.

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

Regular services at the Congregational church next Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Worship service at 11 a.m. Christian Endeavor Society at 6:30 p.m. The old fashioned song service which is to be held once a month will be held following Christian Endeavor.

Choir practice under the direction of Miss Katheryn Foss will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Union prayer meeting will be Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Baptist church.

The Boy Scouts will meet Friday evening at 6:30 at the city hall.

The Y. W. A. will meet at the home of Miss Conradine Pate Friday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock. Don't forget the special offering for missions.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid Social will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Frank Nelson. Everyone is invited.

Rev. Stanley and eight of the Boy Scouts spent Friday night at their camp.

Christian Endeavor News

The executive committee of the Christian Endeavor Society met Sunday afternoon for the purpose of appointing the various members who will serve on the different committees during the year. A complete list of all the officers and assistants of the society which were appointed are as follows:

AIR SURVEY OF FIRES MADE BY STATE FORESTER

Montgomery, Ala.,—Investigating the reports of unusual forest fire conditions in the mineral section of Alabama, Col. Page S. Bunker, State Forester, made an airplane survey Friday of the territory in that region. From the air every fire, large and small could be plainly seen, as could every acre of burned-over land.

Most reports sentered the fires in Cullman, Winston and Walker Counties. However, the air reconnaissance showed that Jefferson County had sustained the greatest amount of burning, followd in order by Shelby, western Blount, Cullman, Walker and Winston.

In general the damage was found to be considerably less than estimated in the prelimenary reports. Many fires and recent burnings were found widely scattered over the entire mineral section. These ranged in extent from a fraction of an acre to several hundred acres. Damage, in most cases, was confined to surface litter and rubbish, although in some instances, young reproduction and even trees were badly injured.

The worst fires were those which examinations showed were set in numerous places evidently by incendiaries. Others seemed to have escaped from clearing fires set by farmers. Additional fires were set by railroads and some apparently by road crews burning rubbish in ditches. The approximate proportionate area of forest land burned over in each of the localities referred to was Jefferson county 2½ percent, Shelby 2 percent, western Blount 1½ percent, Cullman and Walker about 1 percent. These figures are stated to refer only to the fires occurring within the past three weeks.

MRS. ELIZABETH DURBIN DIED

Mrs. Elizabeth Durbin, age 65, died at her home in the Pleasant Grove community, on Tuesday afternoon, at 3:15 p.m., after a long illness.

She is survived by her husband, A. J. Durbin, of the Pleasant Grove Community; three sons, H. D. Durbin, Clanton Rte. 6, F. M. Durbin, Thorsby Rte. 1., and M. C. Durbin, Clanton Route 6; three daughters, Mrs. Alice Headley, Clanton Rte. 6, Miss Maudie Durbin, Clanton, and Mrs. Adelia Chancellor, Clanton Rte. 6. Mrs. Durbin has been a resident of Pleasant Grove comunity for several years. She was a member of Mt. Nebo church.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at Pleasant Grove church, with Rev. Cecil Ellisor officiating. Spigener Funeral Home was in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Melvin Scogen and son and Mr. George Johnson of Gadsden were visitors in Thorsby last Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Powers and Marie entertained the following ladies last Friday: Mrs. K. A. Ekblad and daughter, Astrid, Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. Clyde Meade, Mrs. V. H. Sutlive and children, Mrs. Janie Sutlive, Mrs. Marie Peterson and Mrs. J. O. Johnson. During the afternoon refreshments were served to the guests.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard left Monday to spend a few days near Clanton.

Miss Helen Lowery, who is taking a busines course in Birmingham, sent the week end at home.

Mrs. Sam Pate and Ralph, and Mr. G. W. Mims went to Shelby Sunday to see Mr. George Mims, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soberg of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Soberg for a short time, returned Friday to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rascoe Maddox and son, David, spent the week end with Mrs. Maddox's mother in Midland City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Law of Columbiana were the Sunday guests of Miss Elizabeth Law.

Mrs. W. H. Wilson went to Montgomery on Saturday to visit with her daughter, Frances, and will remain for the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star the 15, 16 and 17 of October.

Miss Marian Fairbank spent Friday night and Saturday in Birmingham.

Miss Glasson and Miss Mattingly of Thorsby Institute spent Saturday in Birmingham.

A flagstone walk is being made between the dining hall to campus cottage. The Thorsby Institute boys are laying it under the direction of Rev. Lawrence Stanley.

On Thursday, October 10, in celebration of Mrs. Martin Peterson's birthday anniversary, she had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Russel Peterson, Miss Marie Peterson and Miss Camilla Foss.

Card Of Thanks

Mrs R. L. Davenport wishes to thank all of the people who were so kind to her during the recent illness and death of her husband. Also for the beautiful flowers sent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams spent Sunday afternoon at Lay Dam visiting their daughter, Mrs. Thomason.

Mr. Fayette Manning spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Manning.

Miss Katheryn Lenoir of Birmingham spent Sunday with Miss Edith Foss. Miss Edith returned with her to her home for a short visit.

Mrs. Joe Johnson and children, Mrs. Georgia Strickland, and Mr. Johnson of Jasper were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reinhardt Sunday. Miss Zada Taylor, who has been a guest of Mrs. Reinhardt for several days, returned with them to Jasper.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cobb spent Sunday with Mr. Cobb's parents at Center Hill.

Rev. J. O. Colley of Troy preached both morning and evening last Sunday at the Baptist church.

A large group of the B. T. U. attended the associational B. Y. P. U. convetion at Bethsalem Sunday. The Thorsby B. T. U. won the banner for the largest attendance.

Circle No. 2 of the W. M. S. met Tuesday with Mrs. Tom Robinson.

Mrs. J. E. Each spent Monday with Mrs. Martin Peterson.

Mr. Hollis Pate of Selma is the guest of his parents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pate with their son, Hollis, and daughter, Roma Lee, spent Monday in Clanton with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pate.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Childress have moved into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pate, occupying the upper story. Mr. and Mrs. Flournoy have moved into Mr. Spurgeon Williams's home, from the Eiland house and Mr. and Mrs. Felix Eiland have returned to their home in Thorsby.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mims spent Sunday in Birmingham visiting relatives.

Miss Ruth Maddox of Montevallo College spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Weldon of Clanton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith Saturday.

Mrs. N. Laurell had as her guests for the week end Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moore and son of Birmingham.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson spent the week end at home.

Mrs. Coy Gibbons and son spent Sunday in Clanton with her parents.

Dr. W. L. Law left Sunday for Washington, D. C., on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Sharpe have moved to Corinth, Miss., where he has secured work.

Miss Esther Johnson of Birmingham spent the week end at her home in Thorsby.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

THERE have been frosts quite generally in the northern half of the country and even below the Mason and Dixon Line. That means fewer fresh vegetables in market and higher prices. Cool weather usually improves appetites, so making a stronger demand for food products which creates higher prices. Cabbage, white and sweet potatoes, onions and green peppers are the least expensive vegetables available.

Apples are cheap and plentiful as well as at their best at this season. Grapes, grapefruit, pears, melons and oranges are fairly plentiful and moderate in price. Small sized oranges are an excellent value.

Meats, fish, eggs and butter are all high or higher.

Here are three dinner menus planned to fit the low, the moderate and the liberal budget.

Low Cost Dinner

Lamb Fricassee with Dumplings
Boiled Potatoes
Diced Buttered Turnips
Bread and Butter
Butterscotch Apples
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner

Pot Roast of Beef Mashed Potatoes
Onions Stewed Tomatoes
Bread and Butter
Orange Tapioca Cream
Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner

Oxtail Soup
Roast Stuffed Chicken Giblet Gravy
Browned Sweet Potatoes
Brussels Sprouts Cranberry Sauce
Lettuce, Endive and Watercress Salad
Rolls and Butter
Maple Nut Ice Cream Cake
Coffee

DRUGS
CERTIFIED PHARMACIST
PRESCRIPTIONS
Tasty Lunches Soda Fount
BUS STOP
Wright Drug Co.
Thorsby, Ala.

PROGRAMS
WADESONIAN
CLANTON, ALABAMA

THURSDAY, OCT. 17
W. C. Fields in
"MAN ON FLYING TRAPEZE"
COMEDY—"Headliner"

FRIDAY, OCT. 18
Cary Grant - Gertrude Michael in
"LAST OUTPOST"
COMEDY—"Judge For A Day"
SERIAL—Buck Jones in "Roaring West"
This Picture Will Be Shown Saturday Night at 10:00

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT, OCT. 19
Tim McCoy in "RIDIN' WILD"
COMEDY—"Judge For A Day"
SERIAL—Buck Jones in "Roaring West"
Matinee 2:00; First Show 7:00; Second Show at 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, OCT. 21 and 22
Katherine Hepburn - Fred McMurray in
"ALICE ADAMS"
COMEDY—"Hermit Of Crabland"

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 23
Robert Taylor - Virginia Bruce in
"TIMES SQUARE LADY"
COMEDY—"Tricks of Trades"

LIST OF BIRTHDAY PASSES

Clanton—Mrs. Benson Sims, Oct. 22; T. C. Wilson, Oct. 23; Emmett Parrish, Oct. 20; Maude Mahan, Oct. 19; Eloise Garrett, Oct. 22; Jennie Howard, Oct. 20; Curtis Traywick, Oct. 21; Lester Jones, Oct. 19; W. L. Smith, Oct. 17; Milton Diefenderfer, Oct. 23; Margie Mathis, Oct. 17; W. A. Figuette, Oct. 19; Mrs. Anna Garnderner, Oct. 20; Gee Brown, Oct. 22; Jack Lowery, Oct. 22; Mrs. Percy Pitts, Oct. 17; Hyman Argo, Oct. 21; Leon Mullins, Oct. 22; Mrs. Robert Jones, Rte. 5, Oct. 22; Odelle Headley, Rte. 4, Oct. 20; Lee Gore, Oct. 22; Alex Margolis, Oct. 23; Mrs. Jack Nix, Oct. 23: Mitchell Dam—J. G. Newton, Oct. 19; Bobbie Newton, Oct. 21; Dentsville—Mary Cook, Oct. 23; Maplesville—Hattie Mae Atchison, Oct. 22; Van Potts, Oct. 22; Thorsby—Mrs. A. E. Reagan, Oct. 18.

ADMISSION 10c and 25c

ORIGINAL

UNCLE MIKE HANKS HOOKS UP WITH AAA

Honorable AAA
Washington, D. C.

I and my wife had some Bad News yesterday. My Uncle come in from his farm to spend a couple of weekends with us, and also the days that go in between.

He was as happy as a skylark, and he says, "Well, here I am, and I don't have anything to do till next spring, because I have finished Not Doing Nothing for the Government."

"How did harvest come along?" I asked him.

"It came along great," says my Uncle. I didn't thrast a big crop of wheat, my sows didn't forget they was a lady, my wife didn't pickle no preserves for the winter, and the Government owes me $1746 for not doing all these things."

I asked my Uncle what he had in his head til next spring, and he says, "I got a big Not Doing Program to make some Winter Money out of the AAA. I figure to make plenty of cash off of Not Playing Checkers this winter, Not fixing up None of the Harness, Not Speaking a kind word to my wife, and Not listening to Mr. Roosevelt on the Radio."

"How much money will that come to?" I says.

"That comes to $563.48," says my Uncle, "and they better pay me, or I won't stuff no ballot box for Roosevelt next year."

"What else are you doing besides Nothing for a liveing?" I says.

"Well," says my Uncle, "I have took up Song Writeing on the side, and I have wrote a Patriotic song for the U. S. Farmers."

I and Mabel says that we wanted to learn his new song, so he told us to hum the old tune to America. We unlimbered our jaws and begun to hum the tune, and my Uncle busted out with the new words that he had wrote for it, as follows:

AMERICA

My country, 'tis for me
Land of Lost Liberty:
"F. D. I sing.
Land where my pigs have died
Land where Professors tried
To take me for a New Deal ride,
Lest Freedom ring.

Yourn truly,
(Uncle) Mike Hanks.

BOB JONES COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

"Why do young people go off from my church to college and when they return they never come back to church?" a minister inquired of the writer recently. Such questions are being asked all over America. There is a reason. Much of modern education leads away from God and Christianity. The behavioristic philosophy which has permeated the educational world and sometimes is called "self expression", has robbed many young people of their religious impulses. The early school teachers in America, while some of them may not have been Christians, taught the philosophy of Jesus— which is a philosophy of self denial and self restraint. Modern educational leaders have accepted the philosophy of Satan which says in substance "Live your own life. You are the center. You need no big boss. Do as you please." That explains why young people often come home from college and do not go to church.

"My pastor never preaches the gospel. Must I support him financially?" a lady inquired one time. "Does he preach anything contrary to the gospel?" the writer asked. "Yes, he preaches against the blood of Christ, the virgin birth and every fundamental of the Christian faith," the woman answered. "If you pay a preacher to preach against the virgin birth of Christ and the atoning merits of His death and the other fundamentals of the Christian faith, then you had just as well do the same kind of preaching yourself", I told the woman. In the second Epistle of John we read where the inspired writer says in substance, "If a man comes around preaching false doctrines and you receive him into your home and bid him God speed, you are just as guilty as the false preacher". Christians have no right to sacrifice this Christian principle on the altar of a false church loyalty. It is cowardice to support something you do not believe in. Personally, the writer has long ago given up the plan of giving his money to any organization which is a party to any machinery which propagates a false gospel. An ecclesiastical machine which sends out a Unitarian and Trinitarian with the same authority has been repudiated by Almighty God.

Specials For Friday & Saturday, Oct. 18 and 19

— At These Stores In Clanton —

BEAN and TAYLOR Grocery Co.

TAYLOR GROCERY and MARKET

We Deliver - - - - - - - Phone Us

SPECIAL PRICES on FEEDS and FLOUR

PURE WHEAT SHORTS ..$1.90
Jazz 24% DAIRY, 100 lbs $2.10
16 PER CENT —
Best Yet Dairy Feed $1.75

BEET PULP, 100-Lb Sack ..$2.15
C. S. HULLS, New, Sack 60c
THE RELIABLE —
WINNER DAIRY FEED $2.10

C. S. MEAL, New, 8 per cent $1.35
Best Yet Laying MASH $2.50
100-LB SACK —
HEN SCRATCH FEED $2.50

Omega Flour 24 lbs $1.25
PLAIN AND SELF RISING — FINEST FLOUR MILLED
NONE BETTER FOR THE MONEY
24-LB SACK SELF RISING —
LIGHT WINGS 85c
24-LB SACK SELF RISING —
SOUTH DOWN 85c
PER BARREL $6.50
FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. —
WHITE RING $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. —
SHAWNEE'S BEST $1.15
HIGHEST QUALITY — BEST FOR BISCUIT AND PASTRY
24-LB SACK, PLAIN OR S. R. —
SHAWNEE'S MAID $1.10
NONE BETTER FOR THE MONEY
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. —
SHAWNEE'S GOLDEN PUFF $1
EXTRA GOOD — FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

See Us for Wholesale Prices on Quantity Lots of Flour and Feeds
Dairy and Poultry Feeds of All Kinds—

EXTRAS

SALT, Three 5c Boxes 10c
MATCHES, 3 Boxes 10c
5c TOILET SOAP, 3 for 10c
GOOD RICE 5 lbs 25c
Quart SALAD DRESSING 30c
JELLO, Any Flavor, 2 for 14c
TOILET TISSUE, 5 for 21c
Pint Mayonnaise 23c
KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES —
POST TOASTIES, 2 for .. 15c
1 Pound CRACKERS 10c
16-OUNCE ARMOUR'S —
PORK and BEANS 5c
CHOICE —
Evaporated Peaches, 2 lbs 25c
All School Supplies, 3 for 10c

Look! Prizes!

ASK FOR TICKETS WITH EVERY 50c PURCHASE, OR PAYMENT ON ACCOUNT, WHICH WILL ENTITLE YOU TO A CHANCE ON PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AWAY ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT 4 O'CLOCK.

MEAT DEPT.

CHEESE, Full Cream, Lb 20c
Pure Pork SAUSAGE, Lb 25c
Snowdrift 6 lbs $1.05
FRESH GROUND —
Hamburger MEAT, 2 Lbs 25c
Shoulder BEEF ROAST, Lb ..12½c
MEAT LOAF, 2 lbs 25c
GOOD STEAK, Lb .... 15c and 18c
Fresh or Smoked CONEYS Lb 20c
8-OUNCE BOTTLES —
GRAPE JUICE, 3 for 25c

WELCH'S OR TAYLOR'S
GRAPE JUICE, Pint 20c
ANY FLAVOR —
EXTRACT, 3 10-oz Bottles 25c
½-PT. BOTTLES—JOHNNY BOY —
Extract, Lemon or Vanilla 2 25c
CONDENSED MILK —
SWISS, 6 small or 3 tall cans 20c
ALL BROOM CORN —
A Good BROOM, Each 30c
EXTRA HEAVY —
FANCY BROOM, Each 50c

SEE US FOR GALVANIZED TUBS, WATER BUCKETS, ROOFING, BARBED WIRE AND OTHER STEEL PRODUCTS. WE REPRESENT THE T. C. I. COMPANY. THESE PRODUCTS ARE MANUFACTURED NEAR YOU.

Food Specials

1- POUND JARS —
PRESERVES, 2 for 35c
ARMOUR'S LARGE CANS —
BRAINS, with Gravy, can 19c
Baking Powder, 2-Lb Can 19c
Bulk COFFEE, 2 Lbs 26c
21-oz Jar DILL PICKLES 15c
Jersey CORN FLAKES, 2 for 15c

CORN, PEAS, SPAGHETTI, TOMATOES, HOMINY, LARGE SIZES. YOUR CHOICE
3 for 25c

PINK SALMON, 2 Cans for ..25c
Southern Style Coconut, pkg ..10c
LYE, Watch-Dog, 2 for 15c

Fruits & Vegetables

CABBAGE, 4 Pounds 10c
IRISH OR SWEET —
POTATOES, 10 Pounds .. 19c
BANANAS, 2 Pounds 9c
ONIONS, 3 Pounds 12c

REMEMBER, FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS: WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS. WE ARE OFFERING YOU QUALITY, PRICE, SERVICE AND CLEANLINESS. WE WELCOME YOU TO MAKE OUR STORE YOUR STORE. COME TO SEE US!

CENTER HILL NEWS

Every body around here are busy gathering crops, trying to get through before it rains. Although the dust keeps so many with colds we can't feel good.

Miss Pauline Lessley is visiting her brother and friends in Thorsby. We are glad that Pauline is able to be out again.

Miss Oleen Miller is spending a few days with her uncle in Dixiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Collie Glass spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Collum.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gillespie and children spent Saturday night and Sunday with B. L. Cobb and family.

Rev. Maurice Hodgens spent Saturday night at the home of Jno. W. Collum.

Mr. and Mrs. Mays of Red Bay, Ala., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. T. M. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scott and daughter, Lucile and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Claudie Scott and son and Mrs. Lovia Thomas and two children were the dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Scott Sunday, honoring little Donald on his fourth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Crowson spent Sunday with Mrs. J. B. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cobb of Thorsby and Rev. Hodgens were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cobb Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Corey spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vester Rogers.

We are glad to say Miss Mildred Cobb is still improving.

Mr. and Mrs. William Price and baby spent the week end in Dry Valley with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thrash.

Mrs. L. A. McGraw is at the home of her niece, Mrs. Austin Barnett, this week.

Our Sunday school is moving along nicely with our new superintendent, Mr. Vester Rodgers. Let's every body go and make it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Miller and children were here Sunday attending church.

Want to say all who missed that wonderful sermon Sunday night sure missed a blessing.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb returned here Monday afternoon after spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. Tom Sims, of Thorsby.

ADJUSTMENT PROGRAM FOR SUGAR CANE SYRUP PRODUCERS

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration has developed an adjustment program for commercial sugar cane syrup producers.

A farmer who produced in 1934 200 gallons of sugar cane syrup or more for the market and has sold, or has on hand for sale, this amount may be able to participate in this program; provided he will harvest for syrup in 1935 no more acreage of sugar cane than he harvested in 1934. If he has more acreage in 1935 than in 1934, he may feed the excess cane to his livestock and still participate in the program.

Proof of sale—It will be necessary for each farmer who signs a contract to furnish a receipt of sales signed by the buyer as proof that he sold the syrup.

The payments will be as follows:

1934 payments—Ten cents for each gallon in excess of 100 gallons of syrup sold from the sugar cane crop grown in 1934 on the land covered by a contract, provided the sales exceed 200 gallons of sugar cane syrup. rup.

1935 payments—An amount, which, when added to the average sales price of sugar cane syrup, as asccertained by the seccretary, shall result in a parity price per gallon of syrup as determined by the Secretary for each gallon of syrup sold from the sugar cane crop grown in 1935 on the land covered by the contract, which number of gallons shall be determined as folows:

(a) If the number of gallons sold in 1935 equal 88 percent and does not exceed 100 percent of the number sold in 1934, he shall be paid on said 88 percent.

(b) If the number of gallons sold is less than 88 percent, he shall be paid on number sold.

This payment will be made as soon as practicable after proof satisfactory to the secretary of compliance with the terms and conditions of the contract has been submitted to the Secretary or his authorized agent.

Farmers who are interested in this program and can qualify under the above regulations should see the County Agent as soon as possible.

BANKERS URGE FARMERS PLANT WINTER LEGUMES

Auburn, Ala.—Alabama farmers are being urged by the Agricultural Committee of the State Bankers Asociation to plant legumes for improving their soils.

"Our plea to the bankers at this time is to encourage the farmers to plant winter legumes," says H. J. Whitfield, chairman of the bankers committee on agriculture in a letter to all bankers of the state. "Loans for this purpose should bring good results. Your cooperation will be appreciated."

Miss Alice Brooks and Mr. Jack Hayes were among those from Clanton to attend the Alabama-Mississippi football game in Tuscaloosa Saturday.

CORN-HOG FARMERS WILL VOTE OCT. 26th

Auburn, Ala.—Do corn-hog farmers of the nation want the AAA corn-hog adjustment program to continue another year?

That question will be answered on October 26 when farmers of Alabama and other states go to the polls and vote. "It rests with farmers themselves whether or not there is enough interest in and demand for a corn-hog adjustment program to justify the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in offering such a program in 1936," state AAA officials.

Every corn and hog farmer in the state, whether or not he signed a 1934 or 1935 contract, will have a chance to vote on the corn-hog adjustment program.

PREACHING AT MACEDONIA

Rev. J. P. Littleton will preach at Macedonia next Saturday night and Sunday, October 19 and 20. Every body invited to come out and hear him.—V. G. Smith.

POOR O

PATES CHAPEL

Saturday night and Sunday were or regular preaching days at Pates Chapel, at which Rev. M. Lockhart filled is appointment. We were very glad indeed to see so many from Mt. Carmel with us Saturday night and Sunday. We welcome you back.

A large number from this community attended the revival at Mt. Carmel the past week.

Rev. M. Lockhart was the supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pate and the spend the night guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maddox and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Scott, and Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Maddox. The families welcome him back again.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Sewell and son, Lamar, were the week end guests of her father, Mr. Walter Maddox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rainwater and son, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Champion and two sons spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maddox.

Mr. Eugene Cleckler was the dinner guest of Mr. Pink Hayes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Hayes and son and daughter, Harrison and Edna, and Mrs. Sallie Hayes, and Miss Zelma Hayes were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hayes and family.

Miss Martha Hayes and Miss Carrie Bolton, who has been working in Birmingham, spent the week end with their homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayes and Mrs. Pauline Hayes spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Hayes's brother of Pleasant Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Maddox.

Mrs. Tommie Maddox of Thorsby spent Sunday night with Mrs. Lee Hayes.

Miss Ruby Maddox spent Sunday with Mrs. Wilbert Maddox.

Messrs. Pink and Harrison Hayes and Eugene Cleckler and Cardis Sorrell called on Lee Hayes a while Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Hayes called on Mrs. Lee Hayes a while Sunday evening.

Mr. M. E. Champion, who is building on his house in this community, is progressing fine. He spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maddox.

A BOX SUPPER

There will be a box supper at Pates Chapel church Saturday, October 19. Every body come and bring some one with you. Also there will be a cake for the prettiest girl and one for the ugliest man. Come and let's find out who that could be. Girls come, looking pretty, and boys and men, come looking ugly.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SPIVEY

George Washington Spivey, age 52, died at his home on Jemison Route 1 at 6:20 p.m., last Sunday. The funeral was held at 3:00 p.m., Monday, at Pleasant Grove, with Rev. Paul Oden officiating. Spigener was in charge of burial.

Mr. Spivey is survived by his widow, Mrs. G. W. Spivey; one son, E. B. Spivey of Jemison Route 1; one daughter, Miss Laurine Spivey, Jemisons Route 1; three sisters, Mrs. Miller Sewell and Mrs. Eddie Boyd of Gulfport, Miss; two brothers, W. W. Spivey of Birmingham, and C. C. Spivey of Thorsby.

He was born in this county, near Mulberry church, on November 15th, 1882, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nahaniel Spivey. He later moved to the Pleasant Grove community, and on December 8, 1912 was married to Miss Lillie Franklin.

CHILTON LOST TO WETUMPKA 7-0

The Chilton High Tigers lost a hard fought football battle to the Wetumpka Aggies on the local field last Friday afternoon, 7 to 0.

The battle was about even so far as team play was concerned, breaks playing a great part in the outcome. The Chilton team put on several sustained drives, but were unable to summon the final punch to put over a touchdown.

The first half was a nip and tuck affair, with neither team having much the better of it. Early in the third quarter, however, the Aggies blocked Williamson's punt deep in Chilton territory, and took the ball about the 20-yard line, from where a series of line plunges carried the oval over for a touchdown.

The Chilton team fought a great defensive game, staving off one touchdown on their 2-yard line, and another inside the 10-yard stripe. Ermon Johnson and Williamson stood out for Chilton on offense, while Robinson, Captain Hogan and the Reynolds boys showed up well on defense.

The turnout of spectators at this game was much lighter than usual. The Tigers go to Tallassee next Friday, and reports from the lair of the Tigers are that they are out to bring back the bacon.

CHICKEN SUPPER

There will be a chicken supper at Cedar Grove church, three miles south of Thorsby, next Saturday night, Oct. 19. Every body has an invitation to come and enjoy the good eats. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the church.

More cigarettes are smoked today because more people know about them—they are better advertised. But the main reason for the increase is that they are made better—made of better tobaccos; then again the tobaccos are blended—a blend of Domestic and Turkish tobaccos.

Chesterfield is made of mild, ripe tobaccos. Everything that science knows about is used in making it a milder and better-tasting cigarette.

We believe you will enjoy them.

© 1935, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

WANTED

1000 Gallons

Good Sorghum Syrup. For the next few days or until we buy the above amount, we will pay 25c per gallon, cash, for good Sorghum Syrup in Barrels.

CLANTON BUILDING SUPPLY CO.

J. T. Rockett :-: :-: J. D. Rockett

Clanton, Alabama

Alabama's Greatest Daily Newspaper Value . . . .

The Birmingham Post

Will be sent to you by mail every week-day for ..... ONE YEAR $3.00

Or With Your Favorite Magazines

A Few of Which Are Listed Below

CLUB NO. 2 — ALL SIX FOR ONLY $3.45 — Value $4.50

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
Southern Agriculturist, 1 year
Gentlewoman, 1 year
Country Home, 1 year
Good Stories, 1 year
The Farm Journal, 1 year

CLUB NO. 3 — ALL FIVE FOR ONLY $4.50 — Value $5.00

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
American Magazine, 1 year
Pictorial Review, 1 year
McCall's Magazine, 1 year
Progressive Farmer, 2 years

USE THIS COUPON

THE BIRMINGHAM POST,
Birmingham Ala.
Gentlemen

Enclosed find $.....for which please enter, or renew, my subscription for one year to The Birmingham Post only ( ) or Club No. ....., as above.

Name .....

Address .....

R. F. D. .....

This rate applies only to R. F. D. box holders and points not served by carriers.

Salesmen Wanted—Write circulation department, The Birmingham Post for details. You can make $3 a day.

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

FERTILIZER MAKES LEGUMES BETTER NITROGEN FACTORIES

Legumes are natural nitrogen factories—but their production may be increased with the use of phosphorus and potash.

Many farmers grow legumes as green manure crops because they collect nitrogen from the air and put it into the soil. Applications of phosphorus and potash to legumes stimulate their growth, enabling them to produce more nitrogen than if they did not receive this fertilizer materials. These are not wasted, as they are available for the next crop, as corn or cotton, when the legumes are plowed under and decay.

By this method the farmer gains the use of three fertilizer materials for other crops although he applied only two.

Phosphorus and potash applied to legumes when grown as a green manure crop help to produce heavier yields of corn and other crops than if the same fertilizer is applied directly to the crops, tests of the United States Department of Agriculture show. In the South, fertilizer mixtures of 0-10-4 and 0-8-4 applied at the rate of 400 pounds an acre are generally satisfactory for increasing the growth of the Austrian winter pea and other legumes grown as a green manure crop preceding corn and cotton.

DON'T BLAME HEN IF EGG FLAVOR DOES NOT SUIT YOU

Good eggs, when properly cooked, please the taste. When their flavor is unpleasant—don't blame the hen.

The flavor of an egg depends largely upon what the laying hen is fed and care given eggs, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. Poultrymen intent upon producing high-quality eggs prevent their flocks having access to strongly flavored vegetables such as turnips, onions, garlic, and leek. These feeds are likely to give eggs an unpleasant flavor and taste.

In retaining the good qualities of eggs and to keep them fresh, poultrymen store them shortly after they are laid, in a clean, cool place, free from undesirable odors.

MT. CARMEL CLOSED REVIVAL

Mt. Carmel Baptist church has just closed its first revival since it was organized in September. It is generally believed that it was the greatest revival that most of us have ever attended. Bro. M. Lockhart did the preaching, which was not only sound and well received, but inspiring and convincing.

With a charter membership of 19 members the church baptized 12 and received three by letter. We were also strongly supported by several good singers from neighboring churches. We fell that our community has been greatly blessed.—M. W. Mims, Pastor.

Shampoo, set and dried, 25c. Manicure, 25c. Modern Beauty School.

WOOD EXPERTS DRIVE HOME POINTS ABOUT USING NAILS

Valuable "tips" on the art of nailing woods together come from experts of the Forest Products Laboratory, Madison, Wis., according to the United States Forest Service, which maintains the labratory in cooperation with the University of Wisconsin. Good nailing, they say, consists largely in selecting the right kind, size, and number of nails and then using them properly.

Some points in the technique of good nailing are: Strength of a naled joint depends on the fractional contact of the nail with the wood fibers. Nailed joints must resist two types of pressure. The first is direct, tending to withdraw the nails; the other lateral, or sidewise. A nail's resistance to the latter presure is greater, and depends upon the diameter of the nail and the kind of wood used. Tables have been made showing the exact increase of resistance to lateral pressure provied by nails of various diameters.

A nail is long enough if about two-thirds of it goes into the board receiving the point. Splitting can be avoided by using a thin, blunt nail, or by plunting the end of a sharp nail and by boring a lead hole into the wood. The strength of nailed woods increases directly with the number of nails used. Good joints cannot be made with green woods that later dry out. Nails are more efficient when driven into the side grain of dry wood, than when driven into the end grain.

Tests show that the resistance of nail's to withdrawal depends approximately on the area of contact with the wood. Resistance against withdrawal, pont out the wood experts, depends on the surface conditions of the nail. For temporary service, cement-coated nails give about 25 to 100 per cent more holding power, but this effectiveness falls off in time. More permanent is the grip of those nails which have a pitted or etched surface.

FARM BOYS OFFERED PRODUCTION LOANS

Auburn, Ala.—A new program for farm boys in 4-H clubs, FFA chapters and other organized agricultural student groups to finance crop and livestock projects of their own is announced by the Farm Credit Administration.

The plan makes it possible for organized groups of farm boys to grow crops or raise livestock under the direction of a vocational teacher, county agent, or other responsible leader.

ETOWAH FARM WOMEN MAKING MATTRESSES

Auburn, Ala.—Etowah county farm women have made 42 pairs of gloves since the glove-making demonstration were started in the county a few weeks ago, reports Mrs. Diana B. Williams, county home agent, to Miss Helen Johnston, state home demonstration agent.

BLOUNT FARM WOMEN MAKING MATTRESSES

Auburn, Ala.—Farm women of Blount county are going to have better beds to sleep upon "because they have learned to make their mattresser out of the material they have on hand," says Pauline Holland, home agent, in commenting upon the interest of the rural women are taking in mattress-making demonstrations.

L. B. ADAMS PAYS OUT WITH GOV'T BULLS

Mr. J. Dudley Collins, who has charge of the government's bull projects in this county, reports that one farmer under his supervision has made a fine record. This farmer is L. B. Adams, of near Providence in Beat 16.

On May 20, 1934 Mr. Adams engaged two steers from the government and made a crop that year. Again this year he did likewise, but got an earlier start. Both years Mr. Adams paid out, and this year has a quantity of syrup, peas, beans and potatoes left. Mr. Adams was the first one of the bull farmers to pay out, according to Mr. Collins.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT VERBENA OCTOBER 18th

There will be a fiddlers convention in the Verbena high school auditorium Friday night, October 18th, beginning at 8 o'clock. First prize will be $5, and there will be several other prizes. Any fiddler who plans to attend should drop a card to Prof. Hollis Hiten, Verbena, Ala.

HEALTH WINNERS WILL BE NAMED NOVEMBER 2nd

Auburn, Ala.—Alabama's healthiest 4-H club boy and girl will be selected at a State Health Contest to be held in Birmingham on November 2. The two winners in the contest will be given trips to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago the latter part of November, reports T. A. Sims and Miss Elizabeth DeLoney, state 4-H club leaders. The six who will compete in the contest are Eloise Garrett, Uriah; Mary Gardiner Pack, Somerville; Olga Spratlan, Union Springs; Frederick Abels, Gadsden; Wayne Mott, Seale; William Holt, Livingston.

$330,000 For Schools Paid By Power Company

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY
15846
BIRMINGHAM, ALA. OCT 11 1935 CHECK NO. 91688
IN FULL PAYMENT OF ACCOUNT AS PER DETAIL STATEMENT ACCOMPANYING THIS CHECK
PAY TO THE ORDER OF STATE TREASURER, STATE OF ALABAMA, MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA. $330,514.65
THREE HUNDRED THIRTY THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED FOURTEEN & 65/100 DOLLARS
PAYABLE AT The First National Bank 61-1 Birmingham, Alabama
ALABAMA POWER COMPANY
Thos. N. Martin
Lamar Ashby

Above is a picture of the $330,514.65 check of the Alabama Power Company delivered last week by its President, Thomas W. Martin, to H. S. Long, President, State Tax Commission. The check covers hydro-electric kilowatt hour taxes assessed for the special educational trust fund of the State. These taxes are approximately $40 000 more than in 1934.

The entire amount of this check will be devotsd to educational purposes. From previous years' distributions of the Educational Trust Fund, it appears that from this payment of the Power Company today, counties will receive for elementary and high schools, $200,000, and State institutions, $130,000. Among the larger beneficiaries appear: Alabama College at Montevallo, $16,000; Alabama Polytechnic Institute, $33,000; University of Alabama, $30,000; the seven Teachers' Colleges, $23,000; Jefferson County, $14,000; Mobile County, $4 200; Walker County, $7,600; Cullman County, $7,200; Marshall County, $6,000; Lauderdale County, $5,000; Crenshaw County, $5,700.

RIGINAL

YOU CAN HAVE IT NOW!

IT'S ALWAYS SUMMERTIME IN THE KITCHEN

Buy Now. Almost Unbelievable Terms. Ask About our SKIP PAYMENT PLAN

TIFFIN RADIO & ELECTRIC CO.
Clanton, Ala.

HOME APPLIANCE CO.
Montevallo, Ala.

Your General Electric will now easily pay for itself and save you $40 to $60 between now and spring.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

BARBER'S ITCH SCALP BETWEEN TOES

ITCH

RING WORM CRACKED SKIN ECZEMA

For that maddening itch that almost drives you mad, try Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It is not a fancy preparation but, Oh!, how it works! It kills the parasites that cause most cases of itch. At the same time, it helps heal the sore and damaged skin.

Thousands who had tried everything else for sore, itching and broken out skin say that Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil was the only thing that ever gave them anything like real relief. You'll find it wonderful for all cases of itch, including "Athlete's Foot" (Ring Worm) and Eczema. Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and is sold by all druggists at 30c and 60c with a guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

IRA S. CROWE BACK IN TAYLOR GROCERY STORE

After resting up for two or three weeks, Mr. Ira S. Crowe is back in the meat department at Taylor's Grocery and Market. Mr. Crowe is well experienced in the meat-cutting business, and his many friends will be glad to learn that he is back at his same old location ready to serve them. Mr. Crowe, as well as Mr. R. W. Taylor, the owner of the store, invite their friends to call around when in need of anything in their ine.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA
9-6-35

ANNOUNCING OPENING OF

MARINELLO BEAUTY SHOPPE

Located Next Door To Alabama Power Company

Thursday, October 17

The art of Beauty Cutlure has been so developed that every woman may have charm of appearance. A visit to our new Shoppe will prove this conclusively.

REGULAR PRICES

HAIR BOBBING 35c
FACIALS ..... $1.00 and Up
MANICURE 50c
SHAMPOO and FINGER WAVE 50c
HENNA SHAMPOO and SET $1.00

INTRODUCTORY OFFER

SHAMPOO and FINGER WAVE 35c
MANICURES, Each 35c
(Thursday, Friday and Saturday Only)

Mr. C. C. Flories, representative of the Realistic Factory, will be with us on opening day, to demonstrate the Realistic Waving Machine.

On Monday, October 21st, Mrs. Dell Allen Carter, personal representative of Polly Harris Society Cosmetics, of New York, Newport and Hollywood, will be with us who cordially invites you to get a Scientific Facial and Skin Analysis, without cost or obligation.

WE FEATURE MARINELLO COSMETICS

MARINELLO BEAUTY SHOPPE
Phone 78 Clanton, Alabama

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxines. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

BOX SUPPER AT CONCORD JR. HIGH FRIDAY NIGHT, OCT. 18th

There will be a box supper at Concord School on Friday night at 7:00 o'clock, given for the benefit of the school. There will be several other interesting features given in connection with the box supper. There will be several musical numbers given by local talent.

TENT MEETING AT LOMAX

R. L. Huffman begins a tent meeting at Lomax Saturday night, October 19. We wish the interest and prayers of all people. To do good by teaching the scriptures is our purpose. Come.

CHANGE IN VOCATIONAL BLDG. PLANS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

A last minute change has been made in the specifications of plans for the Vocational building under construction at the Chilton County High School.

The original plans called for a frame building to cost $3,800.00, this amount to be paid out of State funds. However, an additional $500.00 has been made up, by which the plans can be changed to call for a brick veneer building, and this is the type building which will be built.

This extra $500.00 was subscribed by the Commissioners Court of Chilton County, the City of Clanton, the Pittman Tractor Co., and the Adams Road Grader Co. Construction of the building is going forward at a rapid pace, and it is hoped it will be ready for occupancy by November 1st.

REFUGE NEWS

Sunday school was about as usual Sunday. A special conference was held to finish the associational business.

Mrs. M. Lockhart and children visited Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Connell Sunday.

Mr. J. R. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easterling and Mrs. A. N. Mims made a trip to Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Connell has returned home after a two week's visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris, of Ashland.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Every member please be on hand to greet our new pastor.

JUST RECEIVED
A shipment of Fine WESTERN MARES. Ages from 2 to 6 years old. For SALE or TRADE. Come and see them.
R. W. LOWE
South Clanton, Ala.

UNUSUAL FACTS REVEALED
—by "Movie Spotlight"

CHILTON COUNTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT LIBERTY HILL CHURCH

The Chilton County Baptist Association will meet with Liberty Hill church, four miles west of Clanton, on October 16 and 17.

Following is the chairmen of the committees for this session: Temperance, W. W. Allen, Cooper, Ala; Orphanage, C. C. Conway, Jemison, Ala.; Sunday school, H. D. Durbin, Clanton, Ala; Periodicals, Paul Oden, Lawley, Ala; Christian and Ministerial Education, G. H. Carroll, Clanton, Ala.; State Missions, G. F. Harper, Thorsby, Ala; Home Missions, M. Lockhart, Clanton, Ala; Foreign Missions, W. P. Lowery, Thorsby, Ala; W. M. U., Lera Grant, Route 2, Verbena, Ala; B. Y. P. U., Mollie Miner, Cooper, Ala; Relief and Annuity, W. H. Cook, Stanton, Ala.

Rev. W. E. Robinson was nominated to preach the introductory sermon, alternate, Rev. E. A. Norris.

Rev. Jones urges that all these people on the program be prepared to take their part on the program, or, if for any reason they can not be present, he urges that they please notify either him or Mr. Webb immediately.—J. W. Jones, Moderator, S. J. M. Webb, Clerk.

Rev. Herschel Lynch, a returned Missionary from China, will preach at Shady Grove M.P. Church on the third Sunday night in this month, October 20, at 6 o'clock. Everyone has a cordial invitation to come and we especially invite the Verbena and Chilton Circuits to come and be with us.

YOUR PARTY BEST

Keep it always as fresh, as romance-inviting as the first day you wore it! Evening gowns dry cleaned—75c and up.

Clanton Laundry & Cleaning Co.
Phone 119

666 checks MALARIA in 3 days
COLDS first day
Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops TONIC and LAXATIVE

New 1936 Chevrolet Truck

See Me for Advance Information on this Truck.

L. E. FOSHEE
CHEVROLET SALESMAN
Clanton, Ala.

TWO SUITS IN CIVIL COURT

Two large suits have been entered in the Circuit Court of Chilton county during the last few days.

J. L. Wilson, as administrator of the estate of Harvey Chandler, deceased, has entered suit against Joe Y. Gray for the sum of $15,000.00, this suit growing out of the alleged shooting affray last year in which Mr. Chandler was killed.

The other is a suit by T. J. Reynolds, administrator of the estate of Joe Reynolds, against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co., for $10,000.-00. Joe Reynolds was killed on the railroad tracks by a moving train last year, and the suit charges negligence on the part of the company employees.

MODERN Equipment for MODERN HUNTERS

at the right prices

When you go hunting you want the best guns and ammunition you can buy. We have just the thing you will need—The famous Winchester, Remington and Peters Shells and Cartridges.

SHOTGUNS
Small Rifles

Bicycles For Boys For Girls $29.00 to $32.50

Big FOUR
Hardware Company
A. E. REAGAN, Mgr. - - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

JAMES H. DANIEL

Chilton County's new and only authorized Singer Sewing Machine Representative carries every type of electrical and treadle machines, Vaccuum Cleaners and Electric Irons. We have a few real good, late model machines that will be sold at most reasonable prices.

Come in to see us at your very earliest convenience, with all your machine needs, and troubles too, as we have a full line of parts and accessories, and do any repairing and adjusting.

We are located in the Dollar Store, (Next door to the A. & P. Tea Co.). Are at the store every Saturday, and traveling in other sections of the county the remainder of the week.

JAMES H. DANIEL
Exclusive Singer Representative for Chilton County
Clanton, Alabama

Positive Relief for MALARIA!

Sure End to Chills and Fever!

Here's real relief for Malaria—Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic!

Quickly it stops the chills and fever and restores your body to comfort. Many remedies will merely alleviate the symptoms of Malaria temporarily, but Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic goes all the way and completely rids your system of the infection.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is a real corrective of Malaria because it contains two things. First, tasteless quinine which kills the Malarial infection in the blood. Second, tonic iron which helps overcome the ravages of the chills and fever and fortifies against further attack. Play safe! Take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It now comes in two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get bottle today at any drugstore.

NEW MANAGER AT THE MODERN BEAUTY SHOPPE

Mrs. W. C. Robinson, proprietor of the Modern Beauty Shoppe, announces the engagement of Miss Euzebia Lee, who will be manager of the shope as well as instructor in the Modern Beauty School.

Mrs. Lee comes here from Dothan, Ala., highly recommended. She was formerly manager of the Vanity Box Beauty Shoppe in Panama City, Fla. She has had special courses in Swedish massaging and Swedish facials, as well as special training in manicuring and hair cutting.

If you are interested in beauty work, Mrs. Lee invites you to get in touch with her. She will be glad to explain her work to you.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over
MAZAR'S STORE

Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Teel and children spent Sunday in Montgomery with relatives.

POOR O

REAL VALUES FOR OCTOBER

And Our Store IS FULL—TOP TO BOTTOM—With Bargains

A BIG VALUE IN

Ladies' Coats

100 Beautiful Silk Lined Coats. All Sizes, Swagger Models or Belted

at $9.95

100 other new style Coats for — $5.95

HATS

We carry a complete stock of Hats. A hat for every Dress from

$1.00 up

Dresses

Just Received a new shipment of Silk and Printed Styles. Big stock priced for 98c & up

OUTING

By request we again are going to sell our regular 10c Outing

for 8c

BLANKETS

A special for this week only, a large size Double Blanket per pair $1.00

RAINCOATS

Be Sure to see our New Dress Raincoats. Prices are surely right.

$1.98 --- $2.69 --- $2.95 --- $3.95

SHEETING

Good heavy-weight ward-wide LL Sheeting

9c

FEATHER TICKING

Guaranteed Featherproof Cotton Ticking. We are headquarters for good Ticking

10c to 19c

SWEATERS and ZIPPER COATS

We are headquarters for Zipper Coats in all Colors and Sweaters in Coat or Pullovers

We Have Clothed Chilton Co. For Years

The LEADER

M. LANDE - - - - - - - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

Men's Suits

THESE ARE A REAL BUY

The talk of Chilton. Such beautiful styles and materials. Never in our past 16 years have we ever had such values

$8.95 to $16.95

Mens Shoes

When you think of your feet, think of Star Brand All-Leather Shoes for the family.

WORK SHOES

A REAL BUY

We carry a most complete stock of Shoes for the whole family. It pays to wear all leather shoes and we have them. When buying ask for guaranteed all leather shoes. They are no higher and prices are

$1.95 to $2.95

Messrs. Joe Higgins, Julius Burnett and Flem Higgins spent Tuesday in Atlanta, where they attended a Ford meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Headley returned Monday from a visit with Mrs. Headley's mother, Mrs. Odell, in Gallatin, Tennessee.

Beware The Cough

From a common cold

That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

They're here!

THE NEW

PHOENIX

FALL SOCKS

in Circus Colors

This fall, Phoenix Socks for children are styled in Circus Colors . . . a wide choice of stunning stripes and tweeds. And of course, being Phoenix made, they wear and wear and wear. Slacks, anklets, half-sox . . . they're all reinforced, all full size for perfect fit. Ask to see them!

Circus transfer pictures! Youngsters love these gay transfers. They're circus pictures, unusual and jolly. A complete set of 12 pictures comes with each purchase!

29c 39c

Taylor Dry Goods Co.

Clanton, Alabama

AN APPEAL TO MY FARMER FRIENDS AND OTHERS

Who is fooling me? or, are they?

The authorities who have the figures at hand tell us that the farmers of Chilton county and of the entire state of Alabama received nearly twice as much for their crop two years ago as the year before. Then they say that they received about twice that amount last year. In other words, nearly doubling every year for the last three years. Are they?

Now, I have collected very little the past three years, and so far, this year seems worse. Nine out of ten farmers who have mentioned paying me have claimed they could not pay because their "allowance" had been cut so short that when they paid for their rent, fertilizer and tax that they had little or nothing left to buy shoes and school books for their children. So it seems that I am the forgotten man again.

Now my accounts are honest, just and past due, and I tried hard to give the very best of service, wholeheartedly, and with little consideration for myself, and with patients' welfare above all. I need my money and if you can pay me I want you to come on now and do it, for I need it to meet my own obligations.

If your account is more than nine years old and you have done your best, here is a special offer: Come and let us agree on some plan of settlement. Although I have worked hard many times under adverse circumctances to earn this, if you can not pay the full amount, maybe I can scale it down and make you able to pay. At least come around and tell me who is fooling. Are you growing richer year by year and not paying your bills? Or what is the answer.—V. J. Gragg.

Dr. Sam Gowan, Paul and Sally Gowan were in Montgomery Tuesday for hte circus.

This Coupon worth $1.00 on any Radio Repair Job

(For repairs to Chassis or Speaker Only)

Save this ad and bring it with your Radio or call phone 2003. Prompt Service—90 day guarantee

(This offer Expires November 15, 1935)

J. B. DOWNS Jr.

Clanton, Ala.

BUY YOUR NEW AND USED CARS FROM

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Clanton, Ala.
Phones 120 and 206-J

I have a 1934 V-8 Coach in first class condition for quick Sale. Easy Terms.

Mrs. Jean Wyatt, Miss Gertie Fiquette and Miss Lucille Dickinson attended the Ringling Bros. Circus in Montgomery Tuesday night.

OBITUARIES — IN MEMORY

It becomes necessary for us again to call attention to the fact that we make a charge of one cent per word for all obituaries over 150 words published in The Union-Banner. So, if you want an obituary, or in memory article, published about a departed friend or relative, it must be confined to not over 150 words, or else money order for the remainder should be included if sent by mail, as outlined above.

If obituaries are sent in containing over 150 words and no money accompanies same, it will be either omitted entirely or, if possible, condensed to come within the requirement, and published.

THE UNION-BANNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Rucker Sims of Tuscumbia were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Higgins Sunday.

Mrs. Garnick of Prattville visited Mrs. Joe Higgins Sunday.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

WILDCAT VETERANS PLAN REUNION AT BIRMINGHAM

The national reunion of the 81st or Wildcat Division will be held at Birmingham, Nov. 10, 11 and 12, with Maj. Gen. Charles J. Bailey, of New York City, commander, presiding. Between 7,000 and 8,000 veterans who served in the division during the World War, are expected to attend the conclave.

Birmingham, according to reports here yesterday, is making great preparations for the convention. Officers look for a much larger attendance than the 5,500 or 6,000 veterans who went to North Carolina last year for the meeting.

The convention will be in the municipal auditorium. A large delegation from Montgomery and adjoining counties will attend. The Wildcat Division trained at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., and went overseas in the Summer of 1918, arriving in time to particiate in several battles before the Armistice ended hostilities the following November 11.

CITY ACCOUNTS BEING AUDITED

We are informed by Mayor Jones that an audit is being made of the books of the City of Clanton, this week. Mr. Joseph E. Miller, a certified public accountant, of Montgomery, is doing the work, and it is expected that it will be finished this week. If so, Mayor Jones has promised to give us a copy of the report for publication next week.

FOUR ARRESTS LAST WEEK

As result of arrests during the past week, four defendants were arraigned in Mayor Jones' city court last Monday morning.

Two arrests were for driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, and each received fines of $50.00 and costs.

The other two arrests were for fighting. One of these was acquitted, while the other received a fine of $10.

HILL GROCERY CO

COFFEE

Royal Blend lb 15c Fit for a King lb 23c

BEST VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Lard Bulk Lb 13 4-lb Ctn. 55c

Anglo Corned BEEF, No. 1 Can 15c
SOAP, 6 Giant Bars Octagon 25c

PEAS, Our Favorite No. 2 Can 10c
CORN, Oleo Tender No. 2 Can 10c
CATSUP, First American, 10-oz bot. 10c

SCOTCH OATS Two 25-oz pkgs ... 15c
KRAUT, Stokely's No. 1 Can 5c
HOMINY, Stokely's No. 1 Can 5c

FLOUR

Grandma's Wonder 24-lb Bag $1.05 48-lb Bag $2.05
White Tip 24-lb Bag 95c 48-lb Bag $1.85
Circle "H" 24-lb Bag 85c 48-lb Bag $1.65

MILK, Borden's - St. Chas., 6 small or 3 large cans 17c

JELLY, Whitehouse Apple, 14-oz Jar .. 10c
BACON, Circle "H" Sliced, Lb 35c
CRACKERS, Butter-Nut, Lb box 10c

BEANS, Mich. 3 Pounds 13c
RAISINS, Sunmaid Seedles, 2-lb pkg . 15c
COCOA, Mother's Pound Can 10c
PRUNES, Santa Clara, Lb 5c

PRODUCE

CABBAGE Fancy Firm head Pound 1½c

RUTABAGA, TURNIPS, Lb 2½c
APPLES, Grimes Golden, Doz. 10c

BANANAS, Nice Firm, Pound 5c
ORANGES Nice, Doz. 12c

POTATOES Fancy No. 1 10 Lbs 17c

Avalon Desert PEACHES No. 2½ Can 17c
Clabber Girl BAKING POWDER 2-Lb Can 22c
LIMA BEANS Calif. Baby Pound 7c

PEANUT BUTTER Johnston's 16-oz Jar 15c
VanCamp's PORK and BEANS 3 27-oz Cans 25c

Holsum MACARONI OR SPAGHETTI 7-oz Pkg 5c
SARDINES Packed In Oil 2 No. ¼ Cans 9c

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

As the House of Representatives adjourned, its members sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" to the people who sent them there. It was a friendly gesture but no doubt many of the constituents will answer with "He Was My Man But He Done Me Wrong."—Garden City, Kansas, Telegram.

The people of Brazil seem to be quite alert. When the United States put its cotton program into effect, Brazil increased its cotton acreage. And with our potato control law only a few months old, the South American country is preparing to distribute seed potatoes and instructions for planting and cultivating.—New Bedford Sandard-Times.

One blessing about being poor and homely is that you are not apt to get mixed up in the death of beautiful actresses or torch singers.

One kind of business in the United States which never seems to need a breathing spell is monkey business.

Now if Haile Selassie can just hire Popeye for his army, Mussolini will have more than he can do to stay inAfrica.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

We have heard quite a little in song and story, to say nothing of the witty newspaper paragraphs, about the little red school house. Most of our modernistic pooh-poohers regard it as something hopelesly antiquated. Perhaps it is, but there are still some people in position to know, who beleive that this little edifice was and is not devoid of virtues. It is, for example, good to know that its praises were sung not so long ago in an educational address by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University. Recalling the fact that it seems to be fashionable in certain circles to sneer at the little red school house, Dr. Butler reminded his hearers "but if that little red school house was presided over by a teacher of warm personality with a genius for impressing himself upon the group of pupils of various ages and stages of development which surround him it was an almost ideal educational instrumentality."

Hearing the old-fashioned system termed, under certain conditions, an "almost ideal educational instrumentality" by a man so distinguished in educational circles as Dr. Butler, will no doubt come as a distinct shock to the sophisticated modernists, or perhaps it would be better to say: those who think they are sophisticated. For times have changed. The little red school house is fast disappearing. For most communities it has almost entirely gone. It is being succeeded by fine modern buildings with the latest equipment into which are poured children gathered here and there by buses and other means of transportation, so that educated youngsters may become mass products. No longer does the bright child secure education ahead of his class by listening to the children in higher classes recite just across the aisle. No longer in too many instances does he come in such close personal contact with his teacher that he is influenced by the fine character and ideals of a patient and heroic instructor. But modern conveniences have supposedly made up for all of this, and these must be good because they are so expensive.

We like to hear the ministers and other orators refer to our fathers and mothers, and the generation back of them, as a fine set of people who builded a great nation. We talk about their religion, their love of home, their humane and patriotic ideals. We like to speak also of their spirit of independence, the sense of thrift and providence which impelled them to face the winter with a cellar full of fire wood and provisions. No wonder the country grew so great, the orators say. And yet it is a notable fact that most of these sturdy fathers and sainted mothers of ours were the product of a little red school house, presided over by a tetacher who may have lacked steam heat, electrical lighting fixtures and labratory apparatus, but who had personal courage and character in addition to their teaching ability. This is not to infer that teachers today do not possess ability, courage and character. Millions of them do. But somehow or other, things do seem to be different, even if the modern school house is bigger and better lighted. Unfortunately, along with bigger and better schools have come extravagance, sophistification, internationalism, paternalism, socialism and many other things that were comparatively unknown in the days of the little red school house. Perhaps that little school, like the horse and buggy, has gone completely out of date in these days when leaning on the government has become the king of outdoor sports. But it is yet to be proved that its teaching of fundamentals was not better than much of the complex "institutions" of today.

This may sound unduly pessimistic. Have we at last come to the edge of the precipice so far as national progress is concerned? By no means. All over this country there are millions of people who still believe in thrift, in industry, in individualism and in a government for the people but not nurse maid for the entire populace. These millions do not make much noise because they are too busy making a living and raising money to pay taxes to keep those who do spend their time making noise. Some of these days they will reassert themselves and things will be different. The little red school house may be dead but, thank Providence, its soul goes marching on. No sort of regimentation or state guardianship can stop this. If it does stop, things will be just too bad for Uncle Sam.

DO FARMERS WANT RELIEF?

The farmers of Chilton County are going to have a chance to register their greifs, if they have any, against the workings of the AAA. A meeting has been called at the courthouse in Clanton next Wednesday, October 23rd, at 10 o'clock. This meeting is called and sponsored by farmers who believe that the workings of the AAA are unfair and detrimental to the farming industry in general. It will be meetings of this kind that will get the farmers relief from the oppression of excessive governmental regimentation, and unless they let their voices of protest be heard through this medium, likely it will be taken for granted that they want a continuation of what they are getting with a strong possibility of it being made tighter next year and in future years.

The Union-Banner firmly believes that the farmers' best interest lies in their registering vigorous opposition to the farm program. This, we believe, is to their interest from a monetary standpoint, but much more so from the standpoint of perpetuating the ideals of Americanism instead of communism, fascism and bureaucracy, into which we are undisputedly drifting at the behest of the Democratic administration at Washington. This means infinitely more to us than money in any amount. We should protest it at every opportunity, and we believe the people of Chilton County will protest it. The question is bigger than politics, and means infinitely more to us in the future than Democrat or Republican, or both.

As stated above the people of Chilton County are going to have a chance to voice their opposition to these tactics, and The Union-Banner hopes that they will avail themselves of the opportunity. To rid ourselves is not going to be an easy matter. There is money behind the scheme. There is power behind it. All the forces of the agricultural experiment station at Auburn is backing the program, and the public school system of Alabama is a well-wisher if not an advocate; so you can readily see that we have no small battle to wage. They are going to steam-roller us out of existence if they can, and they will stop at no odds to gain their ends.

Let the people of Chilton County begin now by attending this meeting next Wednesday, and register our opposition to the farm regimentation program.

PREMATURE PRAISE

Before leaving Washington, President Roosevelt ordered the Federal Trade Commission to conduct a nation-wide inquiry into rising food prices. But when he reached the heart of the farm belt he delivered a eulogy to the AAA for raising the prices of agricultural commodities. In spite of the divergent viewpoints thus suggested, the President did not in either case come to grips with the basic problems raised by the crop control program.

The address at Fremont was especially significant for what was omitted. Mr. Roosevelt paid tribute to "the pioneering spirit" but did not make plain how that spirit functions under a system of paternalistic regimentation. "We have begun to understand that we must harness Nature in accordance with Nature's laws, instead of despoiling Nature in violation of her laws," he said. But there was not a word about the destruction of crops to raise prices.

Likewise the President outlined "the true function of government under our Constitution—to promote the general welfare, not by interferring unduly with the individual liberties, but by bringing to the aid of the individual those powers of government which are essential to assure the continuance of the inalienable rights which the Constitution is intended to guarantee." No one is likely to challenge that objective. The essential question is: How can the President keep his mind focused on such generalities when confronted by the compulsory limitations that have been imposed upon cotton, tobacco and potato growers as adjuncts to the AAA program?—Washington, D. C. Post.

AN EXCELLENT MOVE

Optimism was radiated at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee at Washington, D. C., recently, acording to newspaper accounts. This optimism was not all put on "for the record." A great deal of it is justified by the change in pulic opinion during the past few months. The Republicans have a long, hard fight ahead of them next year. But the situation no longer looks hopeless as it did a few months ago. Unbiased observers who have done a great deal of traveling over the country recently report a decided change in public expression concerning policies of the national administration.

As an evidence of the fact that they are beginning to take the next campaign seriously, the Republicans have arranged for headquarters at Chicago, the Middlewestern metropolis of the country. This is sound strategy. The Western territory promises to be important in the campaign next year, and there ought to be Republican activity and organization close in touch with that section of the country if we are to have a real contest next year.

The choice of Harrison E. Spangler, Iowa attorney and politician, as director of the Chicago headquarters is an especially happy one. Mr. Spangler has had years of experience in politics. By temperament and personality he is well fitted for the task of directing Republican activities from the Chicago district. He is a man of sound judgment and a good strategist. The Republicans have made a good start in their Western enterprise. The time seems auspicious. Things are gradually getting set for the 1936 campaign.

It is said that Japan may protest against our lending any money to China. And if they will only find a way to prevent our lending any money to Europe they will earn our real gratitude.

LET US HOPE

President Roosevelt was undoubtedly in a cheeriul mood when he asured the nation the other day that no additional tax levies will be needed to take care of the increased national debt and the mounting cost of government. In spite of the fact htat the debt has grown from nineteen billions to thirty billions, with a greater sum in prospect and despite further the fact that annual deficits for running the government are now more than three billions, we are assured that all is well and no new taxes will become necessary. This indeed will be cheerful news to American business, and also to the American consumer who pays the bill in the long run.

After presenting a picture of reduced expenditures the President is quoted as stating: "Thus it is clear to me that the federal government, under provisions of present tax schedules will not need new taxes or increased rates in existing taxes to meet the expenses of its necesary annual operations and to retire the public debt."

All of which is entirely reassuring. But it would be even more re-assuring did we not know that the President has been mistaken before about what ought and would have to be done. For example, in a speech at Pittsburgh, October 19, 1932, attacking the fiscal management of President Hoover, Mr. Roosevelt is quoted as saying:

"The other bad effect of this mismanagement is not at all technical. It is the burden of high cost on the backs of all our people.

"I can state the condition best by quoting one paragraph from a document published a week ago and signed by both Alfred E. Smith and Calvin Coolidge:

"'All the costs of local, state and national governments must be reduced without fear and without favor. Unles the people, through unified action, arise and take charge of their government, they will find that their government will take charge of them. Independence and liberty will be gone and the general public will find itself in a condition of servitude to an aggregation of organized and selfish minorities.'

"Every word of that warning is true, and the first and most important and necessitious step in balancing our federal budget is to reduce expense * * *"

It is to be hoped that Mr. Roosevelt will be less mistaken about what yill be done next year than he was when this 1932 speech was made. It would be a real disappointment were he to be so mistaken about the future again.

And in passing it might be just as well to quote again from a statement credited to the Chief Executive on March 10, 1933:

"I ask that this legislation (authorizing increased revenues) go into effect at once without even waiting for the beginning of the next fiscal year. I give you asurance that if this is done there is reasonable prospect that within a year the income of the government will be sufficient to cover the expenditures of the government."

Needless to say, the income of the government within a year was considerably short of covering governmental expenditure, billions short, it might even be said.

DO THE UNEMPLOYED AGREE?

President Roosevelt declared the "emergency peak" is past, in his order placing the last seven recovery agencies not so included under the director of the budget.

It is nice to be optimistic, but there are certainly qualifications to this optimism.

Ten million men still are without work. There has been no gain in employment during the last year.

The prices farmers receive still are well below the prices they pay. Balance is lacking.

Income has gone down, but many heavy charges are still at the 1929 level, among them mortgage costs, transportation charges, insurance, interest rates to the individual and taxes.

These emergencies all exist; and not only the hardest and most difficult kind of work will overcome them. The United States has the hardest job of the depression still to face in providing jobs for all of its men and women without resorting to inflation.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

WE STAND FOR ANYTHING

"Emergency" confronts the country. In the metropolis, New York (richest city on earth), it is dreadiul. Hundreds of thousands of human beings are miserable. They are hungry. They are objects of charity. They cannot pay their house rent. The government succors them. It is building houses for them, so that they can enjoy the "American standard of living." It is not for you boys in Barnwell and Allendate, Dorchester and Chesterfield. The hungry, miserable people in New York, tens of thousands of them, are on strike. They have quit the government work. It is not paying them enough, they say. It is paying them for the same kind of work twice as much and more as it pays unemployed, from PWA funds, in South Carolina. The strikers include stenographers, time-keepers, bookkeepers, white collar men and women. They are starving, and they strike. It is a frightful "emergency." We backwoodsmen, we yokels, we rubes, we boobs here in the sticks of South Carolina, are helping to support these strikers, yes, white collar strikers included. We stand for it. We stand for anything. Our Congressmen stand for it.—Charleston News and Courier.

We don't believe there would be so much kicking if the AAA would let hogs, and wheat and potatoes alone and concentrate on reducing the production of spinach.

One of the frequent answers of New Dealers to criticisms concerning the operation of new federal boards is "well, anyhow the country is better off than it was three years ago." This is of course a question open to debate. The country is now ten billion dollars more in debt than it was three years ago. This, of course, must be charged against the future.

If Uncle Sam, by some serious diplomatic lapse should be dragged into war with Italy we suppose the restaurants would have to rename spaghetti, Yankee noodles.

Who knows? Maybe in another year the G-men will be out after potato highjackers.

Of course the early bird is entitled to the worm but the fellow who sleeps late and depends on a government relief check wouldn't be satisfied with worms anyhow.

When a government starts going into private business it usually isn't long until private business finds itself inside the government.

Rex Tugwell, the resettlement expert, is going to help 350,000 farm families, furnishing them with livestock, seed, etc., so they can start making a living by raising more produce. At the same time the AAA is paying farmers not to raise so much stuff. Looks like Tugwell and Wallace were playing ball in different leagues.

FARLEY'S DREAMS

The Democratic National Chairman, Mr. Farley, had the hardihood to mention, at the Endicott love feast, the Democratic platform of 1932, and he added:

"At the famous 100-day session of Congress practically every plank of the platform was written into legislation. Never had a party so faithfully fulfilled its promises."

What a chairman! What a dreamer. The rest of the world, including other Democrats, has been under a delusion. Only Jim knows where, how and when the Democratic party carried out its pledges to save 25 per cent of the cost of the federal government by destroying bureaucracy and eliminating extravagance; to balance the budget; to end the follies of the Farm Board, "which made the government a speculator in farm products."

They are all out of step but Jim. He knows what's what, even if it never happened.—New York Sun.

AN EXPENSIVE CONGRESS

The $10,250,000,000 appropriated by Congress in its recent session was equivalent to over 20 per cent of the total annual income of $49,440,000,000 received by all the people of the United States in 1934, according to the Alexander Hamilton Institute. It is apparent that this appropriation represents another long step toward a serious financial crisis for which any benefits afforded by the laws enacted will provide poor compensation.

This means, of course, that out of every five dollars earned in America this year, another dollar will be taken from the American people inevitably, in the way of taxes, to pay for the spending orgy of the Congress recently closed. For it is not to be forgotten that when the government spends a dollar, the dollar has to come from the pockets of the people who go to make up the nation. The only other course is repudiation by inflation which is even more disastrous, especially to the wage earner.

Of course there is one compensation. If the AAA through legislation by this same Congress is able to elevate the homely potato to the rank and station of a bootleg product, then perhaps all may be forgiven. But there are some evidences, since the storm of protest arose from potato users, that no funds can be found for putting to effect this legislation conferring a new degree of honor on the humble spud.

GETTING USED TO IT?

It is a common and much used expression that the human being can adjust himself to almost any condition—in other words, that folks can get used to anything after a time. This is again evidenced in an address by Lewis Douglas, former director of the Budget in the Roosevelt administration, made recently to the American Mining Congress in Chicago.

Declaring that the policy of the present administration is a spending policy, similar to that in Russia after the fall of Kerensky, Mr. Douglas added: "I am amazed at the extent to which the human mind loses its sense of proportion. In 1931 we experienced a deficit of $900,000,000 and considerable apprehension was shown in Congress. We are now told blithely that in 1936 the deficit will exceed $4,500,000,000. In five years there has been an accumulated deficit of $14,000,000,000 and in six years it will be $20,000,000,000."

So it would seem that after two or three years of a spree of spending money we are getting used to it, and deficits no longer alarm us. But the pay-off is coming and sooner or later the American people are going to have to struggle to pay the debt that is now beping accumulated.

Although Mr. Douglas, who formerly represented Arizona in Congress, was at first regarded as one of the pillars of the present administration he is now one of its severest critics so far as financial policies are concerned. For example, in his speech to the Mining Congress, Mr. Douglas said:

"The deficit is rising despite the semblance of recovery. We have had something of a recovery, yet relief and public work expenditures keep increasing.

"There are 20,000,000 on relief, 8,000,000 of these in the agricultural and rural sections. Four million of these are negroes.

"No other conclusion is possible than that the administration at Washington is an irresponsible, spending government, its spending conducted by those who have no knowledge of how wealth is produced, and perhaps care less. No living man knows the contingent liabilities of the federal government.

"There is a real fear as to the security of our government and our people. Whenever a government has continued to spend more than it has taken in, it has destroyed in whole or in art its currency. This brings pain and poverty and the great middle class is crucified.

the commercial banks to take government ob-

"Our present spending device is to compel ligations. This is credit inflation. At 15 per cent depreciation in government obligations would make almost 80 per cent of these banks bankrupt."

It would be difficult for an old hard-shelled Republican to say anything harsher than that, or to do more "viewing with alarm."

One of our friends who has a picture of a fight painted by one of those artists who are on public relief says that it would be all right if you could tell which was the horse and which was the bull. Of course the horse is the animal which the man is riding but you can't tell which is the man.

If all the people in Russia are now equal how do they distinguish between a top sergeant and a buck private ?

DEMOCRATIC CONSISTENCY

Under the present regime at Washington, to sell whiskey to the boys and girls of the United States and make them retrogrades upon society and vagabonds upon the people of the nation is o. k. This can be done without conflict with the law of the land.

But to sell or buy a bushel of potatoes without the government tax tag brings a year's imprisonment and a thousand dollar fine.

Now we would like for somebody to show us the consistency of such legislation as this. If this country has got to the pass that we can't elect men to public office who have more balanced reason than to pass such legislation as the above, we are headed for a bad state of affairs.

Dear friends, this is an example of Democratic efficiency. This shows what judgment they have about public and official matters and the way they administer them upon their constituents.

IS MR. ROOSEVELT SLIPPING?

Several months ago The Union-Banner, in a front page editorial, asked the above question, to which we received both negative and positive answers. The Union-Banner at that time took the positive side of the question. At that time it was almost suicidal to take issue against the New Deal, but The Union-Banner dared to stand for what it deemed right, although it almost stood alone. Sometimes it requires courage for one to come out in the front of the battle when the opposite side looms lik a solid phalanx in front of him; but sometimes undaunted courage wins the day—in fact it always comes out on top eventually when it is founded on right and justice.

Again The Union-Banner asks the question, is Mr. Roosevelt slipping? We will let people from every conceivable walk of life—farmers, filling station proprietors, hitch-hikers, maufacturers, merchants, bankers, wage-earners (male and female), relief clients, politicians, housewives, college professors, young democrats, young republicans, camps of transients, CCC boys, veterans, editors, clergymen—in short, every category of American citizen — give their views.

After interviewing people from all these different strata of life all over the country, Redbook magazine, in its issue of November, 1935, sums it up as follows: "Among business men and professional men the president is more than slipping. He is sliding and tobagganing. He has few converts among them, and he has hosts of deserters, not only in the North but even in the South. We doubt if any other Democratic President has ever lost so many of the Democratic business men and of the Democratic professional men of the Democratic South.

"There is an overwhelming majority against him today in the business and professional classes north of the Mason Dixon line, and a decisive majority against him south of it. Then we come to the farmers and wage-earners, and there the story begins to be different. Among farmers and wage-earners he has indeed in a sense slipped . . . Today he is off the pedestel and on the ground . . . . Today a critic of him can say his say and get away without having to fight . . . . . The inevitable demotion of the President from superman to man is virtually complete."

In the same issue of Redbook a Virginia farmer is quoted as saying that if Roosevelt is nominated he will not vote at all in 1936. "The AAA has helped the big farmers; it has not helped us little ones."

"A Birmingham, Alabama banker had great faith in Roosevelt; now thinks four more years of him would put the country on the rocks. 'Business men of Alabama would jump off the Roosevelt band-wagon in droves if the other side had somebody to offer.' A Birmingham insurance man says there would be a big bolt from Roosevelt among business men of Alabama if it would do any good. A high official of an Alabama manufacturing company says: 'Hundreds of Democrats who traditionally would vote for any Democratic yellow dog are eager today to stump the State against Roosevent'."

Many Republicans in Chilton County voted for Mr. Roosevelt in 1932, but now such expressions as this are very comon: "I thought maybe he was different; but I have got enough of dear old Democracy. I ought to have known that they were all alike. I do now. If they don't get us one way they will another. This time they have gotten us in the worst shape they ever have. Let us have just anything else."

A local eighth grader was asked what the most wonderful thing ever made by man was. Her answer is a classic: "A living for his family."—Western Advocate.

If sanctions are finally assessed against Italy by the other powers we have an idea about who is going finally to pay the damage—either Uncle Sam or Haile Selassie.

The tin manufacturers are now making containers for beer and wine, and the glass industry ought to retaliate by making glass bodies for popular automobiles.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of October 13, 1910

The first Chilton County Fair closed last Saturday. The affair was a success from every standpoint.

Two weddings of interest occurred during the past few days. Miss Pattie Vanderveer was married to Mr. Robert P. Powe, of Maylene, at Birmingham last Sunday. On Wednerday night Dr. Arthur Johnson was married to Miss Mabel Hall.

With this issue The Banner commences its nineteenth year. And incidentally, this week's paper comes out wholeheartedly supporting L. H. Reynolds for re-election as Probate Judge, as well as the other Republican nominees of the county.

W. D. Williams was married to Miss Libby Safford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Davis spent Sunday at Wadsworth.

POOR O

Exposition of Fall Fashions

THE time of the year is at hand when Nature rewards man for his labor during the Summer months. Our efforts to get you the finest and best for your money is ceaseless—not confined to occasional periods. The values are always here for you to garner. As the values below indicate our Exposition of Fall Fashions will yield you a greater crop of savings than you usually get.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS

IN ALL THE NEW BELT BACKS AND PLAIN MODELS.
GUARANTEED ALL WOOL FABRICS.

$10.75 to $25.00

Top Coats and Overcoats

NEW STYLES

$7.95 to $22.50

MEN'S

Coat Sweaters

GUARANTEED
50 Per Cent Wool
AND GOOD WEIGHT

$1.00

BLANKETS

ASSORTED COLORS
IN PLAIDS

Special - - 69c

Double Blankets
PRICED FROM

$1.25 and Up

PLAY CLOTH
All Colors, Yard 10c

Ladies' COATS

NEWEST AND PRETTIEST FALL MODELS

$5.95 to $24.50

Knitted Suits & Dresses
VERY SEASONABLE

$2.95 and up

LADIES
Kid Gloves

$1.00 TO $1.95

Standard OUTING
ALL COLORS

27-INCH, YARD 9c
36-INCH, YARD 12c

Taylor Dry Goods Co.

The Big Department Store On Main Street — Clanton

W. L. SANDERS MAKES SURVEY ON AAA IN HIS COMMUNITY

Since the AAA is the leading topic of the day, it seems that the farmers are beginning to realize that this question needs some serious thinking.

The injustice imbedded in this act is becoming more visible every day, in spite of the evidence produced by its supporters. The farmers are beginning to learn that black is not white, and that statistics are not money, therefore the job holders and political leaders are finding it difficult to convince the farmer that he is in good financial condition, when he is unable to meet his obligations, much less buy the necissities of life. The farmers have realized the fact that they have surrendered their rights and liberties to a bunch of bureaucrats at Washington, and if we continue to support these policies, "independence" will soon be a thing of the past.

The tornado that sprang up at Washington swept the nation and destroyed one-third of our cotton, one-fourth of our wheat, one-fifth of our corn and two-fifths of our pigs, is going to mean destruction to our nation if it continues to rage. Fifty-million people are reported improperly fed, caused from this vast destruction. Two and one-half million people have been added to the unemployment rolls since the reduction program has been in effect. Our Legislators and great farm leaders, who know nothing about farming except on paper, are trying to bring prosperity by destroying the very things that millions of people stand in need of Such policies are contrary to common sense, anr it is time the farmers, who know their problems, are standing together against such issues.

If we were really raising too much produce, and stood in need of a reduction program, it seems that one could be offered with more discrimination than the triple A. I do not believe that it is right for one man to sacrafice the necessitis of life in order for another to build up a bank account.

In a survey of 18 farms which is given below, I believe that you will readily see that some are given an allotment that will enable them to meet their obligations and have some money left. While others are not given enough to bear the expenses of making the crop, much less buy other necessities.

Acres In Farm	No. of Families on each Farm	Allotments, lbs cotton on each Farm
5½	1	600
104	4	2185
7½	1	405
33	1	3595
61	2	3440
65	1	4000
80	1	4000
20	1	1700
40	1	1445
35	1	1900
40	1	1650
40	1	3000
40	1	2000
40	1	1225
40	1	3000
60	1	2950
250	9	7000
40	1	6000

The above figures are as given by the landlord or tenant. This survey shows the discrimination of the triple A, and I hope every reader will examine these figures closely, and compare them with the allotment in your community and see if the same discrimination is not there. I also hope that the editor of the Chilton County News will check these figurs, then he can see that it is not a political issue. Any man that is honest enough to admit the truth will admit that the foundation on which the AAA is built is responsible for this discrimination.

Fellow citizens, let us not surrender any more of our "liberties", but stand together against any further invasion. Let us hold to the freedom gained on the blood-stained battle fields, by our forefathers. If you are a liberty loving citizen, speak up, stand up, and let us march together and we shall win.—Yours for Justice, W. L. Sanders.

Messrs. E. P. Lane, Cecil Lane and Rayburn Chambliss of Montgomery were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PERMANENT PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Oscar Mims, who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Chilton County on May 7th, 1934, for manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still, and sentenced to a term of three years to four years, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for permanent parole.—(Signed) Oscar Mims. 10-2p

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

(Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks, Pastor)

Throughout this week Childhood and Youth Week is being observed in our church. It is an annual period when parents and all other adults in the church consider anew their responsibility to growing life in the home, in the church, and in the community. The Children's Division had a program Monday night. The Young People's Division had its program Tuesday night. Friday night the Adult Division will have a program. The committees assure all that it will be an enjoyable evening. Each family is requested by the refreshment committee to bring a dozen sandwiches. All members of the church who are over 24 years of age and all above that age who are not members but consider this church your church home are invited.

Sunday night at 7:00 a dramatic sketch will be given by the Clanton Methodist Church Dramatic Club with Miss Alice Polk, director. The public is invited to this service and all other services of the day. The pastor will speak at the 11:00 service. Immediately after service he will leave for Andalusia where he will teach in a Standard Training Sschool, beginning Sunday afternoon and continuing through Friday night. Dr. D. W. Haskew, a former astor of the Clanton Methodist church, is pastor at Andalusia.

The church school attendance is growing. If you are not in a class, join one Sunday. Each Sunday at 9:45 the church school is in session with D. W. Waite as general superintendent. Parents with very small children can bring them now and have them cared for. Recently a nursery department was organized in which children under four years of age are enrolled. Mrs. D. W. Waite is superintendent, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Newell.

The newly reorganized Epworth League is getting off to a fine start. The young people meet at 6:00 for the fifteen minutes social period at which time refreshments are served. Then at 6:15 they have their regular program. All young people from 15 to 23 are invited to join. Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer is the counselor.

Miss Birdie Teel spent the week end in Birmingham.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.

Bayer Aspirin

Getting Up Nights

If you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Swollen Joints, Dizziness, Headaches, Loss of Pep, Burning, Smarting, Itching Acidity due to functional Kidney or Bladder troubles, try the Doctor's guaranteed prescription Cystex (Siss-tex). Must bring new vitality in 48 hours, and satisfy completely in 8 days or money back. Guaranteed Cystex costs only 3c a dose at druggists.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION

There will be a fiddlers convention, on the old order with all of the trimmings, at the Verbena High School, on Friday night, October 18, at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 10c and 15c. Everybody is invited. A first prize of five dollars, and many others will be given.

PROTESTING THE MISUSE OF THE WORD "REVEREND"

Editor Union-Banner:

The Bible speaks of several abominations. It fails to speak of one of the worst abominations known to the clergy. I refer to addressing a minister as "Rev. Blank" or putting his name in the newspaper as "Rev. Blank" officiated.

It grates on the nerves of ministers and others who know better to hear those who should know better constantly misusing the word "reverend". The word is not a title. It is a term of respect and as an adjective should always be preceded by the article "the". Moreover, it should be followed by either the full name or initials of the title "Mister" or "Doctor". It is wrong to write or say "Rev. Smith" or "Rev. Jones". It is equally wrong to write or say "The Rev. Jones" or "The Rev. Smith". It is rightly used when written "The Rev. Paul B. Jones". The term "reverend" is a descriptive adjective. You would not say "the long Jones" or "the short Jones". You should no more write or say "Rev. Jones, officiated" than you would write or say "Long Jones, officiated" or "Short Smith, officiated". It should be simply "Mr. Jones", or, if he has a doctorate degree, "Dr. Jones".

Many newspapers have strict rules for the proper use of the term "reverend". It is inexcusable for a newspaper to continue to misuse the term. Some papers that have printed a minister's full name or initials in contribuated articles for several months or years will say in writing up a funeral or a wedding, "Rev. Blank, officiated". It is not very difficult to learn a man's initials or name. If they are not known they can be looked up.

The Reverend Henry H. Hurst expresses the way many ministers feel in regard to being adressed as "Rev." He says:

"There is a certain title
That makes me want to burst;
Some people always greet me
With 'Howdy, Revend Hurst'.

"As just a common 'Mister',
I'd acknowledge him who durst;
But I would like to punch the man
Who calls me 'Reverend Hurst'.

"If two things make bad syntax
Well, this one is the first,
When someone introduces me
With 'This is Revened Hurst'.

"I don't object to 'Doctor'
(Though I am not so versed),
But twist the 'snoot' of that galoot
Who calls me 'Reverennd Hurst'.

"I like the term of 'Brother',
But save me from the worst,
When either saint or sinner
Says, 'Hello, Reverend Hurst'."

—(Signed): A. E. Middlebrooks.

WEBB-ELLISON MARRIAGE

A wedding of much interest through out this county was that of Mr. Paul Webb and Miss Ilia Ellison, which was solemnized at the home of Rev. G. E. George, on Thursday of last week, Oct. 10., before a few intimate friends.

Both are well-known throughout this part of the county and we wish them a very long and successful life.

They are making their home here with Mr. Webb's father, W. J. Webb, at present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Jean Mullins, Ed Mullins, Elizabeth Andrews, Mrs. Frank Scott and John Ed Scott were among those from Clanton to attend the circus in Montgomery Tuesday.

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies — Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :—: :—: Alabama

GOODYEAR Tires WRECKER Service

The Gibbons Garage

Thorbsy, Alabama

We wish to announce that we are now prepared to do Auto Repairing, Acetylene Welding at reasonable prices. All Work Guaranteed.

YOUR BUSINESS SOLICITED AND APPRECIATED

GOOD GULF GASOLINE
ACCESSORIES BATTERIES

RIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER
Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1918, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)
PHONE 63

As the House of Representatives adjourned, its members sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" to the people who sent them there. It was a friendly gesture but no doubt many of the constituents will answer with "He Was My Man But He Done Me Wrong."—Garden City, Kansas, Telegram.

The people of Brazil seem to be quite alert. When the United States put its cotton program into effect, Brazil increased its cotton acreage. And with our potato control law only a few months old, the South American country is preparing to distribute seed potatoes and instructions for planting and cultivating.—New Bedford Sandard-Times.

One blessing about being poor and homely is that you are not apt to get mixed up in the death of beautiful actresses or torch singers.

One kind of business in the United States which never seems to need a breathing spell is monkey business.

Now if Haile Selassie can just hire Popeye for his army, Mussolini will have more than he can do to stay inAfrica.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

We have heard quite a little in song and story, to say nothing of the witty newspaper paragraphs, about the little red school house. Most of our modernistic pooh-poohers regard it as something hopelesly antiquated. Perhaps it is, but there are still some people in position to know, who beleive that this little edifice was and is not devoid of virtues. It is, for example, good to know that its praises were sung not so long ago in an educational address by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University. Recalling the fact that it seems to be fashionable in certain circles to sneer at the little red school house, Dr. Butler reminded his hearers "but if that little red school house was presided over by a teacher of warm personality with a genius for impressing himself upon the group of pupils of various ages and stages of development which surround him it was an almost ideal educational instrumentality."

Hearing the old-fashioned system termed, under certain conditions, an "almost ideal educational instrumentality" by a man so distinguished in educational circles as Dr. Butler, will no doubt come as a distinct shock to the sophisticated modernists, or perhaps it would be better to say: those who think they are sophisticated. For times have changed. The little red school house is fast disappearing. For most communities it has almost entirely gone. It is being succeeded by fine modern buildings with the latest equipment into which are poured children gathered here and there by buses and other means of transportation, so that educated youngsters may become mass products. No longer does the bright child secure education ahead of his class by listening to the children in higher classes recite just across the aisle. No longer in too many instances does he come in such close personal contact with his teacher that he is influenced by the fine character and ideals of a patient and heroic instructor. But modern conveniences have supposedly made up for all of this, and these must be good because they are so expensive.

We like to hear the ministers and other orators refer to our fathers and mothers, and the generation back of them, as a fine set of people who builded a great nation. We talk about their religion, their love of home, their humane and patriotic ideals. We like to speak also of their spirit of independence, the sense of thrift and providence which impelled them to face the winter with a cellar full of fire wood and provisions. No wonder the country grew so great, the orators say. And yet it is a notable fact that most of these sturdy fathers and sainted mothers of ours were the product of a little red school house, presided over by a tetacher who may have lacked steam heat, electrical lighting fixtures and labratory apparatus, but who had personal courage and character in addition to their teaching ability. This is not to infer that teachers today do not possess ability, courage and character. Millions of them do. But somehow or other, things do seem to be different, even if the modern school house is bigger and better lighted. Unfortunately, along with bigger and better schools have come extravagance, sophistification, internationalism, paternalism, socialism and many other things that were comparatively unknown in the days of the little red school house. Perhaps that little school, like the horse and buggy, has gone completely out of date in these days when leaning on the government has become the king of outdoor sports. But it is yet to be proved that its teaching of fundamentals was not better than much of the complex "institutions" of today.

This may sound unduly pessimistic. Have we at last come to the edge of the precipice so far as national progress is concerned? By no means. All over this country there are millions of people who still believe in thrift, in industry, in individualism and in a government for the people but not nurse maid for the entire populace. These millions do not make much noise because they are too busy making a living and raising money to pay taxes to keep those who do spend their time making noise. Some of these days they will reassert themselves and things will be different. The little red school house may be dead but, thank Providence, its soul goes marching on. No sort of regimentation or state guardianship can stop this. If it does stop, things will be just too bad for Uncle Sam.

DO FARMERS WANT RELIEF?

The farmers of Chilton County are going to have a chance to register their greifs, if they have any, against the workings of the AAA. A meeting has been called at the courthouse in Clanton next Wednesday, October 23rd, at 10 o'clock. This meeting is called and sponsored by farmers who believe that the workings of the AAA are unfair and detrimental to the farming industry in general. It will be meetings of this kind that will get the farmers relief from the oppression of excessive governmental regimentation, and unless they let their voices of protest be heard through this medium, likely it will be taken for granted that they want a continuation of what they are getting with a strong possibility of it being made tighter next year and in future years.

The Union-Banner firmly believes that the farmers' best interest lies in their registering vigorous opposition to the farm program. This, we believe, is to their interest from a monetary standpoint, but much more so from the standpoint of perpetuating the ideals of Americanism instead of communism, fascism and bureaucracy, into which we are undisputedly drifting at the behest of the Democratic administration at Washington. This means infinitely more to us than money in any amount. We should protest it at every opportunity, and we believe the people of Chilton County will protest it. The question is bigger than politics, and means infinitely more to us in the future than Democrat or Republican, or both.

As stated above the people of Chilton County are going to have a chance to voice their opposition to these tactics, and The Union-Banner hopes that they will avail themselves of the opportunity. To rid ourselves is not going to be an easy matter. There is money behind the scheme. There is power behind it. All the forces of the agricultural experiment station at Auburn is backing the program, and the public school system of Alabama is a well-wisher if not an advocate; so you can readily see that we have no small battle to wage. They are going to steam-roller us out of existence if they can, and they will stop at no odds to gain their ends.

Let the people of Chilton County begin now by attending this meeting next Wednesday, and register our opposition to the farm regimentation program.

PREMATURE PRAISE

Before leaving Washington, President Roosevelt ordered the Federal Trade Commission to conduct a nation-wide inquiry into rising food prices. But when he reached the heart of the farm belt he delivered a eulogy to the AAA for raising the prices of agricultural commodities. In spite of the divergent viewpoints thus suggested, the President did not in either case come to grips with the basic problems raised by the crop control program.

The address at Fremont was especially significant for what was omitted. Mr. Roosevelt paid tribute to "the pioneering spirit" but did not make plain how that spirit functions under a system of paternalistic regimentation. "We have begun to understand that we must harness Nature in accordance with Nature's laws, instead of despoiling Nature in violation of her laws," he said. But there was not a word about the destruction of crops to raise prices.

Likewise the President outlined "the true function of government under our Constitution—to promote the general welfare, not by interferring unduly with the individual liberties, but by bringing to the aid of the individual those powers of government which are essential to assure the continuance of the inalienable rights which the Constitution is intended to guarantee." No one is likely to challenge that objective. The essential question is: How can the President keep his mind focused on such generalities when confronted by the compulsory limitations that have been imposed upon cotton, tobacco and potato growers as adjuncts to the AAA program?—Washington, D. C. Post.

AN EXCELLENT MOVE

Optimism was radiated at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee at Washington, D. C., recently, acording to newspaper accounts. This optimism was not all put on "for the record." A great deal of it is justified by the change in pulic opinion during the past few months. The Republicans have a long, hard fight ahead of them next year. But the situation no longer looks hopeless as it did a few months ago. Unbiased observers who have done a great deal of traveling over the country recently report a decided change in public expression concerning policies of the national administration.

As an evidence of the fact that they are beginning to take the next campaign seriously, the Republicans have arranged for headquarters at Chicago, the Middlewestern metropolis of the country. This is sound strategy. The Western territory promises to be important in the campaign next year, and there ought to be Republican activity and organization close in touch with that section of the country if we are to have a real contest next year.

The choice of Harrison E. Spangler, Iowa attorney and politician, as director of the Chicago headquarters is an especially happy one. Mr. Spangler has had years of experience in politics. By temperament and personality he is well fitted for the task of directing Republican activities from the Chicago district. He is a man of sound judgment and a good strategist. The Republicans have made a good start in their Western enterprise. The time seems auspicious. Things are gradually getting set for the 1936 campaign.

It is said that Japan may protest against our lending any money to China. And if they will only find a way to prevent our lending any money to Europe they will earn our real gratitude.

LET US HOPE

President Roosevelt was undoubtedly in a cheerful mood when he asured the nation the other day that no additional tax levies will be needed to take care of the increased national debt and the mounting cost of government. In spite of the fact htat the debt has grown from nineteen billions to thirty billions, with a greater sum in prospect and despite further the fact that annual deficits for running the government are now more than three billions, we are assured that all is well and no new taxes will become necessary. This indeed will be cheerful news to American business, and also to the American consumer who pays the bill in the long run.

After presenting a picture of reduced expenditures the President is quoted as stating: "Thus it is clear to me that the federal government, under provisions of present tax schedules will not need new taxes or increased rates in existing taxes to meet the expenses of its necesary annual operations and to retire the public debt."

All of which is entirely reassuring. But it would be even more re-assuring did we not know that the President has been mistaken before about what ought and would have to be done. For example, in a speech at Pittsburgh, October 19, 1932, attacking the fiscal management of President Hoover, Mr. Roosevelt is quoted as saying:

"The other bad effect of this mismanagement is not at all technical. It is the burden of high cost on the backs of all our people.

"I can state the condition best by quoting one paragraph from a document published a week ago and signed by both Alfred E. Smith and Calvin Coolidge:

" 'All the costs of local, state and national governments must be reduced without fear and without favor. Unles the people, through unified action, arise and take charge of their government, they will find that their government will take charge of them. Independence and liberty will be gone and the general public will find itself in a condition of servitude to an aggregation of organized and selfish minorities.'

"Every word of that warning is true, and the first and most important and necessitious step in balancing our federal budget is to reduce expense * * *"

It is to be hoped that Mr. Roosevelt will be less mistaken about what yill be done next year than he was when this 1932 speech was made. It would be a real disappointment were he to be so mistaken about the future again.

And in passing it might be just as well to quote again from a statement credited to the Chief Executive on March 10, 1933:

"I ask that this legislation (authorizing increased revenues) go into effect at once without even waiting for the beginning of the next fiscal year. I give you asurance that if this is done there is reasonable prospect that within a year the income of the government will be sufficient to cover the expenditures of the government."

Needless to say, the income of the government within a year was considerably short of covering governmental expenditure, billions short, it might even be said.

DO THE UNEMPLOYED AGREE?

President Roosevelt declared the "emergency peak" is past, in his order placing the last seven recovery agencies not so included under the director of the budget.

It is nice to be optimistic, but there are certainly qualifications to this optimism.

Ten million men still are without work. There has been no gain in employment during the last year.

The prices farmers receive still are well below the prices they pay. Balance is lacking.

Income has gone down, but many heavy charges are still at the 1929 level, among them mortgage costs, transportation charges, insurance, interest rates to the individual and taxes.

These emergencies all exist; and not only the hardest and most difficult kind of work will overcome them. The United States has the hardest job of the depression still to face in providing jobs for all of its men and women without resorting to inflation.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

WE STAND FOR ANYTHING

"Emergency" confronts the country. In the metropolis, New York (richest city on earth), it is dreadful. Hundreds of thousands of human beings are miserable. They are hungry. They are objects of charity. They cannot pay their house rent. The government succors them. It is building houses for them, so that they can enjoy the "American standard of living." It is not for you boys in Barnwell and Allendale, Dorchester and Chesterfield. The hungry, miserable people in New York, tens of thousands of them, are on strike. They have quit the government work. It is not paying them enough, they say. It is paying them for the same kind of work twice as much and more as it pays unemployed, from PWA funds, in South Carolina. The strikers include stenographers, time-keepers, bookkeepers, white collar men and women. They are starving, and they strike. It is a frightful "emergency." We backwoodsmen, we yokels, we rubes, we boobs here in the sticks of South Carolina, are helping to support these strikers, yes, white collar strikers included. We stand for it. We stand for anything. Our Congressmen stand for it.—Charleston News and Courier.

We don't believe there would be so much kicking if the AAA would let hogs, and wheat and potatoes alone and concentrate on reducing the production of spinach.

One of the frequent answers of New Dealers to criticisms concerning the operation of new federal boards is "well, anyhow the country is better off than it was three years ago." This is of course a question open to debate. The country is now ten billion dollars more in debt than it was three years ago. This, of course, must be charged against the future.

If Uncle Sam, by some serious diplomatic lapse should be dragged into war with Italy we suppose the restaurants would have to rename spaghetti, Yankee noodles.

Who knows? Maybe in another year the G-men will be out after potato highjackers.

Of course the early bird is entitled to the worm but the fellow who sleeps late and depends on a government relief check wouldn't be satisfied with worms anyhow.

When a government starts going into private business it usually isn't long until private business finds itself inside the government.

Rex Tugwell, the resettlement expert, is going to help 350,000 farm families, furnishing them with livestock, seed, etc., so they can start making a living by raising more produce. At the same time the AAA is paying farmers not to raise so much stuff. Looks like Tugwell and Wallace were playing ball in different leagues.

FARLEY'S DREAMS

The Democratic National Chairman, Mr. Farley, had the hardihood to mention, at the Endicott love feast, the Democratic platform of 1932, and he added:

"At the famous 100-day session of Congress practically every plank of the platform was written into legislation. Never had a party so faithfully fulfilled its promises."

What a chairman! What a dreamer. The rest of the world, including other Democrats, has been under a delusion. Only Jim knows where, how and when the Democratic party carried out its pledges to save 25 per cent of the cost of the federal government by destroying bureaucracy and eliminating extravagance; to balance the budget; to end the follies of the Farm Board, "which made the government a speculator in farm products."

They are all out of step but Jim. He knows what's what, even if it never happened.—New York Sun.

AN EXPENSIVE CONGRESS

The $10,250,000,000 appropriated by Congress in its recent session was equivalent to over 20 per cent of the total annual income of $49,440,000,000 received by all the people of the United States in 1934, according to the Alexander Hamilton Institute. It is apparent that this appropriation represents another long step toward a serious financial crisis for which any benefits afforded by the laws enacted will provide poor compensation.

This means, of course, that out of every five dollars earned in America this year, another dollar will be taken from the American people inevitably, in the way of taxes, to pay for the spending orgy of the Congress recently closed. For it is not to be forgotten that when the government spends a dollar, the dollar has to come from the pockets of the people who go to make up the nation. The only other course is repudiation by inflation which is even more disastrous, especially to the wage earner.

Of course there is one compensation. If the AAA through legislation by this same Congress is able to elevate the homely potato to the rank and station of a bootleg product, then perhaps all may be forgiven. But there are some evidences, since the storm of protest arose from potato users, that no funds can be found for putting to effect this legislation conferring a new degree of honor on the humble spud.

GETTING USED TO IT?

It is a common and much used expression that the human being can adjust himself to almost any condition—in other words, that folks can get used to anything after a time. This is again evidenced in an address by Lewis Douglas, former director of the Budget in the Roosevelt administration, made recently to the American Mining Congress in Chicago.

Declaring that the policy of the present administration is a spending policy, similar to that in Russia after the fall of Kerensky, Mr. Douglas added: "I am amazed at the extent to which the human mind loses its sense of proportion. In 1931 we experienced a deficit of $900,000,000 and considerable apprehension was shown in Congress. We are now told blithely that in 1936 the deficit will exceed $4,500,000,000. In five years there has been an accumulated deficit of $14,000,000,000 and in six years it will be $20,000,000,000."

So it would seem that after two or three years of a spree of spending money we are getting used to it, and deficits no longer alarm us. But the pay-off is coming and sooner or later the American people are going to have to struggle to pay the debt that is now beping accumulated.

Although Mr. Douglas, who formerly represented Arizona in Congress, was at first regarded as one of the pillars of the present administration he is now one of its severest critics so far as financial policies are concerned. For example, in his speech to the Mining Congress, Mr. Douglas said:

"The deficit is rising despite the semblance of recovery. We have had something of a recovery, yet relief and public work expenditures keep increasing.

"There are 20,000,000 on relief, 8,000,000 of these in the agricultural and rural sections. Four million of these are negroes.

"No other conclusion is possible than that the administration at Washington is an irresponsible, spending government, its spending conducted by those who have no knowledge of how wealth is produced, and perhaps care less. No living man knows the contingent liabilities of the federal government.

"There is a real fear as to the security of our government and our people. Whenever a government has continued to spend more than it has taken in, it has destroyed in whole or in art its currency. This brings pain and poverty and the great middle class is crucified.

the commercial banks to take government ob-

"Our present spending device is to compel ligations. This is credit inflation. At 15 per cent depreciation in government obligations would make almost 80 per cent of these banks bankrupt."

It would be difficult for an old hard-shelled Republican to say anything harsher than that, or to do more "viewing with alarm."

One of our friends who has a picture of a fight painted by one of those artists who are on public relief says that it would be all right if you could tell which was the horse and which was the bull. Of course the horse is the animal which the man is riding but you can't tell which is the man.

If all the people in Russia are now equal how do they distinguish between a top sergeant and a buck private ?

DEMOCRATIC CONSISTENCY

Under the present regime at Washington, to sell whiskey to the boys and girls of the United States and make them retrogrades upon society and vagabonds upon the people of the nation is o. k. This can be done without conflict with the law of the land.

But to sell or buy a bushel of potatoes without the government tax tag brings a year's imprisonment and a thousand dollar fine.

Now we would like for somebody to show us the consistency of such legislation as this. If this country has got to the pass that we can't elect men to public office who have more balanced reason than to pass such legislation as the above, we are headed for a bad state of affairs.

Dear friends, this is an example of Democratic efficiency. This shows what judgment they have about public and official matters and the way they administer them upon their constituents.

IS MR. ROOSEVELT SLIPPING?

Several months ago The Union-Banner, in a front page editorial, asked the above question, to which we received both negative and positive answers. The Union-Banner at that time took the positive side of the question. At that time it was almost suicidal to take issue against the New Deal, but The Union-Banner dared to stand for what it deemed right, although it almost stood alone. Sometimes it requires courage for one to come out in the front of the battle when the opposite side looms lik a solid phalanx in front of him; but sometimes undaunted courage wins the day—in fact it always comes out on top eventually when it is founded on right and justice.

Again The Union-Banner asks the question, is Mr. Roosevelt slipping? We will let people from every conceivable walk of life—farmers, filling station proprietors, hitch-hikers, maufacturers, merchants, bankers, wage-earners (male and female), relief clients, politicians, housewives, college professors, young democrats, young republicans, camps of transients, CCC boys, veterans, editors, clergymen—in short, every category of American citizen — give their views.

After interviewing people from all these different strata of life all over the country, Redbook magazine, in its issue of November, 1935, sums it up as follows: "Among business men and professional men the president is more than slipping. He is sliding and tobagganing. He has few converts among them, and he has hosts of deserters, not only in the North but even in the South. We doubt if any other Democratic President has ever lost so many of the Democratic business men and of the Democratic professional men of the Democratic South.

"There is an overwhelming majority against him today in the business and professional classes north of the Mason Dixon line, and a decisive majority against him south of it. Then we come to the farmers and wage-earners, and there the story begins to be different. Among farmers and wage-earners he has indeed in a sense slipped . . . Today he is off the pedestel and on the ground . . . . Today a critic of him can say his say and get away without having to fight . . . . . The inevitable demotion of the President from superman to man is virtually complete."

In the same issue of Redbook a Virginia farmer is quoted as saying that if Roosevelt is nominated he will not vote at all in 1936. "The AAA has helped the big farmers; it has not helped us little ones."

"A Birmingham, Alabama banker had great faith in Roosevelt; now thinks four more years of him would put the country on the rocks. 'Business men of Alabama would jump off the Roosevelt band-wagon in droves if the other side had somebody to offer.' A Birmingham insurance man says there would be a big bolt from Roosevelt among business men of Alabama if it would do any good. A high official of an Alabama manufacturing company says: 'Hundreds of Democrats who traditionally would vote for any Democratic yellow dog are eager today to stump the State against Roosevent'."

Many Republicans in Chilton County voted for Mr. Roosevelt in 1932, but now such expressions as this are very comon: "I thought maybe he was different; but I have got enough of dear old Democracy. I ought to have known that they were all alike. I do now. If they don't get us one way they will another. This time they have gotten us in the worst shape they ever have. Let us have just anything else."

A local eighth grader was asked what the most wonderful thing ever made by man was. Her answer is a classic: "A living for his family."—Western Advocate.

If sanctions are finally assessed against Italy by the other powers we have an idea about who is going finally to pay the damage—either Uncle Sam or Haile Selassie.

The tin manufacturers are now making containers for beer and wine, and the glass industry ought to retaliate by making glass bodies for popular automobiles.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of October 13, 1910

The first Chilton County Fair closed last Saturday. The affair was a success from every standpoint.

Two weddings of interest occurred during the past few days. Miss Pattie Vanderveer was married to Mr. Robert P. Powe, of Maylene, at Birmingham last Sunday. On Wednerday night Dr. Arthur Johnson was married to Miss Mabel Hall.

With this issue The Banner commences its nineteenth year. And incidentally, this week's paper comes out wholeheartedly supporting L. H. Reynolds for re-election as Probate Judge, as well as the other Republican nominees of the county.

W. D. Williams was married to Miss Libby Safford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Davis spent Sunday at Wadsworth.

ADDITIONAL EXPOSURE NEEDED

POOR O

Exposition of Fall Fashions

THE time of the year is at hand when Nature rewards man for his labor during the Summer months. Our efforts to get you the finest and best for your money is ceaseless—not confined to occasional periods. The values are always here for you to garner. As the values below indicate our Exposition of Fall Fashions will yield you a greater crop of savings than you usually get.

MEN'S
Coat Sweaters
GUARANTEED
50 Per Cent Wool
AND GOOD WEIGHT
$1.00

BLANKETS
ASSORTED COLORS
IN PLAIDS
Special - - 69c

Double Blankets
PRICED FROM
$1.25 and Up

PLAY CLOTH
All Colors, Yard 10c

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS
IN ALL THE NEW BELT BACKS AND PLAIN MODELS.
GUARANTEED ALL WOOL FABRICS.
$10.75 to $25.00

Top Coats and Overcoats
NEW STYLES
$7.95 to $22.50

Ladies' COATS
NEWEST AND PRETTIEST FALL MODELS
$5.95 to $24.50

Knitted Suits & Dresses
VERY SEASONABLE
$2.95 and up

LADIES
Kid Gloves
$1.00
TO $1.95

Standard OUTING
ALL COLORS
27-INCH, YARD 9c
36-INCH, YARD 12c

Taylor Dry Goods Co.

The Big Department Store On Main Street — Clanton

W. L. SANDERS MAKES SURVEY ON AAA IN HIS COMMUNITY

Since the AAA is the leading topic of the day, it seems that the farmers are beginning to realize that this question needs some serious thinking.

The injustice imbedded in this act is becoming more visible every day, in spite of the evidence produced by its supporters. The farmers are beginning to learn that black is not white, and that statistics are not money, therefore the job holders and political leaders are finding it difficult to convince the farmer that he is in good financial condition, when he is unable to meet his obligations, much less buy the necissities of life. The farmers have realized the fact that they have surrendered their rights and liberties to a bunch of bureaucrats at Washington, and if we continue to support these policies, "independence" will soon be a thing of the past.

The tornado that sprang up at Washington swept the nation and destroyed one-third of our cotton, one-fourth of our wheat, one-fifth of our corn and two-fifths of our pigs, is going to mean destruction to our nation if it continues to rage. Fifty-million people are reported improperly fed, caused from this vast destruction. Two and one-half million people have been added to the unemployment rolls since the reduction program has been in effect. Our Legislators and great farm leaders, who know nothing about farming except on paper, are trying to bring prosperity by destroying the very things that millions of people stand in need of Such policies are contrary to common sense, anr it is time the farmers, who know their problems, are standing together against such issues.

If we were really raising too much produce, and stood in need of a reduction program, it seems that one could be offered with more discrimination than the triple A. I do not believe that it is right for one man to sacrafice the necessitis of life in order for another to build up a bank account.

In a survey of 18 farms which is given below, I believe that you will readily see that some are given an allotment that will enable them to meet their obligations and have some money left. While others are not given enough to bear the expenses of making the crop, much less buy other necessities.

Acres In Farm	No. of Families on each Farm	Allotments, lbs cotton on each Farm
5½	1	600
104	4	2185
7½	1	405
33	1	3595
61	2	3440
65	1	4000
80	1	4000
20	1	1700
40	1	1445
35	1	1900
40	1	1650
40	1	3000
40	1	2000
40	1	1225
40	1	3000
60	1	2950
250	9	7000
40	1	6000

The above figures are as given by the landlord or tenant. This survey shows the discrimination of the triple A, and I hope every reader will examine these figures closely, and compare them with the allotment in your community and see if the same discrimination is not there. I also hope that the editor of the Chilton County News will check these figurs, then he can see that it is not a political issue. Any man that is honest enough to admit the truth will admit that the foundation on which the AAA is built is responsible for this discrimination.

Fellow citizens, let us not surrender any more of our "liberties", but stand together against any further invasion. Let us hold to the freedom gained on the blood-stained battle fields, by our forefathers. If you are a liberty loving citizen, speak up, stand up, and let us march together and we shall win.—Yours for Justice, W. L. Sanders.

Messrs. E. P. Lane, Cecil Lane and Rayburn Chambliss of Montgomery were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PERMANENT PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Oscar Mims, who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Chilton County on May 7th, 1934, for manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still, and sentenced to a term of three years to four years, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for permanent parole.—(Signed) Oscar Mims. 10-2p

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

(Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks, Pastor)

Throughout this week Childhood and Youth Week is being observed in our church. It is an annual period when parents and all other adults in the church consider anew their responsibility to growing life in the home, in the church, and in the community. The Children's Division had a program Monday night. The Young People's Division had its program Tuesday night. Friday night the Adult Division will have a program. The committees assure all that it will be an enjoyable evening. Each family is requested by the refreshment committee to bring a dozen sandwiches. All members of the church who are over 24 years of age and all above that age who are not members but consider this church your church home are invited.

Sunday night at 7:00 a dramatic sketch will be given by the Clanton Methodist Church Dramatic Club with Miss Alice Polk, director. The public is invited to this service and all other services of the day. The pastor will speak at the 11:00 service. Immediately after service he will leave for Andalusia where he will teach in a Standard Training Sschool, beginning Sunday afternoon and continuing through Friday night. Dr. D. W. Haskew, a former astor of the Clanton Methodist church, is pastor at Andalusia.

The church school attendance is growing. If you are not in a class, join one Sunday. Each Sunday at 9:45 the church school is in session with D. W. Waite as general superintendent. Parents with very small children can bring them now and have them cared for. Recently a nursery department was organized in which children under four years of age are enrolled. Mrs. D. W. Waite is superintendent, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Newell.

The newly reorganized Epworth League is getting off to a fine start. The young people meet at 6:00 for the fifteen minutes social period at which time refreshments are served. Then at 6:15 they have their regular program. All young people from 15 to 23 are invited to join. Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer is the counselor.

Miss Birdie Teel spent the week end in Birmingham.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.

Bayer Aspirin

Getting Up Nights

If you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Swollen Joints, Dizziness, Headaches, Loss of Pep, Burning, Smarting, Itching Acidity due to functional Kidney or Bladder troubles, try the Doctor's guaranteed prescription Cystex (Sist-tex). Must bring new vitality in 48 hours, and satisfy completely in 8 days or money back. Guaranteed Cystex costs only 3c a dose at druggists.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION

There will be a fiddlers convention, on the old order with all of the trimmings, at the Verbena High School, on Friday night, October 18, at 8 o'clock. Admission will be 10c and 15c. Everybody is invited. A first prize of five dollars, and many others will be given.

PROTESTING THE MISUSE OF THE WORD "REVEREND"

Editor Union-Banner:

The Bible speaks of several abominations. It fails to speak of one of the worst abominations known to the clergy. I refer to addressing a minister as "Rev. Blank" or putting his name in the newspaper as "Rev. Blank" officiated.

It grates on the nerves of ministers and others who know better to hear those who should know better constantly misusing the word "reverend". The word is not a title. It is a term of respect and as an adjective should always be preceded by the article "the". Moreover, it should be followed by either the full name or initials of the title "Mister" or "Doctor". It is wrong to write or say "Rev. Smith" or "Rev. Jones". It is equally wrong to write or say "The Rev. Jones" or "The Rev. Smith". It is rightly used when written "The Rev. Paul B. Jones". The term "reverend" is a descriptive adjective. You would not say "the long Jones" or "the short Jones". You should no more write or say "Rev. Jones, officiated" than you would write or say "Long Jones, officiated" or "Short Smith, officiated". It should be simply "Mr. Jones", or, if he has a doctorate degree, "Dr. Jones".

Many newspapers have strict rules for the proper use of the term "reverend". It is inexcusable for a newspaper to continue to misuse the term. Some papers that have printed a minister's full name or initials in contribuated articles for several months or years will say in writing up a funeral or a wedding, "Rev. Blank, officiated". It is not very difficult to learn a man's initials or name. If they are not known they can be looked up.

The Reverend Henry H. Hurst expresses the way many ministers feel in regard to being adressed as "Rev." He says:

"There is a certain title
That makes me want to burst;
Some people always greet me
With 'Howdy, Revend Hurst'.

"As just a common 'Mister',
I'd acknowledge him who durst;
But I would like to punch the man
Who calls me 'Reverend Hurst'.

"If two things make bad syntax
Well, this one is the first,
When someone introduces me
With 'This is Revened Hurst'.

"I don't object to 'Doctor'
(Though I am not so versed),
But twist the 'snoot' of that galoot
Who calls me 'Reverennd Hurst'.

"I like the term of 'Brother',
But save me from the worst,
When either saint or sinner
Says, 'Hello, Reverend Hurst'."

—(Signed): A. E. Middlebrooks.

WEBB-ELLISON MARRIAGE

A wedding of much interest through out this county was that of Mr. Paul Webb and Miss Illa Ellison, which was solemnized at the home of Rev. G. E. George, on Thursday of last week, Oct. 10., before a few intimate friends.

Both are well-known throughout this part of the county and we wish them a very long and successful life.

They are making their home here with Mr. Webb's father, W. J. Webb, at present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Jean Mullins, Ed Mullins, Elizabeth Andrews, Mrs. Frank Scott and John Ed Scott were among those from Clanton to attend the circus in Montgomery Tuesday.

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies — Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :—: :—: Alabama

GOODYEAR Tires WRECKER Service

The Gibbons Garage

Thorbsy, Alabama

We wish to announce that we are now prepared to do Auto Repairing, Acetylene Welding at reasonable prices. All Work Guaranteed.

YOUR BUSINESS SOLICITED AND APPRECIATED

GOOD GULF GASOLINE
ACCESSORIES BATTERIES

RIGINAL TORN PAGE

SOCIETY

Mrs. Huddleston Entertained With Bridge Party

One of the loveliest of the fall parties was Friday afternoon when Mrs. W. E. Huddleston entertained friends at four tables of bridge. The living room and dining room were decorated with pretty dahlias, snapdragons and other flowers. Here the guests enjoyed the games and at the close prizes were awarded. Mrs. J. C. Page received high score prize, a China tea pot, and cut prize, two plaques, went to Mrs. Julius Burnett.

During the refreshment hour a salad course was served to Mesdames L. F. Gerald, N. S. Johnson, Hance Alred, Julius Burnett, Omar Reynolds, Oscar Jones, John Kimmey, J. P. Hayes, James Wade, John D. Mullins, H. M. Simpson, John Deramus, Hugh Jones, J. C. Page, John Armstrong, Percy Pitts, tea guests were Mrs. John Hollis and Mrs. George McCain.

"As You Like It" Club Entertained By Mrs. Will Reynolds

A very delightful meeting of the "As You Like It" club was held last week at the home of Mrs. Will Reynolds, when she entertained at their regular meeting. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and crocheting.

Late in the afternoon the members were invited into the dining room where a most delicious two course chicken supper was served. Those present to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Reynolds were Mesdames W. M. Polk, Dan Hogan, L. H. Reynolds, M. A. Gore, Dan Waite, Willie Newell and W. W. Fox.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Percy Pitts and Mrs. W. W. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Venable and son, Charles, of Wetumpka, visited friends here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Parrish and daughter, Helen, Miss French Evans, Mrs. Glennie Evans, Mr. Bob Evans and Mr. Julian Evans were in Birmingham Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Evans's brother-in-law, Mr. Tom Evans.

Mrs. E. P. Lane of Montgomery was the week end guest of her brother, Mr. M. L. White, and Mrs. White.

Mrs. Grady Heflin and children motored to Montgomery Tuesday for the circus.

Mrs. W. E. Huddleston and children and Mrs. Gaston Robinson motored to Montgomery Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wingard motored to Columbiana Sunday.

Mr. W. E. Huddleston was a visitor in Tuskegee Saturday.

Mrs. Warrene Farrior of Montgomery spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Spigener.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gilbert and two children of Birmingham spent the week end here with Mrs. Gilbert's mother, Mrs. J. M. Curlee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Prince and son, Wilbur, visited relatives in Alex City Sunday.

Mrs. Willie P. Jones returned yesterday from a recent visit to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones of Montgomery.

Mrs. Frank Scott and son, John Ed, of Huntsville, arrived Sunday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mullins.

Mrs. A. S. Prince, Wilbur Prince, Mrs. Oscar Jones and Oscar Jones, Jr., attended the circus in Montgomery Tuesday.

Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. James Wade and Bess and Helen Hays motored to Montgomery Saturday.

Mr. R. M. Roper has returned from a visit to Jacksonville, Florida.

Mrs. William Darnell (Miss Roberta Curry) arrived Thursday night for a visit with Mrs. Clara B. Curry. Mrs. Darnell came by plane from New York to Birmingham. She was met there by Mr. and Mrs. Grady Heflin.

Mr. L. F. Gerald, Misses Celia Gerald, Ruth Gowan and Elizabeth Hogan attended the football game in Tuscaloosa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Mullins and daughter, Sara Madge, have returned to their home here for the winter.

Some one has figured out that in ten minutes in the United States we smoke 2,080,000 cigarettes, 39 babies are born and over $9,500 worth of gold is mined. That explains what is the matter with us. The $9,500 worth of gold won't more than pay for the cogarettes, and nothing is left for the babies.

Mrs. J. B. Atkinson and daughter motored to Montgomery Tuesday to attend the circus.

Mrs. Will Reynolds was a visitor in Birmingham Monday.

CLANTON F. F. A. CHAPTER ORGANIZED

The Clanton Chater of the Future Farmers of America met and organized on Tuesday, October 15, 1935, at Chilton County High school.

The following officers were elected: President, Thomas Gandy; vice-president, Horace Kendrick; secretary-treasurer, Charles Wilson; reporter, John Higgins; and adviser, Hon. J. Earl Thomas. Other members enrolled were Howard Martin, Buford Lawrence, Glen Bradberry, Coy Lockhart, J. L. Littlejohn, J. Reed Thompson, Joseph Maddox, Delphin Copwell and Dolphin Popwell.

After a discussion it was decided that the Chapter would meet on the first and third Mondays of each month. The meetings are to be held in the High school building, at 7:00 p.m., until the new Vocational Agriculture building is completed.—John M. Higgins, Reporter.

A. Z. Bean

REOPENED

GROCERIES

USED CLOTHES

Will Appreciate your Patronage

Thorsby, Ala.

NOTICE

Dr. T. T. Taylor of Birmingham, Ala., at Langston Drug Co., Jemison, Ala., Thursday, October 24th, Examining eyes and fitting glasses. At Maplesville Drug Co., Maplesville, Ala., Friday, October 25. Satisfaction guaranteed.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Construction work gained more than 200 per cent in Birmingham the first three-quarters of 1935.

Cases from the second division will be called by the State Supreme Court for hearing on Oct. 28.

Richard Halliburton, world traveler and author, will lecture at Phillips High School, Birmingham, Friday, Nov. 1.

The annual convention of the Wildcat Division of World War Veterans will be held in Birmingham Nov 10, 11 and 12.

The Rev. M. Alexander, of the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, has been elected moderator of the Alabama Presbyterian Synod.

A complete paved highway from Birmingham to Mobile will be open Nov. 1. H. H. Houk, engineer of the State Highway Department, announced.

Judge W. W. Callahan, of Decatur, will open a two-week session of Jury Circuit Court at Athens Nov. 4, both civil and criminal cases to be heard.

Nearly a million dollars has been authorized for WPA and PWA construction projects in the Wiregrass section of Alabama, an unofficial survey revealed.

A delegation of Birmingham nurses and hospital officials will attend the 23rd annual meeting of the Alabama State Nurses' Assn. in Tuscaloosa, Oct. 28-30.

A total of 848,449 tree seedlings are available at state nurseries for Alabama farmers wishing to restock their timber lands, State Forester Page S. Bunker, announced.

F. W. Gist, state and federal statistician, estimated the condition of Alabama's 1935 coton crop was 71 per cent of normal with a yield of 217 pounds of lint per acre.

Ginners reports show that 5,523 bales of cotton was ginned in Wilcox County from the crop of 1935 prior to Sept. 16, as compared to 3,103 bales ginned to Sept. 16, 1934.

Sam Bradley, student at Birmingham-Southern College, was elected president of the Alabama Methodist Students Conference at its convention held in Auburn recently.

Seale Lumber Company, Birmingham, won ninth place in a national contest among lumber and building material dealers sponsored by the publication Building Supply News.

Attorney General A. A. Carmichael ruled that automobile dealers are liable for both state and county licenses in each county in which they maintain an established place of business.

A jury in Judge Arthur Grover's Court at Clanton convicted George Bolton in the fatal stabbing Feb. 27, of Barney Littlefield. Bolton's punishment was fixed at 20 years' imprisonment.

Frank N. Julian, state superintendent of insurance, reported collections by his department for the first nine months of 1935 amounted to $57,648 more than collections for the entire year of 1934.

The Alabama Public Service Commission stated that dates of filing briefs in its investigation of rates and charges of the Southern Bell Telephone Company had been set for Nov. 18 and Dec. 2.

The Alabama Public Service Commission has set for hearing Nov. 5, an application of the Griffith Freight Lines, Inc., for authority to establish a motor freight line from Birmingham to Jackson, Miss.

The Alabama Public Service Commission has taken under advisement petition filed by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad seeking a discontinuance of its stations at Longview, in Shelby County.

H. S. Geismer, state director for the Public Works Administration, acting under newly announced plans from Washington, has advised all Alabama PWA applicants that they must present him with all engineering data and provide their share of costs before Nov. 11.

Apparently a victim of excitement over the final game of the world series, R. E. Francis, 34, of Birmingham, dropped dead while listening to a radio broadcast of the contest.

By hypothecating its share of the state gasoline tax over a period of years the Jefferson County Commission hopes to borrow approximately $300,000 for county highway projects.

W. L. Baker, new commissioner of health and public safety, has been installed as president of the Decatur City Commission. Mr. Baker defeated M. R. Joiner in the recent city election.

Miss Sarah Colley spent the week end at her home in Troy.

Clanton Motors Invites YOU To Come and See The New FORD V-8 For 1936

On Display at their Showrooms

Saturday, October 19

CLANTON MOTORS

(INCORPORATED)

Dr. and Mrs. Hughes Kennedy of Birmingham and Mrs. Midge Darby of Montgomery were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pipes.

Friends of Mrs. Clara B. Curry are so glad to know she is rapidly improving from a serious illness.

Mrs. Sudie Martin of Piper arrived Sunday for an extended visit with Mrs. Hugh Jones.

Get your Permanents at The Modern Beauty School. $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

PUBLICATION FOR NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court in Equity.

Lucile Esters, complainant, vs. Cecil Esters, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks requiring him, the said Cecil Esters to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 4th, day of November, 1935; or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, this 2nd day of October, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.

10-3-4tch.

YOUTH WEEK AT CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

This week is to be observed as Youth week at the Clanton Methodist church. Sunday night a play will be given, title, "With One Voice." Those taking part are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mary Robinson, Corinne Polk, George Parr, Wilbur Prince, Sidney Nelson and John White Plyler.

We invite you to be present.

Dr. Sam Gowan and Mr. Bill DuBose spent the week end in Birmingham.

PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity.

Pearl Yarbrough, complainant, vs. J. E. Yarbrough, defendant.

In this cause it is made to apper to the to the Register by the affidavit of Pearl Yarbrough, that the defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newsaper published in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said, J. E. Yarbrough to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 6th day of November, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.

10-3-4tc

South Clanton Specials

R. L. LOWE invites you to do your trading at South Clanton, where he is "Prepared to furnish you with High Grade Merchandise at All Times. You can always find what you want, and the prices are MOST REASONABLE. We are your friends to the last."

You Can't Go Wrong on These Bargains

CORN FLAKES, 3 pkgs 25c
2 CANS FOR — DIME BRAND MILK .. 25c
1-LB BOX — A-1 CRACKERS 10c
TALL CANS — CHUM SALMON, each 10c
MACKEREL STYLE — SALMON, 3 tall cans 25c

2 TALL CANS — PINK SALMON, for 25c
MOTHER'S COCOA, two 1-lb cans 15c
WHITE FISH, 6-lb Kit .. 90c
.22 Rifle, Winchester or Remington, single shot, bolt action .. $5.35
22 Short Clean Bore Cartridges, box 15c
22 Long Clean Bore Cartridges, box 20c
22 Long Rifle, box 25c

Now Is the Time to Plant Vetch and Peas

MIXED VETCH, Pound 9c
AUSTRIAN PEAS, Pound 5¾c
ABRUZZI RYE, Peck 50c

Flour and Feed Bargains

24 LBS PLAIN — GOLD FLAKE $1.00
24-lbs Self-Rising $1.05
SHORTS, White Tulip $1.90
24 PER CENT — DAIRY FEED, Jazz ... $2.15
16 PER CENT — WHITE CLOVER $1.60
PURITY — SCRATCH FEED $2.25
HIGH LIFE — LAYING MASH $2.75

We Are Prepared to Serve You With All Feeds

R. W. LOWE

SOUTH CLANTON

See us for Home Furnishings. We sell for Cash or on Time where desired; and our prices will always be found in line with the times. We carry a full line of Everything in Furniture at all times. Get our prices.

E. L. Klinner Furniture Co.

On The Highway - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

POOR O

MOSQUITOS

Don't let Mosquitos disturb your sleep. Use FLIT Fly Spray. We have a special close-out price for this week. Also several small fly sprays at a bargain.

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

Do you want a beautfiul Lawn for this Winter? Plant Yard Rye Grass now and be assured of a beautiful Lawn throughout the Winter. Let us suggest latest methods of planting and the best fertilizer to use.

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

Make your plans for another planting of Fall and Winter Turnip Seed immediately after the next rain. You should also make plans to plant Austrian Peas and Vetch, following a rain.

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

WANTED!
1,000 POUNDS BUTTERFAT
For Next Saturday

Prices for Butterfat are looking upward. With a bountiful feed supply, you should begin turning these surplus feeds into Cash. This can be done by saving your surplus Butterfat and bringing it to us.

Southern Dairies Inc.
Evan Parrish, Mgr.
Clanton, Ala.

WIFE OF DEWEY MADDOX BURIED AT CONCORD SUNDAY

Mrs. Rubelle Maddox, age 31, died at a Montgomery hospital Saturday afternoon, October 12th. Funeral services were held at Concord Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. G. Williams. Martin and Sons were in charge.

Besides her husband, J. Dewey Maddox, she is survived by her father, Mr. I. V. Collins. Two daughters also survive, Louise and Helen; two brothers, Royal and Doyal Collins, of Elmore; four sisters, Mrs. Lillian Smith, Mrs. Delene Price and Mrs. Inez Mims, all of Adams Station, and Mrs. Lillian Mims, of Montgomery.

PLEASANT HILL

Our Sunday school was well attended last Sunday. We are glad that more of the fathers and mothers are waking up to their duty as church members, and we hope to see a large crowd out next Sunday.

Our B. T. U was good Sunday night, however, there were a few absent. We want to urge you to be back with us next Sunday night. You are missing something and we need you.

The people of Pleasant Hill church and entire community regret the loss of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Twilley, since they have moved to Dallas, Georgia. Their faithful work in the church will be greatly missed. We hope that they will be pleased with their new home.

We are glad to say that our chicken super last Saturday night was a grand success. Everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

Next Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night will be our regular preaching dates, and we feel sure that our pastor, Rev. W. E. Robinson, will deliver a message that will be well worth our time. Let's all try to put some go into our church work, and not wait for our children of our neighbors to tell us how everything came out at church. Go and see.

Next Sunday afternoon is our regular singing afternoon, and we are expecting some real good singing. We invite everyone who can to come out and be with us.

We regret very much to say that Uncle George Plyer, of our community, is seriously ill with pneumonia. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

On last Sunday afternoon a large crowd of both young and old folks of our community gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Twilley to enjoy a last visit at their home before they leave for Georgia, and yet it was a sad meeting.

Let's not forget our Sunday school every Sunday. If you are not already in Sunday school somewhere, we invite you to come to Pleasant Hill and get in one.—Reporter.

ALL DAY SINGING AT LIBERTY HILL OCT. 27

There will be an all day singing at Liberty Hill church, three miles west of Clanton, the fourth Sunday in October. All singers of the county have an invitation to attend. Bring your song books and a lunch basket, and spend a joyful day together.

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Registrars of Chilton County, Alabama, in accordance with the general Registration laws of Alabama, will hold sessions for the purpose of registering all citizens, qualified under the law to register, at the following Beats, places and dates in said county, to-wit:

Beat No. 4—Courthouse, Thursday, Oct. 31, Friday, Nov. 1, Saturday, Nov. 2.

Beat No. 15—Pletcher, Monday, Nov. 4, morning.

Beat No. 15—Culp School, Monday, Nov. 4, afternoon.

Beat No. 6—Enterprise, Tuesday, Nov. 5, morning.

Beat No. 5—Mt. Creek, Tuesday, Nov. 5, afternoon.

Beat No. 5—Mitchell Dam, Wednesday, Nov. 6, morning.

Beat No. 5—Verbena, Wednesday, Nov. 6, afternoon.

Beat No. 1—Lay Dam, Thursday, Nov. 7, morning.

Beat No. 11—Cane Creek, Thursday, Nov. 7, afternoon.

Beat No. 12—Mineral Springs, Friday, Nov. 8, morning.

Beat No. 16—Providence, Friday, Nov. 8, afternoon.

Beat No. 8—Stanton, Monday, Nov. 11, morning.

Beat No. 3—Benson, Monday, Nov. 11, afternoon.

Beat No. 7—Maplesville, Tuesday, Nov. 12, Thursday, Dec. 12.

Beat No. 14—Macedonia, Wednesday, Nov. 13, morning.

Beat No. 2—Mars Hill, Wednesday, Nov. 13, afternoon.

Beat No. 4—Thursday, Nov. 14, Friday, Nov. 15, Saturday, Nov. 16.

Beat No. 13—Providence, Monday, Nov. 18.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 9—Thorsby, Wednesday, Nov. 20, Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Beat No. 10—Cooper, Thursday, Nov. 21.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Monday, Dec. 16, Tuesday, Dec. 17, Wednesday, Dec. 18, Thursday, Dec. 19.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Thursday, Dec. 26, Friday, Dec. 27, Saturday, Dec. 28, Monday, Dec. 30, Tuesday, Dec. 31.

No one can register except in his or her own precinct and at the court house in Clanton, Alabama.

This the 7th day of October, 1935.

J. Monroe Parrish, J. T. Thompson, W. W. Wingard, Members of Board of Registrars.

CARD OF THANKS

Please give us space in your paper to express our appreciation of the many gifts from our friends and neighbors. Althouh our loss from the fire was great, the sincere manner in which our friends came to our rescue is of great consolation.—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Muncher and family.

Mrs. Joe Venable and sons, Joe and Charles, of Wetumka, visited here Sunday afternoon.

THANK YOU

We want to thank you for visiting us on the day of the opening of our new building. This was the happiest day of our long existence. Every day is visiting day and we earnestly invite you to come again and come often.

Peoples Saving Bank
SAFE SINCE 1901
CLANTON, ALABAMA

MAPLE SPRINGS

Saturday and Sunday were our preaching days. Our pastor, Rev. G. H. Carroll filled his regular place both Saturday morning and Sunday morning. On account of our pastor having to be in school now on Saturdays, services have been changed from Saturday morning to Saturday night from now on instead of having preaching on Saturday morning it will be Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker had as their guests Saturday morning Mrs. Tucker's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyd, from Montgomery.

Mr. Curtis Jones from Clanton was here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jones, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Harris from South Clanton were the Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Harris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell.

Mr. Coolidge Devaughn had as his Saturday afternoon guests his cousins, Messrs. Arthur and Lee Mitchell.

Mr. W. F. Glenn spent a while Sunday afternoon with Mr. T. J. Thornton.

Mr. Claud Downs from near Verbena was the dinner guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Downs, last Thursday.

Messrs. Arnold and Ottis Glenn and Phillip Brown visited in the Friendship community last Thursday night.

Mr. W. F. Glenn was in the Pine Level community in Autauga county last Tuesday.

Messrs. Virgil and Vernon Dennis spent a while last Wednesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Fate Driver.

Miss Elmer Reene and Douglas Jones spent a while Monday with Delene and Verdie and Virgil Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mims and Messrs. Alton Deloach and Jim Dunlap spent last week visiting in Tennessee. They returned home last Friday night and each one reported a delightful time.

Messrs. Ottis and Arnold Glenn were the guests of Miss Mattie Jewel Wilson and Miss Nora Bonett, both of Mt. Creek, Saturday night.

Mr. Alphus Downs and son, Alton were in this community Sunday morning.

Mrs. Velma Davis was the Saturday dinner guest of her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn and Chester Davis spent a while Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn and children.

The Rev. Carroll spent a while Saturday morning with the Rev. W. H. Wilson.

Mr. Chester Davis was the guest of Messrs. Roy and Earnest Wilson Saturday.

Mr. R. J. Downs visited his son, Mr. Claud Downs, near Verbena Sunday.

Misses Pearlie and Christine Driver had as their Sunday dinner guests Misses Pearlie and Cora Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs, Mr. R. J. Downs and daughter, Mamie, and Mrs. Bill Wise attended the association at Swamp Creek in Coosa county Sunday, near Richville.

Everybody come back to Sunday school next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and B. Y. P. U. Sunday evening at 6:30 with a well studied lesson.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Oct. 16.—A board meeting of the state division of the American Association of University women was held at the University of Alabama yesterday. The asociation is composed of graduates of certain approved colleges, including in Alabama the University of Alabama, Birmingham-Southern, and Alabama College.

The meeting was held to plan the association program for the year. Special points of this year's program are the guidance of women in colleges and yong girls in high schools, and the proposal to educate consumers in purchasing products.

A call to the Federated Women's Clubs of the fourth Alabama district was issued by Dean Agnes Elen Harris, for the district meeting at Camden on November 6. The meeting is for the purpose of making plans for a state meeting of women's clubs to be held at the University of Alabama in April. The fourth district will be host at this meeting.

Plans for the first joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. were announced by Prentice Thomas, Talladega, state president of the Y. M. C. A. A large delegation will make the trip from the University of Alabama to Birmingham where the conference is to be held.

Fifty-three freshmen women were selected for membership in the freshman Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Mildred Davis, Huntsville, vice president; and Frances Preiss, Montgomery, were elected to their offices in the senior cabinet last week.

Meetings of the University Research Council for the present year were announced by Dr. George J. Davis, president of the Council. Among the subjects to be studied are medical education in Alabama, personal work among college students, and judicial reform.

A number of the organizations on the campus have been studying the war situation during the past few days. Mr. A. Phillips Beedon, new head of the journalism department, spoke to several of the student organizations, as well as to the Tuscaloosa branch of the American Association of University Women.

The Crimson Tide will meet its arch-rival, the Tennesse Vols at Knoxville this week end. A football holiday has been declared at the University, and a large crowd of students is expected to attend.

A new magazine, "The Southern Speech Bulletin", published by the Southern Association of Teachers of Speech, has just come from the press. The magazine is edited by T. Earle Johnson, head of the department of speech at the University of Alabama.

CRIMSON CLOVER TAKING LEAD IN LAMAR COUNTY

Auburn, Ala.—In an effort to make crimson clover the winter cover crop ofLamar county, farmers of the county are this year planting about 1,000 pounds of seed in small patches to produce seed for planting next year, says C. E. Edge, county agent.

FARMERS GROWING WHEAT FOR HOME CONSUMPTION

Auburn, Ala.—Farmers in McAdory community in Jefferson county are planting 100 acres of wheat for home consumption, reports J. L. Liles, county farm agent.

STATE CANNING WINNERS NAMED

Auburn, Ala.—State winners in the annual canning contest held in Alabama are: Mrs. D. S. Robertson, Waverly, Lee county; Mrs. D. T. Williamson, Tallassee, Elmore county; Mrs. J. N. Fore, Beatrice, Monroe county; Mrs. P. W. Hyatt, Ranbourne, Clebourne county; Mrs. W. C. Linch, Wetumpka, Elmore county; Mrs. H. W. Shealy, Opelika, Lee county; Mrs. J. N. Rigsby, Georgiana, Butler county; Mrs. Henry Parker, Ozark, Dale county; and Mrs. J. E. Griffin, Union Springs, Bullock couty. These winners were announced by Miss Margaret Garrett, extension specialist in preservation.

If you want your shoes fixed the Proper way as well as the Economical way, bring them to The Chilton County Shoe Rebuilders. We guarantee all work. If any jobs are unsatisfactory, we will replace them without charge, or your money refunded. We know how to repair shoes, as we have had a long experience.

John Schmith
Two Doors North of Laundry
Clanton, Alabama

SATURDAY, NOV. 2

A NEW CHEVROLET

The only complete low-priced car

WILL BE ON DISPLAY AT ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

Who Owns The Telephone Company

MORE than eight hundred thousand people own the securities of the Bell Telephone System and most of these folks are small investors. No person owns as much as one-fifth of one per cent of the outstanding stock. The largest single stockholder, an insurance company, has less than one per cent and the average holding is only twenty-eight shares per stockholder.

Nearly half of the stock of the Bell System is owned by women, about two hundred and ten thousand of whom are housewives. There are about ninety thousand clerks and salespeople who have invested their savings in this business and thirty thousand manual laborers.

There are other thousands of farmers, merchants, professional men and others in every State of the Union who have placed their money and faith in the telephone industry. Trust funds for educational institutions, churches, orphanages, and homes for the aged, whose funds must be carefully guarded, have invested large amounts in this business.

No other company is owned by so many different people as is the Bell System.

It is this vast army of small investors who own the telephone business and it is these folks who have, by their sacrifice and saving, supplied the capital to build for you the world's finest and best telephone system. They own the telephone company.

Anything affecting the financial stability of this business directly affects them and the army of telephone workers who are devoting their lives to furnishing you the very best service possible during good times and bad, at a cost to you as low as possible, consistent with financial safety.

Today the Southern Bell company is able to earn only three and seven-tenths per cent on the money invested in the State to furnish you telephone service.

W. A. STEADMAN, Alabama Manager
Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co.
(Incorporated)

RIGINAL

Remains of D. O. Manning Buried at Mulberry Sunday

Funeral services for D. O. Manning 62, who died last Thursday night at 11:40 o'clock at his home on Maplesville route 1, following an illness of several months duration, were held Sunday at 10 a.m., from the Mulberry Baptist church, of which he was a member. The Rev. G. G. Williams and the Rev. J. S. Holland officiated. Burial was in the churchyard cemetery with Spigener Funeral Home in charge.

For several months, Mr. Manning's health had been failing and for the past few weeks his death had been expected almost constantly. He was treated in a Birmingham hospital for some time, but to no avail.

Born and reared in Coosa county, he removed to Chilton 21 years ago settling in the Isabella community, where he has made his home since. He was one of the most prominent farmers in the county and was very influential in his community. Especially was he interested in education and devoted much of his time to programs for the improvement of educational facilities in the county.

Surviving him are his widow; three sons, Ralph, Miami; Oliver, Dunn, N. C.; and Clifford, Maplesville; six daughters, Mrs. Flossie Wells, Mrs. Ava Tucker, Mrs. Bertha Oliver, all of Birmnigham, Mrs. Annie Farmer, Titus, Mrs. Glois Little, Huntsville, and Miss Dorothy Manning, of Maplesville; five brothers, A. B., A. R. Malcom, all of Thorsby, G. E., Pratt City, and A. M. Manning, Jacksonville, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. W. T. White, Maplesville, and Miss Lona Manning, Verbena; one aunt, Mrs. Lou Hughes, Rockford, and 12 grandchildren.

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.

Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

1935 C C H S FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Prospects are brighter this year for a winning football team at C. C. H. S. than was expected. Twenty-five to thirty boys are out for training every afternoon. J. B. Varnell, director of high school athletics, and varsity coah, states that more determined effort on the part of the boys is manifested each day. A splendid spirit is shown and a feeling of pride is registered on the faces of each one as he dons his uniform for the day's practice. When the whistle blows for the beginning of the game this season, you will find that same old Chilton spirit "rearing to go."

Below will be found the schedule:

C. C. H. S. at Tallassee, October 18.

C. C. H. S. at Marbury high, October 25.

Prattville high at Clanton, November 1st.

Montevallo high at Clanton, November 8th.

C. C. H. S. at Holtville high, November 15.

Isabella High at Clanton, November 22.

Come out and support your school and team; it is yours whether it wins or loses.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FOR SALE—1935 Chevrolet Pick-Up, slightly used, first class condition. See Mack Culver, at Clanton Cash Store. 10-10-3tc.

FOR SALE—Entire Stock of used auto parts for sale at a bargain. Located first door north of Clanton Motors.—See R. V. Watson, or call 2404. 10-10-2t.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Allred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

WANTED PEANUTS—The Union-Banner will trade a subscription or two for some good, clean peanuts. The market price, or better, will be allowed.

FARM FOR SALE—58 acres, 2 good dwellings, good barns, plenty water, good pasture, 40 acres in cultivation. Four miles south of Clanton on Wilson-Askins Road.—J. S. Davis, Clanton Rte. 2. 10-3-3tp

FOR SALE—1929 Hudson Super-Six 4-door Sedan in A-1 condition for sale or will trade for mule or horse. —A. L. Wampem, Thorsby, Alabama. 10-1-3tpd.

FOR SALE—160 acre farm, known as W. S. Cox place on Clanton and Billingsley road. Good house and barns. Good farm. Timber. $1,200.00. See Mrs. Walter Poole, Clanton, Ala. 1tp

WANTED TO BUY—Good used one-horse wagon. Must be reasonable price.—Curtis Dykes, Clanton, Rte. 2.

FOR SALE—1926 Ford T Model closed car. Almost new. Perfect condition, $25.00. One horse, 900 lbs, 12 years old, work any place, fat and sleek, $50.00.—Riley Scott, Clanton Rte. 1, one mile east of Lomax. 1tc

Farmers Call Mass Meeting At Courthouse October 23

Gathering At Jackson Chapel Saturday Night Passed Resolution Regarding Cotton Control And Ask For County-Wide Mass Meeting

A gathering of farmers was held at Jackson Chapel schoolhouse last Saturday night, October 5th, and resolutions were passed relative to the Agricultural Adjustment Act and the cotton allotment plan. The gathering also moved and ordered that a county-wide mass meeting be called at the county courthouse in Clanton on Wednesday, October 23rd, at 10:00 o'clock, a.m.

With W. L. Sanders acting as chairman and G. C. Donovan as secretary, the Jackson Chapel gathering moved and carried that the county-wide meeting be called, as stated above, and also that both county papers be asked to carry the announcement. It is the desire of those calling the meeting that all farmers and other interested citizens of the county attend.

Resolutions Passed

The following resolutions were passed by the Jackson Chapel meeting without a dissenting vote, and the signatures attached as below:

We, the undersigned citizens of Jackson Chapel community do agree that the Agricultural Adjustment Act in its present form is unjust, and that it is lowering the standard of living among most small farmers. To prove this, the following is submitted.

1. That the allotment plan based on the five year average is unjust, because:

(a). False reports given and accepted as to the base average in order to secure a larger allotment.

(b). That farmers who have already cut to a reasonable acreage were asked to reduce the same percentage as those with large crops.

(c). That a man's financial ability to use large amounts of fertilizer during the five year period, entitled him to a higher yield per acre.

2. That the passage of any law discriminating between two adjoining farms is unjust.

3. That the collection of taxes to the amount of fifty per cent of the farmer's income from cotton above a small allotment is unjust, compared with the taxes paid by profiteers and wage earners.

4. That under the reduction programsixty per cent of the farmers of Alabama are allowed to sell less than three bales of cotton tax free, and that this amount is insufficient to secure a decent living.

5. That the adjustment act has reduced the farmer's purchasing power by reducing and limiting his marketable commodities and by the rise in the cost of living caused from such reductions.

6. That the collection of taxes to support an agency to increase production, and at the same time such agency use its influence and authority to prihibit the sale of such reduction is inconsistant.

7. That all taxes assessed and collected from the farmer's income is a direct income tax.

8. That the reduction program has greatly hampered our foreign trade, and caused an increase in the importation of foreign goods to take the place of that taken out of production in this country.

The above reasons are our honest convictions, and we feel that the program does not deserve our continued support. Therefore we, this the 5th day of October, 1935, in mass meeting at Jackson Chapel do pledge our support for the repeal of this act through petition or referendum, and we solicit the suport of every "Liberty Loving Citizen" irrespective of political parties, to join us in a campaign in behalf of the little farmers.

W. L. SANDERS, Chairman,
G. C. DONOVAN, Secretary.

Signatures—D. M. Crowson, A. C. Bussie, Ervin Baker, J. C. Rich, Emerson Thomas, Cornelius Caton, D. M. Oates, D. S. Smith, F. E. Ellison, H. L. Bruce, Lee Ellison, Joe W. Traywick, E. A. Shirley, Percy McKinnon, D. F. Bryant, James Baker, J. H. Jackson, G. W. Willis, W. S. Willis, Ernest Jones, G. C. Jones, Marion Ellison, Hubert Smith, Floyd Little, C. O. Bell, Curtis Parrish.

The above resolutions will be offered for adoption at the county-wide meeting, subject to amendments of that gathering.

A BIRTDAY PARTY

On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Delene Williams entertained little Wade Cooper and little Joanne Foshee with a birthday party. The color scheme of pink and white was beautifully carried out. They played games until they were invited into the dining room where the dining table was decorated with two white cakes which held pink candles—one with 9 and the other with 3. Those attending the party were:

Grace Headley, Myrtle Williams, Rosie Lee Traywick, Ethel Culp, Carson Culp, Maurice Traywick. The hostesses were Miss Alma Foshee, Mrs. Elizabeth Frith, Mrs. Ida Cooper, Mrs. Nora Cooper, Mrs. T. G. Culp, Mrs. Relious Headley, Mrs. Reuben Henley, Mrs. Ulys Foshee, Mrs. Ruth Traywick, Mrs. Lucille Headley.

They all enjoyed it until a late hour and returned to their homes wishing Wade and Joanne many more happy birthdays.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVAL AT ALABAMA MILLS SCHOOL

Cats, witches, ghosts whew! Meet them at Alabama Mills school, on Halloween night for the time of your life!

There will also be a variety of appropriate games and stunts for all. Come and share the fun with us.

CONTRACTORS BIDS ASKED FOR ISABELLA-COLLINS CHAPEL

Advertisements were placed this week for bids by contractors for construction of the Isabella and Collins Chapel schools. Orders for advertising have just been released by the State WPA head at Montgomery. Notice is given that these bids will be opened on Friday, November 1st, and that construction will begin as soon as possible after acceptance of the winning bid. No figures could be secured from Supt. Little's office as to the ratio in which the total WPA appropriation would be broken down between the two schools, but this information will be forthcoming shortly.

HIGHLAND NEWS

Health of this community is very good at the present. We had lots of absent members at Sunday school Sunday. Let's all try to be back next Sunday.

Our regular singing society meets here next Sunday evening, October 20, at two o'clock. We invite all singers and lovers of music to come and be with us. We are hoping to have a large crowd and make it one of the best singings we have ever had.

ANNOUNCE OPENING OF MARINELLO BEAUTY SHOPPE

Announcement is made this week of a new beauty shoppe in Clanton, the Marinello, which announces its big opening day for today, Thursday, Ocober 17th. The location is in the Wade building next to Alabama Power Company.

The new place will be under the management of skilled operators among whom is Mr. Grady Mills. Mr. Mills has been living in Clanton for the past six months or more. He is a man of broad experience in the beauty shoppe business. He will be assisted by Miss Birtie Brooks, who is also well known in beauty work circles. Both Mr. Mills and Miss Brooks have been connected with anothr bauty shoppe in Clanton since their coming here several months ago.

This new place will have new equipment. They will feature Realistic and Eugene permanent waving. They will do all kinds of beauty work usually connected with such businesses.

Mr. Mills and Miss Brooks invite their friends to visit them. Especially they would like for you to call during their get-acquainted days—Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

COLONIAL MILL DEMONSTRATOR AT PEOPLES CASH STORE SAT.

A factory representative of the Colonial Milling Company will be at Peoples Cash Store Saturday, October 19th, and demonstrate Polly Rich and Lite-Rize flour. Hot biscuits will be served during the day, and friends of the milling company are invited to be their guests.

YEA, BROTHER—WE SHALL!

(Continued from Front Page)

drive a wedge of discontent, for there is enough discontent among farmers at present. And The News editor does not point out the fact that those thousands that were brought in really amounted to only a small per cent of that lost to farmers through restriction of production and increased living costs.

The News says ours is a message of "destruction". We wonder what The News calls this business of plowing under cotton, killing and burning of pigs and other livestock, and the wholesale destruction of wheat and other food products. How insane is the idea of destroying foodstuffs while people go hungry, and restricting the growth of cotton while people shiver! Something is out of joint—suppose we let The News editor tell us just what it is.

Finally, The News editor says "improvements will be made, but they will be made by the farmers". Just ask any farmer who has tried to get a fair adjustment of his cotton contract—let him tell you how far he got.

So far as The Union-Banner is concerned, if the farmers really want the AAA, we are more than glad for them to have it, but when they come to us in scores, complaining, we can come to no other conclusion than that they are dissatisfied. Therefore, we offer the challenge printed at the top of this column. Frankly, we do not expect its acceptance. But, in a sense of fairness and conscientious belief, we DO expect The News to either accept this challenge or crawl in a hole on the cotton question, as they have done on so many occasions in the past. It's up to The News—a put-up or shut-up proposition.

FORMER CLANTON RESIDENT DIED IN BIRMINGHAM OCT. 11

Thomas W. Evans, age 76 years, passed away Friday night in Birmingham, at the residence, 516 12th St., S. W. Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p.m. from Luquire's Chapel. Interment in Elmwood cemetery.

Mr. Evans is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen Hoit Evans; 1 son, William Evans; 2 daughters, Mr. W. C. Garrison and Miss Annie Hoit Evans and 1 sister, Miss French Evans of Clanton. Mr. Evans was a brother of the late J. E. Evans of Clanton.

LICENSE BUYERS ARE URGED TO BUY EARLY

The office of the Probate Judge of Chilton County urges that all license buyers take out their livences as early as possible, to save a possible last minute rush, with possible disappointment to many people.

We are informed that all business licenses must be issued by October 31, and that all auto and drivers licenses must be issued by November 14, to save penalty fees, as these fees will be collected after the above dates in their respective cases.

FOOD NEWS!

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OCTOBER 18 & 19

Clanton CASH Store
WE DELIVER BLUE FRONT STORES PHONE 154
Peoples CASH Store
Thorsby Cash Store

LARD
1-LB CARTON — COMPOUND 15c
4-LB CARTON — COMPOUND 55c
8-LB CARTON — COMPOUND $1.08
48-Lb CAN $6.50

SUGAR
10-Lb Paper Bag 55c
10-Lb Cloth Bag 57c
25-Lb Cloth Bag $1.40
XXXX — Confectionary, 3 pkgs 25c
OLD FASHION — BROWN, 3 pkgs 25c

COFFEE

Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 17c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

1-LB — CAN 28c
3-LB — CAN 80c

BANANAS, Lb 5c
Matches 3 Boxes 10c

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE
MIXED BEEF and PORK — SAUSAGE, Lb 17½c
FRESH — Ground BEEF, Lb 12½c
Native STEAK, lb 15c & 20c
Beef STEW, 3 Lbs 25c
STRIP BACON, Lb 28c
MEADOW GROWN — CHEESE, Lb 22c
FRESH OYSTERS

PRODUCE SPECIALS
POTATOES, 10 lbs 19c
GREEN HEADS — CABBAGE, Lb 2½c
MEDIUM WHITE — ONIONS, Lb 4c
RUTABAGAS, Lb 3c
ORANGES, Doz 25c
LEMONS, Doz. 20c
LETTUCE, head 8c
APPLES, Doz. 20c

LUZIANNE COFFEE 100% GOOD
1-Lb CAN 27c
3-Lb BUCKET 78c
CERTIFICATES WORTH FOUR OCTAGON COUPONS IN EVERY CAN. USE ONLY HALF AS MUCH LUZIANNE.

Snowdrift
6-LB Pail $1.05
3-LB Pail .. 55c

SOUTHERN STYLE COCONUT
4-OUNCE CAN — MOIST COCONUT 10c

WESSON OIL
Pint Can .. 23c
Quart Can 45c

SALT
100-LB BAG — MEAT SALT $1.00
50-LB BAG — MEAT SALT 60c
25-LB BAG — MEAT SALT 35c
10-LB BAG — TABLE SALT 19c
4-LB BAG — TABLE SALT 10c
1½-LB PACKAGE — SALT, 3 for 10c
We Have Real Meat Salt
MORTON'S and CARIZED

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING
24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 88c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS $1.70
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 50c
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose.. $1.10
48-Lb White Water Rose $2.15
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. WHITE OWL 95c

MAYONNAISE
BLUE PLATE
4-oz Jar, Fresh Made 10c
8-oz Jar, Fresh Made 15c
16-oz Jar, Fresh Made 25c

5-BUSHEL SACKS — SEED OATS $3.00
(TENNESSEE RED RUST PROOF)
5-BUSHEL SACKS — SEED OATS $3.50
(GENUINE TEXAS RUST PROOF)

Colonial Milling Co., Representative at Peoples Cash Store, Saturday, October 19th. FREE BISCUITS

Everybody Welcome

TORN PAGE

POOR O

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TWELVE PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1935 NUMBER 27

Clanton Will Dedicate New Post Office Building Friday

Shriners Will Be In City During The Day And Take Prominent Part In The Post Office Dedication Services

The dedication services of the new Post Office at Clanton, Alabama, will be held on Friday, October 25, 1935. Representatives from Washington and prominent citizens of Clanton will participate in the ceremonies. Arrangements are now under way to make this a gala occasion. Music will be furnished by the Shriners Band from Alcazar Temple of Montgomery. The personnel of the committee in charge follows: H. F. Downs, postmaster; C. Fenn Jones, Mayor; and J. Mell Martin of the Kiwanis Club.

All arrangements have been completed for a really big day in Clanton. High features of the day will be short public speeches, band music by one of the best bands in the state, a parade through town by the Shriners, and other interesting and important festvities. Four thousand copies of the program, furnished by The Chilton County News and The Union-Banner, have been mailed out to all the boxholders of Chilton counay, and the attendance is expected to be colossal. Everybody is invited to be Clanton's guest. Just lay down whatever you had planned to do Friday and come on to Clanton; help enjoy the good things that have been arranged for you.

The Post Office is one of the outstanding buildings of Clanton. According to Frank H. Dohrmann, Construction Engineer for the Government under the Treasury Department, the building covers an area of 4,235 square feet, with main entrance facing on First Avenue. The building is of early American type of architecture, brick construction, one story in heighth, with exterior trim and entrance steps of Georgia marble. It is modern and up-to-date in every way.

The public lobby extends the length of the front of the building with the exception of the postmaster's room to the left. The lobby has marble wainscot 4½ feet high, with plastered walls and ceilings. The floor is of concrete with terrazzo finish in two foot squares with brass division strips between.

Windows in the workroom screen include General Delivery, Stamps, Parcel Post, Registered and C. O. D. Money Order and Postal Savings, and four letter drops, with 397 lock boxes. The Post Office has a modern workroom covering an area of 1,740 square feet, with vault, a swing room, modern plumbing facilities and mailing platform to the side. It is equipped for steam heat and has up-to-date lighting equipment.

The General Contractor is H. W. Beers, Jr., Atlanta, Ga., with A. L. Henderson superintendnet on the job. The cost of the building, including equipment, is $45,000.00.

Shriners Meeting In Clanton On Dedication Day

In connection with the dedication program for the new post office, the Shriners of Alabama will meet in Clanton Friday. Potentate W. P. Screws and Divan, together with uniform bodies and the band will be here. They will parade at 10 o'clock, and take part in the dedication services.

In the afternoon the Shriners will go out to Martin's camp on Coosa River, as guests of Clanton Shrine Club. They will spend the afternoon in fun and merriment. A barbecue will be served during the afternoon.

Big Day In The Old Town

It is expected that Friday will be the biggest day for Clanton we have witnessed in a long time. Everybody in Chilton County has been sent a personal invitation to be the guests of of the city.

The program for the day's activities follow:

10:30—Parade and music by Alcazar Temple Shrine Band.

Called to order—Cohen E. Stapp.

Invocation—Dr. S. J. Ezell.

Words of Welcome and Appreciation—

On behalf of City of Clanton—C. Fenn Jones, Mayor.

Behalf of Chilton County, J. Lee Smith, Judge of Probate.

Behalf of Kiwanis Club—W. M. Wyatt, past president.

Behalf of Pilot Club—Miss Ruth Pardue, District Governor.

Behalf of American Legion, Percy M. Pitts, Commander.

Address—Postmaster General J. A. Farley or Representative of Post Office Department.

Music — Alcazar Temple Shrine Band.

Address — Congressman Sam F. Hobbs, Selma.

Music—.

Benediction—Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks.

Inspection of New Post Office building.

Everybody is invited.

Mrs. Frank Scott and son, John Ed, who spent last week here, returned to their home in Huntsville Monday. Mrs. J. R. Mullins returned with them for a visit.

AT THE WADESONIAN THEATRE THURSDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 24th

A treat is in store for the theatre goers of Clanton tonight, for it is then that the Wadesonian Theatre shows "The Return of Peter Grimm," the most talked of picture on the screen this year, presents Lionel Barrymore in the story of a man who returned from the spirit world to redeem the mess he had made of life.

Heart-sick at the tragedy and unhappiness he had brought upon those he loved, by his tyranny while on earth. Peter Grimm returns to his mortal abode in an effort to restore peace and joy. For a time he is unable to make his presence known, but the highly tuned instincts of his old Collie dog and the eyes of a dying child, whom he had loved, finally pierced the celestial veil, and he is enabled through them to rectify his mistakes and restore harmony and well being to his family.

Never in his long career of stage and screen successes has Barrymore had a more delightful and impressive role than that of Peter Grimm.

Other favorites in the capable cast include Helen Mack, Edward Ellis, Allen Vincent, James Bush, George Breakston, Greta Meye, Ethel Griffin and Donald Meek.

W. J. BILLINGSLEY WITH TAYLOR GROCERY - MARKET

Mr. W. J. Billingsley is now working in the Taylor Grocery and Market, formerly Wade's Grocery. Mr. Billingsley is well known over Chilton county, and he invites his friends to come to see him.

Cotton Taxes Ruining Trade With Teutons

Processing Levies Blamed For Sharp Decline In The American Exports

Washington, Oct. 19.—Prohibitive cotton processing taxes, bulwark of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration's crop destruction program, are driving another American customer—this time Germany—into other cotton markets.

This became evident tonight in a report of the Commerce Department which showed Germany has turned to Argentina, Brazil and Peru for this commodity and is sharply pruning her purchases of American cotton.

The report, covering the first seven months of this year, shows that in this period Germany bought 367,002 340 pounds of cotton, compared with 508,683,780 pounds in the same period a year ago and 536,682,080 pounds in the same months two years ago.

Cotton purchases from the United States in this period totaled 79,999,-480 pounds, compared with 325,038,220 pounds from January through July of 1933.

The corresponding purchases by Germany from Egypt were 48,212,780 pounds this year, 77,677,600 pounds in 1934, and 54,060,820 in the same months of 1933, and from British India, 38,026,640, 64,813,320 and 47,847,-360 pounds.

Meanwhile her imports from Argentina rose to 16,462,160 pounds compared with 6,508,260 in the same period of 1934, and 6,029,540 pounds the year before in these months. German purchases from Brazil in the same period soared to 99,022,440 pounds, compared with 3,480,400 in the January-July period of 1934, and 12,540 pounds in that period of 1933.

The same report showed re-exports of raw cotton from Germany in the first seven months of this year dropped 22 per cent below those of that period last year.

Administration leaders, pinning their hopes of a favorable trade balance at the close of the year to huge cotton exports, find little to support such hopes in the face of declining markets.

MIDDLETON WILL SPEAK AT OLD HOME CHURCH SUNDAY

Hon. J. Osmond Middleton will speak at 11 o'clock next Sunday at old Rehoboth Methodist church in the southern part of Montgomery county. The occasion is a home-coming service. This is the comunity in which Col. Middleton was born, and he feels it an honor that he is to go back there and speak to the good people of that old church. Although his parents moved away from there and came to Clanton while he was only a babe, yet Col. Middleton cherishes the old church and holds a peculiar regard for the comunity where he first saw the light of God's bright sunshine. And we might add too that the people of old Rehoboth should be, and likely are, proud to claim him as originally theirs, and to have him come back there and speak to them at their home-coming service.

WIFE OF ROY TAYLOR WAS BURIED AT CHESTNUT CREEK

Mrs. Clara Mae Taylor, age 32, wife of Roy Taylor of Montgomery, died at a Montgomery hospital last Friday night following an illness of three weeks. Funeral services were held at Chestnut Creek, Coppers, Saturday afternoon, Rev. Leek of Montgomery and Rev. J. W. Jones of Thorsby officiating. Leak Funeral Home was in charge. Burial was in the adjoining cemetery.

Besides her husband, two small children survive; also her father, D. S. Robinson of Coopers; nine sisters and two brothers.

MASONS PERFORM LAST RITES FOR D. O. MANNING

On October 13, 1935, the Masons conducted the remains of Bro. D. O. Manning to their last resting lace in the cemetery of the Mulberry Baptist church. Bro. Manning was a member of the Maplesville Lodge and had been for a number of years, and was a faithful member—always attending its meetings. The high esteem in which he was held was evidenced by the large attendance of Masons from this section of the state.

Due to close family ties the Worshipful Master of the Maplesville Lodge, Bro. W. P. White, asked Bro. Jack Hicks, of the Centreville Lodge to take charge of the ceremony at the grave, which he did with much honor to himself and to the fraternity.

The following Lodges were represented: Maplesville, Clanton, Thorsby, Lawley, Verbena, Jemison, Cooper and Centreville. The pallbearers were as follows: C. W. Foshee, Joe B. Hicks, Judge Lee Smith, L. H. Reynolds, Tom Rockett, Macy Jones, Tom Kemp, M. Lande and L. E. Diefenderfer.

NOTICE!

The Union-Banner urges all unprejudiced people who want to know the New Deal, its original aim, the personnel picked to carry it out, and the results it has obtained, to read Gen. Hugh S. Johnson's article, "Think Fast, Captain!" in this week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

Gen. Johnson was at the council table when the original New Deal was outlined and drawn up. He was picked as one of the mainstays to help carry it out. He stayed with it and fought for it so long as it held to its original stated couse. But when it took off after fanciful collegiate and communistic ideas and trends, Gen. Johnson left it. An excerpt from this article runs as follows:

"With one exception, almost none of the complex and massive affairs of this government have been trusted to men of affairs, but rather to starry-eyed and fiery-eyed idealists, utterly unsuited to effective administration. This is NOT government on the American plan. The tail is wagging the dog. You can't beat four billion dollars but four billions dollars can beat you."

These are only a few of the plain-spoken remarks of this former ground-work New Dealer. No matter what your politics, if you want to really know how the New Deal has been carried out, as regards its original charted course, be sure to secure a copy of The Saturday Evening Post for this week at any of the newsstands in Clanton.

TIFFIN FURNITURE COMPANY FEATURING BIG CABINET SALE

Beginning Saturday, Tiffin Furniture Company is putting on another big Sellers Kitchen Cabinet Sale. They have some specials this time that are even more attractive than heretofore. Turn to their big double-spread adv. in this week's Union-Banner and get the details on the attractive offering Mr. Tiffin is making.

THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT

[AN EDITORIAL]

As a part of the plan of the Roosevelt brain-trust New Deal to foster on the American people a Mussolini-Hitler-Stalin dictatorship, the A. A. A. was designed to bribe the American farmer with some purely temporary financial advantages. However, the scheme is not working so well in that respect, for while quite a number of well-to-do farmers who could very well get along without government aid, are deriving some temporary financial benefits, the small, really poor, forgotten people who farm for a living are being ground further down into a state of peasantry and serfdom.

We have the spectacle all over Alabama and the entire South, of the little farmer, who grows two, three or four bales of cotton to purchase winter shoes and clothing, and who is required to purchase twice as many school books as should be required at twice the price they should be sold for. When this class of families undertake to sell their two, three or four bales of cotton, they are confronted with the proposition of paying over to the government bureaucrats from one-third to one-half of the proceeds of their small cotton crop, for the privilege of having grown their crops under this benign autocracy that is fastening itself on the American people.

If you are one of the farmers who has derived temporary advantages out of this Russian scheme, do you ever give thoughtful consideration to what a price in human liberty you are paying for your temporary gain? You do not need to be a lawyer or a Supreme Court Judge to know and reason out that the government that can take over to itself the autocratic power to send one of its bureaucratic agents, with brief case in hand, out to your farm, to measure off your land in plots and tell you to plant this and that and the other as he dictates, and count your chickens, your hogs and your cows and kill them for the fowls of the air while people starve, as he dictates—a government with such powers may just as well dictate to you what religion you must profess and practice, what political thoughts you must entertain and express, and how you shall vote.

Do you want to remain a free man or become a vassal?

The American farmer, along with every other legitimate business, is being ground down with an unbearable load of taxes in some form, either direct or indirect.

There are now 200,000 brief "toting" bureaucrats swarming up and down the land at a staggering public expense, meddling with everybody's business and into everything, like the locusts that plagued Pharaoh in Egypt, and this army of bureaucrats is being added to daily by leaps and bounds.

The farmer, or business or professional man, who is striving to make a living in any other way than sucking some kind of government pap, is the forgotten man and is altogether out of luck.

Nine times out of ten when you hear some one blabbing about the wonders of the New Deal, if you will and can get the facts, you will find that he is getting his at public expense, which means at the expense of you folks who are not getting yours, and who are paying and will continue to pay the bills.

To any student of current affairs who will carefully study and analyze the acts of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, no other intelligent conclusion can be reached than that he is just as covetous for unrestrained powers as Hitler, Mussolini or Stalin. He is altogether intolerant of any restraints. His every recommendation to Congress has been that the Congress invest him and his chosen tools with autocratic power. And when the Supreme Court of the United States, giving heed to their solemn oath to uphold the Constitution, by a unanimous vote of its judges gave effect to the plain mandates of the Constitution, he, President Roosevelt, proceeded to give vent to his feelings of disgust at the Constitution as a "horse and buggy" insrumentality, and near contempt for the Court.

After Huey Long had played a very conspicious and effective part in bringing about the nomination and election of President Roosevelt, and when it developed that Long was sharing the spotlight of publicity too much to suit President Roosevelt and Farley, they cast Long overboard and turned the Federal patronage of Louisiana over to the New Orleans corrupt political machine. Then when Long continued to grow in popularity with the rabid element that made up so large a portion of the New Deal voting strength, and when Huey came out with his "share the wealth" demogogery and was getting exceedingly popular with this great idea, the smiling President steps in and says, "That is my idea by adoption". And when President Roosevelt recently visited California, all his attentions and smiles were bestowed on the Sinclairites and Townsendies, and the true Democrats of California did not get one smile or pat on the back.

You can quite frequently hear some fanatical New Dealer berating Huey Long as an arch demagog. What, when carefully scrutinized, is the difference between Huey Long and President Roosevelt? A comparison of the two men is altogether favorable to Long. As a result of Long's administration as Governor of Louisiaga, the children of that State have free text books in the public schools. The State has many of the finest concrete roads and bridges in America. The state has one of the finest, if not the finest, capitol buildings in America.

How does that compare with President Roosevelt's program of leaf-raking counting passing automobiles, weed-cutting, teaching dancing and manicuring and at the same time piling on the present and future generations an appalling burden of debt? Huey Long does not suffer in a comparison with President Franklin D. Roosevelt. No demagogery ever proclaimed exceeds that proclaimed and practiced by Praident Roosevelt. Shining examples: "The Forgotten Man", "The Abundant Life" and "Share The Wealth", followed up by pretending to spend a nation and a people into prosperity.

The American people may as well look the facts squarely in the face. In President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the nation, its Constitution, its Courts, and the fundamental structure of our form of government, is menaced with the most dangerous demagog that ever attained so great a place in the nation. The spirit and ambitions of Mussolini, Hitler and Stalin, only with less ability, stalks this land of the free and the home of the brave.

1500 Chilton Farmers Condemn Cotton Plan

Monster Mass Meeting of Farmers Adopts Resolutions For Repeal or Change of Present Law. Resolutions To Be Sent To Sen. John H. Bankhead

At a mass meeting held at the courthouse last Wednesday, attended by approximately 1,500 Chilton County farmers, resolutions were passed overwhelmingly protesting the cotton plan in its present form.

The courthouse was packed to capacity, the general estimate being 750 farmers inside the courtroom, while a like number were unable to get inside the building.

At the beginning, W. L. Sanders called the meeting to order and read a copy of the resolutions and suggestions as given below. Immediately, J. B. Atkinson asked that a resolution be passed allowing equal time for discussion of the questions by both sides. This move was shouted down in a chorus of "no's". Then Mr. Sanders asked that a vote be taken on the resolutions, making clear that an affirmative vote meant that the voter wanted the cotton plan repealed or changed from its present form, while a negative vote meant that the voters wanted the cotton plan to continue in its present form. When the vote was taken, a scant dozen voted to retain the law as it now stands, while the remainder voiced their sentiment against the plan in no uncertain terms. It was a regular steam-roller demonstration, something over 700 against a mere dozen or two.

Farmers began arriving early, as the meeting had been well advertised as a county-wide affair, and both county papers had urged that farmers attend. They gathered on street corners, in stores, and various places, discussing the question which has been uppermost in the minds of farmers ever since the allotments were received early in this year. This was called as a non-political meeting, and nowhere was there any evidence of party feeling.

Notice is given that someone will be taking signatures to the resolutions in every community. The following have been named so far: I. A. Dennis, Maplesville; Bunk Williams, Jemison; D. S. Robinson, Cooper, H. O. Bean, Thorsby; W. M. Devaughn, Clanton; A. A. Jackson, Lomax.

A copy of these resolutions and suggestions, as well as a report of this mass meeting, and a list of hundreds of names of subscribers to the resolutions and suggestions at the meeting will be mailed to Sen. John H. Bankhead, sponsor of the present cotton program.

Following are the resolutions and suggestions adopted:

Resolutions

We, the undersigned citizens of Chilton County, Ala., agree that the Agricultural Adjustment Act, in its present form is unjust, that it is lowering the standard of living among small farmers, and cite the following:

1. That the allotment plan based on the 5-year average is unjust, because:

(a) False reorts were given and accepted as to the base average in order to secure a larger allotment.

(b) Farmers who have already cut to a reasonable acreage were asked to reduce the same percentage as those with large crops.

(c) A farmer's ability to use large amounts of fertilzer during the 5-year base period entitled him to a higher yield per acre, which is out of proportion with smaller farmers, which condition amounts to a penalty on poverty and a bounty for financial ability.

2. That the passage of any law discriminating between adjoining farms is unjust.

3. That the collection of taxes to the amount of 50 per cent of the farmer's income from cotton above a small allotment is unjust, compared with the small income taxes paid by industrial wage earners and capitalists.

4. That under the present reduction program 60 per cent of the farmers of Alabama are allowed to sell less than three bales of cotton tax free, and that this amount is insufficient to secure a decent living.

5. That the adjustment Act has reduced the farmer's purchasing power by limiting his marketable commodities, and by the rise in the cost of living caused from such reductions and limitations.

6. That the collection of taxes to support an agency to increase production, and at the same time such agency use its authority and influence to prohibit the sale of such production is inconsistant.

7. That all taxes assessed and colected from a farmer's income is a direct income tax. Under the AAA this tax is 50 per cent, which is out of proportion with other income taxes.

8. That the reduction program has greatly hampered our foreign trade, and caused an increase in the importation of foreign goods to take the place of those taken out of production in this country.

The above reasons are our honest convictions, and we feel that the rogram, in its present form, does not deserve our continued support. Therefore, we, this 23rd day of October, 1935, in mass meeting assembled, do pledge our support for the repeal of this act, or for drastic changes which will bring about a more fair and proportionate division among producers.

(Continued to Back Page)

THREE THOUSAND GALLONS BEER POURED OUT MONDAY

Deputy Herbert Wright, of Jemison, made what is believed to be the biggest beer haul on record in Chilton county last Monday, approximately 3,000 gallons.

Deputy Wright came upon the beer, in fifty 60-gallon barrels, on the bank of Waxahatchie Creek. The still had been moved, so Wright poured the beer into the creek. There were no arrests.

In addtion, the sheriff's office made seven arrests during the past week. One was for assault and attempt to murder, one was for bastardy, three for abusive, indecent and obscene language, and two for violating the prohibition law. Three of the persons arrested are in jail, and four made bond.

OLD AGE PENSION NOTICE

Miss Nolen Meroney has given us the following notice for publication to all interested in securing old age pension consideration:

"Old age pensions will be granted according to eligibility requirements as published this week. Investigation will be made through the Department of Public Welfare. This service is without charge to applicants. No applicant need send any sum of money to any person or company in order to obtain assistance in getting old age pension."

This notice is given because it has been brought to the notice of the Welfare Department that certain parties are sending circular letters soliciting clients to whom they may render aid in securing old age pension, and these parties state a charge of $1.00 for this assistance. All such solicitations are fakes, and Miss Meroney issues the above warning, that none may be swindled.

New Census To Be Made For Clanton

Work of Enumeration Will Start Nov. 1. Estimate Is 3,500 To 4,000

Since the town of Clanton is no more, but has become the city of Clanton, it is necessary that new census figures for the city be gathered. Accordingly, the work of gathering th se figures will begin next Friday, November 1.

This work will be under supervision of Federal Census Supervisor, Herbert R. Greene. So far the roster of assistants and enumerators have not been named.

Mayor Jones estimates that the number of people living within the newly designated city limits will be around the 3,500 mark, with a possibility of it reaching 4,000.

A close check of the map of the city, since the new lines were laid out, shows that the city of Clanton will total 3 and one-thirty-second square miles. The lines enclose 48½ "forties", or 20 acres over 3 square miles.

Mayor C. Fenn Jones asks all people living within the corporate limits of the city to cooperate with the census bureau, by giving all information desired to enumerators when they call.

A description of the new lines, relative to the main roads that lead into the city, is given below.

On the Lay Dam road, the line reaches to the junction of the Pinedale and Lay Dam roads, near the Ed Miller place. On the Birmingham highway, the limit is at the land line a few steps south of the home of F. A. Ellison. On the old highway, north, the line is the land line on top of the hill above the cotton mill, this line being just north of the Headley home. On the Maplesville road, a land line about midway between the home of Wiley Gray and the junction of the old Thorsby road and the Maplesville highway, is the point. On the road by the P. T. Hinkle home, the line is the land line just north of the Hinkle property. To the south, the city limits reach to the junction of the old Mt. Pisgah road and the Montgomery highway, a point just north of the J. N. Dennis home. The city limits include the section houses of the L. & N. Railroad Company. To the east, the creek near the home of Dr. W. L. Parrish, is the line.

Enumerators will visit at all homes situated within these limits, and Mayor Jones and census officials urge all to give the desired information as accurately and quickly as possible, that the enumeration job may be finished and the city can turn in the figures to the federal census department. These figures will replace those in the federal census files, as taken in the 1930 census, and will be considered as official until the regular census in 1940.

Mrs. Delia Traywick left Saturday, October 19, for a 2 weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Foster, of Lanette, Ala.

ORIGINAL DATE INCORRECT

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

'How do I feel.... Swell!—why do you ask?'

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength ...you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. © S.S.S. Co.

Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

SINGING AT FRIENDSHIP THURSDAY NIGHT, OCT. 24

There will be singing at Friendship church Thursday night of this week, October 24th, beginning at 7 o'clock. The public is invited. All singers have a special invitation.

CHICKEN SUPPER AT UNION GROVE OCT. 26

On Saturday night, October 26th, every body in and around Union Grove school community come out and have a good time. Plenty of good music and entertainment for the whole family. Guess cakes, beauty contest, husband calling, and hog calling contests and prizes for every one. Chicken and good eats for everyone. Come and bring some one with you.

FOR SALE

We still have a good stock of Tires, Tubes and Accessories, which we are selling cheap.

Also 1 Electric Grease Gun, 1 High Pressure hand grease Gun, Jacks and other items of Service Station Equipment which we have no use for and will sell at bargain prices.

DIEF'S
At Rear of A. & P.
Clanton, Ala.

FOR HAIR AND SCALP
JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
The Antiseptic Scalp Medicine—Different from ordinary Hair Tonics—60c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists. Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

NOTICE

Dr. T. T. Taylor of Birmingham, Ala., at Langston Drug Co., Jemison, Ala., Thursday, October 24th, Examining eyes and fitting glasses. At Maplesville Drug Co., Maplesville, Ala., Friday, October 25. Satisfaction guaranteed.

PUBLICATION FOR NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court in Equity.

Lucile Esters, complainant, vs. Cecil Esters, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks requiring him, the said Cecil Esters to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 4th. day of November, 1935; or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, this 2nd day of October, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER,
10-3-4tch. Register.

PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity.

Pearl Yarbrough, complainant, vs. J. E. Yarbrough, defendant.

In this cause it is made to apper to the to the Register by the affidavit of Pearl Yarbrough, that the defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newsaper published in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said, J. E. Yarbrough to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 6th day of November, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

W. D. SPIGENER,
10-3-4tc Register.

ISABELLA ACTIVITIES

The Isabella P.-T. A. has entered the Chilton County News Contest. We are hoping the community will respond promptly in helping us to get subscriptions.

The officers of the P.-T. A. are: President, Ethel Cagle; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Span Jones; chairman of membership committee, S. C. Porch; chairman of social committee, Madeline Heflin; chairman of ways and means committee, Mrs. Foshee; last Monday night, October 14, the P.-T. A. members rendered a very interesting program.

Mr. W. C. Grooms gave a talk on "Program of the Community in P.-T. A." Mr. Curtis Matthews made a talk on "Program of High School in P.-T. A." Mr. R. B. Johnson made a talk on "Program of Grammar School in P.-T. A.

The Isabella and Verbena football boys played a hard game last Friday on Verbena's field. The Isabella boys expect to go to Goodwater on Friday, October 25th, and play a good game.

The Jr. I class met last week and elected class officers for the year: President, Charles Edwards, vice president, Joseph Green, secretary, Margaret Russell. The Jr. 1 class are enthusiastic workers and are striving to make their class the best in school.

The school is planning to give a Hallowe'en party on Hallowe'en night. Look for further information.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala.—The executive board of the Alabama branch of the American Association of University women held a meeting at the University of Alabama late this week to plan a program for the year. Miss Agnes Ellen Harris, Dean of women at the University, is president of the state branch.

While more than 85,000 students entered elementary schools in Alabama last year, only 38,000 were graduated from the sixth grade, and only a few more than 10,000 from High school, it is shown in a statistical study made by C. J. Jordan, working in connection with the department of Vocational Education at the University.

The executive committee of the student Association, highest representative student group on the campus, has just been announced by Carl Elliot, Vina, president of the student Association and chairman of the committee. The members include: Lee Bains, Bessemer; Jimmy Walker, of Holt; William Wade, Mintor; Peyton Williams, Clio; Felix Lamar, Springfield, Mass.; Ed Harris, Tuscaloosa; Bernie Feld, Birmingham; John Inness, Cortland, N. Y.; Marie Drolet, Tuscaloosa; Elizabeth Jolly, Downs; Betty Breslin, Selma; Sara Waites, Birmingham and Lynn Garbor, Jackson, Miss.

The senior class of the school of Commerce and Business Administration will make its annual inspection trip through the Birmingham commercial and industrial area October 31-November 2, it is announced by Dr. Burton R. Morley, professor of Economics.

Honorary Cadet Colonels of the ROTC unit were chosen at elections held here this week. The young ladies, with the units they will sponsor, are as follows: Miss Mary Gray Hicky, Montgomery, the entire R. O. T. C. brigade; Miss Sara John Webb, Demopolis, the Coast Artillery regiment; Miss Frances Boykin, Mobile, the Infantry regiment; and Miss Mary Hornsby, Centreville, the regiment of engineers. The young ladies will lead the annual Military ball on December 9.

ELECTRICIAN DIES IN WRECK

C. Hodge Zuber, 33, an electrician for the Western of Alabama Railroad, was killed early Sunday morning when the automobile he was driving crashed into a telehone pole on the old Vaughn Road near the city limits.

It was believed that Mr. Zuber lost control of his car and that he was killed instantly. He was en route to his home at 817 Mulberry Street when the accident occurred.

A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Memory Chapel, 222 Madison Avenue, with Dr. O. P. Speig- officiating. Immediately afterwards the body will be taken to Auburn, Ala., for burial.

Surviving are his widow; his mother, Mrs. W. P. Zuber, of Auburn; a brother, B. P. Zuber, of Louisiana; and three sisters, Mrs. W. S. Tatum, of Luverne, Ala., Mrs. A. D. Battey, of Chicago, and Mrs. Jaris Jenkins of Rome, Georgia.

RAILWAY POSTAL CLERK EXAMINATION ANNOUNCED

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an open-competitive examination for Railway Postal Clerk.

Applicatoins may be filed with the civil-service district office nearest the applicant, or with the U. S. Civil Service Cimmission at Washington, D. C. Applications must be on file not later than October 28, 1935.

Persons interested should apply at once for information to the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners, Birmingham, Ala.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

BY REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. © Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 27

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST
(Temperance Lesson.)

LESSON TEXT—Daniel 5:1-31.

GOLDEN TEXT—Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Proverbs 20:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Daniel Solves a Riddle.

JUNIOR TOPIC—At the Feast of Belshazzar.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Drink Leads To.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Facts About Alcohol.

I. Belshazzar's Impious Feast (vv. 1-4).

1. Those in attendance (vv. 1, 2). Those present were Belshazzer, his wife and concubines, and one thousand of his lords.

2. Their behavior (vv. 3, 4).

a. They drank wine and engaged in drunken revelry.

b. They committed sacrilege. They drank wine from the sacred vessels taken out of the temple at Jerusalem.

c. They worshiped idols.

II. The Handwriting on the Wall (vv. 5-16).

1. The time of (v. 5). It occurred "in the same hour" in which they were engaged in their drunken debauchery.

2. The effect upon the king (v. 6) "The joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another."

3. The king's behavior (vv. 7-16).

a. He called for the astrologers and soothsayers, offering them rewards of gold and of position (vv. 7-9).

b. Daniel brought in at the suggestion of the queen (vv. 10-16). The queen was perhaps the wife of Nebuchadnezzar who remembered Daniel's service in interpreting the dream of her husband.

III. Daniel Interprets the Writing (vv. 17-28).

1. Daniel's address to the king (vv. 17-24).

a. He brushes aside his promised gifts (v. 17). He would not have his speech limited by the king's gift.

b. He reviewed before Belshazzar the history of Nebuchadnezzar (vv. 18-24). He showed clearly that Belshazzar should have profited by the experiences of his father.

2. The interpretation of the writing (vv. 25-28).

a. "Mene" means "numbered" (v. 26). "God hath numbered thy kingdom and finished it."

b "Tekel" means "weighed" (v. 27) "Thou art weighed in the balances and art found wanting."

c. "Peres" means "divided" (v. 28). "Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians."

IV. The Judgment Executed (vv. 29-31).

So rapidly did the divine judgment fall that Belshazzar was slain and Darius the Median took the kingdom that same night. The Chaldean dynasty ended with Belshazzar. We may, therefore, interpret this whole scene as pointing to the conditions at the close of the time of the Gentiles, and as adumbrating their prevailing conditions. Let us note

1. The stupidity of men. Belshazzar, like people today, did not learn by example. Nebuchadnezzar's fate should have deterred Belshazzar.

2. The magnificent splendor. This great feast was characterized by pomp, display and parade. How characteristic of our own age!

3. Luxury. The famous hanging gardens of Babylon were a noteworthy example. Signs of luxury abound today on every hand.

4. The licentiousness of the king with his many wives and concubines. Licentiousness is likewise notoriously prevalent today.

5. Blasphemous sacrilege. The sacrilege of this day may be in excess of that of Belshazzar's day and expresses itself in a. A profession of religion for pecuniary gain, social and political preferment.

b. The use of the pulpit of the Christian ministry for notoriety and even for the propagation of false doctrine.

c. Uniting with the church and attendance at the Lord's table so as to cover up secret sins.

d. The use of the Word of God to give point to a joke.

e. Denying that the Bible is God's Word, making it a book of errors, myths, and legends.

f. Sneering at the virgin birth, repudiating Christ's deity and setting aside his vicarious atonement.

6. Drunken carousals. The handwriting is on the wall. His judgments shall eventually fall. Conditions in the world indicate that the time is drawing near. Are you ready?

Pity

Friends should be very delicate and careful in administering pity as medicine, when enemies use the same article as poison.—J. F. Boyes.

The Country

Men are taught virtue and a love of independence by living in the country —Meander.

Humility

True humility:

The highest virtue, mother of them all.—Tennyson.

Miss Ethel Cagle, of Isabella was in Clanton Tuesday afternoon.

ALABAMA ANTI-CONSUMER SALES TAX ASSN. MEETS

Birmingham, Ala.—Pledged unanimously to fortify its campaign with a $50,000 war chest, the Alabama Anti-Consumer Sales Tax Association came into being at a two day meeting terminating here Thursday afternoon with the announced determination to carry its battle into every corner of the state before the next session of the Legislature.

Representative merchants, labor union leaders, farmers, druggists and automotive trades men from every section of the state came to Birmingham at the call of the Alabama Independent Merchants Association and wrote a declaration of policy couched in unmistakable terms against any effort to increase the tax burden of the people of Alabama and served notice they would stand to the last ditch in opposition to the program regardless of its sponsors.

Enthusiastic pledges of cooperation from labor, farmers, professional and business men poured into the meeting from every section of the state.

Irby C. Hall, Collinsville merchant, was named temporary chairman of the organization, with B. C. Apperson, Birmingham, as secretary. Another statewide meeting will be held in Montgomery within ten days, it was announced.

The vote to raise $50,000 to conduct a statewide fight was the result of a motion to the effect by Irby Hall, who previously had declared a consumer sales tax will fall with crushing force on thousands of relief clients throughout the state and further devalue an already fast shrinking dollar.

PLEASANT VALLEY SINGING

Folks, we had a real good singing on last second Sunday afternoon, although there were not many singers present, there was a fairly good audience.

Directors for the afternoon were: Orbie DeVaughn, Forrest Huett, A. P. Williams, Marshall Burkhalter, J. W. DeVaughn, J. E. Varner, and C. M. Billingsley.

For some reason we are losing interest in our singings. We have been in harmony for some time and we want to continue.

We have Pleasant Valley society and Bethany society within one mile distance, one on the first Sunday afternoon of each month, and the other on the second Sunday. Now, what we would like to see these two societies come together as one, meet at Enterprise on the first Sunday of each month and have a real good singing society. We would have a splendid place—good piano, plenty of room and seats. I have talked with several singers and others and none have objected. Mr. J. W. Devaughn is now chairman of Bethany society and a good one. On last Sunday it was agreed, by all who were present, to meet at Enterprise next first Sunday, sing and bring these two societies together as one.

We all know in union there is strength, so come on everybody and let's put our singing on top. Visitors invited, glad to have you.

Our Saturday night singing at Enterprise has been called in for the winter months and until our lighting system gets in better condition.

Every body remember the first Sunday in November—Enterprise, beginning promptly at 2 o'clock.—Chairman.

POPLAR SPRINGS CLUB NEWS

The Ladies Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. J. L. Smith on October 4th. There were 17 members and 3 visitors present.

The meeting was called to order by the president. Our project leaders, Miss Lena Downs and Mrs. Mattie L. Crew attended the leadership meeting Thursday, October 3rd. They made report of what they learned. The report was based on "The Convenient Kitchen." They told us some very helpful things if we would only do them. Miss Pardue talked some on different things connected with making the kitchen more convenient.

Listen, you ladies near Poplar Springs that don't attend these club meeting are really missng something. Why not start now? Some to our next meeting at Mrs. J. K. Millers on Friday, November 1, at 2 o'clock. You will learn lats. Be sure to come. We are always glad to have visitors too.—Reporter, Ruth Minor.

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

Alabama Journal
NEW LOW RATE
1 Full Year $3.00

The Journal prints all the war news as well as Local and National news. Full day Associated Press. The Journal will publish exclusively all the new Laws that will be passed by the Extra Session of Legislature just like it did during the Regular Session. Mail check today for One Full Year.

ALABAMA JOURNAL
Montgomrey, Ala.

You've Almost Got to Be A GIRAFFE to Eat Nowadays!
(but ELECTRICITY is still CHEAP)

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY
Electrify Now—
Electricity Is CHEAP In Alabama

DATE INCOR

NINE FACTORS IN CORN-HOG VOTING

Farmers of State Urged to Look Into Conditions Before Balloting

Nine major factors should be weighed by Alabama farmers before marking their ballots in the nation-wide corn-hog referendum next Saturady, October 26, according to F. W. Burns, extension livestock specialist, who is helping formers of the state in administering of the program.

If no control program is adopted, low prices for hogs may be expected beginning in 1937, AAA officials pointed out in the nine points which farmers should carefully consider.

First is the outlook of the country's small livestock population. Unprecedented drouth which cut the corn crop and the harvest of other feed grains almost in half last year forced farmers to strip their herds and flocks down to the smallest number of grain-consuming animals on farms in 34 years. Furtherfore, the country's livestock population will not have been rebuilt to any great extent by the beginning of 1936.

Second, although farmers have 15 per cent less livestock than they had during the five year period 1928-1932, it is estimated that at the close of this year's harvest they will have enough feed supplies for almost as many animals as the average during the five-year period. The grain supply per animal this winter is therefore expected to be larger than in any year since the World War, except 1926.

Acreage Higher

Third, if there is no adjustment program in 1936, farmers will be likely to harvest more than 100 million acres of corn. They harvested about 105½ million acres n 1932 and 1033, and a recent government report indicates a 1935 harvest of nearly 94 million acres. Acreage this year was held down to 94 million because carn-hog contract signers retired about 11½ acres. With average yields, an uncontrolled acreage of corn next year would mean a production of more than 2½ billion bushels. Since it is doubtful that the number of grain consuming animals will be increased enough in 1936 to bring the grain supply per animal back to normal, the amount of feed per head would continue high during the 1936-37 feeding season.

Fourth, With a large supply of corn, and too few animals to utilize it, the trend of prices of corn during the coming year is expected to be downward. With uncontrolled production next year, the farm price received from the 1936 crop may be expected to average much less than the price received for this year's harvest.

Fifth, it is possible for the hog population to increase rapidly durng the next two or thee years. Furthermore farmers would be forced to resort to this means of utilizing their feed supplies if production were uncontrolled. Wth unlimited farrowing in 1936 a total pig crop of 25 to 30 per cent larger than the 1935 crop may be expected. This would lead to a similar increase in 1937, causing 1937 farrowings to total from 50 to 70 per cent heavier than in 1935.

LOW PRICE POSSIBLE

Sixth, in the past ruinously low farm prices have always resulted from unlimited increases in corn and hog production following periods in which livestock numbers and feed supplies have been out of balance. If no control program is adopted, low prices for hogs can be expected, beginning in 1937.

Seventh, it is likely that the gradual economic recovery which has been under way since 1933 will continue, but no improvement in the export demand for pork products can be expected. Since the war, American exports of pork and pork products have declined gradually by the equivalent of eight million head of live hogs.

Eighth, a considerable increase in hog production above the present drouth-reduced level is desirable from the standpoint of both the farmer and the consumer. On the other hand, an ultimate increase in hogs is not to the interest of either.

Nineth, an adjustment program can allow for a healthy increase in hog numbers and at the same time keep corn acerage at a more desirable level.

The county Committee of the corn-hog Control Association for Chilton County will hold an election at the County Agent's office, Clanton, Ala., on Saturday, October 26, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4 p.m. for those who wish to vote on the corn-hog Control Program. Any farmers who grew corn or hogs in 1935 may vote in this referendum.

SHILOH NEWS

Our Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. are progressing nicely. We had a large attendance Sunady morning. Everybody come back next Sunday and bring someone with you.

Rev. M. Lockhart will preach at this place on Sunday night, October 27. Everybody come and hear his wonderful message.

Several from this community attended the birthday party at the home of Mr. J. D. Mullins Saturday night, given in honor of his son, Jim. All reported a nice time.

We have on the sick list this week, Mr. George Keen. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kindred, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Billingsley and two sons were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Keen.

Misses Lilly and Lucille Kindred were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Eloise Keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Billingsley, of Thorsby are spending a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bice.

Mrs. L. P, Cagle was the Sunday dnner guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bice were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Traywick.

Messrs. L. C. and Horace Cagle were the Sunday dinner fuests of Mr. John Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brigance spent several hours with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Keen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Stroud spent several hours Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson.

Everybody is welcome at Shiloh. Be sure and come to Sunday school at 9:30 Sunday morning and don't forget Sunday night.

Billingsley News

Mrs. J. F. King has returned after an extended visit with friends and relatives at Jones, Alabama.

Misses Nettie Mason and Lucille Patillo attended the football game in Montgomery last Saturday.

Mrs. T. L. Dickinson and Mrs. E. O. Nummy attended the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S.

Mrs. J. C. Vinson and Mrs. P. E. Wyatt and children, of Milton, and Mr. Paul Vinson, of University spent the past week end at their home in Billingsley.

Mrs. Ada Wimberly and Mrs. J. C. Hughes attended the Young Peoples meeting at Clanton last Sunday.

Mr. J. F. Apperson made a business trip to Montgomery last Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Downs had as their guest last Sunday, their daughtre, Mrs. Blanch Boozer, of Tuscaloosa.

Mr. Henry Reed, Mr. Frang Apperson, and daughter, Jessie Mae, of Jones visited friends in our town on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deason and children attended the annual singing at Haysop, in Bibb County, last Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. Leon Mills will be glad to know that she is rapidly improving after a very severe attack of pneumonia.

PLAY AT BILLINGSLEY

What is it? Where is it? When is it?

A musical comedy, "Here Comes Arabella," in Billinysley High school auditorium on Friday nigtht Nov. 1, 1935, at 8 p.m.. It is a Wayne P. Sewell production, directed by Miss Sara Elizabeth Williams and sponsored by Billingsley P.-T. A. Admission, 10c and 15c. Everybody come.

Do You Ever Wonder

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Ask Your Doctor and Find Out

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.

Bayer Aspirin

MAKE SURE

Come in Tuesday for a free and complete optical examination. You really owe it to yurself to see that your eyesight is perfect. Don't let eye trouble ruin your health.

Eyeglasses reasonably Priced!

DR. M. GOLDNER
of Birmingham, Ala.

Here in Clanton On Tuesday, October 29th, and Every Two Weeks Thereafter.

Office with Dr. J. P. Hayes Clanton, Ala.

This is CLEAN-UP Week

FALL HOUSECLEANING AIDS

$13,000 FREE!

TO USE NOW—OR SAVE FOR CHRISTMAS MONEY

FOUR $250 CHECKS EVERY WEEK

to users of Octagon Soap

OCTAGON SOAP

YOU'LL FIND hundreds of household uses for OCTAGON SOAP. Saves you work and money. Cleans faster. Save the valuable coupons!

5 GIANT BARS only 23¢

YOU can win $250—RIGHT NOW! Money for things you want . . . and to give the whole family a GRAND CHRISTMAS! See the simple rules. Four winners every week—$250 each! Ask your grocer for entry blank when you get Octagon Soap today! It's a quality product, and like all Octagon Soap Products, it brings you valuable coupons free.

HERE ARE THE EASY CONTEST RULES

Write your letter today. It may win $250.00 for you. To enter the contest just do three things:

1 Write a letter adding 25 words or less to complete this sentence: "I like Octagon Soap because . . ." and mail your letter with 5 wrappers from Octagon Soap (or reasonably accurate copies).

2 Include your name and address and also give the name and address of grocer and clerk who sold you the Octagon Soap.

3 Mail your letter and wrappers to Contest Editor, Octagon, Jersey City, N. J. Entries will be judged for the contest of the week during which they are received. Winners to be notified by mail. Decision of judges shall be final. Duplicate awards in case of ties. Contest open to all not connected with Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co.

If you are not receiving free gifts with the soap you are now using, why not change to Octagon and get gifts like these free?

VALUE 60c

This lovely rose glass dish for berries or desserts and six matching serving dishes for only 50 OCTAGON COUPONS.

A $1.50 VALUE

You will find scores of uses for these handy mixing bowls that you can have for 100 OCTAGON COUPONS.

And there are over 1000 additional gifts for you to choose from. Take your coupons to

TIFFIN FURNITURE CO.

PALMOLIVE SOAP

3 CAKES for 15¢

The world's favorite toilet soap. Made with olive oil for a lovely complexion and "loveliness all over."

OCTAGON SOAP POWDER

NOW only 5¢ TWO FOR 9¢

Unsurpassed for general household use. Fast. Economical. Save the coupon!

SUPER SUDS

3 LARGE SIZE 27¢

GIANT SIZE NOW 20¢

Made specially for washing dishes . . . keeps hands soft, white and attractive.

OCTAGON TOILET SOAP

3 CAKES for only 14¢

Creamy white—delightfully perfumed—kind to the skin—for toilet and bath. Save valuable coupon!

SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY OFFER

One 10c pkg Oct. Soap Chips 1c
One 10c pkg Oct. Soap Chips 10c

20c Value for 11c

YOUR GROCER OFFERS THESE COLGATE-PALMOLIVE-PEET SPECIALS THIS WEEK

CLANTON
BEAN & TAYLOR
CLANTON CASH STORE
GROOMS GROCERY
R. W. LOWE
J. R. KEMP
J. R. MULLINS & SONS
PEOPLES CASH STORE
TAYLORS GROCERY AND MARKET
H. E. WILLIS STORE AND MILL

MAPLESVILLE
MAPLESVILLE CASH GROCERY
J. B. HARDY
SANITARY MARKET

VERBENA
DERAMUS CASH GROCERY
H. S. IRVIN
H. T. WILLIAMS

CALERA
MERRELL GROCERY

COOPER
COOPER MERCANTILE CO.

JEMISON
A. C. BRATTON & CO.
C. G. GLASS
JEMISON CASH STORE
LANGSTON CASH STORE

THORSBY
THORSBY CASH STORE
THORSBY MARKET & GOCERY
G. F. HARPER
M. E. WILLIS

Do you get Valuable Gifts FREE with the Wrappers of the Soap you now use? If not — why not change to OCTAGON SOAP? Save the Coupons and Have your Choice of Over 1,000 Valuable Gifts — FREE!

New 1936 Plymouth —the Peak of Perfection

First Showing Today—See It!

TODAY we are displaying for the first time the new 1936 Plymouth. It is the finest low priced car ever offered the American public. In size, in style—in riding and steering—in safety and performance and economy, the very Peak of Perfection.

This new car is bigger, roomier, more luxurious, than any previous Plymouth. It has distinctive new style. The Floating Ride has been perfected with a new sway eliminator and a new twice-as-rigid frame. The Hydraulic Brakes are of the genuine two-way pressure type with stepped cylinders. The new Safety-Steel body has been super-strengthened with new reinforcements—is insulated from the frame with sound-deadening rubber. And again, Plymouth is the most economical full size car, with 82 horsepower and the smoothness of patented Floating Power engine mountings.

Don't fail to see this amazing new Plymouth, now!

Polk Bros. Motor Co., Inc.

CHRYSLER — PLYMOUTH — INTERNATIONAL

Clanton, Alabama

WHAT THE NEW FARM PROGRAM MEANT TO CHILTON COUNTY

Let us compare prices:

In 1932, the income from cotton and cotton seed was $439,566.00; in 1933 it was $959,194.73; in 1934 it was $1,101,602.68.

Following is a record of 1935:

Certificates issued	$697,800.00
Estimated production .. 13,200 bales at $51.50 per bale	$697,800.00
5,874 tons of seed at $25.00 per ton	146,850.00
Subsidy payment on 13,200 bales at $7.50 each	99,000.00
Rental and parity payments for 1935	146,369.87
Total for 1935	$1,103,134.87

In addition to the above, Chilton County farmers planted 14,000 acres more land in corn in 1934 than in 1929. It is estimated that there is more corn planted in 1935 than was planted in 1934.—J. W. Fant.

GET TOGETHER MEETING AT ENTERPRISE SCHOOL HOUSE

There will be a get together entertainment at Enterprise school building, on Friday, November 1, beginning at 4:00 o'clock p.m.

There will be plenty of entertainment. The football game begins at 4:00 o'clock. Following this will be a musical program, using various local talent. There will be plenty of refreshments available for everyone.

The principal, Prof. Ralph Grant, wishes to especially urge all patrons and all persons interested in the school to attend this meeting, as it is a get-acquainted meeting for the parents and new teachers.

F. F. A. HOLDS FIRST REGULAR MEETING

The Clanton Chapter of the Future Farmers of America held its first regular meeting in the Chilton County High school building on Monday, October 21, at 7:00 p.m. The meeting was called to order by President Thomas Gandy. All members were present except Horace Kendrick.

The assembly discussed and outlined a program of work for the school year. Among the items listed were the beautification of the new vocational building, the improvement of the campus by setting out shrubbery, improvement of the shower system in the gymnasium, laying off of a tennis and volley ball court, and if possible the establishemnt of a nursery. By attaining these ends the Chapter seek to prove that it is an organization which Clanton and Chilton County High school should feel justly proud.

Although the chapter was organized with the attainment of the above mentioned goals in mind, it intends to take part in various social activities, including parties, picnics, banquets, etc. After the business and social discussions were closed, the president appointed several members to serve on the program and social committees.

During the remaining minutes until adjournment, the assembly was entertained by the witty and humerous remarks of Joseph Maddox and the Popwell twins. The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held on the first Monday of next month, November 4th, at 7:00 p.m. —John M. Higgins, reporter.

HOME MAKERS CLASS MEETING THURSDAY EVENING

The Home Makers Sunday School class will meet at the Clanton Baptist church Thursday afternoon (today) at 3:00 p.m. Each member is asked to bring sandwiches, and a package to help finish a quilt.

IT'S A GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dennis are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, arrived Wednesday, October 16. Her name is Donnie Jean. Mother and baby are at home in West Jemison.

WEST END Specials

For This Week-End At

J. H. BROADHEAD'S

Phone 191-W - - - - We Deliver

FOR CASH ONLY

6-LB PAIL — Snowdrift $1.05

3-LB PAIL — Snowdrift 55c

Fresh EGGS 30c

Good — FRYERS, lb 20c

TOMATOES .. 10-oz Can Only 5c

Makerel Salmon Large Can 3 for 25c

WANTED TO BUY VELVET BEANS

FLOUR

Gold Flake

24 lb Plain $1.05

24 lb S. R. $1.10

JAZZ

DAIRY FEED

100 Lbs $2.25

Mr. H. G. Boyd of Selma, iwas in canton one days last week shaking hands with his many friends.

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton

At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, OCT. 28TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON

OPTOMETRIST

FROM REAUBY CHASTEEN

Dear Editor:

Will you please give me just a small space in the good old paper to tell the people throughout the county that I have moved to the Log Cabin home? And when you are passing by, don't forget me. I need all of the help you can give me. There are lots who pass me by, and lots of stumbling blocks are thrown in my path, but good people remember, I have got to live and my only chance is to run a little store. It is a hard living.

Again I will say, don't forget to trade just a little with me when you are passing my way. I am a helpless cripple. God doesn't forget me, so don't you. Thank you, Mr. Editor.—Reauby Chasteen.

CENTER HILL SINGING

We have elected or re-elected officers for another year as follows: Mr. B. L. Cobb, president; Mr. Lonnie Cobb, vice president; and Mrs. J. W. Collum, reporter.

On next Sunday afternoon, October 27th, is our regular monthly singing afternoon. We want everybody to remember this and come with your new books and a great singing spirit.

You are always welcome to Center Hill.

Especially do we want to stress that our other societies of this union please come and lets get organized for the winter months, as all day singings and conventions are over.

CHICKEN SUPPER

There will be a chicken supper at Collins Chapel church, Saturday night October 26th. This will be for the benefit of the church. Everybody come.

SONG RECITAL AT M. E. CHURCH TUESDAY, OCT. 29

A real treat is in store for Clanton music lovers next Tuesday afternoon, October 29, when the Music Appreciation Club of Clanton presents Miss Katheryn Foss in recital at the local Methodist Church, with Miss Jane Roberts as accompanist. Miss Foss is a graduate in voice from Piedmont College. She is at present teacher of music and voice at Thorsby Institute, and has been in several recitals during recent months where she has won much praise from every audience. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Foss of Thorsby.

Miss Roberts will graduate from Huntingdon Colege this scholastic year, where she has majored in music. Her talent at the organ and piano has won much praise. She is the daughter of Mrs. Barney Roberts, of Clanton.

This program, under auspices of the Clanton Music Appreciation club, is one of the many things this club is doing to bring a deeper appreciation of fine music to Clanton and Chilton County people. Those in charge feel that this program will be enjoyable to those present, and is a presentation of real artists in music. No admission will be charged, and everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

After the program the club will have a short business session at the home of Mrs. Otto Jones.

PLEASANT GROVE

JEMISON

Sorry to say that there are some of our folks that are not doing so well. Mrs. W. E. Miskelley does not improve any. Mrs. George Spivey is feeble yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davenport were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miskelley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright had as their guests Sunday her sister and family, Mrs. George Spivey, Erschel and Laurene, and their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Marcus and little son, Aldene, and Mr. Albert Jones.

Mrs. Frank Davenport spent a day last week with her sisters, Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion.

Mrs. Clarence Turner and little daughter have been spending a while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Euel Dawson.

Mrs. Dovie Dawson has gone to spend a while with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Franklin.

TENT MEETING AT LOMAX

The tent meeting at Lomax, conducted by R. L. Huffman, J. T. Daniel and others of the Church of Christ, is being well attended, with good interest manifested. We believe much good is being accomplished by the study of the scriptures. Such subjects as these are being presented, Why the Bible? The Great Commission, The New Birth, The Church, The Identity of the Church (for Thursday night) Why We Worship as We Do, (for Friday night), The Undisputed Way; for Saturday night, the way that Cannot be wrong.)

We are enleavoring to consider any Bible question of interest. We wish the prayers and interest of all people. Come.

Mr. H. B. Glenn of Clanton Route 2 was in Clanton Wednesday attending the farmers mass meeting.

WADESONIAN THEATRE

Program for the Week

THURSDAY, OCT. 24

Lionel Barrymore and Helen Mack in "Return of Peter Grimes." Comedy, "Tricks of Trades."

FRIDAY, OCT. 25

William Powell and Luise Rainer in "Escapade." Comedies, Goofy Movies" and "Toyland Broadcast." Serial: Final Chapter of "Roaring West." First show 6:45; Second show 8:30; Midnight show Saturday night 10:00.

SATURDAY - MATINEE, SATURDAY NIGHT, OCT. 26

Ken Maynard in "Red Blood Courage." Comedies: "Goofy Movies" and "Toyland Broadcast." Serial: Final chapter of "Roaring West." Matinee 1:45; First show Saturday night 6:45; Second show at 8:30.

MONDAY and TUESDAY, OCT. 28-29

Joe E. Brown in "Bright Lights." Comdey: "Doublin in Brass."

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30

Carel Stone and Tom Brown in "Freckles." Comedy: "Scotty Finds a Home," and News Reel, Topic No. 7.

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—Mabel Solomon, Oct. 29; Raymond Bates, Rte. 7, Oct. 27; Lottie Henley, Oct. 28; Harvey Rich, Oct. 28; P. W. Echoles, Oct. 25; Dan Alread, Oct. 26 J. F. Teel, Oct. 29; S. A. Jones, Oct. 27; Vernon Jones, Oct. 28; J. L. Wilson, Oct. 25; Rober L. L. Calfee, Rte. 7, Oct. 26; Herman Gore, Rte. 4, Oct. 26; Alone Foshee, Oct. 30; Frances Rasberry, Aug. 30. Mrs. J. A. Jones, Oct. 25; Frances Scroggins, Rte. 4, Oct. 28; Mary Sue Littleton, Rte. 4, Oct. 29; Noemi Stephens, Rte. 2, Oct. 24; Mrs. Ines Stephens, Rte. 2, Oct. 18, (overlooked); Mrs. E. W. Wilson, Oct. 28; Mrs. Lester Pate, Oct. 28; Miss Rorebta Satterwhite, Oct. 28; Pauline Price, Rte. 4, Oct. 29; Mrs. John Renfroe Mullins, Oct. 24; H. Mahaffey, Oct. 24; Mrs. W. A. Willis, Oct. 28; MAPLESVILLE —Jerry Ratliffe, Oct. 28; THORSBY —Mrs. C. R. Foss, Oct. 24.

Concord - Billingsley

Rev. J. S. Johnson filled his regular appointment here Sunday and Sunday night.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Emma Williams is not improving fast. We are hoping she will get in better health soon.

Mr. T. J. Deramus visited relatives near Pleasant Hill and Haynes last Week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dickinson had as their guests during the week end their children, Mr. and Mrs. Emory George and family of Eden, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Owens of Cross Roads.

Mr. Moses Ledbetter spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pike and baby of Kingston visited relatives here during the latter part of the week.

Miss Mable Clark sent Saturday afternoon with Miss Ludie Foshee.

Miss Bessie Williams and little sister, Mary Evelyn, visited their aunt, Mrs. W. R. Ledbetter, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. W. C. Dickinson of Birmingham is visiting her son and family, Mr. C. L. Dickinson, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Williams, of near Jones, were visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mr. T. J. Deramus is spending a few days this week with his brother, Mr. A. A. Deramus, of White City.

ISABELLA CLUB MET

The Isabella Home Demonstration Club met on last Friday afternoon, October 15, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Suite, with 12 members present. The meeting was called to order by Miss Ruth Pardue, our Home Demonstration Agent. Roll call by secretary, minutes read and adoppted. Convenience of the kitchen was taken up at this meeting.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, Nev. 15, at the home of Mrs. Howard Oden, at 2 o'clock. We hope to have all members present, and some new ones to add to our roll then.—Reporter.

J. L. RUFFIN

Purina FEED Dealer

Remodeled Store — Now ready to serve trade better than ever before

Now carrying a full line of Garden and Field Seed, put out by the Associated Seed Growers.

I BUY CREAM — PAYING HIGHEST MARKET PRICE

We carry the best line of Poultry and Dairy Feed on the Market. Come in and see our Hens on Display.

FULL LINE OF GROCERIES

J. L. RUFFIN

Chickens-Eggs-Cream-Seed-Feed

Clanton, Alabama

USED CARS FOR WINTER

Now is the time to buy a good closed USED CAR for Winter. Our stock is complete—our prices right. You must see these cars to appreciate them. TERMS.

1934—Ford Deluxe Coach	1929—Ford Pick-Up Truck.
1933—Pontiac Sedan.	1930—Chevrolet 1½-ton Truck.
1934—Chevrolet Coach	1929—Dodge Truck.
1932—Chevrolet Sedan.	1931—Chevrolet 1½-ton Truck.
1929—Chevrolet Sedan.	1928—Chevrolet Truck.

Let Us Give You a PRICE

Have us adjust your carburetor for winter driving. A few minutes will do the trick. Reasonable repair prices.

HAYES Chevrolet Co.

Dick Hayes Jack Hayes

Clanton, Ala.

DATE INCOR

...but, after all is said and done, it's the cigarette itself that counts

...the question is, does it suit you?

Now, when it comes to a cigarette that will suit you . . . you want to think whether it's mild, you want to think about the taste

That Chesterfields are milder and taste better is no accident . . .

The farmer who grows the tobacco, the warehouseman who sells it at auction to the highest bidder, every man who knows about leaf tobacco will tell you that it takes mild, ripe tobaccos to make a good cigarette.

In making Chesterfields we use mild ripe home-grown and Turkish tobaccos.

Outstanding
.. for mildness
.. for better taste

© 1935, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

OLD AGE ASSISTANCE LAW

Eligibility

A person receiving an old age pension must:

1. Be 65 years of age or over.
2. Be a citizen of the United States of America.
3. Be a resident of Alabama for at least five out of the last nine years.
4. Have resided in Alabama for at least one year immediately preceding date of application, or,
5. (a) Have resided in and been an inhabitant of county in which application is filed at least one year immediately preceding application, or

(b) Have legal settlement in county in which application is filed.

By legal settlement shall be meant that any person who has resided one year or more in any county shall be considered as having legal settlement in that county until he has acquired legal settlement elsewhere or until he has been absent, voluntarily and continuously, from the county for one year, or,

(c) Have resided in State for five out of nine years and meets other qualifications of this Act but who has no legal settlement. Such person shall file application in county in which he is residing, and his assistance, when granted, shall be paid entirely from state funds until he has established legal settlement in that county.

6. Have no income, including contributions in money, subsistence or service from legally responsible relatives (*Cf. note below) or from other sources, adequate to provide reasonable subsistence in his accustomed standard of living provided:

(a) Applicant does not have an annual income of $360.00 or more.

(b) The combined income and pension of such applicant shall not exceed $360.00 annually.

(c) The pension granted any family (such as husband and wife who both may qualify for pensions) shall not exceed $360 annually.

7. Have not directly indirectly disposed of any property in order to receive a pension.
8. Have not been imprisoned upon conviction of a felony within the past ten years.

*Code of Alabama, 1923, Section 2,803. The following relatives, being of insufficient ability, are liable for the support of the poor: father, grand father, brother, mother, grand mother, child, and grand child. If such relatives fail to support those persons unable to maintain themselves, the county may make provision for such persons and then may sue the above named relatives and recover at the rate of $8.00 a month for the time that the county has supported such persons.

9. Not be the inmate of a public institution.
10. (a) Not be an inmate of a prison, jail, insane hospital, or any public correction institution at time of application, and,

(b) Have not been in such an institution for the past year.

11. (a) Have not within the past ten years deserted his wife for six months or more, or failed to support her and his children under 16 years of age without just cause. (b) Have not within the past ten years deserted her husband for six months or more, or failed to support her children under 16 years of age without just cause.

12. Submit a properly acknowledged agreement to reimburse state and county out of his estate upon his death for all assistance granted him. The total amount paid to recipients of pensions shall be a lien upon estates of such recipients subject to dower, homestead, and personal property exemptions of a surviving widow.

13. Be willing to transfer all, or any part, of his property, if county governing body wishes it, to county governing body. The net income of such property shall be paid to recipient of pension according to regulations of State Department. County governing body may sell, lease, or transfer property of recipients of pensions, as it sees fit. The county governing body shall make no charge for management of such property.

14. In the event recipient receiving a pension moves to another county, be entitled to continue to receive pension from county of residence until he has resided in new county one year, provided the two counties involved enter into an agreement in writing and both counties approve such a transfer.

Amount of Pension

1. Amount to be given in proportion to accustomed standard of living of applicant and according to regulations of State Department. (Regulations not yet fixed).
2. Amount of pension to be granted for one year only, after which time the pension may continue to be granted for periods of one year. Amount of pension may be changed or pension entirely discontinued if after investigation the county governing body is convinced that circumstances of recipient of such a pension have changed.

*This section does not apply to veterans of the War Between the States or widows of such veterans.

3. Amounts paid recipients of pensions shall not be subject to State tax and are exempt from garnishment, attachment, etc. In case of bankruptcy, the pension shall not pass to anyone acting on behalf of creditors of the recipient of such pensions.
4. No person is to receive more than $30.00 a month, except:
5. A veteran of the War Between the States, who served in either the U. S. Army or the Confederate Army and was honorably discharged from same. Such a veteran may be granted a pension of not more than $50.00 a month.

Procedure For Granting Old Age Pensions

1. Application to be filed with Director of County Department of Public Welfare. (Application blanks have not yet been printed).
2. Director of County Department of Public Welfare is to make an investigation and record of circumstances of applicant.

(a) Director of County Department of Public Welfare has authority to issue subpoenas for witnesses and may examine witnesses under oath.

3. The Director of the County Department of Public Welfare shall report on investigation and make recommendations to county governing body.
4. County governing body shall, within thirty days after Director's report, either approve, disapprove, or amend amount of pension recommended by County Director.
5. Applicant is to be notified of decision of county governing body by registered letter, return receipt requested, and mailed to applicant within five days after county governing body took action.
6. State Department of Public Welfare shall review all awards, modifications of awards, or rejections of awards of pensions as made by county governing body, and may make any decisions as to the granting of such pensions (the amount and terms thereof) as in its opinion seem justified by the facts. Such a decision shall be final and binding upon the county and the applicant. The State Department shall not increase the amount of a pension as fixed by the county governing body except:
7. In the event an applicant is dissatisfied with the decision of county governing body and appeals to State Department for review of his case. The applicant must file a written request with county governing body not more than sixty days after notice of its action. Then the county governing body shall send its certified records and data, together with that of County Department of Public Welfare, on the case to the State Department, which shall grant applicant a hearing. Upon the evidence presented, the evidence presented, the State Department shall make recommendations to the county governing body as to the award of a pension for applicant. Such recommendations of State Department shall be considered final.
8. The Director of the County Department of Public Welfare shall make such reports and furnish such information to the State Department as it may require.

Source of Pension Money

1. The State is, quarterly, to pay each county three-fourths of the amount it has been estimated the county will spend for old age pensions in the ensuing three months.
2. Two-thirds of the payments to each county by the State shall be from Federal funds alloted to the State for old age assistance. That is, one-half of each old age pension granted will be paid from Federal funds.
3. One-fourth of each pension granted will be paid by the county governing board.

NOTE—No old age pension under this law shall be paid until January, 1936.

Do the spirits of the departed walk beside us on earth and save us from disaster when danger threatens? This question is answered dramatically in "The Return Of Peter Grimm," at the Wadesonian Theatre, Night of October 24.

At the first SNIFFLE..

Quick!—the unique aid for preventing colds. Especially designed for nose and upper throat, where most colds start.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

30c double quantity 50c

Alabama's Greatest Daily Newspaper Value . . . .

The Birmingham Post

Will be sent to you by mail every week-day for ..... ONE YEAR $3.00

Or With Your Favorite Magazines

A Few of Which Are Listed Below

CLUB NO. 2

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
Southern Agriculturist, 1 year
Gentlewoman, 1 year
Country Home, 1 year
Good Stories, 1 year
The Farm Journal, 1 year

ALL SIX FOR ONLY $3.45 Value $4.50

CLUB NO. 3

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
American Magazine, 1 year
Pictorial Review, 1 year
McCall's Magazine, 1 year
Progressive Farmer, 2 years

ALL FIVE FOR ONLY $4.50 Value $6.00

USE THIS COUPON

THE BIRMINGHAM POST,
Birmingham Ala.
Gentlemen:

Enclosed find $.....for which please enter, or renew, my subscription for one year to The Birmingham Post only ( ) or Club No. ....., as above.

Name .....

Address .....

R. F. D. .....

This rate applies only to R. F. D. box holders and points not served by carriers.

Salesmen Wanted—Write circulation department, The Birmingham Post for details. You can make $3 a day.

THOU SHALT NOT PLAY DOMINOES IF IT BE SUNDAY

Just how far the ruling will go towards cramping the style of Alabama fox hunters, there is no way of telling—but the office of Attorney General, Albert A. Carmichael held yesterday that it is a violation of the law to hunt fox on Sunday in this state, even though the hunting is done with dogs only.

Furthermore, it is a violation of the law to play cards or dominoes or indulge in racing on Sunday. These prohibitions are contained in section 5,539 of the code of 1923, though it is probable that Alabamians are unaware of the fact.

Specific attention is called to it, how ever, in the opinion containing the ruling which was rendered to Sheriff A. F. Lee of Greene County, answering his inquiry as to whether Sunday fox hunting, with dogs only, is a violation of the section, which reads in part as follows:

"Certain acts prohibited on Sunday; punishment.—Any person who compells his child, apprentice, or servant to perform any labor on Sunday, except the customary domestic duties of comfort, or works of charity; or who engages in shooting, hunting, gaming, card playing, domino playing, or racing on that day. . ."

The punishment for violation of the provisions of this section is a fine of not less than $10, or more than $100; or not more than three months in jail.

In the opinion forwarded to the Greene County sheriff, the point is emphasized that "hunting" is the act prohibited. "It being of no moment that dogs only are used in the perpetration of such act."

VERBENA WINS OVER ISABELLA 7 to 0

Verbena won their fourth game of the season by defeating Isabella's big eleven by one touchdown. Isabella had one of the best lines that Verbena has played. Verbena made very little through the line. Both teams played hard making about the same number of first downs.

Verbena scored in the first quarter when Marshall Williams started on an end run and cut back off tackle for forty yards and went across the goal line standing up. There was some good blocking on this play. The extra point was made by Robert Williams on a straight buck to the right.

The outstanding players for Verbena were Marshall Williams, Reeder Cathey and Martin Waller.

Verbena has an open date for a game on October 25, and would like to fill it if some team near here has an open date then.

Jesse Frank Foshee and Grover Harkins spent the week end in Clanton.

BOB JONES

COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

God has a program and His program will "go over" sooner or later. The plan of redemption will be finally consummated. Creation will be restored to nought. We may differ about how his program will be brought to nought. We may differ about how this program will be carried on, but the Bible sets forth two essential things. First, "it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save people". In this church age the gospel is reaching the lost. Men are being saved. This church age will come to an end. Then, according to the writer's understanding of the scripture, Jesus Christ will come back to this earth literally, bodily, visibly and will reign on the earth. He will be King of Kings and Lord of Lords. There is to be a new heaven and a new earth and former things are to pass away. We Christians who are faithful to God are on the winning side. Victory may be delayed but victory is sure. All the things of the world are vanity. Temporal things will pass away. The unseen things are eternal. Victory is coming. It may be nigh.

My son, Dr. Bob Jones, Jr., acting president of Bob Jones College and head of the History Department of the institution, asked me recently if I had noticed that the Bible teaches that Abraham believed God and it was counted unto him for righteousness and then further on in the same chapter it says that Abraham asked God for a sign. The Lord demanded a sacrifice. Abraham divided the sacrifice and put it in two piles and for the rest of the day he spent his time keeping the vultures away. If we trusted God more instead of asking for a sign we wouldn't have to spend so much time fighting the vultures. The experience of the writer teaches him that practically all the trouble we have comes from the fact that we do not trust God. We rely upon the arm of the flesh or we depend upon uncertain riches. We ask God for a sign and then we spend our lives driving the vultures of sorrow awayfrom us. Remember, we Christians are to walk by faith and not by sight.

BOOKS NEEDED AT CCC CAMP

Textbooks in various subjects are needed at the CCC camp. Especially needed are texts in English, spelling, arithmetic and citizenship. Texts in almost any subject can be used.

Since the school texts for the state have been changed, the books used last year by the children no longer have any commercial value. Since this is the case, the camp authorities wish to ask the people of Clanton to give these books for the use of the CCC classes.

Books may be brought to the school by the children and turned over to the principals, and the company truck will be sent to pick up the books. Or if anyone with books to give will call 132, the company truck will be sent direct to the house to get the books.

All who give books for this purpose may be assured of the very great appreciation of the CCC boys, practically none of whom are able to buy books for the courses that they wish to study.

BOX SUPPER

There will be a box supper at Mineral Springs school, Friday night, October 25. Contests will be open to all. Everyone is invited to come. —D. P. Culp, principal.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

WANTED

1000 Gallons

Good Sorghum Syrup. For the next few days or until we buy the above amount, we will pay 25c per gallon, cash, for good Sorghum Syrup in Barrels.

CLANTON BUILDING SUPPLY CO.

J. T. Rockett :-: :-: J. D. Rockett
Clanton, Alabama

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

Services at the Congregational church as usual. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Worship service at 11 a.m.. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Henry J. Bennett, a returned missionary from Japan, and brother of Mrs. F. P. Ensminger, gave a most interesting talk on Japan at chapel Monday morning at the Institute.

Choir practice under the direction of Miss Katheryn Foss Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Congregational church.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7 o'clock at the Congregational church. Topic for the evening "Religions of Mankind."

The Ladies Guild Social will be held Thursday afternoon, October 24, at 2 o'clock with Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt. This is an important meeting and all members please be present.

Boy Scouts will meet at the Congregational church Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Boys will bring their packs for an overnight camp.

Regular services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The Chilton County Baptist Association met last Wednesday and Thursday at Liberty Hill church. Those who attended, either one or both days from Thorsby were: Rev. J. W. Jones, Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lowery, Mr. G. F. Harper, Mrs. Farmer Seales, Mr. W. H Raybon, Phares Raybon, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Johnson, Carroll Trotter, Mrs. Akins Collins, Walter Wilson, Miss Elizabeth Law, Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jackson, Marie Jackson and Helen Kendrick.

The W. M. U. quarterly meeting will be held Thursday, October 24th, at New Cedron. The morning session will be given to the ladies. The afternoon session to the young people. Miss Eva Berry, the state worker, is expected to be present.

We are very sorry to hear that Mr. Tommie Childress is ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jemison of Birmingham spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis.

Miss Edna Lee Wilder of Birmingham spent Sunday with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Osmond Dorminey of Union Grove spent the week end at home with Mrs. Dorminey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mims.

Mr. C. J. Reinhardt and daughter, Nina Fay and son, Jones, and Miss Thompson of Columbiana, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Thomason of Lay Dam spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Mr. Green Hayes met with an accident with a corn sheller at Loxley and is at present in the hospital in Mobile.

Mrs. Lois White, Mr. and Mrs. Max Douthit and Mr. Milton White came up from Phoenix City Sunday afternoon and Mrs. White returned with them.

MALARIA

Speedy Relief of Chills and Fever

Don't let Malaria tear you apart with its racking chills and burning fever. Trust to no home-made or mere makeshift remedies. Take the medicine prepared especially for Malaria—Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic gives real relief from Malaria because it's a scientific combination of tasteless quinine and tonic iron. The quinine kills the Malarial infection in the blood. The iron builds up the system and helps fortify against further attack. At the first sign of any attack of Malaria take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Better still take it regularly during the Malaria season to ward off the disease. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is absolutely harmless and tastes good.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic now comes in two sizes, 50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get bottle today at any drug store.

Your Personal

Appearance

Must be looked after always and The Modern Beauty Shoppe can aid you in this rather important item and at a cost so low, it is a small item.

SPECIALS

To introduce Miss Lee's new style permanents in our shop for the next ten days we will give our genuine $7.50 Realistic Waves for $5.00, our $5.00 Eugene and Sanders Oil Waves for $3.50, our $8.00 Patricia Oil Waves for $5.00, our $4.00 Waves for $2.50. Latest Styles in ladies and children's hair cuts. Try Miss Lee's Hair Cuts. All work done in this shop guaranteed.

The Modern Beauty Shoppe

Location upstairs over A & P Store.

PHONE 168 FOR APPOINTMENT

MODERN Equipment for MODERN HUNTERS

at the right prices

When you go hunting you want the best guns and ammunition you can buy. We have just the thing you will need—The famous Winchester, Remington and Peters Shells and Cartridges.

SHOTGUNS
Small Rifles

Bicycles For Boys For Girls $29.00 to $32.50

Big FOUR
Hardware Company

A. E. REAGAN, Mgr. - - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

W. T. PIERSON AGAINST THE BANKHEAD ACT

Editor Union-Banner:

I saw in the Union-Banner that you and the Chilton County News have up a controversy as to whether you would do away with the A. A. A. and want the citizens to vote on it.

Now, I am not a citizen of Chilton County but our Baptist church is almost on the line between Chilton and Dallas and I would vote to do away with the triple A.

If I buy a piece of land in Alabama and pay for it—say 100 acres—it is absolutely none of Bankhead's business what I plant on it. In fact I do not believe Bankhead was ever elected the last time he ran for U. S. Senator, but that the Hon. Tom Heflin was really elected in his stead and should have been so declared. But you know what the ballot box stuffers of Alabama can do for a good man. Yours for killing the A. A. A.—W. T. Pierson, Plantersville, Ala.

BASEBALL GAME SATURDAY

On next Saturday afternoon, the CCC Cubs will again play the New Cedron Lions, at the Chilton County High school. The baseball diamond of the Chilton County High school has been secured for this game, and a large crowd is expected to attend. The game will be called for 2:30 p.m.

POLK BROS. SHOWING PLYMOUTH

Polk Brothers Motor Company, local dealers for Plymouth and Chrysler cars, announce showing of the new Plymouths for 1936. "These old reliable" automobile dealers will be pleased to have you visit their showrooms and look over these new Plymouths.

Mrs. Milton White of Phoenix City spent the week end with Miss Katheryn Foss.

Miss Evelyn Jones celebrated her birthday Saturday afternoon with a few of her friends enjoying ice cream and cake with her.

Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Franklin had as their guest Sunday Mrs. Ben Franklin.

The P.-T. A. will meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 at the public school.

Mrs. Martin Peterson had as her guests Sunday Mrs. Christienson and her son and Mrs. Villadsen.

Mrs. J. E. Each had as guests Friday afternoon Mrs. Camilla Foss, Mrs. J. O. Johnson and Mrs. Marie Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive and children spent Friday night and Saturday in Birmingham with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moody and little son, Allan, of Birmingham and Miss Agnes Gerald of Guntersville spent the week end with the Sutlives.

Mrs. V. H. Sutlive had as her guests last Wednesday, Mrs. Powers and Marie.

Mrs. Donald Merchant and children spent Saturday with Mr. Tom Kemp.

Mrs. N. Laurell was pleasantly surprised last Friday by a group of friends as they returned from the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star at Montgomery. They were Mrs. J. L. Zeetner, Mrs. Hernandez, Mrs. C. Roberts and Mrs. A. B. Andrews of Birmingham.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton spent the week end with Mrs. N. Laurell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Laurell were the Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. N. Laurell.

Mr. Clifford Johnson of Dothan spent the week end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Wilson.

Mr. Robert Young of West Blocton spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Piper.

Mr. Will Holcombe of Birmingham spent Sunday in Thorsby.

Rev. Smiley and Mrs. Smiley and sons, Richard and Joe, of Birmingham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Trotter on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Collins spent Saturday in Montgomery.

Mr. Hubert Sharpe of Corinth Mississippi spent Saturday with his parents.

Miss Elizabeth Austin spent the week end in Selma. She attended the football game in Montgomery on Saturday night.

Mrs. Harry Thompson of Birmingham spent the week end at home.

Mr. Sam Pate spent a few days in Montgomery last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pate are the proud parents of a son, born October 16. He has been named George Walter.

Mrs. Paul Marcus and son, Jimmie, of Lay Dam, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pate.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hayes had as their guests last Sunday, Mrs. J. H. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson. Mrs. J. H. Collins and daughter, Hilma, are at present in Clanton with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson.

Mr. Sam F. Wolfe who formerly lived with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Collins was killed October 17 by falling off a bridge in Norfolk, Virginia. He was buried Sunday afternoon in Birmingham.

Miss Pauline Leslie spent a few days last week with Mrs. H. W. Marcus.

Miss Louise Fitzpatrick spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson spent Sunday in Dadeville. Miss Margaret Carleton returned with them to spend two weeks with her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Gamble spent Sunday with Mrs. Dudley Thompson.

Rev. Lawrence Stanley, Rev. E. W. Butler and Mr. C. M. Williams visit- at the Mountain Springs church Sunday afternoon. It was home coming day for the church.

Mrs. Jim Collins's father, Mr. L. F. Hester, died at his home in Birmingham on October 12. Mr. and Mrs. Collins and family attended the funeral. Mrs. Collins and Sarah Nell remained in Birmingham until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Davenport are spending a few days in Thorsby visiting relatives.

Miss Hazel Maddox of Enterprise spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Maddox.

Miss Naemi Turnquist spent the week end in Thorsby with relatives.

We are sorry that Herman Higgins, young son of Mr. Jim Higgins, broke his arm last Thursday.

Annual KITCH SALE

The Famous, Nationally Advertised

SELLERS KITCHEN CABINETS

Lead the way with these amazing inducements to modernize your kitchen now

✓SPECIAL PRICES! ✓SPECIAL TERMS! ✓SPECIAL TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE

✓and 50 Pieces of Dishes and Stainless Cutlery Included

free

● The dishes and cutlery do not cost you a penny extra. Every home needs and can use these extras that are yours with each SELLERS Cabinet during this Sale. The dishes—a complete service for six persons—are just the prettiest pattern you can imagine, and high quality, too—not seconds.

● As for the cutlery set, the sturdy ferrules hold the blades and tines firmly in the moulded marbelized green composition handles—they'll not come loose nor will the handles fade or discolor. Set consists of 6 each table knives and forks—a large slicing knife—a heavy butcher knife—a fine paring knife—a handy pastry server and spatula, and an unusual general purpose kitchen knife.

This SELLERS Exactly as Pictured..... 54.50
Less TRADE-IN Allowance 5.00
49.50

Including ALL EXTRAS

Keep Young with a SELLERS

The Only Cabinet Offering These Labor-Saving Features

1. Automatic Base Shelf.
2. Ant-Proof Casters.
3. NON-Jamming Drawers.
4. Genuine Steinless Porceliron Top.
5. Bakelite Pulls.
6. "Baked-On" Finishes.
7. Rust-Resisting Hardware.
8. All-Metal Flour Bin.
9. Klear-Front Curtain.
10. Large Bread Box with Cutting Board Cover.
11. Mouse and Dust-Proof.
12. NON-Warping Doors.
13. Food Chopper Block.
14. Racks and Trays on Doors.
15. Hardwood Throughout.

Every Sellers Model Regardless of Price Carries Sellers Guarantee

● Sellers is the cabinet that spells "freedom" from kitchen drudgery. You know what SELLERS means in convenience, work-saving equipment and thoroughly fine construction. It's a big, roomy, full-size cabinet with amazing storage space and the 15 Famous Features that have made SELLERS famous. Make your selection from any of the beautiful SELLERS in our stock of the newest colors and styles.

free to Every Woman Visitor

Guaranteed accurate glass measuring cup given to every woman who receives a demonstration on Sellers Cabinet during sale.

COME FOR YOURS AT ONCE!

SALE STARTS SATURDAY..!

...and continues until this special shipment is sold. We urge you to come early for such wonderful cabinets will sell on sight at the special prices we now offer!

TIFFIN FURNITU

Fox Building, South of Court House "Your Credit Is Good"

DATE INCOR

EN FURNITURE
VEEK

Everything in our store for the Kitchen is included in this ANNUAL KITCHEN SALE WEEK is SELLERS

s Shown $29.50
DE-IN Allowance 5.00
ALL EXTRAS $24.50
If You Act NOW!

re spending needless hours and wasting nergy doing useless "extra" work in an ed, unhandy kitchen which steals away th and happiness, here is the opportunity ong wished for—a chance to MODERN- kitchen with a new SELLERS work and Kitchen Cabinet . . . No other kitchen saves so much unnecessary work or helps long those countless kitchen chores that time and energy.

ow to stop wearing away your life with hen drudgery. You don't have to spend urs of every day doing needless kitchen eaves you tired and worn out when you fresh and happy to spend the evening our family or friends. A SELLERS Cabi- it all so unnecessary Talk it over with nd decide to get your SELLERS NOW can not only get it at a special price, ou can also get the EXTRAS included— l set of dishes and helpful new cutlery fer is for a limited time only DECIDE

THE VERY LATEST SELLERS
Beautiful and stylish yet serving every practical kitchen need.

A sturdy Windsor type set in charming color combinations.

DOUBLE PURPOSE STAINLESS PORCELIRON TABLE
with concealed extending leaves. Beautifully decorated.

THE NEWEST SELLERS SUITE
with clever folding leaf. Extended seats six comfortably.

The handiest of all for extra storage room —Sellers Quality Utility Closets.

A BASE for that odd space where you need extra storage and table room. Several sizes and styles.

MODERNE DROP LEAF
Just the right set for small space. Strong and sturdy.

A FINE SUITE
with automatic lock and slides.

SELLERS Quality Stainless Porceliron Work Table. Several color combinations.

Imagine This Lovely New Kitchen In YOUR Home!

SELLERS STEP STOOL in finishes to match your cabinet.

The famous SELLERS Space Saver —double the capacity of any other style.

During This Sale . . .
The 32-Piece Dinner Set
SHOWN ABOVE
Included with ANY Sellers Breakfast Set
AT NO EXTRA COST

1
DELIVERS
VERYTHING

E CO.
Clanton, Alabama

MORE THORSBY NEWS

Christian Endeavor News

The executive committe of the Christian Endeavor met Sunday afternoon, October 1, 13 for the purpose of appointing the various members of the society to serve on committees. A complete list of all the officers and their assistants are as follows: Mr. Richard Peterson, president; Miss Ruth Higgins, vice president; Miss Mary Maude Knight, secretary and treasurer; Miss Ruth Primm, corresponding secretary; Miss Juanita Each, organist; and Miss Elizabeth Glasson, sponsor.

Miss Margaret Golson chairman of the Lookout Committee, with Miss Bernice Robinson and Mr. Bernard Adams as assistants. Miss Lois Rister, chairman of the prayer meeting committee with Miss Blanche Morgan and Miss Ruth Higgins as assistants. Miss Sarah Green chairman of the Missionary Committee with Miss Lassie Rascoe and Miss Callie Nations as assistants. Miss Sarah Nell Collins, chairman of the Music Committee with Miss Juanita Each and Miss Mary Frances Duke as assistants. Mr. Leroy Peterson, chairman of the social committee, with Miss Mary Nell Pate and Mr. Robert Weems as assistants. Mr. Fred Blankenship, chairman of the press committee, with Miss Mary Annice Polk and Miss Ruth Cosby as assistants. Miss Ruth Cosby, chairman of the whatsoever committee with Mr. Hilliard Baggett and Miss Mary Christ as assistants.

Christian Endeavor News for Oct. 20

The Christian Endeavor had a very interesting program Sunday evening. The program centered around this topic, "The Chains of Prejudice." This was discussed under the following headings: "Why we Dislike people," "Groups that we dislike,", "Breaking down Prejudices", Christian Actions". The whole membership took part in the discussion. Miss Sarah Green was the leader.

Thorsby Institute News

Last Saturday night Miss Katheryn Foss gave a voice recital at Thorsby Institute. The program given was the same as the one that she gave at Piedmont in her graduating recital. She sang in German, Swedish, Italian and English. She had memorized the songs and put a great deal of expression into her singing. She sang some very difficult songs with apparent ease and accuracy of tone. Miss Foss was accompanied beautifuly by her Piedmont college class-mate, Mrs. Milton White of Phoenix City, Alabama.

Monday morning at chapel Dr. Henry J. Bennett, a brother of Mrs. F. B. Ensminger and a returned missionary from Western Japan, gave a most interesting talk on Japan. Thorsby Institute is fortunate from time to time in having a variety of speakers at the daily chapel programs.

A week ago Monday Mrs. Jamie Sutlive, mother of Mr. V. H. Sutlive, who is a teacher at Thorsby Institute, gave a talk at chapel about New London, Connecticut, where she had been with her son and family for a year. She saw many interesting things which she told about.

A week from Saturday night, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p.m., the second open meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society will be held. The program will consist of songs, plays, and living pictures from "The Simkins-Family Album". Every one is invited to come. The admission will be ten cents.

In the girls volley ball game between the clubs on Wednesday — the Pushmatahas won.

In the boys volly ball game between the clubs on Monday the Pushmatahas won.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA
9-6-35

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over
MAZAR'S STORE

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

Mrs. Ludie Espey of Birmingham spent the past week end with Mrs. T. E. Wyatt.

Mr. C. B. Huett of Verbena Route was a visitor in Clanton last Wednesday.

MUSIC APPRECIATION CLUB SPONSOR ARTISTS NOV. 8th

Two real artists, ertrude Peterson and Lucy Lewis, who have been brought to Alabama through interest and efforts of Christine McCann, will appear in Clanton on Friday, November 8th.

These two young ladies are harpists of broad note, and their effectiveness on the stage, their gracious appearance elicit the admiration of their audiences.

NELL'S Eat Shop

Located Near Clanton's Fine New Post Office

One Meal Taken Here Will Convince You of our Superiority.

We Specialize in Regular Dinners, Western Steaks, Short Orders, and Coffee that is Second to None.

We Invite You To Eat With Us.

NELL'S Eat Shop
First Ave. — Clanton

ITCHING SORE SCALY
SCALP
DRY BALD PATCHES CRUST

Most scalp troubles involve a parasite of some kind—a living organism that causes infection with resulting itch, scales, crust, thin and falling hair. Here, at last, is a treatment that not only destroys the parasite but helps repair the damage done. It is Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil and it works wonders in correcting scalp and skin troubles. Stops itch almost instantly. Softens and removes crust. Cleanses and stimulates the whole scalp, making it white and wholesome and promoting growth of new hair.

Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and is sold by all druggists at 30c and 60c with guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

THREE-WAY PAVING OF SELMA ROAD IS AUTHORIZED BY WPA

Authorization to begin work on the paving of the "three-way" road from Clanton to Selma, or rather that part of the road that is not already paved, was given Monday by Ray Crow, deputy administrator of the Works Progress Administration of Alabama. Numerous other three-way projects over the State were authorized.

CHERO BOTTLING COMPANY OFFERING CASH PRIZES

Mr. Horsley White, local distributor for Chero, the new Cola drink, announces a plan whereby two cash prizes—one for $10 and one for $5—will be given to local organizations turning in the most votes by collecting Chero crowns. Also the crowns are worth one-half cent each.

Turn to Mr. White's adv. elsewhere in this paper and get the full details of the arrangement.

JOHN JACKSON HAS STORE IN FAIVIEW COMMUNITY

Mr. John Jackson wishes his friends informed that he is now operating the store and filling station on Clanton Route 3, eight miles southwest of Clanton on the Billingsley road. He has a grist mill in connection with the other business.

Mr. Jackson extends an invitation to his friends to visit him at his place of business.

Do you want a beautiful Lawn for this Winter? Plant Yard Rye Grass now and be assured of a beautiful Lawn throughout the Winter. Let us suggest latest methods of planting and the best fertilizer to use.

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

JUST RECEIVED
A shipment of Fine WESTERN MARES. Ages from 2 to 6 years old. For SALE or TRADE. Come and see them.
R. W. LOWE
South Clanton, Ala.

MOSQUITOS

Don't let Mosquitos disturb your sleep. Use FLIT Fly Spray. We have a special close-out price for this type Also several small fly spray at a bargain.

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

RRECT

TORN PAGE

The UNION-BANNER
Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)
PHONE 63

NEXT YEAR — THE NEW DEAL

Next year, as in the past, the American people primarily will be voting not for somebody and something, not so much their likes or dislikes. The question here is not the wisdom of a theory but the existence of a fact, a fact, a condition, not readily to be changed.

The people voted their dislikes three years ago. The G. O. P. can see to it that it does not give them the chance to do it again. It will be an easier task than it was in 1932, because it is the New Deal this time that will be on the defensive The minority will have to offer something that will be more likable than what the people now have. It cannot do that by offering what has been rejected. But it can win support by offering correction of unworkable policies and pledging itself to what is fundamental to national recovery—that is, constructive, sound, trusworthy and enlightened administration. — Kansas City Star.

It is said that the up-to-date meat markets are now buying refrigerated steel safes in which to keep the pork chops over night.

It is said that the government will try to find a place for the idle jazz bands of the country. But who ever heard of a jazz band that was idle?

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

The principal topic of newspaper dispatches and of conversation is at this moment the between Ethiopia and Italy. We are being furnished with maps showing the positions of the armies and the strategic points together with the progress which is being made by the invading European forces. The Ethiopians are steadily falling back, although the campaign has barely begun and the defenders have not yet elected to make a defensive stand, and the general consensus of opinion in the United States seems to be that Mussolini has as good as won. One hears nearly every time the subject of conversation comes up that, no matter how brave the soldiers of Haile Selassie may be, it cannot be expected that their antiquated arms will stand up against Italian warships, tanks, poison gas and machine guns. Science has taken the romance out of war. The victory no longer goes to the men with the stoutest hearts but to those who have the modernest weapons and the most of them.

In view of all this, isn't it about time that we draw a lesson for Uncle Sam out of the Afro-Italian conflict? The frist thing we naturally do is to express thanks the United States is out of the mess, that because of the wisdom of many of our statesmen, we have elouded membership in the League of Nations and the World Court, and can therefore take an independent position, offering our neutral services in the cause of peace if and when the opportunity presents itself. But there is another "horrible example" for us in all of this cruel carnage and destruction. Ethiopia is comparatively defenseless so far as military equipment is concerned. She is being invaded by a foreign foe in search of her undeveloped treasures, her towns are being bombed and her women and children have suffered in the carnage. And all of this is happening because Ethiopia was not prepared for modern warfare. Haile Selassie possesses no navy; he has few machine guns, fewer tanks and airplanes, and what equipment he possesses is for the most part supposedly out of date. Therefore Ethiopia must suffer, just as China and other nations who failed to prepare for national defense have suffered.

If Ethiopia possessed a good navy there would not be so many hundreds of thousands of Italian troops in a threatening position. If she had a modern airplane fleet and other military equipment, Mussolini would not be so anxious to hunt for Ethiopian minerals. With the defenses which nature has afforded her she would be practically impregnable, or at least the game of subduing her would not be worth the candle. Now it may be answered that Ethiopia is too poor to maintain a navy big enough to defend herself, too poor to equip her armies with the latest weapons of warfare. Perhaps this is true. She could not be expected to compete with a modern Europeon power in that respect. But she is being compelled to suffer the consequences—invasion and perhaps worse.

It is here that Uncle Sam ought to draw a real lesson. We have untold natural wealth, far greater than any Ethiopian would dream of. We are separated from Europe and Asia by watery barriers in the form the Atlantic and the Pacific. But we are not too poor to provide an adequate defense for the people of the United States against predatory powers abroad, and we have the genius to prepare such defense. The experience of Ethiopia proves that adequate defense is necessary for peace. The cries of the pacifists that we ought to disarm in the interests of peace to furnish an example for the rest of the world are completely answered by the experiences of Hailie Selassie with Mussolini. Therefore the efforts of certain alleged pacifists, who would sabotage American defense, without waiting for a general disarmament which would include even Soviet Russia, is little short of treasonable. When any pacifist well intentioned or otherwise, tells you that the urge for war, just point out to him the case of Ethiopia. It is a complete answer. Since the deplorable war broke out over there many professional "pacifists" are shouting that the world has gone mad. Perhaps so. But experience shows that the best way to keep the mad dog away from America is to maintain adequate defense.

OUR FARM EXPORTS (?)

Commenting on the report of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce concerning exports and imports of farm products to the United States, the Washington, D. C. Herald says:

"While farmers are burning harvested crops to stay within arbitrary limits prescribed by the AAA, imports of wheat, oats and other crops have jumped to a record high point, U. S. Chamber of Commerce figures disclosed yesterday.

"Never before in the history of the country have foreign -agricultural products so invaded the American market. Statistics show that if the trend continues American farmers will lose not only their fast-slipping export markets, but their domestic markets as well.

"The fact that the United States with its tremendous supplies of meat products, wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye and other staples should be importing them in large quantities probably comes as a shock to many, but here are some of the figures:

"Meat products imported for the seven months ending August 1 totaling 67,202,628 pounds, compared with 32,066,458 last year.

"There were 23,269,074 bushels of corn imported compared to 176,659, and 10,084,107 bushels of oats compared to 173,468. There were 7,907,760 bushels of rye and 4,768,668 bushels of barley imported, according to the Deartment of Commerce, while the same source discloses neither of these crops was imported for the same period in 1934."

All along the line there has been an increase in our form products importations. In 1934 we imported no tallow and no cottonseed oil. This year we have brought in over 176,000,000 pounds of tallow and more than 122,000,000 pounds of cottonseed oil. Importation of cattle hides has nearly doubled while we have brought in 66,000,000 pounds of peanut oil against 700,000 pounds in 1934 an increase of more than 1,000 per cent."

Of course the freetraders may argue that the amount of our importations is small compared with our total use. Yet they used to talk about the very great importance of the 5 per cent of products we exported as compared with the 95 per cent absorbed in the home market. So they would have you believe that exports are very important but that imports are unimportant in their effect on the producers. There is something screwy about this kind of argument.

The fact is that our favorable balance of trade has been steadily shrinking. If we consider invisible exports of money, such as that spent by tourists abroad and that sent home to relatives by aliens in the United States, the fact is that the balance is against us. What becomes of Secretary of State Hull's argument that we must lower our tariff and get more imports to have more exports because our "favorable" balance of trade is too large? Your guess is as good as anybody's.

There is something almost pathetic in the situation with the State Department lowering tariffs by agreement in an effort to get us large exports while the AAA is seeking to cut the size of our crops until we have nothing to export. But any pity should be expended on the American producer not on the "statesman". In this contest of cross purposes Secretary Wallace seems to have won the first round, sided as he had been by the weather. He has been able to beat Mr. Hull to it because it has been brought that the farmer has nothing to export, and not even enough for the home market, so that our agricultural imports are increasing by leaps and bounds.

Of course farm prices are high, but the foreign farmer is benefitting the most because he is selling what the American farmer does not possess to sell. And the housewife is footing the bill with the processing tax added for good measure.

IS THE CONSTITUTION DEAD?

If there be those who have been thinking that interest in the Constitution of the United States is dead they had better reconsider the evidence. The violence done the federal charter, either directly or indirectly, or proposed for the future, by the New Dealers has awakened a tremendous interest in the historic document, a discussion of its meaning and a purpose to study its revisions.

This awakening has been manifest all over the nation, and was reflected in the oratory which characterized Constitution day recently, in resolutions adopted, in discussion of the subject in high school and college classes, and in a general giving of attention to governmental construction and department responsibilities.

The State Journal wondered just how much interest there was in the Constitution hereabouts. As a sort of feeler and as a contribution to good government, this newspaper printed several thousand copies of the entire text of the Constitution, and offered them for distribution, hardly daring to predict whether or not they would be called for. But the copies were eagerly sought by citizens in all wakes of life in and around Columbus, and additional tens of thousands of copies were printed and called for.

The State Journal takes this incident as indicating clearly that the Constitution is not dead, that consideration of it is not passe, and that there is an intelligent determination that it shall be preserved and protected against the assaults of those who would do it violence.—Ohio State Journal.

Beverage rooms will be permitted to provide their patrons with potato chips, which suggests that the Ontario Liquor Commission is not blind to the interests of agriculture.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

51,000 CORPSES

In the eighteen months that ended June 20, 1935, 51,200 persons met death in motor crashes in this country. More than 1,300,000 were injured.

The bare statistics, though provoking as they are, cannot give an adequate picture of the horror of major automobile accidents. Figures cannot express broken bones—mangled bodies—crushed Skulls—obliterated features—decapitated bodies—and all the rest of the results of fatal motor crashes. Nor can figures picture the tragedy of parentless children and broken-hearted dependents of the victims of recklessly driven cars.

In a recent article in Readers' Digest, F. C. Furness wrote: "A first-class massacre is only a question of scale and numbers—seven corpses are no deader than one. Each shattered man, woman or child who went to make up the 36,000 corpses checked up last year had to die a personal death."

That is worth thinking about next time you take the wheel of your car. Driving at excessive speeds may, if you get away with it, save you ten minutes in a fifty-mile run. If you don't get away with it, it may mean your death, or the death of an innocent party. Passing on hills and curves, weaving through thick traffic and taking other chances may save you a minute or two more—or it may mean a crushed body on the pavement, its bones twisted and broken, its eyes staring and sightless.

It's up to you—to everyone who drives a car. Is recklessness worth its horrible cost?

MAN IN THE MOON

NEW COTTON PLAN

We wonder just how the new proposed plan for controlled production cotton is going to suit the masses. Right off, I imagine there will be some who will kick at the new plan, but I do not believe there will be as many kickers at this plan as there are at the present one.

The new plan calls for three amendments to the present plan. (1) That the production allotment be based on the number of dependents on a farm—hence, a big family would be allowed to grow more tax free cotton than a small one. In this manner the production of cotton would be based on population, and not on numbers of acres, or past production records. I believe this to be a more fair division, and there certainly would be no chance for graft in production allowance, as is the case now.

(2) That the penalty for over-production be along the same lines as that in other lines of endeavor. It is a potent fact that the tax on cotton over the production allowance figure is nothing more nor less than an income tax. Now, in the case of the cotton farmer, this tax amounts to 50 per cent of the overproduction, while with salaried people, wage earners, industrial workers, etc., this income is only a small part of that collected from farmers.

(3) That an embargo be placed on all imports of raw cotton, manufactured cotton goods, and all by-products of cotton until the domestic cotton production is exhausted.

It is pointed out by advocates of this new plan that if officials should find that such a production program would cause an overproduction of raw cotton, a pro-rata reduction could be brought about, with the peg-price raised by the same percentage as the quota, allowing the farmer an income commensurate with his needs, yet, removing the problem of a surplus.

We think this a fair plan. There may have to be further details worked out, such as the amount allowed per family member, the peg price per pound, etc., but in the main, the idea is a sound and workable one. The plan is being submitted to Sen. John H. Bankhead, originator of the present program.

THE OPENING GUN

Two years ago we were told by Democrats over the country that President Roosevelt would not have to even stage a speaking tour in order to be reelected in 1936. But it seems times have changed in these two short years.

Various elections on the Atlantic seabord have proved to both Democrats and Republicans alike that this section of the country has gone thru a complete reversal of opinion. In the New England states these elections have shown Reublicans taking over the reins of government from Democrats who were carried in on the giant Democratic wave of 1932.

Of course this has been quite heartening to the national Reublican party, and, in like manner, the Democrats have read their handwriting on the wall in this section. Consequently, Mr. Roosevelt did not open his new campaign there, as he did in 1932. That year he was quite confident of the support of the eastern part of the country before he even fired a gun in the mid-west and far west. Now, knowing the futility of any of his efforts in the east, he has shot his opening gun in the mid-west "America's bread basket".

Recently he made a speaking tour through the middle section of the country, whooping it u pfor the AAA. It was not an official campaign tour, yet it was so recognized by both parties. Reports from Democratic quarters were that his speeches were well attended, and received a warm reception everywhere. However, newspapers from the very section where he appeared had an entirely different story to tell. They, too, reported good attendance, but declared that farmers came in to hear the president and judge for themselves if he had anything new to offer in the way of a farm program, and finding none, were quite disappointed.

So, with the east a Republican concession, the mid-west the same big question mark it was before 1932, and the far west chafing under the restraints and restrictions of the New Deal and threatening to jump back into the Republican fold, at the slightest provocation, the picture seems to leave only the South as firmly safe for the Democrats, and even that has crumbling edges, with Kentucky and one or two other states apt to slide over on the Republican side of the ledger.

THIS BREATHING SPELL

After about three years of monarchistic control, the president only recently declared a "breathing spell". He said that he believed that his New Deal had accomplished its purpose, and that the nation was now due a breathing spell. Some Democratic commentators think the president's term was not so apt, as the term "breathing spell" leaves the impression that heretofore the nation has been under some kind of pressure.

That is just what we, as well as many other Republicans, have been contending, that we were under unwarranted pressure. And we have contended all along that if this pressure could be removed, business would pick up of its own accord faster than it was doing under pressure.

What gives us a laugh, though, is the turn that Democratic editors took in giving the president credit for "allowing" the breathing spell. It seems that they look on it just as they would if the warden of a prison should suddenly go soft-hearted and decide to allow all prison inmates a day of rest—giving us something extra, as it were. Really, what the president did was only to relinquish what little iron rule the supreme court had left him when it turned thumbs down on the NRA. He merely allowed the country to go back under the same style as it was before his high-handed NRA went into effect, which, as stated before, we contended right along would be best after all, and would have to be done in the long run. In short, Mr. Roosevelt's breathing spell was a hard loser's give-up shot. Now, the term "breathing spell" denotes more tribulation of the kind served in the past to be served in the future, but we do not believe Mr. Roosevelt will try anything so high and mighty again this term. The time for reelection is too near, and, too, he has had proved to him that he is not going to be able to get away with his autocratic tactics any way. Therefore, he has tried to save his face as far as possible, and has "allowed" this breathing spell. We predict it will be a long breathing spell.

Statistics given out since the breathing spell began prove our contention that we are better off without the NRA—trade figures go to prove it. And between the reversal of public opinion regarding the New Deal since the public has had a chance to realize the futility of it all, and the bomb shells the supreme court has lighted beneath these high and mighty New Deal ideas, the whole New Deal is proving to be the colossal flop we predicted all the while.

HOW FARMERS FEEL

Nothing makes a person as mad as to be made to feel that someone "looks down upon" him. Ever since I have been knee high to a duck I have heard fun poked at rural people—not to their faces, mind you, for these sturdy sons of the soil will take a poke at the nose of any smart guy who would be so indiscreet. But the fact remains that, for the most part, city and town people seem to feel some kind of superiority over their rural cousins. Why this should be the case I cannot imagine—I know only that it is true.

In the controversy which has held forth for some time, and is still a moot question, concerning whether farmers are better off now than under the old cotton plan, I have heard many discussions of the needs of farmers. Many times I have heard merchants—Clanton Merchants, too—say that farmers should not have to buy anything to eat. Nothing makes me madder than to hear some merchant who depends on the trade of country people for his own living break out with an assertion of this kind. Take away the purchases of foodstuffs in Clanton which the rural people buy, and about half the food stores in Clanton would have to close their doors.

There are Clanton merchants who have the brass to say that farmers should raise all they eat, and, if you press them, they will leave with you an impression that they believe that most any old kind of clothes are good enough for farmers. In my estimation, the rankest backwoodsman has a right to as good food, as good clothes, and as nice a home as his city cousin. His children have just as much right to a good education as the child in town. He has as much right to drive an automobile as anybody, no matter what his vocation. And, in nine cases out of ten, if the snickering "jelly bean" city boy had to work for his money as hard as the farmer does for his, the farmer would dress the best on Sunday. The next time you hear some "city slicker" make a wise crack about the appearance of a farmer, you can safely put it down in your little book that the farmer carries the difference in his head, and not on his back.—Man in the Moon.

POOR ETHIOPIA

The struggle between Italy and Ethiopia is now on. We have it from the Italian propagandists themselves that what their government is seeking to do is to civilize Ethiopia. It seems that that country is in a backward and barbaric situation which needs some enlightening treatment from a civilized state. Besides, Ethiopia is said to have some valuable mineral deposits which might be used to enlarge Mussolini's place in the sun. For years the Fascist dictator has been preaching bigger and more active Italian families. Now he discovers that Italy proper is so small there is no place to locate the increasing population. So he has set about civilizing Ethiopia to make a little room for surplus Italians.

The civilizing treatment may be a little rough, but Mussolini and his generals feel that it is bound to succeed. It consists of approaching the Ethioians with mustard gas, tanks, heavy artillery, bombing planes and other instruments of advancing culture. Since most of the Ethiopians are so barbarous they don't ever wear shoes, we are informed that the invaders plan to teach them a lesson by scattering over the sidewlaks a chemical which will burn holes through the soles of a naked foot, even an Abyssinian foot.

The rest of the world in properly horrified by the adventure in advancing European civilization. Great Britain is especially horrified and France doesn't like it either. Hitler is saying nothing because he seems still waiting to see what kind of language will be the most profitable.

England and France have a right to feel horrified. For several generations they practiced the same sort of civilizing on poor ignorant natives that the Italians are now using. By getting in early they were able to grab off enough territory to take care of their needs indefinitely. They found that it was no longer necessary to go civilizing with shotgun and bayonet so in recent years they have given up the practice—especially since there doesn't seem to be much left that is worth the effort. They are properly chagrined that Mussolini is doing something which they outgrew more than a dozen years ago. Great Britain is chagrined some more because Mussolini's drive might endanger some of her Egyptian interests and the Suez Canal route. France is chagrined further because Mussolini has almost succeeded in putting her on the spot. She o-kayed the Italian adventure some months ago in return for a promise of help at home, and then found that John Bull, another of her assistants, didn't like it so well.

So, taken all in all, there is a tremendous uproar. Mussolini is going ahead to shoot the barbarians full of civilization and Great Britain and France are chagrined because he has "stolen their stuff," so to speak, although the copyright seems to have expired years ago.

If the thing keeps up and Mussolini goes fare enough and fast enough the European propagandists will do their best to involve Uncle Sam seriously against Italy in the "interest of the poor Ethiopians.' But if a compromise can be arranged the fight will be localized and it will all end in Haile Selassie's paying the bill, both to Mussolini and John Bull. Of course this may be expensive but it costs money to be civilized.

In the meantime let us hope that Uncle Sam conitnues to mind his own business.

Scientists of the University of Southern California have learned how to extract sugar from dahlias. They say a lot of girls on Broadway who are not scientists, long ago learned how to extract sugar from daddies.

After December 1 a scofflaw will be a fellow who eats bootleg potatoes.

Japanese crowds march the streets crying: "Down with Italy!" and "Rescue Ethiopia!" It is a happy idea. How about letting Japan do the rescuing?—Toronto Mail and Empire.

One of our prairie states friends says that the weather in his neighborhood is the most unreliable thing on record. Oh yeah? Did you ever take a fling at the stock market?

With the lightest receipts since 1872 at Chicago the other day, hog prices dropped fifty cents a hundred because of poor consumer demand. Which shows how the housewife loves the processing tax.

In Lithuania a lot of people stood in line all night in order to get into the polls and vote. They wouldn't do that in this country unless they were trying to get a seat to the world series.

On Commercial Street today five men were laughing at a weak minded man. And yet the w. m. m. was the only man of the six who had paid his taxes.—Atchison Globe.

POTATO NULLIFICATION

One of the AAA's biggest problems has been the potato control legislation passed by the last Congress. Unheralded and unknown to most of us, it burst across the sky with meteoric brilliance when a few enterprising newspaper correspondents published in their periodicals the fact that it regimented every man who grew a few bushels of spuds, provided for potato stamps, and against potato bootlegging, and was designed to raise the price of the humble tuber to the point where it could look porkchops and bacon in the face without blushing.

So great was the outcry from small potato raisers and householders already bedeviled by the high price of flour and pork products that there was intimation it might be impossible to enforce the regulations because Senator Long had filibustered an appropriation bill to death. Some friends even intimated that the passage of the potato regulation act was a Republican plot to put the Brain Trusters "in bad" with the housewife. Later it developed that the act was sponsored by a true and loyal Democratic statesman from North Carolina.

But at any rate the agitation against potato regimentation had its effect and newspapers of October 3, quoted Secretary Wallace that "I am going to do all I can to avoid enforcing the Potato Control Bill." Later he is said to have added, "I've merely indicated my own attitude."

But the good secretary reckoned without all his host. The potato moguls from every state which boasts of potato moguls assembled in Washington in a belligerant mood. Their expenses were paid not by the AAA or any other branch of the government. They dug down in their own jeans and bought their own tickets because they were angry and wanted to do something about it.

The session in a department of agriculture edifice was a stormy one. The potato moguls were really sore about the statement credited to Mr. Wallace that he would do what he could to avoid enforcing the potato bill. Late in the session Secretary Wallace is said to have appeared and made a "clarifying statement but only after the potato barons had intimated that the AAA had been bluffed out of its potato regulation plans by the Liberty League or Congressman "Jim" Wadsworth who had announced that he would raise as many potatoes as he pleased.

Secretary Wallace is said to have smiled beneficiently to the assemblage and to have explained that his personal attitude in no way altered the enforcement of "Compulsory legisaltion." It is said that he also suggested a referendum to find out just how much support the potato act has among the spud growers of the country.

The significant thing is not the division of opinion among potato growers on the regulation law. It lies in the fact that the secretary of agriculture proposes according to the press, to do what he can to avoid enforcing the law. Is it an intimation that he desires to render aid and comfort to potato bootleggers or that he thinks there are more votes to be saved in not enforcing the act than votes to be gained in enforcing it?

The time was when people had an old fashioned idea that when Congress passed laws it was the duty of the executive department to enforce them. Mr. Wallace is a very important member of the executive department. But evidently the impression that laws were passed to be enforced belongs to the horse and buggy days. If we are going to have a referendum why not let the potato growers vote on whether or not they want to have the law enforced. What is a little thing lake the constitutional rights of Congress among friends?

And to think what that sturdy Democrat Andy Jackson said and did about nulification!

CLEVELAND WARNED

"No thoughtful American," Cleveland said, "can shut his eyes to the truth, that when our people regard their government as the source of individual benefit and favoritism, and when their interest in it is measured by the extent to which they hope to realize such benefit and favoritism, our popular government is in dangerous hands and its entire perversion is alarmingly imminent.

"When, therefore, men in high places of trust, charged with the responsibility of making and executing our laws, not only condemn, but flippantly deride cheapness and economy within the homes of our people, and when the expenditures of the government are reckless and wasteful, we may be sure that something is wrong with us and that a condition exists which calls for a vigorous and resentful defense of Americanism by every man worthy to be called an American citizen."

We can look back now and wish that we had taken heed of the Cleveland warnings instead of turning the government into a gift shop and ridiculing old fashioned ways of living and buying. Today those who tried to follow the simple precepts are the backbone of the country, suporting hordes of free spenders and wasters.—Meridian, Conn., Journal.

The sum and substance of George Bernard Shaw's advice to Haile Selassie is, "Knuckle under to Mussolini and hang on to your job." What a sad joker that bird turned out to be. —Detroit Free Press.

An Oklahoma girl advertised for a husband and got him. The total expense for advertising, wedding outfit, etc., was $11. He died within a year, leaving her an insurance policy of $10,000. And yet some people claim that it doesn't pay to advertise.—Altoona, Kansas, Tribune.

AAA leaders are said to be trying to find a way to avoid enforcing the potato regulation act. But what is a little matter of law-enforcement among friends, anyhow? That goes back to the horse and buggy age.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of October 20, 1910.

Hon. John M. Atkins of Randolph county, is candidate for Congress from the fourth Alabama district, on the Republican ticket.

Speaking over the county in behalf of the Republican candidates are: Hon. E. E. Calloway of Coosa County, A. C. Smith and Judge L. H. Reynolds.

Mrs. J. W. Stanfield and daughter, Alice, have returned from Birmnigham after spending several days there.

Mrs. Patrick Smith and Mrs. Frank Crichtook in the fair in Montgomery last week.

Married this week—H. E. Cost and Miss Lillie Mae Hosey, C. J. Henley and Miss Juel Thomas, W. L. Downing and Miss Flossie Mims.

DATE INCOR

NEW and USED CARS

Our 1936 Dodge and Plymouth Cars are now on display and we would be pleased to have you look these over and let us make demostration before you buy. We also have a good line of used cars.

One—1935 Model V-8 Coupe.
One—1934 V-8 Ford Four-Door Sedan.
Two—Dodge Sedans.
Three—1929 Chevrolet Coaches.
One—1934 Model Plymouth Two-Door Sedan.
One—1933 Model Chrysler Coupe.
One—1932 Chrysler Four-Door Sedan.
One—Whippet ton and half truck.
One—Chevrolet Truck.
One 1935 Dodge Demonstrator low mileage.
One—1935 Four-Door Plymouth Sedan Demonstrator.

All the above cars are in good condition and priced to move. See Us B-4 You Buy.

Salesmen:

E. A. DELOACH,
H. W. DAVIS,
SEYMOUR REYNOLDS, WITH

Smith Motor Co.

Dodge and Plymouth Dealers
Clanton, Alabama

West End Now Has an Auto, Junk or

Used Car Business

—x—

I have purchased the Auto, Junk or Used Parts Business of R. V. Watson (better known as the Tom Glass Stock) in Clanton, and I have moved this stock to my place in West End, where I will have more room for Junk Cars.

—x—

We will have a good mechanic, and will be glad to do your work, as well as sell you parts.

We Sell, Swap And Buy

Come On, Boys, to

C. Ray Glenn

West End Clanton, Ala.

CENTER HILL NEWS

We are thankful for the little shower Sunday morning—was enough to settle the dust at least.

Am sorry to say we have some in our community who are sick: Mrs. V. T. Cobb is in a very bad condition. Mildred Cobb is still confined to her home, though not in bed all the time. J. O. Cobb, who was sick part of last week, is out again. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lovis Thomas, who has scarlet fever, is improving. Grandma and Mary Price are both improving.

Those from this church attending the association last week were Mr. J. E. Cobb, Mrs. B. L. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Collum, Misses Irene Lesley, Mable Cobb and Mr. Vester Rodgers. All reported an inspiring association.

Mrs. J. C. Seay, and daughter, Nola Mae, and Mr. Frank Lesley spent Saturday night and Sunday with the family of W. I. Lesley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carey and children dined with the family of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cobb Sunday.

Some from here attended the singing at Mars Hill Sunday afternoon and say they hear some of the best singing they had heard in a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw spent Sunday with Mrs. V. T. Cobb.

Miss Lila Ellison of Sylacauga was here during the week end visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Webb, and friends.

Miss Berney Dean Cobb was the dinner guest of Miss Mable Cobb Sunday, and on Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cobb, Mable and Benny Dean visited the poor farm.

Mr. and Mgs. John Davis of Jemison visited Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Corey Sunday afternoon.

Others visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Cobb Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cobb and children of Oak Grove.

Mr. T. M. Miller is in Tarrant City for a few days this week.

Misses Pauline and Irene Lesley are visiting friends and relatives in Calera and Longview.

Every body remember next Sunday afternoon is our regular singing. Be sure to come and bring your new books.

Mr. and Mrs. William Price spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Matthews.

Some from here attended church at Jemison Sunday night.

On last Wednesday night we had a wonderful prayer meeting led by Miss Irene Lesley. Everybody is invited to attend our prayer meeting every wednesday night at 7 o'clock. Surely we can give God an hour of our time through the week if He gave all of His for us.

Come to Sunday school each Sunday at 9:30 o'clock. Believe you will get a reward for your efforts.

Make your plans for another planting of Fall and Winter Turnip Seed immediately after the next rain. You should also make plans to plant Austrian Peas and Vetch, following a rain.

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

East View News

Our Sunday school is doing nicely now. We had 30 present last Sunday. Our Bible class is meeting every Sunday now, instead of once each month. Everybody come on and lets keep it growing.

Several from here attended the home coming at Mt. Springs Sunday.

Miss Marie Cox, who has been ill for some time was able to return to school Monday.

Mr. Lee Nelson from Tallassee was a week end visitor here.

Mrs. Sam Gray and Mrs. Bill Nelson visited Mrs. Spear Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. L. and Miss Bessie Prickett visited Mrs. Bill Nelson Monday.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Gov. Bibb Graves has proclaimed the week of Nov. 10 to 16 as "National Education Week.'

Work of remodeling and building an extension to the Gadsden Postoffice will get under way next month.

The McKinnon Hardwood Company has established a plant for the manufacture of shuttle stock near Greenville.

John Hare, member of the Talladega Police Department for the past 14 years, has been named acting chief of police.

The number of workers on WPA and other federal emergency projects in Alabama is expected to reach 52,000 by Nov. 1.

Gov. Bibb Graves has granted permanent paroles to 21 state convicts, but denied executive clemency to more than 15 others.

Following a plea of guilty, Addison Milligan, 41-year-old Morgan County farmer, was given a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Lorene Daniel near Hartselle, July 8.

The model Tennessee Valley Authority-Lauderdale County electric kitchen, installed in the basement of the courthouse at Florence, will be opened to the public Oct. 26.

Checks for $7098.54 have been sent to each of the 67 Alabama counties by Comptroller Charles W. Lee as their share of the state six-cent gasoline tax for September.

Taking a tip from the town's name, the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Industry, are industriously cutting teeth—at the tender age of three weeks.

Luke Mathews, merchant, and Sydney Pritchett, Autauga farmer, were convicted in Federal District Court at Montgomery on 11 counts of conspiracy to pass and obtain counterfeit money.

The Birmingham Rotary Club presented Col. D. M. Weakley, superintendent of the Alabama Boys' Industrial school, with a sound-movie projection set at its weekly luncheon recently.

Rear Adml. Richard E. Byrd will reveal his latest Antarctic adventures through a movie and in his own words, when he makes two personal appearances Nov. 7 at Birmingham Municipal Auditorium.

The agricultural committee of the Alabama Bankers Association has issued a statement urging farmers to plant more Winter legumes in all sections for soil improvement and general maintenance of fertility.

Atty. Gen. A. A. Carmichael has ruled that taxpayers who receive income after Jan. 1, 1933, as a recovery of a bad debt charged off prior to that date, owe an income tax on the money to the state of Alabama.

Approval of $2,545,206 for additional WPA projects in Alabama has been announced by Gov. Bibb Graves following receipt of information to this effect from his personal representative in Washington, Orville Rush.

Limestone County faces the smallest cotton crop in many years because of the severe drouth. Local cotton experts predict the crop will be pushed to reach 27,500 bales as compared with 42,500 bales three years ago.

The Farm Credit Administration, through the state extension service, has announced a new program whereby 4-H Club members and future farmer workers may qualify for loans to finance crop and livestock projects.

Efforts to bring new industries to Muscle Shoals took on new life with the announcement that Muscle Shoals City had been granted a loan of $32,000 with which to modernize and expand its Tennessee Valley Authority power system.

A dividend of $2,107.04 was declared at the stockholders meeting of the Silverhill Farmers Association of Robbersdale. The report showed that more than 160 members of the association will be benefitted by this distribution of dividends.

Officially proclaimed by Gov. Graves "Parent-Teacher Week" is being observed in Alabama, Oct. 20-26, under the leadership of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers.

To find a better market for hogs, the Houston County Swine Breeders Association has been formed, with headquarters in Dothan, where sales will be held at regular intervals.

Gov. Bibb Graves has granted a 90-day parole to Otis Goocher, youthful state convict sentenced to life for the alleged gangland slaying of Fountain Fletcher, in Elmore County, in 1933.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Garnett, of Prattville, visited Mrs. Joe Higgins one day last week.

CCHS LOSES TO TALLASSEE 18-6

The boys of Chilton County High School lost a hard fought game in the first night game they have been privileged to participate in.

Although outweighed in almost every department and playing under adverse conditions the local boys were a determined group that fought a good fight.

In the first quarter the heavier Tigers from Tallassee were able to push over two touch downs. Our boys came back in the second quarter and made a good showing by not letting the Tallassee team score in this nuarter. C. C. H. S. boys tried their aerial attacks with some success, and were able to gain consistently through Tallassee's line.

In the third quarter Tallassee received another break to pave the way for their other touchdown.

The local boys, on a beautiful off tackle play, were able to chalk up their first and only touch down due to the good blocking and swift feet of Ermon Johnson.

The outstanding players for Clanton on offense were: Ermon Johnson, "Lefty" Robinson and Durwood Williamson. The defense play was for the first time under par in the line.

The line-up on both sides was as follows:

Clanton	No.	Lbs
Gillespie, L. E.	23	135
Mims, M., L. T.	26	155
Jones, L. G.	31	146
Hogan, C.	30	150
Reynolds, R. G.	32	150
Reynolds R. T.	28	156
Parrish, R. E.	34	150
Williamson, Q. B.	25	155
Ware, H. B.	40	155
Marler, H. B.	37	135
Robinson, F. B.	24	160

Tallassee	No.	Lbs
Thompson, L. E.	10	145
McCay, L. T.	19	170
Moon, L. G.	6	135
Oliver	11	170
Mullins, R. G.	19	155
Dennis,	15	174
Little, R. T.	16	160
Little, R. E.	20	150
Goldenn, Q. B.	9	150
Steadham, H. B.	22	168
Dunn, H. B.	5	155
Harrelson,	8	150
Baker,	3	135
Osborn, F. B.	21	170
Graham	13	150

ALABAMA MILLS SCHOOL ORGANIZES A P.-T. A.

On last Saturday morning, October 19, at 9 a.m., twelve parents met at Alabama Mills school with Miss Icie Bell Cobern, Mrs. Wright and Miss Manning and organized a P.-T. A.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Johnnie B. Garnett; vice-president, Mrs. Thomas Reynolds; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Other Hansen. The new president appointed the following committees: Program, membership and social.

It was decided that the next meeting will be held on November 16th, at 9 a.m. Every parent is urged to attend.

HOSPITAL NEWS

K. D. Hayes of Jemison is in Central Alabama Hosital suffering from knife wounds.

R. I. Varden has been at the hospital for some time with a broken hip, but is improving.

Mrs. Leon Mills and son, Cecil, of Billingsley, are in the hospiatl for treatment.

Mrs. J. W. Scott of Jemison was admitted last Wednesday, suffering from a broken hip.

George Popwell was admitted last Thursday, suffering from internal injuries received in a truck wreck, but is improving steadily.

Louella Willis underwent an operation for appendicitis last Sunday night.

Eugene Dennis of Mt. Creek Route 2 was operated on October 16th.

Margaret and Hazel McNair had tonsils removed last Tuesday.

Hiawatha Watson, colored, is suffering from a knife wound.

Alice Kennebrew is still in the hospital with a gunshot wound in her foot.

T. C. Hawkins was admitted for two days this week for medical treatment.

Louis Vines was brought to the hospital last Saturday with a broken arm.

Mrs. Robert Fortenberry and baby of near Calera went home last Friday.

POPLAR SPRINGS

Sunday school was very good Sunday. There were not so many in number but the lesson was fine. B. Y. P. U. was good, both in attendance and the program. There were several visitors which we are always glad to have and welcome you back.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Dr. Dean from Eldridge Academy is expected to be there on Saturday.

Sunday morning singing will begin at 9:00 o'clock and will sing until 10 o'clock, with Sunday school following. Singing and preaching after Sunday school.

There will not be any singing here Sunday afternoon on acount of an all day singing at Liberty Hill. Come Sunday morning and help us. We have new books and are expecting a real singing. Come to all services—we need your help.—Reporter.

MAMIE EARL CLECKLER

We have been informed of the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Cleckler, whose name was Mamie Earl. She was born October 7th and died October 16th. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved parents.

Mrs. J. W. Cagle of Mitchell Dam was a visitor to Clanton last Wednesday.

Clanton Marinello Beauty Shop

Specials, Thurs. Fri. & Sat.

Shampoo and Set	35c
Manicure	35c
Eyebrow Arch and Dye	50c
Permanent Waves	$1.00 to $7.50

By Students

Shampoo and Set	25c

All other work half price

Phone 78 - - - - Clanton

THANK YOU!

for the welcome you gave our New Station

We are grateful indeed to the many persons who have visited our New Super-Service Station since its opening Saturday, October 12th. It proves to us that you are going to support us in our effort to give you better service than you have ever had before. Night or day, at any hour, we want you to call on us for any service that an up-to-date, modernly-equipped Super-Service Station can render.

We are handling the well-known

Sinclair Products

You will find this brand of gas and oil the finest you have ever used. Drive in to our station (formerly Dief's Station) and your car will be promptly and properly serviced at all times.

Washing--Greasing--Servicing

We have the products, the equipment and the personnel to give all types of service. We are offering a full 24-hour service for Gas or Tires, anywhere. If your car needs Washing, Greasing, Oil Changed, Tires Checked, Water in the Battery, or other items, we are prepared to do it right at a reasonable price. Your business is always appreciated, and you are invited to call on us at any time.

McKee Brothers

Super Service Station

John W. McKee, Mgr. - - - - - Thos. D. McKee

RRECT POOR ORIGINAL

New Bus Line

CLANTON TO SELMA
TWO ROUND TRIPS DAILY

LEAVES CLANTON 8:00 A. M.
ARRIVES

Maplesville	8:32 A.M.
Stanton	8:42 A.M.
Plantersville	8:56 A.M.
Vine Hill	9:06 A.M.
Jones	9:14 A.M.
Fremont	9:22 A.M.
Burnsville	9:34 A.M.
Selma	9:55 A.M.

LEAVES SELMA 6:00 A. M.
ARRIVES

Burnsville	6:18 A.M.
Fremont	6:30 A.M.
Jones	6:38 A.M.
Vine Hill	6:46 A.M.
Plantersville	6:56 A.M.
Stanton	7:10 A.M.
Maplesville	7:20 A.M.
Clanton	7:35 A.M.

LEAVES SELMA 3:00 P. M.
ARRIVES

Burnsville	3:18 P.M.
Fremont	3:30 P.M.
Jones	3:38 P.M.
Vine Hill	3:46 P.M.
Plantersville	3:56 P.M.
Stanton	4:10 P.M.
Maplesville	4:20 P.M.
Clanton	4:55 P.M.

LEAVES CLANTON 5:00 P. M.
ARRIVES

Maplesville	5:32 P.M.
Stanton	5:42 P.M.
Plantersville	5:56 P.M.
Vine Hill	6:06 P.M.
Jones	6:14 P.M.
Fremont	6:22 P.M.
Burnsville	6:34 P.M.
Selma	7:00 P.M.

THE SILVER STREAK BUS
UNION BUS TERMINAL PHONE 64

Gerald Guests Entertained With Dance

The young High school and College set of Clanton were entereained Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gerald, when their daughter, Celia, and son, Lawrence Jr. were hostesses at a dance. This occasion was in honor of their week end visitors, Miss Helen Nix, of Maplesville, and Bill Tucker, of the university.

The spacious apartments of the home were converted into one, and baskets of dahlias, placed at intervals, made an attractive setting. Here the young couple enjoyed dancing with music furnished by the radio and piano.

Those present were: Misses Dixie Johnson, Helen Moore, Mary Courtney Jones, Ruth Gowan, Eloise Rasberry, Elizabeth and Pauline Hogan, Sara Lawrence, Gertiwyl Vinson, Nell Ress Mullins, Jane Pitts, and Celia Gerald, and Messrs. Phillip Nelsn, Emmett Parrish, James Parrish, Joe Moore, Morris Popwell, Bill Tucker, Alex Hayes, Morgan Reynolds, D. H. Easterling, Milton Diefenderfer, and Lawrence Gerald, Jr.

—◆—

Week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. John Kimmey were the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, of Pincard, Alabama. Johnnie Kimmey returned to Pincard with his grand parents for a visit.

Miss Helen Moore, student at Judson, was at home the past week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watts Moore.

Lawrence Gerald, Jr., of the University, arrived Friday afternoon to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerald.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffie Crew (Carmel Smith), of Cooper, announce the arrival of a baby girl, whom they have named Barbara Ann.

Mrs. N. C. Petersen and son, Norman, of Birmingham, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Wade were visitors in Selma during the week end.

Mrs. J. A. DuBose, of Birmingham, and grandson, Gene Wilson, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Patterson, of South Clanton Sunday.

Miss Annie Cordelia Smith Celebrates Birthday

Miss Annie Cordelia Smith celebrated the thirteenth birthday Tuesday night, when she was hostess at a theatre party, entertaining thirteen of her girl friends. After the group saw the picture show, they went to the home of the hostess and were served a delicious salad plate with an iced drink, by her mother, Mrs. Milton Smith.

The young ladies present were: Misses Elizabeth Newell, Elizabeth Armstrong, Lamerle DeLoach, Mary Frances Atkinson, Ann Ross Mullins, Frances Popwell, Aileen Popwell, Elaine Burdette, Frances Smith, Grace Ezell, Blanche Thomas, Dorothy Carter and Lillian Smith.

—◆—

Miss Helen Nix, of Maplesville, was a week end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerald.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Richardson (Flora Jones), announce the arrival of an eight pound baby boy, whom they have named Deryl Allen.

Mrs. R. L. Williams of Montgomery, and Mrs. Dewey Smith, of Wetumpka were in Clanton the past week end visiting their mother, Mrs. H. L. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hogan spent Friday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith, of Florida are visiting friends and relatives in Clanton.

Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks is in Dothan this week where he is conducting a Bible class.

Mr. George Warrick, of Birmingham was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White.

Mrs. Henry Gentry, of Mt. Creek was a visitor in Clanton Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Harris were visitors in Montgomery Sunday afternoon.

Miss Anna Gardener and Mr. Wilder, of Alex City visited Mrs. A. S. Prince last week.

Mrs. John DeRamus, Mrs. Watts Moore and Miss Bettie Mullins motored to Birmingham Friday.

Joe Moore, student at the University, spent the week end at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watts Moore.

Mrs. Charles Deason, of the University, visited here and in Verbena during the week end.

Miss Dixie Johnson was at home with her parents, from the University, the past week end.

Sidney Reynolds was among those from the University to spend the week end here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wagoner spent the week end in Birmingahm with thir daughter.

Mr. and Mrs W. M. Polk spent the week end at their camp on the Coosa River.

Alex Hayes, student at the University, was here during the week end with his parents.

Lawrence Gerald Jr., had as his guest the past week end, Bill Tucker, a fraternity brother from the University.

Misses Helen, Elizabeth, and Mary Newell were in Birmingham Saturday.

—◆—

CHILTON B.Y.P.U. CONVENTION MET WITH BETHSALEM OCT. 13

—◆—

The Chilton County B. Y. P. U. Convention me with Bethsalem on Sunday evening of the 13th. President, Mr. Lee Yates, present; secretary absent, J. D. Collins, Sr., was elected in his stead. Devotional was led by Mrs. Charley Wilkins. The following unions reported as follows:

Chestnut Creek .....Vb etaoin lii

Bethsalem, on roll, 64, average attendance, 38; Chestnut Creek, on roll, 64, average attendance, 52; Friendship, on roll, 67, average attendance, 58; New Salem, on roll, 20, average attendance, 10; Pleasant Grove No. 2, on roll, 57, average attendance, 53; Thorsby, on roll, 74, average attendance, 52; Maynards Chapel, on roll, 79, average attendance, 0.

Three Pastors present, Bros. J. W. Jones, W. E. Robinson and Dewey Robinson. Bro. Colley from the Orphans Home was present and made a very interesting talk. Bro. J. M. Parrish discussed the responsibility of Christian leadership, and handled the subject fine. Bro. Robinson very ably discussed the subject: "The place the B. A. U. has in the church."

The January meeting to be held at Friendship. The chairman to appoint a nominating committe for the B. T. U. and officers to be elected at the January meeting.—Lee Yates, Pres.; J. D. Collins, Sr., Secy-Treas. protem.

THE MODERN Beauty School

ENROLL NOW

We Guarantee a Complete Course is Beauty Culture at Moderate Prices. All Work done in School.

Half Price

$2.50 Permanent Waves,	$1.00
$3.00 Waves	$1.50
$4.00 Waves	$2.00
Shampoo, set and dry	25c
Set Wet	15c
Manicure	25c

All Work Done Under Supervision of An Instructor.

Modern Beauty School

Location Upstairs Over A&P

PLEASANT HILL

—◆—

We are glad to report that the health of our community is some better this week. In fact every thing seems to be getting better every way.

We had a large crowd out for our week end services and we really had a wonderful message delivered to us at each service. Folks, when we fail to go to church we are missing something that God has in store for us.

What a fine thing it would be if each church member would just stop and think that they are a part of something and let us search our every day life and see if we are doing our part in our own church.

We were glad to have the many visitors with us Sunday from other churches. We especially invite them back again. We would not forget to mention too, that our singing Sunday afternoon was well attendtd and we did have a real good singing. However, the writer failed to get a full report of our sing so we will have to leave that untold. We invite the visitors to be back with us again every time it is possible.

On next Sunday night Rev. Cannie Lowery will preach for us at Pleasant Hill. We invite every body, who can, to come out and hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robinson of Pleasant Grove community spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Cleckler.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cleckler had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Martin.

Miss Central Cost, Miss Willie Mae Davis and Miss Lurlene Blow spent a while Sunday with Miss Pearlene Martin.

Mr. Dewey Cleckler, Mr. Frank McMullins, Misses Minnie Bolton, Odelle Ellison and Alta Blow were the dinner guests of Miss Datha Cleckler Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blow, Miss Hazel Blow and Miss Ollie Belle Davis had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin Sunday.

Mr. Jesse Driver, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Driver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pledger all spent Saturday night and Sunday of last week with friends and relatives in Siluria.

Don't forget our Sunday school every Sunday. Visitors are always welcome.

VERBENA SCHOOL NEWS

—◆—

The fiddlers convention held at the Verbena High School on Friday, October 18, was well attended. The first prize of five dollars was won by Ralph Courtney, a pupil in the second grade of the Verbena school. Second prize, 3 dozen apples, 2 dozen bananas and 1 dozen oranges, donated by Irvin Fruit and Produce Co., was won by Bill Jones. Third prize, a dress shirt, donated by Gulledge Bros., was won by Buck Culp. Fourth prize, a 24 pound sack of flour, donated by Deramus Cash Grocery, was won by A. H. Courtney. Fifth prize, a work shirt, given by H. T. Williams, was won by John Mitchell. Sixth prize, a box of shells, donated by Howard Service Station, won by Orville Wright. Seventh prize, a sack of flour, donated by P. F. Mitchell, was won by Carson Johnson. The eighth prize, a hair cut, donated by Verbena Barber Shop, was won by Ben Scott.

A pie supper will be given at Verbena High School on the night of November 1. Lots of good pies, plenty of coffee, milk, etc., will be for sale. Save your pennies for a good feed at that time.

Entertainment will be furnished free by Professor Hollis Hiten and his orchestra.

MT. PLEASANT H. D. CLUB

—◆—

The Mt. Pleasant Homo Demonstration Club met, October 10th, at the home of Mrs. Emmett Smith, with good attendance. The discussion for the aftenoon was the comfortable kitchen. Miss Ruth Pardue brought out many interesting and useful points.

The next meeting will be held on November 5th, at the home of Mrs. Amos Smith. The demonstration will be on finishing walls, floor and table tops. All members are urged to attend these meetings and visitors are always welcome.—Reporter.

—◆—

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Simpson spent several days last week at their camp on the Coosa River.

Local Organizations, Enter Contest FOR Cash Prizes

On December 15th, 1935, Chero Botling Company will give away $15.00 in cash to some local organizations. First Prize $10; Second Prize $5; to the organizations turning in the most votes. Each Chero Crown counts 5 Votes. Also remember, in addition to votes, you will get one-half cent in Cash for each Chero Crown bearing the words: "Chero, Worth ½ Cent."

This applies to local organizations only. Chero Crowns redeemed and Votes given at any time. See your local Chero Salesman.

Chero Bottling Co.

Phone 112-W Clanton, Alabama

Clanton will Dedicate its new Post Office Building tomorrow and The LEADER cooperates with you by making tomorrow a real "BARGAIN HUNTERS DAY."

Values

THE LEADER is proud of Clanton and Chilton County on the event Friday of the dedication of the new post office building. We are joining this celebration by offering some unusually extra values for you when you come to town.

THE LEADER has been clothing Chilton County families for the past sixteen years, at all times guaranteeing satisfaction. Come to see us when you are in town.

LADIES' COATS

These two days will be Value Days in Coats. We can give you a nice Coat for $5.95

$9.95 COATS $9.95

Such values in Coats can not be repeated. All sizes and materials $9.95

LADIES' FOOTWEAR

We are headquarters for good Star Brand All-Leather. A big stock to choose from. Widths from AAA to EEE in all styles $1.95 up

LADIES' HATS

200 new beautiful Felt Hats to choose from in all colors and styles. From $1.00

Extra Specials

LL Extra Heavy Sheeting	9c
Play Cloth, a good 15c quality	12½c
Outing, good weight, all colors	8c
Shirt Material, good heavy 15c quality, spec.	12½c
Cotton Ticking, a 15c quality	12c
8-Oz. Feather Proof Ticking	22c
Cotton Flannel, 18c quality	15c

ESPECIALLY FOR DEDICATION DAY

These Prices Also Prevail Saturday

Extra Specials

5c School Tablets, 2 for	5c
Children's Unionsuits, 50c quality	44c
Men's Unionsuits	59c
Men's Work Shirts	44c
Men's Genuine Leather Caps	98c
Lee Overalls, large sizes, only	$1.25
Men's All-Leather Gloves	48c
Men's Felt Hats	95c
Men's Flannel Zipper Shirts	98c
1 Lot of Boy's Denim Pants, small sizes	44c

Men's Suits

As usual we have a complete line of Suits in stubs Regulars, Slims or Stouts in the season's best style and patterns.

$8.88-10.88
12.88-14.88

SALE OF FINE Blankets

From $1.00 to $1.95

MEN'S SHOES

We sell and guarantee Star Brand All-Leather shoes

From $1.95 up

The Leader

M. LANDE - - - - - - - Clanton

THE LEADER HAS CLOTHED CHILTON COUNTY FOR THE PAST 16 YEARS

DATE INCOR

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

FARMERS PROFIT BY GETTING FOREST PRODUCTS APPRAISED

Auburn, Ala.,—Farmers will profit by getting a careful estimate of the forest products to be sold, by obtaining prices or bids from several parties, and by securing a written agreement, signed by both parties, advises D. J. Weddell, assistant professor of forestry.

"Many examples could be given where the seller of a block of timber has received double the original offer after the tract to be sold has been estimated and the amount to be sold definitely known," he says.

BUTTER CONSUMPTION IS LOW IN ALABAMA

Auburn, Ala.,—The annual per capita consumption of butter in thirteen of Alabama's leading cities amounts to an average of only 10 pounds of butter per year compared with 17 pounds per capita in the United States, reports Prof. A. D. Burk, head of the dairy department of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, in pointing out that "butter is one of our most important health producing foods."

WALNUTS INCREASE FARM CASH INCOME

Auburn, Ala. — North Carolina farmers are receiving thousands of dollars each year from blackwalnuts, many of which go to waste annually on Alabama farms.

Walnuts are being sold in the shell and as cracked kernels in grocery candy and drug stores almost everywhere, reports R. W. Graeber, North Carolina extension forester, who calls attention to one farmer who sold 16 barrels of kernels during the past season.

TURKEYS REQUIRE PROPER ATTENTION

Auburn, Ala.,—Six weeks before marketing, turkeys should be separated into three groups: (1) breeders for next season; (2) birds ready to finish out for market; and (3) immature or light weight birds which need a longer period of growth.

This is advised by John E. Ivey, extension poultry specialist, who says that turkeys should be given growing mash and grain at night in addition to being permitted to range on cowpeas, grain sorghum, peanuts or alfalfa during the day.

A good growing mash may be made by mixing 50 pounds of yellow corn meal, 15 pounds shorts, 15 pound bran, 10 pound meat scrap, 5 pounds dried milk, 5 pounds alfalfa leaf meal, and ½ pound of iodized salt," he states. "The dry mash can be kept in open hoppers, or can be fed as a crumbly wet mash in the afternoon. Feed all the milk available. Gauge the rate of development by your feeding so that the birds will finish at a desired time. Do not force early-hatched birds along too rapidly."

Where the farmer desires to place the birds in close quarters and force feed them for the last four or six weeks, Mr. Ivey suggests the following fattening mash: 60 pounds white corn meal, 25 pounds wheat grey shorts, 10 pounds dried buttermilk, 4 pounds meat scrap and 1 pound salt. "Another good fattening ration may be made by adding 50 pounds of corn meal to the above growing mash," he adds.

"Use the method which suits your condition best, but remember that it pays to exchange four to six pounds of feed for a pound of turkey meat," he concludes.

Miss Jeanette Culver, of Clanton visited relatives in Birmingham Saturday and attended the circus. She was accompanied by her friend, Mr. Henry Jenks, of Key West, Florida.

HIGHLAND NEWS

Our Sunday school is still progressing nicely but there is still plenty of room for improvement. Everyone come to Sunday school next Sunday and bring someone with you.

Last Sunday afternoon was our regular singing day. The crowd was small but we had a good singing. We were glad to have the visitors with us and we invite you back again. The opening song was sung by the chairman, Mr. Coy Lockhart, after which prayer was led by Mr. T. W. Billingsley.

Directors for the afternoon were: Coy Lockhart, Gladys Wyatt, Soverign Dickey, Mr. Bennett, Margie Crowson, Zane Lowery, Leonard Culp, Hiram Littleohn, Ruby Weldon, Mr. T. W. Billingsley. Several quartets were rendered by the Liberty Hill quartet, which were greatly enjoyed by all.

Pianists for the afternoon were: Misses Virginia Eubanks and Dessie Wyatt. Closing prayer was led by Mr. E. T. Weldon.

Everyone remember our singing every third Sunday afternoon. We are glad to have you at any time.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. We invite all who will to come and worship with us.

Hardware Prices

--- AT ---

"THE NEW HARDWARE STORE"

No. 2 LAMP CHIMNEY	Each	5c
WHITE CEDAR BUCKETS	Each	49c
No. 3 TUBS	Each	64c
10-Qt GALVANIZED BUCKETS	Each	15c
WINCHESTER SHELLS	BOX	59c
22 SHORT CARTRIDGES	Box	14c
22 BOLT ACTION RIFLE	Each	$3.95
Kelly DOUBLE BLADE AXE, Handled		$1.75
RAZOR BLADES	5 FOR	5c
STOVE PIPE, 6-Inch	Each	14c
Simmons CROSS CUT SAWS		$2.85 UP
No. 2 LAMPS COMPLETE,	Each	49c
LANTERNS	EACH	69c
6-Inch TAPER FILES	Each	5c
WHITE CUPS	Each	5c
WHITE SAUCERS	Each	5c
WHITE PLATES	Each	10c

Murray-Bell Hdwe. Co.

"THE NEW HARDWARE STORE"

Clanton - - - - - - Alabama

WE SELL AT LOWER PRICES

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936

Why do we say The New Ford V-8 for 1936?

What is new about it?

Of course, the newest engine in the low-price car field is still the V-8 engine. Since Ford made it available to all car users (keeping it as economical as cars with fewer cylinders) the Ford V-8 has been the newest engine on the market, and remains the newest for 1936.

You may buy a car on minor "talking points"—some specially advertised feature "with the car thrown in"—but, after all, it is the engine you buy when you buy a car. Hence we put the engine first.

Other new points about the car make a long list.

Its lines are much more beautiful. The hood is longer and sweeps forward over the distinctive new radiator grille, giving the car a length and grace that are instantly impressive. The fenders are larger, with a wide flare. Horns are concealed behind circular grilles beneath the headlamps. New steel wheels.

Ford upholstery—always of sterling quality and excellent taste—is rich and enduring. The appointments of the car have a new touch of refinement. There is no question about the increased beauty of the Ford V-8 for 1936.

In more practical matters, many improvements have been made—Steering is made easier by a new steering gear ratio. The cooling system circulates 5½ gallons of water through a new, larger radiator. Natural thermo-syphon action is assisted by two centrifugal water pumps. New style hood louvres permit a rapid air-flow around the engine.

Easier, quieter shifting of Ford gears—The gear shift lever now travels a shorter distance.

The two qualities you want in brakes—Brakes that stop the car with ease and certainty. Ford Super-Safety Brakes of the long-tested, fool-proof, mechanical design.

Safety—as always—in the electrically welded genuine steel body. Safety Glass all around at no extra cost. Hundreds have written grateful letters because this glass has protected the safety of their families.

A car you can drive without strain all day, if you like, in city or country. Steady, holds the road, responds to the driver's touch like a well-trained horse. You don't have to "push" or "fight" the Ford V-8—driver and car easily get on terms of good understanding with each other.

An engine has much to do with the roominess of a car. Very much indeed. A long engine uses up car space. The compact V-8 engine permits much of the ordinary engine space to be used by passengers.

It really is a great car in every way, this 1936 Ford V-8—the finest, safest, most dependable Ford car ever built. Now on display by Ford dealers.

LOW FORD V-8 PRICES

THIRTEEN BODY TYPES—Coupe (5 windows), $510. Tudor Sedan, $520. Fordor Sedan, $580. DE LUXE—Roadster (with rumble seat), $560. Coupe (3 windows), $570. Coupe (5 windows), $555. Phaeton, $590. Tudor Sedan, $565. Cabriolet (with rumble seat), $625. Fordor Sedan, $625. Tudor Touring Sedan (with built-in trunk), $590. Fordor Touring Sedan (with built-in trunk), $650. Convertible Sedan, $760.

F. O. B. Detroit. Standard accessory group, including bumpers and spare tire, extra. All Ford V-8 body types have Safety Glass throughout at no additional cost. Economical terms through Universal Credit Company.

Now on Display at the Showrooms of

CLANTON MOTORS, Inc.

and you are most cordially invited to visit us and let us

Demonstrate the Finest Car Value of 1936

MAPLE SPRINGS

The people were glad to see the nice shower Sunday morning.

B. Y. P. U. was rained out Sunday night. Remember to come back next Sunday night.

Mrs. Obe Smith from Coopers visited her sister, Mrs. O. L. DeVaugsn, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson spent a while Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Devaughn and daughter, Mrs. Velma Davis and Mr. W. F. Glenn and children and Miss Elmer Reene Jones attended the singing at Wetumpka Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mims from Cooper spent Sunday night and morning with Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jones.

Mr. Ottis Glenn attended the Ringling Bros., Barnum & Bailey Circus in Montgomery last Tuesday night. He was accompanied by Mr. Clarence Easterling from Clanton and Miss Mattie Jewel Wilson, from Mt. Creek. An enjoyable time was reported by them.

Mr. Melvin Lansford from near Montgomery spent last Tuesday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lansford.

Mr. Jerrell Miller was in this community last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs.

Mrs. Velma Davis spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mrs. Alton Harris from South Clanton was here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, last week.

Mr. Wiley Jones spent a while Wednerday afternoon with Mr. W. F. Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker visited in the Enterprise community Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Wash Wilson spent a few hours Tuesday morning with Mr. W. F. Glenn.

Messrs. Lester Downs and Bill Wise were in the Bethsalem community last Tuesday.

Messrs. Ottis, Oliver and Arnold Glenn and Tom Mims were in Verbena Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Tucker from the Enterprise community were here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker Friday.

Mrs. Alton Harris from South Clanton spent a while Friday afternoo with Mrs. W. F. Glenn and daughters.

Mr. W. F. Glenn spent a while Saturday with Mr. B. H. Wells.

Mr. Lawton Wilson spent a while Friday p.m. with Mr. Ottis Glenn.

Miss Elmer Reene Jones spent Saturday night with Misses Delene and Lera Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ware in Autauga county this past week end.

Miss Elsie Glenn spent Saturday night with her brother, Mr. W. O. Glenn.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their knidness and symathy in the long illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Lizzie Durbin. We also wish to thank Mr. Cope of the Spigener Funeral home, Rev. Cecil Ellisor and the ones who gave the beautiful floral offering. May God's richest blesings rest upon each one is the prayer of: A. J. Durbin and children, H. D. Durbin, F. M. Durbin, M. C. Durbin, Mrs. H. D. Headley, Mrs. Alfred Chancellor, Miss Maudie Durbin.

C. C. C. BUILDS BRIDGES

Montgomery.—The construction of vehicle bridges by the Civilian Conservation Corps, although generally following standardized specifications, presents many interesting sidelights, particularly with regard to the bridges requiring a piling foundation, according to the Alabama Commission of Forestry.

In driving bridge piling the C. C. C. uses many methods to penetrate the soil according to the equipment and facilities available. In sandy soil a jet is used, while in heavy soils an engine driven pile driver with a heavy hammer is required. One of the camps has a small hand operated pile driver with twelve foot leads and a block of black gum of approximately the same weight with four handles attached is used as a pile driver. The latter requires eight men to operate it, two men to the handle. Strange to say, the latter method is quite as effective and satisfactory under favorable conditions as any other.

The specifications of such bridges are not as pretentious as those of highway bridges, since the forest roads are not built as regular thoroughfares but mainly for fire protection purposes. However, the structures are quite substantial and are designed to endure for many years.

Bridge construction on State Park projects has resulted in a great range of designs. Planned to fit with existing natural features, bridges of native stone masonary have been constructed to give pleasing results. Foundations for masonry bridges are carried down to solid bed rock. The largest masonry bridge constructed thus far has a semicircular arch opening of 20 feet in diameter. Park bridges fulfill more purposes than forest bridges, and are thus frequently built to higher specifications.

666 Checks COLDS and FEVER

Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops

First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

"Laddie," the only dog in Hollywood that plays character parts is seen in "The return of Peter Grimm."—Wadesonian Theatre, October 24.

BUY YOUR NEW AND USED CARS FROM

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Clanton, Ala.

Phones 120 and 206-J

I have a 1931 Chevrolet Coach — A real Bargain at $225.00

RRECT POOR ORIGINAL

MEN

We have the largest stock of MEN'S HATS—all colors and sizes 6 to 7½

MEN'S PANTS—all newest Patterns

MEN'S OXFORDS—Brown or Black — sizes 6 to 11 — Trouser - Crease Vamp French Heels

$1.98

DOLLAR STORE

Clanton, Ala.

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.

Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

WANTED!
1,000 POUNDS BUTTERFAT
For Next Saturday

Prices for Butterfat are looking upward. With a bountiful feed supply, you should begin turning these surplus feeds into Cash. This can be done by saving your surplus Butterfat and bringing it to us.

Southern Dairies Inc.
Evan Parrish, Mgr.
Clanton, Ala.

CORN-HOG FARMERS WILL VOTE OCT. 26th

Auburn, Ala.—Do corn-hog farmers of the nation want the AAA corn-hog adjustment program to continue another year?

That question will be answered on October 26 when farmers of Alabama and other states go to the polls and vote. "It rests with farmers themselves whether or not there is enough interest in and demand for a corn-hog adjustment program to justify the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in offering such a program in 1936," state AAA officials.

Every corn and hog farmer in the state, whether or not he signed a 1934 or 1935 contract, will have a chance to vote on the corn-hog adjustment program.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FOR SALE—1935 Chevrolet Pick-Up, slightly used, first class condition. See Mack Culver, at Clanton Cash Store. 10-10-3tc.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Alred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

FARM FOR SALE—58 acres, 2 good dwellings, good barns, plenty water, good pasture, 40 acres in cultivation. Four miles south of Clanton on Wilson-Askins Road.—J. S. Davis, Clanton Rte. 2. 10-3-3tp

WANT TO TRADE—1928 Model Chevrolet in good condition for good mule, not over 10 years of age. Apply to Marion Ellison, near Jackson Chapel, Rte. 5. 10-24-3tp.

WANTED WAGON SCALES—I want a second-hand set of wagon scales, in good condition and at reasonable price.—W. A. Crowson, Clanton, Ala. 10-24-1tpd.

LOST DOG—Black shaggy fice, last seen in Clanton a week ago. Information appreciated.—Bill Brown, Clanton Route 2. 1tp.

LOST—$10 bill, in Clanton, between A & P store and post office, Tuesday morning. Finder please return to M. L. Rogers, Clanton, Ala. 1tp.

FOR SALE—A Chattanooga syrup mill No. 12, priced $25.00 See or write L. S. Headley, Clanton Rte. 3.

MOVING WEEK AT COURTHOUSE

This week might well be termed general moving week at the auxiliary which houses several of the different office building near the court house, county departments.

Supt. Little has moved his office from that building to the new Jones building just completed near the Hayes Chevrolet building. In the county office building this allowed several moves. Mr. Fant's office has been moved to the office formerly occupied by Mr. Little; his helpers will also occupy one of the rooms heretofore used by Dr. Kimmey, county health supervisor. Dr. Kimmey has moved to the two rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Fant. Miss Pardue will use one of the offices which has been used by Dr. Kimmey.

NEGRO SHOT NEAR LOMAX

Sheriff Hardy's office was notified Tuesday night of the shooting of a negro in the community near the Reynolds swimming pool. Investigation showed that the negro had asked for food at several homes in the community, and some people on whom he had called became excited and fearful. Neighbors were called, and when the negro was seen entering a potato bank, shots were fired, several shot entering the negro's head, neck and shoulders.

When Sheriff Hardy arrived the negro had run, but blood hounds were put on his trail, and he was soon caught. The negro was scared, but gave his address as Montgomery, and stated that he was hungry. Sheriff Hardy said that he could testify to that, for he believed he was the hungriest man he had ever seen.

It is not yet known whether charges will be placed against the negro, as he seems not to have committed any crime, but was merely an exceptionally hungry man, trying to get something to eat.

CLANTON GOSPEL TABERNACLE

Announcement is made that Rev. Dailey, of Birmingham, will begin a series of services at the Clanton Gospel Tabernacle on Thursday night (tonight) at 7:30. Rev. Daily has been to Clanton before and has many friends here. He will preach everynight through Sunday night, October 23rd, at 7:30 p.m.

On Wednesday night, October 31, at 7:30, Rev. Glenn V. Tingley, of the Birmingham Gospel Tabernacle, and a regular speaker over the radio station WBRC, will preach at the Clanton Gospel Tabernacle.

A special invitation is extended to people of Clanton and surrounding community to attend all these services.

GEORGE POPWELL HURT IN TRUCK WRECK OCT. 17

George Popwell is in Central Alabama Hospital suffering from severe injuries sustained in a truck wreck near Plantersville last Thursday afternoon.

George, accompanied by John Griffin, was driving a Chevrolet truck, heavily loaded with brick. At the foot of what is known as the Wells hill, a long winding hill near Plantersville, the truck rounded a curve and the driver saw a road tractor and grader across the road. Popwell said the road machine reached from side to side of the road, and there was no room to go around on either side. The havily loaded truck could not be stopped in the few yards intervening. Griffin jumped, and was unhurt. Popwell, however, had no time to get from under the steering wheel. He stated that he steered the truck for the coupling rod between the tractor and grader, hoping that it would jump the rod when it hit, and intending to jump through the windshield if it failed to jump, knowing that the trailer load of brick would come through the cab. When the truck failed to jump the coupling rod, he said he leaped toward the windshield, but the brick crashed through the light cab, pinning him tightly against the steering wheel.

When questioned, George stated that he had no doubt that his attempt to jump through the windshield saved his life, as he was jammed about the hips, and would have had his chest and ribs crushed if he had not jumped.

The cab was crushed like an eggshell, and the steel steering post bent forward from the impact.

Popwell is improving, and hospital attaches stated that he would be up and on his way in a few days, if no unforeseen complications develop.

BANNER 1 YEAR $1

For a limited time The Union-Banner will be sold one whole year for $1. This exceptional offer will not last long; and when it closes, the paper will go back to the regular price. If you want the paper for one dollar, better take advantage of it now. We will appreciate your business.

THE UNION-BANNER.

FARM FOR RENT—One-horse farm, near Mt. Creek, standing rent.—Inquire of Mrs. Emma Gentry, Mt. Creek, Ala. 1tpd.

LOST IN CLANTON SATURDAY—One yellow gold jeweled Kappa Sigma Fraternity pin; if found return to Ed Mullins. Reward.

FOR SALE—Pair nice young brood mares, a brood sow, a milch cow, and some shoats and pigs.—W. B. Cox Rte. 2, Clanton, Ala. 1tp

WANT RELIABLE PERSON — To manage local business. Enjoyable, high-class profitable work. Backed by well rated manufacturers of nationally advertised essential products. Profit-sharing available to successful managers for development of their territories. Worth $50.00 weekly and much more later with opportunity to acquire the business. No personal selling. $300.00 required which is fully secured and returnable. Give phone and address. Address K-100, c/o The Union-Banner for personal interview.

REGISTER DURING NOVEMBER-DECEMBER

The Board of Registrars of Chilton county will meet at different Places over the county during November and December for the purpose of registering young voters and those having recently moved into the county. They will be at the courthouse part of the time, when anyone in the county can register, who is subject, otherwise registering will have to be done at the time the Board is in a voter's particular Beat.

Republicans of Chilton county, let us look after the registering of our young voters. There will be important elections in the not far distant future, and we want to be prepared. The complete schedule of rounds is published elsewhere in The Union-Banner. Look it up and have those about you who are subject to register attend to this important matter at the proper time.

COOKE PLAYERS COMING

The Cooke Players will be in Clanton on the opening week of the new theatre which has just been built by Mr. C. W. Wade on Seventh Street, just south of the Dixie Cafe.

The date of opening has not yet been set, but the Cooke Players have already been contracted to help in the opening week.

The Cooke Players are well known to Canton and Chilton County. They have been coming to Clanton for years, and have always put on a good, clean, up-to-date performance. Watch for further announcements as to the opening date for the new theatre, and the program the Cooke Players will have on tap for the opening week.

GROCERY STORES OF CITY ADOPT STRICT WORK HOURS

The grocery stores and markets of Clanton have entered an agreement regarding a uniform opening and closing time during week days and Saturdays. It appears that this is a worthy move and merits the strict observance of all the stores of this kind in the city.

Below we publish the agreement and the signatures which have been attached to it:

"Clanton, Ala., October 15, 1935

"We, the undersigned managers and owners of meat markets and grocery shores in the city of Clanton, Alabama, do hereby agree to open our stores for business each week day at 6:30 a.m., and close our stores each week day, except Saturdays, at 6:30 p.m. On Saturdays we agree to open at 6:30 a.m., and close at 9:00 p.m. This agreement to be strictly adhered to and began on October 14th, 1935.

Bean & Taylor, Alonza Askins.

Taylor Grocery & Market, W. F. Irvin.

Peoples Cash Store.

Hill Grocery Co., L. Stewart, Mgr.

A & P Tea Co., G. C. Armstrong.

Clanton Cash Store, O. D. DeLoach.

Sumter Farm & Stock Co.

Mrs. H. E. Culver.

C. R. Glenn."

ANOTHER COTTON MEETING

As The Union-Banner went to press on Wednesday afternoon we were advised that another cotton meeting was being organized by Mr. J. W. Fant, to further discuss the farm question with farmers. We were advised that Dr. L. N. Duncan of Auburn was here to speak also.

A full account of this meeting will be given in next week's issue of The Union-Banner, as time will not perpermit its publication this week.

1,500 CHILTON FARMERS CONDEMN COTTON PLAN

(Continued from Front Page)

We solicit the support of every liberty loving citizen, irrespective of political affiliations, to join with us in this, our honest effort to effect such repeal or change, in the interest of the majority of cotton producers. We offer the following suggestions for proposed changes:

Suggestions

1. That each farm allotment be based on the number of dependants upon that farm, and that the 5-year base allotment plan be discontinued.

2. That the amount of taxes collected on excess cotton be in proportion to State and National income taxes.

3. That a national embargo be placed on all imports of raw cotton, manufactured cotton goods, or any and all by-products of cotton, until such time as domestic cotton production is exhausted.

We respectfully petition our Senator, Hon. John H. Bankhead, author of the cotton control act, to use his influence in having the resent cotton control plan repealed, or the above changes or like changes, enacted.

$13,000 IN CASH PRIZES

The big $13,000 contest of the Palmolive Peet Company in Chilton county has been all arranged by their representative, Mr. S. G. Culpepper. The contest is creating broad interest; and no wonder, when such an amount of cash money is being given away. Read about it elsewhere in this issue of The Union-Banner.

HALLOWEEN ENTERTAINMENT AT COOPER SCHOOL HOUSE

On Friday, November 1st, at 7:30 p.m., a Halloween entertainment will be given at the Cooper school. There will be fun for both old and young. Come in your costume and win the prize.

SHOWING NEW PLYMOUTHS AND DODGES AT SMITH'S

New 1936 Plymouths and Dodges are going like hot cakes, according to H. N. Smith, local dealer in these famous and well-konwn cars. And really they are beauties, too, as will be attested to by the large number of people who have been at that place to view them.

If you have not already looked them over, Mr. Smith and his courteous salesmen would be pleased to have you come around today.

Or, if you are interested in a good used car, they have some values that will startle you. Look over their list elsewhere in this issue of The Union-Banner.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION MARBURY HIGH SCHOOL

There will be a fiddlers convention at the Marbury High School Auditorium on Friday night, October 25th, at 7:30 o'clock. Prizes will be given to the best fiddlers. Among them being $5.00 for first prize.

This program is being sponsored by the Marbury Chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Everyone is invited to attend our show.

TWO CASES IN MAYOR'S COURT LAST MONDAY

Only two cases were on the docket last Monday morning, when Mayor C. Fenn Jones opened the weekly city court.

The first of this was for public drunkenness, and the defendant was acquitted.

The other was a charge of violating the prohibition law, and was continued to next Monday, October 28th.

W. F De.Shazo of Isabella here was here Wednesdaq.

Mr. and Mrs. Girthie Johnosn of Sylacauga were recent visitors to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mat Johnson, In Clanton.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OCTOBER 25 & 26

FOOD NEWS!

Clanton CASH Store
BLUE FRONT STORES WE DELIVER PHONE 154

Peoples CASH Store

Thorsby Cash Store

FLOUR AND FEEDS

24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 88c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS $1.70
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 50c
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose $1.10
24-LB Sack LITE RIZE or — POLLY RICH $1.05
24-LB SACK, 1 GLASS FREE Postel Elegant $1.20
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL 95c
24-Lb Sack Plain or S.R. — Postel PILLAR $1.00
48-LB ROSE OR — POLLY RICH $2.05
20 PER CENT — J. D. DAIRY $2.00
16 PER CENT — U. S. DAIRY $1.75
PURE WHEAT — SHORTS $1.90
7 PER CENT — C. S. MEAL $1.40
C. S. HULLS 60c

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 17c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

LARD

1-LB CARTON — SHORTENING 15c
4-LB CARTON — SHORTENING 55c
8-LB CARTON — SHORTENING $1.10

POTATOES, 10 lbs 17c
WHITE OR YELLOW — ONIONS, Lb 4c
TURNIPS, Lb 3c
GREEN HEADS — CABBAGE, Lb 2½c
SWEET — POTATOES, Lb 2c
BANANAS, Lb 5c

With Every Purchase of 1 Octagon Soap Chips for 10c We Will Sell You an Additional One for 1c — 20c Value for 11c

$13,000 FREE! CASH PRIZES
$1000 in CASH—FOUR $250 CHECKS to OCTAGON SOAP users... CASH FOR XMAS or use it NOW!
OCTAGON SOAP SPECIAL 5 GIANT BARS 23¢
OCTAGON POWDER SPECIAL 2 for 9c
OCTAGON TOILET SOAP 3 FOR 14¢
OCTAGON SOAP CHIPS 10c
SAVE OCTAGON COUPONS FOR VALUABLE GIFTS
Octagon Cleanser, 2 for 9c
Palmolive SOAP, 3 for 15c
SUPER SUDS, 2 for 18c

SUGAR
10-Lb Paper Bag 55c

JELL-O STRAWBERRY FLAVOR — Assorted Flavors 2 for 14c

4-OZ CAN — Instant Postum 25c
SWAN DOWN — CAKE FLOUR 29c

LUZIANNE COFFEE 100% GOOD
1-Lb CAN 27c
3-Lb BUCKET 78c
CERTIFICATES WORTH FOUR OCTAGON COUPONS IN EVERY CAN. USE ONLY HALF AS MUCH LUZIANNE.

School Supplies

SCHOOL — TABLETS, 2 for 5c
All 5c Numbers, 3 for 10c

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE

PURE PORK — SAUSAGE, Lb 25c
HAMBURGER — STEAK, 2 Lb 25c
NATIVE — STEAK, Lb 15c AND 20c
TENDER — STEW BEEF, Lb 10c
SLICED or STRIP — BACON, Lb 35c 38c
BEEF ROAST, Lb 12½c
STREAK-O-LEAN — WHITE MEAT, Lb 25c

FRESH OYSTERS DIRECT FROM COAST

FIRST AMERICAN — CATSUP, 14-oz Bot. 10c
EATWELL — 1-LB CAN — MACKEREL, 3 for 25c
8-oz CAN 5c
24-OUNCE JAR — PEANUT BUTTER, 23c

12 — 16 and 20 GAUGE WESTERN FIELD GUN SHELLS, Box 68c
12 — 16 and 20 GAUGE WESTER EXPERT — GUN SHELLS, Box 58c

POOR ORIGINAL DATE INC

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TWELVE PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1935 NUMBER 28

The Truth About Farmers Meeting

Farmers' Reports Vary From That of Chilton County News

Many various and sundry, and even contradictory reports have been published regarding the second spasm of the farmers meeting at the court house in Clanton last Wednesday afternoon. The Union-Banner had no representative at that meeting, but we have gathered as best we could as accurate information as possible regarding it from more than one person who attended.

For the 2 o'clock meeting it seems that the court room was about filled—that is, about all the seats were taken, which means that around 350 people were there. Mr. J. W. Fant, the county agent, made a few remarks and introduced Dr. L. N. Duncan of Auburn, who spoke for about 30 minutes, emphasizing the amount of money the AAA had brought into the State of Alabama. After Dr. Duncan had spoken about half an hour the people present began to ask him various questions; lots of folks over the audience began talking and asking question at the same time, until the whole meeting became a mass of confusion.

A short talk was made by Mr. C. Reese Mullins, in which he is reported to have voiced the dissatisfaction of the farmers over the present control program.

A proposition was put before the body in which they were asked if they wanted a change in the present agricultural program, and practically every one present voted for a change. A second vote was taken as to killing the AAA completely, at which about 25 voted in favor of discontinuing endefinitely the program. No vote was taken on retaining the law as is.

People gradually left the meeting in disorder; it was not dismissed but everybody kept leaving until they were all out of the courtroom.

THE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH OF CLANTON ORGANIZED AT VILLAGE

A full-fledged Missionary Baptist church was organized at the Clanton Alabama Mills village last Sunday, October 27th. The presbytery consisted of Rev. J. W. Jones, moderator pro-tem.; Dr. S. J. Ezell, Clerk protem.; Rev. J. S. Holland, and Rev. M. E. Calloway, of Elmore County.

Rev. J. S. Holland of Clanton was chosen as pastor of the new church, and the meeting day was set for the third Sunday in each month. There will be services both morning and evening on meeting days.

The new church will be called the second Baptist church of Clanton.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY GRAMMAR SCHOOL THRUSDAY NIGHT

There will be a Hallowe'en party at the Clanton Grammar school, sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association, Thursday night of this week. The hour to begin is 6:30, and there will be everything that usually goes with such frolics. Everything will be Hallowe'en — witches, fortune-telling dances, etc. The admission price will be 10c for everybody, and the proceeds will go to the Grammar school. The public is cordially invited.

Don't forget the date—tonight, Thursday, October 31st, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Bring the family.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION AT COURHOUSE THIS WEEK

The Circuit Court of Chilton County is in session at the courthouse in Clanton this week. Civil cases are being tried, and the docket is listed through Thursday, averaging about twenty cases each day.

Those serving on the jury this week are:

FARMERS GIN AND WAREHOUSE HAS SPRINKLER SYSTEM

Representatives of The Union-Banner and The Chilton County News were called to the plant of the Farmers Gin and Warehouse, owned and operated by Mr. F. B. Goodgame, one day last week to witness the operation of a new sprinkler system in the warehouse there.

The system consists of a series of water pipes running throughout the building. Every few feet there has been installed a sprinkler head. A removable plug is placed at the end of the pipe, so that the pipe may be washed out from time to time, as as-is released through the sprinkler come fouled with rust, scale, or any kind of trash that might find its way into the pipes.

On the front of the building is the master valve, which governs the flow of water to the system. In case of fire in any part of the warehouse, this valve is opened and a deluge of water heads.

The system was constructed by Mr. Goodgame and Mr. Macey Jones, and is a valuable addition to the warehouse. Farmers should inspect this new sprinkler system, and see for themselves the excellent move Mr. Goodgame has made to provide his customers with the utmost in protection from fire. With this new addition, we believe Mr. Goodgame's warehouse is the best in Chilton Conuty, and one of the best in the state.

Mr. Ed Mullins motored to Huntsville Saturday. His mother, Mrs. J. R. Mullins, who had been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott for several days returned home with him Sunday.

1936 CHEVROLETS TO BE HERE SATURDAY

Residents of Clanton and vicinity will have their first opportunity Saturday to inspect and ride in the new 1936 Chevrolet cars, it is announced by "Dick" Hayes of the Hayes Chevrolet Co., whose showrooms is being prepared today for the large number of visitors which the event always attracts.

"There will be both Master DeLuxe and new Standard Chevrolets, not only for display puroses, but for everyone interested in testing the performance and riding qualities of these new lines of cars," said Mr. Hayes. "Due to the early start on Chevrolet production, we have cars on hand for immediate delivery, and the assurance of prompt service and orders. However, the earlier the order is on hand, the sooner buyers will get delivery.

"Orders received prior to tomorrow's announcement will be put on a preferred list for delivery in the next few days. We know it will be greatly to the advantage of every prospective car buyer to see these two new Chevrolet lines before buying any car.

A COCKLE BUR GROWN 3½ FEET FROM GROUND

Mr. P. M. Martin of Union Grove settlement brought to The Union-Banner Saturday a report and the evidence of a peculiar cockle bur. The little plant was noticed to be growing out of a half-inch pipe which was stuck in the ground, the top of which was three and a half feet above the ground. The little plant grew three or four inches out of the top of the pipe, and roots extended through the three and a half feet vacant space into the ground. There were two matured burs on top of the little stalk.

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY PAYS TAXES TO HELP COUNTY SCHOOLS

Prof. Luther E. Little, county superintendent of education, announces that the Alabama Power Company has graciously come to the aid of the teachers of the county by making advance payment of the part of their ad valorem taxes which goes to the public schools of the county.

Below we publish the letter which Supt Little wrote to Mr. Martin, of the power company, also the letter which the power company officials sent in reply to Prof. Little's request:

October 11, 1935.

Mr. Thomas W. Martin, President,
Alabama Power Comany,
Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Mr. Martin:

For the past several years you have been very gracious to rural counties in making partial payment of your taxes by November 1, in order that scholastic pay rolls may be met. I sincerely trust that you will be able to follow the same policy this year, thus enabling us to meet our pay roll by November 1.

Very truly yours,
LUTHER E. LITTLE,
County Superintendent.

October, 25, 1935.

Mr. Luther E. Little, Superintendent,
Chilton County Board of Education,
Clanton, Alabama.

Dear Mr. Little:

Complying with your request of October 11, 1935, that this company make advance payment of its county school ad valorem taxes before November 1st, to enable you to meet the teachers' payrolls on that date, by direction of Mr. Thos. W. Martin, President of this company, we are today making payment of such taxes.

The total amount of ad valorem taxes this year is $93,344.12 of which the county school ad valorem taxes, amounting to $28,003.24 are being paid today.

Assuring you of this company's desire to cooperate in every way possible with the school authorities, I am,

Yours very truly
M. P. RANDALL
Assistant Treasurer.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS ATTENTION!

All Spanish War Veterans, their families and widows are urged and requested to attend an open meeting at the county courthouse in Clanton, Saturday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of November 2, 1935, at which time Commander J. A. Lipscomb of the Department of Alabama, and Mrs. Jessye M. Loe, Auxiliary President of the Department of Alabama, will explain the recently enacted pension laws affecting Spanish War Veterans and their dependants; also the purposes and aims of the Department of Alabama, and the benefits this organization has for every Spanish War Veteran and their dependants.

The department is calling on each veteran of '98 to volunteer again so that we may mutually assist each other through our organization. The department also feels that it is the patriotic duty of every Spanish War Veteran to keep alive the patriotism of '98, and perpetuate the memory of that war in American history.

Every Spanish American War Veterans, his dependants, or widow, are invited to attend this meeting and urged to invite other to come.

J. A. LIBSCOMB, Commander.

BIDS TO BE OPENED FRIDAY

Supt. Luther E. Little advises that bids for contracts for construction of the Isabella and Collins Chapel school buildings recently authorized by PWA will be opened at his office at noon on next Friday, November 1st.

Mrs. Frank Callen and son, Billy, spent Thursday (today) in Birmingham.

LESSONS TO BE DRAWN FROM THE FARMERS MEETING

[AN EDITORIAL]

The outcome of the mass meetings of the farmers of Chilton County, held at the courthouse last Wednesday, speaks in clear and no uncertain terms. The farmers of Chilton County, contrary to the language of some wiseacres in which they have said that "The farmers do not know what is best for them," have shown that they still have feet to stand on, and they are not going to let some scientific know-all tell them when to squat and when to jump, what to sign and what to take as their portion and keep their mouths shut.

Farmers of Chilton County think for themselves. They may be a pretty common bunch, but they have got sense enough to run their business of farming without being led with a ring in their noses like so many cattle. They know when they are being discriminated against, and they have the backbone to stand up and let their grievances be known.

It does not suffice for some slick-tongued speaker to tell them that they are so much better off in this and that way, when they feel down in their pockets only to find a hole and a hand-full of cancelled certificates, two or three letters from the county agent and maybe a renewal contract to be signed up. Our farmers know when they are better off and when they are not.

They did not fail last Wednesday to let it be known how they feel about the injustices being perpetrated upon them by the authorities in charge of the cotton control methods of the AAA.

There were a thousand to 1,500 farmers in Clanton last Wednesday, most of whom could not get in the courthouse, but it would be conservative to say that 90 per cent of them are not satisfied with the way farming is being regimented in this and other counties. This same feeling was registered in both the morning and afternoon meetings, before and after L. N. Duncan and County Agent J. W. Fant had had opportunity to defend their contentions on the subject. The general sentiment was not changed after they had spoken, notwithstanding the many erroneous and misleading reports made in the Democratic papers regarding the sentiment of the farmers.

And too, in passing, it is interesting to note the contrast in the opinion of the people over the county, as expressed in these meetings and on the streets or anywhere you chance to hear people talking, with the opinions on the question expressed in recent issues of the Democratic Chilton County News. Evidently somebody has missed the mark in figuring this farm question; and we will likely hear more about it later.

It is amusing also to note how The Chilton County News, in reporting the meeting last week, tries to make the farm question a purely political one in Chilton County, and tries to belittle the motives of the movement because some men in it are Republicans. It is true that there are quite a few Republicans in Chilton county, and likely a large percentage of those bucking the cotton control program are Republicans, but we venture to say that none of them are ashamed of the fact that they are Republicans. To the contrary, they are proud of it. And as to a man working in the cotton mill, that, in our opinion, is no disgrace.

The News stated that there were six hundred present at the second farmers meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Why The News stated this we do not attempt to say, when the court room will seat only a scant 350, and it is generally stated by those present that the house was not crowded at all. And too, when the vote was taken in the afternoon the crowd was almost unanimous in asking for a change in the present law.

Evidently the News reporter got his figures crossed and his eyes too, when he reported the afternoon meeting.

Dr. Gragg Foresees Disaster To Small Farmer Unless Changes Are Made

Who's fooling me, or is he fooling me? If I am to believe the figures given out from the AAA or similar authorities, the cotton farmer is growing richer year by year. They say he received about twice as much for his cotton crop last year as the year before, and it was about double the amount received the previous year. In other words they say he has been doubling his money every year for the past three years.

On the other hand when Mr. Farmer comes to pay his bills, he informs us that "we poor farmers are having a "hull of a time", "The government has cut my roduction down till when I paid my fertilizer bill, taxes and maybe rent, it took all they allowed me. I made one bale over my allowance and they took about half of that and here is $15.00 left to buy shoes for my family, school books for my children and pay all my other obligations for the year, which amounts to $100 or probably $200, as the case may be. A very different picture, is it not?

Yet I believe both pictures are true. In the case of a man who is a large land owner and has persisted the last five years in planting all cotton, he can cut his crop half and have more cotton land than his neighbor who had been diversifying his crop, had to start on before his crop was cut, besides getting large rental on that other land which may be put in food crops.

However, the neighbor who has been trying to raise his own corn, peas, potatoes, cows, hogs, etc., in other words, make a living at home first and then raise a little cotton for necessary spending money as suggested by Auburn and his county agent and his farm paper,—this man's crop is cut in the same proportion as that of the man who has been raising the big cotton crop and has so little cotton and so little rental that he is just about left out of the picture entirely. Yet he is the very man that tried to farm the past five years on the plan suggested by all the farm leaders.

I have in mind now a man, whom I am told, has fourteen in family and was allowed 340 pounds of cotton. How can this man clothe his family and buy school books or pay doctor bills, or bury a member of his family in case death should knock at the door? And there are thousands like that in the south.

I say that I believe both pictures are true, but I believe where one farmer is helped, that ten are injured by the present plan. Now don't understand me to object to some form of production control. I think it is necessary in a way, but let's see if we can't improve on the present way. I see in the future, not far distant I believe, when we will all be told what we must do, and when and where it must be done.

I can't see fairness in telling our farmer that he must make only a half crop of cotton and tax him to death if he does, while the price of other things he must buy goes sky high and at the same time allow the farmer from foreign countries to raise all he pleases and ship it in here to supply the demand and starve our people to death and not allow our farmers to produce and sell and keep the money at home.

I read where millions of yards of cotton cloth are coming from Japan and where whole shiploads of cotton seed meal are being shipped in from China, and I have seen with my own eyes, this summer, whole shiploads of cotton seed oil, corn wheat, coming in at New Orleans from South America.

As further evidence of the truthfulness of my argument, let me call your attention to some of the figures given out by Washington report of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States carried in the Birmingham News, October 2, 1935.

Quoting this statement, "Feeding grains, cattle, meats, butter, vegetable oil and seeds (cotton seed oil, meal, etc) flowed into the United States in heaviest importation in many years.

Wheat shipped in the first half of this year amounted to 12,179,000 bushels, 117 per cent larger than last year. By-products, wheat feeds, 182,000,000 tons (not pounds), 226 per cent over last year. Corn 17,620,000 bushels, 462 per cent more than last year; 230,581 head of cattle, 356 per cent more than last year; imported meat products 58,000,000 pounds, 122 per cent above last year.

This list included oats, butter, suger and many other farm products that our farmers are forced to cut

(Continued on back page)

POST OFFICE FORCE MOVED TO NEW BUILDING ON WEDNESDAY

The Union-Banner was given authority Tuesday morning to announce that the post office employees would move into the new federal building on Tuesday night, with the first mail service from the new building being given on Wednesday.

We have been waiting patiently and hopefully for the change, and the people of Clanton and the surrounding community will welcome the change. The new building is a distinct addition to Clanton, and we are all proud of it.

If you have not visited the new post office, by all means do so. It is a beautiful and modern structure in every way, with every facility for giving the utmost service.

DIEF GETTING STARTED OFF WITH NEW BUSINESS HERE

Mr. L. E. Diefenderfer reports that he is gradually getting started off with his new business in Clanton, located in the new Mullins-Moore building on the highway.

Mr. Dief is trying a new venture in the auto accessories business. He believes that more of the money spent for these things should stay in Clanton rather than be carried away to other cities. In order to keep the trade at home, the price must be in line with those elsewhere, and Dief says he is now situated so that this kind of competition can be met.

We believe that Mr. Diefenderfer has the right idea about this business of keeping the money at home. We should make every effort to trade at home where possible, and the home concerns should make things os attractive to the trade as they can, and price goes a long way.

CLANTON HAS BAKERY OPENED LAST SATURDAY

A bakery has been opened up in Clanton. It is located in the old Venable place across the Highway from Teel serice station. The owner is a young man, Mr. George McGaughy, who comes here from Montevallo. Associated with Mr. McGaughy are Messrs. Teek Galoway and Joe Davis, the latter being the baker for the outfit. All are from Montevallo. Only Mr. Davis is a married man, and he expects to move his family to Clanton in the near future.

The name of the place is the Clanton Bakery, and they will do only retail business. Besides regular loaf bread, they are baking rolls, buns, fancy cakes, pies, cinnamon rolls, doughnuts. They make and serve all kinds of sandwiches, hot dogs, cold drinks and coffee.

These young men would like for you to call around and get acquainted with them.

HEART ATTACK IS FATAL TO JUDGE W. I. GRUBB

Leader On Federal Bench Dies Suddenly At Residence in Birmingham

Judge William Irwin Grubb, for 26 years judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, died suddenly Sunday shortly before noon at the residence 634 Idlewood Circle, Birmingham, as he was preparing to accompany Mrs. Grubb to church.

Apparently in good health, he presided over the court Saturday. He was cheduled to open court at Florence Monday for that division of the Northern District of Alabama.

Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 8, 1863, Judge Grubb attended Yale University and the University of Cincinnati, receiving his law degree from the latter and coming to Birmingham in 1888.

At Yale he was a classmate of Horace Taft, cousin of President William Howard Taft, by whom he was appointed judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. Although a Democrat, his ability as a lawyer influenced President Taft, a Republican, to appoint him to this high office, and since that he has been mentioned several times in connection with appointments to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States.

He had reached the retiring age with full pay, but expressed the desire to remain on the bench until his death, a wish that he realized.

JOHN W. FOSHEE BURIED AT MAPLESVILLE LAST THURSDAY

Mr. John W. Foshee, age 64 years, died at a Selma hospital Tuesday of last week, October 22nd. Funeral services were held at Maplesville Baptist church Thursday, and interment made in Maplesville cemetery. Brislin of Selma was in charge. The funeral was conducted by Dr. S. J. Ezell of Clanton, Rev. Paul Oden of Maplesville and Rev. A. S. Bentley of Plantersville.

Active pallbearers were C. C. Coburn, John Maples, Reuben Bearden, J. P. Payne, Dr. C. N. Parnell and Dr. H. M. Nix. Honorary pallbearers were P. D. Williams, J. D. Hicks, J. J. Hayes, Dr. J. J. Dubose, F. A. Shanks, Stanley Hayes, J. B. Hardy, L. L. Seale, J. O. Mize, Charles Haggard, C. E. Stapp, J. E. Dennis, J. H. Graham, W. D. Nix, and F. D. Nix.

Mr. Foshee, a resident of Maleasville and prominent citizen and retired business man, was well known over Chilton county. He is survived by his second wife, Mrs. Anna Jones Foshee; and three sons, John Alvin, Herbert and Morris.

At the time of his death Mr. Foshee was president of the Bank of Maplesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hogan spent last Sunday in Deatsville with friends.

New Post Office Dedicated Friday

An Impressive Ceremony Was Carried Out: 2,000 People Attended

Approximately 2,000 people gathered in Clanton Friday for the dedication of the new $45,000 Clanton Postoffice, which was recently completed and will be occupied within a few days. W. B. Wooten, inspector in charge of pst offices, and Congressman Hbbbs spoke.

Mr. Wooten traced the progress of this community, measured by the statistical records in the Postoffice Department, beginning with the establishment of the first postoffice under the name of Goose Pond, Jan. 31, 1871. Alfred Baker was the first postmaster and this territory was known then as Baker county.

One Mail A Week

It became Clanton May 4, 1871. At this time, Mr. Wooten told his audience, there was only one mail each week, supplied by a star route from Wetumpka. The mail left Wetumpka every Friday at 8 a.m. and arrived at 12 noon the next day; this star route was 46 miles each way.

Mr. Wooten represented the Postoffice Department in the absence of Postmaster Gen. Farley, who was scduled to speak.

Judge Hobbs spoke to the group that filled the street and vacant lot in front of the new postoffice, paying high tribute to Congressman W. B. Oliver for his efforts for Clanton and Chilton County, declaring that without Mr. Oliver's work the people of this section would not have had the privilege of dedicating one of the finest postoffice buildings in any small city in this state.

The program was begun at 10:30 with a parade of Shriners, led by the Alcazar Temple Band, through the business section of the city, reassembling in front of the postoffice. With C. E. Stapp, former county agent here, presiding, this was one of the most splendid programs ever staged in Clanton.

Mayor Talks

Mayor Jones was the first on the program, speaking in behalf of Clanton. He traced briefly the progress made in this municipality in the ast quarter of a century. "We have looked forward for the past 20 years for this moment," he said. "Today we are indeed proud to be gathered here for the purpose of dedicating this structure to the services of our people."

Probate Judge Smith spoke in behalf of Chilton County, declaring the national administration has taken greater notice of the people in rural sections than has ever been known before He cited briefly some of the improvements made in this county through the government.

Other speakers were Miss Ruth Pardue, home demonstration agent and district governor of the Piolt International; W. M. Wyatt, representing the Clanton Kiwanis Club, and Percy M. Pitts, commander of the local post of the American Legion.

After the completion of the dedication program, the visiting Shriners motored to J. Mell Martin's camp on Lake Mitchell for luncheon.

J. MELL MARTIN IS "FIRST" AT NEW POST OFFICE

When the new Clanton post office was opened last Wednesday morning, Mr. J. Mell Martin, Clanton undertaker drew a group of "firsts."

Mr. Martin rented the first box, No. 86. The first piece of mail delivered was to his box, this being a letter from the National Red Cross, relative to the annual Red Cross roll call, of which Mr. Martin is chairman.

Mr. Martin also mailed the first letter, addressed to Civil Service Inspector, T. C. Gibbs, of the post office department at Birmingham. Mr. Gibbs was the man who picked the location of the new post offfice. He was invited to the dedication last Friday, but was unable to attend, and so was accorded the honor of being the addressee of the first letter mailed at the new post offifce.

THE LEADER OPENS 16th ANNIVERSARY SALE TODAY

The Leader today opens its 16th anniversary sale in Clanton. This store, with Mr. Maurice Lande as proprietor, opened its doors to Clanton people first in the fall of 1919. In the sixteen years this establishment has been a part of the business life of Clanton it has grown from a very modest beginning until now it is one of the leading dry goods stores in the City of Clanton.

Mr. Lande has always conducted his business along good business lines, always selling first quality goods at fair prices, and standing back of his sales from the beginning. From time to time the proprietor of The Leader has seen the need of changing to larger buildings to take care of his growing business. Today The Leader can look back on 16 years of success, brought about by fair dealings and fair prices.

Today Mr. Lande opens The Leaders 16th Anniversary Sale. On another page of this paper you will find a full page advertisement of the event. Read that advertisement, and visit Mr. Lande and The Leader. You will be well repaid for your trouble.

Rev. Glenn V. Tingley of Birmingham was in Clanton Wednesday night.

ORRECT TORN PAGE

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... It's more economical.

'How do I feel.... Swell!—why do you ask?"

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength ...you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. © S.S.S. Co.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

Mrs. George Wyatt is able to be at work at Goodman Beauty Parlor after being unable to work for several weeks. Mrs. Wyatt invites her friends and customers to come back to see her.

Let Me Show and Demonstrate to You
THE NEW 1936
CHEVROLET
Saturday, Nov. 2
L. E. FOSHEE
Salesman
Clanton, Ala.
Phones 120 and 206-J

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

FUMIGATION PROTECTS CORN AGAINST WEEVILS

Auburn, Ala.—By fumigating their corn with carbon disulphide, Alabama farmers can protect their corn crop against a $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 loss caused each year by corn weevils.

In treating their corn against weevils, farmers should place the carbon disulphide in shallow pans on top of the corn, says J. C. Lowery, extension agronomist. "The poison vaporizes and penetrates into the pile of corn, killing the insects. After 36 hours the crib should be opened and aired out."

The amount of carbon disulphide required varies with the tightness of the crib. The average tongue-and-groove crib especially for fumigation requires 8 to 10 pounds for each 1,000 cubic feet of contents. Many cribs considered fairly tight require 15 to 20 pounds for each 1,000 cubic feet.

Fumigation may be performed successfully only when the weather is warm,—i.e., 70 degrees F. or above.

Extreme care must be exercised to see that no lighted lanterns or other flames are carried in the vicinity of the fumigation as the fumigant is highly inflamable, he warns.

MOST FOREST FIRES CAN BE PREVENTED

Auburn, Ala.—Lighted matches, cigarette stubs, and camp fires start hundreds of destructive forest fires in Alabama every year, reports Lyle Brown, extension forester, who emphasizes that the leaving of any fire, regardless of how small it may be, unquenched, is dangerous.

Another bad practice is that of building fires to smoke 'ossums or rabbits out of hollow logs or trees and leaving the fires to burn, Brown states.

SODIUM FLUORIDE CONTROLS ROACHES

Auburn, Ala.—By dusting sodium fluoride on places where roaches run, housewives can rid the house of cockroaches.

"When the roaches lick the fluoride off their feet it poisons them," says Prof. J. M. Robinson, head of the entomology department of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Since young roaches are likely to hatch from eggs already laid, the dusting should be repeated every few weeks until they disappear, he advises. If the roaches continue to infest the house, it is evident that they come from some source where at least some of the roaches are not reached by the dust.

POULTRY FLOCKS NEED IMPROVING

Auburn, Ala.—It is imortant for poultrymen to improve their flocks by eliminating low-grade fowls and introducing only purebred chicks free of disease, says John Ivey, extension poultryman, in pointing out that the poultry industry in Alabama dropped from a $21,401,000 business in 1929 to a 12,000,000 business in 1934.

CORN-HOG CONTRACTS MUST BE IN THURSDAY

Auburn, Ala.—Thursday, Oct. 31st, is the last day the State corn-hog board of review in Montgomery will accept 1935 corn-hog adjustment contracts.

"It was necessary to set a final acceptance date in order that all contracts may be completed before the final check on contract compliance is started on December 1," report AAA officials.

BULBS SHOULD BE PLANTED NOW

Auburn, Ala. — Spring - flowering bulbs, such as tulips, hyacinths, grape hyacinths, crocus, etc., planted from now until November 15 will roduce a good root system ready to support good, strong flowers next spring, says E. W. McElwee, assistant professor of horticulture.

"Soil for bulbs should be well prepared to a depth of 8 to 10 inches and given a good application of well-rotted manure or fertilized with 4-8-4 or some other good complete fertilizer at the rate of 4 pounds per 100 square feet of bed," he advises. "The manure or fertilizer should be mixed well with the soil. A good friable soil that is well drained is best for bulbs."

Prof. McElwee recommends that following depths and spacing for bulbs: Crocus and grape hyacinths, 2 inches deep, 2 inches apart; hyacinths, 4 inches deep, 7 inches apart; tulips, 4 inches deep, 5 inches apart; narcissus, 4 inches deep, 12 inches apart; and lilies, 5 inches deep and 12 or more inches apart.

HILL GROCERY CO

BEST GRANULATED SUGAR 10 Lbs - - - 55c
BEST VEGETABLE LARD Bulk Lb 13c
4 Lb-Ctn. 55c

DAFFODIL FRESH CREAMERY —
BUTTER Roll or Print lb 30c

CAMEO — AN EXTRA QUALITY —
OLEO 1-Lb Carton 15c

... FLOUR ...
Grandma's Wonder 24-lb Bag $1.10 48-lb Bag $2.15
White Tip 24-lb Bag 99c 48-lb Bag $1.95
Circle "H" 24-lb Bag 89c 48-lb Bag $1.75

.. FLUFFO OIL ..
Pt. Can 18c Qt. Can 33c

O. K. Laundry — SOAP, 3 10½-oz bars 10c
Mother's COCOA, 1-lb can 10c
Borden's - St. Charles MILK, 3 large cans 17c
Circle 'H' Sliced — BACON, Lb 35c

ROYAL BLEND —
COFFEE 1-Lb Bag 17c

MATCHES Red Bird Large Box
SALT Myle's 1½-Lb pkg.
STARCH Argo 8-oz pkg.
YOUR CHOICE 3 for 10c

MUSSELMAN'S —
APPLE SAUCE 3 No. 2 Cans 25c

WHITE HOUSE —
APPLE JELLY 14-oz Jar 10c

SATURDAY, NOV. 2

A NEW CHEVROLET

The only complete low-priced car

Beautiful beyond belief

• WILL BE ON DISPLAY AT CHEVROLET ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

WHAT STAPLE LENGTH IS YOUR COTTON?

Improved Varieties of Cotton Give Longer Staple

The photograph above, prepared by the Division of Cotton Marketing Bureau of Agriculture Economics, shows official cotton standards of certain lengths of staple.

Staple length is a very important factor in establishing the value of cotton. Over the period 1926-30, in the central markets, thirteen-sixteenths cotton was penalized an average of 93 points or $4.65 per bale, whereas, an average of 45 points of $2.25 per bale premium was paid for fifteen-sixteenths and 96 points or $4.80 per bale premium for one inch basis middling seven-eighths.

According to report of September 27, 1935, of Cotton Quotation and Market News Service of Bureau of Agricultural Economics, an average of 31 points or $1.55 per bale premium was being paid for fifteen-sixteenths and 67 points or $3.35 per bale for inch over seven-eighths.

Grow varities of cotton averaging seven-eighths inch and longer, preferably those averaging an inch in staple length. Varities which barely pull seven-eighths inch with normal rains will fall well under seven-eighth inch in case of drought. Then heavy penalties are inflicted on farmers because of short cotton. The very short varities with severe drought conditions cost Alabama farmers millions of dollars in penalties in 1929 and 1930.

Varities pulling an inch and better will not likely run shorter than seven-eighths inch in case of drought. In variety tests of the Alabama Experiment Station several varities of cotton give good yields an average around one inch in staple length. These are as follows:

North Alabama and Central Alabama: DPL 10, DPL 11, and Stoneville. In the wilt infested area a wilt-resistant variety must be grown; Cook 27-34, Cook 1022, Cleve Wilt, and Cook 307, have run seven-eighth inch and better.

Now is the time to swap or buy some seed from neighbors who have better staple varities if your cotton is running shorter than seven-eighths.

Let's grow only the best cotton in Chilton County.

Mr. Charles Rogers, of Elmore Rte. 1, was in Clanton Thursday, October 24th.

ENTERPRISE SINGING

We wish again to call attention of all singers and those who like to listen, to the fact that next Sunday afternoon the Pleasant Valley and Bethany societies will meet together at Enterprise.

We are execting the Liberty Hill quartet if the weather permits. We cordially invite all adjoining soceties to be wth us. We wish to make this one of the best singings of the seasons. Bring your Stamps-Baxter song books.—C. M. Billingsley.

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

POOR C

THE SEASON of COLOR and BEAUTY

Who can paint like Nature? Can imagination boast amid its gay creation? Nothing can produce hues as beautiful as Nature at gathering time. Our Store has caught up the Spirit of the Season. Everything is New --- Radiantly Colorful --- and different. You will find it a thrill just to step in and look around. We will be thrilled to have you visit us.

Ladies' Silk Slips

$1.00 - $1.19 - $1.49 - $1.95

JERSEY Knitted Slips

$1.00 - $1.29

MEN'S HATS

KENSINGTON BRAND, Made by John B. Stetson Co., in Blacks and all the Shades the John B. Stetson Hats are made in. Regular Price $3.50 and a Good Value

SPECIAL $2.95

BOYS UNIONSUITS

Long Sleeves — Ankle Length — Sizes 6 to 16 — Per Suit, 35c

Blankets -- Blankets

SINGLE — 66 x 76 — SPECIAL 69c
DOUBLE — GOOD WEIGHT — SPECIAL $1.25

Part Wool $1.95 - $2.49 - $2.95

RAYON BED SPREADS — BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS in Rose, Blue, Green, Orchid and Gold Colors

$1.29 - $1.49 - $2.69

SWEATERS

For the Entire Family in Almost any Style

Priced from 49c Up

A Sale of TOWELS

Towels Regular 10c Value Special 8c

Regular 15c Value 12c
Regular 25c Value 20c
Regular 50c Value 44c

Best Grade 4- yard Sheeting Good 10c Value -- yd 9c

Taylor Dry Goods Company

The Big Department Store On Main Street --- Clanton

W. L. Sanders Calls Hand Of Chilton County News In Cotton Controversy

The publicity given the farmers meeting of Oct. 23, seems to have created considerable criticism among many of those who attended this meeting. I wish to refer particularly to The Chilton County News, while a similar article appeared in the Montgomery Advertiser, both giving an incorrect account of this meeting.

In the beginning I wish to state that it is not my desire to enter into a paper controversy, however, I feel that in justice to me and to those who failed to attend this meeting, and also those who failed to receive a copy of The Union-Banner, which gave a correct report of the meeting, that we should analyze the report given in The Chilton County News. I do not attempt to say that the editor of The News drew up his report, or that he would knowingly permit such misrepresentation to appear in the columns of his paper. But since there was no names signed to this report I presume the editor is responsible for this incorrect report.

Now, Mr. Editor of The Chilton County News, your first charge was that this was a one-sided politically planned meeting. I wish to call your attention to the names of those who signed the call for the county-wide meeting: G. W. Willis, W. S. Willis, H. L. Bruce, C. O. Bell, Cornelius Caton, J. H. Jackson, E. A. Shirley, G. C. Donovan. Most of the above men have been life-long Democrats, and I am sure most of them voted the Democratic ticket in the last election.

The above names are evidence that partisian politics had no part in the call of this meeting and that your charge is untrue.

Your second charge that the people showed signs of being ready again for the "Hoover Prosperity" and five cent cotton is also untrue. You completely ignore the peoples' right to petition their representatives to remove or amend such laws as become burdensome and unjust to them.

You intimate that the farmers are not intelligent enough to assemble and draw up resolutions setting out their grievances, but that they should humble theirselves down and be satisfied with the recommendations of some highly paid white collared official.

I cannot understand just why you refer to me as being an employee of the Alabama Mills. If you refer to my working in this mill as being a disgrace, then you sting the pride of every employee of the milling industry throughout the nation.

I want you to understand Mr. Editor of the News, that the employees of the Alabama Mills, and other mills of the country, have just as respectable citizens as the News editor and its employees.

If you refer to me as being a tool in the hands of the Alabama Mills to fight down the triple A, then you charge the officials of the Alabama Mills, (Clanton Division) as being undermining. As I stated in the meeting, I have never discussed any of the government control acts with any of the mill officials.

Your inference as to my connection with the Alabama Mills is unethical and misleading. With reference to my being a defeated candidate, I wish to say that this has nothing to do with the discussion of the injustice imbedded in the triple A. I want to also remind you that I was defeated by a Reublican and not a Democrat, and that if I were trying to get revenge I would be fighting the Republican who defeated me and not the Democratic party as you infer.

Another charge that you made against me, that I, as chairman, would not allow open discussion on the question. This charge I brand as being untrue. The motion made by Lawyer Atkinson that both sides be permitted to discuss the question was voted down. The second motion was, that the resolutions be adopted as read. The whole house voted to adopt the resolution except twelve or fifteen, who raised their hand against any change in the triple A program.

I want to say that all charges that I took the meeting in my hands and run it to suit myself is untrue. But that the farmers took the meeting in charge and run it as they thought best. The charge that I called for a motion to adjourn after W. H. Gillespie had whispered in my ear that the Auburn delegation was entering the court room is untrue.

W. H. Gillespie never mentioned the Auburn delegation to me. He asked me if we had a secretary to take down the proceedings of the meeting.

I want you to understand Mr. News Editor that I served as chairman at the request of the people and that I was governed by the body and not by any particular person.

Your statement that I denied being afraid to discuss the question is one true statement you made in your report. I still deny being afraid to discuss the question with County Agent Fant or Dr. Duncan from Auburn. I did not attend the afternoon meeting but the reports given by many citizens who attended this meeting said the demonstration was about the same as the first meeting.

I would like for you to tell the people, Mr. News Editor, what part of the resolution is so worded that the vote was in reality "for repeal." It must be that you realize that the program was sponsored by the big farmers and that any amendment that would give the little farmer an even chance with the big farmer would ultimately result in the discontinuation of the program.

Another thing I would like to know, is what evidence you have that Lawyer Pitts and The Union-Banner editor drew up the resolutions offered at this meeting? I want to say that Lawyer Pitts and I have never discussed the triple A and that he nor the editor of The Union-Banner had anything to do with the drawing of the resolutions. If there is any criticism to be offered on the resolutions it belongs to me. For I drew them myself. You should never put supposition in the columns of your paper without producing some evidence for your self. Such statements are very misleading and should not be practiced if you wish for the people to read the columns of your paper.

The figures you gave showing the farmers the increase in farm receipts since 1932 are misleading, because you never mentioned the increase in farm disbursements. The farmers realize that cotton is bringing more per pound than in 1932. They also realize that the small amount of cotton they are allowed to sell and the rise in the cost of living have over-balanced the price of cotton.

The farmers are more intelligent than you, the county agent, and Dr. Duncan give them credit for, and they are at a stopping point until some radical changes are made.

The farmers remember the promise that the two-bale farmers would be exempt of all processing taxes. This promise was not kept true. There were numbers of promises that have not been kept, therefore he has stopped until some of the broken promises are made good. Now, Mr. News Editor, the farmers are looking for a square deal in the cotton program and from this on confine yourself more closely to the truth and the people will not be cancelling their subscription to The Chilton County News.

Now, my farmer friends, we are up against a rock wall and we must stand together if we ever expect to gain our rights. We must demand our rights through the newspapers. We must make our officials realize they are the peoples' servants and then justice will prevail. Yours for justice among all men.—W. L. SANDERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerald had as their week end guests Mrs. Gerald's brother and his family and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Horn of Birmingham.

CENTER HILL SINGING

The singing was called to order by the president, Mr. B. L. Cobb leading two songs. Prayer was offered by W. J. Northcutt.

The directors for the afternoon were: Benn Tom Haynes, Berney Dean Cobb, Mrs. J. E. Covy, Mrs. J. W. Collum, W. R. Scott, J. N. Scott and W. J. Nortcutt.

Organists for the afternoon were:, Mrs. Lonnie Cobb, Mrs. J. E. Covy, B. L. Cobb, J. W. Collum and Sam Collins.

The singing seemed to be enjoyed by both singers and listeners. Let's all remember our afternoon singings and keep them going.—Reporter.

NOTICE OF PARDON OR PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Josie Johnson, who was convicted in the circuit court of Chilton county on February 29, 1935 for manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of one year and one day to 18 months and one day, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for pardon or parole.—(Signed)—Josie Johnson. 10-31-2tp

Mrs. L. H. Reynolds and son, Omar, spent Thursday in Montgomery.

STATE GAME NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 29.—With Nov. 20 ringing in the hunting season on ducks, geese, brant and coot in Alabama, sportsmen throughout the state are urged by Conservation Commissioner I. T. Quinn to familiarize themselves with the new federal regulation on wild waterfowl.

On each of the 30 days of the season, which closes on Dec. 19, shooting is permitted between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The daily bag limit on ducks is 10 of any one kind or of all kinds which it is legal to shoot; on geese and brant, four a day in the aggregate; and on coot, 15 a day Possession at any one time is limited to one day's bag limit.

No automatic or hand-operated repeating shotgun capable of holding more than three shells at the time of hunting can be used in shooting migratory game birds. Rifles cannot be used to take migratory birds, nor any shotgun or bore larger than 10 gauge.

G. C. Walker made a business trip to Montgomery Thursday.

1936 Master De Luxe and Standard Chevrolets are Replete with New Features

New Master De Luxe and Standard Chevrolets for 1936 show marked advances in appearance and in engineering. Perfected hydraulic brakes, high-compression engines with full-length water jackets, and balanced carburetion are among the mechanical improvements. The solid steel Turret Top Fisher body is now used on the Standard as well as the Master De Luxe models. Either Knee-Action or conventional springing may be had in the Master models. The illustrations show: Top left, the Master De Luxe sport sedan, with built-in trunk; top right, the re-styled, deeply moulded radiator grille, used on all models; lower left, the simple arrangement of Chevrolet's perfected hydraulic brakes, all models; and, lower right, a Standard sedan.

ORIGINAL

The Leader's 16TH Anniversary

36-Inch BLUE CHEVIOTS, Yard 10c
PLAY CLOTH, Best Grade. Fast Colors, 15c Value 12½c
8-oz FEATHER TICK, Guaranteed Feather Proof, Yard 22c
Our Regular 10c OUTING, all Colors 8c
9-4 Heavy Weight SHEETING, 81 inches wide 29c
36-Inch BROADCLOTH, All Colors 9c
All Wool Angora SUITING, All Colors. Just the Thing for Suits or Dresses 44c
ALL SILK FLAT CREPE 48c
58-Inch All-Wool FLANNELS, in Red, Navy Blue, Green, Rust and Rose $1.48
60 x 76 DOUBLE PLAID BLANKETS 98c
66 x 80 Part Wool Plaid DOUBLE BLANKET $1.79
Ladies and Childrens KNIT CAPS 15c
Ladies and Childrens SUEDE JACKETS, In All Colors $1.48
Big Lot Ladies SWEATERS, In Red, Blue, Black, Coat Style, Pullover, with or without Collar 98c
Ladies Rayon and Knit BLOOMERS, 35c Values 23c
Ladies Broadcloth PRINCESS SLIPS 23c
Ladies Rayon PRINCESS SLIPS 44c
Childrens RIBBED STOCKINGS, All Colors 9c
All Wool Childrens SUITS 98c
Ladies COTTON HOSE, Black and Brown 8c

We're proud again to present to, we believe, the grandest and best Community in "Dear Old Dixie" our 16th Anniversary Sale. And as we always do, We again offer to our Friends values that we are sure will convince you of the true appreciation we are anxious to show, for the wonderful support you have given us in establishing our business so successfully that we are still with you, and hope to be here to serve you for many more years to come.

We assure you we have specially priced everything for this occasion, and our Fall and Winter Stock is brand new and will delight you.

Opening

Thursday, October 31st

Mens Heavy Weight UNION SUITS, 75c Quality 55c
Boys Heavy Grade UNION SUITS, 50c Quality 39c
MENS WORK SOX 5c
Mens and Boys All-Wool Heavy Weight ZIPPER COATS, each $2.69
MENS LEATHERETTE CAPS 25c
Mens GENUINE LEATHER CAPS, $1.25 Quality 94c
Mens RIDING BREECHES, Grey or Tan, All Sizes $1.69
Mens Corduroy HUNTING CAPS 44c
Mens All Solid Leather GLOVES 44c
Mens Leather PALM GLOVES, Elastic Back, Leather Finger Tips 23c
Mens Heavy Fleece-Lined JUMPERS, Full Cut $1.35
Mens and Boys Pull-Over SWEATERS, Black and Navy Blue 69c
Mens PULLOVER SWEATERS 44c
Mens and Boys Heavy ZIPPER JACKETS (Navy Blue Only) Special $1.79
One Lot Mens $1.65 DRESS SHIRTS 94c
One Lot Mens OVERALL JUMPERS, Good Quality 69c
One Lot Mens 220 Weight Pepperel Denim OVERALLS, Two Bib Pockets, Full and Roomy 79c
Lee and Polly Brand OVERALLS $1.19
One Lot Boys Khaki and Denim PANTS, small sizes only 44c
Mens Covert Cloth Work SHIRTS, Triple Stitched, Two Pockets, Cut Full. Colors: Grey, Brown, Tan, Blue 39c
Mens Flannel Work SHIRTS in Brown or Blue, $1 Quality 69c
Mens Zipper Flannel OVERSHIRT, $1.50 Value for 98c
Mens Fast Color DRESS SHIRTS 39c
One Lot of Mens Dress SHIRTS, all fast colors, $1.25 quality 79c

Bath Towels

Extra Heavy, Large Size TURKISH Bath Towels. Regular 29c Values

Each 19c

SCHOOL TABLETS

Regular 5c School Tablets Anniversary Special, 2 for 5c

HOSE

Ladies Full Fashioned Silk Hose Even better than you expect, ... 44c

QUILT ROLLS

These Quilt Rolls will please you And they are going at only 19c

PRINTS

15c quality, yard-width Fast Colored Prints, Yard 10c

Oil Cloth

This Cloth is in 46-inch Widths, and we offer a Large Assortment of Colors

Yard 23c

coats

Featuring the ever-charming loosely-dropped shoulders. They are cleverly belted, luxuriously collared and tailored perfectly in the new weaves that are warm and most becoming.

One Lot in Navy-Brown and Black, Action Back as well as Polo Style. Special $5.16

One Lot Beautifully Tailored Basket Weave Tree Bark, Action Back. These Coats are One of the most favored Coats Worn This Fall. Specially Priced For this Sale $9.16

Childrens Polo COATS, in Red, Brown and Rust. Sizes 8 to 14. Special this Sale $5.16

Ladies Rain Coats Sport Styles All Colors $3.16
Childrens RAIN COATS $2.16

DRESSES

One Lot of Silk Dresses in Friendly Crepes, Ruff Crepes, Triple Sheers, Etc., in all the Winter Shades, Rust, Wine, Green, Brown, Blue, Burgundy, Copen, Navy and Black Amazing Values at Such A low price $6.16

SHARE WITH US OUR

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Each Day at 2:00 p.m. We are to Give Away

FREE

A BEAUTIFUL SET OF GLASSWARE

Also with each $10.00 purchase we will give a BEAUTIFUL GIFT that will Make you long Remember Us.

One Lot Beautiful Flat Crepe Dresses, all colors $2.16

Wash Frocks, in Newest Fall Patterns, 96c and $1.96

Impressive? Should Say So!

A grouping smarter than we've ever asked you to look at. And as for prices we are giving you a "Break" that means money in Your Pocket.

One Lot of Mens Suits, Values up to $12.95, Carried Over from last Season Most all sizes while they last ..$4.96

One Lot of Mens Suits. Values up to $12.95. Broken Sizes, Marvelous Val. - Brown, Grey, Tan, Blue $8.16

100 Mens High Grade Suits in all Colors and Sizes. Every Suit All Wool New Material, $15 Val. .. $11.16

25 Boys Suits, Long Pants, All Wool, Large Sizes. Values up to $7.95, carried over From Last Season. A most Outstanding Value, Only $3.16

100 Boys fine Made Suits in Blues, Browns And Other Patterns. All sizes $6.95 Values for $4.16

Mens and Boys PANTS, All Sizes, $1.49 Quality 98c
One Lot Mens and Boys PANTS, Wonderful Quality $1.24
Mens First Quality Fancy DRESS SOX 8c
Mens All-Wool BOOT SOX 25c

Ladies Shoes

250 Pair of Womens Dress Oxfords in Broken Lots and Sizes. New Stock in Low or High Heels to be Cleaned out so as to keep our Stock Clean For only $1.00

All Womens and Girls Work or School Oxfords in Star Brand, All-Leather Shoes. Never Sold for Less Than $1.95, Special $1.74

1,000 Pair of Brand New Womens Dress Oxfords we are offering for This Special Event for only $1.88

500 Pair Boys and childrens Shoes. Full Line Composition Soles. Former Price, $1.25 sizes 6 to 2 86c

One Lot of Womens Dress Oxfords in Kid Leathers and Low Heels $1.95 Value $1.48

Men's Shoes

200 Pair of Mens HIGH GRADE WORK SHOES, All Sizes $1.98 Value for $1.49

One Lot of Boys Work SHOES, $1.95 Values $1.48

Children Star Brand Shoes or Oxfords in Black or Tan $1.48 Values for $1.00

500 Pair of Mens High Class Dress Oxfords In Black and Brown. Wide and narrow Toes. Crease or Cap Toe in Leather or Composition Soles. Sizes 6 to 11, Val. up to $2.45 for $1.84

500 Pair Star Brand Shoes $2.95 Value for $2.35

One Lot Mens Star Brand WORK SHOES $1.94 TO $2.44

LADIES' HATS

Most Beautiful line of LADIES' HATS in the Season's Latest Colors. Small, Medium and Large Head sizes. Values Up to $1.95 for 98c

A Beautiful Line of $2.98 HATS showing All Colors and Shapes. The Greatest Values of the Season $1.74

THE LEADER

MANAGER, M. LANDE

Clanton, Alabama

MEN'S HATS

One Lot of MENS HATS, Broken sizes and Colors. All Silk Lined. Worth Up to $1.95, Special 94c

One Lot of Wide Two and 3-8 - inch Brim HATS, in Brown Gray and Black. $2.25 Value $1.79

Big Lot Mens 75c DRESS CAPS 46c

One Lot of Mens 50c CAPS 33c

POOR C

ISABELLA NEWS

There will be a Hallowe'n party Friday night, November 1st, at the Agriculture building. There will be lots of spooky entertainments, such as: Ghost stories, chamber of horrors, a ball of fortune, and a short play. Admission will be 10c. Come and bring someone with you.

The Jeffersonian Society met last Wednerday, October 23rd, and rendered an interesting program.

Devotional, Mr. M. W. Mims.

Talk on "Sportsmanship," Mr. Stokely Porch.

A poem, "Consider the Ant," by Herbert Morgan.

Reading, Jack Tucker.

Jokes, Frank Deason.

Who's Who in the Society

Most popular boy, Herbert Morgan; Most handsome boy, Napoleon Jones; most intelligent bay, Calvin Giles; ugliest boy, Robert Bryant; most conceited, Mr. Marion Mims; best sport, Dorman Williams; biggest pest, Arnold Bryant.

On October 23, the F. F. A. chapter of Isabella met at the vocational building and the following program was presented: A report on the F. F. A. Convention at Auburn Last Summer, by James Calfee; The Life of Robert E. Lee, by Carson Williams; Project Relationship to F. F. A. Work, by Mr. Smith. The activity program for the following year was read and approved by the chater.

1. Hold a father, son, mother, and daughter banquet, provided building is replaced in time.
2. Enter at least two contests.
3. One hundred per cent dues paid.
4. Record kept on file of year's work.
5. Place signs on all roads leading to school.
6. Keep all project records up-to-date.
7. Send two delegates to State Convention and encouage as many others to go as possible.
8. Take in as many new members as possible.
9. Raise green-hand members to future farmer degree, when they become eligible.
10. All eligible members apply for State Farmer Degree.
11. Have minimum of four socials the coming year.
12. Each member read at least two F. F. A. library books.
13. Put on two chapter programs.
14. Hold joint meetings with F. H. A. club.
15. Reporters send F. F. A. news to county papers twice each month.
16. Have chapter nfetings twice each month.
17. Have officers oen meetings with opening and closing ceremonies.

Listen folks. Don't forget about the Hallowe'en party Friday night.

The F. H. A. met for a meeting on October 23. The program was based on Parlimentary Procedure.

on Parlimentary Procedure. Devotional, Frances Mims; Notes of Parliamentary Procedure, Willie Nell Owens; Parliamentary Procedure, Lou McCrow and Lillian Scarbrough; Objectives were read by Maxine Oden:

1. To sponsor at least two interesting programs twice monthly.
2. To encourage all members who are eligible to become second degree members.
3. To urge all members to become state members.
4. Prepare for the beautification of our school surroundings.
5. To help F. F. A. members to sponsor a banquet.
6. To sponsor at least two good socials during the year.
7. To encourage all members to pay their dues.

CENTER HILL NEWS

We still have quite a bit of sickness around here, though we are glad to report that Mrs. V. T. Cobb and Mildred are both improving.

Mr. James Gentry is still in Central Alabama Hospital, suffering from an attack of lock jaw. Mrs. Emmett Gentry is able to be up again.

Miss Dorothy Dees spent Saturday night with Miss Irene Lesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Cobb were the guests of Mr. Cobb's sister, Mrs. Rufus Childress Sunday.

Miss Pauline Lesley spent the week end in Clanton with Miss Ruby Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cobb were here for an hour or two Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Price spent Saturday night and Sunday with their danghter, Mrs. Ward Thrash.

J. W. Collum, Jr. was the guest of G. A. Hucks Saturday night and Sunday.

We are all proud for Miss Irene Lesley is back at work in Clanton at the Central Alabama Hospital.

Mrs. Flora Northcutt visited Mrs. V. T. Cobb Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ray of Praco spent a while Friday morning with Mrs. J. W. Collum.

Messrs. J. E. Cobb, J. W. Collum and Bert Frederick were in Birmingham last week attending the Farmer's Union meeting

Mrs. Gothard and Mrs. Canie Frederick spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Golden Gothard.—Reporter.

Bob Connell of Refuge community was in Clanton Friday and subscribed to the paper for his father-in-law, Henry Mims of Sylacauga.

Concord - Billingsley

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Brown and family spent Sunday in Calera as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knowles.

Miss Jessie Mae Pierce spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Eula Belle Williams.

Mr. Charlie Williams of Gadsden spent Friday and Friday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams.

Mr. T. J. Deramus returned home Sunday after a week's visit with relatives at White City and Haynes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams and family attended the quarterly conference of Verbena charge at Mt. Pisgah last Saturday.

Mrs. M. W. Brown visited Mrs. Dickinson Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs Clarence Williams spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams.

Ranold Ledbetter spent the day with his cousin, Allen Williams, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Deramus of near Haynes were the spend the day guests of their aunt, Mrs. J. P. Williams, and family last Sunday.

Mr. Will Adams was in this community last Monday on business

Prospective Brides Make Careful Study

"Certified Bride" is the striking degree conferred upon graduates from the new marriage course established by Boston University. This fine institution has formally recognized the desire of countless young women to become better equipped for the life long job of presiding over a good home.

A canvass among some of the marriageable young women in this community disclosed no "certified brides" but it did show a growing appreciation of up-to-date thinking, coupled with modern methods and equipment, as prerequisite to successful home making.

Prospective brides were found to be making a careful study of the social responsibilities attendant upon marriage, also the practical side of operating a domestic plant.

While interviews with these young women brought out a variety of views as to just what constitutes a happy marriage, there was expressed a unanimous belief in "feeding the brute" as an absolutely necessary domestic accomplishment.

Prospective brides also evinced a somewhat surprising knowledge of modern equipment as a means of disposing of household duties and still leaving time for shopping, recreation and self-improvement.

Here is a most interesting fact. Every girl had near the top of her list of things specified for house-keeping a modern kitchen cabinet.

Forward looking young women of today have learned the difference between scrubbing a pine table and passing a damp cloth over the glistening surface of a cabinet table top. They recognize the importance of orderly arrangement of utensils and food ingredients, in fact could almost count the enormous number of steps saved by the use of a fine kitchen cabinet.

This view of the situation is confirmed by local merchants. They find that while the younger women, and especially college women, are taking the lead in purchasing cabinets, the idea is being rapidly adopted in a majority of the better class homes. The growing popularity of cabinets is proved by the rapid increase in sales. Some stores have found difficulty in stocking enough cabinets to supply the demand.

RED CROSS SAFETY PROGRAM IS UNDER WAY IN ALABAMA

Washington, D. C., October 29.—Gratified with Alabama's response to the Red Cross Home and Farm Accident Prevention Campaign, launched October 1, officials at National Headquarters here announced today that 17 Chapters in the State have already appointed committees to carry ont the plan.

Other Chapters are rapidly completing plans to put the program into operation at an early date, reports to Headquarters indicate. In many counties Chapters are selecting locations for the establishment of Highway First Aid Stations and arranging first aid in instruction for persons employed in filling stations, wayside stores, tourist camps, etc., where these "mercy" stations will be located.

Four such stations are already established in Alabama; two in Jefferson county near Birmingham and two in Chilton county near Clanton.

Miss Margaret Jones returned to Montgomery Monday after spending a two week's vacation with her parents in Clanton.

BETHSALEM NEWS

The singing society met Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with a large attendance.

The directors for the afternoon were as follows: Clyde Wilkins, Zelma Wilkins, Maudie Jones, William Wilkins, Ettie Charles Wilkins, Valera Stroud, Leona Bearden, Willie Nell Cox, Launa Hill, Edna Spigener, Cecil Yeargan, Ella Mae Jones and Josephine Billingsley.

We wish to welcome all visitors, both listeners and singers, and invite them back each fourth Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.—Reporter.

FOREST FIRE STATISTICS FOR NATION ISSUED BY GOVERNOR

Montgomery.—The U. S. Forest Service has just issued a full compilation of forest fire rotection data for the entire United States, exclusive of Alaska. The preparation of these statistics is a long and laborious task which is begun by the Government workers at Washington shortly after the close of each calendar year. The publication of the data usually does not ensue until autumn of the following year.

Of interest to Alabamians are the figures for this State and for the balance of the region presenting approximately the same fire protection conditions, comprising the State of Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. The Federal statistics show, among other things, the gross area within each state included in the protective work of the various State Forestry Departments, the cost to the state of the fire protection activities and the percentage of the protected area that has been burned over during the calendar year.

During 1934 Georgia protected 4,565,280 acres at a cost to the state of .35 of one cent per acre and a loss of 7.57 per cent of the area involved. Florida, 1,556,250 acres at a state cost of 2.56 cents per acre, losing 6.91 per cent of the protected area; Alabama 12,604,000 acres at a cost to the state of .09 of a cent per acre, with a loss of 3.39 per cent of the protected acreage; Mississippi 3,734,820 acres of .79 of one cent per acre, with 4.21 per cent burned over; Louisiana, 5,660,520 acres at a cost to the State of 1.31 cents per acre, with a loss of 1.45 per cent of the protected territory, and Texas, 8,010,000 acres at a cost of .75 of one per cent per acre with a loss of 1.27 per cent of the protected area.

The Federal statistics show that the average gross area protected in these states during 1934 was 6,210,810 acres, the average proportion of such territory burned over was 6,210,810 acres, the average proportion of such territory burned over was 4.13 per cent and the average state cost per acre .98 of one cent. They further indicate that Alabama included in her territory organized for fire prevention more than twice the average area, sustained considerably less than the average loss but expended only one-eleventh of the average state cost per acre.

Mrs. Mattie Fox is visiting in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trotter, of Jordan Dam spent Thursday in Clanton.

Miss Elizabeth Harris, who is attending Huntingdon College, was home for the week end.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Oct. 29.—A radio program featuring the University of Alabama will be presented by Radio Station WSM, in Nashville, on November 11, at 9:30 p.m. An especial feature of the program will be an account of the life of one of the University's most outstanding alumni, Dr. Robert J. Van de Graaf, of Tuscaloosa, former Rhodes scholar and now Professor of Physics at Princeton University. Dr. Van de Graaf is noted for his experiment in which he broke down the atom, a feat hitherto considered impossible.

A banquet combining the annual celebration of the School of Commerce and Business Administration at the University, and celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the School of Commerce, will be held at the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham on November 1.

County superintendents of education, high school principals, and teachers of physical and health education from all over the state gathered at the University Saturday for an all-day conference on the new course of study in physical education now in force throughout the state's school system The conference was called by Dr. Ethel Saxmon, head of the department of Physical and Health Education for girls at the University.

Whereas 81 per cent of the negro men above ten years of age in Alabama are gainfully employed, only 76 per cent of the white men in the same group are so occupied, it is shown in a recent statistical study made by C. J. Jordan, working in conjunction with the Deartment of Vocational Education at the University. Only 16 er cent of the white women work, however, while 40 per cent of the negro women work for money.

The Alabama Crimson Tide will meet the University of Kentucky in Birmingham on Saturday. This is the fifteenth time the two teams have met. Alabama has lost one of the series so far.

Find Out

From Your Doctor if the "Pain" Remedy You Take Is Safe.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it — in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

Bayer Aspirin

JUST RECEIVED

A shipment of Fine WESTERN MARES. Ages from 2 to 6 years old. For SALE or TRADE. Come and see them.

R. W. LOWE

South Clanton, Ala.

SORE SWOLLEN BURNING

FEET

CRACKED TOES PEELING TOES

ITCHING TOES

Sore, tired, aching feet—cracked, bleeding and itching toes—how quickly these troubles yield to Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil! An amazing antiseptic, it promptly kills the parasites that cause itch, irritation and cracking. It combats also the action of sweat acids which puff and swell the feet. A remarkable healing agent, it helps repair the sore and damaged skin.

You have never tried anything like Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It makes for foot comfort never before known. Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and sold by all druggists at 30c and 60c with guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

Alabama's Greatest Daily Newspaper Value . . . .

The Birmingham Post

Will be sent to you by mail every week-day for ..... ONE YEAR $3.00

Or With Your Favorite Magazines

A Few of Which Are Listed Below

CLUB NO. 2 — ALL SIX FOR ONLY $3.45 — Value $4.50

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
Southern Agriculturist, 1 year
Gentlewoman, 1 year
Country Home, 1 year
Good Stories, 1 year
The Farm Journal, 1 year

CLUB NO. 3 — ALL FIVE FOR ONLY $4.50 — Value $5.00

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
American Magazine, 1 year
Pictorial Review, 1 year
McCall's Magazine, 1 year
Progressive Farmer, 2 years

USE THIS COUPON

THE BIRMINGHAM POST,
Birmingham Ala.
Gentlemen:

Enclosed find $.....for which please enter, or renew, my subscription for one year to The Birmingham Post only ( ) or Club No. ....., as above.

Name .....

Address .....

R. F. D. .....

This rate applies only to R. F. D. box holders and points not served by carriers.

Salesmen Wanted—Write circulation department, The Birmingham Post for details. You can make $3 a day.

ORIGINAL

Plant Now

Yard Rye Grass and Fertilize with Vigoro, Basic Slag, Sheep Manure, Bone Meal or Cotton Seed Meal.

HAIRY VETCH
AUSTRIAN PEAS
SEED OATS
SEED WHEAT

Take advanetage of the late rains. A late planting of Turnip Seed should make you some nice salad.

We pay Top Market Prices for Butterfat and are equipped to buy all you might have.

Tune in Friday, 7:00 a.m. WAPI and hear "Clanton On The Air."

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

PLANTING WINTER COVER CROPS

Best results from Austrian winter peas and hairy vetch are obtained when planting is done between September 15 and October 15, but due to the drought Chilton county farmers have not been able to plant during this period.

When it is impossible to do a thing at the best time then it is necessary to take a second debt. We have had rains in most of the county this week and I believe it will be advisable to go ahead with the planting of peas and vetch.

Let's not forget that peas or vetch will increase the yield of corn 20 bushels per acre and will double the yield of cotton on average land in Chilton county.

You will need 30 pounds of Austrian winter peas or 20 ounds of hairy vetch seed per acre, and remember that is is essential to inoculate the seed.

There are several good methods used in planting. Any way you plant, provided you cover the seed two or three inches deep will usually give good results. It is better on sandy land, especially, to cover your seed in such a way that you will have plenty of drainage, example: Sow your seed broadcast and plow the dirt to the cotton row, leave the middle lower than the row.

Oats make a good winter cover crop. Oats planted in the fall on an average, made considerable more feed than oats planted in hte spring. In addition to feed, fall sown oats protect our land during the winter.

Austrian winter peas, vetch and oats may be purchased in Clanton and probably other places in Chilton counyt.—J. W. Fant, County Agent.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.

Office Over
MAZAR'S STORE

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

666
Checks COLDS and FEVER
Liquid - Tablets
Salve - Nose Drops
First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

MUSIC APPRECIATION CLUB SPONSOR ARTISTS NOV. 8th

Two real artists, ertrude Peterson and Lucy Lewis, who have been brought to Alabama through interest and efforts of Christine McCann, will appear in Clanton on Friday, November 8th.

These two young ladies are harpists of broad note, and their effectiveness on the stage, their gracious appearance elicit the admiration of their audiences.

Get Rid of Malaria!

Banish Chills and Fever!

To conquer Malaria, you must do two things. (1) Destroy the infection in the blood. (2) Build up the blood to overcome the effects and to fortify against further attack. There is one medicine that does these two things and that is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic! The tasteless quinine in Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic destroys the malarial infection in the blood while the iron builds up the blood. Thousands of people have conquered Malaria with the aid of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. In addition to being a noted remedy for Malaria, it is also an excellent tonic of general use. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take and contains nothing harmful. Even children like it and they can take it safely. For sale by all drug stores. Now two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money.

PERCY M. PITTS TAKES NEWS TO TASK ON REPORT PUBLISHED

Editor Chilton County News:

Under the caption of the AAA meeting in your issue of the 24th in discussing the recent meeting of the cotton growers and farmers which was held last week, since you saw fit to mention my name personally as follows: "Although it is generally believed that the resolutions rendered in the meeting were drawn by the editor of The Union-Banner and Percy M. Pitts, Republican Attorney, shortly after the closing of this meeting Mr. Pitts declared that he was not informed well enough to discuss it intelligently."

This is to advise you that prior to this meeting held at the courthouse last week that I had never discussed directly or indirectly with either the editor of The Union-Banner or Mr. W. L. Sanders, the chairman of the meeting or anyone else directly or indirectly regarding a resolution or resolutions introduced. I believe that the readers of your paper will greatly appreciate your publishing facts, instead of dealing so much in generalities and beliefs. Further I do not appreciate the insinuation that I would attempt to advise with or draft resolutions affecting the welfare of our county and particularly our farmers welfare, unless I was thoroughly familiar and informed of the issues involved, and thought it was for the best interest of our producers in Chilton county. It is true, that I did not attend the meeting and never entered the courtroom, and it is further a fact that I stated on the street near Alred Drug Co., while the meeting was in progress, to your representative, Mr. Norris, while the meeting was being discussed, that I was not well enough up on the subject to discuss it intelligently, as I had not had time to study the proposition.

Should it be an unpardonable sin to be a Republican Attorney, I am guilty as charged, and so far I have been unable to be convinced that I am wrong. I feel that the farmers and cotton producers of Chilton county, who apparently attended this meeting in full force and who have had actual experience in handling their cotton under the AAA plans are parties qualified to pass upon this subject more than any attorney, College president, or the head of any extension service group, and for this reason I have had nothing to do with the proposition, directly or indirectly, as a Republican Attorney, or otherwise.

Kindly show me the courtesy of publishing this letter and correcting the inference, insinuation or misstatement of facts pertaining to me.

I am mailing a copy of this letter today, also to The Union-Banner.

PERCY M. PITTS.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

FEEDING HOGS

Experiments show that a farmer can get better results in growing hogs if he uses a supplement to corn in his feed. The following figures show some comparison of corn along and corn mixed with other feeds:

1. When corn alone is used it takes 10.7 bushels to produce 100 pounds of gain.

2. When corn is used with tankage and cotton seed meal, cotton seed meal and tankage should be mixed in equal parts and kept where hogs can feed on it at all times. It takes four and two-thirds bushels of corn, 44.3 pounds of tankage and 44.3 pounds of cotton seed meal to produce 100 pounds gain.

3. When corn is fed with skim milk the hog should have all the skim milk it will consume. It takes 5.3 bushels of corn and 445 pounds skim milk to produce 100 pounds gain.

4. When hogs are grazed on peanuts 250 pounds of peanuts will produce 100 pounds of gain.

Tankage will cost about $50.00 per ton.

Mineral mixture consisting of equal parts by weight of charcoal, slaked lime and salt should be kept before the hogs at all times for best results with any of the above rations.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The teachers and pupils of Vermont Jr.High school are planning a Hallowe'en party to be given on October 31, at the school building, for the benefit of the boys and girls basket ball teams. No admission will be charged, but hot dogs, cold drinks, candy and peanuts will be sold. Fortune-telling, contests, bobbing for apples and fishing wil be carried on. Everyone will enjoy the games. Prizes will be given for the best Hallowe'en costume. Buy your hat, to complete your costume, at the school Thursday night. Witches and ghosts will be seen everywhere. It will be fun to go to the house of horror, that is if you are ffortunate enough to return. Don't miss the fun Thursday night.

VERMONT SCHOOL

The basket ball boys and girls are planning on winning many games this year. Last Friday, both boys and girls played the out-siders. The girls score was 17 to 5 and the boys score was 12 to 7 in favor of Vermont.

The Junior three class organized an English club last week. Officers were as follows: President, Lavern Crane; vice-president, Bill Traywick; secretary and treasurer, Woody Klinner; program committee, Calvin Chamber, Andrew Lee Turner and Thurmond Milford. This club is hoping to do some splendid work throughout the coming year.

There is being a program given every Friday afternoon by the students of this school. Everybody is invited.

The boy's basket ball team will play Union Grove on Friday, November 1st. at Union Grove.

Our shades have arrived and we are proud of them.

There is going to be a fiddler's convention at this place. The date will be announced later Everybody is invited.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

The annual Coffee County Fair will open at Enterprise, Nov. 4, and close Nov. 9.

The new Strand Theater, under the management of Eddie Watson, has been opened at Montevallo.

A steel tower is to be erected on Millstone Mountain two miles east of Lynn for fire observation.

Sam Helburn, Montgomery, was elected Alabama Kiwanis district governor at the annual district convention at Gadsden.

Nearly 200 men returned to work when the Anniston Soil Pipe Co. closed for two years, resumed operations Nov. 1.

Capt. John Donaldson of Birmingham has assumed his duties as director of aeronautics in Alabama under the State Aviation Commission.

Comptroller General McCarl has approved a $28,393 WPA project for the renovation and alteration of the executive mansion at Montgomery.

The State Department of Education has dispatched prorata checks totaling $336,671 to counties as the state's last payment for the fiscal year 1934-35.

Tentative plans to build a tin plate mill at Gadsden have been disclosed by W. H. Coverdale, of New York, president of the Gulf States Steel Co.

The rally of educational forces in nine counties of District Eight will be held on Nov. 16 instead of Nov. 23, at Florence State Teachers' College.

The $2,000 to solve the school book shortage among needy Montgomery children has been solved by appropriations of $1,000 each by the city and county.

Members of the Alabama Aviation Commission met in Montgomery and completed its organization. Theodore Swann, Birmingham industralist, is chairman.

Appropriations voted by the 1935 Legislature exceed anticipated revenues by $5,300,000, Comptroller C. W. Lee estimated as he drew up a budget for the coming year.

Officials of Birmingham Post No. 1, American Legion, have invited the Legion rehabilitation committee for the Southeast to hold its Spring conference there in 1936.

Commissioner W. O. Downs, Birmingham, has instructed City Atty W. J. Wynn to draft an ordinance prohibiting advertising sound trucks from using the city streets.

Alabama State Board of Pharmacy will be headed by John A. Edwards of Anniston during the coming year. Formerly vice-president, he was elected to the presidency recently.

Gov. Bibb Graves has granted permanent paroles to 15 state convicts, but denied the application of 17 who had won approval for clemency from the State Board of Pardons.

Weatherford Durrett, Tuscaloosa grocer, was shot in an attempted robbery at his store. Malcolm Spencer, 26, was arrested for the shooting and is being held in County Jail there.

Additional Alabama Works Progress Administration projects calling for expenditure of $2,037,686 have been given final approval in Washington by Comptroller General J. R. McCarl.

Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, director of the State Department of Archives and History, has announced that the 1935 statistical register would be ready for distribution around Nov. 15.

Engineers have completed their survey of the proposed new Odenville-Pell City road and are expected to submit their plans to the St. Clair County Commission within the next few days.

Monroe County, acting under the Lee act of the 1935 Legislature, has started the refunding of its debt and has notified all holders of county warrants to register with the county comptroller.

Jim Daily, chief deputy sheriff of Walker County, has prepared for any efforts of prisoners to escape from the County Jail. He has purchased two bloodhounds from kennels at Forsyth, Mo.

Preparations for launching Alabama's school building program of $5,000,000 through PWA grants was abruptly halted when the validity of two acts of the 1935 Legislature involving issuance of school warrants was questioned.

More than 1,026,000 persons over 10 years of age in Alabama are gainfully employed in some job or profession, according to a statistical study completed by C. J. Jordan, working in conjunction with the Deparament of Vocational Education at the University of Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q Wade, Mr. James Wade and Mr. G. C. Walker spent Friday in Montgomery.

HODGENS FAMILY EXPRESSES THANKS

The family of Mr. D. H. Hodgens, of Pleasant Grove (Jemison) community, wishes to express their sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness extended them during their recent bereavement. The help and sympathy of their friends was unstinted, and so are the words of appreciation of the family. May the blessings of God rest upon each and everyone, is their sincere prayer.

Mrs. Sam Box and little Betty Box, of Birmingham were the guests of her parents Thursday and Friday.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Many relatives and friends gathered together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Dennis to celebrate her mother, Mrs. Sallie Davis' eightieth birthday last Sunday. Many beautiful presents were given by children, grand children and friends. At noon a bountiful dinner was spread.

Those enjoying the day were: Mr. and Mrs. G. C. White and children, Thomas, Willie and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ware and children, Clyde and Shirley Sue, Mrs. J. C. Davis and little son, Derl Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis, Mr. and Mrs W. D. Davis and children, Lillie Maye, Lois and Ruby, Earnestine Davis Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis and little son, Oneal.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Jackson and little daughter, Dorothy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bowles, Coolidge DeVaughn, Douglas Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Davis and little daughter, Helen Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wells and children, Ottis, Curtis, and Helen, Jesse and Pearl Davis, Mr. A. T. Davis and three boys, Alonza, Sam and Joseph, Mrs. Ameline Bates, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tucker, Mr. Simmie Scott, Mr. L. G. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Davis and little daughter, U. L., Mrs. Velma Davis and children, Bobbie Joe and Jerry Donald, Mr. Albert Davis and little daughter, Nina Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Winford Jackson, Mr. M. C. Jackson, Mr and Mrs. Vester Oaks, Mrs. Lilla Eiland, Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis Eiland and little son Marvis, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. G. White and children, Archie and Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben White and little son, Jimmie, Mr. Hermon Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. B. O Dennis and children, Ruth, Esther Lee and Lois.

In the afternoon about 2:30 o'clock they heard some wonderful preaching by Elders L. G. Warren and E. B. Tucker. At the close of the day, all went home wishing for her many more happy birthdays.—A grand daughter.

THE
UNION-BANNER
Will Sell During the Next Few Days For
$1.00 A Year
SUBSCRIBE NOW!
This Special Offer Will Not Last Long!

BE PROTECTED BY A LEGAL RESERVE COMPANY

LUQUIRE INSURANCE

Offers You

* Funeral services anywhere within forty miles of funeral homes.
* Conveyance for remains to church, cemetery or home or to place where burial is desired under terms of policy.
* No charge is made for the use of chapels.
* That extra factor of safety. A legal reserve company.
* A good policy! A safe company! Adequate reseves to fulfill every contract and protect every policyholder.

The Cash and Funeral Plan policy provides not only a casket and funeral, but additional cash to help cover the expense of last illness, grave or other expenses

Extra Benefits
All policies issued by this company contains clauses providing for disability benefits.

LUQUIRE
FUNERAL HOMES INSURANCE CO.
Home Office: Birmingham, Ala.

Lower Rates
For instance, the rate at the age of 20 is only 9c a week; age 40 only 17c a week.

LUQUIRE INSURANCE IS "SAFE AND DEPENDABLE"

Authorized By Contract to Honor And Service Luquire Policies

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
Clanton Alabama
Phones 10-9-2

POOR C

South Clanton Specials

You Can't Go Wrong on These Bargains

8-LB VEGETOLE — SHORTENING, Carton $1.05
4-LB VEGETOLE — SHORTENING, Carton .. 53c
8-LB CARTON — PURE LARD $1.49
4-LB CARTON — PURE LARD, ... 76c
3-LB PAIL — SNOWDRIFT 55c
6-LB PAIL — SNOWDRIFT $1.05

CORN FLAKES, 2 Pkgs 15c
A-1 CRACKERS, 1-lb box 10c
CHUM SALMON, Tall Can ..10c
Mother's COCOA, 1-lb can 10c
TOMATOES, No. 2 can, 2 fr 15c

WHILE THEY LAST
MIXED VETCH, Lb 8½c
AUSTRIAN PEAS, Lb 5½c
ABRUZZI RYE, per bushel $1.85
5 BU. TEXAS RED RUST PROOF — Oats, Texas Grown, $3.25
Fulghum Oats, 5 bu. bags ..$3.50

RIFLE CARTRIDGES
22 Short, Clean Bore, per box 15c
22 Long, Clean Bore, per box 20c
22 Long Rifle, Clean Bore, bx 25c
No. 12, 16 and 20 GAUGE — SHOTGUN SHELLS, box 55c
BUY ALL YOU NEED NOW

OVERALL SPECIALS
$1.50 and $1.65 VALUES — Liberty Best Grade, Pr $1.35
8-OZ MASTER CLOTH — Carhartt's, $1.75 Value $1.49
Lee, 8-oz Jelt Denim, pair ..$1.59

$1.98 VALUE — GOOD WORK — SHOES For Men, pair .. $1.69
36-Inch OUTING, Fancy, yd 13c
SHEETING, LL, Best Grade 10c
GUARANTEED FAST COLOR — Pepperell Prints, Yard 18c
GUARANTEED FAST COLORS — Bordon's Prints, Yard 14c
PLAIN OR SELF RISING — Good FLOUR, 24 Lbs 90c
MAMMY'S FAVORITE — COFFEE, 4-Lb Pail 75c

Flour and Feed Bargains

24 LBS PLAIN — GOLD FLAKE $1.00
24-lbs Self-Rising $1.05
SHORTS, White Tulip $1.90
24 PER CENT — DAIRY FEED, Jazz ... $2.10
16 PER CENT — WHITE CLOVER $1.60
PURITY — SCRATCH FEED $2.25
HIGH LIFE — LAYING MASH $2.50

We Are Prepared to Serve You With All Feeds

R. W. LOWE
SOUTH CLANTON

SINGING AT LIBERTY HILL

An all day singing was held at Liberty Hill Baptist church on Sunday, October 27.

Mr. L. T. Grant was elected chairman for the day. Directors for the morning were: L. T. Grant, I. D. Huett, O. C. Bennett, Hiriam Littlejohn, Audie Brown, Marvin Lowery, Clarence Billingsley, Dave Melton, Leonard Culp, O. L. Devaughn and W. J. Coe.

Pianists for the day were: Mr. Clarence Billingsley, Miss Virginia Eubanks and Miss Luanna Jones.

At twelve o'clock a bountiful lunch was served, wrich was thoroughly enjoyed by all. One hour was taken for lunch, and at one o'clock the afternoon singing began.

Directors for the afternoon were: L. T. Grant, Jesse Jones, Archie DeVaughn, Orbie DeVaughn, the Liberty Hill quartet, Mr. Boswell, Mr. J. W. DeVaughn, O. L. DeVaughn, I. D. Huett, Zane Lowery, Dock Harris, Mr. Brown, Lee Grant, Mr. Billingsley, Mr. Stanley, Leonard Culp, Glover Smith, Joyce Varden and Rev. M. Lockhart.

Pianists for the afternoon were: Lee Grant, Mrs. Bertie Johnson, Miss Virginia Eubans, Mrs. Clarence Murrah, Mrs. Renfroe Jones, Mrs. Steve Stanley, and Miss Luanna Jones.

Rev. M. Lockhart gave the benedicion. A good time was had by all and we are looking forward to another soon.

Farm Contract Canceled On Account Duplication

Clanton, Ala. October 5, 1935
STATE OF ALABAMA
CHILTON COUNTY

We, the undersigned, recommend that Lewis A. Chandler's contract No. 9363 and application No.0-208 be cancelled since this contract is a duplication of contract No. 2197. All certificates issued from application No. 0-208 shall be cancelled.

We further recommend that Lewis A. Chandler pay Mrs. Emma Gandy $10.00 rent for 10 acres of land during the crop year of 1935. Mrs. Gandy is to pay Lewis A. Chandler $6.93 as his part of rental received from the Secretary of Agriculture, under contract No. 2197 and $3.95 parity received from same contract.

We further recommend that Mrs. Gandy have 515 pounds gin certificates transferred through the Assistant in Cotton Adjustment's office to Lewis A. Chandler or $25.75 if 515 pounds certificates have been used or sold.

The above recommendations are effective immediately.

Signed: O. H. McDowell
J. B. Hicks
O. L. DeVaughn

Approved:
J. W. Fant, County Agent.

Next Time You Come to Birmingham Stop at the
HOTEL MOLTON

You'll Enjoy your Meals at the NEW MOLTON GRILL

YOU'LL like it here—the spacious, comfortable rooms—the considerate, attentive service—the quiet and restful atmosphere—the convenient location, just two blocks from the shopping district.

$1.50 a Day Up

W. J. SKELTON, Mgr.

LIST OF CHILTON W. M. U. OFFICERS FOR 1936

I wish to say before I give these names of these officers that every woman that failed to attend the quarterly meeting held at New Cedron last Thursday sure missed one of the best meetings held in some time, both in number and spirit. So, make up your mind to attend the annual meeting that is to be held at Chestnut Creek, in January.

The report of the nominations committee is as follows: We, your committee on nominations, beg to submit the following officers for W. M. U. for 1936.

Superintendent, Mrs. J. Lee Grant, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 2; Associational superintendent, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Thorsby, Ala.; secretary-treasurer, Luanna Jones, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 2.

Group Leaders

No. 1, Mrs. T. I. Ward, Jemison, Ala.
No. 2, Mrs. Donald Merchant, Thorsby, Ala.
Ala.
No. 3, Mrs. H. L. Ratliff, Maplesville, Ala.
No. 4, Mrs. A. L. Bearden, Verbena, Ala.
Young Peoples Leader, Ora DeVaughn, Clanton, Ala., Rte. 2.
Stewardship chairman, Mrs. Stella Shoults, Lawley, Ala.
Personal service chairman, Mrs. C. L. Wilkins, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 1.
Mission study chairman, Mrs. S. J. M. Webb, Thorsby, Ala.
Scholarship chairman, Mrs. W. H. Raybon, Thorsby, Ala.
White Cross chairman, Mrs. Willie Hicks, Lawley, Ala.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. W. Jones,
Mrs. A. L. Bearden,
Luanna Jones.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

OUR CLASSIFIED ADVS.

If you want to buy anything or want to sell anything, don't fail to look over the column of classified advs. in the The Union-Banner. You will find it on the back page every week, and you might find just the thing you have been looking for. And, too, it might not be a bad idea for you yourself to advertise that extra wagon, cow, or plow stock which you have no use for. Somebody else might want it bad enough to pay your price. Use and read the Banner's want adv column. It will pay you.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

Each - Tapscott

Mrs. J. E. Each of Thorsby, Ala., announces the engagement of her daughter, Juanita, to Grady Tapscott of Thorsby, Ala. The wedding to take place in December.

Seales - Harper

A wedding of much interest to the people over the county is that of Mrs. Sarah H. Seales of Selma, Ala., and Mr. G. F. Harper of Thorsby. Mrs. Seales is the widow of the late Farmer Seales of Selma, Ala. Mr. Harper is a prominent merchant of Thorsby. The wedding took place on Wednesday evening, October 23 at the Harper home, relatives and a few close friends being present. Rev. J. W. Jones officiated. Mr and Mrs. Harper will be at home to their many friends in Thorsby.

The Y. W. A. will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Miss Helen Kendrick.

The girls auxiliary will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the public school immediately after school.

There will be a revival in song at the Baptist church next week, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights at 7 o'clock. Everyone is invited whether they can sing or not.

The royal ambassadors will meet Friday afternoon at the public school building immediately after school.

Regular services at the Congregational church Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Worship service at 11 a.m. Christian Endeavor at 6 o'clock. Evening service at 7:15.

Choir practice under the direction of Miss Foss Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, when there will be discussion on the "Peace Plebiscie." A special business meeting of the church will be held following prayer meeting.

The Boy Scouts will meet at the Congregational church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Come prepared for an overnight camp.

There will be a Hallowe'en entertainment at the public school on Thursday night, October 31, at 7:30 o'clock. The entertainment to be sponsored by the P.-T. A. Admission 5c for school children and 10c for others.

A large crowd attended both services Sunday at the Baptist church. Two members were received.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson is at her home in Thorsby for a few days.

Mrs. L. F. Hester of Birmingham, with her son and two daughters, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collins.

Miss Evelyn Jones and Miss Gladys Hicks spent Sunday with Miss Ruby Lee Driver.

We are glad to know that Mr. Tommie Childress is improving at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Cox.

Mrs. Henrietta Vines of Birmingham spent the week end with Mrs. E. C. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Townsend of Birmingham and son, Ross Keith, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolmn Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolmn Manning also had as their guests on Sunday Mr. an dMrs. Earle Thomas and family of Clanton.

Miss Edith Foss left Sunday for Selma, Ala., where she will take a business course.

Mrs. J. C. Reinhardt of Columbiana spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

We are glad to hear that Mr. H. W. Reinhardt is able to be up after a severe illness.

Miss Henrietta Bean is still suffering from an attack of the flu.

Miss Elizabeth Austin spent Saturday night in Montevallo.

Mrs. J. H. Collins is now at home for a while.

Mr. Will Gulledge of Verbena visited in Thorsby Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Lee Bayer of Clanton spent the week end in Thorsby with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Gibbons.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pate had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Bean and Mrs. Lubie Gore and children of Mineral Springs.

Mrs. R. W. Sutlive and little sons, Ernest and Richard, of New London, Connecticut, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive and Mrs. Janie Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Gerald and son, Jimmie, spent Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Miss Mary Ella Gerald of Andalusia made a short visit to her home Friday and Saturday.

Miss Mary Maude Knight spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blood spent last Thursday in Birmingham.

Miss Esther Johnson of Birmingham spent the week end at her home in Thorsby.

Mr. Frank Wood of Birmingham spent the week end in Thorsby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Maddox had as their guests for the week end Miss Ouida Wright and Miss Dorothy Weems.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maddox and Wilbert Maddox of Pates Chapel spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Maddox.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Billingsley of Clanton visited in Thorsby Sunday.

Mr. Harvie Wilson is visiting in Double Springs for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peterson and family of Tuscaloosa spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Marie Petterson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson and Mrs. J. E. Each visited in Shelby Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. Jack Peterson of Gadsden spent the week end at home.

The following students from Thorsby Institute spent the week end at their various homes: Sarah Green, Mary Frances Duke, Mary Nell Pate, Frances Bateman, Bernice Robinson, Mae Anniece Polk, Margaret Golson, Lewis Wilson and U. L. Mims.

Christian Endeavor News

The Christian Endeavor Society had a very interesting and instructive program Sunday evening. The topic under discussion was "Using Good Judgment." The discussion was divided into several parts: "Those Who Haven't many Friends", "Those who Have not the Friends they Want," "Those who are Quite Popular," "Those who Have Their Own Crowd," "Those Who are Accused of Being Crazy About the Opposite Sex," and "Those who are shy of the Opposite Sex," "The kind of Friends Worth Cultivating," "The Number of Friends worth Cultivating," "The Types of Habits and Activities which Increase the Joys of Friendship." After the discussion Miss Glasson, who is sponsor, read a few selections from a book entitled "Friends". Miss Ruth Cosby was the leader.

Death of Briggs Hodgens caused from double pneumonia, was sad news to the young people of Thorsby. He died Saturady, Oct. 26, at his home. The funeral was held Monday afternoon with burial at Pleasant Grove.

The Congregational Ladies Aid Social will be held next week, Thursday, November 7, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Goddard. Mrs. Burt Higgins being hostess for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcombe have recently moved from the apartment over their store to Jerome Wilson's home north of town. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Goodgame and family moved Tuesday mornnig into the apartment vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Holcombe.

There are no vacant houses or rooms in Thorsby at the present time. It would be seemingly wise for someone to build several small houses in Thorsby.

Thorsby Institute News

On Saturday night at the dining hall a very pleasant Hallowe'en party was held. Miss Glasson, Miss Mattingly and Miss Ford had planned for the games and had decorated the room very interestingly in Hallowe'en fashion. Miss Leech had charge of the refreshments, which consisted of round sandwiches with faces in them made with peanuts and raisins. These were served with punch, and added to the Hallowe'en atmosphere.

Next Saturday night at 7:30 the Helen Keller Literary Society will have an open meeting to which the public is invited. Plays, music and pictures from the "Simpkin's Family Album" will be given. Admission will be ten cents.

Next Tuesday night at seven-thirty the parents or guardians of Thorsby Institute pupils are invited to an informal party given by the faculty in the Institute auditorium. It is hoped that every one will come.

PLEASANT GROVE
JEMISON

We come with our hearts saddened again on account of the death of our friend and relative, Briggs Hodgens.

This is the fourth time that the great reaper, death, has laid his sheaves in our cemetery within a month, but we should say, "It is God's way, His will be done."

Mrs. Evans has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Iowa. She reports the times financialy there as here.

Mrs. Frank Davenport spent last Monday with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Campbell.

Miss McMae McNeill was the guest the Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. A. Wright visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Marcus and little son, Aldene Thursday.

Miss Eula Freeman, of Sylacauga, is spending a while with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Maddox.

Mrs. Otha Maddox and Miss Eula Freeman were guests of the Misses Champion and Mrs. Martha Wilson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Maddox motored to Clanton Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Chapman and little daughter, Pat, were the week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davenport and children, Edith and James Frank were guests of his parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. C Davenport.

Mrs. Kid Etherage and little son, Jimmy, were guests of her father, Mr. Monroe Ward, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion were among the helpers of Mr. Marvin Champion on his new house in Pates Chapel community last Thursday.

Messrs. Erschel Spivey and Buford Donald Campbell and Misses Lauree Spivey and Dulcie Champion motored to Clanton Saturday.

Mr. Wooley Mix was among the visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Price were the week end guests of his mother and family, Mrs. Roxie Price.

Mrs. W. E. Miskelley was the guest of Mrs. Philip Franklin Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Dovie Dawson spent Sunday and Sunday night with her sisters, the Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion.—Reporter.

Auto Parts

When in need of Used Auto parts think of C. Ray Glenn, "The Farmer's Friend."

We exchange, buy and sell. We will be glad to serve you night or day with used parts.

We repair anything except broken hearts, and I believe we can help them some.

Bring us your troubles

C. Ray Glenn
"The Farmer's Friend"
West End :-: Clanton

I FEEL FINE

Mothers read this:

A CONSTIPATED child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are fully a million families that will have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any drugstore.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Ben Haynes wishes to announce to his friends that he is now with the Gibbons Garage at Thorsby, Ala., equipped to do first class auto repairing. He invites his friends and anyone needing repair work to call by to see him.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

YOU WILL ALWAYS FEEL AT HOME
— AT —
WYATT DRUG CO.
Thorsby, Ala.

Your Prescriptions are Compounded with the Greatest of Care and You can feel Assured of the Highest Quality Drugs Used.

Buy Your Seed Oats, Ryes and Wheat from Us. We give you Quality Seed at Reasonable Price.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR PATRONAGE
Located in The Center of Town

ORIGINAL

Plant Now

Yard Rye Grass and Fertilize with Vigoro, Basic Slag, Sheep Manure, Bone Meal or Cotton Seed Meal.

—◆—

HAIRY VETCH
AUSTRIAN PEAS
SEED OATS
SEED WHEAT

—◆—

Take advanetage of the late rains. A late planting of Turnip Seed should make you some nice salad.

—◆—

We pay Top Market Prices for Butterfat and are equipped to buy all you might have.

—◆—

Tune in Friday, 7:00 a.m. WAPI and hear "Clanton On The Air."

—◆—

CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

PLANTING WINTER COVER CROPS

—◆—

Best results from Austrian winter peas and hairy vetch are obtained when planting is done between September 15 and October 15, but due to the drought Chilton county farmers have not been able to plant during this period.

When it is impossible to do a thing at the best time then it is necessary to take a second debt. We have had rains in most of the county this week and I believe it will be advisable to go ahead with the planting of peas and vetch.

Let's not forget that peas or vetch will increase the yield of corn 20 bushels per acre and will double the yield of cotton on average land in Chilton county.

You will need 30 pounds of Austrian winter peas or 20 ounds of hairy vetch seed per acre, and remember that is is essential to inoculate the seed.

There are several good methods used in planting. Any way you plant, provided you cover the seed two or three inches deep will usually give good results. It is better on sandy land, especially, to cover your seed in such a way that you will have plenty of drainage, example: Sow your seed broadcast and plow the dirt to the cotton row, leave the middle lower than the row.

Oats make a good winter cover crop. Oats planted in the fall on an average, made considerable more feed than oats planted in hte spring. In addition to feed, fall sown oats protect our land during the winter.

Austrian winter peas, vetch and oats may be purchased in Clanton and probably other places in Chilton counyt.—J. W. Fant, County Agent.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.

Office Over MAZAR'S STORE

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

666 Checks COLDS and FEVER

Liquid - Tablets
Salve - Nose Drops

First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

MUSIC APPRECIATION CLUB SPONSOR ARTISTS NOV. 8th

—◆—

Two real artists, ertrude Peterson and Lucy Lewis, who have been brought to Alabama through interest and efforts of Christine McCann, will appear in Clanton on Friday, November 8th.

These two young ladies are harpists of broad note, and their effectiveness on the stage, their gracious appearance elicit the admiration of their audiences.

Get Rid of Malaria!

Banish Chills and Fever!

To conquer Malaria, you must do two things. (1) Destroy the infection in the blood. (2) Build up the blood to overcome the effects and to fortify against further attack. There is one medicine that does these two things and that is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic! The tasteless quinine in Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic destroys the malarial infection in the blood while the iron builds up the blood. Thousands of people have conquered Malaria with the aid of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. In addition to being a noted remedy for Malaria, it is also an excellent tonic of general use. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take and contains nothing harmful. Even children like it and they can take it safely. For sale by all drug stores. Now two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money.

PERCY M. PITTS TAKES NEWS TO TASK ON REPORT PUBLISHED

—◆—

Editor Chilton County News:

Under the caption of the AAA meeting in your issue of the 24th in discussing the recent meeting of the cotton growers and farmers which was held last week, since you saw fit to mention my name personally as follows: "Although it is generally believed that the resolutions rendered in the meeting were drawn by the editor of The Union-Banner and Percy M. Pitts, Republican Attorney, shortly after the closing of this meeting Mr. Pitts declared that he was not informed well enough to discuss it intelligently."

This is to advise you that prior to this meeting held at the courthouse last week that I had never discussed directly or indirectly with either the editor of The Union-Banner or Mr. W. L. Sanders, the chairman of the meeting or anyone else directly or indirectly regarding a resolution or resolutions introduced. I believe that the readers of your paper will greatly appreciate your publishing facts, instead of dealing so much in generalities and beliefs. Further I do not appreciate the insinuation that I would attempt to advise with or draft resolutions affecting the welfare of our county and particularly our farmers welfare, unless I was thoroughly familiar and informed of the issues involved, and thought it was for the best interest of our producers in Chilton county. It is true, that I did not attend the meeting and never entered the courtroom, and it is further a fact that I stated on the street near Alred Drug Co., while the meeting was in progress, to your representative, Mr. Norris, while the meeting was being discussed, that I was not well enough up on the subject to discuss it intelligently, as I had not had time to study the proposition.

Should it be an unpardonable sin to be a Republican Attorney, I am guilty as charged, and so far I have been unable to be convinced that I am wrong. I feel that the farmers and cotton producers of Chilton county, who apparently attended this meeting in full force and who have had actual experience in handling their cotton under the AAA plans are parties qualified to pass upon this subject more than any attorney, College president, or the head of any extension service group, and for this reason I have had nothing to do with the proposition, directly or indirectly, as a Republican Attorney, or otherwise.

Kindly show me the courtesy of publishing this letter and correcting the inference, insinuation or misstatement of facts pertaining to me.

I am mailing a copy of this letter today, also to The Union-Banner.

PERCY M. PITTS.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

FEEDING HOGS

—◆—

Experiments show that a farmer can get better results in growing hogs if he uses a supplement to corn in his feed. The following figures show some comparison of corn along and corn mixed with other feeds:

1. When corn alone is used it takes 10.7 bushels to produce 100 pounds of gain.

2. When corn is used with tankage and cotton seed meal, cotton seed meal and tankage should be mixed in equal parts and kept where hogs can feed on it at all times. It takes four and two-thirds bushels of corn, 44.3 pounds of tankage and 44.3 pounds of cotton seed meal to produce 100 pounds gain.

3. When corn is fed with skim milk the hog should have all the skim milk it will consume. It takes 5.3 bushels of corn and 445 pounds skim milk to produce 100 pounds gain.

4. When hogs are grazed on peanuts 250 pounds of peanuts will produce 100 pounds of gain.

Tankage will cost about $50.00 per ton.

Mineral mixture consisting of equal parts by weight of charcoal, slaked lime and salt should be kept before the hogs at all times for best results with any of the above rations.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

—◆—

The teachers and pupils of Vermont Jr.High school are planning a Hallowe'en party to be given on October 31, at the school building, for the benefit of the boys and girls basket ball teams. No admission will be charged, but hot dogs, cold drinks, candy and peanuts will be sold. Fortune-telling, contests, bobbing for apples and fishing wil be carried on. Everyone will enjoy the games. Prizes will be given for the best Hallowe'en costume. Buy your hat, to complete your costume, at the school Thursday night. Witches and ghosts will be seen everywhere. It will be fun to go to the house of horror, that is if you are ffortunate enough to return. Don't miss the fun Thursday night.

VERMONT SCHOOL

—◆—

The basket ball boys and girls are planning on winning many games this year. Last Friday, both boys and girls played the out-siders. The girls score was 17 to 5 and the boys score was 12 to 7 in favor of Vermont.

The Junior three class organized an English club last week. Officers were as follows: President, Lavern Crane; vice-president, Bill Traywick; secretary and treasurer, Woody Klinner; program committee, Calvin Chamber, Andrew Lee Turner and Thurmond Milford. This club is hoping to do some splendid work throughout the coming year.

There is being a program given every Friday afternoon by the students of this school. Everybody is invited.

The boy's basket ball team will play Union Grove on Friday, November 1st. at Union Grove.

Our shades have arrived and we are proud of them.

There is going to be a fiddler's convention at this place. The date will be announced later Everybody is invited.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

The annual Coffee County Fair will open at Enterprise, Nov. 4, and close Nov. 9.

The new Strand Theater, under the management of Eddie Watson, has been opened at Montevallo.

A steel tower is to be erected on Millstone Mountain two miles east of Lynn for fire observation.

Sam Helburn, Montgomery, was elected Alabama Kiwanis district governor at the annual district convention at Gadsden.

Nearly 200 men returned to work when the Anniston Soil Pipe Co., closed for two years, resumed operations Nov. 1.

Capt. John Donaldson of Birmingham has assumed his duties as director of aeronautics in Alabama under the State Aviation Commission.

Comptroller General McCarl has approved a $28,392 WPA project for the renovation and alteration of the executive mansion at Montgomery.

The State Department of Education has dispatched prorata checks totaling $336,671 to counties as the state's last payment for the fiscal year 1934-35.

Tentative plans to build a tin plate mill at Gadsden have been disclosed by W. H. Coverdale, of New York, president of the Gulf States Steel Co.

The rally of educational forces in nine counties of District Eight will be held on Nov. 16 instead of Nov. 23, at Florence State Teachers' College.

The $2,000 to solve the school book shortage among needy Montgomery children has been solved by appropriations of $1,000 each by the city and county.

Members of the Alabama Aviation Commission met in Montgomery and completed its organization. Theodore Swann, Birmingham industralist, is chairman.

Appropriations voted by the 1935 Legislature exceed anticipated revenues by $5,300,000, Comptroller C. W. Lee estimated as he drew up a budget for the coming year.

Officials of Birmingham Post No. 1, American Legion, have invited the Legion rehabilitation committee for the Southeast to hold its Spring conference there in 1936.

Commissioner W. O. Downs, Birmingham, has instructed City Atty W. J. Wynn to draft an ordinance prohibiting advertising sound trucks from using the city streets.

Alabama State Board of Pharmacy will be headed by John A. Edwards of Anniston during the coming year. Formerly vice-president, he was elected to the presidency recently.

Gov. Bibb Graves has granted permanent paroles to 15 state convicts, but denied the application of 17 who had won approval for clemency from the State Board of Pardons.

Weatherford Durrett, Tuscaloosa grocer, was shot in an attempted robbery at his store. Malcolm Spencer, 26, was arrested for the shooting and is being held in County Jail there.

Additional Alabama Works Progress Administration projects calling for expenditure of $2,037,686 have been given final approval in Washington by Comptroller General J. R. McCarl.

Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, director of the State Department of Archives and History, has announced that the 1935 statistical register would be ready for distribution around Nov. 15.

Engineers have completed their survey of the proposed new Odenville-Pell City road and are expected to submit their plans to the St. Clair County Commission within the next few days.

Monroe County, acting under the Lee act of the 1935 Legislature, has started the refunding of its debt and has notified all holders of county warrants to register with the county comptroller.

Jim Daily, chief deputy sheriff of Walker County, has prepared for any efforts of prisoners to escape from the County Jail. He has purchased two bloodhounds from kennels at Forsyth, Mo.

Preparations for launching Alabama's school building program of $5,000,000 through PWA grants was abruptly halted when the validity of two acts of the 1935 Legislature involving issuance of school warrants was questioned.

More than 1,026,000 persons over 10 years of age in Alabama are gainfully employed in some job or profession, according to a statistical study completed by C. J. Jordan, working in conjunction with the Deparament of Vocational Education at the University of Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q Wade, Mr. James Wade and Mr. G. C. Walker spent Friday in Montgomery.

HODGENS FAMILY EXPRESSES THANKS

—◆—

The family of Mr. D. H. Hodgens, of Pleasant Grove (Jemison) community, wishes to express their sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness extended them during their recent bereavement. The help and sympathy of their friends was unstinted, and so are the words of appreciation of the family. May the blessings of God rest upon each and everyone, is their sincere prayer.

Mrs. Sam Box and little Betty Box, of Birmingham were the guests of her parents Thursday and Friday.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

—◆—

Many relatives and friends gathered together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Dennis to celebrate her mother, Mrs. Sallie Davis' eightieth birthday last Sunday. Many beautiful presents were given by children, grand children and friends. At noon a bountiful dinner was spread.

Those enjoying the day were: Mr. and Mrs. G. C. White and children, Thomas, Willie and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ware and children, Clyde and Shirley Sue, Mrs. J. C. Davis and little son, Derl Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Davis, Mr. and Mrs W. D. Davis and children, Lillie Maye, Lois and Ruby, Earnestine Davis Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis and little son, Oneal.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Jackson and little daughter, Dorothy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bowles, Coolidge DeVaughn, Douglas Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Davis and little daughter, Helen Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wells and children, Otsis, Curtis, and Helen, Jesse and Pearl Davis, Mr. A. T. Davis and three boys, Alonza, Sam and Joseph, Mrs. Ameline Bates, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tucker, Mr. Simmie Scott, Mr. L. G. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Davis and little daughter, U. L., Mrs. Velma Davis and children, Bobbie Joe and Jerry Donald, Mr. Albert Davis and little daughter, Nina Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Winford Jackson, Mr. M. C. Jackson, Mr and Mrs. Vester Oaks, Mrs. Lilla Eiland, Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis Eiland and little son Marvis, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. G. White and children, Archie and Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben White and little son, Jimmie, Mr. Hermon Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. B. O Dennis and children, Ruth, Esther Lee and Lois.

In the afternoon about 2:30 o'clock they heard some wonderful preaching by Elders L. G. Warren and E. B. Tucker. At the close of the day, all went home wishing for her many more happy birthdays.—A grand daughter.

THE
UNION-BANNER
Will Sell During the Next Few Days For
$1.00 A Year
SUBSCRIBE NOW!
This Special Offer Will Not Last Long!

BE PROTECTED BY A LEGAL RESERVE COMPANY

LUQUIRE INSURANCE

Offers You

* Funeral services anywhere within forty miles of funeral homes.
* Conveyance for remains to church, cemetery or home or to place where burial is desired under terms of policy.
* No charge is made for the use of chapels.
* That extra factor of safety. A legal reserve company.
* A good policy! A safe company! Adequate reseves to fulfill every contract and protect every policyholder.

The Cash and Funeral Plan policy provides not only a casket and funeral, but additional cash to help cover the expense of last illness, grave or other expenses

Extra Benefits
All policies issued by this company contains clauses providing for disability benefits.

LUQUIRE
FUNERAL HOMES INSURANCE CO.
Home Office: Birmingham, Ala.

Lower Rates
For instance, the rate at the age of 20 is only 9c a week; age 40 only 17c a week.

LUQUIRE INSURANCE IS " SAFE AND DEPENDABLE"

Authorized By Contract to Honor And Service Luquire Policies

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
Clanton Alabama
Phones 10-9-2

ADDITIONAL EXPOSURE NEEDED

POOR O

South Clanton Specials

You Can't Go Wrong on These Bargains

8-LB VEGETOLE — SHORTENING, Carton $1.05
4-LB VEGETOLE — SHORTENING, Carton .. 53c
8-LB CARTON — PURE LARD $1.49
4-LB CARTON — PURE LARD, ... 76c
3-LB PAIL — SNOWDRIFT 55c
6-LB PAIL — SNOWDRIFT $1.05

CORN FLAKES, 2 Pkgs 15c
A-1 CRACKERS, 1-lb box 10c
CHUM SALMON, Tall Can .. 10c
Mother's COCOA, 1-lb can 10c
TOMATOES, No. 2 can, 2 fr 15c

WHILE THEY LAST
MIXED VETCH, Lb 8½c
AUSTRIAN PEAS, Lb 5½c
ABRUZZI RYE, per bushel $1.85
5 BU. TEXAS RED RUST PROOF — Oats, Texas Grown, .. $3.25
Fulghum Oats, 5 bu. bags .. $3.50

RIFLE CARTRIDGES
22 Short, Clean Bore, per box 15c
22 Long, Clean Bore, per box 20c
22 Long Rifle, Clean Bore, bx 25c

No. 12, 16 and 20 GAUGE — SHOTGUN SHELLS, box 55c
BUY ALL YOU NEED NOW

OVERALL SPECIALS
$1.50 and $1.65 VALUES — Liberty Best Grade, Pr $1.35
8-OZ MASTER CLOTH — Carhartt's, $1.75 Value $1.49
Lee, 8-oz Jelt Denim, pair .. $1.59

$1.98 VALUE — GOOD WORK — SHOES For Men, pair .. $1.69
36-Inch OUTING, Fancy, yd 13c
SHEETING, LL, Best Grade 10c
GUARANTEED FAST COLOR — Pepperell Prints, Yard 18c
GUARANTEED FAST COLORS — Bordon's Prints, Yard 14c
PLAIN OR SELF RISING — Good FLOUR, 24 Lbs 90c
MAMMY'S FAVORITE — COFFEE, 4-Lb Pail 75c

Flour and Feed Bargains

24 LBS PLAIN — GOLD FLAKE $1.00
24-lbs Self-Rising $1.05
SHORTS, White Tulip $1.90
24 PER CENT — DAIRY FEED, Jazz ... $2.10
16 PER CENT — WHITE CLOVER $1.60
PURITY — SCRATCH FEED $2.25
HIGH LIFE — LAYING MASH $2.50

We Are Prepared to Serve You With All Feeds

R. W. LOWE
SOUTH CLANTON

SINGING AT LIBERTY HILL

An all day singing was held at Liberty Hill Baptist church on Sunday, October 27.

Mr. L. T. Grant was elected chairman for the day. Directors for the morning were: L. T. Grant, I. D. Huett, O. C. Bennett, Hiriam Littlejohn, Audie Brown, Marvin Lowery, Clarence Billingsley, Dave Melton, Leonard Culp, O. L. Devaughn and W. J. Coe.

Pianists for the day were: Mr. Clarence Billingsley, Miss Virginia Eubanks and Miss Luanna Jones.

At twelve o'clock a bountiful lunch was served, wrich was thoroughly enjoyed by all. One hour was taken for lunch, and at one o'clock the atfernoon singing began.

Directors for the afternoon were: L. T. Grant, Jeèse Jones, Archie DeVaughn, Orbie DeVaughn, the Liberty Hill quartet, Mr. Boswell, Mr. J. W. DeVaughn, O. L. DeVaughn, I. D. Huett, Zane Lowery, Dock Harris, Mr. Brown, Lee Grant, Mr. Billingsley, Mr. Stanley, Leonard Culp, Glover Smith, Joyce Varden and Rev. M. Lockhart.

Pianists for the afternoon were: Lee Grant, Mrs. Bertie Johnson, Miss Virginia Eubans, Mrs. Clarence Murrah, Mrs. Renfroe Jones, Mrs. Steve Stanley, and Miss Luanna Jones.

Rev. M. Lockhart gave the benediction. A good time was had by all and we are looking forward to another soon.

Farm Contract Canceled On Account Duplication

Clanton, Ala. October 5, 1935
STATE OF ALABAMA
CHILTON COUNTY

We, the undersigned, recommend that Lewis A. Chandler's contract No. 9363 and application No.0-208 be cancelled since this contract is a duplication of contract No. 2197. All certificates issued from application No. 0-208 shall be cancelled.

We further recommend that Lewis A. Chandler pay Mrs. Emma Gandy $10.00 rent for 10 acres of land during the crop year of 1935. Mrs. Gandy is to pay Lewis A. Chandler $6.95 as his part of rental received from the Secretary of Agriculture, under contract No. 2197 and $3.95 parity received from same contract.

We further recommend that Mrs. Gandy have 515 pounds gin certificates transferred through the Assistant in Cotton Adjustment's office to Lewis A. Chandler or $25.75 if 515 pounds certificates have been used or sold.

The above recommendations are effective immediately.

Signed: O. H. McDowell
J. B. Hicks
O. L. DeVaughn

Approved:
J. W. Fant, County Agent.

LIST OF CHILTON W. M. U. OFFICERS FOR 1936

I wish to say before I give these names of these officers that every woman that failed to attend the quarterly meeting held at New Cedron last Thursday sure missed one of the best meetings held in some time, both in number and spirit. So, make up your mind to attend the annual meeting that is to be held at Chestnut Creek, in January.

The report of the nominations committee is as follows: We, your committee on nominations, beg to submit the following officers for W. M. U. for 1936.

Superintendent, Mrs. J. Lee Grant, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 2; Associational superintendent, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Thorsby, Ala.; secretary-treasurer, Luanna Jones, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 2.

Group Leaders

No. 1, Mrs. T. I. Ward, Jemison, Ala.
No. 2, Mrs. Donald Merchant, Thorsby, Ala.
Ala.
No. 3, Mrs. H. L. Ratliff, Maplesville, Ala.
No. 4, Mrs. A. L. Bearden, Verbena, Ala.
Young Peoples Leader, Ora DeVaughn, Clanton, Ala., Rte. 2.
Stewardship chairman, Mrs. Stella Shoults, Lawley, Ala.
Personal service chairman, Mrs. C. L. Wilkins, Verbena, Ala., Rte. 1.
Mission study chairman, Mrs. S. J. M. Webb, Thorsby, Ala.
Scholarship chairman, Mrs. W. H. Raybon, Thorsby, Ala.
White Cross chairman, Mrs. Willie Hicks, Lawley, Ala.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. W. Jones,
Mrs. A. L. Bearden,
Luanna Jones.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

OUR CLASSIFIED ADVS.

If you want to buy anything or want to sell anything, don't fail to look over the column of classified advs. in the The Union-Banner. You will find it on the back page every week, and you might find just the thing you have been looking for. And, too, it might not be a bad idea for you yourself to advertise that extra wagon, cow, or plow stock which you have no use for. Somebody else might want it bad enough to pay your price. Use and read the Banner's want adv column. It will pay you.

Next Time You Come to Birmingham Stop at the
HOTEL MOLTON

You'll Enjoy your Meals at the NEW MOLTON GRILL

YOU'LL like it here—the spacious, comfortable rooms—the considerate, attentive service—the quiet and restful atmosphere—the convenient location, just two blocks from the shopping district.

$1.50 a Day Up
W. J. SKELTON, Mgr.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

Each - Tapscott

Mrs. J. E. Each of Thorsby, Ala., announces the engagement of her daughter, Juanita, to Grady Tapscott of Thorsby, Ala. The wedding to take place in December.

Seales - Harper

A wedding of much interest to the people over the county is that of Mrs. Sarah H. Seales of Selma, Ala., and Mr. G. F. Harper of Thorsby. Mrs. Seales is the widow of the late Farmer Seales of Selma, Ala. Mr. Harper is a prominent merchant of Thorsby. The wedding took place on Wednesday evening, October 23 at the Harper home, relatives and a few close friends being present. Rev. J. W. Jones officiated. Mr and Mrs. Harper will be at home to their many friends in Thorsby.

The Y. W. A. will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Miss Helen Kendrick.

The girls auxiliary will meet on Thursday afternoon of this week at the public school immediately after school.

There will be a revival in song at the Baptist church next week, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights at 7 o'clock. Everyone is invited whether they can sing or not.

The royal ambassadors will meet Friday afternoon at the public school building immediately after school.

Regular services at the Congregational church Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Worship service at 11 a.m. Christian Endeavor at 6 o'clock. Evening service at 7:15.

Choir practice under the direction of Miss Foss Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, when there will be discussion on the "Peace Plebiscie." A special business meeting of the church will be held following prayer meeting.

The Boy Scouts will meet at the Congregational church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Come prepared for an overnight camp.

There will be a Hallowe'en entertainment at the public school on Thursday night, October 31, at 7:30 o'clock. The entertainment to be sponsored by the P.-T. A. Admission 5c for school children and 10c for others.

A large crowd attended both services Sunday at the Baptist church. Two members were received.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson is at her home in Thorsby for a few days.

Mrs. L. F. Hester of Birmingham, with her son and two daughters, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collins.

Miss Evelyn Jones and Miss Gladys Hicks spent Sunday with Miss Ruby Lee Driver.

We are glad to know that Mr. Tommie Childress is improving at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Cox.

Mrs. Henrietta Vines of Birmingham spent the week end with Mrs. E. C. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Townsend of Birmingham and son, Ross Keith, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolmn Manning.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolmn Manning also had as their guests on Sunday Mr. an dMrs. Earle Thomas and family of Clanton.

Miss Edith Foss left Sunday for Selma, Ala., where she will take a business course.

Mrs. J. C. Reinhardt of Columbiana spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

We are glad to hear that Mr. H. W. Reinhardt is able to be up after a severe illness.

Miss Henrietta Bean is still suffering from an attack of the flu.

Miss Elizabeth Austin spent Saturday night in Montevallo.

Mrs. J. H. Collins is now at home for a while.

Mr. Will Gulledge of Verbena visited in Thorsby Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Lee Bayer of Clanton spent the week end in Thorsby with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Gibbons.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pate had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Bean and Mrs. Lubie Gore and children of Mineral Springs.

Mrs. R. W. Sutlive and little sons, Ernest and Richard, of New London, Connecticut, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive and Mrs. Janie Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Gerald and son, Jimmie, spent Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Miss Mary Ella Gerald of Andalusia made a short visit to her home Friday and Saturday.

Miss Mary Maude Knight spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blood spent last Thursday in Birmingham.

Miss Esther Johnson of Birmingham spent the week end at her home in Thorsby.

Mr. Frank Wood of Birmingham spent the week end in Thorsby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Maddox had as their guests for the week end Miss Ouida Wright and Miss Dorothy Weems.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maddox and Wilbert Maddox of Pates Chapel spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Maddox.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Billingsley of Clanton visited in Thorsby Sunday.

Mr. Harvie Wilson is visiting in Double Springs for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peterson and family of Tuscaloosa spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Marie Petterson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson and Mrs. J. E. Each visited in Shelby Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. Jack Peterson of Gadsden spent the week end at home.

The following students from Thorsby Institute spent the week end at their various homes: Sarah Green, Mary Frances Duke, Mary Nell Pate, Frances Bateman, Bernice Robinson, Mae Appiece Polk, Margaret Golson, Lewis Wilson and U. L. Mims.

Christian Endeavor News

The Christian Endeavor Society had a very interesting and instructive program Sunday evening. The topic under discussion was "Using Good Judgment." The discussion was divided into several parts: "Those Who Haven't many Friends", "Those who Have not the Friends they Want," "Those who are Quite Popular," "Those who Have Their Own Crowd," "Those Who are Accused of Being Crazy About the Opposite Sex," and "Those who are shy of the Opposite Sex," "The kind of Friends Worth Cultivating," "The Number of Friends worth Cultivating," "The Types of Habits and Activities which Increase the Joys of Friendship." After the discussion Miss Glasson, who is sponsor, read a few selections from a book entitled "Friends". Miss Ruth Cosby was the leader.

Death of Briggs Hodgens caused from double pneumonia, was sad news to the young people of Thorsby. He died Saturady, Oct. 26, at his home. The funeral was held Monday afternoon with burial at Pleasant Grove.

The Congregational Ladies Aid Social will be held next week, Thursday, November 7, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Goddard. Mrs. Burt Higgins being hostess for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Holcombe have recently moved from the apartment over their store to Jerome Wilson's home north of town. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Goodgame and family moved Tuesday mornnig into the apartment vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Holcombe.

There are no vacant houses or rooms in Thorsby at the present time. It would be seemingly wise for someone to build several small houses in Thorsby.

Thorsby Institute News

On Saturday night at the dining hall a very pleasant Hallowe'en party was held. Miss Glasson, Miss Mattingly and Miss Ford had planned for the games and had decorated the room very interestingly in Hallowe'en fashion. Miss Leech had charge of the refreshments, which consisted of round sandwiches with faces in them made with peanuts and raisins. These were served with punch, and added to the Hallowe'en atmosphere.

Next Saturday night at 7:30 the Helen Keller Literary Society will have an open meeting to which the public is invited. Plays, music and pictures from the "Simpkin's Family Album" will be given. Admission will be ten cents.

Next Tuesday night at seven-thirty the parents or guardians of Thorsby Institute pupils are invited to an informal party given by the faculty in the Institute auditorium. It is hoped that every one will come.

PLEASANT GROVE
JEMISON

We come with our hearts saddened again on account of the death of our friend and relative, Briggs Hodgens.

This is the fourth time that the great reaper, death, has laid his sheaves in our cemetery within a month, but we should say, "It is God's way, His will be done."

Mrs. Evans has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Iowa. She reports the times financialy there as here.

Mrs. Frank Davenport spent last Monday with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Campbell.

Miss McMae McNeill was the guest the Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. A. Wright visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Marcus and little son, Aldene Thursday.

Miss Eula Freeman, of Sylacauga, is spending a while with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Maddox.

Mrs. Otha Maddox and Miss Eula Freeman were guests of the Misses Champion and Mrs. Martha Wilson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Maddox motored to Clanton Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Chapman and little daughter, Pat, were the week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davenport and children, Edith and James Frank were guests of his parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. C Davenport.

Mrs. Kid Etherage and little son, Jimmy, were guests of her father, Mr. Monroe Ward, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion were among the helpers of Mr. Marvin Champion on his new house in Pates Chapel community last Thursday.

Messrs. Erschel Spivey and Buford Donald Campbell and Misses Lauree Spivey and Dulcie Champion motored to Clanton Saturday.

Mr. Wooley Mix was among the visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Price were the week end guests of his mother and family, Mrs. Roxie Price.

Mrs. W. E. Miskelley was the guest of Mrs. Philip Franklin Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Dovie Dawson spent Sunday and Sunday night with her sisters, the Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion.—Reporter.

Auto Parts

When in need of Used Auto parts think of C. Ray Glenn, "The Farmer's Friend."

We exchange, buy and sell. We will be glad to serve you night or day with used parts.

We repair anything except broken hearts, and I believe we can help them some.

Bring us your troubles

C. Ray Glenn
"The Farmer's Friend"
West End :-: Clanton

I FEEL FINE

Mothers read this:

A CONSTIPATED child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are fully a million families that will have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any drugstore.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Ben Haynes wishes to announce to his friends that he is now with the Gibbons Garage at Thorsby, Ala., equipped to do first class auto repairing. He invites his friends and anyone needing repair work to call by to see him.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

YOU WILL ALWAYS FEEL AT HOME
— AT —
WYATT DRUG CO.
Thorsby, Ala.

Your Prescriptions are Compounded with the Greatest of Care and You can feel Assured of the Highest Quality Drugs Used.

Buy Your Seed Oats, Ryes and Wheat from Us. We give you Quality Seed at Reasonable Price.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR PATRONAGE
Located in The Center of Town

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 53

WAR REPORTS

Preparing for war in a neutral country, such as this country should be in relation to Italy's war on Ethiopia, is to prepare to discount not only propaganda from both sides but reports from all sides.

The bombing of Aduwa may be taken as a preliminary example. The report is that 1,700 were killed and three thousand wounded. We may assume that many bombs were dropped for, because of their limited range of destruction, it would require many to kill and wound 4,700 people even in a sizeable city.

As Aduwa is officially credited with a population of only five thousand, however, it seems necesary to conclude that whether the reports come from Ethiopia or Italy, it may be safer to assume that instead of a remnant of only three hundred unkilled and unwounded in Aduwa after the bombardment, that may have been about the number of killed and wounded.

Certain it is that, if Mussolini conquers Ethiopia by killing and wounding 4,700 out of every five thousand of the inhabitants, there would be few Ethiopians left for Italy to civilize.—Springfield Union.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

One of the most frequently used arguments employed by those supporting the processing tax provision of the AAA program is that the New Dealers are simply trying to give the farmer the same sort of benefit which they say the manufacturer gets from the protective tariff. The protective tariff and the processing tax are thus lumped together. The chief defense, if any, offered for the processing tax is an apologetic one, in that it is made necesary it is alleged because the protective tariff 'discriminates against the farmer,' and this tax will compensate him.

The parallels of the AAA plan and the protective tariff, however, are not parallels at all. The two are different in principle just as they are different in practice. On the matter of principle it may be said that the protective tariff seeks to build up home production at the expense of the foreign producer. The present farm plan is exactly opposite this in intent. It seens to cut down the production of the American agriculturist, instead of increasing it, and so it stimulates the foreign products. While the protectionists vision a great home market and a prosperous industry which may fortify itself so that it can compete with the foreigner in foreign markets, the AAA plan is to cut down production on the farm and so raise coats that it is almost impossible for our growers to compete with the foreign producer in foreign fields.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof. There is now very little American farm export trade. On the other hand the importers are sending us plenty of farm produce. The money for foodstuffs which ought to remain in America is going abroad. Our local industries are not benefitting commensurately because the imports are gradually ed as possible. Any other course during the amount of money we send abroad one way and another each year ,the "trade balance" is now against Uncle Sam and this adverse balance is going to become greater if the present policies of cutting farm production and negotiating tariff reduction treaties is continued. There can be no help for it. We cannot export what we do not produce, and if we fail because of artificial restrictions and adverse growing conditions to raise enough to feed our own people, then we are going to buy farm produce from abroad instead of shipping American food abroad.

There are other reasons of course why the tariff and the farm program, including the processing tax are not parallel. No free trader has ever yet been able to prove that protection is costlier to the American consumer than free trade. Protection fosters home industries and the more competition and work we have at home the better it is going to be for a consumer. If, by free trade, we wipe out tht so-called "weak industries" that free traders talk about then we will be at the mercy of European cartels and trusts. What we need is plenty of American industries with anti-trust laws enforced so that there will be competition at home. Processing tax apologists say that by taxing the working man in buying food and turning this over to the farmer they are applying tariff principles but this is not true. It is true that about half of our imports pay a tariff, but this money goes into the treasury of the United States. It is not turned over by the AAA or any other governmental agency to any class of citizens.

Mr. Wallace is quoted as stating that the Smoot-Hawley measure incited other nations to bar out Americans goods. The fact is that all nations were compelled by the exigencies of the depression to become as self contained as possible. Any other course during the storm would have been economic suicide.

Free trader assume that the protective tariff does the farmers no good. But many farm commodities other than wheat and cotton do not depend on the world market prices and we do suffer severely from much alien agricultural competition. For example, since artificially high prices due to curtailment of production in America enabled foreign producers to mount our tariffs we have during the past eight months imported among other things 22,000,000 pounds of butter and 4,000,000 tons of sugar. Under the new treaty with Cuba we bought from her $31,000,000 more in produce principally sugar, but Cuba bought only $13,000,000 more from us! Uncle Sam will never make our farmers rich this way.

OUR FOREIGN MADE FIGURES

One of the choicest bits of bunk disseminated by the free traders and low tariff advocates of the United States is that our foreign trade has been "strangled" by our protective tariff. A little study of the figures issued regularly by the U. S. Department of Commerce will show the fallacy of this argument.

In the year 1929, the last one before the depression descended upon us, our total exports were, in round numbers $5,241,000,000, and our imports $4,400,000,000. In 1931 and 1932 there was a steady decline, which was due to the deepening of the depression . In 1933 and 1934 there was a slight picking up due to the fact that the world, especially some of the important countries of Europe, was slowly forging ahead.

Now in 1929 when we had those top heavy figures of foreign trade the same tariff was in effect as in 1932 when exports had dropped to 1,611,016,00 and imports to $1,449,599,000. We still have the same tariff now when there has been a slight improvement.

The figures show that the dropping off in foreign trade was not due to our tariff but to the depression (as the foreign trade graph follows pretty closely the graph of the progress of the depression. The depression was world wide and had its roots in the World War way back in Wilson's administration, although some of our forward lookers apparently have not yet discovered this fact.

But the most significant thing is yet to be mentioned. Our imports are gradually catching up with our exports in value. In 1929 we had a favorable trade balance of $800,000,000 while up to date in this year we had a tentative balancé of only $100,000,000,000 of visible exports over imports and may close the year with a deficit. The exports are $1,396,679,000 and the imports $1,341,290,000. Now just what is the cause of this? Is it due to the reciprocal tariffs which the State Department is negotiating? If so Secreatry Hull ought to be as happy as a little boy with a new drum on Christmas. He sure does seem to dislike favorable trade balances.

As a matter of fact the real balance is now against us. When we figure the amount of money which American tourists spend abroad, and which Americans and aliens of our country send abroad, it is apparent that Europe has all the better of it, as the striking of a real balance would show. The figures which measure the export of this capital do not show in our foreign trade balance.

The truth probably is that a great part of the increase of our imports is due to Secretary Wallace and the AAA. Under the program of scarcity our farmers have arrived at the point where they not only have lost their export surplus but have a deficit of commodities so far as supplying the domestic market is concerned. This means that we are importing farm produce which American farmers were paid not to grow, and that the money is going to alien farm interests.

This swells our imports. Unfortunately produce because there is no produce to ship there are no compensating exports of farm abroad. So far as wheat, corn and meat products are concerned it is all coming in and nothing going out.

RADIO SANCTIONS

Great Britain started her sanctions against Italy on the night of October 11, according to an Associated Press dispatch. The first sanction had nothing to do with machine guns, gunpowder or tanks. In fact it had to do with the American radio audience. It seems that Baron Pompeo Aloisi, the Italian envoy at Geneva, was preparing to present his country's side of the present trouble in Europe and Africa, to the American public in an address which was to take the form of a "chatty dialogue" between the Baron and a distinguished American newspaper correspondent at Geneva.

But the British postoffice, which has charge of British radio affairs refused to relay the "chatty dialogue" from Geneva to America through London.

The first application of sanctions seems to have taken a form far different from what one would expect it to be. Instead of preventing the importation of ammunition, food and clothing to Italy, the first sanction seems to have prevented the export of a commodity —one which the critics of Italy would probably characterize as "hot air".

Be that as it may, we are not going to accuse the British of interfering with the rights of free speech. If they prevented the flow of Italian propaganda to the United States, they did us a favor, whether they knew it or not.

Now if the efficient British officials will only find a way to cut off from the United States not only Italian, but British, French, German, and last but not least, Russian propaganda, they will have put us under a debt of gratitude which can never be paid in terms of money.

NOT IN CHINESE

Chinese newspapers are forbidden to criticize Mussolini. That's unnecessary, for Il Duce hasn't much time these days to devote to reading the Chinese exchanges.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Scientists say that the humble potato is so popular as an article of diet because it has no pronounced flavor. But wait till its flavor gets mixed up with the kind that comes on stamps.

The Kansas City Star laments the fact that an Oklahoma trial lawyer sang "Home Sweet Home, in his most pathetic voice before the jury and yet didn't have the desired effect. It returned a verdict against the lawyer's client. Well this isn't surprising. The home sweet home days seem to have joined those devoted to the horse and buggy. The lawyer should have hired a blond night club entertainer to sing something with a lot of "hot chas" in it.

A Seattle woman has filed an alienation suit in which she names four college professors. She blames the things they told her husband for the failure of her marriage and subsequent divorce. Just one more person who doesn't care for the meddling of a brain trust!—Detroit Free Press.

What we have in this country is too much intaxication.—Chicago Tribune.

"Plane Lands on Farm, Snips off Bossie's Tail." And that, my children is what they call a tailspin.—Ohio State Journal.

Our weather bureau is seeking the cooperation of the Soviet, according to the newspaper. Next thing you know they will be sending us communist propaganda along with the weather ftrecasts, with a cold wave characterized as "capitalist weather".

We presume that if and when the potato laws goes into effect the New Deal campaign song will be changed to "Stampy Days are Here Again."

MAN IN THE MOON

THE NEWS—THE FARMERS—THE TRUTH

Did you ever try to catch a flea? If so you know that just about the time you think you have him cornered he will jump clear out and away. Our dealings with the Chilton County News makes us think of catching fleas.

Two weeks ago we challenged The News to a test, a put up or shut up challenge. They had been contending that more farmers were in favor of the present cotton plan —we didn't think so—hence the challenge to ask the farmers, themselves. It was a put up or shut up challenge, and as has been the custom of The News, they chose to shut up on the subject rather than stand by their guns and back up their fancies with facts. And once again The Chilton County News has been run into a hole, and we doubt very much if they can be smoked out again.

Now, as to the way the farmers feel about the present cotton plan, we believe anyone —even The News editor—could very easily feel the trend of the farmers from the meeting held at the courthouse last Wednesday. A majority of over 700 to 15 is enough to convince the most skeptical that farmers do not want the present cotton plan, and if farmers talk to us in the manner they feel, they will not sign up for next year.

As to the last meeting held at the courthouse in the afternoon, reports from the farmers who attended vary widely from the one given by the News in last week's paper and reports carried by various state dailies, who are, of course, just another part of that group of parasites who are taking so much interest in the farmers' troubles without having so much interest in their welfare. What puzzles us is how The News could get a full story of the afternoon session, when their "dead line", or time for closing of printing forms was fully as early if not earlier than the hour the meeting was called. How did they do it? We know a few things about printing of newsapers, and we never have been able to get an accurate story of any kind before the event came about. We have always had to wait for something to happen before we could tell about it.

But, after all, judging from the report The News gave on this last meeting, and from individual reports of farmers who attended, this was just another one of those things where things don't pan out as they are planned. The meeting was all planned, it seems, and everything was to go just so-so, so The News went ahead and printed their story along the general lines the meeting SHOULD go. But the editor couldn't know, of course, that the farmers were not going to fall for the slick line of palaver the "big shots" from Auburn were going to dish out in great gobs. Neither could they know that the farmers would walk out and leave the meeting flat when they found there was nothing new to be learned about the program.

The News seemed especially anxious, also, to have its readers know that the chairman of the first meeting was W. L. Sanders, "employe of the local cotton mill and former defeated candidate on the Republican ticket.' Although by this move The News seems inclined to publish a scandal sheet, yet we have not known before that there was anything so dishonorable about being an employe of a cotton mill or a defeated candidate for office.

Intent, it seems, on bringing out "the dark side", The News says:

"Although the resolutions, read by Mr. Sanders, proposed to call for either 'amendment or repeal', the wording was such that it is feared that the audience failed to recognize that the vote was in reality 'for repeal'." Now, as to this, we believe that any one of the more than 700 farmers who voted for the resolutions has as good a set of ears as The News editor or his representative at the meeting, and the above is nothing more nor less than a hint that the average farmer did not have sense enough to understand what he had heard—a downright insult to every farmer in the meeting. We believe that those 700 farmers understood perfectly the resolutions and suggestions as read, and they seemed to harbor no hesitancy about supporting them with their vote.

Going further, The News says: "It is generally believed that the resolutions read in the meeting were drawn by the editor of The Union-Banner and Percy M. Pitts". We don't know what connection Mr. Pitts had with the affair, but the reference to the editor of The Union-Banner is a highly presumptive misstatement, and we challenge The News, its editor, or any other person to give proof that "it is generally believed" that The Union-Banner editor had any hand in the affair. This vicious and whole falsehood is solely the belief of The News editor because of the fact that the script was written on The Union-Banner's typewriter. Will The News editor not be honest enough to admit that the idea is solely his own and is drawn only from this fact?

We believe the farmers are not yet ready for complete repeal of the cotton law, and we are with them. What the farmers want, we want them to have. If they want the present control plan, then let them have it; if they want changes, we want them to have changes; if they wan complete repeal, then we are for that. Farmers ought to know more about their own needs and desires than we do, and we are at all times willing to back their judgment in their affairs. They have shown clearly that they do not want the present program; some have expressed themselves as wanting complete repeal, but we believe that most farmers want the program retained, with several drastic and much-needed changes in its administration. We believe in the idea of curbing over-production, but we most certainly do not believe in shutting off a farmer's chance to earn an honest living, and then muzzling him to keep down his squawks.

Personally we like The News personnel, and knowing them as we do, as likable chaps, we are at a loss to understand their attitude in willful misstatement of facts when cornered, and wholly unfounded arraignment of the personnel of The Union-Banner in this affair. In the name of all that is high and holy, let's have the truth, Mr. News editor, even if it takes the hide. Let's give facts, not fancies; let's print the picture as it really is, not as we would like it to be; let's print the truth that can be backed up by facts, not dream ideas drawn from prejudice and imagination. Let's print our whole-hearted and consicentious beliefs, not the ideas and beliefs and wishes of some demi-god higher up. And when we have made those statements, let's at least have the grit and grace to stand up and defend them to the last ditch, rather than throw down our guns and make for the rear on the double-quick just as soon as the first shell whistles by or comes to rest right in our nest.

We can take it. We form our own opinions, after a close scrutiny of facts, and proceed to state those opinions unafraid of contradiction based on facts. Let's bring this old scrap out in the open, and stop jumping behind bushes when the going gets tough. What say, Mr. News Editor?—Man in the Moon.

AMERICAN AND EUROPE

To many of the New Deal rah rah boys who have been claiming that the application of the theorems of the collegiate statesmen, has been rapidly pulling the country out of the depression, the report of the American Federation of Labor that Europe is outstripping us in creating reemployment must come as a rude shock. During the past year the unemployed in Europe have shrunk one million in numbers—from 8,400,000 to 7,400,000. In the United States alone there are still more than 11,000,000 unemployed and we have not been improving our situation as many of the governments of Europe have done.

When we consider this along with the additional fact that the New Dealers have been spending the money of the public like inebriated sailors in an effort to check the depression, with the result that our national deficit is now approaching thirty billion dollars, the conclusion to be drawn is not one that is favorable to the New Deal results. European countries are maing desperate efforts to balance their budgets, and in some instances, like that of Great Britain, the efforts have not been made with success. Europe does not possess the natural resources of the United States, but even at that most of the countries over there seem to be getting along wihout running into debt four or five billions a year.

The American Federation of Labor is certainly not unfavorable to the New Deal and the members who prepare the economic reports cannot be accused of unfairness on that score. The simple fact is that the New Deal has been expensive in its efforts to relieve employment without turning the trick. European nations, using sound, and time tried methods seem to be getting along.

There is an encouraging note, however, in the report of the A. F. L. It points out the fact that business interests in the United States are expecting business to be better during the next few months. In view of the fact that we were told that the death of the Blue Eagle would be followed by economic chaos, his state of feeling must seem little short of remarkable to the New Dealers themselves. Maybe the Horse and Buggy Age won't be so bad after all if it brings better business.

The A. F. L. document points out that the increase in the cost of living has held down the buying power of the workers. In this respect the pressing tax has been successful.

THE SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court of the United States is made up of men who have resigned themselves to a life of judicial piety.

Theirs is not to cherish any ambition for personal glory in elective office.

Theirs is only to preserve the immutable principles of American jurisprudence as it has come to them through centuries upon centuries of ethics and morality.

We have a set up a court of nine men not to decide cases of their own initiative but to review the testimony taken in Federal District Courts and Circuit Court of Appeals, and in a series of state tribunals and in state courts of last resort, to review the reasoning and determinations made by judges in those courts who have examined in the first instance the laws and the facts.

To say that this tribunal of nine men shall not henceforth declare the supreme law of the land is to say in effect that we must change our form of government and substitute the rule of passion for the rule of reason. The constitution is an agreement between the people and their agents.

Let the agreement be changed in specific issues, unemcumbered by other circumstances of politics, are placed before the people.

Let the agreement be changed in specific particulars only when specific issues, unemcumbered by other circumstances of politics, are placed before the people.

But meanwhile let it be proclaimed that when an act is declared invalid it is so declared because the people in the original agreement set forth the rights and grants of power they had delegated and that if by the congress or by the president these provisions are transgressed the Supreme Court of the United States alone shall have the right to continue to express the people's veto.—United States News.

Swo Stanford graduates have been arrasted in Japan for taking photographs in a military zone. There are some things our universities do not teach their young men and one of them is plain common sense. Everybody who sets foot on a steamer should know that photographs are not to be taken of fortifications or military zones, and that the Japanese have a case of jitters at the mere sight of a camera in alien hands.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Park Commissioner Robert Moss has notified the PWA in Central Park to speed up or quit. Aw shucks; why bother to try to trim the grass any more? The frost is doing a good job of it anyhow. On with the mumbledy-peg tournament. Whose got a good jackknife?

The first thing congress will do after the depression disappears is to stake a $100,000 investigation to find out where it went.—McPherson, Kansas Republican.

The old fashioned woman who used to spend the beautiful autumn days putting up catsup now has a daughter who thinks that the best flavoring which comes in bottles in creme de menthe.

The fellow who used to be hostler in a livery barn may think he has no future, but just look what a comeback the bartender staged.

A Dutch astronomer has discovered an unnamed far-off star which carries 180,000 degrees Fahrenheit. That is about as hot as the modern jazz orchestra.

Well, if it gets to the point where they can't find anybody else for Joe Lewis to fight why not match him against Popeye.

The New Dealers haven't tried to harness the Gulf Stream yet but if Congress will only give 'em the money they will try it.

There never will be complete peace in this world until they beat the swords into plowshares and trucks with loudspeakers into silence.—Ohio State Journal.

An affable stranger called at the office, was asked to state his business. "You did me a favor 10 years ago," said the stranger, "Ah," the office man replied, smiling with great satisfaction, "and now you have come back to return it." Not exactly. I've just reached town. I need another favor, so I thought of you right away."—Brown Company, Kansas World.

PRLIMINARY STRAWS

It is a long time until the presidential election of 1936, and yet the Republicans have no reason to be discouraged by the early straws which have been blowing in the breezes of local elections. The Rhode Island contest brought the first real encouragement to the Republicans and led them to believe that they might be on their way toward capturing New England again. The town elections held in Conneticut early in October are another indication that they might not be disappointed in this hope.

While these town elections are purely local it is interesting to note that the Republicans wherever possible sought to make the New Deal an issue, while the Democrats tried to avoid this and center public attention solely on local affairs. Significantly enough, the G. O. P. gained a sweeping victory. Out of 149 towns which held elections, it captured all but twenty. The Democratic vote everywhere was cut heavily even in the score of towns which the New Dealers carried, and they lost control of 17 towns.

The Middletown, Conn., Press calls attention to the significance of the Republican gain in Fairfield County, which, it points out, is next to New York and a suburban part of the Metropolis. Continuing the Press says:

"An analysis of the voting shows some surprising changes. For instance in Tirrington, a manufacturing city, the Democrats named for Mayor, State Senator Frances W. Hogan, who carried the city by 2,275 last November and he had been elected as representative in two previous terms. The reversal was marked, Mr. Hogan losing by 150. Bristol, another good sized city, disclosed similar results."

In summing up the situation and its significance the observant Boston Transcript concludes:

"The truth of the matter simply is that Roosevelt experimentation has cost the Eastern industrial section far more than it has turned back to it in benefits. Through higher taxes, nationel as well as local, and through an increased cost of living as a consquence of direct grants to wheat farmers and cotton growers, the people of this part of the country have become the victims of the New Deal. They are the nation's forgotten men and women—a status they gladly tolerated so long as it promises to be temporary and in the ultimate interests of the whole United States, but a status which they refuse to endure as a permanent condition. First Rhode Island, then Pennsylvania, and now Connecticut have demonstrated the plain fact that the voters are in rebellion. Unless there is a great change in the situation, Republicans of the East, seeking a way to win in 1936, will find the issue ready-made for them."

OUR TAX STRUCTURE

Disagreement with President Roosevelt that our tax structure is stronger now than ever before is expressed by Henry H. Curran, of the National Economy League, whi apparently thinks that the way to help the tax structure is to reduce expenditures so that fewer taxes will be necessary. In a recent statement, Mr. Curran said:

"The National Economy League takes direct issue with the President's statement that 'the underlying tax structure of the government is now stronger than ever before in our history.'

"The fact is that the underlying tax structure of the government is weaker than it was before in time of peace within the memory of living man.

"In this very year, by the President's own statement, the tax structure is over $3,000,000,000 weaker than the amount of money necessary to pay the expenses of the government.

"It does no good to say that the actual deficit is a billion less than the President fancied nine months ago. This is not a saving. We still have a deficit of over $3,000,000,000.

"If the money were being spent wisely that could mitigate the danger to that extent, but most of the country knows by now that the relief money is not being spent wisely beyond a small fraction of the amount that is being expended."

Business seems to have picked up for the spender manufacturers since the rah-rah boys got to wearing galluses, but up to this time there doesn't seem to be much hope for the man who used to manufacture the buggy whip.

THE REAL COST OF WAR

It will have to be a very rich conquest, indeed, to repay Italy for the destruction of wealth represented by its military establishment.

The announcement that Mussolini has called 200,000 more soldiers to arms accents the ridiculousness of war. It increases to 1,000,000 the number of Italian soldiers under arms. It is a burden that will bankrupt Italy or place burdens upon it for years to come.

Even the United States, rich and powerful as it is, could not keep 1,000,000 soldiers under arms day in and day out without suffering grievously. For it does not merely mean the maintenance of men, it means the concentration of all industry upon turning out supplies of all kinds that never will help the people who make them.

Every cent means money thrown away. The Italian people are not making things to sell, but to destroy. Their government is piling burdens upon them under which they must stagger for years.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

It's too bad you can't cure the static in a radio with bicarbonate of soda.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of October 27, 1910

Mr. F. M. Wood, editor of The Clanton Press, is taking a wide row in Chilton politics these days. Although his paper is printed in Birmingham, he is expending every effort to defend the Democratic candidates in the coming election.

Mr. W. T. Callen visited the fair in Montgomery last Friday and Saturday.

Dewey Langston, age 10, died at Pletcher of typhoid fever on October 20th.

Married this week—J. P. Atchison and Miss May Hayes, O'Neal Bearden and Miss Beadie Waldrop, Dawson Lovelady and Miss Essie Dobbs, John D. Thogard and Miss Mamie Sanders.

Mr. T. J. Hubbard of Jemison was an appreciated caller in Clanton last Thursday.

POOR O

Last Days

Annual SELLERS Kitchen Furniture SALE

End Kitchen Drudgery

with a SELLERS Cabinet!

If you are spending needless hours and wasting precious energy working in an old fashioned, unhandy kitchen which steals away your strength and happiness, here is the opportunity you have long wished for. Sellers spells "freedom" from kitchen drudgery. It is the best in convenient, work-saving equipment. Make your selection NOW from the many beautiful new styles and colors while you can get

✓SPECIAL PRICES
✓SPECIAL TERMS
✓SPECIAL TRADE-IN
✓and 50 pieces of Dishes and Stainless Cutlery

This SELLERS exactly as pictured $29.50
Less trade-in allowance ... 5.00
$24.50

All extras included with each SELLERS Kitchen Cabinet during this sale...

You couldn't buy a prettier set of dishes — strictly first quality — a complete service for six. And the stainless cutlery is just the set that every kitchen needs and can use every day. Both sets included with each SELLERS during this sale.

This SELLERS exactly as shown $54.50
Less Trade-in Allowance - $5.00
$49.50

KEEP YOUNG WITH A SELLERS

The Only Cabinet Offering All These Labor-Saving Features

$1 DOWN DELIVERS SELLERS and All Extras to Your Home

1. Automatic Base Shelf.
2. Ant-Proof Casters.
3. NON-Jamming Drawers.
4. Genuine Stainless Porceliron Top.
5. Bakelite Pulls.
6. "Baked-On" Finishes.
7. Rust-Resisting Hardware.
8. All-Metal Flour Bin.
9. Klear-Front Curtain.
10. Large Bread Box with Cutting Board Cover.
11. Mouse and Dust-Proof.
12. NON-Warping Doors.
13. Food Chopper Block.
14. Racks and Trays on Doors.
15. Hardwood Throughout.

Only A Few More Days ACT AT ONCE!

TIFFIN Furniture COMPANY
Sixth Street—South of Courthouse - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

Just Received 100 Steel Beds

Two-Inch continuous posts, Large one-inch fillers. These are used Beds, in first class condition. Original cost $15.

$4.50 Cash

New 120 Coil Folding BED SPRINGS
Sale Price $2.35

Tiffin Furniture Co.
6th St., South of Courthouse
Clanton, Ala.

9-POUND BABY BORN IN WELL, UNDER WATER, FULLY NORMAL

Sanford, N. C., Oct. 28.—His wide blue eyes full of innocent wonder and his squawls as lusty as the next young chap's, a 9-pound baby was the center of attention at the Lee County Hospital Monday—all because he chanced to be born under water, deep in a well.

Dr. J. F. Foster, of Sanford, who is attending the mother, Mrs. Alton L. Jordan, and the infant. Franklin Woodrow said the baby was normal in every respect, and owed its life to the fact that it couldn't begin breathing until it was out of the water.

The 26-year-old mother, a farmers wife, said she went to the well to get a bucket of water, fainted, and regaining consciousness, found herself in the water. She swam a bit to keep afloat, finally clung to a knot.

"It was only 45 minutes that I spent in the well," she said, "but it seemed like two years."

Her father-in-law and nephew, happening to pass through the yard, heard her screams. Summoning her husband from a nearby field, they managed to tie a rope around her and pull her out.

"The next thing I remember, I was in the hospital," she said.

MT. PLEASANT P.-T. A.

The P.-T A. met at the schoolhouse last Friday, October 25, at 1 o'clock. With the teachers, 28 parents were present, several visitors and one especally which we all enjoyed, Mr. Fant. He gave an interesting talk on "The Need of Cooperation Between Parent and Teacher." After the talk a short program was given by the pupils. Followng this a business meeting was held by the P.-T. A. members.

The meeting adjourned on Friday, November 8th, at 1 o'clolk, at the schoolhouse. Every parent is urged to be present.—President.

Mrs. P. T. Hinkle Entertains Club

Mrs. P. T. Hinkle entertained members of her sewing club last Thursat a spend the day party at her lovely home at Kilby prison. The home was decorated in a profusion of Autumn flowers and leaves. The Autumn colors were carried out in the table centerpiece, and the place cards. At the noon hour a delicious four-course luncheon was served.

Enjoying this delightful affair were: Mrs. J. Watts Moore, Mrs. John Browder, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer, Mrs. M. L. White, Mrs. H. M. Simpson, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. Fenn Jones and Mrs. H. T. Pipes.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Broadhead and son, Hal, of Montgomery, were the week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes.

Miss Annie Armstrong, of Montgomery, spent last week as the guest of her neice, Mrs. Ed Glasscock.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes and little daughter, Helen, returned from Clayton, Alabama, Friday. Mrs. Hayes's mother, Mrs. W. E. Floyd accompanied her home and spent several days here as her guest.

Mr. Grady Mills spent the week end in Troy, Alabama, with his parents, Mr. Mills is now connected with Clanton's Marinello Beauty Parlor.

Mr. Ralph Jones spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Wallace Jones.

Messrs. Pratt Busby and James Inzy of Birmingham were visitors in Clanton Sunday.

Mrs. Mattie Fox is visiting friends and relatives in Greenville.

Mrs. Dan Waite has as her guest, her sister, Mrs. Mosely from Bankhead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lawson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams, from Birmingham were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Searcy here this week end.

Mrs. Mason Jones visited her mother in Montgomery several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston spent several days last week at Orange Beach, Florida. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. West, of Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnett and little daughter, Lucy, of Selma visited friends here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Barnett will move to California soon to make their home. Mr. Barnett will be connected with the California Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, of Talladega were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Warr. Mrs. Walker before her marriage was Miss Josephine Martin, a popular teacher in the High school.

Mr. Claudie Pipes spent Thursday in Montgomery on business.

Miss Elizabeth Austin, who teaches at Thorsby, Ala., was in Clanton Saturday.

Mrs. V. B. Curtis, of Vicksburg, Miss. is the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. R. Orr.

Mr. Floyd Smith spent the week end in Prattville with relatives.

Mr. Henry E. Floyd, of Opelika, Ala. spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayes.

Miss Lorena Guy spent the week end in Montgomery with her parents.

Mrs. Darnell (Roberta Curry), who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Clara B. Curry, will return to her home in New York Friday . Mrs. Curry, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is recuperating nicely at her home.

Mrs. G. C. Walker spent Tuesday in Mntgomery shopping.

Mrs. Hugh Jones and daughter, Mary Courtney, attended the funeral of Mr. Louis Roy in Montgomery Thprsday. Mr. Roy was the nephew of Mrs. Jones.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes spent Tuesday in Birmingham on business.

Miss Marilyn Hardy, who attends Howard College, spent the week end here with her parents.

Mrs. Parker Taylor, Mrs. Louis Prince and her mother, Mrs. Mooney and Mrs. Bell spent Friday in Montgomery.

Mrs. Louis Prince has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Mooney, of North Carolina.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies --- Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :---: :---: Alabama

STREET SCENE IN ADDIS ABABA—Drover, driving his beeves through the mud streets of the Ethiopian Capital as he watches a contingent of regular troops enroute to barracks.

OUT OF TUNE — IN TUNE
MAGIC EYE TUBE

MAGIC EYE—A cathode ray tube, resembling the human eye is a feature of a new Magic Brain radio. A fan-shaped shadow in the "eye" (left) narrows, or "winks" to show when the radio set is tuned exactly to a station.

HEAVYWEIGHT GIRL ENJOYS SKIPPING—Beatrice Ida Durham, of Wales, Great Britain, is only ten years old but weighs over 200 lbs., is 4 ft. 9 ins. in height and has a 54 in. waist.

FLUFFY AND BEAUTIFUL—A basketful of Persian Cream Kittens.

THE NEW COMPLETELY STREAMLINED Model 703 Deluxe Panel truck, powered by the famous White-built, six-cylinder Pep Head engine with screwed in Stellite valve seats, four-wheel booster-operated hydraulic brakes, and automatically air-conditioned cab. This truck was styled exclusively for the White Motor Company by Count Alexis de Sakhnoffsky, internationally famed industrial stylist.

FOUR LITTLE MAIDS—but not from school! Hollywood Restaurant beauties take time out for Golden Wedding. Reading in the usual fashion: Trude Burke, Betty Sundmark, Rosalie Fromson and Lillian Dee Val.

ORIGINAL

PLEASANT HILL

Every one seems to be feeling fine over the nice shower of rain we have had in our community; and those who have been on the sick list for several days are still improving. We hope they will soon be able to be out.

We were thankful to see so many out at Sunday school Sunday and we had a real good Sunday school. We were also glad to have the splendid turnout Sunday night for our B. Y. P. U. and preaching. It seemed that each one who was present was well paid for his trip. We are just hoping that each one in our community will think for a moment next Sunday morning that it is just as imortant for us to go to Sunpday school as it is for us to go to reaching and we are looking for a large crowd continually on each Sunday morning. Let's keep our Sunday school growing.

Miss Central Cost spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Vernon Robinson, of Collins Chapel community.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brasher spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barnett and little daughter, Sarah Sue, spent Friday night of last week with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin.

Several from our community attended the chicken supper at Union Grove Saturday night and reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cleckler and children, also Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blow and children were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin.

Mr. S. J. Twilley and son, Jimmie, of Dallas, Georgia, made a business trip to our comunity last week. Their many friends were glad to see them back in our comunity and glad, indeed, to hear they are well pleased with their new home in Georgia.

BOX SUPPER

There will be a box supper at Pleasant Hill church next Saturday night week, November 9th. Watch next week's paper. Proceeds will go for the benefit of Pleasant Hill church.

Don't forget to see next week's paper so that you may know just what you may enjoy by being at this box supper.

THE JUVENILE MUSIC CLUB MET

The Juvenile Music club met at the home of Misses Willodean and Martha Jean Stewart, Tuesday, October 22, with 14 members present. Christine Middlebrooks and Reta Thomas rendered piano solos and Mrs. Roberts told of George Fredrick Handel's early life. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stewart to the following:

Jean Waite, Lois Rockett, Jean Mullins, Elizabeth Andrews, Doris Deloach, Joan Atkinson, Gwendolyn Atkinson, Essie White, Rieta Thomas, Christine and Katherine Middlebrooks, and Martha Jean Stewart and Mrs. Barney Roberts.

The next meeting will meet the 4th Tuesday of November with Miss Joan Atkinson.

FARM WOMEN PLAN EXHIBIT AND SALE

Auburn, Ala.—The Alabama Council of Home Demonstration Clubs will have a state exhibit at the Home Industrial Exhibit and Sale to be held at the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Chicago, Dec. 9-11.

Farm women interested in entering pine needle baskets, mats, rugs, stuffed toys, feather fans, preserved fruits or other products are advised to write Dorothy Dean, extension clothing specialist at Auburn. The articles must be in Auburn by Nov. 10. All articles entered in the exhibit will be hold in Chicago.

ENTERPRISE HOME DEM. CLUB

The Enterprise Home Demonstration club met on Tuesday, October 22, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Boockholdt, with nine members present.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Pardue. After all business was finished, the discussion for the afternoon was, "The Comfortable Kitchen." Miss Pardue brought out many interesting and useful points.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, November 6, at the schoolhouse. Our lesson will be "Finishing Floors and Table Tops."

We hope to have all members present at the next meeting.—Reporter

REFUGE NEWS

We had a good crowd at Sunday school last Sunday. Every one be sure and come back.

Our preaching services the third Saturday and Sunday were excellent. Everyone seemed to enjoy Bro. Robinson's sermons very much. We invite everyone back next third Saturday and Sunday. Services are at 11:00 on Saturday and at 3:00 on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Mims and children spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs. J. S. Easterling.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Lockhart and children visited Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Easterling Saturday night.

Miss Velma Easterling spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Connell.

Mrs. E. N. Miner is still on the sick list. Everyone who can should go to see her and carry her a little cheer.

There will be a pounding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Miner Thursday night. Everyone who can go and carry those old people something, and if you can't go, send something. You won't miss a little something and it will help them a lots. They can use anything in the way of somethng to eat, such as coffee, sugar, flour etc. Everybdy remember the date and let's be there.

CARD OF THANKS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space to thank the many friends for their help during the sickness of our daughter, Nellie. We truly thank Mr. Grady Williams and Mr. Reedy Culp. A friend in need is a friend indeed. May God bless each and ever one.—Mr. and Mrs. Delius Roper.

Mrs. W. A. Reynolds spent Friday and Saturday in Montgomery.

Specials For Friday, & Saturday, Nov. 1st and 2nd

— At These Stores In Clanton —

BEAN and TAYLOR Grocery Co.

TAYLOR GROCERY and MARKET

We Deliver - - - - - - - Phone Us

We Lead — Others Follow

Yellow Ripe BANANAS, Pound 5c
MALAGA GRAPES, 3 pounds 25c
Large LETTUCE and CELERY, Each 10c
Fancy DELICIOUS APPLES, Dozen 25c
MOTHER'S COCOA, 2-Lb Can 25c
50-oz Can K. C. BAKING POWDER 35c

Can Goods

15c CANS — Green Lima BEANS, 2 for 25c
15c CANS — Stokely's Finest KRAUT, 2 25c
15c CANS — Finest Peas and Carrots, 2 25c
FINEST FLAVORED — Swiss MILK, 6 small cans .. 20c
FINEST FLAVORED — Swiss MILK, 3 tall cans 20c
15c SIZE — Finest CATSUP, 2 bot. 25c
21-OZ JAR — DILL PICKLES 15c
10c CANS — TOMATOES, 2 for 15c
10c CANS — TOMATOES, 4 Cans for .. 30c
10c CANS — Standard CORN, 3 for 25c
15c CANS — English PEAS, 2 for 25c

Can Fish

8-Oz Can MACKEREL 25c
No. 1 Tall MACKEREL, 3 for 25c
No. 1 Pink SALMON, 2 for 25c

HIGHEST GRADE — 5c MATCHES, 6 for 20c
GOOD FOR EATING OR COOKING — Nice Ben Davis APPLES, ea. 1c
Dozen, 10c — Bushel, $1.00

In The Markets

15c CANS — PORK and BEANS, 2 for 25c
GOOD QUALITY — STEAK, Pound 15c
PURE — LARD, 4-Lb Carton 76c
MINNESOTA — Sliced BACON, Pound 40c
FRESH — Select OYSTERS, Pint 30c
FRESH — Select OYSTERS, Quart .. 55c
100 PER CENT PURE — Pork SAUSAGE, 2 Lbs 45c
FRESH GROUND — Hamburger MEAT, 2 Lbs 25c
WISCONSIN No. 1 — Full Cream CHEESE, Lb .. 20c

Look What VALUES Dont Miss THEM

Seed Oats Texas Grown 5-bu Sack $3.50

10c CANS — PINEAPPLE JUICE, 3 for 25c
10c CANS — ORANGE JUICE, 3 for 25c
10c CANS — TOMATO JUICE, 3 for 25c

See us for Galvanized Tubs, Water Buckets, Roofing, Barbed Wire, and other Steel Products. We represent the T.C.I. Company. These Products are made near you.

SPECIAL PRICES on FEEDS and FLOUR

PURE WHEAT SHORTS .. $1.85
Jazz 24% DAIRY, 100 lbs $2.10
16 PER CENT — Best Yet Dairy Feed $1.75
BEET PULP, 100-lb sack $2.00
C. S. HULLS, New, Sack 60c
THE RELIABLE — WINNER DAIRY FEED $2.00
C. S. MEAL, New, 8 per cent $1.40
Best Yet Laying MASH $2.50
100-LB SACK — HEN SCRATCH FEED $2.50

Omega Flour 24 lbs $1.25
PLAIN AND SELF RISING — FINEST FLOUR MILLED
24-LB SACK SELF RISING — LIGHT WINGS 85c
NONE BETTER FOR THE MONEY
24-LB SACK SELF RISING — SOUTH DOWN 85c
FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE
PER BARREL $6.50

24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — WHITE RING $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S BEST $1.15
HIGHEST QUALITY — BEST FOR BISCUIT AND PASTRY
24-LB SACK, PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S MAID $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S GOLDEN PUFF $1
EXTRA GOOD — FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

See Us for Wholesale Prices on Quantity Lots of Flour and Feeds Dairy and Poultry Feeds of All Kinds—

REMEMBER, FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS: WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS. WE ARE OFFERING YOU QUALITY, PRICE, SERVICE AND CLEANLINESS. WE WELCOME YOU TO MAKE OUR STORE YOUR STORE. COME TO SEE US!

Prizes to Be Given Away Saturday, at 4 p. m.

Dr. J. O. COLLEY IN COUNTY SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOV. 3-4

Will Preach at Cooper and Liberty Hill, and Attend Preachers Meeting Monday

Dr. J. O. Colley, superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage at Troy, will be in our county two days soon. He will preach at Chestnut Creek, Cooper, next Sunday at 11 o'clock, and at Liberty Hill Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Dr. Colley will be in Clanton Monday and will speak at the pastor's conference at the Clanton Baptist church at 10 o'clock. All ministers are invited to hear Dr. Colley.

We are glad to have Dr. Colley come into our midst. He visits us in Clanton and Chilton County often, but never too often. His visits are always welcome, because he has a number of warm friends here, and he always brings us something worth while when he visits us.

Mr. Floyd Smith spent the week end in Prattville with relatives.

East View News

Our Sunday school is still going f.ne.

Dr. Fred P. Ensminger was a visitor here Sunday.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet November 7th at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Cary Morrison were visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Sally Strength, last week end.

Mr. Frank Nelson visited his father, Mr. J. F. Nelson Saturday.

Mrs. L. Prickett visited her mother, Mrs. Sally Strength Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lett spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Nelson.

Little Billy Nelson, who has been very sick the past week end, is improving nicely now.

Messrs. Earl Gray and Howard Parrish visited friends at Huntingdon College in Montgomery Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills and children, of Prattville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Godwin Sunday.

CITY CENSUS TO BEGIN FRIDAY, NOV. 1st

Mayor C. Fenn Jones has announced that the recently authorized census to be taken of the City of Clanton, since expansion of the city limits, will begin next Friday, November 1.

So far, no enumerators have been named, although several applications are on file. No information has been given as to the rate per capita to be paid for this enumeration work. It is expected that the work of selecting the enumerators may be left over until the arrival of Mr. Green, from the census bureau, who will be in charge of the enumeration.

TENT MEETING AT LOMAX

The tent meeting at Lomax continues with good interest. Two noble young men were buried with their God in baptism and arose to walk with Him in righteousness, on Monday afternoon. Rom. 6:3 6. We wish the prayers and interest of all people. Come.

Mrs. Phillip Horn is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Gerald.

FLOYD NEWS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words about this place, as I haven't seen any news from here for some time.

Eerybody is doing fine now. We have been working hard for some time to improve the appearance of our church. We are weather-boarding it, and we have painted it inside, and purchased three nice lamps.

We feel that we will be blest for anything that we can do for the upbuilding of His kingdom, so let's everyone be a booster for His kingdom.

Remember that next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Let's everybody come and hear the good message that Bro. Culpepper will have for us.

Mr. Charles Huggins and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Todd of Birmingham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Simpson from Hartselle visited her nephew, Mr. Hugh Simpson, Sunday.

A. E. A. — P.-T. A. DISTRICT CONFERENCE MEET IN B'HAM

A A.E.A.—P.-T.A. District Conference is to be held in Birmingham on next Saturday, November 2nd. District No. 5 includes the following counties: Walker, Jefferson, Blount, St. Clair, Chilton, Clay, Shelby, and Talladega.

Notices of the conference have been sent to every teacher and every Parent-Teacher Association in Chilton County, and Supt. Luther Little urges every school and every Parent-Teacher Association to have a representative present.

High lights on the program are: Address: "The New Status of Public Education in Alabama", Dr. J. A. Keller, State Superintendent of Education; address: "The Alabama Education Association in 1935", Mr. Paul M. Monroe, president; discussion, "Grand Jury Investigation of P.-T. A. Work in the District", Mrs. James Fitts Hill, president, Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers; open forum, "Some Acute School Problems" Mr. Frank L. Grove, Secretary, Alabama Education Association.

POOR C

MAPLE SPRINGS

Sunday school Sunday was not so well attended, though the lesson was a good one. The subject was "The Facts about Alcohol." The subject for next Sunday is "Nations Accounted to God." We were glad to have the visitors Sunday and we invite each and everyone of them to come back. What we need in our Sunday school is more attendance and help. Why not come to Sunday school next Sunday morning instead of staying at home.

Mr. Claud Tucker, from Enterprise, was here visiting his brother, Mr. Charles Tucker Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn and children had as their guest Sunday Mr. Calvin Glenn and family of Cooper, Mrs. Oliver Glenn and Mrs. Bill Wise and two children.

Mr. Leonard Sandlin was in this community Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Ottis Glenn was in Mt. Creek Friday night.

Messrs. Ottis and Arnold Glenn were visiting in Coopers Sunday night.

Mr. Wiley Jones visited Mr. Jasper Glenn Sunday.

Miss Alma Driver spent last Wednesday night with Misses Thelma and Mary Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller and son, Bonnie were the all day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs last Wednesday.

Mr. B. H. Wells was the guest of Mr. W. F. Glenn a while last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. F. Glenn visited Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Glenn last Tuesday night.

Mr. Oscar Knight and son, Fulton were in this community last Thursday night.

Miss Icie Bell Cobern was in this community last Wednesday.

Mr. Erskin Popwell was the guest of Messrs. Arthur, Evan and Lee Mitchell last Thursday night.

Mr. G. W. Wilson spent a while last Friday morning with Mr. Charles Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn had as their guests Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crew, Mrs. Bill Widmer, Mrs. Dock Crew and son Jesse, from Cairo, Georgia.

Miss Ruth Wise, from Cooper, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wise Friday night and Saturday.

Mrs. Velma Davis and son, Bobby Joe and Jerry Donald spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Glenn and children.

Mr. Ottis Glenn was the supper guest of his brother, Mr. W. O. Glenn last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. DeVaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sorrell and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mims visited Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mims Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones and daughters, Margaret and Mrs. J. A. Duncan, motored to Selma Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. O. E. Johnson, (nee Mittice Duncan).

Mr. Pratt Busby and James Inzy, of Birmingham were visitors in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. Mason Jones visited his mother in Montgomery several days last week.

young MOTHERS

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

(Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks, Pastor)

Sunday is "paid-up Sunday." What a joy it will bring to all of us for the Board of Stewards to be able to announced at the eleven o'clock service Sunday that the church has paid everything for this conference year, which is drawing rapidly to a close. This announcement can be made if every member will do his or her best. What you have planned to pay this year, pay it this week and be through with it. Give it to the steward who has your name, or send it to Mr. Otto Jones, the church treasurer. Be at church Sunday to hear the announcement of the good news.

Then Wednesday night will be "jubilee nite" for everybody in the church, young or old. It will be a night of fun, rejoicing, games, eating and drinking. Every member of the church, and those who are not members but consider this your church home will want to be at this jubilee celebration.

Sunday's schedule of servces: Church school staff meeting at 9:30. Let every oficer and teacher be present for this meeting. Church school session at 9:45. There is a class for every group, from the nursery child to the oldest person. Church worship hour at 11:00, Epworth League at 6:15 and evening worship hour at 7:00.

Don't fail to be at church Sunday!

VERBENA SCHOOL NEWS

Everyone is looking forward to the pie supper at the High school auditorium, Frday night, November 1, at seven o'clock. Pies and hot drinks will be for sale. A fish pond will furnish interest for the children. At eight o'clock a program will be given by the elementary school children, under the direction of Miss Murrell. Mr. Hiten and his boys will add to the fun with a good program. Contests and games will give everyone a chance to have a part in the fun. All school children, parents and friends of the school are invited..

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for November 3

JUDAH TAKEN CAPTIVE

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 25:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14:34.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Black Man God Cared For.
JUNIOR TOPIC—In Time of Danger.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Results of Doing Wrong.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Nations Accountable to God.

I. The Siege of Jerusalem (vv. 1-3).

1. The time (vv. 1, 2). It began on the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year or Zedekiah's reign, lasting about eighteen months. The tenth month, according to the Jew's calendar, corresponds to our December-January, as their calendar began about the middle of March. The reason the exact time is given is that this was to be an event of great importance to the Jews in their exile. In their gloomy exile God directed Ezekiel to utter a parable unto the captives of that day (Ezek. 24).

2. The method (v. 11). Nebuchadnezzar came in person with a large army and encamped against Jerusalem, building forts against it round about. It is thought that several walls were built around the city, shutting it in. On the tops of these walls forts were built from which missiles of destruction could be hurled by their engines of war against the city. With the city thus shut in, its fall was only a question of time.

3. The famine (v. 3). Geikie says, "It was speedily followed, as is always the case, with an outbreak of pestilence. Food was well-nigh gone. There had long been no bread. Mothers were at last driven to murder and eat their children. The richest citizens wandered about searching for scraps in the dung hills." Even outside the city the people were starving "There was no bread for the people of the land." It is estimated that one-third of the people of Jerusalem died of starvation.

II. Zedekiah's Flight and Fate (vv. 4-7).

1. "The city was broken up" (v. 4). The Chaldeans had succeeded in making an opening in the wall so large that they could make their way into the city in spite of all that the Hebrews could do. Resistance was carried on to the bitter end.

2. Zedekiah's flight (v. 4). The king with his men of war fled by night toward the plain. His object no doubt was to cross the Jordan at Jericho and hide in the mountains east of the Jordan.

3. Zedekiah's fate (vv. 5-7).

a. He was overtaken in the plains of Jericho (v. 5). As soon as the Chaldean army discovered the flight they pursued and captured him.

b. He was brought to the king of Babylon at Riblah (v. 6). Riblah was a town north of Damascus. It was the king's headquarters from which he directed his armies against Tyre and Jerusalem. Before Nebuchadnezzar Zedekiah was tried as a criminal.

c. His fate. His sons were slain in his sight. His own eyes were put out. He was bound with fetters of brass and they carried him to Babylon where he remained a prisoner to the day of his death (Jer. 52:11).

III. Jerusalem Destroyed (vv. 8-10).

The dismantling of the city was delayed a month, perhaps awaiting instructions from Nebuchadnezzar who was at Riblah. The work of destruction was executed by the officer next in rank to the king.

1. They burnt the house of the Lord (v. 9). This was the sacred temple built by Solomon, with additions and alterations. Before burning it, they plundered it of all its sacred contents.

2. Burnt the king's house (v. 9). This was doubtless the palace built by Solomon.

3. Burnt all the houses of Jerusalem (v. 9). The implication is that the common houses were left for the people (v. 12).

4. They broke down the walls of Jerusalem. The aim in this was to render the walls useless as a means of defense.

IV. The Disposition of the Temple Furniture and Priests (vv. 13-21).

1. The temple furniture carried to Babylon (vv. 13-17). The pillars of brass and the brazen sea were broken into pieces by the Babylonians and together with the utensils were carried to Babylon.

2. Certain officers and priests taken to Riblah (vv. 18-21). These officers and priests and three score men of the land were taken to Riblah, where they were slain by the king of Babylon.

The events recorded in Second Kings cover a period of 308 years. God had said, "If thou wilt, then I will"; they had invited disaster by disobedience.

Experience

In youth we learn how little we can do for ousselves, in age how little we can do for others. The wisdom of experience is incommunicable.

A Good Man

It is better for a city to be governed by a good man than by good laws.—Aristotle.

Nature

Nature never stands still, nor soul neither; they ever go up or go down. Dore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Page and Peggy Page spent Sunday in Montgomery.

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, OCT. 31
Sylvia Sidney - Herbert Marshall in
"ACCENT ON YOUTH"
COMEDY—"Scotty Finds A Home" and News Topics

FRIDAY, NOV. 1
Charles Farrell in "FIGHTING YOUTH"
COMEDY—"Amateur Broadcast"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT, NOV. 2
Harry Cary in "WAGON TRAIL"
COMEDY—"Amatuer Broadcast"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, NOV. 4 and 5
Chester Morris - Jean Arthur in
"PUBLIC HERO NO. 1"
COMEDIES—"Dartmouth Days" and "Bronso Parlor Tricks"

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 6
Marion Davies - Dick Powell in
"PAGE MISS GLORY"
COMEDY—"Time For Love"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—R. J. Jones, Oct. 31; J. H. Jackson, Rte. 1; Oct. 31; Clolide Johnson, Rte. 4; Mrs. Jessie Jones, Nov. 1; Alex Arnold, Nov. 4; Maxine Nelson, Nov. 7; Agnes Mims, Nov. 3; Mrs. G. C. Walker, Nov. 4; Mrs. Dera Jones, Rte. 4, Nov. 3; Vernon Shoultz, Nov. 6; Ruth Gray, Nov. 2; Minnite Myrl Smith, Rte. 4, Nov. 1; Frances Gore, Rte. 4, Nov. 4; Harold Lawrence, Nov. 6; Bill Hodges, Nov. 4; J. E. Easterling, Nov. 2; Mrs. Rufus Brown, Nov. 3; Gertrude Jones, Rte. 4, Nov. 3; Guy Eula Collins, Rte. 4, Nov. 5; Gladys Culp, Nov. 3; THORSBY—Harrison Hayes, Nov. 3; Gladys Turner, Rte. 1; Nov. 3; JEMISON—A. A. Conway, Nov. 6; Oscar Pate, Rte. 1, Nov. 4; MAPLESVILLE—Frances McCary, Nov. 5; Katheryn Williams, Nov. 6; VEBENA—Elmore Sheppard, Nov. 3; MT. CEEK—R. L. Duffey, Nov. 1; STANTON—Theresa Carter, Oct. 5.

VISITORS FROM EIGHT COUNTIES TO CONVENE IN BIRMINGHAM

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 26.—Six hundred teachers and leaders in Parent-Teachers Associations will convene at the Phillips High School, in Birmingham, next Saturday, November 2, for a district meeting. The meeting is being sponsored by the Alabama Education Association, the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers the State Department for the purpose of discussing current educational issues.

This series of district meetings was inaugurated two years ago by J. E. Bryan, Superintendent of the Bessemer schools, who was then President of the Alabama Educational Association. Last year the meetings were made joint affairs when Mrs. James Fitts Hill, President of the Alabama Congress of Parents and Teachers, united with the State Education Association in providing an all-day program in each of the seven districts of the state. For the current year these two organizations have been by Dr. J. A. Keller, representing the State Department of Education.

HYMAN BRIGGS HODGENS

Hyman Briggs Hodgens, age 26, died at the home of Mr. E. M. Atchison, near Lomax, on Saturday night, October 26. Mr. Hodgens had been ill with pneumonia for a little over a week.

The funeral was held at Pleasant Grove church on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Paul Oden, assisted by Rev. Maurice Hodgens. Martin was in charge of burial. Pallbearers were Morris Jones, Bonnie Hand, Claude Conway, Herman LeCroy, Kendall Franklin, and Hubert Reinhardt.

The deceased is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hodgens of Jemison Route 1; two sisters, Mrs. I. N. Waldrop and Mrs. Evie Kinkaid; and a host of relatives and friends.

Mr. Hodgens has been a teacher in the public schools of Chilton county for the past four years, and was regarded as one of the best of his profession in the county. He was teaching this term at the Jackson Chapel school, near Lomax.

Now You Can BUY ALL 3 AT ONCE

NOW even modest homes can enjoy the comfort and convenience of electrified kitchens. The Economy Purchase Plan makes it possible to buy an Electric Refrigerator, an Electric Range and an Electric Water Heater all at the same time, with monthly payments so low that almost anybody can afford them. You might want to include an electric water pump too.

Of course, you needn't buy them all at the same time if you would prefer to buy them one at a time. You may already have an Electric Refrigerator and Electric Pump and may want to add the Electric Range and Water Heater and other equipment a step at a time. You can also do that under the Economy Purchase Plan.

AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

—makes it possible for you to keep milk, cream, eggs, meat and other foods fresh and appetizing for days—leftovers need not be fed to the chickens. You can make appetizing, inexpensize frozen desserts frequently—every day if you like—it costs so little to operate an Electric Refrigerator.

Consider These Advantages

AN ELECTRIC RANGE

—helps keep your kitchen clean—is great for roasting meats without waste—bakes biscuits and cornbread to a queen's taste—is fine for preserving and canning—makes all food taste better—gives you more time OUT of the kitchen — costs surprisingly little to operate.

AN ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

—operates automatically and gives you all the hot water you want—when you want it—where you want it. Makes it convenient to take a nice refreshing bath every day if you like—makes dishwashing and churning easier and helps you keep the house clean with less work.

AN ELECTRIC PUMPING SYSTEM

—will bring running water to the house, the barn, the milking shed, the poultry house, the yard—any place you want running water. It does away with pail totin'—saves time—gives you time to rest or do other things.

Investigate These Devices!

COME TO OUR STORE OR A DEALER'S

Look at these marvelous electrical devices which every home on our lines should have—CAN HAVE—now that they can be bought on the ECONOMY PURCHASE PLAN and electric rates are so low in Alabama.

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electrify Now—Electricity is CHEAP in Alabama.

Alabama Journal

NEW LOW RATE

1 Full Year $3.00

The Journal prints all the war news as well as Local and National news. Full day Associated Press. The Journal will publish exclusively all the new Laws that will be passed by the Extra Session of Legislature just like it did during the Regular Session. Mail check today for One Full Year.

ALABAMA JOURNAL

Montgomrey, Ala.

JAMES H. DANIEL

Chilton County's new and only authorized Singer Sewing Machine Representative carries every type of electrical and treadle machines, Vaccuum Cleaners and Electric Irons. We have a few real good, late model machines that will be sold at most reasonable prices.

Come in to see us at your very earliest convenience, with all your machine needs, and troubles too, as we have a full line of parts and accessories, and do any repairing and adjusting.

We are located in the Dollar Store, (Next door to the A. & P. Tea Co.). Are at the store every Saturday, and traveling in other sections of the county the remainder of the week.

JAMES H. DANIEL

Exclusive Singer Representative for Chilton County
Clanton, Alabama

ORIGINAL

PLAY AT BILLINGSLEY

What is it? Where is it? When is it?

A musical comedy, "Here Comes Arabella," in Billinysley High school auditorium on Friday night Nov. 1, 1935, at 8 p.m.. It is a Wayne P. Sewell production, directed by Miss Sara Elizabeth Williams and sponsored by Billingsley P.-T. A. Admission, 10c and 15c. Everybody come.

Mrs. Matt Ware made a business trip to Birmingham last Thursday.

GET TOGETHER MEETING AT ENTERPRISE SCHOOL HOUSE

There will be a get together entertainment at Enterprise school building, on Friday, November 1, beginning at 4:00 o'clock p.m.

There will be plenty of entertainment. The football game begins at 4:00 o'clock. Following this will be a musical program, using various local talent. There will be plenty of refreshments available for everyone.

The principal, Prof. Ralph Grant, wishes to especially urge all patrons and all persons interested in the school to attend this meeting, as it is a get-acquainted meeting for the parents and new teachers.

BANNER 1 YEAR $1

For a limited time The Union-Banner will be sold one whole year for $1. This exceptional offer will not last long; and when it closes, the paper will go back to the regular price. If you want the paper for one dollar, better take advantage of it now. We will appreciate your business.

THE UNION-BANNER.

GROCERY STORES OF CITY ADOPT STRICT WORK HOURS

The grocery stores and markets of Clanton have entered an agreement regarding a uniform opening and closing time during week days and Saturdays. It appears that this is a worthy move and merits the strict observance of all the stores of this kind in the city.

Below we publish the agreement and the signatures which have been attached to it:

"Clanton, Ala., October 15, 1935

"We, the undersigned managers and owners of meat markets and grocery shores in the city of Clanton, Alabama, do hereby agree to open our stores for business each week day at 6:30 a.m., and close our stores each week day, except Saturdays, at 6:30 p.m. On Saturdays we agree to open at 6:30 a.m., and close at 9:00 p.m. This agreement to be strictly adhered to and began on October 14th, 1935.

Bean & Taylor, Alonza Askins.
Taylor Grocery & Market, W. F. Irvin.
Peoples Cash Store.
Hill Grocery Co., L. Stewart, Mgr.
A & P Tea Co., G. C. Armstrong.
Clanton Cash Store, O. D. DeLoach.
Sumter Farm & Stock Co.
Mrs. H. E. Culver.
C. R. Glenn."

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.

Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FOR SALE—40 acres of land, 35 in cultivation. In Temple community, about 3 miles southeast of Clanton. If interested apply at Union Banner office.

LOST—A $2.50 gold piece, lost in Clanton last Saturday. The gold piece had a rim around it and was used as a watch charm.—Finder will get reward by returning to The Union-Banner office. 10-31-1tch.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Allred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

WANT TO TRADE—1928 Model Chevrolet in good condition for good mule, not over 10 years of age. Apply to Marion Ellison, near Jackson Chapel, Rte. 5. 10-24-3tp.

FOR SALE—A Chattanooga syrup mill No. 12, priced $25.00. See or write E. L. Henley, Clanton Rte. 3.

FOR SALE—20, 40, or 50 acres of land 3-room house and barn; 20 for $550; 40 for $8.50; and 50 for $1,000. This price is cash.—J. H. Jackson, Clanton, Route 1, one half mile east of Lomax. 10-31-3tpd.

LOST IN CLANTON SATURDAY—One yellow gold jeweled Kappa Sigma Fraternity pin; if found return to Ed Mullins. Reward.

FOR SALE—Seed cane, P. O. J. and Ribbon cane at 50c per 100; and 300 stalks C. P. 807, at 75c per 100 stalks. One first class farm mule, 1,050 lbs; age 10 years. One fresh milk cow giving four gallons milk per day.—Harland Adams, Rte. 1, Verbena, Ala., near Enterprise School. 10-31-3tp.

WANTED—Girl or middle-aged woman to live with elderly lady and do light housekeeping. If interested, apply at Union Banner office.

DR. GRAGG

(Continued from Front Page)

production on while it flows in from the producers of foreign countries by the millions of tons. Now how can we expect to be prosperous if we cut our own production at home and throw the doors wide open to the foreign farmer to flood our country with his cheap products grown in unlimited quantities?

The United States News, under date of October 14, 1935, has this to say, referring to the Secretary of Agriculture and his aides. They are now giving attention to a study entitled "The Collapse of Cotton Tenancy." This study was made by Charles S. Johnson of Fisk University; Edwin R. Embree, of the Rosenwald Fund; and W. W. Alexander, assistant to Dr. Rexford Guy Tugwell, Re-Settlement Administrator and under Secretary of Agriculture.

The authors present figures to show that in a study by them of 2,000 families in Mississippi, Texas, Alabama and South Carolina, of the few families having any cash income, the average yearly income was $105.43. Actual earnings per family when divided between five persons (the average family) would give a monthly income per person of $1.75, they asserted."

Still further quoting this same authority they say "That the ancient order of cotton culture in the Old South is doomed. Sweeping changes in southern farming must come swiftly if millions of farmer plantation workers are not to be completely wrecked— if the region itself is not to suffer violent ruin."

I am not offering a remedy, I do not feel competent, but I am saying to the leaders of our farmers that you must improve the present method of control or our small farmers are facing financial ruin. I will say furthere, if and when they are ruined, we will all go down with them.

I am not thinking of this as a political question, I do not see it as such. It is a question that pertains to the very vitals of our economic existence. As such, it should be considered too important for mere political aggrandizement. If you will do something to make the farmer prosperous, prosperity to others will follow.

It seems that our leaders have forgotten that 25 years ago the world looked to us for wheat, corn, cotton, meat, etc., now our farmers live on flour, beef pork, butter, cheese, cotton oil products, etc., imported from foreign countries, much of it grown on land that has been cultivated thousands of years, while millions of our acres lie uncultivated and too idle to pay taxes. These foreigners are raising bigger crops and "getting" while the getting is good. They are not asleep on the job as we are.

As I said before, this, to my way of thinking, is not a political question. At Washington, Democrats are promulgating it. In Chilton County, Republican are praising it and carrying it on. Your county agent can't change it. He is not to blame for it. His orders are from higher up.

Let's keep our heads level and seek some sensible change. What we have may be O.K., for some big cotton planter, but it means ruin for the average good old "one gallus farmer" of Chilton county and he is the best man I ever knew and I am for him, no matter who or what party is against him.

Yours in the hope that better is in store for us—V. J. GRAGG.

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Registrars of Chilton County, Alabama, in accordance with the general Registration laws of Alabama, will hold sessions for the purpose of registering all citizens, qualified under the law to register, at the following Beats, places and dates in said county, to-wit:

Beat No. 4—Courthouse, Thursday, Oct. 31, Friday, Nov. 1, Saturday, Nov. 2.

Beat No. 15—Pletcher, Monday, Nov. 4, morning.

Beat No. 15—Culp School, Monday, Nov. 4, afternoon.

Beat No. 6—Enterprise, Tuesday, Nov. 5, morning.

Beat No. 5—Mt. Creek, Tuesday, Nov. 5, afternoon.

Beat No. 5—Mitchell Dam, Wednesday, Nov. 6, morning.

Beat No. 5—Verbena, Wednesday, Nov. 6, afternoon.

Beat No. 1—Lay Dam, Thursday, Nov. 7, morning.

Beat No. 11—Cane Creek, Thursday, Nov. 7, afternoon.

Beat No. 12—Mineral Springs, Friday, Nov. 8, morning.

Beat No. 16—Providence, Friday, Nov. 8, afternoon.

Beat No. 8—Stanton, Monday, Nov. 11, morning.

Beat No. 3—Benson, Monday, Nov. 11, afternoon.

Beat No. 7—Maplesville, Tuesday, Nov. 12, Thursday, Dec. 12.

Beat No. 14—Macedonia, Wednesday, Nov. 13, morning.

Beat No. 2—Mars Hill, Wednesday, Nov. 13, afternoon.

Beat No. 4—Thursday, Nov. 14, Friday, Nov. 15, Saturday, Nov. 16.

Beat No. 13—Providence, Monday, Nov. 18.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 9—Thorsby, Wednesday, Nov. 20, Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Beat No. 10—Cooper, Thursday, Nov. 21.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Monday, Dec. 16, Tuesday, Dec. 17, Wednesday, Dec. 18, Thursday, Dec. 19.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Thursday, Dec. 26, Friday, Dec. 27, Saturday, Dec. 28, Monday, Dec. 30, Tuesday, Dec. 31.

No one can register except in his or her own precinct and at the court house in Clanton, Alabama.

This the 7th day of October, 1935.

J. Monroe Parrish, J. T. Thompson, W. W. Wingard, Members of Board of Registrars.

LEFT AUTOMOBILE

One Model A Ford was left at my place October 23rd. Owner can get same by furnishing proper description and evidence of ownership.—L. A. Brown, Clanton, Alabama.

TICKET NO. 5102 WAS DRAWN AT TAYLOR GROCERY-MARKET

Mr. Irvin, manager of Taylor Grocery & Market, announces that at the drawing at his store, October 19, Ticket No. 5102 was drawn. When the corresponding number is presented to Mr. Irvin, the holder will be given the prize. If you have any tickets from this store, look through them. Unless this number is presented soon, another drawing will be made.

TOM CARTER BACK IN CLANTON

After an absence of nearly nine years, Tom Carter is located at Clanton again. He is with Hayes Chevrolet Company as a mechanic.

Mr. Carter first came to Clanton when the Carter Brothers Garage was opened in Clanton several years ago, later going to Birmingham to work. While in Clanton he was in business with three of his brothers, Marvin, Henry and Charlie. Since the Carter Brothers Garage closed, two of these brothers, Marvin and Charlie have died. Henry is now at Prattville, while Tom has come back to Clanton to live.

Tom is a very likeable fellow, and made many friends while in Clanton. He is an expert mechanic, and is a valuable addiion to the repair force of Hayes Chevrolet Company. Tom will be glad to see any of his old friends at his new place. Call in and see him there.

TWO FINED IN MAYOR'S COURT LAST MONDAY

Two cases were on the city docket Monday morning when Mayor C. Fenn Jones called Mayor's court.

The first case was for public drunkenness, and a fine of five dollars and costs of $7.00 were aesseesed.

In the other case, for violating the prohibition law, a fine of $5.00 and costs of $5.00 were assessed.

CORRECTION ABOUT REPORT OF NEGRO SHOOTING AND ARREST

Last week The Union-Banner reported about county officers going up near Reynolds swimming pool Tuesday night of last week and bringing to jail a negro man that had been shot in the back with a shotgun. Since the paper went out last week we have gotten a fuller and slightly different report about the affair.

Mr. W. M. Nelson, whose house the negro visited twice during the afternoon, reports the following:

About 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. T. Nelson, aged mother of W. M. Nelson, heard a noise on her back porch, and found that it was a negro man. She asked him what he wanted, and he answered that he wanted something to eat, whereupon Mrs. Nelson told him to leave the place. The negro left, and during the afternoon was seen at other places in the community. About 8:30 that night he was found again on the back porch of Mrs. J. T. Nelson, whereupon W. M. Nelson was called from his home a short distance away. When he arrived at his mother's the negro had already disappeared, but was found near the road 250 yards from the house. The negro was said to have had a stick and a sack of rocks, and refused to leave when Nelson ordered him away. The negro offered to attack Nelson and threw several rocks at him, whereupon Nelson summoned other help. Clarence Oaks came to Nelson's aid and brought a shotgun. As Oaks approached, the negro began to leave the scene, and Oaks ordered him to stop. When he kept going, Oaks shot him in the back of the head and neck.

The officers were summoned. When the negro was found, he had been captured and was being held by Floyd Bean on the railroad near the swimming pool. The officers took charge of the negro and brought him to jail. It was then about 10:30 Tuesday night.

The negro gave three different reports as to where he was from. Some he told he was from Greenville, some from Montgomery, some from Clanton and some from the nearest town. The negro never revealed his name.

MULBERRY COMMUNITY

The Mulberry community is glad to know that Dr. S. J. Ezell of Clanton will be out at the church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Nov. 3, to speak on the problems of the community.

Every one is invited to come out and listen to this message of vital importance.

HALLOWEEN ENTERTAINMENT AT COOPER SCHOOL HOUSE

On Friday, November 1st, at 7:30 p.m., a Halloween entertainment will be given at the Cooper school. There will be fun for both old and young. Come in your costume and win the prize.

DISTRICT W. M. U. TO MEET

Notice is given that the Eastern District Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union will be held at Auburn, Alabama on next Thursday and Friday, November 7th and 8th. Several members of the local union are expected to attend. A good two day program has been arranged, with several outstanding speakers to discuss subjects important to the workers of the union.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL FROM NOV. 16 TO THANKSGIVING

The 1935 Red Cross roll call is from November 11th to Thanksgiving day, according to announcement of J. Mell Martin. Mr. Martin is the local roll call chairman. He will make announcement concerning local committees in next week's county papers.

Miss Sue Sharpe of Albertville spent the past week end with her parents at Mitchell Dam.

Concord - Billingsley

Rev. Paul Oden delivered two wonderful sermons at the first Baptist church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King and daughter, Mable, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King, of Holtville.

Mrs. K. F. Davis spent Saturday with her husband, Mr. K. F. Davis, who is in a hospital in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Golson, of Montgomery and Miss Burnice Hester, of Prattville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Baxter the past week end.

Miss Maggie Hubbard has returned after an extended visit with her grandmother in Centreville.

Mr. Ada Wimberly and Miss Bertha Dennis made a business trip to Montgomery Saturday.

The many friends of Mrs. Leon Mills and son, Cecil, will be glad to know that they are at home again after being seriously ill for some time in the Central Alabama Hospital.

Miss Lucille Dickinson, of Clanton, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. T. L. Dickinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Baley Donley, of DeFuniak, Florida, is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pattillo.

NOTICE OF PARDON OR PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Will Abecrombie, who was convicted in the circuit court of Chilton County on March 1, 1935 for manufacturing whiskey, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of three years to five years, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for pardon or parole.—(Signed)—Will Abecrombie. 10-31-2tp.

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours 9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

Friday, and Saturday, Nov. 1st & 2nd

Phone 154
WE DELIVER

Clanton CASH Store

WE DELIVER — BLUE FRONT STORE

PEOPLES CASH STORE

THORSBY CASH STORE

When It Is FOOD See Us First

TUNE IN! MAXWELL HOUSE SHOW BOAT — MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE 1-Lb Can 28c

SUGAR

10-Lb Paper Bag	55c
10-Lb Cloth Bag	57c
25-Lb Cloth Bag	$1.40

LARD

1-LB CARTON — Compound	15c
4-LB CARTON — Compound	55c
8-LB CARTON — Compound	$1.10
48-LB CAN — Compound	$6.50

PRODUCE SPECIALS

POTATOES, 10 Lbs	18c
RUTABAGAS, Lb	3c
GREEN HEADS — CABBAGE, Lb	2½c
WHITE OR YELLOW — ONIONS, Lb	4c
BANANAS, Lb	5c
ORANGES, Dozen	25c
APPLES, Dozen	20c

Fresh Tomatoes, Celery, Lettuce, Peas and Beans

COFFEE

Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 15c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

FLOUR SPECIALS

PLAIN or SELF-RISING

24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	85c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	$1.65
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	50c
24-LB Sack LITE RIZE or — POLLY RICH	$1.05
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose	$1.10
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	95c
48-Lb SACK — WHITE OWL	$1.85

FEEDS

20 PER CENT — J. D. DAIRY	$2.00
16 PER CENT — U. S. DAIRY	$1.75
7 PER CENT — C. S. MEAL	$1.40
C. S. HULLS	60c
LAYING — J. D. MASH	$2.50

GRAPE NUT FLAKES

7-oz Package 10c

MAYONNAISE and SANDWICH SPREAD

4-oz Jar Blue Plate	10c
8-oz jar Blue Plate	15c
16-oz jar Blue Plate	25c
8-oz jar Mrs. Pickford's	13c
16-oz jar Mrs. Pickford's	23c

PEANUT BUTTER

8-oz Jar, New Crop	10c
16-oz Jar, New Crop	15c
24-oz Jar, New Crop	23c

MARKET SPECIALS

AT CLANTON CASH STORE

FRESH PIG — PORK CHOPS, Lb	25c
SHOULDER — PORK ROAST, Lb	22c
ROUND - LOIN — BEEF STEAK, Lb	20c
PICNIC HAM, lb	22c
WEINNERS, lb	18c
Ground BEEF, 2 lb	25c

KIT FISH	90c
MATCHES, 3 Boxes	10c
LARGE SEARCHLIGT — MATCHES, 6 for	25c
GOLD MEDAL — MILK, Small	3c
GOLD MEDAL — MILK, Tall	7c
EAGLE BRAND, can	20c

SPECIAL-Prices on Meat, Pure Lard, Coffee

POOR ORIGINAL

NOVEMBER

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION-BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TEN PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1935 NUMBER 29

Republicans Sweep Elections In East

New Deal Is Made Issue; Few Democrats Win; Kentucky Close

Decisively leading in New York's State elections, Republican leaders quickly filed a claim Tuesday that the Empire State had repudiated the new deal.

Ousting at least eight Democratic incumbents, they apparently regained control of the State Assembly, by a margin estimated at five to six seats. The Democrats had a majority of four in the last assembly. A Republican trend was apparent in the State's Mayoralty elections.

Postmaster General Farley, chairman of the Democratic national committee and of the New York Democratic State committee, saw his own district go Republican, as did President Roosevelt in the Assembly elections.

Meanwhile, returns were coming in slowly from State Legislature elections in New Jersey.

Topping a long list of mayoralty elections, Philadelphia priduced a growing lead for the Republican, S. Davis Wilson, over his Democratic opponent, John B. Kelley.

In Kentucky, more than a million votes were cast in a heated gubernatorial election which saw a split in the ranks of Democratic leaders. Two men were shot to death and two were wounded in shooting affrays. The ballots were locked up until today, when counting will begin.

Kentucky's bitter campaign, made spectacular by a party split which found Gov. Laffoon bolting the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, reached its climax in a general downpour of rain and a heavy flood of ballots.

Chandler appealed for votes as a supporter of the new deal. The national question was thrown into the contest also by Senator Barkley (D) Kentucky, and other new deal spokesmen, who sought Chandler votes as votes for the new deal. Chandler's opponent was judge King Swope.

New Jersey voting was quite and light. The national issue had been raised there by Senator Barbour, Republican, and former Senator Walter E. Edge, the latter proclaiming the assembly contest to be "the first and most important round" of next year's presidential election.

KIWANIS ELECTED OFFICERS

At their regular weekly meeting last Thursday night the Clanton Kiwanis Club elected officers for the coming year. They are:

Dr. C. O. Lawrence, president; J. W. Fant, vice president; Raymond Smith, treasurer. The board of direcotrs consists of Dr. V. J. Gragg, Luther E. Little, H. F. Downs, J. Mell Martin, Homer Roberts, J. C. Page, and S. J. Ezell.

The secretary will be named by the board of directors.

ONE FINED IN MAYOR'S COURT

Only one case was on Monday's docket in Mayor's court. This was a case of public drunkenness. A fine of $5.00 and costs was assessed.

LICENSE DENIED SHOOTING GALLERY ON THE HIGHWAY

Monday morning Mayor C. Fenn Jones refused to allow a license to the operator of the shooting gallery on Seventh Street. Mayor Jones stated that the management of the gallery had caused quite a bit of confusion among the patrons of the place, many feeling that they had been "gypped", and that he had been requested by numbers of people to "do something" about it, and that he believed it was to the best interest of all concerned that the license be denied.

Literary Digest To Try New Deal Poll

To Ask Americans How They Like The New Deal Now

Individual ballots have been mailed to voters of Clanton and nearby communities in a new Literary Digest poll of 10,000,000 persons to ascertain the present popularity of the New Deal and should be distributed by the Post Office locally within a few days, ocording to advice received today from the magazine's publishers.

Alabama's returns in this new referendum will be tallied as a unit so they may be compared with the voting in other states, it is announced.

The voting of the post-card ballots is secret as no signature or other identification is required and the return postage is paid by the magazine. To guard against tampering and counterfeiting a specially manufactured cardboard is used for printing the ballot, according to the sponsors of the poll, and all spurious votes can be detected immediately and destroyed.

The ballot asks a yes or no answer to the question: "Do You NOW Approve the Acts and Policies of the Roosevelt 'New Deal' to date?"

NEW CAFE TO OPEN HERE ABOUT MIDDLE OF MONTH

The Johnson building, next to Clanton Laundry, is being remodeled preparatory for a fine new cafe to be opened up there in about fifteen days. The owner of the new cafe is Mr. Albert Gramatas, and he comes here from Birmingham. He owns a large farm in the northern part of Chilton County, we are told.

Mr. Gramatas has had a number of years experience in the operation of cafes, and it is said that he really knows the game. Sixth Street is glad to welcome Mr. Gramatas and his new business.

PASTOR'S WIFE WILL UNDERGO OPERATION

Montgomery, Nov. 4.—Mrs. John W. Inzer, wife of Dr. Inzer, pastor of the of the First Baptist church Montgomery will go to Memphis, Tenn., tonight where she will undergo a serious operation as an aftermath of an accident she received while returning home from a tour of the world early this year. Several days before the boat docked in New York City, Mrs. Inzer fell and fractured her hip. She was in a New York hospital for several days before returning home and then after her return, was confined to bed for several months.

OCIE A. BAKER HURT WHILE HUNTING

Chilton County friends of Ocie A. Baker, former Chilton County man, now living in Sylacauga, will regret to know of his serious injury last Saturday afternoon, in which he suffered a broken leg.

Mr. Baker was a member of a hunting party, composed of himself, Monroe Powell and John Henry Johnson. A short while after taking to the woods, about 20 miles from Sylacauga, he sipped and fell, breaking the large bone of his leg. He was brought back to Sylacauga, where an examination was made, X-ray pictures disclosing a complete fracture.

Sunday afternoon he was resting fairly well, after a restless night. Attending physicians expect he will be all of six weeks recovering from the accident. He is foreman in the Avondale Mills, at Syacauga.

New Census Figures Made For Clanton

City Of Clanton Has 3,363 People; Ratio 4 to 1 White

Under the direction of H. R. Green, from the Federal Census Bureau, four enumerators have finished the enumeration of the inhabitants of Clanton, since the expansion of the city limits. And thereby, The Town of Clanton is no more, but has become The City of Clanton.

The enumerators were James P. Crumpton, Carrie Middleton Foshee, Will H. Sartor, and Hugh M. Simpson, and their work was finished and tabulation made last Monday.

This tabulation shows that Clanton has 1,332 white males, 1,368 white females, 300 negro males, and 363 negro females, a total of 3,363 people.

The tabulation by enumerators was as follows:

	White		Negro
	M	F	M	F	Totl
J. P. Crumpton ..	355	347	14	16	732
Carrie M. Foshee ..	572	569	47	66	1,254
Will H. Sartor ...	146	157	230	268	801
H. M. Simpson ...	259	295	9	13	576
Totals	1,332	1,368	300	363	3,363

As will be seen by the above, the female population of Clanton is greater than the male, both black and white. The ratio of black and white is a little over 4 to 1 white.

Several attempts have been made in the past by various mayors to have the city limits enlarged, but to no avail. Mayor Jones states, however, that the drive he began which finally succeeded met little opposition. The old city limits ran to within 50 yards of the creek all around, and was not a true boundary of Clanton. The new one is more near correct, and does not really hurt anyone concerned, as almost all who are now in the city limits have their business interests in Clanton, and, in reality, are a part of the city.

The cost of the enumeration was $201.90, divided as follows:

Enumeration books	$ 23.25
Enumerators	100.89
Expense of H. R. Green	77.76
Total	$201.90

FAMOUS ENTERTAINERS AT HIGH SCHOOL FRIDAY NIGHT

The music appreciation club of Clanton is sponsoring a program at the high school Friday night of this week. It will begin at 8 o'clock, and some of the outstanding artists of the country are booked to appear. They include Gertrude Peterson, Lucy Lewis, Joseph McPherson, Philip Frank, Edwin Strawbridge and his group, Lisa Parnova.

These artists come to Clanton with the highest praise from the leading journals of the country. It is not often that people so acomplished as these come to Clanton; and all who can should avail themselves of attending the program.

An admission charge of 50c will be made for adults; all students will be admitted for 25c each.

THE RED CROSS IS YOURS, FOLKS

The annual roll call of the American Red Cross begins next Monday and continues through November 28th, Thanksgiving Day. This organization's record in times of war and peace is well known to the people of Chilton County, and it deserves the support of the American people. Hundreds of us in Chilton county should respond promptly to its appeal by enrolling ourselves as members.

The few dollars that we will contribute to the Red Cross will be only a cheap and small participation in the glorious realization of mercy and relief. Surely those of us in Chilton county who possibly can will be included in that great army of people over the country willing to help the afflicted and unfortunate.

Let us not depend on the other fellow doing his part and ours too in this most worthy cause. The work must be carried on, and it takes money. Private contributions will do the work, and it is vital that all who can do so give toward the support of the organization.

THE CAUSE THEY SERVED IN 1917-18

Armistice Day is again upon us, and our attentions are turned toward the Americans who gave up their lives in the service of their country during the great World War. It is well that the people of Chilton County should place some emphasis on the sacrifice of brave young men who surrendered their all in that great struggle. Surely we should honor those who lived but are disabled as a result of wounds received and the harassing ordeals of battle.

Rightly or wrongly, they were convinced that the suffering they were called upon to endure and the blood they were forced to spill was a part of the price that mankind had to pay for world peace. Our only fitting tribute to them—soldiers, sailors, marines, nurses, and all connected with war-time service, is sincere attachment to the ends they sought and a courageous determination to secure the goal for which they struggled. We will always remember those who died and remain loyal to those who survived.

NEW FORD V-8 CARRIES MANY IMPROVEMENTS

Attendants at the plant of Clanton Motors, local Ford dealers, are pointing out the many improvements of the 1936 Ford V-8 this week. A representative of the Union-Banner went to the Ford place and had all the improvements explained, and they are legion.

This year's Ford V-8 has the same sturdy, powerful 8-cylinder, 90-horsepower motor, with various improvements. The cooling syshem has been enlarged, carrying two quarts more water. There are improved and enlarged shock absorbers. The steering rato is changed from 15 to 1, 17 to 1, with an adjustment to take care of the wear.

The new syncro-mesh transmission is silent in all gears, even in reverse. The brakes are improved and enlarged, carrying several inches more braking surface, and the shoes are self-centering, insuring even braking at all times. There are lighter and stronger steel wheels, each wheel being 5 pounds lighter than the wire wheel of the 1935 model, yet is stronger, and is a one piece affair. There are eight more Timken bearings in the 1936 Ford, too. The horns are enclosed in the fender aprons. The new radiator shell is ultra-streamlined, enhancing the appearance of the new car.

The complete all-steel body carries better upholstering, and is equipped with safety non-shatter glass all around in both standard and deluxe models.

The sales force at Clanton Motors are completely sold on the new car, and they can tell you more about it in a minute than we can in a week, so call around and let them explain all the new features of the new Ford V-8 for 1936.

MANAGERS OF ELMORE STORES IN ANNUAL MEETING IN CLANTON

The store managers of the twenty Elmore 5c, 10c and $1 stores in as many towns of the State, were in annual session at the firm's headquarters in Clanton Monday, Tuesday and part of Wednesday this week. The object of this meting of the managers was to make a general round-up of the past year's business, discuss new plans, and make general preparations for the coming holiday trade and the next year's business in general. No social functions were given the men while here, other than a banquet each day at noon at a local hotel. "Strictly business," were the words which Mr. Elmore used in describing the gathering of the managers here.

The towns of the State where the stores are located, together with the names of the managers, follow: Clanton, J. C. Parr with J. C. Leverett assistant; Jasper, W. R. Morgan; Wetumpka, D. L. Smith; Haleyville, B. U. Odum; Russellville, W. I. Smith; Hartselle, A. J. Moore; Athens, J. D. Lietch; Andalusia, Norris Hester; Tuskegee, J. W. Ross; Marion, L. R. Palmer; Demopolis, H. H. Mertins; Greenville, C. H. Sweatt; Union Springs, Ed Daniel; Samson, F. B. Littleton; Prattville, J. K. Taylor; Troy, H. C. Jones; Eufaula, L. F. Rogers; Atmore, C. S. Edwards; Bay Minette, C. K. Zehner.

COMMISSIONERS COURT IN SESSION THIS WEEK

The Commissioners Court of Chilton county was in session the first part of this week. The usual routine of monthly court work was done, and quite a few individuals met the court, but no special acts were passed, according to Judge J. Lee Smith. The court will meet again next Monday morning.

Mrs. Billy Smith is the guest of her sister in Wetumpka.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Powers and Suan spent Monday in Birmingham with relatives and friends.

1936 CHEVROLET MODELS ARE NOW ON DISPLAY

Hayes Chevrolet Company is this week showing the new 1936 models of the 1936 Chevrolet, both Standard and Master Models. The new Chevrolet has been dubbed "the only complete low-priced car on the American market".

This new car carries the same dependable 79 horsepower Blue Flame valve-in-head economical 6-cylinder Chevrolet engine that has made the Chevrolet so popular. The wheels are optional—new steel or wire wheels, according to your choice.

The 1936 model carries hydraulic brakes, has the 1-piece steel turret top, knee action (which is optional), and a new snappy bullet type radiator shell, with lamps attached on each side. All doors are hinged on front pillars. And there are two new body types, the sport sedan and the town sedan, both carrying trunks.

On the coach and town sedan, the front seat is of a new type which admits more ample room for entrance. The 1936 model brings over the starter from last year's model. The glove compartment locks, and the door to this carries an ash tray and a clock. The instrument board is complete—a 100-mile speedometer, gas and oil gauges, heat indicator, ammeter, cigar lighter, ash tray and clock. Two windshield wipers are on all models. Fisher no-draft ventilation is retained, also. On all models not equipped with trunks, there is a spacious luggage compartment back of the rear seat.

In the standard models, the wheelbase is increased two inches. Interior accessories, brake extensions, shift lever balls, cigar lighters, door pulls, etc., all harmonize with the upholstery of the particular model's interior color motif.

Hayes Chevrolet Company point, also, to the easy terms of the GMAC purchase plan, which makes it so easy to own a new Chevrolet.

We are advised that the first 1936 Chevrolet was delivered here to Geo. McCain—a standard coach. Hayes Chevrolet Company will prove their claims for the car with a demonstration. Call on them

SINGING AT FRIENDSHIP THURSDAY NIGHT OF THIS WEEK

Mr. J. Dudley Collins asks The Union-Banner to announce the singing at Friendship Thursday night of this week. This being their singing just preceding the second Sunday, they expect to make it an exceptionally good one. At this time each manth a special singing is held at Friendship, and this one promises to be better than any in the past. A number of outstanding singers have promised to attend, as well as some good quartets.

All singers are invited, and singing will begin at 7:00 o'clock. Bring your new books. And listeners, if you want to hear some good singing, be on hand. All will be welcome at Friendship.

FIFTEEN EARS CORN IN ONE

Mr. Will DeShazo of Isabella community has presented The Union-Banner with fifteen ears of corn all grown under one shuck. We believe this gets the prize for this kind of corn. Mr. E. J. Vinson brought in one last year with, we believe, eleven ears.

Mr. DeShazo's corn is Hastings Prolific variety; and it must be really prolific, according to the number of ears it produces to the shuck.

Uncle Pink Jones of Corinth community was in Clanton Wednesday morning shaking hands with old friends. In speaking to The Union-Banner Mr. Jones stated that both he and Mrs. Jones were enjoying fair health, notwithstanding there combined ages now total 170 years.

NEW GROCERY AND MARKET TO BE OPENED UP SATURDAY

Mr. James Wade announces the opening Saturday of this week of the new Wade Grocery and Market, to be operated in the building next to Hill's—where the Peoples savings Bank had its temporary home. All the fixtures and everything is being put in shape this week preparatory to the beginning of business Saturday.

This will be one of the nicest food dispensaries in the city, with everything new and up-to-date. Only the finest foods and fresh meats will be served.

DR. J. B. HOBDY SPEAKS TO THE HIGH SCHOOL P.-T. A.

Dr. J. B. Hobdy will speak to the High school P.-T. A. on November 12, at 7:30 p.m.

The new vocational agriculture building is being rapidly completed and in view of this much needed addition to Chilton County High school it was thought appropriate to invite some one in authority and fully acquainted with firsthand information to speak to the patrons and members of the High school P.-T. A. along vocational agriculture lines. It is with a great deal of plasure that we are fortunate to have Dr. J. B. Hobdy with us on this occasion.

We urge 100 per cent attendance at this meeting on the above date.

WILLIE MIMS MARRIED TO MISS MARY HAYES

On last Saturday night Mr. Willie Mims was married to Miss Mary Hayes, both young people of Clanton. The ceremony was performed at the home of Justice of the Peace J. L. Wilson. The bride and groom spent the week end in Birmingham.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hayes of Mt. Pleasant community. She is an employee of Matt's Cafe in Clanton. Mr. Mims holds a position with Clanton Wholesale Grocery Company. Mr. and Mrs. Mims will make their home in Clanton.

Huge Salaries Paid To Cotton Officials

Revealed By Senatorial Search Conducted To Find Cost To Uncle Sam

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 30.—A senatorial subcommittee pursued its searching inquiry into the costs of the cotton coooperatives to the Government today but assured thier officials that private cotton firms have been under investigation for six weeks.

Senator Bankhead (D), Alabama, told E. F. Creekmore, general manager of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, that investigators will report to the senatorial committee of which Senator Smith (D) South Carolina, is chairman, at a public hearing at Washington next month.

Senator Bankhead, also a member of the Smith committee, said the investigation concerns market speculation chages and last March's collapse in cotton prices, but that it "has expanded to include the exchanges and general buying methods."

"Senator McKellar (D), Tennesseee, chairman of the subcommittee here, has $1,500 for his inquiry into the co-ops. His principal duty is to determine whether the co-ops are entitled to a $4,000,000 reimbursement for losses incurred in the old Farm Board's cotton stabiliation operations.

Senator McKellar drew from Creekmore today that six of the 14 American Cotton Cooperative Association directors are member Association managers and receive half their salaries from the American Cotton Cooperative Association. Directors of member groups elected them to the parent body, he said.

He named the directors and their total yearly salaries as follows: C. C. Selden, California Cotton Cooperative Association, $75,000; W. R. Squires, Southwestern Irrigated-Cotton Growers Association, $7,000; P. E. Harold, Oklahoma Cotton Cooperative Association, $5,000; A. D. Stewart, Mississippi Cotton Growers Association, $7,500; J. A. Beatty, Alabama Cotton Cooperative Association, $5,000; and J. S. Hatchcock, South Carolina Cotton Cooperative Association, $4,800.

The American Cotton Cooperative Association President, N. C. Williamson, Lake Providence, receives $25 a day when engaged in Association business, he said. Creekmore's salary is $35,000 a year.

SINGING AT COURTHOUSE NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

There will be a regular monthly singing at the courthouse in Clanton next Sunday afternoon, beginning at

The new books will be used. The singers of the county are invited to attend.

No singing was held here a month ago on account of the County Convention being held the Sunday preceding.

FIRE AT MILLING PLANT

Fire last Saturday did little damage to the new feed milling plant of the Central Alabama Milling Company operated by Willie Crowson in the Reynolds Addition. Without hasty and concerted action it might have done considerable damage quick, but as it was the damage was slight.

Red Cross Roll Call To Begin Nov. 11th

Will Close Thanksgiving Day; J. Mell Martin Chairman Of Local Committee

JOIN

Day by day the annual roll call of the American Red Cross approaches, and preparations are being shaped up in readiness for the drive, according to J. Mell Martin, Chilton county's chairman for the roll call. Organization of forces over the entire county is being perfected and an intensive drive for membership will be carried to every corner of the county.

It will not be necessary for The Union-Banner to devote space and time to recounting the benefits to be derived from the Red Cross. Our people know what it is, what it stands for and what it does. We also know what the Red Cross has done for Chilton County when we needed help. They came to our rescue in that memorable time of March, 1932, a time when we needed help, and if we had not gotten such help the consequences would have been much more deplorable than they were.

We all hope and pray that we may never witness another such ordeal of human suffering and mal-adjustment, but it may come. Therefore, we should be as nearly prepared for such emergency as we humanly can. It may hit Chilton county and it may hit somebody else in America. Whereever calamity hits, the Red Cross will stand ready to extend its strong arm of helpfulness. That organiation deserves the support of the people of America if any organiation does.

Chilton county will not fail. We cannot afford to sit down on the job now. The Union-Banner urges those placed in charge of the work over the county to stand by Mr. Martin and help him out in this worthy work. And we hope when the opportunity is presented to the individuals of the county they will extend what help they can. We believe in the people of Chilton county, and we are confident they will not fail to support the Red Cross.

SUNDAY IS RED CROSS DAY

Next Sunday has been officially designated as Red Cross Day. All pastors of churches and Sunday school officials are asked to make mention of the annual roll call at their services next Sunday, making whatever explanation of the plan that they feel disposed to. It is hoped that not a single person in Chilton County will not be reminded of the Red Cross and their attentions brought to bear on the values of the organization and the necessity for everyone to extend a helping hand to make the drive a success.

DR. GRAGG ENTERTAINS MEMBERS OF MEDICAL SOCIETY

Fourteen members of the Chilton County Medical Society were guests Tuesday evening of Dr. Gragg, at his annual Pheasant dinner at the Central Alabama Hospital.

The program consisted of informal discussion of problems which physicians and surgeons are facing in the practice of their profession today.

Those present were: Dr. C. N. Parnell, Dr. J. J. DuBose, of Maplesville, Dr. C. S. Strock, Dr. J. D. Eiland, of Verbena, Dr. R. J. Eiland, Dr. J. P. Hayes, Dr. C. O. Lawrence, Dr. O. C. Mastin, Dr. T. J. Marcus, Dr. N. S. Johnson, Dr. H. T. Donoan, Dr. J. M. Kimmey, Dr. W. C. Golden and Dr. V. J. Gragg, all of Clanton.

Miss Alice Powell of Turner Station, Kentucky, arrived Wednesday to spend the winter with Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Ezell.

Consider Plans For District "TB" Camp

Soldiers Home May Be Turned Into Tuberculosis Camp

Acording to advice from the office of Dr. J. M. Kimmey, County Health Officer, tentative plans are being made to turn the old soldiers home at Mt. Creek into a tuberculosis camp for the district composed of Autauga, Elmore, Chilton, Coosa and Shelby counties.

Plans are under way to secure funds for renovation of existing buildings at the site, and for the allocation of maintenance funds after the project is finished.

Advice is given that Gov. Graves has authority to make whatever use of the property he thinks fit, since its original use has been served.

Mrs. Delia Traywick has returned home after a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Foster, of Lanette, Ala.

POOR ORIGINAL

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Nov. 5.—Plans for the Homecoming Celebration at the University of Alabama to be held next Saturday, November 9, are nearing completion, acording to Tom Garner, alumni secretary.

Final announcement of plans for the military drill have come from Major Edgar H. Underwood, commandant of the R.O.T.C. Unit at the University. The corps will parade at 10 a.m., immediately before the meetings of the Board of Trustees at 10:30, the Alumni Council at 10:30, and the Convocation of women students at 11.

An academic procession women students will march to the parade ground to review the drill. The procession will be directed by the class presidents: Mary B. Tompkins, Tuscumbia, who as vice president of the Senior class, is succeeding Mary E. Whatley, Moundville, who has resigned; Mary G. Hornsby, Centreville; Ruby Syx, Birmingham; and Ernestine Robertson, Anniston. Members of the women's faculty, of Mortar Board, national senior women's service society, honorary cadet colonels, and student government officials on the board of directors will lead the procession.

A prominent woman will speak before the convocation. Her name has not yet been announced.

Nine students at the University have been named to membership in Aau Beta Pi, national honorary scholastic engineering fraternity, announces Glenn L. Morris Syracuse, N. Y. president. Those selected were: Nathan Hower, Bessemer; Everett P. Jones, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Edmund Kuhn, Barberton, Ohio; Robert Meyerhans, Waterbury, Conn.; James Spence, Carrolton; Bertram Sutphin, Atlantic City, N. J.; Herbert Downs, Whitesboro, N. Y.; Georgie Lyrene, Silverhill; and Paul Sheaff, Norwalk, Conn.

The first annual state-wide conference for high school boys and girls will be held at the University of Alabama on January, 3, 4 and 5, 1936, according to announcements just made by state and University Y. M. C. A. officials here.

The first full delegation of high school students has already registered for the conference; this first group will come from Bessemer High School, Bessemer, and consists of ten students, acording to William T. Lewis, Bessemer, state Y. M. C. A. president. Registration of other groups is expected shortly.

The entire facilities of the University will be at the disposal of the boys and girls during their stay here, since regular-session students are not scheduled to return to the campus until January 6, after the Christmas holidays. The only requisite for participation in the conference is a nominal registration fee.

Every high school in the state, regardless of size, is invited to send a delegation to the conference. It will be the first of its kind, and will emphasize character building and citizenship in its program.

SINGING AT ROBINSON SPRINGS

There will be a singing next second Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10, about 2:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited to come out and bring the new song books.—V. G. Smith.

SLIPS THAT WON'T PASS IN THE NIGHT

Of all the stories concerning newspaper incidents coming to our desk, the most amuzing and by far the prize winner appeared several days ago. In explaining "Exactly How it Happeed" several editors printed the story concerning a most humorous blunder made by an inebriated publisher.

The story runs like this:

After receiving a column of type from the linotype operator containing an account of a marriage and an auction sale, the publisher "pied" the gally of type (dropped it on the floor). In putting it together he obtained the following result relative to the marriage write-up.

Mr. John Eaton and Miss Mary Thompson were united in marriage at public auction, on the premises, on last Friday at high noon, in the presence of two yearling heifers and 4 13 year-old steers.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of two tons of unbailed timothy hay and several hundred bundles of fodder, trimmed with two spring tooth harrows, and one riding cultivator. She carried a bouquet of beautiful sausage grinders, stuffers and cooking utinsils.

The groom had been a life-long resident of Bentonville, being general manager of two dozen Berkshire pigs and about 100 leghorn hens. The bride was given in marriage by two draft mares, to foal by day of sale, and the bridesmaids were one Oliver chilled plow, a 6-horse drill and two shares of telephone stock. The groom's best man was a cider press, wheat fan and two barrels of cider vinegar.

Miss Emily Johnson, a friend of the bride softly played "O Promise Me" on one New Idea manure spreader, a corn-sheller and two copper kettles and stands. The color scheme of lavender and yellow was carried out, the room being decorated with a 1929 Ford sedan, one double-barrel shotgun, and 14 Jersey heifers eligible for registration.

After a luncheon and reception, the happy couple left for a trip of two months' time, with 2 per cent off for cash, and upon their return will be at home with 2 sets of almost new work harness, 2 sets of fly-straps, and one slightly used baby carriage. The officiating minister was Charlie Hilbert, auctioner.—Exchange.

STEVEN'S BIRTHDAY

Sunday, November 3, we met at the home of Sidney Stevens to enjoy the day with him and his mother. She was 79 years old, has 3 grandchildren and 7 great granchildren. All were present. One niece, Mrs. J. L. Burroughs, daughter, and her friends from Birmingham were also there with lots of other home friends. Dinner was so nice, being served to 37 at one time. They all ate supper too, and then packed a box and sent it to a sick friend.

Grand mother received many nice presents. As we began to separate every one wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Profit Sharing Sale

For the next Ten Days we offer you big savings on our High Grade Lines of Merchandise. A few of many Sales items.

Mens WORK SOX	9c	LL Yard Wide SHEETING, 10c Grade	9c
Mens WORK SHIRTS	44c	BLANKETS, Part Wool	$1.79
Mens DRESS SOX	10c	Mens and Boys SCOUT SHOES	$1.25
Mens FLANNEL SHIRTS	94c	Mens Work SHOES, Special	$1.89
Mens LEATHER CAPS	94c	Womens and Girls OXFORDS	$1.89
Mens Good Ribbed — UNDERWEAR	69c	Childrens School SHOES	98c
Good Quality OUTING, 10c Grade	8c	Children's Dress SLIPPERS, Special	$1.00
CHEVIOTS In New Patterns	13½c	Mens $2.50 DRESS OXFORDS	$1.98

Ask For Our Profit Sharing Coupons. Clip this adv. and bring to our Store and we will give you 5% off on all purchases you make amounting to over One Dollar.

NEXT TO FIRST NATIONAL BANK BEN'S CLANTON, ALA.

Lest We Forget! A thought for

1918 - November 11 - 1935

TIME moves on. Hardly seems that seventeen years have gone into History since that eventful day of 1918 when the greatest conflict the world has ever known came to an end. A glorious victory it was for the Allied Armies . . a glorious triumph of Humanity over the forces that sought to destroy it.

 And yet it was not a victory without its price. In honored graves in Flanders fields and in our own consecrated ground lie those young heroes who so unselfishly gave their all in Humanity's defense. And, in hospitals throughout the land . . yes, in civil life, too . . there still are many whose wounds of war have never healed. Yet uncomplainingly they carry on . . bearing the cost of their devotion to their fellow man with a fortitude that is amazing.

 To the hero dead . . to the wounded . . yes, to all the lads who in '17 and '18 followed the flag in the World War . . our undying gratitude. And to give that gratitude expression, let us solemnly FACE THE EAST at 11 a.m., Armistice Day, and breathe a silent prayer of Thankfulness!

We, the Undersigned, subscribe to these sentiments:

CLANTON CASH STORE
TAYLOR DRY GOOD COMPANY
UPCHURCH DRUG COMPANY
BIG FOUR HARDWARE COMPANY
PEOPLES SAVINGS BANK
CLANTON LAUNDRY & CLEANING CO.
J. H. BROADHEAD — (West End Grocery Co.)
HAYES CHEVROLET COMPANY
J. R. MULLINS & SONS
CLANTON MOTORS, Inc.
CALLOWAY DRUG COMPANY
SERVICE BARBER SHOP
WINGARD BROTHERS
THE UNION-BANNER
MAZER'S — (I. S. Levine, Mgr.)

Alabama's Greatest Daily Newspaper Value . . . .

The Birmingham Post

Will be sent to you by mail every week-day for ..... ONE YEAR $3.00

Or With Your Favorite Magazines

A Few of Which Are Listed Below

CLUB NO. 2

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
Southern Agriculturist, 1 year
Gentlewoman, 1 year
Country Home, 1 year
Good Stories, 1 year
The Farm Journal, 1 year

ALL SIX FOR ONLY $3.45 Value $4.50

CLUB NO. 3

The Birmingham Post, 1 year
American Magazine, 1 year
Pictorial Review, 1 year
McCall's Magazine, 1 year
Progressive Farmer, 2 years

ALL FIVE FOR ONLY $4.50 Value $6.00

USE THIS COUPON

THE BIRMINGHAM POST,
Birmingham Ala.
Gentlemen:

Enclosed find $.....for which please enter, or renew, my subscription for one year to The Birmingham Post only ( ) or Club No. ....., as above.

Name .....

Address .....

R. F. D. .....

This rate applies only to R. F. D. box holders and points not served by carriers.

Salesmen Wanted—Write circulation department, The Birmingham Post for details. You can make $3 a day.

PLEASANT GROVE

JEMISON

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Zuber had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Willis and little daughter, Joan, of Thorsby, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kincaid of Thorsby, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Waldrop and little son, Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miskelley and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hodgens.

Misses Grace Wells and Myrtle Willis and Mr. Reece Wells spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Champion of Thorsby.

Mr. ann Mrs. Davis of Ensley spent last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom

Miss Bertha Lee Price spent the Wednesday with Mrs. W. E. Miskelley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davenport had as their guests Sunday, her brother, Mr. Walter Collins and a Mr. Wilson., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davenport and daughtrs, Lucille and Lorene.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion and sons, Dalton and Sanders had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ed Compton and children, Mary Lee, Lucille Lervie and Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merchant and daughters, Lucille and Billie Frank, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans Sunday.

Mrs. Lilly Spivey and children, Erschel and Laurene, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll.

The Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion and Mrs. Martha Wilson had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Franklin and little son, Cecil, Mrs. Dovie Dawcon, Mrs. Z. Woodley and Mrs. Jim Woodley and little son, John.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskin Martin visited her home folks last week end, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright and sons, James and Maurice.

The Misses Willie and Lovena Campbell were guests of their sister and family Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. John Trott and children, T., J., and Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Trott were Sunday guests of her father and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miskelley had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hodgens and children, Horris and Arlis.

Mrs. John Clower spent a few days last week with her children in Birmingham.

Mrs. Clarence Turner is sick. She is at the home of her father, Mr. Euel Dawson.

CENTER HILL NEWS

We are still having our weekly prayer meeting. If you do not have a prayer meeting in your church, come and meet with us. Mrs. J. E. Corey conducted it last Wednesday night and Mrs. Thelma Gothard is to have charge this week.

Remember next Sunday and Sunday night are our regular preaching times. We expect to worship at the morning hour with communion services. Let's all be there and let our pastor, Brother Maurile Hodgens, know that we are still awake and doing for our Master. Be present at 9:30 for Sunday school.

On last Saturday, at the home of Mr. J. E. George, Miss Lilla Ellison and Mr. Dock Simms were married, in the presence of a few friends. They are making their home with Mr. Simms,s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simms of this community. Both are very popular in this part of the county. We wish them many years of happiness.

James Gentry is still in the hospital but is better and is expecting to come home this week.

Miss Mildred Cobb is also in the hospital at Clanton and remains about the same.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Collum attended the funeral of their cousin, Peny Atkinson, at Sterretts last Thhrsday.

Mr. Lonnie Cobb and mother, Mrs. J. E. Cobb, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lowery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Lesley visited relatives in Calera Sunday afternoon.

Some people from here attended the singing at Oak Grove Sunday afternoon.

Miss Aleen Miller has returned home after a visit to relatives in Dixiana.

FOR HAIR AND SCALP
JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
The Antiseptic Scalp Medicine—
Different from ordinary Hair Tonics—
60c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists
Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About Your Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

FAIRVIEW P.-T. A.

On November 1st, the P.-T. A. met at Fairview school house. Our teacher, Mr. Archie L. Stroud, and the pupils had planned a Hallowe'en program which was presented before the P.-T. A. program. This was thouroughly enjoyed by all.

We are expecting a grand P.-T. A. We hope that everyone will do their best to make it a success. You don't have to be a patron of the school to belong to our P.-T. A. If you believe in the upbuilding of your community, we will be glad for you to join us.

Our next meeting will be held on November 22. We are planning on several real good talks. Now, friends do your duty. Come to our P.-T. A. and show your children that you are interested in them, and show Mr. Stroud that we are proud to have him with us.—Reporter.

STATE GAME NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 5.—Conservation Commissioner I. T. Quinn announced today that the U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey has assigned Harold S. Peters, formely attached to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, to Alabama Polytechnic Institute to direct a new cooperative wildlife project in Alabama.

Mr. Peters appointment was with the approval of the State Conservation Department, the Alabama Polytechnic Institute and the American Wild Life Institute and fulfills a promise made by Chief J. N. Darling of the Biological Survey during his December visit to this state to provide Alabama with a trained biologist to conduct a course in game management and do research work in the wild life field.

The biologist will be attached to the Department of Entomology and Zoology, at Auburn, but will utilize the Biology Department, the Agricultural Extension Service and its Experiment Stations in his work. Commissioner Quinn considers Alabama very fortunate in obtaining the services of Mr. Peters.

Among his more specific duties, Mr. Peters will make a study of external and internal parasites of game birds and animals; a food habit study to determine the effects of the food habits of certain species of wildlife upon other forms; a study of the predatory habits of certain birds and animals, and conduct demonstrations with the purpose of determining the factors which regulate minimum and maximum production of a given species of wild life on a definite area.

Vatchel Lindsey visited Weogufka Sunday, October 27th. He went over by the way of Mims Ferry. He spent a while Tuesday in Rockford, returning home by way of Log Cabin Beach. While in Weogufka, he visited C. N. Dozier and O. J. Honeycutt. He come back home with Ex-Sheriff Neighbors, now of Clanton.

POOR OR

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

"How do I feel.... Rotten! why do you ask?"

"Because, you are not yourself!"

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength... you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

T. V. MIMS COMMENDS FARMERS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a small space in your paper. I want to commend the farming class of people for the stand that they have taken in demanding their rights on the Federal triple A program. We, as farmers, voters, and citizens of our country have got to wake up and take notice of what is going on in our country. We have for the last fifteen years been drifting into the hands of the political leaders, who will make you think that they are doing something for your benefit. How can you expect anything from men of high financial standing to make a program for common people, because they are liable to hurt their own pocket book.

Our government is supposed to be of the people, for the people and by the people. Instead, it has got to where it is of the politician, for the politician and by the politician. We, as a people have got to wake up and see that our officials do their duty as public officials.

We have been made to believe that there has been an ovr-production of cotton and no market for it. There are not a dozen families in Chilton County that can't use from fifty to a hundred yards of cotton cloth. If you want a market, give the people something to buy with and see if it don't sell like hot cakes. How can people buy anything when it takes all the money they can get to pay taxes to keep our homes from selling. If I, for one had had to depend on my farm for clothes and a living above the expense, I am afraid we would have failed.

There are hundreds of people right here in Chilton County who can't even send their children to school because they are not able to buy clothes and books. Does that show that the market is over-crowded? One thing that we need very badly is real referendum within reach of the voter so when they fail to do their duty as officials, recall them. We have put up with too much stuff, no wonder that men of high educational standing can come to Clanton and other places and tell the farmers what they need. They are getting big pay for it out of the taxpayers of this state. Any change might hurt their payroll.

Voters and friends, we have got to organize our votes so we can have a better understanding with each other. Sometimes we have to fight fire with fire, so now we are facing a time when we all have got to fight the organized politician with organized voters. When Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Roger Sherman and Robert R. Livingston wrote out the Declaration of Independence, which reads like this, All men are created equal and they have a right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Think this matter over and see if you have any men in office that are as sincere as this bunch of men were.

Voters, it costs the tax payers about $10,000 a year for each Senator in the United States, $8,000 for each Congressman. Now there are not fifty farmers in Chilton County that make enough, above expenses, in two years to pay one of these officials. Does this look like equal? I think before they try to enforce the triple A, they had better reduce the taxes some and see if it won't work out better. We wouldn't mind cheap cotton if we could get cheaper officials. Is it right for these fellows to get large salaries when the farmer can't pay his taxes let alone get something to eat and wear. I think the triple A will be all right if they will try some of the reducing from our State Capitol to our National Capitol.

I am with you for a cheaper government and a better government.—Thanks.—T. V. Mims.

THE WAR IS OVER BETWEEN CHEVROLET AND FORD

The Chevrolet has added every improvement necessary to win the battle for 1936.

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton

VERBENA NEWS

A meeting of much interest to the Vermont community met at Vermont Jr., High school on Friday night, Oct. 25. A very interesting discussion was given by Miss Hefflin, of Isabella. Her subject was "Yards and Improvement."

Mr. Smith also met with the men and a general discussion was held on "Home Curing Meat." This will mean a lot to us if we will cooperate and take advantage of the advice offered.

The meeting was enjoyed by 30 people or more. We hope to see more of our friends and neighbors out at our next meeting. Come on out and let's help to make these meetings a success. Different subjects will be discussed at these meetings.

Our next meeting will be held on November 8th, at 7:00 o'clock. On account of the Hallowe'en program which will be given at the school house on Thursday night, October 30, our meeting has been potsponed until the above mentioned date.—Reporter.

CLEANIN UP OF FTUIT TREES BY THE GOVERNMENT

The Alabama Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture are doing good work in Chilton County taking up old diseased peach trees and cleaning run down orchards.

I have had some of this work done and I believe it is a good project. These old trees have been on my place for a good many years, harboring insects and diseases and making it almost impossible for me to produce good fruit. The insects and diseases that winter in these old trees attack my new trees that are put on my place.

As I understand it the project is to do away with the phoney peach diseases that have cost the fruit growers of Georgia so much money.

This is a worthwhile project and is now spreading into Alabama. I believe everyone who is trying to grow fruit should cooperate with the government in making this project a success.—J. C. Watson, Calera, Ala., Route 1.

The friends of Sidney Littleton, who s at the South Highland Infirmary, are proud to know he is now improving.

VISIONS of the FUTURE

TO YOUR boy belongs the future . . . the thrill of accomplishment . . . new worlds to conquer. You want to do all you can to help him succeed. Much of his ability depends on eyesight. Quick perception as he studies—accurate vision in sports and games. ¶ What about the lighting conditions in which he reads or studies? • Improper lighting causes eyestrain, nervousness, headaches. Why not check the lighting in YOUR HOME for his sake? At your request a lighting expert will survey your home and tell you just how much light you should have. Sometimes a bulb of higher wattage is needed; in other cases a new type of lamp will give better light. There is no charge whatever for this service!

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electrify Now — Electricity Is CHEAP In Alabama

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for November 10

EZEKIEL TEACHES PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

LESSON TEXT—Ezekiel 33:7-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.—Romans 14:12.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Prophet Encourages His People.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Watchman on Duty
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Does God Care What I Do?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Individuals Accountable to God.

Ezekiel prophesied in the land of the captivity. The purpose of his ministry was threefold: (1) To show the house of Israel that they were in captivity because of their sins (14:23). (2) To show that God is righteous in his visitation of judgment upon them (7:8, 9). (3) To sustain their faith by assuring them of their national restoration, the punishment of their enemies and their final exaltation among the nations when Messiah shall reign.

I. God's Sovereign Right to the Souls of Men (18:1-4).

Every man is personally responsible to God.

II. The Moral Obligation of Sons to Their Father (Ezek. 18:14-20).

While the law of heredity gives the child a sinful nature and when the child arrives at the age of moral responsibility it begins to sin, God holds such responsible for their deeds.

III. Ezekiel's Responsibility (Ezek. 33:1-9).

As a prophet of God certain responsibilities were imposed upon him. There is a sense in which every disciple of Christ is a witness for him and therefore is responsible for the giving of his testimony to sinners. His responsibility is set forth under the figure of a watchman. Two things were required of a watchman.

1. To hear the words of God's mouth (v. 7). The source of the message of every minister and Sunday School teacher is God's holy Word. Just as the prophet did not originate his message but received it of God's mouth, so it should be with every minister and Sunday School teacher.

2. To sound the warning (v. 7). After hearing God's message he was to speak it out and proclaim it to the people. A watchman today is both to hear and to speak. The people are to be warned of the impending danger. Failure to sound the alarm makes the watchman guilty of the blood of the sinner.

IV. God's Attitude Toward the Sinner (vv. 10, 11).

God has declared in his Word that unfaithfulness on the part of his people would cause them to "perish among the heathen," that they would "pine away in their iniquity" (Lev. 26:38, 39). In view of this pronouncement some are disposed to say that their case is hopeless. To meet this attitude of despair the prophet assured them that God had no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that his sincere desire was for the wicked to turn from their way and live. Regardless of what their past had been, they were given the assurance that the future was bright if they heeded God's command and plea. No one need to despair because of sin, for God's grace is greater than human sin.

V. The Sinner's Personal Responsibility (vv. 12-20).

God created the members of the race personal beings, giving them freedom of choice. They have moral discernment enabling them to distinguish between the right and the wrong. They choose, therefore, according to the quality of their being.

The following principles govern the sinner:

1. Past righteousness will not avail for present sins (v. 12). When a righteous man turns to iniquity, his past seeming righteousness will be of no avail.

2. Past sins do not make impossible present acceptance with God (vv. 12-15). By virtue of the operation of the law of habit, every sinful act makes it harder for the sinner to repent, but God's grace is such that if the sinner repents God will forgive and restore.

3. Restitution required (vv. 15, 16) The proof of penitence is that, so far as possible, the sinner makes amends for wrongs done.

4. God's ways are equal (vv. 17-20) God holds man responsible for his own deeds. The child is not condemned because of the deeds of his father, nor can it be said that the fathers have eaten sour grapes and the children's teeth are set on edge. This does not do away with the law of heredity. Regardless of what one's past life has been, God's grace in Jesus Christ blots out his record and he stands accepted in the Beloved.

Friends

Friends are as companions of a journey, who ought to aid each other, as preservers on the road to a happier life.—Pythagoras.

A Mother's Love

If there be aught surpassing human deed or word or thought, it is a mother's love!—De Spradaro.

Force

The power that is supported by force alone will have cause often to tremble.—Kossuth.

James Duke Heflin is writing a letter to President Roosevelt.

Fruits--

APPLES — ORANGES — BANANAS
BANANAS, 10c to 20c per Dozen
APPPLES — Any Quantity, Any Kind — Fresh from Market — Priced Right
ORANGES — All Kinds — Prices Right
CANDY and NUTS

Little Fruit Store

J. H. (Red Eye John) Gore - - - Clanton, Ala.

Living Protection

A bulwark between you and emergency

INVESTORS SYNDICATE
FOUNDED 1894
LIVING PROTECTION

Living protection is presented to you as something which you can achieve --- a cash reserve which you can arrange to be yours at the time of future need.

The plan enables you to make provision on easy terms for this sum of money for future delivery. How much more you will receive than the amount of your payments — depends upon how long the delivery date is deferred.

For Details See

Frank Palmer

Local Representative

State Headquarters 601 Comer Bldg., Birmingham, Ala.

For Sale

Have a good well-bred jack for sale. Will trade for cattle or other stock. Can be seen at Charlie Foshee's house. Want to buy horses and mules. Also to buy ear Corn.

L. H. REYNOLDS

Clanton, Alabama

Mattress Factory

We make old mattresses new. Also make new mattresses. Have just installed new machinery. Will appreciate your patronage. Work called for and delivered on same day.

Chilton Mattress Company

E. JONES, Mgr.

Located at Fairview Filling Station— Two Miles North of Clanton, Alabama

BOB JONES COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

In the fifteenth chapter of the Apostles, we read that there were certain men from Judea who tried to stir up strife among a group of Christians by insisting that these Christians be circumscised after the manner of Moses. According to the report there was much dissension among the brethren. How up-to-date this story is! It has been the writer's privilege to contact religious groups throughout America and also in a number of foreign countries. The orthodox groups agree on all the fundamentals. They believe the Bible is the word of God. They believe in the necessity of the new birth. Yet, many of these Christians refuse to have fellowship with each other because they disagree about matters which, in the strictest sense, are not fundamental.

The writer is a fundamentalist. He believes that modernism and fundamentalism are so diametrically opposed to each other that it is impossible to bring them together. The modernist says that the Bible contains the word of God. The fundamentalist says that it is the word of God. Both can not be right. There is no middle ground. No man can be neutral. The orthodox Christian should unite in testimony and in service. The modernists ought to be able to get together. The writer has built an orthodox college and operated it for nine years. It is built on the one idea that whatever the Bible says is so. In this college there are Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians, and other Christians united in the faculty and the student body They live together harmoniously, and the denominational integrity of each student is preserved. The Bob Jones College in Cleveland, Tennessee, is a daily demonstration of the fact that evangelical, orthodox Christians can agree on certain fundamentals and can work together harmoniously without sacrificing a Christian conviction. There is no use to say that it can not be done; it is being done. If you do not believe it, come and see.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Tuscalooosa, Ala.—Alumni of the University of Alabama from all sections of the state will gather here on November 9th to celebrate Home Coming day. Letters which have been pouring into the office of the alumni sceretary for the past few weeks indicate the largest gathering on any Home Coming day in the University's history.

Features of a crowded program include a football game at 2 p.m., between the University and Clemson, preceded at 11 a.m. by an important meeting of the State Alumni Association in the Union building, followde by an alumni luncheon at the Tutwiler annex. Other events on the program include a Home Coming Dress Parade and Review at 10 a.m., and meeting of the Board of Trustees at 10:30 a.m., Saturday. Festivities conclude with a dance at 9 p.m. under auspices of the Athletic Association.

Help Kidneys

If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (Sis-tex) —Must fix you up or money back. Only 75¢ at druggists.

Cystex

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

IGINAL

Mrs. Hinkle visited friends in Clanton Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. J. T. Franklin of Birmingham was the week end guest of Mrs. H. T. Pipes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pipes of Calera were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pipes for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith from Wetumpka visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Davis, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cohen Stapp of Selma were here for the Pilot Club banquet Saturday night and remained until Sunday.

Mrs. T. C. McSwain spent Friday in Montgomery shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones and little daughter, Mary Frances, spent the week end with Mrs. Jones's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McSwain.

Miss Helen Roberts, who is attending Huntington College, was home for the week end.

Mr. Dan Hogan spent Sunday in Spiegner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds spent Monday in Birmingham.

Mrs. A. S. Prince and Mrs. Irene Raspberry were shopping in the Magic City Monday.

Mrs. Tom Tiffin, who is attending Troy Normal school, spent the week end here with home folks.

Prof. and Mrs. L. C. Warr made a business trip to Birmingham Saturday.

Mr. Dan Smith, who is a student at Auburn, visited his mother, Mrs. P. C. Smith last week end.

Mrs. Hughes of Birmingham visited friends here Sunday.

Miss Lois Thompson, who is attending Montevallo College, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mullins, Mr. Ed Mullins and Miss Pauline Hogan motored to Birmingham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Renfroe Mullins, Jean Mullins and Elizabeth Andrews motored to Montgomery Sunday afternoon. From there they went to Kilby, where they made a short visit with Dr. and Mrs. Hinkle.

Mrs. A. G. Danforth of Lafayette was the guest of Mrs. Willie P. Jones last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones of Montgomery spent Friday night with Mr. Jones' mother, Mrs. Willie P. Jones.

Mrs. Darnell (Miss Reberta Curry) left Friday for Birmingham where she will spend a few days with Mrs. Hughes Kennedy. From there she will go to Ashville, N.C. to visit a short while with her father, Mr. Thomas A. Curry, and then on to her home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Golson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell of Prattville were guests of Mrs. Dan Hogan Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Phillip Horn of Birmingham has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. F. Gerald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston, Mr. Jack Hayes and Miss Alice Brooks attended the Alabama-Kentucky football game in Birmingham Saturday.

P.-T. A. Hallowe'en Party Success

The Hallowe'en party at the Clanton Grammar School last Thursday evening proved a most delightful affair. The building was effectively decorated in cornstalks, colored autoumn leaves, pumpkins and witches.

The small children enjoyed the acts of Punch and Judy, the Fortune Teller and the fish pond. The large children enjoyed the house of horrors and the peanut and candy booths. Mrs. W. D. Spigener held the lucky number for the beautiful cake given away. A small school girl guessed the number of beans in the jar and was awarded the beautiful embossed cake donated by Clanton's new bakery.

At an early hour the popcorn donated by Mr. Armstrong at the A&P Tea Co., was all sold. The candy was donated by Taylor Wholesale Grocery Co., and Hill Grocery Company donated a peck of apples.

The proceeds for the evening was near $50.00 and members of the P.-T. A. wish to thank the parents and children for their cooperation in making this such a success.

—•—

Mrs. J. J. Hance Alred Hostess

Members of the Thursday Contract Club were delightfully entertained last week by Mrs. J. Hanre Alred. After a series of games Mrs. James Wade held high score and was awarded the prize.

Delicious refreshments were served the following guests: Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. Philip Horn of Birmingham, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

—•—

Dr. Charles Moore of Birmingham was the guest Friday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watts Moore.

Mr. Frank Mullins of Mobile was a visitor here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pipes have as their guest Mr. Pipes' brother, Mr. Jim Pipes, and their son, Mr. Hoke Pipes, of Louisville.

Rev. Father Cazalos of Montgomery was the guest of Mrs. Hugh Jones on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Browder entertained the members of our ladys guild on Thursday afternoon at her home. After the business and program a delightful salad course was served.

Mrs. Anderson of Pinkard is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Kimmey.

Dr. J. P. Hayes is enjoying a hunting trip at Wedgeworth, near Greensboro.

Friends of little Elizabeth Ann Duncan, who is suffering from an attack of Scarlet fever, will be glad to learn that she is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Deramus spent Wednesday in Birmingham.

Clanton Study Club Entertained By Mrs. J. R. Mullins

Mrs. J. R. Mhllins was hostess to members of the Clanton Study club last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. M. F. Jones. Roll call was answered with current events.

A most interesting program was given on "The Roman Family". Mrs. Horsley White read Mrs. Mallie White's paper on "The Family Life." Mrs. J. W. Hayes subject was "The Family in Literature." This was given by Mrs. Omar Reynolds.

At a late hour refreshments were served. The following members enjoyed the afternoon:

Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. Burt Inzer, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Barney Burnett, Mrs. Jno. Mullins, Mrs. M. F. Jones, Mrs. L. C. Ross, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. J. E. Gowan, Mrs. Norman Roberts.

—•—

Miss Nellie Fuller of Ashland, Ala. spent Sunday and Sunday night with Miss Ruth Pardue.

Miss Lucille Sheerwood returned Sunday from her home in Brundidge, where she had been called on account of a serious accident that happened to her brother who lives in St. Louis. We regret that Miss Sheerwood's brother is still very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpson spent the wek end in Montgomery.

Mrs. S. J. Ezell, Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Mrs. J. E. Gowan, and Miss Alice Powell went to Auburn today to attend the district meeting of the W. M. U.

Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. James Wade Mrs. J. W. Hayes and Helen spent Monday in Montgomery.

Mr. Florris Harris of Ashland, Ala., spent the week end here with his family.

Mr. L. E. Duncan of Birmingham spent the week end here with Mrs. Duncan and the children.

Mrs. W. E. Floyd, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Hayes for several days, returned to her home in Clayton, Ala., Friday.

Mrs. Jean Wyatt and Mrs. Walter Fiquette spent Monday in Montgomery shopping.

Miss Margaret Floyd spent the week end in Clayton with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Godwin spent Sunday in Prattville with relatives.

The Montgomery Pilot club kept open house at their lodge at Prattville Sunday afternoon from 3 until 6, honoring the international president. Guests from Clanton were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin, Miss Ruth Pardue, Mr. Howard Mahaffey and Mrs. P. C. Smith.

Mrs. Hance Alred and Mrs. John Page spent Friday with Mrs. George Trotter at the Wetumpka Dam.

SPECIALS!
At Your
A. & P. Food Store

EIGHT O'CLOCK
COFFEE lb 15c

RED CIRCLE, Lb 19c
BOKAR, Coffee Supreme, Lb 23c
CHACE & SANBORNS Dated Coffee lb 28c

ARGO RED Salmon No. 1 Tall Can 20c

PET Milk Baby Can 3c Tall Can 6c

STERLING SALT OR
MATCHES 3 for 10c

SWIFT'S JEWEL OR
SCOCO Bulk lb 13c 4-lb Ctn 55c

PEANUT BUTTER, Johnston's 1-lb jar 15c
Iona PORK and BEANS, two 1-lb cans 10c

MERITA FAIRY
SODAS lb pkg 10c Excell 2-lb pk 19c

FOOD A&P STORES
ESTABLISHED 1859
WHERE ECONOMY RULES

IONA COCOA, 1-lb can 10c; 2-lb can 19c
O. K. SOAP, three 10½-oz bars 10c
5 GIANT BARS 19c
SUPER SUDS, 2 small pkgs 17c

OCTAGON
CLEANSER 3 cans 13c

JELLO Assorted Flavors pkg 6c
MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE, Lb 29c
SWANSDOWN CAKE FLOUR, Pkg 30c
BAKER'S COCONUT, Wet Pack or Sou. Style can 10c
Post Toasties 2 pkgs 15c

SUNNYFIELD
FLOUR 24-lb Bag 99c 48-lb Bag $1.95

REICHERT'S BIRD
FLOUR 24-lb Bag 89c 48-lb Bag $1.75

PUFFED WHEAT, pkg 10c

SUNNYFIELD
OATS, Quick or Regular, 20-oz pkg 8c

WEST END Specials
For This Week-End At
J. H. BROADHEAD'S
Phone 228 - - - - - - - We Deliver

FOR CASH ONLY

6-LB PAIL — Snowdrift $1.05
3-LB PAIL — Snowdrift 55c

Fresh EGGS 30c
Good FRYERS Per lb 20c
TOMATOES 10-oz Can Only 5c

Matches 3 boxes 10c

WE BUY COUNTRY PRODUCE

Get a Beautiful Cup and Saucer FREE

With Each 48-lb Sack of Wonderful Marvel FLOUR For $2.05

Low Subscription Rates to RURAL BOX HOLDERS
The Birmingham NEWS or AGE-HERALD $3.00 PER YEAR DAILY ONLY

When you subscribe to an Alabama newspaper . . . subscribe to the best. The News and Age-Herald bring you the latest reports in news, stocks, and sports. . . . They have educational, and amusing features. The Birmingham News and Age-Herald have more than earned their acknowledgment as "The South's Greatest Newspaper."

DAILY and SUNDAY $5.00 PER YEAR

★

This offer applies only to persons actually living and receiving their mail on a rural route or in towns where carrier delivery is not maintained. Positively no orders accepted at these rates from persons living or maintaining a business in towns where there is carrier service.

The Birmingham News
THE BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD
The South's Greatest Newspaper
MORNING EVENING SUNDAY

Write for Details of Our MAGAZINE OFFERS 5 Great Combinations

POOR OR

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

Regular services at the Congergational church next Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45. Prayer service at 11.

Regular choir practice under the direction of Miss Foss on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The topic will be a continued discussion of "The Peace Plebiscie." A very special business meeting will be held following prayer meeting. All members of the church please be present to hear and vote on the reports of the building committee.

The Congregational Ladies Aid will be held Thursday afternoon, November 7, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Goddard. Mrs. Burt Higgins will be hostess.

The Boy Scouts will meet Friday evening at 6:30 at the city hall.

At the worship service Sunday morning at Congregational church Mr. Stanley hopes to gather in all the peace ballots.

Regular services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The G. A.'s will meet Thursday afternoon after school closes at the public school building.

There will be a revival in song Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of this week at the Baptist church from 7 to 8 o'clock.

—♦—

Mrs. Harry Thompson will now be at home in Thorsby for the winter and will be glad to see her friends.

Mrs. Anna Phalin, Mrs. J. H. Goddard and Mrs. C. S. Howard spent Monday morning in Clanton attending the officialmeeting of the demonstration clubs.

Mr. Roy Kendrick and Mr. Bob Grant of Birmingham spent a while at home Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kendrick.

Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt, Linnie Belle and Charles Cleckler spent Sunday afternoon in Wilsonville visiting Mrs. Reinhardt's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burdette and children of Clanton spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Mrs. Josephine Askins of Clanton spent last Thursday with Mrs. W. H. Raybon.

Mr. Phares Raybon spent the week end in Birmingham.

Miss Edith Foss, who is now taking a business course at Selma, spent the week end at her home in Thorsby.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Jones had as their guests Sunday their son and his wife and little daughter, Mary Frances, of Troy.

Mrs. A. J. Culver of Birmingham spent last Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Martha Burnett.

Mrs. R. Stewart of Georgia and Mrs. Osmond Honeycutt of Birmingham spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Sam Mims.

Powers-Arant Marriage

On Saturday evening, November 2 at 7 p.m. Miss Marie Powers of Thorsby and Mr. Ernest Arant of Clanton were married. Rev. Middlebrooks of the Methodist church at Clanton officiated. This was a quiet wedding with few friends being present. Those attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Sumners, Mrs. Arant, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mead and Helen Louise, and Mr. and Mrs. Powers, parents of the bride. The couple will live at the Powers home for the present.

—♦—

Mrs. Martha Burnett, who has been ill for several weeks is able to be up again.

Mrs. Ralph Pate and baby boy are spending this week with Mrs. Pate's mother, Mrs. P. G. Marcus, in Clanton.

Mrs. Wilbur Marcus spent Saturday in Clanton with Mrs. P. G. Marcus.

Mr. J. A. Hayes, principal of the public school, spent the week end in Andalusia and Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kemp and daughter of Clanton spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merchant.

Mrs. Jim Higgins, with Mrs. Leon Mims and Mrs. Williams, teachers at the public school attended a P.-T. A. meeting at Phillips High School in Birmingham Saturday.

Miss Jennye Robinson spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kendrick and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith.

Mrs. N. Laurell spent a few days in Birmingham last week.

Mrs. Coggans had as her guests for the week end Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Porter of Birmingham.

Miss Elizabeth Glasson spent Friday night and Saturday in Birmingham. While in Birmingham she heard the author, Richard Alliburton, lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dunlap of Calera attended the Helen Keller Literary Society program Saturday night.

Miss Frances Wilson of Montgomery spent the week end in Thorsby.

Miss Jewel Wilson of Bessemer spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Roy Wilson.

Mrs. Anna Villadsen is visiting in Birmingham for a few days.

The work of enlarging campus cottage was begun Saturday, Nov. 2.

Mrs. W. E. Langford of Birmingham visitied relatives in Thorsby for the week end.

The Rev. Nolan of Culiman visited his son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nolan, for the week end.

Mr. Maurice Hodgens and Mr. Warren Riggins, students, in Howard College, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Robinson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Marcus had as their guests for the week end Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hayes.

Miss Cecile Wagoner spent Friday in Birmingham visiting her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterson and daughter, Imogene, of Sheffield and Herbert, Jr., of Birmingham spent the week end in Thorsby with relatives.

We are glad to know that Mr. and Mrs. Webb Parrish's little daughter, Billie Ann, is improving after an attack of diphtheria.

Miss Bertha Littleton of Birmingham spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Billingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson spent the week end in Elmore county.

The P.-T. A. Hollowe'en party held at the public school Thursday night was a great success. Side shows and games were the entertainment. The cake for the ugliest man was won by Mr. C. M. Williams. The cake for the ugliest woman was won by Miss Elizabeth Austin. Cookies and lemonade were served as refreshments.

—♦—

Christian Endeavor News

The executive committee of the Christian Endeavor society met Sunday afternoon, Nov. 3, at the church for the purpose of hearing the reports of the various committees. The committee nominated Miss Lois Rister as their delegate to the state conference which will be held at the Blackwoods church near Headland, Ala., on Nov. 12 to 14. Miss Rister to be a delegate of the Christian Endeavor Society. The committee also agreed upon a budget to take care of the necessary expenses of the year. The Christion Endeavor program Sunday evening was very interesting. The topic under discussion was "The Cost of War and the Price of Peace." This program placed a spotlight on the terrible things that war does for a nation. Miss Ruth Higgins was the leader.

East View News

—♦—

Our Sunday school is still growing. We had 40 present last Sunday.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Rev. Marion Dopson, our new astor, will preach for us. The public is cordially invited.

The Ladies Aid will meet on Thursday of this week at the church.

Misses Evelyn and Magalene Thomas visited their aunt, Mrs. Ocie Rushing Sunday.

Mr. Tarpley Prickett visited his brother, Mr. L. Prickett last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Headley and Mr. Bird Johnson from Livingston visited Mr. L. L. Courtney and S. L. Gray last week.

Mr. William Rushing and family visited his mother, Mrs. Clara Rushing this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Nelson and son, Billy were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gray Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lula Courtney from Prattville spent the night at home Wednesday night.

Mr. O. Z. Kelley and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cox visited Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Nelson Sunday night.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR OCT.

—♦—

Below is given the percentage of attendance of the schools of Chilton county. The first number represents the enrollment and the second the percentage of attendance.

Cane Creek 50, 98.9; Mitchell Dam 14, 98.3; County Line 27, 98.25; McCary 18, 98.2; Popwell 40, 98; Fairview 32, 97.87; Providence A 36, 97.22; Minooka 31; 97.20; Thorsby 187, 95.98; County High 338, 95.74; Cooper 193, 95.66; Pates Chapel 45, 95.55; New Cedron 29, 95.46; Verbena, 391, 95.27; Alabama Mills 95.2; Thomas, Jr., 224, 95.03; Culp 14, 94.95; Jackson Chapel 72, 94.9; Baker 174, 94.8; Isabella 245, 94.7; Enterprise 245, 94.4; Oak Grove 78, 94.03; Concord, Jr. 199, 94; Lay Dam 36, 93.73; Jemison 609, 93.6; Vermont 154, 93.5; Union Grove 112, 93.4; Mt. Pleasant 210, 93.29.

Collins Chapel 176, 93.08; Clanton Elementary 333, 92; Pinedale 50, 92; Maplesville 297, 91.93; Refuge 68, 91.55; Mineral Springs 74, 91.4; Providence 40, 90.9; Smith 48, 90.9; Mars Hill 41, 89.41; Free Springs 34, 89; Stainton 209, 89.4; Concord B 27, 87.55; Freeman 61, 87.35; Flint Hill 39, 86.77; Mullins 32, 85.57; Shiloh 39, 84; Morganville 19, 83; Pilgrims Rest 39, 81.43; Chestnut Grove 26, 70.

Colored

Mt. Zion L 42, 100; Riderville 75, 100; Shiloh 22, 100; Spring Hill 12, 100; Gulledge 21, 99; Campbell 33, 98; Clanton 121, 89; Johannah 20, 98; Chilton Belle 36, 97; Cross Foads 20, 97; Jemison 65, 97; Lamox 44, 97; Maplesville 67, 97; Pleasant Hill 21, 97; Beulah, 30, 96; County Training 235, 95; New Convert 95, 95; Verbena 74, 95; Big Springs 40, 91; Mt. Zion 11 29, 91.

—♦—

Thorsby Institute News

On Saturday morning, November 2, members of the faculty and student body represented Thorsby Institute at the convention for directors of girl's athletics and students from their classes hell at Huntington College in Montgomery. The faculty members who went were Miss Mattingly, Miss Ford and Miss Klingelhoefer. The students who attended were Miss Bernice Robinson and Miss Hattie Porter.

Report cards were given out to the students Friday and the honor rolls for the first six weeks were posted in the bulletin board.

The second open meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society was given on Saturday evening, November 2. A varied program of music and two short plays, followed by a pantomime "The Simpkins Family Album" was given. The Glee Club made its first public appearance also.

On Monday morning, Nov. 4, Rasmond Sammons gave a talk at chapel on the life of the CCC camp where he is working. He gave an interesting description of the work and aim of the camp, and of the helpful courses which are offered there.

First honor roll—Frances Conway, Sarah Green, Margaret Ward, Lewis Wilson, Mary Louise Reinhardt.

Second honor roll—Mary Christ, Mary Frances Duke, Frederick Dunlap, Margaret Golson, Dora Holt, Inez Jackson, Julia Johnson Mary Maud Knight, J. R. Lowery, Gladys Martin, U. L. Mims, Blanche Morgan, Margaret Nash, May Annice Polk, Hattie Porter, Bernice Robinson, Edward Roy, Mae Pearl Sorrell, Dorothy Weems, Robert Weems.

—♦—

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MET SUNDAY NOVEMBER 2

—♦—

Spanish War Veterans of '98 met Sunday, November 2nd, at the County Courthouse in Clanton, and unanimously decided to organize a camp and Ladies Auxiliary in Clanton. Department Commander, J. A. Lipscomb, and Department Auxiliary President, Mrs. Jessye M. Loe, were present at this meeting and made interesting talks explaining the purposes and aims of the organizations. Past department commander, John A. Holmes, Assistant Adjutant, D. T. Loe, and past Department President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Linnie Lipscomb, also were present and made enthusiastic talks for the organizations. Mr. Jeff Best was selected as temporary chairman, and Mr. John C. Mitchell was named as temporary Clerk and Treasurer pending the perfection of the Clanton Camp and Auxiliary, which will take place on Sunday, November 17th, at 2 p.m. and at which time permanent officers of the Camp and Auxiliary will be elected and installed.

Seventeen veterans signed the application for a charter and more are expected to become identified with the Camp at this meeting. This will be a public installation and all are inited to attend.

—♦—

REFUGE NEWS

—♦—

Our Sunday school is still improving. More people seem to be interested and we are doing good work. Everyone who wishes to hear some good discussions on the lesson should visit us.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Connell and little grand son, Moses, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Connell Sunday.

The pounding for Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Minor on last Thursday night was a grand success. These old people received many useful articles in the grocery line. There was just a little from each one, yet they have enough to last for several months.

Let's everyone be sure and come to Sunday school next Sunday and try to have your lessons just a little better.

—♦—

Why GET UP Nights?

THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanyt flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and feel "full of Pep."

AUTO TOPS RECOVERED $3.50 And Up

Glass Installed $1.25 And Up

— SEE —

HARRY WALKER

AT POLK BROTHERS MOTOR CO.

FOR ANY KIND OF BODY WORK and PAINTING

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Phone 10, 9 and 2

Funeral Supplies --- Ambulance Service

Flowers for all Occasions

Clanton :---: :---: Alabama

Billingsley News

—♦—

Mr. and Mrs. U. C. Wilson of Birmingham spent the past week end with Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Traywick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Miss Ann Turk and Mr. Patterson from Jones, Ala. attended the play at the High school Friday night.

Mrs. Bell Thompson and little son, Tommie,, left Tuesday for Corinth, Miss., where they will spend the winter with Mr. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Mills of Grafton, West Va., are spending this week with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brazer and attractive children of Boothton spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Donahoo.

Mrs. Ada Wimberly spent Sunday with Mrs. J. W. Thomas at Jones.

Miss Ozell Deason of Centreville has returned after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Deason.

Mrs. Will King of Plantersville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. H. Harrell.

The Rev. Peacock preached a very interesting sermon at the Methodist church last Sunday.

M. J. W. Pattillo is attending court this week.

Mr. O. C. Davis of Grafton, West Va., was called home on account of the illness of his brother, Mr. Davis.

Mr. C. H. Herrod of Haynes attended church here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson made a business trip to Clanton last Saturday.

—♦—

Mrs. A. T. Robinson had as her guests for the week end her daughter, Miss Dessie Robinson, Miss Lois Martin and Mr. Austin Maddox of Birmingham.

Miss Henrietta Bean, who has been very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Meade, is able to be at work again.

Mrs. Sam Bailey of Birmingham spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson.

Mrs. Harry Waters and little son spent Monday with Mrs. E. R. Piper.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Harper had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harper and sons, Herman and Don.

CARD OF THANKS

—♦—

We wish to thank each and everyone who brought or sent us anything on last Thursday night. We needed the things that were brought and we know that God sent you with them. May His blessings be on each and everyone of you.—Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Minor.

—♦—

Miss Annie Armstrong has returned to her home in Montgomery after a visit to her niece, Mrs. Ed Glasscock.

Specials for Saturday

Dewey Mims invites his friends to come to see him at his new place located on the Clanton Selma Highway, open ready for service and your trade will be appreciated.

Woco Pep Gas, Oil, Drinks, Tobacco and Groceries

Prince Albert, 2 for	25c
Country Gentleman	10c
Plug Tobacco	15c
Large 4-oz Bruton Snuff	20c
Small size Snuff	10c
Glory-Be Flour	$1.00
3 tall cans Mackerel	25c
Chum Salmon	10c
Crackers, 1-lb box	10c
Scoco Lard, lb	15c
Flavoring 8 oz bottle	10c
Octagon Soap, 6 lge bars	25c
Pork & Beans, 24-oz cans	10c
SUGAR, 10-lbs	55c
PURE LARD, lb	20c
Kerosene	14c

Dewey's Place

4 Miles West of Clanton on the Maplesville Highway

November Specials

— AT THE —

YELLOW FRONT STORE

Pure Santos — We Grind It COFFEE, lb 10c

Scott County — 14-Oz. Bottle CATSUP 10c

American Eagle SHOT GUN SHELLS 3¼ Dr. Powder; 1⅛ Oz. Shot — In 12, 16, and 20 Guage Sizes — A Fine Shell for Every Purpose — Box 60c

FLAKEWHITE LARD—4-Lb. Ctn. 55c 8 Lbs. $1.10

O.K. SOAP, Large Bar 5c MATCHES 4 for 15c

SUGAR 10 LBS 55c

16-Oz. Jar Peanut BUTTER 15c

FLOUR BIG TALKER 12-lbs. 49c 24-lbs. 89c 48-lbs. $1.75 | DELICIOUS 12-lbs. 52c 24-lbs. $1.00 48-lbs. $1.95 | GOLD MEDAL 24-lbs. $1.10

11-Oz. Can Sweet CORN Per Can 5c

DRIED PEACHES — DRIED APPLES—Straight or Asst., 2 lbs. 25c

PRUNES 2 Lbs. for 15c

LOUDEN'S CHOCOLATE DROPS Lb. 10c

Potted Meat --- 3 Cans 10c
Vienna Sausage --- 2 Cans 15c

WASH BOARDS 25c

SALT Buy Now, Prices Are Advancing — 5-lb. Bag 10c, 10-lb. Bag 19c, 25-lb. Bag 32c, 50-lb. Bag 59c, 100-lbs $1.00

REX SODA CRACKERS — 1-Lb. Box 10c

VANILLA WAFERS 1-Pound Box for 15c

14-Quart Enamel DISH PANS 29c

White Cups & Saucers, each 5c
White Dinner Plates, each 10c

27-Inch Fancy Heavy Quality OUTING 7½c yd.

36-Inch Fancy Heavy Quality OUTING 12c yd.

1,000 Yards of Solid Color LINENE Fine for Quilt Linings 36-Inches Wide — Only 10c yd.

Men's Heavy Weight UNION SUITS — 2 Pair $1.25

36-In. Heavy Fine for Shirts COVERT CLOTH, Blue & Gray yd. 15c

For Longer Wearing Higher Quality Shoes for the Whole Family Shop the Yellow Front Store --- Our Prices Are Lowest.

Wright Drug Co.

Thorbsy, Alabama

- BUS STOP -

DRUGS

TASTY LUNCHES Soda Fount

CERTIFIED PHARMACIST PRESCRIPTIONS

CLOSED

MONDAY

The Banks of Clanton will be Closed Monday on account of Legal Holiday.

Peoples Savings Bank

First National Bank

CLANTON, ALABAMA

IGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

OUT OF THE EXPERIMENTAL STAGE

The farm cooperatives have passed out of the experimental stage. They have become as essential to modern agriculture as the plow.

They have demonstrated that only through cooperation can supply be adjusted to demand—that only through cooperation can the farmer obtain a fairer share of the final selling price of what he produces—that only through cooperation can scientific farming be extended to millions of farms, making smaller acreage produce better, more profitable crops.

The establishment of the first cooperative marked one of the greatest days since the dawn of farm history—though few realized it at the time. The cooperative ideal is the most dominant characteristic of farm activity today.

Residents of Gibraltar are advised by the colonial secretry that in case of an attack by gas bombs they should wear rubber shoes instead of leather, keep calm and have candles ready in case the electric lights should be shut off. How about hanging a "Safe as Gibraltar" lithograph on the wall?—Springfield Republican.

The Yale Class of 1924, which 15 months ago was 68 per cent in favor of the Roosevelt program, is now 69 per cent against it. Probably the President, like a good Harvard man, will now quote the succinct phrase of contumely made famous by John the orangeman.—"T' hell wid Yale!"—Boston Transcript.

General Ludendorff says that Germany should be ruled by a war lord. Well, we might send 'em General Johnson or Smedley Butler.

According to reports, the stock market has reached a new high for the year 1935. But from this point the 1929 market still looks like Mount Everest.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

Many Americans have felt that it wouldn't be long until Uncle Sam was blamed for the trouble between Italy and Ethiopia. The process it seems has already started. Declaring that the League of Nations has been crippled by the United States after President Wilson helped set it up, the Toronto Mail and Empire says in part:

"After his return home the nation repudiated his commitments and defeated him at the polls. Ever since that day the United States has maintained the attitude of the Levite who passed by on the other side. It is due to that retrograde action that the League of Nations has been crippled from the outset—that it has been hamstrung in all its undertaking. Had statesmen from Washington sat with the representatives of other nations at Geneva neither Japan nor Germany would have left the League, and Italy today would not be treating it with contempt."

The fact is that the European nations who had their diplomats helping draw up the Treaty of Versailles were warned in advance by the United States Senate that the League treaty would not be ratified by America. They knew very well what the fundamental law of the United States is. In fact, they knew and still know about everything that is going on in the world—so much better than we do that we are mere infants in international politics.

The United States has not maintained the attitude of the Levite noted in the Canadian editorial. It has cooperated for world peace and world disarmament wherever possible. Uncle Sam foolishly gave up an assured naval supremacy in 1922 for a promise of disarmament that was never kept. There have been other conspicious examples of his willingness to cooperate for world peace.

In the matter of maintaining the authority of the League it might be just as well to call to the Toronto paper's attention as to what happened in the Manchurian episode. Little effort was made by Great Britain and other important members of the League to maintain the League's authority then. The reason was that John Bull and LaBelle France were not interested, even though they were under direct obligation to maintain the authority of the League because of their Geneva membership.

But now when it looks like John Bull's interests in Egypt might be threatened by Mussolini's invasion, Great Britain becomes suddenly enthusiastic about the League. She demands that it enforce sanctions and do whatever is necesary to maintain its authority and stop Italy not because of poor Ethiopia, but because of Egypt. Were trouble to break out in eastern Europe, Great Britain would not be so interested in maintaining the League's authority because no direct British interests would be at stake. And France and Italy, who would demand League action if their interests in Austria were affected, would now prefer to have the League ignore the African question.

The fault for the League's weakness should be pinned on the folks that deserve it. The blame does not lie with Uncle Sam but with the hypocritical European nations who only support the League when it is to their selfish interests to do so and are willing to let it go hang in crises which do not affect their national fortunes.

Uncle Sam is a thousand times better off outside the League than inside. Nothing indicates this better than the fast and loose methods the big nations of Europe use in dealing with the League, acting as they always do according to their national interests.

WHEN RECOVERY BEGAN

In spite of all the political boondoggling about the great state of bliss which the average man has achieved under the new dispensation some of these days the truth will be generally known to the American people about the depression which started in 1929 and reached its depth two and a half years later, before the national election of 1932. That this fact is a fact is indicated by the truth that recovery has been continuing all over the world since the summer of 1932. In some countries it has proceeded faster than it has in the United States, due to serious efforts there to curtail the expenses and balance the national budget. Natural forces have been at work in the United States too, in spite of our tremendous expenditures, which have run our national debt to thirty billions, and the fact that these forces have not been entirely checked by the artificial and strangling efforts to hasten recovery, proves our strong national situation. Col. Charles R. Gow president of the Warren Brothers company, outlined the situation logically and clearly in Industry not long ago when he said:

"When the history of the depression finally will have been written in the light of a dispassionate future appraisal, it will be found that recovery actually began in the summer of 1932; that its progress was arrested in the fall of that year, due to uncertainty respecting the intentions of the newly elected national administration, with the result that a new low was established by the time it took office in March of the following year; and that while business thereafter sought to expand by natural processes and thus to absorb the country's idle workers, it was made to alternate between hope and despair as a consequence of the extraordinary attitudes and policies of our Government authorities who in one breath preached doctrines of encouragement to the nation's business interests and in the next filled their hearts with apprehension and dismay by evincing a spirit of pronounced hostility toward them or by introducing new elements of uncertainty into their affairs.

"In the meantime we have witnessed the rapid economic recovery of many competing nations throughout the world, none of whom has found it necessary or desirable to resort to the expensive, complicated and elaborate experiments upon which our own Federal authorities have confidently relied for the restoration of normal condition of trade and employment. In fact, it has become apparent to thoughtful men in all walks of life in every section of the country, that far from stimulating recovery these unfortunate experiments have served actualy to retard emergencie from our economic difficulties, with the result that there remains little, if anything, in the nature of public benefit to show for the staggering burden of indebtedness which the program has imposed not only upon the living, but likewise upon suceeding generations yet unborn."

That Mr. Gow is not a pessimist of America, not an ordinary "viewer with alarm" is indicated by the fact that he expreses faith in the future of the country and predicts national betterment despite obstacles thrown in the way.

QUODDY POWER

Everyone has heard the story about the fellow who was "all dressed up with nowhere to go." Some engineers are predicting the same sort of a situation for the Quoddy Tidal Power plant, at Eastport, Maine, if and when the plant is in shape to produce power. And producing power is only half of it. The next question is that concerning where the power will be sold after it is produced. The great schools of fish along the Maine coast run on their own power. Quoddy will have to sell its product to other "consumers".

The building of the tidal power plant will cost nearly fifty millions of dollars and the question as to where the power is to be sold is yet unsolved, according to statements atariibuted to Colonel G. R. Lukeish, divison engineer of the U. S. Army at New York, in an address delivered recently before the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association. Col. Lukesh is quoted as stating:

"It is a project to generate electric energy from the tide. The main range of tide at Eastport is 18 feet, the spring tide range being 21 feet and the extreme tides have a range up to 25 feet.

"Advantage is taken of the string of islands bordering Cobscoog Bay. Dams will connect these islands together and to the mainland; forming a pool controlled by gates.

"A power plant will utilize the difference in head of the water within the pool and that of the ocean. A one-way plant is contemplated. The power plant will function at differences of head greater than five feet.

"To convert the resulting intermittent power into uniform power an auxiliary high reservoir will be built which will be filled during each tide by pumps operated by the current from the power house; the water will be released to generate electricity when the tidal plant is not effective.

"The question of a market for the power has not been settled. A study is under way. The legal question is not settled with the State of Maine. Only the preliminary work is now being done. About $10,000,000 of ERA money is used to begin the work and several years will be required to complete the job."

All of this is fine. Eastport is some distance away from any centers of population. A glance on the map will convince anyone of this fact. Of course the plant may work and may not. There is division of opinion on this point. Of course if it doesn't produce power, then we won't have to worry about where the power is to be sold. But if it does produce—well a lot of things may happen in the meantime and they may be bugging and digging potatoes by electricity before the dam is completed. Who knows?

"One more payment and the furniture is ours," said a Pryor husband, gleefully.

"Good," exclaimed his wife, "then we can throw it out and get some new stuff."—Wichita Eagle.

This generation has been keeping itself busy trying to remain young, but we don't know what effect old age pensions will have on the next.

"When will you make another speech?"

"When the spirit moves me," said Senator Sorghum. "I employ a ghost writer."—Washington, D. C. Star.

Old age pension schemes are meeting up with so many delays some of us old guys are getting pretty mad about it and are threatening to go to work.—Fairbury, Kansas, Journal.

Traveling promotes lies. In the old days the 14-year old boy on the train was only nine so he could go on half fare and now he is 17 so he can get a license to drive a car.—Fairbury, Kansas Journal.

Always the Gent—It was Fred Allen who best defined a gentleman. He said a gentleman is a guy who wouldn't hit a woman with his hat on.—New York Daily Mirror.

MAN IN THE MOON

ARMISTICE DAY

On next Monday we join the rest of the world in celebrating one of the most glorious holidays on our calendar — Armistice Day, November 11th. To us this day ranks next to July 4th, as on that day we saw peace come to our land again after the turmoil of war, the most horrible war in all history. But in addition to this, Armistice Day holds special significance for America and Americans, for it was on this day in 1918 that millions of Americans, including high officials and dignitaries, swore deep down in their hearts that we would make all efforts to keep America out of war in the future.

Since our disastrous experience in the World War, Americans feel that any expense for preparedness is better than war, for in the case of war, the expense is terrific and the loss of life appalling. This being the case our people have come to the conclusion that we can't spend too much for preparedness, if it will keep peace.

I think this is one question in which all true Americans, private citizens and officials alike, see eye to eye. We all know that if we are prepared, if we have an imposing army, navy and air force, the probability of our becoming involved in war is far less than if it was common knowledge that we did not possess those arms of defense.

Therefore, on this 17th anniversary of the return of peace, Americans agree with President Roosevelt, regardless of race, creed or politics, that America must stay out of war at all costs. Of course that does not mean that we will not defend the lives and interests of Americans, but we are all fairly well agreed that we will not go poking our national nose into hornet nests just to see what will happen.

Let our national officials spend whatever is needed to build up a military force commensurate with our positions in international affairs, and equip that force in a manner adequate to command the profound respect of all nations of the world. Let us arm ourselves, not to fight a war, but to insure peace.

IT'S ALL OVER

It's all over, this controversy over the cotton plan, and to be honest, we are glad of it. We know only too well that people become disgusted with long drawn out scraps on any question, and we are always glad to settle one, win or lose. In this one, however, we feel that we have won—our opponent in the scrap, The Chilton County News, has left the fight, and we naturally take that as a sign that they have either become convinced that we were right, or have realized the futility of carrying their fight further in the face of such overwhelming opposition on the part of the farmers, themselves.

After all, there was only one contention we were out to prove, and I believe that has been proved beyond contradiction—that the cotton farmers are not satisfied with the present plan and want a change—any kind of change. All we have to guide us in ascertaining public opinion is the way people talk to us, and in the matter of the cotton question public opinion as voiced was almost wholly against the present plan—hence our stand in the matter. We believe the farmers have sense enough to know when they are being hurt. The News seemed to think different, and kept telling farmers they were better off than they had been, quoting figures enough to fill a book, but figures don't fill a wrinkled belly—the farmers couldn't eat and wear figures. But, as said before, The News editor seems to have seen the light and has given up his fight.

The cotton plan may have helped in some instances, and we are ready and willing to admit this, but for the greater bulk of farmers it has worked a hardship. And they have come to a point where they do not mind telling the intellectual big shots that their fairy ideas may be fine on paper, but do not work out on the cotton field.

We are told that if the Supreme Court kills the AAA, farmers will raise so much surplus cotton that the price will go below the cost of production. We have an answer for that—if the government will open its eyes to the immense imports of cotton goods and cotton by-products, thus forcing our mills to use our American cotton first, our surplus will be no larger than it has been for decades past.

How can we expect to sell our cotton, with cheap cotton goods flooding into this country by the millions of pounds? For some very curious reason Americans differ from most other peoples of the world in this respect—they will buy where they can buy the cheapest, regardless of any economic question that may arise concerning it. We're just built that way, and there is no way of getting around it. And when there is no way to remove an obstacle, the next best thing is to find the best way to get along with it.

CURB THE SUPREME COURT!

In a nationwide poll conducted by Dr. Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, through 41 newspapers from coast to coast, Americans were asked this question: "As a general principle, would you favor limiting the the power of the Supreme Court to declare acts of Congress unconstitutional?"

About 150,000 of these ballots were sent in to headquarters of the Institute. Of these, 31 per cent voted "yes"; 53 per cent voted "no"; and 16 per cent returned their ballots marked "no opinion". In other words, 53 per cent of the voters want the Supreme Court's power kept as is, 31 per cent want it cut down, and 16 per cent can't make up their minds or don't give a rap which way the river runs.

The Constitution of the United States reads: "The judicial power . . . . . shall be vested in one Supreme Court." There is no way of getting that clause out of the Constitution, but there are ways of getting around it. One way is for the Cogress to cut the number of justices making up this court. It has been cut once before, but the original number was replaced later. Therefore, the Congress COULD take the liberty of ascertaining which justices were generaly against their acts and cut their acts and cut judicial heads off, IF they could be sure that the people of the country would stand for it. Hence the poll. A constitutional amendment could fix things up so that a verdict would have to be unanimous, too, but that amendment would have to be voted by the people, and the above figures seem to prove that any tinkering with the Supreme Court would be bad taste, insofar as the people's opinion is concerned.

Inasmuch as the Supreme Court promises to become a big question in the coming presidential election, it would not be amiss to give the percentage figures in the different sections of the country.

The "do not curb" vote ran as follows: In the densly populated New England states, New York and Pennsylvania, 56 per cent; in Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Maine the vote was even larger, running to 63 per cent—and we are told that "as Maine goes, so goes the nation"; in the Great Lakes states, the vote was evenly divided, 50-50; the midwest and part of the far west, including Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Kansas, and Missouri ranged from 41 per cent to 49 per cent, and was the only part of the country to favor a change; and even the rock-ribbed South, with Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia, North and South Carolinas, Georgia Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Lauisiana favored letting the present system stand by 52 per cent; the far west states, Washington, Oregon and California wan to keep the present plan by 51 per cent.

In view of the fact that the American public is fully aware of the fact that the Supreme Court has killed five out of six New Deal projects it has passed on already, and has several more booked to pass on within the next few weeks, with the general opinion running that the majority of these will be killed, it is quite significant that the American public, the country over, is still satisfied to leave matters as they have stood for over a hundred years, holding to a system that has brought America from a swaddling national babe to its present position as one of the stalwarts of the world. America seems satisfied with Americanism, it seems, and is not yet ready to bounce off on some uncharted course.

New Dealers are inclined to poke fun at the Constitution, with such terms as "horse and buggy document", and point out the fact that times have changed, but for the most part our people seem quite content to stick to our established standard and manner of doing things, rather than branch off to radical paths.

Just how much light this poll may shed on coming national political events no one can tell. But the vote could be construed as evidence that some of that overwhelming confidence the nation voted in the New Deal has slipped away. Other questions are to be put to voters by the Institute, which may help to shed more light on this all-important question.—Man in the Moon.

NEWSDOM'S POLL

Newsdom, a trade publication, has presented final figures of its 1935 "New Deal" poll of American newspapers, which disclose a heavy reversial of opinion on the Roosevelt policies and practices.

The poll shows that more than one-fourth of the nation's Democratic papers are now against the administration, whereas in 1934 only 14.7 per cent were so opposed. This represents a loss of administration support to the extent of better than 11 per cent of its own party organs.

In 1934, nearly 21 per cent of the country's Republican papers were supporting the "New Deal". This year, they total only 12 per cent—an administration loss of 12 per cent.

Last year the President had the hearty support of 56.3 per cent of the nation's independent papers. In 1935, this support has been cut to 40 per cent—an administration loss in this division of 16.3 per cent.

For all papers combined, in 1934, the President was supported by 66.6 per cent of all papers, and was opposed by 33.4 per cent. Today, 67.7 per cent are in opposition, and only 32.3 per cent are supporting him.

In 1934, 2,025 papers answered Newsdom's questionnaire. In 1935, the total was 2,306. The population area of the papers responding this year was in excess of 52 million, and the gross circulation of the responding newspepers is 14,474,00.

The "yes" and "no" division of the circulation—assigning half of the 50-50 papers to each side—is 5,299,000 "yes" and 9,175,000 "no". The people of the United States could be divided less one-sidedly than 9 to 5 and still prove that the New Deal has been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

It is frequently true that when an opinion-trend first gets under way, the press's position may be somewhat in advance of general public sentiment. Yet it is equally well known that the press in the counrty does very decidedly reflect public sentiment.

It will be recalled, for instance, that when the time came for the American people to vote on repealing the Eighteenth Amendment, their verdict did not differ greatly from what had been earlier indicated by general journalistic sentiment.—Fort Wayne News-Sentinel.

MIGHT IS MIGHTIER THAN THE MITE

There is a touch of pathos, not to say bathos, in the action of the women's division of the Democratic party in turing out donkey mite-box banks for the collection of campaign funds. Instead of a saddle, where normally a Democratic mogul would be ensconced, the little metallic donkeys have a coin slot to receive the "women's mite."

Slightly incongruous in the "mite" beside the $4,000,000,000 work relief fund and the hundreds of millions in crop curtailment benefit payments, which the Democrats are leading out with an eye cocked toward 1936. But the mote has points as a symbol, for in the New Deal lexicon it is might that makes right.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Frazier-Lemke act has been declared unconstitutional again, this time by a Federal court in Illinois. Maxie Baer could have told 'em they rarely come back once they have been knocked out.

What these college fotball players want to remember is that when they get out of school they may find it even harder to make a touchdown through the front door at home with the right arm wrapped around a side of bacon.

General Hugh Johnson is quoted as writing that the political pledges of 1932 were broken. This was hot news several months ago.

An Oklahoma bank robber was sentenced to life imprisonment after his lawyer sang "Home, Sweet Home" to the jury. Probably many a poor man has suffered because of the sins of his counsel.—Williamsport, Pa., Sun.

According to a Washington dispatch in the New York Times recently the government has just spent two billion dollars in two weeks which is an all time peace-time record. In piling up a deficit the Brain Trust is batting over four hundred.

"Yes," said the old man, "I have had some terrible disapointments, but none stands out over the years like the one that came to me when I was a boy."

"And what was it."

"When I was a boy I crawled under a tent to see a circus and discovered it was a revival meeting."—Exchange.

It is said that the national debt is approaching thirty billions of dollars. If the New Deal professors aren't careful some of these days they will have us broke.

IS THE "NEW DEAL" NEW?

One of the facts which the average citizen is apt to overlook is that the theories embraced in the "New Deal" are not new after all. Many of them have been tried time and again, in Asia, in Europe and in South America. Regimentation is not a new idea, and it is not an untried one. Many students of economics find some of the theories of the New Dealers back in the days of Plato, and thence on down to modern times. Mentioning this fact, Senator L. J. Dickinson of Iowa well said in an address at Chicago the other day:

"What must be brought home to the public in clear and unmistakable terms is that the New Deal is neither new nor that march forward which the President proclaims. It is merely a reversion to the world's oldest political philosophy. At the very beginning of history we meet the concept of the state as all-powerful, as the mainspring, the guiding hand for all economic activity. Those precious rights for the individual, which we had thought permanently safeguarded after having been won through centuries of struggle, are again endangered, not as formerly by conflict with royal or autocratic power, but by collision with what is now called the mas will.

"Exploited by political leadership that is dangerous because it is irresponsible, there is now held out to the unfortunate victims of the depression the promise that the state can and will, banish poverty and want; and that it shall guarantee not only life without liberty, but by sharing wealth, a higher average of individual well-being. This is to be accomplished through government control of a magic spring called credit—a word more pleasant sounding than debt, but in its consequences no less disastrous to the public. Such is the modern manifestation of the art of the demagogue which always consists, as John Stuart Mill pointed out, in tempting the people into idleness by promising them a share in a fictitious hoard lying in an imaginary government strong box supposed to contain all national wealth."

Here are some facts not to be lost sight of. Things which are new are not good because they are new. Neither are they new because they bear the "new" label. By the same token all things are not good because they are old. If this were true then the tenets of socialism would be unimpeachable. They go back as far as civilization. They are rooted in man's desire for unlimited power and his ability to sell the other fellow the idea that the other fellow may be able to get "something for nothing," to get a living without working.

TO BEAT THE NEW DEAL

Readers of newspapers cannot but be impressed by the number and variety of brightly named organizations which are banging away at the New Deal. There is the Liberty League, and the Sentinels of the Republic, and the Minute-Men, and heaven knows what others.

Now, there is only one organization in this country which stands the slightest chance of being able to "turn the rascals out." That is the Republican party. The Liberty League—need it be said?—can bang away at the New Deal until doomsday without doing any appreciable damage to the target unless the Republican party is in a position to take advantage of whatever hits the League may make.

The point is, of course, that people who believe that the welfare of the country demands the ousting of the New Deal and who have something to contribute to that end, should first think of the Republican party. If the Republican party is unable to take over the government—if it is fatally hampered by lack of funds or lack of leadership or lack of ideas, the New Deal will perforce stick with us. It is to the Republican party, and to the Republican party alone, that the country must look for relief from the misgovernment now at Washington. It is a fact so plain that—as so often happens with plain things—many of us may overlook it.—Worcester Telegram.

NEW ENGLAND THRIFT

For some years every resource of the government has been used to raise the price of farm products for the producer.

No on begrudges the farmer a good living But the consumer should not be forgotten during this proces. It must be remembered that if an undue part of the family income is taken for food alone, the purchasing of all other commodities is reduced, with resulting unemployment.

There is one outstanding way to hold down food prices to consumers, namely, by continually cutting distribution costs.

The railroads do not raise freight rates when the prices of food products rise, whereas wholesale handling charges between producers and consumers are often figured on a percentage of cost basis. This causes a steady pyramiding of final cost to consumers.

A ten per cent saving in overhead costs on the retail price of $1,000,000,000 fo food purchased, would mean $100,000,000 saved in the family pocketbook which could be spent for other necesbities or luxuries—money which would not otherwise be expended for radios, automobiles, traveling, better homes, etc., etc.,

Thrift creates wealth. Now is the time for the nation to practice thrift on the family bread basket and demand and encourage merchandising methods that cut waste between producer and consumer.

One trouble about invading some one else's country, you never know if and when you are coming back and how fast.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of November 3, 1910

The big election in Chilton county comes off next Tuesday. The campaign has been a warm and lengthy one. For Probate Judge the nominees are: L. H. Reynolds and E. B. Deason; for sheriff, C. D. Foshee and B. L. Jones; for clerk, M. D. Foshee and H. M. Simpson.

Hon. E. E. Calloway, representing the Republican party, spoke at the courthouse in Clanton last Saturday.

Calvin Driver returned from Oklahoma Friday where he has been for the past year.

Married this week—F. N. Franklin and Miss Beatice Wyatt, Freddie Dennis and Miss Sallie Bell Connell, Henry Davenport and Miss Beulah Deloney, W. J. Gray and Miss Martha Howard.

Miss Pearl McKee and brother, Emmett, visited the fair in Montgomery Wednesday.

Joe Stagner of Yellow Leaf was in Clanton Tuesday.

POOR OR

Stop Chills and Fever!

Rid Your System of Malaria!

Shivering with chills one moment and burning with fever the next—that's one of the effects of Malaria. Unless checked, the disease will do serious harm to your health. Malaria, a blood infection, calls for two things. First, destroying the infection in the blood. Second, building up the blood to overcome the effects of the disease and to fortify against further attack.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic supplies both these effects. It contains tasteless quinine, which kills the infection in the blood, and iron, which enriches and builds up the blood. Chills and fever soon stop and you are restored to health and comfort. For half a century, Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic has been sure relief for Malaria. It is just as useful, too, as a general tonic for old and young. Pleasant to take and absolutely harmless. Safe to give children. Get a bottle at any drug store. Now two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money.

PHONEY PEACH DISEASE CONTROL IN CHILTON CO.

A crew of workers are now engaged in carrying on prevention work in regard to the phony disease in Chilton county. This work is in the charge of Mr. A. J. Lecroy, and anyone wishing information about the work should get in touch with either Mr. Lecroy or Mr. J. W. Fant, the county agent.

In speaking of the work Mr. LeCray stated: "There is not much of this disease in Chilton County, but it should be treated where it is present. The disease in Georgia is a big item among the peach growers. There are certain defined methods of fighting this disease, and it will save lots of trouble and expenses later on to attend to it when first noticed.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity. No. 1275.

J. W. Garrett, complainant, vs. Clara Garrett, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper punblished in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Clara Garrett, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 5th day of December, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 4th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER,
11-7-4thc Register.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE TO FILE CLAIMS

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Probate Court, Nov. 5, 1935.

In the matter of the Estate of D. O. Manning, Deceased.

Letters testamentary as Co-Executors of the will of D. O. Manning, deceased having been granted to the undersigned on the 5th day of November, 1935, by the Honorable J. Lee Smith, Judge of Probate of said county, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same within the time allowed by law, or the same will be barred.

EMMA MANNING,
CLIFFORD MANNING.
Co-executors of the last will and testament of D. O. Manning, deceased 11-7-3tc

REGISTER'S SALE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court in Equity.

Decie Popwell, et al., Complainant, vs. Holland Popwell, et al., Defendant.

By virtue of a decree in the above stated cause rendered on the 4th day of November, 1935, by the Circuit Court in Equity, to satisfy said decree, I will sell to the highest and best bidder for cash, at public sale, at the Courthouse door of said county, between the hours of 11 o'clock a.m., and 4 o'clock p.m., Tuesday the 26th day of November, 1935, the following described property, vis.:

Beginning at a point where the Northern line running East and West of the SE¼ of the SW¼ section 1 township 21 range 14, intersects the East line of the right-of-way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company; and running East along said line 655 feet to a street, 40 feet wide, and 140 yards long, which the grantor in this deed hereby grants, bargains, sells and conveys, and does by these presents grant, bargain, sell and convey and dedicate to the said D. T. Popwell, the above described street to be used by the said D. T. Popwell and wife, Decie Popwell, and all persons, as public streets are used forever, and running thence in a Southeasterly direction along the West side of the said street 420 feet, thence at or near right angles to said street in a Southwesterly direction to the right of way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to a point 705 feet, in a Southeasterly direction from the point of beginning; thence in a Northwesterly direction along the said right of way 705 feet to the point of beginning, lying and being in the SE¼ of the SW¼ section 1 township 21 range 14, Chilton County, Alabama, to be sold for division among the joint owners thereof.

This the 5th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER,
11-7-3tc Register.

FOOT SORES LEG SORES

SORES

BED SORES BOILS RASH

For the treatment of sores on feet, legs or any other part of the body, Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil will be found unusually effective. This oil, perfected by a distinguished surgeon of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, has a twofold action. First, it combats infection. Second, it aids healing. This is usually the treatment you want for a sore.

Besides sores, Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is good for the treatment of boils and skin rashes, itch, etc. Hundreds who have tried everything else for sores and broken out and itching skin, say nothing has given them the relief that Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil has. Try this wonderful treatment for sores on any part of the body or for boils or skin itch and see how beneficial it is.

Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and is sold by all druggists at 30c and 60c with guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

A birthday dinner was given on Sunday, November 3rd, honoring Mr. W. A. Collum on his eightieth birthday. It was a surprise to him. They began to gather about nine-thirty and continued to come on up to the noon hour.

At noon a bountiful dinner was spread on a truck in the shade of the trees.

Those present at this time were: and Mrs. W. A. Collum and daughter, Irona, and son, Thomas Lee; Mr. and Mrs. Callie Glass and sons, Hoyt, Floyd and Billie Joe, also Mrs. Mary Glass, their mother; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Collum and children, J. W., Fred, Sara Mae and Dorothy Lee; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Atkinson and son, Floyd; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cobb and children, Tuby Lee, Ruth, Loy Mae, Joyce and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davenport and children, Carl, Jr., and Lucille; Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Matthews and children, Leo, Mary Jane, Christine and Lois; Mr. and Mrs. William Price and little son, John William.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Matthews and children, Betty Jean, and Bobby; also a cousin, Mrs. L. H. Bean; another grand daughter, Aleen Matthews, and a grand son William Mason Northcutt.

Those calling in the afternoon were: Mr. Walter Gentry and wife and sister, Miss Ferrell Gentry, also grand children; others were Mr. Joel and Raymond Cobb.

We had music in the afternoon, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

We hope to meet in a larger group next spring.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

CHILD CARE CLASS ENTERTAINS CHILDREN

The Child Care class of Home Ec. three, of Jemison High school were hostesses to the children of the alumni and faculty on October 31st. This class has spent much time in the study of the proper mental, moral and physical development of children. The entertainment was based on knowledge secured during this study.

The following children were present: James Clarence Easterling, Jr., Ann Turner, Joe Prestley Montgomery, Myra Joe Horton and Royce Thrash.

NOTICE OF PARDON OR PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Josie Johnson, who was convicted in the circuit court of Chilton county on February 29, 1936 for manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of one year and one day to 18 months and one day, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for pardon or parole.—(Signed)—Josie Johnson. 10-31-2tp

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

Notice is hereby given that the assessment roll book containing descriptions of property and subjects of taxation located in the City of Clanton, Alabama, for the city or municipal taxes for the tax year of 1935, has been made by the city clerk of Clanton, Alabama, and returned to the City Council as provided by Section 2,124 of the Code of Alabama, 1923, and an ordinance duly adopted by the City Council of the City of Clanton, Alabama, on the 5th day of November, 1933, levying a tax of five mills on each dollar's worth of taxable property in said City, for said year. That the assessment of said tax has been completed in accordance with the requirements of said Section and ordinance and that the Mayor and Council of the City of Clanton, Alabama, will meet in the office of the Clerk of said City of Clanton, Alabama, on the 25th day of November 1935, to hear and determine objections to the assessment of said tax, and finally determine and pass the assessment of said taxes.

Witness our hands on this the 5th day of November, 1935.

C. FENN JONES,
C. H. PIPES, Mayor.
Clerk 11-7-1tc

NOTICE

The Popwell community farm bureau will meet at Popwell schoolhouse on November 12. There will be a licensed cotton grader to show and tell us about cotton grades and staples. Don't forget the date—Tuesday night, November 12. Everybody come.—Reporter.

ISABELLA SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The second month report cards were given to the students last Friday. We feel as if two students deserve special mention in scholastic achievement for the past month, Evelyn Lecroy and James Veazey, made a straight "A" report card. We hope that they may continue their fine grade of work during the coming months.

The following students made "A's" and "B's" in their scholastic work: Gladys Higgins, Leona Cummings, Arnold Bryant, Velma Conway, Ethel Lee Griffin, Ruby Mae Higgins, Lelia Devaughn, Donald Calfee, Frances Mims, Edna Earl Tucker, A. D. Headley, Mary Carr Mims, Frances Sexton, Carson Williams, Jewell Williams, James Calfee, Elaine Deason and Edna Johnson.

We are very proud of the improvement in attendance during the past month.

These students were not absent during the second month: Jesse Eiland, Charlmers Jones, Marietta Foshee, Martha Green, Gladys Sansom, Adell Scott, Mitchell Scott, Lela DeVaughn. Robert Calfee, Mary Charles Jones, Frances Mims, Donald Calfee, Edna Earl Tucker, Andrew Jones, A. D. Headley, Mary Carr Mims, Frances Sexton, Carson Williams, Elaine Deason, Srar Calfee, Gladys Aden, John Paul Jones, Ira Watley, Jack Tucker, Verbon Carter, Gladys Higgins, Herbert Morgan, Ethel Lee Griffin, Leona Cummings, Velma Conway, Lillian Cantee.

The students, the teachers and the community are feeling better over the school situation at Isabella since the contract was awarded for the construction of our new school building. The desire now is that it be completed in record time and that the school will soon be in it.

Have Your Eyes Examined

Only a trained and experienced Optometrist can prescribe the glasses which will fit you accurately and surely. Poorly fitted glasses add to the discomfort of defective eyes.

Dr. M. Goldner

Of Birmingham, Alabama
Here in Clanton TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, and every other Tuesday.
AT DR. J. P. HAYES' OFFICE
Convenient Terms Can Be Arranged.

THE NEW CHEVROLET FOR 1936

The only complete low-priced car

CHEVROLET
The Complete Car

DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

NEW PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES

the safest and smoothest ever developed

IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*

the smoothest, safest ride of all

SOLID STEEL one-piece TURRET TOP

a crown of beauty, a fortress of safety

THE Chevrolet Motor Company climaxes a quarter-century of quality manufacture by presenting Chevrolet for 1936—the only complete low-priced car.

This new Chevrolet is the only car that brings you all these good things at lowest cost. The only lower-priced car with New Perfected Hydraulic Brakes. The only lower-priced car with the Improved Gliding Knee-Action Ride*. The only lower-priced car with beautiful new Body by Fisher—new high-compression valve-in-head engine—solid steel Turret Top, and many other improvements which give smarter, smoother, safer and more economical motoring.

See and ride in the only complete low-priced car—today!

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.
Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G.M.A.C. terms. A General Motors Value

NO DRAFT VENTILATION ON NEW BODIES BY FISHER

the most beautiful and comfortable bodies ever created for a low-priced car

HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE

giving even better performance with even less gas and oil

SHOCKPROOF STEERING*

making driving easier and safer than ever before

ALL THESE FEATURES AT CHEVROLET'S LOW PRICES

$495

AND UP. List price of New Standard Coupe at Flint, Michigan. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $20 additional. *Knee-Action on Master Models only, $20 additional. Prices quoted in this advertisement are list at Flint, Michigan, and subject to change without notice.

Hayes Chevrolet Company

J. W. (Dick) Hayes — Sales & Service—Clanton — M. C. (Jack) Hayes

DON'T WORRY

We repair anything except broken hearts, and I believe we can help them some.

Bring your troubles to C. Ray Glenn, the farmers friend. We have most anything in auto junk line.

We Buy and Trade as well as repairs. Bring us your troubles and get ease.

C. Ray Glenn
"The Farmer's Friend"
West End :-: Clanton

MAPLE SPRINGS

Sunday is the second, and as you know it is our regular peraching times. Please remember that our Saturday morning service has been changed from Saturday morning to Saturday night. Services Saturday night at 6:30 and Sunday school Sunday at 10:00, with preaching following.

Mr. R. J. Downs and family had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Evan Down and family from Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Martin and children from Enterprise.

Mr. Melvin Lansford from near Montgomery spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lansford.

Mr. Jerrell Miller was in this community last Saturday afternoon.

Misses Elsie, Delene and Lera Glenn and Mrs. Betty Blalock and daughter, Mrs. J. C. Davis, spent last Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Charlie Blalock.

Mr. W. F. Glenn had as his guests Sunday afternoon his father, Mr. J. T. Glenn and Mr. Wiley Jones.

Mrs. Betty Blalock and Mrs. J. C. Davis spent last Friday p.m. with Mrs. R. F. Downs and children.

Mr. Arnold Glenn, who has been very sick suffering from a sun pain, is much improved at this writing.

Mr. J. T. Glenn has a very bad hand caused from falling on a stove about a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sandlin were in this community Sunday visiting his brothers, Messrs. Kern and Charlie Sandlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. O. L. DeVaughn and children and Mrs. Elemer Rollan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker had as their week end guest Mr. Tucker's mother, Mrs. E. B. Tucker, from Enterprise.

Mr. Jeff Price from Popular Springs was in this community Monday.

Mr. Bonnie Miller spent last Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs.

Mr. Jake Elland from Montgomery was in this community last week visiting his cousin, Mr. Joe Lansford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Downs and daughter, Mamie, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Martin of Enterprise last Wednesday.

Mr. Wallace Watkins spent last Friday afternoon with Messrs. Harvey and Dick Davis.

Mr. W. F. Glenn and son, Ottis and Mr. Nattie Jones and son, Raymond were in Montgomery last Friday.

Messrs. Lester Downs and Bill Wise spent a while Saturday morning with Mr. Ottis Glenn.

Mr. Robert Barrett from North Clanton spent a few hours Friday afternoon with Mr. W. F. Glenn.

Mr. Lester Downs is doing some work on his house this week.

Mr. Curtis Dykes and Mr. Jacks from Popular Springs were in this community last Thursday morning.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

On November 3rd, relatives and friends met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Deason's to celebrate their birthdays. Mrs. Deason was 70 the 4th of October and Mr. Deason was 75 the 4th of November.

All the children were present except Stanley, of Arco, Ga. There were 10 grandchildren.

A bountiful dinner was enjoyed by Mr. W. G. Deason and family, Mr. D. L. Deason and family, Miss Louila Deason, Mrs. Zadie Houston and two children, Mrs. Mary Grooms and family, Mr. Arland Deason, Mr. John Minor and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cox of Cox's Station. Mrs. Cox furnished radiant roses to decorate the table.

The roses and birthday cake were beautifully arranged on a pretty crocheted center piece, which Miss Lavada Houston sent to her grandmother for her birthday present.

The afternoon guests were Mr. Ben Deason and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dobbs, Mr. Tom Powell and family and Mrs. Greeley Powell. Late in the afternoon all went home wishing them many more happy birthdays.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

VERMONT SCHOOL NEWS

The Hallowe'en party last Thursday night was a great success. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves. Little Carolyn Klinner, of Clanton, won the prize for being dressed in the best Hallowe'en costume. Sixteen dollars and twenty-one cents was collected but after expenses were paid only $6.78 was cleared.

The boy's basket ball team played Union Grove last Friday and were defeated 18 to 8. The Union Grove boys will play at Vermont on Friday afternoon, Nov. 8th. Everybody come and cheer for the Vermont boys and help them win.

The patrons of this school who haven't brought their share of the wood are requested to bring it promptly. Bring either one-fourth of a cord of wood or fifty cents per pupil. Come on folks and do your part.

Misses Myrtle Lee Smith spent last Thursday night with Miss Nell Chandler of Pletcher.

Miss Cobern was a visitor in our school last week. She gave a short talk on the importance of regular attendance.

The girls are practicing basket ball and are hoping to schedule some games soon.

The P.-T. A. will meet Thursday night, November 7th. All patrons are urged to be present.

I'M SOLD

It always works

Just do what hospitals do, and the doctors insist on. Use a liquid laxative, and you can bring yourself to clocklike regularity without strain or ill effect.

A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the secret of any real relief from constipation.

Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has become. It gives the right kind of help, and right amount of help. Taking a little less each time, gives the bowels a chance to act of their own accord, until they are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that form no habit. The action is gentle, but sure. It will relieve any sluggishness or bilious condition due to constipation without upset.

PLEASANT HILL

Health of our community seems to be very good at this writing. We had a good attendance at Sunday school last Sunday. However, we had a few absentees and we surely missed each one of you and we want you to remember to come to Sunday school next Sunday. We also had a fine crowd out Sunday night. We were thankful to see so many getting interested in our prayer meetings and B. Y. P. U. and we would like to mention just here if anyone don't believe that there is good in a B. Y. P. U. program, just read the Intermediate program for next Sunday night, then let's ask our self are we sowing the right kind of seed, for whatever our homes are our church will be also. Let's get busy and put something into our church and we will get something out of it.

Miss Pearline Martin spent a while Sunday with Miss Lurlene Blow.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin and children were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blow, also Miss Odell Ellison had dinner with Miss Alta Blow.

Messrs. Osmond Cleckler, Lloyd Barnett and Farank McMullins had dinner Sunday with Mr. Dewey Cleckler.

Mr. Luby Martin and Mr. Otis Vardon returned home last Saturday after spending several days with friends and relatives in Birmingham.

Don't forget our Sunday school every Sunday. Visitors are always welcome.—Reporter.

CHESTNUT GROVE

We are glad to say that the health is very good here at present.

Mr. J. R. Hall and Mr. Tom Lucas were in town Saturday on business.

Miss Margaret Nabors spent Saturday night with Misses Wilma and Frances Lucas.

We will give an entertainment here next Friday night. Nov. 8th, at 6:30. The proceeds to go on the schoolhouse.

We will have a fish pond and a salvage table and a box supper and a cake for the prettiest girl and a cake for the ugliest boy. So lets all go and help out make it worth while.

Brother Horace Nabors will preach for us next Sunday at 2:30. Let's all come and hear a good sermon.

CHICKEN SUPPER

There will be a chicken supper at Concord school on next Friday night, November 8th. We assure you a big plate for 25c. The proceeds go for the benefit of the school.

Every patron and friend of the school are most cordially invited to attend and enjoy the feast. A string band from Clanton will furnish plenty of good music.

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

DISTRICT RALLY AT METHODIST CHURCH

Miss Dora Maud Thompson of Autaugaville, director of young people's work for the Selma District, announces the following program for the young people's rally to be held at the Clanton Methodist Church Thursday of this week beginnig at 4:30 p.m.

Theme—"Facing Life With Jesus Christ."

Hymn.

Talk—"Facing Life With Jesus Christ," Rev. W. T. Ellisor, Prattville.

Quarette.

5:00—"Learning To Live With Jesus Christ", Rev. S. M. Baker, Montgomery.

5:20—Roll call and reports.

5:40—"What it Means to be a Department President," Miss Virginia Charlton, Autaugaville.

5:50—Hymn. Prayer, Dr. D. P. Slaughter, presiding elder, Selma District.

6:00—Supper. Picnic style, served in church basement.

6:45—Recreation.

7:00—Silent prayer. Solo, Mrs. George Reed.

7:10—"With Christ in Worship," Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks.

7:20—"With Christ in Stewardship" Dora Maud Thompson.

7:30—Problem Period, Rev. S. M. Baker.

8:00—On to Memphis, Miss Louise Long, Prattville.

8:15—Union Work, Robert Morris Praythe.

8:30 — Hymn. Closing Worship, Miss Louise Long.

SHILOH NEWS

Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. Our pastor, Rev. W. P. Lowery, delivered two wonderful messages. We were glad to have so many out Sunday. We invite you back again.

Rev. Paul Oden will show some pictures here Friday night, Nevember 8th, on Japan.

Rev. W. P. Lowery and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bice were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Bice, Mr. and Mrs. Ware and Mrs. John Kendrick were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Keen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Owens were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Billingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Billingsley, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Billingsley were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bice.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Traywick were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Traywick.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Boockholdt were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stroud.

Misses Lela and Essie Dobbs, Bessie Mae Jacks and Mrs. Minnie Mullins were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Maudie Dobbs.

Misses Elsie and Ruth Keen were the Sunday dinner guests of Misses Eloise and Louise Keen.

Misses Rosie and Connell Coggins and Marzelle Traywick were the Sunday dinner guests of Misses Lillie and Lucille Kendrick.

Misses Etta Mullins and Willie Nell Owens were the Sunday dinner guests of Misses Zula, Emma, Mary and Mabel Nelson.

Mr. Elyan Collins was the Sunday dinner guest of Messrs. Lonnie and Allen Watts.

Mr. Carlos Owens was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. Aaron Traywick.

Mr. Earnest Kendrick was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. John Nelson.

Mr. Doas Billingsley was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. Warren Keen.

Miss Truitt Mullins was the Sunday dinner guest of Miss Louise Wilson.

Miss Mattie Lou Wilson was the Sunday dinner guest of Misses Ethel and Annie Mullins.

Remember Sunday school every Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock.—Reporter.

PLANT Peas & Vetch NOW!

AUSTRIAN PEAS, Lb	5½c
MIXED VETCH, Lb	8½c
Rust Proof Oats Texas Grown 5 bu	$3.25
Fulghum Oats 5 Bushels	$3.50
Syrup cans No. 10	9c
Syrup Cans No. 5	6½c

R. W. Lowe
South Clanton, Ala.

MEN'S HATS

One Lot of MENS HATS, Broken sizes and Colors. All Silk Lined. Worth Up to $1.95, Special 94c

SUITS

One Lot of Mens Suits, Values up to $12.95, Carried Over from last Season Most all sizes while they last .. $4.96

100 Mens High Grade Suits in all Colors and Sizes. Every Suit All Wool New Material, $15 Val. .. $11.16

100 Boys fine Made Suits in Blues, Browns And Other Patterns. All sizes $6.95 Values for $4.16

500 Pair of Mens High Class Dress Oxfords In Black and Brown. Wide and narrow Toes. Crease or Cap Toe in Leather or Composition Soles. Sizes 6 to 11, Val. up to $2.45 for $1.69

THE LEADER
MANAGER, M. LANDE

CONTINUING

16th ANNIVERSARY

As the old adage goes—PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS IN THE EATING THEREOF.

Our Anniversary SALE has brought us Many Congratulations, and such satisfactory business prove to us that our many friends appreciate the values we are offering.

We urge every one to come in and take advantage of this Sale.

FREE --- Each day at 2 p.m., we are to give away a Beautiful Set of GLASSWARE.

Also with each $10.00 purchase we give an additional GIFT that will hold pleasant memories of us.

LADIES' HATS

Most Beautiful line of LADIES' HATS in the Season's Latest Colors. Small, Medium and Large Head sizes. Values Up to $1.95 for 98c

COATS

One Lot in Navy-Brown and Black, Action Back as well as Polo Style. Special $5.16

One Lot Beautifully Tailored Basket Weave Tree Bark, Action Back. These Coats are One of the most favored Coats Worn This Fall. Specially Priced For this Sale $9.16

Ladies Rain Coats Sport Styles All Colors $3.16

Childrens RAIN COATS $2.16

DRESSES

One Lot of Silk Dresses in Friendly Crepes, Ruff Crepes, Triple Sheers, Etc., in all the Winter Shades, Rust, Wine, Green, Brown, Blue, Burgundy, Copen, Navy and Black Amazing Values at Such A low price $6.16

Mens Heavy Weight UNION SUITS, 75c Quality 55c
MENS WORK SOX 5c
Mens GENUINE LEATHER CAPS, $1.25 Quality 94c
Mens Heavy Fleece-Lined JUMPERS, Full Cut $1.35
Mens PULLOVER SWEATERS 44c
Mens and Boys Heavy ZIPPER JACKETS (Navy Blue Only) Special $1.79
One Lot Mens 220 Weight Pepperel Denim OVERALLS, Two Bib Pockets, Full and Roomy 79c
Lee and Polly Brand OVERALLS $1.19
One Lot Boys Khaki and Denim PANTS, small sizes only 44c
Mens Covert Cloth Work SHIRTS, Triple Stitched, Two Pockets, Cut Full. Colors: Grey, Brown, Tan, Blue 39c
Mens Zipper Flannel OVERSHIRT, $1.50 Value for 98c
Mens and Boys PANTS, All Sizes, $1.49 Quality 98c
One Lot Mens and Boys PANTS, Wonderful Quality $1.24
Mens First Quality Fancy DRESS SOX 8c

More Shoes

One Lot of Womens Dress Oxfords in Kid Leathers and Low Heels $1.95 Value $1.48

500 Pair Boys and childrens Shoes. Full Line Composition Soles. Former Price, $1.25 sizes 6 to 2 86c

200 Pair of Mens HIGH GRADE WORK SHOES, All Sizes $1.98 Value for $1.49

One Lot of Boys Work SHOES, $1.95 Values $1.48

One Lot Mens Star Brand WORK SHOES $1.94 TO $2.44

One Lot Beautiful Flat Crepe Dresses, all colors $2.16
Wash Frocks, in Newest Fall Patterns, 96c and $1.96
Ladies COTTON HOSE, Black and Brown 8c
Big Lot Ladies SWEATERS, In Red, Blue, Black, Coat Style, Pullover, with or without Collar 98c

Piece Goods

36-Inch BLUE CHEVIOTS, Yard 10c
PLAY CLOTH, Best Grade. Fast Colors, 15c Value 12½c
8-oz FEATHER TICK, Guaranteed Feather Proof, Yard 22c
ALL SILK FLAT CREPE 48c

60 x 76 DOUBLE PLAID BLANKETS 98c
66 x 80 Part Wool Plaid DOUBLE BLANKET $1.79

Oil Cloth

This Cloth is in 46-inch Widths, and we offer a Large Assortment of Colors

Yard 23c

QUILT ROLLS

These Quilt Rolls will please you And they are going at only 19c

PRINTS

15c quality, yard-width Fast Colored Prints, Yard 10c

SCHOOL TABLETS

Regular 5c School Tablets Anniversary Special, 2 for 5c

All Womens and Girls Work or School Oxfords in Star Brand, All-Leather Shoes. Never Sold for Less Than $1.95, Special $1.74

Ladies Shoes

250 Pair of Womens Dress Oxfords in Broken Lots and Sizes. New Stock in Low or High Heels to be Cleaned out so as to keep our Stock Clean For only $1.00

Ladies Full Fashioned Silk Hose Even better than you expect, 44c

POOR OR

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

FARMERS MUST FILE SALES CERTIFICATES WITHIN SEVEN DAYS

Auburn, Ala.—Cotton sales certificates which are being obtained by producers to qualify for the 1935 cotton price adjustment payments are required to be filed promptly with the county agents within seven calendar days after the date of sale, according to information received here from the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

The sales certificates have been printed and distributed throughout the Cotton Belt. The new regulations provide that in the case of cotton sold prior to Nov. 1, 1935, the cotton sales certificates for such sales shall be delivered to the office of the county agent NOT later than November 15, 1935.

Producers to qualify for the cotton price adjustment payments are required to obtain from the buyer a certificate evidencing the amount sold and the date of sale. These certificates will be attached to the applications which will be forwarded to the disbursing offices for auditing and and payment. Under the regulations, producers will be required to deliver the originals of these certificates to the office of the county agent who will keep the same on file until the producer makes his application. These certificates are executed in triplicate, one copy to be delivered to the county agent, another retained by the producer, and the third by the buyer.

Producers interested in detailed information regarding the sale certificates and how to fill them out are advised to confer with their county agents.

FARMERS ARE RECEIVING SECOND PAYMENT CHECKS

Auburn, Ala—Cotton farmers in Alabama are at present receiving their second benefit payment checks totaling over 3 million dollars. This is made known by Dr. L. N. Duncan, director of the State Extension Service, who states that farmers in several counties have already received their checks and that those living in other counties are receiving theirs daily.

The first benefit payment checks totaled $3,396,375.74, and were distributed to State producers several months ago.

Mr. Sidney Littleton, who was operated on at the South Highland Infirmary, is now improving.

BETTER STAPLE VARIETIES GIVE SATISFACTION

That better staple varieties of cotton will give satisfactory results is demonstrated by the experience of the Lily Flag one-variety community in Madison County and Coates Bend and Alford's Bend one-variety communities in Etawah County.

The crop in these communities in 1934 averaged around one-half of an inch in staple length. Out of 200 bales classed in the Lily Flag community this year 178 bales pulled over one inch and better.

The staple length in the other communities is also quite satisfactory. These communities are growing the D. P. L. varieties. It has been satisfactory for about five years.

Yields and gin turn-outs are better than most varities.

The one-variety communities are not suffering penalties and has reported 50 to 75 points premium.

Save carefully seed of better staple varieties. Farmers in a community should cooperate in growing one good staple variety and build a reputation for good cotton.

A high per cent of the farmers in a market area growing very short varities means that the local market will average well below markets having good cotton.

Certain staple lengths of cotton according to official standards of Division of Cotton Marketting of Bureau of Agriculture Economics are shown in the photograph above.

Staple length and grade determine the value of cotton in the cotton markets Cotton is bought and sold on basis of staple length as well as grade.

Cotton mills in most instances demand cotton having seven-eighths or longer staple.

What is the staple length of the cotton you are now growing?

Let's make Chilton County noted for good cotton.

GERMAN FORESTRY IS FAR ADVANCED

Montgomery.—Advances in American forestry were made possible largely through the emulation of the standards and practices developed in Germany during the past couple of centuries, according to the Alabama Commission of Forestry. German scientists are noted for thir thoroughness in investigations and experiments, and forestry in Germany has benefitted enormously from the results of such researches.

When the need for the development of forestry as a system of economic production co-ordinate with mining, agriculture and hydro-engineering became evident in the United States, American foresters naturally drew heavily upon German sources of information. While the application of the principles developed in Germany soon resulted in systems peculiarly American, nevertheless the basic scientific data upon which most forestral procedures must be based have been thus far mainly of European origin.

The libraries of various public forestral agencies contain translations of German works on forest botany, pathology, silverculture and other essential subjects. However, with the advent of the World War, co-operation between German and English scientists as to publication of translations became interrupted and has not been resumed on anything like its former scale. As a result translations from the German to English now must be made by individual foresters and forestral agencies. It is regarded, however, that the value of the up-to-date information thus rendered available far more than outweighs the labor and cost involved.

STATE WILD GAME WILL BE STUDIED

Aubnrn, Ala.—Experimental work to find how wild game can be made profitable to Alabama farmers and sportsmen is being conducted under a cooperative arrangement of the U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey, Washington, the Alabama Polytechnic Institute and State experiment Station, Auburn, the Department of Game and Fisheries, Montgomery, and the American Wild Life Institute.

Head quarters for the work has been located at Auburn with H. S. Peters of the Bureau of Biological Survey in charge. Studies will be made in different parts of the state of various game birds and animals, including quail, doves, turkeys, ducks, deer and foxes. The project is being conducted with a crew of encouraging farmers to produce more wild life on their farms and to obtain a cash income from this industry.

The Man Who Knows

Whether the Remedy You are taking for Headaches, Neuralgia or Rheumatism Pains is SAFE is Your Doctor. Ask Him

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it — in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

Bayer Aspirin

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton
At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, NOV. 11TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON
OPTOMETRIST

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7
Cael Brissen - Arline Judge in
"SHIP'S CAFE"
COMEDY—"Time for Love"

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8
Jack Holt in "STORM OVER ANDES"
COMEDY—"Quail Hunt"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY MATINEE, SATURDAY NIGHT, NOV. 9
Ken Maynard in "FIGHTING TROOPER"
COMEDY—"Quail Hunt"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11 and 12
Tom Brown - Sir Guy Standing in
"ANNAPOLIS FAREWELL"
BETTY BOOP COMEDY

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13
Sybil Jassen - Robert Armstrong
"LITTLE BIG SHOT"
COMEDY—"In the Spotlight"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—Mrs. J. R. McKinnon, Rte. 2, Nov. 6; Mrs. Arril Belle Fraser, Rte. 6, Nov. 9; Frizzy Redmond, Nov. 12; Gee Wilson, Nov. 9; Willie Mae Wiliams, Nov. 9; Wilburt Conway, Rte. 1, Nov. 9; Bobby Nell Culpepper, Rte. 7, Nov. 13; Ben Margolis Nov. 9; Mrs. C. W. Miller, Nov. 12; Louise Robinson, Nov. 8; Percy Pitts, Jr., Nov. 10; Mabel Harris, Nov. 8; Mrs. W. De Van Strock, Nov. 7; Gladys Wilson, Rte. 2, Nov. 8; Mrs. Irene Rasberry, Nov. 10; Mrs. Audelle Miller, Nov. 13; Mrs. John Armstrong, Nov. 11; Lewis Pilgreen, Nov. 9; Mrs. G. F. Giles, Nov. 7; THORSBY—Henry Wright, Rte. 1, Nov. 9; STANTON—Lonnie Mae Burnett, Nov. 13; BILLINGSLEY— Hobson Deramus, Nov. 8; R. P. Williams, Rte. 2, Nov. 8; VERBENA—Carrie Huett, Rte. 1, Nov. 10.

NEWEST
Fall Things for Men and Women

New Fall HATS
LATEST STYLES
for Women

WE have a very beautiful line of New Fall Dresses for Ladies —in Silk Crepes and Worsteds. The prices are amazingly low, when the quality and appearance are considered.

If you prefer to make your own Dress, we have just the FABRICS you want. We have the prettiest patterns in Woolens, Silks and Cottons.

WOOLVERINE WORK SHOES for MEN

THIS is positively the best line of Work Shoes to be had. And they don't harden from wear and wet weather. Just what you need for the long, slushy, cold winter months. Get Our Prices First.

Don't fail to call for your tickets on FREE Chinaware.

Join our Rollins Hosiery club plan and get a beautiful pair of Hosiery FREE.

FLOUR and FEED SPECIALS

WHITE TULIP FLOUR — For the Finest Baking 24 Pounds	$1.10
MO-BISCUIT FLOUR — Every Sack Guaranteed 24 Pounds	$1.00
COFFEE — Good Grade Green — 7 Pounds for	$1.00
WHITE TULIP SHORTS — The Best You Can Buy Per Sack	$1.90
"100 Bushel" SEED OATS Per Sack	$3.75

J. R. Mullins & Sons
The Farmers' Friend - - - - - - - - - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

CORN-HOG FARMERS FAVOR AAA PROGRAM

Auburn, Ala.—Alabama corn-hog farmers voted more than 4 to 1 for continuation of the corn-hog adjustment program. The vote in the State was 4,720 for the program and 1,120 against it. Only 92 contract signers voted against the program, while 1,017 non-signers voted against it.

The vote throughout the nation was 6 to 1 in favor of the adjustment program being continued.

ALABAMA IS FREE OF CATTLE TUBERCULOSIS

Auburn, Ala.—Alabama is now a T. B. modified area. This means that the state is practically free of cattle tuberculosis.

Announcemtnt of the state being placed on the accredited list was made this week by the United States Department of Agriculture, which states that 30 other states are free of bovine tubersulosis and that work is going on in six other states.

QUARANTINE AGAINST 3 GEORGIA COUNTIES

Auburn, Ala.—Cattle cannot be shipped into Alabama from Worth, Tift, or Colquitt counties of Georgia until requirements of the Alabama Livestock Sanitary Board are fulfilled. The livestock board placed a quarantine against the Georgia counties because cattle fever ticks were found in that area.

Dr. I. S. McAdory, acting state veterinarian, states that the quarantine not only prevents cattle from being shipped into Alabama from those three Georgia counties but it prohibits hay, straw, manure, hides of cattle, mules, horses, sheep, goats, plants and other materials to which the cattle tick may be attached when coming into the state from the infested areas.

BOX SUPPER

There will be a box supper at Pleasant Hill Church next Saturday night, Nov. 9. There will be plenty of boxes, well-filled with good eats, a beauty contest, a cake for the ugliest man and a nice time for everybody. Come and bring someone with you. Proceeds will go for the benefit of Pleasant Hill Church. Don't forget the date—November 9, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

ALABAMA GAME NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 5.—After a lapse of one year the annual deer hunt in the Alabama National Forest is to be revived this fall.

The decision to hold the hunt in the forest was made at a conference between Conservation Commissioner I. T. Quinn and F. C. Heneberger, federal forest ranger stationed at Decatur. The dates will be Nov. 14, 15 and 16.

The hunt, as in other years, will be open to sportsmen throughout the state. No person will be permitted to take part in the hunt unless he is equipped with a hunting license and no one will be allowed to enter the forest without a permit from Mr. Henneberger. The Forest Service will chage a fee of 50 cents for each permit issued and the proceeds will be used for predatory animal control work in the forest.

The hunt was discontinued last year in anticipation of an expansion in forest acreage and the forest now embraces approximately 145,000 acres, crosing portions of Lawrence, Winston and Franklin counties.

POPLAR SPRINGS CLUB NEWS

The Poplar Springs Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. J. H. Miller on Friday afternoon, November 1, with 26 members and two visitors

The meeting was called to order by the vice president. Mrs. Mattie L. Crew gave a good lecture on finishing table tops, floor and walls. Miss Parrdue showed some examples of table finishings.

Our culb is going to have a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. G. B. Jones on Friday afternoon, December 6, at two o'clock. Refreshments will be served and there will be other entertainments. Ladies, if you want to spend a nice enjoyable evening be sure to come.—Reporter.

Helping Your Family to Better
CONTROL of COLDS

When Colds Threaten.. Vicks Va-tro-nol helps Prevent many Colds

At the first warning sneeze or nasal irritation, quick!—a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol up each nostril. Especially designed for nose and throat, where most colds start, Va-tro-nol helps to prevent many colds—and to throw off head colds in their early stages.

If a Cold Strikes.. Vicks VapoRub helps End a Cold sooner

If a cold has already developed, use Vicks VapoRub, the mother's standby in treating colds. Rubbed on at bedtime, its combined poultice-vapor action loosens phlegm, soothes irritation, helps break congestion. Often, by morning the worst of the cold is over.

Follow Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds

A helpful guide to fewer colds and shorter colds. Developed by Vicks Chemists and Medical Staff; tested in extensive clinics by practicing physicians—further proved in everyday home use by millions. The Plan is fully explained in each Vicks package.

★ Vicks Open House: with Grace Moore every Monday 9:30 P. M. (E. S. T.) NBC coast-to-coast

Over 53 26 67 Million Vick Aids Used Yearly for Better Control of Colds

IGINAL

SPECIALS For MEN

MEN'S OVERALL PANTS
8-oz Indigo Blue Denim, size 29 - 36 $1.25

Men's Covert WORK SHIRTS
Colors Blue, Tan, Grey, Fast color .. 65c
Sizes 14½ to 17

MENS KHAKI PANTS
Vat Dye — Sizes 29 to 38 $1.49
Shirts to Match Pants above 14 - 17 98c

We have the largest stock of Men's HATS, PANTS, and Shoes to Offer For only $1.98

DOLLAR STORE
Clanton, Ala.

DISTRICT W. M. U. TO MEET

Notice is given that the Eastern District Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union will be held at Auburn, Alabama on next Thursday and Friday, November 7th and 8th. Several members of the local union are expected to attend. A good two day program has been arranged, with several outstanding speakers to discuss subjects important to the workers of the union.

The friends of George Popwell will be glad to know he is recovering from a serious automobile accident at St. Margaret's Hospital in Montgomery.

Miss Sue Prather of Rockford is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George McCain.

Sara Elizabeth Venable of Wetumpka spent the week end with Olive Rainer Elmore.

LEFT AUTOMOBILE

One Model A Ford was left at my place October 23rd. Owner can get same by furnishing proper description and evidence of ownership.—L. A. Brown, Clanton, Alabama.

666
Liquid - Tablets
Salve - Nose Drops
Checks COLDS and FEVER
First Day HEADACHES In 30 Minutes

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FOR SALE—Seed cane, P. O. J. and Ribbon cane at 50c per 100; and 500 stalks C. P. 807, at 75c per 100 stalks. One first class farm mule, 1,050 lbs; age 10 years.—Harland Adams, Rte. 1, Verbena, Ala., near Enterprise School. 10-31-3tp

WANT TO TRADE—1928 Model Hudson pick-up truck in good condition for good mule, not over 10 years of age. Apply to Marion Ellison, near Jackson Chapel, Rte. 5. 10-29-3p

FOR SALE—Silkie chickens, 10 pheasants, 1400 egg electric incubator, 3,200 chick broder; a house lot and other property in West Clanton.—Dr. V. J. Gragg.

WANTED TO BUY—Corn and peanuts; 100 bushels of good, white, dry, new corn. Will pay 60c per bushel in good sacks. Also 2,000 lbs. of good, dry, large peanuts. Will pay 3c per pound delivered to Gore's feed store in Clanton on Nov. 8, 1935.—R. N. Minor, Clanton, Ala. 1tp.

PIANO FOR SALE—High grade baby Grande for sale at a special price for immediate sale. Your old piano or radio will be accepted as part payment.—Write O. L. Baskette, 403, 20th St., Birmingham, Ala. 11-7-3t-c.

COTTON SEED FOR SALE—Wannamaker's Wonder, Dixie Triumph, and Wiltresistant Strain 2.—H. Wilson, Rte. 2, Jemison, Ala. 11-7-3p

FOR SALE OR TRADE—1934 Ford V-8 pick up. Priced right for cash. If interested see H. W. Marcus, Thorsby, Ala. 1tp.

FOR SALE—40 acres of land, 35 in cultivation. In Temple community about 3 miles southeast of Clanton. If interested apply at Union Banner office.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Allred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

FOR SALE—20, 40, or 50 acres of land 3-room house and barn; 20 for $550; 40 for $8.50; and 50 for $1,000. This price is cash.—J. H. Jackson, Clanton, Route 1, one half mile east of Lomax. 10-31-3tpd.

FOR SALE—1926 model T Ford roadster; has new tires, good upholstery top and paint and battery. Motor in first class shape. Will sell cheap.—See Arley Guy, ¾ mile abov Willis Tourist Camp. 1tp

FOR SALE—9 acres of land, 2 miles north of Clanton; has 4-room house and good well of water, has electric pump and electric lights.—R. E. Jones, Clanton Rte. 3. 11-7-3p

DISC HARROW FOR SALE—In good shape. $25.00 gets it.—Lawton McDowell, Clanton Rte. 2. 1p

FRANK PALMER MAKES FINE RECORD WITH INVESTORS SYNDICATE

Probably Frank Palmer has called on you during the past month or six weeks, and told you that he represented Investors Syndicate. Maybe you did not know all about what he represented, even after he had told you, but no doubt you knew more about it before he let you go.

Well, Investors Syndicate, in a few words, is a means by which one lays aside a little each month into a fund to be drawn later in life in a lump sum. It is a saving method wherein one gets out more than he puts in.

Whether you are in shape to take advantage of it or not, Mr. Palmer has a fine proposition and one that should interest you. If he calls on you, try and give him the time to explain to you what he has. You won't lose anything

During the month of October the forty representatives of Investors Syndicate in Alabama had on a contest, and Frank Palmer won the loving cup. And he won it by the work which he did in Chilton county. We are proud of it both for Chilton county and for Mr. Palmer, who is a Clanton boy, having spent his boyhood days in Clanton. He now, however, lives in Birmingham where State headquarters for Investors Syndicate is located, in Comer Building, Room 601.

Mr. Palmer is setting out this month to win another honor—a greater one than he has already gained. He is going to compete for the national trophy this month, and he is depending on Chilton county again to put him over. He has the utmost confidence in himself and his old home county to do the trick.

Mr. Palmer and Investors Syndicate are this week beginning a series of advs. in The Union-Banner. Turn to it and read it. It may mean more to you than you imagine. And when Mr. Palmer calls on you, give him the time to explain his plan to you. It is an attractive one.

R. I. VARDEN WANTS PLACE

The Union-Banner has a communication from Mr. R. I. Varden. He wants to find a place, about 15 acres with pasture for two cows. If anyone knows of such a place, it would be appreciated if they would let Mr. Varden know. He is in bad health and not able to be out. He now lives on Clanton Route 5.

NOTICE

Checks covering 2,033 second rental payments on 1935 Cotton Acreage Reduction Contracts, in amount of $31,342.23, have been received by J. W. Fant, County Agent.

These checks will be ready for delivery at his office Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. A schedule for delivering these checks will [illegible] the county next week.

There will be a box supper at Pleasant Hill church next Saturday night week, November 9th.

Mr. George Grant of Marbury was a business visitor here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vinson were visitors in Montgomery last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mullins of Tuscaloosa spent several days here last week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Searcy spent Saturday in Birmingham.

Mrs. R. D. Woodson and sons, Billy and Stewart, of Lay Dam, attended the football game in Birmingham Saturday. Mr. Woodson also met his mother in Birmingham Saturday and she returned with him for a visit. Mrs. Woodson is from Newport, Tenn.

Mr. Joe Rummell of Lay Dam spent Saturday in Birmingham where he attended the Alabama-Kentucky football game.

NOTICE OF PARDON OR PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Will Abecrombie, who was convicted in the circuit court of Chilton County on March 1 1935 for manufacturing whiskey, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of three years to five years, will make application to the Hon. State Board of Pardons for pardon or parole.—(Signed)—Will Abecrombie. 10-31-2tp.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

Beware Coughs
from common colds
That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

UNDERCOVER FORCE APPOINTED FOR CHILTON COUNTY CHURCHES

People of Chilton County who do not go to church for the purpose of listening or taking part in the services had best stay home or go elsewhere, is the opinion of Sheriff J. R. Hardy, and it is his intention to see that they do just what he declared.

"I'm getting plenty tired of these continuous disturbances at our churches over thecounty," he said in discussing what he terms a 'deplorable conditioa.' It seems to be getting to the point where it is practically impossible for people to go to church and conduct services without a bunch of roughnecks causing some disturbance, he continued.

But Sheriff Hardy has a plan which he believes will put a stop to this practice of "trying to turn church services into a circus." Chilton county's chief law enforcement officer has announced that he will place a deputy sheriff in cery church in the county or see that certain crowds cease to annoy the church goers.

In fact that is Sheriff Hardy's plans. He intends to deputize 50 to 75 men throughout the county to cooperate with the sheriff's office in keeping peace at churches and other public gatherings. The names of those appointed will be kept secret and their identity even in their own communities will not be known until duty makes it necessary for them to expose themselves.

Sheriff Hardy hopes to get his army of "church deputies" ready for action by this week end.

"Nearly every Sunday night we are kept busy running from one place to another because some few people refuse to respect our churches and the people who go there for the purpose of worshipping," the sheriff declared.

Mrs. John Kimmey and little new son arrived from a Birmingham hospital Monday and are at home in Mrs. Hugh Foshee's apartment.

ENTERPRISE SINGING SOCIETY MET LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

On last Sunday afternoon the Enterprise singing society met in the school auditorium. We had a large crowd and some real good singing. We had visitors from all parts of the county and we welcome them back again on every fourth Sunday afternoon.

Directors for the afternoon were as follows: J. W. DeVaughn, I. D. Huett, Cecil Yeargan, Mr. Lowery, Orbie DeVaughn, Ralph Grant, J. M. Williams, Hiram Littlejohn, Marshall Burkhalter, J. E. Varner, C. M. Billingsley, and A. L. Williams.

The liberty Hill quartet was with us and rendered several numbers which were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

We cordially invite each and every one to meet with us next first Sunday afternoon.—Secretary.

COTTON REPORT

There were 12,572 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Chilton county, from the crop of 1935 prior to October 18, 1935, as compared with 10,564 bales ginned to October 18, 1934.

JOHN WILLIAM FORTENBERRY

John William, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortenberry, died at their home in North Clanton last Thursday night. The remains were buried by Martin at Collins Chapel. The deceased was a grandson of Mr. W. E. Maddox.

WIN DAM PRIZES

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Crit Jones will be interested to know that they were awarded first prize by the Alabama Power Co., for the best kept house and yard at Lay Dam. Mr. and Mrs. Britt Deal were awarded second prize. At Jordan Dam, Mr. and Mrs. George Trotter were awarded first prize.

HORTON WALKER BACK IN CLANTON

The many friends of Prof. and Mrs. Horton Walker will be pleased to learn that they are back in Clanton. Prof. Walker, or rather Lieutenant Walker, is now connected with the CCC camp in Clanton, and is making his home here. We are glad to have him back with us.

OLIVE BRANCH HURTT

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hurtt on last Sunday afternoon. They have named her Olive Branch, for her grandmother and great grandmother.

MAD DOG SPREE

A mad dog, starting in Concord community Monday afternoon, had quite a spree that afternoon and night. It is said to have bitten a dog belonging to Reese Baker and probably some other dogs in the community. It headed out toward Cooper and bit a small son of Tom Hilyer. It then headed back north toward Cordrey old mill, supposedly biting dogs going and coming. It was killed in that community Monday night.

MAKING SECOND CROP APPLES

Mr. Emmett Pepwell of Route 5, who works for Teel Shoe Shop, has brought to The Union-Banner specimens of the second crop of apples grown on his trees this year.

Mr. Ppowell gathered the first crop early in July, and immediately the trees began blooming again. They are still blooming and putting on apples. Some of the second crop are now as large as a large hen egg and they range from that size on down to blooms. They are of the delicious variety, Mr. Popwell stated.

Miss Lois Faircloth of Marbury visited friends in Clanton Monday evening.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT VERMONT SCHOOL

There will be a fiddlers convention at Vermont Junior High School on Friday night, November 15th. Prizes will be awarded. Candy, peanuts, drinks and sandwiches will be served.

OCTOBER MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses have been issued by the ofice of the Judge of Probate of Chilton County during the month of October:

T. J. Bates and Miss Inez Elland.
Paul Webb and Miss Ila Ellison
Curtis Wyatt and Mrs. Betty Ray.
John D. Lovelady and Miss Ida Belle Ousley.
A. L. Collins and Miss Nora Duncan.
T. W. Gilmore and Miss Alberta Burnett.
Vonceil Gandy and Miss Effie Mae Wright.
G. F. Harper and Mrs. Sara F. Seale.
Wm. H. Moon and Miss Marion Armstrong.
Julius Bernard Skinner and Mrs. Margaret W. Collum.
Connie Smith and Miss Tinylee Varden.
Ed Pettus Carter and Miss Ilou Davis.
S. N. Waldrop and Mrs. L. H. Bell.
W. E. Simms and Miss Lilla Ellison.
Willie L. Mims and Miss Mary Hayes.
Earnest L. Arant and Miss Marie Ann Powers.
R. H. Russel and Mrs. Zada Russel.
Curtis Wyatt and Miss Jewel Cost.
Oliver Mims and Miss Alice Edwards.
Arnold Cox and Miss Mollie Burnett.
Carey E. Haigler and Sammie L. Lusk.
Howard Thomas and Miss Christine Mims.
Matt Hilyer and Miss Vonceil Jackson.

Friday, and Saturday, Nov. 8th & 9th

Phone - 154
WE DELIVER

Clanton CASH Store
WE DELIVER — BLUE FRONT STORE
PEOPLES CASH STORE
THORSBY CASH STORE

When You Want PRICE QUALITY SERVICE — CALL US!

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE
PORK CHOPS, Lb .. 25c
SHOULDER — PORK ROAST, Lb .. 22c
Lamb CHOPS, lb .. 28c
SLICED — BACON, Lb .. 38c
MIXED — SAUSAGE, 2 Lbs .. 35c
SALT — MACKEREL, 3 for .. 25c
BOLOGNA — SAUSAGE, Bulk, Lb 15c

PRODUCE SPECIALS
U. S. NO. 1 — POTATOES, 10 Lbs .. 18c
RUTABAGAS, Lb .. 3c
GREEN HEADS — CABBAGE, Lb .. 2½c
YELLOW OR WHITE — ONIONS, Lb .. 4c

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING
24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS .. 85c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS .. $1.65
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS .. 50c
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL .. 95c
48-Lb SACK — WHITE OWL .. $1.85
24-LB SACK — POLLY RICH $1.10
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose $1.10
48-LB SACK — ROSE or POLLY RICH .. $2.15
12-LB SACK — ROSE or — POLLY RICH 60c

SUGAR
10-Lb Paper Bag .. 55c

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 15c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

LARD
1-LB CARTON — Compound .. 15c
4-LB CARTON — Compound .. 55c
8-LB CARTON — Compound .. $1.10
48-LB CAN — Compound .. $6.50

GALVANIZED WARE
NO. 0 — TUBS .. 45c
NO. 1 — TUBS .. 53c
NO. 2 — TUBS .. 58c
COMPLETE WITH BAILS — SCRUB TUBS .. 25c

FEEDS
SHORTS .. $1.85
SEED — OATS .. $3.00 & $3.50

SNOWDRIFT
with the Key to its locked in goodness
3-Lb Pail .. 55c
6-Lb Pail $1.05

POSTUM CEREAL .. 20c
BRAZIL SHREDDED — Coconut, 3-oz pkg, 2 .. 15c

2 for 15c
Post Toasties

LUZIANNE COFFEE
100% Good
1-Lb CAN .. 27c
3-Lb PAIL .. 78c
CERTIFICATES WORTH FOUR OCTAGON COUPONS IN EVERY CAN. USE ONLY HALF AS MUCH LUZIANNE.

SOAP SPECIALS
PALMOLIVE — SOAP .. 5c
3 PACKAGES — SUPER SUDS .. 25c
6 LARGE BARS — OCTAGON SOAP .. 25c
10 SMALL BARS — OCTAGON SOAP .. 25c

STOKELY'S HONEY POD — PEAS, No. 2 Can .. 17c
STOKELY'S FINEST CATSUP, 2 14-oz bot 25c
23-OZ STOKELY'S FINEST Tomato Juice, can .. 10c
31-OZ VERIBEST — Pork and Beans, can 10c
SUNSWEET TENDERIZED — PRUNES, 1-lb pkg .. 10c

POOR OR

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TWELVE PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1935 NUMBER 30

Gov. Talmadge Sees Opposition To F D R

Georgian Renews Attacks On National Policies In His Talk At Brewton

Brewton, Ala.—Georgia's governor, Eugene Talmadge, forecast in an Armistice Day address Monday that voters of the nation's two major parties "will stand shoulder to shoulder" in opposition to the Roosevelt administration in 1936.

"The taxpayers are the forgotten man," said Talmadge, a self-described "Jeffersonian Democrat" who has been mentioned by friends as a possible candidate for the presidency.

"But Washington is going to wake up to the fact that it kicked the sleeping dog too hard. The taxpayers, awake at last, will go to the polls next year as never before. Not only that—the taxpayers are going to the conventions of both parties, and stand shoulder to shoulder, and see that their children and their children's children are protected and have an opportunity to invest their money in American dirt, American rocks and American labor.

Gov. Talmadge predicted payment of the outstanding $2,500,000,000 soldier's bonus and urged that it be financed from the federal government's $4,880,000,000 recovery appropriation.

"Two and one-half billion dollars spent by private citizens, enlarging and improving their business, paying debts, would be a greater stimulus to recovery than $10,000,000,000 spent by the government," Talmadge said.

He advocated "cutting out red tape," and repeated his advocacy of abolition of the federal income tax.

"If you abolish the federal income tax," he said, "you will stop an army of people who are going over the country, trying to blackmail any courageous soul who has the temerity to come out against the policies of Washington."

Evidently referring to the presidents letter of inquiry to ministers all over the country, Talmadge said:

"No letter to preachers will flatter them up to this bacchanalia of spending in this country, which we have seen going on for the past three years. The brain trusters can't fool God's people. The brain trusters can't change the seasons.

He reiterated attacks on relief, agricultural and financial policies of the national administration.

"The taxpayers of this country also are going to see to it that there is no such thing as tax-exempt government bonds sponsored by the country any longer than 1936.

"When this is done and the Bankhead bill and the AAA and the processing taxes are smothered into oblivion, the second recovery will be back in this country that the New Deal has fought down for the past three years."

SINGING AT COURTHOUSE LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON WAS GOOD

The courthouse was filled last Sunday afternoon for the singing, in spite of the cloudy weather and other hinderances. The singing was real good. Prof. Emmett Wilson of Friendship acted as chairman, in the absence of the regular chairman, Jesse C. Jones. A full list of directors was present; Prof. W. M. Devaughn arranged one quartet. Near the close a negro quartet from Maplesville came in and sung four numbers which were enjoyed.

The neighbors announced that they would put on a free concert at the courthouse Thursday night, November 21st. They will bring a chorus of singers with them.

Picture Be Shown At Meth'st Church

The Clanton Methodst Church most cordially invites the public to come, see and hear the "Son of Man" on Friday evening, November 15, at 7:00. There are eight reels of hand colored moving picture play taken in Judea and other parts of Palestine, and was two years in the making. This picture is said tosurpass even the "King of Kings" for color, and is more biblically inclined. It was filmed by Pathe Co., and colored by Midland Co., of Chicago.

There will be electrically transcribed music of John McCormick, Homer Rodsheaver, Gypsy Smith, Sr., and many other noted singers and choruses; also violin and organ solos.

Dr. E. E. Morrison of Hillsdale, Michigan, now owner of this film and equipment, will give interpretations while the pictures are being shown, using two portable moving picture projectors.

The public is invited to take advantage of this rare oportunity to see this great production of eight thousand feet of beautiful colored film. No admission is charged, but a silver offering will be taken to defray expenses. Children should be accompanied by adults.

HOMEMAKERS S. S. CLASS

The Homemakers Sunday school class will meet at the home of Mrs. Essie Walker, Friday afternoon at 2:30. All members are urged to be present.

JEMISON BOY WINS

Auburn, Ala.— C. W. Wells, Jr., Jemison High school won first place in the essay contest sponsored by the Alabama Experiment Station here. Justice Wall, Elmore County High won second place, William Crawford, Perry County High, third, and John Slaughter, Millerville High, fourth.

Prizes going to chapters of which winners are members follow: Jemison, choice of 4,000 slash pine or 4,000 black locust, donated by the horticultural department; Elmore County High; one purebred Jersey bull, donated by the animal industry department; Perry High, one purebred boar, donated by the animal industry department, and Millerville, five bushels of pure cotton seed, donated by the agronomy department.

REV. R. M. STILLWELL TAKES CHARGE OF CHILTON CIRCUIT

Rev. R. M. Stillwell is this week taking charge of the M. P. churches in the Chilton circuit, comprising Pleasant Grove, Concord and Antioch churches. Rev. Stillwell comes to Chilton county from Clay County, where he has had charge of the Millerville district. Rev. J. S. Johnson, who has been preaching for these churches the past year, goes to the Millerville district.

J. W. Enfinger has been retained on the Clanton circuit, while Verbena and Oak Grove will be in charge of Rev. Fred Davis.

ALABAMA SPENDING INCREASED BY $53,000 A MONTH

The national New Deal is not the only wild and extravagant spenders of the present day and time. Alabama's new deal has got the habit too. According to recent authentic reports the Graves administration has averaged spending $53,000 per month more than was the average of the preceding administration. Does this look like balancing the budget when the State of Alabama is already in debt 42 million dollars?

But what else could you expect from that party, be it State or national? They simply cannot help but get worse and worse.

Since August, the state payroll has been increased or will be increased about $30,000 additional monthly with the newly created departments that have gone into operation.

This does not include, either, the increased expense accounts resulting from the increased personnel. For instance when the state highway patrol gets under way its $12,500 salary checks will show but not its $9,000 expenses.

The payroll reveals many litte interesting things that it takes time to dig out. Take Senator D. Hardy Riddle, who voted consistently for administration measures. As superintendent of Alabama Institute for Deaf and Blind at Talladega, his salary was $250 monthly under Gov. Miller up to December but August shows him drawing $300. Of course his legislative salary was drawn too.

EVANS VARIETY STORE IS NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

A new addition to Clanton's business houses is Evans Variety Store, operated by Mr Julian Evans. The location is the building between the Fish Market and Yellow Front, near the railroad.

In speaking of his new business Mr. Evans stated: "It is my desire to make of it the nicest little store I possibly can. I will handle candy, fruit, nuts, flower seed and bulbs, and toys. I aim to keep a full stock of these at all times. Naturally I will be pleased to have my friends call to see me, and their trade for things in my line will be appreciated."

For the present Mr. Evans will operate the business by himself, but he hopes trade will justify him in adding some help soon.

SINGING AT COLLINS CHAPEL THURSDAY NIGHT THIS WEEK

There will be singing at Collins Chapel church Thursday night of this week, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. All singers have a cordial invitation to attend. Bring your new books.

THREE FINED IN MAYOR'S COURT

When Mayor's court was called last Monday morning, three cases were on the docket, and were disposed of.

There were two cases for violating the prohibition law, and in each case a fine of $5.00 and costs of $5.00 was assessed.

One case for public drunkenness was disposed of, a fine of $5.00 and cost of $7.50 being assessed.

MARRIAGE OF INTEREST

Many people of Clanton will be interested to learn of the wedding of Miss Vivian Virginia McLendon to Mr. Rhonald Earl James, at Fairfax, Ala., on November 4th.

Miss McLendon has many friends in Clanton. For several years she was a teacher in the White City school, in Autauga County, and has visited in Clanton on several occasions.

BANNER 1 YEAR $1

For a limited time The Union-Banner will be sold one whole year for $1. This exceptional offer will not last long; and when it closes, the paper will go back to the regular price. If you want the paper for one dollar, better take advantage of it now. We will appreciate your business.

THE UNION-BANNER.

THE CORN-HOG POLL

[AN EDITORIAL]

Although the result of the corn-hog allotment voting has been hailed by AAA circles as a great victory for the idea, the wonder among those who have analyzed the situation is that the vote in favor of a continuance of the bounty was not greater than that really registered. Expressions credited to AAA officials just before the voting that the result was doubtful may be regarded as just so much window-dressing to make the victory of the administration all the more impressive.

It is said that the ratio of the vote was about five and a half to one for a continuance of the "bonus" to farmers. In all it is estimated that a little more than a half million votes were cast. But it is not to be forgotten that here are in the country, in round numbers, about four and a half million farmers who are interested in corn and hogs. What the other four million may think of the program is a matter of conjecture.

It is not to be forgotten that only the farmers most directly interested were polled on the subject. They were asked whether they wanted the govrnment to continue to pay them for curtailing production. The answer could have only been one thing unless human nature has greatly changed in the past few months. If the veterans of the American Legion were to be polled on whether or not they wanted Uncle Sam to pay them a bonus, if the automobile manufacturers were asked to vote whether or not they wanted the government to pay them more money for making fewer cars, or the brewers for brewing less beer, it would not be hard to prejudge the result.

The fact is also to be taken into consideration that the corn and hog farmers who voted were only given one side of the case by the AAA publicity men—that was whether they wanted the immediate bonus for raising less produce. The other side of the picture was not presented.

For example, it is known that the program of artificial scarcity and higher production costs has practically eliminated the American farmer's foreign market. There has been so great a shortage that we are actually importing in great quantities foreign agricultural produce which should have been raised by farmers and the money is going abroad. Then our governmental curbing of production has encouraged foreign producers to increase their output to take up the slack and the tendency is one which is bound sooner or later to result in disaster for the American farmer. Again the artificially high price of certain farm products in our cities and towns due to the processing tax has tended to decrease the demand for these products at home, thus depressing consumption, and if the folks get in the habit of curtailing on certain lines of produce they may continue to do so to the future detriment of the American farmer.

These facts were not given to the farmer by the AAA rah rah boys. He was only told about the fat checks which may be forthcoming in the near future. So the wonder is that even one-fifth of those voting, cast their ballots against the New Deal program of paying the farmers for what they do not raise.

NINE ARRESTED BY SHERIFF

Sheriff Hardy's force reported nine arrests during the past week. Four of them were for assault and battery, two for violating prohibition law, two for abusive, indecent and obscene language, and one for unlawfully presenting firearms.

The person arrested on the firearm charge is in jail. In the prohi cases, both made bond, one for $400 and the other for $300. Both parties arrested on the A.I.O.L. charges made bond of $300 each. In the assault and battery charges, three are still in jail, while one made bond of $300

BAPTIST ORPHANAGE PRODUCE CARS HERE DECEMBER 4 AND 5

The produce cars of the Chilton and Unity Associations will be in Chilton county on December 4th and 5th, Wednesday and Thursday. The car will be at Thorsby all day the 4th and at Clanton all day Thursday. People may give anything that is not perishable, including clothing, feed, food, etc., but not too many potatoes.

Mr. J. Watts Moore will represent the Unity Association and Mr. J. Dudley collins the Chilton Association. Each community will gather up the offerings in a truck and bring to the car, however, this matter will be in the hands of local committees.

PREACHING AT CLANTON GOSPEL TABERNACLE

Preachig services are being held at Clanton Gospel Tabernacle every nigth this week. Rev. H. H. Caswell, of Des Moines, Iowa is in charge.

Rev. Caswell is not a newcomer to several months in 1933. At that time Clanton, haing lived and preached here for several months in 1933. At that time has was pastor of the Clanton Foursquare Church.

Topics for the remainder of the week are as follows:

Thursday—"Three heads of lettuce."

Friday—"Remember Lot's Wife."

Saturday—"Seven steps to Death."

Sunday a.m.—"Christ or Anti-Christ."

Sunday p.m.—"The Mark of Cain. What is it? May have it. Are you one of them?"

Services will begin each night at 7:30. The message on Sunday morning will be given at 11 o'clock, just after Sunday school.

Everyone is invited to every service.

MEMBER OF LOCAL CCC CAMP WINS BOXING CHAMPIONSHIP

Little "Chine" Hernandez, a member of Company 3481 CCC, Clanton, Ala., was the winner of the Bantum weight boxing championship, held at Fort McClellan, Ala., headquarters of this district last week to determine the best man in this district in each weight. "Chine" met Easter, a member of Company 472, of Fort Payne, Ala. Hernandez won by a knock-out in the second round. The local Camp now has on display a beautiful cup given to the winner. We wish little "Chine" as much luck in the future.

MISSES ROGERS ENTERTAIN

Misses Mary Clyde and Clara Mae Rogers entertained with a dance at their home on last Wedneday evening. Those enjoying the delightful occasion were:

Thelma Arant, Louise Arnold, Edith Parrish, June Cox, Vivian Shoultz, Nell Klinner, Margaret McNair, Agnes Powell, Geraldine Deloach, Mary Clyde and Clara Mae Rogers.

Messrs. Emmett and James Parrish, John T. Marlar, L. D. Easterling, Earnest Anthony, Jack Brown, Dale Price, Durwood Smitherman, Jim Dunlap, Charles Balik, J. C. Connell, Vernon and Winston Robinson, Ted Reynolds, Seldon Hurst and John McNair.

STATE'S SINGERS SELECT OFFICERS AT CONVENTION

Gadsden, Ala.—P. B. Shaw and other officers of the Alabama State Singing Convention were reelected at the closing session here Sunday, and Montgomery was selected as the next meeting place.

Others reelected are: W. Lee Higgins, vice president, and Mrs. T. V. Chumley, secretary-treasurer.

The meeting began Saturday and continued through Sunday afternoon.

Among the features of the meeting were several numbers sung by the J. R. Baxter, Jr., quartet, of Chattanooga; the Stamps Print Shop quartet, Dallas, Texas; the Stringfellow quartet, Tuscaloosa; the Cedartown, (Ga.) quartet; the Morris Henson quartet, Atlanta; the Lackey, Stamps Baxter Happy Hitters, of Birmingham; Vaughan Quartet from Lawrenceburg, Tenn.; and Cobb Sisters from Birmingham.

MAY GET AIRPORT

Project Favored If Clanton Will Buy More Acreage

Clanton will get its airport if the county and city will provide 32 more acres to the 60 set aside for this purpose.

Maj. Edward M. Haight, regional supervisor of airport marking, and Al Key, endurance flier and district advisor, told the Clanton Kiwanis Club Thursday night they would recommend the immediate release of $35,000 already allocated by WPA to the airport if the additional acreage were obtained.

Maj. Haight and Key spent the day examining the proposed site about three-quarters of a mile northeast of Clanton.

The Department of Commerce has for a long time been interested in having an airport at Clanton. The project languished here a while, but the Kiwanis Club has revived it recently.

DOROTHY WAITE TIED FOR FIRST PLACE ON HONOR ROLL

Blue Mountain, Miss., Nov. 12.—Miss Dorothy Waite of Clanton, Alabama, tied for first place on the freshman honor roll of Blue Mountain College, according to a release from the dean's office today. Dr. Geo. T. Buckley, Dean of the College, stated it is a mark of scholastic excellence to attain the honor roll.

NEGRO KILLED SATURDAY NIGHT

As a result of an altercation at a box supper near Billingsley last Saturday night, Jasper Tillis is dead and Walter Parker is in jail under a first degree murder charge. Both men are negroes.

The story, as given by the sheriff's force, is as follows:

The negroes were holding a box supper at a schoolhouse near Billingsley. Parker was bidding against another negro, whose name we were not able to learn, on a box that had been furnished by a sister of Jasper Tillis. Parker lost out in the bidding, and becoming enraged, went to the Tillis home, broke in and got a shotgun belonging to the father of Jasper Tillis. He was on his way back to the schoolhouse, when he met Jasper Tillis and his father. The elder Tillis tried to get Parker to give him his gun, but he refused to give it up. Then Jasper Tillis, who is said to have been a good friend of Parker, started to him, asking him to give him the gun. Parker warned him to keep back, but Tillis, thinking that his friend would not shoot him, kept on toward Parker, who raised the gun and shot, the full load taking effect in Tillis's stomach. He died Sunday afternoon.

Sheriff Hardy was informed Monday afternoon by the Sheriff of Autauga county that he had Parker in jail at Prattville, to answer a minor charge in the court there, and that he could get him just as soon as that case was finished. Sheriff Hardy stated that he expected to go after Parker Tuesday afternoon. He will be held in the Chilton county jail on a first degree murder charge.

MR. AND MRS. HARLEM WILLIS ARE BOOSTING EAST CLANTON

Other enthusiastic boosters of that portion of Greater Clanton north of Black Snake are Mr. and Mrs. Harlem E. Willis of Reynolds Addition. These two young people operate the store and filling station out there, and they not only enthusiastically boost their business but their part of the city as well. They are running a list of grocery cash specials in The Union-Banner this week. Look over what they offer.

In speaking of that part of Clanton, we might make note that Judge Reynolds is putting the finishing touches on a big new barn on one of his lots near Mr. Willis's store and the big feed milling plant. This will add to the progressive appearance of that community.

BAPTISTS NAME STATE PRESIDENT

Troy, Ala., Nov. 12.—L. L. Gwaltney, Sr., of Birmingham, for 16 years editor of The Alabama Baptist, today was elected president of the Alabama Baptist State Convention in a three-way contest over H. L. Anderton, of Birmingham, and the Rev. J. M. Thomas, of Talladega, in opening the annual session of the convention.

Anderton, head of the convention's social service commission and president of the Alabama Temperance Alliance, later was elected first vice-president. E. C. Bassett, deacon of the First Baptist Church, Troy, was chosen second vice-president by a unanimous vote along with Anderton.

Gwaltney succeeds Dr. J. E. Dillard, of Birmingham, while Anderton and Bassett relieve the Rev. W. R. Seymour, of Fayette, and the Rev. V. L. Wyatt of Gadsden.

M. M. Wood of Birmingham was reelected by acclamation for his 31st year as secretary, and uon his recommendation the convention renamed A. S. Barnes, of Montgomery, as statistical secretary.

Gwaltney defeated Anderton in a run-off vote after failing by three votes to obtain a majority in the first balloting. The official vote was not announced.

The 114th annual meeting of the convention, which will remain in session through Thursday, got under way this afternoon with more than 350 delegates and ministers registered to represent an estimated 320,000 Baptists in Alabama.

Dr. Dillard in formally opening the session criticized any practice of governments making appropriations for the support of sectarian schools, charging that "no person should be coerced to pay taxes to support institutions of religion in which he does not believe."

"Eternal vigilance is still the price of liberty," he said, after an opening assertion that "religious liberty may indeed be said to be the most distinctive contribution Baptists have made to civilization."

CENSUS FIGURES CHANGED

When the Federal Census Bureau had checked the census books compiled in Clanton a few days ago, it was found that the figures totaled a little different from those given in the county papers last week.

The report as given last week was: 1,332 white males, 1,368 white females, 300 negro males, and 363 negro females, a total of 3,363. This gave a total of 2,700 whites, and 663 negroes.

The new figures, as given out after the official count by the Census Bureau, are as follows: 1,303 white males, 1,348 white females, a total of 2,651 whites; 322 negro males, 390 negro females, a total of 712 negroes. The grand total of 3,363 remained the same.

Mrs. James Wade and Miss Alice Brooks motored to Montgomery Monday afternoon.

Misses Dollie and Ressie Harris spent Saturday in Montgomery with friends.

Clanton Has A Real Feed Milling Plant

Central Alabama Milling Co. Is Ready For Feed Manufacturing

Chilton county has realy got a feed milling outfit that is prepared in the right style. It is located in East Clanton, or that part of the city commonly known as Reynolds Addition, and is operated by Mr. Willie Crowson. Assisting in the project is the Farmers Exchange, the principal promoters of which are Mr. J. W. Fant and Dr. W. L. Parrish.

When we say that Mr. Crowson is prepared to make feed, the statement is made to cover a multitude of operations, products, etc. But that is just what he is doing. There is an investment of about $5,000, and another thousand will be added to it in the next month or so, according to Mr. Crowson. The present building, a two-story affair, is going to be about doubled in size, making room for more storage and machinery and increased production.

One interesting machine is a John Deere corn shucker and sheller, which at one operation shucks the corn, shells it, puts the cobs in one place, the shucks in another, and conveys the shelled corn into a large hopper. This machine is upstairs, but the bottom of the large hoper is near the ground floor from which the corn is drawn into sacks. The capacity of this machine is 60 bushels of shelled corn per hour. Another machine on the second floor is a mixer for dry feeds. A sweet feed mixer is being installed this week. The capacity of the dry mixer is 2 tons per hour and the sweet feed mixer will put out 4 tons per hour.

Then there is a chicken feed grinder, which takes shelled corn and cuts it up to any size or grade that is desired. It is capable of handling one ton of corn per hour.

The main machine of the plant is the one which grinds up nearly anything imaginable in the way of feed, such as shucks, corn, cobs, fodder, velvet beans, sorghum stalks, pea vines, goober vines, etc., turning them into meal. The products from this machine may be taken and mixed with various other things, making just the balance of feed desired, so far as ingredients are concerned.

The mixers are run with individual electric motors. All the other machines are powered by a large 42-h.p. kerosene-burning International engine.

Mr. Crowson is working out analysis tables for the various feeds and elements which he produces. These analysis will be posted up and will show just the protein and other contents of various products. This scale has to be figured out by the State department of weights and standards, and will be made in strict compliance with the State law.

The promoters say that it seems useless to them for the farmers of Chilton county to import their feed whenever plenty is raised right here in the county if only properly worked up. They are going to continue to add to this machinery until the needs of Chilton county farmers can be taken care of. The farmers can bring their stuff and have it ground according to their wishes, or make exchanges for other feed, or what have you. In short, every wish of the farmers in the way of grinding feed will be taken care of.

Mr. Crowson is going to have a big opening introductory sale of feeds soon. Watch The Union-Banner for particulars about it. There will be some real bargains.

Tom Taylor Named Chairman Tax Fight

At the meeting held in Montgomery last Wednesday, November 6th, Tom Taylor of Clanton was elected County Chairman for Chilton County to organize the county to fight the proposed consumers sales tax.

The Consumers Anti-Sales Tax Association Thursday had inaugurated a statewide campaign to enlist voters to sign a pledge not to support any "public officeholder who opposed a sales tax in pre-election promises and has since changed his stand."

The "pledge" headed a series of petitions given campaign committees of various counties at an organization meeting of the association attended by over 200 merchants and individuals here Wednesday.

The association elected Irby Hall of Collinsville, as permanent chairman, Dr. C. C. Thomas of Selma as treasurer and chose B. C. Apperson of Birmingham as secretary.

F. T. Ralford, editor and publisher of the Selma Times-Journal, charged in an address before the association that "the best place to beat a sales tax is in the legislature," which Gov. Graves said Wednesday he expected to call into special session in January to consider statewide referendum on the sales tax combined with homestead exemptions.

"Taxation has reached the saturation point," Ralford said, "and the time is coming when no business will be profitable—when the government will take it all."

IGINAL

BARGAINS FOR OPENING DAYS

Friday and Saturday

NOVEMBER 15-16

We are delighted to be back in business, ready to serve you with the finest groceries, meats and produce to be had at prices to please the thrifty buyer. We appreciate the welcome you have already given us, and now for Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15 and 16, we are offering extra special values. Check over these values and visit our store, or if you prefer, call 93, and let us deliver your order.

SPECIAL GROCERY BARGAINS

CATSUP 14-oz. Bottles 2 for 19c
Gallon 55c
TOMATOES, No. 2 Can, 2 for 15c

ARGO STARCH
5-Cent MATCHES
Or 5-Cent SALT
Straight or Assorted 3 for 9c

Baking Powder, 2-lb. can Clabber girl .. 20c
MILK 3 Large or 6 Small Cans 19c

PORK & BEANS, 1-lb. can Van Camps .. 5c
No. 2½ KRAUT or HOMINY, 3 for 24c
Gibbs' Assorted Soups
10 ASSORTMENTS
10 1-2 Ounce Cans each 5c

New Crop Evap. Peaches or Apples, lb. .. 12c
PURE MUSTARD, 32-oz. jar 15c

Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 2 for 15c
BLACKEYED PEAS, lb. 6c
NAVY BEANS, lb. 5c
Peanut Butter, Quart Jar 22c
PURE LARD, 4-lb. ctn. 65c
PURE LARD, 8-lb. ctn. $1.25
COMPOUND LARD, 4-lb. ctn. 52c
COMPOUND LARD, 8-lb. ctn. $1.00
MEAL Fresh Ground Peck 20c
Toilet Tissue, 7 Rolls 25c
All Popular Brand Cigarettes 15c
POTTED MEAT, Armours Star, 3 for 10c

CABBAGE Fancy, Hard Heads, Lb. 2c

CHOICE MEATS

SLICED BACON, lb. 32c
MEAT LOAF, 2 lb. 25c
MIXED SAUSAGE, lb. 16c
Boiling Meat Good Grade Lb. 18c
STEW MEAT, 3 lb. 25c
BACON SQUARES, lb. 23c
GOOD STEAK, lb. 15c
Best Cuts, Loin, Round & T-Bone, lb. .. 17c
PICNIC HAMS, lb. 23c
FRANKS, lb. 14c
BOLOGNA, lb. 15c
WEINERS, lb. 17 1-2c
MACKEREL, 2 for 15c
CHEESE, Wisconsin Full Cream, lb. 19c

FRESH VEGETABLES

Nice Assortment Fresh Vegetables at Unusually Low Prices

No. 1 Irish POTATOES 5 lbs. 9c
BANANAS, doz. 15c
ONIONS, large yellow, lb. 3½c
LEMONS, large size, doz. 22c
RUTABAGAS, lb. 3c

SUGAR 10 Lbs. 53c

Wade's Grocery & Market

Location: Former Temporary Home of Peoples Savings Bank - Phone 93, Clanton, Ala.

COFFEE Fresh Ground lb. 10c

AVIATION COMMISSION AIDS THE FORESTRY

Montgomery.—That airplanes have long been used as an adjunct to forestry as well as to commerce and military operations is pointed out by the Alabama Commission of Forestry. It early was found that timber reconnaissance, general mapping, fire detection and a number of other forest functions could be aided and expedited through the use of airplanes with greater economy than in any other way.

The establishment in many of the states of official aviation boards has contributed greatly toward advancing all branches of aviation. State forestry departments using airplanes in their work thus find added cooperation available to them in carrying out the responsibilities best performed by aircraft. In Alabama, in particular, the action of the Legislature of 1935 in establishing such a board is viewed by the forest interests with strong approval.

Although some public forestral agencies use several planes the Alabama State Commission of Forestry has but one. The Commission's lane has been used in a great variety of forest work with a distinct saving in costs. In fire protection alone, after the use of the airplane was adopted it was found that it enabled the commission to reduce the cost of the work by a net amount of approximatley $2,000 a year above the expense of operating the plane.

Don't Get Up Nights?

THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanyt flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and fell "full of Pep."

Are YOU HAPPY After Meals

Or Do Gas on Stomach and Sour Stomach make you Miserable?

Too much food, or the wrong kind of food, too much smoking, too much beer, make your body over-acid. Then you have distress after eating, gas on stomach, heartburn, sour stomach. ALKA - SELTZER relieves these troubles promptly, effectively.

Use Alka-Seltzer for Headache, Colds, Fatigue, "Morning After Feeling," Muscular, Sciatic and Rheumatic Pains.

For COLDS HEADACHE NEURALGIA FATIGUE Rheumatic Sciatic Neuritic Periodic PAINS

Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline drink. As it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid.

Alka-Seltzer tastes like carbonated mineral spring water—works like magic. Contains no dangerous drugs....does not depress the heart....is not laxative.

Get a drink at your Drug Store Soda Fountain. Keep a package in your home medicine cabinet.

BOB JONES

COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

A friend recently sent the writer an editorial clipping from the Mansfield, Ohio, News. The editorial says in substance, "Twenty years ago the six week's evangelistic campaign conducted in Mansfield by Bob Jones came to a close. The majority of the Mansfield churches and pastors cooperated in the campaign and there were a total of two-thousand six hundred and eighty converts. A roll call of converts in the various churches with which the converts became affiliated may even be regarded as timely and worthwhile."

The writer remembers one very brilliant newspaper man who was converted in the Mansfield, Ohio, campaign. He was a notorious drunkard. He had been engaged to a woman for eighteen years. The lady promised to marry him if he would stay sober for six months. He could not stay sober. He told me so himself. But God saved him during the Mansfield revival He lived for ten years a sober, beautiful life. For nine years and a half he was happily married to his boyhood sweetheart. He died a triumphant death and went to Heaven. Passing through the city of Mansfield during an evening of the revival was an old bum—friendless and alone. He was a graduate of a leading university. He was steeped in drunkenness and in every form of vice. He dropped into the meeting. God saved him. Now he is at the head of a sales organization of more than two-hundred men and he is one of the loveliest Christian gentlemen I know. A girl was converted. She lived a lovely Christian life for several years and died a beautiful death leaving behind her a wonderful Christian testimony. A man was converted who later became a minister and he is now on the foreign field. The writer remembers well the things which happened in the Mansfield, Ohio, meeting.

There is no substitute for a genuine revival of the old time religion. We have tried to substitute education for evangelism. It will not work. Education has its place. Machinery is all right, but no movement lives without a revival. Springtime is a revival in nature. Every four years we have a political revival in the Democratic and Republican parties and thus these parties are kept alive. "Why do you have a sale?" a minister inquired of a Jewish merchant. "In order to stimulate business," the merchant replied. A revival stimulates business. These modernistic preachers and educators who are opposed to revivals are really enemies to Christian progress.

COMMON DISEASE OF CHILDHOOD

There are certain diseases commonly spoken of as "Childhood Diseases", and which children very seldom escape having at some time during childhood. Among these are measles, mumps, chicken-pox and whooping cough. These diseases are so widespread and so commonly seen that the expression "familiarity breeds contempt" might very well be used in speaking of them. Contempt in this case would mean a disregard of the possible dangers that might arise during the course of any one of the diseases. And so it might be well to check up on some of these conditions just to see what damage they do, and what part they play as a cause of death among children.

Whooping cough ranks about sixth as a cause of death in the age group under one year. In children one to two years old, it is still a more important cause of death, ranking fourth. In the age group from to to three years it ranks sixth, and from three to four, eleventh. These figures are for the United States as a whole, and are for the year 1929, but may be considered to be a fair average for any year. And so we learn from these figures that every effort should be made to prevent young children from being exposed to a case of whooping cough, and the expression often heard "I know my child will have it some time, so I will expose him now and get it over with" hardly seems justified, at least among children under five or six weeks of age.

Measles is another important cause of death among the very young. While the number of deaths vary from year to year, there occur, on anaverage, about four thousand deaths in the United States each year from this disease alone. And approximately 75 per cent of these deaths occur in children under five years of age. So here again we find that while the disease has come to be accepted as a matter of course in the lives of children, many lives could be saved if more care were used in keeping young children away from cases of measles. Another point that is well to remember is that measles is most infectious during the early stages of the disease, when the cold first develops and before the rash comes out.

Chicken-pox and mumps owe their importance to the fact that, while they themselves are not such important causes of death, complications which may arise following them might prove dangerous to the life or future well-being of the child.

There are other diseases, such as diphtheria and scarlet fever, that are seen most often in children, but the danger from these are much better understood than in the case of such common diseases as whooping cough and measles.

COTTON REPORT

There were 12,892 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Chilton county, from the crop of 1935 prior to November 1, 1935, as compared to 11,541 bales gined in November 1, 1934.

ACTIVITIES OF ISABELLA

The F. F. A. chapter met last Wednesday, November 6th, and had more or less of a discussion meeting. A report on the first district meeting of the six different chapters, which form the district F. F. A. was given. Then the chapter discussed plans, and each officer is requested to learn the correct procedures of the opening and closing of each meeting. Four boys besides the advisor, Mr. Smith, went to the district meeting at Jemison Monday night. Zolan Broadhead, president of our chapter, was elected vice president of the district F. F. A. Three boys were on the program of work committee, George Lyser, Clyde Headley and Williard Davenport. The boys that were elected intend to do their best with the aid of Mr. Smith our local advisor.

Our F. H. A. club met on November 6, with a very good program. The program was as follows:

Devotion—Margaret Owens.

The Origin of Manners and Customs—Mary Jo Suittes.

The Definition of a Lady and a Gentleman—Lela Devaughn.

Introductions—Evelyn Lecroy.

Conventionalities—Mary Jo Chandler.

Business.

The Jeffersonian society met last Wednesday and rendered the following program:

Devotional—Napoleon Jones.

What Italy and Ethiopia are Doing—James Veazey.

What If—James Powell.

Cross Questions and Crooked Answers—Johnnie Lou Cobern and Ruth Cummings.

Story—Frank Deason.

The Cosmopolitan Literary society met on Wednesday and rendered the following program:

Roll Call and Reading of Minutes—Secretary.

Healthy Teeth—Vester Powell.

Some Rules of Prevention of Contagious Diseases—Violet Downs.

Functions of The State Department of Health—Margaret Russell.

How to secure Safe Water Supply—Charles Edwards.

Control of Insects—Gladys Oden.

Armistice Day—Mrs. Foshee.

A pro and con Discussion on "Arnold Bryant Should Ride a Goat to School."—Mrs. Foshee, Donald Calfee, J. C. Jones.

ARE YOU PLANNING TO CHANGE COTTON VARITIES?

Are you planning to get a new variety of cotton next year? If you try a new varety what will it be?

Great care should be used in changing varieties. It is very easy to change to a variety which may not be at all suited to this county. Seed of a new variety should not be bought until all the facts about the variety are obtained.

Who knows the facts about cotton varieties? The safest guide for farmers of Chilton county is the cotton variety tests of the Alabama Experiment Station. All best known varieties are tested year after year on the principal soils of the state by well trained experienced men. The results of these impartial tests are the best guides we have for selecting a variety of cotton for this county. For example, in these tests the farmer selecting the poorest variety in place of the best one in the test on one soil type would have lost $13.70 per acre or $137.00 on ten acres of cotton

These Experiment Station varity tests remove the "guess" in selecting a suitable variety for this county.

If you plan to change varieties this season let me urge you to see or write me about these Experiment Station variety tests. I have these results in my office and shall be delighted to discuss them with you.—J. W. Fant.

BABY GIRL BORN MONDAY P. M.

A seven-pound baby girl made its arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sewell, of Gowan addition, Monday afternoon. She has been named Barbara Nell.

COLORED CHOIR TO SING AT THE COURTHOUSE

The colored choir of the Church of God (colored) at Highland will sing at the courthouse on Sunday, November 24th, at 2 o'clock. Everyone is invited.

A hard game was fought last Friday by Isabella and Marbury football boys. Isabella was defeated 6 to 0.

Come to Maplesville Friday to see the Isabella and Maplesville boys play. Come out and cheer for your team.—School Reporters.

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Phone 10, 9 and 2

Funeral Supplies — Ambulance Service

Flowers for all Occasions

Clanton :—: :—: Alabama

POOR OR

RED CROSS REPORTS BUSY YEAR AIDING DISASTER VICTIMS

Tornadoes, Fires, Hurricanes, Floods, Epidemics, Make Record of Year

The American Red Cross assisted sufferers in more disasters throughout the United States during the year ending June 30, 1935, than through any similar period in the peace-time history of the organization, Admiral Cary T Grayson, chairman, revealed recently in commenting on the annual report which has just been released.

"The 128 domestic disasters in which the Red Cross extended aid during the fiscal year exceeded by 56 per cent the average over the past few years," Admiral Grayson said "Not only was the period heavy in the number of disasters, but the geographical distribution was wide, with 37 States and 353 counties affected.

"Through these disasters and times of community distress, the Red Cross assisted 110,000 persons," the Admiral disclosed.

Spectacular service was rendered in many disasters because of the uniqueness of the problems and the far-flung points affected. The work of the National organization covered in the report carries stories of the Morro Castle burning: the trench-mouth epidemic in the beautiful San Luis Valley of Colorado; the great fight over a wide front in the mid-west dust bowl against respiratory diseases; floods, hurricanes, and tornadoes in many sections of the United States.

In addition to the disasters taking place within the continental limits of this country, Admiral Grayson pointed out that work had been made necessary by disasters in Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines, where 26 disasters were recorded in that archipelago. The American Society also assisted the Red Cross of two foreign countries in caring for victims of floods and earthquakes.

The variation of types of disasters called for expert council on matters relating to health and nutrition as well as epidimic prevention. Last year's work proved the value of the structure and administration of the Red Cross disaster relief, the Admiral said, the very frequency of occurrence and the variety of types constituting a severe test of the organization chartered by Congress to handle this type of National relief.

Expenditures of the Red Cross for relief of persons stricken by disasters within the continental United States amounted to $464,413. In addition, $75,000 was sent to the Philippines to assist them in three major relief operations necessitated by typhoons, $5,000 went to victims of the Indian earthquake, and $5,000 to Poland for victims of severe floods. A number of smaller foreign emergencies called for sums totaling $2,500.

The months of February, March, April, May and June were heaviest for tornado disasters. Floods occurred throughout the year. Serious fires calling for Red Cross assistance took place during July and December. A devastating explosion took place in Tennessee during April. Most of the hurricanes struck States along the east coast during the fall and early winter.

"All of this assistance to persons in distress," Admiral Grayson pointed out, "was only possible through generous contributions made by citizens in all sections of the country."

Most of this support of the disaster relief service comes from the annual Roll Call held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

Local Red Cross Set For Roll Call

Armistice day, November 11, which was last Monday, inaugurated the Annual Red Cross Membership Drive staged each year to give those who know and appreciate the great work being done by this organization in lessening the suffering of humanity over the world an opportunity to contribute to its continuance.

In Chilton County the work was begun with that spirit of enthusiasm expected with J. Mell Martin, as roll call chairman, directing and leading activities. The quota for this county has been set at $300 this year, and Mr. Martin declared that he has no apprehension that our people will be slackers in this, one of the greatest humanitarian movements known to civilization today.

"When you join the Red Cross, you are helping those who need help," Mr. Martin pointed out. During the past year the Red Cross gave relief in 128 disasters, affecting 38 states and the territory in Alaska. The people of Chilton County need no statistics as a guarantee of the type of work done by this organization. Four years, next spring, when the storm swept the northern section of Chilton County, the people here remember who came to their rescue. The Red Cross spent more than $40,000 to alleviate the suffering of those whose homes were wrecked by the winds.

Statistics show that one out of every 20 people will be injured or killed in motor vehicle accidents within the next 5 years, and only one-third of the number of accident fatalities result from automobile accidents.

The Red Cross is perpetually at war against avoidable accidents, educating the people of the country to exercise more care and thus prevent many accidents. But where tragedy stalks, there you will find the Red Cross—administering help.

THRIFT WEEK

AT THE YELLOW FRONT STORE Sat., Nov. 16th Thru Nov. 23d

Finest Granulated 10 lb. SUGAR 53c | Reg. 5c 3 Boxes MATCHES 10c

COFFEE FRESH GROUND REG. 15c QUALITY FRESH ROASTED 10c lb

No. 1 Tall SALOMAR MACKEREL 2 Cans 17c

CHOCOLATE DROPS Louden's Lb. 10c

4 STRAND BROOMS, Each 20c

FAMILY SIZE WASH BOARDS EACH 25c

500 BARS ASST. HEALTH or LEMON SOAP BAR 1c

8 OZ. MACKEREL, Can 5c

AMERICAN EAGLE, 12-16 or 20 GA., 3-4 Dr. Pow. SHOT GUN SHELLS BOX 60c

SALT: 5-lb. Bag 10c; 10-lb Bag 19c; 25-lb Bag 30c; 50-lb Bag 55c; 100-lb Bag 95c

Dry Goods Dept.

8-OZ. FEATHER-PROOF TICKING YD. 20c

Reg. 15c Quality Heavy BATH TOWELS 2 FOR 25c

PLAY CLOTH and Manchester CHAMBRAY 2 Yds. 15c

Men's 15c Quality Solid Color and Fancy DRESS SOX 2 Pr. 25c

Men's Extra Heavy Inner Lined WORK SOX Reg. Price 25c—Pair 15c

Men's Heavy Union SUITS 2 Pr. $1.25 Pair 65c

Solid Color—36-in. Wide LINENE Yard 10c

36-In. FANCY OUTING Heavy Quality—Yd. 12c

27-IN. Fancy Outing Heavy Quality, yd. 7½c

MEN'S PLAIN TOE, TAN or BLACK WORK SHOES Reg. Price $1.98—Pair $1.69

Galvanized TUBS Heavy Quality: No. 1 Size 45c; No. 2 Size 50c; No. 3 Size 60c

YOUR CHOICE EACH 5c
16 OZ. PHILLIPS PORK & BEANS
10½ OZ. SWEET CORN
10½ Oz. LIME BEANS
12½ Oz. KRAUT
15 Oz. HOMINY
10 Oz. CAMPBELL'S TOMATO JUICE

STRAIGHT or ASST. 2 FOR 7c
SMALL PET MILK
HEALTH SOAP
STALEY'S STARCH
5c SALT
BAXTER'S POTTED MEAT
5c BABY RUTH—5c MILKY WAY or All 5c GUM

STRAIGHT or ASST. 2 FOR 9c
Lge. YELLOW ONIONS, 2 LB.
Lge. OCT. SOAP
5c BLK. PEPPER
5c TOMATOES
5c ARGO STARCH

SPECIAL PRICES ON

Groceries & Dry Goods

AT JEMISON

DRY GOODS — CLOTHING — SHOES

Ladies DRESS OXFORDS, Pair $1.95
CHILDREN'S SHOES, Pair $1.10
Men's WORK SHOES, Pair $2.00 to $2.65
Men's DRESS OXFORDS, Pair $1.98 to $2.25
Ladies FULL FASHIONED HOSE, Pair 49c and 69c
Kiddies BLOOMERS, Pair 15c
Ladies JERSEY BLOOMERS, Pair 25c
Ladies Rayon BLOOMERS, Pair 29c
Good Grade WORK SHIRTS, Each 60c
Medium Grade WORK SHIRTS, Each 48c
Regular 5c SCHOOL TABLETS, 3 for 12c
LAMP CHIMNEYS, Each 5c

GROCERY SPECIALS

100-Pound SACK SALT $1.00
50-Lb Sack, 55c — 25-Lb Sack, 35c — 10-Lb Sack, 20c
4-Lb Sack, 10c — Regular 5c Box, 4c
Regular 10c TOMATOES, Per Can 7c

WHITE TULIP FLOUR
24-Pound Sack $1.15

BAKE WHITE FLOUR
24-Pound Sack, Plain $1.00
24-Pound Sack, Self-Rising $1.05

MILADY FLOUR, Self-Rising, 24-Lb Sack 90c
DOROTHY PERKINS FLOUR, 24-Lb Sack Plain $1.00
DOROTHY PERKINS, 24-Lb Sack Self-Rising $1.05
BLUE GRASS FLOUR, 24-Lb Sack S.-R. or Plain 95c
JOHNSON'S BEST FLOUR, 24-Lb Sack $1.10

GOOD GRADE COFFEE, Lb 15; — 2 Lbs 25c
12-Ounce BAKING POWDER, Can 10c
Salmon Style MACKEREL, 3 Cans 25c
LARD — SNOWDRIFT (Saturday Only) 6-lb Pail $1.00
SCOCO SHORTENING, 4-Lb Carton 55c
PURE LARD, 4-Lb Carton 70c

COTTONSEED MEAL (Saturday Only) Sack $1.35
COTTONSEED HULLS, 60c — SHORTS, Sack $1.80

Cobb Brothers

JEMISON, ALABAMA

JURY TO REOPEN SCOTTSBORO CASE

Jackson County Venire For Probe This Week Includes names Of Two Negroes

Scottsboro, Ala.—From its starting point nearly five years ago, "the Scottsboro case" this week has been moved back to Jackson County where a new grand jury tomorrow will again investigate the alleged mass attacks on two white women on March 25, 1931.

The venire of 36 from which the 18-man grand jury will be selected contained the names of two negroes, the first to be called in Jackson Circuit for many years, but whether they will serve is unknown.

Lieut. Gov. Thomas E. Knight, Jr., special prosecutor retained by the State said he would call as many witnesses as necessary, and would ask that true bills be returned against the nine negro defendants charging them with attacking Mrs. Victoria Price and Ruby Bates.

Mrs. Price appeared in all seven trials in the case thus far, but the Bates girl after appearing in the first four here in April, 1931, two years later at Decatur, repudiated her previous testimony. She asserted that she was not molested.

Since her dramatic appearance in the courthouse at Decatur to repudiate her former testimony partially on which eight of the nine were convicted and sentenced to death, she has dropped from sight. Lieut. Gov. Knight said the grand jury would be informed her whereabouts were unknown.

New indictments were made necessary under a decision of the United States Supreme Court last March which in effect sustained defense motions to quash the indictments on constitutional grounds.

The nation's highest tribunal held that there had been "systematic exclusion" of negroes from the grand and trial juries in Jackson and Morgan countes, where the trials were held under a change of venue.

Samuel S. Leibowitz, representing the defendants, in the trials of Haywood Patterson, thrice convicted and sentenced to death, and Clarence Norris, twice under death sentence, had conteded the absence of negroes from jury rolls in the two counties violate their constitutoinal rights.

Snce the decision reversing death sentences for Norris and Patterson the names of negroes have been placed in the jury boxes of most Alabama counties.

REPORT OF CONDITION OF

THE PEOPLES SAVINGS BANK

OF CLANTON, IN THE STATE OF ALABAMA

A Member of the Federal Reserve System, at the close of business on November 1st, 1935

Published in accordance with a call made by the Federal Reserve Bank of this district on a date fixed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Reserve Act.

ASSETS

1. Loans and discounts		$255,830.77
2. Overdrafts		1,360.09
3. United States Government obligations, direct and/or fully guaranteed		35,087.60
4. Other bonds, stocks, and securities		221,946.17
6. Banking house, $10,000.00; Furniture and fixtures, $2,700.00		12,700.00
7. Real estate owned other than banking house		850.00
8. Reserve with Federal Reserve bank		54,548.54
9. Cash in vault and balances with other banks		233,992.82
10. Outside checks and other cash items		18.25
13. Other assets		1,062.50
Total		$817,396.74

LIABILITIES

14. Demand deposits, except U. S. Government deposits, public funds, and deposits of other banks		$328,509.77
15. Time deposits, except postal savings deposits, public funds, and deposits of other banks		221,001.42
16. Public funds of States, counties, school districts, or other subdivisions or municipalities		83,099.31
17. United States Government and postal savings deposits		28,120.00
18. Deposits of other banks, certified and officers' checks outstanding, etc.		53,264.96
Total of Items 14 to 18, Inclusive:
Secured by the pledge of loans and/or investments	$ 41,556.93
Not secured by the pledge of loans and/or investments	677,438.53
Total Deposits	$718,995.46
31. Capital account: Capital notes and debentures:
Common stock 500 shares, par $100.00 per share	$ 50,000.00
Surplus	25,000.00
Undivided profits — net	23,231.84
Reserves for contingencies	169.44
Total Capital Account		$ 98,401.28
Total, Including Capital Account		$817,396.74

MEMORANDUM: LOANS AND INVESTMENTS PLEDGED TO SECURE LIABILITIES

32. United States Government obligations, direct and/or fully guaranteed	32,000.00
33. Other bonds, stocks and securities	10,000.00
35. Total Pledged (excluding rediscounts)	$ 42,000.00
36: Pledged:
Against United States Government and postal savings deposits	30,000.00
Against public funds of States, counties, school districts, or other subdivisions or Municipalities	12,000.00
Total Pledged	$ 42,000.00

I, H. G. Heflin, Cashier, of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

H. G. HEFLIN, Cashier.

Correct.—Attest:—F. J. CALLEN, G. C. HARRIS, N. S. JOHNSON, Directors.

State of Alabama, county of Chilton, ss:

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12 day of November, 1935, and I hereby certify that I am not an officer or director of this bank.—DEWEY BRANCH, Notary Public.

P.-T. A. SPONSORS THREE-RING WILD ANIMAL SHOW COMING TO CLANTON

On Wednesday, November 27th, just about the time most of the people of Clanton are thinking of getting up, the long line of trucks of the Mighty Haag Shows will begin to arrive here, and start work pitching their vast city of tents on the high school base ball park, where they will give two complete performances.

The Haag show this year will bring to Clanton more wild animals, horses, ponies and trained dogs than ever before exhibited. This year the Haag shows are featuring such well known acts as the Tan Araki Japanese Troupe in a new act, Johnson Duo of wire walkers, Zeldo Troupe of head balancers, Fisher family of Acrabats and Haag's herd of performing elephants, largest and best trained in the country, presented by Miss Ruby Fisher, who takes her life in her hands twice daily when she places her head n the mouth of one of the elephants.

There will be a street parade at 1 p.m. followed by a number of free exhibitions on the show grounds. Performances start at 2 p.m. and at 8 p.m., but doors will open one hour earlier so as to give everyone an opportunity, and ample time to visit Haag's big new zoo and be entertained by Haag's Gold Concert Band.

Admission will be at popular prices, and the public is assured of a whole evening of splendid entertainment.

NOTICE!

The Union-Banner is asked to announce that Dr. J. E. Edgar will be out of his office on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 28, 29 and 30th 11-14-2tc

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT VERMONT SCHOOL

There will be a fiddlers convention at Vermont Junior High School on Friday night, November 15th. Prizes will be awarded. Candy, peanuts, drinks and sandwiches will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer of Birmingham are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Middlebrooks. Mrs. Palmer is Mr. Middlebrooks's sister.

IT WORKED FOR ME

Women should take only liquid laxatives

MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation.

Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes any sluggishness or billiousness, your money back.

KENNAMER IN BIRMINGHAM TO CLEAR GRUBB'S DESK

Judge Charles B. Kennamer, of the United States District Court left yesterday for Birmingham to clear from the desk of the late Judge William I Grubb, details of the court's business that have accumulated since the death of the eminent jurist.

The vacancy in the northern district for which Judge Kennemer is also presiding judge will add heavily to the many duties of the Montgomery jurist, until such time as the vacancy has been filled.

For Sale

Have a good well-bred jack for sale. Will trade for cattle or other stock. Can be seen at Charlie Foshee's house. Want to buy horses and mules. Also to buy ear Corn.

L. H. REYNOLDS

Clanton, Alabama

IGINAL

FIDDLER'S CONVENTION TO BE AT VERMONT

There will be a fiddler's convention at Vermont Jr. High school tomorrow night, November 15th, at 7:00 o'clock. All fiddlers are invited to come and compete for the prizes. Candy, peanuts and drinks will be sold. Admission will be 10c and 20c. Remember the time, place and date.

PLEASANT HILL

Health of our community is extra good at this writing.

We are glad to report that our Sunday school is getting better, as we had only a few absentees last Sunday, and we are hoping to have still more to come out next Sunday and take their places and let's get our Sunday school gong in a big way. We also had a large crowd out for B. T. U. Sunday.

Next Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night are our regular preaching dates. We are expecting a wonderful messages at each service, by our pastor, Rev. W. E. Robinson. Let's everybody try to be present and I am sure that we will be greatly blessed.

We would like to thank everyone who helped us in any way to make our box supper a success. It was a grand success.

Next Sunday afternoon is our regular singing time. We invite everyone who can to come and be with us. We especially invite the singers from other churches.

Miss Hazel Blow spent Wednesday with Mrs. O. L. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brasher and children were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blow.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Varden of Chicago spent a while Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Martin.

Misses Central Cost, Dotha and Jessie Cleckler and Mr. Rasmond Sammons and Mr. Hobson Cost spent last Sunday afternoon kodaking at the CCC camp near Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blow spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Littlefield.

Mr. P. M. Cleckler, together with a few others from our community attended the singing at Robinson Springs Sunday afternoon.

Don't forget our week end services. Visitors are always welcome. — Reporter.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over
MAZAR'S STORE

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood
YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.
Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes; feel nervous, miserable—all upset.
Don't delay? Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.
DOAN'S PILLS

VERMONT SCHOOL NEWS

The boys basket ball team played Union Grove boys last Friday afternoon. The score was 14 to 7 in favor of Vermont. The boys are hoping to win many more games throughout the year.

On next Friday afternoon, November 15th, the boys and girls basket ball teams from Coopers will play here. The games will begin at 3:00 o'clock. Everybody come.

Miss Ruth Pardue, Home Demonstration agent, will be at our school Friday, for the purpose of organizing a 4-H club. All who are interested are urged to be present.

The boys and Mr. Hopper have been busy for the past week cleaning off the school grounds.

Miss Tommie Lou Klinner and Miss Adell Scott spent a short while Sunday afternoon with Miss Gladys Sansom.

Misses Eva and Laverne Crane spent Sunday with Miss Williodean, and R. J. Ratliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Davis spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Zula Davis.

All patrons who haven't brought your part of the wood please bring it in now while the weather is suitable.

We are having good attendance, but there is room for improvement. Come on boys and girls, let's put Vermont on the map.

The program last Friday afternoon, rendered by Miss Wallace's room, was enjoyed by all. Mr. Hopper's room will have charge of the program next Friday afternoon. Everybody is invited to come.

Remember the fiddler's convention here next Friday night. Come with plenty of money ready to buy.—Re-Reporter.

Specials For Friday, & Saturday, Nov. 15 and 16
— At These Stores In Clanton —
BEAN and TAYLOR Grocery Co.
TAYLOR GROCERY and MARKET
We Deliver - - - - - - - Phone Us
We Lead — Others Follow

MARKET
4-Lb Pkg. PURE LARD 70c
FANCY GRADE — WEINERS, 2 Lbs 35c
FRANKS, Best Grade, Lb 15c
Pure Pork SAUSAGE, 2 Lbs ..45c
Mixed SAUSAGE, 2 Lbs 35c
Home Sliced BACON, Lb 35c
FANCY CUTS — TENDER STEAK, Lb 15c
Meat for MEAT LOAF, 2 lbs 25c
YOUNG AND TENDER — STEW BEEF, 3 Lbs 25c
End Cut HAMS, Lb 30c
CORN FLAKES OR — POST TOASTIES, 2 for .. 15c
ARMOUR'S 16-OUNCE — PEANUT BUTTER 15c
GRAPE JUICE, Pint Bottle 19c
3-lb pkg MOTHER'S OATS ..25c
1-Lb Box CRACKERS 10c

GOLD LABEL — Baking Powder, 32-oz can 19c
12-Ounce Size, 3 for 25c
KENNEY'S SPECIAL — COFFEE, Pound 15c
WHOLE BEAN — Pure COFFEE, 2 Lbs 25c
Vanilla WAFERS, Lb Box 15c
PURPLE FEATHER — TOILET TISSUE, 5 for 21c
NORTHERN TISSUE, 2 rolls 13c
LUZIANNE COFFEE 100% Good
1 Pound 27c
3 Pounds 80c
CAMPBELL'S — TOMATO SOUP, 3 cans .. 25c
WHOLE GRAIN — COMET RICE, 3-Lb Pkg .. 23c
CALIFORNIA — BLACK EYE PEAS, 3 Lbs 20c
Baby LIMA BEANS, 3 Lbs 25c
TEXAS GROWN — SEED OATS, sack $3.50

PRODUCE
HOME GROWN — TOMATOES, 2 Pounds 9c
LARGE LETTUCE, Head 10c
LARGE STALK CELERY 10c
Firm Green CABBAGE, Lb 3c
No. 1 IRISH POTATOES, 5 lbs 9c
NICE SIZE — SWEET POTATOES, 5 Lbs 8c
Fresh CRANBERRIES, Lb 20c
California GRAPES, 3 Lbs 25c
FANCY — EATING APPLES, Doz. .. 15c
NICE SIZE — Florida ORANGES, Doz. .. 25c
Don't Forget Your Fruit Cake. We Carry a Complete Line of Fruit Cake Material
100-Pound Sack SALT 95c
6 Cans SMALL MILK 20c
3 Cans TALL MILK 20c
PINK SALMON, 2 Tall Cans ..25c

SPECIAL PRICES on FEEDS and FLOUR
PURE WHEAT SHORTS ..$1.85
Jazz 24% DAIRY, 100 lbs $2.10
16 PER CENT — Best Yet Dairy Feed $1.75
BEET PULP, 100-lb sack $2.00
C. S. HULLS, New, Sack 65c
THE RELIABLE — WINNER DAIRY FEED $2.00
C. S. MEAL, New, 8 per cent $1.40
Best Yet Laying MASH $2.50
100-LB SACK — HEN SCRATCH FEED $2.50
Omega Flour 24 lbs $1.25
PLAIN AND SELF RISING — FINEST FLOUR MILLED
24-LB SACK SELF RISING — LIGHT WINGS 85c
NONE BETTER FOR THE MONEY
24-LB SACK SELF RISING — SOUTH DOWN 85c
FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE
PER BARREL $6.50
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — WHITE RING $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S BEST $1.15
HIGHEST QUALITY — BEST FOR BISCUIT AND PASTRY
24-LB SACK, PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S MAID $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — MARY JANE FLOUR $1
EXTRA GOOD — FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE
See Us for Wholesale Prices on Quantity Lots of Flour and Feeds
Dairy and Poultry Feeds of All Kinds—
REMEMBER, FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS: WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS. WE ARE OFFERING YOU QUALITY, PRICE, SERVICE AND CLEANLINESS. WE WELCOME YOU TO MAKE OUR STORE YOUR STORE. COME TO SEE US!
Don't Forget our Prize Contest Each Saturday, at 4 p. m.

SCOPE AND IMPORTANCE OF FARM WOODLANDS

We can more easily understand and appreciate the vastness and economic importance of the woods fire problem in Alabama when we consult recent census figures that show 9,364,810 acres in farm woods or idle land, a total of 48 per cent of the farmers land holdings. Any problem of economic concern in the farm woods is further magnified by the 27 per cent increase shown in farm woodlands from 1930 to 1935, while cultivated crops were showing a 2 per cent decrease. This means that the more than two million acres added to the farms of Alabama something over one and three quarter millions were either added as or converted into woodland.

These facts simply serve to impress upon us that our farm woods problems, including fire, not only can not reach a partial solution by decreased areas, but are increasing along with a large addition in woodland.

There seems to be no other source than the laying out of a program to solve in some measure the major problems connected with this crop which in normal times ranks second only to cotton as a net cash producer on the farm, worth $15,000,000 in gross returns, and which has shown the least fluctuation of any crop down through the years. It is also one hope of holding and utilizing the millions of marginal and submarginal acres offering the greatest threat as an erosion problem.

The perpetuation of tree crops on these acres and certainly the successful economic operation of them will depend on a number of factors of which fire prevention is by far the most important.

No major project affecting half the farmers' land can be ignored or passed lightly by in a rural state like Alabama.

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Jurden of Birmingham were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Kimmey on Sunday.

PLEASANT GROVE
JEMISON

Most everyone around here a feeling very well.

The death angel visited this community last Monday and took from our midst the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Turner. She was formerly Miss Emmarene Dawson, daughter of Mrs. Euel Dawson. It was so sad for the dear baby to have to leave its parents, but we know that God is good and wise and doeth all thing for the best.

On November 7th, there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Franklin, a son, who has been named James Jr. Mother and baby are doing fine.

Mr. Dalton Champion spent Saturday night with his cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dawson and little son, Jimmy.

Mr. Clyde Champion visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dawson Sunday.

Mrs. Clyde Champion was guest of Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion and Mrs. Martha Wilson Sunday.

Mrs. John Davenport and children and Mrs. Hill Campbell and daughters, Willie and Lovena spent Sunday afternoon with the Misses Champion.

Mr. Hill Campbell and sons, Howard, Buford and Donald were guests of their daughter, sister and family Sunday, Mr. and Mrs Johnnie Trott and children, J. T. and Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miskelley had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davenport and children, Robert, Lucille and Lorene, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davenport and children, Bernie and Olis and their son, Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Franklin had as their guests Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Major Foshee and Mr. and Mrs. Sewell.

Messrs. Snders Champion and Lewie Compton were guests of Mr. Albert Morgan Sunday.

Mrs. Lillie Spivey and family had as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Carroll and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Marcus and son, Aldene, were the week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright.

Mrs. J. A. Maddox went to Birmingham last week to Dr. Ledbetter for an examination of her throat. It has been giving her a lot of trouble for a long time.

Miss Dulcie Champion visited her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion Saturday afternoon. She and Mrs. Champion called on Mrs. Roxie Price, who is in ill health.

Mrs. E. C. Davenport spent Monday with her son, Bill.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

POOR OR

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

"How do I feel.... Rotten! why do you ask?"

"Because, you are not yourself!"

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength... you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

WILL SING AT ROBINSON SPRINGS EACH FOURTH SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Mr. Virgil Smith repoorts that a singing was held at the new church, Robinson Springs, last Sunday afternoon, but it was decided that in the future their singing time will be the fourth Sunday afternoon in each month. This change was made so as to avoid conflict with the courthouse singing.

All singers are asked to bear this in mind, and visit the new church when convenient. They will be glad to have you. Mr. Floyd Bailey is chairman of the singing society.

..chest COLDS

THE WAR IS OVER BETWEEN CHEVROLET AND FORD

The Chevrolet has added every improvement necessary to win the battle for 1936.

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman

Phones 120 and 206-J

Clanton

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity. No. 1275.
J. W. Garrett, complainant, vs. Clara Garrett, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Clara Garrett, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 5th day of December, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 4th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER,
11-7-4the Register.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE TO FILE CLAIMS

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Probate Court, Nov. 5, 1935.
In the matter of the Estate of D. O. Manning, Deceased.

Letters testamentary as Co-Executors of the will of D. O. Manning, deceased having been granted to the undersigned on the 5th day of November, 1935, by the Honorable J. Lee Smith, Judge of Probate of said county, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same within the time allowed by law, or the same will be barred.

EMMA MANNING,
CLIFFORD MANNING.
Co-executors of the last will and testament of D. O. Manning, deceased 11-7-3te

REGISTER'S SALE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court in Equity.
Decie Popwell, et al., Complainant, vs. Holland Popwell, et al., Defendant.

By virtue of a decree in the above stated cause rendered on the 4th day of November, 1935, by the Circuit Court in Equity, to satisfy said decree, I will sell to the highest and best bidder for cash, at public sale, at the Courthouse door of said county, between the hours of 11 o'clock a.m., and 4 o'clock p.m., Tuesday the 26th day of November, 1935, the following described property, viz.:

Beginning at a point where the Northern line running East and West of the SE¼ of the SW¼ section 1 township 21 range 14, intersects the East line of the right-of-way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company; and running East along said line 655 feet to a street, 40 feet wide, and 140 yards long, which the grantor in this deed hereby grants, bargains, sells and conveys, and does by these presents grant, bargain, sell and convey and dedicate to the said D. T. Popwell, the above described street to be used by the said D. T. Popwell and wife, Decie Popwell, and all persons, as public streets are used forever, and running thence in a Southeasterly direction along the West side of the said street 420 feet, thence at or near right angles to said street in a Southwesterly direction to the right of way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to a point 705 feet, in a Southeasterly direction from the point of beginning; thence in a Northwesterly direction along the said right of way 705 feet to the point of beginning, lying and being in the SE¼ of the SW¼ section 1 township 21 range 14, Chilton County, Alabama, to be sold for division among the joint owners thereof.

This the 5th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER,
11-7-3te Register.

VERMONT SCHOOL

Our regular weekly meeting was held at the Vermont Junior High school on November 8th. We enjoyed meeting several of our friends that had not been attending. Everyone seems to enjoy these meetings and we appreciate the interest shown by cooperating and making the meetings more successful. You miss something each time you are not there. Let's come out and try to help each other along as Miss Heflin and Mr. Smith are kind enough to come out and tell us something that is worth while. We can't help but be benefited by lessons on how to save if nothing else. So meet with us tonight (November 18th) at 7 o'clock at Vermont.—Reporter.

POPLAR SPRINGS

Our Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. are still doing fine. We have good lessons each Sunday and real good teachers to explain them. If you are not on roll why not be there next Sunday and join. Singing begins at 9 o'clock and will sing until the Sunday school hour at 10 o'clock.

Don't forget the B. Y. P. U. program. We always have good speakers on program. The subject is "Praying for Others." Some of the speakers on the program are Mrs. Smith, Lee Cox, Marie Minor, Grover Rich, Ora Devaughn, Velma Jones and Velma McDowell. Be sure to be there at 6 o'clock. Visitors are always welcome. We welcome your presence. We are glad to have new members, so come and join us.

CHESTNUT GROVE

We are glad to state that the weather is very good here at present.

Mr. J. R. Hall and Mr. G. G. Nabors were in town Friday evening shopping.

We want to thank all that were at our entertainment last Friday night.

Miss Frances Lucas was the guest of Mrs. G. G. Nabors last Saturday night.

Miss Frances Lucas was a guest of Mrs. G. G. Nabors last Saturday night.

Misses Gladys and Clarisse Lucas of Siluria visited their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Lucas, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Little were the guests at Mrs. Nannie C. Moore Sunday evening.

Bro. Horace Nabors delivered an excellent sermon Sunday evening.

The county union meeting will be held here next Saturday, Nov. 15. All are invited to come and be with us. So let us all come and do good and we are sure to get good.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.

Bayer Aspirin

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for November 17

THE RETURN FROM CAPTIVITY

LESSON TEXT—Ezra 1:1-6; Psalm 126:1-6.

GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. Psalm 126:3.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A New Song.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Coming Home Rejoicing.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Making a Fresh Start.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Thanksgiving for God's Care.

I. The Return Predicted (Jer. 29:1-14).

It seems that false prophets were flourishing in Babylon telling the people that they would speedily be restored to their own land. To counteract this the Lord moved Jeremiah to send this letter to the captives in Babylon (vv. 8, 9). In this letter he advised them to settle down and quietly pursue their regular callings of life and not to be led astray by the false prophets (vv. 6, 7).

1. The length of the captivity (v. 10). Their coming back was to be "after seventy years." From Daniel 9:2 it is clear that seventy years means a definite time. It dates from the time when the first company was taken captive, among which Daniel was found.

2. Recovered by God (vv. 10-14). God's purpose in the captivity was to cure them of their idolatrous practices. He assured them that when his purpose was accomplished he would visit them and convince them of his good purpose toward them. Their captivity he would turn away, gather them from all the nations, and bring them into their own land.

II. The Predicted Captivity Fulfilled (Ezra 1:1-6).

1. The proclamation of Cyrus (vv. 1-4).

a. This was not by accident, but that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled (v. 1). What God has promised he will do; he never forgets.

b. By divine initiation (v. 1). "The Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus." How this was done we do not know. Possibly Daniel brought to his attention the prophecy of Isaiah and Jeremiah (Isa. 44:28; Jer. 25:12). Every impulse to do good in all men is caused by the Lord. It may have been that Cyrus only saw his own action as a piece of statecraft—the creation of a buffer nation between his kingdom and that of Egypt.

c. The content of his proclamation (vv. 2-4).

(1) "The Lord God of heaven hath charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem" (v. 2). This makes clear that he had some impression of God's hand upon him.

(2) Appeal to Jewish patriotism (v. 3). He invokes upon such as possess the national religious feeling, the blessing of God, and commands them to go and build the house of the Lord God.

(3) Lend assistance (v. 4). Many of the Jews were established in business and therefore were not free to go. Many, no doubt, had lost their national spirit and therefore did not desire to go. All such were to lend friendly assistance in silver, gold, and beasts.

2. The response to Cyrus' proclamation (vv. 5, 6). The chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and Levites presented themselves as willing and ready to go. The company which returned was largely made up of representatives of Judah and Benjamin.

3. The royal favor (vv. 7-11). Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and put into the house of his gods. Now to have 5,400 of these vessels returned to their owners and sent back to Jerusalem to be put to their original use. met a hearty response by the Jews.

III. The Gladness and Rejoicing of the Returning Exiles (Ps. 126:1-6).

1. The proclamation of Cyrus as a dream (v. 1). They recognized that their going back was through the favor of the Lord.

2. Their laughter and singing (vv. 2, 3). They not only recognized this as the favor of the Lord upon them, but testified thereof in the hearing of the heathen round about them.

3. Their prayer for prosperity in the land (v. 4). They were not only going back with the consciousness of the good hand of the Lord upon them, but were trusting him for fruitfulness of the land.

4. Sowing in tears (vv. 5, 6). The seed which they were to sow in the land was so precious that they seemed to have hesitated as to sowing, and yet they recognized that joy would follow their sorrow as they brought with them the sheaves of the harvest.

Monotony

Whether we are rich or poor, we all have to fight against monotony—doing the same thing over and over until it loses interest.

We can fight monotony with variety, and one way to do this is by making a wise use of leisure. If we wish to avoid the feeling that we are merely machines, we must become interested in many things.

Patience

Patience is bitter, but its fruit swee' —Rousseau.

Mrs. Don Calloway has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Birmingham.

GET-TOGETER AND QUILTING PARTY AT MRS. POPWELL'S

An old-time quilting and get-together party was held at the home of Mrs. Lester Powell, in Walnut Creek comunity, Wednesday of last week. A number of ladies of that and adjoining communities gathered together, and besides having an enjoyable time, seven quilts were quilted out.

At noon dinner was spread on a large table out in the yard. After all had eaten all they wanted, enough food was left to feed the crowd again. There was plenty of good old Winner Brand coffee, country milk and butter. All were convinced and reassured that the country is the best place in the world to live.

Those present were: Mesdames Newitt Easterling, Reese Baker, Leland Easterling, S. V. Miller, Lewis Easterling, Steve Baker, Dalton Bice, Arthur Thompson, Rufus Powell, Dewey Powell, Charlie Duke, Allen Moatts, Isaac Powell, S. J. Powell, Robert Mims, Ed Minor, Johnnie A. Easterling; Misses Ruby Easterling, Leavolah Mims and Mildred Easterling; also Tom Jeff Easterling.

There were a few who had invitations but were not present. They missed a fine time, a good dinner and lots of fun. We all hope to have another such gathering at the same place next year.—Mrs. Dalton Bice.

C. C. H. S. LOSES TO MONTEVALLO, 13-6 ON BREAKS

The Chilton County Tigers lost a hard fought game to Montevallo High last Friday afternoon.

Early in the first quarter Montevallo registered a touchdown, but this did not dishearten our boys. They put up a good fight, and the spirit "hold them to the end" was shown on the faces of every player on our team.

In the second quarter neither team was able to score. In the third quarter, on a beautiful pass from Gillispie to Williamson, registered a touchdown and the score remained 6-7 until late in the fourth quarter when a punt from Williamson was blocked, paving the way for Montevallo's second touchdown.

The local team plays Holtville at Holtville next Friday afternoon, and the following Friday the classic game of the season will be played between Clanton and Isabella. This is a long looked for occasion. Quite a bit of friendly rivalry has arisen between Isabella High and C. C. H. S. This game no doubt will be one of the hardest fought and most hotly contested athletic occasions ever experienced in Clanton. Printed programs will be run off early next week descriptive of this game with names, weight, and positions of players on both sides and posted in prominent places down town for the information of all concerned. These programs will pe paid for by the merchants and businessmen of Clanton. Thank you.

Don't miss Isabella High vs. C. C. H. S., November 22.

NORTH PROFITS BY ALABAMA COAL STRIKE

Birmingham, Ala.—Alabama coal operators after more than six weeks of bitter strife have definitely concluded that their real fight is against gigantic Eastern coal combines using organized miners as a tool to permanently stifle bituminous competition in the soft coal fields.

The threat of permanent extinction of Alabama's basic industry is far more menacing than the walk-out of Alabama miners, is the opinion of coal operators here. Sensing the peril of a permanent shut-down, coal operators are devising ways and means of combatting the agitation of outside interests.

A kaleidoscopic chain of events following the walk-out, gunfire and intimidation of operators has led to disclosure of the subversive methods employed by Eastern operators to close the doors to Alabama coal and throw thousands of unsuspecting miners out of work for all time.

S. S. CONVENTION SUNDAY P.M.

There will be a Sunday school convention of the schools of the Chilton county association next Sunday afternoon, at Center Hill church, 4 miles northwest of Jemison. Services will begin at 2 o'clock. Rev. John Maguire of Montgomery is expected to speak. All Sunday schools of the association are urged to send delegates. —H. D. Durbin, President.

D. V. GOTHARD EXPRESSES MOST SINCERE THANKS

Mr. D. V. Gothard, of Jemison Rte. 1, asks The Union-Banner to express to all those who helped him after his recent burn-out, his sincere thanks. He and his family are very grateful to each and everone who helped. They especially want to mention Mr. W. M. Smith and son, who were so kind to them.

Shivering with Chills Burning with Fever

Sure Relief for Malaria!

Don't try homemade treatments or newfangled remedies! Take that good old Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Soon you will be yourself again, for Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic not only relieves the symptoms of Malaria, but destroys the infection itself.

The tasteless quinine in Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic kills the Malarial infection in the blood while the iron it contains builds up the blood to overcome the effects of the disease and fortify against further attack. The twofold effect is absolutely necessary to the overcoming of Malaria. Besides being a dependable remedy for Malaria, Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is also an excellent tonic of general use. Pleasant to take and absolutely harmless. Safe to give children. Get a bottle today at any drug store. Now two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money.

Cash Specials

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY AT WILLIS STORE — EAST CLANTON

6-Lb BUCKET SNOWDRIFT	$1.05
4-Lb CARTON PURE LARD	76c
1-Lb BOX CRACKERS	10c
2 Cans PINK SALMON	25c
Morning Bracer COFFEE, Lb	16c
Lite Rize FLOUR, 24-Lb Sack	$1.05
Princess Anne FLOUR, 24-lb Sack	$1.20
White Carnation Flour, Pl. or S. R.	$1.05

COME TO SEE US AND LET'S BE FRIENDS

H. E. Willis Store

LAY DAM ROAD — REYNOLDS ADDITION

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT MARS HILL SCHOOLHOUSE

There will be a fiddlers convention at the schoolhouse on Friday night, November 22nd. First, second and third prizes will be awarded. Also an ugly man cake and a cake for the most popular girl. There will be other amusements too. Everyone is invited to come and be with us. Admission 5c and 10c.

SINGING AT MT. CARMEL SUNDAY

On Sunday, afternoon, November 17th, there will be a singing at Mt. Carmel Baptist church. Everyone is invited to come. Also on Wednesday night before Thanksgiving Bro. Bryan of Birmingham will lecture. The public is urged to come and hear this great preacher in his last days.

Concord - Billingsley

Mr. and Mrs Ocie Williams of New Cedron spent Sunday night with their mother, Mrs. Emma Williams.

Miss Lucille Ledbetter spent Monday and Tuesday with her aunt, Mrs. J. P. Williams.

Misses Fannie and Ella Williams spent last Monday afternoon with Mrs. D. H. Missildine.

Mr. Clarence Williams spent the week end with his wife at Adams.

Mr. Clarence Gray and Miss Fannie Gray of Enterprise spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Lillian and Jessie Mae Pierce.

Mr. C. A. Foshee of Texas is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Foshee.

Mr. T. L. Williams visited in this community Friday morning.

Mrs. Esten Knowles and Miss Eula Mae Brown spent Saturday afternoon in Clanton.

Miss Jettie Williams spent the latter part of last week with her aunt, Mrs. W. R. Ledbetter of New Cedron.

Allen Williams is out of school this week on account of having his eyes treated. We hope he will soon be able to return to school.

ITCHING SMARTING CRACKED SKIN BROKEN OUT PEELING SCABBY

For skin troubles—itch, cracking, smarting and scaling—there is nothing like Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. There may be fancier preparations but nothing that will do the work like this famous oil. It not only destroys the parasites that cause many skin troubles but, at the same time, helps heal the sore and damaged skin.

The most stubborn cases of itching and scaling skin that defy every other treatment usually yield to Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. Try it on your itching or broken out skin and see how effective it is. Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil is made by the makers of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and sold by all druggists at 30c and 60c with guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

NOTICE

To any one finding a black purse with about thirteen dollars and a comb in it, will you please return to Mrs. Tommie Maddox, of Thorsby, Alabama, as that was all the money I had and no way of buying groceries for three children and myself. I will gladly reward anyone who is kind enough to return it to me. It was lost somewhere between V. J. Elmore's and Taylor Dry Goods Co. I thank you and may God bless you. —Mrs. Tommie Maddox, Thorsby, Alabama.

Getting Up Nights

If you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Swollen Joints, Dizziness, Headaches, Loss of Pep, Burning, Smarting, Itching Acidity due to functional Kidney or Bladder troubles, try the Doctor's guaranteed prescription Cystex (Siss-tex). Must bring new vitality in 48 hours, and satisfy completely in 8 days or money back. Guaranteed Cystex costs only 3c a dose at druggists.

The Human Element Back of Your Telephone

But for the human element back of your telephone, the millions of dollars worth of telephone equipment in the State would be only so much inactive machinery.

It is the army of telephone workers who give life to the vast network of wires, switchboards and other equipment, making of it one of the State's most used and useful instruments of modern business and social life.

These workers are selected with extreme care as to their fitness for the job and the majority of them have had years of experience and training in their respective lines of work. They are loyal folks, all striving for the same end—that you shall continue to get the best and most dependable service possible at the lowest cost consistent with the financial safety of the business.

Collectively, they and their families form a very large group of substantial citizens, who contribute in many ways to the welfare and support of the State. Their earnings are spent mainly for the necessities of life, in the communities where they work and live. This regular expenditure of money aids materially in the support of merchants and other business institutions throughout the State.

Because their life work in the telephone business is service to the public, it is natural for telephone people to be interested and active in civic, church and other organizations which work for the upbuilding and betterment of the communities in which they live.

The telephone industry is one of the State's largest and most necessary institutions, but its value is not measured alone in money. Of equal importance to the investment in land, buildings and equipment are these loyal people whose lives are dedicated to a necessary public service, which through years of perseverance and labor, they have developed to the present high standard of quality and dependability. These folks are the Telephone Company.

W. A. STEADMAN, Alabama Manager

SOUTHERN BELL Telephone and Telegraph Company INCORPORATED

HILL GROCERY CO

BEST QUALITY
SUGAR
10 Lbs 55c

CAMEO — EXTRA QUALITY
Oleo lb 15c

BEST VEGETABLE LARD Bulk lb 13c 4-lb ctn 55c
PURE LARD 4-lb ctn 69c

WHITE TULIP WHEAT SHORTS, 100-lb Bag $1.75
24 per cent JAZZ DAIRY FEED, 100-lb Bag $1.95

.·.COFFEE.·.
Royal Blend lb 15c -- Fit For a King lb 21c

White Meat Lean & Fat lb 25c

SOAP O.K. Laundry 3-10 1-2 oz Bars 10c

.·.FLOUR.·.
Grandma's Wonder 24-lb Bag $1.10 48-lb Bag $2.15

White Tip 24-lb Bag 99c 48-lb Bag $1.95
Circle "H" 24-lb Bag 89c 48-lb Bag $1.75

Musselman's Apple SAUCE, 3 No. 2 cans 25c
SUNMAID RAISINS, 2-Lb Pkg. 15c
VanCamp's BEANS, 16-oz can ... 5c
Marvin Pitted DATES, 7¼-oz pkg .. 10c
Mother's COCOA, 1-lb can ... 10c
Favorite COCONUT, 1-lb pkg . 20c

WINNER GRITS, 3 lbs Bulk 10c
PEANUT BUTTER, Bama, Bulk, lb ..13½c
PRUNES, Santa Clara, lb 5c
CORN, Olio, Tender Grain, No. 2 can ..10c
PEAS, Our Favorite, No. 303 can 10c
TOMATO JUICE, Stokely's, 23-oz can 10c
SALT, STARCH or MATCHES } Your Choice 3 pkgs 10c

HIGHEST MARKET PRICES PAID FOR CHICKENS

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

The Baptist Ladies Aid Social will meet Thursday aftrenoon at the home of Mrs. S. M. Yates.

The Y. W. A. will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Misses Marie and Inez Jackson.

Circle No. 2 of the W. M. S. met with Mrs. L. M. Jackson Tuesday afternoon.

The monthly business meeting of the B. T. U. will be held Friday night at the Baptist church from 7 to 8:30. All members please be present.

The Sunday school teachers meeting will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. R. Poper.

—•—

A large congregation attended both services at the Baptist church last Sunday. A large attendance was had in Sunday school. All officers of the Sunday school were present. The largest attendance in the man's Bible class for some time.

Rev. J. W. Jones and Mrs. G. F. Harper left Monday afternoon for Troy to attend the State Convention Conference from Tuesday afternoon to Thursday night.

Regular services at the Congregational church on Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45. Worship at 11 o'clock

Christian Endeavor meets in the evening at 6:30. Following this the monthly song service will be held.

The delegates to the state conference at Black Woods church near Headland, were Mrs. J. E. Each, Mrs. J. H. Goddard, Mrs. Berry, Mr. Butler, Miss Lois Rister and Rev. Lawrence Stanley. The conference lasts from Tuesday afternoon to Thursday night.

Choir practice will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock under the direction of Miss Katheryn Foss.

Union Prayer meeting will be held Wednesday evening, 7 o'clock, at the Congregational church. Dewey Robinson will be in charge.

The Boy Scouts will not meet this week.

The Home Demonstration Club will meet on November 20 with Mrs. C. S. Howard. Refreshments will be served and the club will appreciate a nickel or dime from those present to help out the treasury.

—•—

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Marcus, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Marcus and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pate spent Sunday in Clanton with Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Marcus.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard spent Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bean of New Salem community.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Marcus of Kennedy spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Marcus.

Mrs. Akins Collins and Miss Polly Collins spent Thursday in Birmingham.

The Quilting Club meets with Mrs. Delbert Collins on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Helen Lowery of Birmingham spent the week end at home with her parents.

Miss Louise Robinson of Birmingham spent the week end at home.

Mr and Mrs. Ed Howard spent Sunday in Birmingham with friends.

Mr. Kenneth O'Barr made a visit home in Thorsby. He is now working in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Butler had as their guests on Sunday Mr. Clarence Butler and family of Montgomery. This was birthday celebration of Mr. Clarence Butler.

Mr. Jesse Weldon and Miss Mary Wooley of Wilsonville spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

Miss Mary Louise Reinhardt celebrated her eighteenth birthday with a dinner Saturday evening. Those present were: Bobby Minor, Willie Connatser, Ira Martin, Hattie Porter, Jack Goodgame, Linnie Belle Reinhardt and Charles Cleckler.

Miss Theresa Bosworth of Selma spent the weekend with Miss Christine Bosworth.

Miss Agnes Gerald of Guntersville spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Akins Collins had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merchant and children.

Mrs. Janie Sutlive went to Blakely, Georgia, last Wednesday to spend a week or more with relatives there.

Mrs. Evelyn Christ of Benton visited Mrs. Anna Villadsen over the week end.

Mrs. Clyde Lawrence and children and Mrs. Little of Marvel spent Friday with Mrs. E. R. Piper.

Mr. Clifford Johnson is spending a few days at home with his wife and baby.

Rev. and Mrs. Jones, Evelyn and Mrs. Hall were in Birmingham Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jones's nephew, Mr. Pyron.

Miss Dorothy Vaughn Franklin spent the week end at home.

Miss Frances Wilson spent the week end at home.

Miss Virginia Bice of Pamona, Fla., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. T. W. Robinson.

Mrs. Alfonso Sanders and children of Clanton spent the week end with Mrs. Sanders's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lites of St. Louis are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wambem.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lites and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wambem spent Sunday in Birmingham visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Taylor.

We are sorry to hear that little Aubrey Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Franklin, was badly scalded Sunday morning.

Little Joe Villadsen has returned home after spending two weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. T. W. Robinson.

Don't forget the Ladies Guild Bazaar will be held on Saturday, November 7. All members please be preparing for it.

A Thorsby Boy Meets Adm. Richard E. Byrd

Leroy R. Peterson made a trip to Birmingham last week to hear Adm. Byrd lecture on the second Antartic expedition. The lecture was given in the Municipal Auditorium. Over a thousand people attended this lecture. The screen picture of the expedition was shown and Byrd stood before it explaining it and of course adding much of interest to all of the scenes. The lecture was quite long but seemed only a few minutes to Peterson. After the lecture Byrd retired through a rear door but the boys "were on to it" and caught him before he reached his car, pleading for autographs. At last Peterson had his chance and stepped forward and shook hands with him, and managed to have a short interview with him by introducing himself as a brother of Leo Peterson, who served as Byrd's mechanic on his North Pole Expedition. Byrd remembered Leo Peterson and said he was a fine fellow and that he resembered his brother. Peterson found the Admiral a most interesting man and he was one of a few who had the opportunity of talking with hom.

—•—

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bialas and sons, Bobby and Howard, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Anna Thacker of Clanton were Saturday callers on Mrs. J. H. Goddard.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams and daughter, Charlene, and Mrs. J. H. Goddard called on Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Massey of Liberty Hill Community Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. South of Birmingham were Sunday guests of Mrs. G. W. Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Little of Selma spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meade.

Miss Mary Ella Gerald of Andalusia spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Parrish and Billie Anne, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Goodgame and daughter, Verlon, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodgame.

Thorsby Institute News

Friday morning at chapel Miss Elizabeth Glasson, commercial teacher at the Institute, gave a most interesting talk about the traveler and writer Richard Haliburton, and his experiences. Miss Glasson heard him lecture in Birmingham the week before.

Monday morning Armistice Day was observed at chapel. The school sang "America". This was followed by responsive reading, Psalm 86. Dewey Robinson then led in prayer, especially emphasizing the need for peace. After the prayer the girl's chorus sang "The Home Road". Miss Foss then sang "In Flanders Field" and "There's a Long, Long Trail."

Through the kindness of the ladies guild two new rooms are being added to the campus cottage and the living room is being enlarged. Mr. W. L. Leary and Mr. Clyde Meade are doing the work.

A week from Saturday night at 7:30 the annual stunt night by classes will take place. Every one is invited to come and see the stunts. Admission will be ten cents for all not members of the Institute.

—•—

Christian Endeavor News

On Sunday evening, November 10, the Christian Endeavor Society gave a program on the topic "If War Should Come". Following the song and scripture, which were appropriate to the topic, Mr. Stanley gave a stirring talk on "What Shall I Do if War Comes". After this talk various phases of the question were presented by the following members: William Sharp, Juanita Each, Mae Annice Polk, Dwight Stewart, and Lucille Each. The program was planned and conducted by Fred Blankenship.

—•—

Miss Imogene Yates of Selma is spending a while with Miss Sallye Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Moody and little son, Allan, of Birmingham, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mrs. Bill Blood spent Tuesday in Birmingham.

1935 Red Cross Poster Invites Your Membership

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

PORK is really cheaper—not just a special cut but loins, fresh hams, spareribs and sausage. Other meat prices remain about as last week. White eggs are a little cheaper and butter again somewhat higher.

Green beans, barring accidents, should be plentiful and lower priced than in weeks. Spinach and cauliflower are unusually attractive in quality and price. Idaho baking potatoes and sweet potatoes are worthy of special mention.

Apple Week continues with this most popular of fruits available in many varieties at low cost. Grapefruit are taking an important place in the fruit market. Florida oranges are arriving in greater volume and improving quality.

Here are three menus planned to suit graded budgets.

Low Cost Dinner
Shoulder Lamb Chops Baked Potatoes
Creamed Spinach
Bread and Butter
Brown Betty
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner
Roast Pork Grilled Bananas
Baked Yams Buttered Onions
Bread and Butter
Rice Pudding
Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner
Tomato Juice Stuffed Celery
Roast Duck Apple Sauce
Mashed Yams and
Rutabaga Turnips
Green Beans
Rolls and Butter
Baked Caramel Custard
Coffee

Announcing
THE OPENING OF
Evans Variety Store
HANDLING
A Complete Line of Fruits-Candies
MAGAZINES
Good Selection of Toys
Air Rifles and Toy Pistols
Cold Drinks --- Tobaccos
LOCATED
Next Door to Yellow Front Store
Come To See Us
JULIAN EVANS, Manager

G. O. P. Criticizes Works Program

—•—

Washington, Nov. 12.—Asserting the work relief plan encompassed hundreds of "utterly ridiculous and fantastic" projects, the Republican high command today disputed an administration contention that the works program was "all good solid stuff."

In a formal statement, the Republican national committee dubbed the President "Frankly Destructive Roosevelt," openly expressed doubt that reliance could be placed upon his word; and charged that "hundreds upon hundreds of millions of dollars have been frittered away," with 11,000,000 still employed.

As examples of what it termed "boon-doggling" projects the committee presented a list which ranged from researches upon "the love life of the cow" to painting the fire hydrants in Wilmington, Del., and building islands in a Washington State Park lake.

A broadside of sarcasm was fired at the Federal theater project, together with a charge that it was under radical influence and intended to present unproduced plays and rejected manuscripts by a group of writers "regarded by the public as left-wing propagandists."

All this was contained in a printed pamphlet of 14 pages, issued by the Republican committee. To it was attached a brief mimeographed statement, saying it was a reply to assertions yesterday by Harry Hopkins the relief director.

The publication was entitled "Roosevelt the Waster". The Chief Executive, it said, "has devised more useless ways of wasting money than anyone ever before thought of," adding that one of them was "boondoggle."

—•—

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bird are the proud parents of a son born Saturday morning.

Be sure to attend the P.-T. A. dinner Saturday, November 16, at the city hall. The menu will consist of turkey, dressing, rice, gravy, fruit salad, candied yams, cranberry sauce, pie and coffee. All will be for 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson spent last Sunday with Mrs. C. S. Christensen.

HILL'S $4.00 DOLL for $1.98

We have a plan whereby a Genuine "My Darling" $4.00 all-rubber Doll will be given for only $1.98.

Each customer will be furnished a card, and the amount of your purchases will be punched. When you have purchased $5 worth of goods, return the card together with $1.98 and you will get the beautiful $4 Doll.

SEE DOLL ON DISPLAY IN WINDOW

HILL GROCERY CO.
Clanton, Alabama

JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
FOR HAIR AND SCALP
Different from Ordinary Hair Tonics
IT'S A SCALP MEDICINE!
40c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists
Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

Used Cars

—X—

One --- 1935 Chevrolet Sedan in First Class Condition. New Tires

One --- Deluxe Tudor Sedan. First Class Condition. New Tires

One --- 1934 Green Deluxe Tudor Sedan

One --- 1931 Ford Standard Coupe. Rumble Seat. New Tires

One --- 1929 Ford Roadster. New Rubber. Motor Overhauled

One --- 1934 Deluxe Plymouth Coupe. In an O. K. Condition

One --- 1931 Ford Cabriolet. Motor Overhauled. New Paint

One --- 1932 Ford Truck. Closed Cab. New Motor

—X—

We have several other good Cars and will give good allowance on your old car and reasonable terms on balance. It will pay you to see us if you are in the market for a good used Car or Truck

Clanton Motors, Inc.
Ford Dealers Clanton, Ala.

POOR OR

THE
UNION-BANNER
Will Sell During the Next Few Days For
$1.00 A Year
SUBSCRIBE NOW!
This Special Offer Will Not Last Long!

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Tuscaloosa County voted more than five to one for continuing the special three-mill county school tax.

Springdale School, Jefferson County, has purchased a set of Compton's and the World Book Encyclepedias.

Work of constructing a crest gate at Dam No. 17, on the Warrior River above Tuscaloosa, has been launched.

A test of the Chichester deficiency judgment act, passed by the 1935 Legislature, has been started in Mobile Circuit Court.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, United States minister to Denmark, will speak at the Univerity of Alabama Monday, Nov. 25.

Homewood City Council adopted a resolution requesting that Homewood be excluded from provisions of the civil service law.

The 103rd annual meeting of the Alabama Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held in Opelika Nov. 20-21.

With an election on continuing Sunday movies in Anniston set for Dec. 17 proponents and opponents are preparing for a spirited campaign.

More than 200 farm women of 12 Southeast Alabama counties at Auburn outlined a program of work for the remainder of 1935 and for 1936.

Twenty-seven high schools from Walker and Jefferson Counties will be represented a the annual play day to be held at Howard College Nov. 9.

Public Works Administrator Harold L. Ickes has announced a $310,047 PWA grant to Montgomery, to aid in financing a new $688,995 city hall.

The first annual state-wide conference on character and citizenship for high school boys and girls will meet at the University of Alabama on Jan. 3-5.

A man identified as John Watts, of Bessemer, suffered loss of both legs when he was run over by a freight train in the Southern Railway yards at Sheffield.

Birmingham Civic Symphony Orchestra will give a concert on April 15 in Montgomery during the annual convention of the Alabama Federation of Music Clubs.

Miss Celestine Pratt of Mobile was chosen president of the Alabama State Nurses Association and Huntsville was selected the next convention city at the closing session in Mobile.

W. E. Spraggins, Montgomery, assistant state WPA director, was injured when an automobile he was driving ran off the highway, near Lewisburg, and struck a bridge.

Apparently a victim of an automobile accident, Hiram Gann, Marion County farmer, was found dead by the side of the road on U. S. Highway 73, about 10 miles north of Hamilton.

Plans to hold a better housing mortgage clinic in Birmingham within the next few weeks are being laid by Robert Jemison, Jr., state director of the Federal Housing Administration.

Dr. A. Richard Enns, Jr., dean of the Howard College School of Pharmacy, has been appointed to the national committee of Professional Information Pertaining to Dental Pharmacy.

A 77-year old dairy farmer and his wife, 26, were found shot to death on a road near Phenix City, and Sheriff Emmett Holt, of Opelika, said the man had shot the woman and then himself.

Ray Crow, chief engineer for the WPA in Alabama, stated that notification had been received from Washington that the state's allocation of WPA funds (cash money) was to be reduced to $7,844,130..

Additional Works Progress Administration funds were in prospect for Alabama following Compt.-Gen. J. R. McCarl's approval of another list of WPA projects for this state aggregating $3,956,276.

Alabama has dispatched requisition papers to the state of Georgia, asking for the return of Guy Blankenship, Jefferson County parole violator, completing a sentence in the United States Prison in Atlanta.

The Alabama Supreme Court has been requested by Gov. Bibb Graves' office to hand down an advisory opinion on the validity of 1935 legislative acts relating to school finances and the state's proposed $5,000,000 PWA school building program.

The gas plant in Florence, known as the National Utilities Co of Alabama and owned by the National Gas and Electric Corp of New York and Benton Harbor, Mich., has been sold to W. S. Eastep & Co. of Florence. Purchase price was reported as $30,000.

GROVER DONOVAN GONE TO VETERANS HOSPITAL

Grover C. Donovan of Clanton Rte. 5 was carried to the veterans hospital at Tuscaloosa last Sunday by Martin's ambulance.

Mr. Donovan was taken ill with pneumonia on October 25, and has been sick ever since. Complications arising from the seige of pneumonia necessitated his removal to a hospital.

TIES!
TIES!
TIES!

Don't throw away your old soiled and wrinkled Ties. We are prepared to properly dry clean and reshape them free from wrinkles.

ONLY 10c EACH
PROMPT COURTEOUS SERVICE
Just Phone
119
Clanton Laundry
and Cleaning Co.
Clanton, Ala.

Be Safe
WITH CHEVROLET'S NEW PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES
Safeguarding you and your family as you have never been safeguarded before

SOLID STEEL one-piece TURRET TOP
a crown of beauty, a fortress of safety

NO DRAFT VENTILATION ON NEW BODIES BY FISHER
the most beautiful and comfortable bodies ever created for a low-priced car

SHOCKPROOF STEERING*
making driving easier and safer than ever before

CHEVROLET
The Complete Car

New Perfected Hydraulic Brakes—the highest development of the hydraulic brake principle—are standard on all Chevrolet models for 1936. And, like many other important features of the only complete low-priced car, these new brakes are exclusive to Chevrolet in its price range!

They are the smoothest and most efficient brakes ever developed. They give stopping-power altogether new to motoring. They help to make Chevrolet for 1936 the safest motor car ever built.

Visit your nearest Chevrolet dealer. See and drive this new Chevrolet—today!

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN
Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and the new greatly reduced G.M.A.C. 6 per cent time payment plan—the lowest financing cost in G.M.A.C. history. A General Motors Value.

IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*
the smoothest, safest ride of all

HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
giving even better performance with even less gas and oil

ALL THESE FEATURES AT CHEVROLET'S LOW PRICES.. $495

AND UP. List price of New Standard Coupe at Flint, Michigan. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $30 additional. *Knee-Action on Master Models only, $20 additional. Prices quoted in this advertisement are list at Flint, Michigan, and subject to change without notice.

NEW CHEVROLET FOR 1936
Hayes Chevrolet Co.
J. W. (Dick) Hayes — Sales and Service, Clanton, Ala. — M. C. (Jack) Hayes

IGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

Stranger to Old Mammy: "An alligator just swallowed one of your children."

Mammy (calmy filling her pipe): "Well, suh, Ah wouldn't be surprised. Ah was tellin' Rastus las' night sompn mus' be gettin dem kids."

NEWS FROM MAINE

Maine furnishes more news and this time it is not welcomed at Washington. Gross misconduct and irregularities in handling funds are reported against Maine's Emergency Relief Administration. Discoveries suggested the arrest of two at least.

Right away a controversy arose. Should the state or federal government prosecute? Maine officials insist that as federal funds were involved the prosecution should be handled in the federal courts.

The individuals involved were recommended by Governor Brann, the Pine Tree State citizen who first brought that Quoddy project into national prominence in September, 1832.

This affair has settled down to an alphabetical battle, the MERA against the FERA, the Maine Relief Administration against the Federal Emergency Relief Administration.

For the present, Maine is in the lead. Relief funds are still arriving and are administered by those who are under charges by federal officials. On the other hand hints come from Washington that Maine will go in the black list on November 15 if something is not done.

Maine better watch out. That $30,000,000—Army officers even now warn that more than $50,000,000 will be needed for Quoddy—has not yet been expended. And they do whisper in Washington that they no longer worry over "As goes Maine."—Middletown Conn., Press.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

Although the national election is still a year in the future and the Republicans seem not yet to have found a candidate, the experts are already beginning to speculate on the way the campaign will take shape and just what the results will be. Extended straw votes are being taken, to show just which way the political wind is blowing and these can, of course, be interpreted in different ways, according to the hopes and desires of the interpreter, who may be perfectly honest yet handicapped by wearing a pair of rose-tinted glasses.

Just now we are being told that the lineup will be the south and the west against the east, with some terrific battling due in the middle west. We are informed that the processing tax and huge outlays of money have caused the administration to lose popularity in the east, while the AAA program has given the powers at Washington great strength in the south and west where the cotton, the corn, the hogs and the wheat are produced. The President's announcement that he intends to make the AAA a permanent institution has given some of the prophets to believe that he has to all intents and purposes abandoned the "far east" and expects to get his majority in the electoral college in the south and west. The vote of the corn and hog farmers to continue the AAA program, so they believe, will only strengthen the application of this strategy.

One very comprehensive and sound political observer pointed out to the writer not long since that the Democrats start with 135 electoral votes almost certain, those of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. To these, he said, most experts would add the four border states, Kentucky, West Virginia, Maryland and Missouri which have 42 electoral votes. Next would be placed the so-called progressive farm states of the north and northwest, with 92 electoral votes, and all of which are now said to be strongly for the AAA. If President Roosevelt carried all these states he would have 269 electoral votes or three more than enough. Some of these border or western states, however, are apt to go Republican, in which event the President would have to get some votes elsewhere.

Of course the Republicans are no more apt to make a clean sweep in the other groups of states than is the President in the groups mentioned above. Some of these are bound to be uncertain so that several real battlegrounds are sure to develop in the next campaign, principally perhaps in states like Indiana and Illinois.

While it seems plausible that the administration is depending on the south and west for the bulk of its electoral votes, it is by no means to be assumed that Mr. Roosevelt has given up carrying some of the eastern states. That is not his style of playing politics, so we may expect several New Deal olive branches handed out east of the Mississippi river in the next few months. Neither is it to be assumed that the Republicans are going to give up the western and border states without a real struggle. For that reason it seems probable at this time that the GOP nominee for president will come out of the Middle West. This seems sound strategically, just as it is sound that the Republicans open up an active campaign headquarters in Chicago at this early date.

It may well develop into a battle of the west and south against the more populous eastern states, but it is a good bet that neither-er major party is going to surrender any debatable section of America to the other. For that reason the campaign next year promises to be one of the bitterest in the history of the United States. The campaign of 1936 is going to be no place for a molly-coddle and there probably won't be many molly-coddles in strategic positions.

MAINTAIN JUDICIAL POWER

In an enlightening article on the powers delegated to the judiciary of the nation by the Constitution, A. H. Dixon, in the current issue of the National Republic emphasizes that these powers must be retained by the courts if we are to have a free government. In part he says.

"With no constitutional checks upon lawmakers; with no authority to which the people may appeal when their sacred rights have been invaded by insatiate greed, anarchy would reign supreme within a comparatively short time; freedom would be a word of reproach; selfish interests would be knawing at the very vitals of the nation like a pack of hungry wolves; the sacrifices of our fathers would be lost for all time, and the government they founded would die by the onslaughts of its own disappointed people. The saying made across the water more than a hundred years ago, "Popular government in the United States cannot long endure," will come true, and the last, the grandest and most sublime effort of men to found a government where every individual might stand the equal of every other before the law, will perish amid the shrieks and groans of its mangled citizenry, while the autocrats of the Old World and their camp followers in the New, will chant a requiem over the last and final effort at popular government.

"The Constitution is all that any free people could desire in the way of popular government. Its checks and balances are fully adequate to the needs of a free and prosperous people, when properly administered. Every avenue to autocratic rule is closed; the delusive wiles of soap-box philosophy are precluded, and sitting at the portal of freedom for every one is the Supreme Court, guaranteeing equality before the law. What more can sane people ask?

"Because the Supreme Court has done precisely what the Constitution intends that it should do; because it can not be swayed in this way and that, at the behest of those whose selfish interests have blinded them to everything pertaining to the best interests of the people as a whole, its ultimate death has been foresworn by those whom it has refused to favor at the expense of all others.

"Because the Supreme Court guarantees equal rights to all alike—rich, poor high and low—it is now assailed most viciously by some supposedly learned men, men in places of trust in the government even. Because it has carefully directed legislation, both state and national, in keeping with the mandate of the Constitution for the last hundred and fifty years, it is now to be crucified on the cross of public opinion. This seems to have been its only crime: It has stood for the people and the whole people, and in so doing, it has incurred the displeasure of a few who have always placed self before the good of the nation as a whole. For this and this alone, it is to be dethroned by amendment or otherwise.

"Amendments are dangerous things. As every well informed person knows, the Twelfth Amendment was framed and ratified in the interest of the designing politician; the amendments immediately following the Civil War were passed without the consideration that amendments should have; the Sixteenth was passed on the pretext of "taring big business"; the child labor amendment no wbefore the states was pushed thru Congress by a deluded and one-sided crowd. The rice of some of these errors has been tremendous."

POLITICS IN EUROPE

The troubles in Europe and Africa continue. It is very probable that so far as American sentiment is concerned, ninety per cent of the sympathy of the people of this country is with Haile Selassie. This is not just because our people thoroughly understand the politics of the situation. But Ethiopia is comparatively poor, and undrmed as compared with her attacker, and it is traditionally true that Americans always sympathize with the under dog.

This need not blind us to the fact, however, that the sentiment of fully ninety per cent of our people is against our mixing in any war whether it be in Europe or elsewhere.

At this time it would seem likely that the war may be confined to Italy and Ethiopia. Should this situation continue it is not likely that Uncle Sam is in danger of becoming involved. But should other nations, particularly Great Britain, mix in then there will be a terrific barrage of ropaganda to get us into the mess.

At this time, after having failed to sustain League principles in Manchuria and other sections where it was not sufficiently interested, Great Britain is demanding that the League chastise Mussolini for jumping on Ethiopia. This is not because John Bull is particularly anxious about the League or Haile Selassie but for the reason that he thinks British interests in Africa are in danger.

On the other hand, France, which has always demanded support of the League when she feared that her interests in Europe might be affected, now wants the League to soft-pedal and to "lay off" of Mussolini. This for the reason that now her interests lie the other way, and she fears to antagonize Mussolini too much lest she lose a valuable ally. She thinks the League should by all means protect her friends, like Austria and Lithuania, but doesn't care a hang what happens to Ethiopia. Her motives are always purely nationalistic just as are those of Great Britain. She wants only to sustain the League and its sanctions when such action will help her.

But Great Britain in its new-found zeal for the League has put France in an embarrasing situation. France will, however, join Great Britain in enforcing sanctions, if sanctions are enforced, because she is "on the spot" and there is nothing else to do. This is not solely on account of Great Britain. There are other complications. France has a number of small allies in the League and these are sensitive on this Ethiopian question. If the land of Haile Selassie is carved up they do not know but that their turn will come next. Hence they will demand that France stand by sanctions and there is nothing else for France to do. Otherwise she may lose not only the friendship of Great Britain but of some of her small but important allies on the continent.

But France will go along as reluctantly as possible and this means that there will be no general war unless there is some unexpected disaster such as was the blowing up of the battleship Maine in 1898. In case of war Great Britain would expect France to do much of the fighting and France, of course, well realized this. Here is another reason why France is going slow, and few people can blame her.

The European situation is so full of political cros currents that there is but one thing for Uncle Sam to do and that is to keep out of the mess. Ninety per cent of our people, at least, want to do so, and here another case where over a hundred million Americans can't be wrong.

MAN IN THE MOON

BACK TO BUSINESS

After a lapse of several weeks, I can now get back to business and try to make this old column a little more interesting. For the past few weeks I have been all tangled up with the editor of The Chilton County News and haven't had space to write about many items of passing interest. However, that has all been taken care of, and everything is quiet again.

I get a great kick out of squelching that News outfit. They're great sports, but a curious outfit. One thing you must hand to them, though—they know when they are beaten. Now, to be fair and square, I have been told that they have that much on me—that I don't know when I'm beaten. Maybe that is true—maybe I don't know when I'm beaten. But I'll let you in on a little secret. I've always found that if you fight hard enough, you can't be whipped, and although I have seen the time when I felt that I was almost beaten, I always try to fight that much harder. You know, there is a great difference between being beaten and being whipped.

I get another great laugh out of the News bunch, too. Have you ever noticed how brazenly they will blaze out when they think they have something to get worked up over? And have you ever noticed how quick they are to back water when they have their hands called? They will wrap the front page up in editorials for a week or two, but when their shoulders are pinned to the mat, they'll shut up tight, and go back to the regular editorial page and set out writing about soil erosion, or forest fires, or something of the kind.

So, for the next few weeks I'm going to try to forget The News, and try to find something bigger and better to write about. Here goes.

"CITY" OF CLANTON

Since the limits of Clanton have been moved back, and we have had a new census, 'n' everything, the Town of Clanton is no more, but is now The City of Clanton. Clanton is now a booming little city, with her 3,363 inhabitants. And the general appearance of Clanton isn't to be sneezed at, either. Take a look about you, if you haven't already done so, and note just how few reminders of the horse-and-buggy days you see. Not many of the old-fashioned shelters out over the walks, nowadays. And few are the wooden store buildings.

Clanton's business section is nicely paved. I believe we have one of the most competent volunteer fire squads to be found anywhere in a city of the size of Clanton. Clanton's business houses are not old and dusty looking, but clean, sparking and up-to-date, revealing the fact that Clanton's merchants are fully alive and awake. Clanton has one of the nicest county courthouses to be found in the state. The new city hall and post office are creditable additions, too. And if you care to look over the residence sections of Clanton, you will find them above the average—the most of them have beautiful flower gardens, and various other items of natural growth which go to help make of Clanton a most beautiful city.

Various other improvements are on the card for Clanton in the near future, also. Sooner or later all of Clanton's residence section streets will be paved; some of these days the city fathers are going to see fit to fix up a "white way" for Clanton; and maybe—I say maybe—the time isn't so far distant when Clanton may have a little broadcasting station. Wouldn't that be fine—a radio station (even if it had to be a small one) to tell the people of Alabama and the world about "The City of Clanton, in the heart of Alabama"?

But, whatever you do, for the present, don't go near Mayor C. Fenn Jones, or the city hall, and make the mistake of saying something about "the Town of Clanton." If you do, Mr. Jones will certainly put you right. He is right proud of the "City of Clanton", and justly so. He has worked hard and long in this matter, and citizens of Clanton owe him much honor for the commendable job he has done.

FLY IN THE OINTMENT

The Democrats had a nice little fun-poking party spoiled for them a few weeks ago. At that time the Republican headquarters had sent out a national call for wealthy Republicans to contribute to the national Republican campaign fund. Democratic newspapers took up the chance to poke fun at the Republicans. A great time was being enjoyed by all until someone slipped, and the Democratic skeleton got out of the party closet.

Some how, in some way, the news got around that the Democratic Campaign Committee of 1932 still owe something a little less than half a million dollars from the campaign of that year. It was pretty well divided up among the big Democrats, with a few of them holding the bag for good sums. However, there was one item of some $147,000 owing to the American Telegraph and Telephone Company, although the officials of the company have not as yet given notice that they are inclined to do or die for the dear old order of the jackass. In fact, they have intimated, from time to time, that a small payment on account would not be sneezed the public service companies which have been made objects of searching governmental inquiries.

Democratic papers over the country were having a grand time printing cartoons of the Republican elephant standing on a corner with his tin cup and "I am blind" singing and begging for help. That all stopped, however, when the Democratic debt story got out, and Republican popers began printing their cartoons of the aetmster cracking his whip over the Democratic mule and telling him to stop laughing and balking and take up his load where he laid it down.

Funny thing about that, too. The Chilton County News didn't have a thing to say about that $447,000 Democratic debt, although they have said numbers of times that it is their intention to give the dear people all the news. We wonder why!

IS THE TIDE TURNING?

Just after the Democratic landslide in 1932 I heard many people say such things as this: "The Republican party is dead. It never can overcome this beating." But let's take a look nowadays, just a little over three years after.

Officials who have had a big hand in the affairs of the nation under Democratic rule are condemning the present regime for its lack of effectiveness. Democratic senators and representatives have been bold enough to stand in the congressional chambers and denounce the administration's policies and activities. Democratic governors who still have enough backbone to think and act for themselves and the upright principles they have been taught to respect are rebelling at the prospect of having to kiss a political toe just for the sake of being known as "good Democrats". Democratic newspapers, too have joined in the hue and cry, of late, against the mass of mistaken ideas, bad policies, and general bad judgment and mismanagement in the nation's affairs.

True, Republicans have pointed out these defects right along, but their squawks have been discounted in some degree as partisianship, but there surely MUST be something wrong, when Democrats, themselves, rise up against the method by which things are being carried on. Getting away from officials, the elections that have been held from time to time since the big lardslide have given a perfect picture of public opinion, as it hung for a while, wavered, then began to turn back to the Republican party. The Democrats, themselves, admit that there has been some falling away. They admit, too, that there is not much to expect from a third party, and so there is nothing to do but go back and hope for help from the Republicans. Various elections throughout the country this year show a faster and faster return to the Republican ranks. Especially is this true in the eastern states, the most of which supported Mr. Roosevelt in a big way in 1932.

Oh no, the Republican party is not dead. It is coming back bigger and better than ever. And one of the biggest helps to it's cause is the very inability of Democratic officials to plan sensibly and work effectively. The guy who said: "Whoever picked the jackass as the emblem of the Democratic party certainly knew his oats", wasn't so dumb in the head, himself.—Man in the Moon.

IT TAXES MY PATIENCE

When you light the evening lamp
  You pay a tax.
When you buy a postage stamp
  You pay a tax.
When you buy the baby clothes,
When you read the morning news,
When you buy a pair of shoes.
  You pay a tax.

When you watch the screen girl wink
  You pay a tax.
For the water that you drink
  You pay a tax.
When you smoke a cigarette,
For the dinner that you get,
For the beautiful coquette,
  You pay a tax.
When you buy an ice cream cone,
  You pay a tax.
When you buy a small soup bone,
  You pay a tax.
When you buy a loaf of bread,
When the doctor says you're dead,
And the final prayers are said,
  You pay a tax.

—Exchange.

TWO DAYS TO GOVERNMENT

Already government is absorbing $1.30 of every $3 of America's income. This means that you and I, the people of this country have to work between two and two and one-half days every week solely to support government and taxeaters. And still heavier levies, especially by the federal government, confront us. Before long, judging by federal expenditures and mounting debts, we may have to toil three days a week to keep tax-leviers going. History reveals that powerful nations have invariably been ruined by mounting tax burdens. No nation ever spent as much money as America is spending today to maintain its federal and local governments. How much further can we go into debt, how much further can we go in governmental expenditures, without inviting ruinous hardships?—Forbes Magazine.

WHAT'S IN A MIDDLE NAME?

The thing that is going to beat Franklin Delano Roosevelt a year from November is that Delano. Only one man with a middle name has even been re-elected to the presidency. Ulysses Simpson Grant survived his handicap, but Herbert Clark Hoover couldn't nor could Warren Gamaliel Harding, James Knox Polk, John Quincy Adams, Rutherford Birchard Hayes, William Howard Taft and others.

John Calvin Coolidge and Thomas Woodrow Wilson beat the game by dropping their first names. Perhaps some of the others did also, but the two-term presidents appear in the records as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Grover Cleveland, William McKinley, James Madison and James Monroe.

So get down a bet now that Franklin Delano Roosevelt will not be re-elected. The odds should be better than ten to one.—Letter to New York Herald-Tribune.

GOVERNOR TALMADGE, POET

In case you didn't get that very effective little bit of rhyme Governor Talmadge, of Georgia, quoted in his recent Board of Trade address, here it is:

"I thank my God the sun and moon
  Are both stuck up so high
That no presumptious hand can stretch
  And pluck them from the sky.
If they were not, I do believe
  That some reforming ass
Would recommend to take them down
  And light the world with gas."—Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch.

THE AAA ELECTION

From the first to last the cards were stacked in favor of the program. Tons and tons of government literature flooded the agricultural regions, all demanding approval of the AAA and predicting calamity if it had to be abandoned. More than a hundred thousand Federal agents acted as campaign spellbinders and watched the polls. Last Friday, on the eve of election, the President himself issued a statement calculated to convert the few farmers who might be wavering in their loyalty to the scheme. All that the producers heard was propaganda. Not one word was said to them about the great decline in the use of pork by the American housewife, of the decline of American exports and of the largely increased imports from Canada. It was never even suggested to them that the time could easily come when the markets upon which they depend for a livng might approach the vanishing point.

If the Administration finds any deep significance in this decision by a few hundred thousand farmers, it is more easily satisfied than most persons thought. In any event, it will do well to keep its enthusiasm to itself. The great mass of the people is not being fooled. It knows that the Government has sold the nation a gold-brick and is now trying to justify the act.—Boston Transcript.

Wonder why John Bull thinks it is so much more important to stand by the League now than it was when Manchuria was invaded?

Out in Texas they call bootleg oil "Hot Oil". Up in Maine will they call bootleg potatoes "Hot Potatoes"?

Price of meat being what it is, calling a fellow a big "ham" now-a-days is a compliment.—Kansas City Kansas.

In moonshine districts, where the whiskey looks like water and is drunk like water, strange ideas prevail as to what intoxication really is. In a village one Sunday afternoon a man lay in the broiling sun in the middle of the road with an empty bottle by his side.

"He's dunk; lock him up," the sheriff said. But a woman interposed hastily.

"No, he ain't drunk," she said, "I jest seen his fingers move."

After the supply of pigs is regulated it is said the AAA is going to start in paying the American biscuit companies for making fewer animal crackers.

It is said that in Los Angeles they put skid chains on the thermometer so that the official temperature won't get too high or too low.

It is said that fourteen inches of snow fell at Walla Walla early in October. That sounds lige a good place to have it.

Freedom, social justice, religion. We used to think pretty highly of all three only a short while back. Nowadays we rate it smart to speak of all three as outmoded and obsolete. But they aren't; and in our saner moods we know they aren't. Some day we'll demand to have them back again, and the world will become again the better world that it used to be.—Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch.

Two old maids were in an insane asylum for years, always knitting and knitting.

"Gee," sighed Mayme one day, "I wish some tall, handsome man would wind his arms around me and squeeze me until I gasp."

"Now you're talking sense," from Jayne. "You'll be out of here in a few days."

It is said to be 125 degrees in the shade where the Italians and Ethiopians are fighting. This doesn't sound so good now, but when the thermometer in America gets down to ten below zero it may stimulate enlistments for the African campaign.

Lord Churchill says that the Italian invasion of Africa is really the fault of Adolph Hitler. We are surprised but relieved to find this out. We have been afraid they would pin it on Uncle Sam, and ask him to pay the cost of "restoring peace."

An exchange remarks that Detroit has boycotted western meat and wonders what would happen if the westerners boycotted Detroit automobiles. Our guess is that the Westerners might soon have money in the bank.

It is said that the government is planning for a referendum among those on the dole and will ask them to vote on the proposition to give them bigger relief checks to be delivered to the front doorsteps with the milk.

Remember the old fashioned man who was innocent enough to believe the Italians when they said they couldn't raise a penny to pay on their two billion war debt to the United States

A Kansas farmer whose cow died of an apparently mysterious malady found that the animal had a huge mud ball in her stomach. Maybe she was plowed under and tried to eat her way out.

A girl may wear a golf outfit when she can't play golf, a bathing suit when she can't swim, and a riding habit when she goes hiking, but when she puts on a wedding gown, she means business.

An old timer is a chap that can remember away back when a nickel sack of animal crackers almost beat Christmas.—Macon Telegraph.

Now they are debunking Hoolywood and one of the debunkers says that Mae West only weighs 116 pounds. Maybe so, but she certainly knows how to use it when she struts.

It is said that a hundred million bushels of wheat will be imported to the United States this year is what is called finding foreign markets for the American farmer—in reverse gear.

A Washington youth says he netted $5,000 five years farming, starting with only sixteen pigs. Yes, but how many did he get paid for not raising.

When a man tells his wife the same things he told her before marriage it means either that he is in love with her or that he has a good memory.

Four more years of the full dinner pail has been hopelessly outmoded as a campaign slogan. Now it is four years of a full gas tank.

President Roosevelt says "we have come through stormy seas into fair weather." Wonder where he gets that "we"?

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of November 10, 1910

Chilton County went Democratic last Tuesday, with probably one exception, Marion Foshee seems to have won over H. M. Simpson for Circuit Clerk.

In Hatchet Creek news such names are mentioned as: Mrs. Mollie Fulmer, Herbert Carden, Edward Lanier, Larke White, John White, Miss Mary Lyle Lawson, Misses Dixie and Lula Smith.

A boys corn club is being organized in Chilton County by Prof. O. B. Martin. Other teachers of the county are co-operating.

Dr. Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, is looming in politics, now being at the head of the Democratic party in New Jersey.

Tom Teel, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Teel is very ill with typhoid fever.

Frank Foshee fell from his wagon and broke his arm last week.

Mr. Clifford Baker is very low with typhoid fever.

Mrs. E. E. Upchurch is very ill with typhoid fever.

Married this week—Will Rhodes and Miss Lena Cleckler, Clarence Shaw and Miss Ruth Smith, C. L. Dennis and Miss Terris Etta Jones, Matthew Roper and Miss May Baker, Claude W. Bolds and Miss Fanny Mims, O. D. Hardy and Miss Malissa James, P. McAllister and Miss Alma Blackmon.

POOR OR

here's VALUE and STYLE GOES WITH IT

Specials In PIECE Goods

36-Inch BROADCLOTH Solid Colors. Yard 10c

DRESS PRINTS, Guaranteed Fast Colors. Yard 10c

Standard 27-Inch OUTING Yard Only 8c

36-Inch SHEETING Medium Weight. Yard 6c

DRESS GINGHAMS

We have One Lot of Regular 12½c Value Gingham

Special priced yd 8c

Ladies Knitted Suits-$5.95 to $8.95

WOOLEN PIECE GOODS

39-in. Widths .. $1.00

54-in. Widths $1.49 and $1.79

MEN'S OVERCOATS

We were fortunate in buying a limited number of Man's Overcoats at a Special Price; and we pass this advantage on to our Customers. These Coats are New Stock, made of heavy All-Wool Material, well tailored, and a good buy at $12.50.

Our Special Price $7.95

BOOT-SOCKS

HEAVY WEIGHT

Pair 25c

WE CLOTHE THE WHOLE FAMILY

SEASONABLE GOODS --- PRICED RIGHT

CURLEE SUITS

The prices are no higher, although the manufacturers have advanced their prices. Now is the time to buy.

Men's Leather Coats

Men's Leatherette, Genuine Sheep-Lined COATS. Extra Heavy and good quality. $5.50 Values for only $3.98

Boys Heavy Weight All-Wool ZIPPER JACKETS

Sizes 6 to 16

$1.95 and $2.25

TAYLOR DRY GOODS COMPANY

The Big Department Store On Main Street --- Clanton

SOCIETY

Circle No. 2 of Baptist W. M. U. Meet

Members of Circle No. 2 of the Baptist W. M. U. met with Mrs. J. P. Hayes Monday at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. S. J. Ezell gave the mission lesson which was most interesting. Mrs. Hayes served hot chocolate and cookies to her guests, who were Mrs. P. D. Wilson, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. J. W. Hayes, Mrs. P. M. Moore, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. S. J. Ezell, Mrs. Henry Burnett, Mrs. W. Z. Hodges, and Miss Bettie Mullins.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones of Montgomery spent the week end here with Mrs. Willie Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wade and little daughter, Margaret, of Leeds, Ala., spent Monday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Wade.

Mrs. Morris Nunn of Prattville spent Sunday here with her husband at the home of Mrs. Reeves.

Mrs. B. L. Jones and son, Jack, are in Atlanta where they are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Melborn Hope.

Mrs. Irvin Wilson entertained Circle No. 2 of the Methodist church. A most interesting program was given and most delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Broadhead, Mrs. Middlebrooks, Mrs. Deloach, Mrs. Marion Gore, Mrs. Diefenderfer, Mrs. J. Q. Wade, Mrs. Lewis Reynolds, Mrs. Will Reynolds, Mrs. Vernie Teel, Mrs. Irvin Wilson, and Mrs. Gene Evans.

P.-T. A. Meets at Grammar School

The Clanton Grammar school P.-T. A. held its regular monthly meeting at the school on last Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. W. Hayes, president. The members voted to work for the subscription prize of $200.00 to be given by The Chilton County News.

The next meeting will be held at the Methodist church. This will be "Father's Night," and all mothers and fathers interested in the school are urged to be present. In the half holiday contest the fathers will count two.

The program for the afternoon was on health. Dr. J. M. Kimmey, county health officer, gave a most interesting talk on "The Summer Round Up" and "Contigious Diseases."

Several piano selections were enjoyed. The fifth grade had the greatest number of mothers present and won the half holiday.

The next meeting will be the second Friday night in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Reynolds and children, Mrs. D. C. Alreda spent last Tuesday in Birmingham

Mrs. Warrene Farrior, who has been working with the W. P. A. in Montgomery for several weeks, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Spigener. Mrs. Farrior left Monday for Shelby county where she will assist with the W.P.A. work in that county for several weeks.

Mr. Florris Harris of Ashland, Ala., spent the week end here with his family.

Miss Ada Holcombe spent the week end at her home in Calera.

The many friends of the McCain boys will regret to know that the three of them are ill with chicken-pox.

Miss Sue Prather of Rockford will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Geo. McCain this winter. She is taking a business course from Mrs. Alexander.

Mrs. L. F. Gerald Hostess to Thursday Club

Members of the Thursday contract club were entertained last week by Mrs. L. F. Gerald. The home was effectively decorated in autumn flowers. Two tables were arranged for bridge. After a series of games Mrs. Arthur Johnson held high score and was awarded club prize. Mrs. John Armstrong was awarded guest prize.

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served the following members: Mrs. J. Hance Aired, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Mack Wyatt, Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. John Deramus.

Miss Mary Heard of Decatur, Ala., is here with her father, Mr. Victor Heard.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Edgar and Mrs. Annie Mullins spent the week end in Tuscaloosa with relatives. Mrs. Mullins remained in Tuscaloosa for a few weeks visit.

Mr. Ruben Reynolds of Birmingham spent Monday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds.

Mr. Little from Memphis was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hogan on Saturday.

Mrs. W. W. Wingard and Mrs. D. A. Wingard spent Saturday and Sunday in Columbiana with their mother, Mrs. Crumpton, who returned with them to Clanton.

Chester Wingard motored to Birmingham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Plier are here visiting Mr. Plier's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Godwin spent Sunday afternoon with their relatives in Prattville.

Miss Kittye Clyde Austin of Montgomery spent several hours here Saturday enroute to Anniston, Ala.

Mr. Clarence Evans of Corinth, Miss., was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Gene Evans, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston, Sr., of Tuskeegee spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston, Jr.

USED CARS THAT PLEASE

Night driving is hard work. You must KNOW your car —what it will do. Our USED CARS are thoroughly tested and mechanically perfect before offered for sale. Come in. Terms.

1931—Chevrolet Coach ..	$265	1930—Chevrolet Coach ..	$135
1932—Chevrolet Sedan ..	$335	1930—Chevrolet Coach ..	$165
1931—Ford Coupe	$260	1930—Chevrolet Coach ...	$145
1934 Chevrolet Coach ...	$435	1933—Chevrolet Truck ..	$385
1934—Chevrolet Sedan ..	$465	1929—Chevrolet Sedan	$75

Let Us Give You a PRICE

You don't have to worry about the work we do. It's checked again and again. Try us. Note the difference.

HAYES Chevrolet Co.

Dick Hayes Jack Hayes

Clanton, Ala.

Presenting new style while retaining the identifying characteristics of its predecessors, the 1936 Oldsmobiles were announced today. The car shown is a six cylinder four door touring sedan. The die cast radiator grille lends a new note of beauty to Oldsmobile's 1936 front end treatment.

Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt and her sister, Lady Furness arrive in Los Angeles. Rumors are they will open a style salon in the film capitol.

TINY VAMPS—Trying their sex appeal at a very young age. Babies trying to look their best during the judging at a recent baby contest.

Oldsmobile offers in 1936 a luggage compartment in the rear of the car which provides ample space for carrying a large number of suitcases or packages. Here is one young lady demonstrating how the compartment may be used in doing the family shopping.

Gail Patrick, film star, has just introduced this new coiffure. It is shown from three attractive angles.

This photograph shows Emperor Haile Selassie with members of his family. Left to right—front, the Emperor's granddaughter, the Empress of Ethiopia; the Emperor's grandson and the Emperor. In the rear are—left to right, the Emperor's youngest daughter; the Crown Prince; the Emperor's eldest daughter; the Emperor's son-in-law; the Emperor's daughter-in-law; the Emperor's third daughter and the Emperor's youngest son.

IGINAL

CENTER HILL NEWS

Brother Maurice Hodgens filled his regular appointments here Sunday and Sunday night. Both sermons were very inspiring.

Miss Nolen Meroney and a friend of hers were visitors at the morning services, also Mr. Charlie Sims of Birmingham and Mr. Jack Sims who is in service with the government, stationed at New Orleans, La.

One of our members, Mr. J. N. Scott was present both Sunday and Sunday night. We are always glad to welcome visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sims spent Sunday with Mr. Sims' brother, Mr. J. A. Sims of Jemison Sunday.

Miss Mildred Cobb is back from the hospital, but still confined to her bed.

Miss Oleen Miller was the spend the day guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Cobb Sunday.

Mr. James Gentry was brought home from Clanton hospital last Wednesday but was carried to birmingham Sunday by his sister, Mrs. Bob Trowls (who nursed him while he was in Clanton) to take treatment at hospitals there.

Mr. Maurice Hodgens and Lafayette Walker spent Saturday night with Mr. Leo Collum.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gillispie spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cobb and family.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. J. E. Cobb and daughter, Mable are both sick. We missed them so much from services Sunday.

Those present for a spend the day occasion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb Sunday were Mrs. Webb's sisters, Ruthie, Margaret and Catherine Ellison of South Calera; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Killingswarth, Mr. and Mrs. Dock Sims and Mr. Tom Sims and little son.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cobb called on Mrs. J. E. Cobb and family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Price returned to Birmingham Friday afternoon wfith her son, Euel and wife and stayed until Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray visited Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ray Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ray Sunday night.

Everybody in this community extend the greatest sympathy to Mr. Sam Edwards on the loss of his barn and two mules, about 400 bushels of corn, 40 gallons of syrup, 100 bales of hay and some peas and peanuts. Mr. Edwards was burned very badly about the face, head and hands trying to save his mules. Logs have already been cut and put to the mill for rebuilding the barn.

On next Sunday morning Brother Durbin, County Sunday school president, will be with us in our Sunday school and in the afternoon there is to be a Sunday school association here of the northern district. Every Sunday school in this district should send delegates and everybody come that possibly can.

Imogene Cobb spent Sunday with Sara Mae and Dorothy Lee Collum.

Mr. J. E. Cobb spent Monday in Clanton.—Reporter.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

WADE GROCERY - MARKET TO CELEBRATE OPENING

The new Wade Grocery and Market are celebrating their opening with an array of special bargains for Friday and Saturday. This high Class dispensary of groceries and meats is located between Hill's and Clanton Junior Department Store, and is equipped to carry on one of the most complete businesses of this kind in this section. They really have a pretty place.

Turn to their large adv. elsewhere in this issue of The Union-Banner and see what they are offering for this week end.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upshurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

F. H. A. FORMS DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

On the night of November 4, there was held at the Jemison High school Vocational Department, a meeting of delegates from the following schools with the purpose of forming a district organization of Future Farmers of America: Columbiana, Centreville, Billingsley, Clanton, Isabella and Jemison.

The following officers were elected: President, Horace Kendrick; vice president, Zolon Broadhead; secretary, Rudolph Minor; treasurer, Bert Snead; Reporter, C. W. Wells; advisor, J. P. Montgomery.

Several committees were apointed by the newly elected president. Program of Work Committee: Zolon Broadhead, chairman, Dave Griffin, Obie Thompson and Bill Gaines. Constitutional committee: Zolon Broadhead, chairman, Joseph Northcutt, George Stacey, and Calloway Hubbard. Program committee: Zolon Broadhead, chairman, George Kaiser, Willard Davenport and Clyde Headley. Social committee, C. W. Wells, chairman, Howard Martin, Delphin Popwell, J. Reed Thompson. Publicity committee: C. W. Wells, chairman, Hobson Cost, Charles E. Robinson and Louis Kellum.

The publicity committee has decided that one of our objectives shall be to sponsor several radio programs during the year. The delegates decided that we should hold our meetings on the first Monday in each school month. Our next meeting will be held at Clanton, December 2.

The meeting was adjourned after the appointment of various committees. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Lacy Newell, assisted by her Home Economics pupils—C. W. Wells, Reporter.

Misses Jane and Helen Roberts of Huntingdon college were home for the week end.

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upshurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

Stunning
VALUES
In Ladies Winter
COATS

— Models Embracing Every Fashion Detail That Spells Winter Chic! Smart Sleeves —Neatly Belted— Luxurious Fur Collers.

One Lot Navy, Brown and Black; Action Back or Pole Style—Special $5.16

Beautifully Tailored Basket Weave Tree Bark, Action Back —A Favorite Style This Fall. Special This Sale $9.16

DRESSES

One Lot Silk Dresses in Friendly Crepes, Ruff Crepes, Triple Sheers, Etc. in all Winter Shades. Amazing Values at $6.16

LADIES' RAIN COATS — Sport Styles, All Colors $3.16

CHILDREN'S RAIN COATS Special at $2.16

The LEADER

REFUGE NEWS

Just a few met with us for Sunday school Sunday. Probably our poor attendance was caused by the threatening weather and other things, but we hope to see everyone back next Sunday. Next Saturday an Sunday are our regular preaching days and we want everyone, in a reasonable distance, to be here. Preaching at 11:00 on Saturday and at 3:00 on Sunday. Sunday school at the regular hour Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Connell and little grandson spent Sunday afternoon and night with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mims of Coopers.

Mrs. M. Lockhart and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mims Sunday.

Bro. M. Lockhart is in Troy this week attending the State Baptist Convention.

Mrs. A. N. Mims is on the sick list. We hope she is able to be with us again soon.

Bro. Paul Oden will be at this place on Thursday night of this week to show his stereopticon pictures on the Life of Paul as recorded in the Book of Acts. These pictures are very educational and every one who can should see them. Don't forget the date and lets have the house full.

Farmers Allowed To Adjust Debts

A renewed effort to secure the names of Chilton County farmers who have been unable to adjust their debts with creditors will be started at once, it was announced today by H. D. Lee, District Farm Debt Adjustment Specialist, Resettlement Adminstration, who has just completed conference with the members of the county farm debt adjustment committee.

The Chilton county committee members, which were appointed by the Governor in 1934 when the debt adjustment work was first begun by the Farm Credit Administration, consists of E. R. Piper, D. I. DeRamus and C. D. Foshee. Bringing debtors and credieors together for friendly adjustment of overdue accounts to avoid bankruptcy or foreclosure proceedings, this commttee will continue the program through which many settlements have been arranged in the last year.

This committee is not a lending agency, neither does it cancel or pay debts but it does adjust debts representing the debtor and creditor in a friendly advisory way to bring about adjustments upon the basis of, "The Ability of The Debtor to Repay." Anyone desiring the help or consideration of this committee may contact either of the above named men or make applicaton at the County Agent's office. The services of this committee is voluntary with no expense to debtor or creditor and they will be glad to serve you at any time.

FLOYD NEWS

I want to announce that next Sunday afternoon is our regular singing date. We hope to have a large crowd of good singers. Everybody come. The singing starts at 2:00 o'clock. When you singers come to Floyd church next Sunday, don't think you have come to the wrong place, for you will hardly know the place.

Everybody enjoyed Rev. Bonnett's sermon the first Sunday night at this place. We hope he will preach for us again sometime.

CONTINUING THE LEADER'S
16th ANNIVERSARY SALE

Right in the Heart of Winter Buying We Are Continuing Our Sale to Give You the Advantage of These Low Prices at the Time You'll Have to do Your Heavy Buying of Winter Merchandise.

We urge you to Buy Now, as we believe "Ole Man Winter" Is About to Make His Appearance to be with us for some time, and to Buy Now Means a Nice Saving to You.

Extra Specials

Men's Heavy Weight UNION SUITS — 75c Quality 55c
MEN'S WORK SOX Pair 5c
Men's Genuine LEATHER CAPS — $1.25 Quality for 94c
Men's Heavy Fleece-Lined JUMPERS — Full Cut $1.35
MEN'S PULL-OVER SWEATERS 44c
Men's and Boys' Heavy Zipper JACKETS (Navy Blue Only) — Special $1.79
Men's 22½ Weight Pepperell Denim OVERALLS; Two Bib Pockets; Full and Roomy 79c
Lee and Polly Brand OVERALLS $1.19
Boys' Khaki and Denim PANTS; Small Sizes Only 44c
Men's Covert Cloth Work Shirts, Triple Stitched, 2 pockets, full cut; in Gray, Brown, Tan or Blue 39c
Men's First Quality Fancy DRESS SOX — Pair 8c

Piece Goods

36-Inch Blue CHEVIOTS —Per Yard 10c
PLAY CLOTH, Best Grade; Fast Colors, 15c Value at 12½c
8-OZ. FEATHER TICK; Guaranteed Feather Proof, Yard 22c
All Silk FLAT CREPE —Yard 48c
Fast Color PRINTS, Yard Wide, 15c Quality, Yard 10c
36-IN. BROADCLOTH —All Colors — Yard 10c
QUILT ROLLS That Will Please You; Going at only 19c
Reg. 5c SCHOOL TABLETS Anniversary Special, 2 for 5c
60x70 SINGLE PLAID BLANKETS 49c
66x80 Part Wool PLAID DOUBLE BLANKETS $1.79
Ladies' Cotton HOSE — Black and Brown, Pair 8c

THE LEADER

Men's Hats
ONE LOT MEN'S HATS; Broken Sizes and Colors; All Silk Lined; Worth up to $1.95 94c

TH

MEN'S SUITS
ONE LOT MEN'S SUITS; Values up to $12.95; Carried Over from last season; Most All Sizes; While They Last $4.96
100 Men's High Grade SUITS — All Sizes and Colors; Every Suit All Wool New Material; $15.00 Values for $11.16
100 BOYS' FINE SUITS in Blues, Browns and Other Patterns; All Sizes; $6.95 Values for $4.16

SHOES
500 Pairs Men's Fine Dress Oxfords; Black and Brown, Wide or Narrow Toes; Crease or Cap Toes; Leather or Composition Soles; Sizes 6 to 11; Values up to $2.45 for $1.69
500 Pairs Boys' and Children's SHOES Composition Soles; Sizes 6 to 2; former price $1.25, Now 86c

200 PAIRS MEN'S HIGH GRADE WORK SHOES —All Sizes; $1.98 Values for $1.49
250 PAIRS WOMEN'S DRESS OXFORDS; Broken Lots and Sizes; New Stock; Low or High Heels; To Be Cleaned Out at the Low Price of Only $1.00
All Women's and Girls WORK or SCHOOL OXFORDS; Star Brand All-Leather Shoes; Never Sold Before for Less Than $1.95; Special This Sale $1.74

East View News

Last Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. Rev. Marion Dopson delivered a fine sermon Saturday, Sunday and Sunday night. Our Sunday school was slendid. Our Christian Endeavor met again Sunday night also. We reorganized last Wednesday night and will meet every Sunday night. We want both young and old to come and be with us in this. Our Lades Aid Society Will meet again Thursday afternoon, November 21 at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Keener Wells were the guests of their son, Mr. Oscar Wells, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gray sent Sunday with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Nelson.

Miss Vera Rushing was the guest of Miss Maudiree Traywick Sunday.

Mr. Lee Nelson from Tallassee visited Mr. Kermit Gray this week end.

Mrs. Oscar Wells visited Mrs. Mary Culver Wednesday.

Miss Sybil Ray and Mrs. Ida Belle Culpepper visited Mr. and Mrs. Alphus Dobbs last week.

Mr. Kermit Gray made a trip to Tallassee last week and was the guest of Mr. Lee Nelson at Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Nelson visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lett at Verbena a while Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Nelson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith Sunday.

Rev. Marion Dopson was the guest of Mr. Oscar Wells Saturday; of Mr. Levis Strength Saturday night, and of Mr. J. W. Nelson Sunday.

Billingsley News

Rev. Grady Williams delivered two tist church last Sunday morning and very interesting sermons at the Bapevening.

Miss Bertha Dennis spent the week end n Clanton with her arents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dennis.

Mr. Dock Bamburg has returned after on extended visit with his mother at Centreville.

Mr. H. D. Greason of Jones visited friends in our town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harrel and little daughter, Vaubie Maud, Mrs. Ada Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson and Mr. J. W. Pattillo attended the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church which was held at Cox Chapel last Sunday.

Mr. Hopson Deramus has returned after spending a week with relatives in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ealen Gray of Birmingham spent the past week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Gray.

Mrs. Lula Robinson of Tallassee is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Culp.

The many friends of Mr. Kelly Davis will be glad to know that he is rapidly improving.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

Dr. Middlebrooks will preach his last sermons for this conference year next Sunday morning and evening. It is expected that the church membership will attend in large numbers to hear these last messages. On Wednesday he will go to Opelika where the sessions of the Alabama Conference will be held beginning Wednesday night and closing Sunday. He has been called to meet the Board of Education of which he is a member at Opelika at 2:30 Wednesday.

Last Wednesday night at the "Jubilee Night" program the year's work was briefly reviewed, showing that substantial gains have been made during the year. A large class has been received into the church; training and vacation schools have been held; attendance in all departments of the church has had a marked increase, especially in the church school; several of the class rooms have been made more attractive with new esuipment; the payment for pastor, presiding elder, benevolences and district work is much larger than last year, an increase of as much as fifty and one hundred per cent in some phases of the work; the young people's work has been reorganized; the prayer meeting has been reinstated since early summer months with growing attendance reaching more than twenty-fice at the last meeting. The pastor will have an excellent report to make when Bishop Sam R. Hay, next week, calls for the report of the Clanton church.

Monday night of this week the newly elected Board of Christian Education was organized for the new conference year. D. W. Waite was elected chairman; V. J. Elmore was elected vice chairman; and Mrs. Otto Jones was elected secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board are: the pastor, Mrs. L. J. Stewart, J. T. Searcy, L. C. Warr, Vernie Teel, Mrs. A. E. Middlebrooks, Miss Grace Plyler.

MISS DOROTHY WAITE SELECTED AS BRIDESMAID AT COLLEGE

Blue Mountain, Miss. Nov. 12.—Miss Dorothy Waite of Clanton, Alabama, will be one of the bridesmaids in the Junior-Freshman wedding to be held at Blue Mountain College, November 18th.

ROBINSON SPRINGS

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. We have prayer meeting every Sunday night. Our regular meeting days are on the third Saturday and Sunday. We had a singing class to meet with us the second Sunday evening. Mr. Virgil Smith was elected chairman of the singing. Directors were Mr. Posey Cleckler, Mr. Ami Boswell, Mr. O. C. Bennett, Mrs. Guy Ula Murray, Mr. D. F. Bailey. Organist were Mr. Ami Boswell, Mrs. Ula Murray and Mrs. Rita Martin. The class will meet with us every fourth Sunday at 1:30 p.m. Every body is invited to come and bring the new books. Every one is always welcome at Robinson Springs.

Rev. M. C. Henley, Rev. Wesley, Mr. Wade and Mr. Newton of Thomasville, Ala., were the guests of Rev. Henley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henley, Friday night of last week. He and his family visited relatives here about four weeks ago for a few days. Bro. Henley will continue his work on the Clark circuit where he has been pastor of three churches for the past two years.

COLORED INK POOR OR

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

1936 FARM OUTLOOK GOOD, SAYS BUREAU

Auburn, Ala.—The present "upward trend" in farm income will continue in 1936 predicts the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, which expresses belief that the income available for farm family living will be the best since 1919.

"The demand for farm products in 1936 is likely to be greater than in 1935. Consumer buying power in the United States is likely to be increased in 1936. buying power of consumers in many foreign countries also is likely to increase," says the Bureau.

Improvements in farm family well-being, it is stated, are indicated by the decrease in the number of farm-on relief, only two-thirds as many ng reported in October, 1935, as in same month of 1936.

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

STATE FARMERS WARNED ABOUT COTTON VARITIES

Auburn, Ala.—Farmers planning to grow a new variety of cotton next year should get the real facts about the variety before buying the seed, advises officials of the State Experiment Station and Extension Service.

Growers are likely to suffer a heavy loss unless they do obtain the real truth about the cotton seed, they advise.

The safest guide for farmers in buying cotton seed is the cotton variety tests of the Alabama Experiment Station. All best known varieties are tested year after year on the principal soils of the State by well-trained, experienced men. These tests remove the "guess' in selecting a suitable variety of cotton.

The results of this year's findings will be made available within the next few weeks. In the meantime, farmers desiring to purchase seed should advise with their county agents who have the results obtained in tests conducted over a period of years.

POULTRY OUTLOOK GOOD FOR NEXT SIX MONTHS

Auburn, Ala.—Relatively short supplies and high prices for poultry are in prospect the remainder of this year and the first half of next, says the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in its annual outlook report.

Eggs, however, will increase in supply and decline in price during this period. There will be an increased hatch of young chicks in the spring of 1936. Prices of both poultry and eggs will decline in the latter half of the year.

CLUB BOYS AND GIRLS OFFERED SCHOLARSHIPS

Auburn, Ala.—Twenty Alabama 4-H club boys and girls will be given $5 and $10 scholarships to the state short course here next year, report T. A. Sims and Elizabeth Delony, state 4-H club leaders.

Winners in an essay contest will be awarded these scholarships. "We will probably start this contest about January 1, closing it April 1, and announcing the winners by May 1," say the club leaders.

WAYS TO INCREASE POULTRY PROFITS

Auburn, Ala.—Poultrymen and farmers will increase their profits by giving their poultry special attention during November, advises John E. Ivey, extension poultry specialist, in listing the following 7 November poultry suggestions:

1. Put your birds in comfortable laying houses, properly ventilated, having the north, east, and west walls closed to keep out the cold, winter winds.

2. Keep plenty of dry mash before the birds all of the time. Allow two 6-foot hoppers for each 100 birds.

3. Feed mash, moistened with milk at noon time.

4. Keep accurate records of what your flock is doing, as a guide for future management.

5. Be sure that lice and mites are controlled.

6. If round or tape worms are present and birds are not in satirfactory production, treat the flock for same.

7. Use morning or all night lights to stimulate feed consumption.

FIVE POINT HOG PROGRAM GIVEN

Auburn, Ala.—By following a simple 5-point program, Alabama farmers can profitably market surplus corn by feding it to hogs, says F. W. Burns, extension livestock specialist, who offers the following suggestions:

1. Select only thrifty, well-developed pigs as feeders.

2. If possible, keep pigs on green fede, such as rye or oats, during the entire feeding period.

3. Keep a mineral mixture (equal parts by weight) of charcoal, slacked lime, and salt before the hogs at all times.

4. Equal parts by weight of 60 per cent tankage and cottonseed meal should be kept in a self-feeder or fed at the rate of ½ pound per pig per day, in addition to all the corn they will clean up twice daily.

5. Shade, shelter, and fresh clean water should be available at all times.

OLD-TIME SINGING AT COOPER 1st SUNDAY P.M.

There will be singing in the old books at Cooper schoolhouse the first Sunday afternoon in December. All singers and lovers of the old-time music are invited to attend.—J. W. Smith.

Mrs. M. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Elliot and Miss Lucile Elliott spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Waite.

MAPLE SPRINGS

Saturday and Sunday were our preaching days, though our pastor being ill and could not fill his regular appointment, we did not have preaching Saturday night nor Sunday. We are sorry to hear our pastor is sick. The church wishes for him a quick recovery and hopes he will be back with us on our next preaching days.

A goodly number met for Sunday school last Sunday. We were glad to see so many out and were glad to have the visitors with us. Come back to see us.

Mrs. Oliver Glenn, Mrs. Elmer Rollan, Mrs. Velma Davis and Mrs. Reuben Devaughn attended the bride's shower given in honor of Mrs. Oliver Mims and Mrs. Barney Hull, at the home of Mrs. Elbert Bowles in the Eastview community Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker and children spent a while Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn.

Aldridge - Mims

Of interest to a wide circle of friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Davis Aldridge, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Aldridge, of Mt. Pisgah community, to Tom Mims, son of Mrs. Cora Mims, of this community Saturday night. The wedding was quietly solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Davis in the presence of several of their friends, with the Rev. Davis performing the ceremony. Their many friends wish for them much success and a long and happy life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Devaughn and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn, Mr. Phillip Brown and Coolidge Devaughn, Misses Elsie and Lera Glenn gave Mrs. Velma Davis a corn shucking last Friday night.

Mr. R. J. Downs and family had as their Sunday afternoon guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker and children.

Mr. Chester Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn and Mrs. Velma Davis spent a few hours last Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mims from Coopers spent last week here with Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jones and children.

Mr. Tom Miller and sons, Bonnie and Jerrell, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs last Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Tucker and little daughter, Dorothy, spent a while last Thursday with Mrs. W. F. Glenn.

Messrs. T. F. Patterson and son were in this community last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Bonnie Miller spent last Wednesday night and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs.

Mr. Wiley Jones spent a while Wednesday night with Mr. W. F. Glenn.

Mrs. Velma Davis spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Little Betty Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Watkins, is very sick at this writing, with cold.

Mr. W. F. Glenn visited Mr. Calvin Glenn and family of Coopers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mims and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Vinson from Montgomery were visiting in this community Sunday.

Mr. Jerrell Miller spent a while Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Downs.

Mrs. Lee Rollan spent a while Friday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. Lewis Wright.

Mrs. Alphus Downs spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs. Julia Scarbrough.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell and children spent a while Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn and children.

Misses Mary and Thelma Wilson spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Alma Driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tucker have moved to Enterprise community. We regret seeing them go.

Mr. Ottis Glenn motored to Gulledge's camp Friday night.

JEMISON F. F. A. - F. H. A. NEWS

The F. F. A. and F. H. A. of Jemison High School are sponsoring an oyster and chicken supper at the high school on November 15, 1935, from 5 to 8 o'clock p.m.. The cost of each oyster or chicken plate is 25c, stew 15c, cake 5c, cocoa or coffee, 5c.

The public is cordially urged to attend. The proceeds will be given to assist in equipping convalescent homes for crippled children of Alabama. These homes are possible only with outside help, since the funds for equipment and furnishing them cannot be supplied from the state appropriations. Fortunately, buildings have been offered by kind hearted people, but these buildings must be equipped.

There are 9,000 crippled children in Alabama. There were only 158 crippled children treated last year. At present there are 744 crippled children on record and there are many more not on record. Without these homes there will be only a limited number of children who can receive hospitalization. With the homes they can be readily removed from the hospitals and treated theren, freeing the hospital beds for other children. After the homes are equipped that piece of work will be permanent.

Come to the Jemison High school, enjoy the supper and at the same time help the crippled children. Every effort is being made to give the public an appetizing supper and wholesome recreation.

GAME AND FISH NEWS

Montgomery, Ala.—A survey of game conditions in Alabama by the field staff of the State Conservation Department revealed most wildlife species to be holding their own and, in some instances, to be on the increase.

Deer and turkeys were found to be multiplying; Bobwhites, while showing no great increase, are more plentiful than last year; doves and ducks are a bit late this fall due to the mildness of the weather; squirrels may be found where food is plentiful, while bears, foxes, o'posums and racoons are fairly abundant in their native haunts.

Hardware Prices
--- AT ---
"THE NEW HARDWARE STORE"

No. 2 LAMP CHIMNEY, Each 5c
WHITE CEDAR BUCKETS, Each 49c
No. 3 TUBS, Each 64c
10-Qt Galvanized BUCKETS, Each 15c
WINCHESTER SHELLS, Box 59c
22 SHORT CARTRIDGES, Box 14c
Kelly Double Blade AXE, Handled .. $1.75
RAZOR BLADES, 5 for 5c
STOVE PIPE, 6-Inch, Each 14c

Murray-Bell Hardware Co.
"THE NEW HARDWARE STORE"
Clanton - - - - - - - - - Alabama

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala.—Joseph Moore, student at the University of Alabama from Clanton, has been selected a member of the University Glee Club. Only 56 members were selected. They will make several trips during the year.

A gala celebration marked the annual home-coming day at the University of Alabama last week end. Hundreds of alumni were on the campus for the occasion. Gaily decorated fraternity and sorority houses contributed to the event, which was set in motion Friday night with a huge bonfire and pep rally, followed by a fireworks exhibition in Denny stadium. On Saturady, which was official home-coming day, there was a dress parade of the R. O. T. C. brigade reviewed by Governor Bibb Graves. Mrs. Graves spoke before a convocation of all women students later in the day.

Southern cotton manufacturers in 1933 consumed 82.9 percent of all native American raw cotton, it is shown by a recent statistical study analyzed in an article by Paul Schatz, graduate student in the school of Commerce, and published in the November 1 issue of the Alabama Business News. New England cotton mills during the same period used only 14 per cent of the nations cotton output, however, the cotton industry in the south was considerably less strongly affected by depression than were those in other sections.

HIGHLAND NEWS

The health of this community is very good at present. We are very thankful for this.

Our Sunday school attendance was very small Sunday, but we urge that all come back next Sunday.

Miss Ruby Weldon returned home Saturday night after a visit with her relatives.

Miss Frances Baker was the week end guest of Miss Gladys Wyatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Eual Martin spent a while Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Armstrong.

Mrs. Elsie Martin spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Lena Armstrong last Wednesday.

Miss Gladys Wyatt spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. R. C. Lockhart.

Mrs. R. C. Lockhart and children spent Friday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wyatt.

Mrs. Jack Sisk and daughter, Pauline and Gladys Wyatt visited Mrs. Harry Roper Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Rush Baker visited Mrs. Jeff Waites Wednesday afternoon.

Everybody remember that Next Sunday afternoon is our regular singing time. We invite all singers and lovers of music to come and be with us.

MT. SPRINGS NEWS

Our church met in conference Wednesday night, November 6th, and elected Rev. L. L. Stanley of Thorsby for our pastor for the coming year. Rev. Stanley was on program for our home coming day and every one present seemed to enjoy his sermon.

We feel that we are going to be well pleased with our new pastor. Our former pastor, Rev. A. C. Nelson, and family left last Saturday for their new field at Headland, Alabama.

With reluctance we give him up to the new field. We are sure he will be greatly missed by his many friends in the county.

Since Mr. Stanley can not be with us on the 3rd Sunday morning the hour has been set for 2:30 in the afternoon, and at 6:45 in the evening. Everyone is cordially invited to come and bring some one with you.

When Little People Wash Their Faces Voluntarily . . .

THAT'S NEWS!

WE DON'T claim to have the complete answer to the problem of keeping children clean, but we do say that having hot water ready ALL THE TIME—the way you have it with an automatic ELECTRIC Water Heater — will make a world of difference. Frequently the children will solve the cleanliness problem themselves.

★ ★ ★

Automatic ELECTRIC hot water saves time and eliminates annoyance dozens of times a day, with dishwashing, laundering, house-cleaning and baths all needing hot water. (The cost is only a few cents a day at the most—a small price for making cleanliness so easy.)

★ ★ ★

Electric Water Heaters—like Electric Ranges and Electric Refrigerators—may be bought for only a modest amount "down," the balance payable on the popular ECONOMY PURCHASE PLAN.

Buy from an Electrical Merchant or

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electrify Now—Electricity is CHEAP in Alabama

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14
Madge Evans and Robert Young in
"CALM YOURSELF"
COMEDY—"You Bring The Ducks"

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15
Peter Lerre and Frances Drake in
"MAD LOVE"
COMEDY—"Bum Voyage"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT, NOV. 16
Black King in "GUNNERS AND GUNS"
COMEDY—"Bum Voyage"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18 and 19
Clarke Gable, Jean Harlow and Wallace Beery in
"CHINA SEAS"
COMEDY—"Chases of Pimple Street"

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20
Geo. Brent and Bette Davis in
"SPECIAL AGENT"
COMEDY—"Mr. and Mrs. Melody"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—J. F. Callen, Nov. 14; Cary Ester Glenn, Nov. 17; Mrs. Herschel Lowery, Nov. 18; Mr. Herschel Lowery, Nov. 19; Mrs. Hiram Littlejohn, Nov. 18; Lois Hilyer, Rte. 1, Nov. 18; Mary Goodwin Jones, Nov. 16; Bill Simpson, Nov. 18; Miss Ruth Hand, Rte. 1, Nov. 19; Mrs. Ruby Warlick, Nov. 20; Sidney Reynolds, Nov. 17; James Deramus, Nov. 17; Jack Armstrong, Nov. 19; Omar Reynolds, Nov. 14; Agnes Powell, Nov. 18; Mrs. Ethel Giles, Nov. 16; Mr. Irwin Meyer Lande, Nov. 16; Willodene Smith, Rte. 5, Nov. 18; Gertie Gore, Rte. 5, Nov. 16; Milford Gore, Rte. 5, Nov. 16; Ruth H. Jones, Nov. 17; Mrs. Horsley White, Nov. 14; Elsie Martin, Nov. 14; Mrs. J. M. Grant, Rte. 2, ov. 15; Miss Leila Grant, Rte. 2, Nov. 15; Mrs. J. E. Gore, Nov. 18; Lawrence E. Williams, Rte. 3, Nov. 17; VERBENA—Clarence Gray, Nov. 16; Margaret Robinson, Nov. 14; LAY DAM—H. B. Deal, Nov. 14; JEMISON—Martha Hayes, Rte. 1, Nov. 18; MITCHELL DAM— Mrs. A. B. Stanley, Nov. 16; MAPLESVILLE—O. T. Nichols, Nov. 17; Frances Brown Gulledge, Nov. 15; THORSBY—Nell Littlejohn, Rte. 1, Nov. 18; Elder Thornton, Rte. 1, Nov. 16.

IGINAL TORN PAGE

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Registrars of Chilton County, Alabama, in accordance with the general Registration laws of Alabama, will hold sessions for the purpose of registering all citizens, qualified under the law to register, at the following Beats, places and dates in said county, to-wit:

Beat No. 4—Thursday, Nov. 14, Friday, Nov. 15, Saturday, Nov. 16.

Beat No. 13—Providence, Monday, Nov. 18.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 9—Thorsby, Wednesday, Nov. 20, Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Beat No. 10—Cooper, Thursday, Nov. 21.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Monday, Dec. 16, Tuesday, Dec. 17, Wednesday, Dec. 18, Thursday, Dec. 19.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Thursday, Dec. 26, Friday, Dec. 27, Saturday, Dec. 28, Monday, Dec. 30, Tuesday, Dec. 31.

No one can register except in his or her own precinct and at the court house in Clanton, Alabama.

This the 7th day of October, 1935.

J. Monroe Parrish, J. T. Thompson, W. W. Wingard, Members of Board of Registrars.

CHILTON PEOPLE ARE HEALTHY

Chilton County people must certainly be a healthy lot. Each Monday morning we get out and visit both the Spigener Funeral Home and J. Mell Martin & Sons, for reports on deaths in the county during the past week.

Last Monday morning we followed the usual custom, and inquired. Neither of them had a death to report. And for three weeks, now, the story has been the same every Monday Morning, with one exception. So far we are able to learn there has been only one death in the county in the past three weeks. We believe that is some kind of a record.

666 Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops

Checks COLDS and FEVER First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

HUNTERS, TAKE WARNING

Notice is hereby given that there will be no hunting of quail or other game on property of Mary C. and S. L. Gibson in Chilton county during the bird season of 1935 and 1936.

Clanton hunters, take warning. We are trying to conserve our bird crop this year, and trespassers will be prosecuted.—S. L. Gibson 2 ch.

FOR SALE—Seed cane, P. O. J. and Ribbon cane at 50c per 100; and 500 stalks C. P. 807, at 75c per 100 stalks. One first class farm mule, 1,050 lbs; age 10 years.—Harland Adams, Rte. 1, Verbena, Ala., near Enterprise School. 10-31-3tp

WANT TO TRADE—1928 Model Hudson pick-up truck in good condition for good mule, not over 10 years of age. Apply to Marion Ellison, near Jackson Chapel, Rte. 5. 10-29-3p

PIANO FOR SALE—High grade baby Grande for sale at a special price for immediate sale. Your old piano or radio will be accepted as part payment.—Write O. L. Baskette, 403, 20th St., Birmingham, Ala. 11-7-3t-c.

COTTON SEED FOR SALE—Wannamaker's Wonder, Dixie Triumph, and Wiltresistant Strain 2.—H. Wilson, Rte. 2, Jemison, Ala. 11-7-3p

FOR SALE—40 acres of land, 35 in cultivation. In Temple community, about 3 miles southeast of Clanton. If interested apply at Union Banner office.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Alred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

FOR SALE—20, 40, or 50 acres of land 3-room house and barn; 20 for $550; 40 for $8.50; and 50 for $1,000. This price is cash.—J. H. Jackson Clanton, Route 1, one half mile east of Lomax. 10-31-3tpd

FOR SALE—9 acres of land, 2 miles north of Clanton; has 4-room house and good well of water, has electric pump and electric lights.—R. E. Jones, Clanton Rte. 5. 11-7-3p

FOR SALE—155 acres, known as the Weldon Cove on Coosa River. Three houses and outbuildings, about 45 acres in cultivation, good roads, backwater frontage ¾ mile.—Lawrence Littleton, Route 5, Clanton. 14-3tp

FOR SALE—Jersey Milch cow, heavy milker, young calf. See Jack Mims, Clanton Cash Store. 1tp.

WAGON FOR SALE—2-horse wagon, in good condition.—See Arthur Tipett, 1½ miles east of Clanton on Higgins Ferry road.

TIMBER FOR SALE—About 200 acres of original virgin pine timber, long leaf, short leaf and oak, located 5 miles northwest of Clanton. Interested parties may apply to Mrs. Henry Cleckler or L. C. Cleckler, Clanton, Alabama, Route 5, Box 79. 11-14-3tpd.

JUNK AUTO PARTS—I have a good line of junk or used auto parts. Most anything you need. We buy and sell or will repair. Come to see us.—Ray Glenn, West End, Clanton, Alabama. 1tc.

FOR SALE—Silkie chickens, 100 pheasants, 1400 egg electric incubator, 3,200 chick brooder; a house lot and other property in West Clanton.—Dr. V. J. Gragg.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Bids for foundations for the Negro low cost housing project in Birmingham will be opened in Washington Dec. 2.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, United States minister to Denmark, will lecture before the Gadsden Woman's Club Nov 25.

Morton Spruiell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Melvin Spruiell, of Leeds, has been appointed an assistant professor at Ohio State University.

By a vote of 511 to 63 the Gadsden City Commission was authorized to issue $220,000 in bonds for school construction and improvements.

Montgomery, which claims to have operated the first electric street car in the world, is considering discarding trolley system for motor buses.

Work has been started on a new high school stadium at Russellville to cost $7,000. It is being supervised by the Works Progress Administration.

A bequest of more than $20,000 to the school of law at the University of Alabama was included in the will of the late Judge Robert C. Brickell, Huntsville.

The Royal Ambassadors, youth organization sponsored by the Alabama Women's Missionary Union, will hold its annual conclave at Howard College Nov. 15-17.

Roy Johnson, Jefferson County tax assessor, has announced he would be a candidate for Congress against Rep. George Huddleston in next year's Democratic primary.

Foes of a sales tax have formally opened a state-wide war against such a levy, which is expected to be proposed at a special session of the Legislature next January.

Tarrant City's application for a PWA loan and grant for construction of a power distribution system has been approved and the allocation ordered by Secretary Harold Ickes.

Contest of the will of the late Miss Unity Doney, prominent and wealthy Decatur woman, has been set for hearing in the equity division of Circuit Court at Decatur Nov. 21.

Florence State Teachers College has built a comprehensive program around the chosen subject, "The School and Democracy," for observance of National Education Week, Nov. 11-17.

The Gadsden Police Department is making a drive against defective auto and truck brakes. Motorcycle officers will arrest drivers whose vehicles failed to comply with the brake law.

Signs placed on the outskirts of cities and towns in Alabama to tell tourists what municipality they are approaching probably will become a reality within the next few weeks.

Establishment of the first health unit ever to operate in Henry County has been agreed upon by the County Commission. The proposed health unit will need $1,500 for its first year's operations.

Gov. Bibb Graves has offered a $250 reward for the capture and conviction of Tate Haden, 42, wanted in Blount County on a charge of murder in the death of an infant Aug. 1 near Sumit.

Ten students from Bessemer High School form the first full delegation to register for the first annual state wide conference of high school boys and girls on Jan. 4-6 at the University of Alabama.

The state of Alabama collected $29,889,397 in taxes for the fiscal year ending Oct. 1, a gain of more than $2,000,000 over the previous year, and ended the year with a net cash balance of $757,068.64 on hand.

Because attendance has dwindled, Homer E. Williams, Lauderdale County superintendent of education, has decided to discontinue the two-teacher school at Romine, four miles north east of Rogersville.

A. H. Collins, Alabama public welfare commissioner, advised all county welfare directors to begin taking old age pension applications immediately and to complete "roundup" surveys of eligibles before Dec. 10.

Cooperation of the Alabama League of Municipalities and the State Highway Commission in a highway route marking campaign has been asked by Gov. Bibb Graves, who suggested that convict labor could be used in manufacturing the roadway signs.

Commissioners appointed by the late Judge W. I. Grubb to hear condemnation suits filed by the Tennessee Valley Authority on lands upon which a price could not be agreed have raised the appraisal of TVA $6,000 on 1,647 acres of the Wheeler Estate in Lawrence County.

Miss Elizabeth Harris of Huntingdon College was home for the week end.

"WRECK OF THE POOR FARMER'S LIFE"

The poor old farmer is done forgotten,
Made his little crop but he can't sell his cotton.
Oh my Lord, Oh my Lord, what a fix we're in.
Poor old farmer works hard all day,
But he can't get a job on the CWA.
The four cent tax that we have to pay,
Part of that goes to the CWA.
One little hog and no little beef,
Part of that goes to the old relief.
Some get lots and some get none,
See what our committeeman's done.
Some get one thing some get another,
Wish I had been a committeeman's brother.
Bankhead figured when he passed that act,
He throwed the poor farmer right flat on his back.
If there ain't a change in the farmer's life,
He will have to pay a tax to hug his own wife.
The farmer's wife has to cook and milk,
The welfare woman goes dressed in silk.
The farmer's wife has to work in the field,
The welfare woman rides the automobile.
The poor old farmer, he ain't no boss,
He has to buy another one a Gov't bull.
When his cotton is ginned, it's packed in a bag,
It has to be stamped with a Bankhead tag.
That twenty dollars I spent on the bale,
Caused my shirt to have no tail.
Come on old farmers, let's go to the polls,
Put a new man in, let the old one roll.
We will go to the polls with our trust in God,
We will mark our ticket for "J. W. Dodd".
Money is scarce and times are hard,
We will all get us a union card.

—B. S. Frederick, Jemison, Ala.

VAUGHAN QUARTET ON AIR EACH THURSDAY AT 5:30 P.M.

Mr. G. Keifer Vaughan, of the Vaughan Quartet, of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., makes the announcement that beginning November 14, they will be on the air over W. S. M., Nashville, at 5:30 p.m., every Thursday afternoon. The personnel of the quartet is: Palmer Wheeler, G. K. Vaughan, John Cook, Jim Waites; Alphus Lefevere, accompanst.

These are the recognized leading quartet singers in the South. They invite the people of Clanton to listen in on their program any time they can.

Miss Lee of the Modern Beauty Shoppe attended a beauty culture convention in Birmingham Monday.

Messrs. Jesse Jones, Will Culp, J. Z. Mims and Newt Gray attended a singing convention in Gadsden Sunday.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.
Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

Mrs. Gaston Robinson and little son, Gragg, left Monday for Uniontown where they will make a visit with Mrs. Robinson's parents.

Mr. Ed Mullins, Mrs. J. R. Mullins and Elizabeth Andrews spent Tuesday in Troy, where they visited Elizabeth's sister and brother, at the Baptist Orphanage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mullins, Mrs. J. R. Mullins and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston spent Tuesday afternoon of last week in Birmingham.

Mr. J. F. Anderson of Pinkard was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Kimmey on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cope motored to Anniston Sunday to see Mrs. Cope's neice, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerald, Miss Celia Gerald and Miss Ruth Gowan spent the week end in Tuscaloosa.

Misses Myra and Billie Johnson and Mr. Sam Johnson spent the week end in Tuscaloosa. They visited their sister, Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

Mrs. W. A. Willis, Mrs. Earl Gow[illegible] Miss Lamar and Miss Collie w[illegible] shopping in Birmingham Saturday.

Mrs. O. B. Curtis (Madelyn Orr) returned to her home in Shreveport, La., last Monday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Orr and Miss Myra Johnson.

Wednesday Card Club Meets

The Wednesday Card club met at the home of Mrs. Grady Reynolds last week. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. A series of games were enjoyed then the hostess served a delightful salad course. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Hance Alred, Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mrs. Lawrence Gerald, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. John Browder, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mrs. James Wade and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston.

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15th & 16th

Phone -- 154
WE DELIVER

Clanton CASH Store
WE DELIVER — BLUE FRONT STORE
PEOPLES CASH STORE
THORSBY CASH STORE

TRADE WITH --- THE --- BLUE FRONT STORES

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING

24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	85c
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	95c
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose	$1.10
24-LB SACK — POLLY RICH	$1.10
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	$1.65
48-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	$1.85
48-LB SACK — ROSE or POLLY RICH	$2.15
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	50c
12-LB SACK — ROSE or — POLLY RICH	60c
24-LB SACK, 1 GLASS FREE Postel Elegant	$1.20

SUGAR
10-Lb Paper Bag 53c

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE

FRESH — Pork Ham Roast, lb	25c
FRESH — Pork SHOULDER, lb	22c
MIXED — SAUSAGE, lb	17½c
RIB, CHUCK or RUMP — BEEF ROAST lb	12½c
GOOD STEAK, lb	15c
ROUND OR LOIN — STEAK, lb	20c
CONEY STYLE — GEM FRANKS, lb	15c
SLICED — BACON, lb	32c

PRODUCE SPECIALS

POTATOES, 10 Lbs	17c
RUTABAGAS, Lb	3c
GREEN HEADS — CABBAGE, Lb	2½c
YELLOW OR WHITE — ONIONS, Lb	4c
SEEDLESS — GRAPES, 3 lbs	25c
FANCY WINESAP — APPLES, Doz	20c
BANANAS, Lb	5c
LARGE RED RIPE — TOMATOES, Lb	4c
EATMORE — CRANBERRIES, Qt (FOR THANGSGIVING)	20c

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 15c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

LARD

1-LB CARTON — Compound	15c
4-LB CARTON — Compound	55c
8-LB CARTON — Compound	$1.10
4-LB CARTON — PURE	65c
8-L BCARTON — PURE	$1.30

OCEAN SPRAY CRANBERRY SAUCE
7-oz CAN 10c
17-oz CAN 20c

PURE INN MAXWELL HOUSE SHOW BOAT MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE 1-lb can 28c

POST BRAN FLAKES
10-oz Package 10c

JELL-O STRAWBERRY FLAVOR ASSORTED FLAVORS 2 for 14c

32-OUNCE — Salad Dressing	20c
32-OUNCE — SALAD RELISH	20c
No. 1 TALL — MACKEREL, 2 for	15c
No. 1 TALL — Chum SALMON, can	10c
No. 1 TALL — Pink SALMON, can	12c
10½-Oz — O. K. SOAP, 3 for	10c
No. 2 HAND PACKED — TOMATOES, 2 for	15c
48-OZ QUAKER — OAT MEAL, large	20c
FANCY BLUE ROSE — RICE, Pound	5c
CORN FLAKES, 2 for	15c
NEW CROP — Dried APPLES, lb	12½c
NEW CROP — Dried PEACHES, lb	12½c

TORN PAGE POOR OR

SECTION OF

The Union-Banner

CLANTON, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1935

IGINAL

COLORED BACKGROUND

RED CROSS SERVICE to the PUBLIC

THE PRESIDENT APPROVES—President Roosevelt, who is president of the Red Cross, and Chairman Cary T. Grayson discuss Red Cross plans, at the White House.

RED CROSS IN ALASKA—A nurse sent by Red Cross with pioneering families to Matanuska valley, Alaska, aids one of the little pioneers.

JUST LIKE WAR DAYS—Red Cross worker entertains veterans in hospital. The Red Cross carries on for the disabled 17 years after close of war.

JUNIOR RED CROSS GIFT LIBRARIES—From its National Children's Fund, Junior Red Cross gave 85 libraries to rural schools.

EVEN FATHERS LEARN HOME HYGIENE AND CARE OF THE SICK—A Red Cross course which has taught thousands of girls and women interests men, too. These twins were living exhibits in "how to bathe the infant."

ONCE A HOME STOOD HERE—Tornado damage in North Carolina, where Red Cross rebuilt many homes similar to this for families without resources.

FIRST AID FOR WOMEN WORKERS IN INDUSTRY—One type of worker safeguarded in Red Cross First Aid work which annually reaches 160,000 persons in homes and factories.

POOR OR

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION-BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TEN PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1935 NUMBER 31

Lonza Ellison Dead From Accident 15th

Killed At Sawmill Friday By Falling Into Running Saw

Lonza Ellison, son of John Ellison, of Clanton Route 5, was instantly killed last Friday afternoon at McSwain's sawmill about 8 miles northeast of Clanton, near the old Marion Marcus place.

Witnesses stated that Ellison, who was setting blocks at the mill, saw the lever on the carriage fall over in the way of the saw, just as a log had been finished. He called to John Partridge, the sawyer, to wait, and swung around to pull the lever out of the way of the saw. Partridge, seeing what was about to happen, stopped the carriage instantly as it had started back, Ellison lost his balance and was thrown into the saw, mangling his body badly about the midsection, as well as a bad head cut. The accident came at 4:45, just 15 minutes before stoping time. Martin's ambulance was called and the young man was brought to Clanton.

He is survived by his wife and three children; his father, John Ellison, who lives in Coosa County; five brothers—Fonza, Marvin, Ottis, Wallace and John, Jr.; four sisters—Mrs. Paul C. Mims of Clanton Route 2, Mrs. Clarence Burnett, Mrs. Alfred Gentry, Mrs. Howard Stevens, all of Clanton Route 5. His mother died in 1932.

Lonza Ellison was born June 24, 1908, and was 27 years of age.

Funeral services were held at the home of John Bolton, near Mullins Cemetery, at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with Rev. H. H. Caswell, of Des Moines, Iowa, in charge. Interment was in the family plot in Mullins Cemetery.

JEMISON MAN KILLED IN HUNTING ACCIDENT

George Thrash, 24, of Jemison, was killed last Thursday on a squirrel hunting trip when his gun was accidentally discharged as he leaned it against a lumber truck.

Coroner J. Mell Martin returned a verdict of accidental death.

Byrd Killingsworth and Jack Smith, hunting companions of Thrash, said he stopped to chat with a lumber truck driver and leaned his shotgun against the fender of the truck. The gun was discharged, the charge striking Thrash in the left side. He died a few minutes later.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. George W. Thrash, two brothers and a sister.

The funeral was held at Providence at 2:30 Friday, with burial in the cemetery at that place, with Martin & Sons in charge.

BAPTISTS FLAY SOCIAL ORDER

Injustices And War Threats Deplored As Church Convention Ends

Troy, Ala., Nev. 5.—Resolutions deploring "conditions of social injustice" within the nation and war threats without were adopted by Alabama Baptists as they closed their 114th annual convention here yesterday afternoon.

The action followed an address by Dr. Charles E. Maddry, forreign missions secretary, in which he declared that American churches face the uncertainty of having their missionaries driven out of many foreign countries if a feeling of nationalism and mutual distrust continues to grow.

Missionaries in Japan already are being closely watched by military police, Dr. Maddry reported. He reported a reduction last year of $442,000 in the church's mission debt leaving a balance of $516,000.

By vote of the convention, collections on June "Christian Education Day" next year will go to Howard College, Birmingham. The goal was set at $6000.

The 1936 convention will be held in Tuscaloosa, Nov. 17-19.

FISH WILL ADDRESS JEFFERSON G. O. P. UNIT

Republican Representative To Speak At Birmingham Hotel Dec. 5th

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 16, 1935.—Hamilton Fish, Republican congressional representative from President Roosevelt's voting district, will address county Republicans here Dec. 5 on "Trend of Government Under the New Deal."

Representative Fish, who is making the address upon invitation of the Jefferson County Republican Executive Committee, will make his talk at 7:45 p.m., in the ballroom of the Tutwiler Hotel. A dinner party, in his honor, will precede the address.

Judge W. L. Longshore, Republican county committee chairman, will preside over the meeting. District Chairman C. C. Vardaman will introduce the speaker.

MARRIED IN SELMA NOV. 2

On November 2nd, at Selma, Mr. Alton B. Wilder was married to Miss Willie Mae Cole of Plantersville. Both young people are teachers in the high school at Stanton.

Alton B. Wilder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wilder of Clanton. His bride is the charming daughter of Mr. D. T. Cole of Plantersville. They are making their home at Stanton.

THE UNION-BANNER A DAY EARLY NEXT WEEK

Thanksgiving day is upon us again, or will be next week. This as in past years, makes it necessary for The Union-Banner to come out a day early, in order to make connection with the rural mail carriers.

Therefore, we must prevail upon our correspondents and advertisers to help us out by getting their copy just as early as possible. We want all in on Saturday that can be gotten in that early. Our contributors can greatly facilitate matters by lending us this much desired help.

"HIDDEN HARVEST" TALKING PICTURE AT HIGH SCHOOL

A thrilling farm romance "Hidden Harvest", will be shown at the county high school auditorium Saturday nighmt, November 23rd, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. You are asked to call for free tickets at J. L. Ruffin's feed store, for this picture.

Hidden Harvest is a picture that you and your whole family will like Rich in farm background, romantic in appeal, outstanding in plot, thrilling in action, revealing in science, human in characters—Hidden Harvest becomes a favorite of farm audiences whereever it appears. It's a picture that you live with—a picture that becomes a part of you. In between the romance and the humor, you will find parts of it that you will want to take home to fit into your own life and your own place. This talkie is more than entertainment and inspiration. It's instructive! It has a lot to do about things that concern farm life. You'll want to see it—you'll never forget it! Reservations for you have been made. You are to be our guest. Courtesy ticket for you is enclosed. Note the date and the place on the ticket, so you will be sure to be on hand to see this most realistic farm picture of the day.

Naval Plane Fell At Lay Dam Tuesday

California Man Forced To Jump About 7 P. M. After Being Lost

On Tuesday night a naval plane from the Naval Station at Sunnyvale, California, crashed near Lay Dam, about 7:00 o'clock, after the pilot, Lieut. L. C. Simpler, had bailed out on the west side of Coosa River at Lay Dam. Lieut. Simpler dropped between two high-voltage power lines and came within 30 feet of one set of lines.

The plane was being piloted from Anacostia, Md., to the naval air station at San Diego. He was to have stopped over for the night at Maxwell Field, Montgomery. Another naval plane on the same course was forced to land about the same time near Leeds, Ala.

Lieut. Simpler was given first-aid treatment by Power Company employees and spent the night at the home of W. P. Lakeman at Lay Dam.

Both planes, the one landing at Leeds and the one at Lay Dam, were wrecked. No one was killed or seriously injured in either crash.

BERNEY WAYNE GILLESPIE

Berney Wayne Gillespie, 2½-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Gillespie, and grandson of former sheriff Walter Gillespie, died in a Montgomery hospital Saturday afternoon of diphtheria. The child had been ill only a few hours.

The funeral was held at Center Hill at 11:30 Sunday morning with Rev. J. W. Kelley and Rev. Maurice Hodgens in charge. Rev. Kelley is a great-grandfather of the child. Burial was in the Center Hill cemetery, with Martin & Sons in charge.

T. J. KENNAMER HERE

Hon. T. J. Kennamer, of Birmingham, was in Clanton last Saturday. Mr. Kennamer was a pleasant caller at The Union-Banner office while in our city, and arranged to have the paper come to him for the next twelve months. We were glad to have Mr. Kennamer call to see us.

TOMMIE CONNELL SUFFERED A BROKEN LEG MONDAY

News has been received of another serious accident which occurred last Monday. Tommie Connell of Clanton Route 5, suffered a broken leg while unloading a drum of gasoline at home in the eastern part of the county. Reports say that the break was a complete one, with the jagged end of the leg bone pushing through the flesh and outer skin. Latest reports are that he has suffered severely from the injury.

THREE CHILDREN DEAD FROM DIPHTHERIA

The office of Dr. J. M. Kimmey, county health officer, reports the death of three childhren from diphtheria in Chilton county during the past few weeks. One was the 2½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gillespie; another was Delbert Castleberry, age 2 years, of near Verbena; the third was Billie Fortenberry, age 2 years, of near Montevallo.

MODERN DEMOCRACY AND THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

[AN EDITORIAL]

Most of the State Democratic daily papers have been caused to stand in amazement and wonder how come the State Democratic executive committee to act as it did in the choosing of the delegates from the state-at-large to the national Democratic convention, when said State committee took upon itself to elect these four delegates instead of submitting the matter to the voters of the State as has heretofore been the custom.

No objection, to speak of, has been voiced against the men selected—Senators Hugo Black and John Bankhead, Governor Bibb Graves and John D. McQueen; but where the rub comes is the manner in which they went about the selection. The committee was called together and these delegates chosen before the call was even made by the national Democratic committee, when only a little better than one-third of the members of the committee were present.

Since Senator Black and Governor Graves have for the past quarter of a century been such ardent advocates of the rights of the "deer peepul", and have won several hot fights on this very score, we doubt seriously that they will accept the honor placed upon them by this fraction of the State committee, when such choice should have been submitteed to the voters of the State.

As for Senator Bankhead, likely he will raise no resentment toward his name being chosen in such irregular style, as this kind of monkey business seems to be kindly in line with his policies any way. Everyone remembers how Mr. Bankhead had the State committee build a wall around him to keep Tom Heflin out of his affairs and out of the Democratic party in his race for senatorial election three years ago. Senator Bankhead, no doubt, likes this strangle rule business, but we can't believe the others will exactly savor such autocratic activities.

It is interesting to note, however, that one Alabamian, present at the committee meeting, voiced his opposition to such flagrant disregard for the sovereign rights of the common people. Judge Leon McCord vigorously opposed the manner in which the delegates were selected, and did himself considrable honor by declaring that the committee should have let the voters of Alabama elect the delegation. Judge McCord said: "I warn you that you will make a mistake in doing this today. This ought to be left to the sovereign Democracy of Alabama."

Judge McCord should be, and will be, honored by the people of Alabama for his firm and justified stand on this all-important matter. Alabama will elect another Governor and another State Senator some day, and Judge McCord's friends will remember him.

The State daily papers wonder why this was done. By way of suggestion for the cause, The Union-Banner asks: Could it be that the matter was not submitted to the people because President Roosevelt is slipping, and that the pro-Roosevelt members of the committee were afraid to trust the people of the State with the selection? Were they afraid an anti-Roosevelt delegation would be selected?

Aside from the political [illegible] of the business, however, to The Union-Banner this kind of manipulation looks bad, in a country where the rights of the people is supposed to paramount to everything else—a democracy, if you please. This is not democracy at all, but it is autocracy in the rankest degree. Such would be becoming in the hot-beds of dictatorial and war-torn Europe, but not in America where the people are supposed to rule.

Let us continue to hope and pray that someday we may have officials in office who will have more regard for the rights of the common people, and will not make political expediency paramount to justice, liberty, democracy and all other American traditions which we love but which have almost become forgotten.

FOUR MONTHS OF 1935

Some faint idea of the way the financial situation of the United States is shaping may be gathered from the report of the U. S. Treasury for the first one-third of the fiscal year which ended on October 31. Receipts during the four months were approximately $1,233,000,000 while the expenditures were $2,627,000,000 which means that Uncle Sam only took in 47 cents for every dollar that he put out. According to the Associated Press:

"The rate of expenditures for the first four months would initiate a total of $7,881,000,000 for the year, whereas the budget calls for $7,752,000,000. Receipts would be only $3,699,000,000, whereas $4,470,000,000 had been estimated.

"The present deficit of more than $1,393,000,000 would be swollen to $4,180,000,000 next June 30, if the present spread between income and outgo were maintained.

Officials, however, who have examined the figures, take comfort in the belief that they will get in a lot of money that they weren't looking for in increased income tax receipts next year. They base this belief on the assertion that business is now getting better and that the more profits there are, the more will be collected in the way of taxes. It is, of course, good to know that business is getting better and it is especially good to know this because the disciples of the NRA informed us after the Blue Eagle was caged by the Supreme Court that business would go to the bow wows.

It is certainly to be hoped that there will be bigger tax collections in March due to better business conditions. Because there certainly is a lot of coin going out now for what is coming in. And no matter what happens the Republicans will not be able to take from the New Deal the reputation of making this the most expensive administration on record.

MRS. PICKENS AND DAUGHTER RETURNED TO DENVER, COL.

Mrs. J. J Pickens, the former Miss Ruby Downs, has returned to Denver, Colo., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Rosemary Pickens. Her son, Mike, is attending school in Tennessee.

Mrs. Pickens and children have lived near Clanton for the past five years. Mr. Pickens will be remembered as a former principal of the Clanton Grammar School, and made an enviable reputation as a teacher while connected with that institution. Later he went into the hardware business here with Mr. J. B. Downs and H. F. Downs, and finally held the position of postmaster for Clanton for several years. He has been in the real estate business in Denver since leaving Clanton.

SHERIFF REPORTS THIRTEEN ARRESTS DURING PAST WEEK

Sheriff Hardy reports 13 arrests by members of his force during the past week. These were as follows:

Two assault and battery. One of these is in jail, and the other has been released on $300 bond.

Five on charges of violating the prohibition law. Four of these were commitments from former court conviction. The other was released on $300 bond.

One for public drunkennes and assault and battery; released on payment of fine and costs in justice court.

One for public drunkenness; in jail.

One for assault with intent to murder; in jail.

Three for petit larceny; of these, two are in jail, while the other was released after payment of costs in justice court.

NEGRO BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Robert Darby, 16-year-old negro boy was accidentally shot and killed shortly after noon last Monday. The boy had been working with Alfred Chancellor a few miles west of Clanton for about a month.

On Monday Darby was helping Eddie Williams haul wood. Near 1:00 o'clock the two had loaded a load and were ready to bring it in. The negro got on the wagon, carrying a 12-gauge single barrel shotgun he had carried to the woods with him. Once on the wagon, he attempted to push the stock of the gun down between the poles of wood, the hammer struck a pine knot, discharging the whole load of No. 4 shot into the negro's stomach.

Martin's ambulance was called and he was carried to Central Alabama Hospital, where an emergency operation was performed, but his life could not be saved.

Darby lived until 3:40 p.m., during which time he was fully conscious, and fully absolved Williams of any blame in connection with the shooting.

It is understood that Darby's father lives somewhere in Birmingham, while his mother is living in Georgia.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE RALLY HERE MONDAY NIGHT

On Monday night, December 2nd, the Chilton county post of the American Legion will have a rally and special meeting at the courthouse in Clanton.

Mr. Sam A. Lokey of Columbiana will speak; also Hon. Pete B. Jarman of Montgomery will make an address. These are both outstanding speakers and ardent legionnaires.

The meeting will be opened at 7 o'clock, and the public is invited. Especially all ex-service men are urged to attend. Remember the date—the first Monday night in December.

Democrats Ask Law To Purify Primaries

Propose To Re-Register Voters With Statement Of Party Preference

The most far reaching and important action of any State Democratic Executive Committe in the last decade was taken in Montgomery Wednesday when a meeting of that body, by a unanimous vote, endorsed a resolution submitted by Committeeman Silas Cater, of Montgomery, recommending that the Legislature pass a bill providing for the reregistration of all voters and a subsequent registration every four years with a declaration of party affiliation by every voter registering.

The resolution called upon Gov. Graves to include the suggestion in his call for the special session in January. Inasmuch as Gov. Graves was elected by the committee delegate-at-large and chairman of the Alabama delegation to the Democratic national convention next year, with only one dissenting vote and that by a Liberty League member of the committee, it is generally believed that he cannot fail to heed the suggestion that he cannot fail to heed the suggestion.

The resolution requests the forthcoming Legislature to pass a bill providing for the registration of all voters in Alabama in the year 1936 and every four years thereafter. There has been no registration of voters as a whole since 1901. Of course those who registered in 1901 and who have life certificates of registration will not be required to register.

For Pure Primary

The proposal of the governing body of the Democratic party in Alabama is to preserve the purity of primaries in Alabama by preventing affiliation of the Republican and other parties from voting in a Democratic primary and then casting their votes against the Democratic nominees in the general election.

For many years there has been agitation to prevent Republicans from entering Democratic primaries and then casting votes for Republicans in the general election. Democratic leaders have maintained that the system that has been in vogue in Alabama has given Republicans the balance of power in Democratic primaries allowing them to name Democratic nominees and then voting for their own nominee in the general election.

Gov. Graves, political observers point out, has never failed to heed the mandate of his party and it is expected that the reregistration and the party affiliation proposal will be incorporated in his call for a special session and will be enacted into law.

The resolution adopted unanimously by the committee follows:

Text of Resolution

"Be it resolved, by the State Democratic Executive Committee of Alabama:

"First that we heartily approve legislation for a complete registration of the electors of this State in 1936 and every four years thereafter.

"Second that we endorse a provision in such legislation requiring a statement of party affiliation upon such registration and prohibiting all voters not having declared their party affiliations from participating in any primary election hereafter held by such political party.

"Third, we recommend that the Hon. Bibb Graves, governor of the State, include in his call for an extra session of the Legislature legislation upon this subject."

Change Is Seen In Cotton Control Law

Bankhead Says New Program Will Remove Inequalities Of The AAA

Haneyville, Ala., Nov. 15.—Senator John Bankhead told 1,000 Lowndes county cotton farmers here yesterday that he was "reliably informed" that in 1936 they would have four alternate bases from which to select in determining their cotton production allotment.

He declared that this plan would supersede the five-year production plan which he said had caused considerable dissatisfaction, and would give cotton farmers of the south the opportunity to select ther best years for a base on which to fix their allotment.

Senator Bankhead, who drafted the Bankhead cotton control act in collaboration with Congressman Will Bankhead, his brothers said that president Roosevelt had declared that unless a legal cotton production control plan was in effect next year, the government would make no cotton loans.

The individual farmer can elect, Senator Bankhead said he was informed, to have his 1936 allotment based on:

1. Present base period of the five-year period 1928-32 inclusive.
2. Production in 1932-1933 and 1934.
3. Production in 1933 plus plowup acres in 1934-35.
4. Production in 1935.

He declared that this plan would eliminate "many of these inequalites" that exist under the present system.

"All people interested should bear in mind," he said, "that no further cotton loans will be made if there is no law for compulsory crop control. President Roosevelt, while Congress was in session, stated . . . that he would authorize no such loan unless Congress passed a bill continuing the Bankhead act.

"It should now be understood definitely and positively that if we lose compulsory control of the cotton crop that the price of cotton must take its place under the law of supply and demand, and that it will not be aided by further government loans. On that point I speak with authority."

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS AT LOCAL SHELL GAS STATION

Rather extensive improvements are being made at the local Shell Service Station in Clanton. The inclosure is being enlarged and a general overhauling of the place is being effected. New greasing and washing facilities have been installed, and other improvements are under way.

Mr. W. G. Culp, the manager, says that other additions will be made to the place until he will be able to serve every want of the autoist.

MAN INJURED IN AUTO SMASH-UP NEAR VERBENA

A man from Birmingham, by the name of J. S. Williams, was injured Sunday night near Verbena when he swerved his car, a new Oldsmobile, from the road to miss two children. Someone picked the injured man up and brought him to Central Alabama Hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from slight concussion of the brain and other minor injuries He was discharged from the hospital Monday.

Mr. Williams was a salesman for the International Harvester Company, and was acquainted with some people in Clanton.

KING DAVID HAYES DIED ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

King David Hayes, 38-year-old World War veteran died at the Veterans Hospital at Tuscaloosa Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

The funeral was held at Sardis Church Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock, Dr. S. J. Ezell officiating. Burial was in the cemetery at that place, with Spigener in charge.

Hayes was in camp for about six months during the last part of the war. He is survived by his wife; two children—Grover Lee, age 16, and Ernestine, age 13; two brothers—J. J. Hayes, Clanton Route 4, and Walter Hayes, Centreville Route 2; seven sisters—Mrs. Nan Headley of Clanton Route 6, Mrs. Dela Milford of Maplesville Route 2, Mrs. Mary Cherry of Billingsley Route 2, Mrs. Lillie Donovan of Maplesville Route 2, Mrs. Annie Nichols of Plantersville Route 2; Mrs. Ola Smith of Coffee Springs Ala., and Mrs. Charles Cox of Brent, Ala.

According to reports, the death of Hayes was the result of a stab received on September 29 in an altercation with Walter Scott, near Jemison. It is said that Hayes and Scott were next door neighbors, and a quarrel arose about a pecan three. A fight followed in which Hayes received the knife wound. Scott was placed in jail on September 30, and Hayes was carried to the Veterans Hospital. Scott was allowed bond on Monday, October 28, pending the outcome of Hayes' wounds. When death resulted Monday afternoon, Scott was placed in jail again Tuesday morning on a murder charge.

ONE FINED IN MAYOR'S COURT

In Mayor's court last Monday morning, only one case was on the docket. This one was for public drunkenness. A fine of $3.00 and cos's of $7.00 were assessed.

IGINAL

A.&P. THANKSGIVING

SPECIALS

A&P FOOD STORES

NUTLEY

Oleo lb can 15c

2 for 29c

POPULAR BRANDS

Cigarets pkg 15c 2 pkgs 29c ctn $1.45

EIGHT O'CLOCK

Coffee lb 15c 3-lb bag 43c

Pink Salmon No-1 Tall Can 10c

JOHNSTON'S

Peanut Butter 2 1-lb Jars 27c

Scott Co., No. 2 — HOMINY
Scott Co., No. 2 — KRAUT
Iona No. 2 — TOMATOES
Sultana, 1-lb Can — RED BEANS
Iona No. 2 — STRING BEANS
Iona, 15¾-oz Can — SPAGHETTI

4 No. 2 Cans 25c DOZEN CANS 73c

No. 2 — IONA CORN
No. 2 — IONA PEAS
Stokely's No. 2½ Can — HOMINY
Stokely's No. 2½ Can — KRAUT
Libby's No. 1 Can — PINEAPPLE JUICE

3 Cans 25c DOZEN CANS 98c

Iona 1-lb Can — PORK and BEANS
7-oz pkg Iona Spaghetti or — MACARONI
PACIFIC TISSUE
A & P MATCHES
P & G or Octagon — O. K. SOAP
Phillip's or Iona — TOMATO JUICE

6 For 25c DOZEN FOR 49c

Wesson Oil pt 20c qt 39c

NUN-BETTER

Grits 1½-lb bag 5c 3 lb bag 10c

IONA

Peaches 3 No 2½ cans 43c

IONA

PINEAPPLE 2 No 2½ cans 35c

IONA Salad Dressing Qt jar 25c

ASSORTED FLAVORS

JELLO pkg 6c

GOLD MEDAL

Wheaties pkg 13c

SUNNYFIELD

FLOUR 24-lb Bag 99c 48-lb Bag $1.95

REICHERT'S BIRD

FLOUR 24-lb Bag 92c 48-lb Bag $1.79

HIGHLAND NEWS

We had a good Sunday school lesson last Sunday. Everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

Last Sunday was our regular singing date. The opening song was led by the chairman, Mr. Coy Lockhart, prayer by Mr. Jake Henley.

Directors for the afternoon were: Coy Lockhart, Sovereign Dickey, Willie Merle Lockhart, Ruby Weldon, Fonzie Coe, Herman Culpepper, Gladys Wyatt, Sam Culp and Gertice Riggins. Closing prayer was led by Mr. Sam Culp. Pianist for the afternoon was Miss Dessie Wyatt.

Our crowd was rather small. Perhaps on account of bad weather, but it seems like everybody is losing interest in our singing. Listen, folks, let's come on and boost our singing. It is going to be just what we make it and let's make it one of the best.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. We invite all who will to come and enjoy the services with us.

MT. PLEASANT HOME DEM. CLUB

The Mt. Pleasant Home Demonstration Club met on November 5, with very good attendance, at the home of Mrs. Amos Smith.

Miss Pardue gave us an interesting talk on walls, floor and table tops. Miss Pardue always brings us lots of helpful information about the home.

We have lots of members that do not attend these meetings regularly. We urge that you attend every time you can. The next meeting will be a Christmas program on December 3, at the home of Mrs. Emmett Smith. We hope all members and lots of visitors will be present.—Reporter.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE NOTICE

State of Alabama, Chilton County.

Default having been made in the terms of a mortgage executed to the undersigned, Alabama Mineral Land Company by B. O. Lowery on the 22nd day of November, 1930 which said mortgage is recorded in the office of Probate Judge of Chilton County, Alabama in Record Book No. 242 on Page 704, and said default continuing, I, the undersigned as attorney for mortgagee will sell at public outcry for cash to the highest bidder on the premises and property herein described, between the legal hours of sale on the 7th day of December, 1935, the following described property to-wit:

Northwest quarter of Northeast quarter, (NW¼ of NE¼), section five (5) township twenty-three (23) North range thirteen (13), East, containing forty acres more or less, situated in Chilton County, Alabama.

The proceeds of sale to be applied to the payment of costs and expenses of such sale and conveyance, including a reasonable attorney's fee and the balance to the payment of what may be due on said mortgage.

Dated this the 18th day of November, 1935.

ALABAMA MINERAL LAND CO., Mortgagee.

PERCY M. PITTS, Attorney for Mortgagee. 11-21-2t.

Don't Prolong The Agony!

Next time you suffer from Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, a Cold, Muscular, Rheumatic, Sciatic or Periodic Pains; That Tired Feeling, That "Morning After" Feeling. Get a glass of water and drop in one or two tablets of

Alka-Seltzer

The New Pain-Relieving, Alkalizing, Effervescent Tablet

Watch it bubble up, then drink it. You will be amazed at the almost instant relief.

It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid.

After trying many brands of medicines—so-called relief for gas, and all of them a failure, I gave up hopes. By chance I tried Alka-Seltzer—I am more than satisfied. Geo. Bennett, New York, N. Y.

Get a glass at your drug store soda fountain. Take home a 30 cent or 60 cent package.

Farmers Union Met At Chestnut Grove

RESOLUTIONS PASSED AT LOCAL CONDEMNING GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF FARMERS

Members of the Farmers Educational and Cooperative Union of America met in convention at Chestnut Grove Saturday, November 16th. The county president and secretary being unable to attend, the convention moved that the local president, W. F. Aldridge, serve as president and C. L. Curry as secretary.

The morning session was open to all, non-members as well as members of the Union. The Agricultural Arjustment Act was recognized as the leading issue of the day and was the center of discussion. The fact was brought forth and emphasized that the triple A is sinking the little farmer deeper into poverty and that the processing tax paid by the small farmer is being gobbled up by those already in good financial condition.

The delegates from the various locals registered with the secretary and were seated. The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

"Whereas, the Agricultural Adjustment Act, in its present form, is unjust, that it is lowering the standards of living among small farmers; and whereas, the allotment plan, based on the five-year average, is open to fraud, filled with discrimination, and has brought many to a low subsistece level; and whereas the small farmers are trying to raise enough cotton to meet the high cost of living; and whereas, the tax paid on excess cotton by the small farmer exceeds the benefit received from the AAA; and whereas the supporters of the AAA in its present form are willing to see their neighbor farmers suffer in order that they may secure their selfish gains.

"Therefore, be it resolved, first, the Agricultural Adjustment Act be repealed or that drastic changes be made which will bring about a more fair and proportionate division among producers. Second, that if the AAA is necessary and must continue, that the present allotment plan be discontinued and the allotment be based on the number of dependents on each farm, or that each farmer be allowed to plant one-third of his cultivatable land in cotton, and that all cotton growers on this amount of land be exempt from all taxes.

"Third, that we, as members of the Farmers Cooperative and Educational Union of America, (a national organization) do pledge our support against the present AAA program in the coming election, and that we will not support the program on the promise that certain changes will be made, but that every change be made before the election on this question, and the farmers made fully familiar with all changes. Fourth, that we, the members of the Farmers Union in Chilton County, Alabama, do solicit the membership of every farmer who wishes to see justice prevail among all men. Fifth, that the members of this Union feel that the condition under which the farmers receive the extra two cents for their cotton is unjust, that to an extent they are being bribed out of their freedom. We contend that if cotton is worth 12 cents a pound with the farmer's signature it is worth the same without it. Sixth, that we urge all farmers to give the AAA serious consideration before signing to cooperate next year, that such signatures will mean that the farmers are willing for Secretary Wallace and his henchmen to be their dictator next year. Be it further resolved, that each Local in the county appoint committees to wage a campaign against the AAA program, and that the Union cooperate in a convention assembled, this the 16th day of November, 1935, at Chestnut Grove, Chilton County, Alabama, do urge that every farmer in Chilton county, join with us in union, to defeat all issues filled with discrimination, and that we may sponsor a program whereby equity and justice will prevail among all men."

The second resolution passed by this convention is as follows:

"Whereas, there are many issues of great importance before the people, and whereas, these issues need careful consideration; and whereas, it is necessary to put on a campaign for membership in the farmers union in Chilton county; therefore, be it resolved, first, that this convention appoint a committee on resolutions. Second, that a special meeting be called at Center Hill next Saturday, November 23rd, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of adopting such resolutions as the body deems necessary, and attend to any and all business that may come before the body. Be it further resolved that the president and secretary of each Local in the county attend this meeting without fail, as these are questions that may need discussion in each Local in the county.

"Be it further resolved that all members of the Farmers Union have a special invitation to attend this meeting, but that those who are not members will not be admitted, as this is strictly a business meeting. Be it further resolved that we urge all farmers to wake up and take a stand on the issues of the day, and demand that our interest be protected."

After the adoption of the above resolutions and the appointment of the committee the convention adjourned.

W. F. ALDRIDGE, President.
C. L. CURRY, Secretary.

BOB JONES COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice." That is what Paul wrote to the Romans. The word "therefore" carries the idea that he has already said somthing to them. What he really had taught them up until the time he besought them to "present their bodies a living sacrifice" was that they were saved men and women, and they were saved by the grace of God who did save them, to present their bodies a living sacrifice. Man is naturally a sinner. That is what the Bible teaches and that is what history and literature prove. Our bodies are the instruments with which we sin. We use our eyes to see what we should not see. We use our ears to hear the things we should not hear; and most of us use our tongues to say what we should not say. Paul beseeches us Christians since we are saved to give ourselves in absolute surrender to God.

When an army surrenders it is supposed to lay down its weapons of warfare. We Christians are supposed to be surrendered to God. Our hands have been used selfishly in the past. We give them now to God so He may use them to lift the fallen. Our eyes have been instruments of Satan, but we open them now to see opportunities for Christian service. Our ears have been attuned to the voice of the world. Now, they are open to the voice of God. Our feet have been swift to travel the road of sin. Now, God sends us on errands of mercy. Our tongues that have said the wrong things, now are used to tell the story of redeeming grace to a lost world. If the professing Christians of America would really surrender to God, we could evangelize the world in a very short time. The trouble is that most of us professing Christians live selfish lives. If God is God and if we are saved, then we should give every thing we have to God and should be transformed by His power and should not be conformed to worldly standards.

ENTERPRISE CLUB NEWS

The Enterprise Home Demonstration club met at the schoolhouse on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 6, with 13 members present. The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. L. E. Boockholdt. After we had finished with all the business Miss Pardue gave a lecture on finishing floors, table tops and walls, and showed some examples she had finished.

Our club will have a Christmas party on Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Wilkins. We hope to have all members present on that date.—Reporter.

JACKSON CHAPEL

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, the principal of our school, Prof. H. B. Hodgens, a faithful and tireless teacher and worker in our community has passed from our midst never to return.

And whereas, we, the citizens of this community and patrons of Jackson Chapel school, deem it a privilege and a pleasant task to recall to memory the bonds of affection that bound us so closely.

And whereas, we wish to join our children in respect and honor to his memory for his labors, kind acts, and noble deeds;

Be it resolved first; that the Parent-Teachers Association of Jackson Chapel in session on this the 16th day of November, 1935, do hereby adopt these resolutions to his memory;

And second: that a copy of these resolutions be sent to family of the deceased;

And third: that a copy be furnished the newspapers of Chilton county.

FROM HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS

Editor Union-Banner:

Dear Sir:—First of all I wish to thank you for the paper. Indeed it is like a letter from home, and through this good old paper I wish to write a few lines to my friends around home.

Dear Friends:—I am again out here at Hot Springs, Ark., taking the hot baths. I am feeling reasonably well and enjoying myself as much as could be expected. I have not had time to stir around to see very much. Perhaps I can write more next time.

Yours very truly,
Wm. J. HEADLEY.

Coming to Clanton

Sponsored by P.-T. A.

The Mighty Haag Shows

SCHOOL BASE BALL PARK

HOST OF FUNNY CLOWNS

THE WORLD'S LARGEST Performing Elephants

WILD ANIMALS

The Georgeous Spectacle IN OLD MEXICO

200 PEOPLE 200

THE WORLD'S RENOWN Tan Araki Troupe From Far Away Japan

FREAKS and CURIOSITIES

MIDGETS The Smallest People on Earth

Two Big Performances at 2 and 8 P. M.

DOORS OPEN 1 HOUR EARLIER

One Day Only

Wed. Nov. 27

Price 25c & 35c

STREET PARADE 1 o'CLOCK

FOR HAIR AND SCALP JAPANESE OIL Made in U. S. A.

The Antiseptic Scalp Medicine—Different from ordinary Hair Tonics — 60c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

WALNUT CREEK

Another conference year is past and gone and the day of Thanksgiving will soon be here. We are expecting a good Thanksgiving service at Walnut on that day and dinner for everybody and all are invited to attend this service and bring a Thanksgiving offering. Surely the Lord has been wonderfully good to us this year on Clanton circuit. We closed this year and took to conference one of the best reports that has ever gone to conference from this work so everybody says.

We are thankful to the Lord from the depth of our hearts and we are praying that the coming year may still be a better one than the year that has past and gone.

I want to take this opportunity of thanking everyone on Clanton circuit for their cooperation and prayers and we ask that every one pray that the coming year be the best of our life in the Master's service.—J. W. Enfinger, Pastor.

RECORD SECOND GROWTH

The Union-Banner has received the following message from Rev. J. E. Creel, of Haleyville, Ala.:

"I had my sorghum cane cut and carried to the mill on August 7th and 8th, and expected to get a crop of hay from the suckers. But on November 6th I cut a wagon load of suckers, sent them to the mill, and got 7 gallons of fine honey drip molasses. And still I got a good hay crop off what was left. How is that for a second crop?—Rev. J. E. Creel."

Mrs. James Wade and Mrs. J. W. Hayes spent Monday in Montgomery shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Cohen Stapp of Selma were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Page Sunday.

STANTON 4-H CLUB WORK

On Friday morning Mr. Faut met with the Stanton 4-H club. There were 10 on roll. The one selected for our club officers are: President, Thomas Gaddy, vice president, Edmond Davis, Reporter, Mondral Patterson, song leader, Buck Burnett and Wilton Grover; local leader, Shelton Cook and Mr. Boockholdt.

The members of our club are C. A. Cook, Thomas Gaddy, Buck Burnette, Glenn Burnette, Wilton Grover, Edmond Davis, Melvin Carter, Mondrel Patterson, Irbie Huff and Claburn McCormick.

Miss Irene Jones, who teaches in Bessemer, Ala., spent the week end in Clanton with her mother, Mrs. A. S. Jones.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxines. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

Have Your Eyes Examined

Only a trained and experienced Optometrist can prescribe the glasses which will fit you accurately and surely. Poorly fitted glasses add to the discomfort of defective eyes.

Dr. M. Goldner

Of Birmingham, Alabama

Here in Clanton TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26th, and every other Tuesday.

AT DR. J. P. HAYES' OFFICE

Convenient Terms Can Be Arranged.

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, NOV. 25TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON

OPTOMETRIST

POOR OR

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

"How do I feel.... Rotten! why do you ask?"

"Because, you are not yourself!"

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength... you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

FARMERS SHOULD BUY FARMS, SAYS DUNCAN

Auburn, Ala.—Economic conditions are improving and land prices are rising, says Dr. L. N. Duncan, president, Alabama Polytechnic Institute and director of the State Extension Service, in advising farmers that now is a good time to buy farms.

Farmers with land, shelter, water, and firewood are assured of a comfortable place to live, regardless of the economic condition of the country, he said. He also described land-ownership as an old-age insurance, guaranteeing an income in later years.

In describing the farm as an ideal place to live and rear a family, Dr. Duncan says: "I believe that it will be only a few years before electricity, farm-to-market roads, and other conveniences will revolutionize the farm home and make it by far the most desirable place to live."

Dr. Duncan advocates improving the land by terracing and growing winter legumes and providing a comfortable home by repairing the old or building a new. He says that county agents, extension service and experiment station officials, Auburn, and the soil division of the Department of Agriculture, Montgomery, will gladly furnish information about farm lands and will give assistance and advice in repairing and building farm homes.

TEN BOYS AND GIRLS GIVEN CHICAGO TRIPS

Auburn, Ala.—Six boys—Frederick Abel, Etowah county; Joe Rhodes and John P. Harrison, Butler county, Willis Doram, Chambers county; Billy Broun, Tallapoosa county; and Bill Dodd, Mobile county—and 4 girls, Eloise Garrett, Monroe county; Ruth Iva Epp, Dallas county; Clarita Thompson, Limestone county; and Mabel Towery, Talladega county—have been awarded trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, November 29 to December 7.

These 4-H club members won the trips in state-wide health, cotton and corn, general achievement, food preservation, meat identification, style revue, and food preparation contests.

They will be accompanied to Chicago by T. A. Sims and Miss Elizabeth DeLoney, state 4-H club leaders.

SERVICES AT FRIENDSHIP

Regular monthly preaching services will be held at Friendship church next Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Robinson, will preach.

Prof. W. M. Devaughn and his quartet will be there Sunday and sing for the S. S. service as well as preaching. Services will begin at 9:45. The quartet will also help out in the singing Sunday afternoon.

ALABAMA LEADS NATION TERRACING FARM LANDS

Auburn, Ala.—Eighty-six complete power terracing outfits are at present terracing farm lands in 50 Alagama counties in the greatest soil-conservation program ever conducted in the United States.

These outfits are terracing land for farmers at a low per-acre cost, usually ranging from $1.00 to $2.50 per acre, the exact amount depending upon the slope and condition of the land. It is conservatively estimated that the terracing increases the value of the land by at least $5.00 to $10.00 per acre, reports J. B. Wilson, extension agricultural engineer.

Counties in which the terracing outfits are located are: Lauderdale, Limestone, Madison, Jackson, Lawrence, Morgan, Marshall, DeKalb, Franklin, Cherokee, Marion, Winston, Cullman, Etowah, Blount, Lamar, Fayette, Jefferson, Calhoun, Clebourne, Pickens, Tuscaloosa, Shelby, Talladega, Clay, Randolph, Greene, Hale, Chilton, Coosa, Tallapoosa, Chambers, Sumter, Perry, Elmore, Lee, Marengo, Dallas, Lowndes, Macon, Russell, Bullock, Butler, Pike, Barbour, Covington, Coffee, Dale, Henry, and Houston.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS IN 1936 FARM OUTLOOK

Auburn, Ala.—Some of the high lights in the 1936 agricultural outlook of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics follow:

Prices of farm machinery are likely to advance slightly in 1936, due to increases in the prices of materials, labor, and other costs.

The outlook is for somewhat lower fertilizer prices during the 1935-36 season.

The demand for electricity on farms will continue to increase if the plans of the rural electrification administration materialize.

Hog prices between now and next September are expected to average higher than in 1934-35, but will not be as high as the peak prices last summer.

Farm wage rates are expected to advance in 1936 in view of the greater demand for hired farm workers now in prospect.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many good friends who lent their aid and sympathy during our trying ordeal following the tragic death of our dear husband, son and brother, Lonza Ellison.

We especially wish to thank Mr. Harry McClure for his service in notifying the several members of the family, Mr. Charlie B. Cox and Mr. Reed Mullins for their management of the burial arrangements, and to Rev. Harry H. Caswell for his heartfelt management of the funeral ceremony. Also any others who aided in any way, we thank you most sincerely. "A friend in need is a friend indeed", and we most certainly appreciate these many friends for their help.—The Family.

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

Reader Sees Rights Of People Waning

COMMON PEOPLE IN ALABAMA DISREGARDED BY CHIEFS OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Editor Union-Banner:

The Democratic State Executive Committee meeting in Montgomery on November 14th, reached the conclusion that the idea of allowing the Democrats of Alabama the privilege of electing their delegates to the Democratic National Convention, belongs, along with State Rights, and free Democratic Institutions, to the horse and buggy era. The Committee on instructions from Tammany Jim Farley, decided that opposition in Alabama to the renomination of Roosevelt had become so pronounced, that it was time to adopt some of the tactics of the late Huey Long, and so they picked enough delegates six months in advance of the Democratic primary, to try to assure the renomination of Roosevelt. The Republicans have been saying for two years that the Roosevelt New Deal has been trying to Tammanynize the nation with its huge spending program, and, up until now, such talk was just considered more Republican propoganda, but since the Committee meeting the Democrats of Alabama are a little more familiar with Tammany operations.

It is quite amusing to see the two United States Senators, the Governor, and the chairman of the Democratic Committee, openly displaying fear of an anti-Roosevelt delegation going to the Convention, and being so fearful, hand picked the delegates six months in advance of the Democratic primary, instead of letting the people have a voice in the selection. With the farmers in revolt against the Bankhead Act; the industrialists revolting against the Guppy coal bill and other Socialistic Acts; and with the merchants might have been a wise move on the part of the Executive Committee to destroy the instrument by which these voters could express their disapproval of the Administration.

This was quite a strange step to take by the Democratic party, which has consistently advocated the right of the people to express themselves on all things, and that the people are never wrong. But this is an era of strange happenings on the part of the Democrats, and it might even be said that the "old donkey ain't what he used to be."

Perhaps the Executive Committee just realized that for once the people of Alabama might go wrong if given an opportunity to elect the delegation, and having heard some of the things the people have been saying about the Roosevelt Socialist Raw Deal, I am of the opinion that the people might not have done just what the Committee did, and might even have failed to send some of the Roosevelt "Yes Men" to the Convention.

This action by the Committee was more than an open portrayal of the fear felt by the Committee for the election of a Roosevelt delegation, it was notice to the Democrats of Alabama that Tammany tactics have entered into the plans to insure the renomination of Roosevelt. The call for a meeting of the State Committee did not include the plan to select these delegates, so the Democratic voters of Alabama had no knowledge of it until the announcement was made of what had been done. Not only was this hand picking of delegates to slap in the face of all Democratic voters of Alabama, but it was the beginning of the minority rule. These delegates were selected by a minority of the State Committee. The vote in the Committee to pick these delegates was 25 to 7, making a total of 32 members voting, and as there are 75 members on the Committee, it can readily be seen that not even a majority was present at the time this frightful step was taken.

It seems that Judge Leon McCord, Democratic National Committeeman, tried to calm the frightened Committee and get them to continue their trust in the Democratic electorate, but the rumblings of dissatisfied people are ringing in the ears of the Committee, and they figured this step would put a quietus on the anti-Roosevelt sentiment in Alabama.

If Jim Farley, Hugo Black, John Bankhead and other New Dealers are so scared of their own party members, then I suggest that they not have a National Convention, but let big Jim send out the word that Roosevelt's nomination in 1936 was included in the nomination of 1932.

This dictatorial action on the part of the Committee will surely be explained by the Montgomery Advertiser and Birmingham News so all good Democrats will, until then, swallow it as though they approved of such doings.—A Reader.

OLD TIME SINGING AT COOPER CALLED OFF

On account of some misunderstanding in the original announcement, the old time singing to be at Cooper school the first Sunday in December, announced last week, will not be held. The main conflict, it is said, is the regular new book singing held every first Sunday afternoon at Chestnut Creek church.

The old time singing will be held at some future date, announcement to be made later.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT ENTERPRISE FRIDAY NIGHT

There will be a fiddlers convention at Enterprise Junior High school on next Friday night, November 22nd, beginning at 6:45 o'clock. There will be prizes for all fiddlers. All fiddlers are urged to come and take part.

Refreshments will be on sale from five o'clock on through the entertainment, and they will be something worthwhile. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the school.

Mrs. D. Hogan and Mrs. M. L. White were shopping in Birmingham Tuesday.

Pianos For Sale--
For Balance Due

The auditor of one of the leading Piano manufacturers of Chicago, Ill., has just taken back a BABY GRAND, a BUNGALOW TYPE UPRIGHT and a PLAYER PIANO on which a considerable amount has been paid.

Before definitely repossessing these instruments, which are in excellent condition, we would prefer transferring each account, giving full credit for every dollar already paid, to some reliable party willing to pay out balance due in small monthly or annual payments.

For full particulars write or see
Fred M. Wells
1711 Third Avenue, N. Birmingham, Ala.

University News

University, Ala.—An 80-year old manuscript of an address by the Hon. Clement C. Clay Jr., delivered before the Philomathic and Erosophic Literary Societies at the University of Alabama in July, 1855, has just been found in an old volume in the collection of Jim Hardwick, State Y. M. C. A. secretary for high schools and colleges. Mr. Clay was United States Senator, a senator in the Confederate States Congress, and Peace Commissioner from the Confederate States to Canada.

Ruth Bryan Owen, United States Ambassador to Denmark, who will speak at the University Monday, November 25, under the auspices of the Tuscaloosa chapter of the American Association of University Women, is the first woman ever to be a United States Ambassador. Before her appointment in the diplomatic service, the daughter of the celebrated William Jennings Bryan, was twice a member of Congress from Florida.

Approximately four hundred and twenty-five women in fourteen clubs throughout Alabama are being furnished with club programs by the Club Study Service of the University according to Mrs. Washington Moody, director of the service.

,dasr ce soo'clrafmcprog etaonietao

The Hon. Justin Miller, Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, in a speech before the student body of the School of Law at the University this week, stated that "the chief objective of government today is to organize a system which will prevent our governmental affairs from sinking into the mire in inefficiency instead of relying upon the outworn notion that adequate leaders and means will arise to respond to each crisis."

REV PAUL ODEN TO SHOW PICTURES AT LIBERTY HILL

Rev. Paul Oden will show his stereopticon pictures at Liberty Hill church Saturday night of this week, beginning about 7 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miserable with backache?

WHEN kidneys function badly and you suffer a nagging backache, with dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination and getting up at night; when you feel tired, nervous, all upset... use Doan's Pills.

Doan's are especially for poorly working kidneys. Millions of boxes are used every year. They are recommended the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

SHILOH NEWS

Our Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. are doing fine. Everybody continue to come to Sunday school every Sunday morning and make it the best we have ever had.

We have started our new church and are ready for the top. If there is anyone who wants to give anything on it, give to Mr. J. I. Bice or Mr. L. C. Keen. We will be glad to get it and will appreciate it.

Every first Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Henderson and children spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Billingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Billingsley, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bice and son were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson and family.

Miss Zula Nelson is spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nelson near Verbena. Shiloh.

THE CORN IS GONE
A drop or two of Corn-Fix stops the pain almost instantly—10 minutes later the corn is GONE—roots and all.
Recommended by your druggist for the safe removal of hard and soft corns, callouses, bunions. Money back if it fails.
CORN FIX FIXES CORNS

V-8 LEADERSHIP

ON OCTOBER 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, in associated industries and on the farm.

These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out, in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,389.00 for materials.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY
BUILDER OF FORD, LINCOLN AND LINCOLN-ZEPHYR MOTOR CARS

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936 IS NOW ON DISPLAY. THE CAR THAT LED ALL OTHERS IN 1935 HAS BEEN MADE STILL BETTER FOR THE NEW YEAR

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21
Joel McCrea - Maureen O'Sulivan in
"WOMAN WANTED"
COMEDY—"Tit for Tat"

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22
Kay Frances - George Brent in
" GOOSE AND GANDER"
COMEDY—" Film Follies"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT, NOV. 23
Conway Tearle in "TRAILS END"
COMEDY—" Film Follies"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25 and 26
Jack Oakie - Burns - Allen in
"BIG BROADCAST OF 1936"
COMEDY—" Spinach Overture"

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27
Chester Morris - Sally Eilers in
"PURSUIT"
COMEDY—"Gypsy Nite"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—Mrs. Curtis Hayes, R. 7, Nov. 21; Mrs. Minnie Matson, Nov. 21; O. L. Blackmon, Nov. 25; Jack Hampton, Nov. 25; Geo. Rasberry, Nov. 22; Curtis Giles, Nov. 24; Frances Popwell, Nov. 23; Edith Parrish, Nov. 29; Miss Ethel Kelly, Nov. 28; Mrs. Louise Nelson, Nov. 26; Burnice Powell, Nov. 23; G. W. Smith, Nov. 26; Merel Deloach, Nov. 27; Martha Johnson, Nov. 27; Tom Tiffin, Nov. 27; Lillie May Thompson, Nov. 27; G. M. Wyatt, Nov. 28; Mrs. Louise Prince, Nov. 22; LAY DAM—G. W. Bates, Nov. 23; MAPLESVILLE—Margaret Nix, Nov. 26; THORSBY—Louise Collins, Nov. 26; Callie Cooper, Rte. 1, Nov. 27; BILLINGSLEY—Tiny Kate Dopson, Nov. 28; MITCHELL DAM—Geraldine Hollis, Nov. 25.

Grocery WADE'S Market

Phone 93 — Clanton's Complete Food Store

LARD

4-Lb Carton Pure 65c
2-Lb Carton Pure 35c
4-Lb Carton Compound 52c
8-Lb Carton Compound $1.00

FLUFFO OIL

Quart 34c
Pint 18c

Milk 3 Large or 6 Small 17c

Brooms or Mops, Each .. 20c

Armour's Star — Potted Meat, 3 for 10c

Pure Mustard, Qt. 15c

Fancy Shredded — Coconut, Lb 18c

23-oz Can Phillips — Vegetable Soup, 3 for 25c

Lighthouse Cleanser, 3 for 10c

Regular 5c Salt, 3 for 9c

Rock Bottom Prices on FLOUR and FEEDS

SUGAR 10 lbs 53c

No. 2 Can — Tomatoes, 2 for 15c

Stokely's Finest Green Beans, Kraut, Beets — STRAIGHT or ASST 3 for 24c

Matches 3 for 9c

Lb Can VanCamp's — Pork and Beans 5c

14-oz — Catsup, 2 for 19c

Pink Salmon, 2 for 25c

Chum Salmon 10c

Crackers, lb box 10c

Kerosene, gallon 13c
5 Gallons 63c

Fresh Ground — Coffee, Lb 10c

Regular 10c Size Campbell's — Tomato Juice, 3 for 24c

Salad Dressing, qt 23c

Market Specials

Mixed Sausage, Lb 16c
Franks, Lb 15c
Picnic Hams, Lb 23c
Bacon Squares, Lb 23c
Rib or Chuck — ROAST, Lb 12c

Good Steak, Lb 15c
Best Cut Round, Loin or — T-BONE STEAK, Lb 17c
Full Cream — CHEESE, Lb 19c
Bacon Sliced, Lb 32c
Bologna, Lb 15c

W. L. Sanders Asks For AAA Explaining

Editor Union-Banner:

Please permit me to say a few words through your columns to the farmers of Chilton County about the triple A.

I have never seen a time when the farmers should od any more serious thinking than just now. The question before us is of vital importance. It deals directly with the farmers and should be clearly understood before making a final decision. The question is simple and, when it is analyzed we find much involved. The question is this: Shall we sign up to co-operate with the AAA? The word co-operate is the word that makes the contract binding. Eliminate the word co-operate from the contract and see if you have the same obligation.

Let us rewrite the question, and define the word co-operate in this particular instance. Shall we sign up to be satisfied with our small allotments, be satisfied to pay half of our cotton for taxes, be satisfied for one farmer, with a large family to have an allotment of two bales of cotton and his neighbor with a small family to have an allotment of ten bales? Shall we be satisfied for Secretary Wallace to be the farmer's dictator, be satisfied with a program that will allow the county committeemen to reduce one man's allotment and raise another Shall we be satisfied with paying millions of dollars from the farmer's pockets to hire bosses, high and low, and on every corner to attend to the farmers business? Shall we be satisfied with any and everything, with the AAA?

Now, my farmer friends, for us to sign up to co-operate with the AAA means that we agree to do just what the AAA and its officials want us to do. I can't see why people are being asked to support such a program, when they have clearly demonstrated the fact that they do not want it.

Right here I want to ask the County Agent of this county a few questions, and hope that he will answer them through the public press. Now, Mr. County Agent, have you not been told that the AAA is working a hardship on most of the farmers of Chilton County? Can you not see that the program is filled with discrimination? Are you willing to back a program filled with discrimination? Are you supporting the AAA wholeheartedly? Do you think any change needs to be made in the AAA? If you thing some changes need to be made, why don't you ask the farmers not to sign up until all necessary changes are made? Do you think it fair to offer the farmer a parity check at the same time he is asked to sign up to co-operate with the AAA? Do you think it is fair to refuse the parity check to the farmers who refuse to sign up? Is the farmer's cotton who refuses to sign up worth less than the farmer's cotton who signs up? Does this not seem like outright bribery to you?

If the farmers who are not allowed to sell enough produce, tax free, to exist upon, should sign up, what plan of livelihood would you offer?

Now, Mr. County Agent, I am not asking you these questions because I have anything against you personally, but simply because your office is indirectly responsible to the people of Chilton County, and that they should know the policies of the office.

Next, I want to ask the farmer a few questions which he can decide for himself. If the AAA has brought you down to a subsistent level, are you willing to sign to continue? If you are faring well under the AAA, are you willing to sign up for a program that will bring to your neighbor starvation, nakedness and even drive many from their homes

Dear people, let us remember the judgment, what the Lord said He would say to many on that day, "I was a hunger and ye fed me not, I was naked and ye clothed me not, I was a stranger and ye took me not in; even as ye did it unto one of these little ones, even so ye did it unto me; depart from me ye workers of iniquity, for I never knew you."

My dear citizens, are we going to sign up to make our destruction sure? You remember that Judas betrayed Jesus for three pieces of silver, and brought destruction to himself. Are we going to act the traitor that Judas did? Are we going to be a traitor to our neighbor, who is in need for a few pieces of silver, or a parity check. My friends, let us not crucify our neighbor, but love him as ourself.—Yours for the right, W. L. Sanders.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

P.-T. A. SPONSORS THREE-RING WILD ANIMAL SHOW COMING TO CLANTON

On Wednesday, November 27th, just about the time most of the people of Clanton are thinking of getting up, the long line of trucks of the Mighty Haag Shows will begin to arrive here, and start work pitching their vast city of tents on the high school base ball park, where they will give two complete performances.

The Haag show this year will bring to Clanton more wild animals, horses, ponies and trained dogs than ever before exhibited. This year the Haag shows are featuring such well known acts as the Tan Araki Japanese Troupe in a new act, Johnson Duo of wire walkers, Zeldo Troupe of head balancers, Fisher family of Acrabats and Haag's herd of performing elephants, largest and best trained in the country, presented by Miss Ruby Fisher, who takes her life in her hands twice daily when she places her head n the mouth of one of the elephants.

There will be a street parade at 1 p.m. followed by a number of free exhibitions on the show grounds. Performances start at 2 p.m. and at 8 p.m., but doors will open one hour earlier so as to give everyone an opportunity, and ample time to visit Haag's big new zoo and be entertained by Haag's Gold Concert Band.

Admission will be at popular prices, and the public is assured of a whole evening of splendid entertainment.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over MAZAR'S STORE

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies --- Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :—: :—: Alabama

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Zamora Temple's annual Fall ceremonial was held in Birmingham, Nov. 20.

Morgan County's new $60,000 tuberculosis sanatorium at Flint has been opened.

Establishment of a municipal waterworks system at Decatur is being considered by city officials.

The WPA has placed 6[illegible] women to work in the 10 counties of District 1, with 100 of them employed in Morgan County.

Five-cent bus fares for Montgomery were assured as plans went forward for the abandonment of this city's street car system.

Resignation of G. B. Phillips as Lauderdale County agent to accept the same position in Limestone County has been announced.

The Public Service Commission has extended the time for filing preliminary briefs in the Alabama telephone rate case from Nov. 18 to Nov. 25.

Miss Elizabeth Swift, Fairfield, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Methodist Students Union organized at Florence State Teachers College.

Selma city officials are seeking a clear title to a 240-foot lot for donation as a site for Dallas County's projected $60,000 National Guard armory.

A modern ship building plant will be built on the Tennessee River at Decatur by the Ingalls Iron Works Co., officials of the company announced.

Given $3,800,000 additional in Federal funds, Alabama heads of the Works Progress Administration are rushing plans to initiate several new projects over the state.

Struck by the accidental discharge of his shotgun, A. O. Parker, of Virginia Mines, Jefferson County, was instantly killed while hunting near Yolande, in Tuscaloosa County.

After a conference with J. L. Perry, president of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co., in Montgomery, Gov. Bibb Graves announced sharp reductions in the tonnage tax on coal and iron ore.

Alvin Cooley, farmer of Tanner, Limestone County, died after falling under the wheels of a freight train near Athens Depot. The young farmer lost his footing in attempting to board the moving train.

Alabama's cotton crop, estimated at 1,065,000 bales, is the second highest on record for the state, according to the monthly crop report of F. W. Gist, Federal and state agricultural statistician.

Earnest Tuggle, of near Quinton, has been arrested in connection with the fatal shooting of Clifton McCarty, of Quinton. McCarty was shot at close range at Reid's Ferry, near Flat Creek, following a quarrel.

Talladega Chapter, Future Farmers of America, have announced that part of a $150 prize won by the chapter for an exhibit at the recent state fair in Birmingham will be donated to aid crippled children in Alabama.

Eighteen new indictments charging the nine Negro defendants in the "Scottsboro case" with attacking two white women were returned by a Jackson County Grand Jury that included one Negro as a member.

Gov. Bibb Graves has created a new board to be known as the Parole Bureau to make a survey of Alabama's approximately 6,000 prison population with a view to freeing a larger number of prisoners and helping them to find jobs.

Work has been resumed on a statewide Federal geodetic survey started several months ago under the old relief setup. The Works Progress Administration was allotted $172,800 for continuing the project another year.

Sam Bradley, junior at Birmingham-Southern College and state president at the Methodist Youth Conference in will be chairman of discussion groups of the Methodist Student Conference, Memphis during the Christmas holidays.

A party headed by Frank R. Mason, Chicago real estate operator, have been inspecting Clay County lands near Chandler Springs for the possibility of mining manganese ore.

Atty. Gen. A. A. Carmichael has ruled that funds of county boards of child welfare should be transferred to the county public welfare unit now carrying on child welfare work.

The half million dollar Methodist Memorial Hospital at Montgomery has been reopened with a complete surgical laboratory and nursing staff under the direction of Dr. S. D. Suggs.

Mr. J. H. Hendrix, of Wofford Oil Co., Birmingham, was a business visitor to Clanton last Wednesday.

3 STAR :—:—: 3 STAR

AIR CIRCUS

Clanton, Alabama — Clanton's Airport
SUNDAY, NOV. 24, 1935
See Little Billie Make Death Defying Leap from Plane 1,000 Feet Up Without Parachute at 3:00 P. M.
PASSENGER FLYING SATURDAY and SUNDAY
STUNT FLYING ADMISSION FREE

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF OUR FATHER; HONOR AND PEACE TO OUR MOTHER IS OUR PRAYER

Our earthly father has passed to silence. May the memory of his life and work live forever in our minds and hearts.

Oh, mighty death, thou hast cast out of the world a body tortured with physical misery, a soul mellowed with time and toil—our loved one to whom we pay our tribute.

He was in sympathy with the poor and the weak. A friend of the oppressed, a helper of the needy. His integrity, blended with justice was far-reaching, to friend or foe. He prayed unselfishly for his fellow-man, worked untiringly until struck with physical burdens. He loved beauty in its form of the human side of life. It's colors of worthy deeds, its gestures of happiness and laughter, its humbleness in religious worship and its peace in harmonious music. He loved nature in its simplicity as well as its greatness. His wit and humor were among his chief diversions.

Now that he is gone, we may cry aloud but can hear only an echo as our answer. Let us accept our loss with tranquility and sing praises in our hearts for his freedom of gross suffering.

God grant that we may have a greater understanding and higher courage and may our trails of experience, to the foothills of the range, where the first link of our chain was broken, give us strength to break trail up the mountain of promise and light. Grant that we may have the inspiration to keep our faces always upward and our hearts aright with God, as was his desire from our early childhood.

To our dear sweet mother, let us give thanks for her valor in her most bewildered moment, for her courage when the footprints of time chose to sever her from her beloved companion. May she continue to strow fresh flowers over the nerraw path of life. May the stumbling blocks of heartaches be mellowed with time and transformed into stepping stones of beauty, serenity and valor. May the golden glow of a fireside be cheerful and sweet melodies of music restful to her. May the beauty of true friendships be a solace and God's book a comfort and joy. May her faith be her shield to quench temptation and may it impel her to humility and gratitude. May the angels guard her in in her sleeping hours and watch over her in her waking moments of domestic duties, with a song in her heart and God's love in her soul.

God grant her peace and enable her to let her light so shine that others may glorify Thee. Amen.—The Children of the Late D. O. Manning and Mrs. Emma C. Manning.

CENTER HILL NEWS

We are always glad to appear with our bit of news and really enjoy reading news from other places.

It Seems old man winter is really coming at last. People here are all busy trying to finish gathering and laying in a supply of wood.

We are sorry to say we still have some on the sick list around here. Miss Mildred Cobb is still in bed. Mrs. J. E. Cobb is not able to be out yet. We were proud to have Mable Cobb out with us last Sunday. Grandma Price is very ill. She was taken worse Sunday night. Her son, Mr. Pete Price, from Birmingham, is here with her.

This community was made sad Saturday afternoon on hearing of the death of little Berney Wayne Gillespie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. (Gwendolyn Cobb) Louis Gillespie. The body was brought to Center Hill for burial Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Bro. Kelly, great-granfather of the baby, and Bro. Maurice Hodgens conducted the funeral, with Martin in charge. Our deepest sympathy go out to the parents, also to the other relatives.

Bro. Durbin was with us Sunday and gave quite an inspirational talk on Sunday school work. While here Sunday, Bro. Durbin dined at the home of Mrs. J. W. Collum.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cobb and daughter, Peggy Sue, and Mr. Vester Rodgers took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Corey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lesley spent Saturday night with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Lesley. On Sunday they all went to Calera and spent the day with Mrs. J. C. Seay and son, Frank.

Miss Lelia George and Mrs. Paul Webb spent Monday afternoon with Mildred Cobb.

Fred Collum spent Saturday and Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Osteen Lenoir, and cousin, Floyd Atkinson.

Everybody remember to come to Sunday school Sunday and prayer meeting every Wednesday night.

Mr. Burble Price has an attack of flu.

Mrs. B. L. Cobb is in Clanton with her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Gillespie.

We want to especially remind everybody next Sunday afternoon is our singing time. Be sure to come and bring your books and let's praise the Lord in song for two or three hours. Try to meet with us at 1:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thrash were visiting relatives here Saturday night and Sunday.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

WITH Thanksgiving so close, Sunday dinner must take second place in the plans of the housewife. This week it is wise to buy staple and non-perishable foods. In order to know what will be needed, a menu with its market list should be made. Tell your butcher what size turkey you want so that it will be on hand for you next week.

Sunday's dinner will be attractive and good but not quite so special as usual. Chucks of beef and lamb and pork cuts other than from the loin are fairly economical. Eggs are cheaper but butter is higher. All root vegetables and most members of the cabbage family are cheap. So are string beans and spinach.

Here are two Sunday dinners and an average Thanksgiving feast.

Low Cost Dinner

Braised Lamb Shanks Boiled Rice
Glazed Carrots
Bread and Butter
Vanilla Pudding Preserves
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner

Roast Shoulder of Lamb Mint Jelly
Mashed Potatoes Spinach
Bread and Butter
Chocolate Cream Pie
Tea or Coffee Milk

Thanksgiving Dinner

Consommé or Grapefruit
Celery Olives
Roast Turkey
with Two Kinds of Stuffing
Giblet Gravy Cranberry Sauce
Cauliflower, Maitre d'hotel
Green Beans
Hearts of Lettuce Roquefort Dressing
Rolls and Butter
Pumpkin Pecan Ice Cream Wafers
Fruits and Nuts Coffee

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

USED RADIOS

We have a few Used Radios for sale, in both Table and Cabinet Models. All Electrics. Prices range from $5.00 up. Come in — see these Bargains!

7-Tuble Table Model ATWATER KENT $5.00
5-Tube Table Model CROSLEY $10.00
5-Tube Modernistic AIR KING $10.00
6-Tube Cabinet ZENITH $19.50
8-Tube Cabinet ZENITH (Shadow Tuning) $29.50
8-Tube Cabinet Model SILVERTONE $5.00

Also Full Line Of 1936 Model PHILCOS Priced From $20 to $600

TIFFIN Furniture Company
Fox Bldg., south of Courthouse
CLANTON, ALA.

POOR OR

WEST END Specials

For This Week-End At

J. H. BROADHEAD'S

Phone 228- - - - - - - We Deliver

FOR CASH ONLY

GOOD — STEAK, lb 15c

REGULAR 5c — 2 PR — Shoe Strings 5c

Fresh EGGS 30c
Good FRYERS
Per lb 20c

TOMATOES ..
10-oz Can
Only 5c

Matches 3 boxes 10c

WE BUY COUNTRY PRODUCE

GOLD FLAKE
FLOUR

24-lb Bag, Plain $1.00
24-lb Bag, S. R. $1.05
48-lb Bag, Plain $1.90
48-lb Bag, S. R. $1.95

WHITE TULIP — SHORTS, 100 Pounds $1.85

JAZZ DAIRY — FEED, 24 Per Cent $2.20

Says Farmers Union Best For Agriculture

The final determination of every great cause finally lies in what the people, who are affected, do about it, and it is equally important how they do it. We are going through a crisis. What we are doing and how we do it and when we do it will pretty much determine the future of America.

It will determine what safeguards if any American citizens will enjoy with respect to liberty and freedom. Every farmer in America now must know that he is being singled out as one whose rightful liberties and ordinary freedom are to be curtailed, and if permitted, finally destroyed.

The first act in this direction as we know now, was promulgated under the Hoover administration by the Federal Farm Board and its army of federal payrollers. Special attention to the farmers, and even greater attention was given to the farm organizations. Especially the farmer's union, because of the fact that the farmer's union was the militant voice of agriculture demanding recognition of its principles refusing compromises, opposing dishonestey and hypocricy in dealing with the agricultural problems.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act and its administration is attempting to carry out the same essential program of restricting, curtailing, and, in fact, annuling the bill of rights of our Federal Constitution in their dealings with the farmers of America. But it even goes further. It seeks definitely to limit and restrict the agricultural income to a subsistence level.

The American farmer, wherever he may be(who is courageous and sincere enough to become organized with his neighbor, understands these things.

Now resident Roosevelt declares that he is determined to make permanent the vast bureaucracy of destruction, bribery, corruption and debauchery known as the AAA. He declares that the AAA will serve American farmers for years to come. There are signs that the President may be wrong in his predictions.

First: the sign of the Supreme Court's decision that such a course is unconstitutional and un-American.

Second: the sign that mass armies of consumers will be recruited to batter down the flimsy structures which have been holding up a few items of farm products during the period of security.

Third: the sign that a political whirlwind is about to strike this nation which will react upon agriculture with a force of power all the more vicious because of what bureaucracy has presented to do in behalf of American agriculture.

The hour was struck for some sound thinking by farmers who realise this perilous situation. Nothing can avert disaster but organized cooperation directed and controlled by the farmers themselves. In this hour of national danger the farmers union calls on every independent farmer to join the ranks of the only real farmer's organization left to function on a national scale by the destructive forces of debauchery and bureaucracy. No honest farmer endorsed the rotten principles of destroying his own production of human food. Yet every farmer demands as a minimum of his economic right that prices of farm products shall not be less than the cost of production.

On the one side stands bankruptcy and on the other stands debauchery so long as the AAA is permitted to live.

The farmers union offers the only possible means of avoiding these equally revolting and destructive courses of action, cost of production for the farmer for all of his products sold in the American consumptive market. Join with us in this fight. Join now and win.—B. S. Frederick, Secretary-Treasurer, Chilton County F. E. and C. U. of A.

BIRTH CERTIFICATES ISSUED DURING MONTH OF OCTOBER

Following is a list of birth certificates issued to people of Chilton County during the month of October:

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cummings, Rte. 1, Clanton, female, Oct. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Causey, Lomax, boy, Oct. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezell Calfee, Rte. 6, Clanton, girl, Oct. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffie Crew, Cooper, girl, Oct. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cochran, Rte. 1, Mpalesville, girl, Oct. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Chambers, Rte. 2, Maplesville, girl, Oct. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Fox, Rte. 2, Maplesville, girl, Oct. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortenberry, Clanton, girl, Oct. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grimes, Clanton, boy, Oct. 1,.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Higgins, Clanton, girl, Oct. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elijah Jones, Rte. 5, Clanton, boy, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie D. Jones, Jemison, boy, Oct. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolon Jones, Rte. 2, Jemison, girl, Oct. 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keeth, Rte. 2, Jemison, girl, Oct. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Killingsworth, Rte. 1, Jemison, girl, Oct. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vernon Littleton, Rte. 5, Clanton, girl, Oct. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henry Lett, Rte. 2, Clanton, boy, Oct. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ben McDowell, Rte. 2, Clanton, girl, Oct. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mims, Rte. 2, Clanton, boy, Oct. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. David McCary, Thorsby, boy, Oct. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Martin, Rte. 1, Jemison, boy, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pate, Thorsby, boy, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Patterson, Rte. 1, Verbena, boy, Oct. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pinkard, Rte. 5, Clanton, boy, Oct. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Parnell Ratliff, Clanton, Rte. 6, girl, Oct. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonza Shaw, Rte. 6, Clanton, boy, Oct. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stevens, Rte. 1, Calera, girl, Oct. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandon Taylor, Clanton, boy, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Wright, Rte. 2, Verbena, boy, Oct. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Ara Lee Williams, Rte. 2, Clanton, girl, Oct. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Eugene Williams, Rte. 1, Maplesville, boy, Oct. 21.

Dave and Earlee Boldin, Rte. 1, Maplesville, (colored,) girl, Oct. 8.

J. L. and Pearlie Mae Wilson, Rte. 1, Maplesville, (colored,) boy, Oct. 9.

Lee and Mary Williams, Maplesville, (colored,) boy, Oct. 8.

Fate and Warrene Sails, Rte. 2, Jemison, (colored,) boy, Oct 3.

Dick and Evelyn Seals, Maplesville, (colored,) girl, Oct. 2,

Buster and Ida Belle Hardy, Rte. 1, Maplesville, (colored,) girl, Oct. 17.

David and Elnora Goodson, Rte. 1, Thorsby, (colored,) boy, Oct. 1.

Joe and Rosa Gavan, Rte. 1, Stanton, (colored,) girl, Oct. 4.

Hartis and Lee Dunigan, Maplesville, (colored,) boy, Oct. 9.

Johnnie and Ethel Davis, Maplesville, (colored,) boy, Oct. 10.

John and Beavie Williams, Rte. 2, Verbena, (colored,) boy Oct. 9.

Abe and Laura Belle Watts, Verbena, (colored,) girl, Oct. 1.

Mr. L. H. Bean of Jemison was in Clanton last Wednesday afternoon.

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

SNAPSHOTS

A SERIOUS GAME OF MAKE-BELIEVE—Little Rita Sandall, aged three, makes a charming "bride." Her "groom" is Julia Warren, aged six, and for a little girl makes a perfect gentleman.

Gone are household troubles caused by frayed wires, broken plugs, short circuits and other wire defects that force electric appliances into idleness. Famed songstress, Countess Olga Albani, has equipped her home with the new approved electrical cords soldered to soft rubber plugs made by Belden. Engineers call the wire troubles "cordite."

ROLLED OVER AT SIXTY MILES AN HOUR—The camera clicked at a critical moment as "Lucky" Teter, daredevil driver, subjected the 1936 Plymouth to a final series of hair-raising tests in Detroit. This first photo of the new Plymouth shows all four wheels off the ground as Teter rolls the car over and over. Teter drove the car away, undamaged, upon completion of the roll. A new type girder steel frame and safety-steel body enable the car to withstand such punishment.

Here is a model of a MODEL valve. This huge replica of the new type Hoffman radiator valve is built on a scale to vent a gigantic house, the size of the Empire State building. Like its comparatively tiny brother its port may be adjusted to various sizes in order to balance any particular heating system.

VIENNESE BEAUTY—We've all heard about the gorgeous artists' models of Vienna. Here's looking at one of the best!

WELL DOG MY CATS! Pussy is playing dentist—just a little wider, please!

When you come to The Leader you will find now as in the past---Everything

Reduced! IN PRICE

For our Anniversary Sale

So that our customers may buy these items of Clothing for the Winter at "Live and Let Live" prices. Remember The Leader is your friend.

SHOES

500 Pairs Men's Fine Dress Oxfords; Black and Brown, Wide or Narrow Toes; Crease or Cap Toes; Leather or Composition Soles; Sizes 6 to 11; Values up to $2.45 for $1.69

500 Pairs Boys' and Children's SHOES Composition Soles; Sizes 6 to 2; former price $1.25, now 98c

200 Pairs Men's High Grade WORK SHOES — All Sizes; $1.98 Values for $1.49

250 Pairs Women's Dress OXFORDS; Broken Lots and Sizes; New Stock; Low or High Heels; to be Cleaned Out at Low Pirce of $1.00

All Women's and Girls' WORK or SCHOOL OXFORDS; Star Brand All-Leather Shoes; Never Sold Before for Less Than $1.95; Special This Sale $1.74

Men's Heavy Fleece-Lined JUMPERS—Full Cut $1.35

MEN'S PULL-OVER SWEATERS 44c

Men's and Boys' Heavy Zipper JACKETS (Navy Blue Only) — Special $1.79

Men's 220 Weight Pepperell Denim OVERALLS; Two Bib Pockets; Full and Roomy 79c

Ladies' Winter Coats

—Models Embracing Every Fashion Detail That Spells Winter Chic! Smart Sleeves — Neatly Belted — Luxurious Fur Collars.

One Lot Navy, Brown and Black; Action Back or Polo Style — Special $5.16

Beautifully Tailored Basket Weave Tree Bark Action Back — A Favorite Style This Fall. Special his Sale $9.16

DRESSES

One Lot Silk Dresses in Friendly Crepes, Ruff Crepes, Triple Sheers, Etc., in all Winter Shades. Amazing Values at $6.16

LADIES' RAIN COATS — Sport Styles, All Colors $3.16

CHILDREN'S RAIN COATS — Special at $2.16

The Leader

M. LANDE - - - - - Clanton, Ala.

We Have Clothed Chilton County For Sixteen Years

Men's Suits

One Lot MEN'S SUITS; Values up to $12.95; Carried Over from last season; most all sizes $4.96

100 Men's High Grade SUITS—All Sizes and Colors; Every Suit All Wool New Material; $15.00 Values for 11.16

100 Boys' FINE SUITS in Blues Browns and Other Patterns; All Sizes; $6.95 Values for $4.16

Men's Covert Cloth Work Shirts, Triple Stitched, 2 pockets, full cut; in Gray, Brown, Tan or Blue 39c

Men's Genuine LEATHER CAPS—$1.25 Quality for 94c

36-Inch Blue CHEVIOTS Per Yard 10c

PLAY CLOTH, Best Grade; Fast Colors, 15c value at 12½c

8-Oz. FEATHER TICK; Guaranteed Feather Proof, Yard 22c

Fast Color PRINTS, Yard Wide, 15c Quality, Yard 10c

60x70 SINGLE PLAID BLANKETS 49c

ONE LOT MEN'S HATS; Broken Sizes and Colors; All Silk Lined; Worth up to $1.95 94c

Reg. 5c SCHOOL TABLETS Anniversary Special, 2 for 5c

IGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

If we get the drift of General Johnson's latest supplementary remarks about President Roosevelt, the general considers the President amiable and well meaning but weak, ineffective and guilliable. He thinks the whole New Deal is a washout, in other words, an abject failure.

On the strength of this recommendation, Johnson asks the people to vote for the re-election of Mr. Roosevelt.—The Detroit Free Press.

One of the reasons President Roosevelt crossed the continent was to find out what the people think about his administration. It would be interesting to know just how much the President, traveling in his private car containing five bedrooms, dining room and observation platform, equipped with radio and finished in mahogany, learned from the people. That is rather sound-proof isolation as far as getting "the feel of the country."—Sioux Falls Argus-Leader.

LIBERTY'S GUARANTEE

The people of this country should each day offer thanks to the framers of our Constitution, the document which guarantees freedom of speech and freedom of the press. This is the greatest protection a free people have against the crushing hand of officialism, bureaucracy, dictatorship and destruction of personal and property rights, and life itself, as we have seen occur in foreign lands not blessed with a constitution such as ours.

As one man, our people should resent any program to tamper with or weaken the basic principles of the United States Constitution.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

Although the returns from the scattering November elections are not complete enough as this is being written, to give a comprehensive analysis of the result, a few things stand out as a result of the preliminary study of the voting. In nearly every election held, local issues entered into the campaign. Yet the Republican successes were so general, with the exception of Kentucky, that the results spell encouragement for the wheelhorses of the G. O. P. in the coming presidential campaign. In New York, the Republicans captured the general assembly by a safe majority taking control away from the Democrats. It is true that Democratic chieftains claim a "moral victory" in the fact that they cast some 350,000 more votes for assemblyman, on a state-wide basis than did the Republicans. But this does not dispute the fact that the Republicans captured the assembly, and it is difficult to figure this out in any other way than a Republican victory. The heavy Democratic assembly majorities were rolled up in Greater New York where in many districts the Republicans put up little opposition. The G. O. P. strategists centered their attention on the up-state districts, and their strategy proved to be sound. The result received another unfortunate tinge, from the Democratic angle, owing to the fact that Democratic leaders in New York, a few days before the elections, appealed to the voters to elect a Democratic assembly in order to stand by the New Deal. The Republican victory, therefore, gave official color to the charge that it was a New Deal defeat. The New Deal appeal would have proved sound had the New Dealers won, but when they lost, the strategy turned out to have been especially bad.

Next to New York, national attention was centered principally on Pennsylvania. The Democrats thought they had a chance to elect a mayor in Philadelphia for the first time in sixty years. The Republicans were badly split, yet carried the city with around 50,000 plurality. This is less than usual, but it is to be remembered that the Republicans elected a solid bloc in the city council and that there only state-wide candidate won handsomely. The Republican victory is especially important because it seems to defeat New Deal aspirations of carrying Pennsylvania in 1936. In Massachusetts the Republicans made a good showing by carrying such important cities as Worcester and Springfield and electing twelve mayors. They were generally successful also in local elections in Ohio. Most significant of all, perhhaps, is the report that a big majority of the proposed bond issues in Ohio were defeated. These bonds were to be used to supplement public works for relief, and the vote seems to indicate that this section of New Deal activity is not as popular as it once was. Republican New Jersey registered Republican gains.

It was only in Kentucky where, according to early returns, the Democrats seem to have won a real victory. This however, like the Republican victory in Pennsylvania, was to have been expected. It is true that the Kentucky Democrats were split as were the Philadelphia Republicans. But it is always to be remembered that nowhere in America is the partisian spirit more effective than in Kentucky. The Democrats and Republicans there can split easily during a campaign but the splits are generally healed on election day. A Democratic defeat in Kentucky would have been disastrous as would have been a Republican defeat in the Keystone State. But neither happened.

A calm estimate of the figures at this time indicates that the Republican have ample reason to be encouraged by the election results this year. But they by no means have easy sailing. If they are to have a fair chance to win next year they must put forth their strongest candidate, whoever that may be, to oppose Roosevelt, and work continuously and effectively from now on until November, 1936.

CONSTITUTION THANKSGIVING

Now that we are again approaching the latter part of November and getting ready to render thanks to the Almighty for the blessings conferred upon us it is interesting to note that no less a personage than our first President issued a proclamation back in 1789, asking the people to render thanks for the American Constitution. In an interesting article in the November National Republic calling attention to this fact, Mr. J. E. O'Sullivan says in part:

"The people of the United States are approaching another Thanksgiving Day. The holiday of thankfulness seems to us a purely American institution. The observance of the event began with the Puritans. They set aside a day to render thanks to the Almighty because he had permitted them to found new homes in the wilderness, to protect themselves from the savages and to raise enough food to supply themselves and the members of their families. These Puritans were rugged individualists. They came to America to secure freedom of religious worship from an autocratic government which sought to deprive them of this blessing. They did not set out in government ships with tools and other provisions provided by government bounty. They came equipped only with the meager accoutrements which a niggardly civilization had provided for them. They came not with government aid but to escape government regulation of what they regarded as their inalienable rights as free born citizens.

"The colonies fringed along the Atlantic grew and prospered, as prosperity was measured in those lean days. Then same the demand for more liberty from an autocratic government, then for a free nation dedicated to the rights of man. But even in the stirring days of the Revolutionary war with its sacrifices and its suffering, Thanksgiving was not forgotten. Frequently during the long struggle the Continental congress set aside special days of Thanksgiving, to commemorate American feats of arms and to seek the blessings and guidance of the Ruler of all mankind.

"Peace was followed by discord, even by the danger of confederate dissolution. But this experiment in a new continent was not so ended. A congress of American patriots assembled in Philadelphia and there came forth after a summer of debate an American Constitution, providing for the establishment of a new kind of government, a republic in a democracy, in which the rights of the individual were to be preserved without sacrificing the essential powers of nationalism.

"Although some of the forward lookers of today take pleasure in telling us that the patriot fathers expressed some doubts as to the future of Constitutional government, it is good to know that even in the days of its adoption the Constitution was regarded as a political savior of the new nation. Its adoption was looked upon by the First Congress of the United States as a feat worthy of national Thanksgiving. Accordingly Congress appointed a committee whose duty and pleasure it was to wait upon President Washington to request that he recommend to the people of the United States a day of public Thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging, with grateful hearts, the many signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity to establish a Constitution of government for their safety and happiness.

"It is a far cry from 1789 to 1935, as individuals come and go. And yet in the life of the average nation it is a brief temporal span indeed. In this space of a century and half the United States of America has grown from an experimental backwoods country to potentially the richest and most powerful nation in the world. For this fact let us render due thanks, with a reverent determination to do our part that American Constitutional freedom which made these things possible, shall not fall before any Orientally conceived despotism cloaking its deadly intent with a mantle of hypocritical chant of world-wide brotherly love. Eternal vigilance is still the price of liberty and the enemy who bores from within is all the more deadly because of his cunning tactics."

WHAT WE NEED

Says the Syracuse Post-Standard:

"The Gofernment will not put men back to work.

"Industry and business will not put men back to work.

"The taxpayer is the one who will, finally, overcome unemployment.

"The taxpayer is the man who buys goods. He has an income, as his taxpaying shows. When he spends more money for goods, he will put more men to work.

"All of this public spending of money has not returned men to jobs. As many men are out of work today as there were without employment a year ago or two years ago. It shows that taking money from taxpayers does not pay. Substitute private for public spending.

"The fact that men are not going back to work as rapidly as they should is evidence enough that something is radically wrong. Why not recognize the truth and set off on a new and better course? Practice thrift and more thrift in government, give the taxpayer a little relief and he will begin to buy more goods. And more buying will solve the problem."

More and more it comes to be realized that the taxpayer of the United Staes is the real forgotten man. Money is being spent on every hand to "prime the pump" and yet the pump refused to be primed if we are to be guided in our judgment by the number of the unemployed and the number of persons who are on relief.

The fact is, as the Post-Standard has pointed out, that it is up to private industry to restore the counry to normal, and this can only be done if the taxpayer has enough money to purchase the produce of private business. Public construction may be necessary for a time as a stop-gap, but even at best it is an unsatisfactory remedy. Sooner or later, as is recognized by all economists, it is up to private industry to carry the burden of business revival. The more public money is spent to try to create employment, the more burden there is for the taxpayers to shoulder, and it is, afer all, the consumer who must restore normalcy in this country.

But the effects of tremendous federal spending and unbalanced budgets cannot be counted entirely in dollars. We have been told time and again that what this country needs is restoration of confidence and that until our so-called heavy industries really pick up there can be no permanent improvement in the country at large. Until we do get confidence there will be no prosperity. Curtailment of expenditure and balanced budgets are necessary. When these are effected there is a chance for tax reduction and business can go ahead with some confidence. Unfortunately the goal does not seem to be immediately in sight.

In the excitement of starting a war, Mussolini probably gives not a thought to the fact that his country still owes us a war debt of $2,000,000,000.—Brattleboro Reformer.

MAN IN THE MOON

A NEW LAW

Pardon me, please, while I take one good hearty laugh. Some of the members of that august body of lawmakers which is the "boast?" of Alabama have studied up some very crazy ideas and pulled some pretty dumb stunts in the past, but one is coming shortly which will top all put forth so far.

It remained for one Mr. Cater of Montgomery county to study up this one. He will propose at the next meeting of the Alabama legislature that a law be passed requiring every voter in Alabama to re-register, and furthermore, to register every four years. On top of all that, he will propose that this law require every voter to state his party affiliation at the time he registers. If you are a Democrat, you must so state at the time you register, and your name will be placed on the roster of Democrats. Likewise if you are a Republican, you will be on that list. If you are a split voter—well, I suppost they would just put you down on a log somewhere until they found a place for you.

Mr. Cater expects, by this plan, to keep Republicans out of Democratic primaries, so he says. We wonder if he knows how much this plan would suit the Republicans of Chilton County. Democrats coming into our Republican primaries have been spiders in our coffee for years and years, and nothing could suit us better than to see this law passed and enforced, especially that part concerning voting in primaries other than those of one's own party. That business of registering every year will be a little trouble, but it will be well worth this trouble if it will stop the Democrats from voting people who have been dead for years, like they did last year in our county.

We really hope Mr. Cater gets his idea over, although it is a crazy one. We are just a little afraid, though, that someone will drop a bug in his ear and stop the plan, as was done in the case of the absentee voters law. You will remember they were going to do away with that, but the news got around that the law was a great help to the Democratic cause in Republican counties, like the case of Chilton County in 1934, and the new plan was dropped like a hot coal. We welcome any change in Alabama's rotten election system. It couldn't be worse.

THAT EXTRA TWO CENTS

A few weeks ago, when the cotton price peg was set at 10 cents, farmers were promised an additional two cents, to bring the price of cotton to 12 cents per pound. That is, they were promised the difference between the price they received on the spot market and 12 cents. When the matter was explained in full, it was found that the farmers would not receive the difference between what they were actually paid and 12 cents, but would receive the difference between the average price of the 10 big spot markets and 12 cents, according to the average price o nthese markets on the particular day on which their cotton was sold. It was found, too, that this average was generally from 25 to 50 points above the price actually paid for cotton on any given day at this point.

For instance, suppose a farmer sold a bale for 10.25 cents per pound, and the average of the 10 spot markets on that day was 10.50. That farmer would not receive the difference between 10.25 cents and 12 cents, but would receive the difference between 10.50 and 12 cents, although he sold for 10.25. That was the first joker to be uncovered in the intricate plan.

But the second was not long in showing up. When farmers began to inquire when they would get this extra margin, they were told that they would not receive anything unless they signed up for next year. In other words, that extra two cents per pound is a club held over the farmer's head to try to force him to cooperate in a plan which affects him vitally, yet which, according to all evidence, he does not like.

Now, the officials of the AAA contend that the cotton plan is the best for the farmers, and they will tell you, too, that the majority of farmers are in favor of it, although you can't get many farmers to tell they are. There is just one little question I would like to have answered by someone in charge of the cotton business or who is in favor of it. If it is such a good thing for the farmers to sign up to, and if the farmers are so overwhelmingly in favor of it, then why is the two-cent club held up to force farmers to sign for another year? What connection is there between this year's crop and that of next year? Will someone connected with the cotton business or in favor of the present plan answer these two questions? We're waiting for the answer.

BANKHEAD'S NEW PLAN

Have you read Sen. John Bankhead's proposed new cotton plan to help farmers? If you haven't, then you have a big laugh coming. Boy, oh boy, if that isn't a masterpiece fit to wonder at and ponder over, then I'd like for some bright boy to poke one out to us.

Here it is, and if there is one single, solitary person, no matter who he may be, farmer, merchant or what-not in Chilton County who can see how it is better than the present so-called cotton plan, (which is bad enough in itself), then we would like to have that gentleman stroll by our sanctum and let his identity be known. We confess, we fail to find the solution to the farmer's problem in it.

Mr. Bankhead proposes to let farmer's pick any one of four plans. (1) To use the present 5-year base period, embracing the years 1928, 1929, 1930, 1831, and 1932. (2) Begin with 1929 and run for five years, as a base period. (3) Begin with 1930 and run for five years. (4) Begin with 1931 and run for five years.

Now isn't that a bright idea. Any nit-wit from the president on down knows that the trouble with the present plan is the allotments are too low in the majority of cases, and by the use of this plan these allotments would be lessened, because every year has seen a lessening of the allotments allowed and raised, and naturally any base period beginning since 1928 would show a smaller total production figure from which to work.

That just goes to show you how much Mr. Bankhead knows about the farmer's troubles. Mr. Bankhead is a lawyer and a politician—not a farmer. He knows just as much about how to propose for farmers as a farmer would about making laws—in fact, I don't know if some of our good sensible farmers couldn't make a better job of law-making than Mr. Bankhead has done.

Study those plans over, Mr. Farmer, and see if you see any solution to your cotton troubles in them. They don't look so hot to us, and we believe we know a barefoot boy who lives down in the fork of two creeks and never went to school a day in his life who could think up some plan fully as good as these.

WHO PAYS THE TAXES

Suppose someone should ask this question: "Who pays the taxes"? About 99 out of 100 would answer: "We all pay taxes". But do we? Let's pick an item, start in at the top, run the line of taxes for that item, and see who really pays them.

A New York banker pays $1,000 taxes. He lends money to a coal mining company and gets the money to pay his taxes. The mining company sells its coal to a railroad company, and tacks on the taxes it pays to its cost of production, collecting all from the railroad. The railroad company adds those taxes to its charge for hauling freight, as part of its operating cost. The merchant who has freight hauled pays those taxes in paying his freight charges. When that merchant sells the goods he has paid freight on, he adds the taxes, of course. Each one adds the taxes to his product or charge for services, until in the end, when the farmer buys his needs, he too pays the taxes which started back up there in the New York banker's office.

But right there the tax cycle stops. There is nothing the farmer can add the tax to. He is told what he can get for his products—he never makes a price on them himself. And you can bet your sweet life the taxes are not included in that price he receives. So, after all is said and done, poor old Mr. Farmer is the only taxpayer. Where else CAN it come from, when everyone adds his taxes to the price of his product except the farmer. Bankers, manufacturers, merchants, professional people, all figure their taxes in on the price of their goods or service, and these taxes are passed from one to another. When they get down to the farmer there is no one for him to pass them on to. HE HAS THEM TO PAY! Isn't that the truth?

If you know of someone who doesn't believe this, ask him to come around and explain his idea. If there is some way whereby farmers will be able to get out of paying the nation's tax bill I would like to hear about it, so that I might pass the good word on. I know lots of farmers who would like to find this plan, and I would certainly like to be the one to break the good news to them. —Man in the Moon.

ANOTHER BUBBLE BURSTS

Did you ever see popular ranting of pseudo-economists receive sterner, more crushing rebuke than comes to them today in the news sent from China? Two years ago, monetary quacks filled the American air with great promises of blessings sure to be had from an increase in the world price of silver. They wept aloud over the cruel wrongs done to China and other silver-using nations by the wanton refusal of the United States government to help raise the price of their white metal. How could we expect the Orient to prosper and buy American goods, they asked, unless we helped them to gain from their silver stocks a proper exchange value?

On Dec. 21, 1933, President Roosevelt put the stamp of his administration's approval on this glowing theory. Ordaining a domestic price of 64 cents for newmined American silver, at a time when the world price was only 42 cents, he inaugurated the silver purchase policy which Congress, spurred on by Sneator Thomas, had ratified at the previous session. The President acted, he said in a formal proclamation, because "from investigations made by me, I find it necessary, in aid of the stabilization of domestic prices . . . and to protect our foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, that the price of silver be enhanced and stabilized."

Today, we know the results of this supposedly beneficient policy. China has been driven—just as Mexico was driven many months ago—to suspend her silver standard altogether, and adopt a paper currency basis. The finance minister, H. H. Kung, tells the exact truth of record when he says that "With the rapid rise in the world price of silver, China's currency became seriously overvalued. There have been severe internal deflations, growing unemployment, wide-spread bankruptcies, a flight of capital abroad, a fall in Government revenues and an adverse balance of payments." And has all this needless desolation in China been accompanied by any good to the United States? Not a particle. On the contrary, the exports of American good to China have declined very sharply.

These events are closely in accord with the predictions made by thoroughgoing economists both of the Brookings Institution, for example, and of the United States Department of Commerce itself. Meanwhile, they are exact reverse of the prophecies and cocksure rantings of inflationists and other monetary tinkerers. The tragedy for China—and it is not less than that—may serve some purpose if only the American people will take heed of the actual outcome, and grow more wary of the lures and pretended omniscience of pseudo-economists.—Boston Transcript.

RADIO ADVERTISING

A special committee of the House of Commons has reported against a proposal that the British Broadcasting Commission should now go in for radio advertising as a means of additional revenue. The recommendation seems to be entirely gratuitous, in view of the well known and firm policy which the B. B. C. has pursued in this connection from the outset of its operations. As one pithy commentator puts it, this is rather like the urging that the use of the red flag in front of motor cars should be discontinued thirty years after it had died out.

The Daily Mail has this to say:

"Radio advertising is obsolete. Stations which make use of it are declining. They depend on gramaphone records for much of their programs, and not even on new gramaphone records. Buy a few sixpenny and shilling records and you can have much of the program of these commercial advertising stations all day long in your own home. Very few advertising stations are left on the continent. The radio ad has practically disappeared in Germany and all the states services have given it up in France."

The inference to be drawn is obvious.—Montreal Star.

PLENTY OF SEATS

According to the Montral Star "up in Caledonia, Ontario, without a cent of expenditure by the promoters for bleachers or ballyhoo, thirty thousand people turned out and stood around for the best part of a day; stood, be it noted, taking their chances of fallen arches and lumbago while 172 entrants held a plowing match"!

Shucks, that's nothin'. What do the Cancks know about plowing anyhow? Henry Wallace could beat all of 'em with one hand tied behind his back. Dodn't he plow under nearly one-third of the crops in the whole United States? Of course, it did cost us something to see him do it, but most everybody could sit down—and did.

ACCORDING TO PLAN

President Roosevelt is quoted by press dispatches as stating recently at Charleston, South Carolina, "We are coming back more soundly than ever before because we planned that way. Don't let anybody tell you differently."

All of which would seem to imply a definite change of theory during the past few months. As we remember it, things in the industrial and commercial world weren't so hot when planned economy as typified by the NRA was in the saddle. Then all at once the Supreme Court rendered its very important decision and the Blue Eagle felw out the window.

If we remember our news dispatches correctly there was much wailing and gnashing of teeth among the New Dealers at that time. It was intimated in some frenzied quarters that all was lost and that we were headed for the "bow wows." There was even some talk from high sources to the effect that the Supreme Court had relegated us to the "horse and buggy age" and that the Supreme Court had sadly disarranged the New Deal scenery.

Strangely enough business began to pick up the next day after he NRA was nullified and it has apparently been getting better ever since. How much is due to natural causes and how much to government pumping of taxpayer money into business remain to be seen. But things didn't "go to pot" as the New Dealers predicted.

Now we are glad to know that things are getting better because the administration planned them that way. Perhaps it even planned the Supreme Court NRA decision to clear the path for the reconstruction that followed, who knows? Wonder if that was part of the plan, anyhow?

Of course with the national deficit growing three billions a year and the national debt more than thirty billions for the first time in history, the statement that "we are coming back more soundly than ever before" is at least open to argument. But anyhow we are reassured that everything was planned in advance just as it is now happening.

COAL GOING UP

The bituminous coal industry is now under the little NRA, or what might be called the Blue Canary. The Guffey Coal Act took effect November 1, and one chief effect so far as the consumer of coal is concerned, will be a rise in the price per ton to the fellow who has to fill his bin.

It is estimated that the price to consumers will be increased from 20 cents to $1 per ton, partially due to the cost of administering the act. In order to prevent coal from getting to the consumer too cheaply the act provides that the coal commission has the power to set minimum prices to prevent unfair competition and sales below cost. This provision certainly has the old NRA ring to it.

Two commodities which do not seem to have been greatly increased yet in price to the poor consumer are potatoes and bituminous coal. We now have federal regimentation of both, and perhaps later on they will be delivering coal and potato products to us in celiophane. Who knows?

The first real effect of the administration's silvery policy is now in evidence. China has gone off the silver standard.

It is said that the favorite game of the hitch hikers is "Simple Simon Says Thumbs Up."

A writer on our insular affairs reminds us that the Phillipine Islands cost Uncle Sam twenty million dollars. Well, that's nothing. It costs the government nearly that much to keep the grass cut and the trees trimmed in Central Park.

Europe has displaced the United States as Brazil's best customer. And what do you think caused it? They are buying Brazilian cotton. Here is one for Henry Wallace's note book.

We don't suppose this new Federal potato control will go so far as to compel waiters to bring hashed browns instead of mashed when you order hashed browns.—Worcester, Mass, Evening Gazette.

Another reason why the League of Nations hesitates to strafe a predatory member is that, at one time or another, all of its principal members have been predatory.—Detroit Free Press.

We see where some New Dealers are supposed to give a fifteen dollar a plate banquet up in New England. Must be going to serve everybody with a couple of pork chops apiece.

It is said that the earthquake in Washington, D. C., recently was caused by the vibration of the adding machines of the government clerks who were busy figuring out the latest peak of the national debt.

It is said that in the anti-noise campaign in New York the city administration is going to compel the Federal workers in Central Park to shoot crap with rubber dice.

"Security obtained through government is always at the expense of personal liberty." —Preston S. Arkwright, President, Georgia Power Company.

"It occurs to me," says a letter writer to the Boston press, "that one word from the king of Italy could stop this war."—Atlanta Constitution.

It used to mean a man was up-to-date if you said that he was "city broke." Now it means that he is on government relief.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of November 17, 1910

Census figures show that in 1900 there were 16,522 people in Chilton county. In 1910 there are 23,187, an increase of a little over forty per cent.

In last Tuesday's election E. B. Deason received 1,037 votes and L. H. Reynolds received 990. Marion Foshee received 997 and H. M. Simpson 984. B. L. Jones won over C. D. Foshee by 8 votes.

Married this week—W. H. Pitts and Miss Mattie E. Holley, M. Tate and Miss Agnes Farr, P. H. Walker and Miss Quentella Headley, A. T. Mims and Miss Eliza Easterling, Walter Dobbs and Miss Minnie Hires, C. W. Gray and Miss Lula Pierce.

The little 3-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hyman passed away last Friday and was buried Saturday at Jemison.

Miss Laura Robinson of Cooper was a visitor to Clanton Wednesday.

POOR OR

Sugar 10 lbs 53c

TUBS No. 1 No. 2 No. 3 45c 50c 60c

MATCHES bxs. 10c

Fancy OUTING 36-In. 12c yd. 27-In. 7½c yd.

15c Quality BATH Towels 2 for 25c

REMEMBER! IT'S STILL THRIFT WEEK

Folks, take advantage of the many super values we are offering this week in Dry Goods and Groceries. We list here just a few of the many real values in our Store.

BIG TALKER 12 Lb. 24 Lb. 48 Lb. Flour 49c 85c $1.65

8-OZ. FEATHER PROOF TICKING, yd. 20c

MANCHESTER CHAMBRAY and PLAY CLOTH, yd. 7½c

--- AT THE --- Yellow Front Store

PURE Coffee Lb. 10c

SALT 25 lbs. 50 lbs. 100 lbs. 30c 55c 95c

4 Strand each BROOMS 20c

Men's Heavy UNIONSUITS PAIR 65c 2 PAIR $1.25

Men's 15c Quality DRESS SOX 2 pr. 25c

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

The Christian Endeavor Society will present a thanksgiving pageant "The Landing of the Pilgrims," at the Congregational church, Sunday evening at 6:30.

Services at the Congregational church as usual. Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Worship service at 11 a.m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p.m.

Choir practice at the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock under the direction of Miss Katheryn Foss.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The subject will be a continued discussion of "The Religion of the World."

The Boy Scouts will meet at the Congregational church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock to go on a camp.

Regular services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. J. O. Johnson. Everyone is invited.

A miscellaneous shower was given for Mrs. Ernest Arant last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Meade.

A group of people of Thorsby gathered at the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for the purpose of discussing ways and means of abolishing some of the things which are going on in Thorsby which are harmful to our boys and girls, Mr. V. H. Sutlive being chairman. The two subjects most discussed were the drinking of spiritual liquors, and slot machines and other gambling devices. After discussion it was decided that the chairman appoint a committee to draw up resolution against these evils to present to the town council. There will be another meeting held next Sunday afternoon, November 24, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Congregational church. All who are interested in this subject please be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Abercrombie of Birmingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Butler.

The P.-T. A. dinner and supper which was served in the town hall on November 16, was quite a success and a neat little sum was realized. The committee in charge wishes to thank all those who contributed in any way towards its success.

Mr. Earle Pate, who has been in the C. C. C. camps at Clanton for the past few weeks, returned home Wednesday to prepare for leaving Monday morning to go to Norfolk, Virginia, to join the navy.

Miss Helen C. Jenkins and Miss Ruth Ford of Thorsby Institute attended the high school advisors meeting held in Montevallo Saturday.

Miss Marguerite Davison returned to Thorsby with the group of delegates from Headland and will remain here for a week.

Mr. Luther Ward attended the Foreign War Veterans meeting in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Townsend of Birmingham spent Sunday with Father Townsend at the home of Mr. Malcolm Manning.

Miss Edith Foss, who is now taking a business course at Selma, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bosworth spent Sunday in Clanton with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meade were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mastin.

The delegates from the Congregational church who attend the conference at Headland reported an unusually fine conference.

Miss Lola Mae Bates of Sylacauga spent the week end with Miss Henrietta Bean.

Mrs. Janie Sutlive returned Friday night after a visit of several days in Blakely, Georgia, with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merchant visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kemp in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan of Clanton had as their guests for Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Howard, Mrs. Anna Phalin, Mr. Louie Howard, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Foss, Mr. and Mrs. James Bosworth and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson and daughter, Esther, from Thorsby, Miss Edith Foss and Naemi Turnquist from Selma. It was a very enjoyable occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pate and Conradine spent Friday in Birmingham.

Mrs. W. T. Robinson spent Monday in Birmingham.

Mrs. R. M. Smith had as guests Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Weldon of Clanton.

Rev. J. W. Jones and Mr. G. F. Harper returned Thursday night from the convention at Troy and reported a fine time.

Mrs. Harry Waters spent a few days last week in Birmingham.

Mrs. N. Laurell had as her guests for a few days last week Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moore and children of Birmingham.

Miss Imogene Yates of Selma, who has been visiting Miss Sallye Thompson, returned to her home last Thursday.

Corn In The Shuck To Ground Meal

We are prepared to Shuck and Shell your Corn and Grind it into Meal, and the cost is a mere trifle.

Also we can Grind any kind of Feed according to your peculiar desires. We are here to serve the Farmrs of Chilton County. Just let your wants be known and we will do the rest.

YOUR PATRONAGE APPRECIATED

Central Alabama Milling Co.

Willie Crowson

Lay Dam Road East Clanton

Winners In Better Homes Contest At Mitchell Dam

MR. AND MRS. A. L. (STEVE) STANLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley were second prize winners. Steve, another class A man, and when something goes wrong electrically, they call him, and he's there pronto! Basketball players note: Steve plays forward on the Mitchell Dam team.

Center are Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Ellison and their "boss," Miss Jetta Fay, first prize winners in the Better Homes Contest at Mitchell Dam. Perry is class A mechanic at Mitchell, and what he can't do with a piece of metal just can't be done. When he's not on the job he's either building a garage or something around the house—sometimes a hooh-house (dog house to the uninitiated.) Perry's a bird hunter and of course must have a good dog to "tree" them.

MR. AND MRS. PERRY ELLISON and JETTA FAY

MR. AND MRS. F. O. ROBINSON and SON

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. and Billie Robinson were the third prize winners. "Bozo" as F. O. is known to his intimates, is class B Turbine Operator when he's on the job, and a farmer (whether class A or Z is not stated), when he catches up on work around the house. It is understood that Mrs. Robinson was responsible for winning the prize, but being big-hearted permitted Bozo to get in the picture with her. Billie seems to be saying, "Well, where is that bird that was going to come out of the camera?"

(Courtesy Powergrams)

Christian Endeavor News

The Christian Endeavor Society had a monthly social Saturday, November 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Butler. Some interesting games were played sponsored by LeRoy Peterson, Mary Nell Pate and Robert Weems. The social committee, with the help of Miss Marguerite Davison. Special music was given by Fred Blankenship, William Sharpe and Bernard Adams. Fred played the mandolin, William and Bernard played guitars.

The program for Sunday evening, November 17 was very interesting. The topic under discussion was "Sharing our Religion". The sub-topics were "Words and Deeds," "Take it or Leave it," "Propogandist" and "Contagion". Miss Mae Annice Polk was the leader of the evening. Two new members were received, William Sharpe and Dwight Stewart. A trio consisting of Miss Ruth Pcimm, Misses Juanita Each and Lucille Each sang special music for the evening.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton of Birmingham spent a few days last week with Mrs. N. Laurell.

Miss Esther Johnson of Birmingham spent the week end at home with her parents.

A miscellaneous shower was given Tuesday afternoon, November 19, for Miss Juanita Each at the home of Mrs. R. R. Franklin.

Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Miss Louise Fitzpatrick made a visit to Birmingham on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Each celebrated her birthday last Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Each of Birmingham, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Franklin and Mr. Grady Tapscott.

Thorsby Institute News

Rev. A. E. Middlebrooks, pastor of the Clanton Methodist church, spoke in chapel on Wednesday morning.

The faculty of Thorsby Institute recently entertained the parents and guardians of the Institute students. The public school faculty was also invited. Games and an interesting program were planned. After these had been enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served.

Next Saturday night the annual stunt night of Thorsby Institute will take place. Everyone is invited. Admission will be ten cents.

Do You Ever Wonder

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Ask Your Doctor and Find Out

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this — and see that you get what you want.

Bayer Aspirin

Judge McCord Opposed Hand-Picking Delegates

To the Democrats of Alabama:

The State Democratic Executive Committee met in Montgomery on November 13th, and without giving notice to its members of an intention so to do, passed the following resolutions:

"Be it further resolved that this committee do now elect as delegates at large from the state of Alabama to the Democratic National Convention to be held in the year of 1936, our governor, Bibb Graves and our two United States Senators, Hugo L. Black and John H. Bankhead, and our state chairman, John D. McQueen; and Governor Graves is authorized by this committee to act as chairman of the Alabama delegation.

"Be it resolved further that four delegates from each congressional district, with one-half vote each, be elected in the 1936 primary election; and that each delegate elected appoint an alternate delegate."

I went before the committee and earnestly protested against this procedure.

The Democrats of Alabama should have the right, if they so desire, to instruct every delegate and alternate delegate who goes to our National Democratic Convention as to how they shall vote and for whom they shall vote.

Our State Committee is composed of 72 members. Only 31 members voted for the resolution, 34 being present. The call of the committee nowhere disclosed that such a resolution was to be taken up by the committee, and only 18 counties of the 67 were represented by the vote taken.

I therefore invite Governor Graves, Senators Hugo L. Black and John H. Bankhead and Chairman John D. McQueen to join with me in requesting the Democratic Executive Committee of Alabama to rescind its action and permit the Democrats of Alabama to name at the polls next year each and every delegate and alternate delegate to the next Democratic National Convention.—Very sincerely yours, Leon McCord, Democratic National Committeeman for Alabama.

TALMADGE COTTON TAX SUIT ALLOWED BY SUPREME COURT

Original Case Makes Certain New Deal Test

Washington, Nev. 18.—A fresh attack on constitutionality of a New Deal act became certain Monday when the Supreme Court gave permission to Governor Eugene Talmadge, of Georgia, a Roosevelt critic, to file an original suit challenging the Bankhead Cotton Act.

In a brief session, at which only one case was formally decided, the court also granted a government motion that arguments be heard December 19 on validity of the Tennessee Valley Act. That made it probable that at least three New Deal cases would be finally decided in January.

The government was allowed additional time to answer a request by Louisiana freight millers to enjoin collection of AAA processing taxes on rice.

The Talmadge request won out despite protest of government attorneys. Stanley Reed, the solicitor general, had contended there was no basis for the high court taking original jurisdiction before lower tribunals had passed on the controversy.

Talmadge has been a frequent critic of the administration.

This was the first request received by the high tribunal from a state seeking to start original action in the Supreme Court against New Deal legislation. Usually cases are started in lower courts and brought here on appeal.

ARKANSAS REPUBLICAN CRITICIZES NEW DEAL

Little Rock, Arkansas, Nov. 18.—Appearing before a predominantly Democratic gathering which attended a private dinner given by the Little Rock Young Business Men's Association, Osro Cobb, Republican State Committee chairman, tonight described the New Deal as a program of socialism and communism and asked his hearers for an examination of conscience before voting in the 1936 election.

Cobb responded to an invitation to present Republican views of national affairs by going before the meeting with a caustic indictment of Roosevelt policies.

"The hypnotism of the New Deal is fast fading," he said. "It is ominously significant that the program of the Democratic party under whose guise it masquirades. It is the program of the socialists and communists and it is small wonder that leading socialists and communists have been loud in their praise of the New Deal."

VERMONT HOME MAKERS AND FARMERS MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

The regular weekly meeting of the Vermont home makers and farmers is scheduled to begin at 7:00 o'clock on Friday night of this week. We don't know just what Miss Heflin has in store for us ladies, neither can we imagine just what Mr. Smith's subject will be, but we can rest assured that it will be something worthwhile. I am sure we will be greatly benefitted in putting forth a little effort to attend. Let's meet with these gifted speakers from time to time. Each subject is very interesting, we all have a good time, and can all be of help to each other. Bring your problems before the meeting and see if someone can't help you to solve them. If you have not already attended, you have missed something already, so come and see for yourself. Let's show them that Vermont community is always ready to do its part.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church is planning on going to Friendship next Sunday evening to hear the B. Y. P. U. of that church render a program.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Laurell had as their guests for Sunday their mother, Mrs. N. Laurell.

A FULL LENGTH FEATURE TALKING MOVIE SPONSORED BY US IN THE INTEREST OF BETTER FARMING SEE US ABOUT FREE TICKETS.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
Saturday, Nov. 23rd
7:30 P. M.

J. L. Ruffin
Purina Feed Dealer
Clanton, Ala.

MT. SPRINGS NEWS

Rev. Lawrence L. Stanley filled his regular appointment here last Sunday at 2:30 and 7 o'clock. We had Sunday school in the morning at the usual hour. Several of the families brought lunch and all stayed at the church and ate dinner and visited until Mr. Stanley arrvied. He also brought Mrs. Goddard of Thorsby, with him. We enjoyed a very pleasant visit with these two between the services. We hope that since Mr. Stanley is our pastor there will be more cooperation between these two sister churches, so we invite the Thorsby people to visit our church.

The group that went to Headland reported a very interesting and inspiring conference. This group was composed of Mr. Johnnie Plier, Mrs. Carrie Rutherford, Mrs. R. A. Teel, Mrs. George Kilgore and Miss Ruth Teel. They visited Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Nelson in their new home and enjoyed it very much.

The Ladies Aid is to have a spend the day quilting at the home of Mrs. Jess Rutherford on Friday of this week. We hope all members will be present.

We were glad to see Mrs. E. C. Williamson out Sunday and hope she continues to improve.

We were glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williamson with us again. Also Mrs. Hermie Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Golson of Montgomery.

Remember our Sunday school at 10 and C. E. at 6 o'clock.

We especially invite everyone to come on the next third Sunday at 2:30 and 7 to hear Rev. Stanley.

NO UPSETS

The proper treatment for a bilious child

A cleansing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow, less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage. Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use a liquid laxative. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

What a thrill you will get when you drive this New 1936 Chevrolet

See me for demonstration

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton

IGINAL

Beware The Cough

From a common cold

That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

C. Ray Glenn

JUNK DEALER

Junk Cars — Used Parts. We buy, sell and exchange. We do Battery Work and other repair work. Bring us your troubles

C. Ray Glenn

West End — Clanton, Ala.

PLEASANT GROVE

JEMISON

Most of the folks around here seem to be enjoying health these days. Mrs. Roxie Price is not feeling so good, and Mrs. W. E. Miskelley is still not so well.

Mrs. I. N. Waldrop and little son, Arthur, and Miss Lucile Davenport were the guests of Mrs. Jimmie Franklin last Wednesday.

Mrs. Lillie Spivey and son, Erschel, and daughter, Laurene, were the Sunday guests of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright, James and Maurice, and they also visited their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Franklin Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Marcus were the guests of her home folks Thursday night, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright.

The Misses Olis and Dorothy Davenport were the guests of the Misses Champion Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wess Gletty and daughters, Gail and Eilene, and son, Philip, visited friends in this community Sunday.

Mr. Bill Davenport and daughters, Lucile and Lorene, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miskelley Sunday evening.

Mr. I. N. Waldrop and daughter, Emagene, were guests of his sister and family Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Franklin.

Mr. Frank Cox, who lived with his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Franklin for a year, has returned to Birmingham to live wiht his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cox.

Mr. Frank Davenport was the guest of his parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davenport.

Mr. Bernie Davenport visited his brother Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. Buford and Donald Campbell were guests of their sister Saturday night, Mrs. Johnny Trott.

The Misses Willie and Lovena Campbell visited their sister Sunday.

Mr. Leonard Campbell spent Sunday night with his sister, Mrs. Johnny Trott.

Miss Ruth Champion, who is training for a nurse in the Baptist hospital in West Birmingham has been transferred to New Orleans for two months training. Her address in Charity Hospital, Nurses Home, New Orleans, La. She would be glad to hear from any of her friends.

A CORRECTION

Editor Union-Banner:

I would like to make a correction upon the paragraph in the Center Hill news, of last week's issue, concerning the removal of Mr. James Gentry from the hospital by his sister, Mrs. Bob Troulias. It is true that James Gentry was brought home from the hospital, where he stayed until Sunday. He came to Birmingham Sunday with his aunt, not his sister by any means. Neither was he brought to Birmingham for any kind of treatments.

We want the public and the hospital attendants to feel that we think James had all the treatments necessary before he left the Clanton hospital. Again we thank Dr. Gragg and all the nurses for their attentative service.—J. E. Gentry and family and Mrs. Bob Troulias.

Miss Leora Mims spent the past week in Birmingham as the guest of Miss Margaret Stipes. Miss Stipes returned home with her for the week end.

Junior Music Club Holds Convention

Clanton has held many conventions lately, but perhaps the most interesting was that of the Junior Music Convention of the Fourth District of the Alabama Federation of Music Clubs held at the Methodist church in Clanton Saturday, with the Junior Music club as host. The meeting was presided over by the district president, Annette Lee of Montgomery, a charming member of the Student Music club of Montgomery. She was assisted by Mrs. Zeigler of Tuskeegee, district counselor.

The session opened at 10 o'clock with prayer by Mrs. Zeigler, followed by the Junior song and Junior pledge. A most important welcoming address was given by Miss Mary Courtney Jones, president of the Junior Music Appreciation Club of Clanton. In behalf of the club, Hon. C. Fenn Jones, Mayor, welcomed the guests in behalf of Clanton and turned over the keys of the city. The response was graciously given by Mr. Roderick Wolfe, a member of the Students Music Appreciation Club of Montgomery, of which there is perhaps no more wide-a-wake club in the district. Mrs. John Dreber is counselor for this club.

During the session given over to reports this club gave a most interesting and full report. The district was fortunate indeed to have present at this time Mrs. R. C. Woodson of Birmingham, the gracious president of the Alabama Federation of Music clubs. In her address she especially stressed how much the Juniors impressed her with the earnest and business-like manner in which they conducted their proceedings.

Mrs. Walter Agnew of Montgomery State Chairman of music in religious education, spoke on the hymn contest, an important feature of the state work.

At one o'clock a lovely luncheon was served. During the luncheon the newly-elected officers of the district were introduced: Miss Mary Courtney Jones of Clanton, president; Mr. Roderick Wolfe, vice president; and Miss Annette Lee, secretary - treasurer, both of Montgomery. Too much praise cannot be given the major feature of the afternoon session, which was given over to talented young artists. The program rendered by members of the young musicians group of Montgomery, including Sara Brown, soprano, Edward Burns, tenor, Louise Watson, pianist, and Willie Mae Howell, accompanist. Also a group from Alabama College added to the program.

A large representation was present, as the fourth district comprises clubs from the following cities: Alexander City, Clanton, Montgomery, Notasulga, Montevallo, Opelika, Roanoke, Tallassee and Wetumpka. Montgomery alone boasts six Junior clubs.

Miss Lee accepted the invitation most graciously extended by Mrs. John Dreber, Junior Club Chairman for Montgomery, for the Fourth District to hold its convention in that city next September.

The convention adjourned at three o'clock so that delegates might return home before such a late hour.

GRANGE ASSAILS U. S. TRADE PACT WITH DOMINION

Unanimous Vote Calls On Administration To Rescind Treaty

Sacramento, California, Nov. 18.—The National Grange, by a unanimous vote of delegates, called upon the administration Monday to rescind its new reciprocal trade treaty with Canada.

Adopting a report of the legislative committee, which climaxed a day of individual broadsides delivered against the treaty by many delegates, the Grange said:

"If these treaties are not rescinded, we demand the repeal of the reciprocal tariff act just as soon as Congress convenes."

The report predicted that the treaty will "prove injurious rather than beneficial."

"We already have a domestic surplus of practically every agricultural commodity on which tariff concessions have been made to Canada," it continued. "Foreign imports cannot fail to add to these surpluses and depress the domestic price level on farm commodities."

UNCLE BUD AND HIS BOLL WEEVILS AT VERBENA

Uucle Bud and his Boll Weevils, will appear at the Verbena High school Friday night, November 22.

Uncle Bud's bunch has appeared before the microphone of stations WSB, WSFA, WBRC, WAPI, and WGST. Their program consists of string music, solos, duets, trios and choruses, intermingled with enough comedy to insure a pleasant evening for all who attend their show.

The show will begin at 7:30 p.m., and is being presented for the benefit of Alabama's crippled children. Admission prices, 10c, 15c and 25c.

Mrs. Pyron Entertains S. S. Class

Mrs. Pyron entertained members of her Sunday School class on last Tuesday at her home near Thorsby. Mrs. O. O. Roper, Mrs. J. Q. Wade, Mrs. Dan Hogan, Mrs. Bob Jones and Mrs. Bowen Jones are members of the class.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCain spent Monday in Montgomery.

Mrs. Omar Reynolds Hostess to Wednesday Card Club

Members of the Wednesday card club were entertained last week by Mrs. Omar Reynolds. Three tables were arranged for bridge in the living and dining room, which were effectively decorated in baskets of fall flowers.

After a series of games Mrs. J. Hance Alred held high score and was awarded club prize. The Modern Beauty Shoppe gave to the next two ladies holding high score a manicure and finger wave. Mrs. Julius Burnette and Mrs. J. P. Hayes were awarded these. A delicious salad plate with hot coffee was served to the following:

Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. J. C. Burnett, Mrs. Hance Alred, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. H. M. Simpson, Mrs. John Deramus, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. Frank Callen.

Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. George McCain and little son, Walter, motored to Birmingham Tuesday afternoon of last week.

Dan Smith, who attends the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, was home for the week end.

Mr. Joe Moore, who attends the University, and Dr. Charles Moore, of Birmingham, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watts Moore, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston and Mrs. John Mullins spent last Wednesday afternoon in Montgomery.

Mrs. Hugh Jones Hostess

Mrs. Hugh Jones entertained members of the Thursday club at a lovely luncheon last week. The home was effectively decorated in autumn flowers. At the noon hour a delicious luncheon was served. Bridge was enjoyed before and after lunch. Mrs. James Wade was awarded high score prize. The guest prize went to Mrs. John Hollis. The following members and guests enjoyed this hospitality:

Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. Hance Alred. Mrs. John Hollis of Mitchell Dam was a tea guest.

Mrs. J. R. Mullins and Mr. Edwin Mullins spent Friday night in Birmingham with friends.

Misses Jane and Helen Roberts of Huntingdon College, were home for the week end. Miss Jane Roberts had as her guest two of her college mates.

Mr. Claudie Pipes attended the Alabama-Georgia football game in Birmingham last Saturday.

Mr. Horsley White entertained the officers of the Blue Lodge with a fish dinner at his home last Tuesday evening. Those enjoying this delightful affair were Mr. B. J. Sessions, Mr. Grover Harris, Mr. Warren Wingard, Mr. Ruben Lowe, Mr. Renfroe Mullins, Mr. Macy Jones and the host, Mr. Horsley White.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Calloway of Birmingham were the guests Wednesday of Mrs. W. J. Martin, who is at the home of Mrs. Hugh Foshee. Mr. Calloway was here visiting the high schools of the county in the interest of the oratorical contest, sponsored by the Birmingham News.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Waite and children and Mrs. May visited Montgomery Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Doubb Huddleston spent Thursday night in Tuskegee with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston.

Mr. Sie Foshee and Mr. Jack Hayes attended the foot ball game in Birmingham Saturday.

Miss Ruth Pardue spent Sunday with her parents in Sagihaw.

Miss Kitty Clyde Austin of Montgomery spet the week end here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin and little daughter, Lucile, of Clayton, Ala., spent Sunday afternoon here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gillispie wish to thank their many friends throughout the county for their help and sympathy shown them in the death of their son, Berney Wayne, and for the many beautiful flowers. May God bless you all is our prayer.

We especially wish to thank J. Mell Martin and Son, Samuel, also Dr. Lawrence and his nurse, and the doctors and nurses of St. Magaret's hospital in Montgomery.

Wanted to Buy Shelled Corn

FEEDS AND FLOUR

SHORTS — White Clover, 100 lbs	$1.85
16% DAIRY FEED — White Clover	$1.65
24% DAIRY FEED — Jazz	$2.10
High Life — SCRATCH FEED	$2.25
High Life — LAYING MASH	$2.50
24-Lb GOLD FLAKE, Plain	$1.00
24-Lb GOLD FLAKE, S. R.	$1.05

R. W. LOWE

South Clanton

All the things

you hoped a low-priced car would have are yours in

The only complete low-priced car

CHEVROLET FOR 1936

CHEVROLET The Complete Car

DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

NEW PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES
the safest and smoothest ever developed

SOLID STEEL one-piece TURRET TOP
a crown of beauty, a fortress of safety

IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*
the smoothest, safest ride of all

NO DRAFT VENTILATION on New Bodies by Fisher
the most beautiful and comfortable bodies ever created for a low-priced car

HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
giving even better performance with even less gas and oil

SHOCKPROOF STEERING*
making driving easier and safer than ever before

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICH. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and the new greatly reduced G.M.A.C. six per cent time payment plan—the lowest financing cost in G.M.A.C. history. A General Motors Value.

ALL THESE FEATURES AT CHEVROLET'S LOW PRICES

$495 AND UP. List price of New Standard Coupe at Flint, Michigan. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $20 additional. *Knee-Action on Master Models only, $20 additional. Prices quoted in this advertisement are list at Flint, Michigan, and subject to change without notice.

Hayes Chevrolet Co.

J. W. (Dick) Hayes — Sales and Service, Clanton, Ala. — M. C. (Jack) Hayes

POOR OR

SINGING AT ENTERPRISE FIRST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

There will be a singing at Enterprise school building on the first Sunday in December, December 1st. The singing will begin promptly at 1:30 o'clock.

We are expecting visitors from Clanton, Coopers, Mitchell Dam, Alpine and other places. Prof. W. M. Devaughn will be there with his family quartet. We are sure they will render some good numbers.

This society is composed of the Pleasant Valley, Bethany and Enterprise societies. These societies have united in an effort to improve the singing interest in the part of the county. We meet in the auditorium of the school building every first Sunday afternoon. We cordially invite all singers and lovers of music to come and enjoy the singing with us. Don't forget the place and date.

Help Kidneys

If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (Siss-tex) —Must fix you up or money back. Only 75¢ at druggists.

Cystex

Why GET UP Nights?

THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanyt flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and fell "full of Pep."—Upchurch Drug Company; Alred Drug Company.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity. No. 1275.
J. W. Garrett, complainant, vs. Clara Garrett, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper punblished in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Clara Garrett, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 5th day of December, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 4th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.
11-7-4the

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE TO FILE CLAIMS

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Probate Court, Nov. 5, 1935.
In the matter of the Estate of D. O. Manning, Deceased.

Letters testamentary as Co-Executors of the will of D. O. Manning, deceased having been granted to the undersigned on the 5th day of November, 1935, by the Honorable J. Lee Smith, Judge of Probate of said county, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same within the time allowed by law, or the same will be barred.

EMMA MANNING,
CLIFFORD MANNING.
Co-executors of the last will and testament of D. O. Manning, deceased 11-7-3tc

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT COOPER SATURDAY NIGHT

There will be a fiddlers convention at Cooper school next Saturday night, November 23, beginning at 7:30. Every body invited. All fiddlers are invited to attend and take part. Prizes will be awarded to the winner. Refreshments will be served by the P.-T. A. Admission 10c and 15c. For benefit of school activities.

Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer and son, Milton, have returned from Mystic, Georgia, where they visited Miss Hellen Diefenderfer, who is teaching in the high school there.

STATE PARK DEVELOPMENT IS PROCEEDING RAPIDLY

Montgomery.—The various State Parks comprising Emergency Conservation Work projects of the Federal Government in cooperation with the Alabama Commission of Forestry are rapidly nearing the point where they can be thrown open to the general public. Improvements in process of construction often interpose obstacles and inconveniences to visitors. However, much of the construction work has been completed with the result that facilities on many of the parks are now available for the comfort and accommodation of tourists and recreationists.

Developments to date comprise approach roads, park roads, bridges, foot trails, bridle paths, camp grounds, lake dams, piers, boat houses, shelters, lodges, cabins, observation towers, telephone lines and water works systems. On most of the larger parks electric linghting facilities are in prospect.

After the winter season, it is expected practically all of the larger parks will be ready for approximately full use by the public. Plans for the dedication of these featurse of Alabama's development under the New Deal program of the President are being prepared by the Commission. Nationally known figures are expected to participate in the ceremonies.

HELPS PREVENT MANY COLDS

Especially designed aid for nose and upper throat, where most colds start.

Regular Size....30¢
Double Quantity 50¢

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for November 24

THE MESSAGE OF HAGGAI AND ZECHARIAH

LESSON TEXT—Haggai 1:2-8; 2:8, 9; Zechariah 4:6-10.

GOLDEN TEXT—I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord. Psalm 122:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A New House for God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Building a House of Worship.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why We Build Churches.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Building Adequate Churches.

After the returned captives had settled down in the towns surrounding Jerusalem the people were called together for the purpose of establishing the worship of the Lord God. This movement was led by Joshua the priest and Zerubbabel the governor. In view of the fact that the clearing away of the debris of the old city and temple and the erection of the new temple would take a long time, an altar was erected where sacrifices might be offered at once to God.

I. The Laying of the Foundation of the New Temple (Ezra 3:8-13).

This was an auspicious occasion and was celebrated with impressive ceremonies.

1. The priests in their official apparel (v. 10). These garments symbolized their consecration to the Lord's service.

2. The priests with trumpets (v. 10) Trumpets were used in calling the people together.

3. The Levites with cymbals (v. 10) This was according to the arrangements made by David (I Chron. 15).

4. They sang together by course (v. 11). This means that they sang to one another responsively.

5. Mingled weeping and singing (vv 12, 13). Some of the older men who had seen the magnificent temple of Solomon wept when they saw how far short the present foundation came of the former temple. Others were glad because of the favor of God which had brought them back.

II. The Building of the Temple Hindered (Ezra 4).

The leading adversaries were the Samaritans, a mongrel people, the offspring of the poor Jews who were left in Palestine and the foreign people who were sent into Palestine after the Jews were taken captive. The three perils which delayed the building of the temple for about fourteen years reveal the persistent methods which the enemies of God use to hinder the building program of God's people in every age.

1. An unintelligent pessimism (3:12). Because things were not as promising as they should be, some were not disposed to go forward with a constructive program and even hindered those who possessed a hopeful outlook. Under the circumstances, a glorious beginning had been made which had promise of great things in the future.

2. Worldly compromise (4:2, 3). The adversaries said, "Let us build with you: for we seek your God." This is Satan's most common and effective method. The help of the unregenerate in forwarding the Lord's work should not be accepted by the Lord's people.

3. Open opposition by the world (4:4-24). When refused a part in the work, open opposition was resorted to.

III. Assurance of the Completion of the Second Temple (Zech. 4:6-10).

By means of the golden candlestick is represented the restoration of the Jewish nation and the fulfillment of its divine purpose. It was to be a light in the world. There were insuperable difficulties in the way of accomplishing their restoration, represented by the great mountain, but assurance was given that God by his Holy Spirit could easily accomplish their restoration. The mountain would be displaced by a plain. The two olive trees represent Zerubbabel and Joshua. The Holy Spirit was to accomplish this work through them.

IV. The Temple Finished (Ezra 6:13-15).

Through the ministry of the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah (Ezra 5:1; Hag. 1, 2), the people were encouraged to resume the work of the building of the temple. When the temple was finished, they solemnly dedicated it to God (Ezra 6:16-22).

V. The Blessedness of Dwelling in God's House (Ps. 84:1-4).

1. The longing of the soul for God's house (vv. 1, 2).

2. The sparrow and swallow find protection in the sacred precincts of God's house (v. 3).

3. At home in God's house (v. 4). Those who have a heart for God find their chief delight in dwelling in his house.

The Future

Don't estimate your future by the little troubles that comfort you now. The black clouds which shut out your sun today will be gone tomorrow. Learn to look at life at long range and put the right value on things in general.

Religion

Some men want to have religion like a dark lantern, and carry it in their pocket, where nobody but themselves can get any good from it.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Mrs. S. H. Martin of Birmingham is the guest of her daughters, Mrs. L. C. Warr and Mrs. Horton Walker.

"COME INTO MY PARLOR"
. . . said the Spider

"COME into my parlor," said the Spider to the Fly, making attractive offers the while. The Fly, recalling previous narrow escapes, replied, "You entice me greatly, Sir Spider, but I fear you would put me in bondage."

Whereupon the Spider offered the Fly a contract in which would be included all the promises of a rosy future and freedom from care.

"Very pretty, very pretty," said the Fly, "but spiders have a reputation of being careless with their promises to flies. I think I'll take my chances rather than put myself under the domination of a Spider."

Rosy promises and dazzling inducements are offered by politically inspired promoters of public power enterprises. Assuming the honesty and sincerity of some public power enthusiasts, can they give any guarantee that their political successors in office will have similar high ideals?

After they gain their end of gobbling up the light and power business, what is to prevent officials in charge of public power plants from increasing rates, or taxes, or both? (Taxes already show a heavy increase.)

Alabama Power Company, under regulation by public bodies, has a record of steadily reducing its rates. The average rate per kilowatt hour paid by its customers for all residential uses has declined from 7.9c in September, 1926, to 3.6c in September, 1935.

During the same 9-year period the taxes paid by the company to federal, state, county and municipal governments have increased from 6.4c to 14.4c per dollar of total money taken in.

While taxes have gone UP 180%, average rates for electricity in the home have gone DOWN 54.4%.

(Advertisement of Alabama Power Company)

Lovely Lingerie

Nice Lot
PAJAMAS
and they are priced within easy reach
$1.00 to $1.95

Ladies Fine SILK HOSE, ... Up to $1.00 Pair
Ladies PURSES, Beautiful New Fads 98c
HOUSE SHOES, Soft Comfortable, Pair ..... 50c and Up
Newest Styles, Metallic Cloth COLLARS ..... 50c and Up
Ladies SWEATERS, Dressy and Comfortable 50c to $3.95
Newest Things in FALL DRESSES ..... 98c and Up

We carry a Complete Line of Linen Goods—Table Covers, Scarves, Luncheon Sets, Embroidered and Stamped Goods.

Come in and look at our PIECE GOODS. We have most any pattern you want in Cottons, Silks, and Woolens.

and for the MEN

Dress Shirts-Non-Curl Collars
Newest Things Out
$1.00-$1.25-$1.50

BOWMAN HATS for Men, all sizes ..... $1.50 and Up
Your TIE plays its part in making you look right. We have a full Line of the Newest Colors, 10c to $1.00.
Genuine BROWNBILT Dress Shoes, ... $2.15 and Up
WORK SHOES, Wolverine and Brownbilt, $2.50 and Up
Famous DUCKHEAD OVERALLS, Pair $1.35

Mo-Biscuit Flour
Every Sack Guranteed 24 lbs $1.00

J. R. Mullins & Sons
The Farmers' Friend - - - Clanton, Ala.

REGISTER'S SALE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court in Equity.

Decie Popwell, et al., Complainant, vs. Holland Popwell, et al., Defendant.

By virtue of a decree in the above stated cause rendered on the 4th day of November, 1935, by the Circuit Court in Equity, to satisfy said decree, I will sell to the highest and best bidder for cash, at public sale, at the Courthouse door of said county, between the hours of 11 o'clock a.m., and 4 o'clock p.m., Tuesday the 26th day of November, 1935, the following described property, viz.:

Beginning at a point where the Northern line running East and West of the SE¼ of the SW¼ section 1 township 21 range 14, intersects the East line of the right-of-way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company; and running East along said line 655 feet to a street, 40 feet wide, and 140 yards long, which the grantor in this deed hereby grants, bargains, sells and conveys, and does by these presents grant, bargain, sell and convey and dedicate to the said D. T. Popwell, the above described street to be used by the said D. T. Popwell and wife, Decie Popwell, and all persons, as public streets are used forever, and running thence in a Southeasterly direction along the West side of the said street 420 feet, thence at or near right angles to said street in a Southwesterly direction to the right of way of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to a point 705 feet, in a Southeasterly direction from the point of beginning; thence in a Northwesterly direction along the said right of way 705 feet to the point of beginning, lying and being in the SE¼ of the SW¼ section 1 township 21 range 14, Chilton County, Alabama, to be sold for division among the joint owners thereof.

This the 5th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER, Register.
11-7-3tc

Rufus B. Miller, son of Patrolman Rube Miller, of the Alabama Power Company, of Jordan Dam, is now employed in Seymour Taylor's high line crew, also of the Power dompany.

REPORT OF AN AFFILIATE OF A NATIONAL BANK

Published in accordance with Section 5,211, U. S. Revised Statutes.

Report as of Nov., 1st, 1935, of Bank of Thorsby, Thorsby, Alabama, which is affiliated with First National Bank of Clanton, Ala., Charter No. 11,515, Federal Reserve District No. 6.

Kind of business: Commercial Banking.

Manner in which above-named organization is affiliated with national bank, and degree of control: Majority of stock in National Bank and the Affiliate owned by following: A. M. Grimsley, Fayette, Ala.; G. C. Walker, Clanton, Ala.; and J. C. Page, Clanton, Ala.

Financial relations with bank: Stock of affiliated bank owned, none; Loans to affiliated bank, none.

Borrowings from affiliated bank, none.

Stock of affiliate registered in name of bank or known to be owned by bank directly or indirectly, none.

Other obligations to, or known to be held by, affiliated bank, none; except $10,440.42 on deposit with affiliated bank.

Other information necessary to disclose fully relations with bank, none.

I, J. L. Mixson, Cashier of Bank of Thorsby, Thorsby, Ala., do solemnly swear that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

J. L. MIXSON, Cashier.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 8th day of November, 1935.

E. R. PIPER, Notary Public.
Notary Public.

666
Liquid - Tablets
Salve - Nose Drops

Checks COLDS and FEVER
First Day
HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

4-H CLUB AND SCHOOL NEWS FROM CONCORD

The 4-H club boys called a meeting Thursday, November 14. We reorganized the club and elected officers as follows: Dalton Mims, president; Addis Wyatt, vice-president; Dewey Minor, secretary-treasurer; Moris E. Mims, Reporter; Marvin Ellison, cheer leader; W. T. Bean, local leader.

We have 24 members and if anyone else wishes to join, they may do so at our next meeting, which will be held on December 12, 1935. At this same time, Miss Pardue organized a 4-H club for the Concord girls.

The school seems to have taken new life this year. The school house has been painted recently and the school has done much improvement on the interior of the room, including equipping the primary room with new equipment. The school has had two entertainments, both of which were very successful.—Reporter.

Mr. Wm. J. Headley, of Pinedale community, last week left for Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will take treatment during the next three or four weeks. We sincerely hope that Mr. Headley comes back greatly improved in health. He promised to write to his friends here through The Union-Banner while he is away.

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Registrars of Chilton County, Alabama, in accordance with the general Registration laws of Alabama, will hold sessions for the purpose of registering all citizens, qualified under the law to register, at the following Beats, places and dates in said county, to-wit:

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 2—Jemison, Tuesday, Nov. 19, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Beat No. 9—Thorsby, Wednesday, Nov. 20, Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Beat No. 10—Cooper, Thursday, Nov. 21.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Monday, Dec. 16, Tuesday, Dec. 17, Wednesday, Dec. 18, Thursday, Dec. 19.

Beat No. 4—Court house, Thursday, Dec. 26, Friday, Dec. 27, Saturday, Dec. 28, Monday, Dec. 30, Tuesday, Dec. 31.

No one can register except in his or her own precinct and at the court house in Clanton, Alabama.

This the 7th day of October, 1935.

J. Monroe Parrish, J. T. Thompson, W. W. Wingard, Members of Board of Registrars.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FOR SALE—5-room house and five lots in town of Thorsby; 2 blocks from Thorsby Institute, 1½ blocks from Grammar school, within two blocks of three Churches, 1½ blocks from drug store and doctor's office.—Grover A. Bice, Thorsby, Ala. 1tpd.

FOR SALE—1 milch cow, giving 2½ gallons of milk per day and one pound of butter.—See Austin E. Mims, Clanton, Ala., Route 4, near Collins' Store. 1tp

FORGERS, TAKE NOTICE—Some party or parties with a similar name to mine has been signing my name illegally. People with whom I usually do business are asked to be on the look-out for such forgery.—W. U. Headley, Clanton Rte. 5. 1tp.

OIL STOVE FOR SALE—One Garner 5-burner oil stove, stationary oven, asbestos wicks. If interested apply to Mrs. A. P. Vinson, Clanton Rte. 2.

LAND FOR SALE—44½ acres on highway, 1 mile south of Thorsby, for sale or trade reasonable.—J. R. Blow, Clanton, Ala., Route 4. 1-tpd.

LOST—TWO BIRD DOGS—One solid red Irish setter named Pat, about 7 years old. One black and white English setter named Colonel, about three years old. Last seen on the afternoon of November 16, 1935. Any information leading to the finding of dogs rewarded.—Percy M. Pitts, Clanton, Ala. 11-21-2t

PIANO FOR SALE—High grade baby Grande for sale at a special price for immediate sale. Your old piano or radio will be accepted as part payment.—Write O. L. Baskette, 403, 20th St., Birmingham, Ala. 11-7-3t-c.

COTTON SEED FOR SALE—Wannamaker's Wonder, Dixie Triumph, and Wiltresistant Strain 2.—H. Wilson, Rte. 2, Jemison, Ala. 11-7-3p

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Alred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

FOR SALE—9 acres of land, 2 miles north of Clanton; has 4-room house and good well of water, has electric pump and electric lights.—R. E. Jones, Clanton Rte. 5. 11-7-3p

FOR SALE—155 acres, known as the Weldon Cove on Coosa River. Three houses and outbuildings, about 45 acres in cultivation, good roads, backwater frontage ¾ mile.—Lawrence Littleton, Route 5, Clanton. 14-3tp

TIMBER FOR SALE—About 200 acres of original virgin pine timber, long leaf, short leaf and oak, located 5 miles northeast of Clanton. Interested parties may apply to Mrs. Henry Cleckler or L. C. Cleckler, Clanton, Ala., Rte 5. 11-14-3p.

HUNTERS, TAKE WARNING

Notice is hereby given that there will be no hunting of quail or other game on property of Mary C. and S. L. Gibson in Chilton county during the bird season of 1935 and 1936.

Clanton hunters, take warning. We are trying to conserve our bird crop this year, and trespassers will be prosecuted.—S. L. Gibson 2ch.

MANY DEATHS IN PAST WEEK

Last week The Union-Banner carried an article in which we boasted of the good health in Chilton County, and of the few deaths recorded in our county during the past few weeks.

But fate has gone and played a grim joke on us. This week, instead of being able to further boast of our few deaths, we are compelled to publish more than the average number of death notices although very few of them were from sickness, most of them being accidental.

There were three deaths from sickness, one was killed in a sawmill accident, and three from shotgun wounds. The last four were almost instantly killed. In addition, we have received notice of the death of another man as the result of a shotgun wound some two months ago.

PLEASANT HILL

We are happy to say that our Sunday school was well attended last Sunday. In fact we had a real good attendance for our entire week end services and those who failed to get out to these services missed some of the greatest truths we ever get from the stand, and especially those who really go to church for the good they get out of it. We were glad to have the many visitors from other churches with us Sunday and we invite them to be with us again every time they can.

We had a very good singing last Sunday afternoon. However, the crowd was small, but we had Mr. A. H. Glasscock and Mr. E. L. Glasscock with us, and they took a big part in the singing. We would like to remind the rest of our society we missed you and need your help.

Miss Ollie Belle Davis and Miss Odell Ellison were the Sunday dinner guests of Misses Jesse and Datha Cleckler.

Miss Lurlene Blow spent a while Sunday with Miss Pearlene Martin.

Misses Central Cost and Sybil Vanzant had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cleckler.

Misses Hazel and Alta Blow, Minnie Bolton, Messrs. Osmond Cleckler, Lloyd Barnett, Frank McMullins were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin Sunday.

Listen folks, to those who might be interested, we have changed our singing at Pleasant Hill church. Our singing will be on the second Sunday afternoon in each month from now on, so don't forget and try to arrange to be with us on next second Sunday afternoon. Visitors are always welcome at our church.—Reporter.

REFUGE NEWS

Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. Our Sunday school was fine. We enjoyed two wonderful sermons from Bro. Robinson. We invite everyone to come again.

Mrs. Nancy Mims visited Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Mims Sunday.

Bro. and Mrs. M. Lockhart visited Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Connell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Connell spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Easterling near Clanton.

Mr. J. T. Connell is suffering with a broken leg, received when a drum of gas fell on it from his truck. Every one visit him who can, as the doctor says he will be in bed for at least three months.

Everyone come to Sunday school next Sunday and let's have a good lesson.

Mr. J. D. Sims, former Chilton county man, was in Clanton Wednesday. Mr. Sims has been living in Texas, Oklahoma and other western states since leaving Chilton County. He will be remembered as "Dad" Sims one of the greatest baseball fans who ever lived in Clanton, and for several years managed a team of his own here.

BAPTIST ORPHANAGE PRODUCE CARS HERE DECEMBER 4 AND 5

The produce cars of the Chilton and Unity Associations will be in Chilton county on December 4th and 5th, Wednesday and Thursday. The car will be at Thorsby all day the 4th and at Clanton all day Thursday. People may give anything that is not perishable, including clothing, feed, food, etc., but not too many potatoes.

Mr. J. Watts Moore will represent the Unity Association and Mr. J. Dudley collins the Chilton Association. Each community will gather up the offerings in a truck and bring to the car, however, this matter will be in the hands of local committees.

VERMONT SCHOOL NEWS

The fiddlers convention last Friday night was a grand success. Everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

Prize winners were as follows: First prize, Fonzia Smith, second prize, Elbert Langston; third prize, Oliver Smith; fourth prize; Alton Culp; fifth prize, Winston Culp. Many others won prizes.

The Cooper boys basket ball team played here last Friday, Nov. 15. The score was 15 to 5 in favor of Vermont. The boys and girls are going to play Maplesville Friday, Nov. 22nd.

The Jr. III nglish class club met last Thursday, November 14. The purpose of the club, and the opportunity that a class club offers was discussed. A motto for the club is to be given at the next meeting. Andrew Lee Turner and Woody Klinner are to tell a story at the next meeting, Nov. 21.

Miss Ruth Pardue, Home Demonstration agent, came to our school last Friday to organize a 4-H club. officers were elected as follows: President, Laverne Crane; vice president, Tommie Lou Klinner; secretary and treasurer, Willie Deane Ratliff; Reporter, Louise Owens; song leader, Myrtle Lee Smith; local leader, Miss Marjorie Wallace. The date for our next meeting will be announced later.

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

PIG, CALF AND CAR STOLEN; TWO JAILED

Stolen Auto Used To Carry Animals To Market

Last Thursday night was a busy night for Jesse Bethel, 22, and Fuller Sameul, 23, Clanton negroes, according to Sheriff J. R. Hardy, but they will likely have plenty of time to rest—in the county jail.

There are quite a few details connected with the escapade which tired the boys so badly. At least three persons have expressed a desire to continue their "rest cure."

The H. N. Smith Motor Company, where Bethel worked, missed a car—L. C. Vance, of Cooper, noted that one of his pigs were gone, and Miss Mavis Thomas, of Verbena, angrily discovered that a calf had been taken from her place.

The car was discovered near the Clanton Baptist church. Evidence indicated that a calf and a pig had been back seat passengers on its most recent trip. A checkup of Clanton butchers revealed that Bethel and Sameuls had sold the calf and pig in question.

Owners of car; calf and pig swore out warrants for their arrests and the Negroes are now in jail.

DOG HEAD POSITIVE FOR RABIES

On Saturday, November 9th, a dog's head was sent to the State Board of Health Laboratories to be examined for rabies. This head was sent from Clanton and was carried to Montgomery by someone who was passing through. The address as written on the box appeared to be A. C. Mims, Clanton Route 2. All efforts to locate anyone by this name have failed.

This head was positive for rabies and this notice is an effort to locate the person who sent the head in. It will be greatly appreciated if this person will get in touch with the County Health Department.—J. D. Kimmey, M. D., County Health Officer.

SERVICES CONTINUE AT CLANTON TABERNACLE

REV. H. H. CASWELL

Preaching services have been held at the Clanton Gospel Tabernacle for the past two weeks, under the direction of Rev. Harry H. Caswell, of Des Moines, Iowa.

There will be three more services in the present series, on Thursday, Friday and Sunday nights. Subjects for these sermons will be as follows:

Thursday night—"Seven Diseases of the Church".

Friday night—"Five Biggest Fools in Clanton".

Sunday night—"The Last Invitation".

There will be Sunday school at 9:45 next Sunday, with regular preaching service at 11:00. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend every service. All evening services begin at 7:30.

MAPLE SPRINGS

Hello folks. Mr. Winter is in the air giving every body bad colds.

Several met for Sunday school last Sunday and they have changed the Sunday school time form 10 o'clock back to 9:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell visited Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harris of South Clanton Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Price have moved into our community. The community welcomes them.

Mr. J. L. Lansford is reported to be very sick at this writing. His friends wish for him a quick recovery.

Messrs. Ottis and Oliver Glenn and Chester Davis were the dinner guests of Mr. Albert Ware in Billingsley last Saturday.

Mr. Joe Lansford spent a while Sunday morning with Mr. Jeff Price.

Mr. B. H. Wells spent last Thursday afternoon with Mr. W. F. Glenn.

Mr. Marion Smith, principal of Thomas Junior school, was in this community Friday afternoon.

Mr. Lee Rollan and Mr. Shirley Davis and Lewis Wright were in Billingsley last Saturday.

Messrs. Ottis Glenn and Lawton Wilson motored to Montevallo last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Downs had as their guests Sunday their son, Mr. Lee Dawson, from Birmingham.

Mr. Mattie Jones was in this community Friday afternoon.

Mr. Newton Driver was in this community last Tuesday visiting his sister, Mrs. Jeff Price.

Mr. Claud Downs, Jr., from near Verbena, was here visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Downs.

Mr. Lester Downs had as his guests Friday Mr. Tom Miller and sons, Bonnie and Jerrel.

Mr. Ottis Glenn and Lawton Wilson visited Mr. McGowan in White City Sunday.

Mr. Calvin Wilson from Montevallo was here visiting his parents and brother, Mr. E. N. Wilson and wife, and Mr. Lawton Wilson.

Mr. W. F. Glenn visited Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Jones Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Fate Driver, wife and son, visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dennis and children Sunday.

Mrs. Oliver Glenn visited her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Devaughn and Mrs. Velma Davis on Monday.

Mr. Charles Tucker and father, the Rev. Tucker, from Enterprise were in this community Monday afternoon.

Mr. Oliver Glenn was the dinner guest of his parents Monday, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn.

Mr. Bill Wise was the guest of Mr. J. R. Mitchell Monday.

Mrs. W. F. Glenn and daughter had as their guest Saturday afternoon Mrs. Bill Wise.

Come to Sunday school Sunday and bring somebody with you.

DALLAS COUNTY SINGING CONVENTION ORGANIZED

The Dallas County Singing Convention has been recently organized, and will meet on the fourth Sunday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, at the courthouse in Selma. All singers and those interested are extended a cordial invitation to attend these singings. Come and brings your friends.—J. L. Sims.

NOTICE!

The Union-Banner is asked to announce that Dr. J. E. Edgar will be out of his office on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 28, 29 and 30th 11-14-2tc

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Mr. Tom Searcey attended the foot ball game in Birmingham Saturday. Mr. Hoyt Reynolds from Tuskegee accompanied them to the game and spent some time here Sunday. The party had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Reynolds in Birmingham.

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 22nd & 23rd

PHONE 154
WE DELIVER

Clanton CASH Store
WE DELIVER — BLUE FRONT STORE

Peoples CASH Store
Thorsby CASH Store

IF ITS VALUES YOU WANT WE HAVE THEM

PRODUCE SPECIALS

IRISH — POTATOES, Lb	2c
YELLOW OR WHITE — ONIONS, Lb	4c
RUTABAGAS, Lb	3c
CABBAGE, Lb	2½c
GRAPES, 3 lbs	25c
FANCY WINESAP — APPLES, Doz	20c
BANANAS, Lb	5c
FLORIDA — GRAPEFRUIT, 3 for	10c
FRESH— COCONUTS, each	6c
FLORIDA — Oranges, Doz	20c and 25c

SALT

100 POUNDS— MEAT SALT	$1.00
50 POUNDS— MEAT SALT	60c
25 POUNDS— MEAT SALT	35c
10 POUNDS— TABLE SALT	19c
4 POUNDS— TABLE SALT	10c
5c PACKAGES— SALT, 3 for	10c

SUGAR

10-Lb Paper Bag	53c

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE

PICNIC HAM, Lb	20c
PURE — Pork SAUSAGE, Lb	25c
MIXED — SAUSAGE, Lb	16c
PORK CHOPS, Lb	25c
3 POUNDS— BEEF STEW	25c
GROUND BEEF, lb	12½c
BOLOGNA OR— CONEYS, Lb	18c

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING

24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	85c
48-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	$1.65
12-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS	50c
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	95c
48-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	$1.85
24-LB SACK — POLLY RICH	$1.10
24-LB SACK — White Water Rose	$1.10
48-LB SACK — ROSE or POLLY RICH	$2.15
24-LB SACK, Postel Elegant	$1.20
12-LB SACK — ROSE or — POLLY RICH	60c

LARD

1-LB CARTON — Compound	15c
4-LB CARTON — Compound	55c
8-LB CARTON — Compound	$1.10
4-LB CARTON — PURE	65c
8-LB CARTON — PURE	$1.30

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 15c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

WONDER, 2 Lbs GROUND FRESH	25c
SWANSDOWN— CAKE FLOUR	29c
CALUMET, 1 LB— BAKING POWDER	21c
BAKERS, 8-OZ BAR — CHOCOLATE	15c
BAKERS, 3-OZ BAR — CHOCOLATE, 2 for	15c

Soap Specials

CAMAY SOAP	5c
PALMOLIVE SOAP	5c
OCTOGAN— CLEANSER	5c
GIANT OCTOGAN— SOAP, 6 for	25c
SMALL OCTOGAN— SOAP, 2 for	5c
LARGE OCTOGAN— POWDERS, 6 for	25c

POOR OR

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TEN PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1935 NUMBER 32

High Court Halts Processing Taxes

Supreme Court Suspends Payment Until After Final AAA Ruling

Washington, Nov. 25.—A Supreme Court order temporarily enjoining Government collection of AAA processing taxes for eight Louisiana rice millers today augmented difficulties besettig the new deal's farm program.

The action of the justices, who simultaneously agreed to pass upon the constitutionality of an AAA amendmet forbidding injunction to restrain processig tax collections, directly affected a comparatively small sum.

Some legal observers, however, contended the action served to tighten for the present lower court orders impounding from $125,000,000 to $150,000,000 of taxes pending a high court ruling on the AAA's constitutionality. Government attorneys looked for the order to prompt new injunction suits. By the high court's ruling granting the injunction petition of the rice millers, they will continue to pay processing taxes. But instead of going to the Treasury, the taxes will be paid into a court-approved depository for holding until the constitutional question is decided.

RED CROSS DRIVE CLOSES THURSDAY

J. Mell Martin, chairman of the local Red Cross roll call committee, and head of the local campaign for Red Cross funds, wishes to remind everyone that Thursday, November 28, is the closing day of the Red Cross Roll Call. All who have not been contacted by one of the committee's workers are asked to get in touch with Mr. Martin or any of his solicitors before the close of the roll call.

AMERICA JANE LIGHTSEY

Mrs. America Jane Lightsey, 65, wife of J. N. Lightsey, died at the family home near Wessington last Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at Oak Grove church, with Rev. R. M. Honeycutt officiating. Martin and Sons were in charge of burial, in the Pine Hill cemetery.

Survivors of the deceased are: her husband, J. N. Lightsey; two sons, Ocie Lightsey of Birmingham, and Will Lightsey of Jemison; three daughters, Mrs. Minnie Robinson, Mrs. Nannie Sammons, Miss Linnie Lightsey, and three sisters.

MARY JANE PRICE

Mrs. Mary Jane Price, age 87, died at her home two miles west of Jemison, last Thursday. Funeral services were held at New Salem church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with Rev. R. M. Honeycutt officiating. Martin & Sons were in charge of burial arrangements.

Mrs. Price is survived by three sons—Pete Price, of Birmingham; J. B., and R. B. Price of Jemison; one daughter—Mrs. Louis of Wilton.

Six grandsons acted as pallbearers at the funeral, while a group of granddaughters carried the flowers.

ROXIE PEARL PATTERSON

Mrs. Roxie Pearl Patterson, 33, wife of D. Edgar Patterson, died at her home on Verbena Route 1 last Friday. The funeral was held at Floyd church Saturday at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. J. D. Hughes officiating, with burial in the cemetery there with Martin & Sons in charge. The deceased is survived by her husband, several brothers and sisters, and several other relatives whose names could not be secured.

O. C. BENNETT NOW WITH E. L. KLINNER FURNITURE COMPANY

Mr. O. C. Bennett, who was transfered here from Birmingham more than two years ago, with the E. L. Klinner Furniture Company, and who is known personally to thousands of Chilton county people, spent several months this year with Tiffin-Klinner Furniture Company, is again with E. L. Klinner Furniture Company on the Highway. He thanks his many friends and customers for their generous patronage of the past, and invites them to call in to see him at the E. L. Klinner store, as he will be inside until after the holidays.

CHILTON COUNTY ASSOCIATION MINUTES READY FOR DELIVERY

The minutes for the Chilton County Missionary Baptist Association have been printed and are now ready for distribution to the various churches. The clerk, or someone else interested in each church is urged to call at the Union-Banner office at the first passing and get your prorata share.

CHRISTMAS THINGS FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN

The Clanton Kiwanis Club, under Mr. Johnnie Hollis as chairman of the committee, is waging a campaign for Christmas offerings for the underprivileged children of Chilton county. Mr. Hollis urges all who have old toys that can be repaired and repainted to leave them at J. Mell Martin's place.

It is hoped that a nice collection of such things can be gathered and thus make some little hearts happy that otherwise would probably be deprived of the joy which all children like to have at Christmas times.

LEGION CONFERENCE IN MONTGOMERY ON DEC. 1st

Department Headquarters of The American Legion announces its Annual Post Commanders' and Adjutants Conference to be held in Montgomery on Sunday, December 1st. While this meeting goes under the name of Commanders and Adjutants Conference, every Legionnaire in the state is invited to take part.

A very interesting program has been arranged. As a special drawing card two National Legion officers will speak. These are Dr. W. E. Whitlock, National Vice Commander from High Springs, Florida, and the other is Homer L. Chaillaux, National Americanism Director. Mrs. Melville Mucklestone, National President of Auxiliary will also be in Montgomery attending the Presidents' and Secretaries' Conference and will address the Legionnaires also.

On Saturday night before the meeting there will be entertainment for everyone. In addition, the Past Commander's Club wil have a dinner at 6:30 and the Executive Committee will meet at 8:30.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDED AIR CIRCUS SUNDAY P.M.

Judging from the large crowd that attended the air circus at the Clanton Airport Sunday afternoon, our people are really air minded. It is estimated that there were 3,000 people out there, and at least a thousand cars were parked at the port and as nearby as they could get.

This only goes to show that people are interested in some kind of excitement—something different from what they are accustomed to. It also bears out the idea of those who have been advocating a gathering place for the people of the county. It looks like they are going to make the airport a community center whether it is fixed for it or not.

City Fathers Warn Against Fireworks

"Fire Zone" Limits Are Set Out; Ordinance Will Be Strictly Enforced

City officials wish to give notice that the city law against shooting fire works in the "fire zone" will be rigidly enforced this year. In the past, officials state, this law has not been enforced so strictly, resulting in much shooting of firecrackers and other fireworks with some accidents and many near-accidents.

Notice is given that all violators of the ordinance will be prosecuted, and stiff fines meted out to violators.

Below is given the fire zone limit:

Beginning at the intersection of First Avenue and Sixth Stret, (The post office corner), north to intersection of Fourth Avenue and Sixth Street, (the Christian Church Corner), west to the intersection of Fourth Avenue and Eighth Street. (the Masonic Hall corner), south of junction of Second Avenue and Eighth Street, (at the Wilson Hotel), east to the railroad, south to intersection of First Avenue and the railroad, east along First Avenue to its intersection with Sixth Street, at the post office corner again.

These limits are set out as the fire zone, and the area within them will be patroled closely for violations of the fireworks ordinance. This ordinance provides for fines of from $1 to $100 and costs for each violation.

W. Q. CHILDRESS DIED

Mr. W. Q. Childress, Clanton Rte. 4, died at his home Monday, November 25th, at 10 o'clock, after a few days of illness. Mr. Childress was buried at Liberty Hill church Tuesday at 11 o'clock. Rev. R. M. Honeycutt will preach the funeral with Spigener Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Childress is survived by one daughter, Miss Nora Childress, of Clanton Rte. 4; two brothers, L. W. Childress and C. R. Childress, both of Thorsby, Ala. Mr. Childress was a life-long resident of Chilton county.

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY COMES TO TEACHERS AID

Birmingham, Ala. Nov. 23.—Alabama Power Company today finished sending out checks for payment of ad velorem taxes to state, counties and cities in the sum of $749,094.42. Including payments heretofore made in response to requests from County Superintendents of Education for advanced payments to meet teacher's salaries, the Company has now paid $944,378.65 in ad velorem taxes.

The remaining ad velorem taxes due by the Company will be paid in December, the total for the year being $1,30,,820.95 and the total taxes in Alabama of all kinds being in excess of $2,000,000. Of this $2,000,000 about $1,000,000 is used for educational purposes.

CLANTON LUNCH ROOM TO OPEN FRIDAY A. M.

Mr. Albert Gramatas, who for the past several weeks has been engaged in installing a cafe across the street from The Union-Banner office, announces that he will be open for business Friday of this week.

Mr. Gramatas extends an invitation to the people of Clanton and Chilton county to come around and get acquainted with him. Read his announcement elsewhere in this issue of The Union-Banner.

LET US ALL BE THANKFUL

Count your blessings, name them one by one;
Count your blessings, see what God hath done.

Thanksgiving Day, the anniversary of the date when the Pilgrim Fathers gave thanks to their Creator for food and safety, is being observed abroad the land today. Must not we too, in the midst of happy homes, peaceful surroundings, and an inexhaustible array of friends and friendship, also offer prayers of thanks to our Lord, the source of all good things?

Yea, let us count our blessings, and give the One credit to whom credit belongs. God has blessed we people in Chilton county during the past year, and among the vicissitudes, varied and of sundry degrees, much good has come to us. We will not forget the opportunity to turn our thoughts heavenward and praise our Heavenly Father for all that He has done for us.

HURRAH FOR THE LIBERTY LEAGUE
[AN EDITORIAL]

In the report given out last week of the famous precedent set by the fractional part of the Democratic State committee, only a little over one-third of the members being present, when a matter of considerable importance was taken up and rushed through the committee, there was ONE dissenting vote. David Anderson, of Birmingham, was the "black sheep". But thanks be, there was one who had the courage to stick to what he knew to be the right, even in the face of overwhelming opposition. That lonely one happened to be the head of the Liberty League.

The Union-Banner does not know much about said Liberty League and what it stands for, but the stand taken by its head against this autocratic action by the Democratic State Committee has the right ring to it. The league has at least one good thing about it.

It is a hard matter for The Union-Banner to conceive of the stand that lots of our officials in this day and time take on many matters of vital importance to the interests of our common people. These public officials go into office on the strength of all kinds of campaign promises, pledging themselves to reduce taxes, eliminate useless offices, and every conceivable pledge that will get them votes; and then they take the solemn oath of office swaring to uphold the laws of the State and Nation. But when they get in it is all over with so far as promises, pledges, oathes, etc., are concerned. It is almost enough to make a fellow feel like it is no use. In short, it is simply disgusting; one almost loses confidence in everything.

But then, when we hear that there are still a few faithful ones left, we gain new courage and determine to press onward. The good Lord has promised that so long as a few hold out faithful He will be one amongst them, and that the gates of hell shall not prevail against them. If it were not for our faith in this promise, we would all fall out and give up in despair.

The Union-Banner commends Mr. Anderson for casting his vote against this nefarious action, and Judge Leon McCord, and Mr. C. D. Comstick of Birmingham, for raising their voices in oppostion to the action. Long may their courage and determination last, and may it be augmented by the aid of other true American citizens until autocracy is wept out and the principles of true democracy may rule in this country of the free and land of the brave.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE RALLY HERE MONDAY NIGHT

On Monday night, December 2nd, the Chilton county post of the American Legion will have a rally and special meeting at the courthouse in Clanton.

Mr. Sam A. Lokey of Columriana will speak; also Hon. Pete B. Jarman of Montgomery will make an address. These are both outstanding speakers and ardent legionnaires.

The meeting will be opened at 7 o'clock, and the public is invited. Especially all ex-service men are urged to attend. Remember the date—the first Monday night in December.

REV. HOLLAND'S SCHEDULE

Below is given the monthly preaching schedule of Rev. J. S. Holland. He asks that notice be taken of the changes, especially the change at the Ebenezer church, from the second Sunday to the first Sunday.

First Sunday—Ebenezer; 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Second Sunday—Liberty Hill; preaching services will be held here at 11:00 a.m., on the second Sunday in each month, and at 11:00 a.m., on Saturday before. There will be no Sunday night service.

Third Sunday—Second Baptist Church of Clanton; 11:00 a.m., and 7:00 p.m.

Fourth Sunday—Mulberry; 11:00 a.m., and 7:00 p.m.

GRAND JURY CALLED

A Chilton County grand jury was called into regular session last Monday. No report on their findings had been given out in time for this week's paper, but a full report will be given in next week's issue.

Those called and accepted on the grand jury were:

Name	Beat
Armstrong, Jim F.	4
Rutherford, Marvin A.	4
Robinson, Jasper R.	5
Page, John C.	4
Parrish, Evans	4
Sansom, George W.	15
Hayes, J. D.	14
Cofer, W. P.	2
Popwell, Raymond H.	9
Smith, Nat G.	12
Walker, G. W.	8
Gayton, Robert M.	3
Sexton, Sterling J.	3
Williams, Henry T.	5
Lecroy, Clifford	3
Devaughn, Elijah H.	15
Honeycutt, Hugh V.	4
Garrett, Chester P.	13

SHERIFF'S REPORT

Sheriff Hardy reports four arrests during the past week. These four are as follows:

One for murder; in jail.

One for abusive, indecent and obsecene language; in jail

Two for violation of the prohibition law; one of these has been released on $300 bond, while the other is being held in jail.

Sheriff Hardy reports a little unusual connection with the murder arrest. Buster Parker is the man held. Sheriff Hardy had been advised that Parker was being held in Autauga county for a misdemeanor. He was given a short prison sentence. Mr. Hardy called prison officials and informed them that Parker was wanted in Chilton County for murder, also, that he had made threats that he would escape if given half a chance. The prison officials offered to turn Parker over to Sheriff Hardy if he would call for him. Parker was brought to Clanton Tuesday and placed in the county Jail, awaiting preliminary trial.

One of the V. P. L. cases carries an interesting story, also. Deputies Nivens and Smith were out looking for a man named Harrison, and were informed that he was at the home of Arthur Bogue. Arriving at the Bogue home, the deputies were forbidden to enter the house. They went in, anyway, telling Mr. Bogue they merely wanted to look around. Harrison was found, and then Bogue began threatening what he would do to them for coming into his house without a search warrant. A further search revealed a quantity of whiskey, so Bogue was arrested, brought to town placed in jail on a liquor charge.

A. E. MIDDLEBROOKS REMAINS AT CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

At the Methodist State Conference, held at Opelika last week, it was ordered that Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks remain in charge of the Clanton Methodist church. Dr. Middlebrooks has been here one year. Rev. U. L. Martin was retained at Deatsville; and Verbena will still be in the charge of Rev. C. M. Ellisor. At Plantersville Rev. C. H. Hildreth will be pastor.

Rev. D. W. Haskew remains at Andalusia; J. R. Mills, superintendent of the Alabama Orphanage, C. C. Wilkerson, Clay Street, Montgomery; I W. Chalker, Panama City. The 1936 conference will be held at Selma.

Margis Robinson, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F O. Robinson, of Mitchell Dam, is reported to be seriously ill with pnumonia.

THE ABEVILLE HERALD IN CHARGE OF MR. GUY DeSHAZO

R. M. Fuller who, for the past four years, has been owner and publisher of the Abbeville Herald, has sold his business to C. S. Keller and plans to begin working with H. H. Golson of the Wetumpka Herald, who was at one time editor and publisher of the Abbeville Herald.—Publishers Auxiliary.

Mr. Guy H. DeShazo, formerly of Clanton but for the past several years a resident of Panama City, Fla., has been placed in charge of the Herald by the new owner, Mr. C. S. Keller.

Mr. Keller is a former County Farm Agent of Henry County, and is a brother of Hon. Albert Keller, State Superintendent of aducation. Both the Kellers are close friends of W. M. Wyatt, former editor of The Union-Banner.

Many noticeable changes may be noted in the Abbeville Herald since Mr. DeShazo took charge of the shop. He is an old-time printer and publisher, having learned his abc's in The Union-Banner office, and once worked in the government printing office in Washington. Good luck to "The Sweeper," and may his "Cinders" be plentiful.

STRAWBERRY GROWERS MEETINGS TO BE HELD

All members of the Thorsby Association and others interested in strawberry growing, living in the immediate communities are requested to meet with our directors at the following times and places.

Collins Chapel church, December 5, at 4:00 p.m.

Union Grove church, December 5, at 6:00 p.m.

Pates Chapel, church, December 6, at 6 p.m.

Tom Taylor Owner Wholesale Business

J. T. Rockett and J. D. Rockett Acquire Ownership Of Dry Goods Firm

One of the most important business deals in Clanton of recent date was consummated the first of this week, in which Tom M. Taylor became sole owner of the old original Taylor Wholesale Grocery Company. The interest of J. T. Rockett and J. D. Rockett was purchased by Mr. Taylor. The Rocketts had been in the Wholesale business for about a year and a half, after having acquired the interest in the company of R. W. Taylor.

In the midst of the transaction, however, the dry goods store of the company, known as Taylor Dry Goods Company, one of the largest department stores of Clanton, was taken completely over by the Rocketts and will be operated by them in the future.

In relinquishing his interest in the dry goods store, Mr. Taylor said: "I have been in the dry goods business for fifteen years. Although completely severing my connection with this store, I leave with the friendliest feelings, and urge my many friends to continue their dry goods trade with the business under the new ownership and management of the Messrs. Rockett."

Tom Taylor became connected with the wholesale grocery business in Clanton thirteen years ago ,going in with Downs Grocery Company. The business has continued to grow to the present wide dimensions, continuing to gain ground even under adverse business and economic conditions, until it has become one of the biggest business concerns in Chilton County.

ONE FINED IN MAYOR'S COURT

Only one case was booked in Mayor's court last Monday morning. This one was for over-parking on Seventh Street. A fine of $1.00 was assessed.

The city government wishes to stress again the fact that Seventh Street, from the intersection of First Avenue and Seventh Street (known as Dief's corner (to the intersection of Third Avenue and Seventh Street (the corner by the Ford Place) is restricted area. Parking in this area is restricted to one hour, between the hours of 8:00 a.m., and 4:00 p.m. Signs have been erected, and notice is given that this ordinance will be strictly enforced in the future.

GROCERY STORES CLOSED ALL DAY THANKSGIVING

All the grocery stores of Clanton will be closed Thursday of this week, Thanksgiving Day. The trade of this territory will please take notice and be governed accordingly.

O. C. HAND DIED SUNDAY

O. C. Hand, age 61 years, died at his home near Macedonia in Beat 11, last Sunday at 11:30 o'clock, following an extended illness.

Funeral services were held at Macedonia Monday at 11 o'clock, funeral by Rev. T J. Daniel, assisted by Rev. A. G. Smith. Pall bearers were Buck Lookhart, Buck Headley, Claughton Smith, W. U. Headley, J. A. Blalock and H. B. Deal.

Mr. Hand was born in Coosa county November 1, 1874. In 1894 he was married to Janie Johnson. He was the father of 10 children, 9 living; 20 grand children. He was identilie with the church of Christ haci been a faithful member for 22 years.

Democrats Lose 5 States, Says Houck

Mid - Western States Resent Canadian Trade Pact By Wallace

Five powerful Mid-Western states have been definitely lost by the administration because of the New Deal's stubbornness in enacting the Canadian Trade Treaty despite protests of citizens and farmers.

This was the observation Friday of Stanley B. Houck, of Minneapolis, American Bar Association official and nationally known lawyer, here to attend the two-day session of attorneys from eight Southern states.

Speaking from the standpoint of an observer rather than a participant in the controversy, Mr. Houck said the Mid-West section is rapidly swinging away from the New Deal.

"The new Canadian reciprocal trade agreement is unpopular because that it is highly injurious to the agricultural interests," he declared.

"The states of Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Kansas and Nebraska were up until a few days ago in the doubtful column as far as the election of 1936 is concerned.

"Now, with this treaty flung directly in their faces, they will vote against the New Deal in '36."

"The New Deal's legislation has resulted in increased business for attorney's, but this is extremely unfortunate for the general public.

"It is indeed regrettable when the citizen has to turn to the lawyer to protect him from legislation when he should be protected by the legislation itself."

Mr. Houck is chairman of the American Bar Association's committee on unauthorized practice.

PASTORS CONFERENCE HERE DECEMBER 2ND

The pastors conference of the Chilton and Unity Associations will meet Monday, December 2nd, at 10 o'clock, at Clanton Baptist church. All pastors of the two associations are asked to take notice and be present.—J. W. Jones.

BIRMINGHAM'S SIXTH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CARNIVAL

Birminghams 1935 Christmas Carnival on November 28, 29 and 30, is being sponsored by the American Legion and Junior Chamber of Commerce, assisted by the Civic and service clubs of this city and county.

Through the assistance of state officials and state organizations, the event is statewide in scope and will be participated in by the governors of five of our sister states in the South. The Carnival is planned to rival the Cotton Carnival, Mardi Gras, and similar attractions, in color, pageantry and festival spirit.

The Debutantes Club of Birmingham will serve as hostess and chaperon for the visiting princesses during their stay in Birmingham.

Princesses will be housed at the Tutwiler Hotel, Thomas Jefferson, Molton Hotel and Bankhead Hotel, during their three days stay here.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson will represent Clanton in this Carnival.

MISSIONARY SERMONS AT THE CLANTON GOSPEL TABERNACLE

A series of missionary sermons will be given at the Clanton Gospel Tabrenacle next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights, December 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

Speakers will be Mrs. Georgia Minter, missionary to central China; A. F. Destershaft, from southern China; Rev. Grady Mangham, of Tampa, Florida; and Rev. Glenn V. Tingley, of the Birmingham Gosel Tabernacle, at Birmingham.

These returned missionaries from "dark China" have an interesting and inspiring message for everyone, and you are urged to be present at every service.

Remember, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights at 7:00 o'clock, at Clanton Gospel Tabernacle, located at corner of first Avenue and third Street, two blocks west of high school building.

Also, negotiations are under way regarding a series of meetings to be held at this tabernacle beginning about December 8th, under the direction of Rev. Paul Kirk. Further announcement regarding these meetings will be given next week.

OFFICIAL CALL FARMERS UNION REGULAR CONVENTION, THORSBY

By authority of the Constitution and by-laws, I hereby call a regular County Convention of the Chilton County Union at Thorsby public school, December 14th, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, and to formulate plans and policies for the coming year, and transact such other business as may come before the Convention. The public is invited until 12 o'clock.—B. S. Frederick, Secretary and Treasurer, F. E. and C. U. of A.

SINGING SCHOOL AT COTTON MILL

Messrs. Archie DeVaughn and Audie Brown opened up a singing school at the Clanton cotton mill Monday night. The report was that the school opened with bright prospects, and is expected to get better later on. It will run for three weeks.

IGINAL TORN PAGE

At this season of the year, naturally we all take retrospective of our activities during the year, and it is well that we take time to do this; it is also well that we remember to give thanks, even if silently, for the degree of prosperity we have enjoyed during the past twelve months.

Like our Pilgrim Fathers did, when our country was in its infancy, we pause to render unto our Creator a prayer of thanksgiving for what we have been blessed with.

This store is indeed proud of its many friends in Chilton County. We have tried hard to serve you in the past in such manner as to merit your continued friendship; we feel that to a degree we have succeeded in this worthy undertaking.

We unhesitatingly ask you to continue letting us be your friends, venturing the assurance that we will strive even harder to merit such friendship in the years that are to come.

Taylor Dry Goods Company

Clanton - - - - - - - Alabama

BAKER SCHOOL

On November 18, at 2:30 p.m., Mr. J. W. Fant and Miss Ruth Pardue met with us and organized 4-H clubs.

The officers for the boys were as follows: President, Clyde Raspberry; vice-president, Earl Baker; secretary and treasurer, Carl Jones; song leader, Noel Robinson; reporter, Herschel Hamilton; local leaders, Mr. J. W. Hamilton and Mrs. Claude Conway.

The officers for the girls were as follows: President, Gertice Riggins; vice-president, Margaret Lowery, secretary and treasurer, Willie Merle Lockhart; reporter, Ruby Foshee; song leader, Lennell Eubanks; cheer leader, Doris Williams; local leader, Mrs. Girdie Johnson. The group captains were as follows: Elsie Merle Griffin, Willie Merle Lockhart, Mary Lane Parrish, Ruby Foshee and Evian Littlejohn.

The Baker girls and boys played a game of basket ball with the girls and boys of Concord Junior High on the home court last Friday. The girls game was played first and was a very interesting game. The score at the end of the first half was 6 to 2 in favor of the Concord team. In the last half the Baker girls brought the score up to 7 to 6 in their favor.

The final count for the boys game was 6 to 3 in favor of the home team. Noel Robinson was high point man for Baker. Orell Williams and Earl Baker played well as guards. The boys are taking quite a bit of interest this year and with a little more practice we hope to have a good team.

BOX SUPPER

There will be a box supper and a cake walk at Union Grove schoolhouse, November 30, 1935. The proceeds will go for the benefit of Mt. Pleasant church. Everybody come.

SINGING AT OAK GROVE

There will be a singing at Oak Grove church, on the highway above Jemison Sunday afternoon, December 1st. Prof. A. H. Glasscock will be there with his new books. Everybody is invited.

Time Lost is Money Lost

It costs money to be sick. You see it directly if your pay envelope is short. You lose out on some important work if you live on a farm or if you are one of the few who are not docked for lost time. You can't afford to show up on the job unless you are feeling fit. The boss wants results—not excuses.

How many times do Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, "That Tired Feeling," That "Morning After" Feeling, Neuralgic, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Muscular or Periodic Pains keep you at home or interfere with your doing a full day's work?

All these troubles are caused or made worse by too much acid in your body. To correct this condition take

ALKA-SELTZER

The New Pain Relieving, Alkalizing, Effervescent Tablet.

It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid. Alka-Seltzer is pleasant to take, effective, non-laxative.

Why don't you try it? Get a drink at your drug store soda fountain for a nickel. Buy a package for home use.

Large Package 60 cents
Small Package 30 cents

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. © Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for December 1

EZRA'S MISSION TO JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Ezra 7:6-10; 8:21-23, 31, 32.

GOLDEN TEXT—The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him. Ezra 8:22.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Bringing Gifts for God's House.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Ezra's Long Journey.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How God Helps.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Purposeful Prayer and Courageous Action.

I. Who Ezra Was (7:1-10).

1. A priest (vv. 1-5). He was from the line which was to stand between God and the people. The leader of the first company was Zerubbabel, a sort of military governor. The great need now was for a religious leader, for the people had gone far from God, as we see from the noble reformation which Ezra effected.

2. A ready scribe (v. 6). He was a teacher of the law of God.

3. His high ambition (vv. 7-10).

a. He set his heart to seek the law of the Lord (v. 10). He set out definitely with the purpose to know God's Word. No one who purposes in his heart to seek the law of the Lord can fail.

b. He set his heart to obey the Lord (v. 10). He was not only concerned with knowing God's Word but obeying it. God's Word cannot be known in its fullness by the intellect; it must be experienced. An essential qualification for a teacher of the Bible, a preacher, or Sunday school worker, is obedience to God's Word.

c. He set his heart to teach in Israel God's statutes and judgments (v. 10). He not only had a love for God's Word but a desire to implant it in the hearts of others.

II. Ezra's Commission (7:11-26).

Ezra went forth backed by the decree from King Artaxerxes. The king gave him a copy of the decree which authorized him to lead a company back to Jerusalem. This decree empowered him to

1. Collect funds (vv. 15, 16);
2. Levy tribute (vv. 21, 22);
3. Appoint magistrates and judges (v. 25);
4. Execute penalties (v. 26).

So great was the king's confidence in Ezra that he delegated all these powers to him. For this great favor Ezra lifted his heart to God in thanksgiving (vv. 27, 28). He was mainly concerned with the fact that he was to beautify the Lord's house and acknowledged that God had put his purpose into the king's heart.

III. The Company Which Returned With Ezra (Ezra 8:1-20).

This company was comparatively small, only 1,754 males, but including the women, children and servants there were perhaps 6,000 or 7,000 people. Before proceeding on the journey Ezra was careful to find out as to whether any of the Levites, the ministers of God, were with them (v. 15). He knew that the success of their enterprise depended upon the spiritual condition of the people. Temporal blessings and prosperity of the individual and the nation depend upon the people's attitude toward God.

IV. Ezra's Prayer and Fasting (8:21-23).

The first thing that he did was to seek God's guidance. The reason Ezra sought the Lord's help was that as far as possible he desired his mission to be free from human dependence. He did not minimize the dangers attending his journey, but since he had assured the king that the hand of the Lord would be upon all for good who sought him, he was ashamed to ask the king for a military escort to protect them from the marauding Arabs. His desire was to prove the reality of God's help, as God's honor among the heathen was at stake.

V. The Successful Journey (8:24-32).

God heard their prayer. The treasure entrusted to them was great. Perhaps the entire value of money and sacred utensils was nearly five million dollars. For a small caravan to go through a country infested by these robber bands carrying such an amount of money was most perilous, but Ezra knew that God was able and would protect them. Observe

1. The care and honesty (vv. 24-30). The money was weighed unto them at the start and was to be weighed when turned over to the authorities at Jerusalem. The incentive to honest and strict accounting of the trust was that they were holy men and were entrusted with that which belonged to God.

2. Their safe arrival (vv. 31, 32). Some four and one-half months were required to make the journey. God brought them safely to their destination, thus proving that he is faithful to those who put their trust in him.

Perfect Love

Perfect love is distinguished by the character of its enjoyments. It craves the spiritual, the holy and Divine. Its enjoyments are purely religious; they are sought by prayer, reading the Scriptures, pious meditations and acts of Christian duty and usefulness. The enjoyments of a pure heart are sweet, rational and unwasting.

Objections

Nothing will ever be attempted if all possible objections must first be overcome.—Johnson

Bob Evans and T. E. Wyatt were in Birmingham last Friday afternoon.

STATE TEACHES COLLEGE GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED

The Glee Club of the State Teachers' College, Livingston, Ala., was organized in the early fall, by fifty members, both old and new. Mrs. S. D. McGriff, the music teacher, is the sponsor. Miss Virginia Herndon, president; Miss Debbie Morris, vice president; Miss Martha Badgley, secretary and treasurer; were the officers elected to lead this group through a successful year. The recreation committee are Effie Register, chairman; Elizabeth Stabler, Edna Pearl Aavard.

The Glee Club spent one musical afternoon on the banks of the Sucarnachee river. They have given one public performance, singing "Bonnie Doone'., "On Wings of Song" and "The Gypsy Trail." All attention is now being focused on the Christmas Cantata. The Boys Glee Club will also aid in the Cantata.

In the annual tryout Miss Martha Badgley received the voice scholarship.

Among the members are Miss Tina Hyman, of Clanton, and Miss Inez Wright of Jemison.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Nearly 1,000 teachers gathered at the University of Alabama last week end for the eighth district meeting of the Alabama Educational Association The meeting was featured by addresses by Dr. J. A. Keller, state superintendent of education, and Paul Munro, president of the Educational Association. The arrangements for the meeting were in charge of Dr. John R. McClure, with Dean A. E. Harris, Dean of Women at the University, assisting.

The University Glee Club, under the direction of Tom Garner, presented its first concert of the year in Morgan Hall last Friday night. Following the concert, a Glee Club dance was held in the University gymnasium.

Three one-act "workshop" plays were presented Tuesday evening by members of the Blackfriar players, student dramatic organization. The plays, presented for Blackfriars and their friends, were directed by Arthur Kruger, Atlantic City, N. J.; Hayden Rector, Columbus, Ohio; and Sidney Thompson, Tuscaloosa, all student members of the dramatic group.

The Honorable Ruth Bryan Owen, American minister to Denmark, and first woman minister ever to represent the United States in a foreign country, spoke before a large assembly at the University Monday evening, under the auspices of the Tuscaloosa Branch of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Owen is the daughter of the celebrated William Jennings Bryan, late political figure. She served two terms in Congress as a representative from Florida.

Approximately 110 students in the department of geology went on the regular geology field trip from the University last Wednesday under the direction of Dr. T. G. Andrews, instructor of geology. The group visited various interesting out-cropping and geological formations in this territory.

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

UNKLE MIKE HANKS WRITES MR. HOPKINS

Hon. Harry Hopkins,
OUT-OF-WORK DEPT.,
Wash., D. C.
Dear Mr. Hopkins:

For heaven sake, Mr. Hopkins, what has gone wrong with your Boon-Doggle Program? All of my and my wife's relatives was took off the Dole like you promised, but they haven't found no work and they are living off of us.

Mr. Hopkins, there are 8 people trying to live in our 3-room flat. This morning when I wanted to shave I didn't have no room to work up a lather, what with my two kids fighting in the bath tub, my brother-in-law, Jake reading the newspaper and my wife's mother banging on the door for us to let her in quick.

The 1st relative which moved in was Jake. I tried to throw him out, I says, "It don't matter none if they did take you off the Dole, because Mr. Hopkins will put you to work."

"Oh no he won't," says Jake, kind of laughing, "because I am a flute player by trade, and the WPA don't have no flute projeck to put me on."

About ½ hour later the bell rung again, it was my wife's mother. "I am moving in," she says, "they took me off the Dole."

It turned out that there wasn't no WPA projeck for her, neither, because she didn't even play a flute. She is nothing but a mother-in-law.

The next 2 times the bell rung it was an aunt on my wife's side and a 5th cousin on my own side, which I hadn't saw in years.

So here we are, Mr. Hopkins, with our house full of helatives and when you & Mr. Roosevelt spent 4,000 million dollars to end the Dole, I didn't never suspect that you was starting something even worse.

Please think up some WPA projecks for my relatives, I am hereby making a list of what they can do:

1 Flute Player named Jake, age 40.

1 mother-in-law, very good at public speaking.

1 wife's aunt, age 53, lost job with FERA when you begun the WPA.

1 cousin, age 37, retired flagpole setter.

1 man, age about 50, which I don't know from Adam, but he just rung the bell and says he is my uncle.—Yourn in trouble, Mike Hanks.

BOX SUPPER AT ANTIOCH

There will be a box supper at Antioch church Thanksgiving night, November 28th, beginning at 7:00 o'clock. Proceeds will go to the church. There will be plenty of fun and everybody is invited to attend. Antioch is located 2½ miles north of Pletcher.

IN CHILLICOTHE COLLEGE

Mary Louise Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Giles, of Clanton, has enrolled in the Chillicothe Business College at Chillicothe, Mo., for the complete course of busines training.

WEEK END SPECIALS

Boys Wagons AS LOW AS 95c

NEW FOLDING SPRINGS	$2.35
New 2-Inch Continuous POST STEEI BEDS	$4.50
New Roll Edge COTTON MATTRESSES	$4.95
MATTING SQUARES, 6 x 9	$1.50
One 9-Piece Slightly Used Walnut Finish DINING SET	$29.50
9 x 12 Felt Base CONGOLEUM RUGS	$5.95

USED RADIOS $5 to $25
CASH AND CARRY PRICES

Tiffin Furniture Company

Fox Bldg., South of Courthouse — Clanton, Alabama

We Are Thankful

As did the Pilgrim Fathers, when our great nation was young, we are thankful, at this season of the year, for all good things that have come our way.

THE LEADER is especially thankful and thoughtful of its FRIENDS in Chilton County. We have been one of you for SIXTEEN YEARS; we have lived with you, shared your happiness as well as your misgivings, and we, today, with all the good people of Chilton County, offer thanks for what good has come to us during the past year. May we long continue to be friends and be able to serve you, is our earnest desire.

The LEADER
M. LANDE
Clanton, Alabama

POOR OR

5 P.M. is a test of how you FEEL

"How do I feel.... Rotten! why do you ask?"

"Because, you are not yourself!"

IT is all so simple, too! That tired, run-down, exhausted feeling quite often is due to lack of a sufficiency of those precious red-blood-cells. Just build up these oxygen-carrying cells and the whole body takes on new life... food is really turned into energy and strength... you can't help but feel and look better. S.S.S. Tonic restores deficient red-blood-cells... it also improves the appetite and digestion. It has been the nation's standby for over 100 years... and unless your case is exceptional it should help you, too. Insist on S.S.S. Tonic in the blood-red cellophane-wrapped package. The big 20-oz. size is sufficient for two weeks' treatment... it's more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

S.S.S. TONIC Makes you feel like yourself again

Sewing Machine Sale

For the Next 30 Days

For the next thirty days, beginning Saturday, November 30th, 1935, I will sell all Sewing Machines in Stock, including Singers, New Homes and Whites, at a considerable discount FOR CASH.

C. Reese Mullins

Clanton - - Agent - - Ala.

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true.

Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid dose can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.

FROM Wm. J. HEADLEY

Hot Springs, Ark.
839½ Central Ave.

Editor Union-Banner:

Dear Sir:—The paper reached my room Thursday p.m. and was glad to get the paper, of course, but in reading over the paper and seeing so many bad accidents and deaths it causes me to feel sad. Yet I am thankful that every thing is well with me as what it is. I am OK. Taking the baths every day.

I have been out to the ostrich and alligator farm and up Happy Hollow to see the donkeys and the monkeys, the big black bear the long-eared goat. So is guess this is enough for this time. I would be glad to hear from home-folks any time. I guess I will be home not later than December 15th.—Wm. J. Headley.

CANE CREEK

There will be an all day get-tofethrervice at the church Sunday. Evtrybody is invited to attend. Bring a well filled basket and spend the day.

Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Partridge of Sylacauga visited our Sunday school Sunday. He gave a very interesting talk.

We had a large crowd out at Sunday school Sunday. Everybody come back and bring some one with you. Don't forget the services Sunday.

What a thrill you will get when you drive this New 1936 Chevrolet

See me for demonstration

L. E. FOSHEE

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton

BOB JONES

COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

"Is it true that your old college has set aside a smoking room for the students?" This is what the writer inquired of a very charming young lady recently. The college under discussion is a fine old religious school for girls. It is a denominational institution. "Yes, we have a smoking room", the young lady said. "We had to have one. The girls slipped out in the alleys to smoke and if we had not opened a smoking room we would not have had any students'. That is just exactly what is the matter with our modern world. So many of our religious leaders, instead of keeping up the standards, bring the standards down to the level on which the people live. It is un-Christian to lower standards and compromise convictions. Now, if this young lady had said, "We have decided that there is nothing wrong in smoking and if girls want to smoke we think it is alright, so we just decided to have a smoking room", I would have taken issue with her because I do not think girls have any right to poison their nerves with nicotine, but I would have respect for the Board of Trustees who opened the smoking room. We do not have any smoking in the Bob Jones College either by girls or boys. We have twice as many students as this girls' school has and we have been running our college only nine years while this girls' college is one of the oldest institutions in America. We cannot win by lowering standards. We are exhorted not to be conformed to the world, but to be transformed by the renewing of our minds.

Richard III, one of Shakespeare's outstanding characters, was a hunchback. He was antagonistic toward the world because his physical infirmities protested against the liberties which other people who had good bodies enjoyed. The world is filled with moral hunchbacks. Our jealousy of other people is a protest against the things which they enjoy and which we do not have. The Pharisees hated Jesus because He was holy and they were hypocrites. The world loves darkness rather than light because its deeds are evil. The writer attended a democratic convention during which William Jennings Bryan kept the light turned on. Men cursed him under their breath. Bryan would walk into the auditorium, push a button, turn on the light and everybody would see a group of people representing the interests over in one corner pulling off dirty deals. These political crooks naturally hated Bryan. Bryan turned on the light. Men who have wicked plans hate other men who are frank and open and who have no dirty deals to carry through. Yes, the world has many moral hunchbacks.

ENTERPRISE 4-H CLUBS NEWS

Our county agent, Mr. Fant, came to Enterprise school Tuesday, November 19, and organized a 4-H club. We were glad to have Mr. Fant with us and invite him back again. We all know Mr. Fant as a prominent citizen and recognize the work he is doing as a benefit to all who are concerned. The club elected officers as follows: President, Bernard Tucker; vice president Horace Cleckley; secretary and treasurer, Bunyan Yeargan, song leader, Sam Burkhalter; reporter, Warren Keen; local leader, Mr. Green and Mr. Grant.

We hope to do good work this year and invite anyone who wishes, to come and be with us.—Reporter.

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH
(Dr. A. E. Middlebrooks, Pastor)

Next Sunday is the first Sunday in the new conference year. The Alabama Annual Conference convened in Opelika last week Dr. Middlebrooks was returned to Clanton church for another year. He reported to the Conference that all claims were paid in full for the year, there being a large increase made in ministerial support and mission work over the previous year.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening next Sunday. He will bring special messages approriate for the beginning of a new year's work. The public is invited.

SAM P. COLLINS

Sam P. Collins, age 55, of Collins Chapel community, died at a Birmingham infirmary last Friday, of a heart ailment.

Mr. Collins was a farmer, and highly respected citizen in the Collins Chapel community. He had been a member of the Collins Chael Baptist church for several yearfs.

Funeral services were held at Collins Chapel Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock with Rev. W. P. Lowery officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery, with Martin & Sons in charge.

Mr. Collins is survived by the following: his wife, Mrs. Minnie Collins; one son, Earle; one daughter, Mrs. Giula Murrah; his mother, Mrs. Betty Collins; one brother, Tom Collins of Birmingham; five sisters, Mrs. Riley Popwell, Mrs. Korell Littleton, Mrs. Lucy Marcus, Mrs. Mattie Barrett, Miss Lizzie Collins.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION TO NON-RESIDENT

The State of Alabama, Chilton County.
Circuit Court. In Equity. No. 1275.

J. W. Garrett, complainant, vs. Clara Garrett, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper punbliished in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Clara Garrett, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 5th day of December, 1935, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 4th day of November, 1935.

W. D. SPIGENER,
Register.

11-7-4thc

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE NOTICE

State of Alabama, Chilton County.

Default having been made in the terms of a mortgage executed to the undersigned, Alabama Mineral Land Company by B. O. Lowery on the 22nd day of November, 1930 which said mortgage is recorded in the office of Probate Judge of Chilton County, Alabama in Record Book No. 242 on Page 704, and said default continuing, I, the undersigned as attorney for mortgagee will sell at public outcry for cash to the highest bidder on the premises and property herein described, between the legal hours of sale on the 7th day of December, 1935, the following described property to-wit:

Northwest quarter of Northeast quarter, (NW¼ of NE¼), section five (5) township twenty-three (23) North range thirteen (13), East, containing forty acres more or less, situated in Chilton County, Alabama.

The proceeds of sale to be applied to the payment of costs and expenses of such sale and conveyance, including a reasonable attorney's fee and the balance to the payment of what may be due on said mortgage.

Dated this the 18th day of November, 1935.

ALABAMA MINERAL LAND CO.,
Mortgagee.

PERCY M. PITTS, Attorney for Mortgagee.
11-21-2t.

Don't Get Up Nights?

THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanyt flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and fell "full of Pep."—Upchurch Drug Company; Alred Drug Company.

4-H STYLE QUEEN

Named Alabama 4-H style revue champion, Ruth I. Epp, 15, of Marion Junction, Ala., will represent the state's 25,000 4-H girls in a national contest to be held at the 14th National Club Congress November 29-December 7 in Chicago, to which she receives a free trip from the Chicago Mail Order Co., sponsor for the 6th year. She will model an informal party outfit of her own making which cost, with all accessories, $8.31, including 69-cent hose and $3.85 shoes. She used four yards of Swiss gingham with brown and tan taffeta trim in the dress.

Another outstanding member of the 15 trip winners to Chicago named by State Leader T. A. Sims, is Clarita Thompson, 17, of Athens, Ala., who goes as state champion in the Montgomery Ward sponsored girls record contest and will compete for national honors and a $400 scholarship. In her seven years of club work she has completed 21 projects in foods, canning, clothing, home improvement and poultry valued at $189. Her prizes total $24.25. She has won county honors both in health and clothing.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

164 PAYROLL INCREASE IS REPORTED BY VICKS

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 27.—For the five months period ending October 31, employment here at the laboratories of Vick Chemical Company—makers of Vicks VapoRub and other aids to better control of colds—reached an all-time peak, and payrolls increased 164 per cent over the corresponding period of 1934.

This record is all the more impressive in view of the fact that Vicks employment showed progressive upward steps throughout the depression. The company gained national recognition in 1932-33 . . . at the lowest point of depression . . . in showing an employment increase of more than 100 per cent over the best normal records of pre-depression years. At the same time came the rather startling announcement that no Vicks salary had ever been cut because of "hard times".

Find Out

From Your Doctor if the "Pain" Remedy You Take Is Safe.

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it — in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store — simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

Bayer Aspirin

HILL GROCERY CO

COFFEE

Royal Blend lb 15c
3 lb bag 43c
Fit for A King lb 21c

VEGETABLE SHORTENING —
LARD bulk lb 13c 4-lb ctn. 55c

CAMEO OLEO lb 15c

.·.FLOUR.·.

Grandma's Wonder 24-lb Bag $1.10 48-lb Bag $2.15
White Tip 24-lb Bag 99c --- 48-lb Bag $1.95
Circle "H" 24-lb Bag 89c --- 48-lb Bag $1.75

Navy Beans 3 lbs 13c

FLUFFO COOKING —
OIL Pint Can 18c Qt. can 35c

CIRCLE "H" — BACON Sliced lb 33c
DRY SALT BOILING — MEAT Pound 17 1-2c

SUNSET —
SARDINES 2 No 1 Tall cans 15c

VAN CAMP'S —
PORK & BEANS 6 16 oz cans 25c

STOKELY'S —
String Beans No 2 can Hominy No 2 1-2 can
Kraut No 2 can
Your Choice 3 For 25c

SCOTCH — Oats 2 20 oz Pkgs 17c
WINNER — Grits 3 lbs 10c

O. K. LAUNDRY —
SOAP 3 10 1-2 oz Bars 10c

THERE ARE NO SAFER BRAKES MADE

than the Super-Safety Brakes of the 1936 Ford V-8

FORD PERMANENT WHEELBASE

Radius rods [1] brace the front axle like a pair of giant arms. Radius rods and Torque-tube [2] give triple bracing to the rear axle. This means that the front and rear axles of a Ford car are always held equi-distant—in perfect alignment. On this permanent wheelbase any braking system now in common use could be used. Only with this Ford-type wheelbase, can mechanical, Super-Safety brakes be used to the fullest advantage.

4 INDEPENDENT BRAKE-RODS

Four brake-rods [3] of strong, tempered steel link the pressure of your foot on the pedal with the four big brake-drums on the wheels. They do this positively, surely, under all road conditions. Note especially that no one Ford brake has to depend on the other three. Failure of one—practically impossible—would still leave you three perfectly-operating brakes.

Tear out this chart and check it with the car you are driving now.

NO other car in America has the same basic design as the Ford V-8. Because of this design, the Ford could use any type of braking system now in common use. (Diagram at left shows why.)

With the whole field to choose from, Ford stands by mechanically-operated Super-Safety brakes as safest, surest, and most positive for the Ford V-8.

This is the type braking system used on many of America's costliest cars and most racing cars. Because of unique chassis design, Ford can use it to better effect than any other car built today.

All in all, no safer brakes are made than you get with the 1936 Ford V-8. Drive it today—and see for yourself.

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS

Ford V-8 for 1936

$510 AND UP, F. O. B. DETROIT. Standard accessory group including bumpers and spare tire extra. Easy terms through Universal Credit Company.

ON THE AIR – Ford Symphony Orchestra, Sunday Evenings - Fred Waring and His Pennsylvanians, Tuesday Evenings Columbia Network – Wednesday Evenings, WSB

IGINAL

Be Thankful-

There is much to be Thankful for! We are Thankful for the many Friends we have made during the past year, and for our pleasant relations with them.

Here's hoping this traditional Holiday of our Pilgrim Forefathers finds every family in Clanton and Chilton County content and happy. Yes, and THANKFUL, as it gathers 'round the festive board.

Grocery WADE Market

Just Received New Shipment
Ladies Wash Dresses Special Price $1.00

New Coat Suits and Dresses Sizes 14 to 20 Only $1.95

Bargains in Womens Shoes. Many sold for $2.95 New Styles for $1.98

We are closing out all Men's Work Shoes and Boots. So Get our Prices First.

BEN'S

CLANTON

MRS. W. J. LITTLE

Mrs. Martha Little, 74, wife of W. J. Little of Clanton Route 2, died at the home of a brother, near Moriah church, in Coosa county, last Tuesday morning at 5:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Little went to Coosa several days ago to visit her brother. She was taken ill with pneumonia on Friday, November 22nd.

Mrs. Little was born and reared in Coosa county, living there until 1915, when she moved with her husband to Chilton county, settling near Cooper. She has lived here ever since.

As we go to press, funeral arrangements were announced to be at Chestnut Creek church, Cooper, at 11:00 o'clock Wednesday, November 27, with burial in the cemetery there, with Spigener in charge of burial.

Mrs. Little is survived by: her husband, W. J. Little, of Clanton Route 2; two sons—Luther E. Little, county superintendent of education, Clanton, and Eddie Little of Clanton Route 2; two daughters—Mrs. Charlie E. Blalock of Clanton Route 2, and Mrs. Tom Wells of Clanton; several brothers and sisters.

Due to the fact that Mrs. Little died in Coosa county, and all close relatives were over there on Tuesday morning when news of her death was received, very few details could be secured. A complete report will be carried next week, however.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28
Lee Tracy and Grace Bradley in
"TWO FISTED"
COMEDY—"Magic is Music"
Truth About Ethiopia

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29
Paul Muni and Ann Dvorak in
"DR. SOCRATES"
COMEDY—"Off The Boat"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT NOV. 30
Kermit Maynard in "FIGHTING BLOOD"
COMEDY—"Off the Boat"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2
Norma Shearer and Frederic March in
"SMILIN' THRU"
COMEDY—"The Fixer Uppers"

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3
James Dunn and Claire Dodd in
"THE PAY OFF"
COMEDY—"Trouble In Toyland"

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4 and 5
Miriam Hopkins in "BECKY SHARP"
COMEDY—"Bird Scouts"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—Dr. J. M. Robinson, Nov. 30, William Stanley, Rte. 1, Nov. 29; Juanita Miler, Nov. 29; Frank Littlejohn, Dec. 1; Raymond Walker, Dec. 5; Mr. J. C. Foshee, Dec. 1; Mrs. J. C. Foshee, Nov. 30; Jessie A. Culp, Rte. 6, Dec. 1; Edith arrish, Nov. 29; Winston Culp, Rte. 7, Nov. 30; Lillian Thompson, Nov. 29; Helen Hubbard, Rte. 4; Mrs. R. J. Jones, Nov. 29; Emmitt Brand, Nov. 29; Leonard Weldon, Dec. 4; Paul Busby, Dec. 1; Mary Armstrong, Dec. 5; G. C. Powell, Rte. 1; Jelly Bean, Dec. 5; Roberta Marcus, Dec. 5; Henry Bates, Rte. 3, Dec 1; LAY DAM—Mrs. H. B. Deal, Nov. 29; THORSBY—Lloyd Howard, Nov. 29; Marie Melton, Nov. 30; CENTREVILLE—Mrs. S. T. Singleton, Dec. 1.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

J. O. Elder, father of Ruth Elder, noted aviatrix, died at Anniston after a four-month's illness.

The Pell City department of the Avondale Mills has resumed operations on a full-time basis.

Bids are being advertised on a 16-room school building and auditorium, to be constructed in Heflin with PWA funds.

The Florence Chamber of Commerce will elect new officers and conduct its annual membership campaign during December.

The Christian Life Conference of the young people will be in session at Southern Union College at Wadley Nov. 29 to Dec. 1.

What is expected to be the most modern and completely equipped convict camp in Alabama will be ready for occupancy near Pell City Feb. 1.

The Glee Club of the University of Alabama opened its season with a local concert presented Friday, Nov. 22, in Morgan Hall, on the campus.

Miss Amelia Boddie has been appointed to lead a drive designed to bring the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra to Florence Feb. 21, 1936, for a concert.

Work is expected to start within the next two or three weeks on construction of the Cullman sewerage system as a Works Progress Administration project.

Arraignment of the nine Negro defendants in the "Scottsboro case" under new indictments charging them with attacking two white women has been set for Dec. 16.

The Birmingham Apollo Boys Choir sang for President and Mrs. Roosevelt at Warm Springs, Ga., Thanksgiving Day, as a part of the annual Founders' Day dinner.

Rep. T. C. Almon, of Decatur, has started a movement to nominate Pitt Tyson Maner, private secretary to Gov. Bibb Graves, for lieutenant governor in the next elections.

The office of Atty. Gen. A. A. Carmichael has ruled that holders of outstanding warrants need not accept refunding warrants for them if their rights are prejudiced thereby.

Unable to agree, a St. Clair County Grand Jury, after a two day investigation of the slaying of a union miner in a march on an unorganized mine, returned a report with no indictments.

A new State Highway Department building will be constructed near the state Capitol in Montgomery. The building is to cost approximately $300,000. Work is to begin shortly after Jan. 1, 1936.

The Selma City Council has deeded a lot 150 by 240 feet to the Armory Commission of Alabama for a $60,000 building which will be undertaken soon as a Works Progress Administration project.

A $250,000 paving project for an eight-mile stretch on the Meridianville Highway to the Tennessee state line is in prospect. The State Highway Department has advertised for bids to be opened on Dec. 4.

Lawrence Lee, legal adviser to Gov. Bibb Graves, has announced that due to the small collections from automobile drivers' licenses, Alabama's new state highway patrol will not be organized until after Dec. 1.

Minimum prices of eight cents a quart for wholesale milk, 10 cents for cash and carry at stores and 11 cents for doorstep delivery have been fixed for the Selma milk shed by the Alabama State Milk Control Board.

Requisition papers for the return of Dean Shade to Marengo County and the return of Kermit Bullock to Mobile County have been mailed to South Carolina and Texas authorities, respectively, by Gov. Bibb Graves.

Fifty-seven farm homes at Holly Pond, Baileyton and along the highway between those communities and Hulaco are being served with electricity following completion by Alabama Power Co. of a 12.2-mile extension of its rural lines in Cullman County.

Sen. Harry Taylor has announced he will ask Gov. Bibb Graves to include in his "call" for a special session next January a bill authorizing the construction of a cement plant, the output to be used in building paved roads in Alabama.

The Alabama Public Service Commission has dispatched an order to all toll bridge and ferry operators directing them to furnish operation and ownership statements before Dec. 16 under provisions of a 1935 legislative act making all toll bridges and ferries public utilities.

Miss Lorena Guy left Wednesday for Montomery to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

PATES CHAPEL

Sunday evening was our regular singing evening. It was well attended and we are glad indeed to have the visitors from different places. You are cordially invited back. We would like to serve notice to the singers that we have changed our singing date from the fourth Sunday to the first Sunday in every month after next Sunday.

Miss Nolen Meroney attended a concert in Birmingham Thursday.

Mrs. Vastine Hayes spent a few days with home folks the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Rube Williams.

Miss Bessie Hayes spent the past week end with Miss Zemma Hayes.

Mr. E. J. Hayes has erected a new building in this community and will move in this week.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Cordis Sorrell has been confined to his bed with rheumatism. We all hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Searcey left on Wednesday afternoon for Clayton, Ala. where they will spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. Searcy's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Glasscock, with Dr. and Mrs. William Stewart of Troy, will attend the Birmingham Southern game in Birmingham Thursday.

OPENING FRIDAY

CLANTON LUNCH ROOM

Next To Clanton Laundry
Albert Gramatas, Owner

Catering to Serving the Finest Meats

with Old Santa Here in Person Sat., Nov. 30th

—and such an array of Toys, Dolls, Guns, Wagons, Mechanical Toys, Novelty Toys, Horns, and every kind that you have ever seen, and dozens that you've never even heard of before. Children and Parents, Uncles, Aunts and Friends, here's the place to get something for that little Neice or Nephew that is sure to please

GIFTS FOR THE ADULTS

—Never before in the history of this store, have we had such a splendid assortment of Gift Boxes, Items that will be sure to please Man or Woman, Boy or Girl, Infants or Grandparents, and these gifts, especially selected, were purchased to sell at a price easy on your Christmas Budget.

V.J. ELMORE
5c, 10c & $1.00
STORES, Inc
Clanton - - - - Alabama

POOR OR

Ladies Guild Bazaar, Dec. 7

All persons who are making articles for the Bazaar, please have them ready by Friday, December 6, and carry them to the home of Mrs. S. E. Norton, where the sales committee will meet to put the price on them.

—✦—

Miss Dorothy Franklin spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Franklin celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary Sunday, November 2. Mrs. H. S. Higdon sent them a nice cake for the occasion. The only guests were Miss Dorothy and Mr. Burt Higdon.

Mrs. S. T. Street of Birmingham arrived in Thorsby Friday evening to spend a week with Mrs. J. H. Goddard and other friends.

Special For Thanksgiving!

TEMPTING Sweets

Rich Chocolate-covered fruits, nuts, caramel and cream centers. Bon-Bons in a tasty, surprise variety. EVERYBODY has a "hankering" for Candies on Thanksgiving. You'll find these Sweets of ours a special treat . . every piece a delicious temptation!

Upchurch Drug Co.

Clanton - - - - - - - - - Alabama

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

The Thanksgiving services will be held on Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Baptist church. Rev. Stanley will preach the sermon. All are invited to attend this service. The order of the Thanksgiving service will be as follows: Doxology, invocation, by Rev. J. W. Jones; announcements by Rev. J. W. Jones; Special hymn, offering for the poor, scirpture by Rev. J. W. Jones, prayer by Rev. E. W. Butler, secial hymn, Sermon by Rev. Lawrence Stanley and closing hymn. Benediction by Rev. W. P. Lowery.

The G. A's of the Baptist church will not meet this week.

The Y. W. A. will meet on Friday afternoon of this week at the home of Miss Edna Raybon at 3 o'clock.

The Baptist Sunday School Teachers' meeting will be held on Friday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. E. R. Piper at 7 o'clock.

A rather large crowd attended both services at the Baptist church Sunday. At the evening service Bro. Jones told of the inspirational convention at Troy, Alabama. One member was received at the morning service.

Services as usual at the Congregational church next Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45. Worship service at 11 o'clock, Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p.m. Evening service at 7:30.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Thanksgiving will be the subject for the evening.

Miss Katheryn Foss will rehearse the full choirs from Baptist church and Congregational church at 4:00 o'clock on Wednesday evening at the Baptist church.

The Ladies Guild Social will be held on Friday afternoon of this week, the day after Thanksgiving, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Goddard. All are invited.

The Boy Scouts will not meet this week.

—✦—

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kendrick of Birmingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kendrick. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick returned with them to spend a few days.

Inez Cox celebrated her eighth birthday with a party Saturday afternoon. The following friends were present: Jacqueline Sorrell, Mildred Popwell, Peggy Mims Franklin, Imogene Lowery, Alma Thomas, Norma Jean Honeycutt, Eloise Berry and Hazel Cox. Games were played throughout the afternoon. Following this refreshments were served.

Mr. Burt Higdon, who is a student at Howard College, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Franklin.

Mrs. Sidney Davenport of Birmingham is spending a few days with her parents.

Mrs. W. F. Blood and Mary Nell Pate motored to Birmingham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Saber of Elmore were the Thursday dinner guests of Mrs. J. H. Goddard.

Mrs. J. L. Mixson and children and Jean Swanson left Sunday afternoon for Union Springs.

Miss Marguerite Davison and Mrs. J. H. Goddard attended a quilting and dinner with the Ladies Aid of Mountain Springs church. The quilting was at the home of Mrs. Jesse Rutherford.

Mrs. Guy S. Gerald of Washington, D. C., spent last week with relatives in Thorsby, Clanton and Birmingham. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

young MOTHERS

Living Protection

means care-free old age

INVESTORS SYNDICATE
FOUNDED 1894
LIVING PROTECTION

Living protection is presented to you as something which you can achieve — a cash reserve which you can arrange to be yours at the time of future need.

The plan enables you to make provision on easy terms for this sum of money for future delivery. How much more you will receive than the amount of your payments — depends upon how long the delivery date is deferred.

For Details See

Frank Palmer

Local Representative

State Headquarters 601 Comer Bldg., Birmingham, Ala.

USED CARS FOR SERVICE

Before accepting a USED CAR we figure on what YOU want. Our cars are mechanically perfect, clean, powerful and snappy. There are thousands of happy miles in these cars. Terms.

1933—Chevrolet Coach	$325	1931—Chevrolet Pick-Up	$225
1931—Chevrolet Coach	$245	1935—Chevrolet Pick-Up	$450
1932—4-Door Chevrolet Sedan	$325	1933—1½-Ton Chevrolet Truck. New 30 x 5, 8-Ply Tires, Dual	$375
1930—Chevrolet Coach	$135	1930—Chevrolet Truck	$ 65
1929—Chevrolet Sedan	$ 95	1928—Chevrolet Truck	$ 35
1931—Ford Coach	$195

Drive in and let us go over your car. A few dollars spent today may save many dollars tomorrow.

HAYES Chevrolet Co.

Dick Hayes Jack Hayes
Clanton, Ala.

CHEVROLET
The Complete Car

THANK YOU, AMERICA,

for more than a Million cars in 1935

This year Chevrolet has two very good reasons for saying, "Thank you, America."

One reason is that people have bought so many Chevrolet cars that production for the year will reach 1,040,000.

And the other reason is that they have placed a record number of orders for new 1936 Chevrolets during the first few weeks they have been on display.

Chevrolet is indeed happy to say, "Thank you, America," and to pledge continued adherence to the manufacturing and service policies which have won and held the friendship of the nation.

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.

6% NEW GREATLY REDUCED G.M.A.C. TIME PAYMENT PLAN
Lowest financing cost in G.M.A.C. history. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices.

CHEVROLET

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

The only complete low-priced car

The shower which was given last Tuesday afternoon for Miss Juanita Each at the home of Mrs. R. R. Franklin was quite an event. Many attended and the gifts were many, useful and beautiful. Some special music was heard by Miss Marguerite Davison and Miss Katheryn Foss. Also instrumental music by Mrs. C. R Foss.

Mrs. Cecil Each of Birmingham spent a few days last week with Mrs. J. E. Each to attend the shower given for Miss Juanita Each.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Horace Franklin is sick.

Mr. J. A. Hayes spent the week end in Montgomery.

Miss Elizabeth Austin spent the week end in Montevallo.

Mrs. Leonard Hayes spent last Thursday with Mrs. Walter Robinson in Clanton.

The quilting club will meet Wednesday, November 27, with Mrs. Dora Collins.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton spent a few days last week with Mrs. N. Laurell.

Mrs. N. Laurel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson and little son, Billy, and Miss Louise Fitzpatrick spent Sunday in Birmingham.

Miss Frances Wilson spent the week end at home.

Mr. Jack Peterson of Gadsden spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Billingsley of Clanton visited in Thorsby Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Marie Peterson is spending a few days in Tuscaloosa this week.

Mr. Glover Collins of Birmingham is visiting his sister, Mrs. Harvie Wilson.

Several of the people from Thorsby attended the funeral of Mr. Sam Collins, which was held at the church at Collins Chapel.

—✦—

Christian Endeavor News

The Christian Endeavor sicety had a very interesting program Sunday evening. Instead of the regular type of program, a Thanksgiving pageant "The Landing of the Pilrims" was given. The young people in pilgrim costume and the singing of Pilgrim hymns was very attractive. The pageant was directed by Miss Elizabeth Glasson. The purpose of the pageant was to picture the coming of the first Pilgrims to America and their first Thanksgiving.

The Christian people of Thorsby met in a mass meeting at the Thorsby Congregational church last Sunday afternoon. This was the second of a number of such meetings, at which the people discuss means of bettering the existing social conditions of the town and surrounding community. The number attending was good, but not so large as at the first meeting, held Sunday, November 17.

After a brief opening discussion, in which the need for organization was pointed out, V. H. Sutlive was elected chairman of the meetings. Some few reports were made and several helpful discussions arose. The need was felt for different committees and such were appointed. We have the needs of the young people, especially, at heart, and are trying to do the greater part of our work for them.

We believe that these meetings are going to do much for Thorsby, and that the influence of this Christian group will be felt in many places.

Another meeting will be held in the Thorsby Baptist church at 2:30 next Sunnay, December 1st.

—✦—

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

Radio Repairing

I am working in Culp's Radio Shop, west of the Railroad, and will appreciate your trade.
Am prepared to do any kind of repairing. Also Phonograph work.
—Ernest Adams.

Culp Repair Shop
Clanton, Ala.

IGINAL

FROM M. C. HENLEY

Thomasville, Ala., Nov. 23, 1935.
Eidtor Union-Banner:

I have been living in Clarke county for the past two years and have not missed a single copy of the good old Union-Banner. I get the paper on Thursday as same as the folks at home. I can't tell you how much I apreciate it as I keep pretty well up with the happenings around home through its ages. No one can hardly appreciate The Union-Banner and the good roads in Chilton county like he ought to until he gets away from the County.

And speaking of the good roads, I feel that the good road system of Chilton County is a worthy memorial to the administration of Judge Reynolds. I think that the people of Chilton county owe him the credit, or at least largely so, for the same. We can never forget the faithful services that he rendered during his administration in building up the county in its every interest. And I think we ought to show to him that we appreciate this service while he lives and not wait till he is dead to talk about it. I only hope that all of his successors, both Democrats and Republicans, will follow his example and give us the faithful and efficient service that he did.

Well I would like to say to our friends around home that everything is going nicely with us. The good Lord has been gracious to us and supplied our needs bountifully for which we are very thankful. We feel that your prayers in our behalf have been answered and we hope that you will continue to pray for us. We are entering a new conference year and we want to do everything we possibly can for the glory of God and the advancement of His kingdom this year. I hope this will be the sincere desire of every pastor and every church member of every denomination that proclaims the true gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. I trust that we will all have a great year and that great and wonderful things will be accomplished for the Master.

Well I will close, wishing evreybody a great Christmas and a very proserous new year, together with good health and hapiness. Your friend and brother in Christ.—M. C. Henley.

ENTERPRISE NEWS

Miss Ruth Pardue met with the girls of Enterprise school November 19, and re-oganized the 4-H club. Our project for the year is, "The 4-H Club Girl's Bed Room."

The officers elected were as follows: President, Zora Mae Tucker; vice-president, Mattie Ree Pierce; secretary and treasurer, Ettie Charles Wilkins; reporter, Elvie DeVaughn; cheer leader, Mary Pearl Griffin; song leader, Carrie Lee Boockholdt; local leaders, Miss Hazel Maddox and Miss Lucille Dunn; captains, Earnestine Johnson, Ester Gray, Irene Griffin, Mary Nelson and Lucille Chandler.

Miss Pardue will meet with us again the second week in December. —Reporter.

"TWO DAYS TO MARRY" TO BE STAGED AT STANTON

According to his father's will, James Dare must be married on his twenty-eighth birthday in order to inherit a large fortune. By the time this clause of the will is noticed he has only two days in which to get a wife and get married. Just as he is about to give up, something happens! The antics of Dare's "head butlah," Simon P. Chase, will keep you convulsed with laughter.

Date—Wednesday night, Nov. 27, at 7:00 o'clock. Admission, 10c and 15c.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

Farmers Lose 64 Million In 1934 AAA Contracts

Gain More Than $600,000,000 On Uncontrolled Commodities Same Year

A smashing indictment of the AAA and a challenge to answer direct charges of fraudulent claims and half truths, was delivered over the N. B. C. hook-up, by National Secretary, E. E. Kennedy, of the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union. He cited figures of the United States Department of Agriculture to show that American farmers were actually suffering huge losses of net income, on crops and commodities now controlled by the Agricultural Adjustment Administratin. Taking his computations from crops and market officials, Federal Government publications, Mr. Kennedy broadcast the following startling information: 1. Cash income from seven farm crops and commodities controlled by the AAA actually declined a total of $64,673,000, in 1934 as compared to 1933, where no AAA contracts were used. 2nd, total cash income to farmers from crops and commodities in 1934 increased $859,000,000 above 1933. But practically three-fourths of this increase was made on crops not controlled by the AAA. Third, six-sevenths of the farmers engaged in raising of hogs and corn suffered losses in 1934 totalling $99,000,000, as compared to 1933, while but one-seventh of the producers were benefitted.

Fourth, Federal and State jobholders tied to the bureaucratic machinery of the AAA consumed in wages and salaries practically $22,000,000 from processing taxes paid by farmers of the United States. Income gains on non-controlled crops and commdities was far higher.

Floods of bunk propoganda and half truths, published at the expense of the government, and broadcast through the mail under free franking privileges of the bureaucrats, have been sent throughout the nation, giving the impression that crop control, as exercised by the AAA, could be given credit for a large and substantial increase in the income of farmers who signed up these contract

Mr. Kennedy, in his remarkable address, challenged the AAA to deny that such claims were fraudulent, and made the deliberate purpose and intention of deceiving the farmers and the people generally. The effect of these false claims has been to arouse the consuming public in organized opposition to meat prices and the prevailing level of all farm goods. As a matter of fact, Mr. Kennedy shows that farms participating in the crop control schemes of Henry Wallace and Chester Davis, actually received $64,000,000 less in 1934 than they did in the preceding year, on the seven commodities controlled by the AAA.

The imposition and collection of huge processing tax funds deducted from the seling proceeds of all farmers and donated to about one-seventh of the producers, who had executed contracts, swelled the fraudulent totals used by Wallace and Davis so that they could point to gains of $220,000,000 on crops under their control. However, Mr. Kennedy points out that crops and commodities which had refused to submit to AAA domination showed an increase 2 times the sum of the gains on contract crops, totalling practically $650,000,000 increase during 1934 as compared to 1933. Six farmers loses to everyone that gains by the AAA.

Citing the case of the corn and hog producers, Mr. Kennedy showed that six-sevenths of the total number of corn and hog producers suffered a loss of more than $99,000,000 during 1934, relative to their 1933 income. Whereas only one-seventh of the farmers engaged in the business of raising corn and hogs were benefitted by the AAA.

Concluding his address with a challenge to the bureaucrats to make a reply to his charges, Mr. Kennedy urged all listeners to write for actual figures, compiled and made available by government crop and income agencies, which would in themselves indict and revel the huge fraud being perpetrated upon farmers and agriculture under the guise of crop control. Copies of the remarkable expense of the bureaucratic swindle may be obtained by writing Farmers Union Hearquarters, in the city of Kankakee, Illinois, addressed to Edward E. Kennedy, national secretary. —B. S. Frederick, Jemison, Ala., Secretary and Treasurer F. E. and C. U. of A.

Getting Up Nights

If you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Swollen Joints, Dizziness, Headaches, Loss of Pep, Burning, Smarting, Itching Acidity due to functional Kidney or Bladder troubles, try the Doctor's guaranteed prescription Cystex (Sist-tex). Must bring new vitality in 48 hours, and satisfy completely in 8 days or money back. Guaranteed Cystex costs only 3c a dose at druggists.

SPECIALS---for Thanksgiving And the Week-End November 29 and 30
— At These Stores In Clanton —
BEAN and TAYLOR Grocery Co.
TAYLOR GROCERY and MARKET
We Deliver - - - - - - - Phone Us

WE ARE THANKFUL OF YOU --- YOUR FRIENDSHIP AND THE BUSINESS YOU HAVE GIVEN US.

COFFEE — Whole Bean — We Grind It, 2 lbs 25c
DESSERT PEACHES — No. 2½ Large Can 21c
PURITAN MARSHMALLOWS — ½ Pound 10c
DESSERT CHERRIES — White No. 1 Tall Can 20c
PINEAPPLE — Sliced or Crushed Large Can, No. 2 15c
SALAD DRESSING — 20th Century Quart Jars 23c
Sweet WHOLE PICKLES Quart Bottles 23c
GRAPE JUICE Pint Bottles 19c
DILL PICKLES 21 oz- Jars 15c
Sweet WHOLE PICKLES 25-oz Jars 35c
APPLE BUTTER 16-oz Jar 15c
WAX PAPER Cut Rite, Per Roll 10c

FRUIT CAKE MATERIAL
Glaced PINEAPPLE, lb 45c
Crystalized CHERRIES, lb 50c
CITRON, lb 30c
LEMON PEEL, lb 30c
CURRANTS, lb 15c
PITTED DATES, Pkg. 10c
See our prices on Shortening and Flour for your Baking Needs.

Powdered Cinnamon, Powdered Nutmeg, Powdered Cloves, Powdered Allspice, Powdered Ginger — Each 10c, 3 for 25c
WHOLE NUTMEG, Each 1c
FOR ICING — Marshmallow Creme, 16-oz 15c
Cranberry SAUCE, 1 lb 1 oz 20c
BOTTLED CHERRIES 10c
Cranberry SAUCE, 1-lb, 1-oz 20c
Stuffed or Plain OLIVES 10c

Swandown CAKE FLOUR 30c
Paper Shell PECANS, 2 lbs 30c
TOMATOES, 4 No. 2 Cans 30c
Dozen 85c
STOKELY'S CORN, 2 No. 2 Cans Newport 19c
STANDARD SWEET — CORN, 3 No. 2 Cans 25c
Pony Boy PEAS, 2 No. 2 Cans 25c
PAPER NAPKINS Package 10c

CLOSED ALL DAY THURSDAY - - - Wanted To Buy Fresh Eggs

BOLOGNA, lb 15c
GOOD FOR COOKING OR EATING — APPLES, Each 1c
IRISH POTATOES, 10 lbs 19c

Ask Us About The Large Beautiful Doll

ANY CUT — NATIVE STEAK, lb 15c
CHUCK — BEEF ROAST, lb 12½c
HALF OR WHOLE — PORK HAM, lb 22c
SELECT — OYSTERS, Quart 55c
Hamburger MEAT, 2 lbs 25c
100 PER CENT PORK — SAUSAGE, 2 lbs 45c
FRANKFURTERS, lb 15c
WISCONSIN — CHEESE, Full Cream, lb 20c
JEWEL, 4-lb Carton 55c
JEWEL, 1-lb Carton 15c
BEST QUALITY — WHITE MEAT, lb 25c

PURE AND WHITE — SHORTENING, Bulk 14½c

Be THANKFUL For All Good Things That Have Come to You During Past Year

SPECIAL PRICES on FEEDS and FLOUR

PURE WHEAT SHORTS $1.85
Jazz 24% DAIRY, 100 lbs $2.10
16 PER CENT — Best Yet Dairy Feed $1.75
BEET PULP, 100-lb sack $2.00
C. S. HULLS, New, Sack 65c
THE RELIABLE — WINNER DAIRY FEED $2.00
C. S. MEAL, New, 8 per cent $1.40
Best Yet Laying MASH $2.50
100-LB SACK — HEN SCRATCH FEED $2.50

Omega Flour 24 lbs $1.25
PLAIN AND SELF RISING — FINEST FLOUR MILLED
PLAIN OR SELF RISING — DUNLOP'S BEST, 24-lb Sack $1.10
NONE BETTER FOR THE MONEY
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR SELF RISING — DUNLOP'S BEAUTY $1.15
FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — WHITE RING $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S BEST $1.15
HIGHEST QUALITY — BEST FOR BISCUIT AND PASTRY
24-LB SACK, PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S MAID $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — MARY JANE FLOUR $1
EXTRA GOOD — FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

See Us for Wholesale Prices on Quantity Lots of Flour and Feeds
Dairy and Poultry Feeds of All Kinds—

Don't Forget Our PRIZE CONTEST Each SATURDAY, Evening 4 P.M.

Billingsley News

Mr. Bambury of Birmingham spent the past week end in our town with friends.

Mr. Ormon Culp spent the past week end in Lawley.

Miss Bertha Dennis and Mrs. Ada Wimberly spent Saturday in Clanton with Miss Dennis's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Turner Dennis.

Mr. J. F. Apperson spent last week in Prattville on the Grand Jury.

Mrs. B. C. DeRamus left Sunday for Prattville where she will make her home.

Mr. J. H. Williams and Mrs. Cottie Chappel and Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster of Birmingham spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson.

Miss Ozell Deason of Centreville spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Deason.

Mr. B. M. Monroe of Prattville was shaking hands with Billingsley friends Sunday.

Mr. Hobson DeRamus left Sunday for Birmingham where he is expecting a position.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hedgepeth spent the week end with Mrs. Hedgepeth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beadelscomb.

Miss Irene Jones of Bessemer, Alabama, will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother, Mrs. A. S. Jones, here.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over MAZAR'S STORE

FOR HAIR AND SCALP
JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
The Antiseptic Scalp Medicine—
Different from ordinary Hair Tonics — 60c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists
Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

POOR OR

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

ARBOR DAY PROGRAMS ARE NOW AVAILABLE

Montgomery.—Gov. Bibb Graves has designated Friday, December 6th, for general observance throughout the state as Arbor Day. The text of the Governor's proclamation is as follows:

Wherens the welfare of the people and the progress of civilization are dependant to a great extent upon the existence and proper use and enjoyment of trees and forests; and

Whereas the State of Alabama has been blessed by the Creater with magnificent forest resources which, however, in the past have been much neglected, and which are in serious need of restoration and development; and

Whereas experience and history have shown that the proper care, perpetuation and use of forests and trees can best be achieved by unified action on the part of all citizens;

Therefore, I, Bibb Graves, Governor of the State of Alabama, do designate and set apart the day of Friday, December 6, 1935, as Arbor Day. I recommend to all citizens, associations, partiotic societies and civic organizations, and especially to the schools of the State, the patriotic observance of this occasion by the planting of trees in appropriate places and by such other suitable exercises as may contribute to the further understanding and appreciation of the benefits to be derived from the preservation and culture of trees and forests.

The State Commission of Forestry, according to custom, has published a pamphlet of supgestions for Arbor Day programs for the use of teachers, clubs and other organizations interested in promoting the public welfare. It is very hard to estimate the number of such publications which will be requested by the various groups, and in order to eliminate waste caused by oversupply, or inconvenience on account of too few being printed, it is hoped that all individuals or organizations who expect to use the 1935 booklet will write to the State Forester, 500 Dexter Avenue, Montgomery, Ala., by November 30, stating the number desired.

GIST GIVES COTTON PRICE INFORMATION

Montgomery, Ala.—Records for the past ten years show that cotton prices average as high or higher during the harvest season as any other season of the year, reports F. W. Gist, state and federal agricultural statistician.

"The average price from August to December, inclusive, during the past 10 years was 13.25 cents per pound while the average price from January to July, inclusive, was 12.57 cents per pound," he says.

"It will be seen, therefore, that the farmer who sold his cotton during the harvest season from August to November, inclusive, would have received the highest price obtainable during the 10 years, an average of about $3.40 per bale over the average price from January to July," Gist comments.

COTTON CONSUMPTION HIGHEST SINCE 1929

Auburn, Ala.—World mill consumption of all cotton during the year which ended July 31 this year was the largest since 1928-29, reports the United States Department of Agriculture in its 1936 farm outlook.

Current conditions indicate that though consumption might be materially affected by further war developments, the report says.

Exports of American cotton show a gain of 119,000 running bales in October, 1935, over the same month in 1934 with the outlook that exports should be somewhat greater for this season than last, says the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Exports in October, 1934, were 592,000 bales and in 1935, 711,000 bales.

AGREEMENT EXPECTED TO INCREASE FARM EXPORTS

Auburn, Ala.—Agricultural exports from the United States to Canada will increase in consequence of the recent Canadian trade agreement, predicts the United States Department of Agriculture. "In addition the domestic market for farm products should expand on acocunt of increased domestic payrolls," says the department.

After pointing out that exports to Canada declined from $50,000,000 to $15,000,000 during the past five years, Secretary Wallace expresses the opinion that the new agreement will benefit "the whole of agriculture."

"The United States has always had a greater volume of trade with Canada than with any other country except the United Kinkdom," Mr. Wallace point out. "This extremely profitable mutual relationship, amounting on the average to over a billion dollars a year, was rudely broken by our Tariff Act of 1930 and by the retaliatory Canadian tariff shortly thereafter. It is my opinion that the new trade agreement with Canada is beneficial to all people of the United States, and especially to farmers.

"There are a few farm groups which will fear they are being hurt by the new agreement, but actually in those cases the tariff reductions are moderate and in addition there are quota restrictions of such a nature that imports from Canada cannot affect the American price structure by more than 1 per cent. This small effect, in my judgment, will as a rule be more than offset by the increased payrolls of industries established along the northern border and in the Northeastern States. These increased payrolls will stimulate the demand in the United States for most of the farm products in which there has been a slight reduction in duty. I am thoroughly convinced that the Canadian treaty will prove of benefit to the whole of American agriculture, and that no particular branch of farming will be seriously, if at all, disadvantaged.

CROTALARIA SHOULD Bx TURNED DURING WINTER

Auburn, Ala.—To get the greatest good from a crop of crotalaria, farmers should turn the crop in December or early January.

This is advised by Dean M. J. Funchess, director of the Alabama Experiment Station, who says that "if plowing is delayed until spring poor results from the crop following the crotalaria are sometimes obtained."

The plants should be cut with a stalk cutter when they are thoroughly dry, he advises. "This makes the heavy growth easily turned under."

In advising farmers to save their crotalaria seed, J. C. Lowery, extension agronomist, says that "the seed may be stripped by hand or the plant may be cut and the seed thrashed or flailed out."

STABLE MANURE BEST FERTILIZER

Auburn, Ala.—One of the best fertilizers for farmers to use under cotton, corn, and other crops is stable manure, much of which can be saved on Alabama farms during the winter months if farmers devote a little time to its production.

By supplying animals with bedding of leaves, pine needles, or straw and by keeping halls of barns, sheds and barnlot well covered with litter, leaves or straw, much valuable manure can be produced and saved, reports J. C. Lowery, extension agronomist.

"If the barnlot is too large to cover with bedding, build a pen of rails or logs and cover the bottom with 12 to 15 inches of litter," he says. "Rake up the droppings from the lot and throw them into the pen until almost one foot deep. Then add another layer of litter. Build up with alternate layers until about 6 feet high."

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination, backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

DOAN'S PILLS

Mattress Factory

We make old mattresses new. Also make new mattresses. Have just installed new machinery. Will appreciate your patronage. Work called for and delivered on the same day.

Chilton Mattress Co.
E. JONES, Mgr.
Located at Fairview Filling Station — Two Miles North of Clanton, Alabama.

WANTED
To Buy Corn
White or Yellow-Not Mixed

Also will buy dry Velvet Beans, Pea Hay or Soy Bean Hay

Will grind your Corn, Beans, Hay, Stalks, Fodder, Etc.

YOUR PATRONAGE APPRECIATED

Central Alabama Milling Co.
Willie Crowson
Lay Dam Road East Clanton

Wanted to Buy
Shelled Corn

FEEDS AND FLOUR

SHORTS — White Clover, 100 lbs $1.85
16% DAIRY FEED — White Clover $1.65
24% DAIRY FEED — Jazz $2.10
High Life — SCRATCH FEED .. $2.25
High Life — LAYING MASH $2.50
24-Lb GOLD FLAKE, Plain $1.00
24-Lb GOLD FLAKE, S. R. $1.05

R. W. LOWE
South Clanton

Our Thanks--

Comes Another Thanksgiving Day — Another Milestone in Our Partnership With the People of Clanton and Chilton County.

We are Truly Thankful for the Pleasant Connections We Have Had With You in the Past, and Look Forward to their Continuation.

Peoples Savings Bank
First National Bank
CLANTON, ALABAMA

ISABELLA NEWS

Isabella football boys went to Clanton Friday with a strong determination of giving Chilton High boys a hard fight for the "Game of the Season." Isabella made more first downs through the line during the first half, without either side scoring. The second half opened with both teams fighting for a victory. During the first part of the last half Isabella began throwing and completing passes, with Jones throwing to Deason, Fox and Williams. Oden and LeCroy made considerable gains on wide end runs and trick plays. Jones threw a pass to Deason, who ran four yards for the first touchdown. Isabella failed to get the extra point on another pass. Clanton began to fight harder, but they failed to plow the Isabella line for very much gain. As fate would have it, Clanton completed a long pass and was stopped near the goal line. They fought until they got a touchdown, but they failed to move the Isabella line for the extra point.

The Isabella boys are looking forward to whip C. C. H. S. next year. Clanton has yet to see that victory over Coach Porch's team.

The F. F. A. Chapter met last Wednesday and two delegates were appointed to take the place of any of the other four delegates that might not be able to attend the District meeting. The following program was rendered: Making farm property pay, James Calfee; Young farmers are urged to buy land, George Kyser; Good gardening in late fall, Cecil Mills. The boys who were elected as program committee for the District F. F. A. will try to have an interesting program for the next meeting at Clanton.

The Cosmopolitan Literary Society met last Wednesday, Nov. 20. The meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes were read by the secretary. The following program was rendered: Curent Events, Marfgene Ratliff; poem, Margarette Russell; jokes, Violet Downs. The question "Which is more important to the housewife, the broom or the dishrag?" was discussed by members of the society.

The following program was rendered by the Jeffersonian Literary Society: Devotional, Joseph Green; A talk on the Anarctic, Leo Deason; History of the Pilgrims, Ruth Cummings; Reading, James Traywick; Riddles, Frank Deason; Jokes, James Powell; Latest Inventions, Clifton Davenport.

The F. H. A. rendered an interesting rogram Wednesday: Devotional, Martha Green; Origin of Thanksgiving, Sara Calfee; Thanksgiving story, Mitchleen Scott; Something to be Thankful for, Marietta Foshee; Games, directed by Mary Charles Jones.

MABLE TOWERY, 18, of Childersburg, Talladega County, Alabama, is named state 4-H champion in food preparation on seven years of club work in which she made a large contribution through canning and other projects to her family's needs. She receives a free educational trip to the 14th National Club Congress to be held in Chicago November 29 to December 7, and is a contestant with other southern state champions for an Electrolux kerosene operated refrigerator. A $400.00 college scholarship will be awarded the national champion.

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies --- Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :---: :---: Alabama

VIVISECTION LEAGUE WRITES REGARDING RABIES PASTEUR

New York City, Nov. 21, 1935
Editor Union-Banner:

In your issue of Nov. 7th, it is said: "A mad dog, starting in Concord community Monday afternoon had quite a spree that afternoon and night. It is said to have bitten a dog belonging to Reese Baker and probably some other dogs in the community.

The following from Dr. William Brady, well-konwn syndicate writer in the "Brooklyn Eagle", January 13, 1935, should be of interest to your readers:

"Pasteur treatment for rabies is not serum. It is inoculation with dried spinal cord of an animal which has died of rabies. This is blind treatment, for nobody knows the cause of rabies in animals, no specific organism has been isolated, no virus proved by Koch's law, and indeed no one knows whether Pasteur treatment confers any protection against rabies.

"In the many instances where this treatment is given to persons who have been bitten by presumably rabid animals, who can say whether the inoculation has anything to do with the fact the great majority of such victims develop no grave effects?

"According to an abstract of the records of the Los Angles County Hospitals, kindly furnished by Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, Los Angles County Health Officer, there were 15 cases of human rabies treated in the hospital in the ten-year period from 1922 to 1932. All terminated in death . . . The Pasteur treatment failed in 100 per cent of cases.

"In an open letter on the subject in a Los Angeles newspaper Dr. Pomeroy asserts that 'Once rabies is acquired by man it is 100 per cent ftal."

"Frankly I think it is 90 per cent failure of Pasteur treatment against rabies, I'd rather take my chances without it because I'm afraid that inoculation with God knows what it is the cause of not a few of the prolonged paralyses that victims of Pasteur treatment sometimes suffer." —Sue M. Farrell, president.

Miss Gladys Cobb, of Jemison, Alabama, is in the Woodlawn Hospital, Birmingham, Alabama, where she has undergone an operation for appendicitis. Her condition is good and hospital attendants said she would probably be at home within ten days or two weeks. Mrs. J. E. Cobb, Miss Gladys Cobb's mother, has been with her daughter constantly during her illness.

THE CORN IS GONE
A drop or two of Corn-Fix stops the pain almost instantly—10 minutes later the corn is GONE—roots and all.
Recommended by your druggist for the safe removal of hard and soft corns, callouses, bunions. Money back if it fails.
CORN FIX FIXES CORNS

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

666
Liquid - Tablets
Salve - Nose Drops
Checks COLDS and FEVER
First Day
HEADACHES
In 30 Minutes

SPECIALS For Thanksgiving

Mens Dress Shirts Dark Deeptone Blue 98c

Pepperell PRINT CLOTH We have just received new shipment of beautiful Patterns — Guaranteed Fast Color Yard wide 19c

Borden's Fancy Prints. In Newest Patterns in plaid Checks and Staples - Special 15c

Mens and Women Sweaters Slip over style Only 75c

Ladies Felt Hats New Styles-98c and $1.49

DOLLAR STORE
Clanton, Ala.

A CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Isabella Home Demonstration club met Friday afternoon, November 15, 1935, at the home of Mrs. Howard Oden, with eight members present and one visitor. The meeting was called to order by Miss Ruth Pardue. The roll was called and the minutes were read by the secretary.

We are going to have a Christmas party at the next meeting. The club elected a committee to get up a program for the party. The committee is composed of Mrs. Fred Oden, Miss Bernice Jones and Mrs. Howard Oden. We are going to draw names at the party and each one is to bring a present to the meeting (some kitchen utensil costing from five to fifteen cents.) We are going to exchange Christmas presents at the party. Miss Bernice Jones is going to tell us a Christmas story. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. T. White, on Friday, December 20, 1935, at 2:00 o'clock. All the ladies of Isabella and Mulberry community are requested to be present. We hope to hove our president and vice president present at this meeting.—Reporter.

OPERETTA AT BILLINGSLEY

The Billingsley High School will present "Polished Pebbles" at the High School auditorium on Friday night, December 6. A large crowd is expected to be present for a good night of entertainment. The admission price will be 15c and 25c.—Herbert Nichols.

Mr. (Slack) Arthur Littlejohn left last week for Miami, Fla., where he has accepted a position in a hotel there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayes, Mr. Floyd Smith, Miss Ruth Pardue and Dr. Donovan were the dinner guests of Miss Kittye Clyde Austin in Montgomery Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Burnett of Montevallo accompanied by Miss Lucile Sherwood of Brundidge will spend Thanksgiving in Troy and Brundidge.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes spent Saturday and Sunday in Clayton with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Floyd.

BAPTIST ORPHANAGE PRODUCE CARS HERE DECEMBER 4 AND 5

The produce cars of the Chilton and Unity Associations will be in Chilton county on December 4th and 5th, Wednesday and Thursday. The car will be at Thorsby all day the 4th and at Clanton all day Thursday. People may give anything that is not perishable, including clothing, feed, food, etc., but not too many potatoes.

Mr. J. Watts Moore will represent the Unity Association and Mr. J. Dudley collins the Chilton Association. Each community will gather up the offerings in a truck and bring to the car, however, this matter will be in the hands of local committees.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

LOST—TWO BIRD DOGS—One solid red Irish setter named Pat, about 7 years old. One black and white English setter named Colonel, about three years old. Last seen on the afternoon of November 16, 1935. Any information leading to the finding of dogs rewarded.—Percy M. Pitts, Clanton, Ala. 11-21-2t

LOST—One female hound, color dark tan, when last seen had a chain attached to collar. Will greatly appreciate information.—Lee Nabors, Route 2, Montevallo, Ala. 1tch

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAIN, INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udga, a doctor's prescription, at Alred Drug Co. 9-26-10tp

FOR SALE—155 acres, known as the Weldon Cove on Coosa River. Three houses and outbuildings, about 45 acres in cultivation, good roads, backwater frontage ¾ mile.—Lawrence Littleton, Route 5, Clanton. 14-3tp

TIMBER FOR SALE—About 200 acres of original virgin pine timber, long leaf, short leaf and oak, located 5 miles northeast of Clanton. Interested parties may apply to Mrs. Henry Cleckler or L. C. Cleckler, Clanton, Ala., Rte. 5. 11-14-3p.

MULE FOR SALE—About 900 lbs. Price $75.—E. L. Henley, Clanton Route 2.

Circle No. Two Meets

Circle No. 2 of the Methodist W. M. U. met Monday with Mrs. Vernie Teel as hostess. An interesting program was rendered and delightful refreshments were served.

Those present were Mrs. Irvin Wilson, Mrs. Cleve Headley, Mrs. W. A. Reynolds, Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer, Mrs. M. A. Gore, Mrs. Ernest Arant, Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. G. T. Evans, Mrs. J. R. Broadhead, Mrs. M. Z. Wade and Mrs. O. D. Deloach.

Mrs. W. E. Huddleston and Mrs. John Mullins spent Tuesday in Tuskegee hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Page will spend Thanksgiving in Selma with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stapp.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stapp were in Clanton the past week end.

Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Mrs. N. S. Johnson and Mr. Ed Mullins spent Wednesday in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Prince and son Wilbur, spent last week end in Alexander City.

Judge and Mrs. J. Lee Smith and Mrs. Arthur Johnson spent last week end in Gulport with their sons, J. Lee Smith and Joe Hall Johnson.

Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Reid Mullins, Mrs. Ruth Shepherd, Miss Nell Ross Mullins and Miss Ruth Gowan were visitors in Birmingham last Saturday.

Dr. J. E. Gowan was a business visitor to Wetumpka Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Warrich spent Friday at Jordan Dam with Mr. and Mrs. George Trotter.

Mrs. Henry Bell and Mrs. Mack Golson of Prattville spent Friday with their mother, Mrs. Dan Hogan.

Misses Peggy Page and Theda Wyatt will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. George Trotter at Jordan Dam.

Dr. P. T. Hinkle of Kilby Prison spent Thursday here.

Miss Madria Williams of Birmingham is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Uselton.

Dr. and Mrs. Middlebrooks and children will spend Thanksgiving with friends in Birmingham.

Mrs. Willie Jones had as her guests during last week end her children, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones, of Montgomery and Mr. Ralph Jones of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wade of Leeds spent Sunday in Clanton with Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Parrish and Mrs. N. A. Gray spent Monday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wade, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Dubb Huddleston, Miss Alice Brooks and Mr. Jack Hayes and Mr. Tommie Sewell of Titus, Alabama, will attend the Thanksgiving football game in Nashville Thursday.

The beautiful quilt given away to the lucky number last aSturday by Circle Number 2 of the Baptist W. M. U. fell to Mr. John Durwood Mullins.

Miss Dobine of Auburn, Ala., spent Monday here on busines.

Mr. Albert Pyron of Selma, Ala., was in Clanton several days this week visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Callen will leave Thursday on the Pan American for Nashville, Tenn., where they will attend the Thanksgiving game.

Mrs. Lewis Reynolds and Mrs. John Newell spent Monday in Birmingham shopping.

Mrs. W. A. Reynolds spent Tuesday with friends and relatives in Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Coburn of Nashville, Tenn., returned to their home Sunday after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Coburn near Maplesville.

Rev. E. A. Childs, former pastor of the M. E. church in Clanton, was transferred from the church in Troy to Marianna, Fla., at the conference held in Opelika last week. Mr. Childs had been in Troy for five successive years.

Miss Elizabeth Carter To Wed

The following announcement, taken from the Montgomery Advertiser, will be of interest to many of the people in Clanton:

Mr. T. R. Carter, of Montgomery, announces the engagement of his daughter, Elizabet Louise, to Mr. Frank B. Garrett. The wedding will be solemnized late in December at the Trinity Presbyterian church.

Miss Carter is well known in Clanton, where she has taught dancing lessons for two years. She is lovely and talented. Her dance recital, given last year at the Chilton County High School, will be long remembered as one of the most beautiful affairs ever had in Clanton.

Miss Carter will continue giving her dancing classes in Clanton for the remainder of this year and next year.

Mr. Garrett is a native of Montomery. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama in Electrical Engineering.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Broadhead in Montgomery.

Miss Sara Colley left today for Troy where she will spend the holidays with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott of Huntsville, Miss Pauline Hogan, Mr. Alex Hayes and Edwin Mullins left today to attend the football game in Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. W. R. White of Troy, Ala., spent last week end as the guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Glasscock.

The many friends in Clanton of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnett will be interested to know that they left last week to make their home in California. Mr. Barnett was superintendent of the Clanton Cotton mill in 1934, moving from here to Gulfport, Miss., and then to Selma, Ala. This move means quite a promotion to Mr. Barnett.

Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. Dick Hayes and Billy Callen motored to Birmingham last Thursday and spent the day shopping.

Mrs. John Durwood Mullins and Mrs. Dubb Huddleston motored to Birmingham Monday and spent the day shopping.

Miss Ada Holcombe, who teaches in Clanton Grammar school, will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in Birmingham.

Mrs. J. P. Hayes Hostess

Members of the Thursday Contract club met last week with Mrs. J. P. Hayes as hostess. After a series of bridge games high score prize was awarded Mrs. J. C. Page. Guest prize was presented Mrs. John Armstrong.

Mrs. Hayes, assisted by Mrs. J. Lee Smith, served delicious refreshments to the following members and guests: Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Jno. Armstrong, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. J. Lee Smith, Mrs. J. Hance Alred, and Mrs. J. P. Hayes.

Miss Frances Carter of Montgomery will be the guest of Miss Anne Callen Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. H. M. Simpson Entertains club

Mrs. H. M. Simpson entertained members of the Wednesday card club on last Wednesday afternoon. The home was decorated in fall flowers. At the conclusion of a series of bridge games Mrs. John Armstrong was awarded high score prize.

A tempting salad plate with hot coffee was served to Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. Hance Alred, Mrs. J. C. Burnett, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. John Browder, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. J. Watts Moore, Mrs. Dubb Huddleston, Mrs. John Deramus.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Venable of Wetumpka visited friends in Clanton on Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Page and Mrs. Arthur Johnson spent last Wednesday in Birmingham shopping.

P.T. A. To Have "Fathers' Night"

The Clanton Grammar School P.-T. A. will honor the fathers of the school with a social meeting at the Methodist church the second Friday in December. This will be December 12th.

A very interesting program will be given. Refreshments will be served

The various committees working to make this party a success wish to solicit the cooperation of each parent represented at the Grammar School.

The room having the most representatives will be awarded a half-holiday as a prize. The fathers present will count two. The room having the most fathers present will be given a picture.

All parents are most cordially invited and urged to be present. The affair begin promptly at 7:15.

Mrs. W. A. Reynolds spent Sunday in Birmingham with Mr. and rMs. Sam Box.

CLANTON CASH STORE

WE DELIVER AT CLANTON CASH STORE -- Phone 154

Peoples CASH Store
Thorsby Cash Store

THE BLUE FRONT STORE THE BLUE FRONT STORE

BLUE FRONT THANKSGIVING SPECIALS. See Us for Your Thanksgiving Items and Christmas Fruit Cake Material.

8-OZ PACKAGE — MINCE MEAT 10c
PALMOLIVE — SOAP 5c

OCTAGON SOAP CHIPS
1 Package 10c
1 Extra Package 1c
2 Packages 11c

SEEDLESS — RAISINS, 15-oz pkg 10c

LUZIANNE COFFEE 100% GOOD
1-Lb CAN 27c
3-Lb CAN 78c
CERTIFICATES WORTH FOUR OCTAGON COUPONS IN EVERY CAN. USE ONLY HALF AS MUCH LUZIANNE

ENGLISH — WALNUTS, lb 20c
2 PACKAGES — POST TOASTIES 15c
MAXWELL HOUSE — COFFEE, 1-Lb Can 28c

LARD
1-LB CARTON — COMPOUND 15c
4-LB CARTON — COMPOUND 55c
1-LB CARTON — PURE 18c
4-LB CARTON — PURE 68c

PRODUCE SPECIALS
POTATOES, lb 2c
RUTABAGAS, lb 3c
CABBAGE, lb 2½c
ONIONS, lb 4c
BANANAS, lb 5c
WINESAP — APPLES, Doz. 15c
FLORIDA — ORANGES, Doz. 20c
EATMORE — CRANBERRIES, Qt 25c
LARGE HEAD — LETTUCE 10c
LARGE BUNCH — CELERY 10c

Baker's BAR CHOCOLATE
8-OZ BAR — HERSHEY'S 10c
8-oz BAR 15c
MOTHER'S — COCOA, 1-lb can 10c

SEEDED — RAISINS, 15-oz pkg 10c
BRAZIL — NUTS, lb 15c

COCONUT
YELLOW LABEL — Baker's Coconut 10c
SHREDDED — COCONUT, 2-oz Pkg 5c
COCONUT, 4-oz Pkg 10c
FANCY SHREDDED — COCONUT, Bulk lb 18c

SALT
MORTON'S — Iodized, 2 for 17c
100-LB SACK — Meat Salt $1.00
50-LB SACK — Meat Salt 60c
25-LB SACK — Meat Salt 35c

Morton's SMOKED SALT
10-Lb Can 85c
10-OZ CAN MORTON'S — Sausage Seasoning 20c
3-OZ CAN MORTON'S — Sausage Seasoning 10c

Cranberry Sauce
7-OZ CAN — Ocean Spray 10c
17-OZ CAN — Ocean Spray 19c
BUY for THANKSGIVING

Fruit Cake Material
FACED WHOLE RED — Glaced Cherries, lb 50c
NATURAL — Pineapple Slices, lb 40c
Citron Halves, lb 35c
HALVES — Lemon Peel, lb 35c
HALVES — Orange Peel, lb 35c
DICED MIXED — FRUITS, lb 35c

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE
LEAN MEATY — PORK ROAST, lb 23c
PORK and BEEF — MEAT LOAF, lb 15c
Ground BEEF, lb 12½c
BEEF ROAST, lb 12½c
SLICED — PORK STEAK, lb 25c
FRESH — PIG BRAINS, lb 20c

SUGAR
10 lbs 55c

Flour Specials
24 LBS PLAIN OR S. R. — Postel Elegant $1.20
24 LBS — POSTEL PILLAR $1.00
12 LBS — Postel Elegant 65c
24 LBS LITE RIZE OR — POLLY RICH $1.10
12 LBS LITE RIZE OR — POLLY RICH 60c
48 LBS LITE RIZE OR — POLLY RICH $2.15
24 LBS — GOOD NEWS 85c
48 LBS — GOOD NEWS $1.65
12 LBS — GOOD NEWS 50c
24 LBS — White Water Rose $1.10
24 LBS — WHITE OWL 95c
48 LBS — WHITE OWL $1.85

POOR ORIGINAL

DECEMBER

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TEN PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1935 NUMBER 33

Liquor Has Helped Increase Accidents

Drinking Driver Is Serious Menace Is Report of Milwaukeean

Evanston, Ill.—Completely, emphatically exploding the latest proposal of the Council for Moderation to establish so-called "moderate" use of alcoholic beverages on a safe and "respectable" basis, have come simultaneous testimony from traffic experts in all parts of the country.

First of all the unevadable and constant menace of the one-or-two-drink "moderate" users of intoxicants was spectacularly proved at the Nationol Safety Congress at Louisville, October 14-18 by unique experiments carried on in the presence of the delegates by Dr. Herman A. Heise of Milwaukee.

Dr. Hesie who has accumulated scientific evidence on this subject and who has already shown that the "had-been drinking" rather than the "drunken" driver is the really serious menace although not yet adequately credited in police statistics, conducted these experiments with a number of volunteers who were tested as to their respective efficiency before and after taking small quantities (2 oz. and 4 oz.) of alcohol, approximately little more than a single drink. The tests included threading needles, operating typewriters, shifting gears and applying brakes, affording concrete contrasts in time reactions, variations in judgement, hand-and-eye coordination, etc.

The National Safety Council report pointed out that perhaps the most significant fact emphasized in these experiments was that "the man or womon who has been drinking, but is not apparently drunk is as serious traffic menace because of the previously unrecognized harmful effects of alcohol."

A detailed tabulation of the tests showed a from 13 per cent to a 56 per cent decrease in efficiency in hand-eye coordination, and showed a from 1 per cent to a 43 per cent decrease in efficiency in typewriter operation, etc. by those who had consumed small but specific amounts of whisky, as compared with the records made by the same individuals before drinking, declared the Safety Council report.

HOOVER DEMANDS RETURN TO IDEALS

Wanderings of "Suicide Road" Should Be Halted, Says Ex-President

San Francisco.—A "realistic return to American ideals" to preserve true "America liberalism," was demanded Wednesday by former President Herbert Hoover in an address prepared for delivery at a Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

"American liberalism is not regimentation," Mr. Hoover declared. "It is not repression. It is never coercion or bureaucrats. . . ."

"Liberty has gone down the suicide road of socialism and fascism in a score of nations," he said.

"The infection of these ideas into America have brought our nation to a dividing of the ways fateful to free men.

"And here is the clash of true American liberalism and its ideals with these imported social philosophies of government.

Characterizing "American liberalism" as "a great faith and a great philosophy" that grew out of the American revolution, Mr. Hoover dehlared it is not the possession of any political party.

"In fear and distress we have been tempted for a time to wander from the true path. We must return to it before it is too late . . . . .

"In a world struggling against the forces of disruption we have a high duty to keep America American. . . . .

"Hitherto we have mostly regarded Americanization as a special treatment we give to foreign born before they file their naturalization papers. The job today has become far bigger than that. There are hosts of natives who need treatment."

MR. J. V. HANNA HERE

The Union-Banner was pleased Friday to have Mr. J. V. Hanna, of Birmingham, visit us. Mr. Hanna, together with his wife, spent Thanksgiving with Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Lawrence in Clanton.

Mrs. Hanna is a niece of Mrs. Lawrence. Mr. Hanna is a mechanic and monotype operator for The Birmingham Age-Herald.

We were indeed glad to have Mr. Hanna call to se us. "Birds of a feather flock together," and printers are no exception; in fact they are probably more inclined to look up their own kind when roaming around than any other class of people. A printer in any printing office is at home. We make a standing invitation to Mr. Hanna to visit us every time he is in Clanton.

GRESHAM LOWERY ON WBRC

The Union-Banner has received the following communication from Gresham Lowery:

"Wish you would announce through The Union-Banner that I am on the air every morning over WBRC from 7:30 to 7:30 on the "Break of Day" program. I have a partner, and we go on as "Luke and Gene". Would be glad for my friends to write in their requests.—Gresham Lowery."

CELEBRATE SIXTY-SIXTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Robinson, of Providence, Beat 16, celebrated their sixty-sixth wedding anniversary on Sunday, November 24th. No unusual activities were had, but the old people enjoyed the day quietly together, only a few of their closest friends calling on them during the day.

NEW BORROWING MAY PUSH DEBT PAST 30 BILLIONS

Washington, Nov. 29.—The Treasury's December borrowing plans—to be announced Monday—today held potentialities for pushing the public debt over $30,000,000,000.

The extent of the rise depended, of course, on how much new borrowing, as distinguished from the refunding of maturing securities, was intended. For the time being the figure was carefully guarded.

However, some who follow the situation contended that, in the light of the Treasury's current cash position, the amount might run to $500,000,000, which would carry the debt to another all time peak of more than $30,000,000,000. It stood today at $29,585,000,000.

Possibly preparing the public mind for the announcement, President Roosevelt, speaking in Atlanta today, said that early in his administration the banking fraternity told him the country "could safely stand a national debt of between $55,000,000,000 and $70,000,000,000."

At the same time he asserted he had no idea of running the debt to any such figure.

Since his administration began, he said, the debt has risen from $21,000,000,000 to $29,500,000,000, the latter figure not taking into consideration a cash balance which he said was nearly $1,500,000,000, and recoverable assets aggregating $4,500,000,000.

Today's Treasury statement, however, showed the working balance at $1,051,000,000, its lowest point in a number of months. This factor furnished the principal basis of redictions that new borrowing might run to $500,000,000.

SECOND CROP APPLES

Mrs. G. L. Griffin of Verbena, Rte. 1, brought to The Union-Banner, four apples which were from the second crop of apples grown on the same tree this year. Two of the apples were almost ripe and the other two were about the size of ordinary hen eggs. They are horse apples.

This is something rather unusual. We have had two exmples of this brought to the Banner office this year. The other one was brought in by Mr. Emmett Powell.

STATE COMMITTEE IS AGAIN CENSURED

Montgomery, Nov. 29.—Criticism of the State Democratic Committee's action in handpicking four delegates to the 1936 national Democratic convention was voiced today by Mrs. A. Y. Malone, of Dothan, national Democratic committeewoman from Alabama.

In a letter of Judge Leon McCord here, national Democratic committeeman, Mrs. Malone, who also is Dothan's postmistress, stated:

"I deplore any move which would deny the people of Alabama the opportunity to express fully and freely their choice of a party leader."

Judge McCord recently criticized the state committee's selection of Sen. Hugo Black and John H. Bankhead, Gov. Bibb Graves and John D. McQueen, state committee chairman, as Alabama's delegates to the 1936 national convention.

Bonus Over F.D.R Is Seen By McNary

Flat Prediction Made While V. F. W. Launches Drive to Overcome Opposition

Washington, Nev. 30.—Senator McNary, of Oregon, republican leader, predicted today that at the session of congress beginning in January, a soldier's bonus bill will be enacted despite a president's veto.

McNary, who helped the Senate to sustain last May President Roosevelt's disapproval of the Patman plan to pay the $2,000,000,000 immediately with new currency, told questioners:

"A bonus bill will pass this session over a President's veto, in my opinion."

Non-Inflation Bill Favored

He did not say what kind of a bill, but there have been other forecasts that any non-inflation bill would have the better chance.

As McNary made the statement, the Veterans of Foreign Wars requsted their state and district chairmen to establish contact with other Senators and Representatives to combat what they termed a "crafty campaign" to raise a "smoke screen" in opposition to the bonus.

The V. F. W., said "selfish business interests and individuals in the administration and congress" seek to convey the idea that bonus payment means increased taxation.

"The so-called 'bonus' must not be jockeyed into any such controversal position," the V. F. W. said.

BERNARD STROUD ON RADIO

On the evening of December 6, Mr. Bernard Stroud, a young Chilton county man who is attending Massey's Business College in Birmingham, will appear on the school's program over WAPI at 7:45 p.m.

SHERIFF'S FORCE NABS 11

Sherrif J. R. Hardy's force reports eleven arrests during the past week. These are as follows:

Four for violating the prohibition law; three have been released on $300 bonds each, and one is held in jail.

Two for abusive, indescent and obscene language; one has been released on a $300 bond, and one is in jail.

One for public drunkenness; released by order of justice court.

One for assalt and battery; released by order of justice court on payment of fine and costs.

One for arson; released on bond of $750.

One for burglary and grand larceny; in jail.

One for driving a motor vehicle without driver's license; released by order of justice court on payment of fine and costs.

Sherrif Hardy states that strict compliance with the driver's license will be required. The schedule of fines in such cases is from $10.00 to $100.00, with costs.

MRS. ADA BEAN

Mrs. Ada Bean, wife of Alfred Bean, died at the Central Alabama Hospital in Clanton at 9 a.m. Thursday, November 28. Mrs. Bean was 34 years of age, and had been ill for several months.

Burial was at Providence, Beat 2, at 10 o'clock on Friday, with Martin & Sons in charge.

A.&P. Employees To Hold Banquet

Birmingham Unit Won Prize Over All Stores In Southern Group

The Birmingham unit of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company will hold a banquet at the Tutwiler Hotel in Birmingham at an early date. The specific date has not yet been set.

The affair is a celebration by the Birmingham unit of its success in winning the loving cup offered to the unit among the several departments of the company in the South in a recent 12-week contest which ended Saturday night November 30.

The Birmingham unit, with 159 stores, won over all other southern units. The contest was for (1) Greatest sales increase; (2) Least expense rate; (3) Greatest net profit.

I. O. Black is General Superintendent of the Birmingham unit; A. D. Deese, Assistant General Superintendent; under Mr. Deese there are five field supervisors, each having a group of stores to look after. An offer was made, whereby each one of these supervisors could offer a prize of $50 to the store in his district which led in the contest.

Mr. M. S. Cannon is supervisor over the local store, which is one of the 18 stores in this group. Mr. G. C. Armstrong, manager of the locan store, believes that his store has won the prize, although official notification has not been made as to the winner. Mr. Armstrong had the following to say:

"Although official notice has not been given, I am quite sure that the Clanton store has won the $50.00 prize in our district. If we do win the prize,, I intend to see that the boys who are employed here get the money and the honor for winning, for it has been their courteous service and hard work that has made our victory possible. We have all worked hard, advertised to the limit, and given as courteous service as we know how to render. This, together with our close prices and high grade merchandise has put us over the top."

During the 12-week contest, Mr. Armstrong stated that the average weekly increase in sales for his store amounted to $580.00.

Two floors of the Tutwiler Hotel have already been reserved for this event, and all store managers and full time employees of all Atlantic & Pacific stores in the Birmingham unit will be guests at the banquet. Mr. Callahan, General Superintendent of the Southern division of A. & P., will be the principal speaker, and will present the prize loving cup to officials of the Birmingham unit.

THE UNION-BANNER APPRECIATES SUBSCRIPTIONS FROM CLUBS, ETC.

Since The Union-Banner has had its special rate of one year for one dollar, and has allowed a commission to clubs and organizations that worked up subscriptions, quite a number have been turned in through various organizations over the country. The Union-Banner appreciates this business, both as to the organizations and as to the individuals paying the money.

Other organiations wishing to work on the proposition will find it a way to raise some ready money. If one subscription is gotten or if it is one hundred, all will be the same except the amount of compensation. You are urged to get into the game while the price is still one dollar.

STEPHEN E. BARROW

Stephen E. Barrow, age 61, died on Wednesday, November 27, at 7 o'clock at his home in Birmingham. The funeral was held at Messer's Chapel, near Verbena, at 3 p.m., on Saturday, with Rev. Harry L. Mitchell officiating. Burial was in the cemetery at that place, with Martin in charge.

NOVEMBER MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses were issued to the Probate Judge's office to the following persons, during the month of November, 1935:

W. L. Sims and Miss Lilla Ellison.

Willie L. Mims and Miss Mary Hayes.

Ernest L. Arant and Miss Marie Ann Powers.

Woodrow W. Key and Miss Mildred Wilkinson.

Woodrow Kelley and Miss Willie Mae Moore.

Thomas Joseph Mims and Miss Doris Aldridge.

R. L. Foshee and Miss Minnie Martin.

Leonard Harris and Miss Mollie Pearl Murr.

Percy L. Kelley and Miss Annie Lou White.

J. M. Ward and Mrs. Mary Pharis.

Lloyd R. Baggett and Miss Eva Mae Dennis.

Frank M. Mims and Mrs. Edna Wilson Mims.

Oscar Mims and Miss Catherine Smith.

John W. Bradberry and Miss Myrtle Mims.

R. C. Cofer and Miss Mary Lou Crumpton.

G. H. Rasberry and Miss Bazylyn Williams.

William Pattillo and Miss Myrtle Durbin.

Pink Hayes and Miss Carrie Bolton.

Henry Foshee and Miss Esther Lee Cox.

Irby Glass and Miss Floria Lorren.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MET HERE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Chilton county camp No. 19 of the Spanish-American Far Veterans met at the courthouse in Clanton last Sunday afternoon, and a good meeting was had. The ladies auxiliary had a meeting at the same time.

Mr. Jeff Best was elected adjutant to the post. Mr. T. I. Ward of Thorsby is commander.

The next meeting of the post will be held at the courthouse the first Sunday afternoon in January. All Spanish-American War veterans are urged to attend this meeting. The hour will be 2 o'clock.

Failure of AAA Taxes Reported

U. S. Department Director Says Consumer, Farmer Bear Processing Levy

Washington, Dec. 1.—An assertion was made today by one of the agriculture depjartment's chieftains that the AAA's processing taxes have either been passed to the consumer or taken indirectly from the farmer's pocket.

Dr. A. G. Black, in hib annual report as chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics hinted also that he considered some better means of financing the farm adjustment program might be found.

"Studies of the effect of processing taxes have been made," Dr. Black said, "particularly in relation to wheat, cotton and hogs. Briefly the findings are that processors in general have not absorbed the taxes, but that they have been passed on to the consumer or have tended to lower prices to farmers below what these prices would be if some means other than processing were available for financing the program."

At the same time, however, he maintained that "along with benefit payments to farmers and with price increases due to the control of production, the income of wheat, cotton and hog producers "have been raissed."

Coincidentally, a new attack in the AAA came from the American Liberty League. In a statement the League asserted that "existing regimentation of the farmers of the United States constituted a definite challenge to the American form of government."

It contended that the financial difficulties of farmers were "seized upon as a political opportunity and used to force them into signing agreements." The result, it added, was a condition "bordering closely upon peasantry or serfdom."

In addition to contending the AAA is unconstitutional, the League asserted that devices for regulating production "fit into a system wherein individual freedom is subordinated to the whims of the government as in communist Russia, facists Italy and Nazi Germany."

In his annual report Dr. Black praised particularly the marketing agreement provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

H. H. ARMSTRONG CHOSEN AS MEMBER COUNTY BOARD

At a meeting of the County Board of Education last Friday, Mr. H. H. Armstrong, of Beat 14, was chosen as member of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of A. C. Nelson.

Mr. Armstrong is an outstanding citizen of his part of the county, being located in the extreme western part of the county. He is a man always interested in the welfare of his county and has always taken an active interest in school work. The Board acted wisely in making this choice, both from a geographical standpoint, and as to the quality of man selected.

The members of the board now are: S. J. M. Webb, W. L. Sanders, J. P. Payne, C. L. Wilkins and H. H. Armstrong.

ROOSEVELT IS GRATEFUL FOR STATE SUPPORT

Montgomery, Nov. 27.—Action of the state Democratic committee in endorsing him for renomination and its choice of four delegates to the Democratic national convention is complimented by President Roosevelt in a letter made public today by Gov. Bibb Graves.

Governor Graves disclosed the President's message in expressing appreciation of the state committee's action in naming him as one of the four delegates to the national convention from the state at large.

Sens. Hugo Black and John H. Bankhead and State committee chairman John D. McQueen of Tuscaloosa also were named delegates to the national convention.

The president's letter sold:

"I need hardly tell you that I am delighted with the committee's choice of delegates to the coming Democratic national convention. Will you please express my appreciation to the committee for the expressions of confidence and support contained in the resolution?"

Governor Graves stated that the committee's resolutions naming him as one of the four delegates to the national convention "meets with my heartiest approval and I accept your commission with the assurance that I shall loyally and with all my strength carry out the wishes so admirably therein expressed."

SALE OF SECURITIES WOULD RUN PUBLIC DEBT TO 30 AND A HALF BILLION DOLLARS

Washington, Dec. 1.—The government requested a loan of $900,000,000 tonight to finance the winter work-relief peak and increase the treasury's store of ready cash.

If the full $900,000,000 in new cash is raised, the nation's public debt will be pushed to a new all-time high of about $30,500,000,000. It stood at $29,641,606,134 on Nov. 27.

A statement by Secretary Morgenthau offered for cash subscription an issue of $450,000,000 in 2¾ per cent 10-year treasury bonds, and an equal amount of 1½ per cent five-year Treasury notes.

In addition holders of $418,000,000 in 2½ per cent Treasury notes maturing Dec. 15 were offered the privilege of either the new bonds or notes.

The Secretary's announcement included the provision, however, that the total of the new issues may be increased in direct proportion to the amount of the maturing notes exchanged.

Thus, if, as would normally be the case 80 per cent of the maturing notes or about $335,000,000, are offered for exchange, the total of the newly issued securities would be increased by a like amount to more than $1,200,000,000. The remainder would be redeemed in cash.

Nearly Two Billion Borrowed

This would bring the total of such borrowings since the present fiscal year began last July 1 to more than $1,700,000,000.

REV. J. ROBERT BEAN HERE

Rev. J. Robert Bean, of Bessemer, is spending a few days with relatives and friends in and near Clanton. He came to the home of his cousin, J. Dudley Collins, last Friday and preached at Friendship church Sunday at 11 o'clock. He will remain in this vicinity all this week and will preach at Maynard's Chapel next Sunday. He will visit among his friends and relatives at Collins Chapel while down here.

Mobile People Want Amendment Passed

Law Will Affect Only That County; Election on December 17

To our Fellow Albamians:

Among he Constitutional Amendments which you will be called upon to vote on in a state-wide election to be held on Tuesday, December 17, 1935, is one which provides for a Constitutional Amendment which only affects Mobile County. This Amendment is being submitted to you at our request, in order that we can get our county on a cash basis and affect the enormous savings of the County which will result from being able to "Pay as you go."

We have carefully studied the proposed Constitutional Amendment which will appear as proposed amendment No. 1 on the official ballot, and each and every member of this Board thinks its passage is of the utmost importance to the future welfare of our county. No county in the state is interested in this Amendment in any manner whatsoever, except Mobile County and we are taking the liberty of addressing this letter to several of the leaders in each of the communities in this state to request that they call this amendment to the attention of their friends and neighbors and try to get out for us on the 17th instant an almost solid vote in favor of this proposed amendment No. 1.

Assuring you of our appreciation of any assistance you may render us in this matter and trusting you will call upon us whenever we can reciprocate your courtesy, we are—Yours very truly, Daniel T. McCall, President; M. B. Herzfield, member; Godfrey W. Alexander, member; W. W. Bolton, member; A. B. Jefferies, member, Board of Revenue and Road Commissioners.

Grand Jury Report Issued Last Week

Fifteen True Bills Returned Against Seventeen Defendants

The State of Alabama, Chilton County—Circuit Court.

To Hon. Arthur Glover, as Judge of said Court:

We, the Grand Jury empanelled for the July term, have completed our investigation of all matters that came before us as Grand Jurors at this session and herewith submit the following report:

During our investigation we have considered 21 cases and have examined 79 witnesses and are returning herewith 15 true bills against 17 defendants.

We have made an inspection of the almshouse and find that it is being handled in a very efficient manner by those in charge and we wish to take this occasion to commend our officers for the satisfactory manner in which the poor of the County are being cared for.

On our inspection of the county jail we found it to be sufficiently safe for the keeping of the prisoners and find that the prisoners confined therein are being fed and cared for with reasonable comfort. We also found a few of the window panes broken out. We understand that the window panes in the jail are of such character that they cannot be secured locally and that arrangements have already been made to replace these broken panes. We feel this should be attended to as soon as it can conveniently be done.

We have been informed that the Commissioners Court has approved the erection of a new home for the jailer, which is to replace the old and delapidated building that is now used. This Grand Jury wishes to go on record as highly endorsing and approving this expenditure of County funds on the part of the Commissioners Court.

We have examined the fee book of the Probate Judge and find it neatly kept and correct in so far as we were able to ascertain. We have examined the bonds of the various County officials and find that they are ample for the protection of the public, and in our examination of the sheriff's account with the State for feeding prisoners we find that it is being kept in accordance with the law. On our examination of the office of the County Superintendent of Education we find that his books, records and papers are neatly kept and in so far as we are able to ascertain were being kept fully in accordance with the law.

During our investigation we found considerable complaint of people over the county having their cattle stolen and feel that the butchers of the county are not familiar with the law which is found in Volume 2 of the 1923 Alabama Code at page 112 in section 3483, which is as follows:

Butchers' record of animals killed. Every butcher who fails to keep a record of every cow or animal of the cow kind killed, showing the color, earmarks, and brand of cow or animal of the cow kind killed or butchered, and the residence of the person from whom purchased, and when, and also the approximate gross weight at the time purchased and at the time when killed or butchered, or who fails to make the required entries above specified within twenty-four hours after butchering any cow or animal of the cow kind, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, and may be sentenced to hard labor for the county for a period of not exceeding twelve months.

Section 3484 provides as follows: Record open to inspection.—All persons shall have a right to inspect at any time the book ordered to be kept by the preceding section.

We feel that this is a wise prostrictly followed by every butcher and we take this opportunity to request that Sheriff J. R. Hardy and his deputies from time to time make investigation to see whether or not the butchers are complying with the above law.

We wish to request the Court to call to the attention of the next Grand Jury that is empanelled in this county this particular provision of our report, in order that they may take the matter up with the Sheriff to see whether or not he and his deputies have complied with our request.

We, having completed our investigation of all matters brough before us, respectfully ask that we be recessed to such time as your honor may see fit and think proper to have us again convene.

This November 26, 1935.—H. T. Williams, Foreman

DIVIDENDS PAYABLE ON ALABAMA POWER CO. STOCK

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 25.—The Board of Directors of Alabama Power Company today declared the regular quarterly dividends on its $6 and $7 preferred stock, payable January 2, 1936, to stockholders of record December 14, 1935.

These dividends will aggregate approximately $552,803.25 and dividend checks will be mailed on December 31, 1935.

It is anticipated that the quarterly dividends on the $5 preferred stock usually paid on February 1st, will be declared by the Board at its meeting to be held in January.

POOR ORIGINAL TORN PAGE

BIG DRIED BEAN SALE

Blackeyed Peas
Pinto Beans
Great Northern Beans
Baby Lima Beans
4 lbs 25c

Blue Rose Rice
Navy Beans
Newcrop Prunes
Lb 5c

WHITE HOUSE
MILK
Tall Can 6c Doz Cans 69c
Baby Can 3c Doz Cans 35c

A&P FOOD STORES

EIGHT O'CLOCK
COFFEE lb 15c 3-lb Bag 43c
RED CIRCLE, lb 19c
BOKAR, Coffee Supreme, lb 23c
PEANUT BUTTER, 1-lb Jar 15c

MAXWELL HOUSE
COFFEE 1-lb tin 27c
Baker's Premium— Choc'late ½lb 17c
Log Cabin— SYRUP, can 23c
POST BRAN— FLAKES pkg 10c
Grape— NUTS, pkg .. 19c
Minute— Tapioca, pkg 14c
Baker's— Coconut, can ..10c

GELATIN DESSERT or CHOCOLATE PUDDING
SPARKLE 3 pkgs 13c
WALDORF TISSUE, 6 Rolls 25c
Sugar, fine granulated, 10-lb paper bag, 53c
O-K SOAP, three 10½-oz bars 10c

OCTAGON LAUNDRY
SOAP 6 Giant Bars 25c

ANN PAGE—PURE FRUIT
PRESERVES 1-lb jar 15c

DEL MONTE—SLICED OR CRUSHED
PINEAPPLE No 2 can 15c

SUNNYFIELD
FLOUR 24-lb Bag 99c
48-Lb Bag $1.95
Reicherts Bird Flour 24-lb 92c 48-lb $1.79

IONA — YELLOW CLING
PEACHES No 2½ Can 15c

IN MEMORY OF KING DAVID HAYES

King David Hayes passed to that great and happy home on November 18, 1935. All was done for him that loving hands could do, but it was all in vain and God saw fit to call him home.

He leaves to mourn his going his loving wife, one son and one daughter and two brothers, seven sisters and a host of relatives and friends. Weep not dear wife and children for the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. He told everybody before going that he was willing to go at any time, that there was nothing between him and God.

A place is vacant in our home that never can be filled. Some day we will meet him in that sinless summerland where we will be with him forever.

The remains were laid to rest in Sardis cemetery, with Spigner in charge.—Written by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Bessie Wright.

COLLINS-EDWARDS

The friends of Mr. Marcelle Collins and Miss Birtie Edwards wish to announce their wedding which will be of much interest to their many friends. We all join together in wishing for them a long happy life.

They spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Edwards.

ROBINSON SPRINGS

Our Sunday School is progressing nicely at this place. We are glad to see our young people take such interest in our Sunday school. Next Sunday, December 8th, Bro. J. N. Scott, of Jemison, will preach for us. We invite everybody to attend that will. We believe you will enjoy hearing him preach.

On our last meeting day Bro. J. P. Littleton was ordained to preach. We received two members by letter—Bro. Jones and wife. We gladly receive them for they have been faithful to attend our services. We thank the preachers for their help in our services last meeting day. We welcome them mack again and we also have other visitors. We welcome each and everyone to come back again. We want everybody to feel welcome.

Next third Saturday and Sunday are our regular meeting days. We invite every body to come and hear Bro. Cost, for he always has something good to tell us. Preaching on Saturday at 11:00 o'clock; Saturday night about 6:30 and Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'cock.

ESTRAY MULE

Dark bay mare mule, weight about 950 pounds, came to my place Nov. 16th. Owner may get same by paying for keep and this advertisement.—M. C. Wyatt, Clanton Route 5, Lay Dam Road, 4 miles from Clanton. 12-5-2t-ch.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for December 8

NEHEMIAH REBUILDING THE WALL OF JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Nehemiah 4:6-9, 15-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—The people had a mind to work. Nehemiah 4:6.
PRIMARY TOPIC—When Friends Work Together.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Team-Work.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Team-Work.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC — Co-operation in Religious Work.

I. Nehemiah's Mission to Jerusalem (Neh. 2)..

While performing his official duty as cupbearer to the Persian king, Nehemiah learned of the distress of his brethren at Jerusalem. The walls of the city were broken down, its gates burnt, and the remnant of the captives were in great affliction and reproach. This news greatly moved him. He definitely asked God to give the king a favorable attitude toward his project. In answer to his prayer he was granted a leave of absence from the Persian court and credentials from the king. He journed to Jerusalem and made a survey of the city by night without disclosing his purpose to anyone. Having thus obtained first-hand information, he called the representatives of the Jews together and said, "Let us build the walls of Jerusalem."

II. Preparation for the Building (Neh. 3).

The division of labor in this project displayed Nehemiah's administrative ability. A wise distribution of labor makes difficult tasks easy. Observe some outstanding features of his administrative work.

1. He laid stress upon indifference. In administrative tasks it is proper that unfaithfulness should be pointed out. Such action serves as a warning to the unfaithful and encouragement to the faithful.

2. Help rendered by the women (v. 12). It is a fine thing for the women to take hold even in building a wall when there are no men to do it.

3. Stress laid upon earnestness of some (v. 20). Recognition of fidelity will spur one on to faithful performance of his task.

4. Every one built over against his own house (vv. 10, 23, 28). There is no incentive for exertion quite so strong as that which concerns a man's own family.

5. Certain guilds of men undertook certain work (vv. 8, 31, 32). Wise administration sometimes calls for such alignment of efforts. Men of the same class and occupation usually work best together.

III. Hindrances Encountered (4:1 6:14).

1. Scoffing of Sanballat and Tobiah (4:1-6; cf. 2:19, 20). The oppressors of God's servants frequently begin by hurling shafts of ridicule at them.

2. Conspiracy for a sudden attack (4:7-9). When the enemy saw the work was actually succeeding, they changed from ridicule to an attempt to throw the workmen into a panic.

3. Conspiracy with the Jews (4:10-23). They sought, by means of the Jews from the outside, to discourage those on the inside.

4. Greed and oppression of the rich (5:1-13).

The Jews of that day, like the profiteers of our day, took advantage of the poor and oppressed them so that they mortgaged their land and even sold their daughters into slavery.

5. Scheme to take Nehemiah's life (6:1-14). When Sanballat and Tobiah failed in every other way, they craftily sought to get Nehemiah away that they might kill him.

IV. The Wall Completed (6:15-7:4).

So energetically did they pursue their tasks that in fifty-two days the wall was completed. When their enemies saw that in spite of all their schemes the work was actually completed, they were cast down, for they perceived that the work was of God. Upon the completion of the work, Nehemiah set his brother to rule over Jerusalem and gave instructions as to the opening and closing of the gates of the city. May we learn from this:

1. That though God's children are besought by enemies they should not fear.

2. When beset by enemies we should pray (4:9).

a. They set a watch (4:9).

b. Men were permittted to be with their families (4:13) and would thus fight better.

c. Half worked and half watched, all armed for battle.

d. They worked with sword in one hand (4:17).

e. They slept in their clothes, ready for attack (4:23). Genuine faith is always accompanied with precaution ary means.

Looking Heavenward

Mystical more than magical, is that communion of soul with soul, both looking heavenward; here, properly, soul first speaks with soul; for only in looking heavenward, take it in what sense you may, not in looking earthward, does what we call union mutual love, society begin to be possible.

Count Your Blessings

Reflect upon your present blessings of which every man has many; not on your past misfortunes, of which all men have some.—Charles Dickens.

Mr. Hubert Ellison is seriously ill at his home in North Clanton.

MAPLE SPRINGS

Saturday night and Sunday are our regular preaching times, so be sure and be present for both services.

Mrs. Velma Davis and sons visited her sister, Mrs. Elmer Rollan of Highland community last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Wiley Jones and son, Douglas visited his son of the CCC camp near Clanton last Thursday.

Mr. Arnold Glenn and Joe Lansford spent a while Saturday morning with Mr. H. B. Glenn.

Mr. Curtis Jones was in this community last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rollan visited Mr. and Mrs. O. L. DeVaughn and Mrs. Velma Davis last Thursday.

Messrs. Oliver Glenn, Pete Wilson John Wilson and Alton Harris were in Billingsley last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn spent last Friday night and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Glenn.

Messrs. Ottis Glenn, Jr. Baker, Harvey Davis and J. C. Mims motored to Gulledge's camp Friday night.

Mr. Alton DeLoach spent a while Saturday morning with Mr. J. J. Price.

Messrs. Ottis and Arnold Glenn, Wiley Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben DeVaughn and Mrs. Lee Ray were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. DeVaughn last Friday.

Mr. Ottis Glenn was in the Collins Chapel community Saturday night.

Mr. Arthur Mitchell spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. A. C. Harris of South Clanton.

Miss Jettie Mae Dennis spent the week end with Miss Alma Mims of Walnut Creek community.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harris were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell Sunday

Miss Jettie Mae Dennis had as her guest Sunday night, Miss Alma Mims from Walnut Creek.

Messrs. Arnold Glenn and Jim Driver spent a while Thursday morning with Mr. J. L. Lansford.

Mr. Joe Lansford was the dinner guest of Mr. J. J. Price last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wise spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Martin of the Enterprise community.

Mr. Coolidge DeVaughn spent last Wednesday night with his sister, Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Grady McKlinnon from the CCC camp near Clanton was in this community Thursday afternoon.

Mr. W. F. Glenn visited his brother, of Cooper last Thursday.

Mr. Joe Lansford, from near Montgomery, was in this community last Wednesday.

Miss Audell Price spent the afternoon with her brother, Mr. Jeff Price last Wednesday.

Messrs. Curtis Jones and Grady McKlinnon were in this community Wednesday night.

Mr. W. F. Glenn had as his guest Friday afternoon Messrs. Wiley Jones, J. R. Mitchell and O. L. DeVaughn.

Mr. Bill Wise had as his dinner guest Friday, Mr. J. R. Mitchell.

BOB JONES COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

God bless the fallen man. I do not care which way he goes to ruin, I will do all I can to help him. I never saw an old drunkard in the ditch but what I wanted to get down in the mud and get him out. I hate sin, but I love sinners. There is no sin any man has committed that every other man could not have committed under those certain circumstances if it were not for the restraining power of the grace of God.

"If thine enemy hunger, feed him. If he thirst, give him drink." That is a high Christian standard. After all, that is the best thing we can do for an enemy. Nothing will conquer enemies as quickly as to return good for our enemies. It is awfully hard for a man to be mean to his fellow man when his fellow man is constantly kind to him. We are not to be good to our enemies simply because we want to win them to us for selfish reasons. That is like being honest because honesty is the best policy. The man who is honest simply because honesty is the best policy, or because it pays to be honest, is not merely honest but selfish, and selfishness is sin.

We are not gentlemen and ladies because we live in palaces and enjoy the luxuries of life. Some of the most refined people it has ever been my privilege to know lived in cabins. Some one has said, "If a man is a Christian, he will always be a gentleman." The reason is a Christian is innately refined. Real love is at the base of all genuine courtesy. Selfishness cannot produce genuine hospitality, nor can it be genuinely courteous. The things that we do for people because we want them to do something for us in return have in them the sound of brass. Love gives, even though it knows it will receive nothing in return for its gift. If we were unselfish, if we were sincerely loved, we would all be kind and courteous and genuinely friendly. We might not know how to hold knives and forks at the table, and we might be ill at ease in some social circles, but we would be gentlemen and ladies at heart. It is true that "the world is dying for a little bit of love."

COOPER JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

On Wednesday, November 20, Miss Ruth Pardue met with the girls and re-organized the 4-H club. Officers were elected as follows: President, Marie Minor; vice president, Tommie Leah Robinson; secretary treasurer, Cordelia Arant; reporter, Ruth Vinson; song leader, Nita Jones; cheer leader, Mrs. E. B. Atkinson; captains, Blanche Taylor, Mary Nell Smith, Mildred Todd, Laurene Woodfin and Avoline Taylor.

We hope to have some good work and a successful club this year.—Reporter.

Big Four Specials

9 x 12 GOLD SEAL RUGS $7.50
9 x 12 Gold Seal Rugs (Crescent) $5.75
Balloon Tire, Double Frame MOTORBIKE BICYCLES, Close Out $27.50
Double Frame, Single Tire MOTORBIKE BICYCLES, Close Out $25.75
Latest Styles VELOCIPEDES, each ..... $3.50 to $8.50

COASTER WAGONS
98c - $1.50 - $2.25 - $2.95 - $3.50

First Quality Double-Bit HANDLED AXES, each $1.75
Single-Bit Handled AXES ..... 98c to $1.25
Genuine Cow Hide GLADSTONE BAGS, 24-inch Size $6.95
A Special Lot of BED SPRINGS ..... $1.50 to $2.95
Winchester and Peters SHOTGUN SHELLS, all Gauges, per box 60c
CEDAR PAILS, each 98c
The Best CHURN JARS, per gal. 15c
COOK STOVES ..... $6.95 and Up
Large Mirror DRESSERS .... $5.00 and Up

Big Four Hardware Company
Clanton, Alabama

LARGE ACERAGE RUINED BY SOIL EROSION

Auburn, Ala.—Emphasizing the importance of farmers conserving their soils with terraces and winter legumes, officials of the state extension service say that about 50,000,000 acres of formerly productive land in the United States have been completely ruined because of soil erosion.

"In addition," they say, "another 125,000,000 acres are partly ruined through the washing away of the top soil and still another 100,000,000 acres are on the way."

Why be NERVOUS

There's a time-tested, harmless, preparation, compounded by a specialist in nervous disorders, for the relief of Sleeplessness, Irritability, Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache, Restlessness, the Blues and Hysterical Conditions.

During the more than fifty years since this preparation was first used, numberless other nerve sedatives have come—and gone. But the old reliable has always been in constantly increasing demand.

Only one medicine fits this discription.

DR. MILES NERVINE

If you are nervous, don't wait to get better. You may get worse. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. You can get Dr. Miles Nervine—Liquid and Effervescent Tablets—at your drug store.

HELPED 98 PERCENT

Interviews with 800 people who had used or were using Dr. Miles Nervine showed that 784 had been definitely benefited. Isn't anything that offers a 49 to 1 chance of helping you worth trying?

Get a package of Dr. Miles Nervine today. If it fails to help you—take the empty bottle or carton back to your druggist, and he will refund your money.

ISABELLA NEWS

The Thanksgiving holidays cheered the students. Everyone came back on Monday morning with enthusiastic smiles and good spirits, for good work in school.

We regret that our home economics teacher is unable to be with us for a while, on account of a fall during the Thanksgiving holidays.

The Seniors are proudly showing their new class rings, which they received last week.

Mrs. Foshee was ill Monday and unable to be with us.

The school and community are both proud that the lumber for our new school building is being delivered to the yard. We are hoping the school building will be completed before the term is out.

The Christmas holidays are drawing near, and the students are grateful for a week of holidays. We have only three more weeks of school before Christmas.

The clubs and societies met Wednestday. The programs will be published next week.—School reporter.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my friends and neighbors for their thoughtful sympathy and help during the recent illness of members of my family. I am glad to report that all are well again, and am thankful to God for their recovery. May God's richest blessings rest on each of you is my prayer.—Mrs. Clemmie Atkinson, Jemison, Ala.

Mr. Oscar Pate was the guest of Miss Lula Edwards Thanksgiving.

Make your family happy by giving me your order for a new Chevrolet, to be delivered on Christmas day.

Luther Foshee
CHEVROLET
Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton, Ala.

How to Keep Colds UNDER better CONTROL

Catching Cold?.. Vicks Va-tro-nol helps Prevent many Colds

At the first warning nasal irritation, sniffle or sneeze, use Vicks Va-tro-nol—just a few drops up each nostril. Va-tro-nol is especially designed for the nose and upper throat—where most colds start. It stimulates Nature's own functions—in the nose—to help prevent colds, and to throw off head colds in their early stages. Used in time, Va-tro-nol helps avoid many colds.

Caught a Cold?.. Vicks VapoRub helps End a Cold Sooner

If a cold has developed, rub Vicks VapoRub on throat and chest at bedtime. VapoRub acts direct—two ways at once: (1) By stimulation through the skin like a poultice or plaster; (2) By inhalation of its medicated vapors direct to inflamed air-passages. Through the night, this combined vapor-poultice action loosens phlegm, soothes irritation, helps break congestion.

Follow Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds

A helpful guide to fewer colds and shorter colds. Developed by Vicks Chemists and Medical Staff; tested in extensive clinics by practicing physicians—further proved in everyday home use by millions. The Plan is fully explained in each Vicks package.

★ Vicks Open House: with Grace Moore every Monday 9:30 P. M. (E. S. T.) NBC coast-to-coast

Over 53/36/17 Million Vick Aids Used Yearly for Better Control of Colds

TORN PAGE

Sewing Machine Sale

For the Next 30 Days

For the next thirty days, beginning Saturday, November 30th, 1935, I will sell all Sewing Machines in Stock, including Singers, New Homes and Whites, at a considerable discount FOR CASH.

C. Reese Mullins

Clanton - - Agent - - Ala.

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true.

Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid dose can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.

THOMAS JR. HIGH

Miss Ruth Pardue met with the girls of Thomas Jr. high school on Nov. 13, and organized a 4-H club. Our project for the year is "The 4-H Club Girl's Bedroom."

The officers were elected as follows: President, Leila Popwell; vice-president, Claris Thornton; secretary and treasurer, Lois Ray; reporter, Pearlie Mae Driver; song leader, Annie Loura DeVaughn; cheer leader, Mary Pearl Holley; local leader, Miss Clara Vines; captains, Ester Lee Dennis, Murrell Glenn, Mary Pearl Holley, Pearlie Mae Driver, and Claris Thornton. We hope to make our club a successful one.

Miss Pardue will meet with us the second week in December.—Reporter.

University News

University Ala.—Five students who were listed last year, and ten other outstanding students at the University of Alabama have been chosen to appear in "Who's who among students in American Universities and Colleges." The book is being issued for the second time this year, and is edited by Pettus Randall. Selma, a student at the University.

Students selected who also appeared in last year's book are: Carl A. Elliot, Vina; Bernie Feld, Birmingham; Ted Ledeon, Robertsdale; Elizabeth Jolley, Downs; and William T. Lewis, Columbus, Ohio. New students appearing in the book are: Ben Fuller, Tuscaloosa, Bill Sturdevant, Birmingham; Paul Thomas, Birmingham; Harry Carroll, Slocomb; Ed Leland, Meridian, Mississippi; Frank Taylor, Birmingham; Ann Calhoun, Eufaula; Marie Drolot, Tuscaloosa; and Margaret Denny, Tuscaloosa.

At the biennial convention of Gamma Sigma Epsilon, national honorary chemical fraternity, which was held at the University of Alabama this year, Dr. Jack P. Montgomery, professor of Chemistry at the University of Alabama, was elected worthy grand Alchemist. The position corresponds to that of national president. He succeeds Dr. A. P. Black, of the University of Florida, in the office.

Dr. James L. Tryon, the Director of Admissions and Secretary of the Graduate school at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, will visit the College of Engineering at the University of Alabama on November 29 and 30. Dr. Tryon is visiting the University while on a tour of colleges throughout the South.

Stop Getting Up Nights

THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanty flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and fell "full of Pep."—Upchurch Drug Company; Aired Drug Company.

HIGHLAND NEWS

We had fairly good Sunday school attendance last Sunday, but there is still room for improvement. We hope our attendance will grow every Sunday.

Mrs. Era Lockhart and children spent last Wednesday and Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. E. Wyatt and family.

Mrs. Mae Culp and daughter, Elizabeth, and Catherine Coe were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Alice Crowson and daughter, Margie.

Miss Ruby Weldon is visiting her father in Sylacauga.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Baker and Gladys Wyatt visited relatives in Shiloh community last Thursday.

Harold and Edwin Culp were Sunday dinner guests of Lecil Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Armstrong visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wyatt and daughters, Dessie and Gladys, spent a while Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Armstrong.

1,000 ACRES ARE ADDED TO GULF STATES PARK

Rep. A. B. McPhaul, of Baldwin county, said that deals had been completed within the last month adding 1,000 acres to the area of Gulf State Park on the Baldwin peninsula along the Gulf of Mexico.

The additional acreage brings the park's size to 6,000 acres, through which a 350-foot parkway is being constructed to Fort Morgan at the entrance of Mobile Bay.

Funds for the parkway and general development were made available through the works progress administration, which is using labor from the transient camp located at Fort Morgan.

WEST CHILTON

Editor Union-Banner:

We have read with interest the recent articles by Mr. Sanders and Mr. Frederick in the Banner, the best local paper we ever read. After many years of experience and observation, the Banner is decidedly the best of all. "The Man in the Moon" is unsurpassed in timely and up-to-the-minute interest.

Great efforts are being put forth to make our farmers see how they are increasing in wealth, that the depression is over and we are on "easy street". Every paper is loaded with a great array of statistics calling attention to the farmers' wealth, just as if we did not realize our worth.

All this burden of agricultural statistics is nauseating to the man who knows the depression is still on and we are no richer than we were a year ago. Instead of all those statistics, let the common masses tell the story, and that will be hard times, dire need, high prices for what you buy, cotton pegged at 10 cents—there we are.

That means rigid economy, retrenchment, actually going without what is needed, to say nothing of luxuries. But such is the New Deal, and we are not surprised. The history of administrations back in the 90's, and during the World War corroborates our statement. Hear "The Fellowship Forum":

"Can America be saved? Little does the public seem to realize the gravity of our national peril. Whether the republic shall survive or perish turns on the ability of Franklin D. Roosevelt to inflict himself on us another four years. Contempt for the Constitution must now be veiled. But it would boldly assert itself then. Open violation of the law defined by the Supreme Court now would be fatal at the ballot box. Never before did executive usurpation require judicial restraint so constant and vigorous. The pending election will decide whether the republic shall survive or perish. Let all good citizens gird for the momentous occasion."

No, the depression is not over, and will not be until the buying power is restored to the masses. We are living under an artificial program — a painted bubble, ready to burst if you touch it.

Our liberty is slipping away from us day by day. By working loyally and unitedly we may yet preserve our American freedom. Just think. In 1854 the Republican party was organized, and there was a cause for that organization; there is a cause now for its perpetuation. It has made America great. It has made our county great. And we have reached that position without destroying crops and hogs. Who ever heard of such a thing before?

When such men as Sen. Schall, the late Huey Long, Sen. Reed, Gov. Talmadge, and others are seeing danger, let us all take notice and cling to our American liberty. Our remedy is in union at the ballot box.—A Republican.

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

RURAL RETAIL SALES HIGHER THAN YEAR AGO

Auburn. — That the national farm program is helping farmers is indicated by the fact that rural retail sales for the nation show a 20 per cent gain for the first 9 months of of 1935 compared with the same period last year. The increase was largest in the South where the increase was 26 per cent.

GOOD PORK DEPENDS ON QUALITY OF HOGS

Auburn, Ala.—With the coming of "hog killing weather," J. C. Grimes, head of the animal husbandry department of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, offers farmers a number of points for improving their meat.

Hogs of medium condition and weighing from 200 to 250 pounds produce the most satisfactory meat for curing on the farm, he says. "Hogs from 6 to 9 months of age are usually best for butchering."

Meat from boars has a strong, unpleasant odor and flavor, he advises. "Before butchering they should be castrated, put on a full feed until entirely healed and then fed at least 30 days longer."

Over-fat, heavy hogs will not produce high class cured pork. Smooth, evenly-fleshed hogs will produce a finer quality of meat and will cut up with less waste than rough, coarse, wrinkled and flabby individuals, he says.

For full information on curing pork farmers should ask their county agent or write the Agricultural Experiment Station at Auburn, asking specific questions.

FARM AND MERCHANTS BANKRUPTCIES LOWER

Auburn, Ala.—Farm bankruptcies declined 20 per cent during the past fiscal year compared with the previous year, reports the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. This was a greater relative decline than for any other occupational group in the country, except merchants.

ENTERPRISE SINGING SOCIETY MET LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The Enterprise singing society met on last Sunday afternoon. We had a large crowd and some real good singing. The singing was called to order by the chairman, I. D. Huett, who sang the opening song.

Directors for the afternoon were as follows: Audie Brown, Orbie DeVaughn, A. A. Beard, L. T. Grant, A. B. Stanley, Dual Jones, O. L. DeVaughn, Jesse Jones, Lee J. Grant, Ralph Grant, J. E. Varner and C. M. Billingsley. A quartet was arranged by Mr. Jesse Jones and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

We had visitors from Montgomery, Mitchell Dam, Clanton, Cooper, Indian Grave and other places. We were glad to have all the visitors and we welcome all of you back each first Sunday afternoon.

Folks, our singing is just what we make it, so let's come on out and make it a success. It was real good this time, but let's make it better next time, if possible.

ALABAMA OYSTER COMMISSION HOPES TO START WORK

Montgomery, Ala. Dec. 3.—The Alabama Oyster Commission hopes to start the $110,000 Works Progress Administration oyster rehabilitation project in Mobile and Baldwin county waters not later than January 1st.

Plans for the project are virtually complete, a survey of the waters has been conducted by Dr. Paul Golstoff, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries expert, and the funds for defraying the cost of the work were guaranteed by WPA officials at a meeting of the commission here November 13.

As the project now stands the Federal Government will supply $92,365 for the purchase and planting of oysters and shells and the commission will contribute approximately $18,000 in funds and equipment. The project calls for the planting of 100,000 barrels of seed oysters and 150,000 barrels of shells and the commission is negotiating now for the latter.

Dr. Golstoff arrived in Mobile from Washington Nov. 15 to make a two-day tour of the oyster beds in Mobile and Perdido Bays. He was invited to make the survey by Commissioner I. T. Quinn, who is chairman of the commission, to determine the best areas in which to initiate the development program.

The fisheries expert is quite well acquainted with the Alabama waters as he made a minute study of the domage done to this State's oyster bottoms by the 1929 freshet, later publishing the data he gathered. The seed oyster planting is expected to start sometime this month, with the shells to be planted in March, April and May.

OVER $6,000,000 SENT STATE COTTON GROWERS

Auburn, Ala.—Over $6,000,000 have been paid to Alabama cotton producers this year in benefit payment checks, reports Dr. L. N. Duncan, director of the state extension service, in pointing out that checks continue to pour into the pockets of farmers who have not already received their payments.

Statistics show that 179,347 first rental checks amount of $3,552 658.65 have been distributed to farmers in 67 counties of the state and that 126,302 second rental checks totaling $2,501,181.66 have been sent to growers in 59 counties.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank brother Dewey Robinson and the members of Maynard's Chapel church for their kindness during the illness of my husband on Thanksgiving day. We thank Bro. Robinson for his nice talk and the singing from the members in our home. May God bless them and the richest of blessings bestowed upon them.—Mrs. C. D. Elders and Family.

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

VERMONT SCHOOL

The Thanksgiving program last Wednesday afternoon was enjoyed by all. Everyone seems to have enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays and are back in school ready to work again.

The boys basket ball team played Mt. Pleasant last Friday afternoon. The score was 40 to 20 in favor of Mt. Pleasant. They played Jemison Friday night. The score was 25 to 24 in favor of Vermont. Mapleaville girls and boys will play here next Friday afternoon. Everybody in invited to come and see the games.

The P.-T. A. will meet Thursday night. All patrons are urged to be present.

Our attendance for this month was one per cent less than it was last month, but we are going to make it better next month.

Mr. Hopper spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Birmingham with his friends.

The Jr. III English club met last Wednesday at its regular meeting day. The meeting was called to order by the president, Laverne Crane. The secretary, Woody Klinner called the roll and read the minutes. An interesting story was told by Bill Traywick and Thermon Milford. Laverne Crane and Calvin Chambers are to tell a story at the next meeting. Our club is planning on making some posters using "good English." Our motto will be given at the next meeting.

All patrons who haven't brought your part of the wood are urged to bring it promptly.

Miss Myrtle Durbin, our first and second grade teacher, was married last Wednesday afternoon, to Mr. William Patillo of Billingsley. We wish for them much happiness.

We can't grind all the meal, but we do grind the best.

Ask for Yellow Leaf water ground corn meal.

CELEBRATED MRS. FERBIE MOATTS' BIRTHDAY NOV. 28

Mrs. Ferbie Moatts enjoyed the day and all that were there sure enjoyed it. She was 74 years of age. There were 8 of her children, 16 great grandchildren. There were some that couldn't be there and we sure did miss them. Wish they could have been with us. Rev. Will Cox delivered us a good message and we all enjoyed it. There were some testimonials made that were enjoyed too. I hope we can all be together again.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT FREEMAN SCHOOL

There will be a fiddlers convention at Freeman schoolhouse Friday night, December 6 at 8 o'clock. There will also be an old-fashined candy breaking and a cake guessing. First and second prizes will ve given to the best fiddlers.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT CHESTNUT CREEK CHURCH

There will be a Christmas program at Chestnut Creek church Saturday, December 7, beginning at 11 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come and bring their dinner.

FARMERS ARE LEADING IN BUYING NEW AUTOS

Auburn, Ala.—Farmers are leading the nation in purchases of new automobiles, reports the United States Department of Agriculture. The gain in car sales on farms in small towns during 1934 increased by 38 per cent over 1933, as compared to the gain of 18 per cent in cities.

New auto registrations increased from 1,276,524 in 1932, the year before the AAA program was launched, to 1,738,663 in 1933, and to 2,292,443 in 1934. During the first eight months of 1935 new car registration topped 1934, with 2,336,630 cars recorded, reports the department.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxines. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

XMAS. Suggestions

Toys, Candy, Fruits, Nuts, Raisins, Coconuts, and Magazines. We have a few nice Flower Bulbs left. Darwin Tulips, 50c per dozen; Paper White Narcissus, 50c per dozen; Hyacinths, Chinese Sacred Lilies, and Crocus.

Evans Variety Store

JULIAN EVANS, Mgr.

Clanton - - - - - - Alabama

Women Who Want Ugly, Red Hands, Tired Faces and Aching Backs . . . Please Do Not Read This Advertisement!

NEXT time you are in our store—or some other that sells Electric Washing Machines—see the new Electric Washers. Ask to have them demonstrated. Find out how little it will cost for you to own one!

IF YOU want to keep yourself young looking . . . if you like soft, white hands . . . if you would enjoy sound, restful sleep—you are one of the many women who are planning on getting an Electric Washing Machine as soon as possible.

There is nothing romantic about BENDING OVER A WASHBOARD! Hands get rough and red. Faces grow tired and old. Backs hurt at night. And all so useless now . . . with Electricity so CHEAP in Alabama and Electric Washing Machines so easy to own!

A modern Electric Washer does blankets, overalls and other heavy, dirty things quickly and well. It also washes fine lingerie, handkerchiefs, stockings and baby things without damage. Just fill the washer with hot water, shake in some soap flakes, turn on the switch and dump in the clothes. The washer does the rest—in short order, too!

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electrify Now—Electricity Is CHEAP In Alabama

POOR ORIGINAL

NOTICE

I deal in all kinds of junk cars and parts, and have a good assortment. We do all kinds of repair work and absolutely guarantee our work. Will give good prices on work and parts.

YOUR TRADE WILL BE APPRECIATED

C. RAY GLENN

Still In

West End :-: Clanton

J.A. HEADLEY WRITES ON PROSPERITY

Editor, Chilton County News:

I want to say a few words to the good old citizens of Chilton County.

As we go about our business at home rejoicing over the difference in the prosperity of our home life today and the prosperity that we had under Mr Hoover's admnistration, it makes me feel glad and rojoice in our hearts so much to know that we have a government that has the right kind of Christian love for the people in the United States as a whole, especially for laboring people in the world The poor farmer ought to keep a fresh mind at all times and try not to forget that we as poor people, are having the privilege of living under the only man that is living in the United States with brains and love for the people in the United States as our great President

We ought to be proud that we have got a president that no other nation can compete with and all European nations are looking at him with that respect.

Our great senators from all states are looking at him with that respect and let us poor farmers look at him with that respect and let's always remember him and work to keep him as President until old age disqualifies him and then let's see to it that he has the right kind of a nurse and treatment until he passes away, and then see to it that he has a monument that is impossible for all the wealth of the nation to compete with

To the subject again: People, we have people who under this administration that have got to shove a few of their nickels out as never before in all the history of the world to help the little fellow to live and it is taking their eye teeth out by the roots, and they are organizing everything that they can find in all the United States that is weak enough to listen at them to overthrow our government so they can keep their few nickels and let us root hog or die poor. Don't let them deceive you. If you want to know who some of them are, it hurts me to let you know who they are, for they are progressive Democrats, also my right-hand brother Republicans, such as the great man of Minneapolis, Mr. Stanley B Houck, also our lovely E. E. Kennedy head of the Union. It might gripe pretty bad for me to name the third but he is the Editor of the Union-Banner, and they are not all. There are lots of other people. When we vote for the government to turn us loose to root hog or die poor, you can begin to get ready, for the time won't be long.

The way times are now, if you think you can live better without help thru the Government, you are thinking thru a hole in the top of your hat. Boys let's line up against any candidate that is against the New Deal in any respect. Of course we have got to keep our thoughts to ourselves, because some of these New Deal critics are liable to put a hicky on our heads if we talk too much before them, but to show you that the New Deal critics are looking for the best interest of the state, county, also themselves, they are on our county agent, trying to stomp him out of existence. So boys let's keep up with that bunch and when they ask us voters to give them an office let's give them the one that they are looking for and at the proper time that they are looking for it.

It is a strange thing that some people can't be satisfied with a good living and want to kick everybody and knock them in the head because they can't get the government to give them enough over to buy them a big car and gas to run it. I am one that voted for Mr. Hoover and I am one among the half of the world that Mr. Hoover and his administration starved practically to death and while in that starving condition I proceeded to help put in office our great President, Franklin D Administration, and now they, through their love for their country and their people, have proceeded to help me in a prosperity way as I have never before been helped and they have stuck my love for them forever.

People, we have some people scattered over the world who would not have a fortune but just a few minutes If you were to give it to them they would give it for a rusty Ford car and then starve to death. Well, then what is the use of us folks voting starvation on all the whole world just for the sake of that kind of a few. Not me!

J. A. HEADLEY,
Clanton, Ala., Route 4

FOUR ARRESTED AT CCC CAMP

City and county officials were called to the CCC camp last Sunday to quiet a disturbance at that place. Four of the boys at the camp had been imbibing too freely of the well known "sweet spirits of cats a-fightin'" and went on a rampage. Camp officials requested that they be placed in the city jail and held for them until Monday. Reports were that the boys were to be sent home on Monday morning. They had lately been transferred to the local camp from a camp in Mississippi.

useful GIFTS

AT J. R. Mullins & Sons

THE COMPLETE STOTE FOR EVERYBODY

CLANTON

for her

LINGERIE ---
SWEATERS and SKIRTS ---
HOSE --- HANDKERCHIEFS ---
LINENS --- DRESSES ---
GOWNS ---
BED SPREADS ---
BATH COATS ---
TOWELS ---
RAINCOATS ---

for him

KID GLOVES --- TIES ---
SCARFS --- SOCKS --- KNIVES ---
LUMBER JACKS ---
HANDKERCHIEFS --- SHIRTS ---
SWEATERS --- HATS ---
PAJAMAS ---

--- And Many Other Items That Are Sure To Please ---

Delightful Toys for The Kids

Free Stocking Filled For Xmas.

With Each Pair of Shoes Purchased here we Give Free a Well Stuffed Christmas Stocking

Be Sure to Visit Us when Buying Gifts

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY—DECEMBER 5th
Miriam Hopkins in "BECKY SHARP"
Comedy—"Bird Scouts"

FRIDAY—DECEMBER 6th
Edward Arnold—Binnie Barnes, in
"DIAMOND JIM"
"Stranger Than Fiction"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY—DECEMBER 7th
Buck Jones—Ruth Channings, in
"OUTLAWED GUNS"
"Stranger Than Fiction"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY & TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9th & 10th
Greta Garbo—Frederick March, in
"ANNA KARENA"
Comedy—"Sing, Sister, Sing"

WEDNESDAY—DECEMBER 11th
Dolores Del Rio, in
"I LIVE FOR LOVE"
COMEDY—"Trouble In Toyland"

THURSDAY—DECEMBER 12th
"WINGS OVER ETHIOPIA"
Comedies—"Ticket Please" and "Little Nobody"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—Bill Scroggins, Clanton, Dec. 12; Mrs. D. K. Scott, Route 3, Dec. 11; W. M. Headley, Route 3, Dec. 7; A. J. Chasteen, Route 7, Dec. 8; Odelle Melton, Route 4, Dec. 6; Mrs. M. W. Thigpin, Clanton, Dec. 8; J. F. Rich, Route 5, Dec. 12; Ruby Melton, Clanton, Dec. 7; Jim Cox, Clanton, Dec. 11; Hazel Pate, Route 4, Dec. 7; Miss Annie Mahan, Route 5, Dec. 8; Mrs. Aubrey Gore, Clanton, Dec. 11; June Cox, Clanton, Dec. 6; Mrs. Grady Taylor, Clanton, Dec. 5. THORSBY—Mrs. H. H. Sharpe, Dec. 9. MITCHELL DAM—Virgil Glenn Newton, Dec. 6; Sarah Hollis, Dec. 12. COOPERS—Horace Thompson, Dec. 9. STANTON—C. Delle Davis, Dec. 7. BILLINGSLEY—E. T. Davis, Dec. 11. MT. CREEK—Ethel Gentry, Dec. 10.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Waite spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hammack were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Reynolds last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hogan spent Sunday in Deatsville with their daughter, Mrs. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Teel were visitors in Birmingham last week end.

Mr. Dewey Rockett left last Thursday to attend the Army-Navy game in Philadelphia. He flew from Atlanta to New York, and from there went on to Philadelphia. He was accompanied by Dr. Raymond Callaway of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mullins and children of Mobile spent Thanksgiving here with Mrs. W. I. Mullins.

Miss Lora Lamar spent the holidays at her home in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson, Jr., and children of Athens, Ga., spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White.

Mrs. L. C. White of Auburn was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Robert Williams and son of Montgomery, and Mrs. Dewey Smith of Wetumpka were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Davis, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs M. J. Seals and children of Birmingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White were visitors in Birmingham on Saturday.

Mr. Charlie Williams of Birmingham is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Uselton.

Hughes Kennedy, Jr., Billy Kennedy and Bill Darby spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pipes.

Dr. Jesse Sam Gowan, Mr. Raymond Smith, Miss Faircloth, Miss Celia Gerald, Miss Helen and Miss Mary Newell spent Thanksgiving in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gerald spent Thanksgiving in Birmingham with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Horn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deramus, Mrs. J. R. Mullins, and Mrs. Watts Moore were visitors in Birmingham last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Strock of Verbena visited Mrs. J. E. Gowan Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bentley and little daughter, Mary Ann, spent the Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Upchurch. Miss Della Latham returned with them to Springfield to make a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Heflin and children spent last Wednesday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Polk spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Huntsville with their daughter, Mrs. J. G. Hendricks. From there they went to Atlanta, where they heard the president speak last Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Venable were in Clanton Friday.

Mrs. W. E. Huddleston, Sr., returned to her home in Tuskegee Sunday after spending a few days in Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson returned Friday night from a week's vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Montgomery with Mrs. Jones' aunt, Mrs. W. T. Perry.

Mrs. Bowen Jones is home from Atlanta, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Welborn Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parrish and sons of Birmingham were visitors in Clanton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Glasscock, and Mr. Julian Evans attended the Howard-Southern football game in Birmingham on Thanksgiving

Mr. A. C. Wade and son, Walter, of Birmingham, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Wade on Sunday.

Miss Lawrence, a returned missionary from China, is here visiting her brother, Dr. C. O. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves and children spent Thanksgiving in Prattville.

Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Julius Burnett, and Mrs. John Newell motored to Birmingham last Wednesday and spent the day shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bridges and children of Bessemer spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Judge and Mrs. L. H. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reynolds had as their guest last week Mrs. Reynolds' mother of New Orleans.

Mrs. W. E. Huddleston, Sr., returned to her home in Tuskegee Sunday after spending several days here with her son and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Warr had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Martin and children, Bobby and Virginia, of Columbiana, Ala.

Mrs. Reynolds and children of Greenville spent Thanksgiving here with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Mrs. W. W. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Warr spent last Friday in Montgomery.

Mr. Eli H. Mills of Montgomery spent Sunday in Clanton with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Mrs. Pitts and Mrs. W. W. Fox spent Tuesday in Birmingham shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Walker attended the Howard-Southern football game in Birmingham last Thursday.

Music Study Club Met Tuesday—

Members of the Music Study Club were entertained last Tuesday by Mrs. Barney Roberts at her home on Main Street. A beautiful piano recital, given by Mrs. Roberts' talented daughter, Jane, was enjoyed. Miss Roberts is a student at Huntingdon College in Montgomery.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Mrs. Ed Glasscock, Miss Della Latham, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Reid Mullins, Mrs. E. E. Upchurch, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Percy Pitts, Mrs. Ruth Shepherd, Mrs. Marcus Polk, Mrs. L. C. Ross, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. V. J. Elmore, Mrs. Middlebrooks, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Miss Jennye Robinson, Mrs. Mason Jones, Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. Henry Stanley, Miss Mary England, Miss Dorothy McLeod.

—✦—

Junior Music Club Meets—

Miss Joan Atkinson entertained the members of the Junior Missionary Society at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Barney Roberts, instructor, told the club a most interesting story of Mozart.

Refreshments were served to: Lois Rockett, Christene Middlebrooks, Joan Atkinson, Gwendolyn Atkinson, Rita Thomas, Sara Dean Smith, Elizabeth Andrews, Jeane Waites, Martha Jean Stewart, Essie White, and Willodean Stewart.

—✦—

Miss Sara Colley spent last Thursday in Birmingham, where she attended the Howard-Southern game. She spent the remainder of the holidays with her parents in Troy.

Mrs. Golden left last Wednesday for Tupelo, Miss., to visit her father, who is ill. Dr. Golden is camp doctor at the Chico CCC camp

Mrs. J. P. Hayes spent Thursday and Friday in Montgomery with Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Broadhead. Mrs. Broadhead returned to Clanton with her for the week end, and was the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Howard and children of Springville, Ala., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Burke of Birmingham spent last Wednesday and Thursday here with Mr. Burke's sister, Mrs. Luther Little.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stanley spent last week end in Montgomery with Mr. Stanley's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley have an apartment with Mrs. W. W. Fox.

Mrs. Julius Reynolds and children arrived Tuesday to be the guests of Mr and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Mrs. W. W. Fox for several days.

The friends of Mr. Fayette Popwell will regret to know he is in Hubbard's Infirmary, where he had an operation on his right eye

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bentley and little daughter, Mary Ann, of Springfield, Tenn., spent Thanksgiving here with Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Upchurch. Miss Della Latham returned with them to Springfield and will be their guest for several weeks.

CENTER HILL NEWS

All the sick of our community are better. Mildred Cobb is able to be out visiting some. Sewell Miller is able to sit up some.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gillespie and litte son, Billy Joe, spent Saturday night and Sunday with B. L. Cobb and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Collum and daughters, Sara Mae and Dot, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Osteen Lenoir.

Mrs. V. T. Cobb and Kenneth and Mildred were the Thanksgiving guests of relatives around Providence.

Mrs. Joe Corey and children, Joeline and Mack, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. E. Cobb.

Little Peggy Sue Cobb was sick two or three days last week, but is doing nicely now.

Mildred Cobb was the Sunday guest of Berney Dean Cobb.

Ted Cobb and Fred Collum spent Saturday night with Mrs. Fraulein Lowery.

Miss Oleen Miller was in Jemison Monday at the homes of her brothers, Doyle and Franklin.

Mrs. Lovis Thomas returned home Sunday, after a visit to relatives in and around Birmingham.

Sanders Champion spent Monday night with Ted Cobb.

Everybody remember our regular preaching services are next Sunday and Sunday night. Come and hear the message our pastor has for us.

This community was made sad on Sunday night to hear of the death of Mrs. Lula (Price) Lewis of Wilton. Quite a few from here attended the funeral at Providence Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Dock Sims is sick, but is improving.—Mrs. John W. Collum.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

Radio Repairing

I am working in Culp's Radio Shop, west of the Railroad, and will appreciate your trade.

Am prepared to do any kind of repairing. Also Phonograph work.

ERNEST ADAMS

Culp Repair Shop

Clanton

POOR O

America's Sweetheart Shirley Temple

—AT—

MULLINS STORE

0—0—0

With every 25c Purchase at Mullins Store a chance will be given on a beautiful Shirley Temple Doll, 22 inches high. The Doll will be given away Tuesday, December 24th, at 2:00 o'clock p. m.

0—0—0

A Xmas. Present

0—0—0

From now until Christmas, or until the supply is exhausted, a well-filled Stocking will be given away FREE with every pair of Shoes purchased. These stockings contain articles of value. Come in and ask about them.

0—0—0

J. R. Mullins & Sons

ON THE HIGHWAY - - - - - - - CLANTON, ALA.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norten, Manager)

Ladies Guild Bazaar

The annual bazaar sponsored by the Ladies Guild will be held on Saturday of this week, December 7th. There will be quite a display of useful and fancy articles, suitable for Christmas gifts, dresser scarfs, vanity sets, pillow cases, luncheon sets, center pieces and other embroidered and chrocheted articles. Home made candies will be sold. Refreshments of sandwiches and cake and coffee will be served anytime during the day. The bazaar will be held at the Town hall from 10:00 o'clock a.m. to 5 o'clock p.m.

Regular services will be held at the Congregational church, Sunday school at 9:45, worship service at 11:00 o'clock, when we will celebrate the universal Bible in commoration of the 400th anniversary of the printed English Bible.

Christian Endeavor will meet at 5:00 o'clock.

Choir practice will be held at the Congregational church on Wednesday afternoon at 7:00 o'clock.

Prayer meeting will be held Wednesday at 7:00 o'clock. A continued discussion of "The Religions of the World." Following this will be an important business meeting of the church. The budget committee will be appointed and the Every Member Canvass planned.

Congregational Ladies Aid Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, it is to be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Peterson. Everyone is invited.

"A Court of Honor" for the purpose of awarding badges to members of Thorsby Boy Scouts will be held in Helen Jenkins Hall Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock. The Boy Scout committemen and friends of the Boy Scouts are invited to attend this meeting.

There will be regular services at the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Circle No. 1 of the W. M. S. met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eastburn.

The G. A's will meet Thursday afternoon immediately after school at the public school building.

Circle No. 2 of the W. M. S. will meet next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Piper.

The stork called Mrs. Frances Pitman of Montgomery to the hospital last Friday and presented her with a fine boy. They will call him Anthony Eugene Pitman. Mother and boy are doing well.

An eight pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howard on last Sunday afternoon.

A dinner was given on November 25 for Mr. A. T. Robinson at his home in Thorsby. This celegration was in honor of his 60th birthday. The decorations were in pink and white. He was well remembered by gifts. Those present were: Mr. Hollie Jones, Miss Voncile Gore, Mr. Bennett and Miss Bama Jones, Hilda Bussie, Miss Inez Littleton, Miss Dessie Robinson, Mr. Ottis Littleton, Miss Inez Littleton, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Robinson, Mr. and Mrs Sidney Littleton, Mrs. Frank Shaneyfelt, Mrs. R. F. Littleton, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Holcombe, Mrs. Dr. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bean and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robinson and Mr. Paul Beasley.

Miss Lessie Robinson, Mr. Ottis Littleton, Miss Desie Robinson, Miss Inez Littleton and Mrs. Dr. Maddox motored to Verbena last Sunday.

Brother Dewey Robinson spent the week end in Sylacauga, where he preached Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard entertained with a goose roast on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. S. T. Street of Ensley, Alabama, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Manning and daughter, Barney Beatrice, and Mr. W. H. Townsend, Sr.

Mrs. S. T. Street of Ensley who has been spending a week in Thorsby, returned to her home Friday. She was accompanied to her home by Miss Conradine Pate, who will spend a few days with her and other friends.

Miss Helen Lowery of Birmingham spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home.

Miss Jane Billingsley and Mr. Brady Billingsley, students at Auburn, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home.

We are glad that at the fire which occured at Wadley last week, none of our students from Thorsby were hurt. The girl's dormitory burned to the ground. Most of the girls lost everything. Mrs. Thornburg, who is a matron, was considerably overcome by smoke and shock. The dining room and kitchen and all their contents were lost. Any dishes or cooking utensils will be gladly received. They may be sent to Thompson's Fix-it Shop.

Mrs. E. O. Wilson and little daughter of Birmingham spent Tuesday with Mrs. C. M. Williams.

Miss Frances Wilson spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Townsend of Birmingham spent Sunday with Father Townsend at the home of Malcolm Manning.

Mr. C. M Williams spent the week end in Clay County.

Miss Edith Foss of Selma spent the Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reinhardt and Mary Louise, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Wilsonville and Columbiana visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs J. L. Mixson returned home Wednesday from Union Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mixson had as their guests for the Thanksgiving dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Mixson of Montgomery.

Mrs. Simm Jones of Midland City is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mixson.

Mrs W. D. Mixson of Waycross, Ga. has returned home after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mixson.

Mrs. Frank Thornton and little son, James, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carlton in Dadeville.

Miss Margaret Carlton returned to her home in Dadeville after spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Thompson.

Mrs. Algie Alexander of Montgomery is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Jones.

Rev. L. E. Mattingly, young Methodist minister and student at Emory University, in Atlanta, Georgia, and brother of Miss Mattingly, one of the Institute teachers, preached Sunday morning at the Congregational church.

Miss Elizabeth Austin spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Selma.

Mr. J. A. Hayes spent the Thanksgiving holidays at his home.

Mr. Earl Meade of Decatur spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meade.

Mr. Dixon Hall, Mrs. Elbert Hall of Sylacauga, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Little of Clanton, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Peterson, Mrs. R. H. Bean and son, Horace were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meade for the Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive, Mrs. Russel Sutlive, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meade and Helen Louise, and Misses Ella and Agnes Gerald were dinner guests Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Arant.

Miss Agnes Gerald of Guntersville and Miss Ella Gerald of Andilusia spent Thanksgiving day with the Sutlives.

Mrs. Donald Merchant spent Friday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kemp spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. J. L. Vines and children.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Piper spent Thrsday in Montevallo.

Miss Marie Peterson returned home Thursday evening after a visit with her son and family in Tuscaloosa.

Mr. Clifford Johnson of Dothan spent the week end with his wife in Thorsby.

Mrs. Anna Villadson had as her guest for the Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Reno Villadson and family of Aldrich.

Mr. E. R. Piper and Mr. Henry Waters spent Sunday in Wilsonville.

Mrs. Evelyn Christ spent the week end with Mrs Anna Villadson.

Mr. Frank Nelson is spending a few days in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. N. Laurell spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Laurell.

Mr. S. E. Maddox of Wadley spent Thanksgiving holidays at home.

Miss Hazel Maddox of Enterprise spent Thanksgiving holidays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Maddox had as in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Villadsen spent Thanksgiving at their home in Thorsby.

Miss Lois Thompson spent Friday in Thorsby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Madox had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hayes and daughter, Mary, Miss Hazel Madodx, and Mr. S. E. Maddox.

We understand that in the future Mrs. George Freeman's son, Orville, will have charge of the telephone service in Thorsby.

Mrs. Bill Blood will leave for Miami, Fla., the latter part of this week to join Mr. Blood, where they expect to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodgame had as their guests for Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Goodgame, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Parrish and daughter, Billie Ann, Mr and Mrs. Emmett Billingsley, Mr. Walter Littleton of Birmingham, and Miss Verlon Goodgame.

Mr. Frank Wood and two friends of Birmingham spent Thursday in Thorsby.

The Girls Club and friends met at the home of Miss Henrietta Bean on Tuesday evening. Games and stunts were enjoyed throughout the evening. Refreshments were served to sixteen guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H Goodgame, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Parrish and Billie Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Robinson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Goodgame.

Miss Elizabeth Duke of Selma visited her cousin, Mary Frances Duke, at the Institute on Saturday.

Mrs. Ada Crumpton of Birmingham, aunt of Lessie Rascoe, a boarding student, visited here last Saturday.

Mrs. Perry, one of the financial collectors of the Alabama Anti-Saloon League, was a guest for dinner at the dining hall on Saturday.

Christian Endeavor News

A missionary program was given at the Christian Endeavor Society last Sunday evening. The theme was on life in Mexico, and the purpose of the program was that of creating a better understanding of the Mexico of today.

On Sunday evening the program will be in keeping with the commemoration sponsored by the American Bible Society in celebration of the four hundred years of the printed English Bible.

200 ALABAMA FARMERS ARE GOING TO CHICAGO

Auburn, Ala.,—Some 200 Alabama farmers are planning to attend the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation in Chicago, Ill., December 9, 10, and 11, reports Walter L. Randolph, executive secretary of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation. Some will go by cars, some by trains and some by buses, he says in reporting that practicalip every county in the state will be represented.

Thorsby Institute News

On Tuesday afternoon, November 26, the tryout for the annual declamatory contest took place; 14 girls and six boys spoke. From the girls, Mary Nelle Pate, Lessie Rascoe, Dora Holt, and Bernice Robinson were chosen.

These will now be trained until the time for the contest on February 22.

On Thanksgiving Day the dormitory folks, with a few guests, had their Thanksgiving dinner in the dining hall, which was decorated with leaves and the tables were arranged in the form of a T. On the tables were leaves and artificial turkeys that had been made by the girls. Between courses, Lorene Stokes told about the first Thanksgiving, and Mary Christ gave reasons for being thankful. After the last course Robert Weems also gave reasons for being thankful. Lessie Rascoe recited a Thanksgiving poem by Grace Crowell, and Miss Fairbank told a Thanksgiving story. Singing of the alma mater concluded the program.

A little after 2:00 o'clock the dormitory students and teachers rode out in wagons to the county poor farm, taking some gifts for the people of the farm. Rev. Lawrence Stanley gave a short talk, and prayer. Then several hymns were sung. On the way back from the poor farm all stapped at the home of Rev. E. W. Butler and had supper by a bonfire. About 7:00 o'clock the students and teachers returned to the dining hall.

A week from Saturday night, at 7:30, there will be held a Christmas program, given by the Helen Keller Literary Society, under the direction of Miss Kathryn Foss. A Christmas pageant will be given. Everyone is invited. Admission will be 10 cents.

On December 19 school will close for Christmas vacation. It will reopen on January 1, at 8:30.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Shaw of Minnesoaa, friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Jenkins and Miss Helen Jenkins spend Thonksgiving at Thorsby, on their way to St. Petersburg, Fla., to spend the winter.

MRS. CYNTHIA LITTLETON

The death angel visited the home of Mr. Sam Littleton on December 1, and took away the spirit of his aunt, Mrs. Cynthia Littleton, 65 years of age.

To know her was to love her, for she always wore a smile for everyone. It seems sad to give her up, but God always knows best. She leaves a vacant place that no one can ever fill.

We all loved her dearly, but our loss is heaven's gain. We long to live so as to meet her in a better world some day.

She is survived by two sisters and a host of other relatives and friends.

Burial was at Macedonia, with Rev. J. T. Daniel officiating, and Martin in charge of burial arrangements.—Lettie Littleton.

DANCE AT GULLEDGE CAMP

There will be an old-fashioned square dance at Charlie Gulledge's camp on Coosa River, Friday night, December 13th. You are invited.—Charlie Gulledge.

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

666 Checks COLDS and FEVER
Liquid - Tablets
Salve-Nose Drops
First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

THE CORN IS GONE
A drop or two of Corn-Fix stops the pain almost instantly—10 minutes later the corn is GONE—roots and all.
Recommended by your druggist for the safe removal of hard and soft corns, callouses, bunions. Money back if it fails.
CORN FIX FIXES CORNS

Beware Coughs
from common colds
That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

OPENING

Thorsby Beauty Shop, located at Wyatt Drug Co., at Thorsby, Ala., will open for business on Thursday, Dec. 5. and they invite everyone in to see them. Your patronage will be greatly appreciated.

Wyatt Drug Co.
Thorsby, Ala.

Concord - Billingsley

Mr. and Mrs. Ocie Williams of New Cedron visited relatives here Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. T. J. Deramus attended the funeral of Mr. Roper at Sardis Sunday.

Miss Eula Mae Brown spent Wednesday afternoon with Misses Bessie and Jettie Williams

Mr. Crayton Deramus of Clanton spent the latter part of last week here with his aunt, Mrs. J. P. Williams, and family.

Mr. Keith Dickinson of Clanton and Mrs. Dan Owens of Cross Roads visited their mother, Mrs. C. L. Dickinson. Tuesday afternoon.

Allen Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams, who has been ill for the past two weeks, seems to be improving slowly.

Mrs. J. C. Hughes of Billingsley visited in this community Friday afternoon.

Mr. Charlie Williams left Sunday to resume his studies at A. S. T., at Gadsden, after spending the week here with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams of Adams visited recently with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams.

Mrs. M. W. Brown and daughters, Ester and Eula Mae, spent last Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. Cox.

Miss Sue Dickinson spent Sunday with Mary Evelyn Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lee Wright and baby visited friends here Sunday.

OPERETTA AT BILLINGSLEY

An operettta will be presented at Billingsley high school auditorium on Friday night, December 6. A good crowd is expected to be present. This program is sponsored by the glee club and everyone who attends is promised good entertainment.

MULCH RECOMMENDED FOR STRAWBERRIES

Auburn, Ala.—Clean straw, marsh hay, leaves or other fairly fine material provide a good mulch for strawberries, say officials of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, who advises farmers to "use a mulch free from weed seed."

VERMONT NEWS

We will meet back at Vermont tonight (Thursday), December 5th, with Mr. Smith and Miss Heflin of Isabella. We appreciate very much the opportunity of having these speakers meet with us. We should realize the fact that they are only holding these meetings for our benefit, and are trying to help us to solve our everyday problems. Each discussion is simple and is made so plain that we can't help but be benefitted. We won't regret our little time we spend and effort we put forth to attend. We will go home with better ideas and plans which we can use during the coming year.

The P.-T. A. will also meet tonight (Thursday). This is an important meeting to the community and especially the parents of the boys and girls who attend this school. Let's show the teachers that we are interested in our boys and girls, and in helping in every way to make this one of the best years in school. Following a short meeting with the P.-T. A., our meeting mentioned above will follow. Both meetings on one night will not be so bad as going twice as the building will be warm and comfortable.

CHESTNUT GROVE

We are glad to say that Master Buster and Dig Lucas are better.

Mr. T. R. Hall was in Clanton last Friday on business.

Miss Margaret Nabors spent last Tuesday night at Mr. Earn Lucas's.

Mr. G. G. Nabors and Mr. L. H. Nabors were in town Saturday shopping.

Rev. Dorace Nabors will fill his regular appointment here next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Everybody is invited to come and hear a good sermon.

Brother Canant of Wilton will preach here next fourth Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. Let's all come and hear a good sermon. We are glad to welcome Brother Canant here again.

Misses Wilma and Frances Lucas were dinner guests of Miss Margaret Nabors Sunday.

Let's all go to preaching and do all the good that we can and we are sure to get some good by doing so.

Grocery WADE'S Market

Phone 93 --- Clanton's Complete Food Store

Market Specials

Mixed Sausage, Lb	16c	Good Steak, Lb	15c
Franks, Lb	15c	Best Cut Round, Loin or — T-BONE STEAK, Lb	17c
Picnic Hams, Lb	23c	Full Cream — CHEESE, Lb	19c
Bacon Squares, Lb	23c	Bacon Sliced, Lb	32c
Rib or Chuck — ROAST, Lb	12c	Bologna, Lb	15c

LARD
4-Lb Carton Pure 65c
2-Lb Carton Pure 35c
4-Lb Carton Compound 52c
8-Lb Carton Compound $1.00

FLUFFO OIL
Quart 34c
Pint 18c

Milk 3 Large or 6 Small 17c

Brooms or Mops, Each .. 20c
Armour's Star — Potted Meat, 3 for 10c
Pure Mustard, Qt. 15c
Fancy Shredded — Coconut, Lb 18c
23-oz Can Phillips — Vegetable Soup, 3 for 25c
Lighthouse Cleanser, 3 for 10c
Regular 5c Salt, 3 for 9c

Rock Bottom Prices on FLOUR and FEEDS

SUGAR 10 lbs 53c

No. 2 Can — Tomatoes, 2 for 15c
Stokely's Finest Green Beans, Kraut, Beets — STRAIGHT or ASST 3 for 24c
Matches 3 for 9c
Lb Can VanCamp's — Pork and Beans 5c
14-oz — Catsup, 2 for 19c
Pink Salmon, 2 for 25c
Chum Salmon 10c
Crackers, lb box 10c
Kerosene, gallon 13c
5 Gallons 63c
Fresh Ground — Coffee, Lb 10c
Regular 10c Size Campbell's — Tomato Juice, 3 for 24c
Salad Dressing, qt 23c

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

Secretary Wallace is quoted as saying that there would have been a greater shortage of pork products if the government hadn't pulled off that 6,000,000 pig slaughter campaign in the summer of 1933. Here is a good hunch for him. Why doesn't the government go itself one better, and kill and burn all the pigs in 1935 so we will have more pork to eat in 1936? And this is certainly one on Joseph, who saved up corn for seven years. If he had only plowed it under instead of saving it there wouldn't have been any famine at all.

We are told that recovery is moving forward according to the New Deal plan. How clever those Brain Trusters are. They had Congress pass an illegal NRA law, then had the Supreme Court declare it unconstitutional so that business would become encouraged and start to picking itself up again!

It becomes increasingly noteworthy how many who once were convinced that two could live as cheaply as one are now convinced that even one can't do it.—Paducah (Ky.) Sun-Democrat.

The share-the-wealth crowd can't hold its own against the shear-the-wealth crowd in Washington.—Charleston News and Courier.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

It is a safe prediction that one of the pictures to be painted by most of the New Dealers in the campaign next year is one that will portray surface conditions in the United States in 1936 as compared with those which were apparent in the early months of 1933. The voter will be asked early and often whether or not he considers himself "better off now than he was when the New Deal commenced." The logic will be based, of course, on the presumption that any improvement of conditions there may be is due entirely to the New Deal program, and that, had any other party won, things would have steadily grown worse. The answer to the arument of course can be found in an examination of present conditions in Great Britian and most of the countries of Europe, where it can readily be learned that as great or even greater improvement has been made economically than in our own country, and this without the expenditure of billions of dollars to "prime the pump" and take care of the unemployed.

Many practical politicians among the New Dealers believe that their comparison of conditions with those of the closing days of the Hoover administration will be very effective because the average voter will not take the trouble to contrast our course with that of other countries and will not bother about a thirty-five billion dollar debt and an unbalanced budget. But there are things to be taken into consideration other than the tremendous spending of federal money. There is the question of how it is spent, and in this respect there are many vulnerable spots in the political armor of the New Deal.

One of the new and popular words in our political lexicon is "boondoggling," which has come to stand for the wasting of the taxpayers money on trifling and unnecessary projects to keep certain folks "employed." We are bound to hear more and more about boondoggling in the coming months and the New Dealers will be subjected to an increasingly severe barrage on the subject of how the public money has been spent. For example, the National Republican Congressional Committee in Washington recently issued a pamphlet under the caption "Roosevelt the Waster". The pamphlet is in reality a text book on boondoggling. It seems to cover the subject from alpha to omega and it discloses some curious ways in which the public money has been spent. The author of the pamphlet has taken the trouble to survey the field carefully although he intimates that it has been barely possible to more than scratch the surface of boondoggling activity.

For example, he declares: "Hundreds upon hundreds of millions of dollars have been frittered away. People still go hungry and seek jobs which the New Deal has not made available. The rights of every sub-division from state down to the smallest hamlet have been infringed upon in the wild orgy of spending. In but few instances have the expenditures of the New Deal been warranted in comparison with the few jobs made available."

Among the boondoggling activities sponsored by the federal government at the expense of the pblic, according to the pamphlet, are tap dancing, eurythmic dancing, making dolls, counting chickens, leaf raking and producing circuses. Just a few of the money allocations of the government cited by the booklet are: $1,300 to pay literary advisers in the Stockton public library to help readers get the right kind of books; $46,690 to build two islands in an Ohio lake; $4,252 to provide a roof for the heads of the horses in the California state fair grounds; $1,341 to construct a warhole on a fox farm at Everett, Mass.; $8,868 to exterminate rats at Cleveland, Ohio; $744 to build a giant shuffle board and a big checkerboard at Ashland, Ohio; $2,712 to take a tree census at Harrisburg, Penn.; $800 to study Russian rainfall; $81,611 to build a road from Skull Valley to Yava, Arizona. The two towns have a combined population, it is said of 155 souls.

The pamphlet, which may seem sensational to those who have not heard boondoggling discussed, indicates that the amount of money spent by the New Dealers will not be the only burning issue in 1936. There is going to be some discussion of how the money was expended.

A JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES
Master of Only One

We used to have a GOVERNMENT at Washington.

What we have now is a UNIVERSAL DEPARTMENT STORE.

The real estate department, doing business under the trade name of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, has begun foreclosure proceedings against 2,105 residential properties.

As an instance of the brisk business Uncle Sam is doing in the real estate field, foreclosures are increasing at a rapid rate.

Chairman John H. Fahey, of the HOLC, must rub his hands with glee at the prospect of 5,000 foreclosures before January 1. What a business!

"Satellite cities," with Uncle Sam as chief realtor and mayor, are mushrooming all through the districts adjacent to Washington.

Another growing business is paying off claims of those injured in relief work.

There are $28,000,000 in such claims now on file.

These new matters, together with farming, banking, fixing wages in private industries and buying up of newspapers, keeps Uncle Sam very busy.

He is now a Jack-of-All-Trades—not to say a jackass of all trades—and master of only one—FARLEYIZING THE CIVIL SERVICE.—Atlanta Georgian.

HELPING ALIEN WORKERS

Well, it was a bit of a shock to learn that German steel was being imported for use on the $42,500,000 Triborough Bridge which is being built with government funds to make jobs for American workers. There seems to have been some buck-passing as to who is responsible for this order for foreign material, but there is no question about the protests which have arisen over the idea. We are told that it won't happen again.

William Green, in a written protest to Secretary Ickes, is reported to have said:

"Inasmuch as Congress appropriates funds for public works projects in order to relieve unemployment and alleviate widespread distress in the United States, it is difficult for labor to understand how said funds could be used for the purpose of buying material manufactured in Germany. Such action seems contradictory to the aims and purposes of the public relief measure.

"Public works relief funds spent for the purchase of material manufactured in Germany would serve to create employment for German workers, while American working men who are thoroughly qualified and are seeking to produce the same material, are idle".

Mr. Green by these arguments shows himself hopelessly provincial, which is just another way of saying he is hopelessly pro-American. Didn't he ever hear of Secretary of State Hull and his economic philosophy? If he has read it and believed it, he must know that the very best thing which could happen for American workmen would be to buy material from Europe which would give jobs to European workmen. Then because we buy of them, the nice European workmen will buy from us, everything will be happy and there won't be any war or depression again.

The plan has already been tried with success. Just now we are buying millions of dollars worth of farm produce grown by alien agriculturists. And not only can it be said that our farmers are idle, they are actually paid by the government for being idle. So it must be all right or the Brain Trust would not have it that way.

If Mr. Green is old fashioned enough to believe that we can have prosperity in America by purchasing the material produced by our own workmen when we have a splendid chance to buy European goods which will keep alien workmen busy, then he just does not know the latest theories on trade pacts and foreign concessions.

But even if he doesn't know about it he will learn a lot more on the subject in the near future. Our State Department is pretty busy with these pacts which will make America properous through buying its goods abroad. Canada has been "put over" with many others in the offing. Of course the nations which promised to pay their war debts and didn't may fail to buy what they promised to buy, after they get the concessions they want. But why worry about a little thing like that? We are living in a new age, and Mr. Green, like some of the rest of us, is a little slow in getting adjusted to it.

WE ARE HARD TO STOP

As for the President's acts, it is impossible to forget that next month sees a return of the old NRA bugaboo. Once more business men are being forced to leave their jobs to foregather in Washington and debate and wrangle and receive brickbats or bouquets from the White House as they agree or disagree with the orders from on high. In short the breathing spell is over.

Nothing could be plainer than that business wants no revival of NRA in any form. Here was a ghost which everyone hoped had been laid for all time by the Supreme Court decision in the Schechter case. Yet, presumably because the New Deal cannot admit error, the old wrangling, the old wastes of time and money, the old threats of legislation and regimentation must be renewed.

We hope that the business men who assemble in Washington—supported by those who do not—will kick Major Berry's conference into the Potomac. There will be a few handpicked from the faithful, who will be ready to take what is handed them and like it. But the overwhelming sentiment of the country should make itself heard loudly and forcefully.

Recovery will go forward because Americans are hard to stop. For that matter, no one took the promise of a breathing spell very seriously. But what a pity that the great forces of the country cannot be released from political interference to speed the nation back to prosperity, with an end of unemployment and a return of the only real abundance the world has ever seen. — New York Herald-Tribune.

We can't imagine how those pioneer farmers of a hundred years ago cleared the forests, drained the swamps, and laid out those lovely farms without the aid and advice of the Department of Agriculture.

MAN IN THE MOON

HOOVER AND THE DEMOCRATS

Already the Democrats are taking a hand in helping to pick a Republican presidential candidate for us. And the boys are honest enough to admit that they hope the Republicans will pick Hoover, because they admit he will be the easiest for them to beat. Now, that's news for the national Democratic enthusiasts to be that honest—it just isn't like them. I think this must be some kind of a dare they are trying to toss at us. But we are not so dumb as to accept that dare. We did that once—and once is enough.

Now, don't misunderstand. I am not one of those who think of "old Hoover" as some kind of dreadful ogre, although I will admit that there are numbers of Republicans who have the same idea of him that the Democrats profess to have. The Democrats, themselves, know better than anyone else just what a proposition Hoover had to deal with. He had a balky Democratic congress to thwart his every move. A balky mule is a super problem, but a bunch of balky Democrats can put their animal demi-god to shame at his best game.

Besides having that balky congress, the Democrats set up an elaborate press agent system to "smear Hoover", with news items, booklets, magazine articles — insinuations, misinterpretations, false charges, propaganda of all kinds, and even bald-faced lies. The extent of the success of their plan and system is a matter of record—results from the election of 1932 explain it in full.

I will admit that Hoover had his faults, but who is there who doesn't have them? Another man might have done a better job under the same circumstances, and then again he might have done worse. Mr. Hoover is by nature a man fitted for specific duties, but never an official or supervisor. He has proved times over that he can make a grand success of a big job of any certain nature, but he has not the personality and the iron will to command the respect and wholehearted support of his subordinates. Another man might have had these qualities and used them for good.

In the campaign of 1932, Mr. Hoover was forced to wage his campaign almost single-handed. None of the fiery orators of the national Republican organization took the campaign stump with him. I have read that he is a congenial man, yet one who is hard to get next to, and so gains friends slowly; he is honest, but too easily swayed; he is shrewd, but never a natural politician; he is a brainy man, but not a practical planner. He never could get his congress to work with him on anything. These were a few of the things which made a failure of his administration.

This statement that his administration was a failure may draw some criticism from my brother Republicans, but it is the truth, in one sense at least—that he failed to command the respect and cooperation of his people, a thing that any man must have if he is to achieve success. When the general idea got around (aided and abetted by the "smear Hoover" campaign) that Mr. Hoover was to blame for the depression and all the hard times, his sun began to sink. No one seemed to consider the fact that the depression was world-wide. Every man seemed to think that of all unfortunate people his case was the worst of the lot. No consideration was shown Mr. Hoover for what attempts he had made to set things right, and that his balky Democratic congress had blocked every one of these attempts. His name became a synonym for starvation and hard times on the spur of the moment.

These natural shortcomings of Mr. Hoover were taken into consideration by the Democrats and used to the greatest advantage. And the attack was well planned, to come to its highest point just at election time. And so Mr. Hoover was beaten—not the Republican party. Many voters remained Republican at heart, but they saw in Mr. Hoover the cause of all their woes—a rank misconception, yet one which was widespread enough to bring about the biggest political landslide in the nation's history.

Therefore, it is no wonder the Democrats want Mr. Hoover to run again. They are pretty sure the same thing that beat him before would beat him again. Frankly, I believe that Mr. Roosevelt would beat him in 1936, but I believe Hoover would make a better race, by far, than he did in 1932. The New Deal has left a bitter taste with many people which is even worse than "old Hoover". But the Demmies can rest assured that Mr. Hoover will not be the candidate. Republicans know as well as they the stigma that is on Mr. Hoover, and although he may have a hand in picking our candidate, he will never even try for the place for himself.

Nearly any candidate the Republicans may name, other than Mr. Hoover, is given an extra good chance of beating Roosevelt, considered by many the weakest man the Democrats can put up. Scan this list, Mr. Democrat, and see which you like best, for it is a pretty fair bet that one of them will be the next president. It has been said that the Republicans have nobody big enough for the job. Let's take a look at Borah, Landon, Vandenburg, Knox, Dickinson, Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., Hamilton Fish, Jr., and a dozen or more others. These are big men—men who have done things and done them well. They are men of big calibre, with experience from which to draw in making their decisions. It will not be their desire to draw around them a crowd of theorists to plan laws and study up schemes. All of them are of the old time school which still has faith in allowing the representatives of the people have their part in the nation's government.

And you put this down in your pipe and smoke it, too—there will be money behind the next Republican campaign. I know that Mr. Roosevelt has a slush fund of almost five billion dollars which is being saved over for the campaign, but taxpayers are on to that racket, too, and already there is widespread discontent that their tax money shall be used for political purposes. That five billion will lose many voters for Mr. Roosevelt, because it is tax money—blood money. That is another thing that beat Mr. Hoover, too. He did not stand ace-high with the money interests, and, although they did not do much fighting against him, neither did they lend him so much aid. He was left to paddle his own canoe, so to speak.

But any one of the outstanding Republicans who might be chosen will have the unstinted support of big business. Mr. Roosevelt is a big cause of this, too. He has killed his golden egg goose. He has piled on tax after tax, in every conceivable guise, has curbed and plundered business ruthlessly, and they are of a mind to pay him back in his own kind—ruthlessness.

Many smart Democrats think Mr. Roosevelt is not, by any means, the strongest man the Democrats might name, but it is a pretty sure bet that he will carry the banner in 1936. It isn't going to be a push-over for him however. There will be some pretty stiff opposition to him by conservative Democrats at the convention. If a few old-line Democrats like Byrd, Tydings and others have their way Mr. Roosevelt will have to do some tall promising before he gets their support again, especially in the convention, and possibly in the general election.

And speaking of failures, Hoover never saw the day he could show as blank a page as Roosevelt. There is not one major act of Mr. Roosevelt's which carries the quality of good common sense. All of them have been open to widespread criticism, even within the Democratic ranks. Experiments and more experiments have been the order of his day. And our good old national guardian angel, the Supreme Court, has already declared several of his acts void, and bids fair to kill the rest of them before it is through.

When Mr. Roosevelt took office he did not draw in the most sensible brains of his party and confer with them. No, indeed! Instead, he called them together just long enough to tell them to turn over to him all their powers. In the words of the sea captain, he told his Democratic congress he "wanted nothing from them but silence, and damned little of that". There was no request for advice, but a demand that they keep "hands off". Then he called in his "brain trust", a bunch of theoretical cranks with not a practical idea among the lot of them—and nearly every one of them an avowed communist. Mr. Roosevelt tried to run the government of the United States along the system used to handle a college, with its many professors, petty rules and regulations, and stern schoolmaster-like supervision of the people. It hasn't "taken" so well, if we are any judge.

All Americans are not school children, nor do we like being governed by schoolmasters and collegiate methods. Campus methods do not work on farms, and cheer leaders don't seem so fine at running factories. We are free men, and we don't like the idea of being told what we "can" or "can't" do with our possessions. Americans have come up to respect only one supreme law—RIGHT— and all the NRA's, control laws, red flags, communistic tendencies and fuss boxes Mr. Roosevelt and his red raiders can muster will ever bend that proud American spirit that knows how sweet is freedom, and which has the sense to discern the right, and the fearlessness and stamina to fight for it.

Americans will never bow the knee to a monarch. The past three years have been the nearest to a monarchy and autocracy that America has ever experienced since the Revolutionary War, and it will be many moons before you see that much again, we believe.

We sincerely hope that Mr. Roosevelt is not stopped in convention—we want to attend to that little job.—Man in the Moon.

SMARTER POLITICIANS

In the days of the Boston Tea Party the Colonists revolted against "Taxation without Representation" and the politicians didn't get away with it.

Today, we taxpayers have representation—in many cases cast our individual ballot.

But how much smarter the politician has become. We are aften led to the polls, blinded by fancy theories, to blandly cast a vote to tax somebody else, some special class. And when the tithes are gathered, they come out of our own pockets.

Such are all special or class taxes. Tax the landlord, tax the peanut vendor, tax the chain store—the tax is paid by the tenant, the peanut muncher, the housewife.

Don't vote class taxes blindly.

FOR YOUR POCKETBOOK

As everyone knows, there is often a great difference between the price a farmer gets for the food products he sells, and the price the ultimate consumer must pay.

A long list of charges is responsible for that difference. It costs money to transport food, to process and pack it, to preserve it, to carry on the vast machinery that operates between producer and consumer, and finally, to sell it at retail.

Many of those costs are unavoidable and necessary. Some are not. And the great problem of food distribution is to eliminate those which are not, while at the same time effecting any possible reductions in the essential costs.

One no longer hears the question, "What would you do if you had a million dollars?" as our hungry government knows all the answers.—Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch.

Tugwell predicts a balanced budget in 1938. This is the first time a prominent Brain Truster has acknowledged that the Republicans would win.—Worcester Telegram.

Now that the relief forces have been set to work collecting the taxes from which will come more relief money, we can be fairly sure of results. — New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Man has survived the age of stone, bronze, iron, discovery, invention, etc., but there is some doubt as to whether we will pull thru the age of ivory. — Winston-Salem (N. C.) Journal.

The old-fashioned woman who lived fifty years with her first and only husband now has a blonde daughter who can't even remember what her first husband looked like.

A much advertized motion picture just now is "Mutiny on the Bounty". Haven't seen it yet but it sounds like trouble among the New Dealers.

Now that the Boulder Dam has been completed, thousans of acres of arid land can be put to producing crops to be plowed under. —"Rube", in Linn (Kan.) Record.

Wouldn't it be nice if we could all be as sweet and pleasant as the fellow who reads off the goofy advertising over the radio?

This last election was the most comforting one we ever heard of. Both parties seemed to find comfort in it.

Mrs. Roosevelt says that "perhaps the first and most practical step that nations could make toward peace would be to buy out the munitions makers and make this business of war a government business". Will the lady kindly explain how all this could be done? For if it can't be done it isn't "practical".—Detroit Free Press.

For the benefit of any Republicans who are still wondering whether Mr. Hoover seeks the presidential nomination, press dispatches the other day announced that the ex-President had just sent a "congratulatory message" to a Missouri baby.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

THAT CANADIAN TREATY

The principal topic of discussion among the economists and political leaders among United States during the past several days has been the trade treaty recently entered into by our country and Canada. The completion of the treaty came with such startling unexpectedness to most people, and the terms were so little discussed in advance by the press of the nation, that most of the people have not yet come to a full realization of what the treaty means. Perhaps they will not get this realization until the treaty goes into effect and has a chance to show what it can do.

Briefly, concessions by the United States include the reduction in duties for fixed quotas of cattle, dairy cows, cream, certified seed potatoes, lumber and certain grades of timber, reduction of duties on hay, horses, live poultry, Cheddar cheese, turnips, apples, maple sugar and fish.

In return Canada agrees to reduce duties on agricultural products, fruits, machinery, automobiles and parts, electrical apparatus, iron and steel mill products, cotton fabrics, lubricating oils, and so on.

In short, what has happened importantly is that Canada agrees to reduce the duties on certain classes of our manufactured goods and we have in turn reduced duties on some agricultural products.

The political importance of this trade pact remains to be seen, and it will probably take several months to measure its effect. Those whose memory goes back to the days of President Taft will recall that this genial statesman had his chances for re-election for President ruined by a reciprocity treaty with Canada.

There can be little doubt htat the present treaty will have political repercussions too. Already there are echoes of complaint from farm leaders, while the American manufacturers themselves, who are supposed to benefit by the treaty, are divided in their opinions concerning it. When the knowledge and effects of the treaty become general certain of our agricultural sections are very apt to become more of a political battleground than Mr. Hull and some of his lieutenants now suspect.

In the meantime it might be well to pause for a moment to consider how far off the original track our tariff treaty makers have traveled since they set out to "build up" our foreign trade. Then they told us that their prime object was to secure wider foreign markets for the American farmer. Now the first really important treaty to be consummated is the one between Canada and the United States. This treaty seems to put the original aims of our diplomats in reverse gear. Instead of tending to produce wider foreign markets for our American farmer it throws open the domestic market to Canadian producers of farm goods. If anyone is to be benefitted at all it will be some of our own manufacturers, and that is still an open question.

Just what the farmers of the United States will think about this remains to be seen. And what the Supreme Court will think about Mr. Hull's taking over the constitutional duties of Congress in writing tariffs and concluding treaties, is another question, too.

FARM POLICY FACTS

Permit me to pass on to your many readers some interesting but very disconcerting facts contained in a letter from a friend of mine. As to their trustworthiness I may say he is the author of many books, on archeology, ancient astronomy, ancient mathematics, and a work on government, economics and finance. He says, among other things:

"Kansas received checks for $52,000,000 the last fiscal year for not raising wheat, and is now importing wheat from Canada, paying a tariff on it; 300,000 sows killed, which, when farrowed, equals 3,000,000 pigs, and in addition 3,000,000 pigs killed, a total of 6,000,000; 16,000,000 head of cattle killed, 80 per cent of which were burned and buried. Restrictions of wheat production, 16,000,000 acres. The same percentage applies to oats, barley, rice and tobacco. Restriction of cotton production, 18,000,000 acres, and of corn production 10,000,000 acres. During the past year the United States is importing more corn, wheat, hogs than ever before in the history of the nation. Cattle and beef are being imported from Mexico and Argentina, also corn at the rate of 1,000,000 bushels a day. During the month of November, 1934, 30,000,000 pounds of cottonseed oil were imported, and the rate of importations has not diminished. The South has lost more than 40 per cent of its export trade, never to be regained, inasmuch as Japan, India, Egypt, Equitorial Africa, Argentina, Peru, and Mexico have increased their cotton production three to four fold. The same thing applies to tobacco in Equatorial Africa.

"Who of normal mind believes that abundance is produced by scarcity? Hundreds of millions of dollars are being wasted in the purchase of sub-marginal and swamp lands as a refuge for wild fowls and other impractical purposes. The evil to be deplored is the process tax. Meat, corn and wheat products are 200 to 300 per cent higher, yet the farmers are paid not to produce these foods".

This is a most extraordinary and alarming condition of affairs for potentially the most productive and self-contained nation on earth. —Letter by Alexander Sidney Lanier, in the Washington (D. C.) Star.

Teachers in Brooklyn are being accused of a move to gain control of a public school. In the old days there used to be a move with that purpose, too, consisting of a forceful raising and lowering of the hand which held a ruler or length of rubber hose.—Worcester Evening Gazette.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of December 1, 1910

P. K. Villadsen is building two cottages in Thorsby, in the old ball park lot, near his home.

Miss Minnie Adams was married at Prattville last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Oliver, of Verbena, attended the jubilee in Birmingham last week.

Mr. Gilvey McKee visited his father, B. McKee, here last week.

Married this week—J. A. Dubose and Miss Beulah Patterson, L. F. Brown and Miss Deco Sims, Jady Davis and Miss May Davis, L. M. Ayers and Miss A. M. Northcutt, J. A. Collins and Miss Anna McCary.

Prof. J. C. Hicks of Jemison and Rev. J. M. Trosper of Thorsby were in Clanton last Tuesday.

W. A. Kemp has sold his interest in J. C. Jones & Co., to Ross Mullins.

POOR C

WEST END Specials

For This Week-End At

J. H. BROADHEAD'S

Phone 228 - - - - - - - We Deliver

FOR CASH ONLY

GOOD STEAK, Lb	15c
SHOE STRINGS, Reguar 5c, 2 pair	5c
FRESH EGGS, Dozen	30c
GOOD FRYERS, Lb	20c
TOMATOES, 10-oz Can	10c
MACKAREL SALMON, 8-oz Can	5c
MATCHES, 3 Boxes	10c
SALT, 100-Lb Bag	$1.00

WE HAVE A FEW GOOD MILCH COWS FOR SALE OR TRADE

GILLESPIE-CORLEY MARRIAGE SOLEMNIZED LAST WEDNESDAY

A marriage of wide interest to many friends in Chilton County and central Alabama was solemnized last Wednesday, when Miss Ethel Corley became the bride of Walter Kelley Gillespie at a simple and impressive ceremony.

Both these young people are well known to a wide circle of friends, who are extending congratulations and best wishes to them. Mrs. Gillespie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Corley of Clanton, and Mr. Gillespie is the son of former sheriff Walter Gillespie of near Clanton.

W. B. Corley, father of the bride, was for a number of years editor and manager of the Chilton County News where he made a wide acquaintance and many friends throughout this section.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION

There will be a fiddlers convention at the Union Grove school building on Saturday night, December 7th. All fiddlers and friends are cordially invited to attend. This promises to be one of the best conventions ever held in this part of the county. Prizes will be awarded to the fiddlers and plenty of entertainment will be furnished for the whole family.

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

(Rev. A. E. Middlebrooks, pastor)

Special program Sunday morning. Sunday is universal Bible Sunday. A program commorating the 400th anniversary of the printing of the Bible in the English language will feature the 11:00 o'clock service Sunday. Among other things there will be four five-minute talks as follows:

What the Bible has meant to the Legal World, Judge L. H. Teynolds.

The Bible in Education and Public Life, Prof. L. C. Warr.

Contribution of the Bible to Music and Art, Mrs. Barney Roberts.

The Bible as a source of Comfort, Mrs. J. Q. Wade.

The public is invited to this service, also the evening worship service at 7:00 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Lawrence, missionary on furlough from Poland, spoke to the Missionary Society Monday afternoon.

The new conference year is getting off in a fine way. The response was fine last Sunday. Several pledged themselves to be better church members and Christians during this year. If you were not present last Sunday will you not make the same pledge? You need the ministry of the church. The church needs you. Are you satisfied with what you did last year and the way you lived? Come to church next Sunday and every Sunday of this new year and make your life count for more.

Mrs. L. E. Diefenderfer is doing excellent work with our young people. Is your boy or girl present at the Epworth League each Sunday evenig? Cooperate with Mrs. Dief as she tries to help your boy or girl. The youg people meet at 6:15 each Sunday evening.

WILLIE KENDRICK NABBED

Willie Kendrick, alias "Bud" Kendrick, 20-year-old negro, was hauled into city court last Monday morning by City Officer John Browder.

Kendrick was drunk at West End on Sunday night, acting boisterously, and cursing. Officers were called and he was placed in the county jail, the city jail being full of CCC boys.

Mayor Jones sentenced Kendrick to 10 days on the streets, in addition to costs.

PATES CHAPEL

Bolton-Hayes

A wedding of much interest to their many friends and relatives was that of Miss Carrie Bolton and Mr. Pink Hayes. They were quietly married Friday night at the home of Rev. W. P. Lowery. The couple will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayes. Their many friends wish for them success and happiness through the future years.

Those attending the bountiful wedding dinner Saturday were: The bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. N. Hayes and children, Green, Bessie and Edna, and grand daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hayes and children, Toye and Virgil, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Champion and children, Alford and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rainwater and son, Johnnie, and the groom's brother Mr. and Mrs Vasteen Hayes and son, Aubrey and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hayes, the mother and father and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayes, Zemma and Zelma.

Pates Chapel was glad to have Maynard's Chapel B. Y. P. U. with us Sunday night. We surely did enjoy the program. You are invited back again. They came as a surprise but sometimes surprises are good.

Mrs. E. J. Hayes spent Friday in Birmingham accompanied by Miss Hazel Maddox.

Mr. S. E. Maddox, who is off at school at Wadley, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Sorrell spent Sundaf with the latter's mother and sister of Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hayes and children spent Sunday with their brothed and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes and family.

Mrs. B. O. Blow and sister, Evie Whatley, spent a while Tuesday evening with Mrs. J. A. Sorrell and daughter, Ruth.

We are glad to report that Mr. Cordis Sorrell is improving from an attack of rheumatism.

Everybody remember that next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. All who are interested come Saturday night at 6:00 o'clock; Sunday morning, Sunday school at 10:00 o'clock and preaching at 11:00.

Miss Edna Hayes spent Saturday night with her sister, Mrs. Marvin Champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Hayes spent Friday night with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vasteen Hayes and son, Aubrey.

RETURN GIN CERTIFICATES

To all cotton producers:
Dear Sir:

If you have gin certificates that were not used or sold and you want to sell them, please return them to this office at once.

Regular certificates in the tan folder can be sent to the National Pool for sale at 4c per pound less the cost of administration.

Two-bale certificates in the green folder will have to be returned to the State Officer and reissued into regular certificates before they can be sold.

It will be necessary for the person in whose name the certificates were issued to sign Form Nr. B.A. 317 declaring these certificates surplus before they can be sold.—Very truly yours, J. W. Fant, County Agent.

1936 COTTON PROGRAM

December 3, 1935.

The United States Department of Agriculture has announced the general outline of a 1936 cotton program. The high points in the program are as follows:

1. Base period.—Indications are that the base upon which the contract will be made will be the years 1933, '34 and '35. 1933 will be the actual acres planted. 1934 and '35 will be the actual acres planted plus the acres rented to the government under the 1934-'35 acreage reduction contract. The yield per acre will be the actual production on acres planted to cotton during the base period.

2. The contract will be for four years—1936, 37, 38, 39. The producer may terminate his contract at the end of any crop year provided he notifies the officials before November 15 of said year.

3. A producer may rent to the government 30 to 45 per cent of the established base.

4. The producer will be paid five cents per pound on the average yields per acre for the acres taken out of production. This rent will all be made in one payment when proof of compliance has been certified.

5. This payment will be divided as follows:

(a) 37½ per cent for the land.

(b) 12½ per cent for the workstock and equipment.

(c) 50 per cent will ge divided between the landlord and tenant on the basis of the division of the crop.

The contract for 1936 has been simplified in many ways. The base years to be used in making up this contract are such that the producer will be able to provide the actual facts of production, and thereby get a more equitable allotment. Chilton County has produced good crops each year for the three years that are to be used as a base with the exception of small areas where weather conditions were unfavorable. There are provisions in the Administrative Rulings for making adjustments where weather conditions were such that a full crop was not produced.

The forms for making the contracts are not available at this time. When they arrive at my office, I will notify all producers.—J. W. Fant, County Agent.

BULLET IMBEDDED IN WOOD

Bob Connell, of Route 5, sent to The Union-Banner Tuesday a small piece of lightwood in which was embedded a lead bullet. Apparently the bullet had been in the pine tree for a number of years, as no sign of where it entered was noticable. It was near the center of the tree.

The piece of lightwood is on display at The Union-Banner.

AAA ANNOUNCES COTTON POLICY FOR FOUR YEARS

Base Acreage Is Cut One Million Below That of 1935

Washington, Dec. 3.—The AAA's long-time control of the farm was emphasized today by publication of a new, four year cotton program. It aims at production of 11,000,000 to 12,000,000 bales in 1936.

The AAA now has in rapid succession, launched four year control prograams for wheat, tobacco, rye and cotton. A two year contract has been prepared for corn-hog producers.

The cotton contract provides for a reduction in "base" acreage from 45,500,000 to 44,500,000 acres.

Contract signers will reduce acreage 30 to 45 per cent for 1936, compared to 25 to 35 per cent for 1935 and 35 to 45 per cent for 1934.

One benefit payment will be made at the rate of five cents a pound, (approximately $8.60 an acre). Three payments were provided in the 1935 contract on two bases, totaling 4¾ cents a pound.

BOX SUPPER AT ALABAMA MILLS COMPANY SCHOOL

There will be a box supper at Alabama Mills school on Saturday night, December 5th, at 7:30 p.m. All women and girls are urged to come and bring a box. There will be a cake for the prettiest girl. The proceeds are to be used to pay on a piano. Gents, don't forget the date and hour.

REV. HOLLAND'S SCHEDULE

Below is given the monthly preaching schedule of Rev. J. S. Holland. He asks that notice be taken of the changes, especially the change at the Ebenezer church, from the second to the first Sunday.

First Sunday—Ebenezer; 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Second Sunday—Liberty Hill; preaching services will be held here at 11:00 a.m., on the second Sunday of each month, and at 11:00 a.m., on Saturday before. There will be no Sunday night service.

Third Sunday—Second Baptist church of Clanton; 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Fourth Sunday— Mulberry; 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Wanted

Bring us your surplus Butterfat, and turn it into immediate Cash. Last Saturday we paid to the farmers of Chilton County $300.00 for their Butterfat. This should be some attraction to the farmers who have lots of feed which can be marketed through sale of Butterfat at an attractive profit.

Due to a change in our equipment, we probably held you too long last Saturday, but we will be in shape to get your test out much faster next Saturday. Our tester is a licensed man and can test your cream accurately.

We invite your continued patronage, and will endeavor to have our building as comfortable as possible, in order that you may wait in comfort for your test.

SOUTHERN DAIRIES, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.
CLANTON

J. C. JONES SELLING USED CARS FOR HAYES

Mr. J. C. Jones is now on the sales force of Hayes Chevrolet Company, selling used cars. Mr. Jones wishes his many friends over the county informed of this fact, hoping that they will see him when they are in the market for a used car. He can likely make you an interesting offer if you are in the market for a product of his.

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies --- Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :---: :---: Alabama

SEE OUR BIG LINE OF TOYS

and Gifts for the Kiddies

The Leader

M. LANDE - - - Clanton, Ala.

Is Preparing for You!

By Friday of this week, The Leader, Chilton County's Big Christmas Store, will be arrayed in the Yuletide glory that goes to make your shopping pleasant.

Appreciated Gifts . . .

There are only 16 more days in which to do your Christmas Shopping. Make these few days your best by giving practical and useful gifts from The Leader.

A Store Full . . .

Our store is just simply "chocked full" of all kinds of useful gifts and the wise and thrifty shopper will come to The Leader first where quality and low price will be featured this Christmas.

Chilton County's Big Christmas STORE

ANNOUNCING

THE OPENING OF OUR 55TH STORE
204 MONTGOMERY ST., MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Special for One Week Only

SENSATIONAL SALE

Amazing Reduction.....Now $2.98

Latest "Mode" Glasses with Toric Stock Lenses. Here is a sensational offer that should instantly appeal to everyone who wears or needs Glasses. For this week only we are offering these fine "Mode" Style Glasses fitted in modern White Gold filled frames for this sensational sale for only $2.98. All Glasses fitted by highly skilled licensed Eye Specialist. All lenses ground by expert artisans in our mammoth up-to-date lens factory. Positively guaranteed to fit you perfectly and give complete satisfaction or they cost you nothing. Just try them. That's all we ask. It's our own argument. See how greatly these fine stylish glasses will improve your vision and how perfectly they will enable you to see far or near, read the smallest print, and thread the finest needle. Call for examination by our Eye Specialist at once. Price good for this week only. Take advantage of this amazing Bargain Price. Moderate extra charges for astigmatic, bi-focal and tinted lenses. No obligation to purchase.

Examination by Licensed Eye Specialist

National Optical Stores Co.
OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 9 P. M.—204 MONTG. ST.

Thousands of customers wear our perfect vision glasses. Stores in many principal cities of the U. S. and Canada.

CALL FOR EYE EXAMINATION

ORIGINAL

Montgomery Business Review Section

IF YOU CAN'T FIND WHAT YOU WANT IN YOUR HOME TOWN, WE INVITE YOU TO COME TO MONTGOMERY.

All States Life Insurance Company

Located at 116 Catoma, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-2609.

This is a prominent life insurance company that numbers its clients by the thousands, all of whom have found a safe and practical way of providing for old age, a child's education, or insuring the loved ones of an income after life in this world has ceased. In the last three years the All States Life Insurance Company has paid in claims $811,000. If you have any problems along this line that seem difficult to solve you will find a policy with this life insurance company will more than amply take care of specific needs.

The All States Life Insurance Company operates in six states, from Ohio to Florida.

They have always been an important factor in the promotion of better protection of lives in our various communities. They have pointed the way to many, and these are now enjoying a fuller freedom of life, knowing their loved ones will be provided for after death has beckoned them.

Looking into the past, anyone of us can recall how this or that family after death of the head of the family were left without any visible means of support, largely due to the fact that he or she had failed to take out life insurance.

The insurance written by this company embodies the merits of unquestionable security, and prompt settlement backed by years of experience and vast resources. The average investor in life insurance is not in a position to base his selection of life insurance upon personal examination and quick judgment. His wisest course therefore, is to buy only such life insurance offered by a reliable company with a long and successful record.

It will pay you to investigate the policies written by the All States Life Insurance Company.

CENTRAL LOAN COMPANY

Located at 1 Court, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-4646.

Never before has it been stocked with such a fine line of jewelry, silverware, diamonds; Hamilton, Waltham, Bulova watches, pencils, novelties, clocks, and other merchandise ideal for gifts and for the adornment of one's own home. This store is a jewelry concern in every sense of the word, and carries the other lines mentioned to meet the demand of their customers who want dependable articles of the most modern as well as substantial type.

This store is an example of substantial progress in the jewelry and diamond business of this part of the state, and the proprietor is to be congratulated upon his great success and the service that is furnished to the people of this vicinity, and the territory for many miles around.

No matter what it may be in the jewelry line you will find it here, as the stock is large and complete. In regard to price, never before has the Central Loan Company had such outstanding values as they now offer the public.

The success of the Central Loan Company is a distinct tribute to the ability of the manager, who has always insisted that this jewelry store serve its patrons with the very best of high grade jewelry. We highly recommend this store to all our readers, and while in Montgomery shopping, buy their Christmas jewelry at this store.

SCHLOSS & KAHN GROCERY CO.

Located on Coosa, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-934.

This well known concern has many satisfied patrons throughout this part of the country, and renders a valued and essential service. Being one of the foremost wholesale grocery houses, offering the highest grade of pure foods and groceries.

No review of the business, agricultural and industrial interests of this section of the state would be complete without prominent mention of this company which aids in no little measure the progress and prosperity of this section and is undoubtedly one of our most progressive and popular firms, and daily ships many consignments all over this territory.

It is a well known fact that there is no one institution in the community that has met with greater favor with the public than this well known firm. By reason of the fact that the management has had wide experience in every feature of the wholesale grocery business, and because of their knowledge of every branch of the trade, this establishment has continued to witness the increase in the number of their patrons.

There are no more public spirited citizens in the community than the Schloss & Kahn Grocery Company, and in making this review of this section it is natural to wish to compliment them.

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Located on South Jackson, in Montgomery; phone Cedar-2784.

In its State Teachers College known from coast to coast as an institution of merit, the State of Alabama has shown splendid foresight and a readiness to meet educational problems for generations to come.

From all over the state young men and women come to State Teachers College to avail themselves opportunities afforded the seeker of solid knowledge. Their training is thorough and complete and upon graduation the students are prepared to enter school rooms there to uphold the rigid standard of the nation's superior educatinal system.

They offer many attractive courses to the ambitious young men and women and their advancement is assured by the organized method of instruction.

The buildings of this progressive college are equipped to meet the demands of the various courses. The administration building is one of great pride to the community and one of the largest and best of its kind. You will find no more pleasant surroundings for college students than here.

The various buildings on the campus complete the college unit. They provide labratories, a library, physical education, literary societies, music halls and social as well as religious activities.

This educational institution offers a splendid opportunity for the young people to secure an advanced education. In this day and age of specialized endeavor it behooves the young men and women to take advantage of this educational opportunity here at their very door. Students are enrolled here from all over the country.

This college is in the hands of most able and efficient managers, who are progressive and realize the present day tendencies and requirements. They have built up a most enviable reputation for their untiring efforts.

The people are to be congratulated upon having such a valuable institution among them and in this business review we wish to congratulate the college upon the wonderful work they are doing.

The Elizabethan Shoppe

Located at 12 South Perry, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-5573.

In the way of seasonable coats and dresses, they carry the very latest patterns from which to select. They stand back of all goods they sell, and as a consequence the ladies over the adjoining territory have great confidence in the reliability of this store. No matter whether it is morning, afternoon, evening, or a sport garment that you desire, you will find here a very complete stock.

The service at this store is individual. The sales people are students of the types of people, the correct styles of the day, and of excellent judgment, thus being able to aid in the selection of garments that are very becoming. This service is helpful but never obtrusive, and no one is urged to buy. They do not want to sell you anything that they know you will not like, as they are not looking for a sale, but customers who depend on their service for the coming years.

In making this review we are glad to pay compliment to The Elizabethan Shoppe upon their modern store, its excellent appointments, their stock of advanced styles and their modern service, and refer it to all of our readers when shopping in Montgomery.

SILVER'S
5 Cents To $1 Store

Located at 29 Dexter Avenue, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-4722.

This is Montgomery's most complete store. Groceries, meats, and furnishings, and also a complete line of drugs. Make this store your headquarters during your Christmas shopping.

One of the most essential establishments in the community is this variety store where so many necessary articles are displayed for your needs. At this popular store you will find such a varied collection of household necessities and you have but to turn from one counter to another to select the things you need, whereas before the advent of such stores it was necessary to make trips to a number of stores before securing the same articles.

Another important feature of this popular variety store is its economy. They buy in such enormous quantities and have such a rapid turnover of their merchandise that they can sell these necessities at a considerable saving to their patrons. For quick, efficient and economical shopping, visit the Silver's 5c to $1.00 Store.

Here you will find many articles that are not carried in any other store. Their aim is to supply the people with those small necessary articles for the home at a considerable saving. That they do this is seen by the popularity of their store.

The people of the community are very fortunate in having such a store in their midst. It means a saving of money as well as time in making your selections.

STANLEY PAULGER

Located at 9½ Court Square, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-2010.

When in need of anything in the line of photography, you will find this studio one of the very best in the community.

This is one of the most progressive establishments in this section, and is equipped with the latest mechanical devices for the purpose of doing high grade work. The proprietor has especially prepared this studio to take care of the customers who desire the very best in photography.

The studio has an excellent reputation for the high class work turned out, and for the prompt and courteous attention shown in each and every particular. They finish your photographs in the most up-to-date manner, insuring the best at all times. Their prices are within reach of everyone. All telephone appointments will be promptly taken care of. The proprietor has established a large and substantial patronage from the people of the city and surrounding territory. Mr. Paulger makes a specialty of family groups and children's pictures.

Make this well known studio your headquarters for your Christmas photographs. Mr. Paulger has always been a booster for the community, and through his efforts much of the out-of-town business has been attracted here.

W. W. Bowman & Son

Located at 745 North Decatur in Montgomery; phone Cedar-5747.

The coming of the livestock sales barn into common use has helped incalculably in the speeding up of livestock and horses disposal through a centralized spot easily reached by all classes of buyers.

In the old days, sales were held at widely scattered points inaccessible to most buyers, and as a consquence, the article or animal to be disposed of was not displayed to its best advantage.

At the W. W. Bowman and Son, the most scrupulous rules are observed in the regular sales and the buyer is able to spend his money with the confidence which comes from knowing that the management will see that everyone is treated fairly. The same rle applies to the seller.

The reputation of this house for fair and above board methods, its general usefulness to the buyer and seller has brought it an ever increasing patronage from all over this section. It takes a long time to find a buyer by personal sale and here, there is always someone ready to buy.

The management is to be congratulated upon the service they are rendering the people of this community.

SMITH & MOORE
Bicycle Repair Shop

Located at 114 North Perry, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-3824.

Make this store your headquarters when Christmas shopping, as they have a complete line of bicycles. There is no firm more in accord with the advancing and ever changing times than this modern establishment which has come to be recognized as headquarters for bicycles in this section.

With the changing times cycling is gaining in popularity every day, and this firm has secured a complete line which includes all models of the highest grade cycles manufactured. These are standard products, and afford the public the very cheapest kind of travel, and in addition, they are used for sport and take the people to the great outdoors.

They are authority on bicycle construction, employing men in the service department who understand all features of the machine. No matter what problem you have in the line of service if you will ride around and consult them you will find that they will solve it for you.

When it comes to bicycles, they are able to give the very best service. No matter what kind of a bicycle you may have, they are able to place it in first class condition.

In this review we are glad to compliment Smith & Moore on their past success, and refer this well known store to all of our readers.

SPICER FURNITURE CO.

Located at 130 Lee, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-2160.

Dealers in new and used furniture. They buy, sell, and exchange new and used furniture of all kinds. Expert repairing, upholstering and refinishing.

Here is the place to furnish your home at a real saving. Their stock contains everything the modern home desires, from living room to kitchen.

When you buy new or used furniture of the Spicer Furniture Company you are assured of the very best, and paying only a very reasonable price for the articles that you buy. It takes care and judgment to buy the right quality and when you are told at this establishment that the goods offered are of the latest style you need not hesitate in making the purchase.

They have provided the trade with a complete line of representative goods in which you can have every confidence.

The Spicer Furniture Company specializes in real service. They make the word service actually mean what it says. You are invited to visit this store and inspect the large stock of fine new and used furniture, and we are certain you will be pleased and gain a great many valuable ideas.

Jefferson Davis Service Station

Located opposite Jefferson Davis Hotel in Montgomery; phone Cedar-550.

We highly recommend this Station to all of our readers when in Montgomery. This up-to-date service station handles good gasoline and motor oils. Their excellent line has been tested and found to be the very best on the market today. In fact, just a little better than what you thought was the very best. The great satisfaction that they are giving is winning new customers all the time.

They feature excellent products which have attained an enviable reputation as being among the highest test gasoline and oil of the day. It makes no difference whether it is for the passenger car or truck, you will find they have fuel that will suit your needs. They have made a study of this feature of the trade and especialy of the kinds of oil demanded for this climate. If you get advice from them you will never have any trouble with any part of your car.

Expert crankcase service is a feature of this station. All you have to do is drive in, they will change the oil in your engine. This service is a great accommodation to motorists and aids in keeping the engines in fine condition.

They offer an excellent service in greasing cars, and if you happen to be going to town to shop, you can get the car greased while you are attending to your affairs.

They are very accommodating and when you need gasoline or oil, or happen to be caught on the road without gas, just call them on the phone and they will see that you get rapid service.

MONTGOMERY SEED COMPANY

Located at 19 Monroe Avenue, in Montgomery. Phone Walnut-9309.

When in need of high grade seeds for every need, get in touch with this reliable firm. Mail orders or phone calls given prompt attention.

The farmers and city people have come to know that they can get from them the best seeds of all kinds on the market, hence they seek no further market. They have a reputation far and wide as business men of wide experience and straightforward methods, and it is not surprising that the volume of business is ever increasing.

With the advances of the times, greater precaution is taken in every branch of life. The manufacturer, farmer, doctor, the scientist, and in fact in every field of research, the latest scientific methods are brought into play for efficiency and advancement. This is equally true of the seed business, and the modern firm in this line must be one of advanced ideas regarding the scientific production of seeds that are pure, tested and reliable.

We wish to compliment them and direct your attention to this seed company as one of the reliable business institutions of the community which has added to the development and progress of this part of the state.

Tatum-Embry-Huddeston, Inc.

Located on Race in Montgomery; phone Cedar-1069.

There isn't any question but that this popular establishment is an important factor in the commercial life as it is one of the biggest livestock firms in these parts. The management is very liberal in dealing with the public and attracts shipments from the country many miles around.

During the past years they have been in business they have won the confidence and good will of thousands of raisers and shippers.

The farmers have come to know that they can get from them the best prices that the market permits for livestock of all kinds.

They have a reputation far and wide as business men of wide experience, straightforward methods and it is not surprising that the volume of their business is ever increasing.

The record of this company is truly commendable and is an evidence of the well placed confidence of so many farmers and raisers of livestock. Their business has increased. This is truly a wonderful showing and one that evidences the fact that they have merited the enviable reputation they have attained.

They are in every way thoroughly reliable and the assistants are men with whom it is a pleasure to transact business.

MALONE
FAST FREIGHT LINES

Located at 517 No. McDonnough, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar 5555.

This reliable firm offers a safe and dependable freight service between towns over this territory. All shipments are insured for the accommodation of their many patrons. They are equipped with the best equipment which is in charge of efficient drivers. They will cheerfully advise you as to the time of departure and connections at all intermediate points.

This local motor freight company anticipated the great need of this section for a high class trucking service and their care in handling goods, rapid service and courtesy have won a reputation for them as a thoroughly reliable and successful business institution.

They offer a complete transportation service for the shipping of goods. A fleet of mechanically perfect trucks is in command of competent drivers. Each driver gives painstaking care to see that all goods are not damaged in transit. The men know their routes and make sure that all goods are delivered to the correct address. The regular routes are covered at frequent intervals so when you entrust goods to them for delivery you can be sure they will go rapidly and arrive at destination on schedule time.

They will gladly give information about their transportation service; so if you will call them the next time you are doing any shipping they will explain how they will save you time and worry.

The Malone Fast Freight Lines serve daily Nashville, Birmingham, Clanton, Montgomery and all intermediate points. The Clanton terminal is located at Billingsley Service Station, phone 235.

HUNTINGDON COLLEGE

Located on Fairview Avenue in Montgomery; phone Cedar-2600.

The Huntingdon College is a member of the association of Colleges and secondary schools of the Southern States. Metropolitan educational advantages are offered at this popular institution for all of those who desire the better things of life. Here you may secure a general education on, or prepare for some special work. No matter what line you desire, you will be more than repaid by talking it over with the Huntingdon College.

They offer many attractive courses to the ambitious young women and their advancement is assured by the organized method of intruction.

The buildings of this progressive college are equipped to meet the demands of the various courses. You will find no more pleasant surroundings for college students than here.

The varous other buildings on the campus complete the college unit. They provide laboratories, a library, physical education, literary societies, music halls and social as well as religious activities.

The Huntingdon College offers a splendid opportunity for the young women to secure an educatin. In this day and age of specialized endeavor it behooves the young women to take advantage of this educational opportunity here at their very door. Students are enrolled here from all over the country.

The people are to be congratulated upon having such valuable institution among them and in this business review we wish to congratulate the college upon the wonderful work they are doing.

COURT CAFETERIA

Located at 21 South Court, in Montgomery. Phone Cedar-1280.

This cafeteria is recognized as a social center for motorists and the traveling public in general. It is also known as headquarters for good home cooking and eats.

The service is unexcelled and the prices are pleasingly satisfactory.

The management of this cafeteria while visiting the markets will not buy nor accept anything inferior in the line of foodstuffs. This, coupled with the fact that they employ a chef of more than ordinary ability, insures the choicest foods properly cooked.

From their extensive display of foods one may indulge in his or her own most favorite delicacies and dishes, getting as large or small portion as you wish. At this cafeteria can be seen patrons from every walk of life, who make this popular cafeteria their down-town eating place.

In this entire section there is not another establishment that surpasses this well known eating place in service and good home cooking. In making this annual business review of the city and vicinity we are glad to give the Court Cafeteria commendable mention for the high character of their service, and refer them to you when you are in Montgomery.

PLEASANT GROVE
JEMISON

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miskelley have gone to Cleveland, Alabama to spend a while with her mother, Mrs Ida Bellenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson spent a few days last week with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Childress.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dawson and little son, Jimmy, spent Tuesday night with his uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion and sons, Dalton and Sanders.

Miss Dulcie Champion was the guest of Mrs. Joe Evans Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. Erschel Spivey, Maurice Wright and Hyman Franklin and Miss Laurene Spivey motored to Clanton Saturday.

Mrs. Charlie Spivey of Thorsby is spending a while with her sister in law, and family, Mrs. Lillie Spivey.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. Miller's mother and her cousin, Mrs. Rogers of Birmingham and Miss Velma Pdice were Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Turner, Mrs. Paul Dawson and children and Mrs. Euel Dawson and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Franklin Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vasteen Davenport and children spent Saturday night with his father and mother and Bernie and Olis.

Messrs. John Vasteen and Bernie Davenport visited their brother Sunday, Mr. Frank Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Z. Woodley had as their guests Thanksgiving his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brockman of Birmingham.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Wood spent Friday night with her uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Woodley.

Mrs. Sam Woodley and sons, Raymond and Erskin were guests of Mrs. Ed Compton Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. S. Z. Woodley spent Friday night with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood.

Mr. T. H. Campbell went to Marvel Monday and came home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clements had as their week end guests, their daughters, Misses Mary of Jemison and Willie C. of Birmingham.

Mr. Lance Franklin of the Thorsby Institute visited relatives here last week end.

Mr. J. D. Wright is visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Trott and children were the guests of her father and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Campbell.

The Clementses went to the Christmas carnival in Birmingham Saturday night.

Misses Willie Clements and Lucille Compton visited Mrs. Leonard Lenior during the holidays.

Cathleen Lenoir visited her grand parents last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Cofer visited her parents Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Compton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Lenoir were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lenoir Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Franklin of Thorsby spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Betty Merchant and her sister, Mrs. Walter Lenoir.

There will be a singing at Pleasant Grove, Jemison on the 5th Sunday.

REFUGE NEWS

We had a real good Sunday school Sunday in spite of the small crowd. Let's every member bring someone else with us next Sunday and see if we can't have a large crowd.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Lockhart and family and Mrs. Lila Connell visited the ladies' father, Mr. Henry Mims of Sylacauga Thanksgiving. Saturday was Mr. Mims' seventy-first birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Connell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Minor.

Mr. Elijah Mims of Sylacauga visited in this community Saturday and Sunday.

We wish to thank everyone in this community and adjoining communities for their contribution to the help of Tommy Connell. "God loveth a cheerful giver."

MARS HILL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Mims, Mrs. Essie Montgomery, and Miss Leathie Smith visited the Veterans Hospital at Tuscaloosa recently, to see Mr. H. C. Montgomery. He is improving rapidly.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Keener Roper. His family has the sympathy of all the people of this community.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Geneva Gay is improving. She has had a severe case of pneumonia.

Mr. Dock Smith is also sick with pneumonia.

There will be a community wood cutting for Mr. Smith's family in the near future. All his friends are invited to come and help.

POOR C

W. L. Sanders Got Reply From Senator Bankhead About Cotton

I wish to say to the farmers who attended the mass meeting at Clanton on October 23rd and adopted the resolutions, that they were sent to Sen. John H. Bankhead, and we at last have a reply from him, in which he expresses his attitude toward the resolutions and the triple A.

I am asking the editor to publish this letter in order that every farmer may see how our Senator stands on the question. Read it carefully and you can see that he doesn't know, and probably doesn't care, about the condition under which we labor.

Following is the letter:

Jasper, Ala., Nov. 19, 1935

Mr. W. L. Sanders, Clanton, Ala.

Dear Mr. Sanders:

I have your letter enclosing a copy of the resolutions adopted at a mass meeting held by farmers of Chilton county on October 23rd.

I fully agree with the resolution that the five year base period now in use is unfair and unjust and should be abandoned. I made a speech at Hayneville on the 14th on the allotment basis. You will find a report of it in the Montgomery Advertiser of the 15th. I hope you will read it. I think that all thoughtful men will recognize that if there is not a tax on excess production it will be impossible to control the size of the crop. The real problem to settle is the basis allotment. If we encourage profits from excess production, the whole program will fall of its own weight.

In 1934 four bales was the average for all cotton producers. Two million four hundred-thousand cotton producers applied for exemptions. The crop was 9,600,000. This year the average will be 4½ bales. The so-called big farms are made up of little farms, each tenant having a little farm, and each tenant must be provided for as other producers are. The tax is not intended as an income tax; it is the enforcement provision of a production control program. Unless the farmers, generally speaking, are willing to cooperate with the reduction program and try to carry it out in the spirit that it is intended, for their benefit, of course production control must be released and we will go back to 18,000,000 bale crops.

I entirely disagree with your contention that the reduction program is harmful to foreign trade. Our forein trade has been blocked by tariff walls, differences in currencies, trade argeements between nations and the quota system so widely used in foreign countries.

You failed to distinguish between exports and consumption abroad. When cotton was very cheap the foreign countries, and a year ago they had more than a three million bale carry-over of American cotton in forein countries, and a year ago they had more than two million bales. They have been consuming their cheap cotton. That cotton is now exhausted and they are buying in the regular way and our exports will be largely increased.

Regardles of political affiliations, all of us who are interested in the welfare of the farmers should examine the facts as best as we can and then act as we see fit for the best interest of our cotton producers.—Sincerely yours, J. H. Bankhead.

The above letter shows that Mr. Bankhead is not familiar with the injustice imposed by the triple A. He admits in the letter that the allotment based on the five year period is unjust and should be abandoned. But at the same time he is offering a plan, which appeared through the public press, not unlike the first, and which will not eliminate the discrimination carried in the first plan.

In referring to the four bale average of all farmers in 1934, he failed to realize or admit, that when two farmers had an allotment of eight bales, that is in many cases, one of the farmers had six bales and the other only two, and that where three farmers had an allotment of twelve in many cases, one would have eight bales, another three bales, and the third would have only one bale. The average of four bales for each farmer doesn't mean that each farmer was allowed to market four bales tax free, but which statement shows that in order for some to have a large allotment, others must be cut to almost nothing. This injustice all grew out of the present allotment plan and will continue to exist if the plan is adopted that Mr. Bankhead is now offering.

If you will get the paper that carried Mr. Bankhead's plan and read it closely you will see that the same discrimination is in it as in the first. Mr. Bankhead refers to the big farms as being made up of small farms, and said that these tenants must be taken care of. I can't see how the Senator can honestly make a statement of this kind when he has had the figures placed before his eyes, showing that one 250 acre farm, with nine tennants, had an allotment of (7,000) seven thousand pounds, and that one 40 acre farm with one tennant had an allotment of (6,000) six thousand pounds. Does this look like taking sare of all alike?

The survey that I sent to Mr. Bankhead also showed that one landlord owned 104 acres of land with four families to keep up and had an allotment of 2,300 pounds of lint cotton while the tennant mentioned above, on a 40 acre farm had an allotment of 6,000 pounds. Mr. Bankhead's statement about the discrimination among the different sized farms shows one of two things—that he is ignorant of what is going on or that he doesn't care.

"The tax is not intended as an income tax," says Mr. Bankhead. Of course he knows that this tax is directly on the farmer's income, and could not afford to say that it was not, so he just got around it by saying that it was not so intended. We all know that this tax was the enforcement provision of the AAA act, but that didn't keep it from being a tax directly upon the farmer's income.

"Unless the farmers, generally speaking, are willing to co-operate with the reduction program, and try to carry it out in the same spirit that it is intended, for their benefit, of course production control must be released and we will go back to 18,000,000 bale crops," says Mr. Bankhead. I would like for Mr. Bankhead to mention some of those "eighteen million bale crops." I recall only one such crop, and if the reduction control were released, it will take some time for the farmers to get back to a normal crop financially, much less an eighteen million crop.

Mr. Bankhead said that unless the farmers were willing to co-operate to carry out the program in the spirit in which it was intended, that so and so would happen. The farmers have co-operated for the last two years, and the spirit in which it has been administered has been so damnable that so and so has already happened to the extent that many are not going to sign up for next year.

Our Senator disagrees with us that our reduction program has hampered our foreign trade. He should take into consideration the millions of bales of cotton consumed in foreign countries, raised in India, South America and Brazil, which was caused from price pegging in this country. He should also compare the imports of today with those prior to the enactment of the AAA. I hope Mr. Bankhead will see before it is too late, that the little farmers have been brought to a subsistent level, and that the program, unless drastically changed, will cause thousands of farmers to lose their homes.

Let us all think twice before we act once.—Yours for a square deal, W. L. Sanders.

Living Protection

means care-free old age

INVESTORS SYNDICATE
FOUNDED 1894
LIVING PROTECTION

Living protection is presented to you as something which you can achieve — a cash reserve which you can arrange to be yours at the time of future need.

The plan enables you to make provision on easy terms for this sum of money for future delivery. How much more you will receive than the amount of your payments — depends upon how long the delivery date is deferred.

For Details See

Frank Palmer

Local Representative

State Headquarters 601 Comer Bldg., Birmingham, Ala.

Make their Christmas joy complete with

the only complete low-priced car

NEW PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES
the safest and smoothest ever developed

SOLID STEEL one-piece TURRET TOP
a crown of beauty, a fortress of safety

HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
giving even better performance with even less gas and oil

IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*
the smoothest, safest ride of all

CHEVROLET Make this Christmas a memorable one for all the family! Give them a new 1936 Chevrolet—the only complete low-priced car!

Their eyes will sparkle when they see the beauty of its new Turret Top Body . . . their pulses quicken when they test the performance of its High-Compression Valve-in-Head Engine . . . and their faces radiate satisfaction when they experience the comfort of its gliding Knee-Action Ride*.

You will also know that you have given them the safest motor car ever built, for the 1936 Chevrolet is the only car in its price range with New Perfected Hydraulic Brakes and Solid Steel one-piece Turret Top, as well as the other exclusive features listed here.

See your nearest Chevrolet dealer—today!

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN

New Greatly Reduced 6% G. M. A. C. TIME PAYMENT PLAN The lowest financing cost in G.M.A.C. history. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices.

GENUINE FISHER NO DRAFT VENTILATION IN NEW TURRET TOP BODIES
the most beautiful and comfortable bodies ever created for a low-priced car

SHOCKPROOF STEERING*
making driving easier and safer than ever before

ALL THESE FEATURES AT CHEVROLET'S LOW PRICES

$495 AND UP. *List price of New Standard Coupe at Flint, Michigan. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $20 additional. Knee-Action on Master Models only, $20 additional. Prices quoted in this advertisement are list at Flint, Michigan, and subject to change without notice. A General Motors Value.

CHEVROLET

Jack Hayes
Dick Hayes
Hayes Chevrolet Co.
CLANTON ALABAMA

STATE JURY TRIAL DOCKET

Monday, December 9th, 1935.

Lee Jones, alias Freeman Reese, transporting five gallons or more of prohibited liquor.

Ed Logan, throwing a missile into a vehicle (Felony Grade)

Belcher Foshee, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Harmon Stroud, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Ada Giles, alias Ada Maddox, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Ada Giles, alias Ada Maddox, abusive language.

Cecil Willis, alias Tee Willis, alias T. Willis, grand larceny.

Willie Roberts, alias Willie Robinson, burglary.

David Readus, manufacturing liquor and possession of a still.

John Wesley Davis, burblary and grand larceny.

Morgan Adams, burglary and grand larceny.

Noah Chadwick, manufacturing liquor and possession of a still.

George Franklin, shooting a firearm into a church.

Jess Edwards, assault and battery.

William Clackley, alias Tube Clackley, manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still.

Tuesday, December 10th, 1935

W. T. Bryan, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Robert Burton, alias Robert Burden, assault and battery.

Jim Driver, assault and battery.

Ted Wilson, grand larceny.

John Hines, assault and battery.

Fuller Sameuls, grand larceny.

Jesse Bethel, grand larceny.

Adell Sameuls, alias Adell Sandells, shooting in a dwelling house.

Jesse Bethel, grand larceny.

Lum Rosenberry, assault to murder.

Willie Harrison, carnal knowledge.

Wednesday, December 11th, 1935

Esler Johnson, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Herbert Porter, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

O. T. Cobb, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

John Pate, assault and battery.

Eugene Scott and Lula Wallace, adultery.

Jesse Lee Headley, abusive, nidecent and obscene language.

Jesse Lee Headley, abusive, nidecent and obscene language.

Raymond Hayes, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Perry Johnson, trespassing by cutting timber.

John L. Motley, bastardy.

H. C. Chappel, practicing medicine without license.

Alonza Robinson, alias Lon Robinson, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Jesse J. Hayes, carrying concealed pistol, and abusive, indecent and obscene language.

G. W. Culp, reckless driving.

Clint Wesson assault and battery.

Thursday, December 12, 1935

Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer.

Lonza Clifton Robinson, assault and battery.

Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer in making a lawful arrest.

Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer in making a lawful arrest.

Joe Ben McDowell, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Alton P. Barefield bastardy.

Horace Busby et al, defaulting bond.

Walter Scott, murder, first degree.

Walter Parker, alias Buster Parker, murder, first degree.

Friday, December 13th, 1935

Jim Shear, unlawfully presenting firearms.

J. Curtis Ingram, violating prohibition law.

Noah Chadwick, violating prohibition law.

Howard William Jones, violating prohibition law.

Leonard P. Easterling, violating prohibition law.

Edgar Williams, violating prohibition law.

Jesse Adams, violating prohibition law.

George Cleckler, violating prohibition law.

Guy B. Green, violating prohibition law.

Julius Culp, violating prohibition law.

Luther Jones, violating rohibition law.

Jim Arthur Mims, violating prohibition law.

Glenn Chandler, violating prohibition law.

T. J. Parrish, alias Tera Parrish, violating prohibition law.

Terah Parrish, alias T. J. Parrish, violating prohibition law.

Joe Moore, unlawfully presenting

Sam Wilkins, violating prohibition law.

James Caver, violating prohibition law.

Jessie Keith, violating prohibition law.

Sam Graves, alias Buster Graves, violating prohibition law.

Limul Sheppard, violating prohibition law.

Saturday, December, 14, 1935

Gattis Deloach, driving motor vehicle while intoxicatted.

Ben Roberts, violating prohibition law.

James O. Turner, obtaining board by fraud.

James O. Turner, fraudulent check.

Abram Mims, violating prohibition law.

Judge Barber, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Jesse Jackson, violating prohibition law.

Levy King, driving automobile recklessly.

Lee Simpson, violating prohibition law.

Jim Fisher, violating prohibition law.

James Elijah Easterling, violating prohibition law.

Lorenza D. Mims, violating prohibition law.

Earnest Parker, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Arch Payton, violating prohibition law.

Polly Love, assault and battery.

Edgar Leach, manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still.

Eugene Love, violating prohibition law.

Jinks Pearson, violating prohibition law.

Harvey Price, violating prohibition law.

Greed C. Ray, violating prohibition law.

Tom Thomas, violating prohibition law.

Horace Mims, violating prohibition law.

Monroe Scott, violating prohibition law.

Gip W. Melton, violating prohibition law.

William Baker, violating prohibition law.

Neva Price, violating prohibition law.

Dewey Price, driving while intoxicated.

Henry McCray, violating prohibition law.

Taft Spence, D. Lawrence Spence, Will Burns, and Matthew Wilson, burglary and grand larceny.

Dewey Anderson, abusive indescent and obscene language.

Dolphus Lavert Bates, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Andrew Lankford, violating prohibition law.

Truth Ray, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Charlie Heard, violating prohibition law.

Taft Lewis, violating prohibition law.

John Rhodes, assault and battery.

Revis Glass, public drunkenness.

Lewis Beasley, carrying a concealed pistol.

Pat Lucas, abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Willie Wilters, carrying concealed weapon.

Jim Varner, violating prohibition law.

Atkins Kimbrel, violating prohibition law.

Archie Caver, carrying concealed pistol.

James W. Walthall, violating prohibition law.

Ted Bowden, violating prohibition law.

J. L. Hayes, violating the Alabama Highway Code—speeding.

Lum Bearden, violating prohibition law.

Isaac Williams, violating prohibition law.

John L. Spiegner, violating prohibition law.

Eddie Lee Wright, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated, public drunkenness, and abusive, indecent and obscene language.

Jim Driver, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

W. M. CLAUGHTON

W. M. Claughton, age 58, died at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, December 1, after an illness of several months.

Funeral services were held at the Verbena Baptist church at 9 o'clock Monday morning with Rev. Hendricks and Rev. Ellisor in charge. Burial was in the Verbena cemetery, with Martin & Sons in charge.

Pallbearers were Joe Gibson, Bill Strock, Osmond Lett, B. B. Champion, Guy Caffey, and Irby Deramus.

Mr. Claughton is survived by one brother, Dr. William Claughton, of Gadsden.

WANTED

A substantial respected resident of Clanton community as District Manager for the All States Life Insurance Company, of Montgomery.

WRITE

Ben Lacey, Pres.

Phone Cedar-5427

Located at 116 Catoma, in Montgomery

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub

VICKS COUGH DROP

ORIGINAL

THANKSGIVING DAY ENJOYED

On Thanksgiving day, at the home of Mrs. Jess Allen (aunt Pennie), of Jemison, Ala., her children, grand children, great grand children and friends spent a very enjoyable day. The day was spent in laughing, talking and much merry-making. But what seemed to be the greatest treat was the bountiful Thanksgiving dinner that was served from 12 o'clock until 2 o'clock.

Those who enjoyed the day were: Miss Barbara Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Frank Rowley, of Jackson, Tenn. Walter Allen and children, Jesse and Juanita, Mr. Lewis Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Moore and little daughter Ernestine and Mr. Erschel Martin, all of Jemison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith and daughter, Everee, of Thorsby, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Calloway and Miss Lucille Calloway, of Cooper.

ALMSHOUSE CONTRACT AWARDED MONDAY

At the regular monthly meeting of the Commissioners Court, held last Monday, the contract for keeping the county almshouse was awarded to Woodfin Littleton. Mr. Littleton was the keeper last year.

CENTER HILL NEWS

The death Angel visited the home of J. B. Price Thursday, Nov. 21, and took away his loving mother, at the ripe old age of 78 years. Our sympathy goes with the entire family. Her remains were laid to rest in the New Salem cemetery on Friday afternoon, with Martin in charge. Acting pallbearers were her grand sons, Govess, Grover, Euell, Bubie, Richard and William Price. Flower bearers were grand daughters, Virginia, Velma, Clidy Mae, Emma, Calcie, Mildred and Myrtle Price. Brother H. M. Honeycutt conducted the funeral.

SURVEYING ABOUT CLANTON AIRPORT

Some government surveyors are at work this week making surveys of the property which is proposed to be purchased for addition to the Clanton airport.

It is not known just yet what can be done about procuring the land which government officials have agreed to develop. It is hoped that some arrangement can be made whereby this land can be bought and used for the extension of the airport.

In order to anything like keep pace with the times, the airport property should be developed; Clanton needs it; and the opportunity is swiftly passing when this federal aid will be available.

Our officials with the proper authority should get busy and get the airport development on foot. Some day we hope Dr. Gragg's dream of a fine community center may be realized out there for the people of Clanton and Chilton County.

PREACHING AT ROCKY MOUNT

There will be preaching at Rocky Mount church on the seventh and eighth of December. There will also be preaching every Second Saturday night and Sunday in every month.—Rev. E. L. Lowery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and Dr. Strock for their kindness during the illness and death of our little son, Vernon Dennis.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dennis.

AUTOMOBILE ABANDONED

A Dodge sedan was left at my place about two weeks ago. Owner may get same by furnishing description and proof of ownership.—O. W. Daniel, Clanton Route 4.

12-4-2t-pd

NO SINGING AT FRIENDSHIP

There will be no singing at Friendship Thursday night of this week on account of the singing school going on at the cotton mill, and Thursday night is their visiting night. The Friendship class does not want to interfere with the arrangements at the singing school.

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of
Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

FOUND GLASSES — Child's glasses, found in Clanton near hospital, over a month ago. Owner may get them by describing and paying for this adv.—Call at Banner office. 1tc.

LOST—Red leather pocket book, double snap, containing $50, in currency; lost in Clanton between courthouse and high school last Wednesday afternoon, November 27.—Finder please return to Oscar B. Plier, Clanton, Rte. 5. 1tpd.

WANTED PEANUTS AND SWEET POTATOES—Large peanuts and medium size yellow Porto Rican sweet potatoes; will pay 3c lb. for peanuts and 1c lb. for potatoes.—Deliver to M. A. Gore's store, Friday and Saturday. 1tpd.

MILCH COWS FOR SALE—Two good milch cows with young calves for sale. Walter Fiquett, Clanton, Ala. 12-513t-pd.

LOST DOG—Male Walker hound; has small white and black spots; last seen near Poole's Cross Roads, Monday night. Reward.—L. G. Eubanks, Clanton Route 6. 1t-pd.

School Attendance Records for Nov.

Following are the school attendance records of all Chilton County schools for the month of November, as furnished by the office of Luther Little, county superintendent of education. Only one school is missing, Mullins, as the figures for this one were not available.

From now on for the remainder of the school year The Union - Banner will carry this standing in the first issue of each month, for the preceding month. Look for it, and see how your school ranks with others.

In the columns of figures given below, that headed "E" is the enrollment figure; the last column, marked "A" is the attendance percentage.

School	E	A
White Schools
Providence (Beat 16)	38	98.0
Chilton High	335	97.0
McCary	18	97.0
Cooper	197	96.5
Concord Jr.	203	96.0
Mitchell Dam	14	95.7
Oak Grove	70	95.4
Thorsby	191	95.0
Fairview	32	94.9
Lay Dam	36	94.8
Mt. Pleasant	219	94.0
Pinedale	50	94.0
Maplesville	309	93.3
Popwell	40	93.3
County Line	29	93.0
Isabella	152	92.7
Vermont	161	92.2
Alabama Mills	93	92.2
Jemison	594	92.0
Baker	180	92.0
Thomas Jr.	230	91.5
Collins Chapel	177	90.9
Union Grove	128	90.5
Verbena	393	90.4
Free Springs	36	90.4
Enterprise	337	90.2
Pates Chapel	50	90.0
Morganville	19	90.0
Refuge	70	89.8
Clanton Grammar	391	89.0
Jackson Chapel	75	89.0
Providence (Beat 2)	46	89.0
Culp	15	88.2
Stanton	216	88.0
Mineral Springs	79	88.0
Cane Creek	50	88.0
Smith	47	87.5
Mars Hill	41	87.0
New Cedron	35	82.5
Concord (B)	37	82.3
Shiloh	39	82.0
Minooka	35	81.9
Pilgrims Rest	40	81.8
Freeman	62	79.4
Chestnut Grove	35	78.0
Flint Hill	42	72.2
Colored Schools
Spring Hill No. 2	17	100.0
Spring Hill No. 1	16	99.3
Thorsby (Gulledge)	21	98.3
Johannah	20	98.0
Riderville	83	97.0
Verbena	74	96.7
Clanton	142	96.0
Jemison	76	95.0
Cross Roads	20	95.0
New Convert	97	94.8
Mt. Zion No. 1	46	94.0
Beulah	33	93.8
Maplesville	80	93.0
Campbell	33	93.0
Lomax	45	92.6
County Training	245	92.3
Shiloh	24	92.0
Big Springs	42	89.0
Chilton Belle	36	86.2
Mt. Zion No. 2	32	78.0
Pleasant Hill	25	78.0

OAK GROVE

Quite a few people of this community have been ill, but most of them are better now.

Miss Gladys Cobb is still quite sick in a Birmingham hospital.

We had a large crowd at Sunday school and preaching Sunday. Our pastor, Bro. Green, delivered a fine sermon.

Our singing last Sunday was a success. It was opened by a prayer by Bro. John Hayes of Jemison. We were glad to have so many people from different places with us. We had large crowds from Pleasant Hill, Jemison and Clanton, and a fine quartet from Calera. The quartet rendered several good numbers. We were glad to have Mr. D. L. Langston with us. Prof. A. H. Glasscock was with us and gave several new songs; he brought his books and helped us very much. Bro. Haddock from the Calera Baptist church was with us also.

Everyone is invited to come and be with us any time. — Willie Frank Northcutt.

CHAHA STATE PARK HAS BEAUTIFUL LAKE

Montgomery.—The completion of a beautiful lake in Cheaha State Park has added an exquisite feature to the numerous attroctions of that area. Lakes in the mountain regions of Alabama usually are conspicious by their absence. However, in Cheha State Park was found a natural basin fed by alpine streams which with a small amount of engineering work has been made to enclose a body of beautiful crystal clear water of several acres in extent.

The lake is a scenic gem in itself, but is strikingly supplemented by the reflections of the mountain range in the background. The cliffs and ramparts of Cheaha Mountain are seen on the surface of the water almost as clearly as by direct view. Bathing facilities will be provided with the advent of warm weather in the spring.

The lake is at the foot of the mountain near the Western boundary of the park. It is reached almost conveniently from the vicinity of Munford although the mountain road built by the Civilian Conservation Corps from near Oxford over the summit of Cheaha passes the lake after descending the western side of the mountain.

Getting Up Nights

If you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Swollen Joints, Dizziness, Headaches, Loss of Pep, Burning, Smarting, Itching Acidity due to functional Kidney or Bladder troubles, try the Doctor's guaranteed prescription Cystex (Siss-tex). Must bring new vitality in 48 hours, and satisfy completely in 8 days or money back. Guaranteed Cystex costs only 3c a Dose at druggists.

PLEASANT HILL

A birthhday dinner was given at the home of Mr. J. W. Brasher Sunday.

Those attending the pleasant event were: Misses Daisy Martin, Pearline Martin, Ollie Belle Davis, Odell Ellison, Minnie Belton, Hazel Blow, Alta Mae Blow, Lurline Blow, Jesse Cleckler, Datha Cleckler and Central Cost.

Messrs. Oamond Cleckler, Houston Mims, Dewey Cleckler, J. C. Hilyer, Allie Cost, Lonnie Martin, Lubie Martin, Otis Varden and Frank McMullin.

P.T. A. To Have "Fathers' Night"

The Clanton Grammar School P.-T. A. will honor the fathers of the school with a social meeting at the Methodist church the second Friday in December. This will be December 12th.

A very interesting program will be given. Refreshments will be served

OPERETTA AT BILLINGSLEY

The Billingsley High School will present "Polished Pebbles" at the High School auditorium on Friday night, December 6. A large crowd is expected to be present for a good night of entertainment. The admission price will be 15c and 25c.—Herbert Nichols.

STRAWBERRY GROWERS MEETINGS TO BE HELD

All members of the Thorsby Association and others interested in strawberry growing, living in the immediate communities are requested to meet with our directors at the following times and places.

Collins Chapel church, December 5, at 4:00 p.m.

Union Grove church, December 5, at 6:00 p.m.

Pates Chapel, church, December 6, at 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Toy Parsons of Montgomery spent Sunday in Clanton with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Reynolds.

Against Sales Tax

Birmingham, Ala.—Declaring that the press report this week to the effect that there will be no extra session of the legislature is another tricky move on the part of the administration to disconcert the vast forces now marshalling against a sales tax, anti-sales tax forces through their chairman, Irby C. Hall, announced today that the county organization program mobolizing consumers into the Anti-Sales Tax Asociation of Alabama would continue until such time as the Governor comes out and openly states that there wil be no extra session and reaffirms to the people his intention of keeping faith with them by opposing a sales tax.

Mr. Hall, in a message of organization workers and consumers in general follows: "The state is being so thoroughly regimented and there is such manifest general opposition to the levy of a consumer sales tax that its propponents are becoming panicky and are resorting to all sorts of devious strategy and skullduggery.

"If by any means the Consumers Anti-sales Tax Association of Alabama could be duped into accepting some such wild rumor and disband their organization, the pro-sales taxers would laugh up their sleeves.

"Until such a time as the Governor comes out and openly states that there will be no extra session of the Legislature, or until he reaffirms to the people his intention of keeping faith with them by opposing a sales tax, just so long is the invincible anti-sales tax army of Alabama going to keep on mobolizing and be in continued readiness to fight.

"This cunningly devised 'no extra session' is nothing now. Such has been attempted many times before by the same old crowd. The consuming public is not going to fall into the trap set for them. Their eyes are wide open. The rumor is regarded as the most collosal hoax of the present Administration."

RAY A. WELCH DIED

Ray K. Welch, government cotton buyer, died at his residence in Clanton early Thursday morning. Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Friday with the Rev. A. E. Middlebrooks and the Rev. W. T. Ellisor officiating.

Besides his wife and two small children, Mr. Welch is survived by his Montgomery; Miss Thelma Welch, of Welch of Chicago.

LITTLE ANN GLASSCOCK WINS HONOR

Little Ann, the three-year-old daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Ed Glasscock, won a certificate of honorable mention in Louis Pizitz photo contest last week. There were 1,500 children in the contest.

Miss Gladys Cobb of Jemison, Alabama was admitted the the Woodlawn Hospital on November 16, for an appendicitis operation. Miss Cobb is improving. She will probably be in the hospital for another week, according to hospital attaches.

A number of Clanton people are planning on hearing Hon. J. Hamilton Fish speak in Birmingham Thursday night of this week.

CHILTON COUNTY ASSOCIATION MINUTES READY FOR DELIVERY

The minutes for the Chilton County Missionary Baptist Association have been printed and are now ready for distribution to the various churches. The clerk, or someone else interested in each church is urged to call at the Union-Banner office at the first passing and get your prorata share.

OFFICIAL CALL FARMERS UNION REGULAR CONVENTION, THORSBY

By authority of the Constitution and by-laws, I hereby call a regular County Convention of the Chilton County Union at Thorsby public school, December 14th, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, and to formulate plans and policies for the coming year, and transact such other business as may come before the Convention. The public is invited until 12 o'clock.—B. S. Frederick, Secretary and Treasurer, F. E. and C. U. of A.

JAPANESE OIL
Made in U. S. A.
FOR HAIR AND SCALP
Different from Ordinary Hair Tonics
IT'S A SCALP MEDICINE!
60c & $1. FEEL IT WORK! At All Druggists
Write for FREE Booklet "The Truth About The Hair." National Remedy Co., New York

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's
Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

CLANTON CASH STORE
WE DELIVER AT CLANTON CASH STORE -- Phone 154
Peoples CASH Store
Thorsby Cash Store

PRODUCE SPECIALS
POTATOES, 10 lbs .. 19c
CABBAGE, lb .. 2½c
TURNIPS, lb .. 3c
ONIONS, lb .. 4c
LARGE BUNCH — CELERY .. 10c
LARGE HEAD — LETTUCE .. 10c

FRUITS
EATMORE — CRANBERRIES, Qt 25c
GRAPES, 3 lbs .. 25c
WINESAP — APPLES, Doz. .. 15c
FANCY DELICIOUS — APPLES, Dozen .. 25c
FLORIDA — ORANGES, Doz. .. 20c

NUTS
COCONUTS, Fresh .. 6c
ENGLISH — WALNUTS, Baby, lb 17c
EMERALD No. 1 — English Walnuts, lb .. 20c
LARGE — BRAZIL NUTS, lb .. 15c
PAPER SHELL — PECANS, lb .. 15c

FRUIT CAKE MATERIAL
Graced Cherries, lb .. 50c
Pineappe Slices, lb .. 40c
Citron Halves, lb .. 35c
Lemon Peel, lb .. 35c
Orange Peel, lb .. 35c
FRUITS, lb .. 35c

MARKET SPECIALS
AT CLANTON CASH STORE
GOOD TENDER — STEAK, Lb .. 15c
GOOD — STEW MEAT, 3 Lbs .. 25c
WEINERS, 2 Lbs .. 35c
Bologna Sausage, Lb .. 15c

LARD
1-LB CARTON — COMPOUND .. 15c
4-LB CARTON — COMPOUND .. 55c
1-LB CARTON — PURE .. 18c
4-LB CARTON — PURE .. 65c

FLOUR SPECIALS
PLAIN or SELF-RISING
24 LBS — GOOD NEWS .. 88c
12 LBS — GOOD NEWS .. 50c
24 LBS — WHITE OWL .. 98c
24 LBS — MILADY .. 90c
24 LBS POLLY RICH .. $1.10
24 LBS — White Water Rose $1.10
12 LBS POLLY RICH OR — ROSE .. 60c
48 LBS — GOOD NEWS .. $1.70
48 LBS — WHITE OWL .. $1.90

DRIED BEANS and PEAS
BLACK EYE — PEAS, lb .. 6c
BABY LIMAS, lb .. 7c
LARGE LIMA, lb .. 8c

SOAP
10½-OZ BAR — O. K. SOAP, 3 for .. 10c
CAMAY SOAP .. 5c

Grape Nut Flakes .. 10c
BAKER'S SOUTHERN STYLE — COCONUT, Moist .. 10c
BAKED'S MILK PACKED — COCONUT .. 10c

BLUE PLATE
Mayonnaise
4-OZ JAR — MAYONNAISE .. 10c
8-OZ JAR — MAYONNAISE .. 15c
16-OZ JAR — MAYONNAISE .. 25c
4-OZ JAR — RELISH SPREAD .. 10c
8-OZ JAR — RELISH SPREAD .. 15c
16-OZ JAR — RELISH SPREAD .. 25c

SUGAR
10 lbs 53c

MATCHES, 3 for .. 10c
SODA .. 4c
SALT, 3 for .. 10c

COFFEE
Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 15c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

DRIED FRUITS
EVAPORATED — PEACHES, 2 lbs .. 25c
EVAPORATED — APPLES, 2 lbs .. 25c
PRUNES, lb .. 7c
PRUNES, 1-lb pkg .. 10c

POOR O

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—TWELVE PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1935 NUMBER 34

Vote On Paving Next Tuesday

Commissioners Court Call For Vote On Question of Much Interest

In another place in this week's Union-Banner is a resolution, preceded by a lengthy preamble, from Judge J. Lee Smith and the Commissioners Court of Chilton County setting out the plans for a referendum election to be held next Tuesday, December 17th, on whether on not Chilton county shall participate with the State and federal governments in the three-way hard-surfacing project of the State highway between Clanton and Plantersville.

In the preamble the Court points out that there are approximately twenty miles to be surfaced at an approximate cost of $150,000, of which Chilton county will be required to pay not exceeding $42,000. It is estimated by the State Highway Department that Chilton county's part will be approximately $40,000. The plan provides that Chilton county shall pay one cent per month for each gallon of gasoline allotted to it in the State gasoline tax, which will total approximately $2,000 per month. This will take the county about 20 months or nearly two years to pay the bill.

The preamble also points out the fact that the Selma-Clanton road is a State road, maintained by the State of Alabama without expense to Chilton county. Also it is noted that there is "sentiment in Chilton county both in favor of and opposing the county using its funds as aforesaid, ... and the Probate Judge and the Commissioners Court are desirous of knowing the sentiment of the qualified voters upon the question".

It is with this in view that the Court has concluded to have prepared ballots for the purpose to be used in the election of next Tuesday, December 17th, in the various voting places in the county. Provision is made that the votes be counted by the Commissioners Court on the 18th day of December, 1935, and declare the result of the election.

Opposed By Cox and Thomas

Representative C. B. Cox and Senator Earle Thomas have voiced their opposition to the action of the Commissioners in calling the election, as will be gathered from a lengthy letter from them which we are also publishing in this issue of The Union-Banner. They charge that the county officials have failed to live up to an agreement reached with them regarding the paving matter some months ago.

LOOMING FOR CONGRESS

It is generally conceded that Pete B. Jarman, former Secretary of State, will be the next Congressman from the Sixth District. Reports have reachedthe Capitol that William B. Oliver, the incumbent, of Tuscaloosa, may not run for re-election because of illness. In the last election Oliver defeated Jarman by a narrow margin. He won only 957 more votes than Jarman out of 7,550 in his own county. Jarman is said to have been quietly campaigning ever since the last election and his friends have plastered the district with "Jarman for Congress" signs.

Anti-Sales Tax Fight Is Waged

County Chairman Warns People About State's Sales Tax Plans

Birmingham, Ala.—Voting to strengthen their organization and extend its activities, members of the executive committee of the Consumers Anti-Sales Tax Association of Alabama Wednesday announced postponement of the extra session of the Legislature would have no effect on their campaign against imposition of a sales tax in this state.

Irby C. Hall, Collinsville, said determination to carry on the fight with new vigor was reached at an executive meeting Tuesday afternoon when special organization committees and field workers to assist county organizations were authorized. J. F. McGraw of Shelby, and T. L. Clay of Jefferson were named chairman and vice-chairman of the finance committee.

The cunningly devised extra session report, Hall said, "does not fool anybody. We know the extra session is coming and we here and now warn opponents of the sales tax not to be lulled into a false sense of security. We must be prepared and we will be prepared when the call comes, whether it's a month or a year from today."
—Tom Taylor, County Chairman, Chilton Consumers Anti-Sales Tax Association.

REV. JOE GIBSON TO PREACH AT COURTHOUSE SUNDAY P.M.

Announcement is made that Rev. Joe Gibson, son of the Late Rev. F. A. Gibson, will preach at the courthouse in Clanton next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Gibson is a precaher in the Methodist-Episcopal church.

The public is cordially invited to hear Rev. Gibson.

CLANTON IS GROWING

The City of Clanton is growing fast, and plans should be made to take care of this growth in the future. One of the main things that should be looked after is the water supply of Clanton. That this supply is not adequate, and that the machinery used in this connection is not adequate for the city, even now, was evidenced a few days ago when one of the pumps broke down.

The wells which supply the city are inadequate, too. Indications now are that the near future will bring about a necessity for more wells, or some kind of extension to existing bodies of water from which to draw, inasmuch as city mains are being extended, besides the natural growth in water demand.

Mayor C. Fenn Jones and the City Council would like for he people of Clanton to be thinking about all this business. It is the duty of the city officials to look ahead and take care of the future requirements, while citizens of the city generally never think of such matters.

Before long the city authorities may find it necessary to spend quite a bit of money on the water supply, as well as other departments of city government, and they would like for people to consider these things now, so that they may educate themselves to the needs of the city, and be able to give intelligent consideration to such projects when the need arises.

In this connection, Mayor Jones had the following to say:

"It is true the supply of water in the city wells is less now than it was a few months ago, due, in part, to the dry weather, and other causes which we do not understand. It is also true that the demand for water has increased.

"The failure of one of the pumps a few days ago revealed more clearly that we have not at this time a surplus of water. Considering the increase in demand for water, and the anticipation of extending our water mains to the new territory presents the question and problem of supplying our growing city with more sufficient water supply squarely up to the city officials and to the people of Clanton.

"The question is: 'Will more and deeper wells furnish the required amount, or must we go to the nearest creek, or to the river, to secure the necessary amount of water to take care of future requirements,?"

"The inconvenience to the people on account of insufficient water a few days ago, due especially at that time to the failure of a pump, has served a good purpose. When the city officials are endeavoring to improve present conditions and adequate water supply, they will have he cooperation of he people."

We believe Mayor Jones and his staff of councilmen are among the best that Clanton has ever had, and we wish to commend them upon their foresight of the city's needs, as well as a sensible and economical managemetn of the city's affairs.

Supreme Court Hits New Deal

High Court Outlaws Great Part of New Deal HOLC Set-Up

Washington.—A section of the home owners loan act of 1933 authorizing federal incorporation of building and loan associations, despite a state's wishes, was invalidated Monday by the Supreme Court.

In a unanimous decision handed down while a crowded courtroom awaited all-important arguments on the AAA, the highest court struck another blow at the New Deal.

In some quarters the ruling was viewed as a possible gudiepost to the extent of federal power over state affairs. It was the first opinion this term on a New Deal law.

CONCERT AT COTTON MILL

On Saturday night of this week, December 14th, there will be a musical concert at the Second Baptist Church building at the Clanton cotton mill. The event is the closing exercises of the singing school which has been taught by Archie Devaughn and Audie Brown.

The program will consist of chorus singing, solos, duets, quartets, etc. The W. M. Devaughn Quartet will be present and render several numbers. You are profised a real treat if you enjoy good singing.

An admission price of 10c and 15c will be charged.

NEW SHOWALTER BOOKS OUT

Prof. W. M. Devaughn has on hand a supply of the brand new Showalter mid-season book. The name of the book is "Gospel Harmony," and Prof. Devaughn is offering them for sale to all who want them. He has left a supply at The Union-Banner office; and anyone wishing one may procure one either from Prof. Devaughn or at The Banner office. They are 25c each.

BACK HOME FROM HOT SPRINGS

Mr. Wm. J. Headley, of Pinedale community, who has been at Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the past three weeks taking the health baths, returned home last Saturday. Mr. Headley stated that aside from being tired from the long trip his general health seemed greatly improved.

THE PAVING ELECTION TUESDAY, DECEMBER 17

[AN EDITORIAL]

On Tuesday, December 17th, the people of Chilton county will be permitted to express their wishes as to whether or not Chilton county should co-operate with the State and federal governments in hard-surfacing the State-owned highway between Clanton and Plantersville. There has been and is quite a bit of discussion on both sides of the question. If Chilton county enters the agreement, "A sum not exceeding $42,000 shall be deducted from Chilton county's portion of the gasoline funds," at the rate of one cent per gallon to pay the county's part in the project.

In the first place The Union-Banner wishes to commend Judge Smith and the Commissioners court for calling for a referendum on the question. It is a matter that ought to be carried out as per the wishes of a majority of the voters of the county. Although provision is made that one-third of the county's gasoline tax be used to pay its part, and that be taken out every month, yet the question is nothing more nor less than "Shall Chilton county appropriate $42,000 out of the county's funds to help surface the State's road running through the county?" That is what it will mean.

The Union-Banner does not propose to be competent of advising the voters of Chilton county how they should vote in this election, but we do urge everybody to think about the matter seriously during the few days that remain between now and next Tuesday, and then go to the various voting places and vote for what you think is the best interest of the county. Let us not leave the matter to the other fellow. You may be sorry after it is too late.

However, there are a few salient facts that should be remembered. The first is that the road is owned by the State of Alabama, and that it is now being maintained by the State and will continue to be maintained by the State, at no cost to Chilton county. Another is, the State of Alabama is already getting three cents of every six cents that is being collected on each gallon of gasoline sold in the State; and too, the federal government is appropriating untold millions to road-building and other projects over the country.

If the State and federal governments feel able to lavish the required funds for the job then there would be little room for objection, but $42,000 coming out of Chilton county looks bigger than $42,000,000 would look coming from some other source. Let us think it over seriously between now and next Tuesday.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION AT COURTHOUSE THIS WEEK

The regular jury fall term of the circuit court of Chilton county is in session at the courthouse in Clanton this week. No cases of importance are on the docket until Thursday, when some cases will come up which will likely create quite a bit of interest.

AUCTION SALE NEXT THURSDAY

On next Thursday, December 19th, the King Auction Company of Gadsden, will conduct two auction sales in Chilton county. At 10 a.m. three city lots on Liberty Street and Wade Avenue in Clanton will be sold. At 1 p.m. two farms, 1½ miles west of Jemison, will be sold. There will be free prizes and music. The sale will be under the direct supervision of Mr. Leslie C. King, auctioneer, of Gadsden.

HOLIDAY LIGHTING PROJECT BEING PLANNED

Plans are being perfected to dress Clanton up in the holiday spirit for Christmas again this year. This has been done for the past two years, but those in charge of the work this year expect to "make Clanton look like a real Christmas tree."

In charge of this work is the Kiwanis Club, with J. Mell Martin in charge of the actual work of dressing the city.

A canvass of the city has been made, with merchants contributing toward the expense of the project.

The main business section of the city will be festooned in red and blue lights, in various plans and layouts. At each end of the city a giant sign in red and green lights will be erected. Last year the words "Merry Christmas" were so displayed.

When the work is finished, Clanton will take on the appearance of full Christmas dress.

Mr. Martin states that anyone wishing to contribute to the fund for this cause may leave their money with him.

VISITED IN ANDALUSIA

A carload of folks from Walnut Creek went down to Andalusia Sunday to visit their former pastor and family, Rev and Mrs. J. M. Hightower. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Reese Baker, Cleveland Driver, Louise and Lucile Johnon and Clement Easterling.

Rev. and Mrs. Hightower, who were at Walnut Creek three years ago, are now located at Oak Grove, about five miles out from Andalusia.

THE DeMABEL BEAUTY SHOPPE CHANGES HANDS

The DeMabel Beauty Shoppe, located above the J. R. Mullins store on 7th Street, and formerly operated by Mrs. Mabel Sims, has been sold to Mrs. George Wyatt and Miss Willie Maude Kelley. The new owners of this well known establishment are skilled and experienced beauticians and are well known in the community. New and modern equipment and many improved features have been added to the service of the De Mabel Shoppe.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Miss Elizabeth Newell spent Sunday in Montgomery.

Mrs. Julius Burnett, Mrs. Frank Callen motored to Montgomery last Thursday and spent the day.

WORK BEGUN ON NEW SCHOOLS

The citizens of Collins Chapel and Isabella communities had cause to rejoice last Monday. On that day actual work was begun on the new school buildings at these places, to replace the old buildings which were destroyed by fire some months ago.

Mr. A. H. Stockmar, P. W. A. Resident Engineer-Inspector, has arrived and started the work going. Supt. Little stated that preliminary work began Monday, and that actual construction work will be under way before the end of the week.

These buildings will be built with funds allowed by the P. W. A. The Collins Chapel building will cost $19,263.00, for building and equipment, including a recessed heating unit.

The Isabella school will cost $34,999.69, building and equipment, including a steam heating system.

Both schools will be wired. An Alabama Power Company line already runs to the site of the Isabella school, and Power Company engineers are making surveys preparatory to construction of a line to the Collins Chapel site.

Supt. Little stated that he expects the buildings to be finished in approximately three months, allowing their use somewhere around March 1st.

MRS. MARGARET MITCHELL DIED

Mrs. Margaret Mitchell, age 74, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Scott, about 4 miles south of Clanton, last Sunday night.

Funeral services were held at Chestnut Creek on Tuesday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Burial was in the cemetery at that place, with Spigener in charge.

Mrs. Mitchell is survived by one brother, W. J. Little, of Clanton, Rte. 2; two sisters—Mrs. Rebecca Castleberry, of Marbury; and Mrs. Arch Jacks, of Arcadia, La.; three sons—Jim Mitchell, Clanton Rte. 2; Jesse Mitchell, Clanton, Rte. 2; Sam Mitchell, Clanton, Rte. 5; one daughter—Mrs. A. D. Scott, Clanton, Rte. 2. Her husband died several years ago.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE REPORT IS IMPORTANT

According to Supt. Luther Little, school atendance is more important than ever in Chilton County. Next year's quota of school teachers will be made up according to this year's student attendance reports.

In other words, the more nearly Chilton County's schools come to having every child in school every day, the better chance the schools will have of getting an adequate number of teachers for next year.

Supt. Little cited one case of last year. The attendance figures for the school for the year was 42, which entitled that school to only one teacher for this term. If that school had reported a figure of 44, which could have been done very easily by a little more regular attenhance on the part of a few students, two teachers could have been allotted there.

Mr. Little therefore stresses the importance of regular attendance of all pupils. This is especially important due to a ruling on the recent school bill. This bill provided for putting the school on a par with other state departments, but due to the ruling, the educational department is in worse shape, financially, than ever before, being classed as a non-essential, when really it is one of the most important, only public health rating above it.

Mr. Jack Hayes and Mr. Horace Vinson were in Montevallo last Saturday.

LOCAL CCC CAMP ORGANIZES BASKET BALL TEAM

The local CCC camp has organized a basket ball team with some twenty ambitious lads reporting for the first practice, according to the educational advisor, Mr. T. H. Walker, who is coaching the team. They will play their first game at the local camp Friday night. They will play a double header with the CCC boys from Weogufka camp. They will play team A and team B, beginning at 7:00 o'clock. The public is invited to see this game which will be free. The prospects for a good team seems to be very encouraging, ,and anyone wishing to play games with them should see or write Mr. T. H. Walker. They wil be glad to schedule games with any independent or high school team.

The local authorities of the camp announce that they are in need of shrubbery for the camp grounds and if anyone has any kind of shrubbery to take up and give away, the camp will be glad to send for it. Just call 132.

The camp was very glad to receive a large oil painted picture from Mrs. Clara Mullins last week, given in the name of the Pilot Club. The camp authorities wish to express thanks for these gifts. It adds much to the appearance of the reading room, which is now second to none in this district.

The dining hall at the camp has just received some new curtains and the same has added much to its appearance. The camp is very grateful to the sewing clubs for making them. This work was supervised by the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Ruth Pardue.

The camp is very glad to welcome the new officers that have come to take the place of Captain Martin and Lt. Strickland. Lt. H. M. Brock has assumed command, with Lt. Pettigrew assisting him as Jr. officer. Lt. Brock comes to us from the CCC camp of Hartselle, Ala. He had the record of having the best camp in his sub-district while serving there. We hope that he will accomplish the same at this camp.

SCHOOLS CLOSE DECEMBER 20

Supt. Luther Little anounces that all schools in Chilton County will close on Friday, December 20, and reopen on Monday, December 30. This gives uniform closing and opening dates for all schools, removing all chances for confusion.

Famed Fliers Visit Clanton

Al Key of Meridian, Miss., Visited Local Airport Thursday, Dec. 5

This city had the distinguished honor Thurday of entertaining three guests distinguished in air circles. Mr. Al Key, of Meridian, Miss., and Captain John Donalson, State Director of Aviation, of Montgomery, were here and looked over the Clanton airport property.

An unexpected and very welcomed guest was Miss Helen McGlosky, of Pennsylvania, who holds the world record for speed among lady pilots of light aircraft.

These interesting personages were served at a luncheon at a local cafe by Dr. V. J. Gragg, the principal item of food being pheasant furnished by Dr. Gragg from his pheasant farm. A number of Clanton people interested in aviation and the city's progress enjoyed the luncheon with the honored guests.

VISITING DAY AT HIGH SCHOOL POSTPONED SOME FUTURE TIME

Prof. L. C. Warr, principal of Chilton County High School, announces that the visiting day at the high school, which was to have been next Friday, has been postponed to some future date, to be announced later.

The Alabama Day program, however, will be held Friday morning at 10:15, just as has been arranged, and all patrons of the schools and others are invited to attend the program.

CCC TRUCKS IN TWO ACCIDENTS

A CCC car left the highway Sunday evening about two miles south of Clanton. No details of the wreck could be obtained other than that only minor bruises were suffered by some of the boys.

Reports were that a number of the CCC boys had been to Montgomery, in charge of a petty officer of the Clanton camp. The officer was driving the car when it left the road. When officers arrived at the scene they found the driver and another of the boys scuffling over possession of the steering wheel.

On Monday afternoon another CCC truck struck and severely injured a horse belonging to H. Monroe Baker, of Clanton Route 2.

Mr. Baker and John Payton were leading the horse home, when they met the truck load of CCC boys about two miles east of Clanton on the Higgins Ferry Road. The boys were returning from the day's work. Mr. Baker stated that he was near the edge of the right side of the road; that the boys were yelling, which scared the horse, causing it to swing around so that a post on the truck body struck the horse, cutting a gash in the horse's hip about nine inches long and five inches deep.

An official here to investigate the wreck Sunday, looked into this matter also.

Plan Drawn To Replace A.A.A.

Senator McNary Drafts Farm Bill Pending Court Action

Washington, Dec. 6.—Senator McNary, of Oregon, republican leader in the senate, announced today that he would introduce on the opening day of Congress, a three-point farm relief bill as a basis for a "natural" transition from the AAA to a long-time program."

Seeks to Control Surpluses

Unlike the AAA which sets crop limits for farmers involved in control programs and gives them cash for taking land out of production, the McNary bill seeks indirectly to control surpluses by the optional application of either the equalization fee, export debenture or domestic allotment plans.

McNary realizes this is nothing new, but he feels "there is a lot of good in the old bill yet."

It is the same roposal he put forward in 1932. The plan, supporters say, aims to segregate the surplus for export, assist in making the tariff effective on crops, control surpluses by penalizing over-production and stimulate co-operative marketing.

Would Assess Fee

Under the equalization fee plan, the government would take charge of surpluses, which would be sold abroad at the best figures obtainable. The idea would be to raise domestic prices of the crops by removing surpluses.

Farmers would be assessed a fee to make up for losses and charges incured in sales abroad.

The government would aim to discourage any over-production by an automatic step-up in the fee.

The export debenture involves a federal appropriation or bounty. Exporters of surpluses would receive treasury certificates amounting to one half of the tariff on the similar importend product. Other debenture rates would be established for commodities on the free list, such as raw cotton.

Under the domestic allotment plan, all holders of farm products would be licensed. It seeks to force domestic prices up by requiring handlers to purchase that portion of a crop necessary for a price not less than the average cost of production for the year. Violators would lose their licenses.

SHOWALTER SINGING SCHOOL AT MONTGOMERY IN JANUARY

Announcement is made of a normal music school at Montgomery, beginning January 6th and closing February 15. The faculty in the school will consist of W. Lee Higgins, W. M. Devaughn and Eugene H. Whitt.

Anyone interested in this school should get in touch with one of these gentlemen as early as possible.

The faculty must be among the best. Higgins and Whitt are names familiar to the sacred music world; and W. M. Devaughn is a teacher of broad experience and splendid reputation. These three will more than likely make things move when they get strung out in this Montgomery school.

Man Killed In Wreck Sunday

Three Injured In Auto Smash Near Verbena Last Sunday

Edward Keith Johnson, 19, who held an important position with the Johnson Tire and Supply Company at Montgomery, was killed instantly Sunday morning when the car in which he and three other persons were riding was crowded off the highway two and one-half miles south of Verbena.

The driver of the car, Jack Frisby, also employed by the tire firm, received severe head injuries and Hubert Hammell, Verbena filling station operator, and a young woman were bruised slightly.

The party was en route to Lake Mitchell, eight miles from Verbena, to join a hunting party when, in attempting to pass another machine on a curve, their car was crowded into a guard rail. It overturned, pinning Johnson beneath the wreckage, and throwing the others clear. The other machine did not stop.

The three injured persons were taken to the Central Alabama Hospital, at Clanton, by a Martin and Sons ambulance. Dr. V. J. Gragg reported that Frisby had received severe injuries to the skull. The girl and Hammell were dismissed after they had received first aid.

Later Frisby was take in an ambulance to Hubbard's hospital in Montgomery.

Johnson was a son of the late Kay Johnson, prominent tire dealer at Montgomery for a number of years. He attended the Barnes school and the University of Alabama. While at the University he was chosen a member of the Phi Delta Theta and Chi Sigma Chi fraternities. More recently he was employed in an official capacity at the Johnson Tire and Supply Company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hance Alred and Mr. C. Fenn Jones spent last Wednesday in Birmingham.

ORIGINAL CREASE IN PAGE

W. M. DEVAUGHN QUARTET HAVING SUCCESSFUL CONCERTS

The Devaughn Quartet, consisting of W. M. Devaughn, his two sons and two daughters — Archie, Floy, Lena Mae and Annie Laurie, has had gratifying success with the appearances they have made in concerts during recent weeks. They first started in their home community, putting on a program at Thomas Junior High School. Their numbers were so well enjoyed there that they went to Rockford and put on one the next night. Since then they have appeared at two or three other places, and were well received at every appearance.

W. M. Devaughn has always said that he could see no reason why Chilton County could not produce a quartet to compare with those which came here from other places; and he has about proved his contention.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

At tapping exercises for Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization, which were held at the regular Wednesday review, eleven cadet officers of the R. O. T. C. brigade at the University of Alabama were tapped. Frank Taylor, Birmingham, captain of K Company, Fifth Regiment, of Scabbard and Blade, located here, was in charge of the review and exercises.

Initiation exercises for the new men were held Sunday morning at a sunrise military ceremony.

Nineteen students, selected after strenuous tryout practice from more than fifty applicants, have been named members of the varsity rifle team at the University of Alabama by Captain D. M. N. Ross, director of the team.

The team's plans for the season include intercollegiate matches fired locally, and trips to Auburn to compete with the A. P. I. team and to New Orleans to meet the Louisiana State University squad.

The annual Military Ball, sponsored by the Officers' Club, which is composed of cadet officers of the local R. O. T. C. unit, will be held in the University of Alabama gymnasium on Friday night, December 13. The event is expected to be one of the most colorful affairs of the year. Miss Mary Gray Hicky, Montgomery, honorary Cadet Colonel of the R. O. T. C. Brigade, will lead the ball with Frank Taylor, Birmingham, Cadet Colonel.

Announcement that the Mid-Term Dances at the University of Alabama are scheduled for January 27, 28, and 29, has been made by Young Boozer, Dothan, president of the Cotillion Club. Joe Sanders and his orchestra have been engaged to play for the affairs, which will mark the high spot of the University of Alabama social season.

The student body of the University of Alabama Law School will present to the school a bronze bust of Dr. Albert J. Farrah, Dean of the University Law School, on the Senior Law Class day to be held early in April. The announcement was made by Sim S. Wilbanks, Alexander City, president of the Senior Class.

The entire funds for the bust are to be given by the students of the Law School. The bust will be made by William Grant, Birmingham.

At the annual Mortar Board Revue, to be held at the University of Alabama on Thursday, December 12, forty-eight women students will compete for beauty honors. At the Revue twenty girls will be selected by popular vote, and from that number ten will be chosen by a well-known judge to appear in the Corolla, the University of Alabama yearbook.

The Blackfriars, student dramatic organization at the University of Alabama will present "The Late Christopher Bean," a three-act comedy by Sidney Howard, on Monday and Tuesday nights, December 10 and 11, in the auditorium of Morgan Hall. The play is under the direction of Prof. T. Earle Johnson, head of the speech department at the University.

Students taking part in the performance are: Morgenthau, Tuscaloosa; Harry Townes, Huntsville; Donald Salmi, New York; Paul H. Oise, University; Lucille Conault, Decatur; Olivia Ozier, Birmingham; Anita Steinberg, Courtland; Guilford Sawyer, Portland, Me.; and Milton Presnitz, Newark, N. Y.

Dr. A. L. Sachar, national director of B'na B'neth Hillel Foundation, Jewish students' organization, who comes to the University of Alabama as a guest of the Alabama chapter of Fillel Foundation, wil deliver addresses at the University Sunday evening and Monday morning. His subject Sunday will be "Israel Weaves a Tapestry" and his address on Monday will be on the subject "Who Are Our Heroes?"

W. W. JONES

Wetumpka, Ala., Dec. 8.—W. W. Jones, 66, died at his home here this morning. He had been in ill health for several years, but death came unexpectedly. The funeral was held at 2:30 Monday from the home, with burial in the Wetumpka cemetery, McMoris-Harden in charge. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Allie Taylor Jones; a son, W. W. Jones, Jr., of Wetumpka; one daughter, Mrs. Phil Enslen, of Wetumpka; a brother, Neb Jones, of Clanton, and two grandsons.

CANE CREEK

Last Sunday was our regular preaching day by our pastor, Bro. Norris. We wish to thank the people of this community for $44.40 to send to the orphans home at Troy.

VERBENA NEWS

The Vermont boy's basket ball team won a victory over Maplesville boys last Friday afternoon. The score was 28 to 4 in favor of Vermont. The Maplesville girls played the Vermont girls and won by a score of 17 to 9. The boys have played seven games and have lost only two. Congratulations to them and to their coach.

Mr. Smith and Miss Heflin were here last Friday night and met with the men and women of this community.

The P.-T. A. met last Thursday night with a large attendance. We had as visitors, Miss Cagle and Miss Manning of Isabella.

All patrons who haven't brought your part of the wood, or paid your part in money, are urged to bring it in promptly.

THE CORN IS GONE
A drop or two of Corn-Fix stops the pain almost instantly — 10 minutes later the corn is GONE—roots and all. Recommended by your druggist for the safe removal of hard and soft corns, callouses, bunions. Money back if it fails.
CORN FIX FIXES CORNS

WHAT TO GIVE!!

for her
LINGERIE —
SWEATERS and SKIRTS —
HOSE — HANDKERCHIEFS —
LINENS — DRESSES —
GOWNS —
BED SPREADS — BATH COATS —
TOWELS —
RAINCOATS —

for him
KID GLOVES — TIES —
SCARFS — SOCKS — KNIVES —
LUMBER JACKS —
HANDKERCHIEFS — SHIRTS —
SWEATERS — HATS —
PAJAMAS —
— And Many Other Items That Are Sure To Please —

Delightful Toys for The Kids
With Each Pair of Shoes Purchased here we Give Free a Well Stuffed Christmas Stocking
Be Sure to Visit Us when Buying Gifts
J. R. Mullins & Sons
The Complete Store For Everybody
On The Highway — Clanton

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12
"WINGS OVER ETHIOPIA"
With an All Star Cast
COMEDY—"Tickets Please"

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13
Ted Lewis - Virginia Bruce in
"HERE COMES THE BAND"
COMEDY—"Tickets Please"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY MATINEE - SATURDAY NIGHT DEC. 14
Ken Maynard in WESTERN FRONTIER
COMEDY—"Treasure Island"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, DECEMBER 16 and 17
JACK BENNY - JUNE KNIGHT in
" BROADWAY MELODY 1936"
COMEDY—"Okay Toots"

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18
Stan Laurel - Oliver Hardy in
"BONNIE SCOTLAND"
COMEDY—"Beginner's Luck"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—Marshall Lee Ware, Dec. 15; Sunshine Chism, Dec. 18; Hazel Nivens, Dec. 14; Wilmer Lockhart (Alabama Mills), Dec. 16; Mrs. J. H. Alred, Dec. 14; Grace Littleton, Rte. 4, Dec. 15; Robert L. Jones, Rte. 5, Dec. 16; Alice Smith, Dec. 14; Bettie Milan, Dec. 18; Buck Roberts, Dec. 19; Margie Scroggins, Dec. 17; Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Dec. 17; Jimmie Parrish, Dec. 15; Mrs. M. L. Jones, Rte. 5; Dec. 15, Edna Ruth Lowe, Dec. 15; MAPLESVILLE—Mrs. Irwin Golson, Dec. 14; VERBENA—Mrs. Flora Thomas, Rte. 2, Dec. 17; THORSBY—Elizabeth Gene Collins, Dec. 15; COOPERS—Kermit Connell, Dec. 15.

SPLIT POLE TOWERS EXCEL ROUND TIMBERS

Montgomery.—In providing observation points for forestral agents and patrolmen landowners in South Alabama have experimented with various types of wooden towers. In some cases round poles were used for the main elements o fconstruction, while in other instances the chief member of the towers were composed of timbers quartered from a single large tree.

It has been found, according to the Alabama Commission of Forestry, that the round poles from which only the bark had been removed were more subject to decay than the split pieces obtained by quartering large trees such as the long leaf pine and cypress. It appears from the investigations made that the round timbers with a complete circumference of sapwood do not season sufficiently rapidly to prevent the entrance of the fungi that cause decay. Timbers split from larger tree stems,however, have a less proportion of sapwood in their circumferences and dry out much more rapidly.

APPLICANTS FOR REGULAR ARMY ARE BEING ACCEPTED

Applicants are now being accepted for enlistment in the Regular Army to fill ten existing vacancies recently allotted to the Recruiting Station located in the Chamber of Commerce Office, Opelika, Alabama.

Any male person between the ages of 18 and 35 (for original enlistment), being citizen of the United States, or an alien who has legally declared his intentions of becoming a citizen, able bodied, free from disease, of good character, temperate habits, and who meets the required mental tests. (Mental test requirements—8th grade schooling or its equivalent) may be accepted for enlistment by applying in person at the Opelika Office. If found physically qualified he will be accepted and furnished government transportation to places of assignment.

VERMONT NEWS

Our regular weekly meeting will be at Vermont Junior High tonight Thursday, December 12, at 6:45. Come out and see what you have been missing, both young and old are taking part and enjoying the program each meeting. Don't forget the date and let's all bear in mind a real worthwhile discussion is given each time for both the men and ladies.

HENRY M. EDMONDS TO PREACH AT JEMISON

Dr. Henry M. Edmonds, pastor of Independent Presbyterian church of Birmingham, will preach at the Presbyterian church at Jemison this coming Friday night, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Edmonds is a prominent speaker and a worthwhile message will be brought. Everyone is cordially invited to be present.—R. B. Johnson.

BOB JONES

COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

If Christians under our systems of government must build their own colleges in order to teach the doctrines of Christianity, the atheists, infidels, and communists should be compelled to build their own institutions, and secure their own student body if they wish to teach their own theories. The writer has a degree of respect for any man who believes what he believes, and stands for his convictions. No man at heart is honest who draws a salary from an institution and while he draws his salary teaches theories of doctrines contrary to what the institution stands for. A Unitarian preacher in a Unitarian pulpit who tells the world that he does not believe in the virgin birth and deity of Jesus Christ is a gentleman of the hightest type in comparison with a Unitarian in a Trinitarian pulpit who, by subtle influences, raises questions in the minds of the people about the virgin birth and deity of our Lord.

Evolution is not truth. Someone has said, "It is a million guesses strung together." Darwin did not say it was so. Darwin said he was guessing. Huxley did not prove it. It never has been proved. It never will be proved. The evolutionary hypothesis is untrue. God made man in His own image. Man fell into sin. In his natural state he is a fallen creature who, left to himself is hopelessly and irretrievably lost. He is a hunger for God, but in himself he is unable to reach up and get hold of the infinite. The infinite must reach down and get hold of him. Sinners are never saved because of an inherent, holy tendency. They are always saved by divine grace. In our flesh there dwells no good thing. When we are saved we have salvation imparted to us. We are still a dual being and we carry until the end of the journey, the treasure of salvation in an earthen vessel.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks through The Union-Banner to the good, kind people who were so kind to me and my family during the time I was confined to my bed, with my leg broken. I truly thank the doctors and nurses at the hospital. May God's richest blessings rest upon each and every one of you is my prayer.—Mrs. Tommie Connell and Family.

Those attending the Hamilton Fish speech in Birmingham last Thursday night were: W. J. Billingsley, M. D. Foshee, Judge L. H. Reynolds, Grady Reynolds, Percy Pitts, J. O. Middleton, J. N. Dennis, W. H. Gillespie and T. E. Wyatt.

MEMORY OF MR. DAVE NICHOLS

On Dec. 6th, the death angel called and took Mr. Nichols's spirit to its resting place, where he will know no heart aches nor the pains of death any more. He is through with his sufferings here on earth.

He leaves to mourn his loss six sons and one daughter: Willie Nichols of Plantersville, Clyde Nichols of Uniontown, Oscar Nichols of Ashville, Jessie Nichols of Greensboro, Glenn Nichols of Meridian, Miss., Mrs. Nettie Jones of Clanton. Weep not dear children, but live for the Lord and meet your father in glory land.

His body was laid to rest by the side of his wife's body in Stanton cemetery on December 7th at 1:00 o'clock with Jud Brislin Bros. in charge.—A Friend.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to most heartily thank everyone who were so kind to us at the time of the death of our husband and father. We feel that no greater expression of sympathy and good will could have been shown than was shown us at that time. We shall ever retain in our hearts and minds a kind feeling toward each of you and ask heaven's blessings upon you.—Mrs. Sam P. Collins, Mrs. Guyula Collins Murrah, Earl Collins.

MARS HILL NEWS

Mrs. Howard Roper and Mrs. Wilma Scott visited in Clanton Saturday Shopping.

Mr. Lun Scott also visited Clanton on business Saturday.

Mrs. Will Scott of this community gave a quilting party which was attended by a large crowd.

Mr. Dock Smith of this community was buried Sunday at 11:30. Mr. Smith had been sick about three years with a leaking hear. He leaves one son, Mr. Luther Smith, of Bessemer, Ala., and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Smith of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Mrs. Emma Poe of Jemison, and Miss Zera Smith of Tuscaloosa, Ala. We extend our deepest regrets and love to this family, who have lost their loved one.

We are very sorry to hear of Mrs. Bamma Martin's serious illness. We hope and pray that she will soon recover.

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

Go Home for CHRISTMAS
L&N
TRAVEL IN SAFETY and COMFORT BY TRAIN
AT LOW COST
See L. & N. Ticket Agent for particulars

BARGAINS — BARGAINS
In Tires, Tubes and Accessories to January 1st. No one undersells us on Quality Merchandise. We have Truck Tires at prices that you can't afford to pass up.
DIEF'S
In New Mullins Building - - - Clanton, Alabama

POOR C

SOCIETY

Mrs. J. Lee Smith Entertains Thursday Contract Club

Members of the Thursday Contract Club were delightfully entertained last week by Mrs. J. Lee Smith, at a spend-the-day. The home was attractively decorated for the occasion. Bridge was enjoyed before and after the luncheon hour. A delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Grady Reynolds held high score and was awarded high score prize.

Enjoying this hospitality were: Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Jas. Wade, Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. J. Hance Alred, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. L. F. Gerald and Mrs. Grady Reynolds.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Godwin spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Godwin at Braggs, Alabama.

Mrs. T. C. McSwain spent last Friday in Montgomery.

Clanton Study Club Meets

Members of the Clanton Study Club met with Mrs. Omar L. Reynolds last Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The president, Mrs. Mason F. Jones, presided over the meeting. Roll call was answered with current events. The subject for the program waas "The Greek Family." Mrs. J. Watts Moore's paper on "The Home" was given by Mrs. J. P. Hayes. "The Family philosophies" was discussed by Mrs. Dan Hogan. Miss Alice Polk gave a reading.

A salad plate with hot coffee was served to the following members: Mrs. P. D. Wilson, Mrs Mollie White, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. Barney Burnett, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. J. E. Gowan, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. Dan Hogan, Mrs. W. E. Huddleston, Mrs. Mason Jones, Miss Alice Polk, Miss Lorena Guy was the tea guest.

Candy Town

A Ton of Candies

Just received over 2,000 pounds of the Finest Christmas Candies. Come in and see the finest lot of Candies you have ever seen — Many varieties — Best prices.

DOLLS

We have a fine selection of very pretty Dolls for the little girls. Nothing is sweeter in my opinion for a gift to the little girls.

TOYS

We have a dandy line of Air Rifles, Firecrackers and other Toys for the boys.

Fruits - Nuts - Raisins Galore

—o—

I especially invite my friends to trade with me.

Evans Variety Store

JULIAN P. EVANS, Mgr.

HILL GROCERY CO

COFFEE

Royal Blend lb 15c
3 Lbs 43c

Fit For A King lb 21c

VEGETABLE SHORTENING
LARD bulk lb 13c 4-lb ctn. 55c

ROYAL RED YELLOW CLING
PEACHES No 2 1-2 Can Sliced
OR AVALON FRESH ITALIAN
PRUNES No 2 1-2 Can
2 FOR 25c

...FLOUR...
Grandma's Wonder 24-lb Bag $1.15 48-lb Bag $2.25
White Tip 24-lb Bag $1.05 --- 48-lb Bag $2.05
CIRCLE "H" 24 Lb Bag .....97c; 48-Lb Bag $1.85

MICHIGAN
Navy Beans 7 lbs 25c

VAN CAMP'S
Pork and Beans 6 16-oz Cans 25c

BORDEN'S ST. CHARLES
MILK 8 small cans or 4 large cans 25c

STOKELY'S
KRAUT 3 No 2 1-2 Cans 25c

QUAKER
Oats or Grits 3 pkgs 25c

ALL FLAVORS
JELLO package 6c

WALDORF TOILET
Tissue 6 rolls 25c

O.K. LAUNDRY SOAP, 3 10½-oz Bars 10c

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

The annual conference of the Southern States Industrial Council will be held in Birmingham Dec. 16.

A cooing baby girl apparently about a week old, was left on the front porch of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Compton, Falkville.

Mrs. Annie H. Townsend has been re-elected president of the Tuscaloosa County Board of Education for a second one-year term.

George Byars of Moulton, has been appointed sheriff of Lawrence County by Governor Graves to succeed the late A. B. Smith, who died in office.

The State Armory Commission has launched a $1,700,000 construction program to include 33 National Guard armories and five rifle ranges over the state.

More than 1200 textile workers in Huntsville and Cordova have been called back to jobs, following settlement of strikes that began nearly six months ago.

Plans have been laid to start the $110,000 Works Progress Administration oyster rehabilitation project in Mobile and Boldwin County waters around January 1.

The regional office of the Rural Settlement Administration, announced that the $361,000 Pea River project near Ozark, Ala., has been started with 185 men at work.

The Fairhope Business Men's Club has adopted the name of the dissolved Chamber of Commerce. Thirty businesses and professions are represented in the new organization.

Rev. W. Fuller, 55, Baptist pastor at Opp, was instantly killed when his automobile struck a cow and overturned near Luverne, while he was en route to Montgomery.

The appeal of Elmer Arant, sentenced to death for the slaying of Mrs. John Norman at Fort Deposit, June 20, will be submitted to the Supreme Court on arguments Dec. 19.

To beautify Birmingham's most scenic entrance, clubwomen and other citizens joined a campaign to plant shrubs and flowers along the four-lane highway over Red Mountain.

Dr. H. Earle Conwell, surgeon at the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co. hospital at Fairfield has been elected president of the Jefferson County Medical Society to succeed Dr. R. G. Lovelady.

Jimmy Walker, retiring captain of the 1935 football team at the University of Alabama, will make the first speech before the state-wide Young People's Conference on the campus January 3-5.

More than 120 carloads of food, surplus commodities canned by Alabama relief clients last year, are being distributed to destitute persons on rolls of the Department of Public Welfare over the state.

Adjt.-Gen. John Coleman won two honors at a squirrel-eating contest for state dignitaries at Georgiana. The supper was given by H. E. Reid at May's Camp. The adjutant-general consumed 11 squirrels.

Alabama's Federal work relief purse was swelled by $1,237,000 recently with release in Washington of a treasury warrant for that amount to carry out 42 Works Progress Administration projects over the state.

The 1935 law placing county school systems on a budget basis threaten to close Montgomery County schools unless local and state education officials can find some way to refund $145,000 worth of debts.

Cook Clement Post, 73, Enterprise, was winner of the bell and gavel, annual trophy offered by Department Adjt. D. Trotter Jones to the post in the state first to go over the top in its yearly membership drive.

Arrested in Lextington, Ky., by Federal officers, a man giving the name of Robert Roy Elam, was being held in Etowah County jail for the burglary of Twelfth Street Postoffice at Gadsden several months ago.

The problem of re-educating children who suffer serious injuries at birth will receive district-wide attention at a clinic to be given at West End Baptist Hospital Dec. 17 by Dr. Earl R. Carlson, of the New York Neurological Institute.

Dr. J. A. Keller, state superintendent of education, stated that $37,500 was available as a commission on school book sales and would be used in furnishing free text, library and supplemental books to the various counties on a basis of total purchases in the county to date.

—o—

Mr. Henry Floyd of Opelika, Ala. spent last Friday night here as the guest of his sister Mrs. J. W. Hayes.

CHRISTMAS SALE

Begins Sat., Dec. 14 Ends Xmas Eve 24

A Sincere Wish to Our Friends and Customers for a Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year

SUGAR Finest Granulated 10 Pounds for 50c

Reg. 5c Size MATCHES 3 Boxes 10c

SOAP Large O. K. 3 Bars 10c

MARSHMALLOWS 1-Pound Package for 15c

DRIED FRUITS
PRUNES lb 5c
PEACHES lb. 12½c
APPLES lb. 12½c

MEN'S BELTS At ..... 25c & 50c

Men's Dress HOSE 15c & 25c pr.

SWEATERS Greatly Reduced
ONE GROUP Your Choice 98c
ONE GROUP Your Choice 69c

PRACTICAL GIFTS FOR MEN
HATS — CAPS — SHAVING STANDS — PAJAMAS — SUSPENDERS — KNIVES.
Our Stocks Are Complete on These Suggested Items — Popular Prices

LADIES' FULL FASHION HOSE pr. 59c
EXTRA SPECIAL — Buy Any Full Fashion Hose in our Stock, including our Regular 79c Quality during this Sale at the special price of 59c. "Season's Leading Shades"

24-LB. BAG BIG TALKER OR GEO WASHINGTON FLOUR 85c
48-Lb. Bag, $1.65
24 lbs. Gold Medal $1.10
24 lb. Orient Flour $1.20

TOYS AND GIFTS

MICKEY MOUSE MECHANICAL TOPS 25c

ALL STEEL, BALL BEARING SKATES PR. $1.00

TEA SETS
10c - 25c - 50c - $1.00

TEA SETS POP GUNS 5c BISQUE DOLLS DOLLS IN BOX —HARPS—CLOWN ON LADDER—
PISTOLS SWORDS 10c TRUMPETS RATTLES
TEA SETS— GARAGES— RUBBER DOLLS — DOG FAMILIES
CORNETS PISTOL SETS 15c AIR PORTS Mec. Tricycles
25c DOLLS 50c
$1.00 THE LARGEST LINE $1.98 OF DOLLS WE'VE EVER SHOWN
POLICE SETS COMPLETE FOR 25c
TOY MACHINE GUNS 50c

CANDY
LOUDENS EXTRA QUALITY CHOCOLATE DROPS 10c LB.
CANDY Fancy Mix Pound 10c
Delicious Chocolate Covered CHERRIES 29c LB.
5-POUND CHRISTMAS BOX ASST. CHOCOLATES 95c

COCONUT Bulk Lb. 17½c
— 2 Pounds for 35c —

RAISINS 3 7-oz. Pkgs. for 10c
RAISINS 2 15-oz. Pkgs. for 15c

FLAVORING 4-oz. Bottle Imitation 10c
—2-oz. Bottle Pure 10c—

FRUITS
APPLES — CRANGES — GRAPES — TANGERINES — COCONUTS —
All At a Price to Please Every Purse. See our Fruits Before You Buy.

XMAS NECKWEAR For ..... 25c & 50c

Ladies' Zipper POCKET BOOKS 50c

Ladies' Rayon Taffeta GOWNS 98c
"A Gift She Will Appreciate — And This Is an Outstanding Value

GIFTS SHE WILL APPRECIATE
RAYON UNDERWEAR — JEWELRY — POWDER and PERFUMES — CLOCKS — DRESSES — BED SPREADS
An Ideal Gift Can Be Selected from this Group at very Reasonable Price

Men's Dress SHIRTS ea 59c — Blue Only
We Are Overstocked on Our Regular 79c Shirt in Blue Only. Extra Special for this Christmas Sale.
— "A Dandy Gift for HIM" —

Yellow Front Store Clanton, Alabama

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Polk, Sr. visited Mr. Polk's mother and sister in South Alabama the past week end.

Mrs. Henry Jones and Mrs. C. Fenn Jones went to Wetumpka Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mr. Jones' brother, Mr. Watt Jones.

The many friends of Rev., A. E. Middlebrooks will be sorry to know that he is confined to his room on account of influenza.

Mrs. James Wade and Mrs. Hugh Jones motored to Montgomery last Friday.

The friends of Mrs. J. Watts Moore will be glad to know that she is better after a recent illness.

Mrs. Trucks, of Birmingham spent several days here last week as the guest of Mrs. W. W. Fox.

L. H. REYNOLDS Real Estate Co.

List with me any Real Estate you desire to sell or purchase. Will rent your property on commission basis. The Clerk in my office will Insure your property.

OFFICE IN MARION GORE BUILDING Opposite Courthouse

TELEPHONE No. 41 Clanton, Ala.

7-1-36-pd

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones and Mr. and Mrs. George McCain motored to Birmingham Saturday evening to see the musical drama "Blossom Time."

Mrs. J. R. Mullins, Mr. Ed Mullins and Miss Willie Maud Kelley spent Tuesday in Birmingham.

The friends of Mrs. Billy Smith will be glad to know that she is now at home with her baby son, Billy Benton.

Mrs. A. S. Prince, Wilbur Prince and Mrs. Irene Raspberry spent Saturday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hogan had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins of Deatsville, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Golson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell of Prattville, and Mr. and Mrs. Linton Hogan of Anniston.

Mrs. Louise Higgins was a visitor in Birmingham Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and Judge and Mrs. L. H. Reynolds motored to Montgomery Sunday to visit Mr. Fate Popwell who has undergone an operation on his eyes.

Mrs. W. H. Foshee returned to her home Tuesday after making a short visit with her granddaughter, Mrs. F. W. Scott, of Huntsville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huddleston and children spent Sunday in Tuskegee with Mr. Huddleston's parents.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Kimmey and children and Mrs. Sudie Martin spent Saturday in Birmingham.

Mrs. Julius Reynolds and children returned to their home in Greenville, after spending several days here with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Julius Burnett, Mre Omar Reynolds, Mrs. James Wade, Mre. J. P. Hayes and Mrs. J. W. Hayes spent Tuesday in Montgomery shopping.

—o—

COW TAKEN UP

One dark Jersey dry cow taken up at my place Sunday, December 8th. Owner may get same by paying for keep and this adv.—Esco F. Culp, Clanton Route 3. 12-2tp

—o—

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, J. W. Davis, Jr., who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Chilton County for the offense of burglary and larceny, and received a sentence of from two to three years, will make application to the Governor and Board of Pardons for a parole.—(Signed)—J. W. Davis, Jr. 12-12-2tp.

Make your family happy by giving me your order for a new Chevrolet, to be delivered on Christmas day.

Luther Foshee

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton, Ala.

ORIGINAL

Christmas Gifts of LASTING VALUE

THIS CHRISTMAS WE SUGGEST THAT YOU GAIN AND RETAIN THE ADMIRATION OF YOUR LOVED ONES WITH GIFTS THAT ARE LASTING AND OF REAL VALUE. AND PRICE IS TO BE CONSIDERED — OURS ARE RIGHT!

An Appreciation Gift to Her Would Be

Goldette Under-Apparel

Luxurious — Economical

Genuine SPUN-LO Fabrics . . . Faultless fit . . . Meticulous Tailoring. These and other well known features of GOLDETTE UNDER-APPAREL we commend to you as making a Gift of Real and Lasting Value. Panties, Vests, Bandeau Sets, Slips, Gowns, Pajamas.

50c to $2.95

Suggestions for Her

Silk Hose . . . All Wool Flannel Bath Robes . . . Under Apparel . . . Gift Slippers . . . Kid and Fabric Gloves . . . Hand Bags . . . Boxed Handkerchiefs . . . Fancy Colored Towels . . . Bridge, Vanity and Luncheon Sets . . . Maderia Napkins . . . Pillow Cases, Hand-Worked in Gift Boxes . . . Bed Spreads . . . Pure Linen Table Napkins.

Suggestions for Him

An Overcoat or a Suit . . . Nice Shirts . . . Ties in Beautiful Gift Boxes . . Bed Room Shoes . . Lounging Robes for Men and Boys

Give Dad a STETSON or ROTHSCHILD Hat for Christmas

Socks . . . Leather Belts with Enitial or Monogram Buckles, put up in Gift Boxes . . . Ties and Handkerchief Sets . . . Men's Kid Gloves . . . Pajamas . . . Pure Linen Handkerchiefs

Its COLLAR "STAYS PUT"

Inter-lined with the famous Van Heusen fabric, the collar of this smart COLLARITE Shirt can't buckle, bind or sag. Just the shirt for ..... wear everywhere. Smart . . . comfortable . . . economical

THE COLLARITE SHIRT

With VAN HEUSEN Inter-lining

Each $1.59

ROCKETT DRY GOODS CO.

J. T. Rockett :-: CLANTON'S BIG DEPARTMENT STORE :-: J. D. Rockett

Cox and Thomas Step On Officers

To the Readers of The Union-Banner:
Dear Friends:

It is with regret that we write this letter, informing the people of Chilton County that apparently the opportunity to secure the paving of the Clanton-Selma Highway has been lost, but we feel that you have a right to know the truth about this situation. This opportunity has been lost through the lack of cooperation on the part of your county officials. Repeatedly, they have chosen to assume an attitude far from friendly to the aims and ideals of the programs sponsored by State and National governments.

Informotion has reached us that Gaston B. Scott, chairman of State Highway Commission, has notified Judge J. Lee Smith that the State Highway Department will withdraw its offer to Chilton county regarding the proposed paving of this road, linking the county seats of Chilton and Dallas, unless accepted by Commissioners at once. Our county officials hove shown they are determined not to cooperate in this matter.

Despite the fact that they agreed and assured us of their willingness and intention to participate in this project, they have constantly attempted to mislead the people regarding this work. Several months ago, while the Legislature was in session, County Attorney, Omar L. Reynolds, called me (Charlie Cox) in Montgomery and informed me that he, Judge Smith, and members of the Commissioners Court wished to come to Montgomery and hold a conference regarding some local legislation which we were seeking to have passed.

It was agreed in this conference that the local bills (one providing for the employment of a county road supervisor and the second providing for the allocation of one and one-half cents of the county gasoline tax to the State for the purpose of paving of this road) would be withdrawn and the Commissioners Court would cooperate in the furtherance of this project. The members of the court agreed to participate to the extent of one-third of the gas tax due the county until such time as the State of Alabama had received one-third the amount of the cost of the paving of this rood through Chilton County. Estimates at that time placed the cost at approximately $42,000, but later the Federal Government proposed to participate to the extent of 42 per cent, thus Chilton County's share was reduced to $39,300.

From this moment on, it has been the sole aim of Judge Smith and members of his court to camoflage this issue. They have repeatedly made the assertion that "Charlie Cox and Earle Thomas have taken all our money" and we can't do this, or we can't do that. The majority of the people in Chilton County must know this money which we sought to have transferred to this road project comes out of the road and bridge fund and can not possibly be used for any other purpose. So, in no way could this program have interferred with or prevented support of other programs other than road work.

Three years ago, when President Roosevelt launched his gigantic relief program, it was for the one purpose of relieving the unemployment situation that had become a catastrophe to this nation. But it was soon seen that it was next to impossible for the Federal Government to direct a program of such proportions. President Roosevelt then asked the States to lend a hand, and our Governor, Bibb Graves, assured him that Alabama would do her part. Governor Graves in turn sought the cooperation of Alabama's 67 counties, but it seems Chilton County's officials had grown accustomed to the idea of outstretched hands and a slogan of "gimme" that they could not visualize such a thing as putting their own shoulders to the wheel.

Under the WPA Alabama was slated to be the recipient of $80,000,000 of Federal funds to be expended on worthy public improvements. Appearing before the Commissionres Court we made the statement that there was no reason why Chilton County should not receive at least $1,000,000 of this amount. But there was a reason—and that reason was, negligence and lack of cooperation on the part of our local officials.

In losing this project, Chilton County will have lost the $108,000 which would have been spent by the State and National governments. Much of this amount would have gone to our local people for labor and truck hire. To illustrate the friendly spirit exhibited by the State Highway Department, we wish to recall to your minds that when the question arose as to which of the two routes through Maplesville would be chosen, highway officials agreed to pave both routes.

What puzzles us is that the roads of Chilton County were built and maintaned until the past two years on a two-cent gasoline tax, and in that time 52 steel bridges were built. All of this was done before the addition of the third cent tax on gasoline two years ago. If roads were built on two cent tax, is there any good reason why they can not be maintained on a similar amount? It seems to us that at least one-third of the money should be spent for the building of permanent roads.

We, neither of us have any personal reason for wanting the Clanton-Selma Highway paved, other than we believe the people of this county have a right to expect their officials to spend some of the tax money wisely.

Another smoke screen that is being employed is the argument that a durable road could not be built for $6,000 per mile. We are assured by highway officials that the road would be the same as the four miles already built, and that it was further guaranteed that should the road prove inefficient, Chilton County would be absolved of all responsibility. With the paving of this road and the completion of the highway from Centerville to Maplesville, much of the traffic enroute to Montgomery and points south would naturally have flowed through Clanton and Chilton County. No business man need be told what this would mean.

The loss has been great to Chilton County and the antagonism shown toward this and other Public Works Programs has not been in keeping with the band wagon support of the New Deal during the last campaign.

The situation is regrettable, but we feel that our people have the right to know the facts.

Very truly,
C. B. COX,
EARLE THOMAS.

PLEASANT GROVE
JEMISON

Little Raymond Woodley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woodley is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Jim Miskelley is real sick.

The Prices attended the funeral of their aunt at Providence Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion were the dinner guests of his sisters, Misses Dulcie and Delia Champion Monday.

Mrs. Lillie Spivey and daughter, Laverne, visited her sister and family Sunday afternoon. They also called on the Misses Champion and Mrs. Martha Wilson for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskin Martin were the week end guests of her home folks, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright and children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Childress and little son, Alvin, spent Sunday afternoon wjth her brothers, Messrs. Phillip and Monroe Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miskelley spent the week end with his father's family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miskelley and children.

Mr. Emmett Miskelley came home Sunday after a week's stay in Birmingham.

Mrs. T. H. Campbell and daughters, Willie and Lovena, visited her sisters Sunday afternoon, the Misses Champion.

Miss Edith Davenport spent a few nights with her aunts, the Misses Champion.

BAKER SCHOOL

The Baker boys and girls played a game of basket ball with Concord boys and girls last Friday afternoon on the Concord ground. The girls played the first game, the score was 13 to 3 in favor of Concord. The score for the boys and 13 to 12 in favor of Baker.

The Liberty Hill quartet will put on a program, wih the help of the school girls, next Friday night, December 13, at 7:00 o'clock. Everybody is invited. Admission will be 10c and 15c.

PATES CHAPEL

Cleckler-Davenport

An event of much interest to their relatives and friends was the wedding of Miss Lucile Cleckler and Mr. Harvey Davenport. They were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maddox, Saturday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. The marriage vows were read by Rev. M. Lockhart. The couple will make their home with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cleckler. This makes the second couple that have joined their hands in marriage in the past week in this community. Maybe times will get better or worse one, around here.

Those attending the bountiful wedding dinner Sunday were the following: Rev. M. Lockhart, Mr. Relius Maddox, Mr. Walter Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Champion and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hayes and the bride's family, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cleckler and family. The afternoon guests were Misses Mildred, Martha, Alice and Ivy Hayes, and Miss Athalee Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Eve Dawson and daughter. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, and many successful and happy years together.

Saturday night and Sunday were our regular preaching dates. Rev. M. Lockhart filled his regular place in the pulpit Sunday morning. We were glad to have Rev. J. W. Jones, of Thorsby, with us Saturday night. He preached a good sermon.

Rev. M. Lockhart took supper with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maddox Saturday night, and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Rib Hayes and family.

Miss Minnie Porter and mother, of Sylacauga, spent the week end in this community

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hayes and children were spend-the-day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Blow and children.

Mrs. Sallie Hayes spent Sunday with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rainwater and son spent the past week end with his father and mother. They were called to the bedside of his sick father. We are glad to report he is better.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Maddox and daughter spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Hayes spent Saturday night with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bolton and family.

Mr. Walter Maddox of Birmingham spent the past week and in this community.

XMAS. Specials

Permanent Waves

$1.95 & $2.95

Including Shampoo and Finger Wave

Regular Price $3.00 and $5.00

Beautiful soft natural waves. Goodman's is out of the high rent district, making it possible for you to get a much higher priced permanent at a price you can afford to pay. Dress up for the holiday season ahead!

PLENTY OF PARKING SPACE

Goodman's Beauty Shop

408 - 2nd Avenue, Clanton, Ala. - - - Phone 182

Notice to the Public:-

I will be out of Town and away from my practice for about a week. After that time I hope to be on the job with renewed energy.

Dr. V. J. GRAGG
Clanton, Alabama

COMPLETE BUSINESS TRAINING

Plan to Save Time in Schools of

Professional Accountancy
Business Administration
Bookkeeping
Clerical Courses
Civil Service Coaching
Stenographic Courses
Secretarial Science
Court Reporting

New Noiseless Typewriters, Calculating Machines, Billing and Bookkeeping Machines. Machines free for students use. Plenty of individual instruction for rapid advancement. Standard low rates.

WINTER TERM BEGINS DECEMBER 30

MASSEY BUSINESS COLLEGE

Montgomery - G. M. LYONS, President - Alabama

POOR C

Christmas Clean-Up Sale

One—1934—Ford Gray DeLuxe Tudor Sedan. Reconditioned motor, new tires, new seat covers, paint is original and perfect. This car carries a 30-day guarantee.

One—1934—Ford Green DeLuxe Tudor Sedan. Motor, paint and upholstering all perfect. Original tires. Has 1936 tag. See this car before buying, as it will give new car performance.

One—1934—Ford Black Tudor Sedan. Reconditioned motor, good tires, original paint and upholstering. Let us demonstrate this one to you.

One—1934—Plymouth DeLuxe Coupe. New tires, good paint and upholstering. Has new car appearance and performance.

One—1934—Master Chevrolet Tudor Sedan. Low mileage, and good buy for the money.

One—1934—Ford Black DeLuxe Tudor Sedan. Motor, paint, leather upholstering all perfect. This is an extra good car.

One—1931—Chevrolet Tudor Sedan. New paint, top and upholstering.

One—1930—Chevrolet Fordor Sedan. Motor, paint, body and tires all in good condition.

One—1931—Ford Victoria Coupe. New motor, top, paint, tires and upholstering.

One—1933—Chevrolet Tudor Sedan. New paint, and reconditioned motor. Good tires and body.

One—1931—Ford Tudor Sedan. Looks and runs like new.

One—1933—Chevrolet Pickup Truck. All ready to go, including 1936 tag.

One—1933—Chevrolet 1½-Ton Truck Chassis. Dual wheels. Heavy duty tires.

One—1929—Ford 1½-Ton Truck. Closed cab and stake body.

One—1929—Ford 1½-Ton Truck. Closed cab.

One—1930—Chevrolet Tudor Sedan.

One—1929—Chevrolet Fordor Sedan.

One—1929—Chevrolet Tudor Sedan.

One—1931—Ford Tudor Sedan.

One—1929—Ford Roadster.

One—1929—Chevrolet Coupe.

One—1929—Ford Sport Coupe.

One—1929—Ford Touring.

The above cars have been reconditioned and priced to move before January 1st. Come in and see them, as this is truly a Used Car Sacrifice Sale.

Clanton Motors, Inc.

SALES Ford SERVICE

Phone 16 Authorized Ford Dealers Clanton, Ala.

A THROUGH OF "IGNENTS DROPS" FROM "DR." SCOTT OF JEMISON

Mister Editor:

Here I come with another supply of my famous "Ignents Drops." The dose I sent out a few weeks ago was all right I guess; I have heard no complaint. So, here I go:

We farmers of this great country of ours who feed and clothe the world, sure do like to be hoodoed and robbed of what we make. We have listened to the white-collared fellows until they have just about got us down to where we can't make a living. Yet we will go along and sign up for them to have our birthright for just a little morsel. As it stands today we have but a few free privileges and at this time no freedom. We have to ask the government bosses, "What are you going to let us plant this year and how many acres to cotton?" They go ahead and tell us and we obey them. When we get ready to go to picking our cotton then we have to find out how much they are going to allow us to sell free of taxes. Some of us they will allow 150 pounls, some 1 bale, and some 8 and 10 bales and on up.

Good people, I have never seen such a mess as they have got us into. Who ever thought we would be taxed for everything we poor farmers raise? They tax our cotton, tax our corn, tax our potatoes, tax our tobacco, tax our hogs, tax our sorghum and syrup. If the sales tax passes it will get everything down to a spool of thread with a double tax. Who ever head of such things before?

Some few people praise the adjustment act and the Bankhead law, but I want to say it is only those who are at the pie counter with white collars on. That Bankhead law is the greatest robbing machine that has ever been hatched out. We do not need such men as him in Washington; neither do we need the brain trust. And I am hoping such men as they are will be left at home next year.

Dear farmers, we should think well next time we have a chance to vote. You can see what we are getting into, and if we send the same men back for another four years we can't expect times to get better, but worse. We well know what Cleveland's and Wilson's second terms brought us. Cleveland put us into the worst panic we have ever had. Wilson put us into the worst war we have ever had, and stripped our country of all its wealth; took the lives of many and the health of more of those who were able to return home. Our good America hasn't ever gotten over the condition we were left in. It will never be any better as long as we send such men as Roosevelt and Bankhead to Washington to make laws for us. We need men in office who feel like they are our servants and not our bosses and dictators.

Well, I have an old book here that reads like this: "When the wicked rule, the people mourn." I don't know just how wicked Roosevelt is, but we do know that he has led astray most of our old law makers at Washington. They have failed, as I see it, to live up to the oath of office they have taken, and have forgotten the people back home. We have all fallen short of the blessings we expected from the New Deal. I am told that wilful waste makes woeful wants, and I partly believe it. I am going on 72 years of age, and I haven't in all of my life seen so much waste as is being carried on now by this administration.

All of you good people know this is the truth, and why should we try to deny it. We are in a great mess, end everybody seems as if they were lost as to knowing what to do. The farmers and all industries—the railroads, the mine owners and all industries—they can't know just what kind of a mess the law makers will bring in when they meet again at Washington. They are just as wavery as the wind that blows, and who can tell which way it will be blowing next January? Nothing they do these days favors the old timey ways; but they are robbing the poor little farmers and putting it into pockets of the rich. But that old book I mentioned above says something like this. "Go to now ye rich men, weep and mourn for your misery has come upon you, for you have held back from them who have mowed down your fields."

So I wonder who it is who is "trying to enter in at the strait gate." It must be the poor farmer and little merchant and all laboring men. They are sure having to strive hard these days to keep soul and body together. And those in "The broad road that leads to destruction" must be those who have forgotten that we have a Constitution and are leading that New Deal. As I see it, we sure are being led to destruction, and if the Supreme Court does not stop some of it we, the poor farmers, will soon be gone, paying taxes on everything we raise, and our country dictators telling us just what we must do and what we can't do. I never in my life have seen so many bosses riding around.

So I will stop here and ask God to help the people to vote right next year, I will close, the same old doctor,—J. N. Scott.

CHESTNUT GROVE

We are having some rainy weather at the present time.

We are sorry to state that brother Horace Nabors did not fill his apointment Sunday afternoon on account of bad weather.

Miss Rossie Lee Martin was the dinner guest of Mrs. G. G. Nabors Sunday.

Mr. J. B. Denson has returned from Georgia and has reported a good time.

Miss Wilma Lucas spent the night with Margaret Nabors Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeks are the proud arents of a baby girl born Friday night, December 6, 1935. The wife and baby are doing fine.

There is going to be an entertainment at Chestnut Grove Friday night, December 13, 1935. Everybody is invited to attend.

We are sorry to say that Buster Lucas is not doing so well now but hope he will get better.

We are hoping that the school will run the whole term this year. Everybody needs all the education they can get.

Brother Canant of Wilton will preach Sunday evening at 2 p.m.

HIGHLAND SINGING SOCIETY

Next Sunday evening is our regular singing evening. We invite all singers and lovers of music to come and be with us. We hope to have the best singing we have had in a long time. Everybody come and do your best.

I FEEL FINE

Mothers read this:

A CONSTIPATED child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are fully a million families that will have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any drugstore.

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

NEW 1936 CORN-HOG PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Auburn, Ala.—The 1936-'37 corn-hog adjustment contract has been approved and contract aplications will be offered to Alabama farmers in January, Dr. L. N. Duncan, state extension director, has been notified by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

The two-year contract, effective as of December 1, 1935, requires that the signer produce for market in 1936 at least 50 per cent of his market hog base and not more than 100 per cent of his base if he is to receive the maximum hog adjustment payment. The cooperative producer also must plant to corn at least 25 per cent of his corn base next year but not more than a percentage which is within the permitted optional range of 70 to 90 per cent of his corn base.

For complying with the hog adjustment provisions of the 1836-'37 contract, the participating producer will receive his entire hog payment as soon as possible after compliance has been checked after the close of each year. The 1936 rate will be at $1.25 per head for each hog in the base, less the pro rata share of the local administrative expenses. Deduction will be made at the rate of $2.50 per head if the producer fails to raise 50 per cent of his base hog numbers and $5.00 per head if he raises more than his assigned base number.

Corn adjustment payments in 1936 will be made in two installments, about August 1 and December 31, at the rate of 35 cents a bushel multiplied by the appraised yield and the number of adjusted acres. Deductions will be made for local administrative expenses as heretofore.

Wade H. Harris of Plantersville is in Clanton this week attending Circuit Court.

EVERGREENS NEED WATER BEFORE FREEZING WEATHER

Auburn, Ala.,—All evergreens will will stand the cold weather of the winter months much better if they are given a good watering before the ground freezes, advises Homer S. Fisher, extension landscape specialist, of Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Mulching the plants either with well-rotted manure, decaying leaves, or peat moss is an added precaution. The mulch helps to keep the water in the soil longer and keeps it from freezing as soon as the surrounding soil freezes.

Mr. Fisher says that proper care of ornamental evergreens pays, since they are the most expensive type of plant materials, and the most conspicious and useful, particularly in winter.

BREED SOWS NOW FOR SPRING PIGS

Auburn, Ala.—Sows should be bred to purebred boars in December for March litters, says F. W. Burns, extension livestock specialist. Plan to have each sow that farrows next spring to produce a ton of pork in six months, he advises. This cannot be done unless you have larger litters of well- bred hogs.

SIAMESE TWIN EGGS

Mr. P. O. Jones of Clanton, Route 1, brought in to The Union-Banner office a freak in the way of eggs. It was a Siamese Twin soft-shell egg, or at least that was the most appropriate name we could figure for it. The two eggs, almost normal size, were joined together with a small tube.

MARINES TO ENLIST TWENTY MEN AT MACON, GA., OFFICE

Macon, Ga., Dec 20.—Twenty applicants will be enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps in December at the District Recruiting Office, Macon municipal auditorium, it was announced today by the officer in charge. The applicants will be selected from among those between 18 and 25 years of age applying from the states of Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky.

Each applicant will be required to present evidence of high school training, consent of parents or guardian if under the age of 21 years, and letters of character recommendation from prominent citizens of their respective communities.

The applicants whose completed applications are not received in time to effect their enlistment in December, will be placed on the waiting list for enlistment in January, when a larger quota of enlistments is expected.

Full information and application forms will be furnished to interested persons by the Macon headquarters.

LARGER CONSUMPTION OF COTTON EXPECTED

Larger world consumption of American cotton in the 1935-'36 season than last season is now indicated, according to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Lower prices of American cotton this year in relation to foreign growths, improvement in business activity, together with prospects for further improvement, and replenishing of depleted stocks of American cotton abroad, are some of the factors that point toward larger consumption.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1936 COTTON PLAN GIVEN

Auburn, Ala.—Adjustment ranging from 30 to 45 per cent will be permitted in the 1936 AAA cotton program and producers will be paid 5 cents per pound on the average production of the acres taken out of production under the neww AAA cotton contracts, according' to information received by L. N. Duncan, director of the State Extension Service.

Contracts, which will be offered to farmers early in 1936, cover the four-year period of 1936 through 1939, but allow a producer to terminate the contract at the end of any year.

The division of the 1936 payments will be made as follows: 37½ per cent to the party furnishing the land; 12½ per cent to the party or parties furnishing the work stock and equipment, and 50 per cent divided between the interested parties in proportion that such parties share in the cotton or proceeds from such cotton.

Each cotton producer will be expected to plant cotton on at least 50 per cent of this permitted cotton acreage.

Contract signers will not be allowed to increase their acreage for sale o peanuts, tobacco or rice grown on the farm above their acreage to such crops in 1934 or 1935, whichever is the larger.

Acres taken out of cotton production may be used for about the same purposes as were permitted in 1934 and 1935. However, the food, feed, and soil building crops put on the adjusted acres are to be additional to the acreage normally devoted to such crops on the farm.

Land owners and operators will not be permitted to reduce the number of tenants or croppers on their farms or to replace them with wage laborers.

SINGING AT ROBINSON SPRINGS

There will be a singing at Robinson Springs the fourth Sunday evening. We invite each and every one to come and be with us.

The third Sunday is our preaching day. We invitte you to come. Also come to Sunday school and prayer meeting Sunday night.—Secretary.

Sewing Machine Sale

FOR THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS

For the next thirty days, beginning Saturday, November 30th, 1935, I will sell all Sewing Machines in Stock, including Singers, New Homes and Whites, at a considerable discount FOR CASH.

C. Reese Mullins

AGENT - - - - - - - CLANTON, ALA.

CHRISTMAS FRUITS

You are invited to come to Red-Eyed John's Place for your Christmas Fruits, Nuts, Candies, Etc. You will be greeted with a smile and courteous service.

THE LITTLE FRUIT STORE

J. H. GORE - - - - - BY THE RAILROAD

CLANTON, ALABAMA

Big Four Specials

9 x 12 GOLD SEAL RUGS	$7.50
9 x 12 Gold Seal Rugs (Crescent)	$5.75
Balloon Tire, Double Frame MOTORBIKE BICYCLES, Close Out	$27.50
Double Frame, Single Tire MOTORBIKE BICYCLES, Close Out	$25.75
Latest Styles VELOCIPEDES, each	$3.50 to $8.50
COASTER WAGONS	98c - $1.50 - $2.25 - $2.95 - $3.50
First Quality Double-Bit HANDLED AXES, each	$1.75
Single-Bit Handled AXES	98c to $1.25
Genuine Cow Hide GLADSTONE BAGS, 24-inch Size	$6.95
A Special Lot of BED SPRINGS	$1.50 to $2.95
Winchester and Peters SHOTGUN SHELLS, all Gauges, per box	60c
CEDAR PAILS, each	98c
The Best CHURN JARS, per gal.	15c
COOK STOVES	$6.95 and Up
Large Mirror DRESSERS	$5.00 and Up

Big Four Hardware Company

Clanton, Alabama

ORIGINAL

Christmas

Appearance

Xmas Specials

$7.50 REALISTIC WAVE	$5.00
$5.00 EUGENE WAVE	$3.50
$3.50 WAVES, Only	$2.50
MANICURES	50c
FACIALS	75c to $1.00
Eyebrow Arch and Dye	50c

All Work in This Shop Is Fully Guaranteed

OPERATORS:
Miss Willie Easterling—
Miss Eizebie Lee

The MODERN BEAUTY SHOPPE

Phone 168 — Over A & P Store

ENROLL NOW
In the Modern School of Beauty Culture

All Work Supervised by Experts Under the Most Sanitary and Advanced Methods. Charges Made for Material Only

Permanent Waves
$1 - $1.50 - $2

Shampoo and Finger Wave, 15c-25c

The MODERN
BEAUTY SHOPPE

Phone 168 — Over A & P Store

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

F.E.&C.U. Of A. Official Gives Views On A.A.A.

Events of the past few months must strike the mind of every intelligent farmer with terrifying force. What is going to happen in America this winter? You hear that question on all sides, from farmers, from business men, laborers and from the helpless victims of unemployment and distress.

Already the farmers see vast armies of discontent, staging food riots, food strikes and food boycotts in the large cities. Are these movements directed at the farmers? No. Do they hit and hurt the farmers? Yes.

One plain and undeniable fact stands out as the primary cause of this vast movement of discontent, with its consequent threat of disaster. That is the terrible fact that bread and meat have been destroyed in the presence of hungry American citizens to create an artificial scarcity. That bread and meat have been heavily taxed to pay the salaries of hundreds of thousands of government job-holders under Henry A. Wallace. Ask any man you meet on the streets, "Why are pork chops so high in price?" The immediate answer is: "Wallace destroyed half of America's pork supply and socked a big tax on what was left." The universal conclusion of the city dweller is that the prevailing price of pork represents only an artificial freak to which it was driven by unheard of political and economic schemes. Therefore, the public mind is readily attracted to schemes for boycotts, strikes and other forms of violent resistance to the level of meat prices.

Now what applies to meat, applies also to bread and other farm commodities which supply the income of our farmers. When Henry A. Wallace first proposed his insane schemes of food destruction and processing taxes, the farmers educational and cooperative Union of America begged and pleaded against such terrible course of action. Whatever the temporary benefit might be, the Farmers Union said the inevitable reaction would be ten thousand times more disastrus and harmful.

John A. Simpson, president, and Edward E. Kennedy, national secretary of the Farmers Union, together with leaders and numbers from all sections of the country, fought with might and main to stop the vast armies of bureaucrats from bringing this cursed blight upon the nation and upon the heads of our farm people. But the pay-rollers would not be denied. Thousands upon thousands of pig-killers, food destroyers and field measures went on the payroll. Wallace was hailed the world around as the champion of food destruction. America rushed down the road as a nation destroying food while its people went hungry. Three years later we began to count the cost. Vast and uncontrolled armies of bureaucrats stalk the land, riding upon the back of every farmer in this nation. More than one billion dollars deducted from the farmers proceeds through processing taxes. Millions of consumers organized to boycott and strike against farm prices and more millions swelling the ranks of discontent day by day.

The top-heavy machinery of bureaucracy stalled in the mires of its own making. Unable to go ahead, afraid and unwilling to go backward. Flood of foreign foods displacing the products of American farm in every market of this nation. Exports dribble down to the zero or vanishing point and barriers created against their renewal for many years to come. Worst of all we find that the corruption which began at the top of the farm admisintration was carried down through the entire structure of the bureaucracy.

Leaders were bribed with soft government jobs. Those who could not be bought or bribed were viciously attacked and their organizations felt the full force of vast subterranean powers of the Federal Government. Thousands of farmer cooperatives were compelled to fall in line behind the rotten program of the AAA and those who would not do so were driven to the utmost limits by savage attacks of the well-paid bureaucrats.

All these things actually happened. Henry Wallace took the insane and ridiculous course of destroying food in preference to the farmers union program of cost of production. There is not one sane American citizen anywhere in the nation who would have been opposed to farmers receiving loss of production for their products. In the depths of price depression, caused by man-made, artificial manipulations the Federal Government had the power to enact and to enforce a cost of production level of prices, which would have been ten thousand times more effective than food destruction and which would win the immediate and whole-hearted support of every fair minded citizen in the nation. No great mass bureaucracy need have been created. No processing taxes whatever, imposed. No food destruction in the presence of starvation. America would have solved her farm problems within a few short months, serving and benefitting every farmer and every worker in this great nation through such a constructive measures enacted to meet a grave emergency.

The Farmsrs Union pleaded in vain. Organized bureaucracy and organized debauchery won the day. Political spoilsters won another victory at the expense of American agriculture and to the everlasting shame and peril of this great nation. Now the farmers union has made and will continue to make a positive and militant fight for major and basic agricultural policies. These policies are based on the principle of cost of production for the farmers. No amount of weasel words will confuse this fundamental issue, whether it comes from the cunning friend or the slick tongue of the international bankers crowd from the stable mind or the warped intellect of Washington bureaucrats, or whether it comes from the sub-servant hireling whose chief claim to a payroll are their willingness to play the role of Judas to a cause of agriculture for a consideration.

During the last two administrations this army of hirelings has become very numerous.

The Farmers Union, through the many turbulent years has never lost sight of its principles and it has never weakened in its determination to convert its principles into policies.

The farmer's right to receive cost of production for his products is as eternal as the rights of the people laid down in the Declaration of Independence. There will be no permanent solution for the problems that are the result of the policies that have produced misery and poverty, privation and want until the Congress of the United States adopts the principles of cost of production for agriculture as the foundation for its policy toward agriculture. The Frazier-Lemke refinancing bill is an agency that will assist in the attainment of cost of production for the American farmers. The new farm moratorium act is to hold us in the position we now occupy. The payment of the soldiers adjusted compensation certificates is to assist and make possible attaining that objective of cost of production.

It is of the same purpose that we favor the remonetization of silver. The bank of the United States through which Congress will exercise its constitutional power to coin money and regulate the value therof is the instrumentality through which we may make permanent the cost of production policy for the farmers of America. Our program of taxation on incomes in the higher brackets a higher tax and limitation on inheritances and gifts is to put purchasing power and income in circulation among the people and to keep it in circulation. If purchasing power and income are put into circulation and kept in circulation the products of the farm and products of labor will be distributed among the consumers. The farmers union is a militant champion of these principles. We have opposed with equal militancy opposition as contrary policies. We are neither extremists or middle of the roaders. The farmers union has lived through several panics. It has lived through the period of so-called war prosperity. It has lived through the periods where both major political parties were at the peak of their strength and influence. It is now living in a day when major political parties command less of the public esteem or confidence of any time in their history.. The farmers union is non-partisan, so it is not by way of comparison, but it is accurate to say that the farmers union holds a position of respect and influence that is enjoyed by no other so-called farm organization. This is true and has been true for years, because the farmers union has a program and this program is as sound as it is just. The farmers union will keep up this militant fight for justice. The farmers union is like the human heart, it must keep on beating. It must beat to keep these principles alive. The life-giving blood is the union membership that believes in its principles. The stronger the membership the stronger the heartbeat. Yours for the farmers and laborers.—B. S. Frederick, Sec.-Tress., F. E. and C. U. of A., Jemison, Alabama.

Mr. (Slack) Arthur Littlejohn left last week for Miami, Fla., where he has accepted a position in a hotel there.

ATTENTION!

We will be in Jemison at Langston Drug Co., Thursday, Dec. 19, and at Maplesville Drug Co., Maplesville, Ala., on Friday, December 20, 1935.

DR. T. T. TAYLOR
Optometrist

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

SANTA AND USED CARS

Santa likes our USED CARS because he can buy a car and still have money to bank. Give a sensible gift. Give one of our good-looking USED CARS. Terms.

1933—Chevrolet Coach	$325	1931—Chevrolet Coach. New paint, motor overhauled	$275
1930—Ford Sedan	$195	1931—Chevrolet Coach	$265
1933—Chevrolet Coupe	$325	1933—Chevrolet 4-Door Sedan Run 21,000 miles	$435
1933—Chevrolet Coupe	$295	1934—Chevrolet Coach	$445
1932—Chevrolet Coach	$295

Don't leglect to have your motor looked over regularly and avoid trouble. Our work is speedy, reliable and low priced.

HAYES
Chevrolet Co.
Dick Hayes Jack Hayes
Clanton, Ala.

WATTS HAT SHOPPE'S
REMOVAL SALE
Beginning Saturday, Dec. 14
A Climax Of Sensational Values

To The Ladies of Clanton and Chilton County:

At an early date I will move into the building formerly occupied by The Fair Store, and I shall dispose of my present stock of goods to eliminate the cost and trouble of moving.

It gives me great pleasure to offer my customers these sensational values in this REMOVAL SALE. You are familiar with the Better Class Merchandise handled by Watts Hat Shoppe.

This Removal Sale may well be considered the climax of my business career. In it you have the opportunity of buying garments, second in quality to none on the market, at prices you are accustomed to pay for garments on bargain counters.

The goods offered in this sale are New, Seasonable, Up-To-The-Minute Styles. I have offered you splendid values in the past, as my customers will testify, and this Removal Sale will convince you that I appreciate the business you have given me.

Watts Hat Shoppe
CLANTON, ALABAMA

"I like the NEW CHEVROLET the best of all"

MASTER DE LUXE SPORT SEDAN

The only complete low-priced car

NEW PERFECTED HYDRAULIC BRAKES
the safest and smoothest ever developed

SOLID STEEL one-piece TURRET TOP
a crown of beauty, a fortress of safety

IMPROVED GLIDING KNEE-ACTION RIDE*
the smoothest, safest ride of all

SHOCKPROOF STEERING*
making driving easier and safer than ever before

CHEVROLET "I KNEW, the moment I laid eyes on it, that this beautiful new 1936 Chevrolet was the car I wanted to own.

"It's so good-looking, so comfortable, so safe and so thrilling to drive—without being the least bit expensive—that I can readily understand why so many people prefer it to all others.

"It's just what Chevrolet says it is—the only complete low-priced car—giving all good things at lowest cost.

"I'm certainly glad I bought one. It suits me perfectly. I think you will like it better, too."

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY
DETROIT, MICHIGAN

6% New Greatly Reduced G. M. A. C. TIME PAYMENT PLAN
The lowest financing cost in G.M.A.C. history. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices.

NO DRAFT VENTS—In New Bodies By Fisher
the most beautiful bodies ever created for a low-priced car

HIGH-COMPRESSION VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
giving even better performance with even less gas and oil

ALL THESE FEATURES AT CHEVROLET'S LOW PRICES

$495

AND UP. *List price of New Standard Coupe at Flint, Michigan. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $20 additional. Knee-Action on Master Models only, $20 additional. Prices quoted in this advertisement are list at Flint, Michigan, and subject to change without notice. A General Motors Value.

Jack Hayes
Dick Hayes
Hayes Chevrolet Co. Inc., Clanton, Ala.

POOR O

Christmas means something for the Home

THE NEW 1936 PHILCO

World's Fastest Selling Radio

Buy yours now while our stock is complete. Also have the 1936 Zenith and General Electric Radios. We have what what you want at prices you want to pay

SOLD ON EASY PAYMENTS

BOYS WAGONS

Four sizes to select from. All steel with Rubber Tires

95c - $1.50 - $2.95 - $3.50

New KITCHEN CABINETS — 25 x 40 Inch Porcelain Tops - Color Green or Ivory $17.50

New STEEL BEDS - Walnut Finish - 2-inch continuous Post New Fold Spring New 40-lb Cotton Mattress. Only $11.60

32-In. LOCKER or Steamer TRUNKS. Special at $3.95

4 x 4 Feet Congoleum Felt Base RUGS. Bordered Patterns. Just the thing for Your Stove or Cabinet. Only 95c

HAND BAGS and SUIT CASES, for ..... 95c and up

We carry the Nationally known Lane Chest. One of these will make an exceptional Christmas Gift.

Child's large size WICKER ROCKERS. Cushion Seats. Tan and Green and Ivory finish $2.95

See our Coleman Kerosene Mantel Lamp. Produces 300 candle power, no wicks to light .. $6.75

CEDAR CHEST Walnut finish ..... $14.50 and up

6 x 9 Matting Art Squares Special Xmas. price $1.50

1—3-Piece Good Wicker Suite - Slightly Used .. $15.75

2- and 3-in. Post STEEL BEDS. A real Bargain at $5. These are used Beds but exceptional good values, going at $3.50

CASH AND CARRY PRICES

Rogers Silver Plate Tableware

26-Piece Set. The name Rogers on your Silver is a guarantee of quality. Every piece carries a life time guarantee. Tested and proven by "Good Housekeeping." $22.50 value, only $15.00

TIFFIN FURNITURE COMPANY

Fox Building 6th St., South of Courthouse Clanton, Ala.

Circle No. 2 of the W. M. S. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. R. Piper.

Regular monthly business meeting of the W. M. S. will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 17, at the home of Mrs. Donald Merchant. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

Wednesday, December 18, the W. M. S. Will spend the day at the home of Mrs. G. F. Harper to observe the day of prayer. The Lottie Moon program will be given.

Choir practice will be held Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational church under the direction of Miss Katheryn Foss.

An important business meeting of the Congregational church will be held at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening.

Union prayer meeting will be held at the Baptist church at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The awarding of Scout badges will take place Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the Congregational church. All members of Scout committee are requested to be present. A court of honor will determine how many boys are worthy to receive first class badges. This is a public meeting. The friends of the Scouts are invited.

Services at the Congregational church as usual. Sunday school at 9:45. Worship service begins at 11:00 o'clock. The matter of every member canvass will be discussed. Three members of the church will discuss different items of the budget.

Christian Endeavor Society at 6:30 o'clock. Regular monthly song service will follow.

—♣—

Mrs. Matilda Green died Monday evening, December 2. The funeral was held at the Lutheran church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Lawrence Stanley officiating with Mrs. C. R. Foss in charge of music. Mrs. Green was born in Sweden in 1865, lived in Thorsby twenty-eight years and as a member of the Lutheran church for twenty-eight years. She had no living relatives in the United States.

Mr. Aaron Vines of Knoxville, Tennessee, returned to his home Sunday after a two week's visit with his father, Mr. J. L. Vines, and other relatives.

Mrs. Luther Vines of Montgomery returned to her home Friday after several day's visit with Miss Clara Vines.

Mr. J. A. Hayes spent the week end in Montgomery.

Miss Elizabeth Austin spent the week end in Birmingham.

Miss Virginia Bice of Florida met with an accident Friday when she fell and injured her knee cap. She is now at the South Highland Infirmary.

Miss Jenney Robinson spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard left Monday morning for Birmingham where she will visit with Mrs. S. T. Street and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Turner and family.

—♣—

Christian Endeavor News

The Christian Endeavor Society had a social in the dining hall of the Institute last Saturday evening. Active and quiet games were enjoyed and the entertainment closed by singing a group of songs.

The Christion Endeavor Society met at the usual time last Sunday evening. An interesting program was given. Callie Nations was the leader. The program was on the Commemoration of the Four Hundreth Anniversary of the translation of the English Bible. At the close of the program Rev. Stanley gave an interesting talk.

Buy Your Xmas. Decorations

--- AT ---

Wyatt Drug Co.

Thorsby, Ala.
Located in The Center of Town

Give her a box of Norris Candies -- The Best

"We Appreciate Your Patronage"

Christmas Gifts

— AT —

Wright's Drug Store

Thorsby, Ala.

FRUITS — STATIONERY — TOILET ARTICLES
BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF CANDIES

Schrafft's and Belle Camp's
Careful Attention Given to Prescriptions

FIREWORKS

PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. South of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Hobson Corr of Caledonia, Mississippi, spent the week end with Mrs. George Freeman.

Mr. J. L. Mixson's mother, Mrs. C. M. Jones, who has been spending a few weeks at their home, left Saturday for her own home.

Xmas Bargains

— AT —

THE NEW HARDWARE STORE

TOYS - - 5c to 95c
WAGONS ..... 89c to $4.45
DOLLS --- LARGE 49c
SKATES ..... 99c to $1.65
AIR RIFLES ..... 95c to $3.95
CEDAR BUCKETS, Each 49c
SHELLS, Box 59c
Decorated PLATES, Each 10c
10-Quart Galvanized BUCKET 15c
No. 2 LAMP CHIMNEY 5c

TRADE WHERE PRICES ARE LOW

Murray-Bell Hardware Co.

THE NEW HARDWARE STORE

Clanton - - - - - - - - - Alabama

SAY . .

"Merry Christmas"

WITH

Flowers and Shrubs

CUT FLOWERS - BLOOMING PLANTS - EVERGREENS

Prices Right at

HOWARD BROS.

Wayside Gardens - - - - - Thorsby, Ala.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

The Ladies Guild Bazaar, which was held at the city hall last Saturday, was quite a success. About sixty dollars was taken. This is to help pay for enlargement of campus cottage. The ladies will still have to raise thirty dollars more to pay for this improvement. If members of the guild who did not contribute articles for the sale would like to contribute something on this amount, or any other friend of the Institute would like to contribute, our treasurer, Mrs. E. W. Butler, or our president, Mrs. Anna Phalin, would very gladly receive it. There are still a few articles left from the sale which can be seen at the home of Mrs. S. E. Norton.

The following letter was written by Conway Thornburgh, one of our Thorsby boys, attending Southern Union College at Wadley, Alabama. The Jack mentioned in the letter is also one of our Thorsby boys.

—♣—

BURNING OF GIRLS DORMITORY OF SOUTHERN UNION COLLEGE

Wadley, Ala., Dec. 6.—On Tuesday morning, November 26, at 5 a.m., occupants of the girls dormitory had been aroused by dense smoke filling rooms and corridors. Fifteen minutes after the alarm sounded, it was impossible to enter the northeast wing. And two hours later, the building was a skeleton—eyeless window sockets and bare brick bones. The only signs of life fere wisps of blue smoke—the glutted fire god sticking out his tongues at 'em. The death notice of this building will read "Cause Unknown." It is one of those unsatisfactory, unsolved mystery stories.

—♣—

"Be Prepared"

Tuesday morning about 5:30 Duerr awakened me and said that the girls dormitory was on fire. Grabbing my overcoat, I hurried out. It seemed to us that nothing was burning but a small shed and several thought that the fire could be put out. Then we found that all the girls and teachers had come out, with the exception of Miss Van Cleave and Mrs. Thornburgh, my mother. By this time smoke was pouring out all the windows and doors, but we couldn't see much fire. Helen Albert came out with Miss Van Cleave, who had lost her glasses and couldn't find her way. We later found that Helen had left her clothes at the head of the stairs in order to help Miss Van Cleave. One of the men tried to go into the hall and reached the stairs, but was turned back by the smoke, then Mr. Ensminger went in on all fours in an attempt to get upstairs to get my mother. He got half way up the stairs and had to turn back, calling to me that we couldn't make it without some wet cloths on our noses. We rushed down for some water, still not realizing how fast the place was burning. Someone went for a ladder, and we were going to get Mrs. Thornburgh from the third floor balcony. Then First Class Scout, Jack Higgins, a freshman, came out the front door with my mother. No one had seen him go into the building, and when he came out he had the same unperturbed air he always has. It seems mother had gotten as far as the top of the stairs by feeling her way along the wall and then, because the smoke was so dense and she had lost her glasses, she was afraid to come down. Jack ran up to the landing and opened the window so he could get some air, then led her down to the window and carried her out. Had it not been for Jacks quick thinking in opening the window he might not have been able to get her out because the smoke was coming up the stairs well and pushing all the air out. Jack lived up to his Scout motto of "Be Prepared" under all circumstances, and he deserves the greatest recognition we can give him.

Miss Billy Jean Young of Columbiana spent Saturday with the Reinhardts.

Mrs. Bill Blood left Friday for Miami, Florida, Where Mr. and Mrs. Blood expect to live.

Miss Polly Collins spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mrs. Akins Collins and Mrs. Leonard Hayes spent Friday in Birmingham.

Miss Linnie Belle Reinhardt spent the week end in Montevallo.

Mrs. Harry Waters and children spent Saturday with Mrs. E. R. Piper.

Mr. Dewey Collins, who is working in Prattville, spent the week end at home.

Miss Marian Fairbank has received a card from Earle Pate, who recently joined the navy at Norfolk, Virginia. He says he likes his work and that he sees Guy Higgins, another Thorsby boy, often. He is sending a magazine to the library for a Christmas present. Those who wish to read it may check it out.

Mr. Wilbur Robinson of Sylacauga spent the week end with Mr. J. S. Robinson.

Thorsby Institute News

Monday morning at chapel the senior class had Arbor Day exercises and at the conclusion the whole school adjourned to the campus for the planting of the senior tree.

Next Saturday night at 7:30 a Christmas pageant entitled "Star Gleams" will be given under the direction of Miss Foss, in the Institute auditorium. The admission will be 10c Everyone in invited.

Through the kindness of Miss Ruth Ford's father several very pretty spruce and balsam table trees have been sent to the dining hall for Christmas decoration.

Rev. Lawrence Stanley has made and laced in Helen Jenkins hall, a cabinet containing Indian arrowheads, etc., collected by him and the Boy Scouts. This is an interesting collection, which the Institute is very glad to house.

Mrs. G. F. Harper spent Wednesday and Wednesday night in Selma.

Dorothy and Robert Weems and Ouida Wright spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rascoe Maddox.

Mr. Hubert Reinhardt spent Thursday in Selma.

Miss Marguerite Davison left Monday morning for Birmingham, from there she will go to Kentucky and then on to her home in Massechusetts where she will spend the Christmas holidays and her vacation. Rev. Starley went to Birmingham on Monday with Miss Davison where he had business to attend to.

Miss Bevie Braswell of Wilsonville is spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

MUSICAL CONCERT

—♣—

There is to be a musical concert at the courthouse Saturday night, December 14. The best fiddlers in the county are to contest. We are to have several guitar soloists present, and a good quartet is expected to help out the program. The time is 7:00 p.m. and the admission is only 10 cents and 20 cents. Be sure to come. The proceeds will go for the benefit of a school.

THORSBY BEAUTY SHOPPE

SPECIAL

FINGERWAVE, Wet 20c
FINGERWAVE, Dry 30c
Fingerwave and Shampoo 45c
FACIAL 70c
MANICURE 45c
Henna Pack, Shampoo and Set 90c
Shampoo, Henna Rinse and Set 70c
GLORNZ 25c
Permanent WAVES ..... $2 up
SCALP TREATMENT 25c
Oil Shampoo and Set 60c
Eye Lash, Brow Dye, Arch 75c

Miss Eunice Murray and Miss Verlon Goodgame, Props.

RIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER
Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)
PHONE 63

UNDERSTAND TOO WELL

Secretary Wallace plaintively complains that the critics of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration do not understand it. It has accomplished what it set out to do, he says, that is, raised the prices of farm products and given the farmer substantial relief.

That is true. His critics point out that he has taxed all the rest of the people for the benefit if the farmer. He has destroyed our export trade in foodstuffs. Worse than that, it is the other way about, for now we are importing wheat, corn, meat, cattle and butter. No Secretary of Agriculture can point with pride to a policy which has resulted in such a drastic reduction of production that now we do not grow enough to feed ourselves. We are the greatest growers of raw cotton and makers of manufactured cotton in the world, yet we are actually importing cotton goods.

There is no difference of opinion in regard to the necessity of helping the farmer. But you do not have to burn the house down to roast your pork. Mr. Wallace in accusing his critics of not understanding his policies is wholly wrong. His critics understand them too well.—Cincinnatti Enquirer.

You can have two eggs for breakfast instead of one by doubling the price of eggs argues the Pathfinder magazine. You can, however, have canned corn beef from South America instead of pork chops by doubling the price of pork.—Exchange.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

The much discussed tariff-reciprocity treaty between the United States and the Dominion of Canada is now an accomplished fact. Already a few of the interests in the United States affected by the terms of the treaty, are beginning to feel uncomfortable over the results. Mist of the people, however, have as yet failed to become worked up about it, principally for the reason that they knew so little about it in advance, and have learned so little since its terms were published; and for the further reason, that its effects will not be generally felt until the treaty has been in operation for some little time.

Perhaps the greatest complaint so far has come from the lumber interests of the northwest, where there have been published protests by men like former United States Senator Dill and Senator McNary, the Republican Senate floor leader, who is evidently not happy about it either and, according to press, has spent some little time in conference with Secretary of State Hull over the lumber provisions of the treaty, which are said to spell good times for the lumber interests and lumber workers of Canada and not such good times for similar interests in the United States. It is reported also that other American industries are not happy over the treaty, including the fisheries in the northwest and northeast, the dairying and other so-called agricultural interests. Perhaps more may be heard about this later.

Perhaps the most significant point of it all is that we do not make tariffs like we used to. In the earlier days, tariffs were written by Congress after the various interests were given full and public hearings on committees. It was the general intent of the protectionists to draw tariff schedules which would equalize the cost of production at home and abroad. That doctrine is now outmoded. Cost of production at home and abroad is now little considered. Making tariffs under the new dispensation is a sort of a diplomatic poker game for world markets. And if Uncle Sam is not a better diplomatic poker player now than he has been in the past it is not difficult to guess who is going to grab off all the blue chips.

In this diplomatic game Congress is now a fifth wheel to the tariff wagon. It has signed away its rights to tariff making, and treaty making so far as the tariff is concerned, to the State Department. Congress has nothing to say about the rates, and the treaty is drawn up without the advice and consent of the Senate. Whether or not the Supreme Court will regard this new sort of tariff making as constitutional remains to be seen. But just now it is very much in vogue.

And just as Congress is outmoded in tariff making so is tariff publicity outmoded. It is lamentable to have to state that the public, and the industries interested, knew not at all what the treaty contained, or what its rates were, until the treaty had been signed and published. This is quite a change from the old style of doing things when the lumberman, the dairyman, and the cattle raiser, to say nothing of the manufacturer, had a chance to tell Congress just what he thought about the tariff schedules proposed, and what they might do to him. Of course we are new under the new dispensation, dealing with the New Deal, but we have certainly travelled a long way from our old fashioned ideas on tariff making and from the ideals of that Democratic President, Woodrow Wilson, that treaties shold be "open covenants, openly arrived at." Even Ray Moley, writing in "Today," felt called upon to say editorially: "The futive character of the negotiations for reciprocal treaties by the United States (of est example) does not fit well with the liberal protestations of of an administration which the Canadian negotiations are the latdevoted to the masses of the people." No doubt these sentiments are being echoed in the breasts of many thousands who are not so kindly disposed to the administration politically, as is Professor Moley. But at any rate the Canadian treaty will be a great deal more in the public eye a few months hence.

OUR FOREIGN MARKETS

Says the Burlington Free Press:

"There's a screw loose somewhere in this old world. While the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has been working night and day to reduce the agricultural production of basic crops in the United States, Germany has been experiencing food shortages and the Reich is starting a campaign to increase farm production. While they have been butchering hogs by the millions and the government has been paying farmers for the hogs they didn't raise, Germany is levying heavy fines on dealers who slaughtered cattle or hogs of less than prescribed weights, and butter is sold under police supervision. This is too small a world to have some people in serious need of food while others are destroying it. The whole thing is a challenge to our intellegence and common sense."

All of which is of course true. Nor is it to be forgotten that other nations are planning to stimulate the production of crops while the United States is cutting down Mussolini, according to the newspapers, has released from active service 100,000 soldiers who are to go back to the farm and produce the foodstuffs which Italy may not be able to import if the League of nations makes good on its sanctions.

Nor is it to be forgotten that Brazil, which has always depended on coffee for its prosperity, and has shipped the greatest part of that coffee to the Uniter States, is now increasing its production of cotton to the point where cotton will soon be its second crop and a very important one. And the chief reason Brazil, and other nations too, are speeding up on cotton is that in the United States the farmers are actually being discouraged in its production.

The curtailment of agricultural produuction at home can only stimulate such prodction abroad, because as Uncle Sam cuts his crops his costs become higher and higher and he is less and less able to compete in the world market. Other nations realize this and that is whey we are having increased competition abroad.

But the destruction of crops in 1933 and the curtailment of acreage in 1934 and 1935 have had this effect on the American as well as the foreign markets. There has been an actual shortage of certain commodities and we have had millions of dollars worth of food coming to America from foreign shores.

It was the announced purpose of Secretary Hull and his tariff-treaty bargainers, when they set out on this diplomatic expedition, to increase the foreign market of the farmers. But the foreign market prospect has been curtailed rather than increased by the action of the Department of Agriculture. Yet Mr. Hull and his aides evidently expect to do something to the American market, too. The treaty recently concluded with Canada, when carried out, will mean a great increase in our importation of cream, butter, hay, cattle and other agricultural products.

end up by losing a greater part of the foreign market for farm produce, because of the unwise policies pursued, we may actually end up by losing o greater part of the foreign market and a big slice of the domestic market as well.

PLOWING MEN OUT OF JOBS

"I hope industry in future reduction programs will not find it necessary to plow millions of workers out of their jobs. People are more important than pigs." This is a quotation from a recent radio address by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

Men are more important than pigs. Mr. Wallace is right about this. So are their jobs important. But Mr. Wallace should have thought more about this when he put on his 6,000,000 pig slaughtering program. For that program certainly did plow a lot of folks out of jobs.

Stock yards in Chicago and other important centers had the smallest receipts of porkers this summer and fall they have had in many a decade. Hundreds of employees were discharged as a result because there was nothing for them to do, and the men who lost jobs were in the offices of the commission firms as well as in the stockyards proper.

But this certainly isn't all. The railroads didn't need so many cars to haul the hogs to market and this meant fewer jobs for railroad men, fewer demands for cars, fewer jobs all along the line. And considerably less labor was needed on the farms because there were so few pigs to care for—another shrinkage of jobs.

With fewer hogs we will need less corn and there is going to be a reduction in the corn crop next year. This means more idle and and more idle hands because not so many busy ones will be needed to tend the corn crop.

In the meantime foreign produce is being poured into the United States and the money which should go to American farmers is going abroad. And the housewife is paying the penalty in higher prices at the grocery and meat market.

Yes, it is to be hoped that industry will not be compelled to plow a lot of workers out of their jobs. Men's jobs are important. Mr. Wallace and his ace Brain Trusters should have thought of this sooner.

YOU HELP FOOT THE BILL

The chances are that you have heard a great deal about the so-called electric rate yardstick created by the Tennessee Valley Authority. You have heard that it has put into effect rates that are somewhat lower than those of private plants in the same area—and that the happy householder is getting more power for fewer dollars.

What you probably haven't heard is that the TVA rate structure is made possible by governmental subsidization and by tax freedom—which means that all the people, in all parts of the county, have directly or indirectly helped to foot the bill. The fact of the matter is that once the tax item is considered, TVA rates are higher than those of comparable private systems.

This at least is the opinion of James P. Warburg, banker and economist, who recently said: "If you deduct the subsidy of taxpayer's money from the Tennessee Valley Authority rates, the 'yardstick rates' are higher than those charged by the privately-owned companies serving the same territory. Even with the advantage of the subsidies for which the taxpayers foot the bill, the TVA rates are but slightly lower than those of the private companies.

"What has happened in the Tennessee Valley doubtless will happen in all government projects. Taxpayers always will have to foot the bill for such examples of pure socialism."

In conclusion, it might also be well to remember that no one knows just how high that bill will ultimately become. Advocates of the TVA put its cost at around $50,000,000—Mr. Warburg says that it is obvious that its cost during the next five years will run to $300,000,000, and eventually to $1,000,000,000. The political electrical "paradise" is expensive indeed to the taxpayers.

MAN IN THE MOON

GOVERNMENT IN REVERSE

The bulk of this article is intended for Democrats and for those Republicans who saw fit to vote for Roosevelt in 1932. Of course, any voter has an inalienable right to vote as he sees fit, and I would be the last to take that right from him. But, in this article, I shall attempt to prove that the Roosevelt administration is not a true Democratic administration, that it is not run upon age-old sane and sound principles, that it is not even being conducted according to the 1932 platform, for which so many Democrats and Roosevelt Republicans were in favor, but it is being carried out in an exactly reverse manner to that set out in the campaign pledge.

Further, I shall ask these voters to answer a question for themselves, which, when brought to mind, will impress upon them the degree in which their confidence in Mr. Roosevelt and the New Deal has been betrayed.

First, the New Deal is not even Democratic in its operation. It was set up as a Democratic platform, and in it were embodied several worthwhile goals which, if they had been reached, would have made for good government. But aside from failure to reach these goals, the majority of these high-minded projects have not been even attempted. Inasmuch as this is true, we can only believe that those promises were purely for campaign purposes only.

Democratic government is that which calls in able minds for advice—minds with experience and a history of deeds accomplished. There is a general supposition, too, that these sources of advice shall be whole-souled Americans, with implicit faith in American ideals and principles, looking first toward the welfare of America and her people.

The advisors President Roosevelt drew about him were not the good solid, sensible members of his own party. No one expected him to consider placing Republicans in advisory capacities, but we at least expected him to try to pick the best from his own political house. This he did not do. Instead, he promptly discarded those whom the people had named for that express purpose, the Congress, and gathered in their place a group of men from college class rooms, untrained in practical work, and with no history of practical deeds accomplished. In this one stroke he discarded one of the cardinal principles of Democratic government. In addition, he betrayed the confidence of the people of his own party, taking in as advisors men from another party, another political and economic belief, men whose party standard works toward the destruction of all governments such as ours. Is it reasonable to believe that these men, the "brain trust," would give their best, even if properly trained for their work, toward the furtherance of a principle of government which they had vowed to disrupt if possible? Do you believe that we have come so near the millenium that men will give their all to aid that which they have sworn to destroy?

The members of the "brain trust" are everyone an avowed communist or socialist, by their own admission. The rules and regulations of those parties call for the destruction of governments such as ours, by fair means or foul, in any manner or method that may be found accessible. The president's advisors have everyone subscribed to this set of rules and regulations. They are radicals, admittedly so, and, inasmuch as they are members of a party that would tear our government to pieces, and have sworn to do all in their power to further their cause, is it not reasonable to believe that they will use their key positions as presidential advisors to tear the government to pieces, instead of helping that which is hateful to them?

We believe this proves our contention that the government is not even being run along honest and true Democratic principles. We believe that if the president had wanted to make his an honest Democratic administration he would have selected his advisors from the ranks of his Democrats. Of all members of the advisory body THERE IS NOT ONE DEMOCRAT AMONG THEM! If the president is running the government along lines of their advice (and he has admitted numbers of times that he is) is it not more reasonable to believe that we are being carefully nurtured and tended toward a communistic or socialistic form of government rather htan one carrying out Democratic principles? Think over this matter, and weigh it according to your own good judgement, and see what kind of an answer you get from your own mind.

Second, the 1932 platform called for a number of things which have not even been attempted. We think there are two reasons for this; one is that they were near-impossibilities, known to be such when they were being used to gather votes in the campaign; the other is that these did not fit in with the "brain trust" plans. These were American in spirit, and Americanism is something that is absolutely foreign to the manner of thinking of the "brain trusters."

The 1932 platform called for a sound money policy—in answer to that we have been given the 60-cent dollar. It called for a balanced budget—our nation is billions deeper in debt than at any time in our history. It promised to take government out of business—by the NRA the government placed an iron hand on every business from the least to the largest, regulating hours, wages, and prices. It promised to enlarge our foreign market—we have lost 60 per cent of our foreign market under the guidance of the "tender brain trust." On down the line can be named instances where the present administration has absolutely violated and repudiated its solemn vows to the American people. On this we submit that the Democratic voters have been savagely betrayed, that the administration is not a Democratic one, but is carried on absolutely under the guidance of communists and according to their ideas of government. The 1932 platform has been rarely if ever touched upon.

Third, let's answer a few questions for curselves. Would you have voted for Roosevelt if you had known that he would conducted things along lines he has done? Would you have voted for him if you had known that he would call in all the gold in the land and give you paper instead; and that paper worth only 60 cents in the dollar? Would you have voted for him, Mr. merchant, if you had known that he would reach down to your business and try to tell you how you should conduct it? Would you have voted for him if you had known that he would curb production, while at the same time hundreds of thousands are starving and going poorly clad? Would you have voted for him if you had known that he would be a welcher, and try to toss scorn at the Supreme Court, the highest tribunal in the land, and recognized all over the world as the greatest judicial institution on the globe, just because they carried out their oaths to give their decisions according to the supreme law of the land, and threw into the discard some of his pet plans in which he, himself, had violated the Constitution, which he had sworn to defend during his tenure of office? Would you have voted for him if you had known these things? Would you, honestly?

No one can be blamed for making a mistake, but one of a kind like that which was made in 1932 is enough. In years to come, American people will come to look back on the years from 1932 to 1936 with shaking heads, bewailing that period when America was not her true self, but was proceeding along artificial and man-made methods.

President Roosevelt has said that our system of government belongs to the horse-and-buggy days. It was good enough to bring him to manhood; it was good enough to protect him, and provide an education for him when he could not care for himself. The laws were good enough to insure him safety as he grew up. This old system was good enough to elect him to the highest office within the ability of the American people to offer, and yet, no sooner was he in that position than this old system became out-moded, an object of scorn and derision by him who swore to defend its laws and institutions forever.

We call upon every sane and thinking man be he Democrat or Republican, to think along these lines. You are Americans, and to you is delivered the responsibility of keeping this tyrant in office, or throwing such un-American tactics into the discard. Use that ballot while you have the chance, for another four years under the "brain trust" bids fair to deprive you of that privilege.

We may belong to the days of "the horse and buggy," but there is at least the horse—we are not just plain "buggy."—Man in the Moon.

"SOLEMN COVENANTS"

At this time when there is a grand drive—and propaganda is being fired at us from all sides—to get us into the European situation and help the European politicians carry out "solemn covenants" in the interest of "world peace," a few remarks that were uttered the other day by a prominent French statesman about another "solemn" promise we got not long ago will not be out of place.

Speaking of the agreement of the allied nations to pay their debts to the United States—after these debts had been generously reduced—Senator Henry Berenger, president of the Senate Foreign Affairs Commission in France, is quoted by the United Press as stating:

"The debts all fell into catalepsy more profound than death, and the miracle that would resuscitate them is not in sight.

"Humanity has continued to live without these obligations, and nothing can prevail on the forces of the future, which desire to be freed from the chains of the past.

"What is the good of insisting on payments that nobody wants to make? What is the use of scribbling new nonsense about the agreement?

"There certainly will be experts to elaborate a new plan and diplomats to write their texts. But where will you find the people to pay them?"

Here is a good example of how European statesmen regard solemn and honorable obligations after they find that it is not in their interests to make good these obligations. It is not a question of inability to pay. Italy, who pleaded poverty when its war payments became due, is spending hundreds of millions in an effort to overcome Ethopia and grab off for itself some more land and loot. Great Britian, who has pleaded poverty, although it has balanced its budget, is planning to build the most powerful aerial fleet in the world and to spend millions on its navy which is already the most powerful in the world. And we are solemnly told that the debtor nations do not pay us because they cannot pay.

The diplomatic hypocrisy in Europe has been spread on so thickly it can be seen 3,000 miles across the Atlantic, and our American statesmen who by intent of folly entangle us in another European mess ought to be buried politically ten feet below the bottom of the bottomless pit.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE POLL

No matter how representative of the people of the United States you may think them to be little question that the Chambers of Commerce disapprove of a great many of the New Deal policies.

The United States Chamber some time ago made a poll of political organizations on a number of pertinent questions. The first question asked whether there should be an extension of federal jurisdiction into matters of state or local concern, and in reply the result was, Yes, 45; No, 1,765.

The second question asked whether there should be federal spending without relation to revenues, and the replies were, Yes, 22; No, 1,845. A third question asked whether there should be federal competition with private enterprise for regulatory or other purposes and the reply was overwhelmingly against the proposition.. That the Chambers know how to say "Yes" as well as "No" is indicated by the poll on a fourth question. It was asked whether "all grants of authority by Congress to the Executive Department of the federal government be within clearly defined limits." The poll showed, Yes, 1,813; No, 58.

The results of this poll indicate that the business men affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce oppose federal interference with local matters, are against an unbalanced budget and oppose government in private business. On the other hand, they favor the idea that congressional grants to the Executive Department be kept within clearly defined limits. The replies are especially significant because of the fact that the sentiment seemed so nearly unanimous.

THE PROBLEM OF MINING

No industry has a greater interest in general economic problems than mining.

Taxation, for example, is vastly important to the mines, which have been the victimes of unfair special taxes off and on for many years.

So is regulation—even in the boom days, mining was olmost lethargic in several important mining states because of iron-handed, unfriendly regulatory laws.

So are such matters as tariffs, money policies, currency standards. Every one of them has an effect, direct and indirect, on the mining industry.

One thing that hinders mining today is fear of more taxes, more inequitable laws, more experiments, more unnecessary labor difficulties. It looks now as if mining had a chance to come back—but fair treatment is necessary if it is to travel far.

We understand the next alphabet bureaucracy to be established is the BBB—the Boondoggling Benefit Bonanza.

FOR A JACKSON DAY BANQUET

It won't be long now until it is time for political banquets. These usually come soon after the first of the year and there will probably be more than ever in 1936 because it happens to be a presidential campaign year.

Among Democrats it has long been the custom to honor two heroes of their party at these banquets—Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson. Of late years Jackson anniversary dinners have been very popular.

It is to be expected next year that the old-fashioned Democrats who have always stood upon the principles of two men, who were by no means in sympathy with Brain Trust theories know them today—will be aided in the holding of these feasts by the New Dealers who are now perching under the banners of Democracy.

In some instances it is to be expected that, because of their great prominence, these New Dealers will take the lead in these Jacksonian festivities.

For their assistance, and in order to be helpful we desire to call attention to the following paragraph of President Andrew Jackson in his message to Congress on December 6, 1836:

"There is no such provision as would authorize Congress to collect together the property of the country, under the name of revenue, for the purpose of dividing it equally among the states or the people. Indeed it is not probable that such an idea ever occurred to the states when they adopted the Constitution. But however this may be, the only safe rule for us in interpreting the powers granted to the federal government is to regard the absence of express authority to touch a subject so important and delicate as this, as equivalent to a prohibition."

Andrew Jackson may be a patron saint of the Democracy butq he evidently was not a New Dealer as we know New Dealers today. This paragraph of Old Hickory would look good on the programs of a Jackson Day banquet anywhere, and would prove the sound good sense of this hturdy patriot, even if he did happen to be a rugged individualist.

AN UN-AMERICAN OATH

To war against war is one thing. But refusal to bear arms in defense of one's home and country is distinctly another.

Almost unanimously in America today is the desire of our people for peace and their determination to keep this nation free from the ravages of war.

But this will to peace, this hatred of war, call for no such abject renunciation of patriotism and honor as is embraced in the so-called Oxford oath, or that adaption of it that pledges its subscribers to refuse to support the government of the United States "in any war it may undertake."

This oath, now being promoted among the spineless, smart-alec fringe of our college student bodies, does not differentiate between wars of aggression and wars of defense.

This oath, had our forefathers clung to such timorous principles, would have left America still a Crown colony of Great Britian, its people subject to foreign dominion. It would have bared our country of secession and divided it into two or perhaps eventually a number of small nations, potentially not unlike Europe, with its heterogeneous group of armed camps.

The spectacle of ane thousand Temple University students rising in endorsement of this un-American oath, without even hearing it read, is not calculated to hearten the more thoughtful friends of peace.

Nor can those who knew him be other than saddened when they consider how Temple's founder, the great-souled Russel H. Conwell, would have contemplated such a proceeding—Conwell, who as a stripling officer fought gallantly to preserve the Union, before he enlisted as a preacher, in the army of God.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

You can buy a bushel of rather good apples for 50 cents and a bushel of potatoes for just a little more. Yet folks cry about hard times. For what is a bushel of apples or a peck of 'taters when the children are sobbing and crying to go to the picture show.—Fairbury, Kansas, Journal.

One of our neighbors has a high-powered radio guaranteed to get broadcasting stations all over the world. And we believe it, because when he demonstrated it the other night it all sounded just like a fight between the Italians and the Ethopians.

Hary Hopkins criticizes Governor Alf Landon and it all seems to have started over Kansas' balanced budget. Well, if anything would make Harry sore it would be a balanced budget.

Since the Democratic platform of 1932 disappeared so mysteriously after the New Deal came in it is said that the old line members of the party next year are going to insist that the platform be made out of asbestos.

There is an old saying that a young man cannot succeed in his old home town. That saying is true. A young man cannot succeed in his old home town if he will not work.—Atchison Globe.

The man out West who traded his wife for a cow should have waited until Secretary Hull got his Canadian treaty through. He might now be able to get a better bargain.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of December 8, 1910

A house owned by Dan Honeycutt at Strasburg, and occupied by Richard Collins, was burned last Wednesday.

Clifford Baker died at his home, a mile north of Clanton, last Monday morning. He was 25 years old and had typhoid fever.

Dr. J. T. Calloway of Birmingham visited his parents, N. J. Calloway and family, last Friday and Saturday.

A brother of Dr. T. J. Marcus lost his leg in an accident last Tuesday.

Mr. W. T. Hewett of Billingsley was a visitor in Clanton Wednesday.

Married this week—C. C. Scott and Miss Pearlie Jones, W. J. Bean and Miss Ida Gentry, J. A. Scott and Miss Ledie Eddins, Lou Hurley and Miss Georgia Frith, S. J. Jones and Miss Mary Roys, G. Thomas Watts and Miss Gatsey Devoers.

Wiley Veasey died at Mulberry last Thursday of pneumonia.

POOR C

THIS Christmas IT'S JEWELRY

AND YOU KNOW IT'S APPROPRIATE IF IT COMES FROM

Upchurch Drug Company
CLANTON

Diamonds
In Beautiful Sets. A full Assortment to select from
$10.00 Up

Other Rings
SOLID GOLD
$3.50 UP
STERLING
$1.50 UP

Watches
For Men and Ladies
WRIST WATCHES
In the New Styles
$2.49 Up

POCKET WATCHES
An Ideal Man's Gift
$1.00 UP

Dresser Sets
In Handsome Cases
$1.00 Up

SETS for MEN
Military Brush Sets for Men Make Ideal Gifts
$1.00 UP

Other Suggestions

Men's Billfolds
Fountain Pen Sets
Perfume Sets

CANDIES
WHITMAN'S
NUNNALLY'S

Stem and Rock Crystal GLASSWARE

OUR STORE
Is Your Complete Xmas. Gift Store. Shop here and Save Money

SILVERWARE
All Silverware is Priced to a new, low level, and Makes Wonderful Gifts

A Small Deposit On Any Item Will Help You Buy Your Gift

WINSTON MIMS IS WITH SERVICE BARBER SHOP

Mr. Winston Mims, brother of Joe P. Mims, has recently been added to the list of tonsorial artists at the Service Barber Shop. Winston has lots of friends in Clanton and Chilton county, and he extends an invitation to all of them to come to see him.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay? Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

DOAN'S PILLS

REFUGE NEWS

The news from this community is rather scarce as everybody has been staying in one account of the bad weather.

The health of the community is good at present.

There will be a pounding at the home of Mr. E. N. Minor on the night of December 18th, which is next Wednesday. This is Mr. Minor's birthday. Evreyone come and bring whatever you can. It will be appreciated.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Preaching at 11:00 on Saturday and at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Everyone note the change in the time on Sunday and everyone be one time. We want a large crowd ready to greet Bro. Robinson when he arrives.

"HEARTS AND GOWNS" AT VERBENA DEC. 19th

"Hearts and Gowns, a musical comedy, will be presented at the Verbena High School auditorium Thursday night, December 19 at 8 o'clock. The play is a comedy chuck full of laugh-provoking lines. The songs are catchy and the chorus girls beautiful. Admission price will be 15c and 25c. Everyone will get their money's worth. Don't miss it.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arnold and little daughter, Carlene, of Cullman visited friends here Friday.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for December 15

EZRA TEACHING THE LAW OF GOD

LESSON TEXT—Ezra 7:10; Nehemiah 8:1-12.

GOLDEN TEXT—Thy word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee. Psalm 119:11.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Giving Thanks for God's Book.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Giving Thanks for God's Book.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Studying the Bible Together.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Bible in National Life.

This lesson is a fine illustration of the rightful place of God's Word in the life of a nation. The only cure for national ills is a return to God and obedience to his Word.

I The Teacher's Spiritual Condition (Ezra 7:10).

He prepared his heart to seek the law of the Lord, to do it, and to teach Israel the statutes and judgments.

II. The Word of God Read (Neh. 8:1-3).

1. The eager assembly (v. 1). The people gathered together and requested Ezra to bring the book of the law. God had touched their hearts, creating within them a yearning for his Word.

2. A representative assembly (v. 2). God's Word should be taught to all classes—men, women, and children. The Spirit of God can speak through his Word to the whole family sitting in the same pew.

3. An appreciative assembly (v. 3). So eager were they to know God's Word that they did not get tired, although the lesson lasted for five or six hours. When people realize that God is speaking through his Word they will give attention.

III. The People's Attitude Toward God's Word (vv. 4-6).

1. Due reverence shown (vv. 4, 5). When Ezra opened the law all the people stood up out of respect for God's Word.

2. They joined heartily in prayer (v. 6). As Ezra led them in prayer they united in saying, "Amen, Amen," bowing their faces to the ground

IV. God's Word Being Interpreted (vv. 7, 8).

The attitude of the people toward God's Word largely depends upon the minister. Proper dignity and solemnity should be manifested by the minister when reading the Holy Scriptures.

1. He stood up where the people could see him (v. 5).

2. He read distinctly (v. 8). The manner in which many read the Scriptures is greatly to their discredit.

3. He caused the people to understand (v. 8). The supreme business of the minister and teacher is to make the Word of God so plain that old and young can understand. The explanation should be clear and definite.

V. The Effect of Applying God's Word to the Life of the People (vv. 9-18).

1. Conviction of sin (v. 9). The divine method of convicting men of their sin is to have God's Word applied by the Holy Spirit. The Word of God is quick and powerful (Heb. 4:12).

2. Weeping turned into joy (vv. 10-12). When sins have been perceived and confessed there is forgiveness. Continued mourning will not atone for past sins. Furthermore, it dishonors a pardoning God and even unfits the one for present tasks. Joy has a salutary effect upon one's entire being. "The joy of the Lord is your strength."

3. Blessings were shared with others (vv. 10-12). True joy manifests itself in giving to others. Pure religion goes out to minister to the poor (James 1:27). Godliness is not content with having a good time alone.

4. The people obeyed. From the reading of the Scriptures they found that the feast of the tabernacles had long been neglected. They kept this sacred feast in a way that had not been since the days of Joshua.

5. They separated themselves from the ungodly (13:1-3). As soon as they had heard the Word of God they separated themselves from the mixed multitude.

6. The house of worship was cleared and order restored (13:4-14). No nation or people can be strong which neglects the worship of the true God.

7. The Sabbath was restored (13:15-22). Israel had long violated the Sabbath. To ignore the essential law of the Sabbath is national suicide. Unnumbered evils followed in the wake of the desecration of God's holy day.

8. God's law of marriage restored (13:23-31). Some of those who had intermarried with the heathen were brought face to face with their sin. They separated themselves from their ungodly companions. God's favor cannot be enjoyed by those who live in disobedience to his Word.

A Splendid Mystery

To me there is something thrilling and exalting in the thought that we are drifting forward into a splendid mystery—into something that no mortal eye hath yet seen, and no intelligence has yet declared.—E. H. Chapin.

Service

Service is the rent we pay for our room on earth.

Friends

Of humblest friends scorn not one.

Mrs. U. C. White, of Mountain Creek was shopping here Saturday.

ELLISON - GOODMAN MARRIAGE

Mr. Willie G. Ellison and Mr. Gracie Goodman of Pleasant Hill community were married last Saturday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Coak, by Rev. W. L. Davis. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Brashier, Mr. Robert Ellison, Mr. Ottis Davis and Miss Odell Ellison, Mr. Obie Davis and Miss Minnie Bolton, Mr. Elijah Ellison, Mr. Harlem Brasher, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis.

We are sure Mrs. Coak and family will miss Mrs. Goodman, for she has made that her home since her husband died.

We all are wishing them a long happy life.—Written as requested by Ollie Belle Davis.

BILLINGSLEY

Rev. G. G. Williams filled his regular appointment at the First Baptist church last Sunday.

Mrs. Dick Dobson of Montgomery spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marlar.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Nummy and attractive children, of Birmingham, spent Sunday with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Blanch Boozer, of Tuscaloosa, spent the week end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Downs.

Mr. J. B. Culp, of Tallassee, spent the past week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Culp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson, Mrs. Ada Wimberly and Mr. Cecil Allen made a business trip to Selma last Saturday.

Mrs. Steel was called to Centreville Sunday to the bedside of her father who was severely wounded when he was struck by a motor car early Monday morning.

Mr. A. L. Deason visited his mother in Centreville last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King of Holtville spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King.

HAYNES-VIDA ATTRACTION

All workers, payers, hay makers, aqua boys and others bring your friends to Haynes-Vida school Friday night, December 13, for a bunch of fun and glee which starts at 7:00 p.m., under the title, "Roll Your Own," and "Now You Chase Me," a negro minstrel, presented for your entertainment by a cast of sneppy actors. Admission 10c and 15c.

Reese Mullins, of Florence spent last Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mullins.

CENTER HILL NEWS

There are a few more added to our sick list: Mr. J. E. Carey has been confined to his bed since last Saturday with an attack of flu. Joelene is able to be up but was in bed most of last week. Snub Edwards is very ill with pneumonia. We hope for them all a speedy recovery.

Due to such bad weather and so much sickness our crowd was small for Sunday school and church services, but those that were there heard a very interesting sermon.

Mr. U. Miller is in Birmingham for a while.

Mr. Lonnie Cobb's family is moving to Jemison this week.

Mrs. Eliza Connell and Jessie Belle Abbott spent Monday with Mr. J. E. Corey.

Messrs. J. E., B.L. and V. T. Cobb were all called to the bedside of their aunt, Mrs. John Martin, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Martin had pneumonia but is better now.

We are all glad to have James Gentry back with us Sunday in our services. As you know, James has been sick for some time.

The young peoples class of the Sunday school was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cobb on last Thursday night. Those present were Misses Ollean Miller, Lucile Merchant, Annie Mae Ray, Mildred, Berney Dean and Mable Cobb, Mr. Lee Collum, Andrew Whitman, Leonard Ray, Leo, J. O., and Raymond Cobb.

Rev. J. W. Jones and Bro. Wilson of Thorsby were here Sunday afternoon to assist in the ordination of Bro. Lonnie Cobb as deacon.

Rev. Maurice Hodgens and Leo Collum were the dinner guests of James Gentry Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Cobb and Peggy are visiting relatives in Montgomery.

Some few from this community attended services at Pates Chapel Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thrash visited the family of Mr. J. B. Price through the week end.

Miss Eula Price returned from Birmingham last Friday. She had spent the week with her brother, Eual Price.

Mrs. W. J. Lesley, B. L. Cobb J. W. Collum, J. E. Cobb, Sam Edwards, Deam Whitaker, Lovis Thomas, Ray Langston, Rena Mims, Bernice and Willie Mae Scott and Miss Docia and Lizzie Gothard all met at the home of Mrs. W. R. Scott on last Thursday and quilted. The day was enjoyed by all present.

WANTED
TO BUY EAR CORN
800 BUSHELS
White or Yellow. Not Mixed

Also will buy dry Velvet Beans, Pea Hay or Soy Bean Hay
Will grind your Corn, Beans, Hay, Stalks, Fodder, Etc.

Better Feeds At Less Cost

Central Alabama Milling Co.
Willie Crowson
YOUR PATRONAGE APPRECIATED
Lay Dam Road - - - - - - - East Clanton

LAX THE BLADDER
THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanyt flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and fell "full of Pep."—Upchurch Drug Company; Alred Drug Company.

AT ABSOLUTE
AUCTION!
4 HOUSES --- 3 LOTS --- 2 FARMS
Thursday, December 19th
FIRST SALE 10:00 A. M. ON THE PREMISES

Four houses and three vacant lots on Liberty Street and Wade Avenue, in Clanton, Ala. These houses are in a good state of repair and are well rented. An opportunity for a good Colored man to buy a good home. An excellent Investment or income property for the party with money to invest!

SECOND SALE 1:00 P. M. ON THE PREMISES

Two Farms located just one and a half miles west of Jemison, on the Shiloh Road. 1 Farm of 40 acres well improved with a good 4-room house and out-buildings, most of the land is in a high state of cultivation, the balance in timber and pasture. The other Farm has 80 acres and is near the above farm, known as the Joseph Williams tract on Clements Road, 2 miles west of Jemison.

Now is the time to buy a good farm! Houses are all rented, good vacant lots are in demand! Good farms are scarce and in demand. Real Estate is getting higher and in demand. Now is the time to buy Real Estate!

LOOK AHEAD! USE YOUR FORESIGHT!
ATTEND THIS SALE AND BUY!

Terms ½ Cash Balance 1 Year
DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY!
FREE PRIZES --:-:-- MUSIC!
COME! BRING YOUR FRIENDS
LADIES ESPECIALLY INVITED
KING AUCTION CO.
LESLIE C. KING, Mgr. - - - - GADSDEN, ALA.

ORIGINAL

ISABELLA NEWS

The F. H. A. Club was called to order by the president, and the minutes were read by the secretary. The program was based on acceptibility. Devotional, Sara Nell Cobern; voice, Edna Earle Tucker; speech and conversation, Dee Cummings; socialability, self control and tolerance, Mary Jo Chandler; cooperation and resourcefulness, Esta Owen; progressiveness and dependability, Mattie Lee Culp.

Arrangements were made for a Christmas tree for this club on their last meeting before the Christmas holidays.

The F. H. A. chapter met Wednesday, December 4, and presented the following program: How much will wintar legumes do Arthur Henley; meat curing, Carson Willams. A program committee was elected to plan programs for the next two meetings. The following were elected: Clyde Headley, Carlos Owen and Cecil Mills.

Only three of the four delegates were able to attend the district meeting, held at Clanton, December 2. The time was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at Columbiana on the second Monday night after Christmas.

The Jeffersonian Literary Society met Wednesday, December 4, and rendered the following program: Devotional, Fred L. Veavey; and editorial, James Traywick; just imagine, Arnold Bryant; cross questions and crooked answers, William Oden and Jack Tucker; reading Calvin Smith; day dream, Johnnie Lou Cobern.

The Cosmopolitan Literary Society was called to order by the president. The secretary read the minutes and the following program was rendered: Devotional, Vester Powell; facts about Mobile, Charles Edwards; the laws passed by the last Legislature affecting Chilton County.

A discussion was held about a Christmas tree before the Christmas holidays begin, for the Cosmopolitan and the Jeffersonian Literary Societies.

The students are doing extra work for the school by selling three well known magazines, The Saturday Evening post, The Ladies Home Jounal, and Country Gentleman. The contest will close Friday, December 20.

The following is the average of the High School students grades for the past month: First honor roll—James Veazey and Evelyn Lecroy. Second honor roll—Mary Jo Chandler, Sara Calfee, Frances Sexton, Jewel Williams, A. D. Headley, J. C. Jones, Mary Charles Jones, Mary Jo Suitte, Mattie Lee Culp, Martha Green, Lela Devaughn, Velma Conway, Lona Cummings, Ethel Lee Griffin, Ruby Mae Higgins, Marie Durbin, Gladys Higgins, Gladys Oden, Margaret Russel and Charles Edwards.

The folowing pupils were perfect in attendance last month: Sara Calfee, Mitchell White, Emma Lou McCraw, James Traywick, Frances Sexton, Mary Charles Jones, Evelyn LeCroy, Edna Earle Tucker, Mattie Lee Culp, Robert Calfee, Lela Devaughn, Willard Davenport, Arnold Bryant, Lillian Carter, Lena Cummings, Ethel Lee Griffin, Napoleon Jones, Herbert Morgan, Mildred Oden and Marie Durbin.

ATTENTION

Cream Producers

Last Saturday we received over 1,100 pounds of Butterfat, for which we paid to the producers of this county over $300. Are you wasting your Cream? If so, why not bring in a can full and give us a trial? Our equipment is being overhauled this week end we will be in fine shape for you Saturday. Don't beg people to buy your Butter when you can sell Butterfat for anything like 30c per pound.

SOUTHERN DAIRIES, Inc.

EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives

Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true.

Do what doctors do to relieve this condition. They use a liquid laxative, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid dose can be regulated to the drop.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that form no habit even with children. Syrup Pepsin is the nicest tasting, nicest acting laxative you ever tried.

Specials for the Xmas. Holidays Dec. 13 to 26

— At These Stores In Clanton —

BEAN and TAYLOR Grocery Co.

TAYLOR GROCERY and MARKET

We Deliver - - - - - - - Phone Us

KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES — POST TOASTIES, 2 for 15c
CRACKERS, 1-lb box 10c
CAMPBELL'S TOMATO SOUP, 3 for 25c
PEANUT BUTTER, 25-oz 23c
MAYONNAISE, Pint Jar 23c
STANDARD PACK — No. 2 TOMATOES, 2 for 15c
KENNY'S SPECIAL — COFFEE, 1-lb pkg 15c
NO. 1 TALL CAN — DESSERT CHERRIES 15c
DILL PICKLES, 21-oz Jar 15c
WHOLE BEAN - We Grind It — PURE COFFEE, 2 lbs 25c

Ask Us About The Large Beautiful Doll

PINK SALMON, 2 cans 25c
COMET RICE, 3-lb pkgs 23c
MOTHER'S COCOA, 2 lbs 20c
CATSUP, 14-oz bottle, 2 for 25c
CATSUP, gallon cans 60c
MUSTARD, gallon jugs 60c
HOMINY, 3 No. 2½ Cans 25c
CORN, 3 No. 2 Cans 25c
ORANGE JUICE, 3 Cans 25c

MATCHES, SALT, STARCH, SOAP — 3 for 10c

PRODUCE -- FRUITS -- NUTS

CABBAGE, lb 2½c
ONIONS, lb 4c
CELERY, large bunch 10c
LETTUCE, large head 10c
TURNIPS, lb 3c
DRY APPLES, 2 lbs 25c
GOOD EATING — APPLES, Each 1c and Up
CRANBERRIES, Qt. 25c
GRAPES, 3 lbs 25c
LEMONS, Large, Dozen 30c
DRY PEACHES, 2 lbs 25c
BANANAS, lb 6c
COCONUTS, 6c and up
English Walnuts, lb 18c; 2 bs 35c
BRAZIL NUTS, lb 15c
ORANGES, Dozen 20c up
PECANS, Paper Shell, 2 lbs 29c
Powdered Cinnamon, Powdered Nutmeg, Powdered Cloves, Powdered Allspice, Powdered Ginger — Each 10c; 3 for 25c
WHOLE NUTMEG, Each 1c

Xmas. Candies 10c lb and up --- All Kinds of Fruit Cake Material

4-lb Ctn Pure LARD 65c
4-lb Ctn JEWEL 55c
STEAK, lb 15c
VACUUM PACK — Delmonte COFFEE, Can 27c
CHEESE, lb 22c
100 PER CENT PORK — SAUSAGE, 2 lbs 40c
Hamburger MEAT, 2 lbs 25c
NO. 2 CAN — SLICED PINEAPPLE 15c
FOR ICING — Marshmallows, 16-oz jar 15c
Cranberry Sauce, 17-oz 20c
Bottled Cherries, Each 10c
Fresh EGGS at MARKET PRICE

SPECIAL PRICES on FEEDS and FLOUR

PURE WHEAT SHORTS $1.85
Jazz 24% DAIRY, 100 lbs $2.10
16 PER CENT — Best Yet Dairy Feed $1.75
BEET PULP, 100-lb sack $2.00
C. S. HULLS, New, Sack 65c
THE RELIABLE — WINNER DAIRY FEED $2.00
C. S. MEAL, New, 8 per cent $1.40
Best Yet Laying MASH $2.50
100-LB SACK — HEN SCRATCH FEED $2.50

Omega Flour 24 lbs $1.25
PLAIN AND SELF RISING — FINEST FLOUR MILLED
PLAIN OR SELF RISING — DUNLOP'S BEST, 24-lb Sack $1.10
NONE BETTER FOR THE MONEY
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR SELF RISING — DUNLOP'S BEAUTY $1.15
FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — WHITE RING $1.10
24-LB SACK PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S BEST $1.15
HIGHEST QUALITY — BEST FOR BISCUIT AND PASTRY
24-LB SACK, PLAIN OR S. R. — SHAWNEE'S MAID $1.10
24-LB SACK EXTRA FINE PLAIN or S. R. — Shawnee's GOLDEN PUFF $1.00
EXTRA GOOD — FULLY GUARANTEED TO PLEASE

See Us for Wholesale Prices on Quantity Lots of Flour and Feeds Dairy and Poultry Feeds of All Kinds—

ON DECEMBER 21st at 4 P.M. PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN AWAY

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT JACKSON'S CHAPEL DEC. 21

There will be a fiddlers convention at the Jackson's Chapel school building on Saturday night, December 21. Prizes will be awarded. There will be a cake for the prettiest girl, and another for the ugliest man. Admission will be 5c and 10c.

UNCLE REMUS AND THE WHALE

The Union-Banner is in receipt of a letter from Mr. C. T. Walker at West Palm Beach, Fla., in which he incloses a clipping from a newspaper with a photo of a huge whale weighing 69 tons. Mr. Walker adds the notation: "I have seen the largest whale in the word, and, oh my, is is some cow. I am having the time of my life here in Palm Beach."

Circle No. 2 Baptist W. M. U. Meets

Members of Circle No. 2 of the Baptist W. M. U. held their last program and business meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. P. Hayes. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. J. W. Hayes. The subject for the afternoon was "The Lottie Moon Christmas." Mrs. W. Z. Hadges, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. Earl Gowan and Miss Bettie Mullins took part on the program. At the business hour the circle officers reported the circle had met all requirements to be an A-1 Circle. Mrs. Hayes served a sandwich and "Chero", donated by Mr. White, to her guests.

The following members and guests were present: Mrs. W. Z. Hodges, Mrs. Andy Jones, Mrs. Laura White, Mrs. Watt Willis, Mrs. M. Z. Atchison, Mrs. J. W. Hayes, Mrs. Mack Godwin, Mrs. Earl Gowan, Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, Mrs. Horsley White, Mrs. Henry Burnett, Mrs. A. M. Moore, Miss Betty Mullins and Miss Lula Roseberry.

P.-T. A. To Have "Fathers Night" Friday

The Clanton Grammar School P.-T. A. will honor the fathers of the school with a social meeting at the Methodist church on the second Friday in December, December 13. A very interesting program will be given and refreshments will be served.

The various committees working to make this a success, wish to solicit the cooperation of each parent represented at the Grammar school. The room having the most representatives will be awarded a half holiday as a prize. The fathers present will count two. The room having the most fathers present will be given a picture. All parents are most cordially invited and urged to be present. The affair begins promptly at 7:15.

red Busby, Russel and Graham Milstead were here Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Charles Moore has returned to Birmingham after a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Watts Moore.

Wednesday Card Club Meets

Mrs. John Armstrong was hostess to members of the Wednesday Card Club on last Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The spacious living room was effectively decorated in autumn leaves. Two tables were arranged for bridge. After a series of games, Mrs. H. M. Simpson held high score and was awarded high score prize. The two prizes were given by Mrs. W. C. Robinson's Beauty Shoppe and were awarded to Mrs. Julius Burnette and Mrs. Grady Reynolds.

A delicious salad plate was served to the following members: Mrs. Omar Reynolds, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Julius Burnett, Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. John Deramus, Mrs. H. M. Simpson, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mrs. J. C. Page.

Miss Kittye Clyde Austin stopped to see friends here Saturday and Sunday, when enroute to Birmingham for the week end.

TREE GREW THROUGH BACKBONE

Mr. I. D. Huett of Enterprise community must be due some sort of a prize for the believe-it-or-not which he recently turned in to The Union-Banner office. He sent in to us Friday two jointed vertebrae of a mule's backbone, through the hollow of which had grown a hickory tree about an inch in diameter. The hole in the bone had become completely filled with the growth of the tree. The bones were about five feet from the ground. It is now on display at The Banner office.

Mrs. Julius Burnett, Mrs. Omar Reynolds and Miss Lorena Guy spent Saturday in Montgomery shopping.

Mr. Reese Mullins of Florence, Ala. spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Reese Mullins.

Miss Margaret Floyd spent the week end in Clayton with her mother, Mrs. W. E. Floyd.

POOR C

Why not get your 1936 FORD V-8 in time for Christmas?

A gift that all the family will love

A 1936 model —all latest improvements

A liberal allowance for your old car if traded now

Easier terms than you may think

THE 1936 Ford V-8 is the finest Ford ever built. It goes farther than ever beyond the accepted standards of its price class. In engine performance, riding comfort, roominess—it may be compared with cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Today's Ford is backed by over 2,000,000 Ford V-8's on the road in America alone. Here are its most outstanding values—many brand new this year.

V-8 ENGINE PERFORMANCE—smoothness, pick-up and power with proved V-8 economy.

25% EASIER STEERING—the result of two new roller-type bearings, a longer steering knuckle-arm and an increased steering ratio.

SUPER-SAFETY BRAKES—with exceptionally large braking surface (186 square inches).

EASIER, SYNCHRONIZED SHIFTING—QUIETER GEARS—Silent, helical gears for all speeds.

NEW FREEDOM FROM NOISE—specially insulated, welded-steel body, reinforced with steel.

NEW DRAWN-STEEL WHEELS—add comfort to riding—are easier on tires.

Arrange a demonstration today with YOUR FORD DEALER

Ford V-8 for 1936

$510 AND UP, F. O. B. DETROIT Standard accessory group including bumpers and spare tire extra. Easy terms through Universal Credit Co., Authorized Ford Finance Plan.

ON THE AIR—Ford Symphony Orchestra, Sunday Evenings—Fred Waring and His Pennsylvanians, Tuesday Evenings—Columbia Network—Wednesday Evenings—WSB

FORD V-8 MOTOR APPROVED BY U. S. FOR AIRCRAFT USE

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 5.—The Ford V-8 engine converted for aviation by the Arrow Aircraft & Motors Corp., this city has been issued approved type certificate No. 151 by the U. S. bureau of air commerce. This climaxes two years of intensive research and experimentation by the Nebraska company, and marks the beginning of an era in the manufacture of small airplanes.

The aviation industry has been striving for many years to develop a small plane with low initial, operating and maintenance costs, but giving standard performance. Excessive initial cost of aviation power plants and the prohibitive maintenance aspect have heretofore defeated this aim.

First To Get O. K.

Aircraft manufacturers have looked to the automobile engine also for many years as the logical means of providing economical power for small planes, along with giving the airplane maker the benefits of mass production and extensive service facilities on that most essential unit of the airplane—the power plant. The Arrow converted Ford V-8 motor is the first such power plant developing 80 or more horsepower (so as to insure standard performance of the plane), to receive the Federal A. T. C., however.

The advantages to be obtained in using a motor so easily available and handily serviced as the V-8 in an airplane are obvious. Heretofore the power plant in the average small plane has constituted more than 60 per cent of the total cost. In the Arrow Ford V-8, it accounts for less than 20 per cent of the total.

The V-8 engine as converted for aviation by the Arrow company differs from the standard automobile power plant in only a few simple but vital phases. Reduction gears have replaced the fly-wheel so as to turn the propeler at a cruising speed of 1,500 revolutions per minute. This gives the plane a cruising speed of approximately 100 miles per hour with the motor turning over at the rate of a ground speed of about 60 miles per hour in the automobile.

Weight Reduced

The radiator is redesigned to concur with the streamline cowling of the ship, and one large pump replaces the two regulation pumps. To reduce weight, an aluminum crankcase and smaller generator are used. Incidentally, the oil lines are all cast within the cylinder block, thus doing away with one of aviation's most troublesome and dangerous problems—the broken oil line.

As an indication of how this new aviation power plant will affect the fields of private flying and student instruction, valves which cost from $3 to $5 for the average small plane motor will cost the Arrow Ford V-8 owner only 25 cents, and so on down the line. In place of a $55 magneto an $8 battery is used. In fact, a new motor may be obtained for $47 plus replacement of any conversion parts that may be the worse for wear.

In 250 hours of testing, the V-8 converted motor consumed six gallons of gasoline per hour at full throttle, and one pint of oil for every five hours. Standard type automobile gasoline and oil are used.

On a basis of 1,000 hours of flight (approximately 100,000 air miles), and including insurance coverage, fuel and oil, maintenance and repair, and full depreciation on the airplane, the operating cost of the Arrow Ford V-8 is only $1.62 per passenger air hour or about one cent per passenger air mile. This compares with approximately $6 per air hour for the most economically operated plane using the conventional aviation power plant.

Top Speed Is 110

The Arrow Ford V-8 is a two-place low-wing monoplane of the companion cockpit type. Its top speed is tentatively announced as 110 miles per hour.

Equipment includes the standard required aviation instruments, hand starter, navigation lights, dual brakes affording individual wheel control, wing flaps, and tail wheel.

The gasoline tank holds 20 gallons, and there is a small auxiliary tank. It carrier two gallons of oil.

Overall length is 21 feet and four inches, wing span 32 feet, and height from tip of propeller to the ground is eight feet and 10 inches.

The price i sin the $1.500 field, with a promise of reduction as quantity production permits.

Take Advantage of This AMAZING OFFER

(Good only until December 25)

Electric refrigerators work for 5c a day. Save you money on food every month.

Electricity does the weekly wash for 2c. Brand new models on the budget plan.

Electric range cooks for 1c a meal per person.

Have you hesitated buying that Electric Refrigerator, Range, Water Heater, or other electrical equipment you have wanted so long because you felt that the payments would be too hard to make during January, February and March, when you will have other bills to pay?

No Need to Delay Longer

You can begin enjoying the delights of electric cookery—NOW! You can have the economy and health advantages of an electric refrigerator—NOW! You can be rid of the muss and fuss of old-fashioned ways of heating water—NOW! You can dispense with the tub-and-board method of washing clothes—NOW! You can be relieved of ironing backaches—NOW!

HERE'S THE OFFER!

Pay Only $5 Now - No More Payments Until April

Realizing that many people hesitate making purchases "on time" during December because of bills for Christmas which they must pay during the early months of the New Year, the Economy Purchase Plan has been modified (until Christmas only) so you can buy those coveted electric devices you've been wanting, for a down-payment as little as $5.00, with no further payments due until you receive your April, 1936, electric service bill. Then you begin paying monthly—in amounts pleasantly small.

See Your Electrical Merchant or

ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Electrify Now—Electricity is CHEAP in Alabama

Billingsley News

Miss Bertha Dennis spent the past week end in Clanton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson attended the funeral of Mr. Kennon Roper which was held at Sardis church last Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Miss Mable King spent the week end in Birmingham with her aunt, Mrs. Otha Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Powell and attractive children of Clanton spent Sunday with Mrs. Powell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Baxter.

Mrs. Ada Wimberly has returned home after an extended visit with friends and relatives at York and Jones.

Mrs. J. W. Pattillo, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pattillo spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Georgia. While there they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harrell.

Mr. E. E. Edwards of Popwell was shaking hands with friends in our town Saturday.

Rev. A. S. Bentley, of Plantersville visited Mr. J. W. Pattillo and family wednesday.

Mrs. J. F. Apperson and son, Henry M., spent the past week end in Birmingham. While there they were the guests of Mrs. Apperson's mother and sister, Mrs. J. M. Roper and Mrs. J. H. Williams.

MT. PLEASANT TROUNCES COOPER JR. HIGH 29-9

Coach "Dock" Baker's Mt. Pleasant basket ball team defeated the team from Cooper Jr. High school on the former's ground last Friday, 29 to 9. Featuring for the winners was little Luke Chambers, who displayed an eagle eye for the basket during the time he was in the game.

Mt. Pleasant will play the Stanton team at Mt. Pleasant next Friday at 2:00 o'clock p.m. Stanton beat this team a few days ago at Stanton, 20 to 19.

Coach Baker announces that he would like to schedule games in the near future with several schools of the county. He has a good team, and expects an excellent season. Any school wishing to schedule these games with Mt. Pleasant should address Vernon Baker, Clanton Rte 6.

Commissioners Court Calls For Referendum

Whereas, Chilton county has an opportunity to share in what is known as a three-way project for hard surfacing the Maplesville Highway, from a point three miles west of the city of Clanton and joining the present hard surface paving, to the Dallas county line, a distance of approximately 20 miles, said road to cost approximately $15,000, of which Chilton County would be required to pay not exceeding $42,000, and is being presently estimated by the State Highway Commission of Alabama, that Chilton county's portion would be approximately $40,000.000, and

Whereas, it is proposed by the State Highway Commission that Chilton county pay its part of the paving of said road by agreeing with the State Highway Commission that one cent of the gasoline tax which is now paid to Chilton county and being approximately $2,000.00 per month be deducted from the county's part of this fund until the entire sum noe exceeding $42,000 is paid as the county's part, and

Whereas, said road proposed o be built shall be of a bituminous surface commonly known as tar or black top surface, and whereas said road is now a State owned road and the State at the present time maintains said road without expense to the county and in event that said road is hard surfaced as above set forth the State will continue to maintain said road, and

Whereas, the question of hard surfacing said road has been before the Commissioners Court for some time and there being sentiment in Chilton County in favor of and opposing the county using its funds, as aforesaid, for the paving of said road and the members of the Commissioners Court of Chilton county, Alabama, and the Probate Judge are desirous of knowing the sentiment of the qualified voters of Chilton county, upon this question, and

Whereas, there will be an election held in Chilton county on December 17, 1935, and without any added expense to the tax-payers, the question of whether or not Chilton county shall enter into said project for the paving of said road, as aforesaid, is deemed by the Commissioners Court and the Judge of Probate a proper one to be submitted to the qualified voters of Chilton county along with said election on December 17, 1935.

Be is therefore resolved, that the Probate Judge and Chairman of this Court, shall have prepared a sufficient number of ballots for this election in substantially the folowing form:

Referendum Ballot on Hard Surfacing Maplesville Highway

"Shall Chilton county enter into an agreement with the State Highway Commission of Alabama, whereby a sum not exceeding $42,000.00 shall be deducted from Chilton county's portion of the gasoline funds, said sum to be deducted in the amount of 1c per gallon each month for the purpose of paying Chilton County's part toward paving or hard surfacing with bituminous surface twenty miles of the Clanton-Plantersville State-owned road, from a point four miles west of Clanton to the Dallas county line," and that the Judge of Probate also furnish the regular election officials who have been appointed to hold the special election December 17, with all necessary and sufficient supplies for the purpose of holding this referendum vote and also be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be furnished both the Chilton County News and The Union-Banner in order that the people might understand the issue before them, and it is further requested by the Court that the regular election officers cooperate with the Court in the conduct of this referendum vote and that each qualified voter be given one of these ballots and as soon as the ballot is voted that the same be deposited in a box or receptacle to be provided by the Probate Judge, and the same to be returned by the returning officer to the Judge of Probate, there to be held by him until the meeting of this court on the 18th day of December, 1935, at which time the court of County Commissioners will count, canvass and declare the result of this referendum election.

J. LEE SMITH, Judge of Probate.

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

666
Liquid - Tablets
Salve - Nose Drops

Checks COLDS and FEVER
First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company

Change in Time Effective Dec. 12, 1935.
Train 10 Daily for Birmingham will leave 3:09 P. M., instead of 3:54 P. M.

L&N

For Particulars Consult Ticket Agent,
L. & N. R. R.

SLEEP! Tonight!

When the worries, noise, confusion, high-tension work, or hectic pleasures of your waking hours "get on your nerves," here is a simple time-tested preparation that will bring a feeling of calm and relaxation and allow you to get a good night's sleep. Dr. Miles Nervine quiets your nerves. It is not habit-forming and does not depress the heart. Why take chances with dangerous habit-forming drugs? Why use narcotics that make you dull and depressed?

Relief!
For Nervousness
Sleeplessness
Irritability
Restlessness
Nervous Headache
Nervous Indigestion

Millions have found relief, relaxation, sleep, by using Dr. Miles Nervine. Although first used more than fifty years ago, Dr. Miles Nervine is as up to date as today's newspaper. Nothing better for the home treatment of overtaxed nerves has ever been discovered.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles Nervine. We guarantee relief, or your money back, with the first bottle or package.

DR. MILES' NERVINE
Liquid and Effervescent Tablets

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies — Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :—: :—: Alabama

ORIGINAL

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

Glee Club selection will feature the Sunday evening seven o'clock service. Prof. Edd Glasscock and his glee club from Concord school will render Christmas music Sunday evening.

At the eleven o'clock hour the pastor will speak on the subject "What Irritates You?"

Church school will begin at 9:45. Young peoples' league services will be at 6:15 p.m.

Be at church Sunday!

Mrs. Floyd Smith was a business visitor in Montgomery Friday evening.

RETURN GIN CERTIFICATES

To all cotton producers:

Dear Sir:

If you have gin certificates that were not used or sold and you want to sell them, please return them to this office at once.

Regular certificates in the tan folder can be sent to the National Pool for sale at 4c per pound less the cost of administration.

Two-bale certificates in the green folder will have to be returned to the State Officer and reissued into regular certificates before they can be sold.

It will be necessary for the person in whose name the certificates were issued to sign Form Nr. B.A. 317 declaring these certificates surplus before they can be sold.—Very truly yours, J. W. Fant, County Agent.

ESTRAY MULE

Dark bay mare mule, weight about 950 pounds, came to my place Nov. 16th. Owner may get same by paying for keep and this advertisement.—M. C. Wyatt, Clanton Route 3, Lay Dam Road, 4 miles from Clanton.

OFFICIAL CALL FARMERS UNION REGULAR CONVENTION, THORSBY

By authority of the Constitution and by-laws, I hereby call a regular County Convention of the Chilton County Union at Thorsby public school, December 14th, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, and to formulate plans and policies for the coming year, and transact such other business as may come before the Convention. The public is invited until 12 o'clock.—B. S. Frederick, Secretary and Treasurer, F. E. and C. U. of A.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

DANCE AT GULLEDGE CAMP

There will be an old-fashioned square dance at Charlie Gulledge's camp on Coosa River, Friday night, December 13th. You are invited.—Charlie Gulledge.

AUTOMOBILE ABANDONED

A Dodge sedan was left at my place about two weeks ago. Owner may get same by furnishing description and proof of ownership.—O. W. Daniel, Clanton Route 4.

12-4-2t-pd

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

MILCH COWS FOR SALE—Two good milch cows with young calves for sale. Walter Fiquett, Clanton, Ala. 12-513t-pd.

FARM FOR RENT—2-horse farm, 1½ miles southeast of Thorsby, known as the Charles Swanson farm; 40 acres in cultivation and 40 acres of good pasture; good house and barn. See owner.—Charles Swanson, Thorsby, Alabama. 1tpd.

WANTED 6 GIRLS—To learn Beauty at once, easy terms, positions waiting.—Academy of Gardner's Beauty Shoppe, Inc. 4tpd.

FOR SALE AT AUCTION—Two farms, 1½ miles west of Jemison; 3 lots in Clanton, on Liberty and Wade Streets; date Thursday, December 19; city property to be sold at 10 a.m. and farms at 1 p.m. on premises.—King Auction Co., Leslie C. King, Mgr., Gadsden, Ala. 1tc

FARM FOR SALE—40 acres, located 1 mile from Thorsby depot, running everlasting water; 28 acres in cultivation; dwelling and out-buildings. — J. A. M. Bosworth, Thorsby, Alabama. 1tpd.

FOR SALE—Two boy's overcoats—sizes 6 and 8 years; first quality, low price. Can be seen at Clanton Junior Department Store, next to Clanton Cash Store.—Chas. Cooper. 1c

Circuit Court Docket Remainder This Week

Thursday, December 12, 1935

Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer.
Lonza Clifton Robinson, assault and battery.
Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer in making a lawful arrest.
Lonza Clifton Robinson, resisting an officer in making a lawful arrest.
Joe Ben McDowell, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.
Alton P. Barefield bastardy.
Horace Busby et al, defaulting bond.
Walter Scott, murder, first degree.
Walter Parker, alias Buster Parker, murder, first degree.

Friday, December 13th, 1935

Jim Shear, unlawfully presenting firearms.
J. Curtis Ingram, violating prohibition law.
Noah Chadwick, violating prohibition law.
Howard William Jones, violating prohibition law.
Leonard P. Easterling, violating prohibition law.
Edgar Williams, violating prohibition law.
Jesse Adams, violating prohibition law.
George Cleckler, violating prohibition law.
Guy B. Green, violating prohibition law.
Julius Culp, violating prohibition law.
Luther Jones, violating rohibition law.
Jim Arthur Mims, violating prohibition law.
Glenn Chandler, violating prohibition law.
T. J. Parrish, alias Tera Parrish, violating prohibition law.
Terah Parrish, alias T. J. Parrish, violating prohibition law.
Joe Moore, unlawfully presenting
Sam Wilkins, violating prohibition law.
James Caver, violating prohibition law.
Jessie Keith, violating prohibition law.
Sam Graves, alias Buster Graves, violating prohibition law.
Limul Sheppard, violating prohibition law.

Saturday, December, 14, 1935

Gattis Deloach, driving motor vehicle while intoxicatted.
Ben Roberts, violating prohibition law.
James O. Turner, obtaining board by fraud.
James O. Turner, fraudulent check.
Abram Mims, violating prohibition law.
Judge Barber, abusive, indecent and obscene language.
Jesse Jackson, violating prohibition law.
Levy King, driving automobile recklessly.
Lee Simpson, violating prohibition law.
Jim Fisher, violating prohibition law.
James Elijah Easterling, violating prohibition law.
Lorenza D. Mims, violating prohibition law.
Earnest Parker, abusive, indecent and obscene language.
Arch Payton, violating prohibition law.
Polly Love, assault and battery.
Edgar Leach, manufacturing whiskey and possession of a still.
Eugene Love, violating prohibition law.
Jinks Pearson, violating prohibition law.
Harvey Price, violating prohibition law.
Greed C. Ray, violating prohibition law.
Tom Thomas, violating prohibition law.
Horace Mims, violating prohibition law.
Monroe Scott, violating prohibition law.
Gip W. Melton, violating prohibition law.
William Baker, violating prohibition law.
Neva Price, violating prohibition law.
Dewey Price, driving while intoxicated.
Henry McCray, violating prohibition law.
Taft Spence, D. Lawrence Spence, Will Burns, and Matthew Wilson, burglary and grand larceny.
Dewey Anderson, abusive indescent and obscene language.
Dolphus Lavert Bates, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.
Andrew Lankford, violating prohibition law.
Truth Ray, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.
Charlie Heard, violating prohibition law.
Taft Lewis, violating prohibition law.
John Rhodes, assault and battery.
Revis Glass, public drunkenness.
Lewis Beasley, carrying a concealed pistol.
Pat Lucas, abusive, indecent and obscene language.
Willie Wilters, carrying concealed weapon.
Jim Varner, violating prohibition law.
Atkins Kimbrel, violating prohibition law.
Archie Caver, carrying concealed pistol.
James W. Walthall, violating prohibition law.
Ted Bowden, violating prohibition law.
J. L. Hayes, violating the Alabama Highway Code—speeding.
Lum Bearden, violating prohibition law.
Isaac Williams, violating prohibition law.
John L. Spiegner, violating prohibition law.
Eddie Lee Wright, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated, public drunkenness, and abusive, indecent and obscene language.
Jim Driver, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Miss Lola Traywick of North Clanton visited with friends and relatives in Wetumpka over the week end.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

CHILTON COUNTY ASSOCIATION MINUTES READY FOR DELIVERY

The minutes for the Chilton County Missionary Baptist Association have been printed and are now ready for distribution to the various churches. The clerk, or someone else interested in each church is urged to call at the Union-Banner office at the first passing and get your prorata share.

Mobile People Want Amendment Passed

Law Will Affect Only That County; Election on December 17

To our Fellow Albamians:

Among he Constitutional Amendments which you will be called upon to vote on in a state-wide election to be held on Tuesday, December 17, 1935, is one which provides for a Constitutional Amendment which only affects Mobile County. This Amendment is being submitted to you at our request, in order that we can get our county on a cash basis and affect the enormous savings of the County which will result from being able to "Pay as you go."

We have carefully studied the proposed Constitutional Amendment which will appear as proposed amendment No. 1 on the official ballot, and each and every member of this Board thinks its passage is of the utmost importance to the future welfare of our county. No county in the state is interested in this Amendment in any manner whatsoever, except Mobile County and we are taking the liberty of addressing this letter to several of the leaders in each of the communities in this state to request that they call this amendment to the attention of their friends and neighbors and try to get out for us on the 17th instant an almost solid vote in favor of this proposed amendment No. 1.

Assuring you of our appreciation of any assistance you may render us in this matter and trusting you will call upon us whenever we can reciprocate your courtesy, we are—Yours very truly, Daniel T. McCall, President; M. B. Herzfield, member; Godfrey W. Alexander, member; W. W. Bolton, member; A. B. Jefferies, member, Board of Revenue and Road Commissioners.

Getting Up Nights

If you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Swollen Joints, Dizziness, Headaches, Loss of Pep, Burning, Smarting, Itching Acidity due to functional Kidney or Bladder troubles, try the Doctor's guaranteed prescription Cystex (Siss-tex). Must bring new vitality in 48 hours, and satisfy completely in 8 days or money back. Guaranteed Cystex costs only 3c a dose at druggists.

Clanton CASH Store

WE DELIVER — BLUE FRONT STORE — PHONE 154

Peoples CASH Store

Thorsby CASH Store

7-OZ CAN — Cranberry Sauce 10c
14-OZ CAN — Cranberry Sauce 19c
1-LB BOX — CRACKERS 10c
STOKELY SIFTED — ENGLISH PEAS 15c

MARKET SPECIALS

(AT CLANTON CASH STORE)

FRESH — SIDE PORK, Lb 20c
FRESH — PIG ROAST, Lb 22c
HOME MADE — PORK SAUSAGE, Lb 23c
BOLOGNA, Lb 15c
FRESH GROUND — MEAT LOAF, Lb 17c
FULL CREAM — CHEESE, Lb 20c
6-LB PAIL — SNOWDRIFT $1.05
3-LB PAIL — SNOWDRIFT 55c

FLOUR SPECIALS

PLAIN or SELF-RISING

24-LB SACK — GOOD NEWS 88c
12-LB — GOOD NEWS 50c
48-LB — GOOD NEWS $1.75
24-LB — MILADY 90c
48-LB SACK — MILADY $1.75
24 LBS — WHITE OWL 98c
48-LB SACK — WHITE OWL $1.90
24-LB — POLLY RICH $1.10
48-LB — POLLY RICH $2.15
24-LB — Whitewater Rose $1.10
48-LB — Whitewater Rose $2.15
24Lb SACK, 1 GLASS FREE Postel ELEGANT $1.20
24-LB — Postel PILLAR $1.00

PRODUCE SPECIALS

POTATOES, Lb 2c
RUTABAGAS, Lb 3c
CABBAGE, Lb 2½c
ONIONS, Lb 4c
GRAPES, Lb 10c
LARGE HEAD — LETTUCE 10c
LARGE BUNCH — CELERY 12½c
BANANAS, Lb 5c
SWEET POTATOES, lb 2c
QUART — CRANBERRIES 25c

SUGAR

10 lbs 53c

LARD

1-LB CARTON — COMPOUND 15c
4-LB CARTON — COMPOUND 55c
PURE, 1-Lb Carton 18c
PURE, 4-Lb Carton 65c

COFFEE

Morning Bracer
FRESH GROUND
Lb 15c
GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT
GROUND FRESH LB — WONDER COFFEE .. 12c

12-OZ PACKAGE — GRAPE NUTS 18c
40% BRAN — Post Bran Flakes 10c

MAXWELL HOUSE — COFFEE, 1-Lb Can .. 28c
MAXWELL HOUSE — COFFEE, 3-Lb Can .. 80c

Soap Specials

PALMOLIVE SOAP .. 5c
SUPER SUDS, 3 for .. 25c
GIANT BARS, 6 FOR — OCTAGON SOAP 25c
LARGE BOXES, 6 FOR — Octagon Powders 25c
OCTOGAN — TOILET SOAP 5c

FEEDS

16% — U. S. DAIRY $1.65
20% — J. D. DAIRY $2.00
16% — Shorts, Pure Wheat $1.75
7%, NEW CROP — C. S. MEAL $1.40
NEW CROP — C. S. HULLS 60c
100-LB SACK — HEN FEED $2.50
LAYING, GROWING OR STARTING — J. D. MASH $2.50
J. D. 26% — Supplemental Mash $2.75

Do NOT fail to see us for your Christmas needs, Candies, Coconuts, Nuts, Fruits and Everything for the Holiday Season

SEEDLESS RAISINS
7-OZ PACKAGE — Seedless Raisins 5c
15-OZ PACKAGE — Seedless Raisins, 3 for 25c

CHRISTMAS SPECIALS

GOOD CREAM AND GUM — GROCERS MIXTURE, Lb 10c
LARGE WITH CREAM CENTER — CHOCOLATE DROPS, Lb 12½c
SMALL WITH CREAM CENTER — CHOCOLATE DROPS, Lb 15c
TVA MIXED CANDY, Lb 12c
PURE COCONUT BON BONS, Lb 15c
CHRISTMAS MIXTURE, Lb 15c
OLD FASHION STICK, 2-Lb Box 25c

Paper Shell PECANS, Lb 15c
Small ENGLISH WALNUTS, Lb 17c
NO. 1 EMERALD — ENGLISH WALNUTS, Lb 20c
BRAZIL NUTS, Lb 15c
LARGE AND SMALL FRESH COCONUTS ..... 5c & 10c
DOZEN — Nice Florida ORANGES 15c & 20c
Winesap and Yorks APPLES, Dozen 15c
Fancy Delicious APPLES, Dozen 25c

POOR O

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION - BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—SIXTEEN PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1935 NUMBER 35

Window Inspection Contest This Week

Merchants Sponsoring Unique Method Of Attracting Attention To Window

Much attention is being directed this week to the ten cash prizes, donated by Clanton merchants and business people, which will be distributed to the winners in the Window Inspection contest sponsored by the Union-Banner. On another page in the paper this week appear the rules of the contest and the prizes to be awarded.

This contest marks the beginning of a "Buy at Home" movement, which is being sponsord by the business people of Clanton, calculated to stimulate the buying of merchandise at home instead of going somewhere else to buy the things that could be bought in Clanton to just as good advantage and at prices that will compare favorably with that bought in other cities. Many thousands of dollars are being spent away from here every year, which, if kept at home, would make Clanton a bigger and better town in which to live.

MARTIN-RASBERRY

A recent marriage of much interest to numbers of people in this community was that of Mr. Charles W. Rasberry to Miss Ruth Martin, which occurred on Friday night, December 13, at Verbena.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin, of Clanton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Rasberry of Mulberry community.

The young couple will make their home for the present with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Willis of north Clanton, the groom's grandparents.

DEWEY MADDOX IS BACK WITH CLANTON LAUNDRY

Beginning last Monday morning Mr. Dewey Maddox took charge of the delivery route of Clanton Laundry.

Mr. Maddox is an experienced laundry man, having worked for the laundry here for several years some time ago, and has been in Montgomery in the same kind of work for the past four years. Mr. Maddox says: "It seems fine to be back home, and will seem still better as soon as I get my hand back into the work."

Mr. J. C. Jones, who has been carrying the laundry route, has accepted a position wth the American Bakeries.

QUAIL BANQUET

A quail banquet was enjoyed by several Clanton men and distinguished out-of-town visitors on Monday night, December 9th, at Nell's Eat Shoppe.

There had been provided for this unique affair, 21 partridges, and the following named gentlemen sat in and enjoyed three of the birds each:

Lewey Eubanks, Solicitor Grover C. Walker, Sherrif, J. R. Hardy, Stanley "Dutch" Nivens, Billy Barger, all of Clanton; Judge Glover and State Solicitor Winston Huddleston of Wetumpka.

Reports were that the affair was quite an enjoyable one, as voiced by "Dutch" Nivens:

"Boy, we had three whole birds each, six legs and three breasts on every plate. We had plenty of time to eat them, and it was a feast fit for a king."

THOMAS M. PYRON DIED MONDAY

Thomas M. Pyron, age 80, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Horace Fulton, at Bessemer. Mr. Pyron had been in bad health for a number of years. He was born January 29, 1855, and would soon have been 81 years old, next month.

"Uncle Tom," as he was affectionately known by hundreds of Clanton people, lived here for many years. For a number of years he conducted a feed and livery business, before the days of the automobile. He was a congenial man, always, and made hundreds of friends. He was for some time chief of police for the Town of Clanton, He was a member of the Clanton Baptist church.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, with Rev. S. J. Ezell officiating. Burial was in the Clanton cemetery.

Mr. Pyron is survived by two sons —Luther and Albert, of Selma; two daughters—Miss Martha Pyron, who lived with him at Bessemer, and Mrs. Horace Fulton of Bessemer; two sisters, one of whom is Mrs. J. W. Jones, wife of the Baptist minister at Thorsby.

MRS. MARY ALICE HART

Mrs. Mary Alice Hart, age 75, died at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, at her home in Clanton. She had been ill for only three days with pneumonia.

Mrs. Hart was born in England, but came to the United States when a young girl. She has lived here for a number of years.

The funeral was held Wednesday at 2:30 p.m., at the home of her son, Eric Hart, in Clanton, with Rev. S. J. Ezell and Rev. A. E. Middlebrooks officiating. Burial was in the Clanton cemetery, with Spigener in charge.

Mrs. Hart is survived by two sons —Eric, of Clanton, and J. Hart, of Columbus, Miss.; two daughters—Miss Fannie E. Hart of Mobile, and Miss Emily May Hart of New Orleans; and eight grand children.

$1,068,344,963 IS GIVEN FOR RELIEF

Washington.—Leaders of the relief drive announced Saturday that to date Comp. Gen. J. R. McCarl has released $1,068,344,963 of the $4,000,000,000 jobs fund for expenditure by state officials of the Works Progress Administration.

McCarl is the arbiter of government spending. His approval is necessary before any of the $4,000,000,000 is released. Besides giving the "go ahead" sign on the $1,068,344,963, which is to be expended by states, he also has approved funds for some nation-wide projects under the $4,000,000,000 program, including $40,000,000 for the National Youth Administration.

State W. P. A. administrators will have latitude in choosing projects to prosecute with the $1,038,344,963. McCarl has approved projects totalling four times that figure, so the administrators may have leeway in adjusting WPA work to employment opportunities created by other agencies.

STATE BOARD ASKS $25,000 FOR ORPHANS

Among the many imortant matters taken up at the Montgomery meeting of the Executive Board of the Alabama Baptist State Convention in Montgomery this week was a Resolution passed urging the pastors and superintendents of Alabama to raise the sum of $25,000.00 as a Christmas contribution to the Orphan's Home. It is supported exclusively by free will contributions and officials are expecting their hopes of $25,000 to be realized this Christmas.

APPEAL FOR HELP FOR ORPHANS HOME AT TROY

According to promise, I will give a few facts and figures learned in regard to the Orphan's Home, while attending the State Convention as a delegate appointed by the Chilton County Association to represent that body.

As we know, the Orphan's Home is located at Troy, Alabama, and that next Sunday, December 22 is set apart for the Christmas cash offering for our children.

Let me urge that all churches interested take this offering and forward same to J. O. Colley, Superintendent of the Home.

The following might be of interest to those who have, and expect to contribute. It requires 735 biscuits, 11 pounds of butter, 3½ gallons of syrup, 17 gallons of milk, and when they have cornflakes, it takes 16 boxes for breakfast.

An analysis of the Home showed a populaton of 174 children on October 1. These children have come from 40 counties in Alabama, from Mobile Bay to the Tennessee Valley, and from the Tombigbee to the Chatahoochee Rivers. They represent 81 families. Most of the children come to the Home accompanied by brothers and sisters. At present there are only 29 children without another member of their family in the Home. Thirteen of these have brothers and sisters who have gone out from the Home to take their place in the world. We have received 41 children during the year, and dismissed 34. We had five graduates from High school last spring.

All children have a thorough physical examination before they are admitted to the Home in order that infectious or contagious diseases may not be brought into the Home. When there has been tuberculosis in the family, an x-ray is required to prove that the child is free of the disease. This is a protection to the child and to the other children in the Home.

Cleveland Set As Place For National Convention

Republicans Will Meet On June 9th To Choose Candidate

Washington, Dec. 16.—A bid for support by anti-Roosevelt Democrats was issued tonight by the Republican national committee, featuring a lively session at which the party's 1936 convention was set for June 9 at Cleveland.

After spirited debate, the national committee also voted for reduced delegations from most states at the June convention. Under the action taken only 997 delegates will go to Cleveland in contrast to the 1,154 who had seats at the Chicago conclave in 1932.

The choosing of the convention city occupied most of the morning. Advocates of Cleveland obviously made an impression when they produced a certified check for $150,000 to help pay the expenses of the meeting.

Winding up the meeting Republicans invited "the millions of constitutional Jeffersonian Democrats" to help them in ousting the Roosevelt administration.

The maneuver was reminiscent of the Roosevelt appeals to Republicans in 1932 and to the consistent efforts of New Dealers to minimize strict party allegiance and strike out for broader objectives.

More recent developments have been the New Deals sponsorship of the Republican senator from Nebraska, George W. Norris, and the wooing of the so-called "progressive" bloc of Republicans in Congress.

The one-day session of the Republican National Committee brought out the theme time and time again. It also struck some key notes for the convention next year and indicated the principal attacks upon the New Deal will be on the charges of waste, incompetence and invasion of State's rights.

J. N. Dennis Urges Registration And Payment Of Poll Taxes

Clanton, Ala., Dec. 16, 1935.

To all young men and women who have become twenty-one years old but who have not registered and met other requirements making you eligible to vote and have a part in your government, let me appeal to you to qualify at your earliest possible opportunity.

We are faced with as great, if not the greatest, issues that ever confronted our forefathers in the founding and developing our country, establishing our rights and freedom and liberties; and in order to maintain said rights we need the help of all honest, true and unselfish citizens, to guarantee the safety of our freedom, our rights and the life of our country.

Some of the things that call for the best thought and help that we have ever been called upon to solve are: Economy in government, making it possible for a greater number of our people to get employment that they may be self supporting, putting a stop to the ever-increasing burden of taxation, graft, waste and debts that do not produce. An aroused public as to political honesty as against graft, racketeering, buying and selling votes directly and indirectly, the illegal use of money and false propaganda in order to defeat the will of our people without any effort on the part of those in power to see that our election laws are enforced and violators punished.

If we prize the benefits guaranteed in our country, our boasted freedom and liberty, it behooves every citizen to qualify for the purpose of making their influence count at the ballot box. If we continue to sleep at the switch and leave it to the politicians and other selfish interests to run our government, we will not have any liberty, freedom or rights to boast of long.

Register, pay your own poll tax, be in a position to vote, then vote your own convictions; and it is yet possible to correct many wrongs and strengthen our rights and government in the interest of its control by its citizens.

Away with the idea that all is fair in politics. Let's stand for honesty and fairness, or we are not worthy of freedom and self government.

J. N. DENNIS.

County Votes Over Two to One In Favor Of Selma Road Paving

Early reports given out Wednesday morning in regard to the paving referendum held last Tuesday were tha the voters of the county had voted from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1 in favor of it.

At the time The Union-Banner went to press the official count had not been made, but Judge J. Lee Smith stated that from the several reports he had received from election managers over the county, he was sure the project carried by a big majority.

Judge Smith pointed out one curious thing about the voting. Some of the beats farthest from the section of the county through which the new road will pass gave the heaviest majorities in favor of it. Some of them went as high as 8 to 1 in favor, although quite distant from the road territory. Only a very few beats gave an adverse decision on it.

Official count was to be made some time Wednesday, and the vote, by beats, will be given in next week's paper.

No official returns could be obtained in regard to the voting in the county on the proposed Constitutional amendments, although it was generally believed that all of them had carried.

J. MONROE RAMSEY COMMITED SUICIDE

J. Monroe Ramsey, age about 55, committed suicide by placing a load from a shotgun into his forehead, Thursday afternoon, December 5th. He was at his home near Selma. Mr. Ramsey, estranged from his wife, was well known around Maplesville and the southwestern part of this county, where he had been connected with the lumber business.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

The office of the sheriff reports 11 arrests made since our last report was printed. Of these, division was as follows:

Two for public drunkenness; released by Justice Court of Beat 2, upon payment of fine and costs.

One for disposing of mortgaged property; bond $500.

One for wilful and malicious legal prosecution; in jail.

One for reckless driving; bond $300.

Two for assault with intent to murder; one of these is still in jail, while the other has been released on $500 bond.

Two for violation of prohibition law; these were taken into custody to begin serving sentence imposed in former court.

Two for rape; one has been released on bond, and the other is in jail.

THE YELLOW FRONT'S FERRIS WHEEL DISPLAY

Much is being said this year about window displays, and there are some of the best in Clanton that we have ever seen. The Christmas spirit is very much in evidence everywhere one looks. The idea is brought out in various and unique ways in different windows.

But so far as uniqueness, at least, is concerned the Yellow Front Store's window ranks among the most outstanding. Mr. W. C. Blacketter, the manager of that store, has built him a miniature ferris wheel that actually runs, and he has dolls seated in the seats going around and around. The little seats are made of strawberry cups. What else the arrangement is made of we will not attempt to say, but it is well worth your looking at.

If you want to see some beautiful sights, take a walk up and down the main streets of Clanton some night before Christmas. You will really get an eye full in most any window you look.

STATE SCHOOLS MENACED ANEW BY BUDGET CUT

Comptroller Charles W. Lee's announcement that 1935 legislative appropriations would have to be trimmed $4,700,000 to conform with estimated revenue Tuesday left educational and health faces with an uncertain future as state functions.

Comptroller Lee's budget for 1935-36 showed that state appropriations of $12,468,772 would have to be reduced $4,732,955 to meet estimated general fund revenue of $7,735,816, with the "trimming" to fall with a heavy hand on education, health and other functions listed as "non-essential."

The comptroller's budget report late Monday brought no comment on special legislative session prospects from Governor Bibb Graves but Dr. J. A. Kellar, state superintendent of education, said that "it means the schools cannot run more than five and a half months."

Schools Get $967,562

Lee's budget and proration figures, based on a supreme court decision outlining the essential functions of government, showed that the public schools would receive $967,562 from the general fund instead of the $3,660,516 general fund appropriation made by the 1935 legislature.

The state health department's $197,100 appropriation for the central office here will not be affected by the proration but its appropriation of $202,900 to aid county health units will be reduced to $53,626.

UNION-BANNER WILL COME OUT EARLY NEXT WEEK

In order to give the "force" a chance to take Christmas next Wednesday, and so that the merchants and business men will have another "last call" for Christmas trade in the way of advertising, The Union-Banner will come to you on Christmas Eve next week, which is Tuesday.

This is going to require quite a bit of pull and push, and we urge our friends help us out in the undertaking. All correspondence and copy for advertising must be in Saturday and Monday morning.

We urge you not to fail us. Write your letters in just as early as possible, because it is really going to be a "squeeze" with us at the best.

DR. GRAGG WRITES TO FRIENDS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a few lines to say to my friends at home that I am feeling better already. The weather is not so much like summer, as usual here but I have improved very much and hope to be back almost by the time this is in print.

There is much evidence of the hurricane here, however, you don't hear the Florida folks say much about it. They seem to want to forget it, which is best, I suppose.

I attended the air races and saw some good flying. There were more than 800 ships attending the meet. There were some ships and many people from foreign countries. Several records were broken, enough to bring "Air Supremacy" back from France, who had taken it away from the U.S.

One of the most noticable things is the big airships in Florida. Large fields, several hundred acres, well lighted, and with adequate hangars at every town of any size. More than a dozen such fields are here in Miami. You meet aviation trucks on the road like our highway trucks at home.

I sincerely hope that, when I return, I will find that final arrangements have been consummated by our County authorities, whereby our county can have a worthwhile field. Some of our people need the work and can certainly use the money given by Uncle Sam, and the people will find the field needed for transportation, amusement, relaxation and a place to spend the time in getting together in useful and interesting entertainment. Let's forge ahead, and not fall behind.

As before stated, I feel better and expect to be back, hard at work, in a few days.

Best wishes to all.—V. J. Gragg.

WILL SING CAROLS

The Junior and Juvenile Music Clubs will sing carols on Christmas Eve. A lighted candle in the window will be a signal that the children are welcome.

A free-will offering will be taken for the benefit of the crippled children's clinic.

FUNERAL HELD FOR W. P. ALDRIDGE AT MARBURY

Funeral services for W. P. Aldridge of Marbury, who died at a Montgomery hospital last Wednesday, were held from the home of R. L. Aldridge, of Mt. Creek, Friday at 10:30 a.m., with the Rev. J. M. Hamric officiating. Burial was in the Marbury cemetery with Spigener Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Alridge is survived by his widow; four daughters, Mrs. Marcelet Spencer, Misses Frances, Evelyn and Sue Aldridge; one son, James Aldridge, all of LaGrange, Ga.; mother, Mrs. Robert Aldridge, Marbury; three brothers, Thomas J. Aldridge, Clanton, Robert, Jr., Marbury, and John P. Aldridge, of Verbena; five sisters, Mrs. M. J. Connell, Mt. Creek, Mrs. B. gomery, H. Howell, Mrs. J. L. Wilson, both of Birmingham, Mrs. Henry Cooper, of Montgomery, and Mrs. Lily Ellis, of Marbury.

During a pause in the sermon the deacon leaned over and whispered to the minister: "Remember, you were going to say something about the high cost of living."

"I haven't forgotten it," replied the minister. "I'll speak of it after the collection has been taken up."

Judge—Have you ever appeared as a witness in this suit before, madam?

Witness—No, your honor, I think the last time I wore a brown afternoon gown. How do you like this new one?

Farmers Union Meeting At Court House Friday

County-Wide Gathering Called At Clanton Courthouse December 20th

The Farmers Educational and Cooperative Union of America, in a convention at Thorsby last Saturday, called for a farmers meeting at the courthouse next Friday, December 20, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. E. H. Everson, national president of the Farmers Educational and Cooperative Union of America will speak to the farmers of Chilton County on the above date.

President Everson is from St. Charles, South Dakota, but is well known in Washington, D. C., for his able fight he has made in behalf of the farmers. The State Secretary will also be present on this date.

Every farmer in Chilton County should make a sacrifice to attend this meeting.

The convention asked that both the county papers carry this announcement. The Farmers Union thanks The Union-Banner for the space they have given to the farmers' cause, but feel that The Chilton County News hasn't given us quite justice. We, as members of the F. E. and C. U. of A., and subscribers to both papers hope to have the cooperation of both papers.

Remember the date, next Friday, December 20th, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. Everybody come.—J. L. Williams, sec.

ALL GROCERY STORES CLOSE CHRISTMAS DAY

The Union-Banner has been asked to carry the announcement that all the grocery stores of Clanton will be closed Christmas day all day. The trade may be governed acordingly.

Circuit Court Cases Tried Last Week

Many Cases Disposed of By Judge Glover In Full Week of Court

The following cases were disposed of in last week's session of Circuit Court:

Will Burns, grand larceny; jury and verdict of guilty; fined $25.00 and costs.

O. T. Cobb, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated; jury and verdict of guilty; fined $100.00

Taft Lewis, violating prohibition law; plead guilty; fined $50.00 and costs.

T. H. Parrish, alias, Terah Parrish, violating prohibition law; plead guilty; fined $75.00.

Raymond Hayes, abusive, indecent and obscene language; jury and verdict of guilty; confession for fine and costs, to be paid at next term of court.

George Franklin, shooting a firearm into a church; jury and verdict not guilty.

Jess Edwards, assault and battery; jury and verdict not guilty.

Eugene Scott and Lula Wallace, adultery; adjudged not guilty, and court costs placed against Lonnie Rhodes, prosecutor.

Jesse Bethel, grand larceny; jury and verdict of guilty; sentenced from two to three years in penitentiary.

Jesse Bethel, grand larceny; plead guilty; sentenced to from 20 to 30 months in penitentiary.

Walter Scott, first degree murder; jury and verdict of guilty of first degree manslaughter; sentenced to four years in penitentiary; case appealed, and bond fixed at $1,000.00.

Dewey Price, driving motor vehicle while intoxicated; plead guilty; sentenced to hard labor 30 days for fine, and six months additional punishment.

Dewey Price, violating prohibition law; plead guilty; sentenced 20 days for fine, 55 days for cost, and four months additional punishment.

Dewey Price, abusive, indecent and obscene language; plead guilty; sentenced hard labor 10 days for fine, 27 days for cost, and four months additional punishment.

Adell Samuels, alias Adell Sandels, shooting a fire arm into a dwelling house; plead guilty; fined $50.00 and costs, and five months hard labor as additional punishment.

Arthur Bogue, violating prohibition law; plead guilty; sentenced hard labor 20 days for fine, 54 days for cost, and six months additional punishment.

Jesse Bethel, petit larceny; plead guilty; sentenced hard labor 20 days for fine, 27 days for cost, and four months additional punishment.

Fuller Samuels, petit larceny; plead guilty; sentenced hard labor 20 days for fine, 27 days for costs, and four months additional punishment.

John Hines, assault to murder; jury and verdict of guilty; sentenced to from five to seven years in penitentiary.

Walter Parker, first degree murder; jury and verdict of guilty; sentenced to life in penitentiary.

Fuller Samuels, grand larceny; plead guilty; sentenced to from 20 to 30 months in penitentiary.

In addition to the above cases, a number were appealed to the Court of Appeals, another group were continued, and 13 cases were nolle prossed. Of the 13 nolle prossed cases, there were four for violating the prohibition law, two for resisting an officer, two for assault and battery, one for driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, one for abusive, indecent and obscene language, one for unlawfully presenting firearms, one for carrying a concealed pistol and for abusive language, and one for reckless driving.

CLANTON METHODIST CHURCH

Special Christmas programs at both the morning and evening services Sunday. At the 11 o'clock hour the program will consist of stories of the carols by Miss Alice Polk and the pastor, and Christmas music by the choir and a quartet.

White Christmas program at 5 p.m. The altar will be decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Reid Mullins and her committee. A beautiful play will be rendered by a large cast of local church talent. Classes and departments in the church school will bring their Christmas gifts to the altar and a silver offering will be taken. All the proceeds are for the orphanage. The public is invited to these services.

At 6:15 the young people will have their regular Epworth League service. They are planning a watch-night service program for New Year's Eve. The entire church will be invited to this midnight service that will close with Holy Communion.

KIWANIS CLUB MEETING

The regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club will be held Thursday night at 7:30 at the Exchange Hotel. A feature of the meeting will be a "Buy at Home" movement, whcih is being sponsored by the business and professional men of Clanton and The Union-Banner. The chairman of the program committee requests that all members who can possibly do so attend this meeting as a most interesting program is promised.

ORIGINAL

CHRISTMAS

Food Specials Dec. 20 to 24th

For The Xmas. Feast

A&P FOOD STORES

EIGHT-O'CLOCK
COFFEE
lb 15c 3-lb bag 43c

IONA YELLOW CLING
Peaches No. 2½ Can 15c

NUTLEY OLEO, 1-lb Carton 15c
WESSON OIL, Pt. can ..22c; Qt. can ..42c

IONA PINEAPPLE OR
PEARS 2 No. 2½ Cans 35c

SNOWDRIFT, 3-lb pail 53c; 6-lb pail $1.05
Rajah Salad Dressing pt jar 15c 10½ oz jar 25c

WHITE HOUSE
Milk 4 Tall or 8 Baby Cans 25c

RICE, PRUNES, or NAVY BEANS, lb ..5c
LUX SOAP, Xmas. Pack, 4 cakes 25c

SUNNYFIELD
FLOUR 24-lb Bag $1.00 48-lb Bag $2.00

Richerts Flour 24-lb Bag 95c 48-lb Bag $1.85
SCOCO or Swifts Jewel bulk lb 13c 4 lb ctn 55c

HOLIDAY SUGGESTIONS

None Such - Pkg MINCE MEAT	15c	Calimyrna Layer FIGS, lb	19c
Chocolate Covered CHERRIES, box	29c	English WALNUTS, lb	17c
Marvin DATES, pkg	10c	Shelled ALMONDS, lb	65c
Cavalcade CHOCOLATES, 1-lb box	45c	Queen Anne MINCE MEAT, pkg	10c
Del May CHOCOLATES, 1-lb box	29c	Cranberry SAUCE, can (Ocean Spray)	18c
Assorted CREAMS, lb	15c	Shelled PECANS, 7-oz Basket	25c
Gum DROPS, lb	12½c	Stuart PECANS, lb	15c
Coconut BON - BONS, lb	19c	Mixed NUTS, lb	19c
King's Mixture HARD CANDY, lb	10c	King Cole Brazil NUTS, lb	19c
Magic City Assorted STICK, 2-lb box	25c	Orange, Lemon, Citron PEEL, lb	35c
Magic City Mint STICK, 10-oz each	10c	Glace CHERRIES, lb	55c
Bleached RAISINS, lb	10c	Glace PINEAPPLE, lb	50c
Thompson's RAISINS, 2-lb pkg	17c	A. & P. PUM'P'KIN, No. 2½ can	10c
London Layer RAISINS, lb	10c	Brer Rabbit SYRUP, No. 1½ can	10c
Muscat RAISINS, 12-oz pkg	10c	A.&P. Grape JUICE, Pint	15c
Calimyrna FIGS, 8-oz Brick	10c	Quart	28c
		Fine Granulated SUGAR, 10-lb bag	53c

GRANDMOTHER'S
FRUIT CAKES lb 39c 2 lbs 75c

SHILOH NEWS

Our Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. are still progressing nicely. Everybody continue to come and let's make it the best we have ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Keen and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Seals of Maplesville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Stroud and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Billingsley were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bice.

Rev. T. W. Billingsley was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nelson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Owens were the Sunday dinner guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Traywick.

A wedding of much interest was that of Mr. Arnold Mullins and Miss Mattie Lou Wilson, which was quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Saturday night. Everyone wishes for them many happy years together.

Misses Willie Nell and Evelyn Owens were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Marzelle Traywick.

Miss Louise Wilson was the Sunday dinner guest of Misses Ethel, Etta, Truitt, Aileen, Myrtice and Annie Mullins.

Messrs. John Nelson and Warren Keen, Mrs. Minnie Mullins and Misses Eloise Keen, Zula, Emma, Mable and Mary Nelson spent several enjoyable hours with Mr. Carlos and Miss Willie Nell Owens Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mullins were the Sunday dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mullins.

Mr. Carlos Owens was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. John Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Billingsley were the Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bice.

Miss Truitt Mullins spent Saturday night with Miss Louise Wilson.

We lack lots having our new church completed, and can't finish it until we get some more money. If there is anyone that has some to give, we will appreciate it.—Reporter.

AUCTION SALES TODAY

Thursday, December 19th, (today), the King Auction Company of Gadsden, will conduct two auction sales in Chilton county. At 10 a.m. three city lots on Liberty Street and Wade Avenue in Clanton will be sold. At 1 p.m. two farms, 1½ miles west of Jemison, will be sold. There will be free prizes and music. The sale will be under the direct supervision of Mr. Leslie C. King, auctioneer, of Gadsden.

Calloway Drug Company's line of fire crackers and other fire works is complete. You are invited to trade with Calloway, Clanton.

TRADE CHIEFS OPEN BATTLE ON NEW DEAL

Business Leaders To Seek Defeat Of Congressmen Who Aid Roosevelt

A campaign of industry to displace Southern Congresmen who continue to support Roosevelt New Deal policies was threatened at Birmingham Monday at the third annual convention of the Southern States Industrial Council.

"Southern industry will try to convince Southern Congressmen of the error of supporting the New Deal," declared Charles C. Gilbert, Nashville secretary of the organization. "If we canot show them the error of their way, we will seek to displace them."

Approximately 200 delegates, representing 14 Southern states were in attendance.

Distributing a pamphlet showing the vote of each Southern Congressman on various measures in the past session, Secretary Gilbert contended that many of them would have voted against the New Deal, except they were afraid of Administration pressure.

"The socialistic tendencies of the Administration," he said, "will cause many to show changed views at the coming session. It is a great compliment to Southern industry that it has been able to survive the ordeal of the New Deal.

"About 60,000 Southern workers have been called back to jobs since the so-called breathing spell was authorized. This number will be further increased if the 'breathing spell does not turn out to be just a mere gesture.'

"Unless problems of employers and employees are left to them to settle between themselves, the situation will be greatly aggravated."

Mr. Gilbert declared that there is much "unreasonable, unjust, un-American legislation now pending in Congress and supported by President Roosevelt, which must be militantly fought by Southern industry."

Mr. Gilbert distributed a pamphlet by David Lawrence, Republican journalist, attacking the New Deal as coercive.

He appealed to Southern agriculture to join industry in fighting the major New Deal policies, and asked particularly for financial aid for the campaign.

VOTERS FAVOR 6 STATE PROPOSALS

Scattered Returns Reveal Substantial Lead For The Entire Amendment List

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 17. — A steadily mounting majority in favor of ratification on scattered returns from 307 out of 2,186 ballot boxes in Alabama indicated tonight that the few voters who went to the polls in today's general election favored the proposals.

The narrowest margin on any one proposal was for Number 4 under which county officers in Tuscaloosa and Calhoun Counties would be placed on salaries and the fee system abolished. Totals showed 4,451 for ratification and 2,631 against.

None of the amendments could be declared safe, but on the trend from the 25 counties represented in the returns, it appeared that unless there was a radical reversal in the other counties unreported none would be defeated. A vote of less than 75,000 was indicated.

The only statewide proposal submitted was No. 2 under which withdrawable funds and repurchasable stock of building and loan associations would be exempt from the franchise tax.

This amendment under which Mobile County would be authorized to issue $1,600,000 in refinancing bonds to retire its floating debt, the largest majority had been rolled up. The vote for ratification was 4,919, to 1,641 against.

There was 4,489 votes for ratification to 2,007 against on the amendment to authorize the City of Attalla to levy a one per cent ad valorem tax for retiring school bonds and other municipal purposes. This amendment however carries a proviso that a majority of the voters of that county must vote for the tax in order for it to become effective.

The two Lawrence County amendments also rolled along with growing majorities. The first, to authorize the county to issue $130,000 in bonds to build a courthouse, had 4,600 votes for and only 1,720 against. The second authorizing certain school districts to levy a three mill tax for schools had a majority of 4,460 for to 1,745 against. This amendment polled heavy affirmatives in Lawrence county, as did the courthouse measure.

SINGING AT POPLAR SPRINGS NEXT SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Though the weather was cold Sunday and Sunday night we had good services. The B. Y. P. U. especially, was good. It seems we are growing all the time. There is nothing to hinder in God's services if the spirit is there.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our preaching days. Don't forget any of the services. Saturday services at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'clock Sunday and preaching at 11 o'clock and singing at 2 o'clock. All singers as well as listeners are invited. A great singing is expected. Come and bring your books.

The fifth Sunday at 11 o'clock Rev. Maurice Hodgens, a young preacher, will preach at this place. Then following B. Y. P. U., Rev. W. E. Robinson from Friendship will preach. Don't forget the date and show them a large crowd at both services.

She: "Don't you love driving on a moonlight night like this?"

He: "Yeah, but let's wait until we get out of town."

Wednesday, Dec. 25, 1935

A THOUSAND . . . nine hundred . . . thirty-six years ago, a baby was given life by a beautiful girl to whom motherhood was miraculously granted. That baby was cradled in a manger, and the scent of myrrh sweetened His slumbers. He was a hearty, strong baby, and in His eyes glowed a light over-wise for one so shortly on this earth. He became known to mankind as Jesus Christ, and the Anniversary of His birth is

CHRISTMAS

Holiday Specials
FOR THE LADIES

All Silk Ringless Hose Phoenix. Very popular $1.00
Gift House Slippers, Kids and Felts 95c TO $1.95
Fancy Colored Gift Towels 49c and 59c
Pillow Cases, Hand-Worked In Gift Boxes 98c
Boxed Handkerchiefs From ..... 25c Up
All Wool Flannel Robes In beautiful asst. colors $4.95
Bridge, Vanity and Luncheon Sets ..... 49c Up
Goldette Under-Apparel. Luxurious and Economical 50c TO $2.95

AS the Old Year draws to a close amid the good cheer and fellowship of Christmastide, we desire to express anew our gratitude for manifold courtesies extended, for the cordial relations we have enjoyed, for the new friends made and old friendships more closely cemented, and to wish for one and all a Very Merry Christmas and the Happiest and the Most Prosperous New Year you have ever known.

Holiday Specials
FOR MEN and BOYS

VanHeusen Shirts or Pajamas, the garment $1.59
Men's and Boy's Ties in Gift Boxes 39c 50c $1.00
Men's and Boy's Kid Gloves $1.00 UP TO $2.50
Belt and Buckle Sets, in Beautiful Gift Boxes 89c TO $1.49
Men's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs 25c and 50c
Men's Lounging Robes $1.95 TO $7.50
Men's Tie and Handkerchief Sets $1.00
Sport Suspenders In Gift Boxes 89c

ROCKETT DRY GOODS CO.

(Formerly Taylor Dry Goods Company)

CLANTON ALABAMA

POOR C

PLEASANT HILL

As it has been some time since we have furnished The Union-Banner with any news from our community, we are yet happy to say that our church work is still moving along fine. We had a mighty good attendance for our week end services, and I don't believe I have ever heard any messages from the Bible so true as the ones our pastor, Rev. W. E. Robinson delivered to the church of Pleasant Hill on Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. Nevertheless, we noticed that several were absent and we missed you. We want to urge you to be with us next Sunday. What a fine thing it would be if every member would stop and think that what ever is being caried on at our church is part our's. Let's get busy and keep our church growing by always doing our duty.

We wish to announce that we are going to have preaching services at our church on December 25th, beginning at 2 o'clock p.m. Our pastor will have charge, so let's go and take our company with us and celebrate one Christmas in the right way.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion and son, Central Cost, Alta Mae Blow, Dewey Cleckler and Lloyd Barnett were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Cleckler and family last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Martin and children, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cleckler and son and Rev. W. E. Robinson were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Brasher.

Miss Ollie Belle Davis and Miss Odell Ellison spent Sunday with Miss Pearline Martin.

Mr. Earnest Connell, Boot Collins, Miss Jessie Cleckler and Miss Lillian Mims were the spend-the-day guests of Miss Hazel Blow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Place and children of Clanton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Martin.

Don't forget our Sunday school every Sunday.

We wish everyone a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.—Reporter

CONCORD 4-H CLUB

The Concord 4-H C ub met Thursday, December 12th, with Miss Pardue.

We sang two songs before the demonstrations were given. The subject of the demonstration talks was the background of a bedroom. Alice Mae Robinson was captain of this month's demonstration. The subject for next month's demonstration will be the arrangement of furniture, with Delene Cleckler as captain.

Our next meeting will be held on December 11th.—Reporter.

NEW PLIER BABY BOY

A new baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jr. Plier, of Pleasant Hill on last Saturday night. Both mother and baby were doing fine at the last report.

Billingsley News

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Shanner and attractive children of Mathes Station spent the past week end with Mrs Shanner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Davis of North Carolina were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson last Sunday.

The many friends of Mr. Loury Rice will be glad to know that he is improving after a severe attack of flu.

Mrs. J. F. Apperson, Mrs. Ada Wimberly, Miss Bertha Dennis and Miss Annie Cherry made a business trip to Prattville Saturday.

Quite a number of our people attended the minstrel at Haynes-Vid last Friday night.

Miss Mabel King spent the past week end in Birmingham with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Thompson of Corinth, Miss., have returned after spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. W. A. Gandy.

Mrs. E. B. Mills visited her brother, Mr. Carson Culp at Oak Grove last wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Higgin Pattillo spent Sunday p.m. with Mrs. Pattillo's mother, Mrs. Ola Edwards at Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ware of Salem visited friends and relatives in our town last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes spent Friday in Birmingham shopping.

STATE NEWS PARAGRAPHED

A Resume Of The More Important Events Of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form

Emmette E. Whittle was reelected chairman, Butler County Board of Education, at a recent meeting.

The date for filing final briefs in the Southern Bell Telephone Co. rate case has been extended until Dec. 20.

Plans have been completed to restore buildings at Southern Union College at Wadley recently destroyed by a fire.

Decatur has been awarded a National Guard company, Adjt-Gen. John Coleman notified T. C. Almon, city attorney.

Redemption of 10,000 acres of barren Macon County land has been started by the Rural Resettlement Administration.

The Fletcher Cotton Mill at Huntsville has resumed operations. The mill opened with its normal force of approximately 200.

David J. Davis has been appointed by President Roosevelt as United States district judge for the Northern District of Alabama.

The Federal Communications Commission has granted permission to James D. Doss, Jr., to build a broadcasting station at Tuscaloosa.

Alabama farmers have been awarded a national loving cup for showing the greatest increase in Farm Bureau membership of any state in the United States.

John L. Neely, Jr., secretary of the Tennessee Valley announced he had obtained final approval and release of $175,000 in WPA funds to develop the Muscle Shoals Airport.

Howard Cornelius, former deputy tax collector at Gadsden, was given an indeterminate sentence of from three and a half ta five years in the penitentiary for altering public records.

Albert Rains, city attorney of Gadsden, has announced he will be a candidate for U. S. representative from the Fifth Alabama district, subject to next year's Democratic primaries.

Pity the poor bailiff! Atty. Gen. A. A. Carmichael has ruled that a bailiff, even though ordered by the court to attend Grand Juries overnight, is not entitled to his meals and lodgings.

Luther Patrick, Birmingham attorney and radio entertainer, has formally announced his candidacy for congressman from the Ninth Alabama district in next May's Democratic primary.

New warrants charging the "Scottsboro defendants" with the assault of two white girls abroad a freight train near Scottsboro in 1931 have been served on the nine Negroes in Jefferson County jail.

With orders for between 50,000 and 60,000 tons of rail on hand or definitely assured, the Ensley rail mill of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co. will operate steadily until April 1 and perhaps longer.

Officers of the Colbert County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs for 1936 are Mrs. H. C. Twitty, Allsboro, president; Miss Grace Quinn, Leighton, secretary; and Mrs. Clyde Waldrep, Barton, treasurer.

State attorneys indicated they would appeal to the United States Supreme Court from a Federal Court injunction preventing state tax officials from collecting $1,600,000 in gasoline excise taxes from the Texas Oil Co.

Atty. Tom Judge, representing the state, said that he expected to institute proceedings in Circuit Court soon to force Birmingham and JeffersonCounty to pay the state tax on gasoline used by the two governmental divisions.

C. S. Culver, tax collector of Etowah County, from Oct. 30, 1933, to Oct. 1, 1935, had the most accurate books they ever examine, State Examiners L. A. Crumley and John Sanders, Jr., reported to Governor Graves.

With $128,000 already on the highway patrol fund, Gov. Graves announced that a sure-fire check would be launched soon by the state's 74-man patrol to see that all car owners purchased driver's licenses in accordance with the 1935 law.

In the opinion of Birmingham real estate men returning from the recent Southeastern regional meeting of the National Association of Real Estate Boards in Atlanta, not only Alabama, but the entire Southeast, will witness at least twice as much building activity in 1936 as in 1935.

Miss Elisabeth Carter of Montgomery conducted her dancing classes Monday and Tuesday of this week instead of Friday and Saturday.

CHRISTMAS SALE

Begins Sat., Dec. 14 Ends Xmas Eve 24

A Sincere Wish to Our Friends and Customers for a Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year

SUGAR
Finest Granulated 10 Pounds for 50c

Reg. 5c Size MATCHES 3 Boxes 10c

SOAP Large O. K. 3 Bars 10c

MARSHMALLOWS 1-Pound Package for 15c

DRIED FRUITS
PRUNES lb 5c
PEACHES lb. 12½c
APPLES lb. 12½c

PECANS Large Paper Shell, lb. 10c

Men's Dress HOSE 15c & 25c pr.

SWEATERS Greatly Reduced
ONE GROUP Your Choice 98c
ONE GROUP Your Choice 69c

PRACTICAL GIFTS FOR MEN
HATS — CAPS — SHAVING STANDS — PAJAMAS — SUSPENDERS — KNIVES.
Our Stocks Are Complete on These Suggested Items — Popular Prices

LADIES' FULL FASHION HOSE pr. 59c
EXTRA SPECIAL — Buy Any Full Fashion Hose in our Stock, including our Regular 79c Quality during this Sale at the special price of 59c. "Season's Leading Shades"

24-LB. BAG BIG TALKER OR GEO WASHINGTON FLOUR 85c
48-Lb. Bag, $1.65
24 lbs. Gold Medal $1.10
24 lb. Orient Flour $1.20

TOYS AND GIFTS

MICKEY MOUSE MECHANICAL TOPS 25c
ALL STEEL, BALL BEARING SKATES PR. $1.00
TEA SETS 10c - 25c - 50c - $1.00
TEA SETS 5c BISQUE DOLLS
POP GUNS DOLLS IN BOX
—HARPS—CLOWN ON LADDER—
PISTOLS 10c TRUMPETS
SWORDS RATTLES
TEA SETS— GARAGES— RUBBER DOLLS — DOG FAMILIES
CORNETS 15c AIR PORTS
PISTOL SETS Mec. Tricycles
25c DOLLS 50c
$1.00 THE LARGEST LINE $1.98 OF DOLLS WE'VE EVER SHOWN
POLICE SETS COMPLETE FOR 25c
TOY MACHINE GUNS 50c

CANDY
LOUDENS EXTRA QUALITY CHOCOLATE
DROPS 10c LB.
CANDY Fancy Mix Pound 10c
Delicious Chocolate Covered CHERRIES 29c LB.
5-POUND CHRISTMAS BOX ASST. CHOCOLATES 95c

COCONUT Bulk Lb. 17½c
— 2 Pounds for 35c —
RAISINS 3 7-oz. Pkgs. for 10c
RAISINS 2 15-oz. Pkgs. for 15c
FLAVORING 4-oz. Bottle Imitation 10c
—2-oz. Bottle Pure 10c—

FRUITS
APPLES — ORANGES — GRAPES — TANGERINES — COCONUTS —
All At a Price to Please Every Purse. See our Fruits Before You Buy.

XMAS NECKWEAR For ..... 25c & 50c
Ladies' Zipper POCKET BOOKS 50c
Ladies' Rayon Taffeta GOWNS 98c
"A Gift She Will Appreciate — And This Is an Outstanding Value

GIFTS SHE WILL APPRECIATE
RAYON UNDERWEAR — JEWELRY — POWDER and PERFUMES — CLOCKS — DRESSES — BED SPREADS
An Ideal Gift Can Be Selected from this Group at very Reasonable Price

Men's Dress Blue Only SHIRTS ea 59c
We Are Overstocked on Our Regular 79c Shirt in Blue Only. Extra Special for this Christmas Sale.
— "A Dandy Gift for HIM" —

Yellow Front Store Clanton, Alabama

THIS Christmas IT'S JEWELRY
AND YOU KNOW IT'S APPROPRIATE IF IT COMES FROM Upchurch Drug Company
CLANTON

Diamonds
In Beautiful Sets. A full Assortment to select from
$10.00 Up

Other Rings
SOLID GOLD $3.50 UP
STERLING $1.50 UP

Watches
For Men and Ladies
WRIST WATCHES In the New Styles
$2.49 Up
POCKET WATCHES An Ideal Man's Gift
$1.00 UP

Dresser Sets
In Handsome Cases
$1.00 Up

SETS for MEN
Military Brush Sets for Men Make Ideal Gifts
$1.00 UP

Other Suggestions
Men's Billfolds
Fountain Pen Sets
Perfume Sets
CANDIES
WHITMAN'S
NUNNALLY'S
Stem and Rock Crystal GLASSWARE
OUR STORE
Is Your Complete Xmas. Gift Store. Shop here and Save Money
SILVERWARE
All Silverware is Priced to a new, low level, and Makes Wonderful Gifts

A Small Deposit On Any Item Will Help You Buy Your Gift

Concord - Billingsley

Rev. R. M. Stillwell filled his regular appointment here Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tendall and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tindall.

Mrs. H. J. Tumer visited her mother, Mrs. C. A. Surles Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill were the guests of Miss Eula Mae Brown Sunday afternoon.

Misses Lucille and Florence Ledbetter were the dinner guests of Miss Jettie Williams Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Little visited his daughter, Mrs. Porter Williams, of Jones last Wednesday.

Mr. Eueli Colee of Bethel was a visitor here Monday morning.

Misses Mildred and Geraldine Foshee spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Alta and Julie Sue Dickinson.

Allen Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams, was carried to the Baptist Hospital in Selma last Wednesday and was operated on Friday. We are glad to report that he is improving and we hope that he will be able to come home in a few days. His mother is staying with him.

Mrs. D. H. Missildine visited Misses Alice and Ella Williams last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Little are the proud parents of a baby boy, born December 11th.

Mr. Charlie Williams of Gadsden was called home last week on account of the illness of his brother, Allen.

MINERAL SPRINGS

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

There will be a Christmas program at Mineral Springs church on Tuesday night, December 24th. The young people of this community are planning a good program. We are expecting a good crowd. Bring family, there will be no admission charges. Don't forget the date, December 24th.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.
Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

ORIGINAL

East View News

There will be services here Sunday morning and evening by the pastor. Don't forget Sunday school at 10:00 o'clock, and Christian Endeavor at 6:00 o'clock. You are always welcome at all services, so everyone that can come with a well studied lesson.

The Ladies Aid meets Thursday p.m. at the church, and there will be a working also on the church grounds. All the men have a special invitation.

Mr. Barney Burnett of Montevallo was in Clanton Friday night.

FIRE WORKS galore at Calloway Drug Co. We have almost anything you want in this line. Look them over when in Clanton

ATTENTION!

We will be in Jemison at Langston Drug Co., Thursday, Dec. 19, and at Maplesville Drug Co., Maplesville, Ala., on Friday, December 20, 1935.

DR. T. T. TAYLOR
Optometrist

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemias; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

Beware The Cough
From a common cold
That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

SHOWALTER SINGING SCHOOL AT MONTGOMERY IN JANUARY

Announcement is made of a normal music school at Montgomery, beginning January 6th and closing February 15. The faculty in the school will consist of W. Lee Higgins, W. M. Devaughn and Eugene H. Whitt.

Anyone interested in this school should get in touch with one of these gentlemen as early as possible.

The faculty must be among the best. Higgins and Whitt are names familiar to the sacred music world; and W. M. Devaughn is a teacher of broad experience and splendid reputation. These three will more than likely make things move when they get strung out in this Montgomery school.

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours 9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

Merry Xmas.
To All My Customers and Friends

As a token of appreciation and friendship for your loyalty and good business given me during the past year of 1935, I am making some very special prices for the Holiday Trade:

CHRISTMAS FRUITS
Nice Eating APPLES, each 1c up
Large, Fancy, Juicy Oranges, doz 20c and 25c
Seedless Raisins, pkg 5c and 10c

Flour for Xmas.
24-LB SACK PLAIN or S. R. — Shawnee's Best Flour $1.10 (FINEST FLOUR FOR CAKES AND PASTRY)
24-LB SACK PLAIN or S. R. — Shawnee's Maid Flour $1.05 (Guaranteed to Please the Most Particular)
24-LB PLAIN or S. R. — Mary Jane Flour 95c

CHRISTMAS TOYS --- 10c to $1.49
SEE OUR LINE BEFORE YOU BUY

REGULAR 5c — FINEST — Grade MATCHES, 3 for 10c
REGULAR 5c — Packages SALT, 3 for 10c

Special Xmas. Nuts
LARGE FANCY No. 1 — BRAZIL NUTS, lb 15c
LARGE FRESH — COCONUTS, Each 5c and Up
Fancy No. 1, Soft Shell California — English WALNUTS, 2 lbs 35c

Christmas Candies
VERY BEST, OLD FASHIONED — STICK CANDY, 2-lb box 25c
PURE CHOCOLATE CREAM — CANDY, Jumbo, 2 lbs 25c
GROCERS or KINGS MIXED — Extra Quality Candy, lb 10c (ALL YOU WANT)
PURE COCONUT — Bon Bon CANDY, lb 15c

BEST GRADE — SUGAR, 10 lbs 53c

Remember Friends and Customers: I want your business. I have no expense, can offer you quality and price at all times. You are welcome to make this store your store. Come to see me.

Mrs. T. A. Haggard
On Birmingham Highway, 6 miles north of Jemison. Intersection of Montevallo Road

Diamond Rings
$3.50 Up

Birthstone Rings
$1.00 Up

Gents and Ladies Wrist Watches
$2.49 Up

BEAUTIFUL LINE OF CANDIES
IN FANCY PACKAGES
VERY SUITABLE FOR GIFTS

PARKER
Pen Sets 1.95 up

PARKER
Desk Sets $3 Up

WE ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR FIREWORKS
GET ANY KIND YOU WANT ANY QUANTITY

Electrical Gifts

TOASTERS -- PERCOLATORS
WAFFLE IRONS
SMOOTHING IRONS
STANDARD MAKES

Alred Drug Co.
"The Home of Quality" CLANTON, ALABAMA.

He's Forever Blowing Bubbles!

Calloway Drug Company's line of fire crackers and other fire works is complete. You are invited to trade with Calloway, Clanton.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over MAZAR'S STORE

SPECIAL
ELOYSE'S BEAUTY SHOPPE
PERMANENTS

Regular $2.50 Oil Wave $1.75
Regular $3.50 Oil Wave $2.50
Regular $6.50 Oil Wave $4.00
Finger Wave Dried 25c
Shampoo, Finger Wave, Dried 50c

This Lasts Only From Dec. 21st to Dec. 31st.

POOR C

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to the people of Mt. Pleasant community and surrounding communities for the help and things they have given us. Our home was burned and every thing we had except one sheet and four quilts. May the Lard bless each and every one is our prayer.—Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Lowery.

Christmas

Appearance

Xmas Specials

$7.50 REALISTIC WAVE	$5.00
$5.00 EUGENE WAVE	$3.50
$3.50 WAVES, Only	$2.50
MANICURES	50c
FACIALS	75c to $1.00
Eyebrow Arch and Dye	50c

All Work in This Shop Is Fully Guaranteed

OPERATORS:
Miss Willie Easterling—
Miss Eizebie Lee

The MODERN BEAUTY SHOPPE

Phone 168 — Over A & P Store

A negro was being examined for a driver's license.

"And what is the white line in the middle of the road for?"

"Fo' bicycles," was the reply.

Irate Patron: "Barber, can't you hurry a little? I have been waiting here since the year one!"

Barber: "Very interesting, sir. A. D. or B. C.?"

A. R. POSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upstairs Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS — CHRISTMAS 1935 — FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS

NEW SHOWALTER BOOKS OUT

Prof. W. M. Devaughn has on hand a supply of the brand new Showalter mid-season book. The name of the book is "Gospel Harmony," and Prof. Devaughn is offering them for sale to all who want them. He has left a supply at The Union-Banner office; and anyone wishing one may procure one either from Prof. Devaughn or at The Banner office. They are 25c each.

ENROLL NOW
In the Modern School of Beauty Culture

All Work Supervised by Experts Under the Most Sanitary and Advanced Methods. Charges Made for Material Only

Permanent Waves
$1 - $1.50 - $2

Shampoo and Finger Wave, 15c-25c

The MODERN BEAUTY SHOPPE

Phone 168 — Over A & P Store

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SHADOW SHOOTING

Experiment a little with shadow effects. You'll enjoy it.

DID you ever snap shadow pictures? If you haven't you have missed a lot of fun and failed to get some grotesque but fascinating pictures to add interest to your snapshot collection.

Shadow pictures are easy to make too. The main requisite is a good, strong sun in the late afternoon or early morning. Late afternoon, perhaps fifteen or twenty minutes before the sun starts gradually to disappear below the horizon, is preferable, for your light is usually stronger at this time and casts deeper and sharper shadows.

The two pictures above are only a couple of examples of the many unusual pictures to be taken with the aid of a strong sun. The picture to the right was the result of an alert amateur's "nose for pictures". As he started down the steps of the elevated train platform—with his always ready camera—says he, "Here is a picture", so hurriedly set the diaphragm at f.11 and shutter speed at 1/25 of a second and—snap—he had a fine shadow picture. As the man at the bottom of the steps was walking away from the camera a shutter speed of 1/25 of a second was fast enough to stop action and still give the proper exposure.

Obviously the picture to the left was posed but it shows further possibilities for taking unusual shadow pictures. An ideal place for taking shadow pictures is on light colored ground; the cement sidewalk, the street or better yet—on beaches where the light sand accentuates the dark body and outline of the shadow.

You can also get unusual shadow pictures by standing so that your shadow is cast on the side of a building or a house.

Here's one thing to remember. If you take pictures with the shadow cast on a light colored surface the exposure should not be as long as that used in taking pictures with the shadows cast on a dark background. In other words you make your exposure for shadow pictures but little longer than you would for an ordinary snapshot with the same lighting conditions.

Experiment a little for shadow effects. It's not too late to snap the shadows of your friends playing "leap frog" on the beach or just in the act of throwing or catching a beach ball, or various other stunts too numerous to mention.

It's all in fun and it's a safe bet that you will get some unusual pictures and can at least prove to your friends that they are only "shadows of themselves". Try it.

JOHN VAN GUILDER.

SOCIETY

Mrs. W. M. Bean Entertains Neighborhood Bible Club

The Wednesday Bible club met with Mrs. W. M. Bean, studying the 2nd chapter of Genesis. After discussing the lesson and Christmas plans, they were dismissed from the Bible Study, to meet with Mrs. Aubrey Gore nex' Wednesday. The social hour then followed and delicious refreshments were served.

The following members and guests enjoyed the hospitality: Mrs. R. L. Huffman, Mrs. Lewis Gillespie, Mrs. Aubrey Gore, Mrs. George Gore, Mrs. Luther Bean, Mrs. A. H. Glassccock and the hostess.

Grammar School P.-T. A. Meets

The Grammar school P.-T. A. observed "Father's Night" last Friday evening at the Clanton Methodist church. The president, Mrs. J. W. Hayes, called the meeting to order. A most interesting program was rendered. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. G. C. Armstrong. Mr. Luther Little gave a most interesting talk on "The schools of Yesterday and Today." The Clanton Trio, composed of Mr. Glasscock, Mr. Parrish and Mr. Jones gave two beautiful selections. Little Miss Helen Parrish gave a Christmas reading. Community singing was conducted by Mrs. Reid Mullins.

The grade having the highest number of representatives was awarded a half holiday. This fell to the 5th grade. The grade having the greatest number of fathers present was awarded a picture. This fell to the 5th grade also. Refreshments were served by members of the P.-T. A.

WEST END Specials

For This Week-End At
J. H. BROADHEAD'S
Phone 228 - - - - - - We Deliver

FOR CASH ONLY

GOOD STEAK, Lb	15c
FRESH EGGS, Dozen	30c
GOOD FRYERS, Lb	20c
TOMATOES, 10-oz Can	10c
MACKAREL SALMON, 8-oz Can	5c
MATCHES, 3 Boxes	10c
SALT, 100-Lb Bag	$1.00

WE BUY CORN AND VELVET BEANS
SEE US FOR YOUR FRUITS AND CANDY FOR XMAS.

WADE'S GROCERY & MARKET

PHONE 93
We Deliver

SPECIAL HOLIDAY FOOD PRICES

Visit Us For Xmas Fruits and Candies

Finest Granulated
SUGAR 10 lbs. 51c

Old Fashioned Brown
XXXX SUGAR, 2 for 15c

Blue or Red Label
KARO SYRUP 3-Pound Can 21c

COFFEE Fresh Ground, lb 10c

MILK 3 Large or 6 Small for 17c

CORN C.G. No. 2 Cans Del Monte — 2 Cans 28c

Kellogg's
Corn Flakes, 2 pkgs 15c

MIDGET PEAS No. 2 Cans Del Monte 21c

Crackers, 1-Lb. Box 10c

Dill Pickles, Qt. Jar 15c

Your Choice --- Straight or Assorted
SALT STARCH MATCHES 3 for 9c

CHOICE Meats HOLIDAY SPECIALS

STEW MEAT —3 Lbs.	25c
HAMBURGERS —3 Lbs.	25c
MEAT LOAF —2 Lbs.	25c
GOOD STEAK —Lb.	15c
BEST GRADE HAM —Half or Whole, Lb.	26c
WEINERS —2 Lbs.	35c
ROAST RIB or CHUCK —Lb.	12c
PICNIC HAMS —Lb.	23c
SAUSAGE —Mixed	15c
FRANKS —Best Grade	15c
BEST GRADE HAM —Choice Cuts, Lb.	20c

Fancy Shredded Bulk
COCONUT lb. 17c

Ocean Spray
CRANBERRY SAUCE Tall Can 19c

No. 2 Sliced or Crushed
Pineapple, 2 for 33c

JELL-O Assorted Flavors, 2 for 13c

Clabber Girl
BAKING POWDER 2-Lb. Can 20c

CATSUP 14-oz. Bottle 10c

All Regular 10c
SPICES, 2 for 14c

Libby's
TOMATO JUICE No. 2 Cans 3 For 25c

Regular 10c Size Atmore
Mince Meat, 3 for 24c

SALMON No. 1 Tall Cans, Chum 10c

ORIGINAL

XMAS. Specials

Permanent Waves

$1.95 & $2.95

Including Shampoo and Finger Wave

Regular Price $3.00 and $5.00

Beautiful soft natural waves. Goodman's is out of the high rent district, making it possible for you to get a much higher priced permanent at a price you can afford to pay. Dress up for the holiday season ahead!

PLENTY OF PARKING SPACE

Goodman's Beauty Shop

408 - 2nd Avenue, Clanton, Ala. - - - Phone 182

VERMONT NEWS

The program last Friday afternoon celebrating "Alabama Day" which was last Saturday, December 14, was enjoyed by all.

Friday afternoon, December 20th, there will be a "Santa Claus" to deliver the pesents. Everybody is invited to come and see 'Santa Claus."

We wish to thank Mr. Minor, Mr. Deason, Mr. Smith and Mr. Sansom for gathering and fixing our pump, last Monday.

Our attendance is fairly good. Still there is room for improvement. Come on boys and girls and let's put Vermont on the top.

The 4-H club girls met last Tuesday, December 10. The meeting was called to order by the president, Laverne Crane. The Secretary. Willie Dean Ratliff, called the roll and read the minutes. The topic for discussion was "backgrounds of a bedroom." Miss Pardue made an interesting talk concerning the topic. The topic for next meeting is "Arranging bedroom furniture." Ruth Will Hayes' group will have charge of next meeting, which will be held on January 9th, at 9 o'clock.

The 4-H club boys met last Tuesday, Dec. 10. We are sorry that Mr. Fant couldn't be with us. Our local leader, Mr. Hugh Shaw, made a very interesting talk on breeding and raising poultry. We have 32 members in our club, and are making progress.

Officers were elected as follows: President, O'neal Lewis; secretary,-treasurer, Thermon Milford; reporter, Allston Klinner; song leader, J. D. Minor; cheer leader, Harvie Sansom.

Our club will meet again on January 9th.

REFUGE NEWS

Last Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. Brother Robinson delivered some wonderful sermons, which were enjoyed by everyone. Our Sunday school was well attended .too, and we had a fine lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mims and little daughter were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Mims and family.

We hope everyone has a merry Christmas, and we want all who can to attend our Christmas services at 11:00 o'clock on Christmas day. Bro. W. E. Robinson will preach.

STAMPS SONG BOOKS ARE ON SALE NOW

The new mid-season Stamps-Baxter sonk books are now on sale. Copies may be procured either at The Union-Banner office or from Prof. Marion W. Easterling. It is "Harbor Bells No. 5," and the price is 25c each.

DURBIN-PATTILLO

Marked by beautiful simplicity was the wedding of Miss Myrtle Durbin of Clanton, daughter of Mrs. Ola Edwards and the late O. C. Durbin, and William Higgins Pattillo of Billingsley, Alabama.

The ceremony which was solemnized at the home the bride's mother, was only attended by close relatives. The Rev. A. S. Bentley of Plantersville read the impressive vows before an improvised altar of greenery arranged before the fireplace in the living room. The effectiveness of the greenery was further enchanced by soft candle light glowing from white tapers in white candlelabra.

The bride was strikingly lovely in a Lelong model suit, fashioned of Normandy blue, with accessories of grey. Her corsage was of Johanna Hill roses and valley lilies. Mrs. Marvin L. Waren of Birmingham was her sister's only attendant. She was pretty in grey moss crepe with a corsage of Lady Hillingsworth roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple motored to points of interest in North Carolina.

Mrs. Pattillo was formerly a popular student at Jacksonville State Normal. In 1934 she had the honor of being elected the most beautiful coed. Mr. Pattillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Will Pattillo of Billingsley, attended Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn where he was popular in student activities.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Pattillo will be at home in Billingsley where the groom will be engaged in business with his father, a prominent merchant and planter in that section of the state.

Veterans Plan Bonus Meeting

A "bonus rally" at which all Montgomery veterans of the World War and the general public are invited to attend will be held Thursday night at the court house under the auspices of the Smith-Wynn post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, it was announced Tuesday.

Judge Leon McCord, long a national leader in veteran's affairs, and Richard T. Rives, young attorney, will be the principal speakers and will voice the demands of the Montgomery veterans in their drive for the cash payment of the bonus.

Rally Nation-Wide

At the same time veterans all over the country will stage similar meetings, according to John B. Joyner, chairman of the Montgomery bonus drive.

Plans for the campaign in Montgomery are now being completed, Joyner said. The Montgomery veterans plan to bombard officials in Washington with letters, telegrams, and telephone messages, urging them to fight for the bonus payment in the Capital City.

Veterans from all over the State are invited to attend the meeting on Thursday night, marking the opening of the drive in Alabama.

The Montgomery committe has opened a headquarters here at 12½ South Perry Street, and soon speakers will be offered to the various civic and luncheon clubs. These speakers will urge the public support of the campaign to force payment of the bonus, it was announced.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

FRIEND OF WILD LIFE—J. N. Darling—"Ding" to millions who love his cartoons—is also director of the U. S. Biological Survey and head of a great program for restoring the wild life of the country. Sportsmen are supporting him through the newly organized Wild Life Institute, and farmers are enlisting in his crusade through The Country Home, national farm magazine.

BRITISH WAR VESSELS GUARD SUEZ—A number of British war vessels are concentrated at Port Said, entrance to the Suez Canal through which Italy is sending thousands of men and tons of munitions.

WORKS WHILE HONEYMOONING—Secretly married Joan Crawford, famous screen star, broadcasts from New York City where she and her actor husband Franchot Tone are spending their honeymoon.

MILWAUKEE'S SOCIALIST MAYOR, Daniel Hoan, left, who has held office 20 (twenty) years, inspects irradiated Vitamin D exhibit at American Public Health Assn. convention, Milwaukee. Scientist from Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation shows the mayor how tests are made proving rickets-prevention power of Vitamin D in milks, foods, and medicines.

ROLLING OVER AT SIXTY MILES AN HOUR—"Lucky" Teter, daredevil driver, subjects the 1936 Plymouth to a series of hair-raising tests. A new type girder steel frame and safety-steel body enables the car to withstand such punishment. The car was driven away after the test.

GREETS MOTHER WITH KISS—Mandeville W. Zenge embraces his mother before the resumption of his trial in Chicago for the mutilation murder of Dr. Bauer, who married his childhood sweetheart. His father is shown with them.

MAZER'S Is Christmas Gift Headquarters, And

MONDAY IS THE DAY!

When Some Customer Will Be Given This

Beautiful Bed Room Suite

FREE Be at Our Store Monday Afternoon at 2 O'Clock. Ask Us for Details This Week —

A Store Full Of Real Christmas Bargains

MANHATTAN SHIRTS and PAJAMAS
All Newest Patterns and Priced
Only $1.95

T-I-E-S
50 Dozen To Select From 25c - 50c - 75c and $1.00

BELTS--- SCARFS
SUSPENDERS and HANDKERCHIEFS

MEN'S HOSE
Beautiful New Patterns—A Gift That Every Man Needs
15c --- 25c --- 35c

Ladies Corduroy
PAJAMAS and ROBES
These make a Splendid Gift for the Ladies
only $3.95

Ease your Mind—Give Her A Pair of Lockwood
HOSIERY
Vamp Toe, Clear as Crystal—only
79c & $1.00

Dolls Galore!
We made a special purchase of beautiful high grade Dolls. It will pay you to come in to see them prices from 25c to $1.95

Hand Embroidered
HANDKERCHIEFS
—LINEN—
3 to Each Box
59c
All Others from 19c up

Ladies
POCKETBOOKS
EVENING BAGS
LEATHER and
only $1.00

SLIPS
In Pure Silk and Satin
$1.00 and $1.95

MAZER'S
"The Friendly Store"
I. S. LEVINE, Mgr. - - - - - - - Clanton

POOR C

Christmas Gifts
— AT —
Wright's Drug Store
Thorsby, Ala.
FRUITS — STATIONERY — TOILET ARTICLES
BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF CANDIES
Schrafft's and Belle Camp's
Careful Attention Given to Prescriptions
FIREWORKS
PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

The Y. W. A. met Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. R. Piper. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Helen Kendrick; vice president, Mabel Johnson, secretary-treasurer, Louise Fitzpartick; pianist, Edna Raybon, counselor, Mrs. H. W. Reinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bice and family have moved to Jemison where they have bought the Eiland place and will have a restaurant there. We are sorry to lose the Bices from Thorsby.

We are very sorry to hear that Mr. Tommie Childress is not doing well. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Cox.

Miss Bevie Braswell spent Tuesday night with Miss Ruby Raybon.

Mr. Carroll Trotter returned home Friday after several days visit with relatives in Greenville.

Messrs. Roy and Coy Kendrick of Birmingham spent Friday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kendrick.

Miss Jennye Robinson is spending this week with Mrs. Tom Robinson.

Mrs. T. W. Robinson is spending this week in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Foss spent Sunday in Selma visiting their daughter, Edith, and Miss Naemi Turnquist.

Miss Gladys Hicks spent Sunday with Miss Evelyn Jones.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Evelyn and Mrs. Hall spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Troy visiting their son, Mr. Horace Jones.

SAY . .
"Merry Christmas"
WITH
Flowers and Shrubs
CUT FLOWERS - BLOOMING PLANTS - EVERGREENS
Prices Right at
HOWARD BROS.
Wayside Gardens - - - - - Thorsby, Ala.

Announcements Of Activities In Thorsby For Yule Season

Services at Congergational church Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45. Christmas services at 11 o'clock with Christmas hymns. Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

Choir practice Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rehearsal for Christmas hymns Sunday morning and carols Christmas Eve.

The Boy Scouts will meet Friday evening at 6:30 at the city hall.

Christmas party for primary children at Congregational church will be held Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the primary room.

Regular services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening. The services will be in keeping with the Christmas spirit. Some special songs will be rendered.

The Y. W. A. will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. R. Piper. Mrs. J. W. Jones will conduct the Bible study. The members will look up all references about the Bible they can find.

A young people's revival will start Sunday night at the Baptist church. Bro. Dewey Robinson will do the preaching. Everybody is invited.

Mrs. V. H. Sutlive and children spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Birmingham visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moody and son spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Miss Edna Lee and Mr. Marcelee Wilder of Birmingham spent the week end with their mother, Mrs. Mamie Wilder.

Mr. Clifford Johnson spent the week end in Thorsby with his wife.

Judge Flummer and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Wilbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wilbanks and Mrs. Dewey Wilbanks of Birmingham spent Wednesday night and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kendrick of Montevallo spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Goodgame and Mary Alma spent Sunday in Clanton.

Miss Elizabeth Gene Collins celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday afternoon by entertaining some of her little friends.

Miss Onita Klingelhoefer and Miss Ruth Ford with Mrs. S. E. Norton, Miss Ruth Primm and Mrs. J. O. Johnson spent Saturday in Birmingham shopping.

Mrs. Herbert Green of Birmingham spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Eastburn.

Mr. Kenneth Eastburn of Athens spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. K. C. Eastburn.

Mr. Earlie Marcus is building a home on the site of the old Baptist church.

The annual Christmas party of the demonstration club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Goddard on Wednesday of this week, December 18th, at 2 o'clock.

Thorsby Institute News

Dr. Kimmey, county health officer of Chilton county, gave an interesting chapel talk on Wednesday morning, Dec. 11. He gave a sketch of the origin of the plague, a dreaded disease that has visited many countries. The talk was especially interesting to the Bible students who have recently been studying about the early existence of this plague.

On Thursday morning, December 12, in chapel, an interesting "Alabama Day" program was presented by Miss Mattingly and members of her history class. The state song was sung, and a pledge to the state was read in unison.

The annual Christmas program was presented on Saturday evening at 7:30 under the direction of Miss Foss. It was a pageant entitled "Star Gleams." The meaning of Christmas was brought out in a very impressive manner. It was one of the most beautiful Christmas programs that has been given at the Institute.

On Monday afternoon, December 16, a vote was taken by the student body for the "Good Citizenship" girl, whose name will be sent to the county superintendent, where names are drawn and sent to the state. Here the name of the girl to represent the State of Alabama is drawn and the winner will go to Washington for a week of sightseeing at the capitol with contestants from other states, some time in April. The trip is sponsored by the D. A. R. organization. Miss Mary Louise Reinhardt was selected as the "Good Citizenship" girl to represent Thorsby Institute.

The faculty members were recently surprised with a large box of chocolates sent them by Mary Louise Bates, a former graduate.

School will close at 1:35 on Thursday, Dec., 19, and opens again at 8:30 on January 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Abercrombie were visitors of Rev. E. W. Butler Sunday.

Mrs. Algie Alexander of Montgomery, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Jones, has returned to her home.

Mrs. J. E. Each had as her Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peterson and Leroy.

Mrs. Hollis Pate left Monday for Selma to spend at few days with friends.

Mrs. R. H. Bean spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meade.

Mrs. P. P. Goggins has returned to her home after a three week's visit in Birmingham.

Mrs. N. Laurell spent Sunday and Monday in Birmingham.

Mrs. Ralph Pate and baby are spending a few days in Clanton this week with her mother.

Miss Bertha Littleton of Birmingham spent the week end in Thorsby visiting relatives.

Mr. Russell Sutlive of New London, Conn., arrived in Thorsby last Tuesday night and was a guest of the Sutlive home until Thursday morning, when he left with Mrs. Sutlive and the two boys, who have spent the last two weeks in Thorsby, with Mr. V. H. Sutlive.

ATTENTION

Batch of Men's and Boy's used Suits and Overcoats. They will be offered for sale at auction at My Store, Saturday, December 21st, at 1:30 P. M. I reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

A. Z. BEAN
THORSBY, ALA.

Buy Your Xmas. Decorations
AND CHRISTMAS CARDS
--- AT ---
Wyatt Drug Co.
Thorsby, Ala.
Located in The Center of Town

Give her a box of Norris Candies -- The Best
"We Appreciate Your Patronage"

BARNEY OLDFIELD AND N. Y. MAYOR DISCUSS ANTI-NOISE CAMPAIGN — Barney Oldfield, left, famous automobile racer, who is on a national safety education tour sponsored by the Plymouth Motor Corporation, is shown with Mayor LaGuardia at City Hall, when the veteran race driver endorsed the Mayor's "anti-horn tooting" campaign.

THANKS TO ROBIN HOOD — This season's millinery is endowed with a dashing quality. Marsha Hunt, film player, selects a brown felt model with a ridged crown and a colorful quill which is thrust boldly through one side of the turned up brim.

APPLEJACK KING — John E. Laird, America's premier distiller of fine applejack brandy. His family for six generations have made this typically American drink in Monmouth County, N. J., and his company has just broken all records in the 155 year Laird history by crushing 8,000,000 pounds of Jersey apples in three months.

WHERE IT'S A DISGRACE TO BE IN MOURNING — This peddler in Korea is wearing this big hat, so that his face is shaded and people cannot see he is bereaved.

TREE HEN!—Hetty looks like an ordinary bird, lays ordinary eggs, but has extraordinary habits. The hen is something of a village wonder in Chelsfield, Kent, where she has nested and laid her eggs in a tree.

SPIDER MEN—These workers are spinning cables on a PWA financed suspension-type bridge.

REALLY SHOCKING—Bottle manufacturers, continually improving the strength of glass, check their efforts scientifically, but Mother Nature provided the perfect shock test recently in Helena, Montana, for a carload of bottles manufactured by the Owens-Illinois Glass Company, Toledo. A warehouse roof collapsed during an earthquake, smashing the top and sides of a box car loaded with approximately 25,000 bottles of whiskey. Only five bottles were broken.

THE FAMILY NEXT DOOR

ORIGINAL

SPECIAL HOLIDAY RATES

$5.00 Oil Waves for	$3.00
$2.50 Croquignole Wave for	$2.00
Shampoo and Set for	40c
Manicure for	40c
Eyebrow Arch and Dye	50c
$7.50 Realistic Wave	$5.00
Henna Pack for	75c
All Shades of Hair Rinses	25c

Free! Clean-Up Facial with Each Shampoo and Set

Marinello Gift Sets $1.00

CLANTON Marinello Beauty Shop

Phone 78 :-: Clanton

THELMA TODD, SCREEN ACTRESS, DIES MYSTERIOUSLY

Los Angeles, Dec. 17.—Coroner Frank Nance said Tuesday he would call an inquest into the death of Thelma Todd "because there are so many mysterious and unusual circustances in the background of this case."

The coroner made known his decision after Dr. A. F. Wagner, county autopsy surgeon, completed an autopsy and announced the cause of death as "monoxide poisoning."

The blond actress' heart, he said, was "organically normal," discounting a theory of heart attack.

Dr. Wagner said the brain examination showed "alcohol thirteen per cent," indicating, he said, that Miss Todd had only a few drinks.

SCHOOLS CLOSE DECEMBER 20

Supt. Luther Litle anounces that all schools in Chilton County will close on Friday, December 20, and reopen on Monday, December 30. This gives uniform closing and opening dates for all schools, removing all chances for confusion.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

THIS is "National Cheese Week" and no food more deserves to be celebrated than cheese for it gives you more real food for your money than almost anything else you can buy.

Last week's reduction on pork did not last and other meats are again rising. The price of butter continues its upward course but egg prices seem to have reached their peak.

Hurricanes in the extreme southeast of our country and freezes in the far northwest have affected our two largest fruit crops. As a result we shall have fewer citrus fruits and fewer apples this season though there are still plenty to meet all needs at reasonable prices.

Here are three menus planned to suit graded budgets.

Low Cost Dinner

Veal Chops with Rice and Tomatoes
Mashed Rutabaga Turnips
Bread and Butter
Apple Tapioca Pudding
Tea or Coffee Milk

Medium Cost Dinner

Braised Chuck Roast Mashed Potatoes
Glazed Onions Green Beans
Bread and Butter
Coconut Cream Cake
Tea or Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner

Consommé
Crown Roast of Pork with Apples
Baked Stuffed Potatoes Cauliflower
Stuffed Celery Salad
Rolls and Butter
Fruit Crackers Cheese
Coffee

GETTING READY TO PATROL HIGHWAYS

Alabama's "Gentlemen Highway Patrol" composed of seventy-four enthusiastic members started on an intensive training school with the opening of a three day lecture course by Special Agent W. A. Smith of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D. C. Instructions were in the form of lectures delivered at intervals during the three day period. Mr. Smith explained in detail the "Set Up" of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and how the Federal Bureau could aid the patrol. The bureau plans for the maximum of efficiency in law enforcement through the cooperation of the local, state and federal authorities.

Following the instructions of Special Agent Smith who was sent from Washington by J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation the American Red Cross had its representatives from Washington to give a complete first aid course for a period of three days. The members of the Highway Patrol were told what to do and what not to do in case of accident before medical aid could be secured. Human anatomy, blood circulation, and treatment of broken bones were discussed in detail.

The patrol members were given an examination on all matters covered in the three day lecture course by J. O. Speed of Birmingham, Special Field Representative of the Red Cross.

Judge Walter B. Jones and Solicitor W. T. Seibles addressed the school the latter part of the week on co-operation between the Judge, Solicitor and the Patrol and then took up the matter of "evidence" and testimony.

Also practical instructions were given in motorcycle operation and the mechanics of the machine.

It is the opinion of the Governor that these men will be thoroughly trained before they go on the highways of the State of Alabama and at present 25 members of the Patrol have been assigned to the Automobile Department of the State Tax Commission. These men will check the names of the persons to whom the tags were issued against the driver's licenses and those who are found not to have secured their driver's license will be called on by members of the Patrol.

Chief Walter K. McAdory feels that the Patrol has gotten off to an excellent start and is very optimistic over the saving of human lives through these "Guardians of Public Safety on the Public Highways."

Calloway Drug Company's line of fire crackers and other fire works is complete. You are invited to trade with Calloway, Clanton.

RETURN GIN CERTIFICATES

To all cotton producers:

Dear Sir:

If you have gin certificates that were not used or sold and you want to sell them, please return them to this office at once.

Regular certificates in the tan folder can be sent to the National Pool for sale at 4c per pound less the cost of administration.

Two-bale certificates in the green folder will have to be returned to the State Officer and reissued into regular certificates before they can be sold.

It will be necessary for the person in whose name the certificates were issued to sign Form Nr. B.A. 317 declaring these certificates surplus before they can be sold.—Very truly yours, J. W. Fant, County Agent.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PAROLE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, J. W. Davis, Jr., who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Chilton County for the offense of burglary and larceny, and received a sentence of from two to three years, will make application to the Governor and Board of Pardons for a parole.—(Signed)—J. W. Davis, Jr. 12-12-2tp.

COW TAKEN UP

One dark Jersey dry cow taken up at my place Sunday, December 8th. Owner may get same by paying for keep and this adv.—Esco F. Culp, Clanton Route 3. 12-2tp

L. H. REYNOLDS Real Estate Co.

List with me any Real Estate you desire to sell or purchase. Will rent your property on commission basis. The Clerk in my office will Insure your property.

OFFICE IN MARION GORE BUILDING Opposite Courthouse

TELEPHONE No. 41 Clanton, Ala.

7-1-36-pd

SINGING AT ROBINSON SPRINGS

There will be a singing at Robinson Springs the fourth Sunday evening. We invite each and every one to come and be with us.

The third Sunday is our preaching day. We invitte you to come. Also come to Sunday school and prayer meeting Sunday night.—Secretary.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION AT JACKSON'S CHAPEL DEC. 21

There will be a fiddlers convention at the Jackson's Chapel school building on Saturday night, December 21. Prizes will be awarded. There will be a cake for the prettiest girl, and another for the ugliest man. Admission will be 5c and 10c.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

MILCH COWS FOR SALE—Two good milch cows with young calves for sale. Walter Fiquett, Clanton, Ala. 12-513t-pd.

WANTED 6 GIRLS—To learn Beauty at once, easy terms, positions waiting.—Academy of Gardner's Beauty Shoppe, Inc., Birmingham, Ala. 5-4tp

WANTED TO BUY — Velvet Beans, will pay $12.00 per ton.—Lee A. Popwell, Clanton Route 1. 1tp.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—1928 Whippet 2-Door car in running shape. New battery, fairly good tires and 1936 tag for $25.00, or trade for milch cow.—W. J. Rhodes, Clanton, Ala., Route 1. 1tp.

MRS. JOHN H. MARTIN

Mrs. John H. Martin, 65, died at her home near Jemison at 7:00 o'clock last Wednesday, December 11th. The funeral was held at Providence at 11 o'clock Friday morning, with Rev. John T. Martin of Centreville, officiating, assisted by Rev. R. M. Honeycutt. Burial was in the cemetery there, with Martin & Sons in charge.

"Where did you get the black eye Ikey?"

"Vell—they said it was a free-for-all!"

WANTED TO BUY EAR CORN

800 Bushels White or Yellow --- Not Mixed

Better Feeds At Less Cost

Central Ala. Milling Co.

Willie Crowson

Lay Dam Road :—: Phone 53-J :—: East Clanton

CHRISTMAT SPECIALS --- Dec. 20 through 24

Clanton Cash Store

WE DELIVER — BLUE FRONT STORE — PHONE 154

Peoples Cash Store

Thorsby Cash Store

SUGAR

10 lbs 53c

COFFEE

Morning Bracer FRESH GROUND Lb 15c

GROUND FRESH WHILE YOU WAIT

GROUND FRESH LB — WONDER COFFEE .. 12c

LARD

1-LB CARTON — COMPOUND	15c
4-LB CARTON — COMPOUND	55c
PURE, 1-Lb Carton	18c
PURE, 4-Lb Carton	65c

SALT

100-LB BAG — MEAT SALT	95c
50-LB BAG — MEAT SALT	55c
25-LB BAG — MEAT SALT	35c
10-LB CAN MORTON'S — SMOKE SALT	90c

10-OZ CAN — Sausage Seasoning	20c
3-OZ CAN — Sausage Seasoning	10c

SEE US FOR YOUR MEAT SALT and SAUSAGE SEASONING

When It Rains It Pours

MARKET SPECIALS (AT CLANTON CASH STORE)

A full line of Delicious Meats for the Holiday Season.

BEEF ROAST, lb	12½c
ANY CUT — BEEF STEAK, lb	17½c
FRESH GROUND — MEAT LOAF, lb	15c
HORMEL CHILI	15c
SMOKED — SAUSAGE, lb	20c
SOUTHERN MAID — OLEO (WATER GLASS FREE)	22c

FRESH OYSTERS

PRODUCE SPECIALS

POTATOES, 10 lbs	20c
RUTABAGAS, Lb	3c
CABBAGE, Lb	3c
ONIONS, Lb	4c
GRAPES, Lb	10c
LARGE HEAD — LETTUCE	10c
LARGE BUNCH — CELERY	12½c
BANANAS, Lb	5c
SWEET POTATOES, lb	2c
QUART — CRANBERRIES	25c
7-OZ CAN OCEAN SPRAY — Cranberry Sauce	10c
17-OZ CAN OCEAN SPRAY — Cranberry Sauce	19c

FOR XMAS. TURKEY

Soap Specials

PALMOLIVE SOAP	5c
GIANT BARS, 6 FOR — OCTAGON SOAP	25c
SMALL — Octagon SOAP, 2 for	5c
GIANT — Octagon Powders, 6	25c
Octagon CLEANSER	5c
Octagon CHIPS, 2 for	11c

20c Value for 11c

JELLO ASSORTED FLAVORS

2 for 14c

4-STRING — BROOMS, each	19c
SWANS DOWN — CAKE FLOUR	29c

SNOW DRIFT

3-lb PAIL	55c
6-lb PAIL	$1.05

FOR XMAS. COOKING USE THE BEST

FLOUR SPECIALS PLAIN or SELF-RISING

24-Lb SACK, 1 GLASS FREE Postel ELEGANT	$1.25
24-LB Sack LITE RIZE or — POLLY RICH	$1.10
24-LB — Whitewater Rose	$1.10
24-LB SACK — WHITE OWL	$1.00
24-LB — GOOD NEWS	90c
48-LB — GOOD NEWS	$1.75

CHRISTMAS SPECIALS

RAISINS, London Layer, lb	10c
3 CROWN MUSCAT — RAISINS, 1-lb Package	12½c
GOOD CREAM AND GUM — GROCERS MIXTURE, lb	10c
CREAM CENTER — CHOCOLATE DROPS, lb	12½c
TVA MIXED CANDY, lb	12c
Pure COCONUT BON BONS, lb	15c
CHRISTMAS MIXTURE, lb	15c
2-POUND BOX — OLD FASHION STICK	25c

PECANS, Paper Shell, lb	15c
ENGLISH WALNUTS, small, lb	17c
NO. 1 EMERALD — ENGLISH WALNUTS, lb	20c
BRAZIL NUTS, lb	15c
LARGE AND SMALL — FRESH COCONUTS	5c and 8c
ORANGES, Nice Florida, doz	20c
WINESAP APPLES, doz.	15c
APPLES, Fancy Delicious, doz	25c

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxines. Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

POOR C

The Store WITH THE OLD-TIME Christmas Spirit

Our store this year is jam full of Christmas things, Articles that are ideal for Gifts and at the same time are of lasting value. Your Gift problem is solved when you enter our store.

This store really abounds with the old-time Christmas spirit, and we want to impart it to our friends all over Chilton County. Visit us this week and give us a chance to prove what we say.

M. LANDE, Manager.
CLANTON - - - ALABAMA

THE LEADER

ALWAYS LEADS IN TRUE VALUE GIVING

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

U. S. GOVERNMENT IS FURNISHING TREE SEEDLINGS

The United States Government is furnishing Chilton County several thousand tree seedlings and Kudzu crowns to be planted on sub-marginal lands—that is land too poor to uroduce cultivated crops profitably or too steep to be cultivated.

These trees will be placed and planted by the boys from the CCC camp. They will be furnished and planted without cost to the farmers of Chilton County.

There are many farms in this county that do not have trees enough to furnish wood. I would like to see every farmer who has none, or an insufficient amount of woods to furnish wood, to have a few of these trees.

Trees that make good fence posts are scarce. The old fat pine trees for making posts are about all gone. There should be trees growing on each farm to supply fence posts. Black locust makes the best wood posts known.

The Loblolly and Slash Pine are of quick growth and produce a good quality of lumber. They grow faster and produce a better grade of lumber than the native short leaf pine.

Those interested should see or write the county agent at once. 150,000 pines have arrived already.

There will be a few Green Ash, Chinguapin, Red Mulbery and persimmons to give out.

SMALL CORN-HOG FARMER ELIGIBLE

Auburn, Ala.—F. W. Burns, extension livestock specialist in charge of the AAA corn-hog production in Alabama, has received information from headquarters in Washington stating that a farmer with a corn base of 10 acres or more, or a market hog base of six hogs or more, is eligible to receive a corn or hog adjustment under the corn-hog contract.

A contract signer with a corn base less than the required 10 acres, however, may receive a hog payment if he has a market hog base of 6 or more hogs, AAA officials point out. Likewise a man with a market hog base of less than 6 hogs may be eligible for a corn adjustment payment.

If a contract signer's corn base is less than 10 acres, and he wishes to receive a hog payment, he must agree not to increase his corn acreage above his base. For example, if his base is between 10 and 15 acres, he may either make an adjustment and receive payment, or obtain an exemption from adjustment, and agree not to increase his corn acres above his base. This will enable a producer with a small corn base who needs all corn produced on his base acreage to participate in the program by making all the necessary adjustments in his hog production.

A signer with a market hog base of less than 6 hogs, may make an adjustment in corn acreage and receive a corn payment if he agrees not to produce hogs in excess of his market base. And if his base is between 6 and 15 hogs, he may either make an adjustment and receive a hog payment, or not produce hogs in excess of his base and receive a hog payment.

Wonderful RELIEF

Here's good news for you people whose nerves are so jangled, you can't eat, sleep, or rest; who worry over trifles, start at sudden noises, have Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache.

DR. MILES NERVINE WILL RELIEVE YOU QUICKLY. It was originated by a Nerve Specialist especially for people in your condition. It has been making good for more than fifty years.

Hundreds of thousands of nervous people have had an experience like that of Maud Thomas. Read her letter. You too will find the dollar you spend for your first bottle of Dr. Miles Nervine the best investment you ever made. If you don't think so, we will return your dollar.

"Has done me more good than I can express"

I am a Dr. Miles Fan all the way through. I have taken Nervine for 2 years with good success. It is more than it is recommended to be and it has done me more good than I can express. I am in better health now than I have been for ten years. Maud Thomas, Glasgow, Kentucky

Dr. Miles NERVINE
Liquid and Effervescent Tablets

ATTENTION
Cream Producers

Last Saturday we received over 1,200 pounds of Butterfat, for which we paid to the producers of this county over $350. Are you wasting your Cream? If so, why not bring in a can full and give us a trial? Our equipment is being overhauled this week end we will be in fine shape for you Saturday. Don't beg people to buy your Butter when you can sell Butterfat for anything near 30c per pound.

SOUTHERN DAIRIES, Inc.
EVAN PARRISH, Mgr.

Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. Dick Hayes and children, Miss Alice Brooks, Miss Sara Colley and Miss Margaret Floyd spent Saturday in Birmingham shopping.

..chest COLDS

SALES EXEMPTION IS RAISED FOR POTATOES

Any potato grower whose average annual sales of potatoes during the years 1932-35 were 50 bushels or less will receive a tax free allotment of potatoes equal to such annual sales under regulations for administration of the potato act which were announced by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. In order to obtain tax-free allotments, each grower will file an application under which he will establish his past sales. County officers will anounce the time for filing applications. If a grower's past sales during the base period, 1932-35, were 50 bushels of potatoes annually, he will receive tax exemption stamps for the potato allotment year which began December 1, 1935, equal to 50 bushels of potatoes. If his average sales were 30 bushels, he will receive tax exemption stamps equal to 30 bushels. Farms which produce five bushels of potatoes or less annually were specifically exempted under the provision of the potato act from any tax. The increase in the exemption was possible, however, under subsection (2) of section 204 of the act.

SOIL SAVING FURROWS ARE LIKE LINES OF FIRE HOSE

Like long lines of fire hose at a third alarm fire, or miniature front-line trenches, contour furrows are beginning to stretch across hillside pastures in soil conservation projects of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Typical of the specialized machinery being developed to conserve the nation's soil resources is the ingenious device in use on the Mankato, Kansas project. A U-knife slices a strip of soil some four inches deep and about 16 inches wide. Curved rods place the uniform strips, grass side up, on the down-hill side of the furrow. An attached roller, slightly concave so as to give more pressure at the edges, packs the strip firmly into place. The machine is pulled by truck, team or tactor.

Within a year or two, grass covers the bottom and sides of the furrow, so that there is no loss of pasturage. Water that once ran away now soaks into the soil or creeps slowly along the serpentine furrows.

Contour furrows conserve moisture help to develop more permanent pasture, keep seed from washing away, and promote a greater variety of vegetation.

STATE FARMERS WIN TWO NATIONAL CUPS

Auburn, Ala.—Organized farmers of Alabama and Hale Counties this year won two national loving cups at the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

One cup was awarded organized farmers throughout Alabama for showing the greatest increase in farm bureau membership of any state in the country, and the other was presented to Hale County farmers for showing the biggest farm bureau membership increase of any county in the United States.

Recently, more than 15,000 leading farmers of Alabama have become farm bureau members, reports J. L. Edwards, president of the state farm bureau, who said that present indications point to a 30,000 membership by the first of 1936. Over 1, 200 Hale county farmers recently became members of the Hale County Bureau.

4-H BOYS AND GIRLS OFFERED CREDIT TO KEEP DAD'S RECORDS

Auburn, Ala.—To encourage more farm bookkeeping in Alabama, agricultural leaders here have decided to give 4-H club boys and girls credit for keeping AAA record books for their fathers in 1936.

In reporting this project for boys and girls, T. A. Sims, 4-H club leader, emphasizes the importance of record keeping by stating that "farmers who do not keep records are unable to tell just where they stand. They may think they are making a profit, when actually, they are losing money."

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the people of Liberty Hill community for their sympathy and help during the recent sickness and death of my father, W. Q. Childress. I wish to especially thank Rev. J. W. Lowery and the Spigener Funeral Home; also to thank my friends for the beautiful floral offerings.—Nora Childress.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Searcy will leave Friday for Clayton, Alabama, where they will spend part of the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Searcy.

XMAS. HEADQUARTERS

We have a Complete Line of Candy, 1 ton Many Varieties

TOYS, DOLLS, SKATES, AIR RIFLES, MODEL AIRPLANES.
GIFTS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

FRUITS - NUTS - COCONUTS - RAISINS

Evans Variety Store
JULIAN P. EVANS, Mgr.

IRISH POTATO GROWERS NOTIFIED OF POTATO ACT

Auburn, Ala.—Alabama producers or Irish potatoes for sale should get in touch with their county agent immediately so the agent may take the proper steps to obtain tax exemption stamps for each potato grower in the state, advises W. H. Robertson, state potato agent for Alabama.

"It is absolutely necessary that you determine, within the next week, if there are any potatoes raised for sale in your county," writes Mr. Robertson to each county agent in the state. The 1935 potato act passed by congress, provided that a tax of 75 cents per hundred pounds be collected on all potatoes sold, except such poundage as may be allotted to the farmer and for which stamps are issued."

Miss Carrie Foshee and Miss Ada Holcombe were in Birmingham shopping Saturday.

Mrs. Eric Hart, Mrs. Oscar Jones, Miss Nell Ross Mullins and Mrs. Varnell spent Saturday in Birmingham shopping.

STATE FARMERS ASKING FOR NEW COTTON BASE

Auburn, Ala.—Reports from all over Alabama indicate that the farmers of the state are practically unanimous in their desire that a new base period be used for making allotments to individual cotton producers under the 1936 AAA cotton program, say members of the state allotment board here.

The growers desire that the year 1933-1934-1935 be used instead of the old period 1928-32. Over 100 producers, representing every county in the state, met in Montgomery recently and asked for the new base. Since that time the allotment board members have received a number of letters endorsing the new period.

If the allotments are made on the past three years, the producer's reduction for 1936 will not be made from the reduced acreage of 1933-35, but will be based on the acres in cotton before the plow-up program in 1933 and the actual acres planted to cotton plus the acres rented to the Secretary of Agriculture in 1934 and 1935.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

In expressing our appreciation for the many past favors from our Friends over the country, we extend Greetings of the Season.

Merry Christmas

A very Merry Christmas to all and a happy ending to the Old Year is the least that we can say at this time to our many Friends.

Clanton Building Supply Company
J. T. ROCKETT - - - - J. D. ROCKETT

CHRISTMAS FRUITS

You are invited to come to Red-Eyed John's Place for your Christmas Fruits, Nuts, Candies, Etc. You will be greeted with a smile and courteous service.

THE LITTLE FRUIT STORE
J. H. GORE - - - - - BY THE RAILROAD
CLANTON, ALABAMA

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies --- Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :---: :---: Alabama

ORIGINAL

Christmas Greetings

THE FOLLOWING CLANTON FIRMS AND INDIVDUALS EXTEND TO ALL THEIR FRIENDS AND PATRONS HEARTY AND SINCERE GREETINGS FOR A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A MOST PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR, AND TAKE THIS OCCASION TO THANK THEM FOR THEIR FRIENDSHIP AND LOYALTY.

CLANTON CASH STORE O. D. Deloach	CLANTON SHOE SHOP I. D. Armstrong	NELSON LUNCH SHOP Mrs. Minnie Nelson	UPCHURCH DRUG CO. E. E. Upchurch	THOMPSON COTTON GIN Hugh Thompson	THE DOLLAR STORE H. Pinkerson
POLK BROS. MOTOR CO. Geo. Polk W. M. Polk	J. MELL MARTIN & SONS Funeral Directors	CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE Evan Parrish, Mgr.	ROCKETT DRY GOODS CO. J. T. Rockett J. D. Rockett	KLINNER SERVICE STATION O. P. Klinner	M. B. ARANT Watch Repairing
WATTS HAT SHOPPE Miss Callie Watts	E. L. KLINNER FURNITURE CO. J. B. McRae, Mgr.	CLANTON MOTORS, Inc. T. J. Littlejohn	LOUIS PRINCE Jeweler	Vincent J. Ward D. C.	J. W. FANT County Agent
CLANTON LAUNDRY & CLEANING CO. F. L. Thompson	DeMABEL'S BEAUTY SHOP Mrs. George Wyatt Miss Willie Maude Kelley	MADDOX & WATSON Fate Maddox Arthur Watson	McKEE BROS. SERVICE STATIO N J. W. McKee T. D. McKee	MATT'S LUNCH SHOPPE Eat Your Turkey Dinner With Us Christmas Mrs. Matt Ware	J. R. KEMP General Merchandise
WOCO SERVICE STATION J. E. Easterling	COCA-COLA N. A. Popwell Local Rep.	CITY FISH MARKET L. A. Watkins	J. C. PATTILLO Circuit Clerk Chilton County	BISHOP SERVICE STATION W. W. Bishop	MAZER'S I. S. Levine Mgr.
BLUE STREAK BUS LINE "Ride The Bus" E. W. Lott	MURRAY - BELL HARDWARE CO.	MIMS SERVICE STATION Good Gulf Dealers Dalton Bice	WILSON HOTEL P. D. Wilson	LAWRENCE SERVICE STATION C. M. Lawrence	DIXIE CAFE T. J. Parrish
CHILTON COUNTY SHOE REBUILDERS Shoes Made to Order John Schmith	McDANIEL PRESSING SHOP J. L. McDaniel	FOSHEE FURNITURE CO. Garland Foshee		WADESONIAN THEATRE C. W. Wade	SCOTT'S STUDIO S. E. Scott

PLEASANT GROVE

JEMISON

We are glad to say that the sick ones around here are better.

Little Raymond Woodley has passed the crisis with his pneumonia and is doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hodgens spent Sunday with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miskelley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright had as their guests last week their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Marcus and son, Aldene, and Mr. and Mrs. Erskin Martin.

The Misses Willie and Lovena Campbell spent the week end with their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Trott and children, T. J. and Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Champion and sons, Dalton and Sanders, and Miss Dulcie Champion spent Saturday in Clanton shopping.

The Misses Edith and Ollis Davenport spent Sunday night with the Misses Champion.

Mrs. Frank Davenport and little son, James Frank, spent Sunday with her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Franklin, and son, Cecil, and Mrs. Dovie Dawson.

Mrs. T. P. Franklin is on the sick list this week. Sorry, but hope that she will soon be well again.

Mrs. Will Clements and daughters, Aleze and Alma, were among the visitors of Clanton Saturday, and also Mr. Allen Waldrop and sister, Miss Minerva Waldrop.

Mrs. Isaac Waldrop was the week end guest of her father and Mr. and Mrs. Dock Hodgens of Thorsby.

Game and Fish News

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 24.—The State Conservation Department reports that hunting accidents have claimed but four lives in Alabama this season, the lowest number recorded at the halfway mark of the hunting season in the last three years.

A. O. Parker, 30, of Virginia Mines in Jefferson county, was killed early in November when he accidentally struck his gun against a tree while hunting squirrels near Yolande.

A short time after, Roscoe Scott, 40, of Climax, was accidentally shot and killed by a member of hunting party of six during a rabbit hunt in Choctaw county.

Another Choctaw countian, James Oscar Thacker, 14, was hunting with several companions when they stopped to carve their names on a tree. One of the group accidentally struck a gun the charge killing young Thacker instantly.

Edward Smith of Center Star, a negro youth, attempted to cross a ditch while hunting. He slipped and his gun went off, the blast striking him in the side.

Outside the realm of hunting accidents caused by firearms, was the freakish accident that cost the life of A. H. Steel, 66, of Bryant. Steel was hunting with his brother when he was struck by a work car on a railroad track near his home.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Dec. 24.—Dr. Geo. Lang, professor of Philosophy at the University of Alabama and chairman of the program committee for the Young People's Conference to be held at the University of Alabama January 3 and 5, has announced tentative plans for the entire program for the conference.

A tour of the University campus in groups according to vocational interests and the showing of moving pictures of the Rose Bowl game last year will be the recreational features of the program.

Eighteen members of the Arts and Sciences senior class at the University of Alabama have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, according to R. E. Adams, secretary of the organization.

Six students at the University of Alabama were initiated into Phi Delta Kappa, professional educational fraternity, it is announced by Ray Tipton, Anniston, president of the local chapter. Following the initiation a banquet was held which Mre. B. C. Smith, of the state department of education, was speaker.

A bequest of $25,000 has just been left to the school of law at the Universty of Alabama, it is announced by Dean A. J. Farrah, of the law school. The money, which is the second such gift made to the School of Law in less than two months, was left as a part of the will of Miss Unity D. Dancy, of Decatur.

A similar gift of $30,000 was left to the School of Law recently under the will of the Late Judge Robert C. Brickell, of Huntsville.

Mrs. Floyd Smith spent the week end in Prattville with homefolks.

FIRE WORKS galore at Calloway Drug Co. We have almost anything you want in this line. Look them over when in Clanton

COMPLETE BUSINESS TRAINING

Plan to Save Time in Schools of

Professional Accountancy
Business Administration
Bookkeeping
Clerical Courses
Civil Service Coaching
Stenographic Courses
Secretarial Science
Court Reporting

New Noiseless Typewriters, Calculating Machines, Billing and Bookkeeping Machines. Machines free for students use. Plenty of individual instruction for rapid advancement. Standard low rates.

WINTER TERM BEGINS DECEMBER 30

MASSEY BUSINESS COLLEGE

Montgomery - G. M. LYONS, President - Alabama

POOR C

Christmas Clean-Up Sale

One—1934—Ford Gray DeLuxe Tudor Sedan. Reconditioned motor, new tires, new seat covers, paint is original and perfect. This car carries a 30-day guarantee.

One—1934—Ford Green DeLuxe Tudor Sedan. Motor, paint and upholstering all perfect. Original tires. Has 1936 tag. See this car before buying, as it will give new car performance.

One—1934—Ford Black Tudor Sedan. Reconditioned motor, good tires, original paint and upholstering. Let us demonstrate this one to you.

One—1934—Plymouth DeLuxe Coupe. New tires, good paint and upholstering. Has new car appearance and performance.

One—1934—Master Chevrolet Tudor Sedan. Low mileage, and good buy for the money.

One—1934—Ford Black DeLuxe Tudor Sedan. Motor, paint, leather upholstering all perfect. This is an extra good car.

One—1931—Ford Pick-Up. Closed Cab. New Tires.

One—1931—Chevrolet Tudor Sedan. New paint, top and upholstering.

One—1930—Chevrolet Fordor Sedan. Motor, paint, body and tires all in good condition.

One—1933—Chevrolet 1½-Ton Truck. Closed Cab. Dual Wheels.

One—1930—Ford Town Sedan. New Motor. New Paint. Six Ply Tires.

One—1933—Chevrolet Pickup Truck. All ready to go, including 1936 tag.

One—1929—Ford 1½-Ton Truck. Closed cab and stake body.

One—1929—Ford 1½-Ton Truck. Closed cab.

One—1929—Chevrolet Fordor Sedan.

One—1929—Chevrolet Tudor Sedan.

One—1931—Ford Tudor Sedan.

One—1929—Ford Roadster.

The above cars have been reconditioned and priced to move before January 1st. Come in and see them, as this is truly a Used Car Sacrifice Sale. TERMS.

Clanton Motors, Inc.

SALES Ford SERVICE

Phone 16 Authorized Ford Dealers Clanton, Ala.

Interesting Facts About Ala. Schools

Something that I feel should appeal to the interest in general of the people of Chilton County and Alabama as well, most of us have read or either heard quoted the verse of Scripture which reads thus: "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." So in this connection I give these figures.

There are 85 Denominational colleges and schools in Alabama as follows:

Methodist, White	5
Methodist, Negro	4
Baptist, White	3
Baptist, Negro	4
Catholic, White	25
Catholic, Negro	1
Congregational, White	1
Congregational, Negro	4
Presbyterian, Negro	4
Lutheran, Negro	31
Adventist, Negro	2
A. M. E. Zion, Negro	1

Two of these schools are found in Chilton County, one at Thorsby, which is a white Congregational school. The other is a Lutheran Negro school and is found at Maplesville.

Now, I wish to say that I am glad, and very glad indeed, for any and all people, old and young, to have a religion which will make more Christ-like men and women, boys and girls, and wish to say to you to go forward. I have no criticism to offer whatsoever, and now, since being a Baptist myself and for the reason only is that I read in my Bible that Jesus was baptized by John in Jordan. It also reads: "Repent, believe and be baptized and thou shalt be saved." It reads further: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature, and he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." Again it reads: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and lo I am with thee even unto the end of the world."

Purely unselfish, and without the smallest degree of prejudice, I wish to appeal to all Baptists in the strongest terms possible to wake up if we are for Christ. Let's, as the children of Isreal did under Nehemiah, work with one hand and hold our weapon with which to fight in the other. That weapon is the Bible, the word of God. If we do this we will win for God as did the children of Isreal. Again I say, let's wake up. I am praying God's richest blessings on all, and that God will bring us all in closer touch with Him, that we may better know His will, and be able to follow Him closer.—S. J. M. Webb.

We extend Greetings of the Season to our many friends. Christmas should be a season of cheer to all, cares lightened, hope re-kindled, and good-will broadcast over the land.

For the Christmas Trade we Offer All Kinds of Fruits, Nuts, Cakes, Candies.

GET YOUR FRUIT CAKE MATERIAL HERE

H. E. WILLIS

Lay Dam Road - - - - - East Clanton

UNCLE MIKE HANKS WRITES THE 'DEAR GOVT'

Hon. NRA, c-o Dead Letter Dept.
Wash. D. C.
Dear NRA:

I am making a survey of our U. S. business, on acct. I haven't nothing else to do, and the thing I was wondering about, can I get a job with the NRA?

I seen in the paper that ever since the Supreme Court says you was illegal, you have went on keeping about 3,000 NRA experts on the job. They get a fine salary, but they don't have nothing to do.

Well, not doing nothing is my specialty, and I would just as leaf draw Govt wages for that as for really doing something. So does that make me a Govt Expert?

Pleaze let me know by Return Mail, and I will go on with my Survey in the meanwhile.

The way I do it, I catch a man on the streets & ask him how business is. "How is business?" I ask him, and every one I have found so far kind of frowns at me & says, "business is bum."

But this morning I seen a man that had an idea. He was a kind of Elderly Gentleman in a Palm Beech suit, he was wareing one of those Ethiopian Sun Helmets, and sort of stroling along with a Swagger-stick that had a brush on the end of it.

I tapped him on the shoulder & I says, "Well, my friend, how's business?"

He looked kind of sad, he says, "business is few and far between," he told me. "What this here nation needs is a return to the Horse & Buggy days of our grandfather, and more Horses than buggys or grandfathers."

So maybe you can use that there Report for the NRA, and I will be ready to go to work the minnit you answer me back.

Just any NRA job will do, but I would specially like the one my next door neghbor told me about. He pointed out the leading NRA man in our town, and he says to me. "That there man is a parasite."

Well, I don't know what a parasite is, or how much he gets for being that branch of the NRA. But it sounds like a good job for a man with my kind of a head, and a parasite is what I would most like to be.—Yourn hopeful, Mike Hanks.

ISABELLA ACTIVITIES

The F. H. A. and F. F. A. clubs and the Cosmopolitan and Jeffersonian Literary societies will meet Friday to render their programs. Each club and society has planned its Christmas program. The home economic department will be decorated with a Christmas tree with presents from the F. H. A. girls to each other.

We school boys and girls are eagerly looking forward to a joyful time during the cheery Christmas holidays. School responsibilities will be forgotten for one week and happiness will take its place. Every other school boy and girl has our best regards and wishes for a generous old Santa Claus during Christmas.

This week the monthly examinations are being given and the school is going on with its work. We hope the holidays won't interfere with our preparations for our tests.

The foundation of our new building is being worked upon. We are looking forward to occupying it before many weeks.

The Senior I class has been debating this week. The subject Monday was: Resolved: "That Freedom of Discussion should be Permitted in Class Room." Affirmative: Evelyn Lecroy and Mary Joe Smith. Negative: Sara Nell Cobern and Mitchlean Scott. The affirmatives won.

The second debate was Resolved: "That Students should be Classed According to their Ability." The debate was a tie.

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and
Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

FIRE WORKS galore at Calloway Drug Co. We have almost anything you want in this line. Look them over when in Clanton

To the feminine vision, there is no gift so exciting, so fascinating as Jewelry. Dazzling beauty --- Permanence -- win her completely. We suggest Jewelry for her.

And though he hardly expects it, a gift of Jewelry will set a man to talking for months. Its something he will prize --- be proud of for years.

Our Store is Filled With Other Useful Gift Articles

Calloway Drug Company

CLANTON, ALABAMA

ANNOUNCING

THE OPENING OF OUR 55TH STORE

204 MONTGOMERY ST., MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Special for One Week Only

SENSATIONAL SALE

Amazing Reduction.....Now $2.98

Latest "Mode" Glasses with Toric Stock Lenses. Here is a sensational offer that should instantly appeal to everyone who wears or needs Glasses. For this week only we are offering these fine "Mode" Style Glasses fitted in modern White Gold filled frames for this sensational sale for only $2.98. All Glasses fitted by highly skilled licensed Eye Specialist. All lenses ground by expert artisans in our mammoth up-to-date lens factory. Positively guaranteed to fit you perfectly and give complete satisfaction or they cost you nothing. Just try them. That's all we ask. It's our own argument. See how greatly these fine stylish glasses will improve your vision and how perfectly they will enable you to see far or near, read the smallest print, and thread the finest needle. Call for examination by our Eye Specialist at once. Price good for this week only. Take advantage of this amazing Bargain Price. Moderate extra charges for astigmatic, bi-focal and tinted lenses. No obligation to purchase.

Examination by Licensed Eye Specialist

National Optical Stores Co.

OPEN SATURDAY UNTIL 9 P. M.—204 MONTG. ST.

Thousands of customers wear our perfect vision glasses. Stores in many principal cities of the U. S. and Canada.

CALL FOR EYE EXAMINATION

ORIGINAL

DISTRICT MISSIONARY MEETING

District IV missionary meeting will be held at Shady Grove church, Clanton Circuit, December 29th, 1935, beginning at 10:00 o'clock a.m. All missionary auxiliaries in Chilton, Verbena and Clanton circuits, and Archer's Chapel are urged to send representatives. The State officers of the Alabama branch of the Methodist Protestant Board of Missions will be present, together with other speakers interested in the work.—Mabel Jones, District Chairman.

REFUGE PEOPLE EXPRESS THANKS

The patrons and teachers of the Refuge school wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation to the following business firms of Clanton for their donation of prizes to fiddlers in our musical concert of the past Saturday night.

Those who contributed are: Calloway Drug Company, Clanton Cash Store, Hill Grocery Company, Wagner's Barber Shop, Rockett Dry Goods Company, Alred Drug Company, The Leader, Upchurch Drug Company, J. R. Mullins & Sons, Gray's Barber Shop, A. & P. Tea Company and Nazer's.

CANE CREEK

On next Sunday, December 22nd, our pastor, Rev. Norris, will be back to preach for us. Every member is urged to attend, also everyone who will. We are glad to have you. Our Sunday school is growing and lots of interest is being shown.

A BLADDER LAX

THIS 25c TEST FREE If It Fails.

Use this bladder laxative to drive out impurities and excess acids which cause the irregularity that wakes you up. Get buchu leaves, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called BU-KETS. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Poorly acting bladder can cause scanty flow, frequent desire, burning or backache. In four days if not pleased any druggist will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and fell "full of Pep."—Upchurch Drug Company; Alred Drug Company.

Make your family happy by giving me your order for a new Chevrolet, to be delivered on Christmas day.

Luther Foshee

CHEVROLET

Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton, Ala.

THE CORN IS GONE

A drop or two of Corn-Fix stops the pain almost instantly—10 minutes later the corn is GONE—roots and all.

Recommended by your druggist for the safe removal of hard and soft corns, callouses, bunions. Money back if it fails.

CORN FIX FIXES CORNS

MAN STILL RANKS AS "FOREST ENEMY NO. 1"

Man still ranks as "Forest Enemy No. 1. More than half the fires in national forests this year, reports the Forest Service, were caused by man. The number of these fires—as winter rains and snows ended dangerous fire weather conditions in all but a few sections of the country—was 5,777, as compared to 5,282 last year, and to an annual average of 4,691 over the 1931-34 period.

These fires were started by brush burners by residents on land newly acquired by the Forest Service—many of whom still believe that an annual "burning-over" is good for the woods—and by campers, hunters, recreationists, and tourists who have made greater use of national forest facilities this year than ever before. On a purely mathematical basis this increases the number of "man-caused" fires.

"The only solution", says the Forest Service, "is education on the danger of fire. The responsibility falls not only on the Forest Service but upon every individual in the United States."

NEW CORN-HOG PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Details of the two-year adjustment progam for 1936 and 1937 to be offered by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to corn and hog farmers have been announced. The new contract, effective as of December 1, 1935, requires that the signer produce in 1936 at least 50 per cent and not more than 100 per cent of his market hog base if he is to receive the maximum hog adjustment payment. The maximum rate of benefit payments for 1936 will be $1.25 per hog in the market base. Deductions from the maximum will be made from payments to contract signers who produce less than 50 per cent of their market base number, or more than 100 per cent of that number. The cooperating producer must plant at least 25 per cent of his corn base next year but not more than a percentage that is within the permitted optional range of 70 to 90 per cent of his base. Corn payments in 1936 will be in two installments, payable about August 1 and about December 31. The rate will be 35 cents per bushel, times the appraised value, times the adjusted corn acreage. The 1937 rate per bushel is to be not less than 30 cents and is to be announced by November 30, 1936. Hog payments will be made, in one installment, as soon as possible after final compliance check at close of each year. The 1937 maximum rate will not be less than the 1936 maximum. Provision is made in the contract for division of payments between landlords and tenants. Planting of self-improving or erosion preventing crops on the adjusted corn acres in addition to the area normally devoted to these purposed on the farm, is required.

BAKER SCHOOL

The Liberty Hill quartet rendered a splendid program last Friday night. The program was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. We appreciate their kindness very much.

Our boys played the Union Grove team last Friday afternoon on our home court. The game was very interesting. The score was 18 to 5 in favor of Union Grove. Our high score player was Noel Robinson.

We are planning a Christmas program for next Friday, December 20th. Our Parent-Teacher Association will also meet. We especially invite all patrons to attend.—Reporter.

Practical Gifts at Practical Prices

You do not have to buy picked-over goods here. There are Brand New Christmas Items arriving every day. You can buy here with the assurance that you are getting Articles that are New, --- Dolls, Toys, Etc., for the Kiddies, --- Serviceable Gifts for the Grown-Ups.

for her

LINGERIE ---
SWEATERS and SKIRTS ---
HOSE --- HANDKERCHIEFS ---
LINENS --- DRESSES ---
GOWNS ---
BED SPREADS ---
BATH COATS ---
TOWELS ---
RAINCOATS ---

for him

KID GLOVES --- TIES ---
SCARFS --- SOCKS --- KNIVES ---
LUMBER JACKS ---
HANDKERCHIEFS --- SHIRTS ---
SWEATERS --- HATS ---
PAJAMAS ---
--- And Many Other Items That Are Sure To Please ---

Delightful Toys for The Kids

With each Pair of Shoes purchased here we give FREE a well-stuffed Christmas Stocking.

Be Sure to Visit Us when Buying Gifts

J. R. Mullins & Sons

The Complete Store For Everybody — On The Highway — Clanton

WADESONIAN

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19
Stan Laurel - Oliver Hardy in
"BONNIE SCOTLAND"
COMEDY—"Beginner's Luck"

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20
Dick Powell - Ruby Keeler in
"SHIPMATES FOREVER"
COMEDY—"Lonesome Trail"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
1st Show 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30; Midnite Show Sat. at 10

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21
Buck Jones in "THE THROWBACK"
COMEDY—"Lonesome Trail"
SERIAL—"New Exploits of Tailspin Tommy"
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

MONDAY and TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23 and 24
Jackie Searle - Jane Withers in
"GINGER"
COMEDIES—"Gay Old Days" and "Fireman Save My Child"

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 25
Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers in
"TOP HAT"
COMEDY—"In Love At Forty"

BIRTHDAY PASSES

CLANTON—G. D. Rutherford, Dec. 21; Eual Martin, Dec. 21; Ida Belle Arant, Dec. 24; Mrs. M. Lande, Dec. 25; Annie James, Dec. 21; Sadie Lande, Dec. 24; Mildred Hawkins, Dec. 22; Mary Wyatt, Dec. 25; James Griffin, Dec. 24; Mrs. G. W. Golson, Dec. 23; Flora Nell Plier, Dec. 23; Elenor Smith, Dec. 25; Buck Roberts, Dec. 19; Pauline Plyler, Dec. 21; Joe Maddox, Rte. 4, Dec. 21; Paralee Wright, Rte. 3, Dec. 20; Sarah Dean Smith, Dec. 25; Annie Hull, Dec. 21; M. B. Arant, Dec. 24; Christine Snow, Dec. 23; Charlie Taylor, Dec. 24; Mrs. Blacketter, Dec. 20; VERBENA—Laura Sawyer, Dec. 21; MAPLESVILLE—Kelly Scales, Dec. 23; Mrs. C. M. Foshee, Dec. 19; Frank Gulledge, Dec. 25; BILLINGSLEY—Mrs. J. R. Oglesby, Jr., Dec. 23; Elbert Chandlar, Dec. 21.

BOB JONES

COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

"We cannot say smugly that we have three hundred years of schooling in America and today have the most universal system in the world, that we have a million young people in colleges, and let it go at that." I am quoting from an address given by Dr. Lewis, president of the Lafayette College, at a gathering at Albany, N. Y. Dr. Lewis says further, "the use of correct English in this country has become so rare as to attract surprised attention. Manners are poor. The courtesies of an early day are classified as Victorian and therefore discarded. It is considered smart to appear uncouth. Lawlessness is on the increase. Political indifference has increased as the years pass. Spiritual ideals have become less evident." The writer agrees with Dr. Lewis that our educational system does not educate. Most of the students who are graduated from high school and go off to college have very little educational ffoundation. There are some good things about our modern theories of education, but if I must choose between the old system and the modern system, give me the old system. The men who made America were not reared under the modern theories of education. We have overdone the elective system. When I was in college I was told to take Latin and mathematics and other subjects whether I liked them or not. They said the things that were hard for us were the things we needed to study. The old system built up the weak places in our mental and soul life. The modern system which says, "take what you like" builds up the strong points in our mental make-up and neglects the places where we are weak. That is the reason so many artists go to the devil. They are developed on one side of their make-up and the other side hasn't enough pulling power to keep them in the middle of the road. The old system was better balanced than the new system and therefore produced better balanced characters.

America needs a revival of old-time, ordinary, everyday, common honesty. The lack of reward for property has grown out of a lack of respect for the authority of the Bible. "Thou shalt not steal" in one of the ten commandments. God recognized the right to own property. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his ox, nor his ass." A man has a right to own an ox and an ass, and no man has the right to steal what his neighbor owns. The wave of crookedness and dishonesty which is sweeping this country is a result of the breaking down of respect for the old-time standards. The normal code was fixed by Almighty God. It has always been wrong to steal, to covet, to kill, to commit adultery. The principles of right and wrong hold. No nation and no individual can trample upon the eternal principles of right without suffering the conquences. "The wages of sin is death." What men sow, they have to reap. Rome, Greece, and all other ancient civilizations thought they were mighty enough to trample on the principles of right and win, but instead of trampling on these principles of right and wrong, justice trampled upon these nations. Back to God. Back to the Bible. Back to the eternal principles. That is the need of the hour.

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

666 Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops
Checks COLDS and FEVER
First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

Miserable with backache?

WHEN kidneys function badly and you suffer a nagging backache, with dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination and getting up at night, when you feel tired, nervous, all upset . . . use Doan's Pills.

Doan's are especially for poorly working kidneys. Millions of boxes are used every year. They are recommended the country over. Ask your neighbor!

DOAN'S PILLS

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown during the short illness and death of my dear mother. Especially do I thank Dr. N. S. Johnson and Spigener for their kindness. May God's richest blessings rest and abide with each one is my prayer.—Mrs. A. D. Scott.

MRS. BAMA LITTLEJOHN

Mrs. Bama Littlejohn, wife of T. J. Littlejohn, of Lawley, age 82, died at 4:15 p.m., on Monday, December 9th. The funeral was held at the tabernacle near Lawey on Tuesday. Burial was in the cemetery there, with Martin & Sons in charge.

HIGHLAND NEWS

Last Sunday afternoon was our regular singing afternoon. The opening song was led by the chairman, Mr. Coy Lockhart, after which prayer was led by Mr. W. R. Baker.

Directors for the afternoon were as follows: Coy Lockhart, Fonzie Coe, Sovereign Dickey, Elizabeth Culp, Catherine Coe, Audie Brown, Mr. Hull, L. Z. Dickey, Willie Merle Lockhart and Gladys Wyatt. Closing prayer was led by Mr. Willie Hamilton.

Pianists for the afternoon were Misses Virginia Eubanks and Dessie Wyatt. We were glad to have all the visitors with us and invite you back again.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. We invite all who will to come and be with us.

FIDDLERS CONVENTION

There will be a fiddlers convention at Billingsley High school auditorium on December 20th, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Admission will be 10c, 15c and 20c. There will be prizes for all fiddlers. The public is cordially invited..

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

ENTERPRISE HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS

The Enterprise Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. C. L. Wilkins on the afternoon of December 4th, with 19 members present. We had three new members and three visitors.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. C. Boockholdt. We had the roll call and went through with the business, then we had Bible reading by Miss Pardue, and prayer. We had a very interesting Christmas program, in which all the members took part. After the program we had a Christmas tree with many useful and pretty gifts on it. Fruit was served as refreshments.

We were glad to have the new members and visitors and invite them back.

Our next meeting will be on January 10th at the school house. All members are urged to be present and start the new year off right.—Reporter.

Medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub
VICKS COUGH DROP

Go Home for CHRISTMAS
L&N
TRAVEL IN SAFETY and COMFORT BY TRAIN AT LOW COST
See L. & N. Ticket Agent for particulars

BARGAINS --- BARGAINS

In Tires, Tubes and Accessories to January 1st. No one undersells us on Quality Merchandise. We have Truck Tires at prices that you can't afford to pass up.

DIEF'S

In New Mullins Building - - - Clanton, Alabama

POOR O

Christmas means something for the Home

We have just received a solid Carload of New Furniture. We are prepared to fit your home with the furnishings desired

THE NEW 1936 PHILCO

World's Fastest Selling Radio

Buy yours now while our stock is complete. Also have the 1936 Zenith and General Electric Radios. We have what what you want at prices you want to pay

SOLD ON EASY PAYMENTS

BOYS WAGONS

Four sizes to select from. All steel with Rubber Tires

95c - $1.50 - $2.95 - $3.50

New KITCHEN CABINETS — 25 x 40 Inch Porcelain Tops - Color Green or Ivory $17.50

New STEEL BEDS - Walnut Finish - 2-inch continuous Post New Fold Spring New 40-lb Cotton Mattress. Only $11.60

32-In. LOCKER or Steamer TRUNKS. Special at $3.95

4 x 4 Feet Congoleum Felt Base RUGS. Bordered Patterns. Just the thing for Your Stove or Cabinet. Only 95c

HAND BAGS and SUIT CASES, for ..... 95c and up

We carry the Nationally known Lane Chest. One of these will make an exceptional Christmas Gift.

Child's large size WICKER ROCKERS. Cushion Seats. Tan and Green and Ivory finish $2.95

See our Coleman Kerosene Mantel Lamp. Produces 300 candle power, no wicks to light .. $6.75

CEDAR CHEST Walnut finish ..... $14.50 and up

6 x 9 Matting Art Squares Special Xmas. price $1.50

1—3-Piece Good Wicker Suite - Slightly Used .. $15.75

2- and 3-in. Post STEEL BEDS. A real Bargain at $5. These are used Beds but exceptional good values, going at $3.50

CASH AND CARRY PRICES

Large Chair - Ottoman Colors Rust or Green $17.95

9-Piece Dining Room Suite, Special Xmas. .... $79.50 (Easy Terms Arranged)

New 6-Piece Overstuffed Tapestry Living Room Suites, including Chesterfield, Two large Chairs, End-Table, Smoking Stand, and Table Lamp ..... $59.50 ($5 Down; $5 a Month)

Secretary, Walnut or Mahogany Finish, Complete with Top $22.50

Desk, Without Top $17.50

Large Plate Mirrors Each $11.95

Table Lamps, Beautiful Assorted Designs $1.95

Child's Red Rockers Each 95c

Rogers Silver Plate Tableware

26-Piece Set. The name Rogers on your Silver is a guarantee of quality. Every piece carries a life time guarantee. Tested and proven by "Good Housekeeping." $22.50 value, only $15.00

TIFFIN FURNITURE COMPANY

Fox Building 6th St., South of Courthouse Clanton, Ala.

THE WINTER FIRE SEASON WILL SOON BE AT HAND

Montgomery,—It seems somewhat paradoxical that more extensive forest fires should occur during the wettest months of the year, but this is the actual fact as borne out by the statistics of the State Commission of Forestry. Town and city residents indulge in more travel about the country during the late spring, summer and early fall than during the late fall, winter and early spring. As a result, their observations of fires are more common during the warmer and drier periods than during other seasons of the year. What is transpiring during the so-called rainy months however, is not so readily apparent, except to the people living in the woods and on the farm.

There are a great many factors that enter into the probability of forest fire damage. Among these are atmospheric dryness, number of people in the woods and the condition of the ground vegetation. In the Gulf region of the United States the winter rains are often of the nature of sudden downpours which run off very quickly, followed almost immediately by drying winds and other conditions amounting to a brief and intense drought. Meanwhile, frosts have killed the grass and herbage and there is very little moisture in the dead plants. Further, during the winter season nearly all rural and woods workers are in the habit of building warming fires which frequently are left unextinguished. These circumstances combined together add enormously to the fire hazard, with the result that in most years there is a greater acreage burned over during the wetter and colder portions of the year than in the drier and warmer periods.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Martin and son, Bernard, Misses Emmette Courtney and Lucille Griffin spent last Friday and Saturday in Montgomery visiting and shopping.

CHESTNUT GROVE

Brother Horace Nabors preachd a good sermon here Sunday evening.

Brother Canant, of Wilton will preach here next Sunday afternoon. Everybody is invited to come.

Mr. Aaron Nabors was the dinner guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Nabors Sunday.

Miss Erva Lucas was the dinner guest of Miss Martin Sunday.

Mr. Lee Denson was the guest of Mr. Pat Lucas Sunday morning.

Mr. Aaron Nabors visited Mr. Tom Lucas Sunday afternoon.

Brother Horace Nabors took supper with Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Nabors Sunday night.

Mr. G. G. Nabors and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Nabors spent a few minutes with Mr. and Mrs. Mack Nabors Sunday.

Remember, all that are good, old Santa Claus will soon come to see you.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for December 22

MALACHI FORETELLS A NEW DAY

LESSON TEXT—Malachi 3:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me. Malachi 3:1.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Best Promise Comes True.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Kept His Best Promise.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Bringing in a Better Day.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Preparing the Way of the Lord.

(The lesson committee has provided as an alternative a Christmas lesson, using the text Matthew 2:1-12).

The subject of today's lesson is broader than the printed text. In order effectively to teach this lesson, the entire Book of Malachi should be surveyed. The prophet pointed out the sins of the corrupt priesthood, mixed marriages, and failure to pay tithes, with the portrayal of the coming judgment and glorious new day with Christ reigning in his glorious kingdom.

I. The Base Ingratitude of Israel (1:1-5).

God approached them with the tender affirmation, "I have loved thee." It was the burden of the prophet to declare this fact unto them (v. 1). So worldly were the people that they failed to discern God's good hand upon them. Israel's attitude toward God is shown in the skeptical question "Wherein hast thou loved us?" (v. 2) Malachi answers this question by showing God's choice of Jacob and his passing by of Esau, his destruction of Edom and his saving of Israel.

II. God's Severe Indictment (1:6-2:17; 3:7-15).

1. Against the priests (1:6-2:9) They were guilty of

a. Profanity (1:6). Their profanity consisted in despising the name of God. To fail to honor God is to be profane. To use his name in any unreal way is to be thus guilty.

b. Sacrilege (1:7,8). Their sacrilegious act was in offering polluted bread and blemished sacrifices.

c. Greed (1:10). They were not willing even to open the doors of God's house without pay. Service to God should be out of a heart of love for him.

d. Weariness (1:12,13). Because of the absence of love, the routine of priestly duties became irksome.

e. Not teaching the law to the people (2:1-9). Those set apart to teach God's law to the people have a great responsibility and God will most assuredly demand an accounting.

2. Against the people (2:10-17; 3:7-15).

a. For ungodly marriages (2:11, 12) God's purpose in the prohibition of mixed marriages was that he might raise up a holy seed (v. 15). Marriage with the heathen would frustrate this purpose. Marriage of the believer with the unbeliever today brings confusion into the fold of God and turns aside his purpose.

b. Divorce (2:13-16). Divorce in Israel was the source of great sorrow. Even the tears of the wronged women covered the altar (v. 13). The offerings of the man who had thus treated his wife would be an abomination to God.

c. Public wrongs (3:5, 6).

(1) Sorcery or magical arts. This includes the practice of occult sciences, such as spiritism, necromancy, fortune telling.

(2). Adultery. This is a sin of wider extent than the direct parties concerned. It is a canker which gnaws in the very heart of society. Unfaithfulness to the marriage relation should be regarded as a public sin. Such sinners should be ostracized from society.

(3) False swearing.

(4) Oppression of the hireling, the widow, and the fatherless.

(5) Turning aside the stranger from his rights.

d. Withholding tithes from God (3:7-12). Failure to pay tithes is robbery of God. His claim upon Israel was a tenth, plus free will offerings. Our responsibility is to give as God prospers us (I Cor. 16:1).

e. Blasphemy (3:13-15). They openly spake against God, saying that it was profitless and vain to serve him.

III. The Awful Judgment Which Shall Befall the Nation (3:1-5; 4:1-6)

1. By whom executed (v. 1). It is to be done by the Lord. All judgment hath been committed unto the Son of God (John 5:22, 30; cf. Acts 17:30, 31).

2. The time of (3:2-4:1). It will be at the second coming of Christ. John the Baptist was the forerunner of his first coming. Elijah will be the forerunner of his second coming.

3. The result (3:3, 4, 16-18; 4:1, 2) For the righteous it will be a day of healing and salvation; for the wicked it will be a day of burning and destruction.

A Mother's Love

If there be aught surpassing human deed or word or thought, it is a mother's love!—De Spradaro.

Well-Doing

There is no well-doing, no God-like doing, that is naot patient doing.—J. G. Holland.

Justice

To give every man that to which he is entitled, is indeed supreme justice. —Cicero.

Mr. Charlie Burnett was carried to St. Margaret's hospital in Montgomrye Friday, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

A surprise birthday dinner was given in honor of Mr. D. W. Cobb Sunday, December 15. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Cobb were very much surprized when the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren began to gather in about eight o'clock. Granddaddy was celebrating his 82nd birthday. All of the children were present except Mr. G. W. Cobb and family of Elmore, Ala. Those that were present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rachles and daughter of Helena, Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cobb and children, Herlene, Rascoe, Louise and Cois, and two of their grandchildren, Margie Nell and Tommie; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wilkins and children Francis and Betty; Mrs. Flossie Ellison and daughters, Dorothy and Mary Alice; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cobb and children, Rubye Lee, Ruth, Loy Mae Joyce and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cobb and children, Lucile, Bryce Bobby Owdie and Beraldine; also Mr. William Mason Northcutt.

Dinner was served at twelve o'cock which was enjoyed by every one.

Those calling in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thompson and little son, Fred, of Clanton, Mrs. Ivey Northcutt and children.

Everyone enjoyed the day very much and wish for granddaddy many more happy birthdays. — A Granddaughter, Rubye Lee Cobb.

MISS GLADYS COBB IS DISCHARGED FROM HOSPITAL

Miss Gladys Cobb, of Jemison, Ala. who has been operated on at the Woodlawn Hospital, Birmingham, for appendicitis was discharged Sunday, December 15, 1935. Miss Cobb's many friends of Birmingham, Clanton and Jemison are wishing her a speedy convalescence at home and best wishes for the Christmas and New Year holidays.

MRS. MATTIE FLANAGAN

Mrs. Mattie Flanagan, age 74, died at the county almshouse on Wednesday, December 11th. The body was carried to Stanton for burial on Thursday, with Martin & Sons in charge.

MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS GIFT --- A --- PERMANENT GIFT

SPECIALS NEXT 2 WEEKS
$3.50 OIL WAVES $2.50
$3.00 WAVES $2.00
EUGENE WAVES $3.50
$7.50 WAVES $5.00

Make Mother Happy GIVE HER A PERMANENT

Open at Night until Christmas by Appointment

LOU BETH'S BEAUTY SHOPPE

Specials --- FOR --- Xmas.

We will have Apples from 15c to 50c doz. Candy and Nuts of all kinds.

ENGLISH WALNUTS, large, lb 18c
BRAZIL NUTS, large, lb 15c
PECANS, lb 15c
CANDY, Fancy Mixed, lb 10c
Chocolate Drops, Cream Center, lb 12½c
COCONUT BON-BONS, lb 20c
Old Fashion STICK CANDY, 2-lb box .. 20c
FRESH COCONUTS, each ..... 5c and 10c
Regular 5c CANDY STICKS, 3 for 10c

We will have Apples from 15c to 50c dozen Also, One Whole Truck Load of Oranges, Tangerines and Grapefruit at the very lowest prices. Come to see us for your Fruits!

Gun Shells Buy All You Need!

Expert, 12, 16 and 20 Ga.
Ranger, 12, 16 and 20 Ga.
Victor, 12, 16 and 20 Ga.
Monarck, 12, 16 and 20 Ga.
per box 55c

Peter's Target, 12 & 16 Ga.
Western Field, 12 & 16 Ga.
Winchester Repeater, 12-16
per box 70c

Target, Field and Repeater, 20 Ga., box 65c

Rifle Cartridges----Kleenbore

.22 SHORT, per box 15c
.22 LONG, per box 20c
.22 LONG RIFLE, per box 25c

We have for sale all kinds of Shotguns and Rifles, both new and used. Come to See Us! We Appreciate Your Trade!

R. W. LOWE

South Clanton

ORIGINAL

ACCURATE ATTICUS

Editor Union-Banner:

Will you please publish the following letter that was given to the Montgomery Advertiser last week but was refused publication? As you see, it is in regard to the two articles Mr. Atticus Mullin wrote concerning the profits from liquor in Virginia.

Editor the Advertiser:

Atticus Mullin the accurate! The great news reporter for the Advertiser. But Mr. Editor, don't kid him so shamefully in your editorial. The boys on the streets evidently gave him enough of the horse laugh. He admitted in his second article that he had made a mistake in reporting Virginia's profit from liquor. Anybody is liable to err at times. Accurate Atticus made a mistake in his figures of only 9 million dollars—just a slight error. He said that he had not referred to his files, so you must not be too hard on him.

In his article Friday Mr. Mullins, in correcting his Thursday article and telling us not to believe it, made another mistake. He should have added a P. S. saying: "Don't believe anything I write on the liquor question." But I presume that such a statement was not necessary. His facile pen and slippery tongue called to us last February, from Virginia to vote repeal and follow the Old Dominion State that had found the Promised Land. But the vote showed that nobody believed anything he wrote.

I was living in Virginia at the time and after legal liquor was voted in, I did not see or hear of the wonderful things our Accurate Atticus wrote about to the home folks. Put of course, I did not examine the files. If I had I might have seen and heard money rolling into the treasury at the rate of 13 million dollars a year.

My, my, that is some money! Over a million dollars per month net profit. But if the Virginians are as thirsty as Accurate Atticus, and have his consuming capacity, we can see how Virginia has been saved from the poorhouse.

Mr. Editor, how your reporter does love the schools of Alabama! It almost breaks his heart to think of the schools having to close, while liquor flows so freely and tax free. If we would tax liquor now the schools could run on "all six" right up to July 4th, and then we would have a hard job getting them to stop. However, there is a mere possibility of your great news gatherer being mistaken in his estimate. He might have to write next summer: "I see now that I was in error in what I wrote last winter. I should have said the tax from liquor might keep the schools open for four weeks. I failed to examine my files."

His files failed also to reveal an associated press dispatch from Richmond, Virginia, reported in the Birmingham News-Age Herald yesterday (Sunday). Read on page 12 about a college president saying he had first-hand report of one state college president, who, while making a speech, gave distinct evidence of being under the influence of liquor. He said that from another institution there came reports of other professors coming to classrooms under the influence of liquor. From another institution there came reports of professors getting so drunk at the president's reception that they were not able to drive their automobiles safely.

But such trifling results of liquor as these do not matter, so long as anything like 13 million dollars dangle before us. Our schools would prosper and the schools of journalism could turn out accurate reporters who would be able to fill the first column of the front page one day with a glowing article, and the second column of the front page the next day with a groaning article saying: "Don't believe what I wrote yesterday. Play like I didn't write it. Perhaps with all the money that would flow to the schools, one of them might be glad to confer on Mr. Mullin the honorary degree of D. U. D. (Dispenser of Unusual Dope).

But I am making this article too long. If I have made any mistakes, will you please have Accurate Atticus to correct them? That will save me the trouble of having to write another article to-morrow. I am in bed with the flu and haven't had a chance to examine my files.—A. E. Middlebrooks.

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton
At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, DEC. 30TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON
OPTOMETRIST

Calloway Drug Company's line of fire crackers and other fire works is complete. You are invited to trade with Calloway, Clanton.

C. Reese Mullins

AGENT - - - - - - - - CLANTON, ALA.

Wishes for all his many friends and customers a Happy Christmas, and Many Prosperous New Years to Come.

CENTER HILL NEWS

Old man winter still reigns in our community.

Our Sunday school picked up some in attendance last Sunday. Everybody come on out next Sunday to Sunday school and let's see how we will grow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cobb, Mabel, J. O., and Raymond Cobb spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Childress.

Mr. and Mrs. William Price and Miss Eula Price were in Dry Valley for the week end.

Ted Cobb spent Saturday night with James Gentry.

Miss Pauline Lesley visited her sister, Irene, in Clanton from Saturday night until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilden Gothard dined with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Collum Sunday. Sunday afternoon they all called on Mrs. Carrie Frederick, who has been ill for the past week.

Miss Mildred Cobb was in Clanton Sunday night and Monday visiting her cousin, Mrs. Lewis Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lesley spent Sunday afternoon with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Lesley.

Remember that next Sunday afternoon is our regular singing date. Be sure to come and bring your books.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ray were the spend-the-day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ray.

Mrs. Paul Webb spent the week end with friends and relatives around South Calera.

Mr. Frank Lesley of Calera, was here for a short while Sunday morning.—Reporter.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes and little daughter, Helen, spent several days this week end with Mrs. W. E. Floyd of Clayton, Alabama.

VERBENA NEWS

Hearts and Gowns, a musical comedy will be presented at Verbena High school, December 19, at 8:00 o'clock. Admission, 15c and 25c.

A poor working girl and a rich merchant's daughter are both in love with the same person. Who gets the man?

Josie Dugan, the cash girl and Bill Skeats, the hired boy, get themselves in dutch by kidnapping Delphine Dunn, the rich merchant's snobby daughter. Then the fun begins! How they clear themselves and pull the wool over everybody's eyes will make you roar.

Featured in the play will be a style show, chief gown of which will be the dream of love gown, from Paris. Sixteen chorus girls furnish dancing and singing, accompanied by the orchestra.

It was formerly announced that this play would be at Cooper, Dec. 20th, but this has been postponed.

READ THESE

—They Speak For Themselves

TVA REJECTED BY FOUR CITIES

West Tennessee Officials Oppose 20-Year Contract

UNION CITY, Tenn., Dec. 4 (AP)—Officials of three West Tennessee municipalities meeting here last night declared themselves strongly opposed to accepting a standard TVA contract to supply electrical power over a 20-year period.

The three cities represented were Union City, Trenton and Dyersburg, each of which owns and operates its own electrical power plant. Approval of the contract by the trio is necessary for the TVA to complete a power loop of West Tennessee towns.

Robert Adams, city attorney of Trenton, said that under the proposed contract "TVA has both ends of the rope and the middle besides."

The greater part of the objections revolved about the 20-year clause.

Mayor W. M. Miles, of Union City, expressed disapproval of a long-term contract.

"If we could buy the power from TVA and sell it as we wish," he said, "it would be a different proposition. We, in Union City, wish to maintain our autonomy and sell power without government meddling. I never did like the idea of a man selling me something, and then telling me how I should use it."

Mayor L. D. Hammer, of Dyersburg, said "there is absolutely nothing in the contract that leaves anything whatsoever to the municipality.

"We are left no voice in the matter. None of us are opposing or upholding the TVA, but we are trying to do what is best for the people of West Tennessee, generally."

OXFORD, Miss., Dec. 4 (AP)—

—Huntsville Times Dec. 4, 1935

the lid."

OBSTACLE FACES NEW TVA HOOKUP

Tennessee Towns Refuse To Abandon Plants

UNION CITY, Tenn.—(AP)—The Tennessee Valley Authority's proposed electric power hook-up of West Tennessee towns faced a barrier Wednesday that apparently threatened its completion.

The snag that has the TVA program for expansion blocked at least temporarily is the refusal of three towns to abandon municipally-owned power plants for the TVA system of distribution.

Union City, Dyersburg and Trenton stood firmly opposed to entering into a 20-year contract whereby they buy electricity from the TVA for resale to inhabitants. A fourth municipality, Covington, also is withdrawing its approval.

Acceptance by these four cities is needed by the TVA to complete a "loop" of towns.

Mayor W. M. Miles, of Union City, who has vigorously opposed a TVA contract, said at a meeting of city officials of Dyersburg, Trenton and Union City that his city wishes to "sell power without government meddling."

Mayor L. D. Hamner, of Dyersburg, expressed the same thought, saying the contract left "absolutely nothing whatsoever to the municipality."

Officials of each of the towns said if they accepted the TVA standard contract they would be forced to increase taxes from 86 cents to $1.50 to cover revenues now obtained from the municipality-owned plants.

MAYNARDVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 4 (AP)—

—Birmingham News Dec. 4, 1935

(The above newspaper items reproduced as an advertisement by Alabama Power Co.)

POLK'S BARGAIN LIST

1935—Ford V-8 2-Door Sedan. Just like new. 1936 Tag. Very Special at $485

1930—Chrysler Six 4-Door Sedan in good mechanical condition with Good Tires. New Paint job $225

1928—Ford 2-Door Sedan. Reconditioned. New Tires. For only $110

1929—Model A Ford Coupe. Special $50

1929—Model A Ford Sport Coupe with Rumble Seat, Reconditioned. New Tires. New Top 1936 Tag $160

1932—Model B Ford Coupe with Rumble Seat. Practically new tires Has had exceptionally Good Care $275

1928—Dodge 4-Door Sedan in A-1 mechanical condition. With good tires $165

1928—Chevrolet Coupe As is $25

1929—Chevrolet Truck Cab and body $75

Three Slightly Used Electric Radios In Perfect condition. Each .. $17.50

1—No. 70 Chattanooga Walking Plow $5.50

1—No. 63 Chattanooga Walking Plow $7.50

An Atwater-Kent Radio will make an Ideal Xmas. present. Let us Demonstrate and quote you terms on either Electric or "AIR CELL" Battery Sets.

We would like to trade for One Good International "New 4" Cultivator.

Polk Bros. Motor Co.
(INCORPORATED)
CHRYSLER — PLYMOUTH
INTERNATIONAL
CLANTON :—: ALABAMA

POPLAR SPRINGS

A CHRISTMAS PARTY

The ladies home demonstration club of Popular Springs enjoyed a Christmas party given at Mr. G. B. Jones's on Friday afternoon, December 6. A large number of members and visitors were present. There was a short program on Christmas and the birth of Christ by some of the members. The exchanging of gifts was another entertainment. But the best of all was the refreshment committee served cakes, hot chocolate and popcorn candy, which was enjoyed by all. The party broke about four o'clock, everybody wishing the other a merry Christmas.

The next club meeting will be at Mrs. R. L. Traywick's on January 3, 1936. Be sure to come and bring some one with you. We are glad to say we enrolled some new members at our last meeting.—Reporter.

COOPER 4-H CLUB

Miss Ruth Pardue met with our 4-H club girls December 11. Meeting was called to order by the president. The girls joined in singing club songs, following, a good program was carried out by Laverne Woodfin's group No. 1.

We talked on floor finishing for the bed room. Miss Pardue also asked the girls to work out their colors for the meeting.—Reporter.

MARS HILL NEWS

Our Sunday school at this place is progressing along nicely. We have 40 members on roll. Would be glad for every body in this comunity to turn out and see what we are doing.

Our singing Sunday was attended by a very large crowd. The directors for the afternoon were Mr. Wilma Scott, Miss Hazel Coffer, Mr. T. V. Mims, Mr. Ellis Martin; pianists, Mrs. T. V. Mims and Mrs. Howard Roper. Mr. Corburn Coffer, chairman. We would like for every body to come and be with us next third Sunday afternoon. We are having a good singing; it is attended by a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Carver and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Buck of Maylene, Ala., were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gothard of this community Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Mims gave a musical entertainment at their home Saturday night. Every body seemed to enjoy the music.

We are very glad to hear of the improvement in the sicknes of little Wilburn Edwards. Hope he will soon recover.

We are very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Bamma Martin, who was only sick for a few days. May God help the family in their time of sorrow, for she was a kind and loving mother.

J. D. MIMS

J. D. Mims, son of the late Thomas Mims, died at his home in the Refuge community on Thursday, December 12th. The funeral was held at Mt. Springs church at 11 o'clock on Friday, December 13th. Burial in the cemetery there, with Martin & Sons in charge.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

ATTENTION HOUSEWIVES!

WITH so many important things to do for Christmas, you haven't time to waste time over the washtub. Besides, you want to keep your health—you want to look your best—for the good times the holidays bring. And how can you do that if you wear yourself out (and probably take a bad cold) doing the family washing? Make up your mind right now that you're going to give yourself a year-'round Christmas present by letting us take washday out of your life. And remember, while we're saving your time and strength and looks, we're saving money for you, too. For our "bargain" Damp Wash Service Costs less than home-washing. As you'll discover when you phone us to call for your bundle.

Damp Wash
Service
30c
for 10 Pounds

SEND IT TO THE LAUNDRY • SAVE WORK • SAVE TIME • SAVE MONEY

Clanton Laundry & Cleaning Co.

Phone 119 - - - "We Serve To Serve Again" - - - Clanton

POOR C

Clanton Merchants Union-Banner

-XMAS. WINDOW INSPECTION CONTEST-

Open to Every Man-Woman-Child in Clanton and Vicinity
[With Exception of Union-Banner Employes and Families]

10-PRIZES to the WINNERS-10

A Few Simple Rules

IN THE WINDOWS OF THE STORES IN THIS CONTEST WILL BE DISPLAYED ONE ARTICLE NOT SOLD BY THE STORE . THE CONTESTANTS WILL VISIT EACH WINDOW AND DETERMINE WHAT THIS ARTICLE MAY BE. WRITE A LETTER TO THE UNION-BANNER STATING WHAT THAT ARTICLE MAY BE AND WHY YOU SHOULD TRADE AT HOME. YOUR ANSWERS MUST BE IN NOT LATER THAN SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21st, AT 6:00 P. M.

In Judging, Originality and Accuracy Will Count - - - - Decisions of the Judges Will Be Final

THESE STORES WILL DISPLAY CONTEST MERCHANDISE

Thursday-Friday-Saturday - Dec. 19-20-21

PRIZES

First $6.00
Second $4.00
Third $2.50

Fourth to Tenth Prizes
2 THEATRE TICKETS

UPCHRURCH DRUG CO.
DOLLAR STORE
CLANTON CASH STORE
J. R. KEMP
CLANTON SHOE SHOP
CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE
WADE GROCERY CO.

E. L. KLINNER FURNITURE CO.
ROCKETT DRY GOODS CO.
MAZER'S
WATTS HAT SHOPPE
LOUIS PRINCE, Jeweler
MIMS SERVICE STATION
EVANS VARIETY STORE

JUDGES

C. H. PIPES
PERCY PITTS

Decision of the Judges Will be Final.

--- Buy in Clanton --- Do Your Christmas Shopping At Home ---

The prosperity and general well-being of a community is largely reflected in the kind of merchants and business people there are in that community, and only to the extent that those business concerns are prosperous and progressive, will that community prosper and progress.

The success of the community depends, then, upon the patronage their local business concerns get from the people. So it follows necessarily, Mr. John Citizen, that you have the final say whether you will live in a good town that is prosperous and growing, or one that is slowly withering and dying like a blighted plant. If you take your citizenship seriously and have the best interests of your community at heart, if you realize that you are a stockholder in an enterprise that will pay dividends to borrower and lender both, you will have a good town.

If you spend your money where you make it, patronize your local merchants, you will cash in on those dividends by making your town and your merchants more prosperous, they will be able to give more employment to your son or daughter, they will buy more of your farm products and pay a better price for them, they will have bigger stores, buy more goods, spend more money in other ways, pay more taxes, and this in turn will increase the value of your property, tend to reduce your taxes, increase bank clearings, bring in more industries and other business enterprises, and make your town a better place in which to live.

If you spend your money with mail order houses or go to other cities to buy what you can buy at home at just as good prices and in many instances cheaper, just as good quality, stop and think for a moment. Is it good business? Will it pay in the long run?

When you fill out a mail order blank or go to some other city to buy, you are not only hurting your local business man, your neighbor and friend, but you are hurting yourself for you are taking money elsewhere and not a penny of it can ever benefit your community. You are lessening just that much the chance of your boy or girl or yourself getting employment at home, lessening your chance of selling your farm products, lessening the amount of money in circulation in your town, making your property less valuable, and contributing just that much to unemployment, poor business and a dead town. Can you afford it?

UPCHURCH DRUG CO.
ROCKETT DRY GOODS CO.
WADESONIAN THEATRE
POLK BROTHERS MOTOR CO.
WATTS HAT SHOPPE
CLANTON, MOTORS, Inc.
J. R. KEMP
McKEE BROS. SERVICE STATION
MIMS SERVICE STATION
THOMPSON COTTON GIN
NELSON LUNCH SHOP
SCOTT'S STUDIO
LAWRENCE SERVICE STATION
CITY FISH MARKET
CLANTON ICE CO.

MURRAY-BELL HARDWARE CO.
M. B. ARANT
J. C. PATTILLO, Circuit Clerk
VINCENT J. WARD, D. C.
McDANIEL PRESSING SHOP
THE UNION-BANNER
COCA-COLA CO., N. A. Popwell, Rep.
DOLLAR STORE
J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
MAZER'S
CLANTON CASH STORE
CLANTON LAUNDRY & CLEANING CO.
MATT'S LUNCH SHOPPE
CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE
WADE GROCERY CO.
PERCY M. PITTS

BISHOP SERVICE STATION
MADDOX & WATSON GARAGE
DIXIE CAFE
FOSHEE FURNITURE CO.
BLUE STREAK BUS LINE
E. L. KLINNER FURNITURE CO.
CHILTON CO. SHOE REBUILDERS
CLANTON SHOE SHOP
LOUIS PRINCE, Jeweler
KLINNER SERVICE STATION
DeMABEL'S BEAUTY SHOPPE
J. W. FANT, County Agent
WILSON HOTEL
WOCO SERVICE STATION
C. H. PIPES, City Clerk

Shop Each Window Carefully! - - - - Pick The Article Not Sold By The Store!

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

We used to wonder why one of our neighbors didn't seem to mind t a bit when his wife bawled him out for getting home late to supper. And then we learned that he used to be a professional baseball umpire.

"IN THE BAG?"

The St. Louis Post Dispatch has scooped the country, if we are not mistaken, in digging another item of interest out of the President's address to the conference of mayors held in Washington last week. It reads:

"We haven't had a (tax) revision and I think the time is coming—not this coming session of Congress, because we hope that it will be a very short session—but by the following year, when all of us can get together and work out a better system of taxation."

The date, it will be observed, for taking up the subject is not 1936, but 1937. This, our contemporary says, shows that Mr. Roosevelt has no doubt as to who will occupy the White House at that time. Such confidence should reassure those New Dealers who show signs of jitters because of the poll of the Literary Digest, and are already marshaling data to prove that it cannot be relied upon. —Baltimore Sun.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert)

We seemingly have traveled a long way from the sentiment of the old days when the speakers of both great political parties "pointed with pride" to to the fact that this was not a class-conscious country. They referred to European nations with their parties of workers and peasants and aristocrats. In America, it was their boast, membership of both of the great political parties cut down through every layer of society. In the Republican party were manufacturers, doctors, bankers, lawyers, farmers and workers, while the same could be said of the Democratic party. So long as this was true, as long as each party contained a cross-section of our social and economic life, it was claimed, we would not be in danger of European system which pits class against class and leads eventually to revolution.

Yet such does not seem entirely the case today. An address delivered recently in California by Prof. Rex Tugwell, one of the ace Brain Trusters and New Dealers in the country, would seem to have received comparatively little publicity in the light of the significance of its statements. This significance was not entirely lost however and there has been some comment upon the address delivered before a political gathering in Southern California. For example: Senator L. J. Dickinson, of Iowa, made some mention of it in a speech delivered before the Chamber of Commerce of New York recently, and a quotation or two from this "old fashioned" statesman will be sufficient to bring home the significance of a part of the Professor's address.

Prof. Tugwell declared, quoting from Senator Dickinson's address: "the nation is witnessing the death struggle of the industrial autocracy and the birth of democratic discipline. * * * These historic changes are never pleasant * * * we have, however, the duty of avoiding violence as the process goes on * * * while we are establishing a farmer-worker alliance which will carry all before it * * * our best strategy is to surge forward with the workers and farmers."

We have heard some about farmers and workers parties in this country but these have generally been regarded as somewhat in sympathy with the radicals who seek to subvert our government and set up something which has a similarity to Soviet Russia. One may well wonder whether Prof. Tugwell has in mind a gathering in of the old farmer-worker movement and refashioning the Democratic party to lead it, or whether he has something entirely new in mind. One might also wonder just how completely he has the farmers and workers of America back of him in this regimented idea of a new economic order. Our farmers in the past have been notedly conservative as a whole, because they seem to have absorbed the idea that a redistribution of the wealth of the so-called capitalist in town might easily be followed by a redistribution of acreage in the farm districts.

Senator Dickinson evidently does not believe that Prof. Tugwell has succeeded in selling his ideas on social and economic reform entirely to our rural population as he says:

"I am from a farm state. I believe I know better than Rexford Tugwell how the farmers of this country really think and feel. And I say to you now that these men and women on the farms reject this proposed alliance which brazenly seeks to subvert the existing social order. They have been through privation and acute distress, but they cannot be brought to surrender their faith in our present institutions through subsidy under what is advertised openly to be a class-operated, near-communistic scheme. They may feel that they have been the victims of serious economic maladjustments, but they still believe that these problems can be worked out within the framework of the Constitution. And, despite all that you may hear from Mr. Tugwell and others to the contrary, they still believe that more can be accomplished for the future through their own self-reliance than by dependence upon government doles or the omniscience of commissars operating a so-called "planned economy" from Washington!"

Anyhow it would be interesting to know from Prof. Tugwell how far he plans to go and just what he plans to do in the construction of a new farmer-worker order and just who is to be included with the beneficiaries.

COMMUNISM — OLD AND NEW

Communism is not a new doctrine. It goes back at least as far as the ancient King Minos of Crete and King Lycurgus, of Sparta, and Plato held to many of its doctrines, according to Dr. R. J. C. Dorsey, of the Washington College of Law, writing in the current issue of the National Republic under the caption "Old and New Communism." In part, Dr. Dorsey says:

"Today radical doctrines assail us on all sides. Most of their theories find their prototypes in ancient histories and are modern adaptations of archaic exploded ideas. The most vicious and virulent principles are combined and called 'communism'. Present-day radicals have taken something from all those aged 'isms' and foisted it upon the American people as a new order.

"Approximately three thousand years ago, Lycurgus, the ruler of a small city state in ancient Greece called Sparta, become inoculated with the venom of certain principles, only later to be adopted by the communists, through contact with a king of Crete called 'Minos'. History does not relate how Minos became possessed of them. Herodotus, Aristotle, Zenophon, Thucydides, Plato and Plutarch tell us of Lycurgus and his institutions. Lycurgus evolved a military state that was totally lacking in those refinements that we identify with an advanced civilization. Sparta produced no men like Pericles, Phidias, Socrates, Solon or Sophocles. Spartan institutions have added nothing to civilization. On the contrary they have contributed much that now threatens our civilization with destruction. Plato in his republic incorporated some of the institutions of Lycurgus, while Aristotle criticized both Lycurgus and Plato and held that their ideas were unreasonable.

Communists, in their endeavor to find a more remote pristine basis for their community of property theory direct our attention to the period when family ownership prevailed. In some parts of the world a form of family ownership still prevails. However, such customs and practices never owed their existence to communistic incentives in the accepted sense. Family ownership, originated when the races were nomadic was retained by them for a long time after they had fixed habitations. The male head of the family was considered the nominal owner of the property and through him the other members of the family had a vested right of enjoyment. The family solidity was primarily due to the necessity for protection, though community of ancester worship and the sacred fire were also contributing factors. Such a family was a political unit and its property rights were recognized by other families or units. The individuals in each family were united by blood, marriage or adoption. Family ownership prevailed in the early phases of Hamitic, Semitic, Mongolian and Aryan divisions of the human race. As civilization advanced the individual found that he no longer needed the strength of the family for his protection for the state undertook that duty. Mindful of this new security the individual quickly accumulated property which he held distinct from any family property and the law recognized his right to acquire, retain and dispose of it. The law protected the individual in this right and granted remedies for its infringement. Today communism does not comtemplate any ties of blood, marriage, or adoption to hold it together. There is no similarity between the ancient family and modern communistic settlement as to motive, for their present aim is gain. The modern communist advocates the complete abolition of individual property rights and in lieu would substitute a so-called community or state ownership under the direction of a dictator."

In reply to critics, Speaker Byrns holds that the recent administration statement on the budget simply means "that there has been a greater degree of business recovery than the President or possibly anyone else expected when he delivered his budget message to the Congress last January." But can the Speaker really mean to imply that neither the Brain Trust nor anybody else about Washington could for see how much the New Deal was going to accomplish?—Kansas City Times.

THE DOLE IS ENDED

Harry Hopkins, the Federal Relief Administrator, apparently brought direct relief to a close on December 1. It was announced that no more specific grants for relief would be alloted to the states and the federal aid in the future would be along the line of federal works programs. The spending record for two years was a litte more than three billion dollars, not including the well-known CWA.

At the same time we seem to have come to the end of "direct" relief, we are cheerfully informed that the peak of spending is over and that it won't be long now until we can talk about balancing the budget. This ought to bring comfort to the hearts of a great many Americans who have been viewing our mounting national debt with considerable alarm.

To those who remember, however, the promises which were made in the campaign of 1932 about reducing expenditures and balancing budge's, there will be a note of familiarity about the recent pledges. Sometimes things don't turn out as expected, and it is not to be forgotten that there are still more people on public relief than ever before in the history of the country.

As a matter of fact there is no asurance that the real end of the dole is near at hand or that we are on the way to balancing the budget in the near future. It is much better to face the facts than indulge in pleasant dreams about a future that is not among the probabilities.

It is not to be forgotten that Congress will soon be with us again and that next year is a campaign year. Anybody who expects any real expenditure curtailing or any real cessation of relief in one form or another during campaign year is an optimist greater than we ever remember having seen back in the horse and buggy days. Already we are hearing rumors to the effect that the abandonment means great hardship in "a dozen different states" and it is quite likely that another dozen or so can be added to those requiring aid and assistance when the politicians get busy.

In the meantime Uncle Sam's borrowing has reached a new peak. Another issue of $900,000,000 worth of government bonds has grown to thirty and a half billion dollars. Some sizeable sum, that

It begins to look as though we are not only mortgaging our own future but that of our children and our children's children who will have to pay for our own extravagance and lack of foresight, which began with our entrance into world politics, and which was aided and abetted by the general speculation which preceded the crash of 1929.

In the meantime it is good to know that more than 3,000,000 people are busy on "useful works" to not include counting the shade trees and training flea circuses in various parts of the country.

These days newspaper readers have their choice between photographs of Ethiopian warriors and football players, the latter appearing much the more formidable.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

MAN IN THE MOON

I AM THINKING OF YOU THIS CHRISTMAS. AND HOPING IT'LL BE THE HAPPIEST EVER FOR YOU AND YOURS!

HAPPY NEW YEAR, TOO!

THE PAVING SQUABBLE

Without being critical, yet I believe that people, and especially officials, of Chilton County can find more different curious things to scrap over than any place I can think of right now. The latest moot question is the road paving project. Think of it. Of all things to scrap over — a chance to pave a road.

I do not intend to criticize either side on the question, but that there is even a hint of dissension is a sure sign that there is some kind of childish influence present among our officials. I may be poking my head into a noose to say this, but it is the truth, any way.

Some time ago, Mr. Charlie Cox, Chilton's representative, and Mr. Earle Thomas, our senator, were sponsors of a bill relative to the management of Chilton's road system. I think it is an undisputed fact that on many occasions large amounts of Chilton's road money has been wasted. Whether Mr. Cox's bill would have remedied this, I do not know. That bill called for, among other things, a country road supervisor, who would have general charge of our road repair and construction system. Mr. Cox believes such an arrangement would have made for economy in the road department, and maybe it would. On the other hand, it is possible and highly probable that the waste that has been present under the old system was some kind of leak, unintended, and was hard to stop. Maybe there would have been some such objection to Mr. Cox's plan, if it had gone into effect.

The other big question connected with this squabble is over the project of paving the Maplesville highway to the county line. That proposition called for the setting aside of a portion of Chilton's part of the gas tax with which to pay Chilton's share of this work.

I have an idea this should be done. The people of Chilton Counuty will never know the difference. There would be no increase in the amount of tax collected, and I do not believe the amount held back from our share of the gas taxes would seriously effect our road repair program. And after all, it is high time some steps were taken to try to construct some permanent roads in the county. Each year there are spent thousands of dollars on our makeshift roads for repairs. If county officials would institute a program of building at least five miles of permanent roads each year in the county, in the long run our road system would be wonderfully improved at no extra cost to the taxpayers. Once those roads are built, the upkeep is negligible. Before many years our repair bill would be lowered materially. That's my idea of a road-building program, and I believe it is sound and practical. This present project would be a step in this direction.

Another angle to the prseent squabble is this: Our county officials made a "trade", so to speak, with Mr. Cox and Mr. Thomas, agreeing that if the bill was stopped, the county officials would allow such a part of the county's share of the gas tax to go in as Chilton's share in the construction of the proposed new road. However, if I am informed correctly, once the bill was killed, the officials "reneged" on Mr. Cox and Mr. Thomas, and decided to hold a referendum and let the people vote on it. If they did not intend to keep this agreement, they should never have made it. The business of letting the people speak on the subject is not objectionable, yet it must be remembered that the voters elected our officials to transact the county's business, and this latest development looks very much like the old army game—passing the buck. If the officials are not big enough to take the responsibility of doing the work which they asked to be allowed to do, then it is high time they gave the job over to someone who will accept such responsibility.

The people elected both the county officials and the legislators. They expect them to study out the best plans for the county's interest—that is their job. If the people must go to the trouble of voting on every question of expenditures that comes up, we have no use for the officials elected to those positions. Again, if the officials broke their agreement with the legislators, that is bad business. It has been hinted that the county officials were afraid to let the deal go through, for fear of what it might do to their political fortunes. If that be the case, I believe the voters would respect their positions much more if they did not watch the political barometer so much.

These officials should remember, too, that Mr. Cox will have another whack at them, and might remember their breach of faith, if there was one. On the other hand, Messrs. Cox and Thomas should remember that they, themselves, must come before the voters again to answer for the manner in which they have conducted the county's affairs. Why not get together for the good of Chilton County, rather than squabble?

THE DIGEST POLL

When vital questions of national interest arise, such as presidental elections, the prohibition question, and the like, The Literary Digest usually makes a poll of the nation upon such questions. And, strange as it seems, they always get an answer from their poll upon which one can depend, regarding the question at hand.

They took a poll in 1932 on the presidential election, and their total count showed less than one per cent variation from the official count all over the nation. In 1932, the count showed that 57.32 per cent of the popular vote went to Roosevelt. In 1934 another poll was taken, with ballots being sent to the same addresses as in 1932, testing the popularity of the New Deal measures, and this poll showed that they were more popular than in 1932, this percentage running well over 60.

Now the Digest is conducting another poll, asking this question: "Do you NOW approve the acts and policies of the New Deal to date?" It has been running for four weeks. There will be sent out 10,000,000 ballots, a great part of which have already been sent, and 642,711 of these ballots, from 26 states, have been returned. To date, these ballots divide as follows: 274,830, or 42.76 per cent, are for the New Deal; 367,881, or 57.24 per cent are against it. Out of 26 states represented, only seven favor the New Deal at this stage of the poll.

Out of all these 26, there are represented only two eastern states, Massachusetts and Connecticut, while there are 12 of the so-called mid-western states entered, and these states are said to be the ones which hold the balance of power in electing presidents. Naturally, the southern states are supporting the New Deal, and eastern states register strongly against it, but the fact that these "balance of power" states are showing a distinct trend against it is enough to cause the Democratic heads to sprout a few gray hairs.

I have lots of fun with some of my Democratic friends about this poll. They had the laugh on me in 1932 and 1934, when the results from these olls were printed, showing Roosevelt ahead. They reminded me time after time how close the Digest polls have always come to being exactly right. Now I get a snicker or two out of them, and the chance to remind them about past polls. They take it good-natured though. And do I plaster it on them. It's a great game, this politics, if you don't weaken.—Man in the Moon.

THE POTATO LAW

We have now come into the era of regimented potatoes. December 1 was the date and it won't be long now until we will be buying and eating stamped spuds. Not taxed potatoes, perhaps, because only those are to be taxed which are raised beyond the limit set by Papa Wallace. Those which are raised within the quota will bear tax-exemption stamps. These will be the size of ordinary postage stamps, gray in color and printed in weight denominations of from two to fifty pounds, to be used in accordance with the size of the potato container. The stamps for potatoes on which taxes are paid because the tubers are raised outside the quota will be about the size of special delivery stamps. So you ought to know, by the size of the stamp, whether you are buying regimented or "horse and buggy" potatoes. The word "buggy" is used advisedly and with no reference tc insects.

In order that your memory may be refreshed as to the new potato law which is designed to raise the price of the tubers as well as to fix the number which a potato grower may raise, the following is quoted from a recent speech by Representative Wadsworth, of New York, a statesman who "knows his potatoes, as well as his onion, and who says of the potato legislation:

"That remarkable statute which provides in effect that no farmer in the United States may raise and sell more than five bushels of potatoes per year without the permission of the government; that if he sells more than the amount alotted to him without paying the prohibitive tax, he may be fined and upon the second offense, sent to jail: that the person who purchases illegal potatoes may also be fined and sent to jail; and, finally, that the person who has knowledge of an illicit sale and purchase and fails to act as the government's 'snooper' in reporting the violation may also be punished."

Of course there is much history behind the potato control act. There are folks who are unkind enough to blame the AAA for the over production of potatoes. They charge that when the Southern farmers cut down their cotton production the AAA experts advised them to raise potatoes on the idle land. Thus in the end potato regimentation was made necessary. Where regimentation will strike next time it is impossible until we learn what the AAA experts advise the potato farmers to raise on the land made idle by potato curtailment.

It begins to look like agricultural regimentation is just one blamed thing after another. But there is relief in sight. When Cordell Hull gets a few more reciprocal tariff treaties in effect admitting alien farm products—as was the case in the Canadian "bargain," the American farmers won't have to worry about what to do with the idle acres. They can just let 'em grow up in ragweed and jimpson.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

A great deal of debate is still going on concerning the possibility of a new constitutional amendment to give Congress and the Executive powers which the Supreme Court, in the NRA and similar cases, has decided they do not now possess.

A short time ago Walter Lippman, the well-known publicist, challenged an editor who has often written in favor of the amendment, to put it into words—that it, to prepare the text of such an amendment in the clear and legal form in which it must be submitted to the people. It was Mr. Lippman's expressed belief that no one could do it—and his belief was partially proved when the editor replied that the job was beyond him.

The actual preparation of such an amendment would seem a task almost beyond human power. How could we further centralize and augment powers of the Federal government—and at the same time preserve the rights of states, which are at present guaranteed by the Constitution? How could we give to the government at Washington absolute and dictatorial powers over commercial and industrial life—which is what the sponsors of the amendment want—and at the same time keep operative the existing Constitutional guarantees that protect the lawful activities of individual initiative and enterprise? How could we give into the hands of politicians sweeping authority over our basic social and economic institutions—and at the same time make sure that such fundamental principles of democratic government as freedom of press, speech and action were not infringed?

The Constitution has existed for more than 150 years. It has made possible our growth from a handful of relatively unimportant colonies to the greatest industrial power in the modern world. It has preserved, in the face of a hundred onslaughts, the human rights and liberties for which men have fought since the dawn of time—liberties which have been entirely destroyed in other nations. It has given us the highest standard of living for the masses, in the world. Perhaps those who would emasculate and change this document are less wise, less foresighted, less in tune with the forces that make for the freedom and progress, than were those great men who wrote it.

FACTS ABOUT THE SALES TAX

For years the people of Alabama, along with thinking, forthright citizens of many other states, have watched with increasing alarm the dangerous tendency to wanton waste and extravagance on the part of their elected public officials. From one end of the land to the other the citizenship, oppressed by circumstances beyond their control have become daily more insistent that honest, sincere and painstaking effort be made to administer public affairs in a sane, logical and business-like method.

The public is determined to be done with wanton waste and has continued and will continue to insist on honesty in public office and sincerety of purpose on the part of the men who administer local, state and national affairs.

The question of taxation with its ever increasing burdens—burdens that are deliberately conceived, engineered and imposed for the benefit of the professional politician, his kinsmen and his friends—has become a matter of the utmost public import in comparatively a few years.

Here in Alabama the same issue is at stake. New and staggering public payrolls—waste in administration of public affairs—corruption and even graft—greed on the part of the selected few, and an inherent desire to perpetuate in office. These are the motivating forces behind the insistent cry for money, and more money, regardless of where that money comes from.

What the administration will do to meet its deficits is a matter for the administration to decide. What the Consumers Anti-Sales Tax Association of Alabama has suggested, and will continue to insist upon, is strict fulfillment of campaign pledges—economy in administration of public affairs.

The Consumers Anti-Sales Tax Association of Alabama has set its course on a clear charted sea. It has just begun to fight The organization is growing and extending into every hamlet in the state, and we stand prepared to answer "ready" when the challenge comes, whether that challenge be a day, a week or a year in the distance.

DOUBLING UP

It was estimated last week that approximately $150,000 had been paid double by reason of the combination of relief and WPA.

WPA workers are allowed on relief rolls 21 days during which time they have received both relief and have received or will receive WPA pay. In emergency, that doubling up can be extended from week to week on request of WPA for food allotments only.

The federal government has thrown all direct relief back onto the state and communities.

The lack of preparation, system and efficiency that created a condition whereby some $150,000 was paid double in Fayette County, alone is significant.

That represents more than twice as much as was collected in taxes for the Fayette County poor board for the entire year of 1934, when collections were 57 per cent of the levy. That $150,000 is approximately $20,000 greater than the total levy by the poor board for all purposes in 1934.

In other words, it represents substantially more than the total income possible under the one and a helf mill tax levy for poor purposes in Fayette County. It is indicative of what local communities are facing.—Uniontown, Pa., Herald.

"Every time we order a piece of cherry pie we bite down on at least one cherry stone. Can't something be done about this?" writes one of our correspondents. It suggests an idea for the WPA. Why not have a corps of boondogglers visit the restaurants and probe the seeds out of the cherry pies?

Interviewed in Wisconsin as to his running again for governor of California, Upton Sinclair said: "No it's too dangerous. In times like these one might get elected." A witticism in which is summed up the whole philosophy of irresponsible radicalism! — Lowell Courier-Citizen.

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying that a banker told him it would be all right if Uncle Sam borrowed a lot more money than thirty billions. But it is a good bet that the President wasn't asking the banker for any loan.

The best proof of the greatness of the United States, says the Grand Rapids Press-Herald, is that it has survived the doctor. Is that so? Well, it still remains to be seen how it will pay off a thirty or thirty-five billion dollar doctor bill.

Girls are often advised to marry a man who has saved his money but generally a man who is smart enough to save his money is smart enough not to get caught.

Well, Norman Thomas ought to be satisfied even if he can't be selected President of the United States. Somebody really put his platform over for him, anyhow.

The five million dollars left to Quoddy will carry the administration over the Maine election, which may have been the idea.—Portland Evening Express.

The proposition that the government do something for poets gets no further. We doubt if the tax payer would stand for boondoggerel.—Tacoma Ledger.

We have been unable to confirm the report that the medical profession is trying to interest Wallace in an apple control bill.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Disarmament is making rapid strides. Prince Louis of Monaco has fired his entire army of seventy-five men.—Flint Journal.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of December 16, 1910

Felix O. Dudley has been reappointed postmaster at Clanton.

Mrs. W. J. Foshee died in Coosa County on December 9th; funeral was at Quincy. She was the mother of W. J. Foshee of Clanton.

Rev. W. R. Quinton and wife, evangelists, are runing a series of meetings at the courthouse.

W. J. D. Roy of Mt. Creek was in Clanton on Monday.

Married this week—J. F. Wells and Miss N. H. Whitecur, C. H. Hayes and Miss Mamie Patterson, Monroe Mims and Miss Julia Cleckler, John Stephen Hester and Miss Bernie Morris Simpson, J. W. Cooper and Miss N. L. Traywick.

POOR C

Dept of Archives and History - Capitol

Chilton County
The Heart
Of Alabama

ESTABLISHED 1903 THE ESTABLISHED 1892

UNION-BANNER

Clanton, Ala.
Watch
It Grow

VOLUME 43.—EIGHT PAGES CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1935 NUMBER 36

IT WAS nearly two thousand years ago, when Augustus Caesar ruled most of the world and Herod, the king, ruled over Judea. There were hundreds of petty kingdoms under the hands of stern and merciless rulers. Men were burdened under loads of taxation and there was much grumbling. There were even rumors of wars. But in the small city of Bethlehem, just outside the principal city of Jerusalem, there was born a different sort of King. Of meek and lowly birth, He was to become the friend of the downtrodden, the teacher of the learned doctors, and the Saviour of the world. Jesus was born.

It is in commemoration of this event that we celebrate Christmas — the greatest single event the world has ever known, that which means something intimate to the lives of all people of all lands — the lowly as well as those surrounded with dignity. Everybody has a part in celebrating Christmas. And at this season The Union-Banner joins with the rest in extending its greetings of the season to all friends and acquaintances. The simplest and yet most complete way we can express it is to say: "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all our friends everywhere." May joy abound, peace be found; prosperity scattered and chains of adversity shattered.

Farmers' Income In Alabama Lessened

Crop Survey Shows Return $13,000,000 Less Than Value For 1934

Montgomery, Ala.—Alabama farmers Saturday looked back on a year that lowered their cash income from crops more than $13,000,000 under the 1934 mark dispite production gains in cotton, peanuts, soy beans and sugar cane.

The 1935 crop report of F. W. Gist, state and federal statistician, Saturday showed that the cash value of crops this year was $78,000,000, as compared with $91,000,000 last year, both figures excluding benefit payments from the government.

These benefit payments in 1934 were $10,785,000, but have not been determined for 1935.

Gist's report stated that Alabama's income from the sale of livestock must slightly more than double 1934's mark of $12,240,000 if the total cash income of the farmer for 1935 is to reach last year's figure.

The total value of all crops in Alabama for 1935 was placed at $156,000,000, as compared with $169,000,000 in 1934, while the value of the state's 19 major crops showed an 8 per cent drop under last year's mark.

"In the case of cotton value," he said. "it is significant that 110,000 bales produced this year in excess of last year is valued at $1,200,000 less. . . . The same thing is true of certain other crops.

"While the aggregate value of the crops . . . averaged $19 per acre last year, they dropped down this year to slightly more than $17. The average value of the crops. . . per farm last year was approximately $529, which this year has fallen to $490."

The figures in the above quotation from Gist referred to the 19 major crops, with the total value of these crops and their 1934 comparison set forth in the following table:

Crop	1834 Value	1935 Value
Corn	$37,880,000	$31,330,000
Wheat	71,000	64,000
Oats	1,442,000	1,223,000
Hay	5,195,000	4,794,000
Sorghum Forage	792,000	686,000
Peanuts	7,708,000	8,800,000
Velvet Beans	2,784,000	2,745,000
Cow Peas ..	1,171,000	1,150,000
Soy Beans ..	176,000	259,000
Cotton	57,453,000	56,223,000
Cotton Seed .	14,302,000	13,847,000
Potatoes	3,083,000	2,261,000
Sweet Potatoes ..	6,472,000	4,330,000
Sugar Cane .	2,112,000	1,941,000
Sorghum	1,688,000	1,176,000
Apples	635,000	604,000
Peaches	817,000	701,000
Pears	196,000	109,000
Grapes	38,000	31,000
Pecans	302,000	382,000

COTTON REPORT

The tabuation of the card reports shows telegraph summary to be correct. There were 12,974 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Chilton County, from the crop of 1935 prior to December 13, 1935, as compared with 11,945 bales ginned to December 13, 1934.

Mrs. Barney Burnett is spending this week in Montvallo, Ala.

CHILTON COUNTY TEACHERS RECEIVE $15,000 XMAS. MONEY

Over Million Paid Out In Checks Over State To Teachers For Holidays

The State Department of Education Thursday of last week had mailed out checks totaling $1,275,388 to county and city school boards throughout Alabama, most of which went as "Christmas Pay" for teachers. Chilton county received $15,061.60, of which $466.50 was poll taxes. Nearly half of the remainder came from the minimum program fund, and the rest from the public school fund.

The money was released by Comptroller Charles Lee, who said the amount brought the total disbursements since October 1 to $2,400,000—a record in State history. Dr. J. A. Keller, State superintendent of education kept his force working overtime the last of the week, in order to get the checks out to the teachers in time for their Christmas shopping.

Judge Reynolds Extends Wishes

Editor Union-Banner, Clanton, Ala.

Christmas brings to us three important considerations, charity, thankfulness and hope. The spirit of giving, of tolerance and friendliness. We are thankful for our old friends kept, and for new friends we have made, and we should be thankful for the opportunity to serve. With the New Year comes renewed hope. We should all set resolutions to do better next year than we have done in the past and to try to make the world better for having lived.

The people of Chilton County deserve many compliments for what they have done during the past few years of depression. There are many things that I could mention, but space and time will not permit. Our county has gone forward in many evidences of progress, and prosperity serves to demonstrate that there is no better anywhere.

Wishing the people a good old-fashioned Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.—Respectfully, L. H. Reynolds.

PRATTVILLE WILL HAVE CENTENNIAL

Residents To Honor Man Who Made Plans For Model Manufacturing City

Prattville, Ala.—Residents of this historic Black Belt town, steeped in the traditions of the Old South, and the industrialism of the new, Saturday were making plans to pay tribute to its Yankee founder—Daniel Pratt, of New Hampshire, who 100 years ago came here and built a village.

The Alabama Legislature has appropriated $5,000 for a Prattville centennial celebration and a bill is pending before Congress which is asking for an additional $10,000 to be used for the celebration.

Pratt, who was a youth, wandered over the country, working here and there, and known in his early days as a "vagrant," Dec. 18, 1835, purchased from Joseph May a parcel of land for $20,000. The land now is Prattville.

He first came to Alabama in 1832 and settled at Elmore's Mill near Wetumpka. He lived for a while in Montgomery's mill as a cotton ginner.

HAYES CHEVROLET COMPANY TO HAVE LARGER QUARTERS

Keeping step with the rapid growth of Clanton, and Hayes Chevrolet Company is now opening up in new and larger quarters. The Hayes firm is one of the youngest in its field and among the new firms in the city, yet it is one of the most progressive, and its growth has been phenominal.

Under the new building arrangement, the show room will be more than doubled. When finished, this show room will be approximately 33 x 50 feet. It will be completely refinished throughout, and will be one of the most attractive in the city.

Just back of the show rooms, the blue prints place the parts department, which open into the salesmen convention room, and to the office of J. W. (Dick) Hayes. Joining these departments, will be space for servicing new automobiles, and room to take care of car repairs for the trade. Back of this will be a space set aside for re-conditioning used cars. In the near future a paint shop will be built as an addition to the present building.

Back to the sales room, which will come in for the most of the change. This space will now house only one office, the sales office, and all other offices for clerical work will be taken care of in the regular office space set aside for this purpose.

Nell's Eat Shoppe In New Quarters

Nell's Eat Shoppe, which formerly occupied a part of the Hayes buildins together with the Hayes Chevrolet Company, has been moved across the street to the new quarters in another building, under the same roof with the Exchange Hotel.

This new place has been gone over and renovated throughout, and is quite beautiful. There is ample room to care for patrons, with the usual counter, as well as several nice tables and a number of booths.

Modern refrigeration has been installed throughout. In the rear the place is equipped with ample facilities for preparation of meals for the most exacting taste, in charge of capable cooks, and under the personal supervision of Mrs. Nell Simms, and Mr. DeWitt Easterling, a restaurant man of much experience.

Finally, the place is spick and span from floor to roof, and from front door to rear. The new eat shop is fast becoming one of the most popular in the city.

Miss Della Latham and little Mary Ann Bentley arrived during the week end from Springville, Tenn. Miss Latham has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bentley in Springville for several weeks.

Dr. J. E. Edgar spent the week end in Tuscaloosa with Mr. and Mrs. "Shorty" Leon Mullins. Mrs. Edgar has been in Tuscaloosa for the past few days, due to the fact that her brother, Leon, is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Broadhead and son, Hal, will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes, and Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Broadhead, during Christmas.

Miss Laura Lamar and Miss Lorena Guy, teachers in the Chilton County High School, are spending the Christmas holidays in Montgomery with their home folks.

Trades Unit Hits Cotton Act & AAA

Council Also On Record As Opposing Stories About "Racketeering"

Newspaper articles dealing with "racketeering in Birmingham, administration of the AAA and the Bankhead cotton act, and the activiteis of County Agent, J. L. Liles Saturday were the objects of a spirited attack by the Birmingham Trades Council.

The Council's actions in the matter of a resolution chargnig "the stated of a resolution charging "the stater purpose of the articles being presented to the press and appearing in the daily newspapers of this city is to lower the rate of liability insurance in this district and for which purpose of these stated articles is to accomplish individual gain and benefit on the part of certain insurance companies."

Continuing, the resolution calls upon all prospective jurors to render unbiased verdicts, and take notice of an apparent conspiracy "to break down the merits and safety of our judicial department of government."

Administration of the AAA, the Bankhead cotton act and Agent Liles were attacked in a report of a special committee of the council in reply to a request from Jefferson County Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union that the council go on record as opposing the two acts, and to oust Mr. Liles from office.

After a thorough investigation, the committee's report says, "We find the AAA in the same category as the late NRA; that the unsympathetic interpretation and administration thereof, had defeated the declared purpose of Congress."

The report charges that instead of the farmers getting the benefits of the processing taxes, they are being forced to pay the taxes themselves.

The report criticizes the manner of selection of committeemen under the Bankhead act, and charges such committeemen have not been practical and competent farmers.

Declining to concur in the Union's request that Agent Liles be ousted from office, the committee's report charges Mr. Liles has "apparently overstepped his duties," and that much of his time is being spent in organizing or trying to organize the Farm Bureau.

"It is the opinion of your committee," the report says, "that if County Agent Liles will confine his activities to assisting the farmers as a whole to improve their soil and lower the cost of production, the situation will automatically take care of itself."—Birmingham News.

SERVICES AT MULBERRY CHURCH ON NEXT SUNDAY

We are asked to announce that the following services will be held at Mulbery church next Sunday, Dec. 29th:

Rev. J. S. Holland will preach in the morning, at 11 o'clock.

Rev. Paul Oden will preach in the evening, at 7:30. Immediately after this service, he will also show pictures dealing with the life of Paul.

All of these services are expected to be good, and everyone is invited.

Miss Virginia Cook, a popular teacher in the Chilton County High School, is spending this week with her parents in Roanoke.

TVA'S FUTURE HANGS ON ONE JUDGE'S VOTE

Owen J. Roberts Expected To Cast Deciding Ballot In Supreme Court

Washington, Dec. 20.—The fate of Tennessee Valley Authority appeared today to rest upon Justice Owen J. Roberts of the U. S. Supreme Court, so closely does the court seem to be divided on the New Deal's greatest undertaking.

From the numerous questions asked from the bench and attitudes assumed by the justices during the first day of arguments in Ashwander vs. TVA, the division between the liberal and conservative members wes decidedly pronounced.

Such a situation gives Roberts, the unpredictable, the balance of power to bring about a five-to-four decision for or against TVA.

This assumes that the complaint of the preferred stockholders of the Alabama Power Co. against the contract for sale of transmission lines to TVA will be decided upon its merits. If the court should decide that it lacked jurisdiction (which means whether preferred stockholders suffered irreparable damage), then it probably would be a unanimous decision and might be handed down Monday.

STATE MAY VOTE ON F. D. R. SUPPORT

Demo Committee Chairman Favors Public Opinion On Delegation

Tuscaloosa, Ala.—A plan to allow voters in the May primary to decide whether Alabama's delegation to the Democratic Convention will be instructed for Roosevelt, or will go uninstructed, will be favored by John D. McQueen, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, when the committee meets at Montgomery next month.

Announcing he planned to call the meeting between Jan. 1 and Jan. 10, McQueen said that although he approved the plan to place the matter of the committee and not as its the state's delegation before the voters, he was speaking only as a memchairman.

Federal Grant Is Made To Airport

Work is expected to start on the Clanton airport somewhere around January 1st. A telegram from Senator Hugo L. Black to Judge J. Lee Smith and the Commissioners Court advised them that a federal grant in the amount of $29,057 had been allotted to the airport project.

A proposition had been made to the commissioners, whereby the court would allot $2,240 to the project. This amount to be insured by a group of Clanton citizens, to be refunded to the county treasury at the end of five years, if the court at that time is not satisfied.

It could not be learned just what is to be done at the airport in the way of erection of buildings. The amount given by the county is allotted for the purchase of land for the project, while the federal grant is for further grading, buildings, and other parts of the airport program.

Borah Indicates His Intention Of Running

Senator Okehs Proposal To Elect Delegation Favorable To Him

Washington, Dec. 19.—A statement by Senator Borah, of Idaho, considered by some to be tantamount to an announcement that he would seek the Republican presidential nomination was given to newspaper men Thursday night in response to inquiries.

Two Wisconsin Republicans, after a series of conferences with the Idahoan, first announced that he had endorsed a proposal to elect a Borah-for-president delegation from that state to the 1936 Republican convention.

Borah Approves Statement

Asked about this, Borah replied: "I told them that whatever they did along that line I would stand in with them."

THE VOICE FROM THE SKY

Christmas shoppers in Clanton received quite a surprise last Saturday afternoon, in the form of a novel advertising stunt put on by the Wofford Oil Co.

A plane soared over city, then, with motor muffled, the pilot "spoke his piece", advertising the several Wofford products, Woco Pep motor fuel, Tiolene motor oils, Pure batteries and other accessories, and Yale tires and tubes.

The main part of the time was given over to advertising "super-solvenized Woco Pep motor fuel", stressing its carbon preventive qualities. This is a comparatively new product of the Wofford Company, and the company makes high claims for its effectiveness in removing carbon and preventing further carbon formation.

It was an excellent advertising job, this "voice from the sky", and attracted much attention and comment from people who heard it.

Miss Lola Traywick is spending the Christmas holidays with friends and relatives at Wetumpka, Ala.

BLIND SENATOR BADLY HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Thomas D. Schall, blind senator from Minnesota, was struck by an automobile on a heavily traveled highway near here Thursday night and injured critically.

Schall, a Republican, is one of Capitol Hill's bitterest critics of President Roosevelt's administration.

The accident occurred at Cottage City, Md., a few miles north of this city. Schall, hurried to a Washington hospital, was reported to have suffered a fractured skull, compound fracture of the left leg and lacerations.

Police arrested a man they said was L. G. Humphries, of Hyattsville, driver of the car, charging him with reckless driving. He later was released on his personal bond.

Police said witnesses told them that Schall, riding to his home, Wynecrest, with friends, had stepped out of the car and was hit as he crossed the road to his house.

Almost two hours after the accident, Schall was reported still unconscious.

ORIGINAL

WILL BE

CLOSED

TWO DAYS FOR INVENTORY

THURSDAY and FRIDAY, DECEMBER 26th and 27th

Rockett Dry Goods Company

J. T. ROCKETT - J. D. ROCKETT

Clanton, Alabama

PICTURE a table heaped high with good things to eat . . . . and under the tree no end of GIFTS for those near and dear to you . . . . What more could you wish for?

The New Year? Say . . . . we hope it'll be the greatest you've ever experienced . . . . crowded with happiness.

Upchurch Drug Co.

"The Rexall Store" - - - Clanton, Alabama

County Farm Agent's Notes

Compiled by J. W. Fant, County Farm Demonstration Agent for Chilton County

SIMPLE METHOD GIVEN FOR THROWING BULLS

Auburn, Ala.—When a bull or ox has to be thrown off his heet he should be thrown so that the animal nor the thrower receives injuries.

A simple method for doing this is recommended by Dr. I. S. McAdory, acting state veterinarian. It is known as the Reauff's method and is described as follows:

Use a rope about 30 feet in length, at one end of which is a loop that is passed over the horns. Then pass the rope between the horns and make a turn around the neck just in front of the shoulder; pass the rope over withers, where it makes another turn around the chest; and then run along the back until it makes a third turn around the flanks. The free end of the rope is then carried back on either the right or the left side of the hind quarter, the side depending upon the side of the animal desired up. One assistant controls the head of the animal, while two others pull the rope backward steadily and without jerking so as to compress the body. In a few seconds the animal will lie down quietly.

The front legs should be tied with a rope and pulled forward, and the rear limbs tied and pulled backward.

PEACH TREES REQUIRE SPRAY DURING WINTER

Auburn, Ala.—To produce good peaches next year farmers should spray their trees during winter months for the control of scale insects and peach leaf curl.

Before spraying, the orchard should be pruned, taking out all dead trees, dead branches, and cankered areas, advises Dean M. J. Funchess, director of the Alabama Experiment Station. This will result in a considerable saving of spray material.

"Oil emulsion spray should be used throughout the state for the control of scale when the infestation is severe," he says. "In north Alabama where peach tree curl is common, and in cases of light infestations of scale, commercial lime-sulphur often will be found satisfactory for control of both."

For preparing the winter spray materials the farmer should use 2¼ gallons of oil emulsion or 6¼ gallons of commercial lime-sulphur for each 50 gallons of water.

"Oil spray should be applied after the leaves have fallen in the fall and before the buds have begun to swell in the spring. Lime-sulphur for the control of peach tree leaf curl should be applied during the same period," advises Dean Funchess. "This disease cannot be controlled if this material is applied after the buds have begun to swell."

NINE WAYS TO INCREASE POULTRY PROFITS GIVEN

Auburn, Ala.—Farmers can increase their winter poultry profits, advises John E. Ivey, extension poultryman, in offering the following suggestions:

1. Keep a good laying mash before hens continuously.
2. Confine birds to house until noon every day.
3. When it is very, very cold or rainy confine birds all day.
4. Feed moist, crumbly mash every day. When weather is cold use hot water or hot milk to dampen it.
5. See that the house and birds are free from mites and lice.
6. If at all posible use artificial lights to stimulate feed consumption.
7. Watch the body weight of the hens. It must be maintained or birds will show neet molt.
8. Feed 1 pound epsom salts to each 100 hens a month. Give it in wet mash—not in the drinking water.
9. On cold or rainy nights use curtains (feed sacks) to close open wire front. Use pole or pipe at bottom and fasten securely so they will not blow back and forth and thus scare the chickens.

LEADING VARIETIES OF CORN IS GIVEN

Auburn, Ala.—Leading varieties of corn for the different sections of Alabama have been announced by the Experiment Station of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Corn variety tests were conducted on substations and experimental fields of the different sections of Alabama, by H. T. Tisdale, plant breeder at Auburn, in cooperation with J. T. Williamson, Auburn, J. P. Wilson, Headland, Fred Stewart, Belle Mina, and R. C. Christopher, Crossville.

The report names the leading varities for North, Central and South Alabama in bushels of corn per acre as they showed up in the teats.

For North Alabama the five leading varities were Neal's Paymaster, 36.9; Douthit (Douthit), 36.5; Mosby (Graham), 36.3; Brooks' Prolific, 36.1; Locker's Yellow, 35.7.

For Central Alabama the five leading varieties were Brooks' Prolific, 33.7; Mosby (Graham), 33.6; Deuthit (Douthit), 33.3; Whatley (Hudson), 33.1; Indian Chief (Kiker), 32.9.

For South Alabama the five leading varieties were Douthit (Douthit), 36.4; Hastings, 36.3; Whatley (Whatley Bros.) 36.1; Douthit (Marrett), 34.6; Whatley (Hudson), 34.4.

The Alabama Experiment Station has no seed corn for sale, says Mr. Tisdale.

STATE GAME NEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 23.—President Roosevelt has appointed I. T. Quinn, Alabama Conservation Commissioner, as a member of a Committee on Arrangements for the North American Wildlife Conference to be held in Washington February 3 to 7.

The president issued the call for the conference December 20.

Notification of his appointment to the committe was received by Commissioner Quinn from F. A. Silcox, chairman of the committee and Chief Forester of the U. S. Forest Service.

"It affards me pleasure to inform you that President Roosevelt has appointed you a member of the Committee on Arrangements for development of the North American Wildlife Conference February 3-7 here in Washington," wired Mr. Silcox, "the call for which he issued today. The purpose of the conference is formation of a National program for restoration of all wildlife resources."

This conference will be the successor to the American Game Conference which passed from the picture when the American Wildlife Institute took over the work of the American Game Association. The conference will represent all parts of North America and will include special session on wildlife research, game and fish management, game breeding, fish production, pollution and general problems of importance in wildlife administration.

BRIDE ELECT ENTERTAINED

Mrs. J. H. Daniel entertained recently at a party, complimenting her sister, Miss Gladys Spinks, whose wedding will take place at an early date. The home was appropriately decorated with Christmas decorations and many games and contests were enjoyed. In a treasure hunt she was presented with many lovely gifts in a miscellaneous shower.

A course of Jello and cake were served to about 30 guests. Mrs. R. L. Huffman assisting Mrs. Daniel.

STAMPS SONG BOOKS ARE ON SALE NOW

The new mid-season Stamps-Baxter sonk books are now on sale. Copies may be procured either at The Union-Banner office or from Prof. Marion W. Easterling. It is "Harbor Bells No. 5," and the price is 25c each.

THE PASSING OF REV. P. G. CARTER

The readers of this paper will be grieved to know that Rev. P. G. Carter recently died at the Hubbard Hospital in Montgomery. He had served well as pastor in this state at Clanton, where he was instrumental in building a great church house and also a hospital. He served at Oxford for a number of years and was at the time of his death pastor of the church at Hayneville. He was a faithful, good man and will be greatly missed among us. Many will join the editor in extending sympathy to his immediate family who are left to mourn his loss.—Alabama Baptist.

In the death of P. G. Carter The Union-Banner keenly feels the loss of a genuine friend and a gentleman Christian in every respect. Among his peculiarities, he was withal a good man, a devout Baptist, and a true servant of the great cause to which he dedicated his life.

There are two lasting monuments in Clanton to the Rev. P. G. Carter; they are the Clanton Baptist church building and the Central Alabama Hospital. He played such an important part in bringing these two fine accomplishments to Clanton that without the efforts he so unselfishly put forth, very likely we would not have them today.

Indeed Clanton owes a debt of gratitude to this good man, now deceased.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

BOB JONES COMMENTS ON HERE AND HEREAFTER.

Bishop Sam R. Hay of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, is quoted by the Associated Press as having said recently at the North Alabama Methodist Annual Conference at Huntsville, Alabama, that it would better to get rid of denominational colleges if they cannot do more than state schools. This has been the position of the writer for a number of years. There is no reason in the world why Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Disciples, Episcopalians and other church people should pour out their money in the name of Christianity to build educational institutions unless they are spiritual institutions. The writer's work has taken him into many parts of the world and he has been brought into contact with a great many young people. He has seen more young people whose faith was shattered in religious institutions than have ever been shattered by state institutions. When we send our children to state schools, we can tell them to look out for their own religion. We can urge them to read their Bibles, say their prayers, go to church, and do their Christian duty. We can explain to them that under our form of government we have separation of church and state. When we send our children to our church schools they expect to find real religion. If they don't find it they usually come home with a shattered faith.

The writer believes in Christian education with emphasis on the Christian. It is more important for young people to learn how to live than it is for them to learn how to make a living. The most important thing in education is for a young person to get the proper philosophy of life. Church schools (most of which are struggling for an existance) cannot compete with great state institutions in equipment, buildings, laboratories etc., but Christian schools can teach Christianity as state institutions under our system of government connot do. The time is passed when you can appeal to young people to go to school just because it is a church school. I am founder and president of the Bob Jones College at Cleveland, Tennessee. We have very good equipment and high educational standards, but we are running a Christian college. We tell the world that our business first is to make Christians out of young people. We are teaching them science, English, history, foreign languages, and all the other subjects given in colleges of liberal arts. We tell young people that they can get these things in almost all other schools but we are a Christian college. We require Bible study. We believe in conversion. We believe in old-time religion. Our students come from all parts of the United States and from foreign countries. Our problem is not how to get students. Our problem is to provide enough room for them who wish to come. I am loyal to the churches of this nation. The Bob Jones College is a living example of the fact that the real, old-time-religion still works in a religious school. It also demonstrates the fact that there are still many thousands of people in the United States who want their children in real Christian colleges. What our church schools need is a revival of old-time-religion. A Christian college has no right to employ unconverted teachers and to lower standards of discipline and morals as many of them are doing. The founders of early universities and coleges of America as a rule were Christian men. Christianity has produced our education. We have no right to turn our schools over to the devil.

DEATH OF MRS. T. J. LITTLEJOHN

On December 9, 1935, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlejohn and took away our mother and grandmother to that home beyond the river where no sorrows nor pain can enter there. Grandmother was 82 years, 7 months and 9 days old when Good saw fit to carry her home. She was sick for nine months, but bore her pains patiently to the end. She was prepared to meet God in peace. It was so sad, so sad, to give her up, but not so sad as those that have no hope.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Edwin Lovelady of Lawley. Burial was in Tabernacle cemetery following day at 3 o'clock. Pallbearers were Mr. Gordon Green, Mr. Clemon Smith, Edmond Littlejohn, Alvin Gentry, and Jack Thomas. She leaves to mourn her loss 5 children, 23 grandchidren and 10 great grandchildren.

The children that are living are Charlie Edmond Littlejohn of Lawley, Cliff Littlejohn of New York, Mrs. J. D. Hoedsomebeck of Jemison, Miss Sophie Reeves of Centreville, Miss Victora Craig of Lawley.

Mrs. T. J. Littlejohn was married 63 years. Her husband died two years ago. She was a faithful member of the Baptist church over 60 years and a devout Christian.

A great array of flowers bore the esteem in which she was held. The funeral was conducted by many of her sorrowing friends. She is gone but not forgotten.—Written by one who loved her, a neice, Mrs. Sadie Watson.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends of this community for the sympathy and help during the sickness and death of our mother and grandmother.—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlejohn.

DR. O. C. MASTIN
Clanton
Office in New Hayes Bldg
Special attention to chronic diseases and diseases caused by infections and toxemia; blood poison, inflammation, etc.

At Xmas. Time

When the Christmas bells ring out their Glad Tidings . . . . we hope it will be a Glorious Day for Everybody . . . a day of Joy and Peace you will long remember.

And may there be Happy Days ahead. At least that's our sincere hope.

CALLOWAY DRUG COMPANY

Clanton, Alabama

PERMANENT C. C. C. IS UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Montgomery.—The prospects of a permanent Emergency Conservation Work manned by the Civilian Conservation Corps present certain problems for solution by the various States, points out the Alabama State Commission of Forestry. While work of this character performed on Federal lands is, of course, solely a concern of the Federal government, the inclusion of State and private lands in the program requires the States and the individual landowners to assume definite responsibilities.

When the Emergency Conservation Work first was started in the spring of 1933, it was anticipated that, in the event it should prove successful, it might become finally resolved into a permanent public activity. The Forestry Departments of States with large revenues were able to adopt and add to their organizations with view to providing the necesary planning, supervision, inspection and maintenance of the projects undertaken. However, the less wealthy states, in some instances, have felt constrained, in spite of the fact that these projects are practically one-hundred per cent grants, to restrict and even curtail their facilties for accepting and applying the employment and construction benefits offered by the Federal government. Hesitancy in these connections is regarded as false economy by efficiency engineers and by economists. Nevertheless such conditions obtain in a few of the states.

Policies, plans and procedures as to the operation of a permanent Emergency Conservation Work are at the present time being formulted in Washington and it is anticipated that comparatively early in the session Congress will take definite action. Meanwhile, many of the states in the regular or special sessions of their legislatures may have opportunities to quality for this form of Federal aid.

MINERAL SPRINGS

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

There will be a Christmas program at Mineral Springs church on Tuesday night, December 24th. The young people of this community are planning a good program. We are expecting a good crowd. Bring family. there will be no admission charges. Don't forget the date, December 24th.

Mr. E. W. Danforth of Longview, Texas, and daughter, Mrs. Wilson Strain of Birmingham were the week end guests of Mrs. M. A. Gore.

If wishes were dollars. . . . . then here's wishing you a "million" for Christmas. . . . . And may good luck abound for you and those who are dear to you through the coming year of 1936

And while we are breathing these wishes for you, we also express our solicitation for your continued friendship and good will.

First National Bank

Clanton, Alabama

To All Our Friends

Hope the dawn of this Christmas finds you and yours smiling and contented . . . . And that the Coming Year will shower you with more Blessings than you've had in many a year.

Clanton Motors, Inc.

Ford Dealers Clanton, Ala.

POOR O

Merry Christmas

EXTENDING our Christmas Greetings and best wishes for 1936. May your holidays bring you every joy you could ask for and the New Year every hoped-for happiness. That is what we would like to come to all of our friends and customers.

COBB BROTHERS
Jemison, Alabama

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Page Entertain

A pretty Christmas party was that given by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Page on last Tuesday night at their lovely home at 6:30 o'clock. A most delicious dinner was served after which the guests enjoyed games of various kinds.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Trotter of Jordan Dam, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. James Wade, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hance Alred, Mr. and Mrs. John Hollis and Mr. Dick Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Searcey and Miss Margaret Floyd, accompanied by Miss Bertie Gammel, a student at Montevallo College, left last Friday to spend the Christmas holidays in Clayton with their parents.

Miss Lucile Sherwood left last Friday for her home in Brundidge, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott and little son, John Ed, of Huntsville will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mullins.

Misses Ova Lee McCutcheon and Marilyn Hardy, who attend school at Howard College in Birmingham, are at home for the holidays.

Miss Beverly Hester, who teaches music at Judson College in Marion, is spending the holidays with her mother.

Miss Dorothy Waite, who is in school at Bowling Green, Kentucky, and is making quite a record in her studies there, is here spending the Christmas holidays with her parents.

Mrs. Julius Burnett Hostess

Mrs. Julius Burnett entertained members of the Wednesday card club at a luncheon at The Exchange Hotel on last Wednesday. A delicious five course luncheon was served with the Christmas idea carried out in the various courses.

Burnett's home during the afternoon.

The guests played bridge at Mrs. After a series of games Mrs. John Armstrong was awarded high score prize. The awards given by the Modern Beauty Shoppe fell to Mrs. Alred and Mrs. Armstrong.

Enjoying this delightful hospitality were Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. H. M. Simpson, Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. J. C. Page, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. James Wade.

MAY a kindly Providence allow each of you to share the good things of Christmas Day, is our sincere desire. Happiness and joy throughout this Yuletide season, and a prosperous 1936 is the least that we can wish for each of our many customers and friends.

E. L. Klinner Furn. Co.
Clanton, Ala.

LOT of greetings we could pen . . . but none that would express our thoughts better than just the simple wish . . . A Merry Christmas and a happy New Year to all.

Alabama Harness & Shoe Shop
Clanton, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reynolds had as their guests during the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Box and little daughter, Betty.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pipes will leave Friday for Louisville, Kentucky, to spend several days with their son, Hoke Pipes.

Miss Ruth Pardue left Sunday to spend the holidays with her parents in Saginaw.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes and little daughter, Helen, returned Thursday from a week's visit to Mrs. W. E. Floyd in Clayton, Ala.

Among the college boys and girls who are home for the Yule holidays are Miss Mary Nelle Jones, Miss Eloise Jones and Mrs. Varnell of Montevallo College.

Expressing our appreciation of your many courtesies of the past and extending the compliments of the season. We wish you a Happy, Prosperous New Year.

J. H. Broadhead
West End — Clanton, Ala.

PUBLIC OPINION AND THE BANKS

By F. N. SHEPHERD
Executive Manager
American Bankers Association

WHILE banking today appears in a wholly distorted light in the eyes of some, the more reasoning elements in our population undoubtedly have a less jaundiced view than would appear from certain irresponsible orators, often posing as spokesmen for that indefinite quantity called "the mass" of our people.

F. N. SHEPHERD

Anti-social acts on the part of some bankers formerly have been the subject of spectacular exposures, but I can say without reservation that they were in no way typical of the acts and attitudes of the vast majority of their fellow bankers. The public mind was shocked into the belief that these untypical instances were far more representative than they really were, and this belief has been encouraged by political and demagogic elements.

The Bankers Today

The bankers who are in charge of our banks today represent men who withstood the temptations and avoided the economic pitfalls of the great boom. If they had not they would not be there, or their banks would not have been able to survive the rack and ruin of the economic hurricane, by which even many banks and bankers, whose conduct was above reproach, have been destroyed. The other types of bankers, those that fell below the high standards of professional ethics and business prudence that characterized those that remain, have passed out of the picture. But they have left for those that remain a difficult heritage of suspicion and ill will.

How irrational this is, when we reflect that not more than three or four per cent of our entire population suffered personal loss because of what any banker did or neglected to do, whereas literally millions of bank depositors did not lose a single cent as a result of banking difficulties and really owe a vote of confidence and thanks to their own bankers who were true to the highest conceptions of their stewardship and brought their institutions and their customers safely through the greatest business disaster the world has ever seen. It has been a peculiar feature of the psychological distortion of the times that many who owe nothing but gratitude to their bankers joined in blaming the banker far out of proportion with any rational consideration of the facts.

EXAMINATIONS FOR TRUST INSTITUTIONS

New Move by Federal Banking Authorities Welcomed by Banks and Trust Companies, Says Bankers' Organization

FEDERAL examination of trust departments is the latest development in banking supervision and trust companies and banks operating trust departments are welcoming this development because it fills a long-felt want, it is stated by the Trust Division of the American Bankers Association.

Despite the growing importance of American trust business in recent years examining officials have never given to trust departments the attention paid to commercial banking departments, this authority points out. Now the Federal Reserve System, in conjunction with the Comptroller of the Currency, has undertaken to bring the examination of trust departments up to the level of commercial bank examinations, it says.

Experts in trust work are being employed by the various Federal Reserve Banks. These experts will head the special staffs of trust examiners in the twelve Federal Reserve Districts. Special staffs are already at work in some of the Reserve Districts, including Boston, Atlanta, Richmond and Chicago. The Federal Reserve will examine the trust departments of state-chartered members of the Reserve System.

Uniform Supervision

Meanwhile, the Comptroller of the Currency has built up over the past two years a staff of special examiners for the trust departments of national banks. All national banks are members of the Federal Reserve System. Since nearly all state-chartered trust institutions are members of the Reserve System the new plan will bring about what amounts to Federal examination for the trust business.

State examining authorities probably will follow Federal supervisory policies to a considerable extent. Hence, coordination of the procedure of the national banking system and the Federal Reserve System is expected to result in a uniform system of examinations for trust departments in all banks. This in turn should produce considerable standardization in the operation of trust departments, the division declares.

Mrs. Chas. Baumhauer of Mobile visited Mrs. M. A. Mullins and Miss Bettie Mullins last week.

Billingsley Service Station
— AND —
Firestone
EXTEND TO YOU
The Season's Greetings
ENOUGH SAID — FOR THIS TIME
Billingsley Service Station
TEXAS GAS AND OIL — FIRESTONE TIRES, ETC.
Clanton, Alabama

Seasons Greetings and best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

EVANS Variety Store
Julian Evans, Mgr.
Clanton, Ala.

Buddy Teague of Appalachacola, Fla., is visiting Jesse Frank Foshee.

John Ezell has arrived home for the Christmas holidays. John is a student at Wake Forest College in North Carolina.

Miss Myra Johnson, who has been spending some time in New Orleans, is at home with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Johnson.

Among the University college boys and girls who are at home for the holidays, are Misses Elizabeth and Dixie Johnson, Messrs. Alex Hayes, Joe Vanderveer, Jesse Frank Foshee, Dan Waite.

Mrs. Annie Mullins, who has been in Tuscaloosa visiting her children, Leon and Clifford, for several months, has returned to her home.

Mr. Jimmie Higgins of Gadsden, Ala., is spending the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. Hattie Alred.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bentley of Springfield, Tenn., will arrive Tuesday night to spend Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Upchurch.

Miss Irene Jones, who teaches in the Bessemer schools, arrived Saturday to spend two weeks here with her mother, Mrs. Andy Jones.

Miss Sue Prather, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Geo. McCain, is spending Christmas in Rockford.

MISS CARTER AND MR. GARRETT MARRIED AT TRINITY CHURCH

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Louise Carter and Frank Barnes Garrett took place last evening at 8:00 o'clock, at a ceremony of beauty and impressive dignity, at Trinity Presbyterian church, Montgomery, in the presence of a large and representative assemblage. The traditional bridal decorations gave lovely settings for the ceremony.

Ushers were James Campbell, of New Orleans, formerly of Montgomery: Russell Carter, Roy Nolen, Gun Henderson.

Miss Odessa Carter was her sister's maid of honor, and wore a lovely gown of maize chiffon, built over taffeta in two tones.

Miss Frances McMillan and Miss Katherine Nelson were bridesmaids and wore gowns of coral-colored chiffon.

Miss Carter's flowers were a long bouquet of Talisman roses.

Miss Nelson and Miss McMillan each carried Souvenir roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Thomas Rogers Carter.

George Garrett was his brother's best man.

The bride is the daughter of Thomas Rogers Carter. She is of much personal charm and beauty and is among the South's most talented dancers, having taken advanced courses of study, in Northern cities, and in New York. She is a teacher of a class at at Clanton.

The groom is the son of J. M. Garrett, Montgomery, city engineer.

Wess Danforth of Longview, Texas, was a visitor to relatives and friends in Clanton last week end. Mr. Danforth is loking fine and says that he is getting along fine. He is in the oil field busness in Texas. He will be remembered as one of the leading carpenters of this section for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gore were in Montgomery Tuesday.

Mr. Hub Davis of Pittsburgh, Pa., is spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Davis.

At Christmas Time...

ALL ROADS LEAD TO HOME

Go home for the holidays if you can. The clasp of a welcoming hand, the sound of a friendly voice, are gifts of happiness that nobody should forego.

Time or distance, however, may prevent your visiting a few close friends and relatives whom you would so much like to see. Then all you have to do, as many folks have learned, is to let "long distance" bring you and your friends together for a voice-to-voice visit.

It doesn't matter whether you call on Christmas day or not, you will both get a real thrill from your telephone visit any time during the holiday season.

The pleasure you will experience from your visits by telephone is not expensive. For example, by using Station-to-Station service after 7 P. M., you can talk 150 miles for about 50 cents, and other distances for similarly low cost.

Your "long distance" operator will be pleased to inform you about rates to any point, and help make your holidays pleasant by giving quick connections to the friends you want to greet.

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO.
INCORPORATED

For a MERRIE CHRISTMAS

HANG HIGH the mistletoe and holly . . . . . For it's going to be a very Merry Christmas in your home . . . . . At least we hope so . . . . . with the Joy of Yuletide blessings written on every face.

Yes, and may the New Year be better than that . . . . Not a care . . . . . Not a worry for you all . . . . . it's our hope.

Always Leads In Value The LEADER M. Lande Clanton

ORIGINAL

IT'S HERE! The glad season of the year—when hearts are stirred—the season when good-will becomes boundless. In commemoration of the notable event we extend each and every one a sincere and cordial wish for the good things — health, wealth and happiness. That is our mesage at this time.

R. W. LOWE

South Clanton, Alabama

CLANTON CC CAMP WORKING FOR MODEL CAMP HONORS

Lieutenant H. M. Brock, Commanding Officer, Mr. Jim H. Wood, project superintendent and Mr. T. H. Walker, educational advisor, are all working hand in hand to make Company 3481 the model camp and the most outstanding of District "D". To date wonderful achievements have been with his able assistant Lt. Richard made toward this goal. Lt. Brock, A. Griffin has started with general renovation of the entire camp — the walks, driveways and the general appearance show considerable improvement since their arrival. The officers have added rugs, paint and curtains to their quarters and now have one of the most attractive and inviting living rooms to be found in a camp anywhere.

Mr. Wood, with his techincal and non-technical staff composed of C. S. Hurd, M. E. Pruett, H. T. Stanley, W. R. Tamplin, W. Ellis, R. T. Jones, C. D. Rhea, C. E. Hagler and J. R. Brown, are displaying an equal amount of enthusiasm in making a number of changes that will add to the beauty of the camp as well as the efficiency. Their quarters are now going through a general overhauling and wil be second to none. Among other things they are installing rugs, curtains, floor lamps and other things that will add to the appearance.

The educational department, with its staff showing an interest that is commendable to any camp. They are on the job day and night and their achievements are easily detected. The reading room installed under the supervision of this department is the show place of the camp and has received an unlimited amount of favorable comments. This department supplied the mess hall, reception hall and other buildings with curtains that have added to the attractiveness of them. A Christmas tree has also been placed at the entrance which makes the Christmas spirit prevail among the members of the company.

In the way of health our camp has had the honor of being at the top in the District, this being due to our very efficient medical officer, Lt. W. C. Golden. Lt. Golden is in close contact with the men at all times, thereby being able to detect any minor ailments and use the necessary precautions to prevent further complications.

In the field the crews are showing very rapid progress considering the actual number of days worked and lack of experience in the art of soil erosion. In seventeen days of actual field work approximately 7,000 feet of ditch has been dug; 1,000 square yards of dirt has been handled in gully treatment and 100 permanent dams have been built with cement and brick. The men have collected 500 bushels of pine cones. We will receive within a very short time approximately 700,000 plants, consisting of pines, black locust and kudzu. The plants will be distributed among the farmers of Chilton county and will be planted by the men of the camp without cost to the farmer. Wonderful cooperation is being given us by the County Agent, Mr. J. W. Fant, who has, with the help of the boys, just mailed 2,000 letters through the county explaining the planting program.

LABOR DISPUTES ACT RULED VOID BY U. S. JUDGE

Decision Declares Congress Exceeded Legal Rright To 'Regulate Commerce'

Kansas City, Dec. 21.—The Wagner labor disputes act, New Deal measure giving employees the right to organize an dbargain lollectively without company interference, was held unconstitutional tonight by Federal Judge Merrill E. Otis.

The opinion was the first Federal court ruling on the legality of the law enacted by the last Congress.

Judge Otis granted the Majestic Flour Mills of Aurora, Mo., a temporary injunction against a national labor relations board complaint which cited it for alleged refusal to bargain a wage and hour agreement with a union of its employes.

Whole Act Unconstitutional

Declaring that Congress had exceeded its right "to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states. . . ." the judge said, "the conclusion is that the whole act is unconstitutional."

At times caustic in his criticism of the act which President Roosevelt described as an "important step toward the achievement of just and peaceful labor relations in industry," Judge Otis said it treated the individual as a "recently emancipated slave."

The act gives the employes the right to organize unions to carry on wage and hour negotiations. It prohibits employers from interferring with the formation of such unions and created the labor relations board to mediate disputes growing out of contracts between labor and employers.

In asking the injunction the mill pleaded the citation of the labor board laid it and its officers open to punishment by a $5,000 fine, imprisonment for one year, or both.

The ruling was made as the United States Supreme Court considered cases testing constitutionality of the Tennessee Valley Act, AAA and the Bankhead cotton production control law, all important new deal measures.

Judge Otis said the heart of the Wagner act was contained in a single sentence of section 10: "The (labor relations) board is empowered, as hereinafter provided, to prevent any person from engaging in unfair practice (listed in section 8) affecting commerce."

Amendment Necessary

Referring to a resolution to amend the constitution now pending in the cingressional committee on the judiciary, Judge Otis said the proposed amendment will give congress power to "regulate commerce, business, industry, finance, banking, insurance, manufacturers, transportation, agriculture and the production of natural resources."

When the amendment is enacted, he said, "the statute. . . . . if then reenacted, certainly will be constitutional. But not until then."

"Then also what remains of the sovreignty of the states will cease to be and the 'citizen' will have become a 'subject.' "

Announcement----

On and after January 2, 1936, exchange charges will be in effect on all foreign checks presented to either bank in Clanton for cash or for deposit. By foreign check is meant any check drawn on any bank other than either of the banks in Clanton. This charge will be one-eighth of one per cent or $1.25 per thousand dollars with a minimum charge of ten cents per check regardless of amount.

This action is necessary in order to meet the requirements of Regulation Q, Section 1, Paragraph F of the Federal Reserve Act which prohibits the payment of interest by banks on accounts other than Savings Accounts and Time Deposits. This exchange cost has always existed but has been absorbed by the banks heretofore. Central collecting agencies now cannot absorb this cost nor can the bank handling the check, as the absorption of this cost is construed as an indirect payment of interest.

For further information consult your banker.

First National Bank

Peoples Savings Bank

Clanton, Alabama

PROSPERITY, Peace and Happiness, may Providence be so kind as to provide you all, and whatever else you may want. These are among the things we would ask for you during the Christmas season and the coming year. Permit us to extend wishes for a Happy New Year and a Merry Christmas.

Matt's Cafe

Clanton, Ala.

A JOLLY old-fashioned Christmas and a prosperous New Year of health and contentment to all of you . . This is our sincere wish for all the folks in Clanton and Chilton County.

Alred Drug Co.

Clanton, Ala.

THINKING OF YOU THIS CHRISTMAS . . . and hoping it will be the happiest ever for you and yours . . . A happy New Year too, and may 1936 be minus all disappointments.

Chilton County Exchange

— AND —

SOUTHERN DAIRIES, Inc.

Evan Parrish, Mgr.

Clanton, Ala.

MUSIC in your hearts . . . . a smile on your face . . . . cheerful throughout . . . . as you go about . . . . That is Christmas, and we hope the season will bring just that to you and yours . . . . And that it may continue into the New Year and throughout 1936.

TEEL

Service Station

Clanton, Ala.

Good Will Toward Men

As the holiday season brings a reminder of distant friends, we again pause in our daily labors to renew our bonds with those nearby. To our friends and neighbors we wish all of the joys and comforts that are contained in the magic of the words — "Good will toward all mankind."

J. Mell Martin & Sons

Day Phone 10 — Night Phone 9 and 2 :—: Clanton

THE INVISIBLE GUEST

"Today there is an invisible guest who sits at the table of every family in this country. He is the invisible tax eater that collects the hidden taxes. When the housewife purchases three pork chops, the butcher weighs them out but only wraps up two. The third he gives to this invisible guest."

The foregoing paragraph is taken from a recent speech delivered before the American Bankers Association, meeting in New Orleans, by Lewis H. Brown, president of the Johns-Manville Corp. large manufacturers of building materials. Other excerpts from his speech, pointing need for reducing taxes, are:

"In 1934 the national income was approximately 48 billions of dollars and the total cost of all government —local, state and national—is estimated by the National Industrial Conference Board as being 15½ billions of dollars. Today the total cost of government is equal to one-third of the national income.

"Some people think that all we need is a new mayor, or a new governor, or a new Congress. But what we really need is an aroused public opinion demanding that the cost of government must be reduced."

OFFICIALS FEAR RELIEF ROLL RISE

Washington, Dec. 19.—A fear that the number of people on relief may begin to increase again after declining steadily for months was hinted in official quarters today.

This, it was said, added to the complexity of the budget problem, which President Roosevelt is discussing with relief administrators and other department heads.

Working on the budget for next year, the administration indicates it is seeking to retard the rate of rise of the public debt, which reached an all-time high of $30,555,791,967 yesterday.

Predictions that states and communities may demand a continuation of the federal "dole" were heard last night after Harry L. Hopkins, works progress administrator, reported on relief conditions in large cities.

The number of families and single persons drawing relief in such cities declined 9.4 per cent in November as compared with October, he said. But he added that "in many cities the depletion of individual resources, aggrevated by the growing winter need, adversely affected the relief situation."

Mr. Herman Harris, Mr. Dan Smith and Mr. Dewey Williams, all students at A. P. I., of Auburn, Ala., are at home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Dubb Huddleston spent several days last week hunting in Tuskegee.

POOR C

LOUIS PRINCE JEWELER
EXPERT
Watch Repairing
Diamond Rings and Watches
CLANTON, ALA.
Located on the Highway

Make your family happy by giving me your order for a new Chevrolet, to be delivered on Christmas day.

Luther Foshee
CHEVROLET
Salesman
Phones 120 and 206-J
Clanton, Ala.

SARTOR BUILDING IS BEING RENOVATED

Extensive repairs are being made on the old buildng on the corner of Seventh Street and Second Avenue, commonly known as the Sartor building. In fact, the new structure will be a practically new building, as nothing is being saved from the old one except portions of the walls, and the foor, and it is reported that a new top flooring will be put in.

A new front is being put in, new steel girders replace the old wood ones, new steel reinforcements are to be placed throughout the building. In short, this new building is expected to compare favorably with others in the city.

We are informed that when finished the new building will be occuped by the Watts Hat Shoppe. This firm is a thoroughly modern one, and has shown considerable growth since its beginning a short time ago. The new building will have ample modern show window appointments, built especially to fit the requirements of the Watts Hat Shoppe. It is expected to be one of the most beautiful buildings in the city when finished, and the store a show place for ladies apparel.

IN MEMORY OF JASPER DENNIS

On Thursday, December 19, the good Lord saw fit to call Jasper Dennis to his home above. He was sick for 19 days, and prayed most all the time. He was 72 years old. He did not complain with his suffering.

He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife, 6 children, 3 girls and 3 boys, and 25 grandchildren, 1 great grandchild, 2 brothers and a host of relatives and friends. He always met everyone with a smile and a helping hand.

Dear relatives and friends, let's all draw closer to God and try to live so that we can say we are ready to go. God doeth all things well, and we feel assured that our father and grandfather is at rest in the Lord.

He was laid to rest on Friday, Dec. 20th, at New Harmony church, where he had been a member for 52 years. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. A. Norris.—Mrs. E. L. Dennis.

J. MELL MARTIN & SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Phone 10, 9 and 2
Funeral Supplies — Ambulance Service
Flowers for all Occasions
Clanton :---: :---: Alabama

May mountains of happiness beset your path wherever you turn, and may the Joyous Christmas candles the whole year burn. For our friends and customers these are our sincere wishes. We hope 1936 will be plumb full of prosperity and the best of luck.

Big 4 Hardware Co.
A. E. REAGAN, Mgr. — Clanton

Christmas Greetings

THE FOLLOWING CLANTON FIRMS AND INDIVDUALS EXTEND TO ALL THEIR FRIENDS AND PATRONS HEARTY AND SINCERE GREETINGS FOR A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A MOST PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR, AND TAKE THIS OCCASION TO THANK THEM FOR THEIR FRIENDSHIP AND LOYALTY.

CLANTON CASH STORE O. D. Deloach	CLANTON SHOE SHOP I. D. Armstrong	NELSON LUNCH SHOP Mrs. Minnie Nelson	UPCHURCH DRUG CO. E. E. Upchurch	THOMPSON COTTON GIN Hugh Thompson	THE DOLLAR STORE H. Pinkerson
POLK BROS. MOTOR CO. Geo. Polk W. M. Polk	J. MELL MARTIN & SONS Funeral Directors	CHILTON COUNTY EXCHANGE Evan Parrish, Mgr.	ROCKETT DRY GOODS CO. J. T. Rockett J. D. Rockett	KLINNER SERVICE STATION O. P. Klinner	M. B. ARANT Watch Repairing
WATTS HAT SHOPPE Miss Callie Watts	E. L. KLINNER FURNITURE CO. J. B. McRae, Mgr.	CLANTON MOTORS, Inc. T. J. Littlejohn	LOUIS PRINCE Jeweler	Vincent J. Ward D. C.	J. W. FANT County Agent
CLANTON LAUNDRY & CLEANING CO. F. L. Thompson	DeMABEL'S BEAUTY SHOP Mrs. George Wyatt Miss Willie Maude Kelley	MADDOX & WATSON Fate Maddox Arthur Watson	McKEE BROS. SERVICE STATIO N J. W. McKee T. D. McKee	MATT'S LUNCH SHOPPE Eat Your Turkey Dinner With Us Christmas Mrs. Matt Ware	J. R. KEMP General Merchandise
WOCO SERVICE STATION J. E. Easterling	COCA-COLA N. A. Popwell Local Rep.	CITY FISH MARKET L. A. Watkins	J. C. PATTILLO Circuit Clerk Chilton County	BISHOP SERVICE STATION W. W. Bishop	MAZER'S I. S. Levine Mgr.
BLUE STREAK BUS LINE "Ride The Bus" E. W. Lott	MURRAY - BELL HARDWARE CO.	MIMS SERVICE STATION Good Gulf Dealers Dalton Bice	WILSON HOTEL P. D. Wilson	LAWRENCE SERVICE STATION C. M. Lawrence	DIXIE CAFE T. J. Parrish
CHILTON COUNTY SHOE REBUILDERS Shoes Made to Order John Schmith	McDANIEL PRESSING SHOP J. L. McDaniel	FOSHEE FURNITURE CO. Garland Foshee		WADESONIAN THEATRE C. W. Wade	SCOTT'S STUDIO S. E. Scott

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

A seventy-eight-year-old father of Oakland, California, is distressed because his fifty-year-old son is incorrigible. We suggest that the father ask his grandfather to take the lad in hand. Grandparents have a way with children, you know.—Florida Times-Union.

It would be very nice, for Great Britain, if we could be used to block Il Duce's territorial aspirations in Ethiopia solely to maintain the British sphere of influence, and then place ourselves in a position to be used by Great Britain in the Orient to protect its interests in China.

With New York being treated to plays entitled "Blind Alley," "Dead End" and "Tobacco Road," it looks af if the highway construction magnates had lighted upon the drama as a convenient advertising medium. —Boston Transcript.

Josef Stalin says, "We have succeeded in eliminating poverty along with unemployment. We are now on our way to wealth." Now, where have we heard something like that before, only nearer home.—Boston Transcript.

We understand that with the Rose Bowl game at Los Angeles and the Orange Bowl at Miami, good old Louisiana has come forward with a Sugar Bowl. The appropriate place for the Sugar Bowl would be Washington, D. C.

Italian authorities say that most of their losses to date have been soldiers killed by reckless driving. One would think that, over there, with all that desert, there would be plenty of room for one car to pass another, even on a curve.

If it weren't for our natural feeling of kindness for animals, we'd suggest a horse and buggy for the Roosevelt boys.—Nashua Telegraph.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

Whenever things go wrong with the people of the United States—and the same thing is of course, true of the citizens of other countries—we at once get an outcry from a lot of folks who say that our governmental machinery is wrong and that what we need is a new engine or at least some new cogwheels. The present situation in America is no exception. Before the latter part of 1929 we were about the chestiest people on earth. We talked about the high destiny of America and thought that poverty was soon to be abolished, so far as the United States is concerned.

Then came the change. The stock market crash was followed by idleness, by hunger and by other suffering. Immediately prophets arose among us to tell us that things would never be right again until our whole system of government was changed. The law of the "tooth and the jungle" was over. Individualism would have to give way to regimentation. There would be no more planning by private business. From now on it must be done by the government. To act otherwise would be to invite certain disaster.

Now the fact is that we have in this country today the same cities and towns, the same fertile farms, the same mines and the same forests that we had in 1929. There are just as many people here, too—perhaps a few more. But there has been a change. It has been in the hearts and souls of the people, not in the material resources of the country, in the characters of the citizens, not in the Constitution of the United States. Our fundamental law is the same as it was back in the easy days of Calvin Coolidge.

In 150 years—the shortest time known to history—our forefathers builded the mightiest nation the world has ever known. They did it under a Constitution which some folks tell us ought to be relegated to the "Horse and Buggy" days. Then why can't the process of development go on? It can, if our people will show the same initiative, the same enterprise and the same resourcefulness that was displayed by our empire-building ancestors. Let us remember that the founders of the American nation had plenty of intestinal fortitude. They were not afraid to cross mountains and plain, to work, to pray and to fight if need be, in defense of their "rugged individualism," and for a home for themselves and their children. When they cut across the country in covered wagons they were not equipped with government money. There were not tap-dancers to be paid by Uncle Sam to teach them the terpischorean art, no federally controlled circuses or band concerts for entertainment. Uncle Sam had neither the money nor the disposition to provide a living for those who would have come to headquarters for it. It was necessary for every man to go out after a living, and most of them did.

All of this may sound a trifle heartless. It is not intended to sound so. The United States is the most charitable nation on earth. We have always taken care of our destitute people and we intend always to do so. Nobody starved to death for lack of assistance, even before the era of the New Deal, and none will starve, we all hope, in the future. But at the same time it is to be remembered that no government, especially a free government, is any greater than the people who go to make it up. If we show the right sort of courage and enterprise we will find that our constitutional system is all right. But if we falter by the wayside and wait for a paternal federalism to take care of us—then the finest constitution which could be devised by the brain of a university professor could make us neither happy nor successful.

CONSTITUTIONAL TINKERING

We hear a great deal about proposed change to the American Constitution, but to most of us it is more or less of an academic issue, and we surmise that little if anything will be done about it. Yet it may surprise some of us to realize that sixty-five resolutions to change our Constitution have been introduced in Congress during the past few months. In an interesting article "Constitution Tinkering," in which he comments on this fact, Captain John B. Trevor, president of the American Coalition, says in part in the current issue of the National Republic.

"The open season for Constituton tinkering seems to be at hand. Not since the days of Civil War reconstruction has there been so much effort to revise or amend the fundamental law embodied in the Constitution of the United States.

"What little public sentimnet there is for amending the Constitution was given a political impetus recently by the expressions of disappointment on the part of certain persons high in the 'New Deal,' following the action of the Supreme Court of the United States nullifying the National Recovery Act. Even the President of the United States, following his historic decision, gave vent to his vexation and disappointment by asserting that the Court's action had taken us back to the "horse and buggy days" of American government. Almost immediately there were proposals from various so-called reformers that our fundamental law be changed; that Congress or the administration at Washington be given the right through constitutional changes to set aside state rights and the constitutional balance of government and to regulate al of the business and industry of the country, in the state, and the county and the village, telling Mr. Citizen how long he might work and for what wage, regulating the price at which the merchant might buy and sell; in short, acting as a sort of paternal mentor to American citizens who had builded a great nation through individual initiative and enterprise. * * *

"The danger of Constitution tinkering is not over. Mr. Average Citizen will perhaps be astonished to know that in both houses of Congress during the recent session no less than sixty-five resolutions were introduced looking toward the amending of the Constitution of the United States! When the fact is taken into consideration that during our 148 years of existence as a constitutional government, only twenty-two amendments to the Constitution have been adopted, and that ten of these have been regarded almost as an integral part of the great American document, because of their early approval, we may get some idea of what was in the minds of our representatives and senators during the past several months.

"Of course, a few of the proposed amendments are not in themselves fundamental. Some of them might have a very good chance of adoption in a period when there was not so much feeling against and discussion of Constitution tinkering. Other proposed amendments, however, are by no means innocent of changing the fundamental principle of American government. Some of them provide for the abrogating of the states' rights and seem to anticipate the setting up at Washington of a complete bureaucracy which would regulate the entire life and activities of our people everywhere. Others would destroy our balanced system of government by curbing the powers of the Supreme Court, taking away from the American people their right to appeal against legalized oppression, and giving them over to the mercy of any misguided party whimh might be in power politically. Still others would make such things easier by facilitating the amending of the Constitution itself; some would seek to redistribute wealth," and others to "outlaw war," and at the same time render us incapable of defending ourselves against a foreign foe or a domestic revolution."

HIGH COST OF GOVERNMENT

We hear a greal deal frequently about the high cost of government. But the phrase has become so commonplace that few people actually realize just what the tremendous cost of our government is. There are even a few apologists who compare our situation with that of Great Britain and point to the fact that income tax rates are higher over there than here. They neglect to take into account the fact that in the United States our federal incomes taxes are only a beginning and that we have state, county and municipal taxes in a degree that are unheard of in Great Brtain. Not only are these taxes burdensome to our people—the local taxes fall much heavier, directly, on the small man than do the federal taxes, although, in the end, of course, the consumer pays most of them anyhow.

A vivid illustration of the high cost of government was given, however, in a recent address by Harper Sibley, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, when he said:

"It would take 31 cents of every such dollar that was spent in the United States last year to equal the cost of government.

"It would take 31 cents of every such dolar to equal the cost of the federal government.

"The annual costs of government are equal to two-thirds of all the wages and salaries received last year by all our citizens other than government employees.

"All of the interest and all of the dividends received by individuals would run the government less than four months."

Here are some figures worth cogitating.

Sixty-eight cents out of every retail dollar to pay the cost of government, national, state and local, in the United States! And yet there are some people who think so feebly that they propose to saddle the cost of government "onto the rich." The absurdity of such a proposition is manifest when we consider the terrific cost of government. It requires the money not only of the rich but of the wage earner to pay for keeping our various governments going. Anyone who will think over the problem carefully for a moment can easily come to realize that there are not enough rich, not even enough well-to-do in the United States to pay for the kind of expensive government we are now living under.

The trouble seems to be that in spite of all that is said and printed about the dangers of high taxation, the government bill seems to be mounting each year. Some people seem to be obsessed with the idea that there is some magic way to get rid of mounting public debts. But this is not true. Every dollar borowed must be repaid, either with good money sweated in taxes from the pay envelopes of those who work or by the quicker process of inflation which will ruin everybody but the commodity gamblers and will be especially disastrous to the little fellow who labors for his living. There is no way to beat public debts, and there is only one way to reduce taxes. That is to reduce expenditures by careful and painstaking economy and real budget balancing.

Six thousand people in Spain have been made ill by poisoned bread. This stuff must be as bad as bride's biscuits.

MAN IN THE MOON

THE SALES TAX

Before long the people of Alabama will have a chance to vote on a very important item—the sales tax—if Mr. Graves keeps his word. During his campaign for Governor, Mr. Graves promised the people that if ever there was a sales tax law written on the statute books of Alabama during his administration, the people would vote for it to be put there.

Advocates of the sales tax have been working long and earnestly of late to try to put their pet plan into law, and the way things look now, it will not be long before Alabamians will be called upon to voice their wishes on the subject.

In view of this, there are a few things I would like to say to the voters of our section. A person who has never come into contact with the sales tax, and who hears that the tax will be a mere two per cent on purchases over a certain amount, may think little of it, but a bit of explanation might be welcome. So, here's what I know of it:

As is the case with most taxes, this is just another tax, to add to the burdens of the already overburdened taxpayers. But listen to this. Now you pay taxes only on property you own. With a sales tax law on the books, you will pay a tax on everything you buy, from a toothpick to an automobile, and you will pay it when you make the purchase, too. Let that bit of news sink in, completely, and you will come to realize what a sales tax means, or, at least, as well as you can until you start paying the taxes.

Think of making five purchases of from 15 cents to 25 cents each on one of your little trips down town—a magazine, a pound of meat, two loaves of broad, a half-dozen oranges, and a pair of socks—and you have paid tax in the sum of a dime. A dime is very little money, but multiply it by every day in the year, add it to other sales taxes you might pay during the year on larger purchases—clothes, tires, gasoline, etc., and you can readily see that the man of very moderate income and expenditures will pay a huge sum within a year. And that is a tax you do not have to pay now—add it to the taxes you pay now, and then see what kind of a tax hole you are in.

I have had occasion to observe the workings of the sales tax under several different plans. Some states only charge two per cent on charges over a certain amount, generally 15 cents—some start from scratch, however, and you pay a tax on everything from an all-day sucker on up. Do you remember the war tax we had on certain articles during the late war, and for a short while after its close? If so, you have had a taste of what a sales tax is like, but only a taste. Think of paying that extra two pennies on EVERY dollar you spend.

If there could be shown any sensible reason why such a tax should be levied, I would be the last to kick at it. If Alabama needed that extra money to cary on the state government, I am sure Alabamians would gladly pay it. But such is not the case.

Alabama is certainly no bigger than it has been. Our roads show no sign of any extra work being done on them—in fact the most of the state's part of road building and maintenance is done with prison labor. Our schools are certainly not getting it, for they are threatened with having to close in the near future from lack of funds. And, at the same time, it's a dead cinch the taxes that have been collected are as much as they have been heretofore. There was a time when Alabama's taxes were sufficient to carry on our state government. After considering the above, there is but one conclusion we can arrive at—someone around Goat Hill is lining his pockets with the long green!

The present legislature has already voted two million dollars additional yearly taxes, and collected over three million dollars in excess of the amount the Miller administration took in. And yet they clamor for more. For what? Our state admnistration seemingly never thinks of economy, of cutting expenses here and there to stay within their income. Oh no, just another tax—it doesn't exactly matter what kind, just so it will bring in the cash. Personally, I think the people of Alabama are already being gypped in the price they pay for government. Why not economize some, instead of paying off so many political debts with soft jobs, paid for out of the tax money—blood money—of Alabama's taxpayers?

There is something else to think about, too. Why not profit by the experience of others? New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Georgia have already repealed their sales tax laws. The people of Tennessee recently brought pressure to bear on their state legislature, after watching the sales tax workings in their neighbor state, Georgia, and it was overwhelmingly defeated. The same thing happened in Texas after Texans had observed its effect in their sister state, New Mexico. Kentucky recently elected almost a whole slate of officers pledged to kill all sales tax measures attempted. And the governor of Misisippi has asked his legislature to repeal their sales tax law. If you saw a man in pain from being stung by a hornet, you wouldn't want to be stung, too, just to see if it really did hurt that bad, would you?

Another thing, this tax climbs just like other taxes. When the gas tax was first levied, it was for only one cent per gallon. Gradualy it climbed upward, until today Alabamians pay one of the highest gas tax levies of any state in the union. The same thing will happen with the sales tax, if it is given a chance—first two per cent, then three, and then more, bit by bit, with now and then a special county or city sales tax thrown in for good measure. And you will pay it—don't forget that. It's not a tax to be pushed off on someone else—you pay on what you eat, what you wear, what you sleep on, what you sit on, what you walk on or ride in. If you live, you pay it—if you dies, somebody else pays it for you on the box and trappings you are put away in.

You've heard the term: "As sure as death and taxes", but you have never yet experienced one as sure as this one. So, don't take for granted that you'll get along somehow if it is passed. For your own good, and the good of all Alabamians except a few greedy suckers in the state "government", fight the sales tax. Alabama doesn't need it! Those money-grabbing politicians around Montgomery are the only ones who can be found who want it. If you are not yet convinced that it is something you don't want or need, just look about you a bit, and ask a few questions, and I believe you'll vote NO on the sales tax.

PUBLIC OPINION

"What do Americans want most in government"? That is a question which national party heads have been wondering over for some time. It has been answered, in a measure, by a poll taken recently by the American Institute of Public Opinion.

BORAH ENTERS THE FRAY

No more wholesome thing could have happened for the Republican party, we believe, than Senator Borah's aggressive entry into the presidential race.

A few days ago it looked as if, through default of the liberal element, the Grand Old Party was to remain in the grasp of the old guard. It looked as if some of the leading candidates now in the field would kill each other off in a repetition of the Wood-Lowden deadlock of 1920 and land the arty in another "smoke-filled hotel room" where the bosses would handpick a Tweedledum or a Tweedledee to head the ticket.

But the entry of the eloquent Idaho progressive changes the picture. If he takes earnestly to the hustings and Borah delegates are placed on the tickets in those states which have presidential primaries, the issues between liberalism and reaction in party policies should be effectively dramatized and rank and file Republican voters may be able to make their wishes heard and heeded at the Cleveland convention.

We hope Senator Borah goes into every state which holds a preferential primary, and we believe his chances of winning are good in all that he enters. Yet we know the cards are stacked against him.

Moreover, this year the old guard bosses will have plenty of money to spend. Big business interests which desire a subservient national administration know it is impossible to block the renomination of President Roosevelt by the Democrats. So they are expected to loosen their purse strings to the Republicans in return for promises of a reactionary platform, a reactionary candidate, and a return to the dog-eat-dog economics upon which they built the false prosperity of the twenties and left a sacked people to fend for themselves in the early thirties.

That political coup Senator Borah has undertaken to thwart, believing a campaign based on a return to the old order would bring a disastrous defeat to the Repub lican party, whose leadership he has long criticized but whose banner he has never deserted.

A majority of rank and file Republicans, we believe, join us in wishing Senator Borah Godspeed. He has his faults. But no other Republican is so well equipped to succeed in the mission he is undertaking. None other so competely enjoys the trust of the common man. None other has experience and talent. None other his long record of honesty and humanity.—Birmingham Post.

IMPORTING CATTLE

In the light of the recently completed reciprocity treaty between the United States and Canada, which promises to be a big campaign issue next year, it is of interest to note that cattle imports to the United States mounted sharply during October, the latest month for which figures are available. It is to be remembered that cattle are one of the farm products which are to be admitted under lower rates from Canada in the new treaty.

According to a report of the United States Department of Commerce, imports of cattle over the Canadian and Mexican borders during October totaled 32,246 head, the largest number since June. It is to be noted also that the cattle imported in October a year ago numbered only 1,287.

In the first ten months of this year the United States imported 312,257 head of cattle, mostly from the Dominion of Canada and Mexico. This contrasts with a total number of 58,740 for the first ten months of 1934.

A great many of the cattle brought in, it is said, are feeders who are taking the place of the supply depleted last year by the AAA program, which was aided by the drought. Last year we slaughtered the cattle because there wasn't enough pasture in the West. This year there is plenty of corn and plenty of pasture, but the number of feeders is decidedly shy.

Of course, when the new Canadian treaty goes into effect we needn't worry much about a cattle shortage any more. If the AAA decides we have too many cattle and they should be slaughtered, and then it turns out we haven't enough cattle of our own, it will be comparatively easy to import 'em from Canada under the new arrangements. Not only will we be importing livestock, but we shall be getting in dairy products, too. This will make it unnecessary for the farmers of the United States to produce as much butter and cheese as formerly. Then they can pay more attention to tap dancing, animal training and other phases of the more abundant life. There is nothing like a wise paternal government to figure these things out for us.

In Williamson County, Illinois, it is announced that only Democrats and New Dealers will be placed in charge of the $810,000 WPA road building program. Then why not get the money from Democratic and New Deal taxpayers?

In New York state over 1,900,000 passenger automobiles were registered for use during the first ten months this year. What we would like to know is, how many of 'em burned gasoline bought with federal relief money?

The question: "What is the most vital issue before the American public today?" was asked of millions of people. The three first in order named, were: (1) Employment; (2) Govermental expenditures; (3) Neutrality. There were numbers of other items brought to attention, but a vast majority wanted "more jobs, a cessation of government waste, and strict preservation of a neutral status in world affairs."

Possibly the best way to show more accurately how people feel about these three paramount issues might be to express three representative notes, sent in by voters in the poll. These read: "Give 90,000,000 people a chance to live, or stop reproducing them"; "Get Uncle Sam out of his Santa Claus constume"; "Stay on this side of the big ponds, and get ready to whip any nation which tries to bring war to us."

It might be interesting to some to check these three big issues against the political platforms of the two big parties in 1936. The Democratic platform places unemployment first, while the Republicans place it second on the list. Economy in government expenditures is placed third on the Democratic list, while Republicans put it in the No. 1 position. Democrats place neutrality second, while Republicans place it fifth, placing Constitutional preservation and reduced taxes, as well as economy and unemployment, above it.

It is quite interesting to note a few items in the two platforms, and the degree of importance in which they are rated. For instance—Democrats place "less control of business" 19th, while Republicans put it 8th. Democrats put "liquor control" 20th, and Republicans put in 10th. Democrats put the soldier's bonus 17th, while Republicans put it 20th. Democrats place Constitutional measures 16th, while Republicans think it 3rd in importance. This 1936 political scrap bids fair to be a hot one.—Man in the Moon.

A DECISION ON STATES' RIGHTS

It is one of the charactertistics of a later-day reformer that he wants to take away many of the rights and privileges of state governments and turn them over to the federal government at Washington. It is this political tendency among the so-called "old fashioned" political students that the alleged "reformers" are really seeking to reform us into autocracy.

It is one of the characteristics of a latter-the doctrine of states rights seemed to be especially the property of the Democratic party. But that is no longer true. We now find as earnest and eager states rights men bearing the Republican label and, by contrast, there are unfortunately a great many alleged reformers still wearing the Democratic label who are for complete federal control, rather than the right of states.

Be that as it may, it is good to know that the Supreme Court still recognizes the important function of states rights in our American government. In a decision handed down a few days ago the Court held unanimously that home building and loan organizations, operating under a state charter, may not convert themselves into federal corporations on vote of 51 per cent of the stockholders, over protest of the state.

The case came up to the Supreme Court from Wisconsin, where three building and state loan corporations wanted to become federal corporations over the objection of the state. The Court held that this could not be done.

While the Home Owners Loan Corporation of Washington has come out with a statement that the decision will not seriously affect its policies because 37 states have already passed laws enabling state home and savings corporations to convert to federal corporations, and that of 1,005 Federal organizations only about three would be affected, the decision is important because it seems to be a blow to the New Deal theory of converting state functions into federal operations. The decision seems to bear the possibility of some wide applications, in spite of the fact that it is narrow in its effects. It is evident that the states still have some rights and that the Supreme Court recognizes the fact.

The decision was written by Justice Cardozo, who mentioned the necessity of preventing federal encroachments on the powers of the states.

It is now known to be illegal for the federal government to absorb a local institution set up for saving the people's money unless a majority of the stockholders and the state, under which a charter was granted, agree to such absorption. It is good indeed, to have this fact brought home to us. It indicates that there may be still other states' rights to be preserved.

In 1917 we fought the war to end wars and now we see Japan in China, Italy in Ethiopia and the rest of the boys all ready to go. In 1917 we fought to make the world safe for democracy and now we have Stalin and Mussolini and Hitler, to say nothing of a half dozen successful imitators.

It is said that the Department of Agriculture has developed some odorless cabbages. Wouldn't it be a good thing if we could also perfect an odorless congressional investigation.

That fellow you see riding in a sleigh on Christmas morning may not be Santa Claus after all. It may only be the Canadian milk and butter man saying "cheerio" to the American dairy farmers.

Of course, if John Bull gets into a war with Italy we will expect King George to issue a famous call to arms, something like this: "England expects every American to do his duty."

We got enough of that "hands across the seas, business in the World War. And the bill is still a bad debt. Let's mind our own affairs for a while.—Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch.

A Java man has sent a contribution to Iowa's old-age assistance fund. Apparently word of the country's plight is getting around, despite all we are doing to hush it up.—Portland Oregonian.

The old fashioned toper who used to drink liquor only twenty minutes out of the copper kettle without batting an eye now wonders whether or not year-old whiskey will be bad for him.

Some ingenious fellow has invented a new game which is said to be especially good entertainment to be given in connection wth church suppers. It s called: "Oyster, oyster, whose got the oyster "

If you want to know who is responsible for most of the losses you had in 1929, take a good look at yourself the next time you start lathering up for the morning shave.

A Greenwich, Conn., bridge instructor has married his one-time pupil. Evidently both of the "contracting parties" took their hand holding quite seriously.—Los Angeles Tiems.

The Greeks have asked their exiled king to come home and rule them—but he ought to insist on a long-term contract this time.—Portland Oregonian.

Rhubarb, acording to an oculist is good for eyes. They might try crossing it with grapefruit.—Punch.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of December 22, 1910

On Tuesday, December 20th, Obie Mahan was injured at a sawmil, and died at a Montgomery hospital. He was 22 years old, the son of Henry W. Mahan.

Mrs. Maude Veazey of Mulberry is in the Clanton Infirmary with typhoid fever. Mrs. W. W. Oden and Grandpa Rasberry are also exceedingly ill.

Dr. O. C. Mastin of Fort Payne has bought a 20-acre farm in Thorsby and expects to move on it at an early date.

Mr. E. M. Pinckard made a business trip to Montgomery Saturday night.

The wife of Mr. Emmett Blankenship died at Rockford Friday of last week.

Married this week—J. M. Williams and Miss Mamie Jones, Henry Klinner and Miss Neura Roper, Wm. Thomas Mitchell and Miss Virma Adams, W. W. Robinson and Miss Mamie Devon, Ervin Wilson and Miss Ada Hicks, T. J. Johnson and Miss Lillie Patterson, W. L. Culver and Miss Lera Carroll.

POOR C

Christmas Cheer To Everyone

We greet you this Christmas Day in the same spirit as of other years. The community has been good to us—and we have tried to be good to this community. It is with this in mind that we extend to you best wishes of the season, and express our intention of trying hard to merit your continued friendship during the coming New Year.

J. R. Mullins & Sons

Clanton, Alabama

Warm and cheerful is the red of the Christmas poinsettia . . . . May the atmosphere in your home be just as cheerful . . . . ringing with Joy and Laughter.

For 1936 . . . . our one wish is that it will be a bounteous year for everybody in Chilton County.

Tiffin Furniture Co.

6th St., South of Courthouse Clanton, Ala.

Special State Tax

To the Employers and Employees of Alabama:

The State Tax Commission of Alabama has been designated by an executive order of the Governor, as the agency through which the unemployment contributions will be colected and the Unemployment Compensation Commission hereby notifies all employers of eight persons or more, except those specifically herein exempted, that effective on al payrolls accruing on or after January 1st, whether they be weekly, monthy or per diem, that said payrolls are subject to the following contributions:

One per cent to be deducted from each employees wages and one per cent of the entire amount of each employers payroll to match the deductions from the employees wages, to be paid by said employers.

These amounts must be set aside and held in trust by the employers until such time as the State Tax Commission of Alabama can secure from the United States Government the necessary forms to be used in the collection of these contributions. Immediately upon receipt of these forms same will be available to each employer to make a report and remittance of the contributions due under the Unemployment Compensation Act.

Persons and Employees exempt from this Act as follows:

1. Agricultural labor.
2. Domestic service in a private home.
3. Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States.
4. Services performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one in the employ of his father or mother.
5. Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States.
6. Service performed in the employ of a state, or political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of one or more states or political subdivisions.
7. Service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

Just as bright as the candle gleams . . . . . so we trust this Christmas will find the scene in your home—filled with the Yuletide sunshine of countless blessings.

And may that sunshine never be dimmed throughout the coming New Year. Good Luck to you all.

Peoples Savings Bank

Clanton, Alabama

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for December 29

REVIEW: SIGNIFICANCE OF THE EXILE AND THE RESTORATION

GOLDEN TEXT—The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children. Psalm 103:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How God Restored His People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Restored His People.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Learning From Great Men.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Providence in History.

The method of review must be determined by the teacher. The grade of the class, the aptitude of the scholars, and the genius of the teacher are features to be considered. For senior and adult classes, the following suggestions are made.

I. Study the Lessons of the Quarter as Illustrating the Philosophy of History in God's Dealings With His People in Their Captivity and Restoration.

Assignment of topics should be made at least one week in advance. Only adult classes could be expected to use this method. The following subjects might be assigned:

Why God permitted Israel to go into exile.

What cure the exile effected for Israel.

What changed views of life resulted from the exile.

The bearing of the exile upon prophecy.

The relationship of divine chastening to divine love.

II. Character Study.

Assign the outstanding heroes of the quarter's lessons to members of the class to have them report. This assignment should be made at least one week in advance. Some of the outstanding characters for consideration are Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Nehemiah, Ezra, Zerubbabel, and Malachi.

III. Summary of Contents.

This is a method readily usable at all times, and it can be adapted to most of the grades. The following suggestions are made for the carrying out of this method:

Lesson 1. The prophecy of Isaiah is the grand center of the Old Testament. It pictures the Servant of Jehovah, with great wisdom, gloriously executing the divine purpose of redemption, at the cost of great suffering.

Lesson 2. Before he was born, Jeremiah was ordained by God as a prophet to the nations. He so really took to heart the doom which awaited his people that he wept sorely.

Lesson 3. Jeremiah stood in the gate of the temple in order that the multitudes might hear him. He told the people that God required them to amend their ways, solemnly warning them of impending judgments.

Lesson 4. While Belshazzar and his lords were engaged in drunken revelry, the mysterious hand recorded the divine judgment. There is a coming day of judgment.

Lesson 5. Because of Judah's apostasy, God permitted the Babylonians to destroy Jerusalem and take the Jews into captivity.

Lesson 6. Ezekiel sets forth personal responsibility. On his part, it was to hear God's word and to sound forth the warning. The people's responsibility was to hear and obey.

Lesson 7. Though Israel went into captivity as a chastisement, in due time the Lord restored them. In due time God will make good his covenant agreement with the Jews.

Lesson 8. God used these prophets to stir up the people to build God's house.

Lesson 9. Ezra was commissioned to lead the people to forsake their sins and return to God.

Lesson 10. On hearing of the distress of his brethren in Jerusalem, Nehemiah took the matter to the Lord in prayer. The Lord gave him favor with the king, permitting him to go back to build the walls of Jerusalem, bearing credentials of authority from the king.

Lesson 11. The method used in bringing the people back to God was the reading of the Word of God to them. Because the Word was made plain to the people, they repented of their sins.

Lesson 12. Malachi, as an aid to Nehemiah in effecting reforms, pointed out the sins of the people. He set forth a day of judgment when righteous retribution would be meted out to the wicked, and rewards given to the faithful.

We have now concluded our months of study in the Old Testament and will with the new year enter upon a study of the Gospel of Luke.

A Man

O rich and various man! thou palace of sight and sound, carrying in the senses the morning and the night; and the unfathomable galaxy; in thy brain, the geometry of the city of God; in thy heart, the power of love and the realms of right and wrong!—Emerson.

Work

Thank God! Work is sorrow's cure, its hands like the hands of an enemy, but its voice the voice of an Eternal Friend.

Miss Irene Jones, who teaches in Bessemer arrived Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Amsy Jones.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

There will be services at the Congregational church next Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 and worship service at 11:00 o'clock. Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30.

Scouts Attention

A court of honor for awarding badges to worthy boys, and to consider the question of awarding a life saving medal to Scout Jack Higgins. The meeting place wil be the Congregational church. The time, Monday evening, December 23, at 7 o'clock.

A young people's revival wil start Sunday night at the Baptist church. It will continue through the week, services being held each evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Paul Oden wil do the preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Akins Collins and children left Saturday morning for Sopchoppy, Florida, to visit with Mrs. Collins' parents until Thursday.

Mrs. W. A. Anthony and daughter, Hazel, of Greenville, are spending the Christmas holdays with Mrs. J. C. Trotter, sister of Mrs. Anthony.

Mrs. Tutt McCane of Birmingham spent last Saturday with Mrs. J. C. Trotter.

To yourselves and to those dear and near to you, may Christmas of this year mark the beginning of an era of peace, prosperity and contentment for all. That's our wish. And may the New Year bring you still more of it.

Wyatt Drug Co.

Thorsby, Ala.

CHRISTMAS Day itself is synonymous with cheer and happiness. The spirit of this occasion should be carried throughout the year — and we hope for its continuation. The season's greetings and a Happy New Year and all through 1936, the order of the day.

J. Mat Johnson

Drayman

Clanton, Ala.

To ALL our customers and friends — those who have shared with us and those who will share with us in the future — please accept our heartiest greetings, sincere and real. May Christmas be your best and the New Year your most prosperous.

Wingard Bros.

D. A. Wingard W. W. Wingard

Clanton :-: Ala.

Miss Ruth Foss of Augusta College, Illinois, wil spend the Christmas holidays at her home in Thorsby. She expects to return January 5th.

Miss Edith Foss, wso is taking a business course in Selma, will also spend the Christmas holidays at home.

Miss Martha Williams of Southern Union College at Wadley is at home for the Christmas holidays.

The bride and groom of Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tapscott, returned Friday evening from Birmingham.

Mrs. J. E. Each spent the week end in Birmingham with Mr. and Mrs Cecil Each.

Mrs. Anna Phalin had as her guests Tuesday night Mr. Harold Phalin and Mr. J. Craig of McHenry, Illinois.

The Misses Agnes and Mary Ella Gerald will spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Gerald and son, Jimmie spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merchant and children will leave Wednesday night for Centreville where they will spend Thursday with Mr. Merchant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Merchant.

Miss Jennye Robinson spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard left on Tuesday morning for Berry, Alabama, to spend the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Odom.

Miss Lois Primm of Lay Dam returned home Friday evening for the holiday vacation.

Miss Mattingly and Miss Glasson have returned to their homes for the holidays.

Miss Lois Leech has a sister coming from Minneapolis, Minn., to visit her during the holidays.

Miss Helen Jenkins, Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Lois Leech and sister, Miss Leech, will go to Birmingham Saturday afternoon, remaining there over Sunday to hear some Christmas music. They will then leave on an auto tour through Mississippi and Louisiana and reach New Orleans if the weather proves satisfactory.

The enlargement of the campus cottage under the auspices of the ladies guild, is now completed and a great improvement. Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Jenkins are very much enjoying the extra space afforded.

A band of singers who will sing carols will be abroad on Christmas eve.

Miss Klingelhoefer, Miss Ruth Ford and Miss Lillian McKee will take an auto tour during the holiday vacation. They wil probably visit New Orleans.

In checking up on the annual report of our year's work of the W. M. U., we find that the Lord has graciously blessed our society under the leadership of our president, Mrs. Donald Merchant.

It has quietly but steadily grown in number, finance, Bible study, missions and spirit of love and harmony. During the year of her association with us as leader she has forged a chain of faithful service, whose links were heated by the fires of love for her Master and welded on the anvil of loyal discipleship. And it has been the joy of all her co-workers to connect this chain in the bonds of true love and worship. We have met all points on the standard of excelence.

Local Work of W. M. U., 1935

Church building and repairs, etc., $18.25; special gifts, $13.99; flowers for funerals, $8.50; religious magazines, $6.00; missions, Christian education, benevolences, Co-operative program—W. M. S., $84.00; G. A., $2.90 and Y. W. A., $2.35, a total of $88.35; Hundred Thousand club, $1.00; state missions, $8.61; home missions, $5.25; Foreign Missions (Dec.), $5.23; Christian and ministerial education, $3.00; a grand total of $168.28.

Number of active members, January, 1, 1935, 28; number of home department members, January 1, 1935, 10; Lost in death, 1; new members, 3; in death, 1; new members, 3; total total membership, 40.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, Mrs. Donald Merchant; first vice president, Mrs. Richard Hicks; second vice president, Mrs. Tom Robinson, third vice president, Mrs. E. R. Piper; secretary Mrs. A. I. Collins; treasurer, Mrs. Leila Martin; mission study chairman, Miss Elizabeth Law; Bible study teacher, Miss Mae Woods; White Cross, Mrs. M. E. Wilis; pianists Mrs. E. N. Bentley; chairman, circle No. 1, Mrs. Leonard Lowery; chairman circle No. 2, Mrs. G. F. Harper.

TAPSCOTT-EACH MARRIAGE

At 8 o'clock last Wednesday evening, December 18th, there was a very pretty wedding of great interest to the people of Thorsby. This was the marriage of Juanita Each and Grady Tapscott. Juanita is the second daughter of Mrs. J. E. Each and the late Rev. Joseph E. Each, who was pastor of the Congregational church for many years. Rev. E. W. Butler officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted ferns and holly and lit by candles. Miss Lucile Each was matron of honor and Milton Higgins was best man. The Misses Ruth Primm and Ruth Higgins were bridesmaids and Richard Petersen and Wendell Hayes, groomsmen. Mrs. Rascoe Maddox and Mrs. V. H. Stulive sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Kathleen Foss sang. Mrs. C. R. Foss played the marches. It was a beautiful and quite impressive ceremony.

After the wedding a reception was given the happy couple by Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Franklin at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tapscott left to spend a few days in Birmingham. They will make their home in Thorsby.

666

Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops

Checks COLDS and FEVER First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

MAPLE SPRINGS

A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to you all.

Health of this community is good at the present.

Mrs. O. L. Devaughn and baby, Billie Dan, spent a few days ast week with her daughter, Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Newt Driver and Jeff Price spent a while Friday with Mr. Ottis Glenn.

Mr. Curtis Jones visited his friends at the CCC camp near Clanton last Thursday night.

Miss Jettie May Dennis spent a while last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Buck Roberts.

Mr. Audie Brown from Cooper spent last Tuesday night with Mr. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Joe Baker, J. C. Mims, Curtis Jones, Ottis Glenn motored to Gulledge's Camp Friday night.

Mrs. Zora Dobbs was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe Dennis last Wednesday.

Miss Inez Price visited her brother, Mr. J. J. Price, last week.

Mr. W. A. Calloway from Cooper was in this community last week.

Miss Elsie Glenn spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mims and son, James Ralph, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn last Sunday.

Mrs. W. F. Glenn and daughter, Lera, spent a while last Monday with Mrs. J. R. Mitchell.

Miss Esther Lee Downs spent last Wednesday night with Miss Pearlie Driver.

Mr. Jerrell Miller was in this community ast Monday.

Mr. R. W. Lowe from South Clanton was in this community Wednesday morning.

Mr. Ottis Glenn and father were visiting in Coopers last Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. Curtis Jones and Arloud Glenn spent a while last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Newt Driver was here visiting his sister, Mrs. Jeff Price, last week.

Messrs. Arthur and Evan Mitchell spent a while Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Price.

Rev. and Mrs. Stanley will entertain for dinner on Christmas day Mrs. S. E. Norton and the Misses Klingelhoefer, Fairbank and Ruth Ford.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Dec. 23.—Several students at the University of Alabama from Clanton are outstanding in student activities on the campus. Joe Watts Moore is a member of the Glee Club of Blackfriars, an outstanding dramatic organization of freshman Y. M. C. A. cabinet, Senior Y. M. C. A., and secretary and treasurer of the freshman class. He is also a member of Phi Chi Medical Fraternity.

Grady Reynolds, Jr., is a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and a member of Druids, whose purpose is to encourage the upper classman who have made good in their freshman year. He is also a member of the Corolla and Crimson-White staff. The Corolla is the Yearbook published by University students and the Crimson-White is the school paper published every week by the students.

Ruth Shepherd is a member of Chi Delta Phi, women's literary organization, Pi Phi Chi and Omega, which is an intersorority organization. She is also a member of the Women's Athletic association on the honor roll and on the Corolla staff, publishers of the University annual.

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination, backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

DOAN'S PILLS

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, DEC. 30TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON

OPTOMETRIST

ORIGINAL

The UNION-BANNER

Published every Thursday at Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama

T. E. WYATT.....Editor and Publisher

Entered April 15, 1913, at Clanton Alabama, as Second Class Mail Matter, under Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

One Year	$1.50
Eight Months	1.00
Six Months	.75
Four Months	.50

(All Subscriptions Payable in Advance)

PHONE 63

A seventy-eight-year-old father of Oakland, California, is distressed because his fifty-year-old son is incorrigible. We suggest that the father ask his grandfather to take the lad in hand. Grandparents have a way with children, you know.—Florida Times-Union.

It would be very nice, for Great Britain, if we could be used to block Il Duce's territorial aspirations in Ethiopia solely to maintain the British sphere of influence, and then place ourselves in a position to be used by Great Britain in the Orient to protect its interests in China.

With New York being treated to plays entitled "Blind Alley," "Dead End" and "Tobacco Road," it looks af if the highway construction magnates had lighted upon the drama as a convenient advertising medium. —Boston Transcript.

Josef Stalin says, "We have succeeded in eliminating poverty along with unemployment. We are now on our way to wealth." Now, where have we heard something like that before, only nearer home.—Boston Transcript.

We understand that with the Rose Bowl game at Los Angeles and the Orange Bowl at Miami, good old Louisiana has come forward with a Sugar Bowl. The appropriate place for the Sugar Bowl would be Washington, D. C.

Italian authorities say that most of their losses to date have been soldiers killed by reckless driving. One would think that, over there, with all that desert, there would be plenty of room for one car to pass another, even on a curve.

If it weren't for our natural feeling of kindness for animals, we'd suggest a horse and buggy for the Roosevelt boys.—Nashua Telegraph.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(By Frank P. Litschert

Whenever things go wrong with the people of the United States—and the same thing is of course, true of the citizens of other countries—we at once get an outcry from a lot of folks who say that our governmental machinery is wrong and that what we need is a new engine or at least some new cogwheels. The present situation in America is no exception. Before the latter part of 1929 we were about the chestiest people on earth. We talked about the high destiny of America and thought that poverty was soon to be abolished, so far as the United States is concerned.

Then came the change. The stock market crash was followed by idleness, by hunger and by other suffering. Immediately prophets arose among us to tell us that things would never be right again until our whole system of government was changed. The law of the "tooth and the jungle" was over. Individualism would have to give way to regimentation. There would be no more planning by private business. From now on it must be done by the government. To act otherwise would be to invite certain disaster.

Now the fact is that we have in this country today the same cities and towns, the same fertile farms, the same mines and the same forests that we had in 1929. There are just as many people here, too—perhaps a few more. But there has been a change. It has been in the hearts and souls of the people, not in the material resources of the country, in the characters of the citizens, not in the Constitution of the United States. Our fundamental law is the same as it was back in the easy days of Calvin Coolidge.

In 150 years—the shortest time known to history—our forefathers builded the mightiest nation the world has ever known. They did it under a Constitution which some folks tell us ought to be relegated to the "Horse and Buggy" days. Then why can't the process of development go on? It can, if our people will show the same initiative, the same enterprise and the same resourcefulness that was displayed by our empire-building ancestors. Let us remember that the founders of the American nation had plenty of intestinal fortitude. They were not afraid to cross mountains and plain, to work, to pray and to fight if need be, in defense of their "rugged individualism," and for a home for themselves and their children. When they cut across the country in covered wagons they were not equipped with government money. There were not tap-dancers to be paid by Uncle Sam to teach them the terpischorean art, no federally controlled circuses or band concerts for entertainment. Uncle Sam had neither the money nor the disposition to provide a living for those who would have come to headquarters for it. It was necessary for every man to go out after a living, and most of them did.

All of this may sound a trifle heartless. It is not intended to sound so. The United States is the most charitable nation on earth. We have always taken care of our destitute people and we intend always to do so. Nobody starved to death for lack of assistance, even before the era of the New Deal, and none will starve, we all hope, in the future. But at the same time it is to be remembered that no government, especially a free government, is any greater than the people who go to make it up. If we show the right sort of courage and enterprise we will find that our constitutional system is all right. But if we falter by the wayside and wait for a paternal federalism to take care of us—then the finest constitution which could be devised by the brain of a university professor could make us neither happy nor successful.

CONSTITUTIONAL TINKERING

We hear a great deal about proposed change to the American Constitution, but to most of us it is more or less of an academic issue, and we surmise that little if anything will be done about it. Yet it may surprise some of us to realize that sixty-five resolutions to change our Constitution have been introduced in Congress during the past few months. In an interesting article "Constitution Tinkering," in which he comments on this fact, Captain John B. Trevor, president of the American Coalition, says in part in the current issue of the National Republic.

"The open season for Constituton tinkering seems to be at hand. Not since the days of Civil War reconstruction has there been so much effort to revise or amend the fundamental law embodied in the Constitution of the United States.

"What little public sentimnet there is for amending the Constitution was given a political impetus recently by the expressions of disappointment on the part of certain persons high in the 'New Deal,' following the action of the Supreme Court of the United States nullifying the National Recovery Act. Even the President of the United States, following his historic decision, gave vent to his vexation and disappointment by asserting that the Court's action had taken us back to the "horse and buggy days" of American government. Almost immediately there were proposals from various so-called reformers that our fundamental law be changed; that Congress or the administration at Washington be given the right through constitutional changes to set aside state rights and the constitutional balance of government and to regulate al of the business and industry of the country, in the state, and the county and the village, telling Mr. Citizen how long he might work and for what wage, regulating the price at which the merchant might buy and sell; in short, acting as a sort of paternal mentor to American citizens who had builded a great nation through individual initiative and enterprise. * * *

"The danger of Constitution tinkering is not over. Mr. Average Citizen will perhaps be astonished to know that in both houses of Congress during the recent session no less than sixty-five resolutions were introduced looking toward the amending of the Constitution of the United States! When the fact is taken into consideration that during our 148 years of existence as a constitutional government, only twenty-two amendments to the Constitution have been adopted, and that ten of these have been regarded almost as an integral part of the great American document, because of their early approval, we may get some idea of what was in the minds of our representatives and senators during the past several months.

"Of course, a few of the proposed amendments are not in themselves fundamental. Some of them might have a very good chance of adoption in a period when there was not so much feeling against and discussion of Constitution tinkering. Other proposed amendments, however, are by no means innocent of changing the fundamental principle of American government. Some of them provide for the abrogating of the states' rights and seem to anticipate the setting up at Washington of a complete bureaucracy which would regulate the entire life and activities of our people everywhere. Others would destroy our balanced system of government by curbing the powers of the Supreme Court, taking away from the American people their right to appeal against legalized oppression, and giving them over to the mercy of any misguided party whimh might be in power politically. Still others would make such things easier by facilitating the amending of the Constitution itself; some would seek to redistribute wealth," and others to "outlaw war," and at the same time render us incapable of defending ourselves against a foreign foe or a domestic revolution."

HIGH COST OF GOVERNMENT

We hear a greal deal frequently about the high cost of government. But the phrase has become so commonplace that few people actually realize just what the tremendous cost of our government is. There are even a few apologists who compare our situation with that of Great Britain and point to the fact that income tax rates are higher over there than here. They neglect to take into account the fact that in the United States our federal incomes taxes are only a beginning and that we have state, county and municipal taxes in a degree that are unheard of in Great Brtain. Not only are these taxes burdensome to our people—the local taxes fall much heavier, directly, on the small man than do the federal taxes, although, in the end, of course, the consumer pays most of them anyhow.

A vivid illustration of the high cost of government was given, however, in a recent address by Harper Sibley, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, when he said:

"It would take 31 cents of every such dollar that was spent in the United States last year to equal the cost of government.

"It would take 31 cents of every such dolar to equal the cost of the federal government.

"The annual costs of government are equal to two-thirds of all the wages and salaries received last year by all our citizens other than government employees.

"All of the interest and all of the dividends received by individuals would run the government less than four months."

Here are some figures worth cogitating.

Sixty-eight cents out of every retail dollar to pay the cost of government, national, state and local, in the United States! And yet there are some people who think so feebly that they propose to saddle the cost of government "onto the rich." The absurdity of such a proposition is manifest when we consider the terrific cost of government. It requires the money not only of the rich but of the wage earner to pay for keeping our various governments going. Anyone who will think over the problem carefully for a moment can easily come to realize that there are not enough rich, not even enough well-to-do in the United States to pay for the kind of expensive government we are now living under.

The trouble seems to be that in spite of all that is said and printed about the dangers of high taxation, the government bill seems to be mounting each year. Some people seem to be obsessed with the idea that there is some magic way to get rid of mounting public debts. But this is not true. Every dollar borowed must be repaid, either with good money sweated in taxes from the pay envelopes of those who work or by the quicker process of inflation which will ruin everybody but the commodity gamblers and will be especially disastrous to the little fellow who labors for his living. There is no way to beat public debts, and there is only one way to reduce taxes. That is to reduce expenditures by careful and painstaking economy and real budget balancing.

Six thousand people in Spain have been made ill by poisoned bread. This stuff must be as bad as bride's biscuits.

MAN IN THE MOON

THE SALES TAX

Before long the people of Alabama will have a chance to vote on a very important item—the sales tax—if Mr. Graves keeps his word. During his campaign for Governor, Mr. Graves promised the people that if ever there was a sales tax law written on the statute books of Alabama during his administration, the people would vote for it to be put there.

Advocates of the sales tax have been working long and earnestly of late to try to put their pet plan into law, and the way things look now, it will not be long before Alabamians will be called upon to voice their wishes on the subject.

In view of this, there are a few things I would like to say to the voters of our section. A person who has never come into contact with the sales tax, and who hears that the tax will be a mere two per cent on purchases over a certain amount, may think little of it, but a bit of explanation might be welcome. So, here's what I know of it:

As is the case with most taxes, this is just another tax, to add to the burdens of the already overburdened taxpayers. But listen to this. Now you pay taxes only on property you own. With a sales tax law on the books, you will pay a tax on everything you buy, from a toothpick to an automobile, and you will pay it when you make the purchase, too. Let that bit of news sink in, completely, and you will come to realize what a sales tax means, or, at least, as well as you can until you start paying the taxes.

Think of making five purchases of from 15 cents to 25 cents each on one of your little trips down town—a magazine, a pound of meat, two loaves of broad, a half-dozen oranges, and a pair of socks—and you have paid tax in the sum of a dime. A dime is very little money, but multiply it by every day in the year, add it to other sales taxes you might pay during the year on larger purchases—clothes, tires, gasoline, etc., and you can readily see that the man of very moderate income and expenditures will pay a huge sum within a year. And that is a tax you do not have to pay now—add it to the taxes you pay now, and then see what kind of a tax hole you are in.

I have had occasion to observe the workings of the sales tax under several different plans. Some states only charge two per cent on charges over a certain amount, generally 15 cents—some start from scratch, however, and you pay a tax on everything from an all-day sucker on up. Do you remember the war tax we had on certain articles during the late war, and for a short while after its close? If so, you have had a taste of what a sales tax is like, but only a taste. Think of paying that extra two pennies on EVERY dollar you spend.

If there could be shown any sensible reason why such a tax should be levied, I would be the last to kick at it. If Alabama needed that extra money to cary on the state government, I am sure Alabamians would gladly pay it. But such is not the case.

Alabama is certainly no bigger than it has been. Our roads show no sign of any extra work being done on them—in fact the most of the state's part of road building and maintenance is done with prison labor. Our schools are certainly not getting it, for they are threatened with having to close in the near future from lack of funds. And, at the same time, it's a dead cinch the taxes that have been collected are as much as they have been heretofore. There was a time when Alabama's taxes were sufficient to carry on our state government. After considering the above, there is but one conclusion we can arrive at—someone around Goat Hill is lining his pockets with the long green!

The present legislature has already voted two million dollars additional yearly taxes, and collected over three million dollars in excess of the amount the Miller administration took in. And yet they clamor for more. For what? Our state admnistration seemingly never thinks of economy, of cutting expenses here and there to stay within their income. Oh no, just another tax—it doesn't exactly matter what kind, just so it will bring in the cash. Personally, I think the people of Alabama are already being gypped in the price they pay for government. Why not economize some, instead of paying off so many political debts with soft jobs, paid for out of the tax money—blood money—of Alabama's taxpayers?

There is something else to think about, too. Why not profit by the experience of others? New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Georgia have already repealed their sales tax laws. The people of Tennessee recently brought pressure to bear on their state legislature, after watching the sales tax workings in their neighbor state, Georgia, and it was overwhelmingly defeated. The same thing happened in Texas after Texans had observed its effect in their sister state, New Mexico. Kentucky recently elected almost a whole slate of officers pledged to kill all sales tax measures attempted. And the governor of Misisippi has asked his legislature to repeal their sales tax law. If you saw a man in pain from being stung by a hornet, you wouldn't want to be stung, too, just to see if it really did hurt that bad, would you?

Another thing, this tax climbs just like other taxes. When the gas tax was first levied, it was for only one cent per gallon. Gradualy it climbed upward, until today Alabamians pay one of the highest gas tax levies of any state in the union. The same thing will happen with the sales tax, if it is given a chance—first two per cent, then three, and then more, bit by bit, with now and then a special county or city sales tax thrown in for good measure. And you will pay it—don't forget that. It's not a tax to be pushed off on someone else—you pay on what you eat, what you wear, what you sleep on, what you sit on, what you walk on or ride in. If you live, you pay it—if you dies, somebody else pays it for you on the box and trappings you are put away in.

You've heard the term: "As sure as death and taxes", but you have never yet experienced one as sure as this one. So, don't take for granted that you'll get along somehow if it is passed. For your own good, and the good of all Alabamians except a few greedy suckers in the state "government", fight the sales tax. Alabama doesn't need it! Those money-grabbing politicians around Montgomery are the only ones who can be found who want it. If you are not yet convinced that it is something you don't want or need, just look about you a bit, and ask a few questions, and I believe you'll vote NO on the sales tax.

PUBLIC OPINION

"What do Americans want most in government"? That is a question which national party heads have been wondering over for some time. It has been answered, in a measure, by a poll taken recently by the American Institute of Public Opinion.

BORAH ENTERS THE FRAY

No more wholesome thing could have happened for the Republican party, we believe, than Senator Borah's aggressive entry into the presidential race.

A few days ago it looked as if, through default of the liberal element, the Grand Old Party was to remain in the grasp of the old guard. It looked as if some of the leading candidates now in the field would kill each other off in a repetition of the Wood-Lowden deadlock of 1920 and land the arty in another "smoke-filled hotel room" where the bosses would handpick a Tweedledum or a Tweedledee to head the ticket.

But the entry of the eloquent Idaho progressive changes the picture. If he takes earnestly to the hustings and Borah delegates are placed on the tickets in those states which have presidential primaries, the issues between liberalism and reaction in party policies should be effectively dramatized and rank and file Republican voters may be able to make their wishes heard and heeded at the Cleveland convention.

We hope Senator Borah goes into every state which holds a preferential primary, and we believe his chances of winning are good in all that he enters. Yet we know the cards are stacked against him.

Moreover, this year the old guard bosses will have plenty of money to spend. Big business interests which desire a subservient national administration know it is impossible to block the renomination of President Roosevelt by the Democrats. So they are expected to loosen their purse strings to the Republicans in return for promises of a reactionary platform, a reactionary candidate, and a return to the dog-eat-dog economics upon which they built the false prosperity of the twenties and left a sacked people to fend for themselves in the early thirties.

That political coup Senator Borah has undertaken to thwart, believing a campaign based on a return to the old order would bring a disastrous defeat to the Repub lican party, whose leadership he has long criticized but whose banner he has never deserted.

A majority of rank and file Republicans, we believe, join us in wishing Senator Borah Godspeed. He has his faults. But no other Republican is so well equipped to succeed in the mission he is undertaking. None other so competely enjoys the trust of the common man. None other has experience and talent. None other his long record of honesty and humanity.—Birmingham Post.

IMPORTING CATTLE

In the light of the recently completed reciprocity treaty between the United States and Canada, which promises to be a big campaign issue next year, it is of interest to note that cattle imports to the United States mounted sharply during October, the latest month for which figures are available. It is to be remembered that cattle are one of the farm products which are to be admitted under lower rates from Canada in the new treaty.

According to a report of the United States Department of Commerce, imports of cattle over the Canadian and Mexican borders during October totaled 32,246 head, the largest number since June. It is to be noted also that the cattle imported in October a year ago numbered only 1,287.

In the first ten months of this year the United States imported 312,257 head of cattle, mostly from the Dominion of Canada and Mexico. This contrasts with a total number of 58,740 for the first ten months of 1934.

A great many of the cattle brought in, it is said, are feeders who are taking the place of the supply depleted last year by the AAA program, which was aided by the drought. Last year we slaughtered the cattle because there wasn't enough pasture in the West. This year there is plenty of corn and plenty of pasture, but the number of feeders is decidedly shy.

Of course, when the new Canadian treaty goes into effect we needn't worry much about a cattle shortage any more. If the AAA decides we have too many cattle and they should be slaughtered, and then it turns out we haven't enough cattle of our own, it will be comparatively easy to import 'em from Canada under the new arrangements. Not only will we be importing livestock, but we shall be getting in dairy products, too. This will make it unnecessary for the farmers of the United States to produce as much butter and cheese as formerly. Then they can pay more attention to tap dancing, and social training and other phases of the more abundant life. There is nothing like a wise paternal government to figure these things out for us.

In Williamson County, Illinois, it is announced that only Democrats and New Dealers will be placed in charge of the $810,000 WPA road building program. Then why not get the money from Democratic and New Deal taxpayers?

In New York state over 1,900,000 passenger automobiles were registered for use during the first ten months this year. What we would like to know is, how many of 'em burned gasoline bought with federal relief money?

The question: "What is the most vital issue before the American public today?" was asked of millions of people. The three first in order named, were: (1) Employment; (2) Govermental expenditures; (3) Neutrality. There were numbers of other items brought to attention, but a vast majority wanted "more jobs, a cessation of government waste, and strict preservation of a neutral status in world affairs."

Possibly the best way to show more accurately how people feel about these three paramount issues might be to express three representative notes, sent in by voters in the poll. These read: "Give 90,000,000 people a chance to live, or stop reproducing them"; "Get Uncle Sam out of his Santa Claus constume"; "Stay on this side of the big ponds, and get ready to whip any nation which tries to bring war to us."

It might be interesting to some to check these three big issues against the political platforms of the two big parties in 1936. The Democratic platform places unemployment first, while the Republicans place it second on the list. Economy in government expenditures is placed third on the Democratic list, while Republicans put it in the No. 1 position. Democrats place neutrality second, while Republicans place it fifth, placing Constitutional preservation and reduced taxes, as well as economy and unemployment, above it.

It is quite interesting to note a few items in the two platforms, and the degree of importance in which they are rated. For instance—Democrats place "less control of business" 19th, while Republicans put it 8th. Democrats put "liquor control" 20th, and Republicans put in 10th. Democrats put the soldier's bonus 17th, while Republicans put it 20th. Democrats place Constitutional measures 16th, while Republicans think it 3rd in importance. This 1936 political scrap bids fair to be a hot one.—Man in the Moon.

A DECISION ON STATES' RIGHTS

It is one of the charactertistics of a latter-day reformer that he wants to take away many of the rights and privileges of state governments and turn them over to the federal government at Washington. It is this political tendency among the so-called "old fashioned" political students that the alleged "reformers" are really seeking to reform us into autocracy.

It is one of the characteristics of a latter-the doctrine of states rights seemed to be especially the property of the Democratic party. But that is no longer true. We now find as earnest and eager states rights men bearing the Republican label and, by contrast, there are unfortunately a great many alleged reformers still wearing the Democratic label who are for complete federal control, rather than the right of states.

Be that as it may, it is good to know that the Supreme Court still recognizes the important function of states rights in our American government. In a decision handed down a few days ago the Court held unanimously that home building and loan organizations, operating under a state charter, may not convert themselves into federal corporations on vote of 51 per cent of the stockholders, over protest of the state.

The case came up to the Supreme Court from Wisconsin, where three building and state loan corporations wanted to become federal corporations over the objection of the state. The Court held that this could not be done.

While the Home Owners Loan Corporation of Washington has come out with a statement that the decision will not seriously affect its policies because 37 states have already passed laws enabling state home and savings corporations to convert to federal corporations, and that of 1,005 Federal organizations only about three would be affected, the decision is important because it seems to be a blow to the New Deal theory of converting state functions into federal operations. The decision seems to bear the possibility of some wide applications, in spite of the fact that it is narrow in its effects. It is evident that the states still have some rights and that the Supreme Court recognizes the fact.

The decision was written by Justice Cardozo, who mentioned the necessity of preventing federal encroachments on the powers of the states.

It is now known to be illegal for the federal government to absorb a local institution set up for saving the people's money unless a majority of the stockholders and the state, under which a charter was granted, agree to such absorption. It is good indeed, to have this fact brought home to us. It indicates that there may be still other states' rights to be preserved.

In 1917 we fought the war to end wars and now we see Japan in China. Italy in Ethiopia and the rest of the boys all ready to go. In 1917 we fought to make the world safe for democracy and now we have Stalin and Mussolini and Hitler, to say nothing of a half dozen successful imitators.

It is said that the Department of Agriculture has developed some odorless cabbages. Wouldn't it be a good thing if we could also perfect an odorless congressional investigation.

That fellow you see riding in a sleigh on Christmas morning may not be Santa Claus after all. It may only be the Canadian milk and butter man saying "cheerio" to the American dairy farmers.

Of course, if John Bull gets into a war with Italy we will expect King George to issue a famous call to arms, something like this: "England expects every American to do his duty."

We got enough of that "hands across the seas, business in the World War. And the bill is still a bad debt. Let's mind our own affairs for a while.—Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch.

A Java man has sent a contribution to Iowa's old-age assistance fund. Apparently word of the country's plight is getting around, despite all we are doing to hush it up.—Portland Oregonian.

The old fashioned toper who used to drink liquor only twenty minutes out of the copper kettle without batting an eye now wonders whether or not year-old whiskey will be bad for him.

Some ingenious fellow has invented a new game which is said to be especially good entertainment to be given in connection wth church suppers. It s called: "Oyster, oyster, whose got the oyster "

If you want to know who is responsible for most of the losses you had in 1929, take a good look at yourself the next time you start lathering up for the morning shave.

A Greenwich, Conn., bridge instructor has married his one-time pupil. Evidently both of the "contracting parties" took their hand holding quite seriously.—Los Angeles Tiems.

The Greeks have asked their exiled king to come home and rule them—but he ought to insist on a long-term contract this time.—Portland Oregonian.

Rhubarb, acording to an oculist is good for eyes. They might try crossing it with grapefruit.—Punch.

25 YEARS AGO

News Items as Published in The Union and in The Banner, Issues of December 22, 1910

On Tuesday, December 20th, Obie Mahan was injured at a sawmil, and died at a Montgomery hospital. He was 22 years old, the son of Henry W. Mahan.

Mrs. Maude Veazey of Mulberry is in the Clanton Infirmary with typhoid fever. Mrs. W. W. Oden and Grandpa Rasberry are also exceedingly ill.

Dr. O. C. Mastin of Fort Payne has bought a 20-acre farm in Thorsby and expects to move on it at an early date.

Mr. E. M. Pinckard made a business trip to Montgomery Saturday night.

The wife of Mr. Emmett Blankenship died at Rockford Friday of last week.

Married this week--J. M. Williams and Miss Mamie Jones, Henry Klinner and Miss Neura Roper, Wm. Thomas Mitchell and Miss Virma Adams, W. W. Robinson and Miss Mamie Devon, Ervin Wilson and Miss Ada Hicks, T. J. Johnson and Miss Lillie Patterson, W. L. Culver and Miss Lera Carroll.

ADDITIONAL EXPOSURE NEEDED

POOR O

We greet you this Christmas Day in the same spirit as of other years. The community has been good to us—and we have tried to be good to this community. It is with this in mind that we extend to you best wishes of the season, and express our intention of trying hard to merit your continued friendship during the coming New Year.

J. R. Mullins & Sons

Clanton, Alabama

Warm and cheerful is the red of the Christmas poinsettia . . . . May the atmosphere in your home be just as cheerful . . . . ringing with Joy and Laughter.

For 1936 . . . . our one wish is that it will be a bounteous year for everybody in Chilton County.

Tiffin Furniture Co.

6th St., South of Courthouse Clanton, Ala.

Special State Tax

To the Employers and Employees of Alabama:

The State Tax Commission of Alabama has been designated by an executive order of the Governor, as the agency through which the unemployment contributions will be colected and the Unemployment Compensation Commission hereby notifies all employers of eight persons or more, except those specifically herein exempted, that effective on al payrolls accruing on or after January 1st, whether they be weekly, monthy or per diem, that said payrolls are subject to the following contributions:

One per cent to be deducted from each employees wages and one per cent of the entire amount of each employers payroll to match the deductions from the employees wages, to be paid by said employers.

These amounts must be set aside and held in trust by the employers until such time as the State Tax Commission of Alabama can secure from the United States Government the necessary forms to be used in the collection of these contributions. Immediately upon receipt of these forms same will be available to each employer to make a report and remittance of the contributions due under the Unemployment Compensation Act.

Persons and Employees exempt from this Act as follows:

1. Agricultural labor.
2. Domestic service in a private home.
3. Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States.
4. Services performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one in the employ of his father or mother.
5. Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States.
6. Service performed in the employ of a state, or political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of one or more states or political subdivisions.
7. Service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

Just as bright as the candle gleams . . . . . so we trust this Christmas will find the scene in your home—filled with the Yuletide sunshine of countless blessings.

And may that sunshine never be dimmed throughout the coming New Year. Good Luck to you all.

Peoples Savings Bank

Clanton, Alabama

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. © Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for December 29

REVIEW: SIGNIFICANCE OF THE EXILE AND THE RESTORATION

GOLDEN TEXT—The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children. Psalm 103:17.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How God Restored His People.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Restored His People.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Learning From Great Men.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Providence in History.

The method of review must be determined by the teacher. The grade of the class, the aptitude of the scholars, and the genius of the teacher are features to be considered. For senior and adult classes, the following suggestions are made.

I. Study the Lessons of the Quarter as Illustrating the Philosophy of History in God's Dealings With His People in Their Captivity and Restoration.

Assignment of topics should be made at least one week in advance. Only adult classes could be expected to use this method. The following subjects might be assigned:

Why God permitted Israel to go into exile.

What cure the exile effected for Israel.

What changed views of life resulted from the exile.

The bearing of the exile upon prophecy.

The relationship of divine chastening to divine love.

II. Character Study.

Assign the outstanding heroes of the quarter's lessons to members of the class to have them report. This assignment should be made at least one week in advance. Some of the outstanding characters for consideration are Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Nehemiah, Ezra, Zerubbabel, and Malachi.

III. Summary of Contents.

This is a method readily usable at all times, and it can be adapted to most of the grades. The following suggestions are made for the carrying out of this method:

Lesson 1. The prophecy of Isaiah is the grand center of the Old Testament. It pictures the Servant of Jehovah, with great wisdom, gloriously executing the divine purpose of redemption, at the cost of great suffering.

Lesson 2. Before he was born, Jeremiah was ordained by God as a prophet to the nations. He so really took to heart the doom which awaited his people that he wept sorely.

Lesson 3. Jeremiah stood in the gate of the temple in order that the multitudes might hear him. He told the people that God required them to amend their ways, solemnly warning them of impending judgments.

Lesson 4. While Belshazzar and his lords were engaged in drunken revelry, the mysterious hand recorded the divine judgment. There is a coming day of judgment.

Lesson 5. Because of Judah's apostasy, God permitted the Babylonians to destroy Jerusalem and take the Jews into captivity.

Lesson 6. Ezekiel sets forth personal responsibility. On his part, it was to hear God's word and to sound forth the warning. The people's responsibility was to hear and obey.

Lesson 7. Though Israel went into captivity as a chastisement, in due time the Lord restored them. In due time God will make good his covenant agreement with the Jews.

Lesson 8. God used these prophets to stir up the people to build God's house.

Lesson 9. Ezra was commissioned to lead the people to forsake their sins and return to God.

Lesson 10. On hearing of the distress of his brethren in Jerusalem, Nehemiah took the matter to the Lord in prayer. The Lord gave him favor with the king, permitting him to go back to build the walls of Jerusalem, bearing credentials of authority from the king.

Lesson 11. The method used in bringing the people back to God was the reading of the Word of God to them. Because the Word was made plain to the people, they repented of their sins.

Lesson 12. Malachi, as an aid to Nehemiah in effecting reforms, pointed out the sins of the people. He set forth a day of judgment when righteous retribution would be meted out to the wicked, and rewards given to the faithful.

We have now concluded our months of study in the Old Testament and will with the new year enter upon a study of the Gospel of Luke.

A Man

O rich and various man! thou palace of sight and sound, carrying in the senses the morning and the night; and the unfathomable galaxy; in thy brain, the geometry of the city of God; in thy heart, the power of love and the realms of right and wrong!—Emerson.

Work

Thank God! Work is sorrow's cure, its hands like the hands of an enemy, but its voice the voice of an Eternal Friend.

Miss Irene Jones, who teaches in Bessemer arrived Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Amsy Jones.

THORSBY SECTION

(Mrs. S. E. Norton, Manager)

There will be services at the Congregational church next Sunday. Sunday school at 9:45 and worship service at 11:00 o'clock. Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30.

Scouts Attention

A court of honor for awarding badges to worthy boys, and to consider the question of awarding a life saving medal to Scout Jack Higgins. The meeting place wil be the Congregational church. The time, Monday evening, December 23, at 7 o'clock.

A young people's revival wil start Sunday night at the Baptist church. It will continue through the week, services being held each evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Paul Oden wil do the preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Akins Collins and children left Saturday morning for Sopchoppy, Florida, to visit with Mrs. Collins' parents until Thursday.

Mrs. W. A. Anthony and daughter, Hazel, of Greenville, are spending the Christmas holdays with Mrs. J. C. Trotter, sister of Mrs. Anthony.

Mrs. Tutt McCane of Birmingham spent last Saturday with Mrs. J. C. Trotter.

To yourselves and to those dear and near to you, may Christmas of this year mark the beginning of an era of peace, prosperity and contentment for all. That's our wish. And may the New Year bring you still more of it.

Wyatt Drug Co.

Thorsby, Ala.

CHRISTMAS Day itself is synonymous with cheer and happiness. The spirit of this occasion should be carried throughout the year — and we hope for its continuation. The season's greetings and a Happy New Year and all through 1936, the order of the day.

J. Mat Johnson

Drayman

Clanton, Ala.

To ALL our customers and friends — those who have shared with us and those who will share with us in the future — please accept our heartiest greetings, sincere and real. May Christmas be your best and the New Year your most prosperous.

Wingard Bros.

D. A. Wingard W. W. Wingard

Clanton :-: Ala.

Miss Ruth Foss of Augusta College, Illinois, wil spend the Christmas holidays at her home in Thorsby. She expects to return January 5th.

Miss Edith Foss, wso is taking a business course in Selma, will also spend the Christmas holidays at home.

Miss Martha Williams of Southern Union College at Wadley is at home for the Christmas holidays.

The bride and groom of Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tapscott, returned Friday evening from Birmingham.

Mrs. J. E. Each spent the week end in Birmingham with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Each.

Mrs. Anna Phalin had as her guests Tuesday night Mr. Harold Phalin and Mr. J. Craig of McHenry, Illinois.

The Misses Agnes and Mary Ella Gerald will spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Gerald and son, Jimmie spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Sutlive.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Merchant and children will leave Wednesday night for Centreville where they will spend Thursday with Mr. Merchant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Merchant.

Miss Jennye Robinson spent the week end in Birmingham.

Mrs. J. H. Goddard left on Tuesday morning for Berry, Alabama, to spend the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Odom.

Miss Lois Primm of Lay Dam returned home Friday evening for the holiday vacation.

Miss Mattingly and Miss Glasson have returned to their homes for the holidays.

Miss Lois Leech has a sister coming from Minneapolis, Minn., to visit her during the holidays.

Miss Helen Jenkins, Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Lois Leech and sister, Miss Leech, will go to Birmingham Saturday afternoon, remaining there over Sunday to hear some Christmas music. They will then leave on an auto tour through Mississippi and Louisiana and reach New Orleans if the weather proves satisfactory.

The enlargement of the campus cottage under the auspices of the ladies guild, is now completed and a great improvement. Mrs. Jenkins and Miss Jenkins are very much enjoying the extra space afforded.

A band of singers who will sing carols will be abroad on Christmas eve.

Miss Klingelhoefer, Miss Ruth Ford and Miss Lillian McKee will take an auto tour during the holiday vacation. They wil probably visit New Orleans.

In checking up on the annual report of our year's work of the W. M. U., we find that the Lord has graciously blessed our society under the leadership of our president, Mrs. Donald Merchant.

It has quietly but steadily grown in number, finance, Bible study, missions and spirit of love and harmony. During the year of her association with us as leader she has forged a chain of faithful service, whose links were heated by the fires of love for her Master and welded on the anvil of loyal discipleship. And it has been the joy of all her co-workers to connect this chain in the bonds of true love and worship. We have met all points on the standard of excelence.

Local Work of W. M. U., 1935

Church building and repairs, etc., $18.25; special gifts, $13.99; flowers for funerals, $8.50; religious magazines, $6.00; missions, Christian education, benevolences, Co-operative program—W. M. S., $84.00; G. A., $2.90 and Y. W. A., $2.35, a total of $88.35; Hundred Thousand club, $1.00; state missions, $8.61; home missions, $5.25; Foreign Missions (Dec.), $5.23; Christian and ministerial education, $3.00; a grand total of $168.28.

Number of active members, January, 1, 1935, 28; number of home department members, January 1, 1935, 10; Lost in death, 1; new members, 3; in death, 1; new members, 3; total total membership, 40.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, Mrs. Donald Merchant; first vice president, Mrs. Richard Hicks; second vice president, Mrs. Tom Robinson, third vice president, Mrs. E. R. Piper; secretary Mrs. A. I. Collins; treasurer, Mrs. Leila Martin; mission study chairman, Miss Elizabeth Law; Bible study teacher, Miss Mae Woods; White Cross, Mrs. M. E. Wilis; pianists Mrs. E. N. Bentley; chairman, circle No. 1, Mrs. Leonard Lowery; chairman circle No. 2, Mrs. G. F. Harper.

TAPSCOTT-EACH MARRIAGE

At 8 o'clock last Wednesday evening, December 18th, there was a very pretty wedding of great interest to the people of Thorsby. This was the marriage of Juanita Each and Grady Tapscott. Juanita is the second daughter of Mrs. J. E. Each and the late Rev. Joseph E. Each, who was pastor of the Congregational church for many years. Rev. E. W. Butler officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted ferns and holly and lit by candles. Miss Lucile Each was matron of honor and Milton Higgins was best man. The Misses Ruth Primm and Ruth Higgins were bridesmaids and Richard Petersen and Wendell Hayes, groomsmen. Mrs. Rascoe Maddox and Mrs. V. H. Stulive sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Kathleen Foss sang. Mrs. C. R. Foss played the marches. It was a beautiful and quite impressive ceremony.

After the wedding a reception was given the happy couple by Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Franklin at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tapscott left to spend a few days in Birmingham. They will make their home in Thorsby.

666

Liquid - Tablets Salve - Nose Drops

Checks COLDS and FEVER First Day HEADACHES in 30 Minutes

MAPLE SPRINGS

A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to you all.

Health of this community is good at the present.

Mrs. O. L. Devaughn and baby, Billie Dan, spent a few days ast week with her daughter, Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Newt Driver and Jeff Price spent a while Friday with Mr. Ottis Glenn.

Mr. Curtis Jones visited his friends at the CCC camp near Clanton last Thursday night.

Miss Jettie May Dennis spent a while last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Buck Roberts.

Mr. Audie Brown from Cooper spent last Tuesday night with Mr. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Joe Baker, J. C. Mims, Curtis Jones, Ottis Glenn motored to Gulledge's Camp Friday night.

Mrs. Zora Dobbs was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe Dennis last Wednesday.

Miss Inez Price visited her brother, Mr. J. J. Price, last week.

Mr. W. A. Calloway from Cooper was in this community last week.

Miss Elsie Glenn spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mims and son, James Ralph, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn last Sunday.

Mrs. W. F. Glenn and daughter, Lera, spent a while last Monday with Mrs. J. R. Mitchell.

Miss Esther Lee Downs spent last Wednesday night with Miss Pearlie Driver.

Mr. Jerrell Miller was in this community ast Monday.

Mr. R. W. Lowe from South Clanton was in this community Wednesday morning.

Mr. Ottis Glenn and father were visiting in Coopers last Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. Curtis Jones and Arlond Glenn spent a while last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Glenn.

Mr. Newt Driver was here visiting his sister, Mrs. Jeff Price, last week.

Messrs. Arthur and Evan Mitchell spent a while Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Price.

Rev. and Mrs. Stanley will entertain for dinner on Christmas day Mrs. S. E. Norton and the Misses Klingelhoefer, Fairbank and Ruth Ford.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

University, Ala., Dec. 23.—Several students at the University of Alabama from Clanton are outstanding in student activities on the campus. Joe Watts Moore is a member of the Glee Club of Blackfriars, an outstanding dramatic organization of freshman Y. M. C. A. cabinet, Senior Y. M. C. A., and secretary and treasurer of the freshman class. He is also a member of Phi Chi Medical Fraternity.

Grady Reynolds, Jr., is a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and a member of Druids, whose purpose is to encourage the upper classman who have made good in their freshman year. He is also a member of the Corolla and Crimson-White staff. The Corolla is the Yearbook published by University students and the Crimson-White is the school paper published every week by the students.

Ruth Shepherd is a member of Chi Delta Phi, women's literary organization, Pi Phi Chi and Omega, which is an intersorority organization. She is also a member of the Women's Athletic association on the honor roll and on the Corolla staff, publishers of the University annual.

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination, backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

DOAN'S PILLS

Correct Glasses

WILL PROTECT YOUR EYES

Glasses are more than just something to help you see better.—They are a part of you—and must be made to fit your Eyes, your work and your personality.

I will be in Clanton

At the Exchange Hotel

MONDAY, DEC. 30TH

And the Second and Last Monday In Each Month

I am in my Montgomery office all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours, 10 to 1 P.M.

DR. S. A. BARSON

OPTOMETRIST

ORIGINAL TORN PAGE

WANTED
Peas-Peas-Peas

Can use 100 Bushels Stock Peas. Will pay 90c bushel for Mixed Peas, or $1.00 bushel for Straight Clay, Whippoorwill, Brabhams, or Unknowns.

Chilton County Exchange, Inc.

Clanton, Ala.
Evan Parrish, Mgr. - Clanton.

CLASSIFIED ADVS.

WANTED—To buy cheap farm, would trade car on it, or would trade car for pair mules; also milk cow, fine Poland China sow and boar, some shoats and pigs for sale or trade for corn or beans.—W. B. Cox, Clanton, Ala., Rte. 2. 1tpd.

FARMS FOR SALE—Reasonably priced, terms 20 per cent cash, balance payable on convenient terms with 5 per cent interest. Write D. W. Waite, Field Representative Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, Clanton, Ala. Phone 218-J. 1-136

MILCH COWS FOR SALE—Two good milch cows with young calves for sale. Walter Fiquett, Clanton, Ala. 12-513t-pd.

WANTED 6 GIRLS—To learn Beauty at once. easy terms, positions waiting.—Academy of Gardner's Beauty Shoppe, Inc., Birmingham, Ala. 5-4tp

WANTED TO BUY — Velvet Beans, will pay $12.00 per ton.—Lee A. Popwell, Clanton Route 1. 1tp.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—1928 Whippet 2-Door car in running shape. New battery, fairly good tires and 1936 tag for $25.00, or trade for milch cow.—W. J. Rhodes, Clanton, Ala., Route 1. 1tp.

STATE BOARD ASKS $25,000 FOR ORPHANS

Among the many imortant matters taken up at the Montgomery meeting of the Executive Board of the Alabama Baptist State Convention in Montgomery this week was a Resolution passed urging the pastors and superintendents of Alabama to raise the sum of $25,000.00 as a Christmas contribution to the Orphan's Home. It is supported exclusively by free will contributions and officials are expecting their hopes of $25,000 to be realized this Christmas.

PERCY M. PITTS
Attorney-at-Law
Johnson Building
CLANTON, ALABAMA

We express our appreciation for the business we have had in Chilton County, and extend the greetings of the season. May you all have a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

INVESTORS SYNDICATE
FOUNDED 1894 LIVING PROTECTION

Frank Palmer
Local Representative
Clanton, Ala.

Misses Helen and Jane Roberts, Students at Huntingdon College, are spending the Christmas holidays with their mother, Mrs. Barney Roberts.

OUR Christmas greetings and Best Wishes for 1936 . . May the holidays bring you every joy you could ask for and the New Year every hoped-for happiness.

Modern Beauty Shop
Clanton, Alabama

WINNERS IN WINDOW CONTEST TO BE ANNOUNCED NEXT WEEK

On account of being severely pressed for time, we have been unable to get to the letters sent in about the window display contest contained in last week's Union-Banner. We will get the judges together and declare the winners between now and time for next week's paper.

In the meantime, however, the Union-Banner wishes to thank the merchants of Clanton who participated in the affair. There has been the most beautiful display in the windows of the stores in Clanton that has ever been exhibited in the city. And during the three days of the contest, there was considerable window shopping, up one street and down the other and all around the city. And the shoppers certainly got an eyeful at every stop. And, too, we are grateful to those who took the time from the busy Christmas season to write about what they saw and found in the windows. Watch for the announcement of the winners in next week's paper.

We GREET you this Christmas Day in the same spirit as of other years. We have enjoyed your friendship and sincerely hope you can say the same for us. It is with these in view that we extend Greetings for Christmas and Wishes for a Happy 1936.

DIXIE CAFE
Clanton, Ala.

FIRE WORKS galore at Calloway Drug Co. We have almost anything you want in this line. Look them over when in Clanton

SHOWALTER SINGING SCHOOL AT MONTGOMERY IN JANUARY

Announcement is made of a normal music school at Montgomery, beginning January 6th and closing February 15. The faculty in the school will consist of W. Lee Higgins, W. M. Devaughn and Eugene H. Whitt.

Anyone interested in this school should get in touch with one of these gentlemen as early as possible.

The faculty must be among the best. Higgins and Whitt are names familiar to the sacred music world; and W. M. Devaughn is a teacher of broad experience and splendid reputation. These three will more than likely make things move when they get strung out in this Montgomery school.

CLANTON LODGE NO. 423
A. F. & A. M.
Regular Meeting
1st Saturday and 3rd Tuesday
of Each Month
7:30 P.M.

GOWAN & GOWAN
Dentists
General Practice
J. E. Gowan J. S. Gowan
Clanton (7-1-35) Alabama

A. B. FOSHEE
Attorney-at-Law
Upchurch Bldg.
CLANTON, ALABAMA

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON
Lawyer
Office in Walker Building
Clanton, Ala.

ABOUT "UNCLE JOHN" HAYS OF JEMISON

One of the "grand old men" of Chilton County is J. W. Hayes, of Jemison. However, "Uncle John" might not like that "grand old man" business, for he contends that he is not old, but is 75 years "young".

Mr. Hays is 75 years old, and has been married 57 years. His wife was Miss Celia Collins, a daughter of J. W. Collins, who lived at Lomax.

This couple have 14 children—eight boys and six girls; 12 of these children are living, the two who are dead being Mrs. Cora Mims, wife of Parnell Mims, and Mrs. Melvina Benson, wife of Monroe Benson.

There are 59 grandchildren, and 19 great grandchildren.

Last spring, on Mr. Hays' 75th birthday, a general celebration was held, with most of all these children, grandchildren and great grandchildren present. Pictures were made of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, of all members of their immediate family present, and another of all members of the whole family present. Mr. Hays prizes these pictures very highly.

GRADY REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

OMAR L. REYNOLDS
Attorney-at-Law
Office Opposite Court House
CLANTON, ALA.

OBITUARIES — IN MEMORY

It becomes necessary for us again to call attention to the fact that we make a charge of one cent per word for all obituaries over 150 words published in The Union-Banner. So, if you want an obituary, or in memory article, published about a departed friend or relative, it must be confined to not over 150 words, or else money order for the remainder should be included if sent by mail, as outlined above.

If obituaries are sent in containing over 150 words and no money accompanies same, it will be either omitted entirely or, if possible, condensed to come within the requirement, and published.

THE UNION-BANNER.

H. T. DONOVAN, M.D.
CLANTON, ALA.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Office, Dr. Arthur Johnson's
Office Building
Phone—Day or Night—195
Office Hours:
9 to 11 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sunday by Appointment

Miss Alice Brooks is spending the holidays with her parents in Andalusia, Alabama.

THE CORN IS GONE
A drop or two of Corn-Fix stops the pain almost instantly—10 minutes later the corn is GONE—roots and all.
Recommended by your druggist for the safe removal of hard and soft corns, callouses, bunions. Money back if it fails.
CORN FIX FIXES CORNS

WADESONIAN

Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 25-26
Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in
"TOP HAT"
Selected Short Subjects

Friday and Saturday Midnite, Dec. 27-28
Margaret Lindsey, Warren Hull, Ruth Donnelly
"PERSONAL MAID'S SECRET"
Serial — "GREAT AIR MYSTERY"
First Show at 7:00 — Second Show at 8:30

Saturday Night, Dec. 28
Ken Maynard in
"HEIR TO TROUBLE"
Serial — "GREAT AIR MYSTERY"
COMEDY
Matinee 1:30; 1st Show Sat. Night 6:45; 2nd Show 8:30

Monday, Dec. 30
Preston Foster, Dorothy Wilson in
"THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII"
COMEDY

Tuesday, Dec. 31
Warren William, Patricia Ellis, in
"THE CASE OF THE LUCKY LEGS"

Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 1-2
Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey in
"RAIN MAKERS"
COMEDY

I have been using Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills for thirty years. No matter what kind of pain I have, they stop it almost instantly. Never without them in the house.
Mrs. Chas. W. Webb, Indio, Calif.

You're The Loser

WHEN you allow Headache, Neuralgia, Muscular, Rheumatic, Sciatic or Periodic Pains to keep you from work or pleasure.

You can't go places and do things when you are suffering—and the work or good times won't wait for you.

Why allow Pain to rob you of Health, Friends, Happiness, Money?

DR. MILES ANTI-PAIN PILLS have been used for the relief of pain for more than forty years. They taste good, act quickly, do not upset the stomach, nor cause constipation, leave no dull, depressed feeling.

Thousands have used them for twenty, thirty, forty years, and still find that nothing else relieves pain so promptly and effectively.

Why don't you try them? Once you know how pleasant they are to take, how quickly and effectively they relieve, you won't want to go back to disagreeable, slow acting medicines.

You too may find quick relief. Why wait forty minutes for relief when Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills will relieve you in ten to twenty minutes?

As a household remedy I have never found anything that equalled Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. Mrs. Silas D. Keller, Penfield, Pa.

I never found anything that was so good to stop pain as Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. I have told many about them and I find they are all using them. Mrs. Martha Lacy, Davenport, Iowa

I have been using Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills for years. I keep them on hand all the time. I can certainly recommend them for pain. Miss Audra Seybold, 2417 W. 2nd St., Dayton, Ohio

Your Anti-Pain Pills have been a wonderful help to me. I have used them for three years and always keep them on hand. Mrs. E. Pierce, Lapwai, Idaho

I have used quite a lot of Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. They are fine pills to stop pain. Mrs. J. L. Kester, Shickshinny, Pa.

DR. MILES' ANTI-PAIN PILLS
25 DOSES 25 CENTS
NEVER SOLD IN BULK

CHRISTMAS comes but once a year! And we take this means of expressing Greetings of the Season to our friends and customers. You have been good to us and we appreciate it to the fullest. Therefore please accept our thanks along with our wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

WADE'S
GROCERY & MARKET
Next to Hill's — Clanton, Ala.

WANTED
TO BUY EAR CORN
800 Bushels White or Yellow --- Not Mixed

Better Feeds At Less Cost

Central Ala. Milling Co.
Willie Crowson
Lay Dam Road :—: Phone 53-J :—: East Clanton

C. Reese Mullins
AGENT - - - - - - - CLANTON, ALA.
Wishes for all his many friends and customers a Happy Christmas, and Many Prosperous New Years to Come.

POLK'S BARGAIN LIST

1935—Ford V-8 2-Door Sedan. Just like new. 1936 Tag. Very Special at $485
1930—Chrysler Six 4-Door Sedan in good mechanical condition with Good Tires. New Paint job $225
1929—Chevrolet 4-Door Sedan. Reconditioned. 1936 tag. A dandy $135
1928—Ford 2-Door Sedan. Reconditioned. New Tires. For only $110
1929—Model A Ford Coupe. In Good Running Condition. A bargain $55
1928—Chevrolet Coupe As Is $22.50
1929—Chevrolet Truck Cab and body $75
1929—Model A Roadster 1936 tag. Good condition $75
1—Used 2-Horse Wagon Only $10
1—Used Chattanooga Walking Plow No. 63 $7.50
1—Used Chattanooga Walking Plow, No. 70 $5.50
2—RCA Electric Radios in First Class Condition Each $17.50

Have you seen and heard the New 1936 ATWATER-KENT Radios? If not, call in today and let us demonstrate both Electric and "AIR CELL". They are the peak of perfection.

Polk Bros. Motor Co.
(INCORPORATED)
CHRYSLER — PLYMOUTH
INTERNATIONAL
CLANTON :—: ALABAMA

C. O. LAWRENCE, M. D.
Upchurch Bldg.
Phones: Office 186; Residence 115-W; Office Hours
9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.
Sundays by appointment only
Special attention to diseases of Eye, Ear Nose and Throat

NAPOLEON S. JOHNSON
M. D.
Obstetrics and Diseases of Children
Office Hours—9 to 12
CLANTON, ALA.

THE CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.
Clanton, Ala.
Office Over
MAZAR'S STORE

L. H. REYNOLDS
Real Estate Co.
List with me any Real Estate you desire to sell or purchase. Will rent your property on commission basis. The Clerk in my office will Insure your property.
OFFICE IN MARION GORE BUILDING
Opposite Courthouse
TELEPHONE No. 41
Clanton, Ala.
7-1-36-pd

POOR ORIGINAL

COALITION FOR THE PRESERVATION OF ALABAMA NEWSPAPERS

Edwin C. Bridges
Project Director
Dept. of Archives & History
624 Washington Avenue
Montgomery, AL 36130
(205) 261-4361

Paul E. Martin
Project Coordinator
University Archives
Auburn University, AL
36830
(205) 826-4488

CLANTON ALABAMA

CHILTON COUNTY

THE UNION - BANNER

JANUARY 3, 1935- DECEMBER 26, 1935

FILMED BY THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT

OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Alabama Department of Archives and History · Alabama Public Library Service · Alabama Press Association · Alabama Library Association · Council of Librarians of the Alabama Commission on Higher Education · Association of County Commissions · Society of Alabama Archivists

Association for Information and Image Management
MS303-1980
Centimeter
Inches mm
ADAH
ARCHIVES DIVISION
ARCHIVES & HISTORY

END